County liquor vote Nov. 2

The complete text of ten constitutional amendments to be voted on at the special election November 2, 1971, is printed in the News this week. When voters go to the polls these amendments will be identified in short detail so it will pay to read ahead of time.

Also on this same ballot, or on the voting machine will be this question: "Shall Sunday Sales of alcoholic liquor be made in this local option district?" In Lincoln County this means that whichever way the county votes will be the way the entire county will drink -- either wet or dry on Sunday.

In counties where there are towns with over 5000 population a separate vote may be held. Lincoln County does not qualify there.

Amendment No. 1 is to lower the voting age to 18 years. No. 2 provides limitations on compensation of members of the legislature. No. 3 would amend the constitution of New Mexico to establish the right to keep and bear arms.

Constitutional Amendment No. 4 repeals section requiring a uniform system of textbooks. No. 5 would permit the legislature to establish scholarships for veterans. No. 6 relates to property tax limits and methods. No. 7 would exempt certain properties from taxation.

No. 8 would amend Article 19 of the constitution. No. 9 would allow the legislature to provide for control of pollution. No. 10 would allow the legislature to relinquish all property tax to school district and other local government subdivisions.

This is a good week to read the full text of the ten amendments in this issue of the Lincoln County News.

Willie Gallegos leaves Coyotes on the ground as he heads for score in the Carrizozo-Roswell game. Three photos in this issue by Kuko Chavez, two of game and one of queen.

Roswell Coyotes open like winners, Grizzlies leave them bones to pick

The Roswell Junior Varsity squad looked rather big as they warmed up on Laabs Field Friday for game with Carrizozo Grizzlies. On the second play Roswell scored as Elroy Lacey broke past the Grizzly defense for a 35-yard touchdown, plus a kick for PAT and the score was 7-0.

Looked for a few moments like the Grizzlies might have to play one of their better games to pull this one out of the fire and that is exactly what they started doing. Zozo came storming right back with the aid of a Gaby Chavez to Willie Gallegos aerial that went 50 yards to the Coyote 2-yard line. From there Willie took it over for 6, pass for 2 extra fell incomplete. Score 6-7.

On the next series of plays Chavez found David Roper all alone in the Coyote secondary and connected for a 52-yard touchdown pass. Then Roper, kicked making the score 13-7.

In the second quarter the Grizzly defense began to shine and the offense continued to roll. Willie Gallegos, Jim Speight and Matt Ellison ground out tough yardage behind a forward wall consisting of David Roper, Rusty Leslie, Jay Barnes, Ben Bradley, Gerald Wells, David Lee, and Shawn Lock.

The next drive was climaxed as Gallegos dove over from the one for his second TD of the night. Roper's kick was wide, score 19-7.

The Coyotes made some yardage but could never put together a scoring drive after their first score in the opening half of the game. Willie Gallegos kept driving and went in the end zone for the third time in the closing minutes of the 2nd quarter when he broke loose on a 45-yard scamper. Roper kicked, good, score 26-7.

Second half action was furious. Grizzlies holding the ball most of the time but failing to score. The Coyotes' Gilbert Rivera did get to the goal line only to have the play called back by a motion penalty.

In the 4th quarter Roswell QB Steve Whalen plunged over from 6 inches out, aided by an outside penalty. The drive would have been halted by a brilliant goal line stand by the Carrizozo defense but the penalty placed the ball on the 6-inch line. Coyote pass for 2 went incomplete, score 26-13.

The defense was made up of Bradley, Roper, Chavez, Monrreal, Speight, Wells, Leslie, Gallegos, Ellison and Toro Ortiz, a standout for the second consecutive week.

$750,000 damage suit filed here

A complaint was filed in the 12th Judicial District Court in Carrizozo by James E. Smith, individually and a next friend of Kathy Smith, plaintiffs vs. Peggy Whatley.

The complaint says that the sum of $750,000 would compensate the plaintiffs for damages occurred on February 17, 1971 when Kathy Smith was involved in accident as result of alleged negligence of the defendant, Peggy Whatley. The complaint further states that the defendant failed to keep proper lookout, was driving while intoxicated and driving in wild and reckless manner.

The accident caused Kathy Smith irreparable disfigurement in loss of lower right limb. Damages to James Smith were doctor, hospital and medical bills and loss of his wife's ability to perform normal domestic chores.

The plaintiffs are residents of San Antonio, Texas. The defendant has residence in Ruidoso and Las Cruces. Childs and Payne are attorneys for the plaintiffs.

Interesting games on tap for Friday

Two Lincoln County teams, the Corona Cardinals and Capitan Tigers, square off for a match that looks fairly even from previous scores. The game will be played at Corona -- spot them 6 points. Capitan beat Vaughn 14-8, Vaughn beat Corona 14-0 -- give those six points back to the Tigers. Melrose beat Dexter 34-8 and last weekend beat Capitan 38-6 which really does not make the Tigers look bad. This game ought to be a dandy.

We are getting sort of proud of the Tularosa Wildcats around these parts, especially after they whipped the number 1 team, Deming, 21-8 last week. The Warriors from Ruidoso invade Wildcat country Friday with a 5-1 record and that game ought to be a diller. These two teams could well be playing for the 3A district championship.

Carrizozo's undefeated Grizzlies head east Friday and in past years that trip has spelled t-r-o-u-b-l-e, a letter at a time. Dexter has been up and down like a teeter-totter this season but on their home field they ought to be at least 12 points tougher than usual. The Demons played Professional bowlers from Colorado, Texas and New Mexico were thanking tournament manager Joe Light and telling him how much they enjoyed his tournament as they departed last Sunday, some for other tournaments.

It was a real well run affair, so closely contested that the winner of the first Carrizozo Regional P B A Open Bowling Tournament was not known until well along into the finals.

Friday was one of the real big days in the life of Juanita Vallejos of Carrizozo. She turned back a lot of high-scoring local bowlers, got some good help from pro partners and went all the way to win both first and second in the Pro-Am event which started the weekend of bowling at Carrizozo Recreation center.

Juanita bowled with Maury Newman of Houston, Texas; J. B. Blaylock of Alamogordo; and Cecil Caddel of Dallas, Texas on her way to the big money. She was paid $140 for first and $90 for second.

Tommy Lee of Ruidoso won 3rd with $80, Judy Kannady of Ruidoso 4th, Fred Vega of Carrizozo 5th and Jack Kannady sr. of Ruidoso 6th in the Pro-Am.

Joe Light said they would probably have this same tournament in March of next year, a month when there are not quite so many other sporting events going on at the same time.

Maury Newman of Houston, winner of the Regional PBA Open was in 4th place after 8 games, in 5th place after 12 games but then in the match games Sunday he won 8 straight, collecting a 30-pin bonus for each win and zoomed out in front with total of 4488 and collected the $750 first money.

J. B. Blaylock of Alamogordo, pulled the unusual just a little. He was in 2nd place after 8, same after 12, and his 6 wins and 2 losses in match play held his second place with total of 4404 and won him $375.00.

Chuy Castaneda of El Paso was in 3rd place with 1665 after 8 games, he dropped to 8th after 12 and went to 5th Sunday to win $150.

Pat Brennan started in 6th place after 8 games, went to 3rd, and held that through Sunday to win $175. He is from El Paso.

Cecil Caddel topped the list two days, 1st at 8 games, 1st after 12, but then he lost a couple in the Sunday match play and dropped to 4th to win $180. Cecil is from Dallas.

Maury Newman, with two other Houston bowlers and sponsor drove their rented car back to Albuquerque and boarded a plane for Paramus, New Jersey to participate in the National Championship bowling, finals to be televised this weekend.

Complete scoring results follow.

Marketing class to Alamogordo

The Marketing Home Economics Skills class went to Alamogordo Thursday, September 20, for an interview and lecture by Mr. Norman Poland, Counselor for the New Mexico Employment Security Commission. Mr. Poland told the girls how to use the services of the Commission. He suggested that job-seekers go early in the day because there is a long line as a general rule and it might take several hours to be waited on and get an application filled in.

Mr. Poland gave a list of six questions for job-seekers to ask and answer themselves before they go for an interview. These questions should help prepare for a rewarding interview. He also gave a good many suggestions on how to conduct oneself during an interview, including grooming, posture, and attitudes.

One thing that he emphasized very much was the importance of having information immediately available, either written or remembered. Information which is particularly important is that concerning any previous experience, no matter how slight, including type of work, how long held, dates of work, experience, names, addresses and telephone numbers of references such as supervisors when working teachers, ministers, and any others who could make an estimate of one's abilities in relation to work.

MANY CONSERVATION

PRACTICES AT I BAR X

Kelley Stephenson, formerly of Ft. Worth, Texas, began his ranching career in Lincoln County, New Mexico in 1945 as manager of the I-X Ranch. He held this position as manager for sixteen years until he acquired the ranch in 1961.

Mr. Stephenson became a cooperater with the Carrizozo SWCD on July 10, 1961. A conservation plan was made in 1964. Since that time many practices have been carried out on the ranch, mostly through the REAP Program.

Approximately 52,000 feet of pipe had been laid. Mr. Stephenson feels by distributing his waterings in this manner, he is able to utilize his range more adequately. And because of the terrain of the ranch, this has allowed the cattle to be better distributed.

There has been one well drilled and twenty new drinking troughs installed. Also, three springs have been improved and new troughs added.

Since becoming a cooperater of the Carrizozo SWCD, Mr.

Stephenson has improved his ranch further by building about twenty-five erosion control dams, several of which act as seasonal waterings.

Mr. Stephenson feels that brush control work has been very effective, especially the control of cholla cactus. Approximately 4000 acres have been grubbed and stacked. This has improved the carrying capacity and also made the land more accessible. Most of the cactus work has been done with help available on the ranch during the slack time of the year. Also 500 acres of mesquite has been eradicated which he feels has improved his range.

In the twenty-six years Mr. Stephenson has been a part of the I-X Ranch, he has increased the number of permanent waterings from about 20 to 40. He has increased his carrying capacity and also has been able to utilize his ranch more during a dry year.

Proper grazing has always been practiced on the I-X Ranch. Mr. Stephenson has always believed it is better to sell off a few cattle when the grass becomes too short and thus not destroy the turf.

One of the most noticeable facts on the I-X Ranch is pride taken in ownership and improvements. When a gate is installed, it doesn't sag. Roads are graded and drained to prevent erosion. Several days each year are spent picking up debris left by hunters and picnickers. The headquarters are as attractive as any in the state. Kelley is a bona-fide environmentalist.

Three-crowded days at Aspencade

The Aspencade drew a larger crowd than ever. What a wonderful parade and happy people. All three days were crowded. Lots of traffic. The colors were beautiful which made it superb as usual. There were lots of clouds and a little moisture there. Though we had none. Nights were cold, several windy days but some were warm but the nights were cold. Still not the killing frost. Leaves are falling fast.

Kenny Jones son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones broke his lower left leg while practicing football last Friday. He spent one night in the Ruidoso Hospital. His brother Eddie had injured his left knee while playing football before that. He and his mother were in Roswell at the time Kenny and his father went to Ruidoso. The cast was being changed. Both of the boys now are in a cast. I wish you both a very good and quick recovery.

BORTOLOTTI WAS TOUGH IN LAST NAMES CONTEST

The Names in the News contest last week went from eight winners to none, probably because no contestant had the good fortune to read down toward the end of the Lincoln County News where Rev. Sererion

S. Bortolotti was in charge of funeral services.

The winning names were Bortolotti 10, Cady 4, and Otero 3. Getting the first name right was almost a necessity which would have left only nine letters and a number of people came up with Otero but not the four-letter middle name.

This will be the last Names in the News contest until maybe some time next year. Many thanks to all you contestants -- hope you've enjoyed your cash and will continue to enjoy the many new subscriptions given away by the Lincoln County News.

Services in Roswell for Seth Wyche

Services were held in Roswell Saturday afternoon for Seth B. "Lubbock" Wyche, who passed away early Thursday following an illness.

He was born March 6, 1890, in Waco, Texas, and moved to Roswell in 1913 where he was wagon boss for the Diamond A Ranches. He was married April 16, 1916 to Jessie Blackwell and ten years later moved to Elletown where they ranched for twenty-one years. Since then they have ranched at Las Vegas and Estancia and for the last eleven years at Corona.

Survivors include his wife, three sons, J. B. and Seth H., Albuquerque and David, Roswell; three daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Bratcher and Mrs. Ruth Williams, Artesia, and Mrs. Sue Garfield, Corona; two brothers, Bill, Van Horn, Texas, and Jewel, Albuquerque; four sisters, Mrs. Louise Crutchfield, Lovington, Mrs. Margaret Jarell, Wilcox, Arizona, Mrs. Bessie Dahl, Albuquerque, and Mrs. Eleanor Ainsworth, now residing in Oregon, sixteen grandchildren and five great-grandchildren, to whom we extend our sincere sympathy.

Officiating was the Rev. David E. Moore with interment in South Park Cemetery, Roswell. Casket bearers were J. B. Wyche, Seth H. Wyche, David Wyche, Fred Wyche, Wray Wyche, and Lawrence Wyche.

With a quiet sense of humor and with a love for children, for good horses, and for the wide open spaces of the ranch country he was the typical loyal and respected cowman. He is missed.

Mrs. Lary Petska (the former Jo Ann Dishman) and son, Michael, Hershey, Nebraska, are visiting relatives here. Mr. Petska is with the U. S. Navy stationed at Rota, Spain.

Mrs. W. T. Keelin and Mrs. Charles Vickrey spent three days last week in Alamogordo where they were visiting and shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Mulkey are visiting with his father in Wichita, Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sharp made a weekend trip to Grants to see the Larry Sharps. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Treat and Noel, who have been at the Treat Ranch for several weeks, have moved to Clovis where Joe is an investigator with the NM Public Health Service.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mulkey are the parents of a son born Sunday. The baby has one sister and one brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Tug Treat have returned from a business trip to Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Binyon were saying "Hello" to friends here Tuesday. They were enroute to Silver City from Albuquerque where they had attended the Mitchell funeral. Raymond has been off work for five weeks with a hip injury.

XI Beta Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its first regular October meeting in the home of Mrs. Rogene Alford at Lincoln Station. Miss Sherrill Perkins, president, was in charge of the short business session where it was reported that a scholarship check had been mailed to Lois Ann Holleyman at ENMU and that officers of Delta Theta Chapter had been duly installed by members of XI Beta Epsilon.

Mrs. L. L. Carnell presented a most interesting program on "Planning the Home" developed from the outline "The Home We Make." She stated that there are 175 questions to be answered before one starts to plan a home, questions such as "Who am I?", "What is my life style?" etc., and she closed by quoting from an old inscription:

"The crown of the home is godliness,
The beauty of the home is order,
The glory of the home is hospitality and
The blessing of the home is contentment."

The hostess served chips and dips, minted nuts, tea and coffee from a table centered with a fall arrangement of bois d'arc apples. Members present were: Mrs. Kenneth Anderson, Mrs. Jack Davidson Jr., Mrs. R. A. Perkins, Mrs. Frank Sultemeir Jr., Mrs. Melvin Sultemeir, Mrs. J. E. Tracey, Mrs. Carnell, Miss Perkins, and Mrs. Alford.

Carrizozo's flying family includes all members of the Nicholas family, George, Jean, Van and Mark shown here with two friends David Walker and Joe Allen who are attending airplane mechanic school with Van in Roswell. Picture was taken during fly-in Sunday.

Beaver-Bond Auxiliary Meets
American Legion Auxiliary Beaver-Bond Unit #35, Corona New Mexico
The American Legion Auxiliary held its regular meeting at the Corona High School Recreation Room October 17th.

Following the business meeting, useful items were made to be sent to the Veterans Hospital in Albuquerque for use in digital therapy.

Mrs. Lucille Porter was the hostess. Refreshments were served. Members in attendance were: Mrs. Walter Frieffer, Mrs. Carl Holmgren, Mrs. Della Green, Mrs. Minnie Davenport, Mrs. Wilbur Dishman, Mrs. Minnie Davenport, Communication Chairman

Farmers (?) to nominate committeemen

Lincoln County Farmers will have the opportunity to nominate by petition candidates for ASC community committee posts. The nominating period began October 1 and will close October 27. This year, we hope farmers in Lincoln County will nominate by petition full slates for all three communities. A full slate means a minimum of six candidates to choose from in electing a community committee of three members and two alternates." Fred Flingsen, Chairman of the Lincoln County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said.

All ASC community committees are elected annually. The newly-elected community committeemen will convene shortly after their December election to elect one new ASC County Committee member and two alternates. County committee members serve three-year terms, with one new member elected each year. Alternates are elected annually.

Mr. Flingsen explained that the County ASC Committee administers agricultural programs such as marketing quotas and acreage allotments, price-support loans and purchases, conservation cost-sharing, and other farm action programs at the county level, dealing directly with producers. Community committees not only elect County Committee members and alternates but also help the County Committee administer these programs.

"There's no red tape tied up in nominating a community committee candidate by petition," Fred said. "All that's really needed is a sheet of paper naming a candidate -- and three or more signatures by eligible voters on that paper. Petitions are limited to one nominee each, but voters may sign as many petitions as they want. A farmer who is an owner, tenant, or sharecropper is an eligible voter in the community where his farm interest is. He can only nominate and vote in one community, however, even if he has farm interests in more than one.

The ASC Committee Chairman said that if at least six eligible candidates are nominated by petitions submitted by farmers in their community, no other nominations need be made. However, if less than six are nominated by petition, the incumbent community committee will complete the slate, selecting candidates actively engaged in farming or ranching.

COUNTY AGENT NEWS
Getting rid of pesticide containers when they are empty can be as easy as getting rid of the pests that required the pesticide in the first place. The dangers of pesticides are well known. After using a pesticide carefully the next step is to give the container as much care when discarding it. Empty containers should be kept in locked storage areas until proper disposal can be carried out. Here are some safe methods for discarding the various types of pesticide containers. Plastic and paper containers should be punctured to prevent re-use. Metal containers (except aerosols) should be crushed and punctured. Glass jars and bottles should be wrapped first in paper and then crushed. The mutilated containers should then be wrapped in newspaper, tied securely and placed in trash cans for disposal. Aerosol cans should be sprayed until empty and out of pressure. They should never be punctured, burned or incinerated because they may explode violently. Serious injury may result if a person is nearby when such an explosion occurs. Empty pesticide containers should never be buried, burned or poured into ditches, storm sewers, streams, ponds, toilet, sink, floor drain, or near a well. Ask your livestock inspector to request a Brucellosis test on any breeding animals going to the sale ring. This is done at no cost to the owner if it is done before they are sold. The test often means that the animal will bring more when it is sold. Also, if enough cattle are tested, the County can become recertified without having to test at the ranch.
Screw worms are being found in many areas of Texas and could come into this area when these cattle are moved through this area. If you work any animals use a protective wound dressing. Report any cases of worms that you find. Save a sample and bring to the County agents office. Get a sample bottle from the county agents office or put them in a small bottle with some rubbing alcohol. If you think a fire can't happen in your house, think again. When flame is present, most home furnishings will melt, smolder or flame. The solution? Do your very best to prevent a fire from starting. Home furnishings do not cause fires, but practically all materials used in our homes for furniture, floor coverings, and draperies are flammable. They will feed a fire if one gets started.
The four most frequent causes of fire in one-family homes are: open flame, over heated heating equipment, inadequate electrical wiring, cigarettes, and matches. More than a third of these fires start on the first floor of the house; 21 percent start in the basement. And 26 percent start in furniture and furnishings--generally as a result of the forgotten cigarette, unsafe wiring, or the open flame of a stove or fireplace.

Ft. Sumner, a double AA team to a 6-5 tie last week, lost to Melrose 34-0, and beat Tatum 33-8 -- so it's hard to say about them.
A game like the Grizzlies played last Friday, presumably Roswell B, gets hard to figure and rumors get a little bad concerning number of A boys who might have been on the field. Don't really mean a thing except that ZoZo beat a real big bunch of boys, and some good hitters but they weren't organized well enough to take a well-prepared team playing for keeps... and that was ZoZo. Vaughn goes to Mountainair and ought to win, same for Melrose at Roy. Cloudercroft has a chance, maybe slim, at Tatum. Clayton ought to walk over Moriarty. Hatch needs a win, should get one at T or C.

Showdown week in Class A football

This is showdown week in Class A football in New Mexico. The week when leaders topout in three of four districts.

District 2A in the northern part of the state already has a winner in Melrose, a team that went into the playoffs with a 47-12 win over Roy. This district has not been big in the state since Roy Longhorns were sporting good teams. Melrose may bring them back.

Navajo Mission in 1A has been a serious contender for the state title for past two years and Mission has only Mountainair left between them and the playoffs. This game will be played October 30th.

Carrizozo and Reserve meet at Reserve today (October 21) to settle things in District 3A. Both teams are 1-0 in district play which does not mean a lot. Reserve beat East Fork, Ariz. last week which ought to make them a 4-3 season. The Grizzlies will take a 16-game win streak to Reserve this weekend.

Hagerman has been leading District 4A all season followed by Tatum and Cloudercroft. Lots of snow in the mountains around Cloudercroft Tuesday, but should not stop the showdown between Cloudercroft Friday.

Mountainair plays at Capitan Friday, Tatum at Tatum, Vaughn at Melrose, to round out Class A play this week.

Las Cruces -- New Mexico has remained rural longer than the United States as a whole, but the 1960 and 1970 census reports have confirmed that the state is decidedly urbanized now.

To organize recent census bureau findings, Dr. Sigurd Johansen, professor of sociology at the New Mexico State University has written "New Mexico's Urban and Rural Population." In the pamphlet, Johansen says the 1970 census showed 89.8 per cent of the population in the state lives in areas with 2,500 or more persons. By census bureau definition, 2,500 is an urbanized area.

"Urbanization brings urbanism as a way of life for an increasing proportion of the population," says Johansen. "It increases the political influence of urban centers. However, with urbanization comes problems of housing, sanitation, transportation, law enforcement and recreation."

Johansen reports that New Mexico's urban population grew rapidly during the 1950s, but not the 1960s. "Between 1960 and 1970," he says, "the proportion of urban inhabitants to the total population increased by only 3.9 per cent, slightly more than the national average."

But Johansen's analysis reveals that the 15.7 per cent urban increase during 1950-1960 was largely because of towns and cities annexing additional land.

Though New Mexico is urbanized, Johansen notes that nine counties -- Catron, De Baca, Guadalupe, Harding, Lincoln, Mora, Sandoval, Taos and Torrance -- have no urban population at all.

"These areas are nearly all ranches and dry land farming," he explained. "Improved farm equipment, he said, has reduced the need for large numbers of farm workers. Many workers have moved to urban areas for jobs. As the farm population decreased fewer service people like grocery and restaurant owners are needed and they also move to the city."

Willie second in state scoring

The Carrizozo Grizzly football team has several reasonable sure ways of putting points on the score board. With the help of a stout offensive line they can send people up the middle, off the right or left, around end. Or, they can send a man with good hands down the field on pass play.

Even more sensational this season has been the number of punts returned for long gains, the numbers of passes intercepted for good gains, and the number of kickoffs returned for lots of yards.

Right in the middle of this Carrizozo scoring, and actually working all the angles, is senior back Willie Gallegos. He dyes, he drives, he makes the end runs, he picks off the passes, he returns the punts.

Willie has been in the right place at the right time to stack up some real good yard totals to the point where he now ranks second in the state with total punts scored this season -- 98 -- 20 of them coming in the Dexter game last week. Rubin Stiles of Farmington has 106, Mike Gerleve of Silver City, 92.

Gnatkowski wool exhibit at school

Mrs. Janice Gnatkowski will present her national award-winning wool exhibit at the high school building on Tuesday, October 26 at 6:30 p.m. The exhibit and demonstration is being sponsored by the Carrizozo Chapter of Future Homemakers of America. The F. H. A. members are asking all interested people, men, women, boys, girls, to plan to attend the exhibit and demonstration, since this is a marvelous chance for them to view an exhibit which received the highest acclaim at the State Fair in Albuquerque. The sponsorship of this exhibit is in furtherance of the chapter's goal for the year, Our Future as Homemakers.

The meeting will be held in the cafeteria.

Center for In-situ Mining Research established at New Mexico Institute

Socorro, N.M. -- The establishment of a Center for In-situ Mining Research has been announced by New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology in Socorro. Based in the engineering departments at the college, the Center will be concerned with education and research in methods for extracting -- with a minimum of environmental problems -- mineral resources seriously needed in the U. S. economy. "In-situ," or "in place" mining refers to a method of extracting metals and minerals from ores located within the confines of a mine. A relatively new field, in-situ mining includes the preparation of ores for subsequent leaching, the flow of solutions through rock masses, the leaching of minerals with appropriate, inexpensive and renewable chemicals, and the recovery of metals from the metal-bearing liquids.

Patroleum and Mining. It will also call upon specialists and equipment in two other divisions of the Institute -- the State Bureau of Mines and Mineral Resources, and the Research and Development Division.

Dr. Roshan B. Bhappu, research professor of Metallurgy at N. M. Tech, will direct the new organization.

Founded as "New Mexico School of Mines" in 1889, the Institute has continued to conduct training and research in mining and metallurgical fields. The in-situ Center will provide the means of improving the training of young people to help plan and participate in vital areas of the nation's resources, as well as assisting the resource industries. The growing public consciousness of the need for preserving the quality of the environment is a matter of serious concern in national planning. In this regard, New Mexico Tech has recently added to its curriculum a degree in environmental engineering. The Center will be administered through the New Mexico Tech Research Foundation.

The Center will utilize the professorial staff and laboratory facilities of New Mexico Tech's engineering departments: Metallurgical and Materials,

Newspaper publishers from all over the State of New Mexico got a first hand look at Lincoln County last weekend during their convention in Ruidoso Downs with Paul Payton, outgoing president, and Al Lane of Ruidoso as hosts. Tigers show lots of strength at Corona

The fighting Capitan Tigers traveled to Corona and defeated the "Eleven Iron Cardinals" 28 to 6.

The Tigers kicked off and held Corona in punt on fourth down. The Tigers controlled the ball the remainder of the quarter on sustained drive. The Tigers scored at the start of the second quarter on a 30 yard pass from Ted Simeros to Dan Abercrombie. Simeros ran the 2-point conversion score 8-0. Bronson Cummins and Simeros scored on 40-yard run. Ronnie Smith broke into the scoring column when he picked up a fumble on the second half kickoff and ran 50-yards for a touchdown.

Coach Richard House was pleased with the entire effort of the Tiger team and had a chance to let the younger boys get experience. He felt the team has finally "jelled" and will be tough from now on despite injuries. Injuries have sidelined Ralph Barber, Eddie Jones, and Kenny Jones with casts on their legs. Dan Abercrombie, broken hand, Ted Simeros, deep thigh bruise, Robert Abercrombie - bad ankle, and Bronson Cummins - bruised kidney, have continued to play despite their severe injuries. The Capitan Tigers entertain the Mountainair Mustangs next Friday at Capitan.

Margaret Orsak, the gal in the patchwork dress in center of picture, is the new 3rd grader teacher in Carrizozo. Margaret's folks live in Lubbock, she is a graduate of Eastern New Mexico University. Her husband, Joe, also a Zozo teacher, ought to have things good at home for Margaret likes to bake, and is learning to knit.

Grizz spot Demons 6, then put torch to 'em

For the second game in a row, Carrizozo Grizzly football team spotted the opposition a TD before starting to roll.

This game was played at Dexter Friday. Carrizozo received, ran two plays and then fumbled. The Dexter Demons took full advantage of this miscue and four plays later Derrick went over from 4 yards out for first TD of the game. Dexter kick was blocked, score 0-6.

Then the Grizzlies went to work. It took Willie Gallegos and Jim Speight 10 plays to grind out 71 yards with Speight carrying for the last 10 and the score. David Roper's kick was blocked after his initial try was denied because of a motion penalty. Score 6-6.

The Demons went no where and in the second quarter the Grizzlies again kept the ball on the ground, this time taking 9 plays to go 52 yards with Gallegos going the last 2 for TD. Gaby Chavez ran the extra point, score 14-6.

It wasn't too long before Zozo had the ball back. With QB Gaby Chavez mixing his plays well it took the Grizzlies 10 plays to travel 57 yards climaxed by Speight's 4-yard run for score. Run for extra points failed score 20-6.

Dexter once again failed to put together a drive and QB Chavez took to the air hitting Shawn Lock on a 30-yard aerial. On a 4th down play Chavez threw to Gallegos only to have it deflected by a Demon defense man right into Matt Ellison's hands on a diving catch good for 6 points. Try for point fell short, halftime score 26-6.

Dexter got their wind back some during the intermission and came out ready for action. Carrizozo fumbled and Phil Grassie took it into the end zone from the 8 yard line, run for PAT no good, score 26-12.

From then on it was all the Grizzlies, led by Gallegos, Speight, Ellison and Chavez with a lot of good hard hitting from offensive lineman, Chavez found Roper in the Demon secondary and hit him with a 16 yard scoring strike. Gallegos ran for 2, score 34-12.

In the 4th quarter Willie Gallegos dove into the end zone from a yard out, penalty nullified the point after, score 40-12. After two incomplete passes, Gallegos swept his left end and zig-zagged through the Demon defense for a 54-yard touchdown run. Willie ran for 2 extra and score was 48-12. In the stats department -- Willie Gallegos carried the ball 17 times for 136 yards, an average of 8 per carry. Jim Speight carried 16 times for 100 yards, and slightly over 6 per carry.

Gaby Chavez hit 9 of 16 passes. Grizzlies rushed for 278 and passed for 127, total of 405 yards.

The defense was spearheaded by Gerald Wells, Jim Speight and Christy Monreal. The offensive line was led by David Roper, Rusty Leslie, Jay Barnes, Ben Bradley, Gerald Wells, David Lee and Shawn Lock.

Office of E. D. A. has five funded programs

The Steering Committee of the South Central Mountain Resource Area met Tuesday, October 12, 1971 in Alamogordo, New Mexico with the meeting being called to order at 1:15 p.m. by D. H. Dean, Acting Chairman.

The minutes of the August 31, 1971 meeting were read and approved.

The guest speaker for the afternoon program was Nick Pappas of the Economic Development Administration. Mr. Pappas outlined and discussed functions of the EDA and emphasized the coordinating programs and goals of his agency. He gave examples of efforts and duties of his group in planning and motivating action on problems, especially on an area basis. He stated that the EDA has five funded programs, these being as follows:

1. Public Works Program
 2. Business Loan Program
 3. Technical Assistance Program which would provide up to 75% of the money needed to determine the feasibility of a business venture.
 4. Manpower Training
 5. District Programs which coordinate economic efforts and growth and development in a district of counties or municipalities or area.
- Progress on existing measures was given as follows:
- PM - 81 Sacramento Lake: It is believed that this lake will be abandoned due to its inability to hold water.
 - PM - 66 - Ambrosia - Chavez Ditch: Construction is under way and should be completed in a few weeks.
 - PM - 87 Dry Canyon Flood Control - Alamogordo: Preliminary investigation is under way.
 - PM - 49 Fishing Recreational Area - Cloudercroft: Kenneth Evans of the USFS reported on the meeting of the various groups and gave his reasons for the negative answer regarding improving this facility for fishing.
 - PM - 12 White Oaks Road: This is now being blacktopped and is near completion.
 - PM - 56 Warning Light at Carrizozo: This light has been installed and needs only to be wired.

PM - 60 Alamogordo Educational Development Plans: The plans are being worked up.

PM - 67 Lincoln-Domestic Water and Sewage: Cost per user is too high and a meeting has been set for October 14, 1971 for further consideration.

PM - 85 Oktoberfest: Stan Green reported on the success of the Oktoberfest, and expressed his gratitude for the way it had been received and promoted.

Under new business, Robert Bell presented a request for assistance in location and investigating a new site for a fishing lake in the Sacramento mountains. This reserve would take the place of Sacramento Lake which probably be abandoned. Ray Polasky seconded this request and it was adopted as PM - 89.

The second request for assistance was presented by Kathy Dean for the Capitan Woman's Club, regarding planning, improving, enlarging, and funding Capitan Community Park. Lewis Merritt seconded the motion and it was approved as PM - 90.

The third request was made by Stan Green for the Otero County

Wildlife Association for assistance in getting the road from Tularosa to Engle, near Elephant Butte Lake, open to public use. Robert Bell seconded and it was adopted as PM - 91.

Howard Abercrombie said that the town of Duran, in Torrance County, was interested in obtaining assistance in development of a fire district. This will be presented as a project measure in the future.

In his project conservationist report, Mr. Abercrombie gave a summary of the annual RC&D meeting he attended in Albuquerque on October 1, 1971. He asked for a vote on the question of having either one or two state meetings, and the Steering Committee voted to have one Project Coordinator's meeting and one RC&D Council meeting each year. The group felt the Project Coordinator could report to the Steering Committee. It was felt February or March would be a better time to have the general meeting.

The next meeting to be held will be November 30, 1971 in Carrizozo. Meeting adjourned at 3:15 p.m.

Capitan women have fun night

The Capitan Woman's Club held its regular monthly meeting on Thursday, October 14, at 7:00 p.m. with nine members present.

The meeting began with a business meeting at the club house, during which several measures were presented and voted upon. The Club decided to collect various wrappers and seals for UNICEF again this year. Last year the Club collected over 200 Clark gum pack wrappers and this year many other companies have joined in this program. A box has been set up at Cummins' store where anyone interested can deposit.

Back panels from Hunt's Snack Pack cartons, empty boxes from Pats or Pats plus iron vitamins, empty Kool-Aid soft drink mix packages, seals from Peter Paul candies, labels from any Welch's Jam, jelly, or preserves, and empty Clark gum pack wrappers.

The Club also heard a report from representatives who attended the R. C. & D. meeting in Alamogordo on Tuesday October 12, where they presented the Capitan Woman's Club Community Park as a possible project. The park was accepted as a project and representatives from the R. C. & D. group are investigating ways in which funds and aid can be obtained to help develop the park.

The business meeting then ended with the drawing for the door prize which was won by Mrs. Francis Shaw.

The members then adjourned to meet their husbands in the school gym for an evening of volleyball. Everyone enjoyed the games but most agreed that we need to do this sort of thing more often. Later, refreshments were served by Mrs. Laneta Langford in her home. All in all, it was a very enjoyable evening - sorry not more could share in the fun.

Next month's meeting is to be held on Thursday, November 11, at 7:30 p.m. at the Smokey Bear Cafe. At this dinner meeting, for both husbands and wives, Mr. Bill Payne of Carrizozo will give a talk on "Points of Law for Husbands and Wives." The steak dinner will cost $2.50 per person and all those planning to attend are asked to contact Mrs. Daleen Huey or Mrs. Kathy Dean by Tuesday, November 9. All members, guests, husbands and other interested persons are cordially invited to attend.

School Vacation Oct. 21-22

Students and teachers of Carrizozo Schools will have a vacation on October 21 and 22 to enable the teachers to attend the state teacher's meeting in Albuquerque.

School will be dismissed at 1 p.m. Thursday and will reconvene Monday October 24.

Last Thursday evening Mrs. Wm. Hays paid her official visit to Unit 108, Tularosa American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Hays is serving as district president. Mr. Hays, Mrs. Mary Johnson, and Mrs. Edna Littleton accompanied her. It was a joint meeting of the Legion Post and the Auxiliary. The program consisted of reports from the two Girl Staters and three Boys Staters from Tularosa. Mrs. Hays stated that the reports were all very interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hecker, and daughters Melody and Marcia were in Texas last weekend where they attended the 50th wedding anniversary of Mrs. Hecker's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Waldron at Pombotoc, Texas on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Waldron of Corona and Mr. and Mrs. Miles Waldron and son, Neal of Mountainair accompanied them.

Mrs. Viola Lay of Prior, Oklahoma arrived Friday for a visit with her brother, Mr. T. F. Falls. She plans to stay for a week.

Friends of Mrs. Glennith Stokes of Roswell will be sorry to hear that she slipped and fell when getting out of her car Friday morning and suffered a broken hip. She is in E.N.M. Medical Center, room 221. Mrs. Stokes is the daughter of Mr. Frank English and is a teacher in Roswell High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lockmiller and children of Clovis visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rickerson over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowley Ward had as their guest for several days last week Mrs. Ward's cousin, Frank Greer, of Phoenix, Arizona. The Wards were in Dexter Friday night for the Carrizozo-Dexter football game.

Next month's meeting is to be held on Thursday, November 11, at 7:30 p.m. at the Smokey Bear Cafe. At this dinner meeting, for both husbands and wives, Mr. Bill Payne of Carrizozo will give a talk on "Points of Law for Husbands and Wives." NEWS AND NOTES

Old trunks, filled with nostalgia or more practical items, are leaving the attics to find places in the decorating schemes of many homes. Trunks are fascinating to old and young alike; they may remind us of pirate treasures or of fashionable clothes from an era long past. Even the most "beat-up" trunk can regain its health if you use a prescription of ingenuity plus a little elbow grease.

In planning what to do with an old trunk, remember these points:

The original character should be restored if possible, the color and style of the trunk should be coordinated with room decor, and the trunk can be functional as well as decorative - keep things in it or use it as a bench.

The first step in refinishing should be to thoroughly clean the trunk, then sand it lightly to remove any loose particles of dirt or old finish. Exteriors can be painted or antiqued. One suggestion is to paint with a flat enamel undercoat, then rub with a dark glaze. Metal fittings should be treated with a rust-inhibiting paint, available in many colors. Wood strips and details can be painted or preserved with a natural finish. Inside the trunk, line sides, lid and bottom with washable wallpaper or other plastic-coated paper. Plush or quilted fabrics can also be used to make a handsome interior. Remember that the pattern and color used inside the trunk should coordinate closely with the exterior finish. Finally, to protect the trunk from scratches, apply one or two coats of clear, dull varnish.

Do you have milk delivered to your home? Make arrangements to keep it from standing in a warm place or being exposed to sunlight. Exposure to sun impairs both flavor and riboflavin content of milk.

Avoid refrigerating cooked foods a second time after they have been removed from refrigeration and reheating for serving.

Sweetpotatoes are a good source of energy-supplying sugars and other carbohydrates; of calcium, iron, and other minerals; and of vitamins, particularly of Vitamin A in the popular high-carotene, orange-flesh varieties and of Vitamin C, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture researchers.

The term "yam" is commonly used by the trade for sweetpotatoes of the moist-flesh type but strictly speaking this terminology is incorrect since a true edible yam is an entirely different plant from the sweet-potato. The true yam is grown in the Continental United States on only a limited scale in Florida.

Oranges top the list of all citrus fruits in popularity in U.S. households according to a nationwide consumer survey conducted by the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture. Nine out of ten homemakers reported using fresh oranges and orange juice in the preceding year of the interviews. Seven out of ten, approximately, had used fresh grapefruit and lemons in the same period.

Homemakers interviewed in the survey indicated that they thought that oranges were the best of the citrus fruits for your health, taste and family appeal. Grapefruits were associated with the comments that grapefruits were "good for health," "good for weight watchers," "low in calories," and "high in vitamin C."

We are not "non-anything"

Had a big time last weekend in Ruidoso Downs winding up year as president of New Mexico Press Association with convention which went off rather well.

Several things we intended to do but did not have time. One had situation developed and got out of hand before we could get to it... use of wordage "non-daily" as applied to a weekly newspaper. Here and now we wish to state that none of The Village Press publications fit that wordage, especially as set out by Webster.

non - A prefix in common use in the sense of not. Non is generally less emphatic than in- or un- being merely negative, while in- and un- are positive, often implying an opposite thing or quality.

Some of our weekly newspapers might be nearer an in-daily or un-daily but never non-daily.

We do so many things, in so many different ways, when it comes to serving out several communities that there is no way -- short of both using paper and ink, that our weekly publications can be compared with what is known as a daily newspaper.

Village Press newspapers are positive, and frequently emphatic, always local in character, and local in involvement. Those other papers are not that way.

In New Mexico there are 30 or more newspapers which publish once a week (some two times), and there are about 15 newspapers that publish from five to seven times a week.

Us one-time-a-weekers don't truck a whole lot with those five-or-more-timers because we do it different. We put both heart and soul into our weekly effort. Most of our writing is done right down where the grass grows and that makes us personal in a way others are not.

Call us most anything you like ... but please leave the "non-" off.

Deci Britton is PM at Fort Stanton

San Francisco, Oct. 1. -- Fred Huleen, Regional Postmaster General for the U. S. Postal Service, announced the appointment of Mrs. Deci P. Britton as postmaster at Fort Stanton, N. M.

Mrs. Britton, received her appointment under the new merit selection basis established for the Postal Service in legislation recently passed by Congress and signed by President Nixon.

She assumes her new duties after extensive postal experience, since entering the Service in 1961. Her assignment before the present appointment was as Officer in Charge in Fort Stanton.

The appointee is a native of Lingleville, Texas, and presently resides in Fort Stanton with her husband.

Her appointment is effective October 2.

The present merit selection procedures for postmasters have replaced the historic practice of selecting postmasters in accordance with congressional recommendations. Postmaster appointments are now being made in conformity with provisions of the Postal Reorganization Act of 1970, which outlaws political influence in postal appointments and promotions and directs the Postal Service to select and promote solely on merit, with preference given to qualified career postal employees.

bers, 1 magistrate judge, 2 state senators, 2 state representatives and 3 non-lawyers.

The purpose of the council is to study and recommend programs for more effective administration of the court system and justice. The attempt has been made to place court operations on a business-like basis and the council has maintained monthly meetings, although it is only required to have quarterly meetings.

Conway is the only republican state senator who is vice-chairman of any state legislative committee. Conway, his wife, and 3 sons reside at 1740 Buena Vista Avenue, in Alamogordo.

1,100,000 acres in Carrizozo S & W C D

The following is the Annual Report of the Carrizozo SWCD. This report shows the district's activities and accomplishments during the period of July 1, 1970 through June 30, 1971.

The Carrizozo Soil and Water Conservation District was organized on October 11, 1945, as a legal subdivision of the State of New Mexico. It was formed to further resource conservation and development and give local people the opportunity to plan, direct and carry out programs that will lead to the conservation and development of our natural resources. There are approximately 1,100,000 acres in the District.

Present supervisors of the District are Lee Straley, Chairman; Bill Gallacher, vice-president; A. W. Gnatkowski, secretary-treasurer; Bill Stephenson and Johnson Stearns, members. These supervisors are elected by landowners for three year terms to administer the Soil and Water Conservation District and its affairs; Johnson Stearns and Bill Stephenson were elected for three-year terms this year.

The Board meets the first Wednesday of each month to conduct District business. The meetings are held in the Soil Conservation Service Office at 7:30 p.m. and anyone interested is invited to attend. There were eleven (11) regular meetings and one special meeting held this past year. The average attendance of the supervisors was 95 percent.

The Carrizozo SWCD owns earth moving equipment to enable cooperators to construct soil conservation practices. In order to improve this service the Board leased the equipment to a private contractor this year. Under the terms of the lease, Central Welding and Supply is giving preference to conservation work at the same rate as before. This arrangement is proving quite satisfactory.

The District was very active in supporting and assisting the South Central Mountain Resource Area in its program of total resource development in Lincoln and Otero Counties. To date there have been 27 project measures submitted from within the Carrizozo SWCD. Johnson Stearns was elected treasurer of the Steering Committee.

The seventh annual Bankers Award Program was held this year to recognize outstanding accomplishments by a cooperator in conservation work. Dimmitt Bond was selected as this year's awardee. The award is presented by the Citizens State Bank with Johnson Stearns in charge of arrangements.

The supervisors again this year placed high priority on the Great Plains Program in the District. A total of $40,493.00 was obligated this year in new contracts. Approximately 65 percent of the District is now or has been covered under a Great Plains Conservation Program contract. Bill Gallacher is serving as Chairman of the GPCP Committee for the State Association of SWCD.

The Carrizozo SWCD hosted the Zone meeting in July in Carrizozo. A. W. Gnatkowski was elected Zone Chairman.

The District also sponsored a meeting to discuss control of Cholla Cactus. Many benefits were pointed out and it was felt that the meeting was very beneficial in regard to cost-share programs and improvement credit on public land.

The District supervisors have again this year placed priorities on improving livestock watering facilities, brush control, erosion control, and continued use of the GPCP. Some of the accomplishments in the District in Fiscal Year 1971 are listed below:

New or revised conservation plans	6
Great Plains Program contracts	3
Cooperators assisted	37
Cooperators applying practices	26
Proper grazing use	50,756 acres
Brush control	6,077 acres
Stockwater pipelines	212,352 feet
Land adequately treated	13,059 acres

The Board of Supervisors wish to express their appreciation to the local, state, and federal agencies, District cooperators and others for their assistance and support of the District Conservation Program. We feel this has been a successful year.

A WEAK MEMORY
Jones is a young lawyer, clever in many respects, but very forgetful. He had been sent from New York to San Francisco to interview an important client of the firm he was working for. On his arrival in the Bay Area, Jones realized that he had forgotten the name of the client. So he sent a wire to the office in New York, reading: "Have forgotten name of client. Please wire immediately."
The reply came back promptly. It read: "Client's name Smith. Your name Jones."

IN A FOG
The fog was so thick you could cut it with a knife. A motorist driving down the highway was following close on the tail lights of another car, trusting that the driver of that car had better visibility or eyesight than he. Suddenly the forward car stopped, and the man behind crashed into it.
"Why didn't you signal you were going to stop?" shouted the man behind as he tried to get out of his wrecked car.
"What?" exploded the other fellow. "In my own garage!"

EATING THINGS
The world traveler was holding forth among a group of people at a party. He was quite a bore. He told of the continents he had visited — one by one, and at length — and finally came to the epic tale of his trip to India. "It was there," he said impressively, "that I saw my first man-eating tiger."
"So what?" sneered a listener who had heard all he could stand. "Only the other day I saw a man eating chicken!"

"I want a bank that understands my needs"

We understand the financial needs of a great variety of customers, from cattlemen to businessmen to housewives and to children. That's why we provide the financial counsel and the amounts of money they need to keep New Mexico's land and its business climate fertile and productive.

SNOWMOBILES, LIKE CHILDREN, NEED LOTS OF ATTENTION. This young lad's father is running a quick "pre-trip" check to insure safe going. It's a good idea to carry a basic tool set and extra spark plugs in the snowmobile's storage compartments just in case.

Keep Snowmobile Travel Smooth With Basic Maintenance Program

Like an athlete getting ready for the season, a new snowmobile engine needs proper conditioning before it can perform at its best.

Champion Spark Plug Company advises that 10 or 15 hours of operation at part-throttle is the key to good performance thereafter. Snowmobile operators who run their brand new machines at full-throttle run the risk of damaging engines.

A second cause of snowmobile engine problems, particularly in the ignition system, is using the wrong spark plug heat range. However, specialized kinds of operation may dictate using specially-designed spark plugs. For example, a snowmobile that's mostly operated at full-throttle, such as racing, needs a spark plug of a colder heat range to withstand higher operating temperatures.

A snowmobile that's run at lower speeds, such as trail riding, needs a plug of a hotter heat range to prevent premature plug fouling. For machines running in a variety of conditions, standard-design plugs are recommended.

Both fuel and oil should be of the quality the manufacturer recommends for the engine. Mixing ratios of oil to fuel should be followed exactly. When mixing the elements, make certain both are warm. The mixing should be done in a separate container and then poured into the vehicle's fuel tank. Placing unmixed fuel and oil directly into the tank is an invitation to trouble, say Champion engineers.

NO "IDLE" RUMOR

According to a University of Michigan engineering school study, hydrocarbon emission from an automobile engine is reduced an average of 55% at idle after a tune-up.

BEFORE OPERATING YOUR SNOWMOBILE this winter, Champion suggests your dealer perform the following basic maintenance.

1. Inspect the track for proper tension.
2. Clean and adjust the carburetor to manufacturer's specifications.
3. Adjust the timing to manufacturer's specifications.
4. Clean the gas filter.
5. Check the exhaust ports to see that they are not plugged with residue.
6. Check all drive belts for wear.
7. Check the spark plug wire for signs of deterioration and tightness of connection.
8. Install a new spark plug of the recommended type for the engine and operating conditions. Do not put it in so tight that you damage the threads in the head.
9. If your engine has a battery, make sure the electrolyte level is up. Also, check battery cables and posts for condition and tighten connections.
10. Spare spark plugs should be kept in a clean container or wrapped in rags to prevent oil and dirt from contaminating the plug's surface.

Freeways Cost Money But Yield Dividends

Freeways may not be free, technically, but they are among the best investments the average citizen makes with his money.

According to the Highway Users Federation for Safety and Mobility, for every dollar expended from the U.S. Highway Trust Fund on the Interstates system, about $2.90 is returned in direct users benefit.

Taxes raised from gasoline, tires and trucks are building the most efficient and safe highway system the U.S. has ever enjoyed.

This year the Highway Trust Fund is observing its 15th Anniversary. Some of the highlights of the fund's benefits to the car owners are listed below:

- The Federal-Aid Primary system accounts for less than 10 percent of all U.S. roads but carries about half of all motor vehicle travel.
- The 42,500-mile Interstate Highway system, to be completed by 1978, is nearly twice as safe as other roads and streets. In recent years the fatality record on the Interstate was 2.99 deaths per 100 million vehicle miles traveled vs. 5.62 miles for other roads. The Interstate system is saving 8,000 lives per year.

In addition, the moneys paid into the Highway Trust Fund by taxpayers provide indirectly a longer-lived car. Non-stop, modern-designed superhighways help eliminate premature brake wear, prolonged idling time, less wear on suspension systems and shock absorbers among other benefits.

Taxes, like death, may always be with us but it's good to know that some tax money is being used as fruitfully as highway taxes.

CLOGGED CLEANER

A clogged air cleaner can help cause a 75 percent increase in hydrocarbon emissions from a car's engine.

SPARK PLUG CARE

Ever wonder why you should change the spark plugs in your car after every 10,000 miles of driving?

There's a good reason. The 10,000-mile plug change recommendation is not actually based on the fact that spark plugs are "worn out," in the strictest sense, after 10,000 miles.

This figure—selected after extensive spark plug life tests—merely represents a safety factor beyond which plugs are likely to misfire under the sudden demands of peak acceleration or extremely heavy load. It also represents the point at which gas economy begins to drop and starting becomes more difficult.

Champion Spark Plug Company engineers consider a spark plug worn out when it reaches the point where it is likely to misfire—regardless of its appearance. And, contrary to popular opinion, misfiring doesn't necessarily mean the plug failed to create a spark. It simply means that the plug failed to ignite the gasoline properly, whether a spark was produced or not.

Many Drivers Ask

How can a spark be produced and the plug still misfire? Because "spark tracking" (or high-tension current leakage) through carbon deposits on the spark plug's firing end can result in a weak spark, which in turn causes incomplete burning of the fuel mixture, and results in a loss of both power and economy.

High resistance, which develops as the spark plug electrodes become rough and uneven and the gap between the electrodes increases, also can result in the spark being too weak. Here, too, the gasoline isn't ignited properly and incomplete burning of the fuel charge can result.

A new spark plug with the correct gap setting needs about 5000 volts to fire. However, as the plug remains in service, constant heat and chemical attack plus electrical erosion cause the gap to become wider, thus increasing the amount of voltage to fire the plug.

Spark plug gap growth occurs at a rate of about .001 inch for each 1000 miles of driving. Consequently, a set of plugs that has been in service for 10,000 miles generally will have gaps that are about .010 inch wider than the original settings and higher voltage is needed to make them spark.

This is only for normal driving.

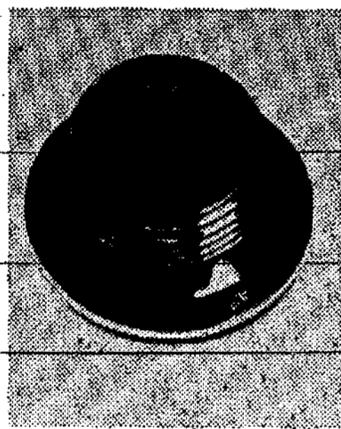

Operating the engine at very high speed can decrease the amount of coil voltage available to fire the spark plugs by 30 to 40 percent. Accelerating to pass on a highway may practically double the voltage burden on the spark plug.

Slow Acceleration

That's why misfiring is first noticed while accelerating because it's here that the plugs actually can require more voltage to produce a spark than the ignition system is capable of producing—especially if the plugs are badly worn.

Now, back to the 10,000 miles change recommendation.

Most spark plug engineers

Carbon Fouled Plug

agree that a safety factor is needed in the spark plug to ensure proper plug performance under every possible operating condition. Consequently, they try to keep the amount of voltage necessary to spark the plugs well below the amount of voltage that the coil is capable of producing. And keep in mind, this safety factor must take into consideration the fact that as the ignition system becomes older, its potential high voltage output drops off.

A new ignition system, for example, may be able to produce over 30,000 volts of electricity. The same system after 20,000 or 30,000 miles without replacing any of the parts may only be able to produce 15 to 20,000 volts.

Correct Use Of Car Wash Saves Paint

Coin-operated car washes must be used correctly to protect paint surfaces from serious damage, according to E. J. Hartmann, president of Ziebart Process Corporation.

Hartmann said, "A number of people have complained to us recently that the paint on their automobiles is not retaining its brilliance and, in some cases, that it is actually pitting and deteriorating. On further investigation, we have found that these people are frequent users of coin-operated car washes.

"Questioning these complainants, we have found that they have the habit of trying to get in and out of the coin-operated washes as quickly as possible in order to save spending an extra coin for additional minutes of wash time.

"The result," said Hartmann, "is that they may have saved an additional quarter but they leave the wash without completing the job. Rather than spend the money needed to do the job right, they will try to squeeze a complete job in the metered wash time purchased with one or two coins. Often when they leave, their cars carry with them a layer of filmy soap. This remains on the cars and dries, only to liquefy later with rain.

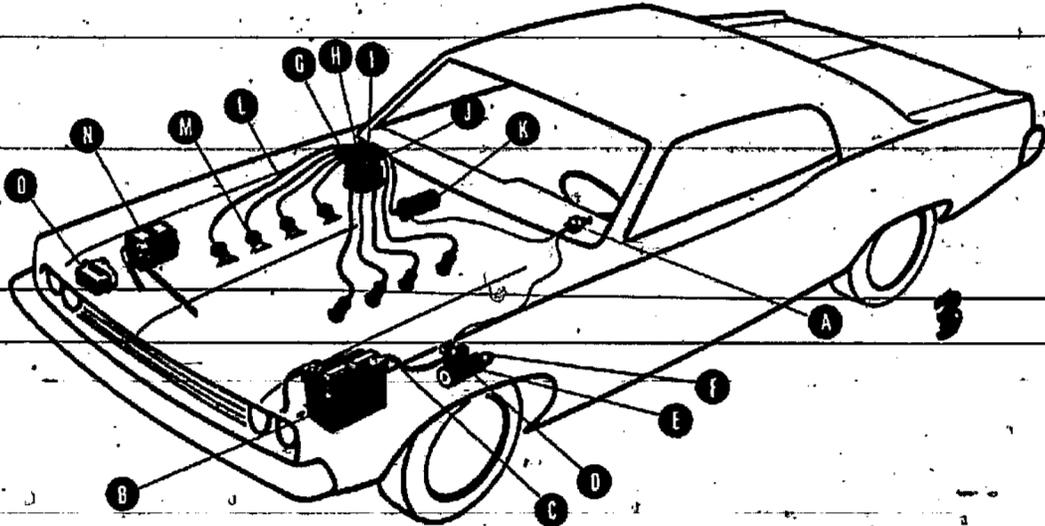

"The soap solutions used in these car washes are fine to clean away road film, but they are not meant to be left on the paint surface. I would warn motorists that they should use the coin-operated washes correctly. Take several coins with you and spend what is needed to do the job right," Hartmann said.

COLD WEATHER DRIVING PUTS GREATEST DEMAND ON IGNITION, ELECTRICAL SYSTEMS

No part of a car gets a more strenuous workout during the cold weather months ahead than the ignition and electrical systems. Severe cold and dampness attack these systems. Only when they are in top condition can they function properly.

The National Automotive Parts Association (NAPA) provides a detailed description of the electrical and ignition systems in a new publication "Car Repairs — Facts You Should Know." The booklet also prescribes maintenance procedures to help keep the systems in top running order.

Copies of the NAPA booklet can be obtained free from local automotive service and repair shops, in the United States only.

Parts most often needing replacement...and why

A IGNITION SWITCH — really several switches in one. First, it turns on the ignition system, then the starter — and simultaneously turns off the radio and other accessories to avoid damage due to power surges which occur in starting. As it ages, resistance builds in the switch so not enough electricity gets to starter and ignition.

B BATTERY — stores electrical energy for starting and all other electrical jobs. Life expectancy of a good battery is 2 to 3 years. . . if it's kept clean, filled and in good state of charge.

C BATTERY CABLES — deliver electricity to starter and all other electrical systems. . . and bring in charging current from the alternator. Unless cables are in good condition and have clean, tight connections, the car cannot start or run properly.

D STARTER-SOLENOID SWITCH — connects the battery to the starter motor. Poor connections and age reduce solenoid's ability to pass enough electricity to turn the starter motor fast enough to start the engine.

E STARTER — an electric motor which, by means of a movable gear, cranks the car's engine. As internal wear develops, the starter may be unable to turn the car's engine fast enough, or may run down the battery. Then, the wall must be replaced.

F STARTER DRIVE — the movable gear connecting starter motor and car engine. If the starter or whines — but the engine doesn't turn over, chances are the starter drive needs replacement.

G CONTACT SET — a switch that turns the ignition coil on and off to fire the spark to each cylinder. Contacts (points) gradually wear causing loss of power and poor gas mileage. Useful life — about 10,000 miles.

H CONDENSER — like an electrical shock absorber, it smooths out surges caused by rapid opening and closing of the contact set. Should be replaced when the contact set is changed.

I ROTOR — turns inside the distributor, carrying the spark from coil to each part of the distributor cap. High voltage gradually burns it and insulation deteriorates. Should be replaced with the distributor cap.

J DISTRIBUTOR CAP — covers internal parts of distributor, providing terminals for each spark plug wire and for the coil wire. High voltage gradually burns the terminals. Dirt and moisture cause sparks to leak away, resulting in carbon tracking which is a permanent short circuit. This causes hard starting and engine "miss." Replacement is the only cure.

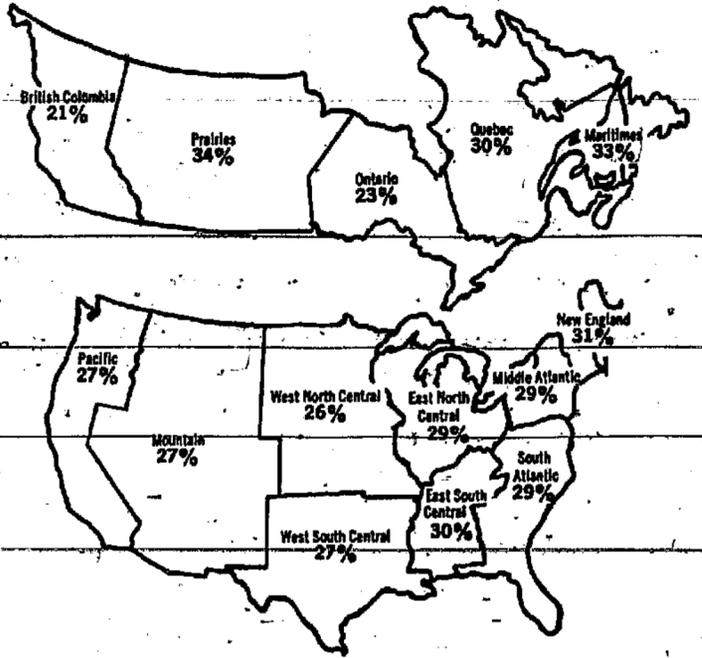

K IGNITION COIL — heart of the ignition system. It is really a transformer, boosting 12 volts from the battery to as high as 30,000 volts. And it does this about 100 times a second at only 30 m.p.h. When the coil weakens, entire engine is affected. When it burns out, entire system goes dead.

L SPARK PLUG WIRES — connect plugs to distributor cap and carry 30,000 volts. These wires must be built so high voltage doesn't cause interference not only with car radio but also nearby TV sets and even aircraft radio. Under load, defective wires cause engine "miss."

M SPARK PLUGS — fire the ignition spark into the gas-line mixture in each cylinder to power the car. Improper plug gap causes loss in power and gas economy. Deposits cause spark to leak away. High voltage gradually burns the plug, changing gap. Average efficient life is about 10,000 miles.

N ALTERNATOR (or generator) — generates electric power for everything except the starter; also recharges battery. Dirt or deterioration cause hard starting, power loss and reduced fuel economy.

O VOLTAGE REGULATOR — limits voltage produced by alternator to the amount needed by the car's systems. Poor connections can damage it. If the regulator gets out of adjustment, it's probably damaged and should be replaced.

No region of the United States or Canada is immune from starting trouble. Motorists in warm California or Florida are as likely to have difficulty as car owners in Montana and Michigan. In fact, motorists in cold Ontario have only slightly more starting trouble than their British Columbia counterparts who enjoy a mild winter climate. When comparing the two provinces in terms of tune-up purchases, the reason is apparent. Ontario has a high incidence of tune-ups while British Columbia has a low one. Compared to the U.S. average, Ontario has about five percent less starting trouble.

Thieves Keep Up with Times

Officials also note a rising number of stolen trucks and recreational vehicles.

"The thieves are moving west as these vehicles become more popular," one auto spokesman said. "It's very tough to identify them too, because there are so many manufacturers."

About 84 percent of stolen cars are now recovered, down from 92 percent (of the 288,300 cars stolen) recovered in 1959.

Thus, as a larger percentage of the thefts are by pros, the percentage of cars recovered will probably continue to drop.

While the locks apparently won't stop a professional thief, the warning devices which are available as accessories may stall him.

One auto man said, "a warning system individually tailored to a car can be successful. But if the warning system is installed on a production line, then the thieves know how to beat it."

"They will go to junk yards and buy wrecked cars just to 'operate' on them — like a school for thieves."

Avoid Battery Problems With Quick Check

Ever wonder why sometimes during starting, your car's battery sounds like it's dying — then suddenly kicks off?

A major source of the problem could be dirty battery terminals or loose connections.

Open the hood of your car. Are the battery terminals covered with what looks like a green moss? If not, are they loose? The green substance is acid build-up. When it reaches a saturation point of covering the lead terminals, energy transmission is impaired and starting becomes a problem.

In advance stages of acid build-up, not enough energy is transmitted to even turn the engine over once!

Corroded or loose battery terminals are easy for your local service station mechanic to fix.

And now Dad, aren't you glad that you bought the best when it comes to automobile insurance. That's the only kind we sell

Driver Licensing Test Scraps Old Traditions

Iowa has a head start on a new traffic safety program designed to provide identification and reinforcement of safe-driving attitudes and techniques. Called DrivoTEST, it is the nation's first automated drivers' license test.

The new examination, which scraps the traditional paper and pencil for automated audio-visual techniques, is being used in Des Moines, Iowa. DrivoTEST builds safe-driving attitudes by training as well as testing, because answers to the questions are explained.

An applicant enters one of the 20 separate booths and presses a button that starts a color movie shown on a personal TV set. The film dramatizes a series of traffic situations that call for knowledge of legal and safe-driving requirements.

The film stops at a planned moment in each situation and presents a multiple-choice question which the applicant answers with a push-button responder. His choices are transmitted electronically to a central console where they are instantly scored.

Another principal advantage of the DrivoTEST is that, unlike present methods, it teaches as well as tests. After each question, the film will tell which answer was right — and why. This procedure increases knowledge and builds safe-driving attitudes.

DrivoTEST is not designed to replace the entire licensing procedure. Iowa will continue to administer individual vision and on-the-road examinations.

For Real Bouncy Fun Try Off-Road Rally

While most motorists are preparing their automobiles for a rigorous winter, car buffs in southwestern states are enjoying bouncy, fun-filled off-road racing.

Rules for an off-road race are simple. All a competitor has to do is drive a motorized vehicle from one designated point to another.

Getting there is half the fun, and the fun constitutes hundreds of miles of washboard roads, mushy mud flats and uninhabited canyons.

Although the race is allegedly against the clock, the bedraggled, filthy driver feels triumphant if he manages to cross the finish line at all.

As one race driver recently described a typical off-road racing course: "Both the first and last stretches of the run were on paved roads, so a vehicle with a high top speed was required. But the middle of the course — more than 800 miles — snapped axles, bent frames and left many a driver with only a cactus for conversation."

Unfortunately incidents during these races are many and varied, although there are seldom any injuries.

One intrepid fellow, charging across a stretch of flat desert at 100 miles per hour in pre-dawn darkness, suddenly lost all electrical power. He aimed his car at what he thought was another competitor's tall light, thinking that he would avoid trouble.

The light proved to be a campfire, through which he drove as he ended his run in an irrigation ditch.

Despite such diversions, off-road races like the Baja 500 are proving to be immensely popular. So while northern drivers brace themselves for wintry blasts of air, some southwestern motorists will be avoiding that upcoming cactus.

Auto Executive Points Finger

New York City is called, among other things, the stolen car capital of the world. Chicago is running second. One auto executive theorizes, "I know there are a lot of organized groups in New York and Chicago who steal cars — make a business out of this."

"In my opinion, the most technologically sharp individuals come out of Chicago. The car thief there is like a frustrated engineer. He seems to know all the fine ways of doing things — a real sharp cookie, good with a hammer and a torch."

He also said that "while thefts last year were very definitely a new record, I can't say that new cars are being stolen at the same rate they used to be. My own personal opinion is that we are getting a lot more professional than joy riding."

Thieves Keep Up with Times

Officials also note a rising number of stolen trucks and recreational vehicles.

"The thieves are moving into this field as these vehicles become more popular," one auto spokesman said. "It's very tough to identify them too, because there are so many manufacturers."

About 84 percent of stolen cars are now recovered, down from 92 percent (of the 288,300 cars stolen) recovered in 1959.

"Thus, as a larger percentage of the thefts are by pros, the percentage of cars recovered will probably continue to drop.

While the locks apparently won't stop a professional thief, the warning devices which are available as accessories may stall him.

One auto man said, "a warning system individually tailored to a car can be successful. But if the warning system is installed on a production line, then the thieves know how to beat it."

"They will go to junk yards and buy wrecked cars just to 'operate' on them — like a school for thieves."

AUTOMOBILE DRIVING SELF-TAUGHT, by THOMAS H. RUSSELL and ENGELMAN'S AUTOCRAFT by ROY A. ENGELMAN, Chilton Book Company.

Do you expect starting trouble this winter?

Then try this procedure: Flood carburetor. Close air intakes with cloth. Prime cylinders with a half teaspoon of gasoline. Advance spark little more than usual because of lag in ignition. Soak cloth with gasoline and put in air intake so gas can be drawn into cylinders. Keep throttle well open. Warm carburetor, being sure no water gets into air intake.

Advice Dated 1909

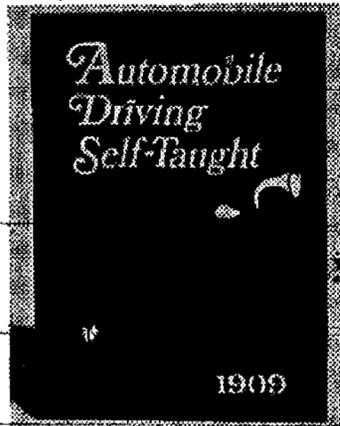

This advice, which should serve you well if you drive a 1909 model car, is contained in a fascinating volume, "Automobile Driving Self-Taught." Along with "Engelman's Autocraft," the book has been re-issued by Chilton Book Company as a contribution to the nostalgia craze which is sweeping the country.

Originally published in 1909, the Russell book predated the time of strict auto licensing and of reliable and universally available repair service. Each intrepid motorist was his own driving mechanic and often his own

Difficult for Novice

Indeed, the vagaries of the old-time car made the job of the novice driver difficult indeed. Russell advised that "the driver should have a large door at each end to save a lot of time and trouble reversing." In addition, owners were plagued by constant tire trouble, the necessity of advancing or retarding the sparking frequently and maneuvering the car along muddy or rutted roadways.

Yet some of the advice of-details of your automobile." Since the motorist of earlier times was considered more of a sportsman than, say, a young mother shepherding the kids to the Brownie meeting, rules of the road were important.

Might Get Ticket

Engelman admonishes, "Don't curse police officers. It is your duty as a citizen to understand the rules of street traffic, rules which the police help enforce."

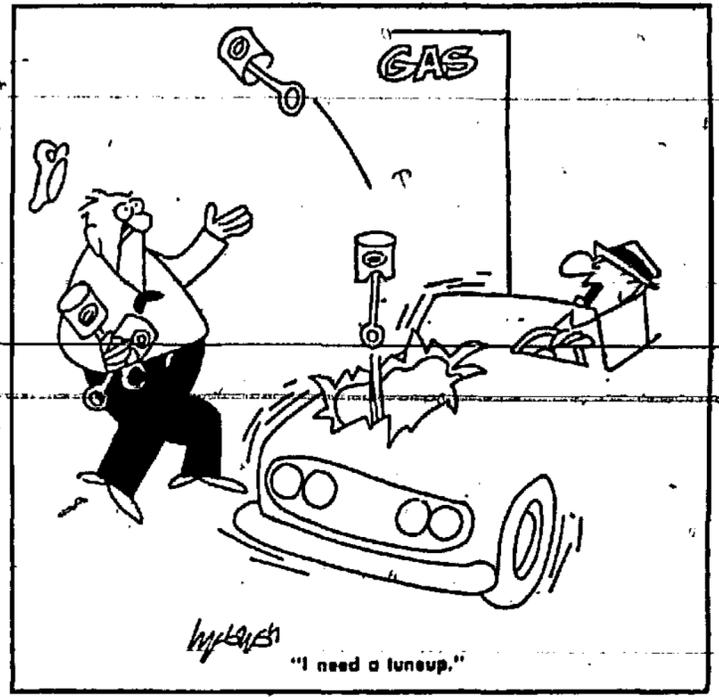

Of course, dealing with horses and "sommnambulant" pedestrians also plagued the motorist of the early years. Warnings were issued that while city horses were becoming accustomed to automobiles, their rural counterparts were still car-shy. So caution was urged.

Both of these volumes are valuable additions to any car buff's library. Even if your buffery is luke-warm you'll find much to instruct and amuse in these two Chilton volumes.

ferred in the two volumes would benefit today's car owner.

Engelman writes, "Much of the satisfaction that an automobile gives depends on the driver. If he neglects his automobile, if he does not lubricate it, or if he tinkers with it too much, he is bound to receive unsatisfactory service."

He continues, "Your satisfaction will be greatly increased if you will learn the

ADVICE TO WOMEN who DRIVE... and MEN, Too... from DeDe BENSON... a woman who does

Dear DeDe:
I am the mother of three school-age children and it seems like I spend half my time chauffeuring them to school, music lessons, Scouts and a dozen other places.

My neighbor has children about the same age and we try to share the driving when the youngsters are going to the same place. Lately, however, it seems that every time it's her turn to drive she claims she has starting trouble. I don't believe her. We live in a warm climate so I don't see how she has starting trouble.

How can I get across to her that I resent her excuses without starting an unwanted neighborhood feud?

DISGUSTED DORIS
Long Beach, California

DEAR DORIS:
Before getting to the core of your problem, don't assume that because you live in a warm climate you can't have starting problems. Statistics show that drivers in your part of the country have just as much or more starting trouble than car owners in colder areas. Why? People in the frigid zones tune their cars more faithfully than people in your balliwick.

Tell your neighbor that you just had your car tuned and that it really runs better and that you start more easily than ever. Also tell her that your tune-up is helping cut pollution levels. She may just get the hint and you'll gain a co-pilot on your driving chores.

Dear DeDe:
I'm a single girl, just out of college and I've bought my first car.

Frankly, every time I take it in for service, I feel I am being condescended to, because I am a woman. I have no complaints about the service, but I resent being told, in so many words, "You wouldn't understand" when I ask exactly what was done to my car.

What can a girl learn the basics of auto mechanics?

DIANE J.
Astoria, Long Island

DEAR DIANE:
Check your local YWCA. Many YW's offer classes in Powderpuff Mechanics. They are not too technical, yet they do give you a basic understanding of what makes a car tick and what services are needed.

pair your brake system after the course, but you should be able to put a stop to what's bothering you.

Dear DeDe:
Help me settle an argument with my husband. My car's owner's manual tells me to change oil every 4,000 miles. I only put about 6,000 miles a year on my car. So I change my oil about every eight months. My husband says oil should be changed every two months. Does he know more than the owner's manual?

D.E.
Winnipeg, Manitoba

Dear D.E.:
Your husband is right. The owner's manual obviously is referring to normal driving. Your 6,000 miles a year is well below normal and indicates that most of your travel is short trips to the market and running errands. This kind of driving is tough on the engine since it seldom reaches efficient operating temperature. So, the oil supply can become contaminated. Making sure your oil is fresh is about the cheapest insurance policy against premature engine wear. Listen to hubby and enjoy your car.

New York City is called, among other things, the stolen car capital of the world. Chicago is running second. One auto executive theorizes, "I know there are a lot of organized groups in New York and Chicago who steal cars — make a business out of this."

Dressings Belong On Salads, Not On Your Ailing V-Belt

If the V-belt on your car is squealing or appears to be slipping, it's time to do something about it. But, the answer is not to apply belt dressing.

The maker of one major V belt line advises against belt dressing. For one good reason. All belt dressings contain an oil base penetrant which ultimately softens the belt and shortens belt life.

Their advice is to look for the cause. If a belt slips, forget the dressing and have the belt tensioned to manufacturers' specifications. The result will be longer lasting and the belt won't be damaged.

If the V-belt is noisy, belt dressing may provide some relief but it will be short-lived and belt damage can result. Noise is usually caused by dirt, dust, rusty water and/or anti-freeze. The solution is as simple as thoroughly cleaning the belt and pulleys, or realigning pulleys and retensioning belt.

Don't use any dressings! Find the cause... and have your mechanic correct it.

Keeping Car in Best Condition a Must For Winter Driving

A penny saved is a dollar squandered.

That's not how Poor Richard stated the case, but Poor Richard lived in an era before the automobile. If Destitute Dick had been a car owner he probably would have applied another of his famous sayings to the situation — "A stitch in time saves nine."

While most of us today are more careful than ever about how we shell out our money, neglecting needed car maintenance is a false saving. Let's look at the facts.

Most of us depend upon our cars for our livelihoods. Cars take 82 percent of us to work and back. Most of us seek out recreation by automobile, with 86 percent of all travelers using automobiles.

Most Important for Season

So, particularly in the coming months of winter weather, it is important to keep your car in top running condition, whether we're going to work or play.

How, exactly, does stinting on maintenance lead to potentially major expenditures? Consider these examples:

- Merely washing and waxing your car to keep its body rust-free can mean a savings of several hundred dollars at trade-in time.

- Changing the oil and filter at recommended times can prevent premature and expensive engine wear.

- Regular tune-ups can cut gasoline bills, prevent road service bills and, in some cases, head off engine damage.

- Wheel alignments, rotating and balancing tires can make your tires last 25 percent longer.

- General car care makes your car safer and helps prevent accidents. Some estimates state that 10 percent of all fatal accidents can be attributed to neglect of maintenance.

Today, there are even stronger reasons for good car care. A well-maintained engine, tuned to manufacturer's specifications, pollutes significantly less than a neglected one. Even with pollution-reducing improvements on the new cars, maintenance is the key to keeping pollution levels low.

Best Car Expenditure of Winter

Your investment in keeping your car in condition may be the best expenditure you make this season.

Visit your favorite service outlet soon to begin reaping the rewards of that investment — safer, surer performance from your car.

A Ten Count Guide to . . . Your Car Safety

From Canada Safety Council

In boxing, a 10-count signifies a knockout. In driving, according to the Canada Safety Council, your car is subject to a 10-count too. That is 10 basic safety flaws and any one of them could count your car out of action.

The Council provides a list of the following ills and how you can detect them while driving. It also suggests having the symptoms corrected by your favorite service outlet as soon as you detect them.

1. The brake pedal sinks to the floor under light foot pressure. This could mean worn brake linings or a leak of fluids in the system.
2. The car pulls constantly to one side when stopping. Possible causes include poor wheel alignment or brake lining worn on one side or oil soaked on one side, both due to wheel cylinder defects.
3. Excessive play in steering. Likely causes are a worn or faulty steering box, or worn or faulty ball joints, tie-rod ends, relay rods or idler arms.
4. Your car vibrates at 50 to 65 mph. Chances are defective tires, incorrect wheel balance or incorrect alignment is the cause.
5. Steering column shim-mies at high or low speeds. Check for looseness in front end, defective shock absorbers or out of round tires with some flat surfaces.
6. Rear wheel locking upon light application of the brakes. The cause is probably a faulty or leaking oil seal.
7. Too much play in the steering while driving. Improper tire inflation or faulty front or rear suspension should be suspected.
8. Excessive noise from the exhaust system. Check exhaust-pipe, muffler or tail pipe for damage.
9. Unusual odors inside the car. This could have many sources but signals some engine defect.
10. Directional signal light not working. Check for burnt out bulb or defective flasher unit.

WHERE THERE'S A HILL THERE'S A WAY TO ENJOY WINTER, whether on a snowmobile, skis, sled or toboggan. Cold-weather sporting opportunities have turned former winter-time hibernators into outdoor enthusiasts. Even though motoring to winter resorts may be more rigorous, a car that's kept in good condition will get you there every time. (Photo courtesy of Johnson Motors.)

Pre-Winter Tune-Up Insurance Against Hard Start Problem

A pre-winter tune-up remains the motorist's best insurance against starting problems.

This was one of the findings of the most recent study of hard starting problems conducted by Champion Spark Plug Company. Motorists in the United States and Canada were surveyed on their winter-time starting experience and on maintenance performed on their cars during the winter.

Results of the survey indicated:

Motorists who corrected hard starting by charging their batteries had up to three times the incidence of repeated failures than those who had tune-ups performed. Motorists who replaced batteries to correct starting problems still had from 28 percent more repeated trouble (in the U.S.) to 90 percent more (in Canada) than tune-up purchasers.

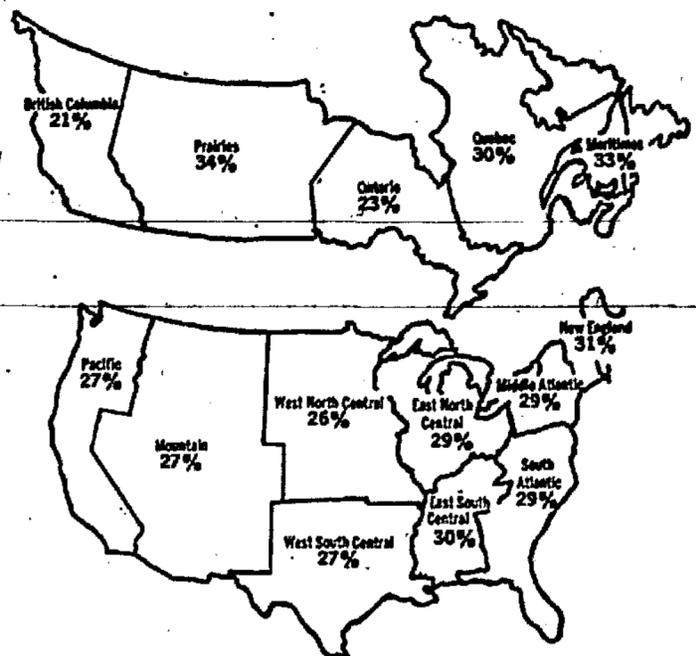

The effect of pre-winter maintenance was also demonstrated in the survey. In the United States, 28 percent of all motorists had starting problems at least once during the winter. Canadian car owners, living in a considerably colder climate, had a 27 percent rate of "won't starts."

Key factor in these statistics, according to Champion, is the comparative rate of tune-up purchases. In the U.S., less than one out of every three motorists (33.1 percent) purchased a pre-winter tune-up. In Canada, 41.6 percent bought tune-ups.

The fact that residents of colder areas are more tune-up conscious than their warmer-climbed counterparts is reflected in regional breakdowns of starting problems.

Motorists in the West North Central U.S. (including Minnesota, the Dakotas, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska) had four percent less starting trouble than motorists in Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Geor-

No Area is Immune

No region of the United States or Canada is immune from starting trouble. Motorists in warm California or Florida are as likely to have difficulty as car owners in Montana and Michigan. In fact, motorists in cold Ontario have only slightly more starting trouble than their British Columbia counterparts who enjoy a mild winter climate. When comparing the two provinces in terms of tune-up purchases, the reason is apparent. Ontario has a high incidence of tune-ups while British Columbia has a low one. Compared to the U.S. average, Ontario has about five percent less starting trouble.

State drivers.

The message seems to read, for trouble-free winter driving START with a tune-up.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

A two percent incidence of spark plug misfire can more than double the rate of hydrocarbon emissions from a car's engine, according to Champion Spark Plug Company.

AVOID PROBLEMS

Dirty battery terminals can cut off your car's power quicker than an unpaid electric bill. Make sure your battery cables and terminals are clean.

Everybody's talking about pollution but did you know you really can do something about it?

A recent tune-up clinic conducted with a large number of cars by engineering students at the University of Michigan found this: A tune-up did reduce exhaust pollution—a big 55% on the average. Of course, in some cars the reduction was less. But in others, exhaust pollutants were reduced even more.

Please. Won't you make it a point to take your car in for a tune-up? At least once a year or every 10,000 miles.

Toledo, Ohio 43601

Further clinic results are in the free factbook, WHAT YOU CAN DO ABOUT YOUR CAR'S EXHAUST POLLUTION. Send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to: Tune-Up Clinic Factbook, P. O. Box 910, Toledo, Ohio 43601

Why does your car need Tune-Up No. 2 now? Engines generate heat. Lots of heat. Only a properly operating cooling system can remove that heat and keep your engine at the proper temperature. Drive with worn V belt. Faulty radiator cap or thermostat. A leaking hose and you're asking for trouble. Overheating drives your engine mad. Breakdowns are expensive repairs. Tune-Up No. 2 is a thorough tune-up. It replaces cooling belt. Checks, repairs and adjusts all engine parts. There's a lot more to it than you think.

District 3A sacked up by Grizzlies, Hatch is last on regular schedule

The Carrizozo Grizzly football team racked up its 7th win of the season and the District 3A championship at Reserve Friday with a 60-0 win.

Grizzlies started the game in a very determined way and managed to control the ball for most of the first period, during a time of no scoring.

In the second quarter, behind the blocking of David Roper, Rusty Leslie, Shawn Look and David Lee — Jim Speight found lots of daylight and scored the first TD for the Grizzlies on a 3-yard run. Matt Ellison ran for 2, score 8-0.

Willie Callagoe started to open the game as he, along with Speight, Ellison and Gaby Chavez moved the ball down field, capped by Willie's 5-yard run for score. Willie also ran the extra point, score 16-0.

Two plays later Willie scored a Reserve pass and ran 62 yards with the interception for another touchdown, and again he added 2 on run for PAT, score 24-0. All this in the second quarter.

After intermission the Grizzlies continued to roll as Speight climaxed another Zozo drive on a 10-yard run. Kick for PAT was short, score 30-0.

After recovering an outside kick, Gaby Chavez hit Shawn Look on a 51-yard touchdown pass, Willie ran for 2, score 38-0.

Reserve had pretty well played itself out and wasn't really in the ball game by now, Willie took a punt and took off on one of his patented runs, this one good for 48 yards and 2 more points. Again he ran for 2, score 46-0.

In the 4th quarter with the ball on the Zozo 11-yard line, Chavez found David Roper behind the Reserve defense and threw a long bomb to complete a 48-yard TD pass. Run for PAT failed, score 52-0.

Callagoe went into the end zone for the 4th time on a 11-yard run and Chavez scored the 2

11 questions are important

On Tuesday, November 2, New Mexico voters have the opportunity to vote in a special election where eleven (11) questions will be on the ballot. A majority of these 11 questions are important to the future of our state.

1. This amendment lowers voting age in all elections from 21 to 18. By the 26th Amendment to the United States Constitution, the voting age has already been lowered to 18. Passage of Amendment No. 1 makes our state constitution be the same as the federal constitution. We recommend "yes" vote.

2. Will increase per diem expense for members of legislature from $20 to $40 and starting payment of legislators serving on interim committees. We suggest "yes" vote.

3. Most sportsmen, ranchers and people living in rural areas will support passage of Amendment 3 which changes wording and broadens the right of citizens to keep and bear arms by adding the following language, "for lawful hunting and recreational use and for other lawful purpose." Use of the word "citizen" establishes certain requirements and responsibilities for the exercise of this right. Vote "yes" recommended.

4. We believe a "yes" vote for Amendment 3 to be a good vote. Passage of this amendment would repeal Article 9, Section 5, of Constitution which reads as follows: "The provision of

6. Property assessment levied on property subject for most people. Amendment 6 sets a maximum value for tax purposes which is not to exceed 33-1/3 percent. Passage of this amendment would protect property against excessive taxation. We will vote "yes."

7. Too much property now exempt from taxation. We'll vote "no" on exempting water user cooperatives.

8. We believe a "yes" vote for Amendment 8 to be a good vote. Passage of this amendment would repeal Article 9, Section 5, of Constitution which reads as follows: "The provision of

9. This amendment is considered to be a mandate to the Legislature to provide for the control of pollution in New Mexico. We need it, will vote "yes."

10. This Amendment deletes the authorization for state-wide property tax levy for support of public schools. It also deletes the provisions for 1) distribution of the current school fund; 2) a minimum school year of five months, and a school reserve fund. "Yes" vote recommended.

11. Sale of liquor on Sunday in New Mexico is on a local (county) basis. New Mexico bars and private clubs have been selling drinks on Sunday during all but seven of the past 28 months. No problems have developed in Lincoln County during this period. You can vote your way, same as you can on the previous 10 questions.

Mary Meyer, language arts and art teacher in Carrizozo, has an unusual background for her teaching. At age three she went with her parents who were Lutheran missionaries to Japan and lived there 10 years, plenty long enough to learn the Japanese language. Back in the States she attended the University of Southern California and received a B.A. Degree in History, all of this plus a natural flare for art is motivation for a wide range of art projects in Carrizozo School. Miss Meyer's parents live in El Paso.

NAVAJO vs. HAGERMAN, ZOZO vs. MELROSE

Melrose wrapped up the District 2A championship with 45-16 win over Vaughn while Carrizozo was doing the same in District 3A at Reserve winning handily 60-0.

These two teams will meet next week at place not yet designated in playoff game going into state championship game the following week.

In District 1A Navajo Mission has one game remaining and should play Hagerman the District 4A champion, also at place not designated.

These two games shape up as much better and more evenly matched contests than in past years. Melrose lost its first two games then won six in a row and is 3-0 in league play. Hagerman has only lost one game, that to Dell City, Texas, and has six wins against the loss. Navajo Mission played McCurdy Mission, Wingate, Chino, Dulce, Thoreau, Aztec B, Zuni and plays Mountainair this week.

In a separate statement, Mr. Carille stated that "people in this area have given this bank their whole hearted support; and in our effort to repay this debt, we have always searched for better ways to serve them. We believe through becoming a member of the Security Family of Banks, we can do this."

School appoints hearing authority

A new title has been designated and new person appointed to an official position by Carrizozo school board at its last meeting --for work that may never have to be done. The board appointed a local school patron as "hearing authority" for the sole purpose of hearing, and hopefully settling, arguments that might come up between students - teachers - patrons - board, etc. This "hearing authority" is expected to hear both sides of any argument and seek a solution if possible.

Other action taken by the board of education included: --Hearing report on budget, cash in bank, lunch fund and activity fund.

--Approval of transfer of funds, $10,779 from general building fund to principal fund.

--Discussed second evaluation meeting held with State Department of Education October 14, when behavioral objectives were worked out. Items of testing for seniors at end of year were started. Next meeting will be December 1.

--Hear report that educational television satellite is expected to be in operation in 1973 to serve the Rocky Mountain area.

--Supt. Jim Steingreis will attend a finance workshop Oct. 28-29 at Roswell.

--Warrant register disposed of. Attending were Ziggy Lessau, Paul Ortiz, Bob Stearns, Ray Wells and Veda Lou Stephenson.
