Scoop favored but HHH gets The marbles

(Way of the West column has, again this week, as its guest composer, regularly featured Paul Payton's number two son, Tony P., occasional southland visitor from Nevada.)

Getting the inside dope; Lincoln County's Democratic chairman—or is that chairwoman—Fern Sawyer, of Nogal, says she's high on Presidential hopeful Henry "Scoop" Jackson, the Washington senator. But, she adds, last time's standard-bearer Minnesota senator Hubert Humphrey will probably win her party's nomination in Miami. Until death do us part: Sunday was the final day of skiing at the last three areas still open in New Mexico—Sierra Blanca being one of them. And I liked the little story out of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., which said as some 50 persons watched, a paper snowman was burned in effigy in the middle of a tennis court on the Lake Superior State College campus Monday to mark the end of winter. With appropriate notice: the regulars on the staff of the Lincoln County News were with shining faces this week. David LaFave is back in the fold. Speaking of spring, folks around town say when an early spring comes—sort of an Indian summer in reverse—that we always pay for it later in terms of lousy weather. But it is getting awfully late to start snowing seriously. For your calendars: racing starts at Ruidoso May 20, which is just 59 days from now. That, if anything, probably can signify the official start of the tourist season throughout Lincoln County. On the other end; the All-American Futurity on Labor Day comes on Sept. 4 this year—making for a total tourist season of 107 days. Which probably is just about the right length of time in which to get tired of the out-of-towners and be plenty glad to get Lincoln County back for a while. You meet the strangest people: Monday evening at the Nike tavern this guy came in. He looked familiar, but just not familiar enough. After wondering for at least an hour and half, he finally comes over and says the usual opener: "Don't I know you from someplace." Sure enough, fellow classmate from Clayton High School Ronnie Street—now working for Lockheed at White Sands—was there hadn't seen him in 13 years. In the big hotels in Nevada, one attending a show featuring a big name star can send free postcards to his friends. Two things are accomplished; the one being entertained can brag to his friends about what he's doing and, two, the casino gets the advertisement that covers one side of the card. Local folks there, however, make much fun and games out of sending such cards, but without signing them. One came to Carrizozo this week from someone—whomever it was—who was having a good time at Harrah's in Reno seeing Sergio Franchi on stage. Have I recently recalled for faithful readers my long-standing opinion of national columnist Jack Anderson? Well, from past experience I figure that only about 40 percent of what's in his column can be believed. The other 60 percent shouldn't see the light of day because its either not of sufficient value to rate news coverage or, sometimes, it just out-and-out wrong. A breather here and there: this probably won't happen too often in the next couple of months, but, to my knowledge, no state-wide political candidates are slated to pay visits to Carrizozo during the next seven-day period. My traveling father, back from three days on the road to Ft. Stockton and Alpine, Texas, reports that Ft. Stockton and that part of the Lone Star State doesn't appear to amount to much; but that Alpine is something else—a nice town in nice surroundings. The National Livestock and Meat Board reports that 25 years ago Americans spent six percent of their disposable (after taxes) income on meat. Today, they spend only five-percent—yet Americans consume nearly 25 percent more meat per person now than then. There's something wrong with that and it likely isn't the ranchers. Enough is always enough. Isn't it?

At county convention

Five Demos announce for commission race

Five Lincoln County men announced last week they will be candidates for county commissioner in the Democratic Party primary election.

The announcements came at the party's county convention last Wednesday evening in Carrizozo. At the county meeting, 12 members were named delegates to the party's state platform convention in Albuquerque at the end of this month.

The five announced Democratic candidates for county commissioner add up to one of the more hotly contested local elections in recent years in Lincoln County. Three Republicans have also indicated they will file for the commissioners' races.

For the district one commissioner's seat, Captain rancher Walt Jones and Picacho rancher R. C. Nunez, a former commissioner, announced they would seek election to the post now held by fellow-Democrat Charles Jones, of Captain, who cannot succeed himself.

And, two Ruidoso men indicated they will be candidates for the district three commissioners' seat, which is currently held by Republican Don D. Stark, also of Ruidoso. Announcing their intentions to become candidates were real-estate broker Bill Hart and Tom Jones, who was in the electric business in the Ruidoso area. Stark, too, cannot run again.

Announcing for the district two position was Sally Ortiz, of Carrizozo, who some years ago was sheriff in this county. He will run for the post being vacated by Willis Holt Lovelace, of Corona.

County Democratic chairman Fern Sawyer, of Nogal, said there were no candidates announcing for the five other courthouse offices—other than probate judge candidate Austin Wooten, of Carrizozo, who had announced his election plans earlier in the month. "We just haven't got anyone to run for these offices yet," Mrs. Sawyer said.

Local Democrats filled the commissioners' meeting room for the convention, at which the 12 delegates to the state conventions were named. The delegates are Mrs. Sawyer; county vice chairman, Rev. John Miner, of Ruidoso; R. C. Nunez; Cleo and Dale Dodd, of Ruidoso; Bill Payne, of Carrizozo; Welcolm Armstrong, of Carrizozo; and Georgia Harkey, of Nogal.

The delegation, headed by Mrs. Sawyer, is to attend the state platform convention in Albuquerque March 31 and April 1. And the same delegates were designated to attend the state party election convention June 21, also in Albuquerque.

Mrs. Sawyer said she believes all members of the Lincoln County delegation will be going to the state election convention as uncommitted to any Presidential candidate.

Mrs. Sawyer added that she expects it will be extremely difficult for any rural county delegates to win a place on New Mexico's state delegation to the national Democratic convention in Miami Beach. But she said she plans to attend the national meeting—as she has for a number of past attendings.

Also attending the convention were district judge Richard Stanley, of Alamogordo, who is a candidate for re-election to a six-year term to the post he now holds; another Otero Countyman, Page Carter, who is a candidate for the state House of Representatives in the 52nd district; and district attorney Norman Bloomer, who is also running in the up-coming elections.

High on a hill . . .

THIS HILLTOP IN the Valley of Fire State Park west of Carrizozo will be the setting for the fifth annual sunrise celebration on Easter Sunday. Here, a 16-year-old youth raises the second of three crosses on Sunrise Hill. The "Four County Easter Sunrise Musical Drama" will begin at 6:06 a.m. April 2.

Four county choruses in Easter sunrise program

Chorus groups of young people from four southern New Mexico counties will participate in the fifth annual sunrise celebration at Valley of Fire State Park on Easter Sunday.

The singing groups will be from Lincoln, Chavez, Otero and Socorro Counties. This is twice the number of groups that participated in the colorful service last year.

Theme of the performance this year will be the same as last—"brotherhood in unity without uniformity," said Sunrise director chaplain Alfred Kline.

In addition to the choral performers, there will be instrumental music, as well as costumed players. Mr. Kline added that dressed in native attire, just below the three 16-foot crosses, will be pairs of Indian Americans, Japanese Americans, Black Americans, Mexican Americans and Anglo Americans.

Following the 40-minute dawn celebration, refreshments of coffee and donuts for 1,000 persons will be served. And, Mr. Kline said, an "open house for friends, neighbors and all visitors to the park" will be hosted by the chaplain and Mrs. Kline on the Saturday before Easter from 2 to 6 p.m. in their home on Outpost Hill overlooking Captain.

The performance—touched off by the first ray of sunlight—will start with the Otero County chorus singing "Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory." Other music in the program includes "Echoes of Glory," "Low in the Grave He Lay," "Up From the Grave He Arose" and "On a Hill Far Away."

In the event of inclement weather, the performance will be moved into the high school gym in Carrizozo.

Civilians stay put

Military moves out of Stallion

White Sands Missile Range officials announced today that military personnel will no longer be stationed at the W.S.M.R. Stallion Range Center near Socorro.

Effective April 1, the action affects 41 military personnel, including four officers and 37 soldiers. Effected personnel will be transferred to other activities on W.S.M.R.

With the transfer of troops from Stallion some facilities used for their support will also be closed. These include the mess hall, barracks, military security operations office and commissary, post exchange and NCO club annexes.

The facilities will be reverted to a stand-by status for future use as required.

The move, according to White Sands officials, will not affect 108 other Department of Army civilians and 104 contractor personnel now headquartered at Stallion and engaged in such activities as recovery, communications, and facilities engineering operations.

The main gate into the Stallion Range Center complex of U. S. Hwy. 380 47 miles west of Carrizozo will continue to be manned by military police during normal working hours. During non-working hours and non-duty days a soon-to-be erected gate will be kept locked.

Persons desiring entry will be required to call for the center care-taker for entry.

New brochure for Valley of Fire park

A new brochure publicizing Valley of Fire State Park has been published by the New Mexico Bureau of Mines in cooperation with the State Park and Recreation Commission.

Among the features in the new, two-color publication is a definition of the geology of the malpais, a classification of the plants and animals found in the park, the history of the black lava, as well as other tourists sites in the immediate area around Carrizozo.

The brochure calls the six-year-old park "A vivid example of some of the dynamic processes that have shaped the face of the earth."

Industrial development rides on chicken or egg theory

A good-sized crowd attended the town meeting in Carrizozo recently to hear discussion of possible industrial development and construction of industrial park.

The meeting was friendly, government people stated that they were here to help set up an industrial park, not to find reasons why such action should not be taken.

But, after a couple of hours of questions and answers, the situation on the part of Town of Carrizozo and government agencies who would be putting in money all boiled down to "What comes first, the chicken or the egg?"

And by what comes first they mean that an industry will have to be secured, one that will sign a firm intent to locate in Carrizozo, before either the town or the government will make a move to establish an industrial park.

It seems rather logical that once such a park were established that other industries, maybe 10 to 50 employees, would come along.

Chuck Garrett, from the Austin regional office of the Economic Development Administration, told the group that the questions he would ask were intended to "find a way," but he was not long in making it clear that the EDA would not spend $60,000.00 on nothing, and Mayor Johnson Stearns agreed that the Town of Carrizozo did not want to go that route.

Land for the proposed industrial park is owned by Joe West who will trade for a piece of land owned by the town, reserving only small area where his Cable TV tower now stand. The railroad spur runs right through this piece of land.

Of the three steps to an industrial park outlined by Garrett, the town has already gone through See Page Seven

Full strength by next week

Lincoln National Forest ready for fire season

The Lincoln National Forest fire control crew is tolling up for the summer fire season and should be at full-strength by the end of next week.

Ranger Tom Goodrich said the Forest Service is currently in the process of adding 19 persons to the forestry staff for the summer season. Yesterday he told this newspaper that 15 of the positions have been filled, with the other four to be filled in the near future.

The forest service is getting an early start this year due to the extreme dryness of the area. Goodrich explained that the fire danger ratings this week have been changing from danger to extremely danger—depending on the wind velocity.

"With a 25 to 30 m.p.h. wind (like Tuesday) we're in extreme fire conditions," he said. And Lincoln National Forest isn't alone in the southwest. Southwestern regional forester William D. Hurst said the danger of wildfire is also very high to extreme in Cibola, Apache, Gila, Coronado and Tonto National Forests in New Mexico and Arizona. In the 12 national forests in the two states, more than 70 fires have already been reported and more than 1,000 acres have already been burned.

Hurst predicted another critical, prolonged fire season that could be worse than 1971—when some 130,000 acres were blackened.

Goodrich said that the new personnel in the Lincoln Forest includes seven for the helicopter operation, five for the ground water tanker, six for ground patrol duty, as well as two lookouts.

The helicopter, to be stationed at Captain, is due here April 1.

In addition, a four-man ground tanker crew is being sent here from the El Dorado National Forest in northern California. The 500-gallon tanker will also be stationed at Captain.

And, the forest will have three air tankers on duty from the municipal airport at Alamogordo. The planes are contracted to the forestry by Black Hills Aviation Company, a firm that was located in South Dakota but is now permanently located in Otero County.

Goodrich said southern residents have been given priority in the hiring, but the some positions have been filled by persons from out-of-state.

The ranger said he was soliciting the aid of local residents again this year to help in fire control. "We've had excellent cooperation from the local people in the past—they are aware of the dangerous conditions."

"And, we're soliciting they're continuing help," he said.

Learning to read . . .

Robert Portio, Mable Padilla, John Paul Ventura, Bill Lucero and Anthony Vallejos. While the students listen to the recording, Mrs. Germany is free to give special attentions to individual students, superintendent Jimmy Steinpreis explained.

Double wedding celebrants . . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Mannie Hernandez and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hernandez

Double wedding at St. Rita Catholic Church March 11

A beautiful double wedding was solemnized at St. Rita Catholic Church in Carrizozo March 11 at 9:30 a.m. with Father Clive Lynn officiating at the nuptial mass.

Marriage vows were exchanged between Mary Schlarb, daughter of Mrs. Marian Schlarb of Carrizozo and Mannie Hernandez and between Belinda Ingram, daughter of Mrs. Mary Ferriera of Farmington and Albert Hernandez Jr. Mannie and Albert are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hernandez of Carrizozo.

Mary was given in marriage by her brother, Robert Schlarb, and Belinda by her grandfather, Ivan Mills of Durango, Colo.

The altar was decorated with baskets of white daisies, pompon chrysanthemums, and carnations interlaced with bridal wreath and decorated with white doves.

The high mass was read by the light of many white candles.

The wedding selections were played at the organ by Mrs. Robert Shafer.

The brides' wedding gowns were fashioned in empire style, satin overlaid with lace. The neckline, sleeves, and hem of Mary's gown were edged with embroidered daisies and her veil with train, outlined with daisies, was held in place by a miniature satin cap. She carried a nosegay of white daisies and pompons.

Belinda's gown was fashioned with high neckline and satin waistband, both decorated with lace flowers, studded with sequins. Her veil, floor length with train, was edged with lace and held in place by a tiara decorated with pearls and brilliants. She carried a cascade of white mums and carnations intermingled with bridal wreath.

The bridegrooms wore formal attire with boutonnières of white carnations.

Attendants for Mary were the matron of honor, Mrs. Priscilla Hernandez, aunt of the groom and bridesmaids, Mary Hernandez, sister of the groom and Gloria Hernandez, cousin of the groom. Mrs. Hernandez wore a lilac chiffon floor length gown with headband to match her gown. She carried a nosegay of lilac carnations. The bridesmaids wore chiffon floor length gowns. Mary's was aqua trimmed with white lace. She carried a bouquet of white daisies encircled with aqua net. Gloria's dress was rose chiffon with matching headband. She carried a nosegay of white carnations and rose net.

Joe Hernandez, uncle of the groom, served as best man.

The ring bearer was Sean Rowan. He carried the wedding bands on a heart shaped satin pillow. Kimberly Rowan wore a white lace dress trimmed with daisies and carried a basket of daisy petals.

Attendants for Belinda were Mrs. Viola Hernandez aunt of the groom, as matron of honor and Yolanda Hernandez, sister of the groom and Darlene Luna. The matron of honor wore a lilac floor length gown fashioned in empire style, with matching headband. She carried a nosegay of lilac feather flowers. The bridesmaids wore nine green chiffon floor length gowns with short puffed sleeves trimmed with tiny yellow and green flowers and headpieces of nine green.

Pat Hernandez, ring bearer carried the wedding bands on a heart shaped satin pillow. Patricia Hernandez, as flower girl, carried a white basket of carnation petals.

Mary's mother, Mrs. Marian Schlarb, wore an A-line rose colored dress with corsage of red carnations trimmed with silver. She wore a pillbox hat of white lace.

Belinda's mother was unable to attend. The mother of the grooms wore a two-piece costume suit of white lace, with red pill box hat and veil. Her corsage was of red carnations trimmed with gold.

A reception was held at the country club immediately after the ceremony. Two-hundred-fifty guests attended. The brides table was laid with a Belgian linen tablecloth with flower arrangements of daisies and anemones. Mannie and Mary's wedding cake had Roman columns supporting the four tier cake which was decorated with pink roses and sky blue sweet peas. The traditional bride and groom ornament and silver leaves and love birds added additional accents. Albert and Belinda's cake was decorated with lavender roses and mint green leaves. The caption "Young Love" was inscribed on the cake. Mrs. Johnnie Dale of Alamogordo designed and decorated both cakes.

Beatrice Sheehan was in charge of the guest books.

After a short honeymoon the couples returned to Carrizozo where they will make their homes.

Out of town guests included Mary Hernandez and Paul Heck of Albuquerque, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Gujela and Frañcis of Roswell, Mrs. Miquela Hernandez of Hondo, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hernandez and family of Hondo, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Montes and Leola of Ft. Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Romero of Hondo, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hernandez and Patti of Alamogordo, Mrs. Lucy Montes and Jessica of Alamogordo, Mrs. and Mrs. Joe Hernandez of Alamogordo, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hernandez of Ruidoso, Mr. George Ingram of West Point, Wis., Ivan Mills and son Billy of Durango, Colo., Bernita, Mary, Ellen Ingram from Farmington, Kenneth Daniels, Gloria Sanchez, Rey Sanchez and Cathy of Alamogordo.

The contest has two age divisions, ten to thirteen years old and fourteen to eighteen years old. The State Contest will be held on April 9th. Any boy or girl may enter. Complete rules and suggestions can be obtained from the County Extension Office in the Courthouse Annex.

Your Weekly Horoscope

March 25 through March 31

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Time ideal to establish new level of relationship with family member whose recent judgment has been somewhat less than brilliant. You make first move. An suggestion offered by mid-week which you would do well to ponder. May concern your career. On last day, you see beyond the confines of your private and very protected little world.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): You're not exactly a nag, Taurus, but at times you tend to repeat your wishes and desires. Like over, and over and over. This clipping faucet technique annoys your daily associates. Watch it in week ahead. You have charm and animal magnetism, my sweet, and before end of fifth day one who admires you lets you know about it. Feast on the knowledge that you ARE desired, Taurus. Week ends on note of wonder.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Your emotional life is touched by newness. Respond. Get out of your, dear Gem, far the perfume of love is everywhere. You grow.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Seek variety in week ahead. Moonlove. For variety is more than just the "spice of life," it is what makes life worth living. Use imagination as far as your present relationship with loved one is concerned. Situation will improve immeasurably. (Delighted Moonblosses may send a note of thanks to old Olga in care of this paper.)

LEO (July 23-August 22): You are in position of complete control in week ahead, Leo. As usual. By remaining calm, you keep explosive situation from getting out of hand. Before last day you embark on new emotional journey. You will not travel alone. Passenger accompanies you. Bon voyage, baby!

Virgo (August 23-September 22): There is one whom you are apt to meet in week ahead who has the power to dissolve you into a puddle of ecstasy. A candle lights the dark places of your heart. Don't ask too many questions, dear friend. Just relax and enjoy, enjoy.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): You engage in a good deal of intimate honesty before the end of fourth day, Lib. In short, you level. You relate. You connect. Intuition will be unusually keen. Last day finds you walking with a secret spring in your step. Study message to Virgo for hidden words to you, sweet Libra.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Fashions may change, Scorp, but some things remain constant. One thing which never changes is your desire to find the "perfect relationship." During days ahead you get close which puts you on track of person who will measure up to your physical, as well as mental, standards. All in all, an absolutely smashing week!

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Dignity is key to success in week ahead. Flea-brained associate will attempt to rile you. Do not permit this to happen. Much is at stake. A bit of wheeling and dealing takes place behind the scenes, dear Sag. Hold your sassy head high and keep your thoughts to yourself, for a change. Time will come when you can express yourself more advantageously. You'll see.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): If you seek solution to problem in manny's attic, Cap, you do yourself a grave injustice. Forget the past, dear heart. Old hopes and dreams are not for you. It is the future which you must concern yourself with. Assume progressive, positive attitude, then others will respect you, and this is vital to your self-esteem. Week winds down quietly.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): Week excellent for career advancement. Avoid those who are involved only peripherally with serious work of hand. Make your own judgments and evaluations of complexities. By mid-week, you may be tempted to quibble with associate over malefic. Don't do it. You need your energy for more meaningful tasks. As week draws to a close, keep your peepers open. Dah! Cupid may come strolling down the pike.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Whew! Another one of those typical Pisces weeks, one filled with flitting, fun and flashes of insight. However, if all this goes to your head, Pisces, my sweet, you'll only become flustered and eventually flummoxed. Any nothing is more pathetic than a floundering fish.

Corona High students learn buying, selling

By Linda Caldwell

"Consumerism" and "consumer rights" are things we've heard a lot about lately, but just exactly how does one become a wise consumer who knows his rights as a buyer? Corona High School seniors know the answer: enroll in Mrs. Donna Lightfoot's consumer education course.

The class gives students the opportunity to learn about relevant topics which they can actually put to use later in their everyday lives as consumers. Each student in the class has been allowed to present a specific phase of consumer education and actually "grade" the other students' papers on that particular topic.

Mrs. Lightfoot feels that the system works well since the students have to prepare the lessons themselves. She fills in any gaps that she thinks need to be covered, but the burden of teaching falls on the students. "They certainly are strict, though, with their grading," commented Mrs. Lightfoot.

Most recent class project was a trip to Baca Chevrolet in Mountainair as part of a study of auto buying. Students Mike Tracey and Walter Elliot prepared a program on this subject and included such things as what to look for while testing a car on the lot, what to look for when buying, what to expect and look at in a used car, how to evaluate a dealer, responsibilities to consider when buying (such as insurance, finance charges, and credit agreements), trade-in value of a used car, and others.

Another topic which the class studied was advertising. Charlene Talley prepared this section and taught the class about what advertisers are really trying to do in their ads and the methods used to do so. Then each student wrote and performed in his own advertisement which was filmed. The playback of these "amateur ads" was not only convincing but also entertaining!

Karen Holleyman presented a lesson on buying and preparing foods in which she asked her classmates (boys as well as girls) to plan a day's meals using the basic four food groups. The class had the opportunity to cook their meals and compare the cost per person.

A program on clothing was given by Debbie Pope. She included hints for shopping, how to buy, and clothing care.

Joe and Danny Lueras cooperated in planning and presenting a study on "Spending Your Money." They typed a handout for each student with suggestions that consumers mind their money when shopping and plan their shopping. Advise on where to shop, what to expect in sale items, what to watch for in door-to-door salesmen, and where to find buying information was included. Students were then asked to compare prices of specific items in three different catalogues. Quality and product services were also to be considered.

Other interesting programs are being planned for the remainder of the semester. By the time these teens graduate, they should certainly be educated consumers, able to wisely choose products and services from the myriad shoved at them in today's commercialized environment.

Here's how it works . . .

MRS. BESSIE JONES of Capitan is showing an interested visitor how to make a belt on an inkle loom, one of the many attractions in the "Sheep to Shawl" exhibit to be on display at the Encino Fire Hall at 10 a.m. April 6.

'Sheep to Shawl' demonstration slated in Encino on April 6

Give a ranch woman a problem and sometimes her solution will astound you. Such is the case with a wool promotion group organized by Mrs. Janice Gnakowski, Lincoln County ranch wife. The group has grown from a simple beginning to a well known traveling exhibit.

People in the Torrance-Guadalupe-Lincoln-De Baca county area are invited to view the "Sheep to Shawl" demonstration at the Fire Hall in Encino April 6. The program will start at 10 a.m. with a demonstration of the processes wool goes through from the sheep to the finished product, a garment.

They will take the freshly shorn fleece and show how it is first teased then carded before it is spun into a yarn. After spinning the yarn it is then washed and dyed, using native plants such as mistletoe for the dye materials. Looms of woven material will be shown.

In late 1970, this local group recognized the need to have a better understanding of wool and its unique qualities and varied uses. Among the places the exhibit has traveled were the Lincoln County Fair, Eastern New Mexico Fair, and the New Mexico State Fair. The "Sheep to Shawl" exhibit was given the blue ribbon premium exhibit by the New Mexico State Fair in 1971.

4-H Club News

by Brett Carnell

The Corona Sioquima 4-H Club held its regular meeting Feb. 16. The meeting was opened with Brett Carnell and Janetta Foster leading the United States and 4-H pledges. Roll call was answered by naming two parts of a dairy cow.

During the business meeting various ways and means projects were discussed. The group also discussed some "Community Pride Projects." Amy Foster gave the program "Correct Judging Terms." She used charts to show the club various parts of a dairy cow, and helped them with terms used in giving reasons when judging dairy cows. Gregg Carnell showed his poster "What Am I?" to the club and explained it to the group.

Amy Foster gave a report on her trip to Teen Leader Conference. She explained that "Community Pride" would be the theme for 4-H clubs statewide. Suggestions for projects both at a community and county level are encouraged.

Officers of the Sioquima 4-H Club were installed in a candle light ceremony. The installation was read by Mrs. Carnell, with each officer and member lighting a candle from one of the four burning candles which represented Head, Heart, Hand and Health.

Group singing was led by Gregg Carnell. Following refreshments served by Jamesine Brown, Janetta Foster led the group in a word story game. Those attending the meeting were Jamesine and Bodie Brown, Leslie, Brett, Gregg and Cheri Carnell, Amy, Phoebe and Janetta Foster.

A project meeting for Home Living I was Feb. 23. The girls showed how to thread a needle and tie a knot. They made head bands out of ribbon, and started on "Know Your Sewing Machine."

IRS telephone service

Albuquerque district director Maurice E. Johnson said the Internal Revenue Service will provide extended office hour telephone service for New Mexico taxpayers through April 17. Beginning March 20, the hours for telephone service Monday through Friday were extended to 6 p.m.

Corona FHA girls attend state meet

Corona FHA chapter attended the 1972 State Convention March 11 in Albuquerque. The girls arrived a day early in order to also attend the State Basketball Tournament.

The convention started Saturday at 8 a.m. with registration in the lobby of Popejoy Hall. The morning session consisted of the presentation of colors, opening ceremony and a very inspiring invocation sung by Vivian Navares from Gadsden Senior High School. A play, "You can't Keep a Good Man Down," by Santa Fe, followed. Dr. Donald O. Clifton, a licensed psychologist from Lincoln, Nebraska, gave a speech entitled "The Drummer." His speech was about people in general and their ups and downs. The rest of the morning session was FHA business which included the election of State officers for 1972-73.

After lunch, several Corona Future Homemakers were ushers at the afternoon session. Among those were Jamesine Brown, Faith Foster, Karen McDaniels, Phoebe Foster, Colleen Williams, and Dianne McInnis. New State officers and skits were presented before a panel discussion on "Today's Girl - An Image of Change?" State officers of the Vocational Education Youth Clubs were panelists and Don Perkins was moderator. They discussed women's lib and other such topics. The session closed with the installation of the new State officers.

Sorority members solve 'kidnapping'

Gamma Theta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was surprised by the kidnapping of their hostess, Neva Brown, before the March 13 meeting. Members were given clues and finally found Mrs. Brown and Xi Beta Epsilon members at the home of Mrs. Jean Sultemeier.

After a short business meeting, the two chapters enjoyed playing cards. Patsy Mulkey, Nancy Stecker, Geraldine Perkins and Mary Anderson received prizes for their scores. Mrs. Sultemeier served various cakes, candies, and sandwiches along with strawberries or mitsover homemade ice cream.

Those present were Mmes. Pat Perkins, Geraldine Perkins, Jean Sultemeier, Kay Sultemeier, June Tyree, Sandra Alford, Mary Anderson, Joanne Washburn, Joette Wright, Patsy Mulkey, Neva Brown, Nancy Stecker, Helen Kliger, Denise Byrd, Elaine Horney, Kathy Williams and Miss Sherrill Perkins.

Corona High School choral program tonight

Corona High School Chorus will present a choral program Thursday at 7 p.m. in the school auditorium. It will be an informal affair with seating to be on the floor and there will be an admission charge.

In preparation for this program, the chorus traveled to Albuquerque last Saturday in order to be directed by a professional, Charles Woodruff led the group in two one-and-one-half hour sessions.

Chorus members also were able to watch the building of sets of "The King and I" to be performed in Albuquerque. The observation enabled the students to get an idea of what they will be doing in their own set-building for an upcoming play.

The group then visited the home of Mrs. Nancy Stecker's parents where they heard a female barbershop group, The Harmonettes, sing. Gerie Ives, well-known in singing circles in Albuquerque, sang selections from opera, Broadway musicals, and movies.

Miss Sherrill Perkins, Mrs. Nancy Stecker, Mrs. Arabelle Molder and Mr. Gprodn Bunge, accompanied the group.

School students named sweethearts, favorites

The FHA girls had a meeting and chose FHA Sweetheart candidates. They were Patsy Walker, Donna Hobbs, Sarah Hobbs, Sarah Jobe and Beverly Cornelius. They have not yet chosen the Queen. Their escorts are Mike P., Kenny, Robert A. and Henry G.

The Tiger track team went to a track meet last Saturday. They left at 6 a.m. and returned home at 8:30 p.m.

The class favorites for the year in high school are freshman Robert and Carol, sophomores Mary R. and Jay W., Juniors Ted S. and Cecilia P., seniors Gomor and Abby A.

Mrs. Rebecca Luck underwent surgery at Providence Hospital in El Paso March 13 and is doing very nicely. She may be able to go home this week with her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. (Louise) Pearce in El Paso. I wish you a good recovery and many good years of good health.

Harold Dean and Sally Ann of Bingham took his parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean to visit the House of Old Things last Sunday afternoon which all did certainly enjoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Brinner of Albuquerque visited her uncle, Charles Pepper in the Ruidoso Hospital and Mrs. Pepper here at home last Friday.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Champ Ferguson at their ranch home last Saturday were Buddy Williams and his sister Miss Lynn Williams, Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Brazil Hartley and three children of Las Cruces visited them and his sister Mr. and Mrs. Miles Williams in Nogales. Miles is convalescing very nicely of which we are so very pleased to learn. Keep up the good work Miles and get good, strong and completely well.

The senior class play last Thursday night was a huge success and enjoyed by a large crowd.

A large crowd attended the western dance at the Fair Building last Saturday night and many have reported having a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dean Sr. went to Albuquerque last Saturday night and visited Mrs. Doc Dean in the St. Joseph's Hospital where she has been for several weeks very ill. They returned Sunday night. I do wish you a good recovery.

Mrs. Hollis Cummins and Danny spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Waltrip in Roswell. Sunday, Hollis, Bronnie, Kenny and David went to Albuquerque where they attended the Globe Trotters Basketball game.

Mrs. Eltha Merrell entertained with luncheon and canasta last Friday. Those present were Pat Fladley, Amelia McKnight, Vera Beall, Loraine Cox, Lorene Ferguson and the hostess. They had a very happy day.

A bridal shower was given last Friday night at the home of Pauline Britton honoring Miss Beth Renick. A large crowd attended and many lovely gifts were given.

Mrs. Elvin Anderson entered the Ruidoso Hospital March 16. I do wish you a good recovery.

Mrs. Hattie Laoy was released last week from several weeks in the Ruidoso Hospital and she is doing nicely at home.

The Carrizozo Apollo Band was here at Capitan last week. Paul Pino sang a few songs and the band did a good job with those drums and guitars. Arnold Boyce, their band director, has a band to be proud of.

Our new bank building has been stuccoed a buff color. A nice paneling fence has been built between the building and Dean Hardware. They expect to be ready to be moved into by April.

Remember to be watching for that something different and new in Capitan soon. Spring arrived officially March 20. It is warm and a little breezy and very cool. Though certainly is dry. Just no moisture. The spring flowers are so pretty and the perennial growth is coming so fast.

Round Table Club meets at Ferguson ranch home

Ten members of the Capitan Round Table Club met for their monthly luncheon at the ranch home of Mrs. Lorene Ferguson March 16. Also enjoying the day as guests were, Mrs. Pauline McGarry and Mrs. Melissa Coffman.

A Saint Patrick's theme was used for table decorations; Leprechaun chicken pie was the dish of the day furnished by the hostess with the members furnishing the remainder of the meal. There being no program the afternoon was spent serving and visiting. The raffle was won by Eltha Merrell.

The April meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Gladys Hale at Glencoe.

will open for business today. "We feel most fortunate to be able to offer our Lincoln County friends the services of Ivan H. McGee as manager of the new branch, with Mrs. Jane Brooks assisting the manager," said Blockson. McGee has had 17 years experience in the savings and loan business and six years activity in real estate. McGee came out of World War II as captain. attained the rank of major during his four years in National Guard. and folks of this area may remember him as state chairman of Golden Gloves in 1969. McGee and his wife, Dorothy, now have their own home in Ruidoso, at Airport West subdivision.

Mrs. Brooks, who will be assisting in the Lincoln County Branch office, is no stranger in the community. A resident of Ruidoso 24 years; she was an employee of Ruidoso State Bank through 1969. 11 1/2 years as an officer with valuable experience in the loan department. Doing business temporarily in the mobile unit at Sudderth and Thomas, Chaves County Savings and Loan Association will soon move into a handsome new building to be constructed at that site. Plans are now being completed and construction will be under way in the near future. Chaves County Savings and Loan Association has been serving the needs of Lincoln County for many years from their home offices in Roswell. with loans on property in this area totaling over two and one-half million dollars. Their new Lincoln County Branch was created to bring greater convenience and added advantages to the people of Lincoln County.

Forty members at Valley 4-H

Highlight of the Hondo Valley 4-H meeting recently was the movie titled "Saturday's Place" provided by state patrolman, Pat Dunahoo. After the movie, Mr. Dunahoo spoke to the club on the dangers of a teenager driving under the influence of alcohol.

Beatrice Sanchez gave a junior leadership report on the progress of the Home Living I members. She and junior leader Marcella Montes are assisting teen leader Cecilia Pacheco with the 4-Hers making tote bags. These members will finish their tote bags at the March 1st meeting.

President, Cecilia Pacheco gave a report on the Teen Conference on Community pride which she attended recently in Albuquerque. She told them of the workshops attended and the lovely reception at the Governors mansion hosted by Mrs. Bruce King and Carmen Ortiz y Davis. During the reception a New Mexico 4-H report to the Governor was given by Cristina Pacheco, State 4-H Council president and Dennis Holmberg, State 4-H Council vice president.

After some discussion, the club voted unanimously to paint and decorate two large litter cans for the new patio at the Hondo school. They will also be helping to landscape this breezeway this spring.

Thomas Montes, vice-president gave a report on the recent livestock judging team which attended the El Paso Livestock Exposition with coach Sam Massey, and other recent events.

The following 4-H members have completed their "Know Your Sewing Machine" course and received special certificates from their leader, Cecilia Pacheco. They are: Vickie Chavez, Dabrina Polaco, Novelada Gutierrez, Diana Torrez, Terri Parham, Monica Fresquez, Gretchen Torrez, Kathleen Salas, Gabriella Rogers, Ellis Herrera, Janice Gipson and Dina Salas.

After the meeting refreshments were served to forty members and guests by Ginger Cooper, Beatrice Sanchez and Brian Sisneros. Guests attending this meeting were Mrs. Joe Skeen, Mrs. John Cooper and Jimmy, Mrs. Pat Dunahoo, Mrs. Dick Fresquez, Mrs. Fernin Salas, Leola Montes, Della Torrez and County Agent Ralph Dunlap.

News and Notes

By Mary Ellen Payne
Lincoln County Home Agent
An all-day fashion fiesta will be one of the highlights of the 16th annual Homemakers College at New Mexico State University June 14-16. The fiesta, on June 15, will feature demonstrations, films, exhibits, and a fashion show, all going on simultaneously in the ballroom of Corbett Center on the NMSU campus.

This will give those attending Homemakers College a chance to visit personally with fashion experts from nationally-known companies," says Miss Jackie Pinson, chairman of Homemakers College. Demonstrations and exhibits will feature newest sewing techniques, ideas on trim and accessories, new fabrics, sewing knits, and fashion trends.

A repeat performance of the fiesta will be given from 7 to 9 p.m. June 15 for those who are not full-time Homemakers College participants.

As in the past, Homemakers College will also present classes in a variety of subjects selected to appeal to today's woman, Miss Pinson says. These include classes in drug abuse, patio barbecuing, fad diets, adobe home remodeling, legal rights of women, and contemporary theatre.

Dr. Roger B. Corbett, ex-president of NMSU, will be the banquet speaker June 16. Dr. Corbett was the founder of Homemakers College in 1953. The keynote address will be given by Dr. James H. Jauncey, minister of the Coronado Christian Church in El Paso, and clinical psychologist. He is the author of many books and articles on mathematics, religion, psychology, history, and sciences.

Dr. Eugene Ross, associate extension director at NMSU, will deliver the graduation address during ceremonies June 16. Evening programs include a vesper service June 14 by the Las Cruces Bell Choir, a get-acquainted mixer June 15, and a southwestern musical by the Voz Vaqueros. Anyone wishing to attend Homemakers College should contact the county extension office for registration forms and additional information. Lodging is available at NMSU dormitories at $4 per night in a shared room or at $6 single occupancy. Meals will be served in the Corbett Center Cafeteria.

News from the County Agents Office

Apple blossoms in March! Yes the apples are blooming now. This is the earliest in many years. Normally you see them in mid-April but they are about a month early. There has been no killing frost since early March. At present there are apricots and peaches on the trees.

Northern New Mexico and Colorado report that the apples will be blooming within a week if the present warm weather continued.

Under authority of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 the Department of Interior is considering restricting the use of chemicals in the control of predatory animals on BLM lands. Unauthorized use of toxic chemicals could, if the controls are instituted, result in the cancellation or reduction of grazing privileges. Interested parties have until May 1 to submit views concerning the proposed rules and should write: Director (210), Bureau of Land Management, Washington, D. C. 20240.

You may need some help from the children on indoor noise control, but traffic and neighborhood noises can be lessened. The use of plant materials around the home grounds for sound control as well as aesthetics is a relatively new phase of landscape design. Recent studies show a noise level of 60 decibels or noise equivalent to heavy expressway traffic can cause a rise in blood pressure. Noise in the range of 130 decibels, or equivalent to a jet taking off can actually cause physical pain. Even the sound of your neighbors lawn mower can be distracting if you are trying to work inside a building.

Several principles of sound barrier planting can be applied to home landscaping. The thickness or density of a particular planting has a lot to do with its sound absorbing capacity. Evergreens have always been recognized for their value in protection against sound. However, where evergreens are not possible homeowners may wish to consider the use of a dense and wide deciduous hedge. Where space is limited, a dense vine covering on the side of a building can be effective in reducing noise penetration.

near the sidewalk helps to trap ground level noises. Low trees and shrubs used in island plantings in the lawn area act as intermediate height barriers to the noise. If needed, taller trees may also be used near the house to blot out any second-story sound waves.

One other point is that hard surfaces do not absorb sound. Paved areas for drives, walks and parking should be kept to a minimum. When they are a part of the landscape setting, use planting buffers to help muffle noise. In walk areas, the use of soft materials like tree bark, tan bark or sawdust will reduce noise and render a pleasing contrast. The proper placement of plant materials around the home will pay large dividends in sound control.

Precinct boards to be appointed

Alice King, clerk of Lincoln County, has notified Fern Dunn, chairman of the Democrat Party, and Don Stark, chairman of the Republican Party, that precinct boards and alternates are to be appointed for the twelve voting precincts in the county, plus one absentee voting precinct located at the courthouse. The members appointed will serve for all elections for a term of two years.

The county chairmen may file with the county clerk the names of eight voters for each precinct to be considered for appointment as a member of the precinct board and also eight voters for appointment as alternates. County chairmen may also indicate their preference for each of the persons recommended. April 3 is the final date for party chairmen to file their lists of names.

PVT. Montes completes Army basic training

FL Ord, Calif. (AHTNC) March 10-- Army PVT. Ralph Montes, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Montes, of Hondo, completed eight weeks of basic training last week under the modern volunteer Army at Ft. Ord, Calif.

The new concept, called volar, combines basic and advanced individual training into a single 16-week program. Decentralized instruction at the

What really makes it!

Who do you turn to when there is a new arrival for proud parents and grandparents and great grandparents to talk about?
When you want to tell the country-side about your best ball team, who helps?
Who will print the picture of the happy bride and groom, the Scout Troop, the new addition, the team?
Who helps even in times of sorrow when a loved one departs and people need to know?
How do you go about getting people enthused about your big meeting, your bond issue, your community project? Where can you get publicity?

It all, plus much, much more, happens when a newspaper and a town join forces.

It takes all the business places in town advertising to really make it happen. It takes cooperation between newspaper and school, church, town board. It takes effort on the part of all these people.

'Fat Daddy Banquet' set next Wednesday evening

Members of the Carrizozo Masons, Eastern Star and Rainbow will be attending a family "Big Daddy Banquet" next Wednesday evening. The dinner and program will begin at 6:30 p.m. at the Masonic Lodge in Carrizozo. Entertainment and a speaker are expected on the program.

Proceeds from the event will go the Rainbow girls to aid in defraying expenses to attend the grand assembly later this year.

Price of admission for the members of the Masonic Lodge will be determined by weight. Eastern Star members will also be charged by the Rainbow girls. Parents of the Rainbow girls, even though they're not lodge members, are invited to attend.

Graveside rites for C.C. Hughes

Graveside services for Charles C. Hughes, longtime motel operator and former Carrizozoan who died Friday at Gerald Champion Memorial Hospital in Alamogordo, were conducted Monday at Monte Vista Cemetery with Chaplain Alfred S. Kline of Captain officiating.

Hughes was born Nov. 8, 1889 in Chadron, Neb., and died at the age of 82. He built and operated motels in El Paso and Odessa, Tex., and in Corona and Carrizozo prior to his retirement several years ago.

He served in the U. S. Army during World War I. Survivors include a number of "very good friends."

Pallbearers were Fred Harrington, C. G. Dodson, Bill Hernandez, Thomas Howe, Rick Rickerson and Bob Means.

State Policemen Promoted, Transferred
Lincoln County State Policeman Bob Miller will be moving to Alamogordo shortly and Officer Jack Eldridge goes to Santa Rosa. Both officers have been promoted to rank of sergeant.

two, his presence in Carrizozo was for the third step, a pre-application conference. Question one, do you need an industrial park. Obvious answer, yes, to perk up the economy of the town.

Two, What chance of success? Answer, not certain but Jerry Baker of the State Department of Development thinks he can have potential industrial representative here in month who might make firm commitment.

Three, included series of questions. Land is available. Town will pay for land, such as necessary, from general fund or make land exchange. Sewer capacity here for 10,000 people. Park within quarter mile. Access to industrial park from US 390. Natural gas across highway which is close, electricity same. Property is not in town, but town will annex. Tom Mann said it would not be necessary to enlarge the sewer outfall line. No environmental problems expected.

Next question from Garrett - "Why are we doing this?" This question had been pretty well answered. Question of building is something else. No plans for a building will go far until some industry commits. A tanning company in Wisconsin is expanding. Information at the meeting was that Carrizozo is only town that suits their needs. A candy company in Brooklyn is expanding, would move here because of favorable tax structure and labor situation. Other possibilities were mentioned.

Can the town carry its end. Answer was, yes. $20,000.00 cash needed from town to finance industrial park could be raised by private subscription. Question, will town put up $20,000.00 based on knowledge that an industry may come in later. Answer, no.

Ruth Armstrong said that the local Industrial Development Corp. has just short of $3,000.00 which could be used. The last labor survey show 300 people in the area available for jobs. The Four Corners Agency has confirmed that they will come in for up to $30,000.00.

Garrett raised the question, "Are we premature." Nick J. Pappas, executive director of EDD at Roswell, thought not. Garrett commented that once we tell you we will accept your application - it means "go." You've got to be ready.

Pappas said that basically he was an optimist, he felt that way two months ago when he first visited Carrizozo. "I feel good about this one," he said.

Mann asked if it would be of help to get land, and run water and sewer the land. Garrett answered that it would put us in position of committing $60,000.00 to nothing. We don't want to do that.

The talk finally worked around to Garrett saying, "Suppose I say we'll take your application any time up to 120 days from now. That would give you time to commit industry, acquire land, get matching funds ready. Then, the application could be processed maybe in four months.

And that's the way it ended. In addition to Garrett, Pappas, Mayor Stearns and Tom Mann, L. W. "Bear" Curfman, Economic Development representative from Santa Fe, Trustee Vernon Petty were officials in attendance.

4-H News

Happy Homemakers 4-H Club
 By Sandra Carey
 On March 15, 24 members and three leaders from the Happy Homemakers 4-H Club left on a trip to Roswell. The program for the day was lunch at Furr's Cafeteria, a trip to Peppermint Park and a visit to Thial' Kol.

Thial' Kol is an Indian School where about 400 Indians are getting an education. The Indians can learn a trade while their children are in the nursery in the same school. The girls visited the Arts and Crafts department, which was enjoyed very much.

The Peppermint Park Zoo was also fun to visit, some of the girls saw animals they hadn't seen before. The leaders and 4-H members to make the trip were: Mrs. Truman Spencer, Mrs. Mary Ellen Payne, Mrs. Anne Ferguson, Sandra Carey, Lisa Ferguson, Rosanne Herrera, Christina Lessau, Brenda Lindsey, Maurita Lovelace, Lois McBride, Pamela Means, Cynthia Morales, Sandra Morales, Marie Ann Murfin, Liz Pacheco, Yvonne Pacheco, Mona Payne, Joyce Dec Simpson, Kim Vallejos, Audrey Vega, Debbie Vega, Roberta Vega, Jaylen Vega, Lori Voss, Welda McKinley, Sandra Beltran and Thelma Perea.

The 4-H Recreation Workshop was on March 18. This workshop is open to four members of each 4-H Club. The members from HHE to attend were Laurie Voss, Sandra Carey, Audrey Vega, Christina Lessau in the morning and Roberta Vega in the afternoon. The workshop began at 10 a.m. in the Carrizozo Recreation Center and was over at 2:30 p.m. The girls learned to play games and sing songs and have more fun at the meetings.

Nogal News

Nogal News - By Sue Stearns
 The March meeting of the Nogal UPW was held in the home of Agnes Crouse. Several members were absent because of illness or being out of town. Those present for bible study on the Book of Ruth were the hostess, Mrs. Leora Zumwalt, Mrs. Gordon Racher of Lincoln, Mollie Bosh, Sue Stearns, and guest Annie Ferguson. Josie Sitton is back working at the Post Office after an extended absence.
 Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Driver were in Lubbock, Texas recently. Mrs. Driver's brother-in-law passed away after a lingering illness and they attended his funeral in Lubbock.
 Phil Richardson gave Buntly a birthday party recently. Their sons, Ricky and Robbie served as hosts to the guests who enjoyed a buffet supper and good conversation.
 Dorothea Zumwalt has returned home after a month's travel to Texas and Arizona to visit with friends and relatives.

Funding for special education sought

Carrizozo School District has filed an application for funding for a special education program.
 The request to the State Department of Education was filed last week, according to superintendent Jimmy Steinprijs, and a reply is expected by April 1.
 The application is for $11,074, the superintendent said, which would be used to pay the salary of a special education teacher, as well as necessary supplies.
 "All schools must have a special education program by 1975," he said, "and we're just trying to get a little head start."
 Funds for the program were allocated by the recent legislative session.

Clips from Weekly Press

The Herald at T or C
 Law enforcement officers were still searching last week for a professional burglar from Albuquerque who escaped a week-and-a-half ago from the Sierra County Jail. The suspect sought was Arthur Jaynes, 28, who apparently picked the jail door to make his escape.

The Taus News
 The dispute over federal practices of cloud seeding - characterized by one scientist as a "can of worms" - was being argued here again last week. Taus and Santa Fe attorney Tony Mitchell compared the cloud seeding controversy to the land range wars of the last century.

The Eunice Star
 The city council has amended the anti-handbill ordinance to exclude religious and non-profit established business with payment of a $25 license fee. Previously all groups and businesses were prohibited from distributing handbills in that city.

De Baca County News at Ft. Sumner
 Congressman Harold Runnels said the federal government spent some $2.8 million in De Baca County during the fiscal year 1971. They were $500,000 more than the previous year. The largest expenditure was $1.1 million for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, which includes Social Security benefits and funds for medical facility construction.

Aztec Independent-Review
 It is not generally known as yet, but Aztec has an up and coming Riding and Rodeo Association and one of the best rodeo arenas in the area, which is still under construction but with a completion date in early April. The rodeo ground is in a beautiful setting, on the south side of Aztec's Riverside Park.

Defenseur Chieftain at Socorro
 San Augustin Plains has been selected as the most propitious site for construction of the largest and most advanced radio telescope in the world. The installation, when completed, will have 27 dish-shaped radio telescopes 82 feet each in diameter. It is estimated that 62 scientists and technicians will man the site.

From the column La Policia en Nuevo Mexico:
 "A bombshell of sorts leaked out of Washington last week to the effect that Senator Clinton P. Anderson, soon to retire (supposedly) from Congress, has decided he wants to be Democratic national committeeman for the party."

Rio Grande Sun at Espanola
 "I'm terribly sorry and I hope it never happens to you again. I wish you and your family well and will return the money." With this, a 38-year-old Las Vegas man who had beaten and abducted Mrs. Shirley Chielto from her home at Fairview, left her in the hills east of Dixon, ended a kidnap attempt in which things had gone wrong from the start. The suspected kidnapper, Larry James Martin II, later took his own life with a shotgun blast to the head, police said.

The Lordsburg Liberal
 Phelps Dodge Corporation announced that it plans to complete development of its Metcalf copper mine near Morenci, Ariz., by mid-1974 and to construct a new copper smelter in New Mexico to treat the production of its Tyrone mine in Hidalgo County. The new smelter is priced at $100 million.

The Jal Record
 Jal's Aerial Adventure Day, sponsored by the chamber of commerce, has been termed a complete success. In terms of participation, nearly 250 people took advantage of the opportunity to see Jal from the sky. Many others were present to see the performance of a skydiver and to view the two WWII vintage planes.

The Hagerman Star
 Between 25 and 30 interested Hagerman citizens met to form an industrial development corporation and talk of the possibility of bringing the city out of a slump which has seen local economy go down, down, down progressively for the last several years.

Union County Leader at Clayton
 The New Mexico Department of Game and Fish is preparing Clayton Lake for the opening of the 1973 fishing season by planting some 1,500 rainbow trout. The trout planted averaged 16 inches in length. Some were tagged for prizes in the annual fishing derby.

The Curry County Times at Clovis
 A bit of history transpired recently at Clovis City Hall during the first of several planned public meetings hosted by the Civic Affairs Committee of the chamber of commerce to organize a county historical society. A committee was named to draft by-laws for the proposed society.

El Hispano at Albuquerque
 From the column El Mifotero: "Roberto Mondragon nuestro Teniente Gobernador no acaba de anunciar si va a correr para D. S. Senador y esta esperando hasta el dia 4 de Abril que es el dia que todos candidatos tienen que registrarse para ver si otro hispano se va a meter en la carrera!"

The Ruidoso News
 A contract for construction of a bridge across the Ruidoso River, near Thompson Trailer Park, was awarded to McCray and Lewallen at the regular monthly meeting of the Ruidoso Downs Village Council. The bridge will be metal with concrete abutments.

The New Mexico Independent at Albuquerque
 Not too long ago representatives from several northern Pueblos realized that the tourist industry was worth a lot of money. Oh sure, they had realized for years that travelers came from world wide to see them, take their pictures and buy their wares. They also noticed that they came by car, bus, airplanes, the railroads, and by "organized tours." "Why don't we organize such tours," the question was asked, "after all, it's our Pueblos and our people they come to see." And so they did.

The Silver City Enterprise
 The federal government spend some $15.7 million in Grant County during fiscal 1971. This is an increase of $5.3 million. The largest expenditure was $5.5 million for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, which primarily includes social security payments.
