

The business of banking

(Way of the West readers are once again treated to the weekly efforts of number two son, Tony, filling in for regular columnist Paul Payton.)
Best story of the week: There is rumored to be in a southland small town a grizzled old banker who had enjoyed a long and successful career. "How did you get started in the banking business?" he was asked by an interviewer. "It was simple," he replied. "I put up a sign saying 'Bank.' A fellow came in and gave me $100. Another came by with $200. By the time my confidence had reached such a point that I put in $50 of my own money" . . . Lincoln County folks can look forward to the wind to stop blowing about Friday. Remember, March came in like a lion, so a lamb is due at the close of the month . . . Some research by the Associated Press shows that Lincoln County has the worst won-loss record in New Mexico when it comes to picking winners in the Presidential elections. Since statehood, Lincoln (and Valencia County) have given support to the winner nine out of 15 times. The best record is with Colfax, Luna and Otero

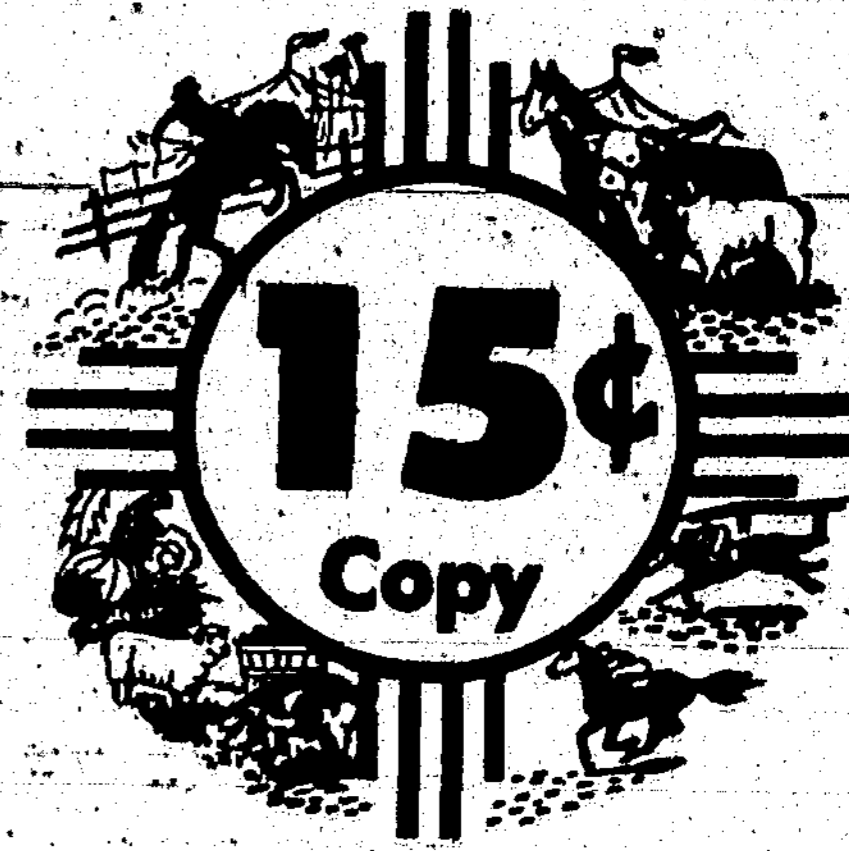

THE WAY OF THE West

Counties, whose voters have picked the winner 14 out of 15 times since 1912 . . . Of course everyone knows that New Mexico, as a whole, has picked 15 straight winners . . . I read the other day, by the way, that only three counties in the entire United States—outside Alaska and Hawaii, which haven't voted very long—have perfect Presidential voting records. There is a county in Oregon, one in Wyoming and one in Indiana that picked every winner every time . . . In case you're interested: rumor has it that one-time Carrizozoan Wally Olds is currently spending a couple of months in Taos implementing a cable TV concern . . . On the calendar: hope y'all are going to the Easter sunrise service at Valley of Fires Sunday. The starting time is precisely 6:06 a.m.—11 minutes later than last year . . . More for your calendar: Earth Day this year is April 22, with Earth Week from April 17 to 22. Folks living in clean air and clean stream places like Lincoln County should be particularly thankful on this day . . . Lincoln County's local politics this year promise to be the hottest in a long time. No less than eight candidates have announced for the three county commission posts. Among them are five Democrats and three Republicans . . . As most of us learned last weekend, however, things are getting kinda messy, state-wide, in the election picture. They say the governor may call a special session to straighten the mess up—and straightening may be to change the filing date, the filing fees, the primary election date, etc. We'll just have to wait and see—and the answer, or at least part of it, may come today or tomorrow . . . Still on politics: it's really no wonder that the numerous hopefuls for U. S. senator are not generating any ground-swell among the people. It seems as though every candidate tries to make an issue out of events—either local or national—without actually coming up with any serious issues of their own. For instance: lots of Democrats have jumped on the ITT deal, in effect, simply reacting to news happenings beyond their control. And, another for instance, most of the candidates had lots to say about the drownings last week in Albuquerque—something like "elect me and it won't happen again," which generally is a bunch of baloney. The candidate that has some innovations of his own might find the people a little more responsive . . . I'm here to report that among the salons in Santa Fe, one of the most clever is that at the Inn of the Governors, in case you were interested . . . The annual running of the Grizzly Relays is Saturday, and some 100 to 150 young athletes will be here to compete in the track and field games. Should be one of the best outdoor shows of the season . . . The Village Press is breaking in new personnel at Cloudfcroft and Estancia, but, rest assured, things are no more messed up than usual.

Grizzly cinder delegation . . .

CARRIZOZO HIGH SCHOOL'S Grizzly track team will be hosting the 12th annual Grizzly Relays Saturday at Laabs Field. The team, which made a strong showing at Melrose last weekend, is expected to be in the running for the relays championship. They are, top row from

11 schools entered in Grizzly Relays

More than 100 prep cindermen from 11 southland schools are expected to compete in the annual Grizzly Relays in Carrizozo Saturday. The field of entries includes last year's meet champion, Socorro, as well as four teams that weren't here a year ago. The new entrants are Tatum, Magdalena, Hagerman and Corona. Back again for another try at the team title, in addition to the host Carrizozo squad and the defending titleist Socorro, are Cloudfcroft, Capitan, Dexter, Ruidoso and Tularosa. Grizzly coach Roger St. Louis said this week that the strong Socorro team had to be rated as the favorite to repeat again this year. Last week Socorro won its own invitational track meet, far out-scoring five other prep teams. However, the strongest challenger to Socorro's team title may be the host Grizzly squad. The Carrizozo contingent finished third in a 14-team meet last weekend at Melrose—primarily based on four impressive first place finishes. The festival Saturday gets underway at 9:30 a.m. with the opening of four field events. Competition in the javelin throw, shot put, broad jump and pole vault—all of which traditionally take a long time to complete—start at this time. The first track event, the two-mile run, will go off at 10 a.m. This will be the only final event run during the morning session. Preliminary heats in four events—with the top six times qualifying for the afternoon finals—will be run in the morning session. The 120-yard high hurdles preliminary will start at 10:15, the 100-yard dash prelims at 10:35, the 180-yard low hurdles at 10:50 and the 220-yard dash at 11 a.m. The afternoon program starts at 12:45 p.m. with the 440-yard relay event. The schedule of the other finals is: high jump and discus throw at 1 p.m.; 120-yard high hurdles at 1 p.m.; 100-yard dash at 1:15; mile run at 1:30; 880-yard relay at 1:45; 440-yard dash at 2 p.m.; 180-yard low hurdles at 2:30; 880-yard run at 2:45; medley relay at 3 p.m.; 220-yard dash at 3:15; and mile relay at 3:30 p.m. Scoring for the meet will be on a basis of 7-4-3-2-1 for the individual events and 10-7-5-3-1 for the four relay events. Medals will be awarded for first and second place in the individual events, with ribbons going to the third, fourth and fifth place finishers. In the relays, trophies will be awarded to the first place team. St. Louis said many local residents will be asked to help run the meet. Timers, judged and scorers are needed to help in practically all of the events. Participants in the relays will be shooting at a list of impressive records—the oldest of which dates back to the 1961 meet. The Grizzly Relays records are: —two-mile run, Hudgens of Socorro, 10:58.3, 1971. —120-yard high hurdles, Bobby Dan Crenshaw of Carrizozo, 15.4, 1961. —mile run, Debune of Socorro, 4:59.0, 1971. —880-yard relay, Eunice, 1962. —100-yard dash, Arias of Canutillo, 10.1, 1962. —440-yard dash, A. Lane of Ruidoso, 52.7, 1962. —180-yard low hurdles, Calhoun, Eunice, 21.1, 1962. —880-yard run, Baldvina of Canutillo, 2:12.3, 1962. —medley relay, Truth or Consequences, 3:55.4, 1962. —220-yard dash, Arias of Canutillo, 22.9, 1963. —mile relay, Truth or Consequences, 3:39.0, 1962. —high jump, Rocha of Canutillo, 5-feet-11, 1961. —javelin throw, Jerry Beltran of Carrizozo 174-feet-7/8, 1962. —discus throw, Tercero of Cathedral of El Paso, 141-feet-1/2, 1962. —broad jump, Bobby Dan Crenshaw of Carrizozo, 20-feet-five, 1962. —shot put, Littau of Truth or Consequences, 40-feet-7, 1962. —pole vault, Sisneros of Capitan, 12-feet-1/4, 1971.

Candidate filings: 'just like always'

Unless rules are changed
With New Mexico's election laws currently unsettled, Lincoln County clerk Alice King said yesterday she plans to accept candidacy filings next Tuesday "just like always."
She said that unless the rulings are changed later this week or early next week, local candidates must file their statements of candidacy at her office—along with the six percent of annual salary filing fee—between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.
"We get a notice in the mail or a phone call every day from the Secretary of State's office in Santa Fe," Mrs. King told this newspaper, "keeping us up to date on the latest decisions. But at this time—Wednesday morning—we're ready to proceed as usual."
The turmoil surrounding the election laws followed a court ruling last week that called the state's six percent filing fee unlawful as it pertains to the U. S. senate candidates. There has been no rulings, however, on the legality of the filing fee for local candidates.
With Lincoln County now classified as a "first class county," the filing fees for local offices are now set at the following rates: county commissioner $180, county treasurer, assessor and clerk $439.20, county sheriff $453.60, and probate judge $115.20. These filing fees represent six percent of the annual salary of the elective position.
One change has occurred, Mrs. King said, in the registration of voters. The clerk's office now will accept registration from any person—regardless of residency—Previously, a person had to be a resident of New Mexico for one year to be able to register to vote.
The county clerk said it may turn out that persons with less than a year's residency may not be allowed to vote, but that the latest step is being taken just in case the law is settled in favor of the shorter residency requirements.
As of yesterday morning the Lincoln County News editors had compiled the following list of county-wide candidates who have announced they will file for office next Tuesday.
—County commissioner district one: Democrats Walt Jones of Capitan and R. C. Nunez of Pichaco, and Republicans Proceso Salcido and L. A. "Paul" Pacheco, both of Hondo.
—County commissioner district two: Democrat S. M. "Sally" Ortiz of Carrizozo and Republican Leroy B. Acker of White Oaks.
—County commissioner district three: Democrats Bill Hart and Tom Jones, both of Ruidoso, and Republican Leland Stone of Alto.
—County clerk: Republican Barbara Lovelace of Carrizozo.
—County assessor: Republican Julia Samora of Carrizozo.
—County sheriff: Republican Leandro Vega of Carrizozo.

County treasurer: Republican incumbent Mabel Vigil of Carrizozo.
—Probate judge: Democrat Austin Wooten of Carrizozo.
Several other candidates have been rumored about the county, particularly in the county commissioners' races, however no official announcements have been made.
In the State House of Representative contests, the News has compiled this list of announced candidates:
—House district 50: no candidates officially announced, though two incumbents, Democrat Ralph Petty and Republican Jon Bigbee of Encino, have indicated they "are thinking about it."
—House district 51: Cloudfcroft Democrat John H. Mershon is expected to file for re-election.
—House district 52: Incumbent Republican Maurice Hobson of Alamogordo is expected to run for re-election and Democrat Page Carter, of Alamogordo, has announced he will be a candidate.
And, district judge Richard Stanley, an Alamogordo Democrat, has announced he will be a candidate for re-election, as has district attorney Norman Bloome, also a Democrat from Alamogordo.

Three county men in first draft notice

The national draft call announced last week for induction of some 15,000 men into the Armed Forces with priority lottery numbers one through 15 will effect three young men in Lincoln County.
Ramon Luna in Carrizozo's Selective Service office said there are only three men in this county whose birthdates among the first 15 numbers selected in the national drawing last month.
These men—who were not named—will likely be called for induction late in April, Luna said, unless there are sufficient volunteers to replace them in the county's allotted quota.
Luna said that Lincoln County currently is expected to provide 50 men for the Armed Forces during 1972. He added that this would be the highest number of inductees and that the yearly quota likely will be reduced later in the year.
This means the Selective Service here must provide 50 men (or what-ever number eventually is called) to the service before the end of the year—either by volunteer or by draft.

County schools get money for new drug media center

Schools in Lincoln County are to be the recipient of a federal government grant to create a drug media center.
The grant of $7,875 is to pay 75 percent of the cost of the project, with schools in Carrizozo, Corona, Capitan, Hondo and Ruidoso joining together to pay the remaining 25 percent of the cost.
Funding through the New Mexico Law Enforcement Planning Commission region two office, which is headquartered in Carrizozo, is expected to be received in July.

The grant was one of six recently announced for public agencies in Lincoln County.
William Jesperson, the commission's coordinator, said the school project is to provide a central location in the county at which schools, as well as law enforcement agencies and local civic organizations, can obtain drug information such as publications, films and slides.
He said the Lincoln County project is a "first" in New Mexico.
In addition to the drug funding, the Lincoln County Sheriff's Department was the recipient of a federal grant of $450 to provide 75 percent of the cost of a finger print camera.
The camera will be capable of photographing finger prints at crime locations and will modernize the process currently used by the department.
Funding for camera—for which the county must pay 25 percent of the cost—will likely come sometime in July.
Of the other four federal grants, three went to the Ruidoso Police Department and one to the Village of Ruidoso.
The police department will get a grant for $1,800 as three-fourths of the cost of three "walkie-talkie" portable radios, $1,817 as 75 percent of the cost to purchase a mug-shot camera and finger-print kit, and $682 to purchase a narcotics testing kit as well as record-keeping cabinets.
The Village of Ruidoso will get $679 to purchase office equipment for the municipal judge's office.
In addition to the grants in Lincoln County, the Mescalero Apache Tribe will be the recipient of $34,000 to be used to recruit, train and equip four law enforcement officers to specially work in the tribe's new recreation area. This 100-percent grant will provide the tribe with "resource officers," who will have authority not only in police matters, but also in areas of conservation and fish and game.
The six grants were part of the 27 recently announced by the commission for agencies throughout southern New Mexico. The grants for the region two 12-county area totaled $501,869—the highest amount ever allocated through the commission, Jesperson said.

Hair cuts required

Students protest C.H.S. dress code

Six students were still out of school Monday following a day-long protest against the student dress code at Carrizozo High School last Friday.
The students were protesting a section of the code which says "the length of hair will be such that it will not reach the top of a normal shirt collar, nor cover the ears."
The student "strike" occurred last Friday morning when high school principal Gerald Lee said he told some 25 male students that they were in violation of the dress code and that they must get haircuts before attending classes.
Lee said this has happened in the past, but the students have conformed to the code and had their hair cut to shorter lengths.
Many of the students followed the instructions and did, in fact, get the required haircuts. However, by Monday afternoon six students were still missing from classes.
Lee said the students were not expelled or suspended. "They're welcome back just as soon as they get haircuts," the principal said.
Of the six students still out, five are 17-year-

Underwood to run for state supreme court

Jack Underwood, 53-year-old Ruidoso attorney, has announced he will be a candidate for the New Mexico Supreme Court, eight year term, in the June Democratic Primary.

He is presently assistant district attorney of the 12th Judicial District, and will resign that position to campaign prior to April 4, the filing date for all candidates. Incumbent in the high court position is Chief Justice J. C. Compton, 85 years of age, who has stated he will seek another eight year term.

Underwood is a former mayor of Lovington, and a former special assistant attorney general of New Mexico. He has practiced law in New Mexico since 1951, except for a period in 1965 when he was an assistant district attorney and later an assistant attorney general of Alaska. He is a member of the New Mexico Bar, the American Bar Association, the American Judicature Society, and is president-elect of Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Rotary Club.

He is a veteran of World War II, having served overseas as a combat officer with a Navy Bombing Squadron. He was a Lt. commander when he left the Navy to come to New Mexico to practice law in 1950. He holds an A.B. and LL.B. degree from the University of Chicago, where he was a scholarship student.

Announcing his candidacy, Underwood said: "I believe in law and order, in law enforcement, and in justice as a working and controlling principle in American law. If elected I will devote my full energies toward those ends."

Underwood is married to the former Juanita "Billie" Montoya of Cuba. They have two children, Jacqueline and Anne Marie.

was a juvenile probation and parole officer for the State of Texas.

Acker said he believes he qualified for the job and said he will devote full-time to county business if elected.

Leland Stone

Ruidoso attorney Leland Stone has announced he will be a candidate for the district three county commissioners' seat.

He seeks to succeed commissioner Don D. Stark, another Ruidoso Republican, who cannot run for re-election.

A resident of Alto, Stone said he has held offices in municipal government and has worked for state government in Santa Fe. In addition, he has been associated with district attorney offices in Lincoln and Lea Counties and has worked with the judicial district for Grant, Hidalgo and Luna Counties.

"I would like to help continue the good work of the retiring commissioners," Stone said in his announcement.

The attorney said he believes his legal experience would be helpful in county government, particularly in the area of assessment problems. In addition, Stone said "I believe in more local control over local affairs," particularly in the area of real estate taxation, and he said he would advocate studying a zoning ordinance for the entire county.

Richard A. Stanley

District Judge Richard A. "Dick" Stanley is announcing that he will be a candidate for re-election for District Judge of the Twelfth Judicial District comprised of Otero and Lincoln Counties, subject to the primary election, June 6.

Judge Stanley said that "he has brought to the District Court honesty, maturity, dignity, fair treatment to all citizens and equal justice for all people, regardless of age, race, color or creed."

Judge Stanley is a graduate of Oklahoma State University, the University of Arizona Law School, and the National College of Trial Judges. For more than ten years he was Government Appeals Agent for Selective Service. He is licensed to practice law in all Courts of the States of New Mexico and Arizona, the United States District Court and is Past President of the Otero County Bar Association.

Judge Stanley has been a resident of New Mexico for 29 years, and has been a practicing

Your Weekly Horoscope

April 8 through April 14

ARIES (March 21-April 19): A petty remark or action of an associate could ruin first part of week. Ari. Be wise. Don't let it bring you down, baby. Goodies await. Before end of week, events alter your life-style - and a spanking new you results.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Long distance communications are highlighted. Basic issues are involved. Credit may be requested by rascal. Tell this dude: "My terms are SPOT CASH." Then stick to it. On last day, sally forth and let your spirit dance.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Problem which has seemed impossible is partially solved. Help comes from unexpected source. All the world is turning green. Gem, and to you green means GOT SC what's stopping you? Enjoy, my love, enjoy.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Welcome the first April breezes, Moonbaby. Allow them to blow away the mental and emotional cobwebs which have been collecting. Give in to creative urge. Remember, to create is to live in the truest sense. Enjoy each day and try not to project too far into the future.

LEO (July 23-August 22): Keep lines of communication open with one of another generation. You will be rewarded, dear Leo. A spring tonic is headed your way, in the form of an attractive newcomer. Can you dig it? Of course you can. In fact, you'll THRIVE on it.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): You are uncommonly diligent. Virg honey, and in week ahead this wonderful trait pays big dividend. As week draws to a close, you surge with astounding energy and find yourself Beelzebubbling all over the joint.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): Week ahead busy as heck, Lib. Nevertheless, much fun is to be had if you are in the mood, and you probably will. You usually are. Spring is a babbling, idiotic time of year and restlessness will tempt.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Week coming up like a dandelion, Scorp. Gaudy, gay and wild. Hang on to your heart, dear one, or the warm spring breezes just may whoosh it away.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Romance lurks around the nearest corner, Sag. If you are not prepared to handle any more complications in this department, than Olga's advice is to lock yourself in a closet for the entire week. You venture forth at your own risk, sweets.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): You hear magic words before end of third day, dear Cap, and your little ears perk up like those of a happy puppy. Your energy may be low, but you will still want to galivant a bit. Good. Get away from the same old places and the same old faces, even if only for a few hours. Week ends on note of anticipation.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): Week ideal to get secret plan into gear, Aquari. Don't wait forever to get it together, dear friend. One at a distance longs to see you. (You know who.) If you do not have a car, then catch the nearest subway, bus, cab or trolley.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Should walls seem to be closing in on you in week ahead, ded and gentle Pisces, take a day off and do as you jolly well please. You will be rewarded by renewed vigor. Week ends on note of joy.

Nogal News

Friends of Pearl Stearns will be happy to know that she is able to use a wheelchair now and is practicing walking with the aid of a walker. Recent out-of-town visitors have been Mr. and Mrs. George Davis of Portales, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robinson of Tularosa. Mrs. Ren Wilson from Burrton, Kan., her grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wilson of Hutchinson, Kan., visited in the home of Mrs.

Frank Maxwell last week. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Maxwell are sisters. The next Pen and Brush Painting Group meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Dorothy Guck April 6 in Nogal. Mr. and Mrs. Alva Sitton were in Tularosa last Saturday to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Shorty McCrory are back home after an extended stay in Texas. Shorty's eye operation was a success. They will return to Texas in a couple of weeks for a check-up. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hickman and family of Eugene, Ore., visited in the home of the Stearns family last week. Bill Payton has been to Nogal recently to check on his home, and is in the process of moving here permanently.

People who can smile when things go wrong have probably just thought of someone they can blame it on.

Grizzly cindermen third at Melrose

Carrizozo High School's track team garnered four firsts to finish in third place in last weekend's 14-team track meet at Melrose.

The Grizzlies scored 45 points for the third position, behind Fort Sumner's 81½ and Texico's 51½.

Leading the Grizzlies' scoring were the distance-running Hoff brothers, Koen and Andre, who won both long races in record time.

Koen won the two-mile event with a time of 11:22.8 minutes—which bettered the old Buffalo Relays record of 11:37.5, held by Lucero of Tucumcari. And, Andre took the one-mile run with a clocking of 5:07.2 minutes—topping the record of 5:12.5 set by Jimenez of Tucumcari. Carrizozo's Kim Lee ran fifth in the mile with a time of 5:24.3.

David Lee scored Carrizozo's third individual victory with a 2:22.1 minutes timing in the 800-yard run.

The fourth winning performance came from the crack 880-yard relay team, which turned the two-lap race in 1:41.1 minutes. Passing the baton were Matt Ellison, Willie Gallegos, David Roper and Rusty Leslie.

The same quartet also captured third place in the 440-yard relay with a clocking of 47.7 seconds—just three tenths of a second behind second place finisher Texico. Fort Sumner's team won the event.

Other points were scored by Leslie with a second in the discus throw with 115-feet-2inches; and Ellison with a second in the 180-yard low hurdles with a time of 22.15 seconds—just a step behind the winning time of 11.10.

Carrizozo coach Roger St. Louis said this week he was proud of the small Grizzly team, in view of the fact that only eight tracksters went to the Melrose meet and all eight scored points.

Fear for fruit crop

Monday with only four more days remaining in the month of March, indicates that March, having given us so many beautiful spring-like days-without a great deal of wind and dust will go out like the proverbial lion. We are just hoping that the fruit which is looking very promising at this time will not be lost by freezing.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay McGinnis were so happy to have their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Duffy Vassar and three grandchildren from Big Springs with them for the weekend and their daughter Jean and husband from Roswell here on Saturday.

They also had friends from Roswell visiting on Sunday.

John Thomas has completed his inspection of cattle in the area and found no scabies at all. He has been working at this for the past six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ward attended Mrs. Dessie Sawyer's annual March of Dimes ball at Crossroads Saturday evening. It was a gala affair with a tremendous crowd attending and dancing to music by a famous name orchestra. These parties are responsible for a great contribution to the March of Dimes program, which is certainly a much needed one.

Miss Ruth Penfield spent the weekend in Lincoln as did Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hall and son. The Halls seem to enjoy their home (formerly owned by the Walter Hanns), very much.

Jean Nicholas Services

Jean Nicholas, age 54, passed away in the local hospital March 24, after a short illness. She is survived by her husband George V. Nicholas, three sons, George Nicholas of Ft. Rucker, Ala., who is in the services, Wallace, of Roswell and Mark of Carrizozo. Three sisters, Mrs. Edith Ridgton, Mrs. Elizabeth Farr and Mrs. Bertha Eggert; two brothers, Wallace Farr and Thomas Farr. She belonged to Delta Delta, Phi Beta Kappa, member Methodist Church. Mrs. Nicholas has been a resident of Carrizozo for the past two and one half years. Mrs. Nicholas owned her own plane and was a pilot and instructor. The remains were taken to Albuquerque where cremation was made Saturday.

Hospital Report

Admissions: March 23: Lisa Maas, Capitan; March 25: Doris Galdelgadilla, Socorro; March 26: Connie Morales; March 27: Judith Villescos, Jean Crook.

Dismissals: March 24: Jean Nicholas, deceased; March 25: Lisa Maas; March 26: Doug Golt, Doris Galdelgadilla; March 28: Connie Morales.

Navy mechanics course

Navy airman apprentice Lonnie E. Clouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Clouse of Corona, has completed the Aviation Structural Mechanic School at Memphis, Tenn. Aviation Structural Mechanics maintain hydraulic systems, fuselages and wings aboard naval aircraft.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Racher have something new in the bicycle field. I hope I can furnish a picture of them having a ride up and down the street in Lincoln soon. You'd like it.

Mr. Eugene Baker has accepted a job with an electrical company in Ruidoso, but he and his wife will continue to live here and he is driving back and forth each day.

As more plots of land are sold, more houses are being built or restored and lived in. We are hoping for more children of school age too.

Lincoln has never seemed more beautiful than this year. Trees and shrubs of every description have been literally covered with blossoms and many spring flowers have been blooming new lilacs are just about at their best.

The Red Geranium Shop has been having good weekends business wise. As more people are beginning to go places and come by this way, business is steadily improving.

Tragedy Strikes family of Mrs. Lewis Farris

Mrs. Fred Fantazzi of Las Vegas, Nevada, was killed instantly and her two children, Jay and Jon, were injured when a driver, drag racing down the highway apparently lost control of his car veered over into her lane and crashing head on into the Fantazzi car. One of the children, Jay, two years old, died later at the hospital. His baby brother, Jon, nine months old, is in intensive care and his recovery is uncertain.

Mrs. Fantazzi, the former Carol Barlow, was the great granddaughter of Mrs. Lewis Farris. She stayed in Carrizozo with her grandmother for one year and attended school here.
