In this issue Champions special

A special of this Thanksgiving News is devoted entirely to Carrizozo's football champions. It's full of pictures, player profiles, all the games plus the big one. Lots of effort there, hope you enjoy it.

Hunter killed near Corona

Henry Maestas, age 26, of Albuquerque was dead from a 30.30 gunshot wound Sunday around 2:00 p.m. The incident occurred near a camper parked on the Bagley Ranch about 10 miles west of Corona.
The hunting party included David Lujan, Sr. and David Lujan, Jr., one other man reported to be a brother of the victim, Henry Maestas.

Officer Albert Clouse of Corona and game wardens were first at the scene. The investigation is continuing under supervision of sheriff's department and the state police. The body was taken to Roswell for autopsy.

Joe Light wins $1000

Joe Light had the biggest win of his bowling career last weekend when he won the $1000.00 first prize money in the Greater Dallas Regional PBA Open. He was the leader with 226 average after two blocks of qualifying he fired a 289 in the final game of the tournament for the championship and 229 average. He bowled the 1970 PBA rookie of the year Bob McGregor for the championship. Joe has won several semi-pro tournaments but this is his first PBA win. J. B. Blaylock of Alamogordo and Jack Kannady of Ruidoso were also in the tournament. Joe is shown with Cecil Caddel, tournament director, in the picture.

Happy the man to whom heaven has given a morsel of bread without laying him under the obligation of thanking any other for it than heaven itself. — Miguel de Cervantes

We don't mind being called a football nut or whatever, it's a game we love and our pride in the Carrizozo Grizzlies goes real deep. After trips to Farmington, Melrose, Ruidoso and Artesia to see the finals of both Class A and AA, sorry to see the season end.

Got a surprise at Eagle Field in Farmington, those Indians were tougher than we knew. Didn't get a surprise about how tough the Melrose Buffaloes were, only on the ending of that game. Didn't get a surprise at Ruidoso when Kirtland Central was there, Ruidoso played its usual game, rather common defense and pretty good, passing game to win. Really did get a surprise at Artesia, Ruidoso vs. Jal. The Warriors did a lot better defensive job than we've seen them do before, that plus Jal not putting it altogether give the Warriors a state championship.

Beautiful big, warm press box at Artesia, especially nice on rainy night. Talked with U.G. Montgomery, head Activity Assn. guy, and he reminded us that Lea County came close to having three championship teams last year, Lovington, Hobbs and Jal. Hobbs got beat in the state. This year Jal got beat still leaving them two chances.

Lincoln County has it made with both the Class A and Class AA championships sacked up. No one has ever told us of that happening before. Hardly anyway for us to get three in this county unless we could get Corona or Nogal to start growing and make up a AAA size school.

Earl Fenter, George Martinez and Pate made the trip to Artesia, all three of us figuring Jal for the winner and with quarter bets on the game. It was such a rainy bad-weather night that we decided all bets should be canceled.

Problems down at our church, which beset most small churches and our people don't know which way to go. Three years ago the church decided to employ part-time minister, happens to be a dandy preacher in every way. Bad part is that no church work is done during the week with result that the church steadily goes down hill. Now the money is harder than ever to get up for a full-time man (or woman), hopefully not, sorry about that Eleanor. Do you go ahead and let the church die far as doing much of the Lord's work is concerned, or do you take the difficult course of getting full time man.

A friend is a person who knows all about you -- still likes you -- Elbert Hubbard.

Us Carrizozo printers and or promoters aren't doing their thing real well. Dandy program at both Melrose and Ruidoso games. Excellent bands everywhere we go, Carrizozo is sure the town that should have both a decent program and band to represent its town. That stadium at Artesia made us think that ZoZo could do some of the same -- hard but could be done.

Sure was pleasant to have Buster Smoot beating on the skins, Arnold Boyce on trumpet and Bartley McDonough on trombone -- back together for first time since Elfred Jones' funeral. Jack Turner was in San Francisco that particular night. Sure do enjoy that music, spend many happy hours at the keyboard at home. Any of you people want music at your next wedding, funeral or birth, just ask us, we might be available.

OEA elects Lopez state chairman

New Mexico post-secondary office educators met at Albuquerque's T-VI on November 9, 1972, and elected Tino Lopez, formerly of Carrizozo, as their State Chairman.

Tino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tino Lopez, Sr., is employed as instructor and business department head at the New Mexico Technical-Vocational School in Espanola and was also recently elected Chairman of the schools' Personnel Committee which is responsible to the President in its policy-making recommendation. In 1967, Tino was selected for "Who's Who in Vocational Education."

After Tino's election, it was decided to hold the State OEA Conference next year at the NM-TV School campus at Espanola in early April just prior to the National Conference. Regionals will be held at El Rito in March. OEA advisor, James E. Finical, Eastern University professor, told the group that the National Conference will be held in Albuquerque on May 5, 6, 7, and 8 in the new Convention Center. Schools from throughout the United States will be attending.

A southern Regional will be held at Eastern University and will include Eastern, High Plains in Clovis, Hobbs Junior College, and Roswell's TVI; the northern Regional to be held at El Rito includes Albuquerque's TVI, Camp Luna in Las Vegas, Farmington's TVI, and the NM Technical Vocational Schools at El Rito and Espanola.

Regional dates will be set at the next meeting called for by the Chairman on February 2, 1973, in Santa Fe at the New Mexico Department of Education's Board Room.

Thanksgiving in Days of Yore

Thanksgiving is unquestionably our most beautiful and helpful national holiday, and there is surely something radically wrong in an American, man or woman, whose heart is not filled with gratitude and pride at the thought of the little band of Puritans who instituted the day, and whose worthy descendants perpetuated it for nearly two hundred years before the custom was taken up outside of New England. Since 1817 the festival has been annually observed throughout many of the Eastern states, but it remained for President Lincoln in 1863 to issue the first presidential proclamation, naming the last Thursday in November as a day of national Thanksgiving.

The day's initial observance was at Plymouth, away back in the autumn of 1621. The landing of the little company of 102 persons in November of the preceding year had been followed by a winter of great severity, which not only brought untold privations and suffering, but during which nearly one-half their number had died.

But spring came at last, and despite all hardships and danger they hopefully planted their simple crops. Abundant rains and warm sunshine gave them a prosperous season, and at the completion of their first harvest -- a harvest which at best prompting of their grateful hearts was to hold a special feast together, that they "might in a more special manner rejoice together and give thanks to God."

For many years after the first cheerful celebration at Plymouth, Thanksgiving was kept in a most solemn and unattractive manner, but as the battle for life became easier, it developed into a day of joyous thanksgiving in very truth.

It was, as it always had been, a religious day, and a day for the ingathering of the family. But instead of two church services, each three hours long, with dinner crowded between, the afternoon services were dropped, the dinner leisurely enjoyed, and the afternoon given over to visiting, games, music, sleigh-riding, and the various other delightful ways by which the ties of home and kindred are renewed and strengthened by the love that makes the world go round.

This beautiful old picture was put together not too long after the White Oaks A.F. & A.M. Lodge No. 20 was chartered March 19, 1890. The picture was presented to White Oaks Lodge by B. J. Miller of Sweetwater, Texas Lodge No. 371. Identity of several men is not known and help will be appreciated from readers of this

White Store owner dies

H. A. McSmith, 83, died Friday, November 10th, at San Juan Hospital in Farmington. Funeral services were held Monday at Lee & Oviatt Mortuary, with the pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church officiating, and Mr. McSmith's grandsons as pallbearers.

He was laid to rest in Greenlawn Cemetery in Farmington. Mr. McSmith was born in Old Velasco, Texas, on November 27, 1888, and in just two weeks would have celebrated his 84th birthday. He moved to New Mexico in 1937, where he owned and operated "The White Store" for 25 years, until he retired. His wife preceded him in death in 1961. He is survived by seven children, of which three graduated from Carrizozo High School.

Four sons: Joe A., Seattle, Washington; Robert L., Granbury, Texas; Newman F., Los Angeles, California; and William D., Farmington, New Mexico. Three daughters: Mrs. H. S. (Aetha) Barton, Sweeny, Texas; Mrs. John C. (Juanita) Johnson, Carrizozo, New Mexico; and Mrs. Robert D. (LaVerne) Ohmart, Tempe, Arizona.
Also surviving are two brother, twenty-three grandchildren, and thirteen great grandchildren.

District Court looking for help

Judge George Zimmerman told the News that the court will be needing a part-time probation officer and also a clerk in the office in Carrizozo. Interested people are invited to write P. O. Box 38, Alamogordo, N. M. 88310.

Hunter lost on Lone Mountain

No one was hurt and nobody really suffered but a young hunter was really lost between Carrizozo and White Oaks Sunday.

Yule Martin, 17, was hunting with his uncle Willis Wall both from Cisco, Texas. Martin killed a deer on the west side of the mountain, after walking from White Oaks. He started walking back, went down a deep canyon about dark and that was it, he couldn't make it back up, had to come around the bottom of the mountain and that took some time.

He was first picked up by Richard Vega and Dr. DeWillis of Albuquerque who were bringing him around when contact was made with Deputy Sheriff Leandro Vega, Jr. and Officer Bill Mascarenas who had been called to the rescue by the uncle around 10:30 p.m.

Children's pictures taken in color

Tuesday, November 28 is the big day set to take living color pictures of your little one. The News is having pictures taken of all children accompanied by their parents or other guardian at the Recreation Center between 11:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. absolutely free of any charge or obligation.

The News wants to publish a picture of your child in a photographic feature series of local children entitled "Citizens of Tomorrow".

A professional children's photographer will take the pictures in direct living color. We emphasize that you dress the children colorfully so as to take full advantage of the beauty of color photography.

There is no charge or obligation for taking the pictures. Parents don't even have to be a subscriber to the News nor even a reader. You do not have to purchase pictures either. Proofs will be shown in color and you may obtain color portraits by arranging direct with the studio representative if you want them. That is entirely up to you.

Kiddies and parents alike will reap no end of fun and pride as the pictures appear in the paper. Mothers and fathers of children in the area please help us and remember the date, Tuesday, November 28 at Carrizozo Recreation Center. If you have not already made an appointment for this community event do it now. Call Madelle McDaniel at phone number 648-2967 and avoid the possibility of a long wait.

Luncheon, style show enjoyed

Members of the Carrizozo Women's Club and their guests enjoyed a twelve o'clock luncheon and style show last Thursday.

Chairman for the luncheon was Mrs. C. A. Snow with club members Mrs. Wm. Hayes, Mrs. Paul Payton, Mrs. O. S. Simmons, Mrs. Welcolm Armstrong, Mrs. Alton R. Whittaker, Mrs. G. B. Sidwell, and Mrs. R. M. Bradley assisting.

The table centerpiece was a pumpkin filled with chrysanthemums. Greenery and miniature turkeys decorated the tables.

The fashion show was put on by the Sun Dial Style Shop of Alamogordo, who modeled many beautiful outfits. Inez Tripp of Alamogordo was the commentator. She introduced the models and described their costumes. The models were Lillian Gattis, Zelma Brewer, Barbara Chappel, Jo Ann Haden, all of Alamogordo. Lyla, owner of the shop modeled one costume.

A business meeting followed conducted by the president, Mrs. J. E. Thornton.

Deadlines are suggested dates

Reports from our postal clerks indicate that one of the common misconceptions we encounter involves mailing deadlines. This post office has mailing deadlines for certain kinds of mail - the deadlines varying according to distance and type of mail. However, the so-called deadlines are only suggested mailing dates to help insure delivery in plenty of time for Christmas. If you do not observe deadlines, we will, of course, continue to accept your holiday mail - and the chances are good that we will deliver it in time. But we ask you to observe these suggested mailing dates to provide every possible assurance for you, and for us, that we will deliver in time to avoid disappointment.

Thanksgiving vacation starts Wednesday

Yum, yum apple cake

The Lincoln County apple crop was heavily damaged by unfavorable weather conditions in 1972. But, there are apples available for the homemaker to use in many tempting ways. Apples can be used in family meals from appetizers to desserts.

The Rome Beauty or Jonathan apple would be a good variety to choose for the following dish:

- Dutch Apple Cake
- 2 cups sifted enriched flour
 - 3 tablespoons sugar
 - 3 teaspoons baking powder
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1 cup whipping cream
 - 3 to 4 apples
 - 1/4 cup sugar
 - 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
 - 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine

The new members are Ricky Richardson; Robbie Richardson, Gary Lovelace, Ricky Hollis, Robbie Hollis, Lisa Ferguson, Lois McBride, Billy Bob Shafer, Rex Wilson, Todd Lindsay, Brett Lindsey, and Phillip Payne.

We also enrolled in many different projects. -- by Lois McBride

Thanksgiving Tradition

The origin of a thanksgiving feast at harvest time may go back as far as 120 centuries, to a time when man first began to understand the value of agriculture -- raising crops by his own labor rather than just picking what he could find growing wild.

As the years and centuries passed, men became more skilled in cultivating crops and in feasting and rendering homage to the spirits who caused the fruits of their harvest to grow.

Many early ceremonies included invocations, secular and religious dances, offerings of the first or last fruits of harvest -- and sometimes human sacrifice.

The Old Testament includes many references to harvest festivals, when the fruits were gathered and consumed in ceremonies offering thanks to the Lord. The Feast of the Tabernacle is an ancient time for rejoicing.

Even before biblical times, ancient people of the Mediterranean area held festivals in honor of the Earth Mother. The benevolent goddesses of oats, rye, wheat, and other basic foods have received homage through the centuries.

Long before the Egyptians learned to measure a year, they gave thanks for the grain crops harvested before the floods of the Nile. During the harvest festivals to their great goddess Demeter, the Greeks would declare a truce on any war they might be holding.

The Romans gave thanks every October to Ceres, the goddess of grain, and celebrated the event with music, dancing, sports, processions, and a feast at which they offered a sow and the first cuttings of harvest.

Throughout Europe today, the centuries-old custom of dressing and ornamenting the last sheaf of harvest like a doll continues. This spirit of the crop is called by many names: Corn Mother in Germany, Mother Sheaf in Brittany, Old Wife in Scotland, Grandmother in Prussia, and Baba in Poland.

The ancient combination of festivity, feasting, and a quietly deep sense of religion, remains preserved in the traditional holiday that Americans will celebrate Thursday. On this day, festivities will retain something of the old to recall their origin and tradition and something of the new to show their continuing strength and adaption to the new world.

The American custom became an official national holiday 242 years after the Pilgrims first celebrated their hard-won harvest. Until 1863, various parts of the country celebrated Thanksgiving on different dates, depending on whether the autumn was mild or frosty or when the last load of corn had gone into the barn.

Through the determined efforts of persons such as Mrs. Sarah Josepha Hale, and an increasing sentiment among Americans everywhere, the nation finally set an annual date for the celebration.

On Oct. 3, 1863, in the midst of the Civil War, President Abraham Lincoln issued a National Thanksgiving Proclamation, which established the event celebrating the autumn harvest, and giving thanks to the Creator.

Today, Thanksgiving is still a legal holiday in all states, territories, and possessions of the United States, by annual proclamation of the President and governors of the states.

It has become a day for family reunions, bountiful feasts and home festivities, and for church services with appropriate Scripture readings, hymns, proclamations, and sermons.

anticipation of it. Perhaps he or she would like to dress up a little or tidy up the room or even fix simple refreshments. A person may enjoy entertaining, even though old, and even though the entertaining may not be as fancy as it once was, according to the family life specialist.

Special family dates or birthdays or holidays are particularly nice to remember, if you know them, Yates says.

Make a list of things you can talk about so that you can leave something for an older person to think about, the specialist suggests. If she doesn't get out much she'll enjoy hearing news of old friends or church and community events. Or perhaps something you've read recently will be of special interest.

With a little thought, you could bring a conversation piece. Nothing elaborate, just a picture or a little treat. Or perhaps a book or magazine, a letter from a relative, a plant or flower, puzzles or games, depending on their interests. Little surprises are always fun.

Yates suggests that you try to allow time for a leisurely visit. While a visit that's too long could tire an elderly person, a hasty one could seem rushed and give the impression that the visit is a chore.

We can give a great deal of enjoyment simply by being good listeners. The elderly enjoy visiting about things and discussing the old days. If we've heard a story before it doesn't hurt us to hear it again.

Of course, there are no hard and fast rules, each elderly person is an individual, Yates believes. Some may be upset to hear a contrary opinion. Others may find a good discussion mentally stimulating.

But regardless of their particular personalities, we should accept older people as they are, just as we expect to be accepted ourselves. And by bringing a little sunshine into someone else's life, we find that our own life becomes much brighter.

HOSPITAL REPORT

Admissions: Nov. 8 - John Bernnard, Corona, Nov. 9 - Henry Means, Nogal, Nov. 10 - Cathryn Najar, Nov. 16 - Jim Ham.

Discharges: Nov. 13 - John Bernnard, Cathryn Najar, Nov. 20 - Henry Means.

Mix and sift first 4 ingredients. Whip cream, blend lightly with a fork. Spread in greased 9-inch square cake pan. Pare, core and quarter apples; cut each quarter into 3 slices. Arrange in parallel rows on dough, pressing edges into dough. Combine remaining 1/4 cup sugar and cinnamon; sprinkle evenly over apples. Pour melted butter or margarine over all. Bake at 400 for 30 minutes or until done when tested with a cake tester. Cut in squares. Serve with foamy sauce or cream. Makes 9 servings.

The recipe comes to us courtesy of the International Apple Institute. --Mary Ellen Payne, Lincoln County Home Agent.

Brighten day for elderly

LAS CRUCES -- Do you have an elderly relative whose life could be brightened? Or is there an elderly neighbor who's lonely.

Many elderly people are crying for companionship. Just the fact that someone cares enough to visit can brighten the life of a person who lives most of his or her days in dull routine, says Leo Yates, extension family life specialist at New Mexico State University.

A visit from you would mean much for them, he points out. But to give maximum pleasure, so a little advanced planning. Make a date ahead of time. Much of the pleasure of your visit lies in

New pattern system shown

Sunburst Pattern System has been developed over several years of research into all facets of the field of pattern drafting. C.M. Brook and Helen LeMay have traveled the entire United States lecturing to thousands of ladies who have fitting problems. They have been able to observe that the basic root of the problem has been lack of instructions at the level of the home seamstress. They have found that what is available to ladies who sew is really keyed to the professional level. Their whole concept has been to change this. Now, Sunburst Pattern System shows a step by step method, entirely American in development, where any average seamstress

New shops open in Lincoln

Lincoln is going forward. I am glad. It is such a nice place. I always enjoy my time there every two weeks. Have for so many years. Just love every one there. Also do enjoy meals at the Wortley. Good luck to all of the new shops and new residents as well.

The LaPacita Shop in Lincoln is being moved to its winter quarters in the Montano Store Building.

The Penfields Imports and various gift items are located in its shop in the front part of the Penfield home. Open on weekends.

There is prospects of a Candle Shop in Lincoln, later on I have been informed.

I wish everyone a very Happy Thanksgiving. My Prayers are that all families are happy together. I also desire that all of our new subscribers are enjoying our paper. I am thinking of each one I served. Have a joyous Holiday with your heart full of gratitude.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Daniel of Abernathy, Texas spent Thursday thru Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hobbs last week.

Mr. and Mrs. McKee of Cleburne, Texas spent several days at Smokey Bear Motel and visited Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Grantham, Jr. last Tuesday evening.

Miss Patricia Grantham and Mr. Mike Westbrook of Texas Tech arrived Wednesday and stayed thru Saturday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Grantham, Jr., a happy Thanksgiving for this family.

Mrs. Allie Taylor spent several days with her sister Mr. and Mrs. George McBride in Mesalero. While there she did go to her doctor in Alamogordo.

Mr. and Mrs. John Purcella of Roswell, and his sister Mrs. Annie Melnes enjoyed dinner with their sister Mrs. Allie Taylor last week.

Mr. Jimmie Wright and Miss Linda McCarty of New Mexico State in Las Cruces arrived Friday to spend the weekend with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wright.

Mr. Malcolm Almond of Alto came home last Saturday. He had undergone major surgery in El Paso and was there ten days. He is doing okay and walking as much as he can daily. He is not able to go to work but he is gaining his health nicely minus the severe headaches. I wish you a very good recovery and the best of health.

The new Security Bank Building in Ruidoso is going up fast. The steel is above and over the present building. They are putting the roof on now. It looks as if it is going to be a very nice building. Certainly modern in design.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Britton attended the funeral services of his nephew in Texas last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Jones visited her sister Mrs. Smith of Colorado City, Texas, who is very ill in the hospital.

Marshall Padilla of Roswell brought his parents Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Padilla to their home last Sunday for the day. They enjoyed dinner with his sister Mr. and Mrs. Ysabel Aldaz and visited for the afternoon. Mrs. Padilla is in the wheelchair and will be for some time. But she did enjoy being in her home. She was homesick as they have been away for so long but this made her feel better. I wish you a good recovery.

There are many hunters going thru and many coming here as well. The hunting season opened Saturday the 18th. There is always lots of activity and lots of new people in our area during that season.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Womack of Merkel, Texas arrived to spend that season with their son Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Womack and family. They always hold their annual family reunion at that time and are doing so now. Those present are Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Womack and family of Santa Fe, Ennet Womack, Jr. and family of Redding, California, Joe Don, Mike and Aunt Mable of Riek Mission, Viejo, California and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Womack of Albuquerque. All of their family together is just grand.

Mrs. Avelina Trujillo and Salomon returned last week from two weeks in Tularosa visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Beltran. Avelina opened their bar which had been closed due to a fire some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Watson of Albuquerque are the proud parents of a baby daughter born November 1, weighing seven pounds twelve ounces at the Presbyterian Hospital there. Her name is Friday Lorraine. Mrs. Watson is the former Margaret Taylor of Lincoln. Her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Ray Taylor, Kenneth, John and Shirley went to visit them last week.

Thanksgiving at Beall home

The Capitan Round Table Club met at the home of Vera Beall in Lincoln for their Thanksgiving meeting. There were nine members present and two guests, Jane Goodrich and Melissa Coffman.

The luncheon tables were decorated in a Thanksgiving theme with individual cornu copias at each place as favors. Turkey and the usual other dishes were plentiful.

Plans were made for the Christmas party which will be on Saturday evening December 16 at 7:30 p.m. with Bessie Cummins hostess. Also plans for preparing and delivering Christmas boxes to our shut-ins residents were made.

Officers for 1973 are as follows: Hattie Phillips president; Lorene Ferguson - vice-president, Mary Dean - secretary-treasurer, Bessie Cummins - news, and menu - Frances Shaw.

It was voted to make a small contribution to The Smokey Bear Club.

INSPIRATION

There is much talk today about the "New Morality." God however has not changed His view of morality. He still requires the same. He will judge all mankind by the same morality that He has revealed in His written word.

Revelation 21:8 says, "But the fearful, and unbelieving, and abominable, and murderers, and fornicators, and sorcerers and idolaters, and all liars, their part shall be in the lake that burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death."

Even till the end of time, when He will judge men for these crimes, He will still demand the same moral standards.

Next year may be the one

Right or wrong, good or bad, your 1972 gardening season is rapidly coming to an end. All during the year, you have continued to tell yourself "Next year I'm going to do differently." If you expect to carry out this promise, or threat, you should start making plans now.

Where can I find a plant that requires a minimum of care and attention? Use Chamiza in your landscape plans. Also, let us consider a group of plants known as wormwood (Artemisia). One species of this family grows in the desert areas of New Mexico and western Texas which we call "sage" or "rabbitbrush." In some areas, this plant is called Chamisa, but this name more appropriately refers to the Fourwing Saltbrush (Atriplex Canescens).

Nurseryman list at least four improved varieties of Artemisia. Probably the best known variety is "Silver King." This striking white-leaved plant grows to three feet. The entire color effect is bright frosted-silver. Its delightful mistlike quality is superb in floral arrangements. Sprays also lend elegance to dried arrangements. Another variety, "Silver-Mound," produces effect in the rock garden or as an accent plant when planted in groups of three or more. It is incomparable for edging beds or walks. Like all artemisias, Silver Mound prefers a warm sunny, and slightly dry location. The lovely silvery gray-green foliage of "Versicolor," combined with its unique habit of growth makes this variety of particular value. The plant produces a rather stately central stalk some 18 to 20 inches tall with a low compact mound of foliage nestled at the base. An unusual chain like effect is created by the finely cut spiky leaves. It is outstanding as a border plant and excellent in groups of three or more to highlight your perennial garden. You will also admire its beauty in bouquets and floral arrangements.

A fourth variety called "Discolor" is a shrub-like having stems 10 to 18 inches high. Its foliage is a stunning frosty green on top with white silky down beneath. It blends harmoniously with flowers in the vase as well as the flower border.

Like most perennials, Artemisias require annual shearing to look their best. Excessive amounts of either fertilizer or water destroys their beauty. It appears we have found just the plant we have been looking for, doesn't it? - Ralph Dunlap, Lincoln County Agent.

Individuals can earn more and still draw Social Security

"One of the changes included in the 1972 Amendments to the Social Security Act (signed into law last month) raises the amount an individual can earn and still draw full social security benefits," Mrs. Christine Graves, social security field representative, stated today. The old figure of $1680 per year has been raised to $2100 per year. This goes into effect with taxable years ending after 1972. For most people this would be the 1973 calendar year.

If a beneficiary earns $2100 or less in 1973 he will get all benefits for the year. If he earns more than $2100 while he is under age 72, the general rule is that $1 in benefits to him or his family will be withheld for each $2 he earns over the $2100 per year.

An exception to this general rule is that regardless of total earnings in 1973 and later years, benefits will be payable for any month in which he neither earns wages of more than $175 nor performs substantial services in self-employment.

"The old $1680 per year (or $140 per month) limitation will continue to apply to 1972 earnings," Mrs. Graves emphasized.

Mrs. Graves may be contacted at the County
Commissioner's Room, Lincoln County Court House in Carrizozo, the fourth Wednesday of each month from 10 to noon.

Pvt. Gonzales at Ft. Ord

Ft. Ord, Calif. (AHFNC) - Army Private Felix
F. Gonzales, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix J.
Gonzales, Hondo, N.M., is assigned to Ft. Ord, Calif., where he is training under the modern volunteer army program.
The program combines basic and advanced individual training (AIT) into an average 16-week program, depending on the AIT the soldier receives after completing basic.
Pvt. Gonzales began his training with Company A, 2nd Battalion, 2nd Brigade on Oct. 9 and is scheduled to complete the first phase on Dec. 6.

First grade visits Alamo

On Wednesday, November 15, Mrs. Williams' first grade class took a field trip to Alamogordo where they visited the City Dairy, Villa de La Luz Pottery Shop, and the Alamogordo City Zoo.
The dairy visit included a tour of the barns, field, and milk processing plant. At the pottery shop the children observed the making of two pottery pieces from clay, toured the building and saw the finished products. The Zoo visit doubled as a lunch stop and the children were treated to ice cream from the dairy.
The field trip was part of the "World of Work" program in the Carrizozo Schools which is an effort to introduce students to various fields of endeavor including local government. Other programs in this class have included speakers from various fields including Mr. Dan Ortiz and Mrs. Helen Lock from the school, Mrs. Stella Ortiz, beauty operator, Mr. Choncho Morales, speaking on Law Enforcement, and Mr. Osorio on service station management.

My thanks to the people of Lincoln County who voted for me. My time away from my job was limited, so I was unable to go meet you good people and ask for your vote.
Thank you again.

SANTA FE - Sen. Gdis Echols, D-Clovis, will propose a primary election method of nominating candidates in the 1974 Legislature. Delegates would be elected to the state convention in March. A candidate would win a place on the primary ballot if he polled 15 to 20 percent of delegates. The primary election would be held in May or June.

The proposed change would affect both major political parties. The legislation, already drafted, is patterned on the New York system. As alternatives, Sen. Echols says, he will propose a run-off primary or a petition method of qualifying for the primary ballot in New Mexico. Major election legislation will be sent to the 1974 Legislature, and outgrowth of a massive filing fee tangle in the 1972 Democratic primary. Two filing fee cases were still pending in the U.S. Supreme Court.

Sen. Echols is also considering legislation providing two four-year terms for the governor and other elected state officials. Elected state officials are limited to a single four-year term now under a constitutional amendment adopted in 1970.

Echols will also introduce a plan allowing the State Development Department to attract economic development in New Mexico by making capital more readily available under special conditions. Echols is chairman of the interim Committee on Aging. The committee is looking into probate problems. Echols seeks re-election as Senate majority whip in the Senate Democratic caucus. He is opposed by Sen. Robert McBride, Albuquerque. Sen. Echols is a 1974 Democratic governor prospect.

The Legislative Council, the legislature's interim arm, met in Santa Fe. Council members attending included Senate President Pro Tem I.M. (Ike) Smalley; D-Luna-Hidalgo-Sierra; Senate Majority Leader Tibo Chavez, D-Belen; Rep. Richard Carbajal, D-Belen, and Rep. Hoyt Pattison, R-Curry-Roosevelt-Lea.

A hearing was set Dec. 4 in a state appellate court on a Truth or Consequences liquor license transfer. State Liquor Director Carlos Jaramillo approved the transfer from the Truth or Consequences 5-mile zone into the municipality. The City of Truth or Consequences successfully challenged Jaramillo's authority to approve the transfer in Santa Fe District Court. The State Alcoholic Beverage Control Department appealed the district court ruling.

State Tourist Director Fabian Chavez says he seeks $5,500 for preliminary engineering, architectural work and planning on a project to restore the Town of Lincoln.

Chavez said $2,500 was approved from the historic preservation fund of the National Park Service. The Four Corners Regional Commission will act Dec. 9 on a request for an added $3,000. Chavez said work would be performed by Santa Fe architect William Lumpkins and Herkenhoff and Associates of Albuquerque and Santa Fe. Major restoration of the Town of Lincoln and a highway bypass are projected. The Four Corners Regional Commission application has been filed.

Transfer of a Carrizozo retailer liquor license was approved by the state liquor agency. Ownership passed from B.V. and Geraldine Vlahovic, doing business as Central Package Store, to Raymond A. Sanchez.

Transfer of ownership of San Jon Bar, San Jon, from A.E. Rohde to Mr. and Mrs. J.E. DeMaris was also approved by the state liquor agency. Tinnie Mercantile Co., doing business as Double Eagle, acquired a Mesilla dispenser's liquor license from Allen-Lange Inc. Tinnie Mercantile Co. also operates restaurants and bars at Tinnie, Lincoln County, and Lamy, Santa Fe County.

State Finance Director Robert Kirkpatrick said revenues from New Mexico's mineral production, especially oil and gas, have been surprisingly strong in recent months. Kirkpatrick told Gov. Bruce King in a report:

"Although total oil production remains below last year's levels, natural gas production and prices are rising significantly.

"As a result, the distribution to the state general fund of severance tax revenues amounted to $4.7 million during the first four months of the current fiscal year (July-October), and increase of 8.4 percent from the previous year's total for this period of $4.4 million."

New Mexico public school enrollment after the first 40 days was down in most districts from 1971. The 40-day report is critical because it is the basis for state funds for school districts.

The 1972 reports: Jal Public Schools, 841 enrollment, down 47; Eunice, 737, down 85; Belen, 3,452, up 19; Las Lunas, 3,403, up 117; Taos, 3,176, up 85; Clayton, 1,081, down 42; Springer, 624, down 23.

Also, Tucumcari, 2,263, up 39; Lordsburg, 1,255, up 105; Carrizozo, 431, up 29; Ruidoso, 961, down 2; Deming, 3,780, down 3; Port Sumner, 560, down 22; Santa Rosa, 1,102, down 103; Truth or Consequences, 1,457, up 44, and Clovis, 9,181, down 17.

Ex-Senate President Pro Tem W.C. Wheatley, Clayton Democrat, visited the capitol late last week. Former Sen. Wheatley renewed friendships with legislators and others.

The Governor's Council on Criminal Justice Planning divided federal funds. Allocations included: Ruidoso, $1,409; Lordsburg, $3,816; Taos, $2,900; Tucumcari, $6,611; Valencia County, $1,731; Hidalgo County, $1,292.

Zozo students in math contest

Nine Carrizozo High School students, under the sponsorship of Mr. Lawson, recently traveled to Albuquerque to participate in the annual New Mexico Mathematics Contest. The contest consists of a difficult three hour test designed to assess mathematical ability and ingenuity rather than simple achievement.

A total of 1800 contestants from 153 school representing 65 cities and towns in New Mexico took the test. Performance reports indicate that eight of the nine Zozo students placed in the top 30 per cent of all who entered the contest and that Keenan Hoff, Senior, placed in the top 10 per cent.

Zozo students who participated are seniors Keenan Hoff and Linda Porter, juniors Clay Funk and Andre Hoff, and freshmen Mark Wilson, Jackie Dross, Les Miller and Paul Wetzel.

Work was going on but not quite as usual Monday morning in the Lincoln County courthouse. Furnace trouble that has been chronic in this building since it's first winter was the problem again and people in the offices were all wearing coats and hoping the heat would come back on soon.

NEW MEXICO STATE CLASS A FOOTBALL Champions

Volume 3, November 1972 A Special Section of the Lincoln County News. Published at Carrizozo, N. M.

Foot Notes Never done before Grizzlies win 4th straight State title

Back somewhere in the dim dark ages there was a real big thing happened in the Carrizozo area. Either a hole or a fissure opened up and out came enough hot lava, fire and smoke, to cover the landscape for many miles around. The creation of the Valley of Fires State Park with its 30 or more miles of black lava must have really startled the animal life in the area. Who knows what sort of human habitation was here if any, but they would have been shook out of their skins and caves for sure.

F-N

Later in time there was a bit of a gold rush in the White Oaks area and some hot old times in that (now) ghost town. And, in the same period Billy the Kid was doing his thing in Lincoln County which made headlines over the nation. Later in time the railroad came to Carrizozo with cheers here and jeers in White Oaks. History does not record any real big deals here during a 50-60 year span of the 20th century.

F-N

Paving was put down to the thorough disgust of losers in that fight. Thanks to Jackie a beautiful-recreation center was built and that was a thrill, maybe a few decades later. The center that really thrilled the entire town but we just can't think of any of them now. That is, up to the night of November 10.

F-N

On Friday, November 10, 1972 there was a football game played for the Class A championship of New Mexico and the outcome of this game was decided in the last few minutes in a manner that thrilled all Carrizozo fans there, which was most of the town, and at the same time sunk Melrose into the deepest depths of gloom.

F-N

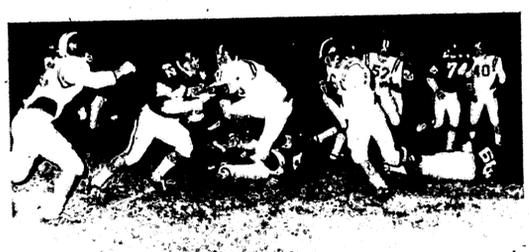

Daily newspapers have headlined, "Carrizozo Wins Class A Crown" and their writers tell how Gaby Chavez threw a 50-yard pass complete to David Roper for the winning score, but that is not near all of the drama. Melrose was a good big football team with 10 seniors against Carrizozo's 3 seniors back from last year's champion team. Melrose squad of 20 players weighed 3640. Taking the same number of Carrizozo's heaviest boys comes only to 3236. That's a weight advantage of 20 pounds per man.

F-N

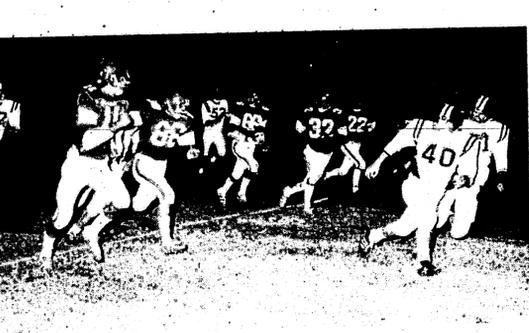

Melrose could move the ball and did See Page Eight

There was no question left about which Class A football team was Number One in New Mexico after the Grizzlies put the big win on Melrose. They were happy football players and coach. You see them with the trophy.

Carrizozo's three TDs were real honest scores, like Steve Ortiz plowing through the Buffalo line for three yards and a touchdown.

Carrizozo moved the ball good with fine blocking. This was a beautiful play when David Roper (45) ran the ball on a fake punt play. Gaby Chavez and Mike Barela are clearing the way.

It was a chilly night as football fans came from all over to see a championship football game between the Carrizozo Grizzlies and the Melrose Buffaloes. The fans weren't disappointed because a championship game they saw.

The game began with the Buffaloes receiving the kick off and began eating up valuable yardage. Melrose did make it to the end zone on the drive but an illegal procedure penalty nullified the score. The Buffaloes were eventually forced to punt and the Grizzlies had the ball for the first time. Carrizozo found the going tough and from punt formation, David Roper gained 23 yards on the carry. Gaby Chavez mixed in a couple of pass plays to Mike Barela and Ray Pecheco to move the Grizzlies to within striking distance. From there fullback Steve Ortiz began to successfully run inside and drove the Carrizozo eleven to within 3 yards and from there Steve went into the end zone. David Roper kicked the extra point to make the score 7-0.

Melrose wasted no time getting on the board. The Buffaloes under the direction of quarterback, Don Gunn, drove into the end zone with Gunn going the final yards. Their drive was strictly a ground attack. Melrose trailing by a point tried for 2 extra points but failed making the score 7-6.

Both teams battled pretty evenly until the final quarter when all the excitement took place. Carrizozo drove the ball into the end zone as David Roper took 7 Chavez pitch out but one official took the ball and blew his whistle to nullify the score. But it wasn't long before Chavez faked into the line and went around his right end for a one yard touchdown but Roper's kick went wide to give Carrizozo a 13-6 lead.

The Dan Ward coached Buffaloes weren't ready to let Carrizozo have the title yet. Melrose once again drove the ball deep in Grizzly territory as the clock began to be an important factor. After calling a time out, Don Gunn faked to his backs into the line, then lofted a pass to Marvin Estes alone in the end zone making the score 13-12 in favor of the Grizzlies with the try for the point after yet to come. The Buffaloes went with Kippie Black and he made it to the goal line on a very close call giving Melrose the edge 13-14, with 2:22 remaining.

On the ensuing kick-off Mike Barela caught and returned the ball to midfield. On first down Chavez tried to sweep but lost 2 yards; on second down, Gaby went with a screen pass but the Melrose defense got to him as he was releasing the ball and an incomplete pass with 1:51 left on the clock when time out was called with a 3rd and 12 situation. Gaby was told by Coach St. Louis to go with Roper on a fly pattern but Chavez' pass was short to set up the 4th and 12 game winning play. Gaby decided he could reach David and went with the same play and found David well behind the Buffalo secondary as the ball travelled 50 yards in the air, a touchdown, and a championship. The try for the PAT was blocked and Carrizozo went into a prevent defense with 6 defensive backs to end the game as Eddie Herrera recovered a fumble with 9 seconds remaining. Grizzlies 19, Buffaloes 14.

The '72 season, game by game

Carrizozo 6—Ruidoso 12

This game was no forecast of what the coming season was to bring. The Grizzlies fielded an untested team against their Lincoln County rivals. We knew the Grizzlies could win if the mistakes were limited which they weren't. The result was the first defeat in 21 outings. David Roper's touchdown jaunt of 80 yards with the opening kick off lifted the hopes of Carrizozo followers but Ruidoso countered with the equalizer before the half. Toward the end of the third quarter Kent Skarda found the end zone for the second time giving the Warriors the winning margin. Carrizozo had an opportunity in the final stanza but another penalty halted the Grizzly drive, deep in Warrior territory.

Carrizozo 43—Corona 0

The outclassed Cardinals put up quite a fight for a half before giving way to Carrizozo's penalty ridden eleven. The score stood 15-0 at the half and that proved to be enough of a scare for the Grizzlies. Ernie Beltran, Gaby Chavez and Ray Pacheco showed some tough running. Even substitute quarterback got into the act as he found Ray Pacheco in the end zone for a six pointer. Chavez and Pacheco scored twice each with Beltran and Ortiz doing the honors once each.

Carrizozo 8—Capitan 0

The Tigers really never threatened the Grizzlies as touchdown passes were dropped and penalties continued to follow the Grizzlies. With neither team being able to mount a drive, the contest turned into a defensive battle. Gaby Chavez and Steve Ortiz both stalwarts of the Grizzly defense, turned their defensive abilities to offense. Ortiz put a strong rush on Tiger passer Renfro and hit the quarterback hard enough to fumble as the alert Chavez scooped up the fumble and ran 40 yards to pay dirt with Ortiz going over with the extra point.

Carrizozo 26—Colonia Juarez 6

This game was probably the turning point of the season. The Grizzlies played their best game up to that point against the Lobos. Colonia opened fast as on the second play of the game Judd threw a long pass to Beall that carried inside the Carrizozo five yard line and finding the end zone on the next play. This was all the scoring for he visiting Lobos. Michael Barela took over as he recovered a Carrizozo fumble in the end zone for one score and intercepted a Judd pass and returned it 30 yards for another touchdown, Grizzly Quarterback Gaby Chavez found teammate David Roper by himself and connected to complete a 42 yard touchdown. Ray Pacheco completed the scoring with a one yard plunge.

Carrizozo 38—Clouderoff 14

The Grizzlies displayed the wishbone T for the first time and did it well enough to build a big enough lead to allow the Grizzly bench to be emptied. Ernie Beltran did the damage running while David Roper did his thing catching the ball. Ernie had scoring run of 11 and 4 yards while David caught tosses of 64 and 36 yards from Chavez. Chavez also got into the scoring act with a 4 yard stroll to pay dirt. From then on the Carrizozo reserves played a full quarter and a half yielding 14 points, which meant nothing when considering the experience gained.

Carrizozo 26—T or C 6

The Grizzlies could manage only a first quarter touchdown but came on strong in the second half for a convincing victory over the Tigers. Christy Monrreal got the defense in the picture as he picked off a Tiger aerial and zig zagged his way into the end zone from 35 yards away. Chavez, Pacheco and Beltran chipped in with other touchdowns. But it was the defense that completely stopped the Tigers and took game honors.

Carrizozo 40—Dexter 0

The Gerald Burns led Demons came to Carrizozo and the Grizzlies were anxious to show Burns and Dexter that they were still a powerful team. Roper and Chavez led the way with long scoring plays. Roper scored twice on the ground and once through the airways while Chavez scored twice running the ball. Steve Ortiz also chipped in with some important yardage and joined his other teammates rushing for over 100 yards. The win was the 6th in a row since its opening loss to Ruidoso.

Carrizozo wins by forfeit over Reserve Reserve saw the writing on the wall—disciplined some party goers and forfeited its district game with Carrizozo giving the Grizzlies another district title. The Mountaineers were undefeated at the time and the Grizzlies were ready — but no one came and the Grizzlies understood and were ready for another state crown.

Carrizozo 13—Hatch 0

Hatch proved to be a tougher opponent than Carrizozo expected but did manage to edge the Bears for their 8th win of the regular season. Gaby Chavez opened things up in this game the same way David Roper opened the game with Ruidoso. Gaby took the opening kick off scooted up the sidelines for a 95 yard kick off return. The defense recorded it 4th white wash of the year while the offense was finding the going rough. Ernie Beltran did manage to cross the goal stripe and give the Grizzlies a good lead in the second half. Carrizozo did show the effects of a week's lay off and lacked momentum.

Carrizozo 14—Navajo Mission 0

Gaby Chavez did all the scoring and David Roper rushed for over 100 yards as the defense played well while under tremendous pressure. The defense stopped an Eagle drive in the second half by recovering a fumble in the end zone. Then the Chavez led Grizzlies drove 80 yards in 12 plays capped by Chavez' 18 yard run. In the 4th quarter Chavez scored from 25 yards out to give Carrizozo the victory. Gaby also had 2 TD's called back.

The win enabled Carrizozo to meet Melrose who had defeated Hagerman 14-6 the previous night.

Carrizozo 19—Melrose 14

This was a game of champions and no one can question that. The Grizzlies had taken that road before — 3 consecutive years to be exact — and came out on top. Carrizozo had taken an early lead as Steve Ortiz' burst through the middle along with David Roper's kick of the extra point was enough of a lead until quarterback Don Gunn of Melrose found the end zone but their try for 2 points was short. The score of 7 to 6 stood until the final quarter when Gaby Chavez faked into the line and scooted around his right end for a touchdown. The point after try was wide and the score stood 13-6. But Melrose came storming back with a Gunn to Estes pass for a touchdown. At this point Melrose went for 2 points and the lead and got it. But with 1:42 remaining, Gaby Chavez lofted the ball high and far to David Roper and a 50 yard TD. The game ended in championship fashion and true champions never quit as the Carrizozo Grizzlies showed us on the night of November 10, 1972, while winning their fourth consecutive state title.

Championship Action In Pictures

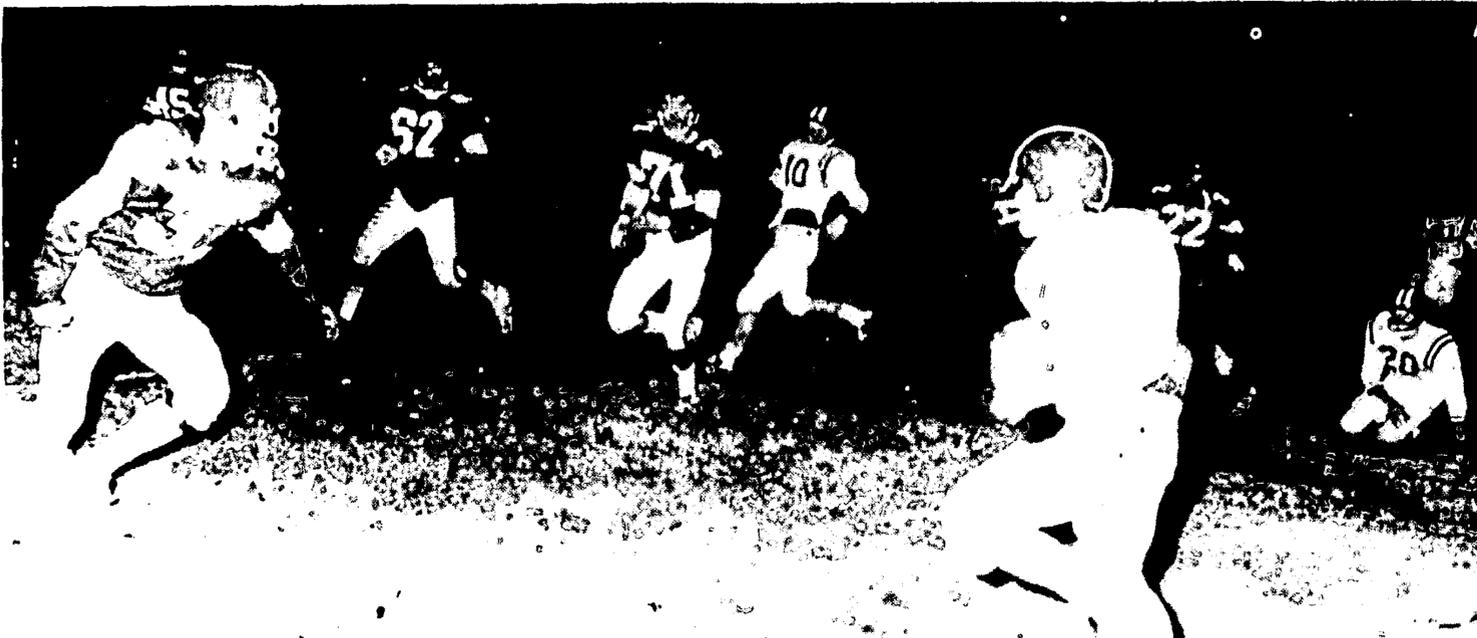

Defense was a key factor in the state championship game. Melrose Buffaloes made some good moves and they were also stopped cold a good part of the time. Gaby Chavez (11) and Eddie Herrera (22) stop fullback Craig Kerr at the line of scrimmage in this picture.

Coach Roger St. Louis escorts Steve Ortiz off the field after getting wind knocked out, 17 seconds remaining to play. Steve played a whale of a game.

Defense shaped up like this where you see Ray Pacheco closing in on Melrose QB Don Gunn, with Christy Monrreal and Jody Ventura coming up to help.

The Buffaloes really never made a break run on the Grizzlies like they had been doing all season. Joe Reed (61) is brought down after receiving kickoff. Jody Ventura (71), Ernie Beltran (30) and Don Gunn (1) of Melrose are in the picture.

Steve Ortiz found lots of running room for a 24-yard scamper which set up his TD run.

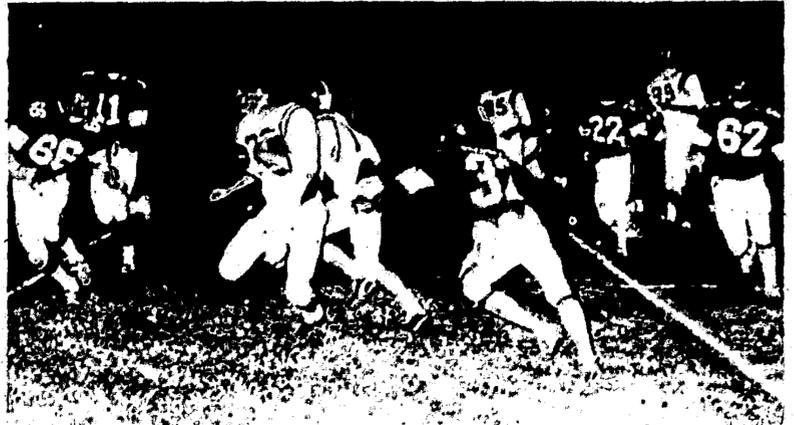

The Buffaloes were tough, rated the best team Zozo played all year. QB Don Gunn is putting the stiff arm on David Roper, Chavez, Monrreal, Barela, Beltran, and Herrera pursue.

Zozo Grizzlies passed just enough to keep the Buffaloes loose, you might say real loose in the last two minutes, Mike Barela took pass from QB Gaby Chavez for 14-yard gain. Joe Reed of Melrose is fixing to make the tackle.

The Grizzlies were just as tough as the Buffaloes and in the final countdown the smarter and better prepared ball team.

Here you see Robert Schlarb (66), Gaby Chavez (11), Ray Pacheco (32), Christy Monrreal (62) and Eddie Herrera (62)

We're backing the Grizzlies all the way . . .

Your state champions of future years are in this group, the Carrizozo Junior Varsity squad.

Player Profiles

Co-captain, Gaby Chavez - Senior -- Gaby last year played in the shadows of Willie Gallegos but this year cast a giant shadow of his own. Led the team in rushing, passing, and scoring. A good field leader. He has led the Grizzlies to a 21-1 record for Coach St. Louis in his two years as the starting quarterback. Gaby was also one of the top defenders that yielded only 52 points this year. Finished his brilliant high school career with a brilliant throw!

Co-captain, David Roper - Senior -- David continued to be feared by opponents as a receiver this year. As last year's profile stated, David would return to haunt opponents and he did as he led the team in yardage receiving the ball and average yards per carry. He became especially valuable when he was needed in the backfield and switched from end to halfback. David's outstanding qualities are many, kicking, punting, receiving, running--to say the least a great ball player to have on your team. David also closed out his career in brilliant style with a brilliant catch!

Co-captain, Christy Monreal - Senior -- Did a real fine job for us both offensively and defensively. A real strong ball player who could open holes for vital yardage and was able to fill in the middle linebacker without much problem. Christy joins David and Gaby by playing on four championship teams. The high school senior year beside the championship probably his 35 yard interception for a touchdown against T or C. Christy will leave a vacancy hard to fill.

Robert Schlarb - Senior -- In his first year as a Grizzly, Robert was able to play both ways. As a guard, he was very aggressive and a hard hitter. Pulling was one of his strong points as his blocking opened big holes on our counter plays. Defensively, Robert did an outstanding job at cornerback coming up with a key interception against Capitan. He was definitely a tough defender and a hard man to get around.

Michael Barela - Senior -- Michael was a quick and valuable player on the championship team. He missed a couple of games but caught some clutch passes against Melrose when it counted the most. Mike was our top man in the secondary coming up with 3 interceptions and returning one 30 yards for a touchdown against Colonia Juarez. Like Robert, it was Michael's first year on the team and will be hard to replace next year.

Ray Pacheco - Senior -- A transfer from Goddard, Ray was able to fill in one of our open backfield positions and very capably. A power runner Ray got some important scores for us. As a receiver he caught 'em when it counted in the state game. Defensively, Ray had two interceptions and probably the hardest hitter we had on our defense. Against Melrose was our top defenseman being in on 15 tackles.

Ronnie Beltran - Senior -- Ronnie didn't get to see much action towards the end of the year but did see some in the beginning when we had comfortable leads. Players like Ronnie make a team because they show up every day to help the starters get ready for the opposition.

To Ronnie thanks for giving of himself for the success of the team. These things you never find in the headlines.

Eddie Herrera - Junior -- This guy wanted a chance to play -- he got it and was never replaced. He was the fourth player to get a chance at the defensive guard position. His quickness, toughness and determination made Eddie one of the best defensive guards in the state despite his size. As an offensive end, Eddie will be able to fill in for either Barela or Roper. We look for a great year from Eddie (known as 'Chitah' to his teammates) next year.

Steve Ortiz - Junior -- One of our top backs will be returning for another year. Steve rambled off some good and valuable yardage against most of our opponents. He averaged 7 yards per carry and carried his 195 pound frame with a lot of power. He will be more valuable next year than this one. Defensively, he continued to be one of the toughest defensive ends in the state. No team was able to go around his end with success. A better year yet next year for Toro.

Jody Ventura - Junior -- From a substitute to a 2-way starter and did his job well. A good man at the pivot spot he got better with every game. The Grizzlies got some valuable yardage up the middle and this guy is one who deserves some of the credit. It must be remembered that every play starts with the center and a good one is hard to find. Defensive end was a new responsibility for Jody but he took on the responsibility and did it well. With a year left, Jody will play a vital part of the '73 Grizzlies.

Andre Hoff - Junior -- A very valuable man, an outstanding blocker and an improved ball player. Andre was called on to play halfback, end, defensive halfback and cornerback. He should be a definite starter next year and a lot will be expected of him. Andre's blocking was a key in our wishbone offense.

Rito Samora - Junior -- Another player who only saw limited action last year and became a 2-way starter this year. Rito did an excellent job both offensively at tackle and defensively at guard. Next year, should be a big year for Rito as he'll lead an experienced line to defend the state championship.

Gilbert Sambrano - Junior -- A new man this year on the gridiron but will be returning next year with Ventura, Samora, Nava, Herrera in the forward wall. Gilbert improved with every game and will certainly be an important factor in next year's team. A dash of meanness and he'll be a great one.

Charles Baker - Junior -- Charles suffered an injury in a preseason scrimmage but came back and saw limited action. He's very capable of taking over one of the vacated end positions. Charles will be counted on heavily next year.

Fred Nava - Junior -- He'll join 9 other juniors next year who will be counted on to lead Carrizozo. Fred saw plenty of action this year and should be ready for regular duty next with a possibility of being a 2-way starter.

Albert Baca - Junior -- A new comer on the Carrizozo squad and gave of himself for the good of the team. Albert could be a starter next year with a bit more determination and desire, along with toughness.

Artie Ortiz - Junior -- Has one more year left to earn a starting job. With some determination Artie will be in the lineup to stay next year. Artie has been on the varsity squad for two years now and has gained valuable experience being with 2 different state champions. It's up to him now.

Ernie Beltran - Sophomore -- Ernie leads the corps of sophomores that must replace the departing seniors. A tremendous athlete with much ability if he uses it properly. A 2-way starter as an offensive halfback and a defensive linebacker indicates No. 30 is here to stay for a couple more years. Only Ernie can determine his future and if he wants it could be a brilliant one.

G. L. Straley - Sophomore -- The one who'll be called upon to replace the departing senior signal-caller Chavez. G. L. gained valuable playing time and did well. With a little more confidence and leadership, G. L. could be the key to the success of next year's team.

Michael Vega - Sophomore -- Mike started a couple of games for this year's champions and could be a regular next year. With a willingness to succeed, Mike could turn out to be an outstanding player.

but no one can make that decision but himself.

Leo Samora - Sophomore -- If Leo picks up a bit more speed he can cause a battle for a starting berth next year. Leo intercepted one pass this year which shows he has the ability. One way or another he'll be needed on the squad next year.

Anthony Samora - Sophomore -- Lacks a little in size but is quite a hitter. He fears nothing and there's no doubt that he'll push some of the upper classmen for a defensive position. What he lacks in size is made up with courage.

Clifford Sambrano - Sophomore -- He stayed with us all year and took his licks rather well. Clifford needs a bit more experience and toughness before he becomes ready so it's only a matter of time.

Steve Harkey - Sophomore -- Steve was injured in preseason and came along strong once he recovered. He lacks only playing time before he becomes ready for the starting lineup.

Sammy Roper - Freshman -- Sammy learned a lot while training with this year's team. He has a chance at nailing down a job next year if he works hard enough.

Willie Vega - Freshman -- Practiced with us periodically during the year but gained worth while experience. Willie has plenty of time left in school and this year was not wasted.

Carrizozo football fans were as numerous as those from Melrose at the state champion game. Many of them lined up to cheer the Grizzlies as they came out for the game.

Winning is a tradition in Carrizozo. These three boys has seen it all during their high school careers. Christy Monrreal, Gaby Chavez and David Roper have a rare, maybe never unequaled, record -- that of playing of four state championship teams.

Grizzlies take fourth title; coach is winner ★

CARRIZOZO, N. M. (AP) — Roger St. Louis is a winner.

He came to Carrizozo High School as head football coach for the 1971 season after the school had won two straight state championships. It didn't surprise anyone that his team won a third.

But he lost all but seven members of that team. Among the losses was the state's leading scorer, Willie Gallegos, who had 164 points before moving on to play ball at Fort Hays, Kansas.

St. Louis won his second straight state title, and the school's fourth in a row, Saturday when the Grizzlies beat Melrose 19-14 on a 50-yard scoring pass play from Gaby Chavez to Dave Roper with only 23 seconds left on the clock.

For Chavez, Roper and Chris Monrreal it capped four straight state championship seasons. They won't be back, along with four other seniors: Robert Schlarb, Ray Pacheco, Mike Barela and Ron Beltran.

"Chavez, Roper and Monrreal were juniors a year ago. Three of the others came out for the first time this season and Pacheco was a transfer from Roswell." St. Louis said. "I've got 19 coming back next season."

Between his Grizzlies and a fifth straight state title next year, St. Louis sees, "Navajo Mission, they're going to be tough; and T or C is coming up strong."

Chavez, at 6 feet 3 and 180 pounds, is a college prospect. He passed for 592 yards and five touchdowns this season, and ran for 609 yards and 10 touchdowns.

"Gallegos is trying to get Chavez up there with him at Fort Hays," St. Louis said, where "Gallegos is a starter on the junior varsity and is running back kickoffs for the varsity."

"Chavez really turned out to be a leader."

Roper caught four of the Chavez TD passes, ran over four touchdowns himself, and added 10 extra point conversions to his total.

"Who takes over at quarterback?"

"I have a sophomore, G. L. Straley, who looks like a good one," St. Louis said. "He completed three of his 11 passes, one of them for a touchdown."

The Grizzlies opened the 1972 season by losing 6-12 to Class AA power Ruidoso, which goes into this week's AA title game against Jal.

They then ripped Corona 43-0, got by Capitan 8-0; ran off a string against Colonia Juarea 26-6, Cloudcroft 38-14, T or C 26-6, and Dexter 40-0; took a forfeit from Reserve; beat Hatch 13-0; and stopped Navajo Mission 14-0 in the Class A semifinal before going to Melrose.

Offense is obvious at Carrizozo, but when St. Louis was asked what the secret was to winning state titles, he replied: "They love to play defense. We gave up only 52 points this year and 60 last year."

St. Louis said he came to Carrizozo in 1971 after reading in an Eastern New Mexico University bulletin that the school was looking for a coach. He had been graduated from Eastern and went to his home state of Maine where he was an assistant football coach three years at a parochial school before that school dropped football.

He expects to be back next year, looking for his third straight state title, and a fifth straight for the school.

Carrizozo was a preseason favorite in The Associated Press Class A poll, based on votes by the state's sports writers and sportscasters. The Grizzlies never slipped from the top spot.

Reserve, in District 3A with Carrizozo, was the No. 2 choice through much of the season until Reserve school officials took disciplinary action against several players and ended the school's season early with a forfeit to Carrizozo.

Through the middle of the season, Hagerman was getting the poll nod behind Carrizozo and Reserve.

Going into the Class A semifinals, with Reserve sidelined, the poll gave the top spot to Carrizozo, No. 2 Hagerman, No. 3 Navajo Mission and No. 4 Melrose.

Melrose then stopped Hagerman 14-6 and Carrizozo beat Navajo Mission 14-0 to set up the Carrizozo-Melrose title game.

The final poll, going into the state championship game, put Carrizozo on top, followed by Navajo Mission; Hagerman with a one-point edge over Melrose despite Hagerman's loss to Melrose; then Reserve, Tatum and Dulce.

LINCOLN County News

VOLUME 66, NUMBER 48 THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1972 P.O. DRAWER 459 CARRIZOZO, N. M. 88301

$29,515,699 plus 12,924,073 plus 1,479,133 plus
County valuation jumps $13 million after re-appraisal

Conforming to state law, the job of re-appraisal of Lincoln County is all but done, this after at least two false starts and waste of over $50,000 from snafu caused by original re-appraisal contractor.

The re-appraisal job will be presented to Lincoln County commissioners at their regular meeting December 7 by the American Appraisal & Consultants, Inc. for final approval.

According to Commissioner Don Stark there have been approximately 400 new buildings permits issued in Ruidoso since the re-appraisal work was started and these will have to be picked up by the county. In addition there are a great many mobile homes and trailer homes in the county, 4,000 or more by best guess, and these along with new home construction could bring the total assessed valuation up another million dollars or more.

Approximate, not official or final, figures of 100 percent valuation of real estate in Lincoln County, by districts, plus location of property owners, are shown here:

District	Valuation (100 percent)	Location of Property Owners
		In County	In State	Out of State
Corona District 13	$4,215,568	338	253	39
Carrizozo District 7	$6,255,134	2040	217	276
Capitan District 28	$17,615,433	1859	1008	1392
Ruidoso District 3	$45,588,850	1717	997	2874
Ruidoso Downs 35	$8,855,338	578	152	328
Hondo District 20	$6,016,686	583	332	52

The District valuations total $88,547,009, divided by three brings it down to $29,515,699, the figure used for tax assessment. Add to this the value of corporate land in the county of $13,924,073 (one-third of total valuation), plus personal property figure of $1,479,133 and you arrive at a grand total of $44,918,905.

Lincoln County assessed valuation in 1971 was $27,450,195; in 1972 it was $30,373,187.

The appraiser estimate that there are some 75,000 individual parcels of land in Lincoln County, plus 15 to 25 of unknown ownership. This unknown factor stems from no deed being on record, or other recorded instrument that might show ownership. In counties such as Mora this unknown factor will run as high as 40 percent of total parcels.

A job the new county commissioners will face at coming meetings will be that of keeping the re-appraisal work going to keep up with new additions, new building, new mobile homes, and new personal property in the county.

Basketball starts today

The Carrizozo Grizzlies basketball team, under the guidance of Dennis Jeter will play their first game November 30th against Alamogordo Junior Varsity in Alamogordo. They travel to Magdalena the following night to play the Steers.

The Grizzlies, including four returning lettermen, among the 24 trying for a varsity position, hope to better last year's record which includes two victories over the state finalists Corona Cardinals.

Carrizozo has 18 regular games scheduled also they will play tournaments in Cloudcroft and Estancia next month. Nine of the regular season games are here in Zozo.

All Carrizozo boosters are urged to support the Grizzly basketball team and attend every game. Let's encourage the Grizzlies on to another State Championship in 1973.

Cadets bivouac on Ft. Stanton Reservation

Under the direction of five of the officers of NMMI's military science department, one of whom was Capt. Steven Spencer of Carrizozo, 150 Army R.O.T.C. cadets bivouaced at an area four miles east of Capitan on the eastern part of the Ft. Stanton Reservation.

The exercises included first-hand study of wilderness survival, logistics, patrolling and training in helicopter operations, safety.

Contract cadets receive $100 per month plus summer camp pay during their contract cadet years and while they complete the Institute's academic requirements for an associate of Arts Degree.

bought 70 head of registered Columbia sheep. At the end of one year he had paid off the debt, added 20 ewes and three rams and put $600 in the bank.

As the price of wool sank over the next year, Gnatkowski's mother got an idea: Why not promote wool throughout the area by giving spinning and weaving demonstrations? The youngster had his mother cleaned and repaired the family's old heirloom spinning wheel and began to take lessons. Gnatkowski, who is handy with tools, learned to make looms and spinning wheels as well as operate them. Together with both parents, he formed the nucleus of a group which now travels the state giving demonstrations and exhibits.

One of Gnatkowski's homemade looms cuts the time required for threading the loom from one day to about one hour. He thinks the idea is original and is considering applying for a patent.

The young sheep-herder likes to experiment with textile products and recently created a new black and white yarn spun from a combination of wool and cow's hair.

Gnatkowski now has a small business in which he repairs spinning wheels and makes and sells spindles and shuttles of walnut and algerita, a local exotic wood. His first spinning wheel won him $200 in a national woodworking contest.

The national winner plans to study textiles in college and perhaps start a weaving school.

Three counties represented at meeting

Good chance for action on State 14

Town and county officials from Torrance, Socorro and Lincoln Counties were present at the special meeting called by Lincoln County Commissioners Monday in the courthouse to discuss possible realignment and improvement of State Road 14 (formerly 10) which now forks off northwest from US54 about 16 miles north of Carrizozo and goes to Gran Quivira and on to Mountainair.

Road 14 is in bad shape now, barely passable with all the rain and snow that has fallen in the area. Comments at the meeting indicated that this road was never in real good condition for the past 30 years.

The point of discussion which took most time was best alignment of the road, which also took in necessity of fencing, possible livestock passes under the road, cost of right-of-way and cost of fencing.

State highway men at the meeting, Charles A. Sayre, Bill Garner, James A. Bird, Jim Gerhart and Bob Harrow, made two points clear: 1) That this project would have to be done as economical as possible and still would cost $500,000, or more, 2) that the Highway Department was not in the business of putting up fence, though it would furnish the materials.

You can look at the drawing accompanying this news story and see the present route and the proposed realignment that was generally agreed on - all of this information considered to be "in the talking stage."

State Road 14 would serve a lot more ranchers if it were to head south down the Socorro-Lincoln County line, and come into US54 at the Gallacher-Shaffer ranch road entrance but this route would necessitate 8-12 miles or more of new road and the state does not figure to spend that kind of money.

Alternate routes that were presented and discussed at the meeting would cut east three miles north of the present route hitting US54 a half mile south of Ancho turnoff, another would follow a straight line from the Socorro-Lincoln County line and connect US54 a mile north of Harkey turnoff. One other possible alternate would stay north of present route for five miles then dip south to US54.

For reasons of right-of-way, canyons, and new construction, none of these proposed routes found favor. Land owners in the area include B.L.M., Jackson, State, Hightower, Knight.

J. A. Hightower would go either of two ways, he give the right-of-way and state do the fencing, or state buy the right-of-way and he'd do the fencing. He was not interested in a fence construction job, Hightower said that he had Angus cows and they don't survive on blacktop road without fences. He also wants his land along the Ancho road fenced.

The state is willing to provide fencing material for this new road, would only put his name on the list for materials for the Ancho road.

Commissioner Hoy Lovelace presided at the meeting, this road being in his district. Commissioner Don Stark also in attendance.

The corner where 14 heads north is on Jackson land and some 400 feet of land will be used to make a 60 MPH turn, extending quarter mile each way.

Tom Knight, also speaking for Sally Jackson, asked that the present Road 14 be abandoned should the proposed route be adopted.

State road people were not sure that right-of-way had ever been acquired for the present road, now 60 feet. The state will want 100 feet of right-of-way for the new road.

Towards the end of the meeting it became apparent that doing a fence construction job on 9-10 miles at labor costs of $300 per mile was the hangup. About this time Howard Abercrombie, polled three of the government units present with suggestion that Lincoln County pay half and the towns of Carrizozo and Mountainair each a quarter of the labor cost of fencing. Mayor Johnson Stearns said that his town had just finished running water lines for the Park Service, they would be able to do some fencing for the State. The Mountainair people committed their town. Lincoln commissioners were not speaking loud but they went along and that was the way the deal was worked out.

The state will make the survey, get the easements with expectation that this project will be presented to State Highway Commission at its January meeting in Santa Fe.

J. H. Fuller of Mountainair stated that people in his town had been fighting for this road improvement for 15 years. He thought it would be of great benefit to both Carrizozo and Mountainair.

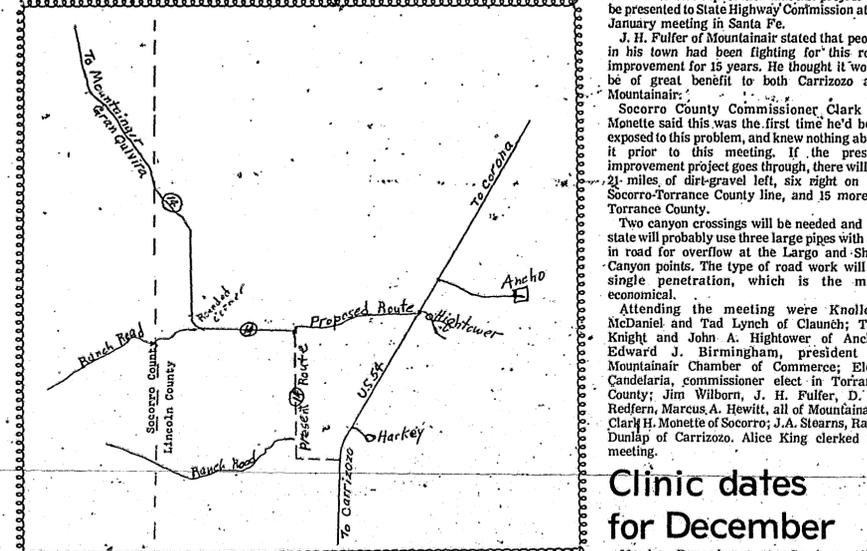

Socorro County Commissioner Clark H. Monette said this was the first time he'd been exposed to this problem, and knew nothing about it prior to this meeting. If the present improvement project goes through, there will be 21 miles of dirt-gravel left, right on the Socorro-Torrance County line, and 15 more in Torrance County.

Two canyon crossings will be needed and the state will probably use three large pipes with dip in road for overflow at the Largo and Short Canyon points. The type of road work will be single penetration, which is the most economical.

Attending the meeting were Knollene McDaniel and Tad Lynch of Chaucery; Tom Knight and John A. Hightower of Ancho; Edward J. Birmingham, president of Mountainair Chamber of Commerce; Eleno Candelaria, commissioner elect in Torrance County; Jim Wilborn, J. H. Fuller, D. G. Redfern, Marcus A. Hewitt, all of Mountainair; Clark H. Monette of Socorro; J. A. Stearns, Ralph Dunlap of Carrizozo. Alice King clerked the meeting.

Mayor Johnson Stearns of Carrizozo is extending a welcome to visitors here for the State Road 14 meeting, Edward Birmingham, Eleno Candelaria, Marcus Hewitt, J. H. Fuller and Jim Wilborn, all from Torrance County. Tom Knight is at the right.

Hunters run school route

The Valeriano family lives 1.2 miles north of US380 west of Carrizozo 18 miles. The father operates a feeder school bus route and usually drives his two girls Sandra and Verónica, one in kindergarten and the other in 3rd grade, to the highway where the school bus takes them on to Carrizozo.

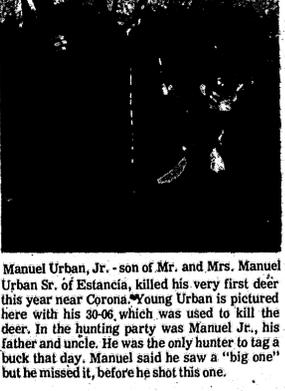

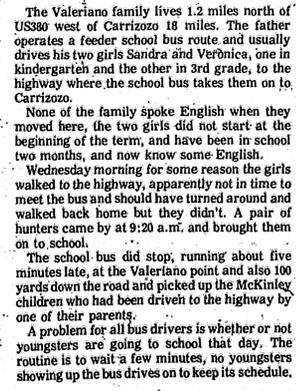

None of the family spoke English when they moved here, the two girls did not start at the beginning of the term, and have been in school two months, and now know some English.

Wednesday morning for some reason the girls walked to the highway, apparently not in time to meet the bus and should have turned around and walked back home but they didn't. A pair of hunters came by at 9:20 a.m. and brought them on to school.

The school bus did stop, running about five minutes late, at the Valeriano point and also 100 yards down the road and picked up the McKinley children who had been driven to the highway by one of their parents.

A problem for all bus drivers is whether or not youngsters are going to school that day. The routine is to wait a few minutes, no youngsters showing up the bus drives on to keep its schedule.

Manuel Urban, Jr. - son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Urban Sr. of Estancia, killed his very first deer this year near Corona. Young Urban is pictured here with his 30-06, which was used to kill the deer. In the hunting party was Manuel Jr., his father and uncle. He was the only hunter to tag a buck that day. Manuel said he saw a "big one" but he missed it, before he shot this one.

to ponder that this could be a winner -- in the first place "the bomb" misses many more times than it hits. Chavez threw from about the 40, far side and Roper received on about the 10 making the distance 50 yards in the air. Roper ran for the goal and then came the cheers on one side and sighs on the other. It was a wild, wild scene in Melrose after the Buffaloes tried a few plays that ended the game. What has created more excitement and involved more people in Carrizozo in the last 50 years -- nothing that we can think of.

Sports writers of the state have been checking and so far have not come up with any team, in any class, that has won a state championship four years in a row -- what better team for it to happen to than the Carrizozo Grizzlies.

F. N.

Funny thing about fans on the side line. They can't really see whether the ball is kicked between the uprights for score, or whether it misses. Payton was right under the goal posts for all of Carrizozo's kicks, one hit, the others missed by inches. As we walked to the side the question was frequent, "Did it really miss, as the referee indicated?"

F. N.

The 2-point conversion by Melrose to put them ahead is another thing. We're not at all certain this was a valid score. In our eyes the ball carrier hit the ground short of the goal and they reached out to put the ball across. Doesn't matter, referees are human and this game was called fairly.

That championship game did prove something of more serious consequence than even the lovely big trophy. Got to be honest -- Melrose fielded a bigger and more experienced team. They were beaten by a team that would not give up. All of which proves that those Grizzly players can do anything they want to in life, if only they will put out the same degree of fight.

F. N.

No question but that experience helps. Zozo started this season with three boys who have played on the four championship teams, Chris, Gaby and David. Those three sure had a big hand in bringing home the 4th lovely big trophy.

F. N.

Bill Payton went along with brother Paul to the Melrose game, and also to the game in Ruidoso Saturday where the Warriors beat Kirkland Central. It was a pretty good game and we wanted the Warriors to win, would like to see them beat Jal for the state championship -- really think it will take more than one miracle for that to happen. Jal is a faster moving team than Central, they're liable to score when they get the ball and the Warriors don't always bring it off. Jal beat Clayton 46-0 while Ruidoso beat Central 14-10.

We'll have three rolls of film over from the Clovis News-Journal photographer thanks to Don Windle their sports editor. That plus the rolls taken by Payton should have that game pictured rather well. Windle said his photographer lost track of the game from watching Gaby Chavez. "He was a magician" where the photos words.

score making it 14-13 in their favor leaving only 2:22 on the clock. Few high school teams move the length of the field in less than 5 or more minutes. So there the Grizzlies were with a loser and most fans with only prayers for a miracle of the kind that rarely happens.

That was not the end by any means, things got worse instead of better. Zozo tried a couple of running plays, conference between Coach St. Louis and QB Chavez. Roger could see that Melrose was not defending deep so the thing -- a pass to Roper, deep. The clock showed 2:10 after the punt return and 2 running plays plus one pass got it down to 1:42. Time was short, it was 4th down and Zozo needed 11 yards for a 1st and 10. That was the setting when David Roper took off down the field, Gaby Chavez rolled out to the right and unground what might as well be called the best pass ever thrown by a Grizzly Quarterback in all of the long football history of this school.
