Our day for Joe March 9

Joe Skeen will be in Lincoln County all day Saturday, March 9

Politics are warming up in New Mexico and Joe Skeen, front runner in the Republican gubernatorial race, is spending full time on the campaign trail. He campaigned in Albuquerque the early part of the week, and Wednesday started a three-day tour of southern counties which will end in his home county Saturday.

Skeen will arrive at Carrizozo airport at 9:00 a.m. Saturday, March 9 and is expected at the Carrizozo Recreation Center by 9:30 to be meeting with people of this area. Coffee will be served and Joe will be glad to talk with Lincoln County friends here.

A coffee in Capitan has been scheduled for 11:15 a.m. at the El Paisano with Hap Canning as host.

At 12:30 noon Joe will be at Cree Meadows for a Dutch lunch and lots of conversation.

At 3:15 he will do some radio taping and broadcast at KRRR.

Other meetings and visiting around Ruidoso follow the broadcast. From 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. there will be a social hour in the Gold Room of the Chaparral which ends the scheduled program of that day and Joe will be visiting on his way down the valley to his ranch home at Picacho.

SCMRA meets here

The South Central Mountain Resource Area will meet Tuesday, March 12 in Carrizozo at the Recreation Center. The Executive Committee meeting will meet at 10:00 a.m. and the Steering Committee at 1:00 p.m. Mrs. Charlotte Jarratt will discuss the Senior Citizens Center and programs planned for Lincoln County.

Chairman Bill Gallacher reports that at least four project proposals will be submitted.

You are encouraged to attend your group's meeting and bring along a friend.

Town of Carrizozo pays quite a premium at election time because of its size. Voting supplies cost $193.00 here, the News did same job for both Capitan and Corona for under $40.00.

A depositor in a Tallahassee, Florida bank was credited with $5,800 extra, due to a bank error. He didn't bother to report it but just left the money in his checking account. Three months later, the bank discovered the error and deducted the amount from his balance. The depositor was philosophical about the incident. He said, "It's kinda like the story of the farmer who paid $15 for a pig, spent $8 for feed until it became a hog and then sold it for $23. He didn't make any money but had the company of the pig all summer."

W-W
Central printing plants came into being along about the same time as central bookkeeping systems for banks and other large business - mainly because of high cost of computer typesetting and bookkeeping equipment. Things ain't quite like they once were with newspaper or bank. Efrén Jaurquel got in a spot by making a deposit and thought he had money in the bank, actually it took a day or more for the bookkeeping to clear. Up at Estancia they close out their newspaper Tuesday noon, send the stuff to us and we print them a paper which goes up Wednesday night.

W-W
Dogs are smart. It used to be that at bed time Otis would get in their bunk first and bark the heck out of the other two. Now Coco, the youngest, goes out maybe hour ahead of time -- and does he give Otis and Waldo a bad time when they come to bed.

W-W
We've been telling quite a few people, including some governor candidates that Joe Skeen is our man -- for several good reasons beyond the fact that Joe has operated the Buckhorn Ranch south of Picacho in Lincoln County for a long time.

Joe served as soil and moisture engineer on the Ramah Navajo reservation and that is sure good training for public work in the southwest. He served six years in the New Mexico State Senate, four as minority whip and the last two as minority floor leader, again good background for the political office he now seeks. Besides all that, Joe is a kind of guy you can talk to or with, in Spanish or English. Seems like a good time for Lincoln County people to "Go for Joe" -- he's got a pretty good chance of going all the way.

W-W
Father's day isn't far down the road (June 16) and we have a suggestion. Get your wife an ebelskiever pan for Mother's day (May 12) and then she can make you a batch of Danish pancakes on Father's day. You'll be living like a king at breakfast on that day.

W-W
Swiped from Duffy -- Traffic: Where a lot of people give themselves ulcers giving ulcers to other people.

Anti-Cruelty Note: Any dog dumb enough to lie under the bridge table during a game between married couples deserves anything he gets.

Flip Qup: Always put off until tomorrow what you are going to make a mess of today.

Overheard: "And I stretched my coffee break all the way to the unemployment office."

Parting thought: The fellow who gets what's coming to him is very fortunate, considering the unreliability of delivery services these days.

W-W
If they can just keep Truman off the price of fat calves and amount of water in his tanks -- people at Lincoln County Historical meeting next Wednesday should hear some interesting history. Truman knows a lot about our area first hand, more from his father, and even more handed down by his grandfather, the state's first governor.

W-W
Been on our mind for couple of weeks -- real happy the Lobos won the WAC and we sure give the man with the beads full credit, that their coach, Lobos' talent does not seem better than any team they've played.

Paul Harvey to open races

Nationally known commentator Paul Harvey will be a guest in Lincoln County on May 18, opening day for racing at Ruidoso Downs and it will be known as "Paul Harvey day at the races." Ruidoso - Hondo Valley Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a banquet with Harvey as speaker, 7:30 p.m. in the sales barn, Ruidoso Downs. Tickets are $10 and may be obtained by writing the COC at P. O. Box 698 Ruidoso.

Tuesday was a busy day at the Carrizozo Fire Hall with election action all day. Voters waiting to register are Willos Hill, Dorothy Mentch, Rev. Emanuel Debaenst and Bill Hayes on way to voting booth. Election officials are Sharon Hecker, Juanita Vallejos, and Margaret Chavez.

292 vote in Carrizozo town election. Payne is mayor, Harman and Silva win trustee positions

A line started forming at the voting booth in Carrizozo fire hall early in the morning and people were waiting their turn to vote most of the rest of the day. A record total of 292 votes were registered, compared with turnout of 138 voters in the 1972 election. Election judges Joan Means, Sharon Hecker, Margaret Chavez and Juanita Chavez finished their vote counting at 10:00 p.m. This all-female board of judges came about when Judge Friday Sherrill entered the local hospital Sunday night and Mrs. Means was appointed to this position on the election board.

Bill Payne won the mayor job with 157 votes to 109 for Ed Jones.

The voting machine used in Carrizozo ran out of ballot paper at the end of the day and four paper ballots were used to finish the voting. Most of this shortage was caused by the large write-in vote.

Roy Harman was elected to fill Position 3 as Trustee with 63 votes. Roy also received 44 votes in Position 4.

Willie Silva won election in Position 4 with 63, and he also received 55 votes in Position 3.

There was a list as long as your arm of people getting 1-2-3 votes for the several positions. The only serious write-in voting was for Leandro Vega Sr., 51 votes in Position 3 and 36 votes in Position 4. Dale LaMay received 28 votes in Position 3, Ramon Luna 19 votes in the same position. Luna received 23 votes in trustee Position 23 and 27 votes for municipal judge. S. M. Ortiz won the municipal judge position with 183 votes.

John R. Harrelson is Commissioner candidate

It is with great pride and pleasure that I announce as a Democratic candidate for Commissioner for District 3, subject to the primary election.

I have been a resident of Lincoln County for the past ten years as a past owner and operator of the Gateway Exxon for 5 years and then moving to Alto, to establish a permanent business and residence in Edelweiss Village on Ski Road. My wife, Ruth, has been with Dr. R. E. Annala as a medical secretary since moving here from Texas in 1964. I am 47 years old, served in World War II on a mine sweeper for four years as a mine demolition advisor. I attended El Camino College in Los Angeles and Midwestern University majoring in Business Administration.

I am a past president of the White Mountain Jeep Club, past director of the Ruidoso Hondo Valley Chamber of Commerce, past national sports chairman for the United States Jaycees, Junior Tennis Chairman, Lincoln County Big Brother Chairman for the Camp Sierra Blanca Boys Camp, past Chairman of the Search and Rescue for four years for the White Mountain Jeep Club, past Civil Defense Director for Lincoln County for four years.

My desire to run for this office is of great concern in many ways.

1. Property tax valuation was raised from $30,373,187.00 in 1972 to $47,005,464.00 in 1973 making an increase of $16,632,277.00. Our tax levy was not dropped from 5.5 mills to 3 mills as promised, therefore our property taxes, in many cases were much higher, if not doubled or tripled.

2. Our County Budget in 1972-73 was $524,857.00 and this year 1973-74 it was raised to an outstanding figure of $1,109,505.00 -- an increase of $584,648.00. This is a complete double in our county expenditures, but did we improve our general county welfare twice as much?

Our general county expenditure in 1972-73 was $187,469.00. In 1973-74 it was raised to $483,691.00.

Fuller is mayor at Corona, Johnston re-elected at Capitan. The Village of Corona elected three new officials Tuesday. Ken Fuller won the mayor position on a write-in total of 32 votes. Ronald Dempsey received 7 votes. Positions of councilman for four-year terms were both filled by write-ins. L. L. Carnell got 14 votes. Position 1 and Lee Mulkey 25 votes in Position 2 to win these spots. Village Clerk Gertrude Allen told the News that 52 votes were cast in the Corona election.

The Village of Capitan had a full ballot. Incumbent Mayor J. T. Johnston was re-elected with 98 votes in his favor. Fletcher Hall received write-in total of 41 votes for mayor.

There were three candidates for Councilman for four-year term, position 1. Valtón Hall 87 votes, Norman Renfro 101 votes were the winners. Virgil Hall Jr. received 64 votes.

Chuck Panky was only candidate for councilman for term of two years, he received 120 votes, no write-ins of consequence.

Mrs. Gertrude Huey was re-elected as municipal judge with 110 votes total over 38 for Dorothy Johnston.

The Lincoln County "Skeen for Governor" committee met in a 200-year-old room at the Kenneth Nosker Ranch last week to make plans for fund raising and Joe's visit in Lincoln County Saturday.

32-man field for Calcutta

Annual pro-am bowling tournament here next week

Joe Light, manager of Carrizozo Recreation Center has announced that the pro field is filled, the pro-am is still open but expected to reach 115 bowlers before time for the annual Pro-am Bowling Tournament next week.

What proved to be a big attraction during the tournament last year was the Calcutta drawing and this will be repeated for the 1974 event. Tournament activities open Friday night at the Country Club with a happy hour from 8:00 to 9:00 p.m., followed by a dance to good country western music. The Calcutta drawing will be held during the dance with a 32-man professional field to be auctioned off to the highest bidders. The events at the Country Club on March 15 are open to the public. Admission is $3.00 per couple, children must be accompanied by parents or guardian.

The pro-ams have their day Saturday when there will be three shifts of bowlers going for the guaranteed $250 first prize. First shift at 6:00 p.m., second at 8:00 and last at 10:00 p.m.

The Recreation Center is open to the public all during this tournament with no admission charge at any time. The 32-man pro field will take the lanes Sunday bowling for a guaranteed $750 first prize and this should bring out some fancy rolling.

Pro bowlers are coming from a five-state area including Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Kansas. Joe Light is managing the tournament with good help from local business people.

Runnels aide here Tuesday

U. S. Rep. Harold Runnels has announced that his administrative aide, Audean Davis, will be in Carrizozo on Tuesday, March 12, to meet with residents of Lincoln County.

The aide may be contacted between the hours of 10 a.m. and 12 noon at the Carrizozo City Hall.

Anyone having information he wishes to convey to Congressman Runnels or questions to ask is invited to meet with Mrs. Davis during those hours Tuesday.

Bigbee will report

The Lincoln County Republican Womens Club will hold their regular monthly meeting Tuesday, 12 March at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pacheco Tinnie Route, Arabella N. Mex. This will be a covered dish luncheon meeting at 11:30. Our State Representative John Bigbee will bring us a report on the Special Legislative Session.

The club again wishes to extend a special thanks to everyone (Democrats Republicans and Independents) who helped to make our own Lincoln Dinner a success and to be privileged to hear Senator John Conway speak on the importance of the "Two Party System". Everyone come and bring a friend. There will be a drawing for a door prize.

Lewis Cummins service Friday

Lewis E. Cummins, long-time resident of Lincoln County, passed away Tuesday afternoon at the Ruidoso Hospital. Funeral service will be held at 2:00 p.m. Friday at the Church of the Nazarene in Capitan. Burial will be in Capitan Cemetery.

Mr. Cummins came to Lincoln County in 1907. He is a graduate of Highlands University and taught school in Capitan for 37 years. After his retirement he served two terms as county treasurer and taught two years at the boy's school in Fort Stanton.

Lewis was best known in recent years for his wonderful gifts of flowers. His yard was full of beautiful blooms and he shared them with a great many friends and his church.

He is a veteran of World War I. Lewis and his wife were associated with Hollis in the store at Capitan.

Survivors include his wife, Bessie; two sons, Hollis of Capitan and Teddy Joe of Garden Grove, Calif.; one daughter Geraldine McClung of San Jose, Calif.; and 11 grand children.

Nat Chavez is trainer-manager of this boxing squad that participated in the Regional Golden Gloves matches in Roswell. Eddie Niederstadt boxed in the 125-pound class, Joe Padilla was novice runner-up in the 139-pound class and Raymond Beltran boxed in the 156-pound class.

I believe that if a man is elected to serve as your county commissioner he should be able to do these duties with no interference from his business and be in a position to devote all the necessary time to this elective office as it demands.

There are many more reasons why I would like to be your commissioner of District 3, but the above items are of great concern to me and likewise, I am sure, yours - the Citizens of Lincoln County.

I can assure you, that if elected, I will sincerely promise to do my best to solve the above problems and represent all of the people of Lincoln County.

First Lady of Corona

Corona Gamma Theta of Beta Sigma Phi met February 11th at 8:30 p.m. in the home of Miss Shirley Daugherty.

The business meeting was opened by president Vandever with all members repeating the Opening Ritual.

Each member responded to roll call by naming their favorite rock n' roll singer from the past. Chubby Checker, Elvis Presley, and The Everly Brothers were the favorites of most.

International of Beta Sigma Phi asked Gamma Theta to send two recipes for their new cookbook "Money Saving Casseroles". Mrs. Judy Lovelace will send a beef recipe, and Mrs. Betty Donohue will send a tuna recipe.

Gamma Theta will sponsor a "First Lady of Corona." Letters will be sent to various organizations for them to choose a candidate. A panel of three judges will be selected to choose a woman. She will be honored with a tea and presented an award certificate from International.

Gamma Theta elected their Valentine Sweetheart for 1974. Betty Donohue was crowned by outgoing Sweetheart Martha Vandever, and presented by Miss Vandever a rhinestone pin.

An interesting program was presented by Shirley Daugherty on Dance and Theatre Music. She told about the progress of musical style from the advent of rock n' roll to the present day.

Refreshments consisted of strawberry shortcake, coffee, and coke served by our hostess Miss Daugherty.

Members present were: Mrs. Denise Byrd, Mrs. Betty Donohue, Mrs. Lanelle Fish, Mrs. Judy Lovelace, Miss Martha Vandever, and Miss Shirley Daugherty our hostess.

It's that time of the year -- I sit and snip recipes from magazines until I get 'clip-crazy cutters' cramp (that's when one uses the scissors a lot).

The kitchen bulletin board is again overflowing with recipes to test. I have a crew of taste testers (test tasters?) from 21 months old to 34 years old with taste buds that just won't quit!

P-B-B
Sometimes what pleases a 15 year old taste bud doesn't necessarily please a 6 year old taste bud.

For example the other day I made wheat Germ candy. Gabriel thought my candy was horrible. I made the mistake of first informing him of the ingredients and then I raved how nutritious it was. That is a taste bud no-no.

Gabriel asked, "Did you say this candy is made with germs? Ugh!"
Then our eldest daughter said it wasn't so bad. Kind of tasted like cracker-jacks to her. (Fortunately she didn't hear me mention that the ingredients included powdered skim milk.)

P-B-B
This is how wheat germ candy is made: Place one third cup molasses and honey (combined) in a mixing bowl, gradually work in two thirds cup powdered skim milk, one third cup fresh wheat germ; knead mixture in bowl (with more powdered milk if necessary.) Form into pieces the size of a walnut or smaller. Roll in brown sugar.

P-B-B
Pilgrim pie of November, I'll admit I had printed before testing because I had trust in the recipe. Today I tried it. It looks like pecan pie and tastes a lot like it. It is yummy with a glass of milk, but it must have about a zillion calories. Here is the recipe again:

Pilgrim Pie
2 eggs, well beaten
1 tsp. vanilla
2 tbsp. melted oleo
1 cup dark syrup
1 cup sugar
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 cup coconut
1/2 cup oatmeal

Mix all ingredients, adding coconut and oatmeal last. Pour into an unbaked pie shell. Bake 15 minutes in a 400 degree oven. Reduce heat to 350 degrees and bake 35 minutes more. (Place a piece of foil on oven floor in case pie bubbles over during last stages of baking.)

The Lincoln County News
Published each Thursday at Carrizozo, N.M. 88307
Subscription price $6 in county, $8 elsewhere.
Second class postage paid at Carrizozo, N.M.

Mrs. Pfingsten hosts DAR

The setting of the Sierra Blanca Chapter meeting of the DAR was the lovely ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pfingston near Lincoln. It was a covered dish supper with the hostess furnishing the main dish and the other members bringing salads, and desserts. As usual in a supper of this kind the food was "luscious" and plentiful.

The Chapter Regent, Tola Underwood, conducted the business meeting. The program was given by Leola Pfingsten, our hostess, and it proved to be a very interesting one. She showed slides of her trip to Russia made in 1969 under the sponsorship of the Eastern New Mexico University.

The March meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Tom Loudon in Ruidoso. At that time the program will be a report on the State Conference in Clovis attended by several members of the Chapter.

Julia Samora candidate for re-election

The Lincoln County assessor's office has become one of the most important in the county what with a change to new system of handling records on Addressograph plates, a re-appraisal that has meant many new reports and great number of tax assessments.

The fact that this office has got on top of the situation, even though considerable work on the new system remains to be done, is contributed to the three people who work in this office. Assessor Julia Samora, Deputy Marian Schlarb and Patsy Serna. Julia was deputy before being elected to the office she now holds.

Assessor Samora has announced her intent to seek re-election. Julia is a life-long resident of Lincoln County, educated in Carrizozo schools and more recently has started a course with the International Association of Assessing offices which will add to her knowledge of assessment work.

She attended school last July in Albuquerque and at that time successfully completed Course 1 which means she has met one of the entrance requirements for the Certified Assessment Evaluator and Designations. Her certificate reads: The fact that you did successfully complete this course is an indication of your interest in furthering your knowledge in the assessment-appraisal field.

Julia and husband Rito have six children, five in school and baby Patrick at home.

Bowling party in Corona

Lincoln Town

by Hattie Phillips

Mrs. Vera Beall took me to Roswell to the Eye Clinic last Saturday for what it is hoped my last visit there.

About two weeks ago I got something in my eye and it refused to budge; so I finally had to go have it scraped out. I think its alright. At least it isn't irritated now.

Last weekend before this last one, Mrs. Beall went to El Paso to say good bye to her granddaughter, Janet and her husband Mr. Routon as they were leaving for Cal. He was transferred from El Paso receiving a promotion.

The Pete Pfingstons of Albuquerque spent the weekend at Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Zumwalt are enjoying their lovely new home. It has much more space than their other one did and is beautifully decorated.

Bert Pfingsten enjoyed his birthday at home with members of his family helping him enjoy it. Mr. and Mrs. Duffy Vaspar and children spent the weekend with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Fay McGinnis recently.

Like most of us Mr. and Mrs. McGinnis truly enjoy their families visiting.

Mrs. Louise Babers, San Patricio past master, has been in the hospital in Ruidoso, very ill with bronchial pneumonia. We hope she is well on the road to complete recovery.

Mr. Baker had the flu recently but is up again.

I enjoyed a visit recently when Mary Helen Lamay brought her daughter Judy Stewart, three of her children and Deke Lamay to see me when they were visiting here.

Judy and R. G. Both graduated from Capitan High School. Live in Los Alamos where R. G. is employed. They like living there very much. I didn't get to see R. G. as he went to the ranch with Roy Lamay.

I saw Pancho McKnight at the Wortley last week and he told me he sold all of the paintings exhibited at his showing at the Gallery in Roswell except for one. That he wanted to keep for his own collection. It was also wanted by others. It was Gracie and is truly a great painting.

The Hob Lucero and the Richard Phillips families went to Roswell to some of the ball games during the tournament and enjoyed them. They say there were some really good ones. We'll miss basketball. Now for track.

Excludable items considerable savings

In another article we brought out some differences in tax treatment between the state of New Mexico return and the Federal return such as tax rates, credits, etc. Allowed by the Federal but not by New Mexico. What exclusions or credits are allowed by New Mexico but not applicable to the Federal return?

The Federal government taxes all interest an individual might receive from obligations of the United States of America, i.e. E bonds, H bonds, etc. The state of New Mexico does not tax these U.S. obligations and they should be excluded from the taxable income on the state return.

Pensions, under the provisions of the New Mexico Public Employees' Retirement Act of New Mexico or the New Mexico Educational Retirement Act may be fully or partially taxed on the Federal return but are fully excluded from taxable income on the New Mexico return.

Federal Civil Service Annuities received by retired Federal Civil Service workers may be fully or partially taxed by the Federal government but may be excluded in an amount not to exceed $3,000 per annuitant, of taxable income from U.S. Civil Service Annuities.

These excludable items can be of considerable savings for qualified New Mexico taxpayers.

Hell-For-Leather Horsemen Open New Buz Kashi Season

Washington—It's buz kashi season again. The Turkomans are hitting the line, and bones are breaking.

Football fever has nothing on the hot-blooded enthusiasm for this national sport of Afghanistan. Gridiron heroes crunching through with the old pigskin are no more heart-stopping than buz kashi horsemen slamming ahead with the old headless goat carcass.

For that's how the game is played: two teams of hell-for-leather horsemen using a dead goat or small calf for a ball. A rider somehow grabs it and gallops off in a full-scale chase to register a score.

Actually there's no line of scrimmage. Instead the whole swarm of riders is a sort of non-stop scrimmage, racing the length of the playing area, perhaps a mile long.

Anything Goes In buz kashi—meaning goal drag—almost anything goes, and tureh, or bravery, is everything. Back from a year along the Turkomans' homeland in Afghanistan, Sabrina and Roland Michaud remember these "Bold Horsemen of the Steppes" in the November National Geographic.

Any number can play, from ten upward. Teams may have identifying colors riding before grandstands in cities such as Kabul, the capital, especially during independence day celebrations. In country buz kashi, the team effort becomes every man for himself.

As game time approaches, the buz kashi "ball" is prepared in a ritual bound to impress a football equipment manager. As the Michauds tell it:

"On the eve of the game the animal is slaughtered, gutted, filled with sand, then sewed up and soaked in water during the night to increase its weight. It ends up somewhere between 60 to 80 pounds." In a wearing four-hour game, it may have to be replaced several times.

Rough Game Plan The game plan is bare-knuckle basic. "The game opens with the carcass in the center of a circle, drawn in lime, which is called the hallal, or circle of justice. The chief of the buz kashi signals. The horsemen, ranged about the circle, plunge for the prey."

Leaning far out of the saddle, a horseman seizes it, and thunders away to a distant pole on the steppes. If it hasn't been grabbed from him, he wheels around the pole and tries to outrace the chasing riders hoping to keep him from dumping the carcass into the circle for a score. The winner may take home a gold coin, or rarely, a valuable camel or horse. But glory is the main reward.

It is no game for the timid, but Turkomans survive in a harsh world stretching from the Caspian Sea into Afghanistan, between Iran on the south and on the north their traditional homeland of Turkistan in the U.S.S.R. They still hold to the old ways—and amusements—of their nomadic forefathers who once terrorized Central Asia.

Many of these bold horsemen have been killed riding in a buz kashi or come home with new awareness of an old Afghan song: "Better come home stained with blood: Than safe and sound as a coward."

Nine bridges planned in area

Prior to 1973 repairing or widening bridges on the state highway system was a part of the High Department's continuing highway maintenance and improvement program. During the 1973 legislative session, the governor and the legislature recognized the urgency of the road-bridge situation and requested that the Highway Department make an extensive study of the bridge problem in the state and recommended that the Department establish and accelerated program for bridge replacement.

As a result of the study bridge replacement was planned all over the state. In the Carrizozo area nine new bridges are in planning stage and one on US54 about eleven miles south of town is nearing completion.

The overpass at Carrizozo is on schedule for widening, another 18 miles east on US380, another 17 miles east of Capitan, a bridge 18 miles west on US380, and five bridges on US54 30840 miles south.

Approval of the expenditure of any Federal-aid highway funds is subject to various regulations, one being that bridge replacement funds are being withheld until all 50 states comply with Federal requirements for bridge inspections. New Mexico is one of several states who have met these requirements and must now wait for the remainder of the states to comply.

The New Mexico Highway Department is continuing to process bridges, planned for replacement through to the bid letting state. No bridge replacement on US54 is planned north of Carrizozo to the Texas state line.

N. M. Livestock board files burro suit against Interior Dept.

The New Mexico Livestock Board filed a suit in federal court in Albuquerque Monday which challenges the Interior Department Wild Horse and Burro Act as unconstitutional and illegal. The Wild Horse and Burro Act is intended to protect unbranded and unclaimed horses and burros as endangered wild species.

The case came about from the impoundment of 19 unbranded, unclaimed burros which were rounded up south of Carrizozo and sold at auction.

The suit maintains that on Jan. 20 Kelley Stephenson, owner of L-X Ranch which joins Carrizozo on the south, requested the Livestock Board to capture and corral 19 head of burros which had been wandering upon his private property and upon public lands which he has leased from the government. Stephenson also stated that the burros were harassing and molesting his cattle, destroying his feed on both the private and public land and were otherwise interfering with ranching operations.

The Livestock Board contends the burros are "strays" and come under the jurisdiction of the state's stray laws which were enacted in 1907 and give the state full authority to dispose of stray unbranded horses and burros.

The court action asks for a permanent and final injunction restraining and enjoining the federal government from confiscating horses and burros. It also asks the court to declare the state strays law in compliance with the Constitution and statutes of the U. S.

A tablespoon of Philosophy PRAISE PAYS!

Psychologist, Dr. Thomas Tutko says that "A little praise" turns losers into winners. He conducted an experiment with four groups of boys. Group 1 - was criticized constructively; Group 2 was criticized, then told they did well; group 3 was told did well, then criticized. The 4th group was not criticized at all. The more the boys were praised the faster they ran. The ones we told that they had to improve -- ran slower.

Avoid Problems In House Plants

Many plants grown indoors suffer from insufficient light and low humidity. Temperatures can also cause problems.

Many foliar plants prefer a relatively strong, filtered or diffused light. Places near windows or light fixtures are usually suitable. But plants should not be in direct sunlight or in very dark areas of the home. Generally, most house plants need a thorough soaking once a week, the watering should only be done when necessary, and don't let the pot stand in saucers of water.

Most plants grow well in temperatures of 60 to 70 degrees. Plants should not be in drafty places where temperatures suddenly change. When adding fertilizer to plants follow all directions on the container. Too much fertilizer can kill your plants.

To enjoy your plant for many years, watch for common symptoms of foliage plant troubles. Brown tips or burned margins of leaves are caused by too much fertilizer; plants dried out temporarily or windburn. Yellowing and dropping of leaves can be caused by gas fumes, chilling, overwatering, poor drainage and poor aeration.

Weak growth or light green or yellow leaves indicates (too little) light, lack of fertilizer or a poor root system. If the plant wilts, it is getting too much heat or it lacks water, these other spindly growth and small leaves indicate too little light or too high temperatures.

A two-or-three-inch layer of an organic mulch over the root system of plants will produce several beneficial effects on both the soil and the plants. Mulch conserves soil moisture by reducing the evaporation of water from the soil. Mulch prevents crusting of the soil surface, thus improving absorption and percolation of water to the solid areas where the roots are growing. Mulch maintains a more uniform soil temperature by acting as an insulator, reduces weed problems when the mulch material itself is weed-free and is applied deeply enough to prevent weed seed germination. Mulch adds to the beauty of the landscape by providing a cover of uniform color and also prevents fruit and plants from becoming mud splashed and thus reduces losses.

Final game at Roswell

by Nancy Dross

The Carrizozo Grizzlies traveled to Roswell Thursday to compete in the District tournaments. Zozo was to play Eunice that night at 8:30. Zozo had a bad night making only 35 percent of their shots.

The Grizzlies scored 14 out of 33 free shots while Eunice made 19 out of 29 and the Grizzlies had 3 players who fouled out. The top scorer for the Grizzlies was Andre Hoff with 21 points.

Eunice was a tough team and won over the Grizzlies 75-50. They continued to win throughout the tournaments and were the District champs.

A Teaspoon of Fact. FIRE!

A grass fire was extinguished by the Nogal Fire Dept. The men on hand were, Everett Greer, H. Burksstaller, and Ron Means. (Thanks Boys).

The fire was accidentally started by men running a Drilling Rig.

At the last fire meeting the Fire Chief distributed 12 fire extinguishers, of which we are very pleased. Every home needs one to use in case of a fire, until the fire truck arrives. Please! If you don't have one. Buy one; it may save your life!

News around the bowl
March came in with a big gust of wind, making it a little hard to walk around the bowl, but a few notes blew by -- here it goes. There was a dance at the Country Club Saturday night, and the happy talk during happy hour must have been "juicy" but no one would tell me that part. The Nogal crowd had a lot of fun. The Cospers, the Means, the Whitakers, the Porters, the Daubs, Sue & Bob, Bill Payton & Bonita Lou (our paper boy) were some who could have danced till dawn. Congratulations!

For Eva and Ted -- on their Twentieth wedding anniversary, it was their 21st. hope someone gave Eva a little China. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mert Zuntwall, Lisa and Kathy.

A special time with Johnson and Margaret Stearns, Mae Shafer, Howell Adams, and Pearl Stearns, was enjoyed at the Wortley Hotel last Sunday evening, in Lincoln.

Bonita Lou told me that Benny Runnels is running for Mayor in Jal. Good luck Benny!

Shhhhhhhhh! The second session of the thirty-first legislature has been put to sleep. Like Jack-rabbits, Democrat legislators have scurried home, clutching pet projects. Those who are close to retirement still have the retirement plan that will keep them on Easy Street at taxpayer expense. Again a bill to remove the tax on medical services was scuttled. It was never even heard by the House Democrat leadership. So the Tax on Misery continues. And, again, the politicians failed to lower the property tax, because they think they'll never be Evicted.
Again, The Buck was passed back and forth between House and Senate. Sometimes it got stuck, like campaign reform, between the two houses. It died there.
Again, the White Hats tried to play I Spy! but the Democrat politicians wouldn't include legislative committees in the open meetings law. They want to spend in secret.
Again, the Democrat politicians showed they were Boss. They strangled the Republican minority—and you—and then smugly smiled and said—"Gotcha!"
WhoDUNNIt to New Mexico in 1974? Now we know. The Democrat politicians done it. They let the session come and go and they played April Fool on the voters. Again.

Santa Fe - Gov. Bruce King signed bills cutting individual, single persons and low income bracket state income taxes $12.15 million, effective on 1974 income.

Example of cuts in the individual income tax for a 4-member family with standard deductions: $15,000 adjusted gross income, $32 reduction, from $240 to $208; $10,588 income, $16 cut, from $110 to $94; $7,300 income, $5 cut, from $40 to $35.

Also, $21,000 income, $50 cut, from $510 to $460, and $25,000 income, $70 cut, from $750 to $680.

Examples of cuts for single taxpayers: $10,294 income, $86 cut, from $255 to $169, and $7,050 income, $38, from $120 to $82.

The tax credit was expanded from $6,000 to $7,000 adjusted gross income for low income brackets. Maximum credit was increased from $133 to $170.

Income tax withholding will be decreased starting July 1. Withholding will have a doubling effect this year only because the tax cut is effective from Jan. 1.

Sen. Ray Leger, D-DeBaca-Guadalupe-San Miguel, says his bill creating the Montezuma Veterans' Center near Las Vegas was the most important new law for his District 8.

The law appropriates $350,000 state money. Seven buildings, erected in 1968, will be remodeled for ultimate capacity of 300 veterans. Federal funds will pay up to 65 per cent of remodeling costs. The Veterans' Administration will also pay $4.50 a day per veteran for operations.

The U. S. Catholic Conference will donate the land or lease the property to the state for $1 a year. The State Hospitals-Institutions Department will manage the facility with help from a 5-member advisory board.

Sen. Leger said the expanded tax credit "will take the bite out of the continuation of the state gross receipts tax." He is West Las Vegas Schools superintendent. Leger said the new public school finance law "will eventually provide equal opportunity for all New Mexico children."

Sen. John Morrow, D-Colfax-Union-San Miguel-Harding, said prospects were bright to locate an animal research center the legislature authorized in the Clayton area.

Sen. Morrow said a federal-state land swap of 160-320 acres, supported by Clayton area ranchers and farmers, is in progress for a proposed site. He said the developed land is worth $300,000 to $400,000. It is surrounded by irrigated wells, Morrow said. A rancher, he sponsored the legislation.

Morrow cited these legislative accomplishments also: State employee minimum pay raised from $347 to $400 a month; a substantial tax cut with a projected $21.4-million unappropriated state surplus June 30, the public school finance law. Sen. Morrow said the school finance law "makes more money available so it can be distributed locally."

Rep. Richard Carbajal, D-Belen, chairman of the University Study Committee, said the USC will follow state universities activity in energy research. Carbajal added: "We're going to get more in-depth into universities' budgets."

Rep. Carbajal said the USC will hold meetings on university campuses. The first will be at New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, March 20-21.

Sen. Kenneth Schlienz, R-Quay-Curry, said the $2 million voted by the legislature for energy research "will help the state universities, especially UNM, New Mexico State and New Mexico Tech." Schlienz is also a USC member. Sen. Schlienz applauded the $260,000 deficiency appropriation voted by the legislature to Eastern New Mexico University to get its bond payments in balance. The money is intended to eliminate all ENMU debt service deficiencies. Sandia Savings and Loan Association, Albuquerque, applied to the State Banking Department for authority to establish a branch office at Rio Rancho.

Gov. King signed a bill by Rep. Fred Luna, D-Los Lunas, appropriating $100,000 to renovate three old buildings at Los Lunas Hospital and Training School.

King also signed a bill creating five more district judges. The new judgeships: One in District 6 to be Luna County resident; one in District 9 (Roosevelt-Curry); one in District 11 to be a San Juan County resident; one in District 12 (Lincoln-Otero) and one in District 13 (Valencia-Sandoval) to be a Sandoval County resident.

The Sandoval County judge will be effective July 1 this year to serve until 1976. The other judgeships will be filled initially in the 1976 election. Former State Sen. John P. Eastham, 46, Albuquerque attorney, announced his candidacy for the Republican Governor nomination Saturday. He was GOP Senate floor leader two years and GOP whip four years in 1967-72.

King special assistant Keith Dolson, 35, resigned to run for the Democratic nomination for state corporation commissioner.

A major new public school formula was adopted. It is intended to equalize educational opportunity for New Mexico school children.

Legislators' comments: Rep. John Bigbee, R-DeBaca-Lincoln-Guadalupe-Torrance. "I like the new school formula. I don't like the fact it takes more control away from local boards. It's an improvement over what we had in equalizing the support more among school districts.

"It eliminates local incentive to raise school money by taking credit for 95 per cent of local funds to compute state aid." Gov. Bruce King signed the public school finance formula bill.

Rep. Bigbee, a candidate for reelection, was disappointed the legislature did not adopt a campaign practices act. He says: "We really don't need major reform. We could do a little work on the existing law and put some teeth in it."

Sen. John Morrow, D-Colfax-Union-Harding-Miguel: "Every area of the state gets some recognition in things that will help them." Morrow said public school people accept the new public school formula well. He said it allows local school boards to take recognition of increased living costs.

Sen. Morrow sponsored a bill authorizing an animal research center and appropriating $300,000.
