

Zoning hearing set for May 17

CARRIZOZO - The Town Planning and Zoning Commission Thursday unanimously recommended to the Town Trustees a public hearing on a proposed town zoning ordinance and comprehensive land use plan.

The commission chaired by Tom Ward reviewed the proposed ordinance prepared by Planning Consultant Ken Larsen and adopted certain changes pertaining to mobile homes and animals in the agricultural areas of the town.

Changes in some street routing along with elimination of traffic hazards were discussed including the Highway 380 overpass now being planned by the State Highway Commission. Copies of the proposals and maps are available at the Town Hall.

Larsen told the group that state participation funds were available for improvement of several streets in the town limits and the commission voted to recommend to the town that such applications be made.

The commission will recommend that the town annex several parcels of land for control of areas vital to community interests. The public hearing on these proposals is set for May 17 at 7:30 p.m. in the Recreation Center.

The next meeting of the Commission will be May 31 at 7:30 p.m. in the Town Hall and interested citizens are urged to attend. Commission members are Tom Ward, Mrs. A. N. Spencer, Fred English, Mrs. Clara Snow, Mrs. Mary Chavez, Chevo Baca and Albert Roberts.

Woman's Club wins $400

Congratulations to the gals

ALBUQUERQUE - The Carrizozo Woman's Club today won a $400 first place award as the New Mexico club which in 1973 did the most to improve the environment of its community.

Winners in the General Federation of Women's Clubs--Shell Oil Company Environmental Conservation Program were announced at the state convention of the New Mexico Federation of Women's Clubs meeting here.

Second place and $200 went to the Women's Improvement Association of Las Cruces. Third place and $100 was awarded to the Santa Fe Junior Woman's Club which also won a special Youth Involvement award of $300.

The Carrizozo club now will compete with first place winners from other states for national prizes of $2,000, $1,000 and $500. These awards will be announced May 28.

There ought to be someone within reach whose neck we could grab and twist a few times whilst paying the $150 billion to keep 14 million Americans on government payrolls. This means that one of every five jobs is government work which costs $700 for every man, woman, child plus a few dogs in our country. Probably both Republican and Democratic politicians are to blame for this sad situation, that few want or can afford. Sure hope those congressmen will humiliate, fast and pray as prescribed by their joint resolution 183 with that $150 billion in mind. Their resolution sounds like a lot of Bull.

Did a little checking with Town Manager Johnny Johnson about burning at the town dump. Not supposed to be any, nor does the town do any burning of any kind at any time at this location. Fires have got started from passing trains, from hot garbage-- but none set by town people.

Ocie Hunt, of Box 116 Sweetwater, Texas is hoping to find someone who remembers Uncle Alonzo Hunt who lived in White Oaks, had two sons, Johnson and Alvin. Ocie left two phone numbers 915-235-2302 and 915-235-3052.

Another person looking is Maria Foster, probation office, is looking for foster homes in this area for children who do not have home or what they have is unsuitable. If interested call the probation office in Ruidoso collect.

Nice words from Mrs. J. Van Winkle at 252 Ramona, Sierra Madre, Cal. "I so enjoy receiving the News from L. Co., especially from Carrizozo. I still see a few names of people I remember although we, my family and I moved to California in 1924. Some of the old timers will remember my father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lalone. This is country I'll never forget, of which I have very warm feelings and a lot of good memories." For Josephine, you can reach John Kelt by addressing Gambles in Tucumcari, N. M.

One thing Carrizozo sure is good at -- people who are doing things for ZoZo get the finest treatment and the singing men from Las Cruces got the best of our hospitality -- an enjoyable deal we're sure both ways. The men sang for two solid hours, the best of entertainment, then went to the Rec Center to enjoy a table full of goodies and wet their whistle. We thought sure that table of food would outlast the evening but it didn't. Then the guys started playing and singing -- and that went on until 1:00 a.m. Lots of songs in Spanish, good banjo, guitar and bass pickin', lots of horseplay -- all very enjoyable. Then around 7:45 the next morning they started coming back to the Center for breakfast of hot cakes, bacon, sausage, wives along with many of the men.

Course the CCAPA people, Tom, Barbara, Carolyn, Archie, Paul, Veda, Jane, started the whole thing -- bringing a musical event to town the like of which has never been here before -- but there CCAPA had lots of help and is getting more all the time. Johnson, Margaret, Joe, Bob, Johnny were sure busy flappin' the jacks Sunday morning.

Mill Iron quarter horses made good news at El Paso show last weekend. Mill Iron Charm, 4-year-old mare, made reserve champion at halter, and ridden by R. C. Barham, placed first in all-age trail and second in western riding. This is her second reserve championship of the season according to Pat Dunning.

W-W
Got to hand it to Dennis Jeter and the Halliday rodeo people -- they sure make a rodeo move along. Lots of good bucking stock in Joe Sargent Memorial arena the past weekend.

Dave Cass really got after his work to win the bull dogging at the Lincoln County Rodeo Association three-day go last weekend. His time was 7.6. You see him coming off to dog his steer.

Some real good bull rides were made for rodeo fans at the Lincoln County Rodeo in Joe Sargent Memorial Arena. M. K. Hudson scored a 71 on his ride and got lots of applause from the fans. Hudson is shown in action.

Steer riding at the rodeo here last weekend was full liberated, integrated and whatever else might go in a rodeo arena. Sherry Goodloe, formerly of Capitan is atop the steer in this picture.

Monday, May 6 is last day to register

There are a number political races shaping up real good in Lincoln County and it looks like a dandy year for everyone to register to vote-- whatever way you choose.

This coming Monday, May 6, happens to be the final day. The county clerk will receive affidavits of registration at all times during this day and the registration will close at 5:00 p.m.

Second graders have fun

Second graders from Carrizozo couldn't really decide what was the most fun on their recent trip, April 5th to Roswell. Accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Myrtle Williams and "bus driver", Principal, Larry Wilkinson, the first stop was a visit to a bakery where they watched the whole process from dough to packaged loaf. "I liked the cutting of the bread the most," spoke up Oscar Munoz. All were treated to pink cookies before leaving.

Next came the airport where they were taken to see the Luxury Liner 747. After this exciting tour, it was time for sack lunches at Peppermint Park. The zoo was fun but the most fun were the "rides" according to Mrs. Williams. Would they like to go again? "Yes" was the answer, with no dissenters!

This trip culminated for the second grade, their activities in connection with Career Education Week.

Oktoberfest kickoff May 3

Fabian Chavez, Director of "the" Tourist Division of the Department of Development, will be the guest speaker at the kickoff meeting for the Planning Committee for the 1974 Oktoberfest. The meeting will be held at noon, May 3, at Henry's Restaurant in Tularosa.

Oktoberfest is a joint effort on the part of the communities in the south central portion of the state to promote tourism. In 1973, some 75,000 visitors took part in festivities which included rodeos, an international fair, beer drinking contests and a golf tournament. The events were held in the towns of Alamogordo, Cloudcroft, Ruidoso, Ruidoso Downs, Tularosa and Carrizozo.

Other special events of the month-long fest included pedestal hikes through White Sands National Monument, tours of the Trinity bomb site, Aspencaedes rallies for motorcycles and four-wheel drive vehicles.

A table full of good food was waiting for the school Saturday. Elizabeth MacVeigh, right, served a delicious choice of punch.

The "afterglow" took place at the Rec Center after a concert by the Singing Men of Las Cruces Saturday night. Skipper Botsford on left, Ernie Stenmark and Bill Randall were soon joined by Milt Schoenbrun on the bass for a show that went on well after midnight.

Paul Zickefoose "Led the Saints" with a big bass voice as they came marching in and around at the Voz Vaqueros concert.

Singing men of Las Cruces were big hit in ZoZo

Gilito Lopez, singing above, closed out the best evening of music heard in Carrizozo for a long, long time. Under the direction of Dr. George H. Jarden, the Voz Vaqueros sang a wide variety of numbers for large crowd at school, then had fun and food in the Rec. Center until after midnight.

Arts of all kinds were discussed at great length by John E. Wyant, executive director of New Mexico Arts Commission, meeting with directors of the Carrizozo Community Association of the Performing Arts in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cantrell, Friday night. This group discussion took place after a buffet lunch. From left, Carolyn Cantrell, Clara Snow, Mr. Wyant, Barbara Ward, Eleanor Payton, Jane Shafer, Jim Cantrell and Tom Ward seated.

Hospital Auxiliary Report Volunteer sewers needed

The meeting date for the Hospital Auxiliary has been changed from Tuesday, May 7 to Thursday, May 9, at 7:30 at the REA. It was necessary to change the date because the first aid classes to be held here in Carrizozo on May 6 and May 7 at 7:30. Please call Johnny Johnson and join the first aid course. Now comments from the Auxiliary President.

There have been questions raised as to how the auxiliary is spending the funds it has solicited from the bake sales.

Our plans are to spend money making gowns and pajamas, curtains. However, the grand goal is to build up the treasury in order to buy necessary and most understandably expensive equipment needed at the hospital. We have spent money on items for the handicraft class; but the participation here leaves something to be desired. It is naturally understood that individuals who would like to work on items in their own home; even develop sewing circles for the benefit of the hospital; is certainly welcome and desirous.

We would also like to have some young ladies in the community especially junior high and senior high age to volunteer their time to sewing articles for the auxiliary.

We are all extremely grateful to our local publisher and the hospital board for publicizing the operational expenses of the hospital. Reading the article certainly makes it obvious that we can all do better by swelling the membership in the auxiliary; and the community as a whole contributing Time, Money, and Active Participation.

Your auxiliary president is an incurable optimist. But, like so many others, she is also practical. There is an acute awareness for community interest, participation, and cooperation. There are very fine dedicated individuals within the community, hospital and auxiliary. But, we need more! There are times when we need to put our personal gripes aside and recognize the benefits we derive from personal dedication to a most challenging and worthy cause. Would we really enjoy seeing a "CLOSED" sign on the door?

In closing, we have been invited to attend an auxiliary workshop in Alamogordo sponsored by the Gerald-Champion-Hospital-Auxiliary beginning at 8:30 in the Solarium on the third floor of the Gerald Champion Memorial Hospital. The date: May 23 - registration fee is $2.25, which is the cost of the luncheon at the El Greco Restaurant. Adjournment approximately 2:30 P.M.

The opportunities are staring us right in the face. Shall we turn our backs?

The title of this weeks column is: "Tips for Parents to be if they are New Comers in Town" or "Where there's a will there's a way."

So you find yourself in the 'family way.' It might be for the 1st time or the 6th. (as in our case.) The plan now is to find out who will deliver the new 'bundle of Joy!'

You find out there is no obstetrical service in town. Don't panic. You calmly arrange for pre-natal check ups and delivery in town 57 miles away.

Your car doesn't start or your ride to town 57 miles can't make it and you have an appointment. Don't panic. Calmly go to bus stop and purchase a Greyhound round trip bus ticket to 'town 57 miles away' to keep your pre-natal check-up.

The mother-to-be finds her regular stretch pants won't stretch any further and father-to-be suggests that she go to local department store to purchase a pair of maternity slacks. Sales person says, Sorry, we don't carry them anymore.

And there you are looking like a giant peanut growing out of proportion. Don't panic. Calmly find a maternity pants pattern and sew a pair or two.

The parents to be decide how they will nourish their new or latest 'bundle of Joy'. Naturally it will be breast fed. So mother to be waddles over to same local department store to inquire for a nursing brassiere. Sales person says, "A what?" "Sorry we don't carry them."

"Town 57 miles away" faintly remembers of their grandmothers speaking of such a contrivance. Don't panic. You calmly place an order in ole Faithful, the Sears, Roebuck and Company catalog.

When the time comes, baby decides he doesn't want to be born 57 miles away. It may be baby wants to be born 45 miles away or 16 miles away or 8 miles away. Don't panic. You calmly open car glove compartment and take out your paper back book 'Six practical lessons for an easier childbirth' by Elizabeth Bing, R.P.T. (The Lamaze Method) and review your lessons. Baby might decide he wants parent-to-be to fit mid-wifery into their calm, collected lives.

But for now 'town 57 miles away' is four months away for parents-to-be and that dish of pickles and strawberry ice cream is 'right on, right now!'

Honor society has party

Lincoln News - by Hattie Phillips

The Capitan High School Honor Society put on a lovely program at the home of Mrs. Ray Provine last Thursday evening. It was inspiring to know what the young people are thinking and doing, and Mrs. Provine is certainly doing a good job helping them along.

The same happy school spirit and communication between school personnel and students was evident at the prom on Saturday evening in the beautifully decorated auditorium.

After the prom Mr. and Mrs. Hap Canning, Carol and Matt entertained with a dinner at their ranch home. The boys spent the night at the bunk house with Matt, and Carol had a slumber party for the girls. Then all had breakfast together in the morning and a picnic during the day. They had a wonderful time, which will never be forgotten.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay McGinnis spent this last weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Duffy Vassar and their children at Big Springs Texas. They really have a great time while they're being entertained by their grandchildren.

I heard last week that Mrs. Carrie Dow has been able to leave the hospital in Roswell and moved back to Sunset Villa. This is very good news.

I have been enjoying reading about the fine program at the Arts in Carrizozo and hope that some of us can get together and get there to enjoy some of them with Carrizozo people.

This week end will be a big one at Hondo School when the annual "Dance Fiesta" takes place. Everyone who goes enjoys it so much. Lots of work on the part of students and directors is involved too.

The Roman Maes' are having a new roof put on their museum. The old one developed so many leaks it had to be replaced. They have been to El Paso recently to visit their daughter Priscilla and her husband and children.

Their grandson Ray has been in the Navy for two months and has already had a promotion. He will be able to come home for his sister's (Jeanette) graduation from High School in El Paso.

While there Mr. and Mrs. Maes and Priscilla went to Juarez. They were inconvenienced by the streetcar and bus strike but had a nice time.

They have also been to Roswell last week to visit their families there.

Col. Roy Ladd retires

A former Carrizozo resident, Col Roy Ladd retired from 35 years of military service at Ent. AFT. He was director of logistics for 14th aerospace force.

Ladd was born in Wheeler, Tex., and was graduated from Carrizozo high school. The Colonel enlisted in the Army Air Corps in May 1941, he was rated an Army pilot after graduation from advanced flying school at Turner AFB, Ga. in 1943.

Col. Ladd served in India, flew missions over the 'hump' into China, served at Topka AFB back in the states, at Morrison Field Fla, then transferred to the Typhoon Chasera and flew weather missions. Ladd was commander of the 331st unit at Grand Forks AFB where he won the Blanchard Trophy, which is the highest honor a missile wing may attain.

Among his many awards and decorations are the Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal with oak leaf cluster, Army Commendation Medal, Air Force Commendation Medal with oak leaf cluster and the Legion of Merit.

Our campaign soundings in conservative, prosperous Curry County on an East Side swing: Home county candidate Echols will carry Curry with Tibo Chavez a strong second and ex-State Rep. Mayfield, Albuquerque attorney, third.

Skeen will carry Curry County in the GOP primary over Eastham. Three other GOP governor candidates will trail badly. Skeen, a sheep and cattle rancher, has good rapport with the big Curry County farming population. An all-candidates Curry County Republican Women's Federation dinner attracted 100. All of the five GOP governor candidates attended, a rarity in the current campaign: Skeen, Eastham, former Vietnam prisoner of war James Hughes, Albuquerque insurance agency owner Hamilton Rogers and Santa Fe businessman Walter Bruce.

Eastham predicts 25,000 votes will win the GOP governor nomination in a total vote of about 55,000. He says he will win 12 counties. Among them with Eastham's predicted vote are Taos, 800; Sandoval, 700; Valencia, 1,100, and big Bernalillo, 18,000, Eastham's home base. Jack says he will win half of the Curry vote, 475, and will split Guadalupe with Skeen. Tibo Chavez campaign staffers claim Tibo leads Apodaca by 7 percent in a statewide poll completed 10 days ago. They say Echols and Mayfield are 8 percent behind Apodaca and Cloud and Witt trail far behind. But a big 45 percent of the vote in the poll was undecided.

Our own soundings showed these leaders in other counties: Quay—Echols and Skeen; San Miguel—Chavez and Apodaca and Skeen; Otero—Chavez, Apodaca and Mayfield and Skeen; Los Alamos—Chavez, Echols and Witt. Skeen built an early base in Los Alamos but Eastham is eroding Joe's strength here.

SS proof required

People will now be asked to prove their age, identity, and citizenship to get a social security number when applying for the first time, according to Mrs. Christine Graves, social security Field Representative. The proof is required under an amendment to the social security law.

"Age can usually be proved with a birth or baptismal certificate," Mrs. Graves said. "Identity can generally be proved with a driver's license, voter's registration, or similar evidence—preferable something that carries the applicant's signature."

"People born in the United States can usually establish citizenship with the same papers they use to prove their age and identity. A foreign-born individual must prove his alien or naturalization certificate, U. S. passport, Alien Registration Receipt Card, Non-Resident Alien Border Crossing Card, etc."

Mrs. Graves may be contacted at the County Commissioner's Room, Lincoln County Court House in Carrizozo.

Stranglehold on State offices

By Fred Buckles

SANTA FE — Bob Ferguson and Kenneth Whallin in the five-man Democratic lieutenant governor's race seek to break a near Albuquerque-Santa Fe area stranglehold on state offices.

Albuquerqueans Less Houston, Fred Chavez, Jr. and Raymond Garcia would continue the domination.

Among 20 percent state executive and judicial officials only three lived outside the area before they were elected. They are Atty. Gen. David Norvell, Clovis; Supreme Court Justice Fel Oman, Las Cruces, and Appeals Court Judge Joe Wood, Farmington.

In the Democratic lieutenant governor's race Houston, 37, a lawyer, pledges personal assistance with voters on government-related problems. Born in Meally, Ky., a coal-mining town, Houston has lived in Albuquerque and Alameda nearly nine years.

'ROUND THE CAPITOL
by FRED BUCKLES

SANTA ROSA - CLOVIS -- Guadalupe County Democratic Chairman Frank Encinias blasted Democratic Gov. Bruce King for not recognizing county chairmen.

Encinias also told the State Democratic Executive Committee at Alamogordo: "I have spent 63 of my 83 years in Democratic Party ranks. I have never seen anything so badly disorganized between county chairmen and the state party officials as I have seen today."

Santa Fe County Democratic Chairman Louis Valdez supported Encinias' stand. Valdes said relations are poor between county chairmen and all elected state officials. All of the 10 officials are Democrats.

Democratic county chairmen have leveled strong criticism at the King administration previously, claiming too many Republicans are in state jobs and not enough Democrats have been hired.

Our soundings on a Guadalupe County campaign trip April 22-23 showed Senate Majority Leader Tibo Chavez, Belen, leading the Democratic governor primary. Sen. Jerry Apodaca, Las Cruces, is second. Encinias actively supports Apodaca although Encinias is county Democratic chairman. Party rules ban party officers from pre-primary support of candidates.

Other Democratic governor contenders will get little Guadalupe County vote—Sen. Odis Echols, Boston Witt, Drew Cloud and Bobby Mayfield. The county population is some 85 percent Spanish surriamed.

Encinias supports Sen. Robert Ferguson, Artesia, for the Democratic lieutenant governor nomination in Guadalupe. He says an Apodaca-Ferguson general election ticket would offer ethnic and geographical balance.

Ex-Senate Minority Leader Joe Skeen, Picacho, Lincoln County, holds a big lead in Guadalupe in the Republican governor primary over Jack Eastham, Albuquerque lawyer and also a former Senate GOP leader. Skeen's ranching background and long party service appeals to the small Guadalupe Republican vote.

Democrats outnumber Republicans 2.5-1 in Guadalupe. A turnout of about 1,000 Democrats and 300 Republicans is expected in the primary June 4. Sen Apodaca campaigned in Guadalupe April 22-23. Apodaca says 35 percent of the primary vote would carry Guadalupe for him.

Hondo Fiesta this week

The nationally known "Hondo Fiesta Dancers" will present the 22nd Annual Fiesta May 3 and 4, at 8:00 P.M. in the Hondo Gym.

The Fiesta is the annual presentation of the colorful performance of Spanish, Mexican, and New Mexican folk dances. Seventy junior and senior-high-school students in beautiful costumes perform the many graceful and difficult steps.

In addition to their extensive travels throughout New Mexico and Tex., these famous dancers have traveled and danced at the National Folk Festival of Arts in Tucson in 1951, the National Folk Festival in Nashville in 1959, Mexico City and Acapulco in 1965, Disneyland and San Juan Capistrano in 1966, the Hemisfair in San Antonio in 1968, Chihuahua City and Los Mochis in 1970.

Many of the old favorite dances will be presented again by popular request. They include La Varsavian, El Jarabe Pateno, Jesusita En Chihuahua, El Jarabe Michoacano, Jota Tapatia, Lagarteranas, Vals De Los Panos, Jarabe Del Valle, El Navillero, and the always popular two, Danza El Aguascalientes and El Jarabe Tapatio.

Among the new dances being taught by Mrs. Fermin S. Montes will include the dance of the State of Jalisco, Guadalajara and a Polka - El Calambre.

A Bowl of Activities From Nogal

by Roby Burke

A cup of news! Painting in Paradise! And that is just what happened in Paradise Hills in Albuquerque, N. M. on the 26th of April. New Mexico ladies attended a Show and Seminar, of the State Federation of China Painters. The Federation was delighted to have as their guest, The First Lady of N. M., Mrs. Bruce King. She is a refreshing and delightful person, and the N. M. China Painters appreciated her interest in their work.

The China Club of Tucumcari showed a table full of beautifully painted china and won first prize. Farmington, Santa Fe, and Albuquerque all showed china.

Now! Our N. M. Federation leader Pauline Salyer, is busy getting more China Clubs started in N. M. and she wants to start one in Lincoln County. So lets get started girls those of you who have painted, get our your paints and those who want to learn—make time for one day a month to study with Roberta C. Burkstaller. We need about 12 in the club to have a class. If you're interested Call 354-2389. It is going to be creative and exciting and the next convention will be in Las Cruces in a year so lets get organized so we can enter our China, and attend.

Around the Bowl Blossoms—Blossoms—everywhere—it is finally getting fairly warm and Summer is on its way. I stopped in to see Myrtle Williams and she told me she had just returned from a legislative workshop, representing the Teachers Association. She and Miles have just added a new room to their house and it will be finished soon.

Had a visit with Louise in the orchard and she told me that she and Bill had a nice evening at the Coe Ranch with relatives and Mr. and Mrs. Al Coe from Claifornia. So sorry Mrs. O. B. Shook is in the Annex at Lincoln County Hospital in Carrizozo. She is allowed to have visitors. It was really nice to hear about Eddie Davis winning a trip in June to Acapulco which is one of the highest awards given by Ford Motor Co. Eddie won for being the Gold Medallion Manager of the Phoenix District.

Dr. Service of Capitan invited his Fort Stanton employees to dinner. It was enjoyed by all. He will be gone this month on a trip. I know everyone in Capitan will be glad when he returns and other areas too.

Molly Bush and Dot Burkstaller had a visit today and discussed their various projects. Dot has been selling Afghans and I saw a pretty quilt that Molly made.

Keep the notes coming in—if you can't reach the can you can send them to Box 67, Nogal Roby Burke.

Listen Homemakers — 1/2 teaspoon nutrition From now until Father's day lets butter these men-up—and serve them more beef. It won't be hard on the pocketbook if you cut out some of the crunch and sugar snacks, and the optional foods, like preservative filled mixes. Ground beef is the number one choice for satisfying, economical meals. Most often it's burgers, so to keep interest high varied appeal is important. Here's a tasty alternative to putting patties between bun halves. Mix one pound ground beef with three tablespoons thinly sliced green onions, one teaspoon salt and a dash of pepper. Spread meat mixture on five or six slices of rye toast, covering edges. Place on broiler rack so surface of meat is three inches from heat and broil until browned, six to eight min. Next week, watch for new ideas with steaks for Father!

One cup of music You will do a flip if you drop in on Alma at her record shop in Ruidoso. It is called "Flip-side" and Alma is a swinger with the right music for the right mood. I visit her quite often, and I always hate to leave. She is just west of the dip in midtown of Ruidoso. You Young people—here is a chance to get some great tapes. But she has music for everyone.

Elm leaf beetle here

Notes from the County Agent If you are having insect problems, get extension publication 400-J16 "Home and Garden Insect Control Guide" from the County Extension Office in the Courthouse at Carrizozo. It gives insect control recommendations for most garden crops.

Select a pesticide that fits your needs from the chart in the publication. By using the right dosage of the proper chemical and by waiting the recommended time between the last application and harvest, you should get adequate control and avoid harmful residues on your vegetables.

RRD The elm leaf beetle was found in this area last year. It is a serious pest of elm trees, especially Siberian elms—often called Chinese elms—throughout the area. Elm leaf beetles not only defoliate elm trees, but they can become serious nuisances in homes in the spring and fall. The adult beetles and larvae feed only on elm leaves. The adult becomes a nuisance in homes when they seek a place to hibernata in the fall and when they come out of hibernation in the spring.

Both the adult and larvae feed on elm leaves. They eat the surface of the leaves, leaving the veins. The skeletonized leaves turn brown and eventually fall. Their damage weakens the trees and makes them more susceptible to borers that attack elms.

Sevin (carbaryl) gives good control of adults and larvae on elm leaves and is also effective against fall webworm and spiny elm caterpillar. The major problem is complete coverage of infested trees. This requires a high pressure, high volume sprayer. The elm leaf beetle has from three to five generations per year and will require repeated spray applications. Also any trees in the area that are not sprayed can reinfest the other elm trees.

RRD Lincoln County wools brought from 58 to 82-cent per clean pound at the wool sales in Roswell recently. The majority of the sales were from 70 to 75 cents per grease pound. The sales were on a generally weaker trend toward the end of the sale. The buyers seemed to have more orders for fine wool than the coarser wools.

RRD I visited a few orchards in the Hondo Valley last week. A good crop of Golden Delicious and Jonathans is anticipated but the Red Delicious crop is expected to be light. Although it is too early to be sure, present indication are for a fair crop in the county.

Capitan and Ruidoso get water grants

The villages of Capitan and Ruidoso are included in a total of $803,339 in federal grants to 15 New Mexico communities and co-ops and a state agency to help finance wastewater treatment facilities, the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency announced today.

The grants, which finance 75 per cent of construction costs for certain wastewater treatment facilities, were authorized under 1972 amendments to the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, EPA spokesmen said.

Reimbursement grants to 13 communities and co-ops that built facilities when no federal funds were available included one of $53,000 to Capitan and $20,400 to Ruidoso.

The New Mexico Environmental Improvement Agency received a $35,634 cost-increase award, granted for projects begun before the higher interest and Sinking Fund.

Bird Harvest Figures up

SANTA FE, N.M. -- Projections from the Game and Fish Department's survey of the past season's bird hunts indicate significant increases in hunter success and harvest, with one exception.

The projections are based on a 62 per cent response from 12,000 bird license holders surveyed by the department's Game Management Division.

Lincoln County News, May 2, 1974, Page 7

The projections, with all numbers rounded, indicated that 38,600 hunters -- two-thirds of all valid bird license holders--took to the field. Of those, two per cent hunted only waterfowl, 79 per cent hunted only upland birds and 20 per cent hunted both.

Only the duck harvest was lower than the previous season's, with 7,100 hunters taking 46,000 ducks, down from 58,000 the season before. The duck hunters spent an average teal hunter spent an average of 2.5 days in the field.

Other hunter numbers, days afield, type of game and harvest:

GEESE: 3,100 hunters spent an average of 3.75 days afield to harvest 4,000 geese, up from 1,900 the previous season;

LESSER SANDHILL CRANE: 1,100 hunters, an average 4.3 days afield, a harvest 1,400 cranes, up from 800.

DOVES: 28,300 hunters, 6.4 days afield, 312,300 doves, up by 47,000 from the previous season;

QUAIL: 27,600 hunters, 6.7 days afield, 417,000 quail, more than double the previous season's harvest.

BLUE GROUSE: 2,100 hunters, 2.6 days afield, 3,300 grouse, up from 1,900.

Apodaca, Former New Mexico State University vice president, Rep. O'Donnell concentrated on educators in his campaigning.

Sen. Bill Lee, D-Lovington, is not involved in the governor's race. But Sen. Lee is strongly supporting Sen. Bob Ferguson, D-Artesia, for Democratic lieutenant-governor nomination. Lee is not subject to reelection this year.

A rancher, Sen. Lee says: "The cattle industry is concerned over the squeeze feeders have put in because of high prices." He cited high grain prices and the relatively low price of fat cattle.

Sen. Lee said prospects are bright for other segments of the Lea County agricultural industry in commodities-cotton, grains and alfalfa. Lee's district spans Eunice and Jal.

Sen. Lee said pending federal land use legislation "is certainly dormant at this time." Lee attended a meeting of the New Mexico Land Use Advisory Committee in Santa Fe. He says there is much optimism over the Lea County oil industry because of stepped-up activity.

SANTA FE—Political campaigns hogged the spotlight as candidates set their sights on the primary election June 4.

Republican governor candidate Joe Skeen of Pecos, Lincoln County, campaigned early this week in Truth or Consequences and Deming. In Santa Fe Skeen, a sheep rancher, said New Mexico's greatest economic expansion will come in energy production. He said coal gasification is the most immediate area of importance.

Skeen said his strongest areas are Southeastern and Southern New Mexico. He tabbed Curry County as a sector of strength.

Sen. Tibo Chavez of Belen, a Democratic governor candidate, issued an 8 point position statement. Chavez took stands on the energy shortage, taxation, crime and drug abuse, the quality of life, cost of living, good jobs, education and training and economy in government.

Campaign contributions to April 9 totaled $57,463 for Sen. Chavez, $23,015 for ex-Atty. Gen. Boston Witt and $22,573 for former Racing Commission Chairman Drew Cloud. All are Democratic governor candidates.

Fifteen individual $1,000 contributions were received by Drew Cloud's campaign. Among the Cloud contributors, Joe Tabet, Belen; Joe Torres, Eagle Nest rancher; Herman Tabet, Belen; Cloud's campaign co-finance chairman; Betty L. Tabet, Herman's wife; Bernie Stolzman, Rio Rancho.

Sen. Odus Echols of Clovis, also a Democratic governor candidate, says Sen. Chavez's campaign "is leveling off." Echols said, "Sen. Apodaca's campaign peaked in January, bottomed out in March and is coming back now." Apodaca of Las Cruces is also in the Democratic governor run.

Sen. Echols adds, "In May there is a good chance Sen. Apodaca and I will pass Tibo." Echols says the State Highway Commission's authority to issue debentures should be increased and used to improve New Mexico's primary and secondary road systems.

Echols, 43, a businessman, says his primary campaign budget is $129,000 and $50,000 of the goal has been raised. Famed entertainer Glen Campbell will perform in Albuquerque Mat at an Echols fundraiser.

Echols claims strength in Lea, home Curry, Luna, Hidalgo and big Bernalilla among other counties. He is rated in the top three candidates by most observers with Sen. Chavez and
