'Spencer Day' okayed

The Carrizozo Town Council Tuesday night passed, adopted and signed a proclamation designating the first Sunday in May as "Dr. A. N. and Jackie Spencer Day" in Carrizozo.

J. O. (Bud) Payne submitted the proclamation to the council for adoption. He cited the many services to Carrizozo by the Spencers. The proclamation states that the first Sunday in May every year will be set aside to honor the Spencers.

The proclamation reads, in part: "...the community spirit of its residents contribute to and make up the growth, improvement and quality of a community; and Carrizozo has become a quality community because of the dedication and generosity of its citizens; and the City Council of Carrizozo desires to recognize and express its appreciation and thanks to individuals dedicated to making Carrizozo a quality community; and...

Dr. A. N. and Jackie Spencer have untiringly dedicated their time and financial support toward the development and improvement of Carrizozo; and their guiding and helping hand were instrumental in developing the golf course, tennis courts and baseball diamond, the Intermediate Care Facility for our precious senior citizens, the Recreation Center among many efforts, all dedicated to the development and preservation of strong minds and healthy bodies of the young and old alike; be it resolved that on behalf of the town of Carrizozo, we the members of the town council, hereby express our deep appreciation and gratitude to Dr. A. N. and Jackie Spencer by proclaiming that the first Sunday of May of this year and every year thereafter be celebrated as: Dr. A. N. and Jackie Spencer Day

Councilmen noted that the date could be changed if necessary.

The council decided to defer accepting an offer by Cleo Duggar of water from a new well on her place. The council noted that most of Carrizozo's water supply comes from Bonito Lake and that the lake is full.

Mrs. Duggar asked 20 cents per 1,000 gallons, with the town paying for a pump and for electricity.

Councilman C. D. May said Carrizozo needs to build all the water reserves it can. "I would like to see us get water in that area...it's good water...I hate to pass up good water" but now is not the time to contract for it.

The council approved the purchase of three acres of land adjoining Evergreen Cemetery from the I.O.O.F. for $1,000. The acreage will provide 180 grave sites. Hazel Hayes standing in for Clara Stone offered the land to the council.

Councilman Roy Marman abstained from voting because, he said, he is a member of I.O.O.F.

The council also agreed to bill mobile home owners who have tied into someone else's sewer line. The billing will be for sewer service and for garbage collection.

Three instances were cited where residents have moved trailers on to lots and tied into sewer lines running on private property.

Such residents also will be informed, via a notice, that they are required under a city ordinance to have a separate water meter for each residence if they want city water. Some mobile homes, it was noted, have tied into on private property beyond meters. Jess English asked that sewer lines be extended beyond his house 220 feet to a house he is renovating.

The council agreed to do the work in the summer in conjunction with planned sewer and water line work in that area.

Mayor Bill Payne told the council the time is ripe to submit an application, for a mini-park across the tracks. The application would go to the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation. He suggested a block-size park — possibly in the vicinity of the Catholic Church.

Payne was authorized to contact the Catholic Church for possible use of land across the street from the church.

Carrizozo would need to match federal funds for the project if it is approved.

Occupation licenses were approved for 1975 for 35 businesses in Carrizozo. Fees are based on gross business.

Councilman Harman said the city needs to find a source of gravel to gravel some roads and intersections in the city before summer rains arrive. He also said the city's small grader needs to be run through some alleys in town — this will be done in the near future, Johnny Johnson, public works superintendent, said.

The council agreed to seek bids on sand-blasting and painting the municipal swimming pools.

Mayor Payne said he favors a different setup on operation of the pool where perhaps three lifeguards would be hired and one would be designated manager.

Some possible changes on the zoning ordinance will be considered at the meeting of the council in April.

Prohibition of mobile homes used as residences in commercial areas is one change being considered.

Bill Gomez, with New Mexico State University Extension Service, community development division, said some $20,000 may be coming to Lincoln County in a federal grant for rent supplements.

Low-income families would be eligible, and property owners could charge higher rents and afford to fix up substandard property.

Johnson, in his monthly report, noted the following work:

8 water connects, 8 water disconnects, 7 water leaks repaired, 1 sew line repair, 3 fireplugs repaired.

Street grading across tracks, drainage work across tracks started, graded road to sewer plant, work on sewer plant, clean around fire plug, fence at city yard completed except for gates, removed wooden bridge at south end of football field and replaced with drain pipe, repair work on filter at filter plant.

16 windows broken at swimming pool, plywood tarp installed in broken windows, drain ditch behind Crossroads Motel cleaned, trash cleaned from Spencer Park and around swimming pool, water and sewer system inspected by State EIA, water and sewer reports to State EIA, water samples taken and sent to lab, work on street drainage.

Repair streets when material is available from State Highway Department, install gas storage tank and pump at airport, start preparation on swimming pool, install gates at town park, trim shrubs and trees at park check out water system.

Energy and the conservation thereof in the home — especially in homemaking activities — was the theme of an interesting program presented to Carrizozo Rotary Club members last week by Mary Ellen Payne, home extension agent.

She pointed out that the appliance which uses the most energy day-in and day-out in the home is the hot water heater. Dryers and washers use plenty of energy, too, as do heaters and other appliances using electricity or gas.

We might come one day to doubling up in homes — in other words, two or more families would live in one house to conserve energy.

In the U.S., 18 percent of total energy use goes to heating, 16 percent to producing steam, 11 percent for direct heat, eight percent to producing electricity, four percent to heating water, three percent for air conditioning, two percent for refrigeration and one percent for cooking.

So cooking doesn't use much energy. And cooking is important, as any hungry man will verify — or woman.

Churches, Mrs. Payne said, are a big waster of energy in that they are heated and cooled many hours or days a week but are in actual use for short periods of time.

She said she doesn't have any answer to that, but that it is a problem.

The U.S. has six percent of the world's population and uses 35 percent of the world's resources.

But, the U.S. also is producing goods and food for other countries — so the actual percentage of resources consumed in America is less than 35 percent.

It is well that we all be energy conscious. With the price of gasoline, natural gas, butane, etc., what it is — we all are energy conscious — especially when bill-paying time comes.

THAT was a beautiful snow, Wednesday, in this mountain country. Mother Nature sure provided a show in decorating trees so lavishly. And snow is moisture — which we need any time we can get it.

Range grass should be knee-high to a graffe this spring. Spring is but eight days away. And Easter is two weeks from Sunday. Bought your Easter finery yet?

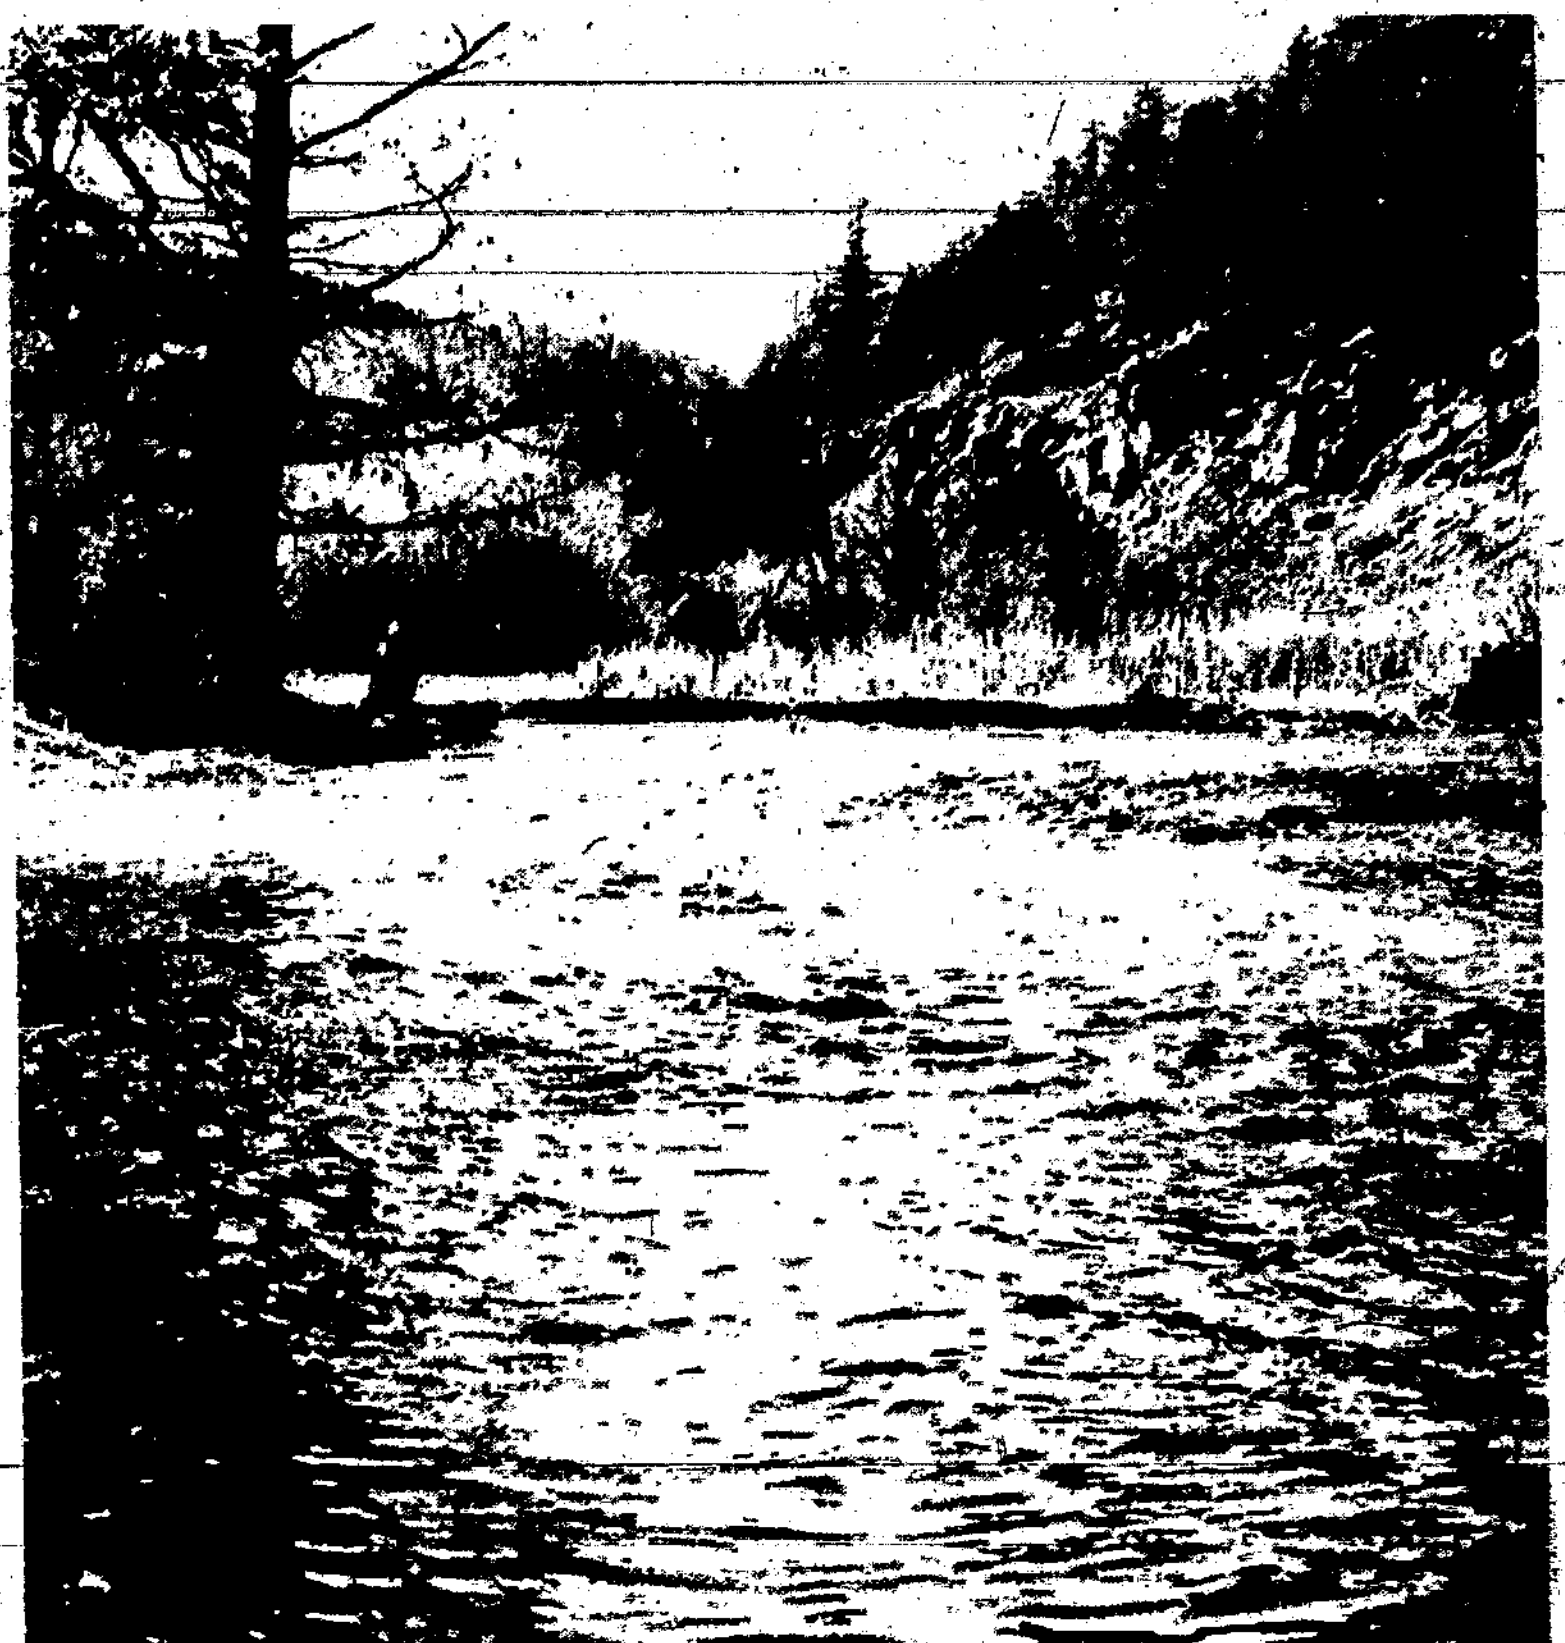

W-W
THE news had a letter from Mrs. N. L. Romero of Tucson who noted with special interest the July 25, 1974, edition of the News which had a big feature on Raventon — once a lively village out of White Oaks.

Mrs. Romero says, in part, "Ancieto Luemas and Maria Librada who were mentioned in the article were my grandparents. My maiden name was Navora Luemas. I was born in Lincoln, New Mexico, April 29, 1902. I am 73 years old...she mentions other relatives and Way West will deal with her nice letter at length on another day.

It's interesting that so many people who live away from Lincoln County, have such deep roots in Lincoln County.

Carrizozo and Lincoln County grow on a person quickly. Nice country, beautiful people. Some rough spots.

Tickets for the dinner and band concert next Monday night are going slow, we're informed. Let's support the Carrizozo bands.

Plenty of water is pouring into Bonito Lake from Above. Here the Bonito stream is wide and clear.

Doctor to arrive in 'Zozo

Carrizozo will have a new doctor, Marie Cortelyou, 39, of Santa Barbara, Calif., practicing in Carrizozo by April 15, under a program being financed by Med-We-Care, Inc., of Carrizozo and the National Health Service Corps.

The Corps has assigned the new doctor to Carrizozo. Financing of the project will be shared jointly by Med-We-Care, Inc., which will conduct a fund drive, and NHSC (Corps).

Meeting Tuesday in Carrizozo all afternoon and into the evening were board members and officers of Med-We-Care, Inc., and NHSC people from Dallas and Houston.

Representing NHSC were Santos Garza and Burdette Morago, both of Dallas, and Nelson Messenger of Houston, consultant to the NHSC in business practices and office management areas.

The NHSC says it costs that agency which comes under HEW about $22,300 per year to pay the doctor assigned to the area and for other cost related to her move. Med-We-Care will pay other costs.

Rules of NHSC require that this amount be paid back to NHSC annually under a formula which would allow Med-We-Care, Inc., to first pay office expenses, equipment expense and salaries of to support staff — with money to accrue to NHSC under a formula after such expenses are paid.

Only a part of "net profit," if any, will go to NHSC as reimbursement for the $22,300 annual expense.

Med-We-Care, Inc., will meet Thursday night to go over contracts and papers supplied by NHSC to finalize the arrangement.

Bill Manire dies in wreck

William F. Manire, son of L. Z. Manire of Carrizozo, was killed Tuesday night in what was said to be near head-on collision on highway near Grants according to information received by his father at 9:30 p.m.

Bill and wife Mary, two daughters, Beth 12 and Laura 11, visited their father here last Sunday and entire family was in church with L. Z. Sunday. They called back here after safe arrival at their home in Grants.

Mr. Manire was born in Lorenzo, Texas, December 29, 1927. His father served as superintendent of schools at Vaughn where Bill received most of his schooling. The L. Z. Manire family moved to Carrizozo in 1942 where L. Z. was superintendent and Bill graduated from high school.

After completing college at UNM with degree in business administration, Bill worked as bookkeeper for uranium mining company at Grants, the work he was going at time of his death.

He is survived by his immediate family at Grants and father in Carrizozo; two sisters, Margaret Karlin of Aztec and Mildred Miller of Lombard, Ill. The funeral service will be held in Grants, probably Friday.

Lakes are full, soil soaked up

Bonito, Alto and Nogal lakes are full, and "everything we have will run off" because of heavy moisture in October and November, Robert Wagenfehr, forester, U.S. Forest Service, Ruidoso, told the Lincoln County News the past week.

The snowpack last Friday at Sierra Blanca Ski Area averaged seven feet — "about normal," Wagenfehr said.

Water was spilling mightily over Bonito Dam through the spillway and was spreading out in low places in Bonito Canyon.

Bryan Cazier, who lives in Bonito Canyon a half mile below the dam, said the "ground is oozing moisture" in that area this year.

Cazier said this has been the coldest winter in the Bonito area since he retired from the railroad in 1963 and moved permanently to his chinked peeled log home, in Bonito Canyon permanently. His thermometer has hit 11 degrees below zero twice this year.

Cazier has been around this area for a long time; he grew up in Dexter.

When he first visited Ruidoso in 1910, only the Old Mill, Wingfield's Store and White Mountain Inn were there.

Cazier served four years as Carrizozo school superintendent many years ago.

Forest Wagenfehr cited an unusual situation. Even with moisture heavy in the soil, wind was taking it out rapidly in the Ponderosa pine areas under 9,000 feet.

In fact, in the Ruidoso area last Friday, fire danger was rated high.

Grass in the Ponderosa pine areas hasn't been grazed in years, Wagenfehr said.

He said trees four inches and more in diameter are full of moisture. "We're going to have fires, but not devastating ones like last year," he said.

However, the tall grass is a hazard in the Ruidoso area because wind has dried out the grass and topsoil.

Wagenfehr cited the "School Fire" which burned off 200 areas north of the Ruidoso Airport March 7, 1974.

"That type of fire can occur anytime," he said. "Contrary to our best efforts," he said, "It's going to go," he said of the high and dry grass areas.

The condition of the forest in general is good, the forester said. But with April and May usually dry, some extreme drying could occur.

Gregg Houser, district conservation officer of Captain, said the runoff this year is normal. "It's not going to cause any excessive erosion," he said unless warm rains occur up high causing the snowpack to melt rapidly and causing flooding.

"We'll probably get some dust from the Tularosa Basin, he said.

"Moisture conditions are fairly favorable this spring," he said, especially compared to last spring which was super dry.

Ranchers agree that moisture conditions are good and that spring grass should be belly high to a big horse.

Bonito Lake feeds Alamogordo and Holloman AFB which in some years couldn't depend on that water source.

This year, there is no problem. The lake is more than brim full as attested to by the splashing, gushing waterfall created by the spillway.

The Carrizozo High School FFA wool judging team took first place in a recent FFA contest day at Truth or Consequences. Pictured, left to right, are members of the winning team: Lee Vega, Brenda Lindsay, Sammy Roper, Gary Lovelace, Bernice Sombrano and Laurie Voss. Gary Lovelace was third high individual in wool judging, Laurie Voss, fourth high, and Bernice Sombrano, fifth high. The livestock team of Carrizozo High also won first place in the contest.

Senior is active

In the next few weeks it is hoped that all Senior members of Capitan High School will be recognized. The order that is being used is alphabetically.

First member on the list is Rhonda Kay Barber. Rhonda is the daughter of Ralph O. and Reba Luck Barber. She has an older brother, Robert, who is in the service; and a younger sister, Rebecca, who attends Capitan Schools. Rhonda has gone to school in Capitan since she was in the sixth grade. Before that she attended too many schools to name, so she stated.

Miss Barber has been an active member of Capitan High School. She was a member of the Tigerette Basketball Team for four years and a member of the Volleyball team for two years. Rhonda has been a member of F.H.A. since she was a freshman. She has held several offices in this organization and was a delegate to the National Convention in Chicago. She also served as District president. She was a candidate for F.H.A. Sweetheart as a junior and senior.

Rhonda has been on the Honor Roll each year in high school and has also been in the Honor Society since she was eligible to do so.

As a freshman she was in the Band and was also Homecoming Queen Candidate. She was on the Student Council as a sophomore and junior. She served her class as its president while a junior and senior. Also, she was a member of the cast of the junior and senior class plays.

After graduating from Capitan High, Rhonda plans to attend college. She has decided on New Mexico State University in Las Cruces. Her major will be journalism or pre-law.

One of the newer members of the Capitan senior class is Debra Eileen Burkett. Debbie comes to Capitan from Three Way High School in Maple, Tx. Her previous eleven years of schooling were in that school system.

Her parents are Jake and Eileen Burkett. Debbie has three older married sisters.

Some of Debbie's activities include basketball and volleyball as a freshman, and also serving as freshman class President.

As a sophomore and junior, she was on the Honor Roll, served on the Annual Staff, was a member and officer of F.H.A., and she participated in basketball, volleyball and tennis.

While a junior, Debbie was also a class officer and in the junior play.

This year Debbie is a F.H.A. member. She was a member of the Senior Play. She has also participated in volleyball and basketball. Debbie has been on the Honor Roll here in Capitan also.

Debbie's hobbies and special interest are piano, sewing, and tennis. She plans to go on to college but final plans as to what school are not quite complete.

Capitan High School students may now participate in a new activity. A ski club has been set up so that those students who are interested, can ski. The students may go skiing on Tuesday afternoons. The students are responsible for their own transportation to and from the ski area. All students participating in the ski program are expected to make up all class work.

Gallagher will speak

The Lincoln County Republican Women's Club will hold its regular meeting Tuesday, March 11, at the home of Mrs. Robert Evans in Lincoln.

The business meeting will begin at 11 a.m., a potluck lunch at noon, the program to follow.

Speaker will be William Gallagher of Carrizozo who is county chairman. He will explain how the county central committee functions.

Four couples recently went to a Lincoln Day dinner in Las Cruces. Winner of a necklace as part of a fund-raising drive was Mrs. B. E. Clements of Picacho.

A Chinese auction and door prize will be part of the meeting next week. All republican women are invited.

Ratliff rites Monday

Last rites were conducted at graveside Monday at Capitan Cemetery for Thurman N. Ratliff, 40 of Capitan who died Thursday night or early Friday at his home.

Burial was in Capitan Cemetery. Officiating was the Rev. John Minor with interment under direction of Clarke's Chapel of Roses Mortuary in Ruidoso.

A native of Pikeville, Ky., Mr. Ratliff was born there Nov. 13, 1934.

Survivors include his wife, Leslie Kinchen Ratliff of the home; five sons, Herbert Leslie Ratliff of Pikeville; Jerry Erwin of Capitan; J. B. Erwin and Larry Erwin, both of Denham Springs, La., and James Erwin of Grand Bay, Ala.; a daughter, Janet Severio of Denham Springs, and a brother, Clifford C. Ratliff of Pikeville.

Mr. Ratliff was operator of the Branding Iron Lounge in Capitan.

4-Hers tour greenhouse

Burgett Floral Co. was the scene of the Happy Homemakers 4-H tour recently to Mayhill.

Marian Spencer, June Straley and Mary Ellen Payne took the members to Mayhill. The girls toured several greenhouses consisting of mainly roses and carnations. They also went through two greenhouses containing various plants and flowers.

County Agent

Carlos Pacheco, Tricia Tully, Tammy Tadlock and Terri Webb were pages at the Legislature at Santa Fe last week. During their stay they attended the daily sessions of the Senate or the House. They also served as messengers at the committee meetings. They enjoyed the committee meetings most as this was where there was more discussion on the legislation being considered.

This is the sixth year that 4-H members have been pages at the Legislature. Terri Webb and Tammy Tadlock were sponsored for Senate pages by John Conway; Carlos Pacheco and Tricia Tully were sponsored as House pages by Maurice Hobson and John Bigbee.

Don't let a small backyard discourage you from gardening. There are a number of ways to stretch that space and grow a surprising amount of vegetables in a limited area.

Vine towers are one solution. Sprawling vines take up valuable space and bear fruit at ground level where garden pests lurk. When harvest time comes, you're in for a backache. To eliminate these problems take towers from stiff galvanized wire rolled into a cylinder. Then train the vines to grow up instead of out.

One garden buff makes a teepee-style tower. "I use four bamboo poles for each tower. I tie the poles together at the top and plant climbing beans at the base." Whatever style you choose, place the towers so they won't shade smaller plants.

Some folks claim you can double your garden space by simply putting a fence around it. The natural climbers such as lima beans, snap beans and cucumbers will crawl right up the fence. Squash, pumpkins, melons and tomatoes can be trained to climb. Use soft cloth or old nylon stockings to tie the vines as they grow, and make slings for the cloth to support heavy fruits.

If you don't want to plow under your entire backyard, consider edging your front and back lawns with vegetables. Instead of conventional flower beds, plant vegetables and herbs along

Program presented

Highlight of the February Capitan Woman's Club meeting was a program presented by Elynn Anderson, owner and operator of The Anderson Collection in Ruidoso. The Anderson Collection of Indian jewelry was begun in the 1930s by her mother-in-law, Brooke Lee Anderson of Midland, Texas. The collection has been shown all over the United States.

Elynn was Miss New Mexico in 1965, and has made numerous appearances with Miss Navajo Nations. She has long been a frequent visitor on the reservations and been guest of honor at a Navajo Tribal dinner. She has been a guest on various television talk shows from Lubbock to New York. She was educated in California and New Mexico, and obtained her masters degree at the University of Chicago.

Members present included Daylene Huey, Juanita Abercrombie, Emmeline Beck, Leota Pfingsten, Kathy Dean, Marsha Allen, Pauline Britton, and Delores McInnis. Guests were Marie Edgar, Willa Stone, Laura Lacy, Myrtle Pope, Shirley McInnis, and Mary Dean. Mrs. Knox, district president, from Ruidoso and Mrs. House, state president, will be guest of honor at a dinner on March 13, at the residence of Mrs. Dick Beck.

by Ralph R. Dunlap
with flowers to form beds and borders. Zucchini make a handsome shrub and potato foliage set among flowers is a real eye-catcher.
Succession-planting is another garden-stretcher. The idea is to recycle space by planting a second crop where you've just harvested the first. Begin with vegetables that grow in early spring such as broccoli, cabbage and lettuce. Follow them with peppers, cataloupes, cucumbers and other plants that prefer summer temperatures.

Or try companion cropping. Plant low-growing vegetables between tall growers and get double use from each row. Try onions next to beans and radishes between corn.

All too many gardens have narrow rows of plants and wide avenues for walking. Try the reverse: make your rows two-feet wide and limit walking space to a bare minimum.

In your efforts to maximize the harvest, don't overdo it with seeds. Crowded plants must compete for soil nutrients and light and the yield usually suffers. Check seed packets for the recommended seeds per foot.

Keep in mind that warm temperatures extend the garden season well into fall. Lettuce, cucumbers, broccoli, cabbage, carrots and squash are just a few of the possibilities for an autumn garden.

Polly's Bulletin Board

It's that time of the year. Everyone seems to have a horticulture green thumb-I am just plain green in that department.

I had a cacti bed die on me.
Once I put artificial plastic roses on a rose bush to liven it up and they wilted.

For my birthday my sister presented me with a terrarium. I was about to transfer my gold fish and angel fish into it when she explained that it wasn't a fish bowl. The following week I had mushrooms and they even looked poisonous! One day I over heard a lady at a meeting say something about her ailing hibiscus. I asked her if she had seen her doctor.

I can't even grow crab grass!
A beginner should buy from a nursery or plant specialty dealer because the plant specialist will be able to offer tips on care. They suggest as a standard potting mixture, one-third loam, one-third humus (peat moss, compost or perlite) and one-third sand.

Even the kids are noticing that except for the cheese there is nothing else around this household that is green and living. In their little friends homes they see "wandering Jew" and "Swedish Ivy." They see flower gardens pushing up gardenias and geraniums. So that my children do not grow up with complexes I have a sweet potato in water for them.

If you would like one for your home, you will need a sweet potato. Put four toothpicks into the potato to hold potato over glass in the water. Keep it wet and the jungle will grow.

P.S. I have one of the kids water it. It may attack me.

Mrs. Washburn named

Carol Simmons came over from Clovis to spend three days with Kelly Gibbs.

Mayor Fuller has announced his appointment of Mrs. N. Royce Washburn to head Corona's bi-centennial committee.

We wish to apologize to the family of R.L. Sharp for the obituary which appeared which was not written for the column from his home town. We recognized his years as a Ruling Elder of the Corona-United Presbyterian Church and his 18 years of community service as a member of the Corona Board of Education.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennan Fuller attended a meeting of the New Mexico Bi-centennial Commission Wednesday in Santa Fe. They found it to be most interesting and came home with much information on logos, tentative plans, publicity and some funding. Mayor Fuller signed the final papers for a $400 grant to be used for the Little League Baseball teams. That project is "Go" as of March 5. Corona is one of the few small towns in the State to receive such funds. The money should arrive in about two weeks and must be matched. We are depending on commitment for the amount from the Lincoln County Commission, but if for some reason it is not forthcoming, the mayor says we must find other sources. He also reports that the engineering feasibility study for the Recreation Hall restrooms has been received, but that this construction also depends on action by the county commissioners on previous commitments. We hope that these and other projects will be funded.

The Highway Department reports only .15 of an inch of moisture went with the early morning thunder and lightning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Keelin and Mrs. Dixon Weigert were in Albuquerque Saturday to pick up Dixon Weigert who had been hospitalized for ten days following a coronary.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Sultemeier Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Bond were in Las Cruces Friday to attend the Lawrence Welk concert. Coming home Saturday they stopped in Hatch for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. Parker and went on to see the Lawrence Laney's at their ranch home near Lake Valley.

Roy Cason was in Clovis Friday to attend funeral services for Rollie "Doc" Harmon.

Mrs. R. L. Sharp and Mrs. L. L. Vick accompanied Mrs. J. T. Pope to Roswell Friday. They stopped by the Paul Cartwrights and did a little shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Winchester were in from the Duran ranch one day last week. After three months with a broken leg in five places Bill has a walking cast but still depends on crutches.

Jimmy Stranton has joined the National Guard and is in basic training for two months at Ft. Polk, La. He will be at Ft. Bliss for two months and then will be assigned to the Portales unit until he finishes school.

Around Corona

Vicky Stranton is one of 15 finalists in the Betty Crocker Search for Talent in New Mexico.

Wee Griffin is reported in unchanged condition at Santa Rosa Hospital in San Antonio, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Robinson and Keith were in Grants Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Rex Robinson and to visit the schools' science fair of which Rex is sponsor.

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Sultemeier and the Clint Leary Sultemeiers spent Sunday in Melrose with the Lon Sultemeiers. Jannita stayed for a few days to play with Christi Jo.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Ray Tyree of Dallas who were married March 1st spent a few days with his uncle, W. T. Tyree Jr. and Mrs. Tyree. Lily Bryan accompanied them.

OS-2 Thomas Prestridge stopped by Thursday. He had been on leave with his family in Las Cruces and was returning to Norfolk, Va. and the USS Belknap.

Pro bowlers to flock to Center

Pro bowlers will be converging on Carrizozo this weekend when the Carrizozo Recreation Center hosts the Carrizozo Open for the fourth year.

Sponsored by the Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce, the tournament has drawn 32 of the top ranking professionals in the southwest, according to Joe Light, host professional and defending champion.

The action will start Saturday at 9 a.m. for the first qualifying round.

The event will be highlighted Saturday night when the amateurs take the lanes with the pros. The pro-am event is limited to 108 amateur entries and is expected to fill up before the first squad which will begin at 5:30 p.m. with additional squads at 7:30 and 9:30 p.m.

The $3,500 prize funds has drawn such southwest bowling stars as J. B. Blaylock, La Luz, John Denton, Midland, Tex.; Arnie Johnson, Dallas; Ed Massey, Colorado Springs; Larry Thompson, Houston; Phil Pruto, El Paso; Butch Calvert, Dallas; and Steve McBride, Denton, Tex.

Light extends a special invitation to everyone to come out and make the visiting bowlers welcome and to "watch some great bowlers in action."

Amateur cooks have job

Chamber of Commerce members, Rotarians and other volunteers will be out in force Saturday and Sunday mornings flipping flapjacks and making sausage at the Rec. Center for bowlers here for the Carrizozo PBA Open Bowling Tournament those two days.

Breakfast will be served by the sponsoring Chamber of Commerce from 7 a.m. until about 10:30 a.m. each of the two days. Cost per person will be $1.25 and the public is invited.

The Chamber board of directors met at the Rec. Center Monday night to discuss the tournament duties and to consider other matters.

Board members agreed to write the New Mexico Highway Department by the deadline of March 15 requesting a public hearing on completion of State Highway 37 in the Nogal-Bonito area.

"Highway 37 is the most important highway as far as Carrizozo is concerned," Joe Light said. It was noted that the Game Department has withdrawn its objections to finishing the highway.

Johnson Stearns asked the C of C to help financially with the Valley of Fires State Park Easter Sunrise Service.

He explained that choruses from Las Cruces will be coming with Carrizozo responsible for transportation, snacks and such. A donation of $50 was approved.

Chamber president R. A. 'Dutch' Cox said that Chamber of Commerce dues are payable currently. Business dues are $40 per year, individual dues, $10.

Business owners, it was pointed out, must go for the $40 figure, not the $10.

March 22 will be a work day at the new Chamber office building.

Mother Nature painted pretty pictures in Carrizozo Wednesday morning—giving all trees a snow and frost covering which turned the town white. The trees, just west of the News Office and others down the street were typical of how Carrizozo looked.

Learning center for adults to open

It was learned Monday evening in the Carrizozo School Library that an Adult Learning Center will begin operations next Tuesday, March 18.

Carlos Armandez, regional director of adult education was introduced by Jimmy Steinpreis, superintendent of Carrizozo School System, to a group of over 30 persons who are interested in obtaining a high school diploma.

Armandez explained that the Carrizozo Learning Center at this time would be a satellite program connected with the Roswell Adult School. Initially this program will concentrate on study skills necessary to pass the GED test and thus obtain an official high school diploma from the State Office of Education.

Mrs. Elinor Olson will supervise the Carrizozo Adult Learning Center. She is interested in eventually offering such basic education courses as English, Math, Reading and English as a Second language as well as a variety of courses based on community interest and demand.

The Adult Learning Center will be temporarily housed in the Carrizozo School Library and will be open three nights a week.

A placement test for the GED Studies Program will be administered next Tuesday evening at 6:30. All persons wanting to begin work to obtain their high school diploma or who are interested in Adult Basic Education courses can contact Elinor Olson at 648-2887 or come to the school library on Tuesday.

Mrs. Olson has a BA degree from the University of Detroit and her master's degree from the University of New Mexico and has post-graduate work in several fields including Adult Basic Education. She has her secondary teaching certificate in New Mexico.

John Fay Harkey Good Citizen died March 8

John Fay Harkey was born in Carrizozo, N. Mex. March 14, 1913. He graduated from Carrizozo High School in 1930. He was in the lumber and hardware business with his father for many years. For some years the business was known as Harkey & Son. Later the business was known as Harkey Lumber Co.

In 1934 he married Georgia Peckham of Carrizozo. To this union five children were born two of which died in infancy.

In 1952 Harkey Lumber Co. was sold and Mr. Harkey went into ranching. A few years later he was in the lava rock and cinder business.

About three years ago Mr. Harkey bought a ranch near Nogal and moved there. Soon after they sold the ranch and moved to La Luz Coronado Lodge where they did extensive remodeling and restoration of the property.

After a long illness in hospitals in Houston, El Paso, and Alamogordo Mr. Harkey passed away in the Alamogordo hospital March 8.

Services were held in the Methodist Church in Carrizozo March 11 at 1:30 p.m. with Jimmy Wells officiating. Mrs. R. M. Shafer at the organ and a song "How Great Thou Art" by Rex Briscoe of Cloudercroft, N.M. Interment at Angus Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Vernon Petty, Tino Lopez, Truman Spencer, Jr., Glen Bradley, Albert Roberts and Tennis Smoot. Honorary pallbearers were Tom Ryan, J.E. Thorton, Wayne Zumwalt, Frank English, William Gallacher, Sr., Luciano Gallegos, Johnson, Stearns, Louis Huffman, Leandro Vega, Jr., Paul Ortiz, Brack Cornell, Jim Lucero Sr. and members of the Mounted Patrol No. 5.

Survivors are his wife Georgia, a son George (Skipper) Harkey, a daughter Jonette Nowell, a son, David J. Harkey and eight grandchildren. Also, his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Harkey, one brother Jack N. Harkey and one sister Zane Petty, two neices and two nephews.

Horsemanship demonstrated

This past Saturday the Capitan 4-H horsemanship members participated in the Carrizozo judging meet. Twenty-seven FFA and 4-H teams from across the state were entered in the horse judging contest.

Members participating were: Gid Allen, Robert Parker on a second team; Betsy Eldridge, Ricky Richardson, Ann Womack, and Vance Sidwell on a third team. The third team placed 8th in the horse judging.

The horse judging consisted of three halter classes, one western pleasure class, and one reining class, with reasons given on one halter. The horsemanship members plan to participate in the Melrose judging meet Saturday.

Joyce Chase

Wedding Saturday

Miss Joyce Chase will marry Timothy Means Saturday March 15 at 2 p.m. at the Methodist Church in Carrizozo.

She is a senior who will be graduated from the Capitan High School May 16. Then she will join her husband, who is in the service.

A bridal shower was held at the Capitan Women's Club honoring Miss Chase, Tuesday evening with a nice crowd attending.

Auxiliary reviews at Corona

Tuesday evening March 4, seven American Legion auxiliary members met in Corona at the Legion Hall for a monthly meeting.

President Minnie Davenport is recovering from surgery and could not be present. It was good to meet again after two months absence, due to bad weather, cold, icy roads and snow in January and February.

Reviewing was through the Blue Star Bulletin on membership and chairmen's reports from Mid-year Conference.

Materials for therapy rolls and a lap robe were turned in to the unit secretary.

The Corona unit is helping a college student from Encino to obtain a scholarship for a second term.

District No. 3 Spring Conference of the American Legion and Auxiliary will be held March 16 in Vaughn, at the Fire Department Building.

Lisa Zumwalt places

Carrizozo OEA chapter members attended the OEA Regional Conference in Las Cruces, March 4. The girls entered in several office related contests while there. Contests included typing and related II, business spelling, and filing. The five girls who attended were: Lupita Mackey, president; Lisa Zumwalt, secretary; Kathy Zumwalt, reporter; Darla Portillo, parliamentarian; and Margaret Chavez.

Lisa Zumwalt placed second in typing and Related II. She will now go to Roswell to compete in the State OEA Conference which will be held April 7-8 at the Roswell Inn.

USMR land use policies lamented

Mrs. Ailene Bruton, Mrs. Frank Martin, Mr. Dave McDonald of Socorro, Pete Wood and son, Henry of Albuquerque, and Roy Tucker, Jr. of Three Rivers, who at one time owned ranches, had cattle, and contributed to the economy of the state of New Mexico presented the following formulation and opinions to Senator Joseph M. Montoya on February 7.

If contemplated action by the Department of Army is carried out by the Corps of Engineers, most of the USMR Ranchers will be reduced to a poverty level; because of circumstances created by the government they can't or won't be able to draw Social Security.

A picture in the Albuquerque Journal, Sunday, 1975, shows the remains of one ranch. A windmill is in the center of the picture. This windmill and others played an influential part in the settlement of the "Jornada del Muerto" in furnishing life sustaining water to thousands of head of cattle, sheep, goats, and horses until 1942, not to mention the ranchers who developed the area. The region furnished livelihood for 100 ranch families.

Revenue from the ranches contributed to the economy of nearby trading centers. Today, this free energy provides water for deer, antelope, oryx, or gemsbok on the 4,000 square mile, "Exclusive Use WSMR". The deer are subject to the slaughter each fall by 3,000 hunters in special hunts and five lucky applicants were successful in bagging trophies in the first gemsbok hunt ever conducted outside of Africa.

At the close of the article so ably written by Scott Beaven, of the Journal Staff, we have a picture of ranch remains. This home is only one of the evidences of destruction. The trinite of green glass at the site of the detonation of the first atomic bomb is fast disintegrating into the sand, a testimony which contributes to 'fear' held by many nations today.

The green glass is not a renewable resource, but the feed and forage which flourishes on the site is. The adjacent home and improvements of George McDonald is a test to that fact. It withstood the atomic bomb explosion, but was unable to withstand the deliberate destruction by man. George's rock barn, a symbol of hard work and planning was to have been a magnificent structure, never completed because of the order to move. His dreams and those of the 100 ranchers, who had homesteaded the land were forgotten, for they were patriots in a time of war.

The bombing of Pearl Harbor was a sneak attack, and the world denounced the Japanese officers for such action. However, our own Army took action against the WSMR Rancher by a secret move in May 1952, by having his grazing rights withdrawn. The ranchers learned of such action on April 6, 1970, for they were informed by Corps of Engineers' Col. R. L. West that they had no ranch units.

Brotherhood extends to foreign countries, but ceases for citizens who had contributed to the World War effort. Sen. Montoya was told. The grave of his mother is all that remains of one rancher's once productive ranch, and another rancher has been offered $2,400 for her 450 CYL unit ranch.

Five years of court action, and the picture becomes more gloomy with the passing of each month, and completed destruction is forecast the senator was told. The ranchers are being forced to pay attorney's fees, appraiser's fees, court costs for their own defense and so far have received only a token of the value of their ranches. At the same time they are helping to pay the salaries of those who are seeking to destroy them. Estate taxes are levied by the IRS on the whole ranch unit, consisting of private, state lease and federally leased lands.

A number of ranches in the WSMR have been treated as such by the IRS, as far more taxes collected by them than has been offered them by the Corps of Engineers for lease.

The unemployment rate is at eight per cent; and the economic future of our nation is in jeopardy. Sen Montoya was told.

The Senator was advised: "Many years ago, our founding fathers, declared that 'all men are created equal'". The Supreme Court in essence is now saying that all men are born equal, for we're sure everyone agrees that creation takes place before birth.

"Are government agents above the law in peace time?"

"A. B. Fall was sent to prison many years back for the part he played in the Teapot Dome steal."

"Richard M. Nixon and Watergate is very 'fresh' in our minds today."

"Have they the right to condone when others vandalize, steal, destroy, burn, and kill game out of season?"

"Do they have the right to use leased land as a private hunting area behind locked gates, with a sign which reads: 'NO HUNTING BEYOND THIS POINT'."

"One solution to this dilemma would be a joint use, similar to that of the adjoining areas."

FHA show presented

On Thursday evening March 6, the 22nd Annual F.H.A. Talent Show was held in the high school building gymnasium. Highlight of the evening was the crowning of the F.H.A. Sweetheart and Beau for this year. The honor went to the Senior candidates, Rhonda Barber and Henry Griego.

Other candidates and their escorts were Bernie Gomez and Pat Griego, Lilly Montes and Loyd Harper, and Altina Proctor and Farrel McKay.

Pianist for the crowning ceremony was Susie Abercrombie. F.H.A. advisor is Mrs. Ray Provine.

Handling the position of Mistress of Ceremony was Megan LaMay and Rhonda Barber.

The talent portion of the program got underway with a spoof of a F.H.A. Meeting. Girls in this skit were Bernie Gomez, Rhonda Barber, Lilly Montes, Darlene Herrera, Debbie Perry, Reba Hardy, Mona Griego, and Mrs. Provine.

This was followed by a commercial message brought by Ricky Phillips and Mike Renfro.

Next talent presentation was a piano selection "Moon Shadows" by Ronda Exter. Rebecca Phillips then played two piano selections.

Diane Lucas then brought another commercial message.

Then came one of the most talked about acts of the evening. This was a square dance performed by four couples from Ft. Stanton. These students did a very good job in their presentation. It was enjoyed by all.

Another commercial followed. In this one, Rocky Williamson got a burger on a "sesame beaded" but Loyd Harper and Mr. Rick Allengot the whole hamburger on the right kind of bun.

The first grade then gave forth with a rendition of "I Love My Rooster," accompanied by Mrs. Leota Pfingsten on the piano. Participants were Dale Booher, Sammy Brubaker, Lee Ann Burch, Melissa Chavez, Christie Cozzens, Eric Exter, Patty Garcia, Becky Huey, Missy Jonesm Yvette Montes, Michelle Nevarez, Troy Padilla, Jed Ponder, Julian Romero, Trent Tolbert, Angie Trujillo, and Ernest Trujillo. First grade teacher is Miss Candace Heltsley.

Next talent act was by the Third Grade. They did a musical number entitled "A Frog Went a Courtin'." The Frog was played by Arty Luna, Miss Mouseie was Renita Trujillo, Uncle Pat was Danny Cummins, the Bumble Bee was Channing Sullivan, and the Grey Cat was played by Rodney Dean. Class singers were Rebecca Barber, Sammy Castillo, Shana Cleaver, Janie Deweber, Abbie Helms, Dan Lynn, Tim Parker, Tanya Polzine, Glynn Story, Hank Tally, Terry Tolbert, and Judy Trujillo. The group was accompanied by Mrs. Pfingsten on the piano. Third grade teacher is Mrs. Opal Peters.

Mona Griego and Robbie Richardson then presented another commercial.

Sally Abercrombie then gave a piano rendition of "Frankie and Johnnie" as the next talent act.

The second grade then presented their number of "Over in the Meadow." Performers were Glenda Booher, Tammy Dean, Shelly Eldridge, Laine Garrett, Peter Haussler, Shiela House, Tiffany Huey, Audrey Daniel, Thomas Mirelez, Russel Polzine, Sheri Reed, Marcos Romero, Melinda Sidwell, Salomon Trujillo, Robin Hook, Tommie Nelson, and Rebecca Phillips. Their teacher is Mrs. Pfingsten.

The fourth grade then performed "The Crawdad song" accompanied by Mrs. Pfingsten.

Next talent presentation was Susie Abercrombie. She accompanied herself at the piano as she sang "Me and Bobby McGee." Any talent scouts present? Sign her up!

Another commercial followed. This one by Sally Abercrombie and Debbie Castillo. (The FHA was determined to get all their sponsors in!)

Next presentation was by Mrs. Maurildia Perry. She gave a reading entitled "Teachers Are Made, See?" It was a take off on one of the famous teacher education classes with Captain High teachers protracting the students in class. Quite entertaining!

Several baton twirlers entertained next. Another commercial came up next (bad as T.V.) This one was by "legs" Renfro a la Joe Namath.

Last number on the program was song by Kandie Huey entitled "Wonder Could I Live There Anymore." She was accompanied on the piano by Susie Abercrombie.

The announcement of the Sweetheart was then made and the crowd dispersed after a very enjoyable evening.

Club to make Easter eggs

The Corona Extension Club meeting date has been changed for March only and will be at 10 a.m. at the Corona gym, March 20. The program will be making Easter eggs.

The Feb. 25 meeting had the 1975 officers participating. They are: president, Juanita Sultemier, vice-pres., Denise Byrd; secretary, Judy Byrd; treasurer, Arabelle Noulter; parliamentarian, Robin Pfeiffer; courtesy and visiting, Ruby Davidson; program, Loritta Proctor and Susan Huey; scrapbook, Lee Sultemier; publicity, Donna Adkins.

There were 17 members present and our 1975 roll is 23 members.

The program was the exchanging of favorite recipes, two of which were chicken sopa and sopillas. They were the main dishes of the luncheon and were served by hostess' Arabelle Moulder, Susan Huey and Vera Calo.

It was decided in the business meeting to pay membership dues for six women to the homemakers council. Also we will exchange program ideas with Lakewood Chapter in Carlsbad.

SENIORS SPOTLIGHT

The focus of the Senior spotlight is on Joyce Ann Chase this week. Seems appropriate enough as on March 13, Joyce will celebrate her birthday. Her parents are Clarence and Julia Painter.

Activities while in high school include being president of the freshman class and being on the Student Council. She took part in the activity that went caroling at hospitals while in Florida. She has also served as a library aide. This year she is an office aide and participated in the senior play.

Joyce likes dancing, riding and swimming after school. Joyce is undecided about any definite plans.

Another Senior spotlighted this week is Velma Irene Coleman. Irene's parents are Arthue and Katherine Coleman. Other family members are brothers Andy and Lee, and sister, Julia.

Irene has attended schools in Portales and Capitan. While in high school, Irene has been a member of F.H.A. and served as historian as a sophomore. She has been a member of both the junior and senior class plays.

Her hobbies and interests include reading and arts and crafts. She is quite adept at embroidery. Irene is making preparations to attend New Mexico State University in Las Cruces, next fall. She plans to major in elementary education.

individual in livestock judging. The livestock team — which Wilson represents — won first place in the competition.

AG opinion affects nepotism

Only the county commission has the power to waive nepotism in county offices, Toney Anaya, attorney general, has said in an opinion — the first of which was presented to the Lincoln County Commission here Monday by District Attorney Robert Doughty and Assistant DA Charles A. Shaw.

The commission, which will have a regular meeting Friday at 10 a.m. in the court house, has the nepotism issue on the agenda.

The commission on Feb. 3 adopted a policy of eliminating nepotism — hiring of relatives in county government.

The decision removed Deputy Sheriff Ernest Sanchez, Sheriff Leandro Vega's brother-in-law, from his job temporarily and also was aimed at Mrs. Leandro Vega Jr., the sheriff's wife, cook for prisoners.

However, District Judge George Zimmerman a few days later issued an order reinstating Deputy Sanchez to his job.

The district judge said that because his duties include approving bonds for county employes, he felt he had the power to reinstate Sanchez. The deputy has been working since. Since no bond is required for Mrs. Vega, her case is different. She has continued working as cook for prisoners.

The matter apparently will come to a head Friday when the commissioners meet. Monday the commissioners merely met in an informal "discussion session" with the district attorney. Several matters involving law were discussed.

The district attorney told commissioners that an AG opinion is merely that — an opinion, but that such opinions carry weight in litigation.

Doughty said he feels that Judge Zimmerman "will have to recognize the attorney general's opinion". But, he said, the judge still has his order out.

Meanwhile, Sheriff Vega said that he understands that a petition supporting Sanchez in the Hondo Valley has over 300 names on it and that petitions are being circulated in Ruidoso and Carrizozo.

"These will be presented to the commission, Friday," the sheriff said.

The district attorney said that if the matter goes to court, he will "step out" because under the Constitution of New Mexico he is required to represent the county commission and also be chief law enforcement officer in the county.

"That is a conflict of interest," he told the commission. If the DA steps out, "the attorney general steps in" to provide legal representation, Doughty said.

Commissioners Monday also discussed liability of subdividers "under old subdivision rules" for maintaining subdivision roads, indicated litigation may be instituted to prevent gates from being locked on the Kelly Stevenson Ranch on roads leading to public forested lands and discussed other technical matters.

No decisions were made or votes taken at the informal discussion session.

Sunrise support sought

People or organizations interested in making a contribution to help defray expenses for the Easter Sunrise Services set for Valley of Fires State Park March 30, are asked to mail or see any member of the Carrizozo Rotary Club.

Or any member of the Easter Sunrise Committee will take contributions. They are Jim Steinpreis, Wesley Lindsay and Johnson Stearns. Chaplain Alfred Kline has been working with other members on arrangements; he is presently residing in Las Cruces.

Beef Recipe Fair scheduled

A Beef Recipe Fair will be conducted Saturday at 2 p.m. at the fairgrounds in Capitan.

Sponsor is the New Mexico State Cowbelles to promote use of beef.

The contest is open to teenagers, boys or girls, with two divisions, 9 through 13 and 14 through 19. Each entry must contain at least 60 percent beef.

Each contestant will give a demonstration and provide a poster of the recipe and a day's menu.

The state cookoff will be March 23 at 1:30 p.m. at the Hilton Inn, Midtown, in Albuquerque.

Nogal activities

A Dash or too of health:

How did you like the diet last week? Stay off the sugar, you "No Cal Gals". It works! Now here is a goodie for exercise: The body roll is a simple quick way to keep the spine in condition. Lilia does it a lot on her program at 8:30 in the mornings in the Yoga Study — She is great, you better turn her on (Channel 5). Now for the roll, sitting in the floor, draw up legs and wrap arms around them. Raising your feet from the floor, rock forward slightly for momentum, then roll back. Let yourself go back as far as possible. Try to roll back into the original sitting position. A pinch of garlic

Everyone should grow a little garlic. It requires a fairly long growing season, so start it early in the spring. Buy some garlic bulbs, split them into cloves, and plant each one separately. Plant them about two inches deep (pointed up) and six inches apart, leaving a foot between rows. Garlic will grow in most any sunny spot, but it prefers moist, sandy soil. They are ready in late August after harvesting, braid the stalks together and hang up to dry.

In World War I, garlic was used as an antiseptic in hospitals. Pads of sphagnum moss were sterilized, saturated with water-diluted garlic juice, wrapped in thin cotton, then applied as bandages to open wounds. Garlic's reputation as health giver goes back to the ancient Egyptians-Greeks-Roman times. They gave it to their slaves to protect them against infection and disease. It was also used as a diuretic and in the 16th century it was pressed and mixed with honey and used every-night for rheumatism. ALL NO CAL GALS! Who are interested in Weight Watchers — Please — call Elizabeth McVeigh and let her know.

H.P.W. will meet at Dot Burkstallers the 13th — Please come.

HAPPENING AROUND THE BOWL:

We had a spring rain last week, and I hope the apricot trees aren't budding too soon. Had a few notes from Nogal, and the first one told me about Gayle-Proter's new grandbaby — Dorcey — having her first lunch out — down town on a shopping tour; Dorcey is three months old — and the grandmother bug has bitten Gayle — just ask her! Ace Porter — won first in a rifle shooting contest, using a big bore rifle at New Mexico State. Congratulations to Ace. Sue and Bob Stearns had a visit with Judy Glover and her little daughter last weekend. Sue told me that Ralph Forsythe is working in Madrid, N.M., but that he will be home soon. We miss Ralph and will be glad when his work is finished there.

Mrs. Guck and family visited her mother this weekend and went skiing. Nancy is working at Ft. Stanton.

Sunda had a special visitor this week, Al Stubbs, took a tour and had a cup of coffee — he was on his way to Ruidoso — and we were pleased to show him around.

When I was talking with those nice men in Piggly Wiggly last week I saw Georgia Branum. She told me that her sister, in Atascadero, Calif., takes the Lincoln County News. They have a fun hobby — with all kinds of rocks, some stones and etc. I want to tell them hello! and please send me a recipe or some ideas from Calif. The A. M. Bland home.

Fabulous cruise

by Mrs. J. E. Phillips

Mrs. Pat Ward's greatest Christmas gift didn't come along until February, but she did not mind waiting for it. A Christmas gift from her family and friends was a seven day cruise aboard the Norwegian MS Starward — docking at Port-au-Prince, Montego Bay and Nassau.

It must be (as stated in the brochure) like a dream come true — with every convenience and every sort of entertainment available — including swimming pools, sauna and massage parlors, dancing, movies in a theatre with the stars for a roof, etc.

First stop was in Haiti in the early morning and there is the Cathedral Sainte Trinite, the Iron Market, gourmet, primitive paintings and a adventure tour up the mountain for a view of Port-au-Prince from 3500 feet and on to Barbancourt. Then Port Antonio, Metego Bay and Nassau, where there were many things to see but the highlight there was seeing the Queen of England and Prince Phillip whose yacht was tied up just beside the Starward.

Now she says "I'll never forget my first cruise, but it was so wonderful to get back to Lincoln County.

At a recent meeting at the Lincoln Fire House, Bob Evans was elected Fire Chief, Bill Shrecengost II next in line and Maurilada Perry, sec-treas. The chief will choose his other helpers.

There was a discussion involving plans to furnish the upstairs for use in holding meetings.

Then too, there was a Lincoln Ditch meeting recently during which officers were elected including Bill Ward, Howard Abercrombie, Bob Evans, Tony Leyba and Mrs. Ciel Dockary.

A big vote of appreciation went to retiring officers Maurilada Perry and Al Booky for all of their dedication and hard work.

No news yet of Mrs. Henry Sanchez's second operation. I'm sure she must have come through in good shape.

Apricot trees are in full bloom and I hope they don't get frozen. Many shrubs are budding out too and daffodils, hyacinths are blooming.
