

Lincoln is super lively village during weekend

Crowds were better than ever in old Lincoln town last weekend when the Pony Express Race, was climaxed on Saturday morning, when an old fiddlers' contest was staged, when the Billy the Kid Pageant was presented along with other attractions.

An arts and crafts fair was highly successful—the parade on Sunday afternoon was well received.

In a dead heat finish, Brhaim Hindi and Benny Runnels tied to win the Pony Express Race.

Hindi is from Duran, Benny Runnels from Nogal canyon.

The riders scrambled to the finish after alighting from their horses a few yards from where the Lincoln postmaster accepted their mail bags.

A third rider Ted Clements of Picacho had hard luck. His horse fell and was injured about 10 minutes after the start of the race in White Oaks two hours and 11 minutes prior to the finish at Lincoln.

Both winners received silver-embossed saddles and will share a large silver trophy.

Winners in the old timers fiddling contest were Ray Pettigrew of Roswell, first; Fred Wood, Boles Acres, second; Dink Essary, Floyd, third and Pal Stevens, Bowie, Tex., fourth. Young Olan James of Corona received a $25 check as the "crowd favorite prize."

A horse-drawn old hearse was judged first among floats in the Sunday parade. It is owned by Charles Ingram of Roswell.

Sunday afternoon, a heavy rain delayed the last performance of the pageant.

Truman Spencer fired the shot which started the Pony Express race in White Oaks. The riders carried 2,100 letters posted to receive the Pony Express seal.

Lincoln Postmistress Mrs. Ellen Faye Womack forwarded the letters to all 50 states and to 14 foreign countries.

Mr. and Mrs. W.F. "Bill" Hayes of Carrizozo assisted with the Pony Express mail program. Hindi and his partner in the race, his son, raise sheep and Arabian horses at Duran.

Judged first among mounted groups was the Torrance County Sheriff's posse.

First were scored in the parade, by categories, as follows: Float, Hearse, sweepstakes; single entry, Prospector; best costume, Hindi children of Duran in Arabian costumes; specialty group, Can-Can girls; most unusual entry, Shepler's Long Horn Steer.

Seconds were as follows: Float, Queen Lily Majors of Magdalena and the Magdalena Old Timers with wagon and mules; single entry, Irate Mother and Drunk; best costume, Mike Hernandez in full Mexican dress; Mounted group, Otero County Sheriff's Posse; specialty group, antique cars, and most unusual entry, two Cox girls, Jym and Jo, leading goat and carrying sign saying, "We Caught Billy the Kid."

Their entry was entitled, "Billy the Kid Kids." Special recognition was given to the Fort Bliss Band, State Police, baby mules and wagon, Clovis Shriners and Red Coats from Roswell.

On the Pony Express Committee, under sponsorship of the Development Association of Lincoln County, were Truman Spencer, official timekeeper; Rosalie Dunlap and Betty Shrecengost, both of Lincoln, plus Richard Clifton of Capitan.

Some 40 other people assist in that program in various ways.

The mail table at the Pony Express finish collapsed when two legs broke as the winning riders slapped their mail bags down simultaneously.

It was an action finish.

Lady stock broker visits

Karon Petty, a native of Carrizozo and licensed stock broker, was in Carrizozo, Monday with Bob Hoffman, vice president of Bank Securities-12-bank group of which Citizens State Bank of Carrizozo and Security Bank in Ruidoso are members.

Miss Petty, who sells BSI stock exclusively, was in the Ruidoso area Monday night and Tuesday.

Born in Carrizozo in 1949, Miss Petty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Petty of Ruidoso. Karon is a graduate of Eastern New Mexico University, Portales and of Ruidoso High School.

In order to become a licensed stock broker, Miss Petty took a six and a half-hour exam from the Securities and Exchange Commission.

At Eastern, Miss Petty was president of a women's group. She lobbied for the university during sessions of the Legislature.

She obtained a teaching certificate from Eastern, went to Santa Fe but could not obtain a teaching position. She went to work for the State Department of Education, taught adult education—a new program originated by she and Dianne Caron.

After two years in Santa Fe, Miss Petty went to work for Cloud Country in Cloudercroft as hostess and doing public relations.

She transferred to Albuquerque for four months to open and manage an apartment complex for Jack Stahl, one of the company's developers at Cloudercroft. While in Albuquerque, Miss Petty obtained a real estate license and was offered the opportunity to sell stock for Doherty & Co.

Miss Petty is a tennis player; she also is a musician and is proficient on several instruments.

County Commission Substandard subdivision roads are made target

Palo Verde Slopes subdivision is an example of "the most blatant ignoring of road requirements" among subdivisions, County Commissioner Bill Hart said at a regular meeting of the commission at the court house in Carrizozo Monday.

The commission authorized County Manager Les Olson to confer with the district attorney in Alamogordo determine "how we're going to make subdividers complete road construction," Hart said.

Other subdivisions will be included in any action the commission takes—on advice of the district attorney.

Subdivisions which are "100 per cent sold", such as Sierra Vista, may petition the county commission to form a road district, much like a water district, so that residents can be taxed for road work within their subdivision. Petitions must contain names of 51 per cent of the property owners in a subdivision, Hart said.

Sierra Vista Estates road are just "a path through the forest," County Manager Olson commented.

The problem is a large one, he said.

Hart suggested preparing a case against each subdivider who is not in compliance with plat specifications on roads.

"Let's see if the district attorney wants to prosecute," Hart said.

Commissioners also discussed The Red Men Club at Ruidoso Downs which is not in the town of Ruidoso Downs, according to Hart. A subdivision which is a part of the private club operation, however, has been annexed to Ruidoso Downs. The commission said the Red Men Club needs a county liquor license, but no application has been forthcoming, according to County Clerk Barbara Lovelace.

The club, the commission agreed, is subject, also, to the Ad valorem tax. Lots have been sold by "metes and bounds" and not by lot, Hart commented.

"Are the village subdivision laws the same as ours?" he asked.

The subdivision features five-acre ranchettes, one and a half-acre tracts and three-quarter acre tracts and club membership.

"D" Construction Co. advertises the layout.

Hart suggested that the district attorney investigate to see if the subdivision is legal.

The liquor license and tax liability were the two main concerns expressed by commissioners.

The DA will be asked to investigate.

Capitan Streets

The commission agreed to judge each request for road work on its merits. The request that Highway Department and the town of Capitan be allowed to use a "spreader" in a paving project was approved. Capitan streets are ready for paving now.

"Any future requests will be considered on their merit," Hart said. "I'm willing to stick my neck out on this particular case."

There is some legal question concerning county government loaning equipment to a municipality.

Bill Payton, speaking for his wife, Louise Payton, owner of Bonito Lou's restaurant and store in Nogal Canyon, asked the commission to do whatever is necessary to prevent a flooding situation from reoccurring at the cafe—just below Bonito Dam.

Payton said that raising the road bed by many inches causes the problem—runoff from the road floods the cafe during heavy downpours, Payton said.

"The blade effort failed," he said. Commissioners agreed—after much discussion on what had been done and what might be needed to rectify the situation—to make a personal inspection this Friday.

Payton said his wife has given the county 1,000 yards of road fill and that the county created the flooding problem.

Hart mentioned an agreement in the past between Louise Payton and the commission which he said, was signed—whereby work was done to alleviate flooding.

Payton said, "It wasn't an engineered plan." The commission in other action:

—Agreed to put a crossing over Nogal Creek at the Bob Stearns place in Nogal. There is no way to cross the creek when it is high, and several families live beyond the Stearns place. It is a school bus route, apparently.

—Approved a one-year contract with Regional Library (Bookmobile) for services, and provided $1,000 to help finance the bookmobile program.

—Noted that per diem for public officials, commissioners included, has been raised by the state to a maximum of $24 per 24-hour day. It is $6 for meetings, or travel, etc., lasting 6 to 12 hours, $12 for service from 12 to 18 hours, $18 for time periods from 18 to 24 hours in state.

There is no per diem for trips or meetings lasting less than six hours.

Corona Benefitted

The commission approved a payment of $600 to the town of Corona to supplement the salary of a recreation center director.

Predator Control

The commission approved the board of the Lincoln County Predator Control Board after 51 per cent of cattle and sheep in the county were represented in petitions calling for continuation of the board.

Board members are John A. Cooper of Tinnie, Charles A. Jones, Capitan; A.W. Gnatkowski, Angus, Lee Straley, Ancho, Tony Treat and Billy Stephenson.

The owners of cattle and sheep will be assessed 10 cents a head for sheep and five cents for cattle to finance the predator control program, as specified in the petition.

Approval of the petition creates the board and program for a five-year period.

—The commission studied the budget of the Lincoln County Fair Assn.—including a $3,500 debt incurred when land was purchased across the street from the fair grounds for parking.

The commission earmarked $2,500 for the fair board to defray the cost of the land acquired.

Commissioner Hart said he is well pleased with the operation of the fair and fair board, that "I only have one criticism...there is not provision for election of officers in their by-laws. I haven't found anything which says who are qualified electors."

The county manager was asked to look into the method for the county to acquire a deed to the recently acquired fair board property.

The county owns the fair plant and land.

—Hart moved that $5,000 for oiling the Gavilan Canyon Road be paid out of the road fund.

—Approved the drawing up of a joint powers agreement with Corona where the county would dig a trench for a landfill and the town of Corona would furnish cover for trask in the landfill.

—Noted that the Lincoln landfill on Pfingsten property has been excavated as has the one at Hondo.

"We will be excavating the one at San Patricio (on Peter Hurd land) this week," Olson said.

—Agreed to check into liability for fixing a road out of Capitan off SR 48—Unit 3 Mesa Verde Acres.

Hart asked if the roads are county roads—especially the one leading into the subdivision. It (continued on page 2)

Democratic women to host state meeting

The Lincoln County Democratic Women's Club will meet on Tuesday, Aug. 12, in the Medallion Room of the REA Building in Carrizozo. A covered dish luncheon will be held at 11:30 a.m.

Following the luncheon an important business meeting will be held at which the group will discuss the state meeting of the Democratic Women of New Mexico, which will be held at the Inn of the Mountain Gods on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 5 and 6.

The Lincoln County Democratic Women's Club will be the 'Hostess Group' for this Meeting.

School opening near

School will begin in Carrizozo at 8:30 a.m., Thursday, August 21. Buses will run a regular route and schedule on that date.

Kindergarten through Grade 4 should report directly to their classrooms. Grades 5-12 will report to the old gym for registration.

Recent State Department of Education rulings make it mandatory that all students have up-to-date immunization records before being permitted to attend classes.

Entrance age for Kindergarten students is five years of age on or before September 1, 1975. Entrance age for Grade 1 is 6 years of age on or before Oct. 1, 1975. Proof of birthdate will be required at registration.

Parents may have questions regarding school answered by calling 648-2401.

Distemper prevalent

Several dogs have died from distemper in Carrizozo the past week or so, and dog owners are advised to obtain distemper boosters for their dogs and to keep them from contact with other dogs.

A distemper epidemic appears to be sweeping the town.

Old-timers to tell stories

At the last meeting of the Lincoln County 4-H Council, members decided to adopt a project in keeping with the Bicentennial theme.

Carlos Pacheco, council president, reports that 4-H members will interview old timers in the area—with their writeups to appear in the Lincoln County News.

Their stories will help to form a history of Lincoln County, Pacheco said.

Starks to host supper

Monday, Aug. 11, the Lincoln County Development Assn. will meet for a membership supper at the Don Stark home in Capitan.

Hot dogs and hamburgers will be served, with no formal program planned.

The business will be a committee report.

"It is to be a fun affair because it is a family thing," Stark said.

PICACHO
Peaceful Village
Polly P. Kimbrell

Picacho, a somnolent little village of about two hundred people on U.S. Highway 70-380 forty miles from Roswell, lies sprawled around the base of the rugged mile-high mountain peak which gave the little settlement its name. Long before Charles Goodnight and John Chisum drove their herds of longhorns across the Plains of Texas to the Pecos Valley in New Mexico the native people of the Rio Grande country had brought their small flocks of sheep and goats and established their little settlement. It nestled cozily on the winding banks of the Rio Hondo protected by the walls of Picacho peak.

Little is known of the history of some of the early postmasters. In 1894 the old adobe store, post office and hotel were owned by Robert H. Parsons. It sheltered important cattlemen, lawyers, judges who had stopped over on their way to hold court at Lincoln and Old Mesilla; and one of the Territory's later governors—George Curry—who came with his wife and sons. At this time the mail was brought from Roswell by a burro-drawn buckboard, driven by Old Romero, the mail driver, who carried the mail over the east lap of the route to Picacho. Here Old Romero changed his burro team for ponies and would haul the buckboard the rest of the way over rough mountain trails to Lincoln and settlements in the Rio Grande Country.

Romero drove the primitive way with no lines to guide the lazy burros. He kept in the middle of the rocky road using a long sharp metal tipped pole he called his "Palo De Caballo" (horse stick).

Martin Chavez in his long life time was the honored leader in important affairs. His practical advice was followed throughout the exciting era of Billy the Kid and the bloody Lincoln County War of 1877-1881. Another, and by far most picturesque character, was wide awake August Cline who was married to a Spanish lady. August Cline had white, shoulder-length hair and deep blue twinkling eyes. Though he never was postmaster this colorful German eccentric of Lincoln County was known throughout the territory as a big hearted friend. A most colorful patron of the Picacho post office.

Byrd D. Garner and Lawrence W. Garner were brothers and natives from Kentucky. They were soft spoken men and congenial with all the natives. When Byrd D. Garner was commissioned Postmaster in 1915 the mail was still brought by horse and buckboard and the driver was Porfiro Chavez from Lincoln. 1915 was a memorable year. The first mail car, or mail bus, was initiated. Charlie Porter, Gene Hedgecoxe and Paul McCutchenon drove the mail and when they came through they stayed at the old hotel and always managed to be on time for Mrs. Garner's wonderful home-cooked meals. Both of the Garners are now deceased.

Albert H. Pruitt was born in Belton, Texas and moved with his family to New Mexico when he was just a young boy. He was former Mayor of Roswell and part owner of the well-known Joyce-Pruitt Company. His wife, Georgia Pruitt, was born in Fredonia, Kentucky and was a half sister of the Garners, Byrd and Lawrence. Mr. and Mrs. Pruitt moved to Picacho from Roswell in 1932. He operated the store and Post Office and Mrs. Pruitt took care of the hotel and dining room. They were good friends to everyone and though both were claimed by death years ago one still hears old timers say, "Albert Pruitt was the best friend I ever had."

During the grim years of World War II "Old Picacho" was vacant. It seemed as though the little village had been deserted but the post office did not die. At that time Viola K. Sandoval, daughter of W.E. Kimbrell, was commissioned postmaster. She operated the post office in her home just a few yards off the highway as did her sister Pauline Kimbrell who succeeded her. Viola is deceased and Pauline married Robert S. Mackey.

The historic old adobe store and hotel burned in 1946. The daughter of the late Albert Pruitt, Polly, and her husband, Fred Bowser built a new store and Post Office on the highway and Polly P. Bowser became Postmaster, Sept. 1, 1948, when the Honorable Jesse M. Donaldson was Postmaster General. Widowed in 1951, Mrs. Bowser married Richard H.

Tom Bragg and Alice Wright kept the Parsons Hotel alive in Bonita area for 25 years. They are shown in a 1940 photo.

Pictured laying pipe in 1942 through the Roy Lang Lanry place from Bonito Dam toward Capitan, Carrizozo, etc., are W.R. Green and Jerry Graves and another man.

Kimbrell. Son, in this year of our Lord 1961, Polly Pruitt Kimbrell is postmaster of Picacho and the once rocky mail route has changed to a modern paved highway; the buckboards have been replaced by modern cars and Picacho receives mail twice daily by a snappy, two-tone, olive drab Volkswagen.

Capitan full of visitors

-by Margaret Rench

Capitan was a full City and a very busy one this last weekend due to the Billy the Kid Pageant. The Smokey Bear Museum was full of visitors constantly which pleases us. Several States were represented last week.

Twenty four people of the First United Methodist Church of Seagraves, Texas visited the Museum and enjoyed it very much. It was of great interest to them. We are so happy to have everyone interested as our Smokey is the great Fire prevention Symbol. He lived thru that fatal fire in 1937.

We had nice showers of rain Sunday and Monday. We hope that happens daily for a while. Everything needs that. We have not had the showers as has been near us therefore we do appreciate that moisture.

The Capitan United Methodist women will have a benefit rumage Sale August 8 & 9 it will be in the backroom of the Fire Hall. Your patronage is most welcome.

Jack and Midge Aldrich of Albuquerque and their daughter and son-in-law, Suzi and Robert Delaware, of Merced, California, visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Aldrich last Saturday. Suzi and Robert are teachers in Merced.

Jack and Lois Aldrich had a nice surprising but very welcome visit Sunday afternoon. Woodrow and Jewell Clements came by on their way home from Lincoln. Jewell and Lois both started teaching in Capitan in 1934. They had lots to say.

Mrs. Maude Kingston became a great grandmother Sunday August 3 to a little daughter born to her grand daughter Mr. and Mrs. Edward Malins of Elmhurst, Ill. She weighed 7 lbs. 10 oz. Her grand parents are Betty and Frank Allemana of Elmhurst. Her name is Kristene.

Mr. and Mrs. John Whitaker, Melanie and Myrum Melinda returned Friday July 25 from Hamberg, Germany where they were stationed for three and one half years. They are visiting her father Mr. Jack Mayfield. Last Wednesday they went to Tucson, to locate a house as they will go there to live August 11.

The Nazarene Bible School started Monday Aug. 4 thru Friday 8. Ages 5 thru High Schools. Adults welcome for Bible Study at the Capitan Church of the Nazarene, 9:30 to 11:30 A.M. each day.

W. L. (Bill) Cook manager of Royce E. Lawson, Loma Grande Ranch, entered his original Wood Carvings in the Art Show at Tuidoso August 1, 2nd and 3rd. Mr. Cooks carvings consist of Western figures or Ash Trays made to order with personal brands and personal boots and spurs with paintings in the bottom of the ash tray. Mr. and Mrs. Cook became one of our residents in early May.

Mr. Travis Werner entered a Roswell Hospital last weekend very ill with pneumonia. Travis, I wish you a good recovery.

Commission

is a school bus route, and the Commission Chairman said the road is slanted such that when snow is on the ground, school buses (with 22 children aboard) might slip off the road.

By a vote of 2-1, with Hart voting no because of the question about whether or not the road is a county one, the commission okayed work on the road.

A question came up about some errors in handling of vouchers. Olson said the system is good, but that several errors occurred where items were added to vouchers after the commission had approved them.

County Clerk Barbara Lovelace said, "You can't approve a voucher and then add to it."

Wayland Hill has resigned as night dispatcher at the sheriff's office, citing "insufficient salary."

Commissioners reviewed a proposed county dog and cat ordinance. A first reading, publication and then passage or rejection are required.

Bob Harcrow of the Highway Department requested that the county provide four cattle guards for where ranch land is being fenced on the northeast end of the Capitan (Armstrong, Block Ranch area).

The county agreed to provide five "grids" which are on hand and will investigate purchase of old railroad trackage for building more cattle guards.

The five grids were given to the county by the Highway Department originally and will be installed on county roads.

Maude Kingston and Doris Pounds accompanied Mrs. Rench to the Annual REA meeting in Cloudcroft last Saturday. There was a very large crowd. Business was taken care of and there were many door prizes. A delicious barbeque dinner catered by the Sideliners. They do a great job and that food was delicious. The fiddlers contest was good. All of that was great and enjoyed by a large crowd. After the meeting we went to the Burkett's Floral. It rained so hard on us as we traveled there and back and two thirds of the way back thru those beautiful mountains. We always enjoy that beautiful drive. It is a great trip we look forward to each year.

Mrs. Jimmy (Linda) Wright spent two weeks with her parents in Animas, N.M. Her mother was in a nine car pile up in a freak dust storm near Lordsburg and Linda went to her, Jimmy went to bring her home last Sunday. I am glad her mother is recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dean, Sr. and Janie Randle and Joe Paul visited his parents in Roswell Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean. Then Janie went on to Eastern in Portales for Home Ec. studies for one week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Palmquist and four children attended the Billy the Kid Parade and Pageant and then went of Roswell for the day last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard House and three children went to Silver City last Friday afternoon thru Sunday to finish playing in the Tennis Tournament. Richard won first in the International Division. He and his lovely wife June won second in the mixed doubles.

Mrs. Isabel (Mary) Aldaz and daughter - Sherrill went to the bedside of their daughter Marilyn Tate and Baby Clint, III. They went via bus and stayed one week and both mother and baby were much improved. Little Clint was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Tate, II July 10 and weighed 9 lbs. Thier home is Pinegrove, La. a very beautiful country.

The Lincoln County Senior Citizens Center Capers tells us August 5-7 P.M. Sierra Blanca Chapter-AARP. Meets at the LCSCC. A speaker for the Regional Office in Dallas will tell them all about Insurance Programs which older Americans like as well.

August 15 - 7:30 P.M. "Womanless Wedding". They are doing to do that again. (If they do not lose the bride or groom). Since so many people have requested that they do it again. There will be a reception following the wedding. Also during the Reception, Mr. Lupe Mendez, Project Coordinator for the District VI Area Agency on Aging, will select the name of that lucky person who will be a guest on the Bicentennial Tour, planned to begin 9-22-75.

August 21-10:00 A.M. Lincoln County Senior Citizens Center Advisory Committee Meeting.

August 22 - 7:30 P.M. Birthday Party and Ice Cream Social.

There are so many interesting items on that program for August. I know all will truly enjoy it as always.

Mrs. Allie Taylor is at home for a while at this time. She enjoyed her sister (Viola) Mr. and Mrs. Joe Winkler of Roswell and their daughter Mrs. Mary Ann Zinzary and two sons of Houston, Texas who attended the Pageant in Lincoln visited her Saturday evening and enjoyed dinner with her and then went back for evening program.

July 8 the Winklers and Mrs. Taylor went to Paradise, Arizona to visit their sister Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hammett. They visited them two days.

Bill is very ill and they got their home and returned to Calif. to be near their children. They can help their mother take care of their father. Bill I do wish you a good recovery. They returned the 12th and Mrs. Taylor remained in Alamogordo two weeks with her grandson and family and took treatments from her Dr. Is at home at this time and feeling better.

Mrs. Allie Taylor became a great grandmother last July 8, a baby daughter weighing 6 lbs. 9 oz. was born to her granddaughter Mr. and Mrs. Joe Robert in Long Beach NY her name is Carrie Anne.

SS beneficiaries increase

The number of people over 60 who are receiving social security benefits has increased by 6.9 percent in Lincoln County during the past year. Tim Hassen, social security field representative, has stated. "This compares to an increase of 5.5 percent in New Mexico, and 3.2 percent nationwide. This points up the increasing number of people who are retiring in this area."

"Here in Lincoln County, 1,240 over age 60 receive monthly benefits. Of this number, 20 are 60-61 (these would be widows or disabled individuals); 205 are 62-64 (mainly those who chose to receive early reduced benefits); 540 are 65-71; and 475 are age 72 or over. Those age 72 and over receive their full benefits even if they continue to work regularly, regardless of earnings."

"Anyone approaching retirement age should telephone the nearest social security office to discuss such things such as benefit estimates, proof of age needed, and other documents that may be helpful in getting the social security claim started on time," Hassen concluded.

Hassen may be contacted at the County Commissioner's Room in the Court House in Carrizozo on Tuesday, Aug. 19; between the hours of 10 a.m. and noon.

Immunization required

The New Mexico Department of Health and Social Services urges that parents of children who will be enrolling in school this fall be aware that it is unlawful to enroll them without proper immunization.

An act enacted by the State Legislature, Section 12-3-4-2 NMA 1953, has been amended to read: UNLAWFUL TO ENROLL IN SCHOOL UNIMMUNIZED - UNLAWFUL TO REFUSE TO PERMIT IMMUNIZATION-. It is unlawful for any student to enroll in schools unless he has been immunized, as required under the rules and regulations of the health and social services board, and can provide satisfactory evidence of such immunization.

Provided that, if he produces satisfactory evidence of having begun the process of immunization, he may enroll and attend school as long as the immunization process is being accomplished in the prescribed manner. It is unlawful for any parent to refuse or neglect to have his child immunized, as required by this section, unless the child is properly exempted. The provisions of this act apply to all children who will enroll in any school, public, private, or parochial, in the fall of 1975. Parents should check their child's immunization record with their private physician or health department where injections were given before school enrollment next fall.

Swimmer Payne places first

Steve Payne of Carrizozo took a gold medal for first place in the 50-meter breast stroke for 10 and under boys in Hobbs last weekend. The occasion was the Bi-District Swim Meet with swimmers from Las Cruces, Alamogordo, Roswell, Artesia, Hobbs, Carlsbad and Carrizozo competing. Swimmers from Carrizozo were Buddy Hill, Steve Payne, Mona Payne, Delores McBride, Jackie Dross, Nancy Dross and Jennifer McClarin, Carrizozo swimming pool manager.

Mountainair chosen for movie scenes

Pete Cornburg of Command Productions has confirmed his company will begin shooting scenes for an upcoming movie starring Marjo Gortner in Mountainair Friday, August 15. Scenes will be filmed in Chisums Barber Shop, Kelley Drug Store, Shaffer Hotel, and in vacant buildings in Mountainair. The production crew and cast, consisting of about 30 people, will remain in Mountainair through the weekend. Twenty five to thirty extras for the movie will be drawn from the Mountainair area.

THE WAY OF THE... West

The Lincoln County News' Bicentennial and Historic Edition has been well received—a number of orders are being filled daily. They also are available at Books Etc. in Ruidoso, at the News office here and at Williams News Agency in Roswell—as well as the Four Winds in Carrizozo and elsewhere.

One old timer was overlooked, G. Hinchliffe of 1209 E. 49th St. Odessa, Tex., writes: "I understand you need some pictures of old days gone by of Lincoln County. Here are a few I hope will help. Mrs. Tee Mills of 709 Avenue D in Kermit used to live at Bonnell Fly Camp and ranch. She has a lot of pictures. Some of her folks lived at Lincoln. ...I only know where a few of the fellows are these days who were in the CCC Camp at Corona and Fly Camp at Glencoe. You might know two of the leaders, Doug Redding and Casey. They both died in the last few years at Alamogordo."

Mr. Hinchliffe sent us the picture below of Mr. Coe at the Bonnell store in 1936 and of the CCC Camp at Glencoe.

There is no end to history in Lincoln County, thank goodness.

Mr. Hinchliffe also sent us photos of Indian ruins near Corona taken in the spring of 1936.

He says MacCandless was a CCC camp leader there. He also includes a picture of a school picnic at Ancho, also taken in 1936. Jim Hinchliffe is pictured in the photo along with a beautiful old 1934 Chevrolet.

Mr. Coe is pictured at his store in Glencoe about 1936. He told many, many stories about Billy the Kid.

Donna Motes of 802 N. Heights Dr., Roswell, writes:

"I would like to buy three copies of your Historical Edition--American Bicentennial--Summer-Winter paper...I saw the copy you sent my boss and was very impressed with it."

Art Helms of Oseura was in the 1921 class picture of Nogal school published in the historic Bicentennial edition last week, but he wasn't named. His brother and sister, Annie and Albert, were in the photo, too, as was Elsie Zumwalt, who Helms identified. Also in the photo and not identified last week were Dallas Cochran and Jessie McBrayer.

Helms' folks lived on what is now the Oliver Porter place and which was the Johnson Stearns place up Nogal Canyon.

Helms said he put enough lead in the old tree pictured on the front page of the historic section—with old wagon nearby—to sink a battleship. He used the tree for target practice when he was younger.

The county commission brushed over approving the minutes of the July 7 meeting at a regular meeting Monday. The July 7 meeting was one where Commissioner Bill Hart read into the minutes a resolution critical of the lack of parliamentary procedure at commission meetings and saying that preparation of the county budget in the office of the county manager left something to be desired.

The subject came up at the Monday meeting—maybe those minutes will be approved next regular meeting, Aug. 29—or maybe they'll never be approved. What happens then?

A rather large house was being moved down Suddeth Drive in Ruidoso, Tuesday—with power lines having to be disconnected and reconnected along the way. Moving a large structure like that is quite a chore—but with the price of housing, necessary.

Good thing the house wasn't being moved race day.

School starts too darned early everywhere this year. After Labor Day would be plenty of time.

Inn of the Mountain Gods on the reservation up Carrizo Canyon is doing a good business. Live entertainment in the lounge, good food and such will make it a major convention center in the Southwest. It's a wonderful addition to the area.

Mrs. Phelps White of Roswell surprised her husband with a stay at the Inn on his birthday and beyond.

Phelps, who ranches west of Roswell almost in Lincoln County, is about, oh, uh, 45 or so.

That's an age when a man needs a surprise or two.

Big doings at Corona this weekend as that community enters into a Bicentennial celebration.

Schedule for the weekend is as follows:

Both Saturday and Sunday, Arts and Crafts Fair along Main Street, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

SATURDAY

3 p.m.—Dedication of park

6:30 to 8:30 p.m.—Barbecue sponsored by Corona Senior Class, $2 adults, $1 for children under 12 in the school lunchroom.

9 p.m. to 1 a.m.—Dance, Jones Hatband from KHEY, El Paso, sponsored by Corona Junior Class, $3 per person, $5 per couple.

SUNDAY

A.M.—Church

11 a.m. until 1 p.m.—Spaghetti lunch at school lunchroom, $2 adults, $1 children under 12.

1 p.m. until dark—Jackpot and team roping and open barrel racing. Sponsor is FFA and Chaparral 4-H.

Food booths and concessions will be available at various activities.

Dedicating the new city park will be Lt. Gov. Bob Ferguson, a prince of a fellow, from Artesia. Ferguson will speak at the event.

That picture on the front page of one of the Pony Express riders dismounting—note the man with the camera who can move fast when he must. That's Harry Bartlett of Roswell, who with his wife and family helped mightily with events in old Lincoln last weekend.

The Old Wortley Hotel did a rushing business over the weekend. Food is good there, too, very good. And the atmosphere is enchanting.

Art Coleman of Capitan, who played Olinger in the Billy the Kid Pageant, does a very good death scene. The Kid, you recall, wipes out Olinger quickly from the balcony of the Lincoln County Court House.

Coleman was so convincing in the play that everyone wound up hating him—and were rather glad when he got bumped off. He had it coming.

There are more roadrunners per square mile in Lincoln County than any other county. We'd bet on that.

Get ready for the Lincoln County Fair, Aug. 22-23. More on this next week—much more. It is a fun time—4-Hers and FFA members particularly like it.

The new fair plant makes the fair more enjoyable, too.

It's a credit to Lincoln.

AA group selects name

The Alcoholics Anonymous group in Carrizozo has chosen a name—Carrizozo People's Group. The AA group meets every Wednesday at 8 p.m. in a closed meeting and on Saturdays at 8 p.m. The Saturday session is open to the public.

Meeting place is the Chamber of Commerce building, 404 Central, where one-to-one counseling services and family counseling are available.

Paul A. Gallegos is the Carrizozo alcohol abuse worker.

Ruidoso Downs racing notes

RUIDOSO DOWNS—Scott The Shot became the first purchase from last week's Select Summer Sale at Ruidoso to post a victory for his new owner and it was a big one. The colt scored a length victory in a trial for the Rio Grande Futurity and qualified for the $34,705 finale. The Berseemboro colt out of Charlotte C. was purchased by Grady Hopper of Dallas, for $6,500. The cosigner was John McKee of El Paso. The other two winners of the trails who automatically qualified were Maggie Burner and Big L. Other finalists are Code Vite, Burned Mug, Henri Hank, No Juan, Tracy Dias, Sky Capsule and Sen's Joy. The finale is scheduled for Sunday, Aug. 10.

TWO GRADUATES of the '74 All-American Sale at Ruidoso Downs were in the money in the $100,000 Kindergarten Stakes at Los Alamitos (Calif.) over the weekend. Sold Short finished second and Miss Reber ended up third. Both were acquired in the All-American Sale by Robert Spreen of Downey, Calif. Downey paid $100,000 for Sold Short, $17,000 for Miss Reber.

JEFF THRASHER and Gary Sumpter pretty well controlled things during Thursday's program. Each accounted for three wins during the 12-race program. Thrasher won on Brown's Bobby Bar in the second race, Mr. Pike in the ninth and Tower Glo in the 12th. Sumpter picked his up on Chargeby in the fifth, Gay Bux in the seventh and Green Game in the eighth. Sumpter took another win on Friday, three more on Saturday.

GAY BUX made an impressive seasonal debut in Thursday's seventh race. The gelding chalked up his third victory in a row, winning the 870-yard claiming event by 3/4 lengths. His previous two wins were in similar competition at Sunland Park earlier in the year.

TOUCH A TOAB received little backing from the fans (34-1) but he came from off the pace for a nose victory in the six-furlong 11th race Thursday. The allowance score was quite a jump from a maiden victory the last time out.

WALT GARRISON, star running back for the Dallas Cowboys and also well-known for his skills in the rodeo arena, visited the mountain track over the weekend. Garrison was honored during Sunday's co-feature and was interviewed on the regional telecast of the Rainbow Futurity.

GRADY HOPPER picked up another fine prospect in Sunday's fifth race. Hopper claimed Gypsy Treat from William Thompson for $3,500. The gelding won the mile event by 2 1/4 lengths. Gary Sumpter had the ride.

WALTER HODGES had a short walk back to the Jockey Room in Sunday's sixth race. Texas Bully dumped the reinsman coming out of the gate, in front of the paddock area. Hodges was a little shaken but otherwise unhurt. Walter returned to win the last race.

GALA'S BOY is cutting things pretty close. The gelding won Sunday's seventh race by a nose after 400 yards. Last week he won a similar venture by the same margin.

RALPH SHEBESTER not only had to watch his speed king Bugs Alive in 75 get beaten in the $315,140 Rainbow Futurity (he finished second to Chick Called Sue), but he had to watch it (on TV) from a hospital bed in his hometown of Wynnewood, Okla. Ralph was the victim of a car accident about three weeks ago, suffering 11 broken ribs. His wife Betty says he's on the mend and able to get around somewhat on his own. He should be released from the hospital in one or two weeks and is sure to be on hand when The Bug goes into the trials for the All-American Futurity, she reports.

NINE FANS went home $1,276.80 richer after Thursday's Big Q. They correctly matched Green Game (3-1) and No Doodle (13-1) in the eighth race with Mr. Pike (10-1) and Youbetwill (4-1) in the ninth race.

MR. AND MRS. JACK BURGESS knew what they wanted in Friday's eighth race. The couple claimed Tradin Room as a nose winner of the $2,000 claiming event. The previous owner, G.M. Bowers of Pampa, Texas, had just claimed the gelding from the Burgess' as a winner last month in similar competition.

A COUPLE of impressive longshots lit the board Saturday. Nose Buster took longshot-of-the-week honors, winning the maiden event by a head Jet Oh ran second in the third race. He went off at 35-1. Bushafire couldn't get the ball rolling in maiden competition so he tackled allowance competitors and won the sixth race by 1 1/4 lengths. He returned $35.60. Ski Bo fooled the fans in the last race. They sent him around the 6 1/2-furlong course at 35-1 to win by two lengths against $250 claimers.

MR. BREAKTHRU topped the $100,000 total earnings mark, winning Saturday's $48,381 Rainbow Futurity Consolation. He took home a tidy $9,614 and boosted his bankroll to $100,539. The colt, owned by Dr. and Mrs. H.D. Hall of Ada, Okla., won the Consolation by one-half length as the heavy favorite. It was his third straight victory. Don Tyre had the ride.

LARRY BYERS, one of the top pilots ever to ride at the mountain track, is still nursing a broken leg suffered about a month ago. But Byers hopes to be back in the saddle this week, thanks to a new-fangled fiberglass cast he may get to wear. "I'll be seeing the doctor in El Paso this week, and if all goes well, he'll take off the regular cast and put on the fiberglass one," Byers said. The lightweight fiberglass cast will allow Byers to resume his riding.

Bicentennial plates on sale this week

New Mexico's official American Revolution Bicentennial license plate goes on sale around the state this week.

The Bicentennial license plate depicts a New Mexico landscape in red, white and blue. It marks the dates "1540-1776-1976" to celebrate 436 years of New Mexico history, while incorporating the nation's celebration of the American Revolution.

The plate also includes New Mexico's official state Bicentennial logo. America's national symbol, the American Eagle, is shown grasping an atom in its left talons, representing that knowledge presently known to mankind. The eagle's right talons, in an open position, represent the future unknown uses of the atom. The design is combined with the ancient Zia sun symbol of the Zia Pueblo Indians.

With the assistance of the State Motor Vehicle Department, the license plates will be available for sale to the public in 20 motor vehicle field offices around the state. The field offices are located in Albuquerque, Santa Fe, Carlsbad, Roswell, Clovis, Las Cruces, Silver City, Springer, Raton, Las Vegas, Gallup, Belen, Los Lunas, Alamogordo, Espanola, Clayton, Taos, Socorro, Bernalillo, and Los Alamos. The license plates sell for $2.00 to the public. All proceeds will be used to further local Bicentennial activities around the state.

Athletic physicals

Dr. Zauacki of Ruidoso will be in Capitan on Friday, Aug. 8, at the school.

All students interested in athletics—girls, boys, junior high and high school—should be at the school by no later than 8 a.m. for their athletic physical. There will be no charge.

Marriage Licenses

Robert Dale Kent and Barbara Sue Topie both of Hobbs.

John L. Genta of Ft. Stanton and Evelyn M. Williams of Capitan.

James A. L. Easley and Anne E. Schwarz both of Ruidoso.

Ten head to fight it out

RUIDOSO DOWNS—Floating Star, once a standout in Southwest handicap circles, returns to Ruidoso Downs for Friday's sprint feature. The 5 1/2-furlong allowance dash, geared to four-year-olds and up, offers a $3,200 purse. Ten head-including such customers as Tux N' All, Bob Speck, Texas Bully, and Bay Gem—will fight it out.

The racing action in the cool pines extends through Sunday, as usual. First post each day is 1:30 p.m. Two stakes are on the weekend agenda. Saturday's action will be headed by the $7,500-added Three Bars Handicap at 400 yards. On Sunday, homebred two-year-olds will squabble over a $34,705 prize in the Rio Grande Futurity at six furlongs.

Floating Star will go into Friday's topper with Jeff Thrasher at the controls in a 116-pound load. The seven-year-old gelding has won 16 races in his career, including a handful of stakes. During the early portions of his career, he kicked around claiming circles at Sunland. On New Year's Day, 1973, he nabbed a 6 1/2-furlong sprint with a four-grand price on his head.

The gelding's first stakes conquest came in

The Billy The Kid Handicap at Ruidoso in 1973. Later, he annexed the four-furlong Ruidoso Speed Handicap, then shifted over to the Albuquerque State Fair where he polished off the Sandia 'Cap at five furlongs.

Floating Star's last victory came at the tailend of the '74 Ruidoso meeting, when he clicked in a 5 1/2-furlong allowance sprint.

Here's the way they'll line up for Friday's topper: 1—Duels Prince, 116; 2—Texas Bully, 113; 3—Bay Gem, 121; 4—Floating Star, 116; 5—Static Image, 116; 6—Nosey Evil, 108; 7—Port Thessian, 116; 8—Bob Speck, 116; 9—Tux N' All, 121; 10—Go McLin, 116.

Duels Prince, a five-year-old, will be making his bow in the mountain country. His background includes two wins—one against maiden company at Hollywood Park, the other over $25,000 claimers in a mile-and-an-eighth route at Sunland Park.

Bay Gem, who's enjoyed considerable stakes success in the Southwest, is now on the comeback trail. Last time out, he confronted the likes of Master Salls in an 870-yard sprint, but had to settle for fifth.

Tux N' All, who'll be directed by hot-riding Gary Sumpter, comes off a rousing third behind First Impression and Miss Curbin in a six-furlong dash. He left the starting gate at 21-1 in the betting, showed plenty of speed right from the start, but gave up a little too much ground in the stretch. Tux N' All was quite a workhorse last year, making 32 trips to the post and coming away with consistent marks of 4-4-5. His '74 bankroll topped out at $11,725. So far this year, the gray five-year-old holds a 1-0-1 tally from seven outings.

Bob Speck also needs to be watched. Last time out, he closed steadily as a 19-1 outsider and finished fourth behind good company.

Indian CAP awarded grants

SANTA FE—The Mescalero Apache Community Action program has been awarded two federal grants totaling $57,450.00 from the U.S. Community Services Administration. Governor Jerry Apodaca's Office announced today.

The grants, announced through the Division of Human Resources, are earmarked for supplementing the funding of the Head Start Program due to the increased costs of operation, for $7,450, and the larger of the two grants, for $50,000, to be used for general anti-poverty programming on the reservation.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith from Albuquerque visited the Roley Wards over the weekend. They also went to the Lincoln Billy the Kid Pageant.

State Fair gains momentum

ALBUQUERQUE—With less than 10 days to go until the deadline for entering livestock in competition for the 1975 New Mexico State Fair, interest is starting to pick up nicely.

Mrs. Joan Hillman, the fair's entry director, said today that a number of fine beef cattle herds were from various parts of the Southwest have gotten into competition. Horse entries, too, are starting to come in.

She noted that some good sheep entries have also arrived.

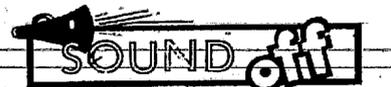

She reminded ranchers that the deadline for entering this year's fair will be Thursday, Aug. 14, at 5 p.m.

"It's amazing," she says, "that most of our early entries so far are from Texas, Colorado, and California. We still are waiting on some of the traditional major livestock entries from right here in New Mexico."

Mrs. Hillman said that her department is processing the mail entries as soon as they come in, and that her assistants are also handling all in-person inquiries and entries.

The Aug. 14 deadline applies to all livestock for the 1975 fair—horses, cattle, sheep, goats, swine, rabbits, poultry and wool.

The 1975 New Mexico State Fair—The Biggest Show in New Mexico—will be held in Albuquerque Sept. 6-21.

Dear Sir:
Thoroughly enjoyed the historical edition of the paper this time. Enclosed is a check for 4 extra copies.

Wish next time the spelling of my Grandfather Branums name could be done right. It was Lin and not the two variations that came out in the paper. Also, my Grandfather Reley was not Riley. My Grandfather Gray, you got both his and his son in the one area—S.T. and S.P. It was S.T., and he sold the townsite of Capitán to the Alamogordo Improvement Co. and did not want them to call the town Gray, so they changed it to Capitán. I had to sign a release to let the sale of liquor be legal on the original townsite of Capitán. They have the same problem in Alamogordo—no liquor can be sold other than the one bar, The Plaza, approved at the time of sale to The Alamogordo Improvement Co.

Am now getting my mail in Alamogordo at the above address.

Sincerely
- Barbara Jeanne Branum

Please send me two copies of your historical edition.

I enclose a check of $1.50 to pay the cost. I read the supplement that came with my paper, it is good. It was like living my life over. I knew so many of the people mentioned and the times that were written about. Also the writers, and the places, Bonita, Parsons, Nogal, Ancho, Capitán. I lived at White Oaks from 1898 to 1907 and from 1913 to 1917 when I went to World War One.

Lincoln County

(This is taken from the 1913 Lincoln County, New Mexico, Year Book published at Carrizozo by the late John A. Haley.)

LINCOLN County was created by an act of the Territorial Legislature in 1869, and was not, therefore, one of the original nine counties in the organization of the territory after it had been acquired from Mexico. It was one of the first created, however, after the organization of the Territory, and at the same time the largest. Soon after its organization the county seat was established at Lincoln, then known as the Bonito Plaza. There the seat of government remained until 1909, at which time the county seat was changed to Carrizozo, where all courts have since been held and where a new court house and jail have been constructed.

Originally Lincoln County covered all the southeastern part of the Territory—about one fifth of its total area. Three entire counties—Chaves, Eddy and Roosevelt—have been carved out of its former territory, and four other counties—Curry, Guadalupe, Otero and Torrance—contain a portion of its first area.

Lincoln County now occupies a position a little south and east of the south center of New Mexico and is bounded as follows:

On the North by Torrance and Guadalupe counties, on the east of Chaves county, and on the south by Chaves and Otero counties and on the west by Socorro County.

It has an area of 4,659 miles, approximately 3,000,000 acres, of which about 1,250,000 acres are subject to homestead entry. A considerable portion of its area is classed as mineral land and more than half a million acres lie in the Lincoln National Forest, which covers the central part of the county—its mountain ranges.

Lands may be homesteaded in the reserve, when shown to be agricultural, and many settlers now reside within its boundaries.

Health Service coordinator visits.

Barak Wolf, coordinator with the National Health Service of Santa Fe, was in Carrizozo conferring with National Health Service doctors, Dr. Marie Cortelyou and Dr. Ravi Bhasker.

In Little League action in Carrizozo

In Little League action in Carrizozo, Carrizozo Volunteer Fire Department dominated all league action by compiling a record of 9 wins and 0 losses. Fire Department went all the way Wednesday in capturing the league championship by defeating J. G. Moore Agency by an impressive 15 to 2 score. Winning pitchers were Mark Vega, with Larry Beltran in good relief work.

Players seeing action in all league games are as follows: Rudy Samora, David Pacheco, Clarence Beltran, Orlando Samora, Chris Ventura, Larry Beltran, John Vega, Mark Vega, David Samora, Dwayne Jackson and Buddy Hill.

These fine young players should be proud to have played in such sportsmanship manner. Congratulations Fire Department and coaches Emilio Beltran and Leroy Samora on your fine championship team.

Saturday Aug. 2 Fire Department met a fine ball team from Corona and played a fine close game winning by a score of 4 to 2. Rudy Samora went all the way firing an impressive one hitter. Thanks to coaches Emilio and Leroy for contributing their time and effort to help these boys in such a fine sport.

Dr. Amy Barton, who is not a NHS doctor, also was included. Wolf, who is new on the job, also met with the Med-We-Care board of directors here. Med-We-Care is the sponsoring agency for the NHS doctors and supplies them with medical supplies, a place to practice medicine and otherwise is helpful.

National Health Service doctors are paid by NHS, with the sponsoring agency collecting all fees and returning a portion of them to NHS—over and above costs of operating health services.

Wolf came to Carrizozo to acquaint himself with the board, the doctors and with the health center—located in the hospital building.

Saturday, Med-We-Care received a shipment of medical and office supplies from NHS.

Wolf was accompanied by Santos Garza of Dallas, who is a NHS official.

Bowl of Activities from Nogal

Lincoln events enjoyable

Activities have been bursting out all over in Lincoln County. The Pony Express ride had an excellent beginning with Truman Spencer firing the gun and a tie win ended the race, Benny Runnels and Brahm Hindi will share the trophy. Congratulations!

Lincoln Town was full of people, tourists and residents everywhere! The craft fair was excellent and the parade was full of fun and enjoyment. The only person missing was Nogal's Fern Sawyer, who has lead the parade for many years with local color and excitement. She was missed in the parade.

Nogal would like to welcome Dr. Ravi Bhasker, who arrived in Carrizozo July 21. He is a very exceptional young doctor and an excellent Tennis player.

A PINCH OF WEIGHT WATCHING! Aileen Beck, Weight-Watchers leader, has been taking the ladies through the poses. She is kind but firm. It's a great deal of fun to lose with others. Jackie Spencer is one big weight loser. Congratulations! Jackie! Also, to the others who have lost!

FASHION NEWS The Busty Smaller Hip person is visiting us today with fashion news.

A line silhouettes are excellent for the top heavy figure; they minimize the bust and add width below the waist.

Tailored, unfussy tops are best. Avoid empire waistlines, surplus closings, breast pockets, ruffles, and loud clingy tops well call attention to large busts.

Cardigan jackets tend to even out the line between top and bottom.

Curved lines make you look more curvy so keep to straight and narrow lines.

Skirts can have all the details that bodice can't. Pockets and pleats belong below the waist.

Hair should be smooth, above the shoulders. ROBY'S BOX Do you know?

1. That Frank Henning won the Futurity race?
2. That Ace Porter and Lisa Zumwalt had their special day? Congratulations to the new couple! We wish them well.
3. That Dot Burkstaller is traveling to help the Sr. Citizens to learn some of her talents?
4. Mr. H. Burkstaller will be teaching tennis in Calif through Sept. Oct. and Nov.?
5. Who sprained her ankle in Nogal?
6. That Opal is busy in the Post Office and we wish her well?
7. That Nogal gave Jody Littern a retirement party that lasted all day in the Post Office. Ma Stearns acted as hostess. Nogal thanks Jody for her many years of service. Had many special favors given the Nogal people.
8. There were also 2 retiring postmasters that enjoyed the day with her? They were Dorothy Parnell of Ruidoso Downs and Aileen Lindamood of Alto. There was a blossom tree wrapped and tied with green blossoms. This was a day never to be forgotten by all 3.

UPW will meet 14th in Capitan with Sharon Bandy.

Mobile home repairs available

A second chance for obtaining warranty repairs is being offered to owners who purchased mobile homes from four major manufacturers between 1972 and 1974, according to Mrs. Beverly Ortiz, Director of the Consumer Protection Division of the Attorney General's Office.

The repair requirement was included in a settlement between the Federal Trade Commission and Skyline Corporation, Eldhart, Lindan, Fleetwood Enterprises, Incorporated, Riverside, California, Commodore Corporation, Omaha, Nebraska, and Redman Industries, Dallas, Texas, and two of its affiliate companies, she said.

Mobile home owners eligible to take advantage of this ruling may contact the Consumer Protection Division for assistance, she said.

The Federal Trade Commission accused the manufacturers of issuing warranties that did not inform purchasers properly and of failing to set up adequate programs to correct defects in the products.

The ruling requires the manufacturers to maintain an effective system to handle warranty-related complaints and service in which repairs must be completed within 30 days after notice of the defect.

If a mobile home is unsafe or uninhabitable, the repairs must be started within three business days.

The firms may delegate the responsibility for warranty repairs to the dealers, but they must regularly monitor their dealers to insure satisfactory performance.

Council aids minority businessmen

SANTA FE—The State Division of Human Resources has been designated by Governor Jerry Apodaca to set up a State Interagency Council to assist minority businessmen.

Division of Human Resources Director, Herman C. Grace, said the Task Force is being set up at the request of the U.S. Department of Labor. The Department of Labor request came as the result of a national task force study of existing education and training opportunities available to minority businessmen.

"The State Task Force will concentrate its efforts on charting a practical course for making available to minority businessmen the proper training in management and technical skills so that their businesses not only will be able to survive, but also expand," Grace said. "If even half of our minority businesses can be expanded enough to hire one more employee, there will be a significant economic impact."

Gracesaid preliminary plans call for the State Interagency Task Force to be made up of appropriate agency heads, with sub-committees functioning in an advisory role. The sub-committees would include representatives from existing minority business assistance organizations, minority banks and savings and loan associations, and technical training institutions.

"This effort to aid minority businesses is part of Governor Apodaca's overall plan to provide maximum service to all of New Mexico's population", Grace said.

Siberian ibex transplant vetoed

The Bureau of Land Management said today that it will not approve the introduction of an exotic animal on BLM lands in the Ladrón mountains near Socorro.

Arthur W. Zimmerman, the Bureau's New Mexico state director, said his agency had concluded that too many environmental risks and unknowns would be associated with the release of Siberian ibex into the rugged area west of Bernardo, about 30 miles north of Socorro.

In turning down the proposed release, he said, the Bureau had to break a commitment it had made to the New Mexico Department of Game and Fish in 1968 when the release first was proposed.

At that time, he said, BLM and the Department had agreed upon the desirability of the eventual transplant of the goat-like animals from the Department's Red Rock rearing pasture. At that time insufficient animals were available to the Department to make a successful release.

"The environmental analysis showed that the introduction of ibex would cause a number of impacts upon native plant and animal life and might disqualify the area for possible later wilderness area designation," the BLM state director said.

Zimmerman said the Bureau has not had time to complete its land use planning for the area, and that an ibex release might pre-empt major use of the area for the exotic animals, whereas full planning effort might show the mountain to be more suited to other uses.

He said also that the Bureau was concerned that the animals would stray onto the Sevilleta Grant which is administered by the Fish and Wildlife Service as a wildlife refuge. The grant was given to the U.S. Government by the Nature Conservancy on the condition that it be managed to "permit natural ecological successions and processes typical of the area to prevail." It covers about one-fifth of the land area on the mountain.

The Game Department had said in proposing the release that the animals would be gathered if they strayed onto the refuge. While there is no doubt of their sincerity in such an endeavor experience by various organizations with big game animals throughout the West has shown that such gatherings are insurmountably difficult, if not impossible, Zimmerman said.

The Game Department had hoped to establish hunttable numbers of the ibex on the mountain and thereby enhance recreation opportunity. The environmental analysis showed, according to Zimmerman, that the numbers of animals that the mountain would support would be relatively limited in terms of hunter opportunity and "in our judgment not worth the environmental unknowns involved."

He said the Game Department had spent sizable sums of money over past years developing the ibex herd and that some of that money could not be recovered. However, the BLM official said, there is a private market for the animals which could very substantially reduce the Department's financial loss if it should choose to sell the ibex.

"We regret the potential financial loss to the Game Department," Zimmerman said. "But we felt we had given such a possibility full consideration in our decision-making process and that we could not place that factor above all others in making our determination."

Other factors in the decision, Zimmerman said, were Department of the Interior and Bureau policy requirements. One is for buffer zones to protect wildlife refuges from exotic animals. There was no suitable buffer zone available around the Sevilleta Grant.

Another Department guideline requires that introduction of exotic big game species on federal lands be weighed against the need to protect native biota, and to prevent conflict with existing or proposed land uses. Zimmerman said the environmental analysis showed the ibex would have an impact on native biota and ecological relationships and would, in varying degree, conflict with other existing and proposed land uses.

One further factor was considered by the Bureau, Zimmerman said. It was a five-year trial release and study proposed to determine, among other things, what environmental impacts the animals actually would have had after a transplant and what possible mitigating measures might then be taken to protect the environment, including removal of the ibex.

"We decided that such a study would serve no purpose other than to postpone the real decision another five years when conditions might be so different as to make a free choice impossible," Zimmerman said. "To release the animals and then determine their impact seemed to us to sidestep the environmental requirements for determining the potential impact before consenting to it."

Buy canning lids for immediate needs

LAS CRUCES—While most canning equipment lasts for many years, a new supply of canning lids must be purchased each season. If consumers will not hoard, there will be enough for everyone, says Mae Martha Johnson, acting Extension food and nutrition specialist at New Mexico State University.

Consumers are urged to buy only for short term needs. Canning equipment manufacturers are working at full capacity to provide enough lids.

Energy committee formed

by Fred Buckles

SANTA FE -- The Legislative Council named Reps. Alvin Castillo, D-Union-Colfax and Ray Medina, D-Taos-Rio Arriba, and Sen. Bill Lee, D-Lovington, among new Legislative Energy Committee members. Lee's Senate District 42 includes Eunice and Jal.

Senate President Prof. Tem I. M. Smalley, D-Hidalgo-Sierra-Luna, is co-chairman of the council that also named Rep. Colin McMillan, R-DeBaca-Chaves, and Senate Majority Whip Odis Echols, D-Clovis, as Energy Committee advisory members. Veteran Rep. John J. Mershon, D-Cloudcroft, was picked as committee chairman. The key panel will help to shape major New Mexico energy research and development with an $80,000 appropriation.

The council chose Rep. Fred Luna, D-Los Lunas, as Environmental Health Study Committee chairman.

Sen. John Morrow, D-Union-Colfax-San Miguel-Hardin, says: "We're looking at major coal development for energy in the next few years in Colfax County." A Legislative School Study Committee member, Sen. Morrow says New Mexico vocational education should be strengthened. A rancher, Morrow pinpointed problems south of Clayton to obtain adequate gas supplies and a Raton area effort to get a San Juan-Chama diversion project water allocation.

Rep. H. B. Barnard, D-Clovis, says many voters in his all-Clovis House District 64 oppose two major constitutional amendments that will be on the 1976 general election ballot. They would permit two 4-year terms for elected state officials, including Gov. Jerry Apodaca, and shift from an elected State Education Board to a governor-appointed board.

Reps. Luna and Dan Berry, D-Eunice, are on the interim Legislative Election Study Committee. The panel's first meeting is set Friday (Aug. 8). Rep. Richard Carbajal, D-Belen, favors three steps to help to restore sagging voter confidence in public officials—a strong political campaign expenditure and contribution reporting law, beefed-up lobbyist registration controls and a broad public meetings law.

Rep. Carbajal, a Legislative Council member, also favors more property tax relief for low income persons over 65. Carbajal says: "With the continuing cost of living increases people on fixed incomes are finding it more and more difficult to make ends meet." Carbajal is also chairman of the University Study Committee. The USC agreed to push development of a comprehensive New Mexico education plan at all levels with other education groups.

Rep. Medina underscored heavy Northern New Mexico voter apathy among young persons. Medina said Red River, Questa and Costilla received water and sewer state-federal grants.

Deputy Executive Director Harrison Smith of the State Construction Industries Commission said petty misdemeanor charges were filed July 31 in a Ruidoso magistrate court. Smith said T. W. Batty, Kenneth Myers, James Ensor, David Williams and Pat Walker were charged with contracting without a license. He said James Darst was charged with contracting beyond the scope of a license.

S and F Corp., controlled by St. Louis attorney Morris Shenker, took first steps toward sale of a major bond issue to fund imp vements at Elephant Butte Estates in Sierra County.

Daniel J. Behles, the firm's lawyer, said S and F Corp. seeks to raise money for improvements by attempting to annex its property to Lakeshore Sanitation District, expand the district and issue more bonds.

A bill sponsored by Sen. Smalley, sharply expanding water and sanitation district powers, cleared the 1975 Legislature and became law. Albuquerquean D. W. Falls, who sold Elephant Butte Estates and other New Mexico developments this year to Shenker, is S and F Corp. president. Falls says Elephant Butte Estates will market lots next year with full utility sub-ins and finished curbing, gutter and paved streets.

The State Environmental Improvement Agency shaped a compromise agreement with Blevins Lumber Co. of Milan. The firm has been in violation of a state air quality regulation on woodwaste burner emissions since 1970. The state has granted three time extensions for the firm to comply. The new compromise allows the firm another year to comply but permits it to operate its mill and woodwaste burner three days or a total of 30 hours a week.

State Highway Department representatives will hold a public hearing at 7:30 p.m. tonight (Thursday, Aug. 7) at Ruidoso for Ruidoso bicycle fans on a proposed state bikeway network.

Gov. Jerry Apodaca's cabinet will meet Sept. 10 at Taos during the annual New Mexico Municipal League convention. Apodaca will address the convention and will preside at a session on energy the same date.

Apodaca named Leo C. Davis of Jal to the State Committee on Children and Youth for a term ending June 30, 1977. Residential electricity customer rates of Public Service Company of New Mexico will be boosted 9 per cent for August, September and October billings under a new Public Service Commission-approved cost of service index surcharge. Belen and Los Lunas area customers are among those effected. U. S. Sen. Pete Dominici will visit Clayton, Springer and Cimarron Friday, Clovis on Sunday, Eunice and Jal on Monday and Carrizozo Wednesday on an 18-county 47 communities tour.

Vows solemnized

The Trinity Methodist Church of Carrizozo was the setting for the double ring ceremony that united Karyn Lisa Zumwalt and Alan Charles Porter in marriage Aug. 2.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Zumwalt of Nogal, N.M. and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Porter, also of Nogal.

The Rev. James Reynolds, pastor of the Methodist Church, conducted the exchange of vows. The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a floor length gown of lace over satin with fingertip veil of illusion and lace. The dress featured bishop sleeves and bib inset of lace. She carried a bouquet of daisies.

Miss Kathy Zumwalt, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of blue nylon organza floored with tiny white flowers, and carried daisies. The flower girl, Miss Kristy Kennedy of Las Cruces, N.M. and the candlelighter, Miss Caire Stephens, Hagerman, N.M., wore floor length dresses of blue floored organza and blue knit.

The groom's cousin, Gary Dollahan, of Roswell, N.M. served as best man.

Ushers were Clay Stephens, Hagerman, Donnie Zumwalt, La Luz, and Mark Kennedy, Las Cruces.

Musical selections were provided by Mrs. Jane Shafer, organist. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor, with decor and service beautifully provided by the United Methodist Women.

Mrs. Porter is a 1975 graduate of Carrizozo High School and will be entering NMSU at Las Cruces in the fall.

The groom is a senior at NMSU, majoring in Animal Science.

The newlyweds are presently honeymooning in Northern New Mexico and Colorado.

Approximately 100 guests were served from the bride's table which was done in blue and white with the traditional 3 tiered wedding cake and from the groom's table which held the traditional chocolate cake.

The Bride's mother was attired in a floor length dress of rose colored floored cotton, with a cotton lace collar, square neckline, and short puffed sleeves.

The groom's mother chose a pastel blue floor length dress and long puffed sleeves.

There are 30 competitive classes in the gems and minerals competitions of the Hobby Show at the 1975 New Mexico State Fair.

Purcella Clan reunion

Recently a family reunion was held for the Purcella's. Their was a two-day affair at the Baca Canyon Campground east of Capitan.

Approximately 132 persons attended from Colorado, California, Arizona, Nebraska, and Texas.

O.E.S. Picnic to be Sunday

Comet Chatter No. 29 of the Order of Eastern Star invites all Eastern Star members, Masons and their families and friends to an annual picnic.

The picnic will be Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Pfingsten at Spring Ranch near Hondo.

Bring a covered dish and enjoy the games and fun, Mrs. Pfingsten says.

Have fun... just don't spoil it by being careless with fire! Vacation time should be a happy time... prevent forest fires!

4-H's Learn Do's And Don'ts Of Dog Ownership

CHICAGO—Joining in the observance of National Dog Week, Sept. 7-13, will be 156,000 young people in the national 4-H dog care and training program.

To these 4-H'ers owning a dog means more than just companionship and fun. It involves responsibility for the welfare of a living animal and concern for the community.

Learn-by-doing activities are the core of this Cooperative Extension Service supervised program. Incentives and recognition for program members are provided by Purina Dog Foods Group, Ralston Purina Company, and arranged by the National 4-H Service Committee.

The owner's obligations. 4-H'ers learn that a dog owner's responsibilities include:

For 156,000 young people 9-19 in the national 4-H dog care and training program, owning a dog means more than just companionship and fun. It involves responsibility for the welfare of a living animal and concern for the community. The program is sponsored by Purina Dog Foods Group, Ralston Purina Company, and conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service.

- Choosing a breed that is scaled to one's living space. An apartment dweller, for example, would be better off with a terrier than with a hunting dog that needs room to run.
- Getting the dog licensed. The license tag on a dog's collar identifies him if he is lost or stolen and is good insurance for the owner.
- Basic obedience training to prevent or cure bad habits. Undisciplined dogs are a nuisance to owners and neighbors alike.
- A regimen of health care designed to protect the dog and the community. This should include regular veterinary checkups and inoculations.

- Feeding a nutritionally balanced diet. Vitamin and mineral supplements are not necessary if dogs get well-balanced rations.
- Proper grooming. Regular combing and brushing help prevent matted hair and promote a healthy coat.
- Program has wide appeal. The national 4-H dog care and training program is popular with young people from 9 to 19 in urban, suburban and rural areas. 4-H'ers are encouraged to keep track of their pets' progress by recording details of costs, feeding, health, training and vital statistics.

Purina Dog Foods Group, Ralston Purina Company, offers $800 college scholarships to six national winners in the program. The six are chosen from among 18 sectional winners, who receive expense-paid trips to the 54th National 4-H Congress, Nov. 30-Dec. 4 in Chicago.

A transistor radio goes to one top 4-H'er in each state, and up to four medals of honor are awarded in each county.

All winners are selected by the Extension Service on the basis of their records of accomplishment. Additional information on the program is available from county extension agents.

Fern Sawyer Rodeo Queen judge

Fern Sawyer, world famous cowgirl, is judging the Queen's Contest at the National High School Rodeo Finals in Gallup Aug. 4-10.

A native New Mexican and involved in rodeo since the 1930's, she won the World's Championship All-Around Cowgirl title in 1947 by competing in such events as barrel racing, cutting horse contest, calf roping and bull riding.

Since quitting active rodeo competition in 1949, she has been involved in judging both queen and cutting horse contests. Merle Moore, president of the National High School Rodeo Association, says that she is one of the toughest judges in rodeo.

This year's contestant is Darlene Powell of Grants who was chosen in the New Mexico State Finals. Fern says that in judging this year's Queen Contest at the National Finals she will be looking for an excellent horsewoman who is also feminine and personable.

Horsemanship is the most important element, however, and Fern expects the rodeo queen to ride like a cowgirl.

Over $50,000 in prizes will be awarded to event winners at the National High School Rodeo Finals. Trice Greer, awards chairman, recently announced that prizes such as saddles, buckles, horse trailers and scholarships have been donated by businesses and individuals from all over the country.

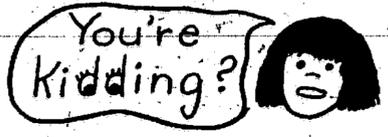

Many Events Over 1,000 high school champions from 28 states and 2 Canadian provinces will be competing at Gallup in traditional rodeo events such as bull riding and steer wrestling.

On Sunday, August 10, an awards ceremony will be held to present the various event winners and the All-Around Cowgirl and Cowboy with their prizes. Many of the winning contestants will help pay for their college educations with the scholarships they win here.

The National High School Rodeo Association does not award prize money since in many of the participating states this would place high school contestants in professional categories. The scholarship awards help further the Association's goal of developing leadership, sportsmanship and citizenship.

The Association was organized in 1947 to promote and preserve the traditions of early Western America working through the sport of rodeo.

The various events will be judged by some of the best known names in rodeo. Winston Bruce and Larry Jordan, former RCA champions will be among the panel of judges as will Fern Sawyer, former World's Championship All-Around Cowgirl.

Polly's Bulletin board

"There was a time when I knew everybody who shopped at Piggly Wiggly," my cousin told me, "now I don't even know everybody at the friendly neighborhood store."

Town must be growing. This month I celebrate another birthday. Recently I walked into the kitchen early one morning and got a real morale booster. Didn't last long though because I realized it was the whistling teapot that we use for instant coffee.

Every family must have a chatter box, so they will understand when I warned 'ours' not to ask Father after mass if Pontius Pilate was a heavy weight boxing champ.

Last August I took Birdie to a wedding. As the organ played, the father of the bride walked his daughter to the altar. At the altar waited the groom and the best man. Birdie whispered loudly, "Is she going to marry the two of them?"

Wednesday I finally decided I would go on a diet. Thursday I read Piggly Wiggly ad in the 'News', Friday, end of diet.

Obituary

Andres Lopez Sandoval

Funeral services were conducted on July 30 at Alamogordo for Mr. Andres Lopez Sandoval, a native of Carrizozo, who died July 26 at Gerald Champion Memorial Hospital. He was 68.

Last rites were at Our Lady of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church. Officiating was Father Saiz.

Mr. Sandoval was a restaurant cook and was born in Carrizozo, Feb. 4, 1907. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II.

Survivors include his wife Nina Sandoval of Alamogordo, four sons, Andres Jr. of San Bernardino, Calif.; Lloyd of Alamogordo; Bobby of Los Angeles, Calif.; and Benny of Redlands, Calif.; six daughters, Mrs. Tony Luna, Mrs. Milo Sanchez, Mrs. Joe Olivarez and Mary Ann Sandoval, all of Alamogordo; Mrs. Johnny Armenta of Germany and Isabel Vega of Carrizozo. He is also survived by 30 grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren and one sister.
