Harman rejoins ZoZo team

Carrizozo Town Trustee Roy Harman is back at the job again. Last month the trustee resigned blaming NEWS coverage. Monday at the regular Board of Trustees meeting, the members of the Board voted not to accept the resignation and Harman was called back to his place at the table. Jerry Hourigan presented a petition asked Harman to continue in office and the trustee withdrew his resignation.

John Andrews, vice president of Matotan, engineers for the industrial park and water system improvement plan, and Brown Edward and Fred Woods, of the Environmental Improvement Agency, were present to discuss those projects and future operation of the water and sewer treatment plants. Arnold and Dorothy Boyce appeared to protest the lack of water pressure in their area. Boyce asked when the new lines were to be completed so that he would have adequate pressure. Other residents of the south side of the town have complained of inadequate pressure. The bond issue which is financing the industrial park construction and water system improvement was partly presented as a way to increase southside water pressure.

John Andrews, vice president of Matotan, engineers for the project, said that the McBride wells, south of town, would be used to provide water to an eight inch line which would run through the south side. He said that the water project, in order to qualify for the federal and state financing under which the projects are funded, had to be essential to the industrial park concept.

He said that the water pressure was needed to take up the loss that could occur when the industrial park went into operation. Hopefully, he said, a side benefit would be increased water to the whole town.

But even so, the water expansion plan will not solve the immediate problem of Boyce and other gardeners in that part of town this year. The progress chart for the water system and the industrial park does not call for bid-letting until September 1.

Andrews also discussed street right of way and paving in the industrial park area.

The men from EIA, Edwards and Woods, said that the town had better prepare for extensive record keeping and testing of both the water and sewer treatment plants in the near future. The men said that town, particularly those whose systems are funded by the federal and state government must meet strict standards which are designed to protect residents of the area and to assure adequate operation of plants so as to protect the public investment in those plants.

The EIA experts explained that certified water and sewer personnel would be required by 1977 and that certification required considerable training. "It would be negligent to put an untrained person in charge of a million dollar plant, and perhaps risk the destruction of a system that should last for many years, the trustees were told.

Edwards said that Clouderoff had just hired a plant manager at $750 a month strating salary. He advised Carrizozo to prepare for a similar move.

Bill Gomez of the New Mexico State University Extension Service also spoke on plant maintenance. He said that the federal government was financing these plants 75 percent and that the state was putting in an additional 12.5 percent. He said that Carrizozo's new sewer voted not to accept his resignation. The trustees discuss problems with Mayor Floyd Siegrist at the Monday meeting.

County GOP uncommitted

Lincoln County Republicans met May 6 at the courthouse in Carrizozo for purpose of selecting delegates to the state convention in Albuquerque on June 26.

Bill Gallacher Jr., county chairman, presided over the meeting with Sherman Atwood, finance chairman and Linda Houstey, secretary assisting.

Chairman Gallacher announced the purpose of the meeting and stated that the policy of the Party in the past was to send delegates uninvited with the intent that they represent Republicans of the several precincts as best possible in their balloting at the convention.

No proxies are allowed this year. Delegates elected must go to the convention or get a signed certificate giving the vote to one of the alternates.

Gallacher called for nominations. The ten delegates elected are: Bill Gallacher, George Sisneros, Mary Skeen, Fred English, W.H. Dobbs, Paul Payton, Sherman Atwood, Fred Poole, Bert Pfingsten and John Cupp.

Alternates elected are: Penta Poole, Aileen Lindamood, Jerry Hourigan, Tillie Dobbs, Stanley French, Myrtice Pfingsten, Billie Stephenson, Joe Skeen and Jim Wheeler.

The Southwest Regional Republican meeting will be in Roswell at Veterans Hall at 1009 North

A means of boasting

Dedication of the Smokey Bear Historical State Park at Capitan Sunday morning should be regarded as a significant New Mexico milestone, for it will mark the culmination of a determined and concerted state effort to identify New Mexico with one of the most distinguished natives.

So much effort has been devoted by the U.S. Forest Service and other federal conservation agencies to make Smokey a national symbol that his New Mexico origin and the near-tragedy and rescue that plumped him to fame have been blurred by his continuing crusade to prevent forest fires.

Too many of the better informed Americans -- those well enough informed to know that New Mexico is a part of the U.S.A. -- think of the state as a land of cacti, alkali and deserts, overlooking its majestic mountains, its vast timber resources, its hidden lakes and water courses and far more than its proportionate share of busy ski slopes.

The new state park at Capitan gives New Mexico a chance - and a means - of boasting that only one of the state's abundant national forests and scenic wonderlands is Lincoln National Forest, the place of Smokey's birth, scene of the disastrous forest fire that almost cut short his extraordinary life span and the source of at least one of the shapely White House Christmas trees. May day passed almost unobserved—a sad commentary on the state of things.

My sister reminded me of May Days past. She said a friend from the Midwest recalled to her celebrations of the first of May. Someone said that there was a time when the May pole was danced in Carrizozo.

I guess when the Red Russians adopted May Day as an official holiday, some of our more timid celebrants abandoned it.

What a shame, it was a delightful, fairy like celebration—a rites of spring sort of frilly, frothy scene painted in pastels.

To those of you who have been deprived of a May Day experience, here is how it is done. In the early hours before grownups get up, children fill little baskets, probably made of paper and painted in water colors, with wild flowers or early spring garden flowers. The baskets are hung on front door knobs of neighbors and friends.

We would hang our baskets, ring the door bell and run. It was important not to be caught in the act—after all, fairy helpers, like fairies should never be seen.

In the afternoon, on May Day, we would all gather at the school yard (in our town it was the college campus). The band would play and there would be a May pole dance. A May pole is a pole erected on the lawn and hung with streamers of rainbow colors. Pretty young girls in long dresses of organdy and dotted swiss dance round and round the May pole until the streamers are wound tightly, then turn and round and round they dance, back out into a full circle.

Small wonder there were June marriages inspired by the gentle beauty of these spring maidens.

When I was a girl, the president of our college was a strict adherent to the tenants of the Baptist Church—Southern Branch—and there were no "close" dances. But in other communities the May Day continued with picnics and dances under the stars.

May Day—I think of bowers of roses, corn-flowers, sweetpeas, lilacs, fresh mowed grass, waltzes, chocolate cake and vanilla ice cream. I vote for bringing May Day.

Name calling: How do you address an unmarried woman who is obviously no longer a "Miss"? A number of you have asked me for my preference and this will be a long answer to a short question.

"Miss" seems to be reserved for youth, for maiden school marms, and for certain distinguished ladies of the theater who have managed an identity, i.e. MISS Barbara Stanwyck.

The easy and proper out for those of us not falling into any of those categories is the newly created "Ms." I like it. Saves hitting one key on the typewriter and one on the type setting equipment; a potent two strike advantage in meeting deadlines.

It has a certain air of mystery: is she or isn't she?

Properly divorced women who keep their husband's last names are "Mrs." Women who return to their original names can do as they please, if their children and families will so allow.

I never really intended to change my name with marriage. I was working on a magazine, and, being terribly young, was pleased with a byline and a picture on the staff page.

One day, though, my new husband came into the magazine office and was introduced only as Mary's husband. "I'm pleased to meet you, Mr. Rich," was the damning name changing response.

That was long before women's lib. It was even before women were allowed to serve on Texas juries; it was during the glorious barely post-bellum days when a woman's salary legally belonged to her husband and all the so called community property was under his direction.

It was however after the constitution of New Mexico had been amended to repeal that section the denying of the vote to "idiots, Indians and women." How about that, daughters, sisters and fellow I.I.W.'s?

It is a little sad to me when people, women in particular, object to the use of Ms. on the grounds that it smacks of women's lib. The human family has made a lot of progress in its treatment of the various branches: women-men; black-white-brown-yellow; slighted-blind; young-old; Christian-Moslem-Jew-Hindu-polytheist-etc.; quick-slow. But we still have a long way to go.

Women's lib, like all else that is good, even fruit salad, can be abused and rendered distasteful even to avid proponents. It does annoy me (that is a watered down way of saying it) when some sweet thing says, "I don't believe in Women's lib." What arrogance that betrays—arrogance or ignorance. It means that old gal has been thoroughly protected by first a father and then a husband; that she is confident that Divine Providence will always bestow the best on her, either by sending her ahead of her husband or by making her the recipient of a trust fund that even depressions can not dent; that she is childless of ones nothing about the fate of her daughters and granddaughters.

Any woman who has been in the business or professional world; any woman who has tried to establish independent credit in a city; any woman who has been married and had property involvement and every widow who has been suddenly forced to face the financial world, knows there is a penalty attached to being a woman.

Women paid their full share of the price for developing this country. Settling the west, and I see no reason why they should not be entitled to an equal share of the rewards. I further, ladies, do not believe that the price of equal pay, equal job opportunities, equal credit is the sacrifice of femininity (that is an entirely different subject).

But as for the proper prefix to my name: If you feel the need of something before 'Mary', take your choice of Miss, Mrs. or Ms. Call me anything but call me.

LEGAL NOTICE

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS EL PASO DIVISION LEON TOURK, d-b-a LEO'S FOOD STORE, ARMANDO L. BACA, d-b-a TRIUMPH GROCERY, and T. & V. INCORPORATED, d-b-a SCOTSDALE SUR SAV, Plaintiffs, No. EP-75-CA-128

V. KAHN'S BAKERY INCORPORATED, MEAD FOODS INCORPORATED and RAINBO BAKING COMPANY OF EL PASO, Defendants.

NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION AND PROPOSED SETTLEMENT WITH BREAD PRODUCTS

Pursuant to Rule 23, Fed. R. Civ. P., YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED:

There is now pending in the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, El Paso Division, the above styled and numbered cause brought by purchasers of bread products. This action is brought on behalf of persons and entities that have purchased bread products in the "El Paso area" between January 1, 1954 and January 1, 1976. The class, the products, and the geographical areas are defined more fully in Paragraph 3 herein.

The Plaintiffs allege that the Defendants, in violation of the anti-trust laws, engaged in a conspiracy to raise, fix, stabilize and maintain prices in the sale of bread products to Plaintiffs and to members of the alleged class. The Defendants deny the alleged violations.

The parties have agreed to settle all claims by all persons against any or all of the Defendants for alleged violations of the anti-trust laws relating to sales of bread products between January 1, 1954 and January 1, 1976, to any person or entity, whether direct or indirect. You may be a member of the class hereinafter defined and established by this Court for purposes of settlement. If so, your rights may be affected by the pendency of this action and the settlement described herein.

This Notice is not to be understood as an expression of any opinion by this Court as to the merits of any of the claims or defenses asserted by either side in this action, but is furnished for the sole purpose of informing you of its pendency and of the settlement described herein so that you may make appropriate decisions as to what steps, if any, you may wish to take in relation to this action and its settlement and your rights therein.

1. This Action. The above numbered action alleges in substance a conspiracy among the Defendants and others to raise, fix, stabilize and maintain prices and discounts at which bread products were sold by the Defendants bakeries. The Plaintiffs allege that they and each alleged class member paid higher prices for bread products than they would have paid in the absence of the alleged conspiracy. The conspiracy is alleged to have begun as early as 1954, and its effect is alleged to have continued to at least December 31, 1975. Plaintiffs seek recovery of money damages for three times the amount of alleged overcharges on purchases by the Plaintiffs and by members of the class together with recovery of counsel fees and costs.

Each Defendant has taken the position that it has not violated any law, has denied any liability whatsoever, continues to deny all allegations of wrongdoing asserted by Plaintiffs, and disclaims any liability with respect thereto. The Defendants contend that there was no illegal conspiracy or agreement concerning prices or discounts of bread products and deny that the Plaintiffs or the members of the alleged class were injured as alleged or are entitled to any damages. Defendants maintain that there is no substance to the charges made against them and that they have valid defenses thereto. The defenses enumerated by the Defendants include their contention that the claims of Plaintiffs and of members of the alleged class are barred by the applicable statute of limitations, that Plaintiffs lack standing to sue, and that any price stabilization resulted from natural and free market pressures resulting in lower price per unit costs and, as a result, purchasers have not been damaged.

Plaintiffs' attorney has made an investigation of the facts and the law relating to the matters involved in this action, and while discovery has not been entirely completed, Plaintiffs' attorney has inspected full and complete economic data relating to the Defendants' financial condition and operations. This information has been reviewed by expert analysis employed by Plaintiffs' attorney. After such review, Plaintiffs' attorney has considered the many sharply contested issues that will be involved, the risks attending further prosecution of this litigation (including questions concerning whether this suit could be maintained as a class action under Rule 23, Fed. R. Civ. P., the statute of limitations, the problems of proof as against each individual Defendant, and individual Plaintiffs' problems of proving actual damage for the period of the alleged conspiracy) and the likelihood that if a recovery were made in excess of the amount offered in settlement, the ability of one or more of the Defendants to continue in business would be jeopardized. Jeopardizing the ability of any of the Defendants to operate could result in a reduction of competition, an oligopoly in the business of bread products in the El Paso area and price leadership resulting in increased prices over the long run. As a result, Plaintiffs and their counsel have concluded that the benefits to be received pursuant to the proposed settlement of this case upon the terms provided herein are in the best interests of the Plaintiffs and the proposed class.

Defendants desire to settle and compromise the claims asserted against them in order to avoid the further substantial expenses and burden of protracted litigation, in order to avoid jeopardizing their financial condition, and to put this controversy to an end.

The preceding and subsequent description of the litigation and settlement is only a summary set forth in detail sufficient to permit you to decide what steps, if any, you wish to take with reference to this litigation. The pleadings, court orders and other documents regarding the suit are filed at the office of the Clerk of the United States District Court, Western District of Texas, El Paso Division, United States Courthouse, Room 108, El Paso, Texas, 79901, and are available for your inspection at that office. In addition, the attorney for the Plaintiffs will provide you with further information that you may request.

2. Claims. Unless you elect to be excluded from this action as hereinafter provided, this settlement, if consummated, shall bar any present or potential future claim under the anti-trust laws against Defendants, their assigns, subsidiaries, stockholders, officers, directors, partners, agents and employees, past and present, where such claims are based on sales of bread products made in the El Paso area by any person, directly or indirectly, to any person or entity from January 1, 1954 until January 1, 1976.

UNLESS YOU EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM THIS SETTLEMENT, ALL CLAIMS BASED ON SALES OF BREAD PRODUCTS BETWEEN JANUARY 1, 1954, AND JANUARY 1, 1976, WILL BE BARRED. IF YOU ELECT TO PARTICIPATE IN THE SETTLEMENT, YOUR RECOVERY WILL BE BASED SOLELY UPON PURCHASES MADE BETWEEN JANUARY 1, 1954 AND JANUARY 1, 1976.

3. The Class. The Class will include all persons who have purchased, directly or indirectly, any bread product between January 1, 1954 and January 1, 1976 from any of the Defendants, directly or indirectly, in the El Paso area. The words "person" or "persons" means, refers to and includes individuals, corporations, partnerships, trusts, firms, associations, and any and all other entities of whatever kind or character, and whether public or private, except for the United States of America or any agency of the United States Government. The term "bread products" means bread, rolls, buns, pies, cakes, sweetgoods and all other products produced, sold or distributed by any of the settling Defendants. The "El Paso area" refers to the following Texas counties: El Paso, Hudspeth and Culberson; and the following New Mexico counties: Dona Ana, Otero, Lincoln, Hidalgo, Grant, Sierra and Luna.

4. Settlement. In final settlement of all present and potential claims, including claims for costs and attorney's fees, against the Defendants and related persons (such as the Defendants' subsidiaries, directors, officers and employees) alleging violation of the anti-trust laws relating to sales made directly or indirectly to any person of bread products between January 1, 1954 and January 1, 1976, the Defendants have severally agreed to pay, when judgment becomes final, the total sum of $510,000.00. That sum is to be paid in four payments as follows:

One-third within thirty (30) days of the date this proposed settlement is approved by a final judgment, and the balance in three successive, equal payments 180 days apart, commencing 180 days from the date of the first payment aforesaid.

Pursuant to the Plan of Distribution conditionally approved heretofore by order of the Court for the purpose of providing notice of the settlement and of the hearing for final approval thereof, the settlement shall be shared by all of the members of the class in the proportion which their claims during the period from January 1, 1954 to January 1, 1976 bear to the total claims of all claimants during this same period. Claims for purchases made between January 1, 1954 and December 31, 1969 and January 1, 1974 through January 1, 1976, will be allocated 10 percent of the value of claims for purchases made between January 1, 1970 and December 31, 1973.

Under the proposed Plan of Distribution, computation of purchases will be upon a "unit" basis, each package of bread products purchased shall constitute one unit, e.g., each loaf of bread, each package of rolls, etc., shall constitute one unit.

Claims may be made by reporting, without duplication, the number of bread product units purchased during each relevant year or by reporting the claimants' dollar purchases of all bread products for each relevant year.

Pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the costs of administration of the Settlement Fund, the cost of this Notice, and the fees of Plaintiffs' counsel shall be paid from the Settlement Fund. Arthur Gochman, an attorney at law, is designated class counsel and is responsible for administration of this Settlement Fund, except as otherwise may be provided, and subject to supervision and further orders of this Court. The total amount of costs and attorney's fees is estimated to be approximately $150,000.00.

Each member who does not elect to be excluded from this action as provided below shall be bound by the Plan of Distribution if it is finally approved by the Court.

5. Advantages and Disadvantages of the Proposed Settlement. As is true of most settlements, this Proposed Settlement has advantages and disadvantages to both the class members and the Defendants.

Among the advantages which accrue to the class members are assured partial recoveries for all valid claims in the claim periods, payment within a reasonably and comparatively short period of time, significantly smaller costs of litigation, and minimum disruption of the regular business functions of class members for the purpose of proof of damages. The primary disadvantage of participation in this settlement is that class members will forego the opportunity to establish Defendants' liability, if any, at trial and to prove and receive greater monetary damages than would be recovered pursuant to this settlement.

The factors which entered into the decision by Plaintiffs' counsel to recommend this settlement are:

a. The fact that any recovery in excess of the amount agreed upon, $510,000.00, would jeopardize the ability of one or more of the Defendants to continue in full operation and to maintain the ability to be competitive in the area. Any reduction of competition in the El Paso area in the bakery industry would likely result in oligopoly, price leadership, and eventual price increases.

b. The difficulties in proving an anti-trust conspiracy action, both as to liability and damage. Counsel for Plaintiffs believe these difficulties of proof for the purchases made from January 1, 1954 to December 31, 1969 and from January 1, 1974 to January 1, 1976, are much more difficult and tenuous than between January 1, 1970 and December 31, 1973, and have thus recommended that the purchases made during those periods should be valued at 10 percent of the claims for purchases made between January 1, 1970 and December 31, 1973. Furthermore, counsel for Plaintiffs advise that they have no evidence of illegal conspiracy before January 1, 1954 or after January 1, 1976 and recommend that there be no recovery on claims made before January 1, 1954 or after January 1, 1976.

c. The time lapse between institution of litigation and final termination.

d. Problems relating to the statute of limitations.

e. Problems relating to proof that any price stabilization action among the Defendants resulted in prices being raised rather than lowered.

f. The fact that any class member not wishing to be bound by the settlement may exclude itself therefrom and, subject to applicable law, proceed on its own behalf.

6. Contingencies. This settlement is subject to the right of any settling Defendant to withdraw from the Settlement Agreement in the event that sufficient class members have requested exclusion and such exclusions are believed substantial by the Defendants. Also, the Court might not approve this settlement whether there are exclusions or not.

7. Hearing. Pursuant to an order of the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, El Paso Division, dated April 29, 1976, a hearing will be held before the Honorable John H. Wood, Jr., United States District Judge in the United States District Courtroom of the United States Courthouse, El Paso, Texas on the 14th day of June, 1976, at 8:00 o'clock A.M., at which time the Court will consider whether the Settlement Class should be determined and ordered to be final and whether the Class Representatives shall be as provided in the Settlement Agreement; whether the Plan of Distribution submitted to the Court shall be approved; whether the settlement of this action in the manner and on the terms set forth in the Settlement Agreement shall be approved as fair, reasonable and adequate; whether the applications for attorney's fees and other expenses, which are expected to total approximately $150,000.00, shall be approved; and whether the final judgments of dismissal with prejudice shall be entered against all settling Plaintiffs and members of the class who have not timely excluded themselves from these actions.

At that hearing, any member of the class who has not timely excluded himself from this action and who wishes to oppose the settlement of this action on the terms described herein and in the Settlement Agreement, or to oppose the application for attorney's fees or other expenses, or to interpose any other opposition to the settlement of any of its terms, may present evidence or argument relevant to the issues, provided that any such member has filed and served a timely written notice of intention to appear, as described below.

NOW, THEREFORE, TAKE NOTICE:

1. Unless, on or before June 21, 1976, you file with the Clerk of this Court a request to be excluded from this action, you will be bound to look only to the Settlement Fund referred to above for relief as to any claims you may have against the Defendants for anti-trust violations in sales of bread products in the El Paso area by any person between January 1, 1954 and January 1, 1976. Should you decide to participate in the settlement without objection, the amount of your recovery will be based solely upon purchases made by you between January 1, 1954 and January 1, 1976. If you elect to be excluded from this action, you must file with the Clerk of this Court a request to be excluded substantially in the form of the "Election to be Excluded" shown below. If you send such a request, you cannot participate in this settlement, you will be excluded from the classes established, and will not be bound by any judgments entered herein.

2. If you do not elect to be excluded from this action, you will nevertheless be precluded from participating in this settlement unless you mail to the Clerk of the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, United States Courthouse, Room 108, El Paso, Texas, 79901, not later than July 6, 1976, a sworn written statement of your claim using the form of "Statement of Claim" which appears below, or a substantially identical form. If additional copies of the form are desired, they may be obtained upon written request therefor to the Clerk of the Court, United States Courthouse, Room 108, El Paso, Texas, 79901.

3. If you are a member of the class and either do not (a) elect to be excluded on or before June 21, 1976, or (b) do not file a valid Statement of Claim on or before July 6, 1976, you will be barred from recovery in this settlement, you will be bound by the dismissal of this action if the Court approves this settlement, and you will not receive notice of any future proceedings, hearings, orders or other matters.

4. On June 14, 1976, at 8:00 o'clock A.M., a hearing pursuant to Rule 23(d) and (e), Fed. R. Civ. P., will be held before Judge John H. Wood, Jr. in the U.S. Courthouse, United States Courthouse, El Paso, Texas, at which time the Court will determine whether final approval of the class should be made and whether the settlement of this case on the terms set forth above should be approved. Any member of the class may, either by appearance or in writing, show cause why:

(a) The class should not be ordered to be a final and permanent class for purposes of the above numbered anti-trust action;

(b) The class counsel should not be as provided in the Settlement Agreement;

(c) The settlement of this action in the manner and on the terms set forth above, and in greater detail in the Settlement Agreement, should not be approved as fair, reasonable and adequate;

(d) The application for attorney's fees and other expenses should not be approved;

(e) Final judgment of dismissal with prejudice should not be entered against all Plaintiffs and members of the class who have not timely excluded themselves.

If you desire to appear at this hearing, you must file a written statement of your intention to do so. If you desire to appear through counsel, your counsel must file a notice of such intention in which the basis of your objection is stated. You are not required to appear, but may file your objection in writing.

and other papers must be filed with the Clerk of the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, United States Courthouse, Room 108, El Paso, Texas, 79901, on or before June 7, 1976. Copies of all such notices, objections or other papers must be served in person or by mail upon Plaintiffs' Representative Counsel, Arthur Gochman, Trust Building, San Antonio, Texas, 78205, and Defendants' Representative Counsel, Sam Sparks, Esq., P. O. Drawer 1077, El Paso, Texas, 79950.

5. Your Election to be Excluded from this action or, in the alternative, your Statement of Claim, should be addressed to: Clerk of the United States District Court

Clerk of the United States District Court Western District of Texas El Paso Division United States Courthouse Room 108 El Paso, Texas 79901

Dear Sir: The undersigned hereby acknowledges receipt of the Notice dated 1976 concerning the action relating to the alleged price-fixing of bread products in the El Paso area. Please be advised that the undersigned elects to be excluded from these actions.

Board awards diplomas

The Carrizozo School Board voted to award diplomas to 21 seniors on May 29 and approved next year's school calendar at a quiet meeting Tuesday night.

The students are: Ella Marie Chavez, Jackie Sue Dross, Jerry Richard Edwards, Dorothy Anne Helm.

Margaret Joanne Jaramillo, Orleida Juanita Luna, Margaret Elizabeth Mackey, Lola Delores McBride, James Blake Miller.

Leslie O. Miller, Charles R. Montoya, Vanessa Maria Osorio, Veronica Jean Pacheco, Pres Pino, Richard Anthony Portillo.

Sammy Roper, Paul Samora, Stanley Chris Steinepreis, Christopher Gabriel Vallejos, Willie Vega, Jr. and Paul Few Wetzel. Program for the meeting was a review of the school's vocational programs.

Mrs. Larue Wetzel, and two student teacher, Carol Cooper and Louise Frey of NMSU, described the home economics training field.

Miss Cooper said that in an advanced food specialties class, students formed teams and established mini-businesses. At the end of the class, having learned accounting, cost analysis and food business techniques, the student projects usually showed a nice profit which was divided among the participants.

Miss Frey said that another advanced food preparation class had put on weekly meals for the faculty. The student had progressed in skills and ability to prepare, serve and clean up in the lunch hour. Teachers were charged double the actual cost of the food to cover the student expenses, she said.

Mrs. Wetzel explained the child care program under which students serve as kindergarten aides, study child care theory and finally actually teach in a nursery school.

The three women described opportunities in their fields of study.

Dan Ware, the Vocational agriculture teacher, was commended by the board for the advancement of his program in the four years he has taught. Carrizozo's FFA team has received a superior rating every year and is the only school in the state ever to receive such a rating in its first year.

Forty-seven students belong to FFA, a part of the vocational training effort. This year, the school ranked third in the state in judging, surpassing many larger schools with longer established programs.

Ware and his students held a judging contest in Carrizozo which drew over 400 entries and their sponsors. In addition to agriculture, Ware instructs the students in basic electricity, plumbing, woodwork, welding, surveying and related skills.

School superintendent Jim Steinepreis said that concrete would be poured for the new administration building on Friday. He said that the turning of the foot ball field was progressing.

He reminded the board about the Athletic Banquet on May 18.

Bob Stearns reported on additional insurance needed because of the change in state laws which leaves schools, town and counties open to a new type of damages suits. The cost of the additional insurance will probably be around $400 a year.

Steinepreis told the board that there was a possibility the school would have a severely mentally handicapped student next year. He cautioned that this was a possibility and that the child had not been diagnosed as such yet but he said that if it happened, the child would require special attention. The state will provide about $2800 toward the education of this child he said.

Town meeting

treatment plant was in the first phase of planning but that operation should be given consideration now.

There was some discussion of use of the sludge as fertilizer when the new plant was completed as is done in some cities (the NEWS was told by one expert in this field, that the sterile sludge was not a fertilizer but was an excellent soil and soil conditioner).

The EIA men also said that the new well must be tested for chemical, bacteria and metal content before going into operation.

Last year's swimming pool manager Jennifer McClarin, Nancy and Jackie Dross and Delores McBride relief and life guards, were rehired at their old salaries. Roy Harman commented on the smooth operation of the swimming pool as contrasted to other years.

Gomez told the meeting that there might be funds from the federal government and the state available for recreation in the near future. He said that the towns application for assistance on drainage in the south part of the town had been turned down but that it might be reconsidered this summer.

Asked for an explanation of the rejection of the project, Gomez said that the agency involved, HUY, might blame the people in Carrizozo for the financial trouble of the Capitan-Carrizozo Natural Gas Company, a HUD financed project. Gomez said that HUD tended to look unfavorably on future projects for communities with a bad track record.

Arnold Boyce, a member of the natural gas board responded saying that the rates for gas had been increased by 75 percent in an attempt to become financially solvent and satisfy the government and that payments are now being made on time.

Gomez also discussed housing assistance which is more fully reported in another place in the NEWS. He said that the Farm Home Administration also had funds available which might be used for new construction in this area. Manny Hernandez asked Johnny Johnson to explain the duties as airport manager and his salary for doing whatever he did.

Member of the audience joined in the discussion, asking Johnson to state his salary, explain why he took a tow truck to a wreck outside of town; what shape the airport house is in; why the airport does not sell gas; why vehicles were stored at the airport.

Johnson declined to state his salary saying that it was not anyone's right to ask. He said that he was told to move to the airport as a part of his job as superintendent of public works and airport manager.

He said that gas was not sold because there had not been sufficient demand for it in the past; that the buses at the airport belong to the school and were to be moved; that he had asked the mayor for time off to take a tow truck to the wreck outside of town.

Mayor Siegrist said that Johnson put in many extra hours without pay at nights and on weekends and that the little time off in this instance was insignificant by comparison.

Manny Hernandez said that since Johnson would be terminated at the end of August and the airport house was in need of repairs he felt it would be fair to request Johnson to pay $100 month rent for the next three months.

His motion carried.

Hernandez said that he had received a complaint about treatment of an elderly lady by one of the new police officers and asked Town Marshall Choncho Morales for an explanation. Morales said that the lady had been cautioned about inadequate lights and that it was the duty of the police department to enforce the law.

There followed some discussion of the new officer. The two men are funded by CETA and do not cost the city any money. They are a part of the seven city employees funded under a federal program to provide jobs for the unemployed and services to communities.

In response to an inquiry, the Mayor said that the town had applications in for several summer employment programs for students and for another CETA program that would begin in the summer.

"You people have no idea about the late hours that Johnny Johnson and I put in making applications for programs of this kind, reading reports of opportunities for community programs and doing the necessary paper work," he said.

Two years of preparation have passed from the time of conception of the idea to create a Smokey Bear Historical State Park to the dedication ceremony being held today in the midst of this Bicentennial Year. This dedication commemorates over a quarter of a century of Smokey Bear's popular campaign for forest fire prevention and wildlife conservation.

Capitan, New Mexico was chosen as the site for this historical park because it was here twenty-five years ago a badly-burned bear cub was found clinging to a smouldering tree and rescued by fire fighters. The black bear cub was taken to Santa Fe, New Mexico, where his burns were treated by a local veterinarian. By the time his injuries had healed, he had become the first living symbol of the forest fire prevention campaign supported by the U. S. Forest Service. In June of 1950, he was flown to Washington, D. C. and officially named Smokey Bear. Since that time, Smokey Bear has become a world renowned symbol of fire prevention and conservation.

By dedicating Smokey Bear Historical State Park here in Capitan, it is hoped that the ideals of wildlife conservation and the preservation of our natural resources will be fostered for decades to come through the development of the Smokey Bear Museum, Interpretive Trails and the Visitor's Information Center.

ANYWAY YOU LOOK AT IT... by Paul

A good newspaper makes its readers both mad and glad and not necessarily in that order. If it angers many of its readers too often they likely start reading another paper - so there has to be some 'glad' reading fairly often.

Payton thinks the Albuquerque Journal is a good newspaper. The state reporter for this newspaper was telling in print who the T or C Fleeta people should have selected for their parade marshal - and, it was very simply none of his business. He wound up by writing "Those people at T or C probably don't know there is a new governor". The guy was completely out of line, one might even say stupid in his thinking. Then a week later along comes the 'glad' words so we don't stop our subscription. The words were written about Smokey Bear Park at Capitan, reprinted in this issue of the News.

A News report in this issue about Lincoln County Republican convention at the courthouse list ten state convention delegates and alternates. The Albuquerque Journal listed these as being five for Reagan and five for Ford which was an error. All delegates are "uninstructed" or "uncommitted" which has been the precedent for Republican state convention delegates for a number of years.

The question that has no obvious answer - How would Lincoln County Republicans like their delegates to vote, for Ford or for Reagan. Thing to do is to tell any or all of the delegates "your preference" for a presidential candidate.

Fellow was in our office Monday wanting help finding old records (lodges) from White Oaks. Last week we had a call from Mary C. Landin in Utica, Miss., hoping to locate lost relative once at White Oaks. Best we can do is refer them to one of the Kells or Morris Parker's book - wish we could do more.

Hope this comes under the heading of "helpful" and not "meddling". Little League baseball is making up in Catrizzo. Three teams have sponsors (Bank, Moore, Fire Dept.) and fourth team is known as Merchants Little League Baseball team. The burden of getting up $120 to $130 is on the team members. Looked like they were getting a dollar per solicitation this week and there are not 120 merchants anywhere close. Seems like the Chamber of Commerce ought to get right in the middle of that sponsorship, as the fairest way of spreading it around the most merchants also doing the kind of service a C of C was designed for.

Twenty Years Ago

From Lincoln County News and Carrizozo Outlook Friday, May 11, 1956.

Voter turnout Tuesday was 1869, both Democrats and Republicans.

Commission Dist. 1 - Solo 494, Skeen 101, Richardson 159, Dist. 2, Lewis 293, Shanks 268, Stoneman 327, (only 2 districts).

David L. Jackson interview - The El Paso and Southwestern Railway came into Carrizozo around 1888. They built a hotel for their crews. Two of the locomotives running on the line were named the White Oaks and the Tularosa. A branch line was built into Capitan to get the coal. Capitan was formerly called Salado.

For a number of years I taught Sunday school in White Oaks. Several of the children I taught have married and left and have grandchildren and great-grandchildren now. They and their families return to see me occasionally.

One morning as I was on my way to the mine, Frank J. Sager, cashier of the Exchange Bank at Carrizozo, telephoned me over the private line we maintained between Carrizozo and our mines asking whether I could get up a dance to raise money for use of Miss Elizabeth Garrett, daughter of Pat Garrett, who was on her way to Santa Fe to attempt to get the Legislature to adopt a song, which she had composed, as the State Song. I advertised and got the crowd together from different localities and the dance was held at the White Oaks dance hall. Proceeds from this dance were sufficient to enable Miss Garrett to stay at the La Fonda in Santa Fe for a week. She was successful in getting that Legislature to adopt her song as the State Song - "Oh Fair New Mexico."

A military police detachment is soon to be in operation out of Red Canyon. In their patrol of duty they will cover the towns of Carrizozo, Socorro, Corona, Vaughn, Capitan and Lincoln.

The Capitan high school band and chorus are to present their annual concert May 11. Drummers in this band were Walter Jones, Rita Romero, Lorena Sanchez, Arcenia Trujillo, Cecilia Griego, and Carol Bonnell.

The Corona Stone Company entertained the 8th grade at a picnic in Red Cloud Canyon Saturday afternoon.

Pat Huey and Gilbert Bryan entered the state track meet in Albuquerque. Huey took first in pole vault, fourth in shotput and tied for third in the high jump. In winning the pole vault, Huey set a new state record.

Gilbert Ortiz, son of Mr. and Mrs. S.M. Ortiz is valetictorian and Ernest Sanchez, son of Mr. and Mrs. S.G. Sanchez, salutatorian. Both had averages of 92 plus for the four years.

From Lincoln County News May 15, 1936.

Mr. J.E. After due discussion of same a resolution was passed allowing said company a permit to use the streets and alleys for power lines.

It was rumored that we had some bandits in

The juniors and seniors went to Nogal canyon yesterday for a picnic.

From Carrizozo News May 12, 1916.

The school term at Glencoe has closed and Miss Inez Holland has returned to Roswell. Corona town school has completed a nine months term. Miss Ditty is to return another year.

An eight months term at Picacho ended Friday.

Rabenton completed an eight months term Friday. A.B. Stemple left immediately for Upper Glencoe to finish a seven months term.

Friday ended the eight months term for Baca Canon school. Mrs. Craddock will attend State Normal this summer.

Miss Luella Hoard's term at Escondida ends Friday.

Gallo Canon's first term has closed. Miss Belle Benix is at her home in Corona.

The directors of Timmie have elected Mrs. U. S. Clark of Dexter as principal next year.

Sixty-seven pupils took the 8th grade promotion exam in the county this year. The first state examination in 1912 we had 25 applicants, showing in the four years we have more than doubled the number of pupils in the higher grades.

What promises to be a most delightful function is the first Carrizozo high school alumni banquet to be held at the residents of Miss Mildred Peters.

Grand jury report to Hon. Merritt C. Mechem. Sir: - It is very apparent from the investigations made by our body into the management of the saloon in Capitan that there has been a very flagrant violation of the liquor laws, especially as to violation of the Sunday law, selling liquor to minors, and permitting minors to loiter in and around the saloon. We recommend closing of the same up. S. W. Hale, foreman.

Grand jury report - We had occasion to investigate the conduct and management of the saloon at Hondo. We found there are not the 100 inhabitants as is required by law, wherefore we recommend revoking the license.

Ben Lujan, the popular deliveryman for the Carrizozo Trading Co. has recovered from his recent indisposition and again handles the throttle on the jitney delivery for his firm.

Thursday evening the Carrizozo High School department will give Gabriel's tuneful operetta, "The Merry Milkmaids." And the milkmaids are merry enough. Everybody welcome - nothing to pay.

and when Lynn returned home with a disability from the Marines he found his work cut out for him.

At one time they had 12 foster children at a time. As you sit there and listen to endless experiences with children, and the excitement and fulfillment in their voices you would be caught up in their life of real unselfishness and truth. They have 5 children of their own, but one at home, then two foster children now. Claire still has time for a regular green house and other projects, besides cooking and many other endless chores.

The Ayers show their "tender loving care" by teaching their children to depend on themselves, with self discipline chores, manners, and respect for other people. This is a refreshing and gratifying theory in this world today. So many of these parents take no responsibility, which is why we have to have foster homes. It was a joy to interview the Ayers and I do hope there are more like them in the world. They not only teach but they set a good example.

ROBYS, BOX
A DASH MORE OF MUCHING IN YOUR GARDEN

If you are going to mulch you should put a thick layer of mulch over the entire garden. As the mulch decomposes into humus, replenish it with new materials to prevent weeds from sprouting in the rotted mulch. Supplement straw, manure or other materials. If the soil becomes to acid apply lime. If plants show signs of nitrogen deficiency and cotton seed meal or other nitrogenous substances.

To plant rake mulch away, from row area, make a furrow, drop in seed or insert plants. Cover seeds with light layer of soil then strips of cardboard. Bake mulch back up to edges of row, remove cardboard when seeds sprout.

The new occupant of Nogal who has planted many new fruit trees?

That fellow in Carrizozo who keeps wanting to be the ball boy for Sunda?

That young Dr.'s wife who took a special trip last week.

That good looking young man's wife and baby who may be moving back to the ranch.

- If a child lives with shame, he learns to feel guilty.
- If a child lives with tolerance, he learns to be patient.
- If a child lives with encouragement, he learns confidence.
- If a child lives with praise, he learns to appreciate.
- If a child lives with security, he learns to have faith.
- If a child lives with approval, he learns to like himself.

III NEIGHBOR - (this is a continuation of this series)

We have some neighbors in Nogal that live past the Daubs on pass the Breiger's and on down the hill to the end of the road. As you drive up you can hardly see the house from the road because each tree you might hear a sound - and then see two little black eyes looking down at you - from a special made tree house. Then the further you walk you may be greeted by a young boy, named Chris Ayers, who has an imagination and is always making something like his Dad Lynn Ayers. Lynn is a tall man in spirit and mind and character and in build a medium height man. As he greets you with a smile and leads you into the house to meet his remarkable wife, he will bring coffee and as you sit there listening to them you enter another world.

Lynn says "that being foster parents is a way of life", for them because they have done it so long. Claire and Lynn Ayers were married in 1941, later Lynn joined the Marine Corp, and while Lynn was away the next 4 years Claire wanted to keep busy - so after checking around for jobs, she decided that she wanted to be home with her own children, therefore when she investigated The Health and Social Services, she found that she could stay home and become a foster parent. After much screening and red tape, she began giving other children a home,

Park event historical

Benjamin Franklin, Abraham Lincoln and other American greats from the past will make appearances across New Mexico starting May 20 in a special National Park Service Bicentennial performance of "We've come back for a little look around."

Open free to the public, the play is a blend of humor and history, based on Franklin's 1773 wish to "come back in a hundred years or more to see what had become of the American spirit." The play made a 20,000-mile pilot tour of park areas in 1975. This year, "Little look around" opened May 2 at Independence National Historical Park in Philadelphia. The bicentennial-year performance are under two road companies traveling cross country and they will hit 110 parks in all.

San Juan County residents will get the first look at "little look around" when the 30-minute play hits Farmington, sponsored by the Navajo Lands Group parks, including Aztec Ruins and Chaco Canyon National Monuments.

The first performance will be at 2:15 p.m. May 20 at Farmington High School followed by a performance at 3:30 p.m. at San Juan College and at 7 p.m. in downtown Farmington.

The remaining New Mexico schedule includes performances at:

-Bandelier National Monument's Juniper Campground, May 27 at 3:30, 5:30 and 7:30 p.m.

-At the Santa Fe Fiesta, sponsored by the NPS Southwest Regional office, at 2, 3:15 and 4 p.m. Friday, May 28.

-At Municipal Beach Park in Carlsbad, sponsored by Carlsbad Caverns National Park, at 3, 4:30 and 6:30 p.m. Saturday, May 30.

-at Alamogordo High School athletic field, sponsored by White Sands National Monument, at 3:30 and 7:30 p.m., May 30.

Southern New Mexicans who miss the show in Carlsbad or Alamogordo will get another chance to see it June 1 and 2 on the grounds at Chamizal National Memorial in El Paso. The Chamizal showings are at 3, 4:30 and 7 p.m. each day.

Produced for the National Park Service by Philadelphia's Franklin S. Roberts Associates, the show features a cast of actors portraying Franklin, Lincoln, Mark Twain and Annie Oakley. Also portrayed are two characters in contemporary roles.

"The play focuses on the contributions of Americans - past and present - along with some of this country's problems," said NPS Southwest Regional Director Joseph C. Rumburg, Jr. "Through the varied characters, the cast debates the merits of America today and yesterday to answer Franklin's question of whether conditions in the United States warrant the continuation of the 'Great Experiment in Liberty.'"

Director of "Little Look Around" is Joseph F. Leonardo of Temple University's theatre department. He has worked in films, television and theater. The script is the work of Daniel M. Klein, whose credits include special comedy material for television, including the series, "All in the Family."

Roberts Associates has been creating original history-oriented plays and interpretive programs for the NPS since 1973, including Bicentennial productions for such NPS areas as Independence, Federal Hall National Memorial in New York City and for Morristown National Historic Park, N.J.

ROUND THE CAPITOL

Ronald Reagan nailed down New Mexico's 21 national Republican convention delegates by beating Gerald Ford 496-294 in virtually complete returns at county parleys for state powwow delegates.

Ford won the eight Taos County delegates but Reagan coordinator Ernie Leger said Reagan forces will contest the result at the state GOP convention June 28 in Albuquerque. Among other county convention results: Colfax: Ford, 11, Reagan, 0; Hidalgo: Ford, 3, Reagan, 0; Lea: Reagan, 25; Ford, 6; Los Alamos: Reagan, 11; Ford, 9; Lincoln: Uncommitted, 10, and Sierra: Ford, 8; Reagan, 3. Leger claimed seven of the 10 Lincoln delegates are pro-Reagan.

State Sen. Willie Chavez, R-Belen, keynote speaker at the Bernalillo County GOP convention, said: "We must always remember that the only obstacle in life is ourselves." Chavez carried all of the 23 precincts in his Eastern Valencia Senate district and won an upset victory by 900 votes in 1974 in a lopsidedly Democratic area. Eastern Valencia County Reagan coordinator Gertrude Willoughby of Bosque Farms is a prospect for a national GOP convention delegate.

Conservative incumbent Dessie Sawyer of Tatum was pitted against Albuquerque liberal Zora Hesse in her re-election bid Saturday at Albuquerque for Democratic national committee woman for another four years. Liberal Albuquerquean Rudy Ortiz, also seeking re-election as Democratic national committeeman, charged Mrs. Sawyer talked with ex-Gov. Bruce King and former state chairman Ben Alexander of Hobbs "about running against me."

Mrs. Sawyer said: "That's a darn lie. Rudy can paddle his canoe and I'll paddle mine." Democrats will also elect 18 national convention delegates at Albuquerque. Front runner Jimmy Carter was expected to win at least eight or nine with Morris Udall capturing five and four or five uncommitted to the New York convention July 12-16.

State Liquor chief Carlos Jaramillo denied four Hidalgo County applications for rural liquor licenses. The applicants were Joe D. Croon and John J. Veeck, retailer's; Harvey and Vanita Hatch, retailer's; Walter Oliver Jr., dispenser's, and Willie Upshaw, dispenser's. Three proposed sites were in Animas. Rural licenses must be at least 10 miles from the nearest existing liquor permit. Jaramillo noted issuance of a license to any of the Animas applicants would automatically disqualify the locations of the others. Jaramillo denied all of the applications "to avoid any discord among the people applying and to avoid arousing thoughts of favoritism by denied applicants."

State Education Board member Joe Romero of Espanola was named to the Governor's Commission on public broadcasting.

Many public school districts pushed for a return from the present four-year textbook cycle to a six-year cycle because of higher costs of the shorter cycle at annual school budget hearings. Administrative Aide Al Clemmons of the State Public School finance division reported: "Truth or Consequences has budgeted $5,000 in the 'other textbook' line item, a significant amount when compared to their total textbook allocation of only $18,000. The cycle for adoption has been seen as unnecessarily expensive in some curriculum areas." Dr. Clemmons said the Fort Sumner, Ruidoso and Clovis School Districts stressed similar textbook funding problems.

Administrator John Carrof Carrie Tingley Hospital for Crippled children at T or C said Darcil A. Sanders resigned May 4, effective the same date, after the State personnel board upheld a five-day suspension of Sanders from his job as lead maintenance man. Carr said the suspension stemmed from a dispute in January between Sanders and hospital maintenance superintendent Robert Baize in two incidents.

Smokey Bear Historical State Park at Capitan will be dedicated Saturday with state and federal officials as speakers. The new park is a New Mexico Bicentennial project. It is named for Smokey Bear who was found in 1950 as a 5-month-old cub after a forest fire at Capitan Gap.

Eunice teachers received a $1,100 or 9.1 percent average pay raise to an average $13,197 salary at the annual budget hearing. Jal teachers were increased an average of $911 or 7 percent to $13,668. In the first 34 school budget hearings the new Jal average teacher salary ranked second in the state. School superintendents also received substantial increases. Among the boosts: Dr. Larry Byous, up $1,200 to $29,200; Fort Sumner, James Fincke, up $1,477 to $19,944; Jal, Carl Martin, up $2,500 to $24,000; Eunice, Maurice Hughes, up $1,854 to $22,454; Ruidoso, Pat Valliant, up $4,246 to $25,587; Carrizozo, James Steinepreis, up $1,837 to $20,211; Truth or Consequences, Basil Burks, up $1,873 to $22,680; Belen, Joe Garcia, up $2,799 to $25,500, and Lee Lomas, Clory Tafaya, up $2,100 to $23,600.

A state board approved a boost in the Lincoln County minimum haircut price from $2.25 to $3. A Valencia county haircut price hike was pending.

Housing a assistance offered

Sixteen or more families in Lincoln County could qualify for housing assistance under the Section 8 Existing Housing program established by the 1974 Housing and Community Development.

White Sands reschedules

"We are happy to announce a relaxation of previously announced cutbacks in services to the public during the coming travel season at White Sands - National Monument," said Superintendent, James M. Thomson today, as visitation began its customary spring upswing. Close analysis of park operations disclosed more efficient ways of providing the same services with less funding and staffing. This, coupled with projected appropriation estimates, has made it possible to extend the hours of operation and services to approach those of 1975.

The summer schedule (May 23-Sept. 11) calls for a full range of interpretive slide programs and nature walks at least five evenings weekly, with visitor center hours from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. The scenic drive into the world's largest gypsum dunes will be open to the public from 7:30 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. for those visiting one of the Southwest's most popular vacation spots. Visitors are encouraged to get out and explore the dunes on foot for a most unique experience. "Get some sand between your toes," Thomson added.

The hours of operation for the gift shop will also be adjusted in conformance with the changes for the park. New schedules for the monument have been prepared and will be available when received from the printer.

"We are expecting over 600,000 visits in this Bicentennial year and will be doing our utmost to provide the highest quality visitor experience," Superintendent Thomson concluded.

Under the program families with low incomes can be partially subsidized for existing rental units, depending on various elements, the family is expected to pay between 15 percent and 25 percent of the rent and the government will pay the balance.

Maximum rentals are as follows: efficiency - $91; 1 bedroom, $103; 2 bedroom, $124; 3 bedroom, $137; 4 bedroom, $150.

A family can consist of one person if that person is elderly, handicapped or disabled.

Maximum family incomes for the following family sizes are: 1 person $4600; 2 persons $5900; 3 persons $6650; 4 persons $7400; 5 persons $7850; 6 persons $8300; 7 persons $8750; 8 persons $9250.

The apartments and houses must meet certain minimum federal standards and all rental prices must include utilities.

Applications are available at the museum in Lincoln, city hall in Capitan, city hall in Ruidoso, and in Carrizozo at county managers, city managers, county welfare and the employment security commission.

The program is under the administration of Region VI of the housing authority in Roswell. The regular monthly meeting will be Thursday at 10 a.m. at the Whortley Hotel in Lincoln and the public is invited.

Are there any apples left?

News from county agent

Are there any apples left in the county? This is one of the questions I get asked most often lately. It is a hard question to answer, as the effects of a cold spell often cannot be seen for several days afterwards. Also there is still the possibility of a freeze for the first few days afterwards. Also there is still the possibility of a freeze for the first few days of May. The few orchards I have checked, still have a good crop of Golden Delicious, Jonathan and Stamen Winesap Apples. The Red Delicious are expected to have a light crop although if they size up well, even these could be better than anticipated. Apple growers should already have applied the first cover spray to catch the early brood of codling moth. They usually emerge within ten days after petal fall. For some of the sprays that can be used, get the "Apple and Pear pest control guide" from the county extension office in the county courthouse in Carrizozo.

RRD I spent last week in a pesticide training session at New Mexico State University. Several points on pesticide safety were emphasized at the meeting. One of the first was to read the label before buying the pesticide and every time that you use the pesticide. Just this week I heard of an insecticide being applied and when they ran out of one type of insecticide they grabbed another type, applied it with disastrous results. A few other safety suggestions were:

1. Wash off any pesticide that you accidentally spill on yourself.
2. Remove any clothing which has had pesticide concentrate spilled on them and store safely so that the fumes will not harm anyone. Wash these clothes separately.
3. Wear protective clothing, as recommended, do not wear gloves with fabric lining as it can hold an insecticide spill.

Lions eye bank

profits from raffle

With the arrival of Spring, the Carrizozo Lions Club has really been on the go. The first matter on their agenda was the report of the raffle sale for a new car.

A tremendous effort by the clubs in New Mexico sold 25,006 tickets. Total proceeds that went to the New Mexico Lions Eye bank was $24,615.50. The winner of the car was the Eunice Lions Club and the T.V. went to Diane Johnston from Farmington.

Albuquerque Northeast Club sold the most tickets 2842 and the high individual salesman was Ray Quintana from the same club with 1720.

The meeting of May 4 was a busy one in deed. Progress report made on the flag subscription and collection promptly resulted in a collection day called for May 8. A total of 42 flags are out with three new subscriptions.

Flags are put out and taken in on national holidays by the local club who carries the full responsibility. Anyone wishing to subscribe please contact a Lion Club member.

With Boys and Girls State just around the corner, the club sponsored one member to participate in this years' event. Every year the school selects representatives and the various clubs around town sponsor them. Carrizozo Lions Club sponsored Ricky Hollis this year.

Further discussion on the matter of the future

broom sale will be held at a later meeting, following a report on the bows and possible whens by Lion Leon Gibson. The possibility of a variety show sponsored by the local club was mentioned but no real definite plans or dates were set. Frank McBride will check into it more thoroughly.

The Lions Club secretary and treasurer reported that last year three new pairs of glasses were furnished and several were repaired through the efforts of the local club.

Lions present at the last meeting were guest George L. Straley and members Frank McBride, Leon Gibson, Charlie Pflingsten, Lynn Ayers, Marvin Rowin, Bob Means and Frank Hoff.
