

County Schools re-open

It's Wet!!

Carrizozo Schools will be opening their doors on Aug. 23 (Tuesday) with a full day of classes. Buses will be running on their regular routes.

It has also been noted that students in Kindergarten through grade 4 should report directly to classrooms in the elementary building. Grades 5-12 should report to the old gym for registration.

To be enrolled in New Mexico public schools, a student must be properly immunized against disease. Any questions regarding immunization may be referred to the public health nurse in the Lincoln County Courthouse Annex. Parents with questions regarding school may call 648-2401.

The district has also announced the employment of several new instructors for the coming year. They are as follows:

Mrs. Annette Knotts, who graduated from New Mexico State University and has four years of teaching experience in Mosquero, N.M. She will be teaching language arts.

Mr. Charles Knotts is a graduate of New Mexico State University and also has four years of teaching at Mosquero, N.M. He will teach mid-school science and coach basketball.

Gilbert Morales is also a graduate of New Mexico State University and will teach special education.

Teacher orientation will be conducted on August 22 and is slated to be a day-long affair.

The Carrizozo school schedule is as follows: Aug. 26, holiday, Lincoln County Fair; Sept. 5, holiday, Labor Day; Sept. 13, school board meeting; Oct. 11, board meeting; Oct. 27 and 28, teacher convention, no school; Nov. 8, board meeting; Nov. 24 and 25, holidays, Thanksgiving; Dec. 13, school board meeting; Dec. 23 to Jan. 2, Christmas vacation; Jan. 10, school board meeting; Feb. 14, school board meeting; Mar. 14, school board meeting; Mar. 24 to 31, Easter vacation; Apr. 11, school board meeting; and May 9, school board meeting.

High school graduation will be conducted on May 22, and the last official day of school will be May 26.

Corona

Students will be heading back to class in the Corona School District on August 22 and the buses will run on the same schedule they did last year. The buses are slated to arrive between 8:30 and 8:50, and will depart at 3:30 p.m. each school day.

The Corona Board of Education has approved a request made by Mel Root, school superintendent, to raise the hot lunch price 10 cents during the coming year.

SET ...HUT! HUT! HUT! All over the country, football practice is going full blast. Above, Carrizozo Grizzlies take turns hitting the two-man sled. Two a day practice will continue until the beginning of school and the first games in this area will be on Sept. 2.

Commissioners approve funding for Zozo doctor search

The Lincoln County Commissioners approved funding for St. Joseph's Hospital to contract a private firm which has all but promised to find a doctor for the Carrizozo Health Clinic.

The clinic has been without a physician since August 1 and the National Health Service Corps, a federal organization, has not been able to locate any replacements.

The private firm, National Health Search Inc., out of Northridge, California appears to be confident that they can solve the situation.

In the meantime, Dr. David Rouleau of Capitan has been keeping hours at the clinic three afternoons a week.

In other business, the commissioners instructed Les Olson, county manager, to gather further information regarding the lease purchase of a fire truck for the Hondo area. Bids were opened on that truck in Monday's meeting, but there was some question as to who would actually have the lowest bid if the lease purchase stipulation were invoked.

The low bid apparently came from Continental FMC, a California firm, except that New Mexico state law allows a five percent difference regarding in-state bidders. That would have made Thunderbird the low bid company, but then representatives from Clark Equipment, who were present at the meeting, the third lowest bid, brought up the lease purchase point.

Continental FMC's bid was $47,246.64, Thunderbird came in at $47,923.00, and Clark was right behind at $48,303.00. Texas Fire and Tech also submitted a bid of $49,522.00. Olson will look into the matter in more detail.

In a 2-1 decision, the Commissioners directed the County Treasurer to split the county bank balance approximately 50-50 between Citizens State Bank, and the new Carrizozo Branch Bank of Ruidoso State Bank.

Commissioner Lee Straley strongly objected to this measure saying that Citizens has handled the county bank account well for many years and he saw no reason to change now.

John Sudderth, chairman of the commission, pointed out that since Ruidoso State Bank now has a branch in Carrizozo, they were entitled to their share of the county business.

Sudderth said, "In all fairness, I think they should have part of the business, they pay taxes too."

Straley continued to disagree, but following a roll call vote, Sudderth and G.H. Stoneman were in favor of the move, while Straley cast the single decenting vote.

The Commissioners awarded the bid on a 4-wheel drive pick up truck to Sierra Blanca Motors although they were not the lowest bidder. Sierra Blanca bid $5,998 while Jerry Pritchard Chevrolet of Roswell came in with a bid of $5,977.03.

By state law, the commissioners are allowed a one per cent or $25 preference to in county bidders. For warranty maintenance reasons alone, the commissioners unanimously agreed on Sierra Blanca. Gene Brock Ford submitted a bid of $6,257.41.

The Burroughs Company was awarded the bid for printing the 1978 tax bills which include 22,000 tax bills, notices of revenue and tax schedules at $3,549.48. They were almost $1,000 below the next bidder.

The Commissioners also approved a replat plan for Alto Village and a plat plan for Little Creek subdivision. At this time it is not known when work will begin on these two subdivisions.

Bookmobile services were renewed for another year as the Commissioners approved the $1,200 fee. This has been budgeted for in the county budget, and the Commissioners agreed that the fee is worth the service.

Finally, the Commissioners agreed to call for bids for two ambulances for the county contingent upon the county's receiving their federal in-lieu tax money. No award of the bids will be made until the money is in hand.

The Commissioners will be meeting with department heads tomorrow (Friday) beginning at 9 a.m. in a special session to discuss budget review. No further information was given on this meeting at this time, but the session is open to the public.

News Briefs

There will be a work day at Angus Cemetery on Saturday August 20. Everyone is invited to come and help with the work. The work session will last all day so come when you can.

The White Oaks Historical Association is sponsoring an auction at the old school house in White Oaks this Saturday, August 20 beginning at 10 a.m. Everybody is more than welcome, lunch will be available and consignments are being solicited. Terms will be cash.

1977 Carrizozo High School yearbooks are still available at the High School office. If you haven't purchased yours, now is your last chance.

Market Place this Sunday

This Sunday, August 21, the People's Market Place will again return to Carrizozo and already, it appears that many people from all over the state will be participating.

The arts and crafts show will begin at 10 a.m. at Spider Park and run throughout the entire day. There will be games, food and of course, the exhibits to interest the entire family.

Mary Rich, president of the Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce, said that any individual or group is welcome to bring their goods and put them on display or up for sale.

For last minute space reservation call the Chamber office at 648-2555. Be sure to attend as this is one of the finest events offered during the summer in this area.

Mescalero Auction slated

Over 2500 head of tribal Hereford cattle will be auctioned off at the Mescalero Indian Reservation on August 20. "This is one of the most unique cattle auctions held anywhere in the world," says Bill Ljungdahl, Extension livestock specialist at New Mexico State University.

The sale is unique because the cattle will not be delivered on the sale day. In fact, deliveries will not start until October when the first cattle are gathered. Deliveries will continue until early December. A 15 percent deposit will be required during the auction on all purchases.

About 1350 steer calves, 805 heifer calves, 300 old cows and 30 old bulls will be sold. The steer calves, grouped in lots of 120, are expected to weigh 365 pounds each at delivery time. Heifer calves also will be sold in groups of 120 and should weigh about 350 pounds each. The old cows will sell in lots of 50 head each and all 30 old bulls will sell in one lot.

The first lot of each type will be delivered to the buyer of the first group on auction day. The second lot will go to the second buyer and so on until all cattle are delivered.

Auction activities will start at 7 a.m., August 20 with coffee and doughnuts at the Cattle Growers Headquarters in Mescalero. At 8 a.m. a caravan will tour the reservation and see three sets of representative cattle, Ljungdahl says. After the tour, the auction will be held in the Mescalero Community Center at 11 a.m. The sale always moves rapidly and will be completed by noon, the specialist concludes.

County Fair

The Lincoln County Fair, 1977 edition, is just around the corner and exhibitors all over the county are making last minute preparations.

The fair will be held on Aug. 26 and 27 (Friday and Saturday) this year at the county fair grounds in Capitan.

Entries for this year's fair will be taken on Thursday between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Judging of the various categories will begin on Friday at 8 a.m. Here is the list of judging to take place on Friday: Judging, swine, beef cattle & sheep; judging rabbits and poultry; judging junior home economics; judging open home economics; judging flower show; judging art show; judging open horticulture exhibits; judging junior horticulture exhibits.

On Saturday, the following schedule of events will be followed: 7 a.m. breakfast for all Jr. exhibitors in the fair building; 8 a.m. pet show; 10:30 trophies; 11:00 special lead sheep class; 11:30 junior livestock sale; and 1:30, junior roping and riding events.

Officer suspended

Carrizozo Police Officer, Hal Taylor, was jailed last Thursday night and has been suspended from the force pending further investigation.

Taylor was placed in the Lincoln County Jail by Magistrate Bill Payne on charges of burglary and larceny. Bond was set at $2,500 with no 10 percent allowed. Taylor was able to make bond some seven hours later.

According to the magistrate's records, Taylor allegedly entered a building at the Standard Oil Bulk Plant in Carrizozo and took a quantity of .45 and .30 caliber ammunition. The ammunition was allegedly recovered at the defendants home and identified.

CONSTRUCTION ON THIS NEW ADDITION to Lincoln Milling and Milling Inc. in Carrizozo is going at a rapid pace. According to Carl Dotson, plant superintendent, the new addition will house processing equipment used in their operation. Dotson said the addition should be finished and in operation by next week.

Something . . .
M-o-o-r-e
by Jim Moore

"The time has come . . ."

The departure of Dr. Marie Cortelyou and Dr. Ravi Bhasker earlier this summer has created some ramifications many people in this area might not want to consider, but if they don't it could create a chain reaction that could lead to real trouble.

So now Carrizozo and the surrounding area is without medical assistance except for Dr. David Rouleau who comes to the clinic three afternoons a week to do what he can. His help we greatly appreciate.

But, in a community that supported two doctors over the past two years, he can't possibly handle the entire load. When someone gets injured or sick, these incidents don't seem to realize that they can't do that right now, because there isn't enough medical help in the area to do whatever may be necessary. No, the injury or illness is taken to Ruidoso or Alamogordo or wherever.

This begins the "For the want of a horse shoe nail" saga that goes much deeper than just medical assistance.

So member "X" of somebody's family gets sick and is taken out of town for treatment. You can't blame them for that. But when the physician in another area writes them a prescription for medication, the same family usually takes it to a pharmacy in that area to be filled. Then, they might decide to look for school clothes or do the weekly shopping while there also.

"Aw, that doesn't happen enough to be even noticed," you might say.

If it wasn't the case, I wouldn't be taking the time to write this right now. That's exactly what is happening.

Jack and Carrie MaGee came to Carrizozo a little over two years ago, and since that time they have come to like the area very much, and hope to stay. Jack and Carrie have purchased a home here and have done well for the past two years operating the Family Pharmacy Drug Store.

Until now that is.

Since the departure of the two physicians from this area, and no live replacements in sight at this time, Jack reports that his business has been off tremendously.

"He's just exaggerating," you might think. Family Pharmacy was visited last weekend by one of the corporation bosses. Quite simply they were told, if the business doesn't make a profit we'll have to move you elsewhere. Jack and Carrie don't want that to happen.

Neither do any of us. But this isn't the end of the cycle in any way, shape or form. If business is off "that far" for them, Jack might say to Carrie, "Better hold off buying those new shoes, or that dress or we better cut back on the grocery bill this week."

Then who suffers? The merchants down the street, because Jack and Carrie like to keep as much of their business as possible with other merchants, just like themselves.

If you don't think any of this is true, ask Travis at Figgly Wiggly, or Ken and Vikl at Gambles, or Frank Montoya at White's Auto or either of the two bankers. All have noticed the decline.

A town the size of Carrizozo does not have a large economic base, and every little bit helps, or hurts for that matter. I don't consider it my place to offer a "sentimental shot in the arm for sale" if it isn't necessary.

We can't afford to lose any of the businesses we've got, but the responsibility for keeping them here is up to each and everyone of us. Don't shrug it off with an "Oh, what the hell, it doesn't matter anyway," attitude, because it does matter. It matters to Jack and Carrie just as much as it matters to each and every one of us.

The Advisory Council on Health for this area is working overtime these days to do something about the doctor situation. St. Josephs is right beside them doing all they can also. But, during this period, this time of fluxility, we can't let our own people down.

Sure, a physician will be found in time. But having a local pharmacy could make all the difference between now and later for that physician to make the choice. If we lose the pharmacy in the meantime, it could be the difference, not only in finding a doctor that we so badly need, and can support, but also for Jack and Carrie and each one of us.

AROUND TOWN & SURROUNDING AREAS

Preparing this column, I have learned who your relatives are and I have pleasantly met new comers. I thought it might be of interest to readers to know something about me. Many will exclaim, "I didn't know that."

My parents, now deceased, were Abe B. Sanchez, born in historic White Oaks and Ramonita Gurule, born in Trujillo, N.M. They lived in Carrizozo many years and also made their home in Nogal Canyon. The place is still family owned. As a teen I have memories of walking to Nogal to Mrs. Stearns place for a coke and to check for mail.

My brothers are Frank, David, Fred, George, Raynell, Herman and Johnny Sanchez. My sisters are Nena Ortiz, Rita Livingston and Rosie Martinez. Victor Jaramillo, my brother, deceased, has his wife Kitty and his children Margaret and Victor Jr. residing here in Carrizozo. Peter and Jacob sons of Danny Narvaez and Rita are my nephews. They live with their paternal grandparents here also. Nena and her husband Joe and daughters Tami, Judy, and Tracy have lived here all their lives. Mario their son is stationed in Rota, Spain with the Navy. The rest of my siblings, their wives, husbands and children live in various parts of the U.S.

My full Christian name is Paulita (Polly) Sanchez. My husband is Natividad (Nat) Chavez. We are the parents of Annette 18, Christetta 11, Gabriel 9, Michael 5, and Raphael 3. We are expecting a new member in our family during Christmas week.

To further confuse you, our community has another Nat Chavez whose wife is Polly, aka Paulita, whose maiden name is also Sanchez. No relation on either side. During the Christmas season, if people do not use our postal numbers or middle initials, Polly and I are seen on the post office steps swapping our Christmas cards. Like wise graduation, bridal and baby shower invitations. Well enough of "Roots".

Last Monday, a reception party was held for the Rev. and Mrs. David Lynch, from Indiana, new minister of the Methodist Church. Forty to forty-five members of the Capitan and Carrizozo United Methodist Churches were on hand to meet the couple. Dr. Richard Whitwam, District Superintendent of this church district from El Paso was also here. Rev. Lynch will hold his first service on September 18. The community welcomes Rev. and Mrs. Lynch.

The Carrizozo United Methodist Women met at the church Wednesday August 10 for their regular monthly meeting with Jane Shafer the president presiding. After taking care of old business the group made preparations for the arrival of our new minister and wife Rev. and Mrs. David Lynch. Susan Hightower of the Ancho Presbyterian Church discussed recent development of the ERA which were very interesting. Margaret Lane gave a very short devotional on "Appreciation". Members present were: Jane Shafer, Agnes Hein, Emma and Frances Degner, Ethel Roberts, Joy Gallacher, Alice Wright, Margaret Lane, Alma Sherill and two new members Maggie Bohks and her mother Hallie Robertson and the one visitor Susan Hightower. Agnes Hein served delicious refreshments to the group.

The Carrizozo Senior Extension Club met August 8 for their monthly meeting in the Medallion Room. Rug yarn covered coat hangers were made. The program, presented by Ruth Wilson resulted in something pretty to use at home or give to someone special and learning a new craft idea. Arsenia Lopez and Rachel West were hostesses for the afternoon.

Other members present for the meeting were Ethel Roberts, Erlena Tubbs, Clara Snow, Edith Lenard, Dorothy Current, Edna Littleton, Catherine Eaker, Mrs. T.J. Chisholm and Pauline Palomarez who is Arsenia's granddaughter.

Ethel Roberts, president, says new members are always welcome. Other officials of the group, which meets every first Tuesday of the month at 1:30 in the Medallion Room are: Erlena Tubbs, vice president; Rachel West, secretary; and Irene Hayes, treasurer.

With summer activities slowing down and children back in school there may be many ladies who would like to join this afternoon club, which has many other members who were not able to attend this last meeting. I've had the pleasure meeting all of these ladies. They are a congenial group and very courteous to new comers. Scheduled in the near future are wood fiber flowers and dices (a woman's detachable collar or blouse front).

New Mexico State University, the college of agriculture and home economics has available many programs through this cooperative extension service. Mary Ellen Payne County Extension Home Economist demonstrated the making of crepes recently. Crepes are very thin pancakes served in a variety of ways.

In the past, among things they have tried their hand at are decoupage, flower making and crepe paper tapestry. Talented members often present the different programs.

The third Southwest Catholic Charismatic Conference was held on the UNM campus at Albuquerque on August 12, 13, and 14. Attending from Carrizozo were Mrs. Paul Ortiz and Mrs. Joe Ortiz. Tammy, Judi and Tracy, daughters of Mrs. Joe Ortiz joined them for Mass in which Archbishop Robert F. Sanchez was the main celebrant and homilist at the closing Eucharistic Liturgy on Sunday.

Almost 5,000 people attended the Mass, the last event in a conference that began Friday and included workshops on faith healing, a Spanish liturgy and speeches by American and foreign priests.

Sponsored by the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, the theme for this year's Southwest Conference was "Come, Lord Jesus Reign".

Governor Jerry Apodaca was on hand for the general assembly at the School Bus Driver Institute held recently in Silver City at the University. Governor Apodaca gave a talk to an estimated crowd of 1,500 people from all over the state who were there for the week long school bus workshop.

The school bus drivers returned to their school district to begin another year with various awards and certificates after participating in standard, advance, and multimedia first-aid, personal safety and defensive driving courses.

Films were shown and many tests taken. One fact that was learned that the general public should be made aware of is: alcohol is involved in 55 percent of the fatal accidents in the U.S.

Bus drivers that were able to attend this year from Carrizozo were: Peggy Najar, Eileen Serna and Mary Greer. The trio are the mothers of a total of eight school age children.

Happy Birthday to Marina Baca, Mr. and Mrs. Marcos Villescos, Valerie Ann English, Neo Vallejos, and Gary Lindsay, all who will be celebrating birthdays within the next week. Last, but not least Happy Birthday to me on August 24. My mom traveled from Carrizozo to a tiny farm in San Miguel County and there I was born near Trujillo, New Mexico. No doctor, no hospital.

Jackie Dross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Dross will soon be returning for her sophomore year at New Mexico State University at Las Cruces. While here for the summer break, she has been very active. Jackie and Mona Payne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Payne have assisted Mrs. Truman Spencer in a 4-H swim class. Jackie has also been employed in a work study program through the University at the Extension office. She has taught a macrame class every Wednesday morning to 4-H'ers Stephanie Saucedo, Christetta Chavez, Pam Owens and Kimberly McManus.

Missed many birthdays last week among them Gayle Porter, Shirley Simmons, Gay Ann Dobbs, Maurita Lovelace, Margaret Stearns, Nancy Pope, Marjorie Wells and Florence Racher. Hope each and everyone of you had a beautiful day.

Our own Raphael Joseph Chavez celebrated his 3rd birthday on August 16. He is very grown up now. He refuses to let anyone butter and jelly his toast. Why can't life's problems hit us when we're 3 years old and know everything?

At the time of this writing, word was heard that Mary Rich had become a grandmama. I will check this out. Mark your calendars. The 2nd Annual People's Market will be in full swing on Sunday, August 21. Bake sales, Mexican foods and snow cones to tempt your appetites. There will be a group of costumed Mexican dancers from Alamogordo performing at 2 p.m., local live music & the Lyric Theatre will run a film "Cinderella" with Jerry Lewis from 2 p.m. continually. There may even be a carnival barker urging you, "This way ladies and gentlemen. Try your luck at the roulette wheel!" Happy Birthday Mark Miller! Mark, son of Rev. and Mrs. William R. Miller who celebrates a birthday Saturday, August 20 is entering his senior year of high school this fall. He has been a busy young man at the Grocery Basket this summer.

The Miller's have two other sons, Les, who is scheduled to attend classes at NMSU on September 1 as a sophomore, and Robby who is presently completing his officers basic training in Fort Benning, Georgia.

I have a brand new black parasol (umbrella) to replace my very old one. I use it mainly for strolling in the sunshine. Children going by think Mary Poppins is in town. Before its too late bring down that parasol from the attic and start enjoying daily strolls. You should see the colorful flowers and greenery at the J.G. Moore Insurance Agency back yard, or the golden row of zinnias and marigolds at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Leon C. Lock.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Harkey, from Ancho will have their wedding anniversary Friday, August 19. Congratulations to them.

Spending a week with the Harkey's at their ranch home is their daughter Mrs. Ralph Dockray and her husband, from Alamogordo. Mrs. Dockray is the former LuEllen Harkey.

Happy Birthday to Gloria Witham from Nogal on August 24. Gloria is a very nice acquaintance of mine and I don't mind sharing my birthdate with her.

Dear Jim,
Traveling to Michigan twice this summer has cut into my understanding of the happenings in Carrizozo. However, I do feel a responsibility to express my concern & observations about the suit the school is currently involved in.

Whenever people in a small community like Carrizozo place themselves in opposition on a legal basis, it is very difficult for families and friends of both parties to remain objective. From comments I have received during June and July, I have a great fear that the issue at the core of the suit has been lost in personality clashes and ego-defense mechanism. It seems to me that the core issue here is the same issue I took a stand on when I ran for school board: namely, objective criteria as the basis for responsible decision making. Until the people in our community are willing to speak out for quality education, their children will continue to get what their parents deserve. If our freedom of speech is smothered by an overpowering fear of the school administration or the school board members, then that fear will continue its cancerous destruction of the school system and each May we can bury our graduates in a grave of hopelessness and frustration instead of sending them forth, well armed for the battle for quality in their own lives outside of Carrizozo.

I think we need to stop looking at the people involved in this action and concentrate on the issue: How are decisions made at the highest levels of our community structures?

Sincerely,
Sister Gail Stackpole

Gary Lindsay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley B. Lindsay, 1977 high school graduate is scheduled to depart for Las Cruces to start his freshman year at NMSU. The former football player and FFA member will be studying agricultural mechanics.

My brother, David A. Sanchez, his wife Carmen, daughters Sandra and Shiela from Rosemead, California were here last week. They had been to Albuquerque and were on their way to Clint, and San Elizario, Texas to see grandmother Magdalena Campos and other relatives. I enjoyed a delightful short visit with David and his family, but I didn't even get a chance to ask him if he's bumped into any celebrities lately. David is in the Toyota business. He and 'Kojak' TV star Telly Savalas share the same hair style. Very cool.

Visitors in the home of Laura Farris recently were here sister Emma People's and a nephew from St. Angelo, Texas. Accompanying Emma, was her son Charles. Mrs. Farris, her brothers and sisters were all born on a ranch near St. Angelo, Texas in the early days.

Welcome back to Travis at Piggly Wiggly after an absence. Travis, one of the many neighborly merchants in town, always has a friendly greeting for all who enter the door, rain or sunshine.

'Speaking' of rain. What a down pour we had last Friday. It rained cats and dogs.

'Speaking' of dogs. I will introduce you to our new family pet next week. By then the squabbles over a name will have been settled. Potential names mentioned have been: Patches, Dawg, Critter, Grits, Carter, Tiny and Killer. Personally I prefer Chili Dog.

Preston Trujillo and family arrived from Japan where he was stationed for four years and visited his mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baroz. From here they visited his brother Willie Trujillo and family in Alamogordo and his other brother Mr. and Mrs. Boone Trujillo from Ruidoso. From there he left to his new station in San Diego.

News seems rather scarce in this area. Though the much needed rain has arrived in our area. We have had 3 1/2 inches this past week, the kind that goes into the ground and brings growth forward. Several electric storms one of which last night near 10 p.m. It was very low and so severe, a little rain followed. It is cooler of which we appreciate. The dry creek on the north was higher than for several years. From our rains here the double crossing kept people from crossing as the water was far above the culverts. Some vehicles had to stay out for the night there. That is more like long ago. Just hope the rains do stay with us for some time.

Saturday, August 20 there will be a clean up day at Angus Cemetery. This means come to work there as they have some new land that needs the brush cleared and they need all of the help they can get. Do help them.

Smokey Bear Museum has been so busy they had not had the time to get the news in order. We are glad they are busy and want them to continue to grow.

At this time there is lots of tourists. Highways here and at Ruidoso are so filled.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil, Sr. returned last week from five weeks vacation. They visited Pearl Soderback and Emma Wright in Quilcena, Washington. They visited the Redwood forest and many other points of interest. And report the most wonderful time.

Dear Mary Flores was laid to rest in the Capitan Cemetery. She left beautiful memories with us for she did many good deeds for people in Capitan who needed her. She was a lovely lady and loved by all of us.

John West took his place off from market. He has taken 2 1/2 miles jogs each and has decided he can remodel this place as well. He is doing OK in health now & enjoys working. Good luck and good health John, we are proud of your progress.

Zozo student to study in Mexico

Tammy Hourigan a Carrizozo High School sophomore, has been selected as one of three New Mexico students to attend school in Mexico City this year.

Miss Hourigan was selected by the directors of the International Fellowship Inc., of Buffalo, New York. As an exchange student, she will depart sometime during the first week of September, join her fellow New Mexico exchange students in Albuquerque and fly to Houston where the entire group will leave for Mexico City.

Tammy was well known at Carrizozo High School for "A to Z" a school column she bylined for this newspaper among many other activities. She sold 1,500 luminarias last Christmas, the profits from which were used to help finance the Grizzly Speech Team, she served as president. She also participated in FFA and also served as business manager for Coach Harvey Paul for the 1976 summer sports specials. For her efforts in this program, she was selected by Gov. Jerry Apodaca as an outstanding young lady in Lincoln County and was rewarded with a 10 day, state sponsored, back pack trip through the Pecos Wilderness area with 60 other winners from throughout the state.

During this summer past Tammy was employed at Fort Stanton as a clerical assistant.

Upon her arrival in Mexico City, she and the other exchange students will be met by the Fellowship director, introduced to their foster families and begin their educational experience.

All of the exchange students are between the ages of 14 and 18 years-old, and will have to face the many challenges of the area. They will have to learn the local language, accept new friends, understand the differences in religion, politics, and social and personal customs.

Tammy Hourigan

Upon her return next summer, she will be prepared to speak at assemblies, class groups or other meetings regarding her many experiences in Mexico.

David and Kenny Cummins spent ten days in California visiting relatives and friends. Kenny has returned to college in Albuquerque but David will return Tuesday.

We have a new business in a new location in Capitan and it truly is a credit to our village. It is a beautiful ice cream parlor and there are the best sandwiches, popcorn and health foods. It is a great place to relax and enjoy it. Johnnie is so sweet to everyone. It cannot help but be a big success.

We are so sorry of the resignation of our dear Mayor Jay Johnston. He has done so much for our Village and has it started forward. Only good can be said about him. The item that has been so much discussed is far from correct. If you cannot say good you had better not say anything for this man is a very good man honest and upright. Errors, yes all humans make them. God forgave now, why can't the human race do like wise??? There are evil forces at work here just as all over the world. All of you had better start working forward for the good of the community. Stop this destroying. It is good we need. Start this love thy neighbor and live by it. We need the peace, quiet and happiness that can be found if we work for it.

Little League
Bake Sale

Mothers of Little League players will hold a bake sale this Friday, August 19. Sale tables will be set up in front of the Piggly Wiggly and the Grocery Basket Stores. Proceeds will go toward purchasing trophies for the year's L.L. players.

Cakes, cup-cakes, cookies and homemade candy will be on sale. Prices to vary on the goods sold. Donations will also be taken at the booths. Anybody else wishing to make donations to L.L. fund, contact either of the four coaches or Mrs. Carmen Hill.

Emma Lawson
receives award

Emma Catherine Lawson, Carrizozo Home Economics teacher, was awarded "Outstanding Home Economics Teacher of 1977" at the recent Vocational Association Conference in Las Cruces. This is the highest honor for a home economics teacher in New Mexico.

Mrs. Lawson has completed her seventeenth year teaching in Carrizozo. The first announcement of the award was made at the Vocational Home Economics Teachers luncheon at which time Mrs. Lawson was presented with an engraved name bowl. At the New Mexico Vocational Association banquet where all of the vocational education divisions were represented she was presented with an engraved plaque in the shape of New Mexico. She was nominated by Mrs. Angle Province of Capitan and Mrs. Larue Wetzel of White Oaks and elected by teachers throughout the state. Also honored at the luncheon was a former student teacher of Mrs. Lawson's, Roberta Lucero Munoz. Mrs. Munoz was honored as the FHA chapter advisor of the year.

Wedding Bells Ring

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Norman

Sariah Kathleen Jobe and Arnold Jackson Norman were married recently at the foot of the Capitan Mountains. Rev. Wayland Holbrook officiated in the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garvice Jobe of Ft. Stanton and the groom is the son of Mrs. Dorothy Norman of Corrales and Mr. A.J. Norman of Cedarcrest, N.M.

The bride was escorted by her father and wore a peasant styled gown featuring a neckline of embroidered lace. She wore a floppy brimmed hat and carried a bouquet of pink roses, yellow daisies and blue carnations.

Something old was a cameo ring belonging to the groom's grandmother, and something new was her wedding dress. Something borrowed was a ivory necklace belonging to the brides mother, and she wore the traditional blue garter.

Sandy and Sherry Jobe, sisters of the bride, were her maids of honor. Both wore blue, floor length, Edwardian styled dresses, and carried bouquets identical to the brides.

Neil and Scott Norman, brothers of the groom, served as best men.

An outdoor reception followed the ceremony. Mrs. Rodney Perkins and Mrs. Frank Tones served at the bride's table. Mrs. Elma Campbell presided over the guest book.

After a wedding trip to Canada, the couple are at home in Capitan.

Around the Bowl

Robie Burke

Perk up Grandmother's you are special. Notes, taken from a grandchild.

How do grandmother's know so much? They know how to kill a snake, cut up a chicken, grow flowers, ride horseback, and play ball. Every day I learned something new, or I watched her make something beautiful, like quilts, or a new dress. She could knit and cook. Yum! Yum! The cookie-jar was always full. She never complained about not having modern appliances - and always baked her own bread. My grandmother always had time to stop and read a book aloud or explain something to me. The nicest part of getting hurt was being doctored with monkey blood, a kiss and being held in the rocking chair until all the pain was gone. She helped me fix a lemonade stand, starting me out with a little money out of her savings. We loved to make fried chicken and bread and butter sandwiches for a wonderful picnic in the park, laughing and joking while we cleaned up the mess.

All the children in the block played games until dark running through the hedges, games like "May I", and "Run Sheep Run", while grandmother sat on the porch in her swing, her little hands busy making something for someone.

Now I have grown up, I realize grandmother's never die. Mine is still getting me outside in the summer to tend zinnias. I dislike hot buggy gradening, but I want zinnias in my house when they are in season, just as my grandmother had them. They are a happy flower, and they make me think of her, even though she had many problems, she never let me know, the memories are joyous and I was lucky to have such a special grandmother.

A Pinch house hold hints

1. Some uses for paraffin. Run a thin coating of paraffin over your lard, it will keep it sweet.

2. It is fine for coating cheese to make it air-tight.

3. Try frying your cabbage in a little butter, it cooks and is very good.

4. When your silver needs cleaning put it into a pan of sour milk, cover let stand about 1/2 hour, then rinse and wipe dry - surprised!

A Dash of Humor!

What is this world coming to? I hear they just arrested a fellow who talks dirty to plants. Caught him making an obscene fern call!

Man to friend: "You might describe my financial situation as fluid. Which is a sort of nice way of saying I'm going down the drain."

Sex education use to be learning to kiss without bumping noses.

Health foods were whatever your mother said you'd better eat or else.

Around the Bowl
As you all know, things are really wet, cool, green and beautiful. The rain has done a little damage on roads, particularly Bill Payton's alley, due to recent heavy traffic, and the rain. The road is in bad condition.

Nogal has two new residents in addition to the two famous sculptures whom bought the McDaniel home. Not long ago Fern Sawyer buried her two poodles, and when I visited her this morning, guess who greeted me at the door? Yes, two tiny poodles - both females named - Gingimbre (Gin Gim for Ginger) and BonNiere (Bon Bonor Candy) the cutest puppies you have ever seen and they have certainly found a good home at Fern Sawyers.

Schools re-open

According to Root, children in grades K-6 will continue to pay 40 cents per meal, while grades 7 through 12 will pay 50 cents beginning the first day of school.

The board has been advised that the increase would merely offset the increase in food and salaries. The Board also approved a request for an Open House which will be held as early as possible in the school year. This will be used to arrange meetings between parents and teachers who may be concerned about the new schedule in the elementary grades.

The board also approved a request to provide two one-half in-service days for teachers to write philosophies, objectives, activities, establish time frames and set evaluations for each course being taught in either grade school or high school. In service dates have been set for the afternoons of Aug. 26 and Sept. 2.

Bus contractors for the 1977-78 school year are as follows: Sandia Alford, Bill Montgomery, Clodell McCloud, Kathleen LaMay and Maxine Brown.

Kindergarten students will attend school Tuesday and Thursday during the first semester and on Monday, Wednesday and Friday the second semester.

Root also announced the hiring of Thomas Funk to teach a new course, Practical Communications Skills Through the World of Work, in grades 7 through 12. A native of South Dakota, Funk taught last year in Penasco. He is married and has a two year-old daughter.

Both he and his wife served several years in the Peace Corps. Root reports that Funk is excited about the Title-IV Part C Communications Skills Classes he will teach. He thinks the new class will do much to raise the communication skill levels of those students who have fallen behind in the traditional English classes.

Capitan

The Capitan Schools will be re-opening their doors on August 23 with buses running on the same schedule they did last year, according to Richard Clifton, school superintendent.

Clifton also reported that teachers will report a day early, August 22, for their orientation program.

There will be a number of new faces at Capitan this year including T.L. Brooks, the new principal at the high school, and Jack Cisco, the new football coach and math teacher.

Brook's wife, Pat, will also be teaching language arts and the other new teachers are as follows: Mary Nagy, special education; Sandra Collins, fourth grade; Jimmy Bizzell, math in the intermediate grades; Jackie Branum, Title I language arts; Beckie Garcia, social studies and Spanish; and David Hawkins, science in the intermediate grades.

Additionally, Leroy Montes, town marshal for Capitan would like to remind everyone that the 15 mile-per-hour speed limit adjacent to the Capitan Schools will be strictly enforced beginning August 23, the first day of school. He said that the area where children cross the highway on their way to school will be patrolled and monitored by radar and citations will be issued when necessary.

The calendar for the Capitan District for the coming year is as follows: August 26, holiday, Lincoln County Fair; October 27 and 28, teacher convention; November 24 & 25, holiday, Thanksgiving; Dec. 22, Christmas vacation begins (school dismissed at 2:30 p.m. on Dec. 21); January 2, 1978, school resumes; February 20, holiday, Washington's birthday; March 27-31, Easter holidays; May 26, Graduation, school dismissed for the summer.

Cowbells need help

The Canyon CowBells are asking for your help in sending the New Mexico beef cook-off champion to the National Finals in Columbus, Ohio.

For a $5.00 donation, the Cow Bells will put your brand or initials on Jerry Hourigan's apron. This will let the rest of the nation know where New Mexico is and also help defray some of the cost involved with sending him to Ohio.

Send name, brand and donation to: Linda Gibson, Canyon Cowbells, Carrizozo, N.M. 88301.

Mental health

The DHI-funded mental health and social agency survey preparatory to application for a federal grant for District VI is in its second phase. The planning Council will be deciding on programs and services they would like to see funded this week.

Anyone wishing to present ideas which could be part of a community mental health program is asked to write them down and present them to Joe Orsack, Planning Council member for Lincoln County.

Committees are now being formed to further structure services in specific fields, as Services for Children, Services for the Aging, Mental Health, Youth & Recreation. For further information, or to join a committee, please call Mr. Orsack.

INSIDE THE OUTDOORS

By Gary Dollahan
New Mexico Department of Game and Fish

The kids are going back to school, football games are coming back on television, and it's almost hunting time again.

The State Game Commission met in Santa Fe last month to set the upcoming dove, pigeon, and teal seasons and they are all just around the corner.

In order to hunt any of the above mentioned species, hunters must first purchase a valid state hunting license. A small game license (includes bird hunting) can be purchased by residents for $9.50 and by nonresidents for $26.00. In addition, resident general hunting, general hunting and fishing, and senior general hunting are valid, as are resident bird and nonresident bird licenses purchased before June 17, 1977.

It is required that all hunters, regardless of age, have a valid hunting license in possession while in the field. In addition to the state license, hunters that are after waterfowl (teal included) and are 16 years of age or older must have in possession a duck stamp, available from the post office.

Also, anyone under the age of eighteen must successfully complete an approved hunter training course and have the certificate of completion in his possession before going afield with a firearm.

The mourning and white-winged dove season have returned this year as two 30-day hunts. They are September 1 - September 30 and November 24 - December 23, 1977, statewide.

Bag limit is ten per day, the possession limit is 20, mourning and white-winged dove combined.

Band-tailed pigeon hunters must have a permit, obtained at no charge either by mail or in person from a Game and Fish office, in addition to their bird hunting license.

Southwest New Mexico (south of U.S. 60 and west of Interstate 25) is open for band-tailed pigeons October 1 - October 20, 1977. The remainder of the state is open September 1 - September 20, 1977.

Bag limit for these birds is five per day, and the possession limit is ten.

Blue-winged, green-winged, and cinnamon teal season, September 17 - September 25, 1977. The Central Flyway portion of the state only (east of the Continental divide, but excluding the Jicarilla Apache Indian Reservation) is open to this early teal season.

Teal must be dressed with one fully feathered wing or the head of each teal must remain attached to the bird until it is at your home or a locker plant.

Shooting hours for teal are from sunrise to sunset, as opposed to one-half hour before sunrise to sunset for dove and pigeons.

Lincoln Town

By Hattie Phillips

Daniel David Coleman arrived August 3. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. David Coleman and grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dunlap. He has a sister, Patricia and a brother Scottie.

Ralph Dunlap classified lambs for the Lea County Fair last week on Monday.

Lincoln County Development met at Chief Bernardo's Friday night. A resume of past accomplishments was explained to new members and the group decided to sponsor the County Booth at the New Mexico State Fair next month. The theme chosen was "Lincoln County known around the world".

Following the meeting Mr. and Mrs. Rooney served the group a delicious peach cobbler with ice cream and coffee.

Ken Strucker and Rikki Darling of Albuquerque were over-night guests of the Dunlaps.

Local people as well as others have been enjoying the weekend art shows at "Chief Bernardo's". There will be another August 27 and 28 by artist Osepona of Portales who studied in Italy and does oils.

There will be an ad in the paper about the opening of Chief Bernardo's restaurant which hopefully will be open around August 21 and 22.

Lincoln continues to draw new business and new people.

The Al Booky's are getting closer to completion of their home west of Lincoln, down towards the river. It looks wonderful from the highway and I intend to see it at close range soon.

The new owners of their former home in town will be moving in soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sanchez received an invitation from Santa Fe inviting them to attend graduation ceremonies August 19, at which their grandson David Osuna will be honored as he graduates from the Law Enforcement School. David has worked for the Law Enforcement Dept. in Las Cruces while attending NMSU and has one more year before he graduates from NMSU.

The Sanchez's will go to Santa Fe when he graduates.

David is the son of Jean Sanchez Osuna and Bill Osuna who live in Santa Fe now, so Henry and Caroline will also visit them.

Miss Zoe Shrecengost has been very ill the last few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sanchez who have lived in Albuquerque for many years have moved to the Lincoln area and are building a home directly across the road from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sanchez.

Mrs. Sanchez can sit in her chair and watch the house being built.

Alfred and their daughter, Anita, are both employed at Ft. Stanton. Last week Alfred brought a group of the patients to visit at his parents home and Wildlife refuges and state parks are closed to hunting with some exceptions. Obtain an information sheet for these species for those particular areas open and for further restrictions.

Scoping the Past . . .

10 YEARS AGO
Along with approving a tentative commercial water rate, the Carrizozo City Council reappointed Sally Ortiz and Arnold Boyce as representatives to the Carrizozo-Capitan-Natural Gas Association board for a term of three years. Both were complimented by the council for their work.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kimbrell and Susie Joseph and Rickie visited relatives in San Patricio and Picocho from Madrid Spain they now left to Virginia where Sgt. Kimbrell will be stationed.

Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce members have approved a design for permanent redwood signs to be erected at all four entrances to the town. Signs are to be made by workers at Camp Sierra Blanca, who presently turn out approximately 80 percent of the area Forest Service signs and also others for various school districts.

The United States is financing itself in the war by loans and taxes. It obtains funds from the people, some by taxation and some by the sale of bonds, and then it goes into the markets and buys from the people what it needs. The people supply the government with money and the government with this money buys from the people what it needs for the war.

Social security special procedure

The Social Security Administration has a special procedure called "Direct Deposit." Through this procedure individuals receiving monthly social security checks may have their benefits sent directly to their bank or other financial institution.

Dan Mathis, social security field representative, explained that this Direct Deposit procedure is especially helpful to those who are traveling, to those confined to a hospital or nursing facility, to those who have problems getting their monthly checks to the bank, or cashed, or to anyone who would like the convenience of having their monthly checks sent regularly to their financial institution.

"If you elect Direct Deposit," Mathis said, "your monthly benefits go direct to your financial institution, but any correspondence about your own social security record is sent to your home mailing address."

Anyone interested in having his checks sent to his bank, savings and loan association, or credit union, should contact his financial institution and complete Form 1199.

Governor searches for youths to receive awards

Governor Jerry Apodaca announced New Mexico's second year of participating in the Young American Medals for Bravery and Service. Each Governor will nominate from his home state two youths for the national awards to be selected by the Justice Department on October 31 and awarded by President Carter at a later date. Governor Apodaca has chosen Dr. Glen Gares, State Personnel Director to head the selection process.

The Young American Medal for Bravery will be awarded to a youth 18 years old or younger who, in 1976, performed an act of courage and selflessness in an effort to save another person's life. The candidate need not be a citizen of the U.S. but must habitually reside in this country.

One candidate will be nominated for the service award. The youth must be 18 years old or younger and a citizen of the U.S. The candidate must have exhibited outstanding character and dedicated service in his community during the calendar year of 1976.

All nominations must be accompanied by: (1) documented proof of birth, (2) a biographical sketch of the nominee, (3) a full statement of candidate's outstanding endeavor or service achievement, and (4) supporting statements by witnesses or persons having knowledge of facts surrounding this endeavor or achievement.

Governor Jerry Apodaca encourages all New Mexico youth who have performed outstanding acts of Bravery and Service to distinguish themselves. The deadline for New Mexico nominations is September 15. Nominations can be sent to Dr. Glen Gares, State Personnel Director, 130 So. Capitol, Santa Fe, New Mexico 87503 or call 827-5208 in Santa Fe.

Governor's "Crisis Program"

Prevents utility cut-offs

The Governor's $1,160,000 Crisis Intervention Program designed to prevent utility cut-offs for low income families and the elderly is now in operation.

Herman Grace, Director of the Division of Human Resources said the Governor has designated the DHR to apportion the funds to all counties covered by the state's eleven Community Action Agencies.

Grace said that in counties not covered by the CAAs, applications will be taken by local governments or other non-profit agencies such as Area Agencies on Aging, Councils of Governments, service clubs and the like. Names of these will be publicized locally.

Grace said the Governor has stipulated that funds be handled by the Division of Human Resources and be paid directly to utility companies and other fuel providers. Funds were allocated on the basis of a formula which takes into account heating degree days, number of poverty households, and the number of elderly with incomes below 125 percent of the federally established poverty level, Grace said.

Grace explained that under the Crisis Intervention plan, payment of utility bills cannot exceed $250.00 for any one family for any single year. Payment will be made only for existing and overdue bills, and as advance bill payments escrow where there is clear evidence that a family will not be able to meet future bills.

"We will be meeting emergency situations only, and especially be saving many of the elderly from situations which have the potential of creating extreme hardship as fuel costs continue to rise," Grace said.

Grace added, "The Governor has requested that the program place its major emphasis on assisting the needy elderly."

The crisis intervention funds are part of a nation-wide Community Services Administration program to relieve the energy cost burden among low income families faced with constantly rising fuel costs.

Grace pointed out that the legislation providing funds for the program set an extremely short time frame - July to August 31 - for obligation of crisis intervention funds.

Grace said that any funds from the crisis intervention program which have not been spent when it ends in September will revert to the energy conservation program, which includes low income home weatherization activities now being carried out by the DHR and the CAAs.

"As a result, it is extremely important that all families and individuals, especially the elderly, who feel they meet the qualifications, contact their local CAA or other administering agency as soon as possible," Grace said.

Eligibility requires that applicants income be within 125 percent of the federally established poverty level and that they have utility bills from last winter and cut-off notices to support their claims. Help in filling out applications will be provided those seeking assistance under the program.

Federal poverty guidelines set the poverty level for non-farm families at: one person, $2,970; two persons, $3,930; three persons, $4,890; four persons, $5,850; five persons, $6,810; and six persons, $7,770. Levels for farm families are slightly lower.

The Crisis Intervention Program includes the following guidelines for the processing of applications made by low-income families and the elderly;

A maximum of $250.00 can be provided to assist low-income people with utility bills and energy related expenses. These payments fall into three categories:

A. Utility payments for existing and overdue bills; (b) Utility credit payments to assist with fuel bills to be incurred during the coming winter; (c) Assistance in the amount of $50.00 or less for the payment of bills incurred as a result of the rising cost of fuel.

Supporting documents including utility bills and, if they received one, the shut-off notice, proof of income will be required and should be presented at the time of making application.

The most severe hardship cases among the elderly, handicapped and disabled will be given priority.

Application will be processed by the Community Action Agencies, then forwarded to the State Division of Human Resources. Payment to utility companies will be approved by the

by Dolly Lawson

Vacation time is almost over. Public school will start week and our fall program will begin the same time. We have eight school age children who should enroll at the local public school. The State Education Agency had the children evaluated several weeks ago to see if public school was the appropriate placement for them. One boy has been in public school for several years and the two girls in the group have also been in the local public school. At this time we are waiting for our Administrator and the other agencies involved to make a final decision. By law and the court case at Los Lunas the children are eligible for state education funds and services. Our local state ICF auditors-survey team spent two days at the Fort last week. They completed the state survey prior to the federal survey in the fall. We were very pleased with the results and it was as we expected. There were no deficiencies in the Training and Habilitation Department and none in the Psychology department. The only areas of concern were the pupil-staff ratio, lack of PT personnel, lack of a MSW and a few other minor problems such as the temperature of the hot water. All departments had excellent records and there were no problems, as in the past, with the method of noting pupil progress. Medical records had no problems of any type. The team enjoyed seeing the children involved in so many different types of programs. Our dietary department was praised for the cooperation with the direct care and teaching staff. Barney Mancha works closely with the staff in planning all events and his work is appreciated. All in all I feel very happy with the survey. We try so hard to have a good program for the children and it shows when we have visitors. The administration is concerned about developing programs which will help children be placed back in the home community. The staff is looking forward to the federal audit because it will be more thorough. The teachers have the attitude that the audits simply help show areas which need more improvement. The week of the audit was enjoyable. It rained several days and was much cooler. The major problem is files. Never have I seen so many files. Flagstaff did not have a problem with files or mosquitoes. Certain areas had them but not to the point we have here. After twelve years away from files we are having a problem adjusting to new ways to combat them. Pest strips, fly baits, fly swatters seem to be the way of summer life. At least we don't have gnats or the big green biting deer flies as we suffered with in other areas, or at least they haven't shown up of yet. Vacations are coming to a close for employees. Mark Delgado was away last week. Bobby Crenshaw will be away during the week for a few days. Cecelia Apodaca will be off for a week. Dewey Dewebere has planned to be for a week. Pat Hicks is leaving August 17 for two weeks. Our family will try again to take off for a few days. We have tried since June to take a vacation and each time something else happens. Once we had to postpone due to a forest fire in

The News, August 18, 1972, Page 8 Flagstaff. Our home was in the fire line and we rushed over there to check on it. All of Mt. Eldon burned and the fire crossed 89 North several times. We have met many people in Lincoln County who go to Flagstaff often. They will be shocked to see Mt. Eldon now. The entire side facing toward Winslow burned and about half of the west side. All of the towers at Wolf Head were burned. Slurry marks are still visible almost to ground level. It is a sad sight and all of it was caused by a campfire. The second time we planned to leave my sister and her husband popped in unannounced. They did not have enough time to go with us so we just stayed and took short trips here in the state. The third time we planned to

News from County Agent

By Ralph Dunlap

Calves in Montana are contracting for late October delivery at 46 to 47 cents per pound and 40 to 42 cents per pound for steer and heifer calves respectively. These calves are expected to weigh 300 to 400 pounds. Wyoming reports some 425 pound choice and prime calves contracting for 45 cents per pound for steers and 40 cents per pound for heifers. One string of reputation steer calves in southeastern New Mexico have contracted for 48 cents per pound.

With the grain prices going down, the cost of grain in the feedlot will be lower. I expect the feeders to be steady to strong this fall. Rain in West Texas also helps the price of feeder cattle as many calves and yearlings go to winter wheat pasture in that area.

County fair is just a week away so put August 26 and 27 on your calendar and plan to attend. The Lincoln County Fair is a "county" fair; it will be in Capitan at the fairgrounds at the south edge of town. The junior market animals will be weighed and classified on Thursday, August 25th starting at 1:00 p.m. They will show on Friday starting at 8:00 a.m. with the swine classes. The beef cattle and market calves will show after the swine classes. The sheep and market lamb classes will be Friday afternoon. The Junior Livestock Sale will be Saturday starting at 11:30 a.m.

The Mescalero cattle sale this Saturday, August 20th will give the ranchers in this area a better idea of the calf prices for contracts this fall. The ranchers have been waiting for some prices to develop before offering any calves for contract this fall.

CLASSIFIEDS WORK FOR YOU!!

Sometimes Ya Kinda Wonder

Why is it? A man wakes up in the morning after sleeping on an advertised bed, in advertised pajamas. He will bathe in an advertised tub, wash with advertised soap, shave with an advertised razor, creams and lotions, put on advertised clothes and glance at his advertised watch. He will ride to work in an advertised car, sit at an advertised desk and write with an advertised pen. Yet, this man hesitates to advertise, saying that advertising does not pay. Finally, when his unadvertised business goes under, he will advertise it for sale. Advertise!!
