MY TIME

by Mike Swickard

I had an enjoyable experience last Friday. I went to Portales to catch the graduation exercises for the Summer classes, and got an excellent speech by Aubrey Dunn, Senator Aubrey Dunn of the Alamogordo Daily News. I see him every Wednesday. It was good to see one of our very own on the platform, in an august black robe, telling the big boys how it is out in the grass roots

His talk to the graduating class had a earth level line in it "Now that you have graduated, it is time to get away from the Public Trough". Senator Dunn pointed out that for each $900 a student pays in tuition, the state (you and I) pay some $7,000. He told them that in our state, the per capita income ranks 46th, but in money spent for education, we rank 12th. Education is very important to New Mexicans. Mr. Dunn went on to challenge each person graduating to come by after the ceremony and pay in full if he intended to take full credit for his education. In a lighter view, he suggested each graduate sign an I.O.U. In yet an easier approach, he suggested those who didn't wish to do either one, assure him that that they would go out and be worth the investment that New Mexico was making in them.

Senator Dunn mentioned having wondered why he was invited as a speaker. Further, since he was not a long time college man, what would he say. Instead of telling the graduates how great they are, he challenged them to go out and be as great as New Mexico would like them to be. It rang the Liberty Bell, after 200 years and said what I felt so deeply, my three criteria, be glad you are an American, be proud you are in New Mexico, and thank God for your knowledge, good judgement and common sense.

I found that Aubrey appeared to have been reading my mail. A teacher should be pleased to have a contract in Carrizozo, one of the 12 highest average salaries in the state. He should humbly appreciate the investment the "American way of Life" has made in him. He should be thankful he has the opportunity to prove himself worthy.

Seems like all of my life, I have been around people with college degrees. It leaves me unimpressed, even indignant, when someone assumes a superior attitude to properly sanctify their great educational background. Columbus had to have some ships, Lindberg had to have a plane, and an educator who wants to escape the public trough, must earn and keep the respect of the community in which he practices his profession.

The public trough is a popular place these days for some people to make two and three times the money that hard working citizens of this community

A Letter to the Editor

I AM WRITING this in reference to your childish, ridiculous and disgusting editorials that have appeared in your newspaper and I say your newspaper because you are using your power with the paper to satisfy your own personal vandetta towards the school system and in some instances our Town. I am very sorry that you cannot and do not want to use your efforts to help build our community into a more desirable place to live rather than to completely -destroy-by-constantly-criticicizing. I realize there is definitely a personality conflict between some adults in this town especially toward the school system. Falso know that the attitudes of the adults reflect upon our young people and that our school children are suffering the consequences. The attitudes toward the school and teachers is reflected through the parents and most adults to our young people. Thank goodness they have better sense than to believe everything they hear and see: I also question the fact that the men elected to the school board were elected by the people because of their performance in their respective homes as husbands, fathers, telephone men, ranchers, barbers, or carpenters or because the people elected these men knowing they would act in the best interest of our children. You can't seem to understand that you are hur-

I'm sure you feel I am very prejudice and partial because I am a native of Carrizozo, and because my good husband is on the school board. You bet I am prejudice and it makes me darn mad that the town is being torn apart by a few people that don't care about our community. We have lost several good teachers, because of the constant harassment they have to bear. In the future it is going to be very difficult to get good teachers to come to Carrizozo because of this reason, and I can't say I would not blame them for not wanting to come here. Also, we have some of the finest young people in the country right here in Carrizozo. but very seldom do you see a representative of the newspaper at their functions reporting on their good acts and deeds and progress that they are making, but let a child make a mistake and they are lambasted from cover to cover. I think that it is time that we of this town that care had better take a stand and defend our schools, and town and together maybe we can put a stop to this ridiculous type of verbal abuse and the newspaper can find some other way to increase its circulation rather than using our schools, and local government.

The All New, Improved. Announcing

In beginning this story I would like to take you back a hundred years. As I rembmber it, Saturnino Baca suggested naming our new county, Lincoln, "1869, Abraham Lincoln, President of the Union he had just saved, lost his life as a direct result, and honoring him was-very popular. You all remember how in the commemoration of the Centennial Year, 1969, a Pony Express Race was set up. Just as nine years after the county was formed the Lincoln County War broke out, now, nine years after the race began the firing may be fixing to start. It is interesting to read James D. Shinkle's book, "Robert Casey & the Ranch on the RioHondo" I knew Mr. Shinkle, was on the staff with him at Roswell Campus of Eastern New Mexico University.

"At the time of the murder of Robert Casey, the sheriff of Lincoln County was Alexander H. Mills, who was better known as Ham Mills. At the timé Mills was under two indictments. one for manslaughter and another for embezzlement. Other county officials

I Don't have it and I don't know where it were under indictments by the Grand Jury for various reasons. In order to give some idea of the conditions among the officials of the Lincoln County, the following cases are cited. These cases were to be heard at the October 1875, or the April 1876, Lincoln County District Court sessions....

Case No. 151—Indictment against Alexander H Mills, the sheriff, for embezzlement of $3,000 of Lincoln County Tax Funds. At that time the sheriff of a county was responsible for the collection of all taxes and licenses levied in the county. No information has been found as to the disposal of this · Case No. 153---Indictment against the county treasurer for permitting gambling at his business location. He was fined $9.50 and costs of the trial....

Case No. 154--Indictment against the probate clerk of the county for permitting gambling at his business location. He was fined $50....

Case No. 157---Indictment against the probate clerk of the county for neglect of duty of his office by failing to keep proper records of warrants issued against the county treasurer. The case was dismissed....

Case No. 158---Indictment against the county treasurer for not keeping proper records of his office. Disposal of the case is not known....

Case No. 163--Indictment against Alexander H. Mills, the sheriff, for assault against Gregario Balensula, with a Winchester rifle. The charge was manslaughter. The disposal of this case is not known....

The preceding District Court clerk. William C. Slocum, was placed in jail by Judge Bristol for contempt of court, being drunk on duty....

The District Court clerk at the time the county officials were in trouble was J.S. Couch. According to the records he does not appear to have been delinquent..."

Yes we did have a rather robust group of pioneers back then. Maybe our heritage is stronger than we think. We have better guns, faster horses, wilder women, tougher men... more booze, more money, faster news, hotter tempers... We have everything to make this new war one which will make the old one look like a picnic.

To lay the base for the new war we need to go back to 1976, Centennial Year. And what is more patriotic than to lay plans for a war? The setting is the big horse race, Bobby Dan Crenshaw, somehow or other, was the man who put up the money and signed his name. Now right there, you know, mounted and with solemn faces were: Bud Crenshaw, just as a spectator of course:

the grand BiCentennial Race. That same year I went to see the movie. "Bite the Bullit", with Ben Johnson and others. That movie was about a grand horse race up in Colorado. Ourhorse race has the makins of a better movie. though that was a big one. But Old Bob was modest with the winnins...To Bud went the saddle, to Orvelle the trophy, to Kenny best wishes, to Waddy the money, all $108, and Bob and Benny were to share the plaque. As I remember the story, as Waddy told it to me in December of 1976, the $108 was not enough to pay for the party, but it

Now comes 1977 and the trophy handed out did not come back. Nice Lady tells me she didn't hear a word about it being a traveling trophy, it was just a take-home trophy for all she knew. After the grand trophy that had been retired by Benny Runnells this has it I don't know, the stuff that got shuffled aound, I mean. Now comes a faint story that if Bobby Dan doesn't get the trophy and return it he is going to get a campaign waged against him this fall in the coming election. Well, of course there will be a campaign against him but supposely if he does what he is told to he can avoid this one.

I remember an old saying from somewhere. "Blessed it is to give, _especially when you get rid of something you don't want". You all

BUD CREHSHAW, his mount, and Old Carrizo ready to go.

Kenny Crenshaw, he's been known to take part; Benny Runnells and Waddy Hobbs, two of the greatest distance riders the state has ever known. Then there was Orvelle Runnells, there somewhere. Must of been, there was going to be a horse race.

Right there...you have Lincoln County Mem! Rhodes talks of the cowman, the man horseback, who conquered and tamed the Tularosa Basin: "Courage was the great virtueno man ran from a fight or quit before he was licked. Loyalty came next-a man stood by his friends, right or wrong, win or lose. Then came steadfastness-staying by the job till it was new one struck the winners as being quite different.

The 1977 winners wanted their traveling trophy. It was suggested to Bobby Dan that he return it. Bob honestly passed the word along that it seemed it was not a "keeper". The trophy apparently went up the Bonita but somewhere up there the trail gets

I hear the story that a dirty mule thief stole it. It seems that the police and the sheriff's office were duly notified. I have checked the story out and there definitely was some shuffling around of animals and property. Who rightfully owned it I don't know, who

There then is the scene. In a heritage values are handed down from generation to generation. Some things you do you do not even know why. They are just very real and very deep inside you. ### Letter To The Editor

Editor Lincoln Co News Carrizozo, NM

Dear Editor,

I, along with many other Lincoln Co. people have followed the yearly Lincoln Co Pony Express Race since it began with great enthusiasm. The Traveling Trophy for the winner or winners which we are all familiar with and which is presented each year to the winner or winners (last year the winner was Clements) - Last year's winner to my knowledge did not get it - and it seems the Association does not have it in their possession --I'm asking where is it?

The Pony Express Race takes place the 5th, of August. This would seem to allow little time for the association to gain possession of this costly trophy in order to have it ready for this years race winner or winners. Also, it is my understanding that letters from the Association have recently been sent to past participants barring them from this year's race or any hereafter. Is this just? If there were valid reasons for barring them, why hasn't the Association publicized them so we will all know why they have been barred?

Lincoln County War

remember the story of the revenue agent agent wanting a young boy to take him up into the Tennessee hills in search of a still. The boy wanted his fifty cents before they went up. The fellow wanted to wait until they came down. The knowing boy said, "Pay me now...you ain't comin' down." Bud and comments floating around during these two days. I hear stories the prizes have not kept coming along with the hoped for purses. It seems you lose financially when you take the trouble to enter. The race itself is questioned by some as being too harsh an endurance for man and animal. Changing the route of the race has caused a lot of concern. It has not drawn as many entries as some thought it would, possibly because of smallness of the monetary prize. There seems to be three main entries, one from Lincoln, now and then more, one from the Hondo-Roswell outfit, and one from the Duran-Vaughn area. If we lost the Lincoln County group, if the Hindi's dropped out, we would just about lose it.

The good folks running the race

Course if the shooting breaks out, and we get international attention, we may counter charges and counter suits.

, I hear tell Louise Coe Runnells, there is a grand old Lincoln County name. Louise is upset because Benny has been told if he rides, the purse will be held up. I hear tell he isn't pushing to get in it but he is perhaps the race's all' time great rider. Nowhere are you going to find pride running deeper than with Louise. I like Louise.

I hear Waddy Hobbs can't shake loose to get back but again he is getting the no-winning tag put on him. That 12 year old boy who rode a horse from Fi-Sumner to Clovis way back yonder...a professional rodeo rider...out goes a

I want to close with a story that Eugene Rhodes told. His saddle was stolen in Mesilla, "About a year later, riding the Jornada; southwest of Aleman, Gene met... & three of his henchmen. Albino was riding my Today when I was up at Orvelle's it was sorta like that, drizzling, cool, bound dogs... I don't know where it is. But I do hope somehow we work it out. Maybe if we all write a letter to Santa...

A hunk of marriage talk about life!

There is a lot of talk these days about the American family dying out. The growing number of single parent families and the tendency of people to live alone is increasing. The fact is however-so cheer up- this is not necessarily true. The family structure is still on the survival list. People are getting married at a later age than they used to, but the majority of them do marry eventually. The overall picture of single parents are remarrying because of the need for emotional ties.

There is also a trend that husbands are taking over the child-raising and household tasks formerly done by wives. This is a myth-although there have certainly been some major changes in some families, wives and mothers still carry the greatest share of the domestic load whether or not the wives have jobs and regardless of the number of children in the family.

By Margaret Rench

Dear Readers near and far. Thank you, for your inquiries about my news Thursday July 20th, which was not in the paper. I did mail the news and it did leave Capitan. Our Post Office did not fail us. Will tell you this that news was not received by the paper as they have told me. Somewhere it did disappear. That is the second time this year. But I truly did not fail you and will not. I cannot remember all of the news but I do know I had a good column but there is nothing we can do about it. It does hurt me as it does you for I truly do work hard each week to have good

The soot and creosote that accumulates in your chimney hangs there like a time bomb waiting for that chance spark to ignite it.

Town Policy, the gelding who was stolen last year and finally recovered in Mexico, is back on the grounds at Ruidoso preparing for the upcoming All-American Derby. And Clive Gammon of Sports Illustrated was also on hand at the mountain track last weekend. He's doing a story on the super-star to appear in an August issue. Town Policy not only finished second in last year's All-American Futurity, but chalked up a win in the Los Alamitos Derby a few months after being recovered by his owner, Ivan Ashment of Apple Valley, Callf. The gelding's earnings are already close to $400,000.

The wagering equipment was really steaming over the weekend as patrons pumped in $639,234 on Saturday, $631,205 on Sunday. The two-day total comes out to a whopping $1,279,439. The rapid betting spurt swelled the daily average (after 46 race days) to $420,082. (Last year at this time, the average stood at $394,158.) The current season appears certain to set a flock of new mutuel marks.

If Six Te, the top qualifier for the Kansas Futurity, had run in his Rainbow trial as he did in Saturday's Consolation, he might have easily earned a berth in the $377,297 Rainbow finale. The gelding took his Rainbow trial in 20.16 seconds. But in jetting to a half-length win in Saturday's Consolation, he crossed the 400-yard distance in 19.99 seconds, only 3-100's slower than Vespero's top qualifying time. Six Te's victory, his fourth in five starts, boosted his career earnings by $14,127 for a total money line of $35,137. He's trained by Don Farris.

The Stewards subjected the photo finish of Friday's fifth race to a persual since the two horses, Men in Blue (No. 6) and Zero's Dream (no. 9), were separated by a barely discernible margin. Although just short of a dead heat, the picture defined the difference and the decision finally came down that Men In Blue had edged his companion for a win return of $11,60. Zero's Dream gave $9.20 to backers as the runnerup.

The record for the highest Big Q payoff this season was toppled on Friday. But an even larger return lit the board on Saturday. On Friday, two lucky ticketholders selected the 9-7 (Seven Songs-Who's Princess) combination in the eighth race and matched it with the 10-8 (Charge It Mama-Triangle Pass) duo in the ninth and each walked off with $11,688.60 But on Saturday, a bigger pool was split down the middle by two lucky bettors who chose 4-8 (Cheyenne Fanny-Fol's Wish) and 9-10 (Loving Man-Nosey Evil). Each took home $18,814.

Ward-Leslie Reunion Was Well Attended

The Ward-Leslie reunion was well attended, with 98 members of the family present, from various parts of our United States. We had folks from Georgia, Arkansas, Nevada, California, Texas, North Carolina, Arizona, and New Mexico.

The business meeting got under way at 3p.m. immediately after the newspaper photographer had taken a number of pictures.

Zane Leslie and Bessie did the honors by presenting awards and introducing the heads of families.

The first introduction was Miss Joan Ballenger, who presented her flancee and invited all those gathered to her wedding August 12.

The welcome speech was made in the German language by Zane Leslie, Jr. and translated in English by Inez Ballenger; Ken Ballenger sang the hymn, beautifully as always, Tom Ward led the group in the Lord's Prayer.

The eldest members were each persented a red carnation, and the eldest child in each family presented members.

A drawing was held for the quilt top and pillow top. Pauline Hicks won the quilt top and Cameron Richardson won the pillow top.

Awards were given for the youngest, oldest, most active child, family traveling fartherest, with most in attendance and for other more humorous things.

Clarence and Beverly Leslie, Gene and Eileen Leslie, the sons of the late Ellis and Dora Leslie, were elected to M.C. the proceedings next year. They are from Barstow, California.

Curtis Payne played the fiddle and was accompanied in turn by David Hicks and Floyd Littleton on the guitar for country dancing at the White Oaks school house; we also taped music provided by Allan Ward. Everyone had a good time, some remembering other times when they had danced at White Oaks.

Those with campers gathered up on the Tom Ward homesite in White Oaks, looking some what like a "camper city". Each night they built up a big. bonfire and enjoyed singing, games, and visiting.

Breakfast was cooked and served by Dollie Ward, Yvonne Leslie, Ardythe Ward and Mary Burns in the school house Sunday morning.

Since there are so many good cooks in the family, there was an abundance of delicious food and everyone came away well fed and happy and looking forward to being here next year.

A Letter To The Editor

July 31, 1978

Dear-Mike,

When a man goes out to the backhouse and sits down and memorizes a few eight-letter words from the Sears catalog, and with his peers, who without a doubt graduated from the same school, and who holds the reins to the system of Carrizozo like the ones who are keeping Capitan in check, becomes the principal of a school to teach and show our young people the way, and is damned fool enough to resent being called a good husband and father is nothing but a wooden puppet and he is dancing to the tune of his peers. Look out for this kind of guy because he has vicious people manipulating his strings. There's only one thing left to do---cut his strings. But don't put the scissors down because just as sure as the Lord made little green apples another like is sure to come down the pike. So until someone can get through to the center of this ball of twine keep cutting the strings, Mike, and maybe, just maybe the people in your town might look straight ahead instead of turning their heads and see what you see. You have courage Mike. Don't let those backhouse politicians get to you. Stay in there.

N.M.S.U. Receives Full Accreditation

from North Central Association

LAS CRUCES-New Mexico State University has received full accreditation for a ten-year period from the North Central Assocation of Colleges and Schools. Accreditation covers programs through the doctoral degree level. The ten year period is the maxium granted by NCA.

The NCA evaluation team, composed of university administrators representing ten institutions throughout the nation, visited the campus during April. NMSU was last visited by an evaluation team in 1971. The 1978 team commented. "Most of the concerns expressed in the 1971 (and earlier) reports have been alleviated. Faculty development has been outstanding. The program of construction and renovation of buildings is almost without equal among comparable institutions. Programs have been strengthened and made more sensitive to the needs of the institutions various audiences, including minority

The report listed the evaluation team's perception of the university's strengths and weaknesses. Strengths cited included "knowledgable and capable administrative team," "dedicated faculty, much upgrade since the last NCA visit," "enthusiastic and loyal student body," "excellent facilities," "strong state-wide support" and "sensitivity of the institution to the needs of the state."

Evaluation team concerns cited included "increased authority by the Board of Educational Finance as a result of legislative action which poses a potential threat to institutional autonomy," "need for better (internal) communications," "perception on the part of some that the role of faculty in governance is minimal" and "over-crowded in the library."

In preparation for the 1978 NCA evaluation team visit, NMSU completed a university-wide, self-study process. The approach is unique and involved a program-by-program analysis of both academic and support units by teams composed of university personnel. The NCA team "In general...was highly impressed with the outcomes of the self-study" and commented."The approach is one that could be adapted to the needs of many institutions." Evaluation the innovative self-study process, the NCA team listed a number of suggestions for improvement of the process itself.

In overview comments, the NCA evaluation team report commented, "In general, the morale of the students, staff, and faculty is high. Almost all are proud of their institution and its accomplishments. NMSU is turning out students, most of whom are placed, and the best of whom are accepted for graduate study in the nation's best universities. The primary purposes of the institution are being well-served."

Vespero Sweeps to Rainbow Futurity Victory

(2nd-Moon Lark-19.98-170,688) (3rd-Miss Top Dial-20.08-136,227)

Ruidoso downs, N.M.-Vespero, a gelding who's had difficulty staying on a straight course a few times in the past, stepped off an arrow-straight line in Sunday's 15th running of the $446,800 Rainbow Futurity at Ruidoso Downs.

Vespero ended the 400-yard run with a commanding lead and earned $154,630 for his owners, Gordon and Juanita Crone of Lakin, Kansas.

The fans were duly impressed with Vespero's credentials of five wins from six starts and made him a 9-5 favorite in the second leg of quarter horse racing's Triple Crown.

That only defeat came in the Kansas Futurity trials earlier in the season, when Vespero bumped some of his running mates before flashing to an easy 21/2-length win. As a result, his number was taken down. But there was no wayward movement on Sunday as Jockey Keith Asmussen got the people's choice out of the gate alertly, and had him contention right at the start. Moon Lark, at just over 4-1, appeared to get the early lead from the No. 2 slot. Miss Top Dial, carrying odds of 61/2-1, was also in the. thick of things at the front end.

From that point on, it was plainly a three-horse race. No one else in the field managed to offer any resistance.

Vespero got stronger with each stride, and at the midway point, it was apparent Moon Lark would be unable to hold him off. With about 100 yards to go, the Vespero had the sniff of big money in his nostrils, and the incentive was enough to push him well into the clear. He was surging ahead eagerly when he flashed under the wire with a three-quarter-length lead.

Vespero stopped the clock in 19.88 seconds-quite an improvement over his top-qualifying time of 19.96. The gelding is trained by Marilyn Asmussen (Jockey Keith Asmussen's wife). Thus. Marilyn etched her name in quarter horse records books by becoming the first lady trainer to capture a stakes race of super-size dimension.

Vespero returned $5.80 to win, $3.40 to place and $3 to show. The gelding now holds a career bankroll of $173,075 and obviously looms as the one to beat in next month's trials for the $1,280,000 All-American Futurity.

Moon Lark, owned by Paul Thomas and Sam Howard of Coppell, Texas, nailed down second in a yery game try. He earned $70,688 while taking his first defeat in four outings. The tote payoffs were $5.20 and $4.20. Jackie Martin was Miss Top Dial, ridden by Carl White, sailed in third-three quarter lengths behind Moon Lark. Third was worth $36,227. Miss Top Dial is owned by Dewey Bird of Stigler, Okla. Leo Craghead is the trainer.

Here's the remaining order of finish, with purse money earned: 4th-Dickys Fireman, $18,997; 5th--Miss Royal Cynthia, $17,230; 6th-Top Deck Bunny, $16,788; 7th-Say Lady, $16,346; 8th-Oh Oh Lady Oh, $15,904; 9th-Azurelena, $15,904; 10th--Copasetti, $15,021.

The total cash outlay in Sunday's grand finale was $377,297, plus a five grand breeding award. Saturday's Rainbow consolation disbursed $64,503.

NO SMALL CONSOLATION-Six Te stretches out for a half-length win as an odds-on favorite in the Rainbow Futurity Consolation at Ruldoso Downs. Jerry Nicodemus-is up, Six Te earned $14,127.

Foggy King Rolls to Easy Victory

-Ruldoso Downs, N.M.--Foggy King stepped on the gas at the turn for home and rolled to an easy 31/2-length victory in Thursday's feature race at Ruidoso Downs.

The winner, owned by Robert Littlefield of Midland, Texas, clocked the 51/2 furlongs in 1:07 4-5 seconds and returned mutuel prices of $10.80, $4.80 and $3.40. Jack Wallace was up. Bin Dancing, who set the early pace, began giving up the chase at the turn for home and had to settle for a well-beaten second. The payoffs were

Hopeful Journey 1st in First Lady Handicap (1:06)

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N.M.-Hopeful Journey, a filly who usually goes charging to the front, reversed her tactics in Saturday's third running of the First Lady Handicap at Ruidoso

Jockey Carlos Rivas kept Hopeful Journey in third place down the backstretch of the 512-furlong sprint, then asked her for life at the turn for Hopeful Journey took the measure of the pacesetter, Credit Reference, then easily put away a mild threat from the 6-5 favorite, Countess Blade at the wire, Hopeful Journey was cruising with a comfortable 134-length lead.

The winning time of 1:06 flat was only four ticks off the track record. Hopeful Journey earned $4,980 for her owner, B. Raymond Evans of Tulia, Texas. The payoffs: $5.80, $3.20, $2.20. Credit Reference finished .second. paying $3.20 and $2.40. Countess Blake, unable to deliver a solid closing salvo. came in third, a nose behind Credit Reference. The show price was $2,40.

Hopeful Journey is a New Mexico Bred filly by Hopeful Venture who stands at the Hondo Ranch IN Hondo, Saturday's program, viewed by another (hefty) crowd, also included the 400-yard Rainbow Futurity Consolation. Six Te, the odds-on favorite, rushed up strongly in the final steps to pull out a half-length win in a brisk tailwind clocking of 19.99 seconds. Jerry Nicodemus was up.

Six Te, a gelding leased by Anne B. Tandy of Ft. Worth, earned $14,127 and paid $3.80 to win. Speck A History was second. Pass Catcher ran third.

PLASTIC in wool can cause a severe discounts on all wool grown in the U.S. This was one of the major points brought up by Angus McCall of Yokum-McCall Wool Testing Labratory of Denver. One of the major sources of plastic contamination of wool is the plastic string used to tie the wool. Every time a bale is tied a short piece of plastic is cut off. These shreds of plastic fall to the ground and later gets into the wool when the sheep graze these areas. Any contact with plastic string can get it in the wool.

The reason plastic is so detrimental is that the last process in making wool cloth requires that the fabric is flamed quickly to remove the . loose fibers. At this time the plastic is melted into the fabric and ruining it. This portion then has to be removed.

Woolgrowers should make a effort to keep all plastic from the area where the sheep are pastured.

Screw worms are being found in many areas of New Mexico and in counties around Lincoln County. Anyone doing any branding should use a fly repellent on all wounds. If you find any worms in the wounds, send them in to have them identified. Spraying livestock with coral will help reduce the fly problem.

Bruce King handily carried Bernalillo over Bob Ferguson in the Democratic gubernatorial primary, 24,618 to 13,804.

On the Republican side, Joe Skeen handsomely bested his GOP gubernatorial opponent, Bob Grant, even though Grant as an Albuquerque state representative had figured to do well there. Skeen topped Grant in the County, 14,024 to 4,493.

Gov. Jerry Apodaca may have been signaling that he plans to run for U.S. Senate by his joint public appearances with Bruce King at a regional Democratic conference in Santa Fe. Apodaca and King have been at odds for years, and there were some signs Apodaca might try to have his people helping Republican Joe Skeen in his race against King for the governorship. But sources at the 13-state regional party affair said Apodaca may have definitely decided to go against GOP freshman Sen. Harrison Schmitt in four years. And since Apodaca won't have the power base of the governorship, he'll need the good will and support of the party-an unlikely prospect if he
