Gives County Employees Raise —

County Budget For 1978-79

MRNS-Lincoln County balanced its budget Monday and came up with expected resources of $2,503,310 for the 1978-79 year.

County Manager Les Olson gave the commissioners a mark-up budget which left over a half million unencumbered; maintained a 21 percent reserve in the general fund; and gave County employees a 10 percent pay raise.

The road fund budget calls for expenditures of $355,713 and anticipates a $280,744 balance at the end of the fiscal year.

The general fund resources were cut back by Olson after a report from the county treasurer's office which showed lagging property tax collections.

Olson said that he revised the current year anticipated resources from property taxes from $351,502 to $305,828. The difference goes into the delinquent property tax column.

County evaluations are up from $61 million to $65 million and the revenue from that should be $370,000, Olson said.

With the lagging collections, the county manager said he could only expect $311,000 in collections and reduced the budget accordingly.

The General Fund portion of the budget calls for expenditures of $819,398. The largest chunk goes to Sheriff Bill Elliott's Law Enforcement department.

The Commission gave Elliott $245,273, a record amount for the county and a healthy increase over last week's tentative proposals. The budget includes a 15 percent hike in deputy salaries and a 20 percent increase for dispatchers and jailers.

Commissioner John Sudderth said he would approve the Sheriff's budget on two conditions; that all surplus vehicles be sold and that the Sheriff understand that he, Sudderth, would not sign any warrants in excess of the budgeted amount.

The reasons behind Sudderth's conditions stem from an over-run in this year's law enforcement account. The car stipulation, according to Sudderth, results from the use of a surplus car by volunteers in the law enforcement department. The Sheriff allowed Mounted Patrol members to use an old vehicle rather than sell it. Sudderth disagrees with this use.

The general fund resources come from a variety of taxes and fees, the largest being property taxes. Revenue sharing will bring in $166,196 and federal Payments in-Lieu of this year will amount to $298,427 (In-Lieu funds are paid by the federal government according to lands in the county owned by the United States and thus not taxable).

General fund expenditures expected are: County Commission 18,309; Administration 99,762; Building, Mice and Grounds 52,115; Recording and Filing 63,914; Bureau of Elections 9,258; Property Assessments 140,428; Treasurer 67,094; Law Enforcement 184,773; Jail Detention and Corrections 60,500; Emergency Medical Service 41,401; Planning and Zoning 2,304; Extra-Territorial P&Z 2,304; Health Systems Agency 456; Mental Health 4,290; SMEDD 1,200; NMAC 1,830; County and State Fair 3,060; County Health Department 19,223; County Extension 21,577; Soil Conservation 3,850; Senior Citizens 9,500; Alcoholism Treatment 2,000; Sanitary Landfills 1,040; Civil Defense 500; Library-Ruidoso 3,000; Ruidoso Hospital 6,700.

Special funds in addition to the road fund are Predatory Animal Control with $14,433 in resources and $10,000 budget; Range Improvement with $82,289 in and $30,000 to be spent;

Recreation resources of $2759 will all be spent.

Mary Ellen Payne of the Carrizozo Swimming Pool Committee appeared with a request of $1500 for the swimming program. She said that the pool is used by many children outside of the town and that financial assistance is required if the pool was to open this year.

The commission granted her request and said that $1500 would be made available for the Ruidoso swimming program if it was requested.

The county goes into the fiscal with $710,000 in bonded indebtedness. Sudderth asked that the wording of the bonds be checked to determine the possibility of an early payoff. Sudderth said it might be advisable to retire the bonds before maturity to save the county interest money.

After the budget work was done, Lee Straley said he was generally pleased with the financial picture except "the only thing that scares me is a greater reliance upon federal funding".

Straley noted that about 65 percent of the budget was being spent on "people services" and that those employees might someday find themselves without jobs if federal funds were cut.

Sudderth agreed with Straley but noted that "the federal government has placed us in this position. Federal taxes are so high that increased county taxes are impossible."

Sudderth said he considered the "in lieu of" funds as being very fair. He said a refund-of-money-to-the-county that would have been realized had the land (federal) been private was reasonable. He noted that there are one million acres of federal land in Lincoln County that are not on the tax rolls.

Commissioner Shorty Stoneman also agreed that the budget was in good shape.

Sudderth told the County Manager to recall all books of purchase orders, noting that each deputy sheriff had such a book. He said that purchasing should be through the manager's office.

The commission was not able to budget for a requested $30,000 intensive care unit for the Ruidoso Hospital. The $6700 in the budget is to be spent on a helicopter landing pad. The $23,000 mill levy is already going toward hospital building improvements.

In other action Monday, the county agreed to purchase the future medical center building in Carrizozo from Johnson Stearns for $25,000 and approved a franchise continuance with El Paso Natural Gas Company.

Two Killed In Plane Crash

Two Kansas men were killed on the night of May 5th when their plane crashed two miles west of Carrizozo.

The plane—a 1964 Bellanca 4 passenger single engine private aircraft, was found one week later by Major T.C. Ashby of the Las Cruces Civil Air Patrol as he was landing at the Carrizozo Municipal Airport.

The crash victims were, pilot Jack Hannah, 50 of Kansas City, Kansas, and his passenger Leonard Winkler, 28 of Overland Park, Kansas.

The pilot did not file a flight plan, and was last seen at the Tucumcari airport on the night of May 5th. The pilot's destination was Tempe, Arizona.

Winds of 40 mph and above were reported in the area, and several residents of Carrizozo heard what they thought to be a crash, but upon their own investigation decided that they were mistaken.

The two men appeared to have died upon impact with the largest section of the plane that remained intact being about 8 ft. long.

The plane did not burn upon impact but was scattered in an approximately 1000 ft. by 200ft. wide area.

The cause of the crash has not been established with the investigation being handled by George Baker of the National Transportation Safety Board, from Aurora, Colorado, James Valentine of the FAA in Albuquerque, Sgt. Jack Johnson, Dale Housely, and Jim Hittsley of the New Mexico State Police, Guy Bowers of the Lincoln County Sheriff's Office, and Randy Spear of the Carrizozo Police Department.

The victims were partners in a photography business that they had just started, and were on their way to Tempe to pick up supplies.

5470 Voters Register In Lincoln County

MRNS-Final registration figures for the June 6 primaries show an increase of less than 200 voters in Lincoln County over the first of the year report.

County Clerk Jane McSwane announced that 5470 county voters had registered before the April 25 deadline. That compares to 5291 eligible voters on Jan. 24 of this year.

The democrats held their previous lead over the G.O.P. There are 3074 registered Democrats in the County and 2131 Republicans. That 943 difference compares with an earlier 918 lead. There are 258 independents in the county. Only 134 voters under 21 have registered to vote.

The largest precincts are in the Ruidoso area. Precincts in Ruidoso, Angus and Ruidoso Downs have 2991 of the total votes. The two Carrizozo precinct show the biggest growth rate accounting for 62 of the 179 increase. The total strength in the two precinct is now 695.

The County's smallest precinct, Nogal, increased its 95 votes to 104. Only Ruidoso Box 14 dropped. The total fell from 820 to 788, a surprise since that is one of the heavy growth areas of the county.

Only Corona stayed the same. In January Corona had 9 under 21 year voters and 264 21 year and over for a total of 273. The latest count was 7 under 21 and 266 older voters for the same 273. There must have been two birthdays in Corona since January.

Carrizozo School Board Names Roseanna Herrera and Rex Wilson As Co-Valedictorians

MRNS-Roseanne Herrera and Rex Wilson were named co-valedictorians by the Carrizozo School Board Tuesday night.

The two students have identical grade point averages. Superintendent Jim Steigreis said, in making the request for approval of the board.

The pair will lead one of the largest Carrizozo graduating classes in recent years. Steigreis presented the board with a list of 36 graduates for approval. He said, however, that four of the students may fail to complete the requirements for graduation.

Graduation week details were given to the board. The schedule includes Kindergarden graduation May 11 at 7:30 p.m.; Jr-Sr. Prom May 12; Athletic Banquet May 16; FFA Banquet May 17; Awards Assembly May 19 at 11 a.m.; Baccalaureat May 21 and graduation on May 22 at 8 p.m.

The board discussed contract provisions and route problems with the drivers. The bus in feeder line situations; loss of students to Capitan "because the parents think it is a better school"; and decisions on the north district bus line. But in general, there appeared to be very few major problems in the field of transportation.

The administration read letters from Dr. A. L. Clements who conducted the states budget review commending the school preparation and from other participants in the hearing.

Letters from officials at other schools in response to the Carrizozo school's inquiries about membership in the North Central Association were read. Comments from member school were favorable and appeared to encourage membership.

Board member Wally Ferguson suggested that the local teachers be consulted on the possibility of membership since "they will have to most of the work" in the valuation process required of member schools.

Carolyn Cantrell, speaking for the Educational Forum, told the board that the forum had collected a large number of signatures on petitions requesting the school apply for membership in the Association.

Board President Ray Wells asked if the Forum intended to turn the petitions over to the school. Ms. Cantrell said that the signatures were still being collected and while the Forum would be glad to show individual Board members the petitions, her group would like to keep working on the petitions until the Board was ready to consider the NCA membership application.

Wells said that decision should come in 30 to 60 days and he would like to have the petitions by then. Ms. Cantrell indicated that the petitions would then be forthcoming.

The board approved purchase of a TV system with studio capabilities. Principal Larry Wilkinson said the system had broad educational applications including those of vocational tentacles. The board also approved purchase of a portable lunch line setup.

A notice from the State Auditor Max Sanchez informed the board that the state would do the next audit at a cost of $1400. The Board expressed disappointment that the state exercised its option to make the audit since the school had a lower price from a private firm. Steigreis said the board had no say in the matter this year.

The employment of eight aides was approved by the board. They are Lorena Baroz, Josie Vega, Delfina Vega, Julia Hollis, Maria Vega, Mela

Herrera, Candie Aguilar and Eugenia Vega.

The Board approved the rehiring of lunchroom personnel. They are Dorothy Current, Audra Wilson and Flora Samora. Wilkinson said the ten percent pay increase approved for next year might cause a hike in lunch room prices. The school now charges 50 cents for lunch and 20 cents for part pay students. The principal said that a raise in prices might reduce the number of lunches sold. He received approval on his recommendation that the present prices be maintained on a trial basis.

The board voted to review its policy handbook. Steigreis said that special attention should be given to section concerned with philosophy and discipline. These sections had been questioned, he said, by the Educational Forum.

The school has not yet hired a music teacher, the board was told. Steigreis said he hoped to find a combination music and art teacher. He asked approval for consultation with parents who had students in the music program. The superintendent also discussed the Band Booster funds and the possibility of those fund being handled by the activity fund. No decision was made.

Board heard plans for remediation in the schools that have come out of Adult Proficiency Level testing. The APL is a state program designed to graduate students with a broad competency in dealing with many daily problems and situations. Thirty three states are in the middle of APL programs, Steigreis said. Consideration in New Mexico is being given to special statements on diplomas concerning the passing of the APL test.

Students who fail to pass the test at the 11th grade level will be given opportunities to bring their skills up to standard. Wilkinson caution the board that the remediation programs would not guarantee that a student would pass the APL test.

The board approved a policy decision on overtime compensation and on workweek definition. In the future the school will not pay overtime rates unless the employee has actually worked more than 40 hours in a work week.

A work week was defined as beginning at 12:10 a.m. Monday and ending at 12:00 midnight Sunday.

Swimming Pool Opens

The Carrizozo Municipal Swimming Pool is set to open later this month, city officials announced this week.

Applications for the positions of Manager, Lifeguard, and front desk attendant are being processed, with final recommendation from the Swimming Pool committee set for Noon Friday May 19th.

Sunday afternoon starting at 1:00 p.m. is set for a clean up the pool day with various groups and individuals helping to clean up the pool for opening.

A big part of getting the swimming pool open is money. To help with the finances, a fund raising "Special Tasting Luncheon" will be held Friday, May 26th at the Woman's Club Building.

There will be over 60 dishes to choose from, and lunch will be available from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

The Swimming Pool committee is organizing the luncheon and women from the Woman's Club, Extension, and Cowbells will be providing dishes. Recipes of many of the dishes will also be for sale.

Tickets are available at Carrizozo Hardware, the Lincoln County Extension office, Lincoln County News office, and at the door.

Three Old Partners Came Home To Stay

In doing the Dave Jackson story I was surprised at how little written material there was about Ed Queen. It is easy to find mention of Ed and George Queen being in on the original Wildcat Leasing Company...of George dropping out...and of later on Ed dropping out. The stationery identifies him as being President of the company. But who was Ed Queen, what sort of a man was he...?

When Mike and I started these articles I told him each story would be a ten page deal. Seven pages of story followed by three empty pages on which to make corrections, additions...more or less a loose-ended operation. The Dave Jackson story is typical of reaction to the story.

I went to see LaRue Wetzel the day after the story hit the street. I always go to someone very close to the story to get a grass-roots feel on how the story went. LaRue was a bit guarded. She told me Ellyn Queen Cady had voiced disappointment to her...as to how Ed Queen was not prominently mentioned. LaRue had suggested Monday I do that but I was busy and intended to sit down

Monday night and write the article from some fifty xeroxed pages Herman Kelt had given me. Some of the photographs I intended to use were given to me by LaRue and I sort of needed to touch base with her.

I went to see Ellyn Queen Cady...parked near the back and knocked on the back door...a symbol of having known her fourteen years and having always liked her. She voiced disappointment that Morris B. Parker's White Oaks hardly mentioned her father. Then when the Lincoln County News and I gave him such scant mention she couldn't keep from fuming a wee bit. My number is unlisted so LaRue and Mike took the message.

As I sat there at the kitchen table with Ellyn she began to dig out what she had about her dad. Sure enough not one newspaper article was handed to me, no magazine story, no accumulation of letters. This then was what we had been reaching for in the first place, a basic part of our approach.

Ed Queen was born in Pueblo, Colorado, August 10, 1881. We find Ed, George, and their mother in Colora(near Capitan) when Ed was four years old. This was still the day of the big quest for precious metals in the young southwest and his father had worked in the mines. Mrs. Queen took the two small boys and moved to White Oaks. This seems to have been a little before 1890.

As young Ed was growing up in the mining, ranching frontier of White Oaks away off on the far seas a man's destiny was taking him to a crossing with our Lincoln County lad. Captain John Lee, three times around the world...to marry a Princess in Samoa...to take two young Princesses to White Oaks when he left the sea and began to look for a place to live out his last days. It seems movie material to imagine Ed Queen and Ray Lemon plodding through the dusty streets of White Oaks and then one day...Lincoln County was graced in many ways that day...Ed and Ray became brother-in-laws, and just one piece of remembrance. Nettie wrote the prize winning story in the 1969 Centennial Year Contest. It reminded me of Alice in Wonderland sitting there and listening. Samoa, White Oaks, of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R.E. Lemon.

"The Queens moved here recently from California and were installing some mining machinery at White Oaks,

"About three years ago Mrs. Queen became ill and after everything possible had been done to relieve her distress she with her husband decided to return to White Oaks to be among the Albert". I went to see Albert Roberts. He told me about the posse. I assumed he was "Old Albert", there with Buster Smoot. It was Albert Snow...called out in the deep of a rainy night because he was a veteran from Lincoln, having seen Navy service in 1918. It was not John's mistake in the story, it was mine. I went to see Mr. Snow and apologized to him. Somehow I have always thought he was one of Carrizozo's finest gentlemen. For three hours I had a ring side seat to the Lincoln County he had known. I treasure the three pages of notes I took but the following day he left word for me he did not want his story in the paper. I am very sorry for the mistake. Mr. Snow deserves recognition for being there, with a gun, to see that law and order was enforced in his chosen county. I bet those who knew him well will tell you they couldn't have sent a better man. The mistake bothered John Harkey an awful lot. I will always be able to hear him say, "Glen...go see Albert...straighten it out...you're not too busy, run by there now...it won't take over five minutes..."

where they are making preparations to open their mines. Mr. Queen had expressed a desire to go down into the mine but his sons had persuaded him to wait a few days. He had seemed in good spirits Friday, but a sudden heart attack proved fatal in a few short minutes.

The family is well known here and highly regarded by a host of friends, especially among the old timers who knew them in the years of White Oaks' golden prosperity of 1900 and 1902 and later Mr. Queen was a mining engineer of ability, with skill to achieve and capability to carry on and devise to a special degree in his chosen profession."

"Pallbearers were Messrs: J.H. Fulmég, John E. Wright, D.L. Jackson, Wm. Gallacher, James Cooper and Herman E. Kelt Sr."

"Edward Lawrence Queen was born in Pueblo Colorado, August 10th, 1881, and departed this life at Carrizozo, April 22, 1949, at the age of 67 years, 8 months, and 12 days. While a small boy he moved with his parents to San Antonio, and later to White Oaks, where he grew to manhood. On January 1, 1902, he was united in Marriage to Miss Mae Lee, who survives him."

"Mr. Queen, together with D.L. Jackson and the late A.A. Lane were associated for a number of years in the ownership and operation of the North and South Homestake mine at White Oaks."

"In 1918 he moved with his family to Douglas, Arizona, and later to Los Angeles, California, New Mexico, Arizona and Nevada. He recently returned to become associated with his sons, nephew A. E. Baker of Los Angeles, in the operation of mines at White Oaks. He was well known in the southwestern states as a mining engineer. His return here was especially pleasing to him as it gave him an opportunity to return to the mountains among which he had spent the greater part of his life."

Then the article concluded: "Brother Edward Lawrence Queen united with the White Oaks Methodist August 20, 1902. He was a man of sterling integrity, a fond and loving husband and father, and will be sorely missed by sorrowing family and a host of friends."

"Some seven months his wife, Mae Queen, passed away also. The Lincoln County News carried this story: "Mae Lee was born at Brackettsville, Texas, June 1, 1882. At an early age she moved with her parents to White Oaks, New Mexico, where she grew to womanhood. On January 1, 1902, she was united in marriage with Edward L. Queen who preceded her in death April 22, 1949. She is survived by one daughter, two sons. She is also survived by two brothers, George Lee of Camas Washington, James Lee of Douglas Arizona, and one sister Mrs. R.E.

scenes they loved so well. Since the sudden death of her husband and life companion Mrs. Queen had often expressed the desire to be placed by his side in the beautiful cemetery at White Oaks where they had spent the happiest days of their lives."

It was a deeply rewarding experience for me to sit with Ellyn and listen to her talk about her family. It was a little awesome to sit there in the Ray and Nettie Lemon home and remember back. I was in that home back in '65 or so, don't even remember why...the atmosphere was magnificent. Ellyn told me how she and Mrs. Huffmeyer helped select the clothes for Mary Jackson as funeral arrangements were being made. She remembers with pride her father being instrumental in taking Dave Jackson into the company as a partner. Ed had been in White Oaks a long time when Dave got there.

Dave Jackson was often quoted as saying many of his good friends were buried there in Cedervale, that that was why he spent a lot of time down there cleaning it up. It was often down there that someone found him and visited with him. I am sure that many, many times Dave stopped by Ed Queen's grave and remembered back to a good time and a good man.

There is a good little story Dave tells in his biography. They were running electricity down to Carrizozo. There was a sort of a ribbon cutting ceremony in the local barber shop with the new fangled switch to be pulled. Several worldly wise residents were openly doubting the power could be run all the way from White Oaks to Carrizozo. There was also a couple of lines strung along the poles whereby a person in White Oaks could talk with someone in Carrizozo. Here sixty-six years later we can't do that.

From Lawrence Queen's paper it seems certain there is still gold at White Oaks. Wildcat Leasing Company fired a boiler with White Oaks coal to generate electricity. One of these days those three partners, Ed Queen, Allan Lane, and Dave Jackson may be credited with a lot more vision than we have realized they possessed. It intrigues me to contemplate the possibilities.

And once again, Ellyn, thank you. Now on with some corrections. My two choices for conversation are hunting and history. History of Lincoln County and the Tularosa Basin. We owe a great deal to the people who are leaving our county to us. Far too often older people begin to feel along about 70 to 80 that those around them don't want to hear the old stories anymore. Then they begin to hesitate, then many of them just consider the old stories a no-no. We seem to be getting to an age when old people are inconvenient to society. I never see an old timer but what I wish someone would run a review by me. It embarrasses many of the older folks to have their picture taken, age is seemingly so unkind. Shakespeare wrote, "All the world's a stage, And all men and women merely players: They have their exits and their entrances; And one man in his time plays many parts, His acts being seven ages". How very fortunate are those who get to see all seven ages.

The first correction is on the posse to Corona. Someone told me the story along about '65. The person said "Old

John is proud of a letter he got from a lawyer in Comanche Texas. The fellow wants a copy of Dee Harkey's "Mean as Hell". John will pay twenty-five dollars for a copy, would take more than one. Little did he know that long ago day in Lincoln how valuable those 6 books Dee gave him would be.

Another note. Bill Gallacher told me Shorty Lee is buried there by the side of the road this side of Oscuro...that he was killed in a Bar W cow camp. Back yonder sometime I vaguely remember something about Jack Thorpe, about the song "Little Joe the Wrangler". I wish someone would relate that or assure me there is no relation. There was a lead photograph that was supposed to open up the story but it got left out.

Which brings me to the closing item in this story. I didn't explain what I was hoping for when these articles began. It was more important to establish a pattern. Mike is interested in putting out a supplement, and asked me if I would help. I told him I was not interested in one more time rehashing the Lincoln County War. I wish we could go back to our history, Merle Haggard does a song, "The Roots of My Raisin' Run Deep". I have suggested five categories: Historical, a story which you can substantiate. Human interest, legend and good old stories which you basically believe are true but don't wish to argue about...let the reader believe or not. Spoonin, the sort of thing we laugh about, and certainly we need to laugh more. Poetry, written in and about Lincoln County. Photographs, this is an area almost anyone can get into.

The price of the supplement would be determined by the estimate cost of production. It would not be a money making venture, but a Lincoln County pride and spirit endeavor.

I often stop to visit with Johnson Stearns. One day I was kicking an idea around with him, as much as he and I like to read, like to write, why do schools have so much trouble teaching "readin' and riting". He asked me "why?" I think it is because used to be had such stringent rules. Personally I read for content and enjoyment, I write to tell a story. If a person could write a 200 page best seller he could get it typed perfectly, with no mis-spelling in it for a hundred dollars.

We could start with the 17 or so manuscripts from Centennial Year which didn't get published. I helped edit some of those, and typed them remember one ending up in about twenty copies shipped out across the country. Some of the material lying around in trunks was the only work a person did in their lifetime. Please contact Mike about the idea.

I remember one time Alma Sherrill had me speaking at one of the first Kindergarten graduations. There was one statement I have always been glad I made; "We're going to ask them for the best they have and tell them that's all there is..." I challenge each of you, now, to the same thing.

Carrizozo, Douglas, Wickenburg...May and Nettie, Ed and Ray. Of Ellyn, a beautiful young woman in 1918, now keeping the Lemon home in which her father died. Her mother and father are buried in White Oaks Cedervale, along with Governor McDonald, Susan McSween, John Slack, Nettie Lemon, Ray Lemon, Dave and Mary, and on and on. Allen Lane is there, the three old partners came home to stay.

The picture of the Ed Queen family was taken in Douglas Arizona soon after their departure from White Oaks in 1918. Standing is Don Queen, Ellyn Queen Cady and Lawrence Queen, seated are their parents Ed and May.

Lawrence Queen lives at San Jancinto, California and has written an excellent paper on his memories of experiences in White Oaks, mostly of data he remembers about the mines, and of stories his dad told him. He seems to have written the paper as a result of having read Morris Parker's White Oaks. The paper needs to be printed in some form in Lincoln County. In the story you get the idea why Ed Queen was President of Wildcat Leasing Company, the knowledge is impressive, the pride is there. Family pride...the pride of royalty.

In April of 1949, Ed Queen was stricken in the Lemon home in Carrizozo and passed away. The Lincoln County News, April 29, 1949 reads: "Expressions of sorrow and regrets were heard everywhere when it became known that Edward L. Queen had passed away suddenly last Friday afternoon about 4:00 p.m. at the home

Woodcarving - Most Enjoyable Hobby

Many people spend their days working at something they really don't enjoy. Kevin Wolff is lucky as he spends his time doing what he enjoys most - carving wood. It was just a hobby fifteen years ago but in 1972 it became his full time occupation. He is content. "I wish that I had the time to teach my craft to old people," Wolff said, "because there is a lot of therapy in carving wood."

Wolff came to Ruidoso, several months ago from Silverton, Colorado. His interest lies in "past America" and he chose Ruidoso because of the rich history of Lincoln County. Even his Chess sets depict America in the past. The most popular hand carved set is the Civil War set. "It seems to add more zest to the game," he explained. The bishops are generals who played a part in the War. Another theme used for his Chess sets is the Alamo. Since woodcarving has become a full time business for Wolff his family has joined into the endeavor. His wife does the bookkeeping and all five of their children have a part in the business. The oldest son who is 20 years old is a carver and the rest of the children help with the details on the carvings.

It is not just a matter of carving something out of a part of history. "I spend equal time researching every piece I make," Wolff said. For his carvings of wagons from the past he makes sure that every detail is correct. He had to do considerable research to find out just how the reins were hooked to the horses that pulled the wagons he has depicted. He carves the wagons in scale using one inch to equal one foot.

He has taken orders from all over the world. "One night my wife and I placed pins on a globe from all the places we had sent orders," he said, "and we found that every country was represented - even behind the iron curtain." He has more orders from Texas than any other state. He has never been there but he plans a trip to Texas this year.

One town he plans to visit is Muleshoe, Texas, to see the finished product of the mule that stands in the middle of town. Wolff did the plaster of paris mold for the mule. Someone sent him a picture but he has never seen it.

One of his orders went to Dallas, Texas. A man named McCurtin who was formerly with the Washington Post and had already collected some of Wolff's carvings sent him pictures of his family & commissioned Wolff to create a work to include each member of his family. He recreated an old newspaper office with each family member performing a task.

Another commission came from Judge Winters, Chief Justice of the Federal Court in Denver. He asked Wolff to carve wall plaques using painting done by a British artist named Spy who specialized in painting Barristers. After doing the wall plaques, Wolff went on to do some three dimensional works and he has painted them.

"I like working in this medium because wood is a living thing," he explained. There are some difficulties because unlike a painter he can not do prints. Each piece has to be recreated. He has done several copies of the Barrister but each one will be a little different.

"It is a challenge with me," he said. How do you take a piece of wood and make such lovely works of art? There must be an inborn talent. Wolff told us that someday he would like to research his own roots because his relatives came from Bavaria in Germany. There must have been a wood carver several generations removed. What other explanation could there be for the ability to carve such intricate pieces out of wood!

James Wins With Sudden-death Play-off Billy The Kid Open Attended By Many

The Billy the Kid Open Golf Tournament was held last weekend in Carrizozo with James Silva of Albuquerque coming out the winner of the low gross score division. A new aspect of the tournament was that there was a sudden death play off for third, fourth and fifth places in the low gross division.

The final tournament standings were, First Place, James Silva, Second, Jeff Fulwiler from Albuquerque, Third Sam Fresquez, also from Albuquerque, Fourth Tom Hornbuckle from Ruidoso, and fifth Mike Apodaca from Belen.

In the Low Net score division, Jim McVay from Ruidoso was the winner with Nat Palamarez from Carrizozo coming in second, Tom Baker from Carrizozo third, Blane Miller from Ruidoso fourth, and Howard Hassell from Ruidoso fifth.

The golfers were treated to warm weather and very little wind for this time of year.

Victims of Hidden Crimes To Get Attention

MRNS-Victims of the hidden crimes will be receiving the attention of a group of concerned Lincoln County citizens.

New Mexico State Police Sgt. Jack Johnson is calling a meeting of interested persons to organize a Lincoln County Crisis Intervention Center to aid victims of rape, child abuse, incest, battered spouses and potential suicides.

The meeting will be May 25 at 7 p.m. in the Capitan School Cafeteria. Johnson has just returned from an 80 hour course that the state conducted on and to these victims and new laws concerning them.

He says that sixty percent of the families in Lincoln County have members who have been involved in what are considered the hidden crimes.

"The need for assistance is greater than anyone would suspect," Sgt. Johnson said.

Fear, economic problems, shame and ignorance often prevent victims from seeking help, Johnson said. He will recommend that a county "Crisis Intervention Center" be formed to offer aid in these cases.

He has invited about fifty people from Capitan, Carrizozo, Corona, Ruidoso and the Hondo Valley to attend. Anyone who is interested is urged to attend the meeting.

While there are state and federal funds available to help, Sgt. Johnson says that the initial effort must come from private citizens.

The state has appropriated $318,000 for medical aid, evidence kits and training in rape case work. Victims can receive emergency room fee assistance as well as followup help medically and psychologically.

Johnson said that the crisis center concept has been successful in other parts of the state. Victims of these crimes often do not want to talk to an officer, he said. Sometimes professional counseling is needed but often the advice or just a friendly ear is all a person will accept, he said.

There is sometimes the need for a shelter, for financial assistance or a foster home for a battered wife.

The public needs to be educated on its responsibility to the children of the community, he said.

New laws concerning child abuse make it mandatory that any citizen having knowledge or suspicions about an abused child, report that information to the property authorities. This includes physicians, teachers or even neighbors, he said. Failure to report is illegal and could result in prosecution. Reports suspected cases of child abuse are kept confidential, he said.

Sgt. Johnson hopes that an educational program will encourage those in need to seek help. He believes that only a small percentage of victims of the hidden crimes come forward. His office receives two calls or more a week involving these crimes and he says, local law offices probably receive many more. But these calls, he says, represent only the surface.

The crisis center will offer an alternative to suffering in silence or calling the law, Sgt. Johnson believes.

Carrizozo Group To Become Salesmen

MRNS-A group of Carrizozo citizens are going to become their town's super salesmen in a program to put an industry in the new Industrial Park.

Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce President Mary Rich announced the formation of a Carrizozo Development Committee headed by Ruth Armstrong and composed of Carrie Magee, Fred English, Mike Capps, Rick Coca and Ralph Dunlap.

The committee met with Dr. Bob Coppage of NMSU's Industrial Development division Wednesday morning. Dr. Coppage will provide assistance in compilation of information for the sale program.

"The committee hopes to educate every person in town who has any contacts with potential customers for our Industrial Park," Mrs. Armstrong said. "We want the people in the town to know and understand what Carrizozo has to offer to a business or industry. We want Carrizozo residents to have the facts on our resources," she said.

Dr. Coppage told the group that other towns had success with the program in unexpected ways. He said that representatives of industries looking for new locations were often reached by chance encounters at out-of-town meetings, on airplanes and on business trips.

"We are open for suggestions from anyone," Mrs. Armstrong said. "We believe that everyone could become a salesman for the town. The person you are talking to may be or have contact with an industrial representative who need a new place to locate."

The committee members will be accumulating the information and statistics that will be used in the community education program, according to the chair. At the same time members will be looking for a small clean industry to be the first residents of the new park.

We have an abundance of solar power, a good location with paved streets, utilities and possibilities of the financing for a building, Mrs. Armstrong said. "There is an available source of labor in the area and we can offer quite a few women who are trained in assembly line work."

The group decided to limit the search, at the present, to New Mexico and West Texas. It was suggested that a branch operation of some concern might be a potential customer.

Dr. Coppage will continue to assist the group in building the program. Ms. Rich said the Chamber has received valuable help from NMSU's Extension program during the past year. Dr. Coppage has helped us with our brochure and other related industrial programs. Beal Gomez has served an advisor on housing projects, the industrial park, recreation programs and other community programs. Without these two men, our town would be far behind its present development," she said.

Cricket Is Coronated

Coronation of Cricket Gonzales as Queen of the second annual St. Eleanor's Fiesta highlighted the festivities on Sunday, April 30. The coronation was a part of the Fiesta Mass, co-celebrated by the pastor, Father Flavio Santillanos, and Father Pat Romayne of Roswell. Francine Brillante, the first St. St. Eleanor's Queen, placed the crown on the new Queen. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Gonzales and a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rue.

Following the Coronation Mass, members and guests and visitors of St. Eleanor's enjoyed a barbecue prepared under the supervision of Henry Rue and Jerry Garcia. The Reynolds family served Frito pie and Katie Klein took care of the tamales. Mrs. Dick Mound served hot dogs and Lisa and Dan Kuhn handled the fish pond for the children. Sis Koegler was in charge of the Country Store.

The Chimney Sweep, Mike Cormier, was in evidence throughout the afternoon as was Pat the Clown (Healy) who had a handful of helium balloons for the youngsters.

"We had the most successful affair even in this parish," said Dick Mound, General Chairman of the event. "Even though the wind blew up with some good gusts our guests didn't seem to mind. The fellowship was great and everybody seemed to enjoy the afternoon."

Father Flavio Santillanos publicly expressed his appreciation for the cooperation from both the community and his parishioners. "I am so happy to see you all, he said. "You have made my day, God bless all of you. My prayers are with you and may the blessing of St. Eleanor be on each of you. We are already beginning to plan our next year's Fiesta. If you missed this one be sure to be with us next year. I promise there will be no wind and that you will enjoy every minute at St. Eleanor's."

That large building on Sudderth that has been painted a bright deep green and for the past couple of weeks has had a huge sign saying "Remember Mother's Day" is a new business in town but that's not the name of it. The sign was just a reminder to remember your Mother on her day last Sunday. The new business is the Sunrise Natural Food but they also sell plants. They will sell health foods too and their plans are to have a restaurant in the back of the building which will serve organic foods and will include a juice bar.

The owners are Billy MacCauley, Tom Scott and Jerry Campbell. The three men met in Europe while building a night club in Amsterdam. They became good friends and came to Ruidoso to open their business.

Most of the plants sold here are tropical and come from Mexico and South America - they are most unusual and unique! They also sell cut flowers but sell them the European way. They are cheaper that way and it's fun to do your own arrangement.

There is much more of interest to be found in this new business. Billy's works of art are found throughout the shop and there's even a large painting on the front of the building. He also has written a book called Cinderella that you can purchase and he'll even autograph it for you. The large book looks like a children's book by it's cover but it is Billy's own adaption of the story Cinderella. The book is in it's second printing and Billy told us there is to be a movie made based on the story.

Drop by this new business you'll find lots of interesting things here. And you'll enjoy visiting with the owners, too.

The Bear Claw Gallery has moved to a new location - next to Denim Jims. Mary has a lot more room to display paintings and other works here. She has added a new potter and his pottery is both interesting and unique and the colors are so pleasing. Many of her husbands Gary's paintings are shown in the Gallery and sculpture by Albert Richardson. Richardson is a local artist and has included his dog in some of his works. His dog goes every where Albert goes - rides in the back of his pick up - and he's an unusual dog, too, as he understands both Spanish and English.

Noticed those jeans that Faye bought in Las Vegas are in and are displayed in the window of Faye's Couture. They are really eye catchers. Some feature appliques of butterflies or flowers - others have blouses to match and the jeans are inset with material to match the tops. If you want a pair of jeans that stop traffic drop by Faye's. See you around town.

U.S. Trade Ambassador Bob Strauss met Carrizozo's Rachel West at a $100 per couple dinner honoring the Ambassador in Hobbs last week. Strauss interrupted his speech to introduce Rachel and tell how the Lincoln County Democratic Women had raised the money for Rachel to represent the organization. "This is what Democracy is all about," he said. In the background is Lea County Chairman S. G. Cobb who arranged the affair.

I have always been told to wait until after May 10th before making any people crop estimates. I have checked in a few apple orchards since then and found a light to medium crop in the area. In the Glencoe area I found a good crop of apples in most of the trees.

yet Hondo area had a spotted apple crop. One tree would have a good crop with very few apples on the next tree. It is too early for a production estimate, but I expect it to vary from orchard to orchard.

Some areas still have a few peaches and cherries; others have very few.

RRD

I found a heavy infestation of sawworms in an orchard. This insect can be controlled with the same insecticides used to control the codling moth - around the home orchard, use diazinon or Sevin.

If you plan to fertilize your orchard plan to do it before June 15th, as the fruit trees start putting on the fruit buds for next year's crop in July. Too heavy of an application of Nitrogen will cause the tree to put on too many leaf buds with few fruit buds.

Retired Teachers Meet

New Mexico units officers of the 7th area of the National Retired Teachers Associations held a Drive-In at the Mission Inn in Las Cruces May 10th. Those attending from Lincoln County were Louise Ferguson, Ofelia Salas, Hilda Young, Dorothy Guck, and Herbert Lee Traylor.

Stella Vaughn, Assistant State Director, presided. Speeches were given by State President of NRTA, Dick Mook; State Director, Noah Turpin, Washington Representative, Grace Carter Keeling, and Legislative Chairman, Guy Ward.

Angus Memorial

The Annual Memorial Service will be observed Sunday May 28, at Angus Cemetery.

There will be a preaching service at 11:00 a.m., followed by a basket dinner at noon and a business meeting in the afternoon.

Everyone interested in the angus Cemetery is urged to attend the business meeting. We want everyone to have a voice in the planning and not place the responsibility on a few. Hope to see you there. Mrs. Chloe Peters Secretary Welcome back Horsemen and Racing fans! We have recognized several handless from the flatlands lately and are looking forward of modulating with you.

If you have wondered, why Mother Nature has been a little hard to reach at times this past week - she is taking another real-estate course at the Inn of the Mountain Gods.

Wonder Woman told us about Haggerty's rather odd accident. A little boy dropped a 12 lb. sledgehammer on Haggerty's dancing toes. This put "Mr. Rogster" out of commission for a short. Besides watching out for ornary goats, he now has to watch little boys around the Lincoln County Feed Store, which seems to team with all sorts of life stock. Hope you fell like dancing real soon, Haggerty.

Running Bear, Smokey Jack, RD Bear Hilltopper and all other law enforcement officers have really had their hands full this last weekend. Summer and half of Texas seem to have at last arrived here in the mountains.

Mescalero will hold their Memorial Day Rodeo on May 27 through May 29. This is always a great spectacle we try never to miss. Now that they have those new bleachers one can get out of the sun and be comfortable and enjoy the rodeo and the Indian frybread.

We have missed Galloping Goose this week. She and her family are still on vacation.

Chief Bernardo has a new hobby this summer. Besides being an avid CB'er he is also a gentleman-gardener in Lincoln. So he drives between Ruidoso and Lincoln in his Yah-ta-hey-mobile enjoying himself.

We're looking forward to seeing some of Squatty Body and Thin Line's Racing photos. They worked for the All American Network out of Kansas last summer.

Flatlander, Jabber Jaws and I went to Alamogordo last Saturday, braving the heat. The Alamogordo Sports Car Club held a meet in the Park, which was well attended. Besides admiring the very beautiful cars of all ages and description, we were able to enjoy the roses, which bloomed in profusion.

One of the exhibitors was Hounddog, who runs the Dog House base in Alamogordo. He showed a huge base, several mobile unit with antennae. Besides his CB'ers he showed an electric bike, which can run for 25 miles on a battery. Hounddog's friend, the Bit Bird, helped him with the demonstrations. Big Bird is president of the REACT Club, which monitors CH I and assist the New Mexico State Police and the Otero County Sheriff's Dept. Another member of the Club is the Alamo Hawkeye, who also came to enjoy the car show.

For those of you who have lived or visited Las Vegas, Nevada, the Big Bird was the Las Vegas Saint. Wonder what happened to incur such a change in handles, after him moving to Alamogordo?

Many of you in Ruidoso probably know the Thunderball from Alamogordo's Pizza Mill. Thunderball has been installing those drink dispensing systems all over New Mexico and handles new and used restaurant equipment.

T'n T and Dave the Printer have unfortunately found out, what death at first hand looks like. Smokey Jack called them Saturday to cover the plane crash north of Carrizozo. After covering the Golf Tournament, the sad story of the plane crash left them thankful for their own lives.

New Season At Ruidoso Downs Kicks Off

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N.M.—Ruidoso Downs Race Track kicked off its 32nd straight year of thoroughbred and quarter horse racing Saturday (May 13).

All Sunday programs throughout the season will get rolling at 1 p.m. Kickoff time for all other programs is 1:30 p.m.

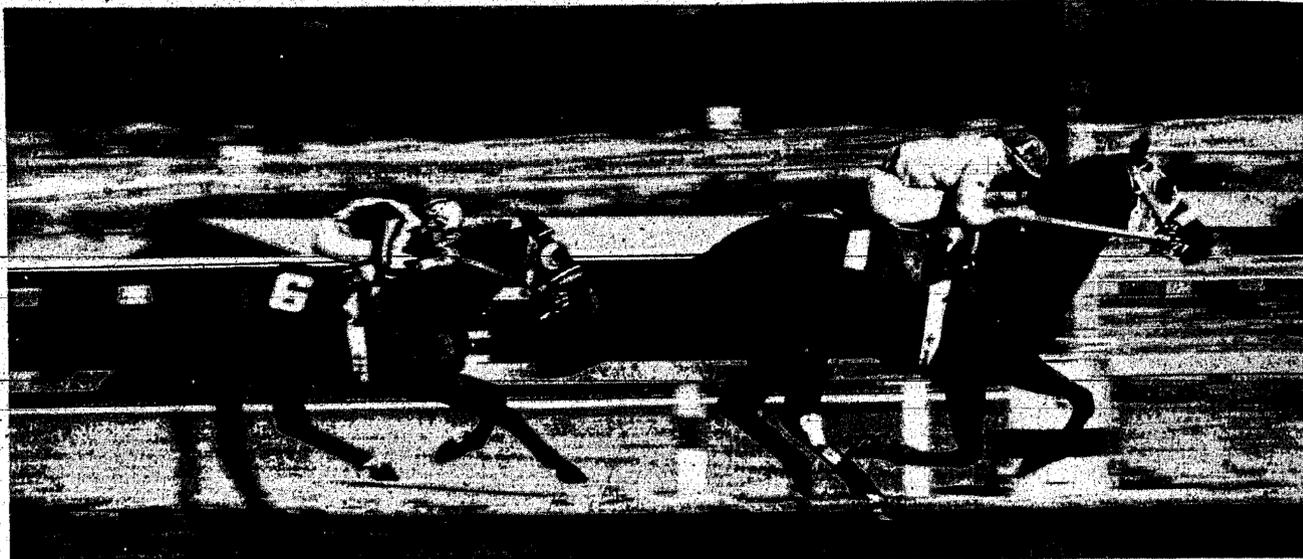

The '78 season will span 71 race days through Sept. 4 (Labor Day). A stakes schedule which features the richest races in turf history is on tap, and figures to contribute materially to another banner season.

According to general manager Al Rosa, all signs are pointing toward the most successful meeting in Ruidoso history. "Last season, the Ruidoso daily wagering average reached $417,196, and that was a gain of 5.6 percent over the previous year," Rosa said. "The total handle topped out at $28,811,263—another all-time Ruidoso record. But if there was something really special about the 1977 meeting, it was the fact Ruidoso Downs has now set new mutual records in each of the past six seasons."

Rosa added: "With that kind of momentum, the prospects for 1978 are tremendous."

Horsemen figure to benefit significantly since the starting minimum purse has been hiked to $2,000. Many of Ruidoso's stakes races—such as the Governor's Handicap, the Jockey Club Stakes, the Ruidoso Spring Championship, the Three Bars Handicap—have received added-money increases.

Helpful-Tips

To prevent soft cheese from sticking to grater - apply a dab of oil with paper towel on grater.

Know how to tell how old eggs are? Place egg in pan of cold water - if it lays on its side it is strictly fresh - if it stands at an angle it is at least 3 days old - if it stands on end it is at least 10 days old.

A rib of celery in a loaf of bread keeps it fresh twice as long.

To get twice as much juice out of your lemon soak in hot water for 15 minutes.

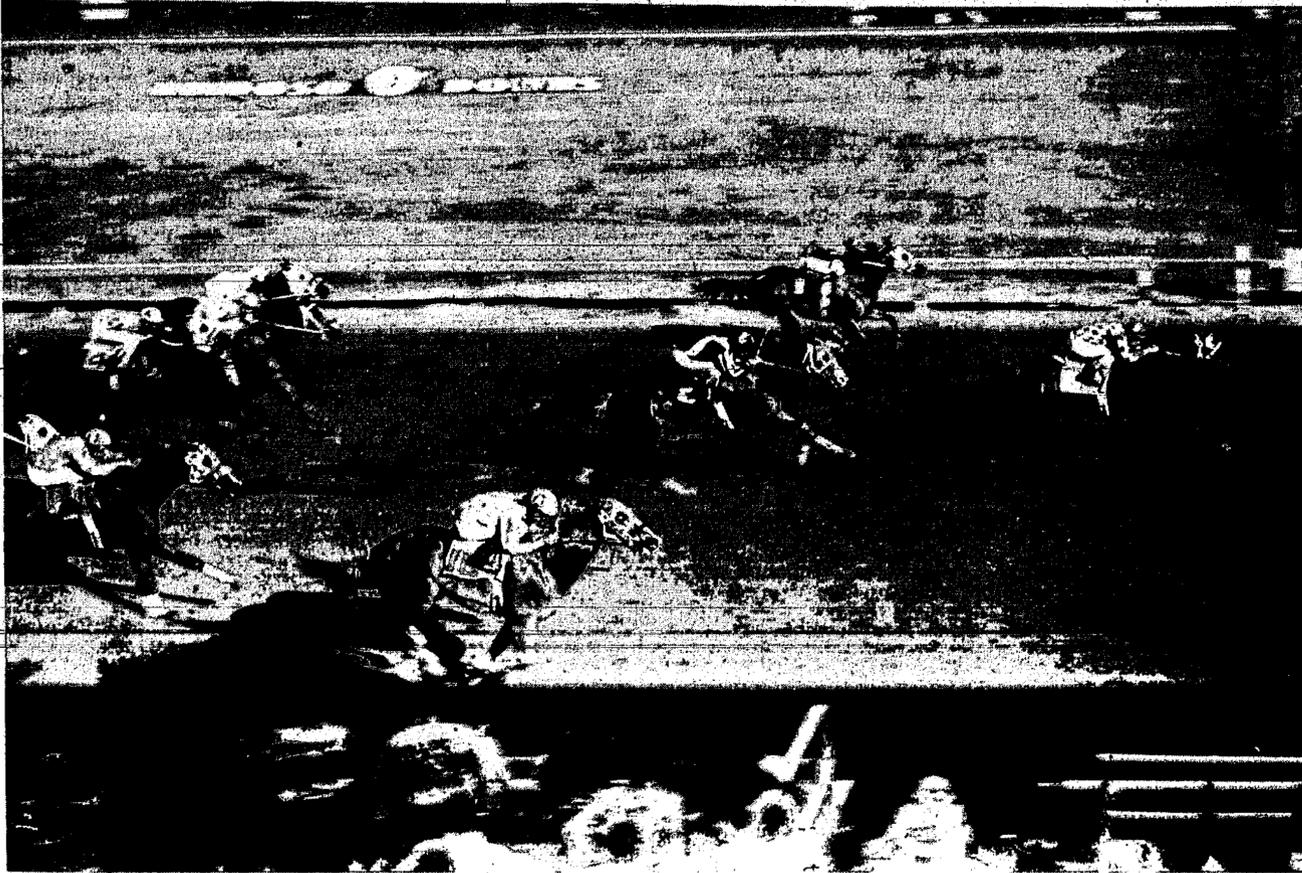

If you ever have to cut hot breads or cakes use a tough thin piece of thread.

299 Quarter Horses In Kansas Futurity Trials Set For Thursday and Friday

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N.M.—A huge crop of two-year-olds are lining up for this week's two-day elimination trials for the rich Kansas Futurity, the first leg of quarter horse racing's Triple Crown.

A total of 299 youngsters will take part in the two days of trials slated for Thursday and Friday. There will be 15 trials each day necessitating an early starting post time of 12:30 p.m.

On Saturday, things get rolling at 1:30 p.m. Sunday's slate highlights the $139,100 Kansas Derby at 400 yards with first post set at 1 p.m.

A new method of qualifying from the Kansas Futurity trials will be in effect this year. Last year, the 25 fastest two-year-olds from each day of the initial elimination trials went into a second set of trials and the top ten from those five divisions went into the finale.

This year, a new version will take place with the five top qualifiers by time each day making up the field for the finale. This program eliminates the need for a second set of trials.

The five qualifiers each day with the next fastest time will go into the first consolation, while the third five each day will compete the field in the second consolation.

A standout among Thursday trial entries is Diamond Te, owned by Anne B. Tandy of Ft. Worth, Texas and trained by Don Farris. He'll go in the eighth division.

Diamond Te took his initial racing spin at Sunland Park on April 22 in a trial for the Sun Country Futurity and won by a head margin. The gelding returned in the $159,824 finale with top-flight helmsman Danny Cardoza aboard to grab a third-place finish.

Pass Em West, who's already notched six victories this year, looks like an outstanding prospect in the ninth division. His most impressive performance came in the Rocky Mountain Quarter Horse Futurity at Centennial when he scored easily and increased his earnings to nearly the $60,000 mark.

Pass Em West will have W. R. Hunt in the saddle as he leaves the No. 2 post on Thursday.

Loom Son will be directed by top jockey Jerry Nicodemus in the third division and could get strong attention on the basis of a swift second in the Sun Country Futurity Consolation at Sunland Park.

In the sixth division, the public could latch onto Uvelas April Bug. The filly scored quite an upset in the West Texas Futurity Second Consolation at Sunland Park when she finished in front by a nose after leaving the gate with 15-1 odds. That victory alone befed up her bankroll by $2,044.

Each of the 15 trials will cover 350 yards and will offer $2,000 in purse money.

The gross purse of the Kansas Futurity is estimated at $525,000 with the finale to be run on June 4.

THE FIRST EDITION IN FRIDAY KANSAS TRIALS

Friday The First Edition, top quarter horse star of the recent Sunland Park spring meeting, heads a bulky list of two-year-olds in Friday's elimination trials for the upcoming $525,000 (est.) Kansas Futurity.

Friday's slate has 15 races on tap, beginning at the early-starting time of 12:30 p.m. First post on Saturday is at 1:30 p.m., while action gets underway at the usual 1 p.m. for Sunday's 12-race slate.

A new system is in effect this year for qualifying from the trials for the Kansas. The five fastest qualifiers from Thursday's set of trials will be matched with the top five from Friday's slate to make up the field for the finale.

The five qualifiers with the next fastest time on each day will go into the first consolation, while the third set of five each day will make up the second consolation field.

Previously, the top 25 qualifiers from each day of the initial trials had to battle in a second set of trials with the top 10 from those five divisions making the final. The new version eliminates the second set of trials.

The grand finale of the Kansas Futurity, the first leg of Ruidoso's famed Triple Crown, is booked for June 4.

Each of Friday's events will be run at 350 yards and will offer $2,000 in purse money. The First Edition, owned and trained by Billy Rex Hardy of China Springs, Texas, leaves the No. 5 post in the final race Friday.

The colt has already established himself as a top quarter horse competitor by notching eight wins this year. He became the only horse in Sunland Park history to win the spring season's two prime contests for two-year-olds, the West Texas Futurity and the Sun Country Futurity.

After putting together hard-fought head wins in each of those stakes, the colt's earnings have already topped the $100,000 mark.

Also in the 15th division, is Say Lady, the snazzy filly who took the runnerup slot in The First Edition in the Sun Country Futurity. She's owned by Allen Hodde of McLeod, Okla.

Another tough battle shapes up in the fifth division when Tarlo, winner of the West Texas Futurity Consolation at Sunland Park, locks horns with Only You.

Only You is owned and trained by Walter Merrick of Sayre, Okla., a top name in Southwest quarter horse racing, and is a full sister to Easy Date who won the All-American Futurity in 1974.

In the 13th division, Flyin' Passem could grab public attention by virtue of a recent victory in the Texas Futurity at Lubbock Downs where he took-home the $30,000 winner's share.

Oh K Scorchy in the third division looks like another standout having notched six wins including the Spring Futurity at Lubbock Downs.

The Main topper over the racing weekend is Sunday's 400-yard Kansas Derby. Gross purse is $139,100. The winner's share is $67,050.

Carrizozo Mid-High Spring Fling Held

The Carrizozo Mid-High held its annual Spring Fling activities on April 19, 20, and 21. This year's activities included two mornings of mini-courses, two afternoons of movies, and a game and activity day on Friday. The Spring Fling is a joint effort by the Mid-High faculty and the school administration to break the school day routine while at the same time encouraging new interests and hobbies, good sportsmanship, group participation, and providing the students with opportunities to broaden their fields of knowledge with courses which are not usually offered as a part of the regular curriculum.

Mrs. Dianna Manly organized the mini-courses. The courses offered and their instructors were: Art, Mrs. Helen Shields; Bicycle Safety, Mr. Dale Housley; Kite Building, Mrs. Terry Salgado; Careers, Mrs. Jo Paul and Mrs. Veda Stephenson; Chess, Mr. Arnold Boyce; Colonial Crafts and Craftsman, Mrs. Dianna Manly; Crafts From Household Products, Mrs. Annette Knotts; Grooming, Mrs. Laura Jones; Growing up, Mrs. Hazel English; Leathercraft, Mr. Gary Hightower; Rock Hunt, Mr. Charles Knotts; and Tennis, Mr. Mike Pavelus. Each student enrolled for two courses, and attended a two hour session of each course on Wednesday and Thursday mornings. Both afternoons were spent watching movies, shown at the Lyric theatre. The movies included "Where the Red Fern Grows," "Mr. Magoo's Favorite People," and numerous cartoons.

On Friday, the Spring Fling activities were held at Laabs field. The four Mid-High classes competed in many games and activities, organized by Mr. Charles Knotts. Points were awarded for each place on a 4-3-2-1 basis, and ribbons were awarded for first and second places in each event. The events were run-off by Mr. Charles Knotts and Mr. Mike Pavelus. Mr. Larry Wilkenson took care of announcing and overall supervision. Mrs. Annette Knotts and Mrs. Dianna Manly kept score and awarded ribbons.

By the end of the day, the eighth grade had earned a total of 91½ points with first place ribbons in the following events: Baby Bottle Race, Wagon Race, Roll the Tire, Egg Roll, Rope Climb, Indian leg Wrestle, Arm Wrestle, Horseshoes, Balloon Shave, Wheelbarrow Water Race, Balloon Break Relay, Tumbleweed, Newspaper Egg Piggyback, Shuttle Run, and the Sack Race Relay.

The seventh grade earned 79½ points with first place ribbons in the Apple Hang, Egg Spoon Race, Sling Shot, Golf Ball Chase, Bear Walk, Softball Throw, Pie Eating contest, Spoon Potatoe Relay, and Softball Bowling.

The sixth grade finished the games with 73 points and first place ribbons in the Wheelle Race, Pole Race, and Egg Toss.

The fifth grade made a big comeback Friday afternoon to finish the day with 51 points and blue ribbons for the Three Legged Race, Marshmallow Bob, and the Knock Knead Race.

The school wishes to thank the outstanding community leaders and teachers who assisted in making the Spring Fling a success by sharing their talents and teaching mini-courses, and to the parents and community members who provided materials and equipment for the events. Ask some of our Mid-High students to show you their projects and awards.

Two Years of Sweat —

Al Romero Wins Big Fight Over Favorite

Al Romero sweated two years to fight his way from San Jose to the National Amateur Athletic Union Boxing Championships. He made. But when he stepped into the ring last Friday night in Biloxi, Miss., he was nursing a severely sprained right hand and peering up at a 6-foot-8 behemoth from Wisconsin named Tony Tucker.

"This was the guy that was supposed to win it all, the favorite," said Romero with a smile. Romero could smile because he whipped Tucker, bad hand and all.

A powerfully built light-heavyweight who chucks ear parts along a General Motors assembly line in Fremont-for-a-living-Romero-began boxing only three years ago.

But he has had a mercurial amateur career that has taken him from the obscurity of a Police Athletic League gym to among the top-rated amateur light heavies in the country.

He now has an opportunity to hook on with a national amateur team which fights boxers from different countries from all over the world.

Yet Romero's long-range goal continues to be the 1980 Olympic Games.

"I've wanted that gold ever since I saw those guys on television in 1976," Romero said with envy.

He now has a string of victories in Golden Gloves competition and club matches from Las Vegas to San Francisco that has given him plenty of local attention from boxing impresarios.

But the AAU win last week crowned him with much needed national recognition.

Romero doesn't assault you with his presence. He is 6 feet & 175 pounds, not enormous by light heavyweight standards.

And he speaks with a relaxed, nasal voice which virtually sedates his listeners.

There is no arrogance in his boast that he is among the best amateur light heavies in the nation.

Albert Romero began boxing at age 16 while at Lincoln High in San Jose. He was an all-league offensive guard on the football team there and wrestled as well.

But it was boxing that caught his fancy. It wasn't a playground punchout or Muhammad Ali that lured him into the ring.

It was his 10-year-old brother, building a pint-sized reputation with San Jose PAL officials, who got him started.

In his first fight, Romero, then a 16-year-old heavyweight, got cold-cooked in the second round of a fight for PAL. In fact, he lost his first three fights. "I haven't lost since," he said proudly.

Within a year, Romero was in San Francisco for the Golden Gloves light heavyweight novice championships. He won with a knockout over Oakland's Richey DeBoise.

He resisted efforts to make him a professional and latched on with the Fremont International Boxing Club and began to train in earnest.

A year later he had a job at General Motors, working days and belting the bag at night, trying to snare an hour of rest in between.

It was a five-day-week routine, but the investment of time eventually paid off with an invitation to the regional Golden Gloves championships in Las Vegas in March, 1977.

He won and in April went to the San Francisco Golden Gloves again, this time not as a novice, of course.

By September he was fighting in senior division matches, against men well into their 20s and with 40 and 50 amateur fights to their credit.

Biloxi last week was yet a new high. "I sprained my hand in the semi-final and Tucker knew it was hurt in the final," said Al.

"But I just sidestepped his roundhouse punches and hit him with hooks and jabs. He never really hit me with a good punch."

Romero intends to a little time off from the boxing wars now, rest his hand, then focus his eyes keenly on the Olympics.

BY MARGARET RENCH

Smokey Bear Museum has had over 500 visitors this month. Seventh and eighth graders from Datil were there Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Bigbee and Mr. and Mrs. John Mersam also were there Sunday. All seemed pleased.

I have been informed that Zia Senior Citizen Center in Carrizozo has been opened for the benefit to all Senior Citizens in Lincoln County. Some service the offer. They can help in difficulties in Social Security and Medicare. They also have funds available to help low income persons with weather striping or insulation. They have two Attorneys available to Senior Citizens with legal problems. They have a van which will take persons without transportation to the Dr. for shopping for groceries, to do their laundry or any place they need to go.

The Center is open daily five days a week 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday thru Friday.

Everyone is welcome to stop for coffee, to visit and give any suggestions for programs.

You can contact Doris Lollin in Capitan for forms.

The Center is much more than just entertainment.

Another year of the Hondo Fiesta is over and it was very successful as usual. Crowds to full to beyond standing room with everyone so happily enjoying the splendid dances those youngsters performed.

This year five little second grade couples danced and they were great just as the other. It is the greatest joyful entertainment here. The PTA ladies and their husbands worked together and served delicious meals and taken care of the crowds without one mistake.

Mrs. Rench did attend Friday night and I had such a happy few hours just not wanting to end. Those students most certainly do an excellent job. I just cannot give them praise enough. They were great.

The seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Miller Sr. surprised their parents Sunday May 7, Manuel's 80th birthday with all of them coming in for a family reunion. It was complete surprise. Lloyd Tony, Billy and their sister, Lillian Chavez came from California, Pita morey and her husband Bill came from New York, Miloand Manuel, Jr. from Capitan.

This is the first time the entire family has been together in 37 years. Mrs. Miller (Isabel) was 80 in March and they chose a date as near their birthdays as they could. They were one happy family. I wish Mr. and Mrs. Miller many more very happy healthy birthday together with that beautiful family.

Tuesday Mr. Morey accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Miller taken Tony to Albuquerque to take a plane home. Friday they all left.

Mr. and Mrs. N.C. Grantham, Jr. left Thursday April 30 and visited their daughter Mr. and Mrs. Mike Westbrook and son Jason in Lubbock, Texas thru May 1.

Mrs. Edna Richardson of Wichita Falls, Texas spent May 5th thru the 9th with Mr. and Mrs. N.G. Grantham. Mrs. Grantham took her to all place of interest in our area.

Mr. and Mrs. Randell Parish of Joliet, Ill. spent 10 days with their daughter Mr. and Mrs. Butch LaRue. They and their daughter and baby son spent one week in Phoenix, Arizona where they did enjoy baking in the hot sun.

Pearl Sphon has been seriously with kidney infection and Dr. gave orders that she stay home until she is well, therefore she has been unable to fill her duties at Ft. Stanton.

Mike Parker son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parker will be employed June 12 thru August 4 with YCC in Forest Service.

Martha Proctor and her lovely family was joined by her sisters Barbara and two children of Las Cruces and her mother Pauline McKnight and her sister Mrs. Krum of Texas for the most joyous picnic last weekend on the Bonita. Though it was short it was such a happy time. I was so happy to visit with them for a few minutes. A lovely family.

Grant Dean son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dean, Jr. broke his left arm Friday afternoon in a motor cycle accident. He was in the Ruidoso Hospital Friday thru Sunday afternoon. Doing o.k. at this time even though he is in a cast. I wish you a good recovery, Grant.

Bill Strickland of Humble City spent a couple of days last week with his son Mr. and Mrs. Terry Strickland and family last week.

Amy Smith is back in Portales again limping but still going. She asks to be remembered to her friends in Capitan.

Mrs. Rench accompanied Mrs. Muse and her three lovely little grand daughters to Roswell on business last Tuesday. We had a great day with dinner at Furr's Cafeteria. That is truly a treat. We did enjoy every moment away, those little girls are just the nicest little ladies and truly a joy to be with. It was a great day.

Doris Founds and Mrs. Rench made a business trip to Ruidoso Wednesday afternoon. Thank you Doris.

Owners Planning County Land Use

MRNS-Four thousand property owners in Lincoln County are being asked to participate directly in planning land use in their area.

Questionnaires are in the mail to the owners of the developed part of township 8 area north from Ruidoso and South from Capitan. Last month owners of the undeveloped parts of the township were asked to participate in the decision making.

The program is under the direction of the newly created "extra-territorial planning commission" created by an agreement between Ruidoso and Lincoln County.

A master plan will be developed based upon the responses of the property owners, according to County Manager Les Olson, who is project coordinator.

In a letter to the property owners Olson said, "Only too often have planners not included land owners in the plan formulation state. In this plan for Lincoln County, input from you, as a land owner, is, and will, actively sought after. Later there will be public hearing on the project."

Issues the plan will deal with include hillside development regulations; enforcement of covenant restrictions in developments; enforcement of design standards for roads in subdivisions; preservation of farm, ranch and scenic lands; highway right-of-way land use.

The questions asked this week are:
1. Have you encountered any of the following problems on or around your property in the planning area? (Check if your answer is yes).

A. Declining water quality (from the time when you first bought the property).

B. Flies, stench, and soil erosion resulting from unrestricted holding of animals on a lot within the subdivision.

C. Improperly graded constructed roads within the subdivision which are new getting very rough.

D. Sewage runoff from private septic tanks.

E. Declining real estate values resulting from an individual's violation of existing covenant restrictions in your subdivision.

F. Lack of drainage ditches and culverts which leads to moderate to severe flooding in your area during periods of heavy rain.

G. Deteriorating quality of surrounding landscape due to hillside development, excessive tree clearance, scattering of garbage, assorted junk, and other eyesores, etc.

H. Poor response time by police and fire personnel responding to emergencies.

1. Other (describe).
2. Would you like the county to take the lead in enforcing subdivision covenant restrictions which are currently being violated?

A. Yes No
3. What do you feel should be the primary objective of any planning effort in the planning area?
A. Preserve the natural beauty of the area and the quality of air, water, and forest resources.

B. Attract businesses which will create more jobs and increase incomes.

C. Slow down the growth in area population and land speculation.

D. Protect and enhance property values in existing and future subdivisions.

E. Create a complete zoning map of the entire area which will designate specific areas for certain types of land uses.

F. Enable private landowners to have complete freedom so that they can use their land as they see fit.

G. Preserve prime farm and ranch land.

H. Other (describe).

A Bowl of Activities

from Nogal - by Robie Burk

For those of you in Nogal who have contributed to Louis Caraveo's education will be delighted to know that he graduated from College with his B A Degree this last week in Silver City, from WNMU.

Mr. and Mrs. Burkstaller and Damon watched him get his diploma on Friday night with great pride. After the reception in the gym, meeting teachers and friends, Louis served refreshments in his apartment with his roommate Randy Bocca, to his Mother, Father, Sister, cousin, his twin 4 year old brothers and the Burkstallers. The highlight of the occasion was, that Louis had received permission to invite his family from Mexico to his graduation on a two day pass. Louis's Sister said "I don't want to wake up from the dream." She was dressed in a fashionable slack suit that Louis had made her-yes! besides his many other activities he tailors on the side. He made his twin brothers a complete wardrobe for the trip to the states. Louis seems to find more time in the day than most people. He keeps and cultivates a large garden in Silver City besides working for the school every day, going to classes, studying and singing in the choir, he found extra time to make hot taco lunches for the students two days a week. He is really a remarkable young man and he plans to go to Albuquerque to school next year to continue with his pre med lab work. He will be working at Sunda this summer to help make his tuition for college next year.

Louis is grateful for all his Nogal friends and will see them this summer. A Cupful Of Health Questions:

1.) What vitamin should I take if I bruise easily?

Lack of Vitamin C is the commonest cause of easy bruising.

2.) Are tomatoes considered an acidforming food?

Yes.

3.) How do you feel about monotropic diets (that is eating only one food at a time)?

Other mammals eat a variety of food, through evolution therefore we feel that monotropic diets are wrong. This is taken from "Better Nutrition"

A Dash Of Humor!

I asked a meter reader if he had trouble with dangerous dogs. No he said, "I have a book that tells me which are "Meter Reader Eaters."

A telephone repairman was working late, when he saw a woman in the hall he ask her how to get out side. The smarty said, "Just Dial."

I noticed a friend of mine when he unwrapped his lunch had several bites taken out of his sandwich. I ask him why? He said, "That's my wives way of saying she loves me."

Do You Know?

That Mrs. Bob Crosby is visiting her daughter this week.

Microwaves are dangerous?

If the cold weather is gone?

That the annual Homemaker College will be held at New Mexico State University in Las Cruces June 13, 14, 15 and 16th.

A Pinch Of Wisdom!

The early Christians never pictured the Church as a building but as an assembly of many peoples with a common purpose.

Around The Bowl

We are deep in to May again a month of gladness, planting and renewing with in and without. New lives starting to change with graduations and new ideas budding. Nogal is still rather cold - let's hope Mother's Day will be warm and joyous.

Last week's temperatures as measured at Lincoln Station ranged from a low of 34 on the 8th to a high of 79 on the 13th.

There were many tears in the village Monday morning as we watched the old gym burn. The fire alarm was sounded at 6:30 A.M. This old gymnasium has been a special part of the community for almost sixty years. We stood in the yard of our homes and waved to workman who had come around the northeast corner of the building which was just ready for the ceiling beams and roof when the east side of the building collapsed. Seconds later the west wall went. This was a Saturday in March 1920 (we think), a day when there was sunshine, snow, sleet, rain and hail and the wind blew from all four directions. The rubble was cleared away and the building completed. Then in the spring of 1925 (again we think) it burned. It was rebuilt. Some years later there was fire damage to the projection room and the south end of the building. This was repaired. This "Old Gym" housed Sunday School classes, plays, concerts, basketball, gymnastics, funerals, baptisms, and many, many dances. The basement held the furnace and dressing rooms. There was only cold water for the showers until the furnace was used for the radiators in the winter months. There were home ec and shop classes, and our first hot lunch. All of us have our memories, and one child was heard to say sadly "Now where will I graduate in 1988".

Agnes Hein who was Zozo graduate with class of '38 watched her grandson Michael Aguilar receive his kindergarten diploma.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maki, Alamogordo came to Lisa Hightower's kindergarten graduation. The Maki's are former Zozo residents (owners of the Crossroads Motel) Lisa is their great-granddaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hightower, Ancho had visitors recently. They were Mr. and Mrs. Craig Coulter and family from Hobbs. Mrs. Coulter is Patty who was 1966 Zozo graduate and Mrs. Hightower's (Beth) sister. Also visiting were friends, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Griffen and family from Deming.

Patsy Lopez, who was in the Alamogordo hospital and her brother-in-law Dave Lopez who was in Providence in El Paso are both home now. Hope they continue to do well.

Mr. and Mrs. Nat Sanchez of Vaughn visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baca on the evening of May 12. While there their daughter, Josephine, attended the Junior-Senior Prom with Frank Baca Jr.

On May 13, Frank Baca Jr. escorted Cathy Sandoval to the St. Francis de Payula Fiesta Coronation ball in Tularosa. They were part of the coronation party in honor of Queen Miss Patsy Guilez of Tularosa, Cathy is the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church Queen of Alamogordo. Next day, Sunday Frankie and Cathy participated in the continuing activities of the annual fiesta in front of the church.

Cartoon in the 'Homemaker' (of the National Extension Homemakers Council): Sign on kitchen wall reads "Home Sweet Home, fast food service."

Lady of the house, busy with pots and pans says, "Let's see now, I've got to make a hot dish for the church supper, two dozen cookies for Susy to take to school, Mike's birthday cake and it's my turn to bring dessert for Homemaker's Club." Does that sound familiar?

The following is from Marion Spencer via the desk of Mary Ellen Payne: "Only one member of our family - (1) eats all the right things, (2) sleeps well, (3) gets plenty of exercise (4) never worries. Some people call him smart. I call him Rover."

Hope everyone had a wonderful Mother's Day. Do you remember when you used to fold the towel after you used it? Cleaned the whole house every week? It didn't need it every week. Never had a good excuse for coloring with crayons? No one bugged you to go outside to play ball? No one brought you wild flowers?

The "big happening" in Ruidoso last week was the opening of the Race Track! Traffic is again heavy on Sudderth - planes were buzzing in and out over the weekend with the heaviest opening day airport traffic to date! People were arriving at the track opening day as early as 11:00 a.m. with a folding chair under their arm! Others began arriving about that time for the Champagne party which marks the opening of the Jockey Club!

We saw many familiar faces back in their regular slots at the track but few are missing. Shirley Wallace who has had the $50 cashiers window in the Jockey Club for the past 15 years is not here this year! Carolyn Witt is in that slot. Also missing at the Jockey Club was Joe, Marth who recently underwent surgery and was unable to be at "his bar" for the opening! He will be back this year though, probably in about two weeks! We missed you Joe! George Brooks a familiar face of many years was back at his bar. There's a new face among the hosts and it's Morgan Clough. The familiar faces of Austin Pritchett and Mickey McGuire are back as hosts.

Ralph Shelley, Bob Workman and Fred James are back as parking attendants for the Jockey Club. These well known faces have been parking cars for Jockey Club members and guests for over twenty years. Ralph is a superintendent and Bob is a teacher back in Arizona the rest of the year.

Visited with Bill Thomas in his office in the Turf Club for a few minutes opening day. Bill, an old friend, has been with the track for many years - he is operations manager. Sandy Gladden is back as hostess of the Turf Club. We loved her dress.

Had a short visit with Dick Alwan publicity director before the races opened - he and his staff were busy getting things ready for the busy season ahead. Haven't seen Bob Dudich but it was good to have his voice back calling the faces. Bob really makes the races exciting and seldom ever misses calling the winning horse in front.

It was good to see Reba Martin at the Jockey Club - she hails from Oklahoma. There were many familiar faces back for the summer season. The Jockey Club opening is always a gala affair and the champagne flows. The food was great as usual and those huge strawberries dipped in powdered sugar were yummy.

There were no major catastrophes - water pressure was a little low in the rest rooms for a while and the electricity was off briefly but the races went on as the electric starting gate has a battery back up and so do the windows so the betting went on, too.

Hope you had an enjoyable time at the races - and see you next week.
