Police Problems Still Simmer

MRNS-Carrizozo's Mayor and Police Chief say their sons' problems with former city Policeman Randy Spear had nothing to do with the officer's dismissal.

Mayor Jesse English and Chief Choncho Morales said Monday that Spear had been fired because he failed to take orders from the Chief, had been the object of numerous complaints from citizens and had spent too much time not patrolling the town.

Charges of undue pressure in a traffic violation involving the Mayor's son and of failure to file a report in an incident involving the Chief's son were dismissed by the fathers as being exaggerated or not true.

S.M. Ortiz, municipal judge and county juvenile probation officer, however said, "There is some truth in his (Spear's) allegations."

Ortiz said, "The Mayor's son (Bruce) was arrested, placed in detention and the Mayor called. He made the remark, 'Let him stay there; it will do him good.'"

"The boy was released the following morning and cited into municipal court."

"The Mayor called me in reference to his son's case. I told him I could not make any decisions at that particular time as no complaint had been filed at that time. He (the Mayor) wanted some consideration and I told him he would have to get it from the arresting officer or chief of police. I told him that if the case came to court as a DWI, it would have to be transferred to a higher court. I do not, as a municipal judge, have jurisdiction over juvenile DWI cases."

"The case came to municipal court as a charge of reckless driving and he (Bruce English) was fined $50. I then decided as juvenile officer to proceed with further action against the Mayor's son. As a result of this action the Mayor's son has continued to be penalized. I am not able legally to discuss the matter further."

In the matter concerning Chief Morales's son's alleged accident, Judge Ortiz said:

"Spear reported this story to me. While I was away at a meeting in Farmington he observed Chief Morales' son Paul running a stop sign. He said he, Spear, had to drive over 100 miles per hour to catch him. He caught him (Paul) south of town on Polly Flats."

"Ordinarily I don't take bonds for local traffic citations. I request town people to appear in court. I allow bonds for out of town people. When I returned from Farmington, on checking my docket, I found out that Paul Morales had received a citation and had appeared at the city hall and had been allowed to post $5 bond. The normal fee for running a stop sign is $10. I inquired as to why he did not appear and was advised that since I was out of town, they took his bond."

"At a later date Mr. Spear told me that a fire plug near the Boyce residence had been knocked over by a blue Ford Station wagon. He stopped a blue Ford Station wagon, the operator being Paul Morales. Noticing the rear bumper was bent, he asked Morales how it happened to be damaged. Paul advised Officer Spear that he had backed into a fire plug and reported the accident to his father, Chief Morales. Up to date, I have seen no complaints or in charges in regards to the fire plug accident. There is nothing I can do as municipal judge until a complaint is signed. Spear told me that the fire plug was stolen after it was knocked over."

Chief Morales, in response to questions about the lack of an accident report or charges being filed concerning the fire plug incident, said that the town foreman, Emilio Beltran, had signed a complaint on June 3 concerning the fire plug.

Chief Morales said that he made the investigation and reported that his blue station wagon had knocked over the plug. He said Beltran estimated the cost of repairing the broken ring on the plug would be $10 and the cost of repairing his car bumper would be $25. He said this amount of damage did not require an accident report and did not require a citation.

Chief Morales said the damage had been to either town property or his own property and he did not feel any action should be taken since he, Morales, was going to pay both damage bills.

He said he had made a report on the matter and it was in his office in the town hall.

Mayor English agreed with Chief Morales. He said citations were not issued in incidents involving minor damages when agreement was reached between the parties involved.

The Mayor said that when his son Bruce, was arrested for DWI he had told the officer to leave him in jail that night. He said he had called Judge Ortiz because he had not wanted Bruce to lose his driver's license. "I talked to him and told him the boy needed his license. I did not want him to get off but Bruce is working and needs his license. I don't feel that it was improper for me to talk to the judge or the chief of police. There is plea bargaining all the time. The main thing was that I needed him to work and didn't want him to lose his license."

English said after Judge Ortiz declined to discuss the matter of changing the complaint, he talked to the chief of police and asked him to see if the citation could be changed so the boy would not lose his license.

Chief Morales said he, at the Mayor's request, discussed the matter with Officer Spear, & Spear "said he would go along". Spear made out a new citation, this time for reckless driving. "I don't see anything wrong with it," said Morales.

Mayor English said the complaints against Spear had been discussed at the closed meeting from which the press was barred two weeks ago. He said no decision was reached at the meeting but a few days later chief Morales decided to dismiss Spear because of "numerous complaints" from citizens regarding Spear's attitude.

"Just because you give a man a badge and a gun he does not have the right to push people around," said Morales.

The Chief confirmed the report that he had complained to Spear about his questioning methods in the fire plug incident. "I told him he had been rude to my son & I had already investigated the accident."

Morales said he warned Spear that he was spending too much time at the court house instead of patrolling the town and that there had been too many thefts while he was supposed to have been on duty. "I told him to treat citizens with courtesy but he did not respond to my direction. I decided he was not the kind of officer we wanted to keep in the force. We dismissed him before his probationary period was completed."

Spear told the town trustees last week that he had not been told of the complaints and there was no record of the complaints.

The Mayor and the Chief of Police said they considered the matter closed. Spear believes there should be an investigation of Morales conduct.

Carrizo Road To Be Improved

MRNS - Lincoln County will apply for state cooperative funds to improve 1.4 miles of Carrizo Road from the Ruidoso town limits to the Mesalero cattleguard.

The $58,957 total cost will be shared by the state and the county under the agreement. The county commissioners approved the application at a special meeting Wednesday.

Under consideration, according to County Manager Les Olson, are applications for 78 percent federal funding to pave the Ft. Stanton to Ruidoso road and the Captain to Nogal Road. These are long range projects, he said, and are considered likely to meet the federal off-systems grant program.

Last week at a special meeting the Commissioners rejected two bids for equipment to electrify about 30 miles of fencing to halt coyote penetration into sheep producing ranges.

The bids would not meet the needs, the commissioners decided. It was also determined that the county would expand the program to 70 miles of electric fencing. This will almost extend the entire north-south distance of the county.

The $32,000 cost of the 2 strand electric barrier will be divided between the sheep ranchers & the county's farm and range fund.

Ranchers now, according to Olson, are cutting a brush line to prepare for the installation.

The fence has proved effective in Australia and other areas where predators are a major problem to ranchers.

The Lincoln County ranchers told the commissioners that the fence will not harm the coyotes but would restrict them to their natural habitats and protect the lamb crop.

Betty King To Be In Lincoln County

United States Senator Harrison Schmitt's South Eastern New Mexico District Office Manager, Betty King, will be in Lincoln County on Wednesday, July 26th holding open office hours for the Senator.

Mrs. King will be available to meet with constituents wanting to share news with the Senator. Open office hours will be held in Ruidoso at the Public Library from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. and in Carrizozo at the County Courthouse 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday July 26th.

Pearl Stearns . . Concerned For Other People

Once upon a time, a long long time ago... a little girl was born. That in itself is one of the wonders of all wonders... but what a journey this little girl would take. And how many hundreds of people would be touched by the person she was. Hardships, handicaps,

Missouri, to Oklahoma, to New Mexico... her daughter Irma was born in Carrizozo. Then one day this fine woman gave up on a husband who couldn't put his wife and kids first. Now as she tells you Robert Poage worked for the Albuquerque National Bank for scheduled train might come barreling down on them. One never did. "Again she tried to make a home for a man working up and down the rails."

Finally Pearl gave up, just knew things would not work out for Robert and Irma. She came to Carrizozo and began to live with her sister Mary Estes. She worked at the Trading Company over on Front Street. As time went by there was this fellow over in the yards, Orsa Stearns began to wave to her and gradually they became acquainted. Orsa's people had a New England background, having come from Vermont. In May of 1914 they were married. To this marriage was born one child, a boy named Johnson.

And with this marriage Pearl and Orsa found what they had been looking for. Her husband worked for the railroad but now the all-important home end of the marriage began to shape up. From the hills of Vermont and of Colorado to the hills of New Mexico was as natural as a duck taking to water, so Orsa and Pearl went up the Bonita. Things were wild and free. Orsa kept his employment in Carrizozo, and Carrizozo was also to be the place where all three children would finish school, but when they had time it was up into the mountains for them. They had a place about three miles above Bonita City, now beneath Bonita Lake.

It was above Bonita City that "Ma" as she is so often called entered into life-long loves, Lillian Jackson came from Louisiana to teach school. She stayed with the Stearns. Then later when she was married to Allan Lane Lillian came down from White Oaks and stayed with Mrs. Stearns in Carrizozo so that LaRue Lane Wetzell could be born. Dr. Paden did the honors. Robert and Irma had gone to school to Lillian up at Bonita City. Lillian always called her "Ma". Mrs. Stearns says of LaRue, "She's just mine, you might say." Course you know LaRue heads up the Feed Store and is President of the Carrizozo Teachers Association, lives in the Hoyle House in White Oaks and I imagine there is little doubt that Pearl was part of "coming home" for her.

Another time she was called upon was when Lula Rannels gave birth to Robert and Raferd, twin boys. "Ma" Stearns was there. She says, "Oh yes I knew John Harkey..."

The Bonita country opened up in the late eighties as gradually the settlers moved up the Ruidoso, up the Bonita, up Nogal Canyon. The mines offered employment, as did grazing. There came to be a certain type of person who called it home. Green Berry Green, The Hughes, the Skinners, the Zumwalt, The Rannels... the Harkeys. Nogal, Parsons, Bonita City, nowhere in the world has there been a country more loved than by these folks. Then as the mines played out a new employer began to ease in. The railroad. Gradually the Southern Pacific Railroad began to buy up water rights and make plans to build Bonita Dam. For years the Nogal Lake area had been a holding area like the big natural reservoir at Corona.

Mrs. Stearns tells of how the cattle people used to encourage their stock to wade in the alke bed to try to increase it's holding power. With the coming of the railroad into the Bonita country new that would by 1946 take her into the building she now occupies, and like her Dad, she would enter the Post Office Service. Getting her new life started she worked on winter at the El Paso Masonic Hospital, while living with her sister. Johnson got a little taste of moving around.

Mrs. Stearns remembers back to the good old days up at Bonito, of the mail coming over the mountain three times a week, how Mr. Gatewood brought it, of how proud he was when he got his first vehicle. Then how she had to operate the post office in a room in the house where Everett Greer lives now until she could get into her new place.

Mrs. Stearns smiles when she tries to remember the different places they lived in Carrizozo when she came down for the fall term of school. She has always been one of the strongest supporters of education, attending graduating class of Racheal West and then the class of Lisa Zumwalt. Fifty years steady. She always took the Lincoln County paper, but a few years back cancelled because she can no barriers she handled immediately. The impossible she had to think about a day or two.

Pearl Heilman was born in Monte Vista, Colorado, just down the Gun Barrel Road some four miles. Those of you who know the country know that is not far from Manassa... the home of our great Jack Dempsey. Perhaps the land, or the water, or the air... maybe the shadow of the mountains of the San Luis Valley made for raising people who would fight for what they thought was right. Certainly Pearl Stearns of Nogal, New Mexico has fought time and history to a stand-still and everyone who knows her would award her the decision.

Sometimes a little girl is born into royalty, a family who live in a huge house, often generations have lived there. Pearl was born into royalty, the Heilman family, her Dad left his native state of Pennsylvania to move out to the San Luis Valley in Colorado, shortly after the Civil War. He prided himself on his heritage of being Holland Dutch, his leadership brought a train of 30 wagons out from Iowa, and it was his great experience to build a new country in colorful Colorado, make it into a new and exciting part of America. The Civil War hastened a lot of things, the railroads, the telegraph, the mail, and after the smoke settled down the big move of people moving out west was in full swing. Mr. Heilman became a Post Master in the new settlement, and maybe one day the little girl told herself she would be one some day. Of all the public service he rendered, one thing, he gave land for a cemetery on Upper Rock Creek. He is buried there now, in the land he opened up, loved, and went home to.

That has always been one of the great beauties of America, what could be done in one lifetime. As a little girl Pearl took her raising and education seriously. She did more than her share of work and waited for her private pathway to open up. Along came Ormal Poage and in 1903 they were married in Durango, Colorado. Ormal worked for the railroads, the Denver and Rio Grande and the Colorado Southern. Ormal Poage was a man who could not or would not tie himself down... back they went to Missouri, to Hanibal, where her first child Robert Poage was born. It took a strong woman to follow her husband up and down the tracks, to 35 years, that he was head cashier, that he has retired onto his ranch near Estancia, you don't have to be told what came first with her. Irma married Clyde Adams of Lamesa, Texas. She passed away in 1971.

Mrs. Stearns was there when the track was put down over the Cumbres Pass. Mr. Poage worked as a brakeman from Alamosa to Chama and across to Durango. Today that is one of the scenic wonders of Southern Colorado and Northern New Mexico, and it is a big thing to ride the same rails he rode right after the turn of the century. New Mexico Magazine advertises it as "Discover America's Most Dramatic Trainride". The Cumbres and Toltec Scenic Railroad, four times a week June 10 to October 15. Pearl was there when it was built and tried to make a home for a man who worked on it.

Her first experience with New Mexico came in 1907 when she moved to Alamogordo, as Mr. Poage and his people tried to take up holdings there. Mr. Poage worked on the railroad up to Cloudcroft, called the Cloud-Climbing Railroad, built primarily to bring down ties from the high timber country. The cover on New Mexico Magazine, September-October, 1972 carries a sketch by Bill Mauldin who said "he and his cronies hiked between Mountain Park and Alamogordo by the now-defunct cloud-climbing railroad bed. They knew the timetables, but there was always a chance than an unemployment was found by these people. Unlike White Oaks, they were able to secure new employment and keep holding on. Holding on by a job somewhere and by developing a small place and running some cattle. But mostly it was a case of being happy up there in the land of the tall pines.

When Orsa and Pearl had to leave the Bonita City area they bought a place in Nogal Canyon, a place that once belonged to the Mr. Tabor family. This was in 1929. They were hardly settled into this new home when Orsa died. He had been taken to the bit railroad hospital in San Francisco, for treatment of Brights Disease, but he couldn't holdout. Mrs. Stearns tells a beautiful story of how she had promised Orsa's mother that she would send his body back home to Ohio for burial. But Orsa told her in his last days that he wanted to be buried at Angus, where his friends would pass by and one day stop in to stay. And Angus is a long way from Vermont, but it was his choice to stay in the land he so loved. Then Pearl began to pull things tighter together, a move Nogal is quite a place. It is a community where for a long time people have lived together. There is one church... "We're just friendly" she grins. There is the Nogal Waters Users Assn., there is the Volunteer Fire Dept. "We have both Republicans and Democrats, but we switch off every now and then..." Then she added, "If someone didn't come around for a day or so we would go check...not being nosy, just trying to help."

She saw a lot of big deals come and go... the building of the giant water pipeline, redwood circled with steel wire... the Carrizozo of the three thousand people, the mines, but what she likes to talk about the most, seems like, is how Robert and Annie Bert Hall Poage celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary before Annie passed away... of how Johnson and Margaret are now at the 40 year mark...of how Irma was happily married. There are other values, Johnson owned a small ranch, the old Gatewood Place, or Porter Place, Johnson also once had the place Mr. Crouse has, and Bobby chooses to live up there in the shadow his grandparents cast. She says of Johnson, "I want you to know he's a mighty good son, the other one is too.

Margaret tells a beautiful story of how the first day she was here, at school, at 7th grader, Johnson took her home on his bicycle. She says of her mother-in-law, "She has always had concern for other people." Margaret remembers the stories of how Mrs. Stearns always had a pot of beans and a pot of coffee for hungry people drifting through...she might ask them to do a little work...work is one thing that good woman has always known what was.

MY TIME

by Mike Swickard

I had an interesting time at the Carrizozo School Board meeting last week. Of course there is such a fine line between interesting and bizarre. Not that anything really important came out of the meeting, just what seemed to come out of the meeting.

Two members of the school board were not there, which is unfortunate, since Richard Vega and Sterling Spencer are the two members of the board that I have never faulted for their actions on the School Board. Both men have my respect and support, but unfortunately neither were at the meeting.

This article is not criticizing the students, the teachers, and the support personnel of the Carrizozo School system.

So that there is no doubt in anyone's mind, this article is concerning:

School Board Chairman Ray Wells Board member Wes Lindsay Board member Wally Furguson Superintendent Jim Steinepries Principal Larry Wilkenson And further so there is no mistake, Ray Wells is an excellent barber, Wes Lindsay is one of the best telephone men I have worked with, the installed a new system for Lincoln County News very professionally, Wally runs a very successful ranch.

All five men are good husbands and fathers.

What is being criticized is the above mentioned five men in the School Board meeting of July 11th.

Now the first mistake that I made in coming to the meeting was that I went to the front door, finding it locked, I knocked. The principal Mr. Wilkenson opened the door and in front of Mary Rich informed me coldly that I was supposed to enter into the meeting from the other door on the side, that the door was locked because everyone was supposed to come through the other door, adding that I should have known this.

I proceeded into the meeting room and finding a room full of vacant chairs, I sat where I have sat at all of the other school board meetings before. The meeting had just started when Mr. Wilkenson came up to me and informed me that I was sitting in his chair, and I had to move to one of the other 40 vacant chairs. Now there wasn't anything on the chairs to let me know that they were taken, but I moved to another vacant chair, rather than make a scene. I felt at the time that he must have mistaken me for a seventh grader, for adults are treated with respect in this community.

This harassment was done in full view of the board, the superintendent, Mary Rich, Mrs. Wetzel, and Ken Jones. I did not write anything last week, even though I had time, because I wanted to see if an apology would have been made by any of the five I have mentioned in the first part of this article, but alas...

Ten Minutes later Mr. Steinepries announced the next item of the agenda to be North Central Association, adding that I was there for the board to ask questions about my editorial of June 15th. I stated firmly at that time that I was there to report the meeting, not participate. The board members were insistent about Mary Rich and I answering some questions that the board had. I asked the board if this was on the agenda to question me as publisher and editor of the Lincoln County News about my editorial. They confirmed that the agenda item was to question

Mary Rich about a headline on a story that they felt was misleading, and me about the editorial of June 15th, I stated to the board that the editorial concerned their performance as elected officials, and not how NCA will help College bound students.

The real question seemed to be, what right did I have to question something that the School Board did not want questioned. The question was put to Mary and I as to what we were going to do to make sure this criticism of the school board didn't happen again, (as if we had been wrong by doing our obligation to report and comment).

As Wally was speaking during the meeting, I was distressed to have Mr. Wilkenson look over my shoulder at my notes and then loudly caution Wally that I was writing down what he said. I hope Mr. Wilkenson remembers Wally, true to his heritage in Lincoln County, saying that he says what he believes and doesn't have to worry about being quoted."

One of the most often heard complaints that this reporter hears is that the school officials talk down to the students and the towns people. This was proven to me at the meeting. We spent an hour verbally jousting about the editorial, with neither Mary or I feeling that we were accomplishing anything, because we were still going to cover the meetings and write the stories as we see them.

I do not mind talking about editorial policy, but I was not informed that I was on the agenda, which is a breach of normal procedures, and I felt at the time that the whole hour was spent trying to intimidate me into silence.

Most of the complaints that I have heard about the school fall in this same line as many parents and students have stated to me, that they are just not treated with respect when they have a problem with the school. Instead they are viewed with parania as "the enemy".

The problem with this view point on the part of the school officials is that we pay through our tax dollars for the school to operate. When we are viewed as anything else but the Uncle Sugar that we are, we usually will feel that our tax dollars are not being spent well.

When we are told we can't criticize the elected public officials then we feel cheated by the election process.

The point that the editorial of June 15th made was that public officials (all public officials) had better be responsive to the voters, or find themselves thrown out of office. The point still stands. MS.

Carnival Patrons Appreciated

Fort Stanton Hospital and Training School's Second Annual Carnival on June 30 was a tremendous success. The day started with an open house for the parents and the public. A slide show, museum tour, and bus tour highlighted the morning's activities. Later, several hundred students, staff members, and area residents enjoyed the 7 game booths, clowns, bingo games, food, raffles, fire engine ride, and moonwalk at the carnival. The award for best booth went to the Infirmary staff and the best "carnival person" prize went to Elizabeth Pittam.

Due to the contributions and cooperation of many local businesses and citizens over $1500.00 was collected for student recreational equipment. Within a few weeks, the students will be using their new slides, swings, and monkey bars.

All the students and staff would like to thank the following whose help and support made our carnival such a success:

Dear Anonymous,

In this wonderful land of ours, freedom of speech is one of the most wonderful and beautiful words in our Constitution. Just as wonderful, are the people who so strongly believe in this right, that they loudly voice an opinion to their convictions.

I do not know the reason for Mr. Spear's termination of employment. I have always made it a practice never to mix our separate careers and our private lives.

In answer to the outrageous excuses I give to my husband's whereabouts I can only say: Yes, my husband takes a shower everyday before he goes to work. Sorry, but I was under the impression everyone did. With water such a precious commodity at your place, I hope I am never by you on a hot summer day. Yes, my husband goes to bed every night and is there in the morning. What does your husband do at night?

As for being sick, my husband has taken sick leave less than eight times in 10 years. Can you say the same for yourself, at any of the jobs you have had? Monday thru Friday he is on the street from 10 A.M. to 7:30 P.M. and later, where I am sure the people of Carrizozo can see him. It is only in the last three years that he works from Monday thru Friday in the day-time. Before that, he worked from 10 A.M. to 4 or 5 A.M. And five years out of the 19, he worked without a day off.

It is very commendable that you take such good care of your husband at his job. I have been working longer than I have had a Mrs. before my name. The people of the town are always solicited for votes come election time. Why is it then that when a violation happens within the city limits, people are told no one else can handle it because it is in the city limits? Why was your husband hired by a public servant? For his good looks? It's pathetic that the highlight of your day is listening to a police scanner.

In forty-one years of age, nineteen of them married to a policeman: I have asked for no special treatment for me or my children, nor thought the world owed us a living. I have gotten tickets and paid them, and if my children get tickets they can pay for them too. I am sure my children are not so important that a policeman of such magnitude would get fired because of them.

You say the town needs help badly? At the place I have been working for the past nine years there are five other women. All of us do heavy men's work. All jobs being for equal employment; why don't you apply for the job of policeman or even for Police Chief, it would be wonderful for a change to have someone with such high values and ready to go in a moments notice, working for the department.

But, are you proud or ashamed of your convictions or is anonymous your name?

Stick to your high values, we should all stand up and be counted. If you don't like something else about the way I answer my phone or about my terrible, incorrigible kids, come on down. I am available anytime of the day just a little way from where you live.

Very Proud of My Name,
Connie Gomez Morales

A Bowl of Activities

from Nogal - by Robie Burk

A bowl of Motherhood-What kind of a Mother are you??

From a study of successful Mothers in the Family Circle, the following conclusions were reached--

- 72 percent of the mothers described their homes as either-or somewhat calm and harmonious. Against turbulent and emotional homes. About 1/4 of the Mothers preferred that their child to be independent rather than well liked. Most of the mothers expected their child to know his way-around the neighborhood by age six-several said 4. Most Mothers put far greater emphasis on rewarding desirable behavior than on punishing misdeed. 15 percent of the Mothers read to their children before they started to school. Mothers also said that 90 percent of their children spent fewer than 10 hours a week at the T.V. Over half of our supermothers were either only children or had only one brother or sister. 90 percent of the children received some sort of instruction outside of school. Most mothers entertained at least 3 or 4 times a week and most had many interests besides their children. Many mothers believed in keeping their children moderately busy.

Some rules for the home that might help Mothers and Fathers!!!

1. Get close to your child-know what he thinks remember that the mind rules the body-find out how he thinks???
2. Set reasonable standards and expect them to be met.
3. Loving a child doesn't mean letting him walk all over you.
4. Accentuate the Positive-parents sometimes ignore the child's successes and pay attention to his mistakes-this makes him make more mistakes--
5. Make the home a learning place research things they want to know take courses, read books, discuss what they learned with them (just saying, "What did you learn at school today?") does not do the job.
6. Provide room for growth. Some parents of low achievers impose so many rules and exert so much control that the child's judgement and initiative never develop.
7. Remember that it is the quality of time you spend with a child, not the quantity, that counts.
8. Encourage a health respect for high ideals and the rights of others.
9. Remember that your own behavior is as important as your child's. You have to set some kind of a quality example. THINK ABOUT IT!!!!

Hints For the Cook?

If you don't have time to knock out a frosting for a white cake, do this: as soon as the cake comes hot from the oven, sprinkle crushed peanut brittle over the top.

Cut the crusts from day old bread and cut the bread in pencils-brush with plenty of melted butter. Roll in cinnamon an sugar and bake on greased cookie sheet until brown. A dash of Hooor!!!

What is this world coming too? I hear they just arrested a fellow who talks dirty to plants, caught him making an obscene fern call!

Between two men: I understand you had an argument with your wife. How did it end up? Oh, she came crawling to me on her hands and knees. Is that so? What did she say? She said, Come out from under that bed and fight like a man.

Man to friend: "You might describe my financial situation as fluid. Which is a sort of nice way of saying I'm going down the drain."

Do You Know?
Who Hank Means and Paula Sharpe ate a birthday dinner with us this Sunday?

The Guy in Nogal who gets the most invitations to eat out? (L.C).
The young man who is helping his father build a new room? (In Nogal).
Around The Bowl!

Mrs. Bukstaller is home from the Hospital with a new eye-and can see very well. She is trying to get her strength back, and Nogal wishes her well!!!

Mrs. Shook and Molly Bosh had two visitors this last week from Nogal, Mrs. H.F. Burkstaller, and Mrs. R. Wells, They both had a special visit with these ladies at the Betty Dare home. Molly was doing some beautiful crochet and hopes she can return home soon to Nogal. She is feeling fine and taking care of herself and helps Mrs. Shook. If anyone is interested in a job as a companion for Molly Bosh, please let Robie know about it. Call-354-2389. Thank you until next week.

Real Easy Jet Sets Top Qualifying Time

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N.M. — Real Easy Jet smashed out a 1 3/4-length win on Saturday at Ruidoso Downs and set the top qualifying time for the upcoming World's Championship Classic.

The three-year-old, owned by Walter Merrick of Sayre, Okla., quickly took charge in the third race and was well in command when he reached the final portions of the 440-yard dash.

Real Easy Jet stopped the clock in a torrid 21.78 seconds. Gary Sumpter was up. The win payoff was a low $3.40.

The grand finale of the Classic comes up on Sunday, July 23, offering a gross purse of $102,910. The winner will rake in $51,455.

Included among the others who also survived Saturday's qualifying round was Hot Idea, winner of the '77 All-American Futurity, and Miss Thermolark, who recently pocketed a purse of some $81,000 for her second in the Rainbow Derby.

Here's the complete list of qualifiers for the World's Championship Classic: Real Easy Jet, 21.78; Miss Thermolark, 21.82 1/2; Jun Jun Ni, 21.89 1/2; Hot Idea, 21.93; Go Go Cookie, 21.94; Perfect View, 21.98; Frosty's Azurette, 21.98 1/2; Lillie Bug, 22.01; Jet Rockette, 22.05.

In Saturday's mile-and-sixteenth feature, Barbijay, the 3-2 public favorite, came from far back to win in a romp. The gelding covered the distance in a crisp 1:48 seconds flat and returned $5.00, $2.40 and $2.40. Gilbert Villegas was up.

Deno King who made his move in the stretch, finished second. Standing Star took third.

The Classic purse estimate at $100,000 is for 3 year olds & up. At 440 yards it had many of the famous three year olds of last year and previous years in the trials which had some of the best quarter horse racing seen this year.

The qualifiers were:

Real Easy Jet	21.78
Miss Thermolark	21.82
Jun Jun Ni	21.89
Hot Idea	21.93
Jet Rockette	21.93
Go Go Cookie	21.94
Perfect View	21.98
Frosty's Azurette	21.98 1/2
High Set	22.01
Lillie Bug	22.01
High Seat, Perfect View and Hot Idea	paid the penalty of 2500. Ace made the finals.

O'Denny Boy Does it again

On Friday July 14, O Danny Boy Lincoln County's Winningest horse, home bred, won again.

It was his second win of the meet. This time against $5,000 claimers. So far O Danny Boy has not been out of the money at Ruidoso.

Talking about the race afterwards, Hap Canning said, "Do you really want to write it up. All right go ahead. He's a great horse & we are very proud of him."

O Danny Boy piloted by Willie Lovell had a good start. He took command at the head of the stretch and won driving in 1.072 the fastest 5 1/2 furlongs of the day. O Danny Boy paid $6.00, $3.60, and $3.00.

Second was Sailors Someone. Whose Princess ran third.

Strate Miss Edges-out Bradley's Kunumera in "Billy the Kid" Handicap

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N.M. — They gave Strate Miss some elbow room in the stretch and the gelding took advantage of the opening and squeezed through for a tingling head win in Sunday's 12th running of the Billy The collected $6,535 out of the gross purse of $10,675. The six-year-old gelding is owned and trained by Jimmy McClanahan of Berino, N.M.

The winning time for the seven furlongs was a crisp 1:26 2-5 seconds. Fans who made the winner a 2-1 shot in the five-head field got back mutual returns of $6.40, $3.60 and $3.00.

Bradley's Kunumera, ridden by Richard Bickel, was in the center of contention all the way but had to settle for a fist-swinging second. The gelding earned $2,396 and returned $5 and $3.20. Hesaru, the property of Ruth Sanders of El Paso, turned in a plucky performance as a 1-4 outsider.

Hesaru had his hat in the ring all the way, but finally cooked out in the stretch, finishing third. He reached the wire two lengths behind Hesaru. The show payoff was $4 even.

The big surprise of the race—and the big disappointment—was Trail Driver, the even-money favorite. Fans who supported the gelding obviously counted on his customary stretch wallop. But the field was well-bunched up most of the way, and Trail Driver probably found himself closer to the lead than he would like to be.

When Jockey Charles Mueller called on Trail Driver to overpower the competition in the stretch, the sturdy gelding hand nothing left to give—especially with tight-traffic-ahead-of-him. Trail Driver produced only a stretch threat and finished a dull fourth. Bradley's Kunumera, who likes to do his best running close to the front end, jumped into the early lead. Hesaru was right by his side, and Barrister Sib, a 4-1 shot taking a sharp hike in class, wasn't far behind.

Bradley's Kunumera and Hesaru slugged it out in a punishing duel, and as the field straightened out for the stretch drive it appeared one or the other would get the win. But Strate Miss sneaked up on the rail, and made up much ground on the final turn.

The next question seemed to be whether or not Strate Miss could squeeze through such tight space on the rail. Bradley's Kunumera, running his heart out so gamely, drifted out ever so slightly at the mid-way point of the stretch. That was all the signal Strate Miss needed. He picked up momentum, caught Bradley's Kunumera about a half-dozen strides from the wire, and inched forward for that head victory.

A STRATE FLUSH—Strate Miss, after squeezing through on the rail, puts away Bradley's Kunumera by a head in the 12th running of the Billy The Kid Handicap at Ruidoso Downs. The winners earned $6,535 with the brilliant stretch run. Richard Bickel is the pilot aboard Bradley's Kunumera.

A happy winning circle, O Danny Boy wins again. Pays $6.00, $3.60, $3.00. In white Mr. and Mrs. R. A. (Hap) Canning, kneeling, trainer Bob Arnett, O Danny Boy with Willie Lovell up.

Your savings earn as much at the Ruidoso State Bank as they do in

The Ruidoso State Bank's sunup to sundown savings plan earns as much as any savings plan at any other bank anywhere in the U.S.

Savings deposited today earn 5% compounded daily. That means your savings are working for you at 5% interest even if you put them in one day and take them out the next.

It pays to save at the Ruidoso State Bank not only because you get as much for your money as anywhere else in America but also because money that stays in Lincoln County helps everyone to a better life!

RULES AND INSTRUCTIONS SERIES 289

- TO OBTAIN MATERIAL: With each visit to participating store, each adult (18 years or older) may obtain one ticket and one Collector Card. No Purchase Required.
- TO PLAY: Scratch off boxes with edge of coin to reveal prize amounts. INSTANT GAME: Match 3 $ amounts across same line on 1 ticket. Win that dollar prize. COLLECT GAME: Correctly place collector stubs on COLLECTOR CARD. Complete any row, win that prize. NOTE: Prize amounts under scratch off, valid only for "You Win" $100 or $1,000 Collector stub and win that amount INSTANTLY!
- TO CLAIM PRIZE: Submit tickets for verification to Store Manager (sign on back in his presence). Winners of $1-20 paid in cash at store. Redemption of $50 and over Complete Claimant's Form (retain receipt) for payment by check.
- OFFER NOT OPEN TO: Employees of sponsoring retailer, its subsidiaries, manufacturers of Game, their advertising agencies and families of foregoing.
- ALL TICKETS are subject to verification, are void, and may be rejected if not obtained through legitimate channels, or if illegible, mutilated, forged, tampered with or irregular in any way, or contain printing or other errors. Liability for irregular tickets, or those not verified, limited to replacement of ticket. Void where taxed or restricted by law. Person(s) using any device, scheme, instrument or method other than fair chance to play and win is disqualified. Retailer reserves the right to limit prize to one per household. Void winning tickets must be presented within two (2) weeks after end of Game, or prizes are forfeited. Winning tickets become property of sponsoring Retailer and cannot be returned. State, Federal and other taxes imposed on any or all prizes are sole responsibility of winner.
- GAME ENDS ON OCTOBER 15, 1978 OR UPON DISTRIBUTION OF ALL TICKETS IF SOONER.
- ALL TICKETS AND COLLECTOR'S CARD must have same series number and are valid only in the Series No. Game.
- UPDATING ODDS: Odds to win and number of prizes unclaimed will be updated each week after thirty (30) days for all prize categories $25.00 and over.
- TICKET VOID IF does not contain on front: Series No., Security Pattern, and Title "INSTANT MONEY" and under scratch-off last 5 Symbol and spelled out word.

Around Corona

The temperature last week rose to 91 on the 9th with a low of 57 on the 11th. No moisture at Lincoln Station.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sidwell are the parents of a son, six pound eight ounce Cameron Ewell, born July 11th at Ruidoso. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Sidwell. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Erramouse and Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDaniel. Congratulations. Congratulations, too, to the baby's great great grandfather, Mack Holt, who celebrated his 95th birthday July 9th.

Roe Ann Icenogle left Sunday for Tyler, Texas to spend a week with her father, Stan Icenogle, and a brother.

The evening of July 4th Bethany and Kevin Keifer, Karen and Cheryl Gensler and Erdine Behunin enjoyed a steak fry at the Wayne Brazz ranch at Scholle. The next Tuesday evening the same group ate dinner at the home of Mrs. Behunin, and were joined by Kenneth Keifer and Becky Byerman of Albuquerque.

Thursday night three young people were taken to BCMC in Albuquerque by Erdine Behunin, Byron Yancy and Walter Garfield. Their car overturned at milepost 3 on State Road 42.

Cedar Temple No. 26 met Monday afternoon at the home of MPEC Edna Robinson. Mrs. John Tracey displayed the clock which she has set in a piece of zebra wood which she has made and given to the Temple as a money making project. Chances will be sold, and a drawing held during the summer festival. Leta Sharp reported on her committee for the blind. The meeting ended with home made ice cream, cake, tea and coffee and a game of canasta.

The deadline for accepting histories to be included in the Torrance Co. Historical Society publication has been extended to August 12th.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Bradley were here from Alamogordo and camped overnight in Red Cloud Canyon.

Mrs. Annie McInnes, 82, of Roswell passed away Friday after an illness. She at one time owned a ranch east of Corona. Among her survivors here are a granddaughter, Mrs. Cotton Yancy, and her family and a niece, Lena Wade. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Keelin were in Alamogordo last week to see her doctor. Mrs. Keelin is recovering from a strep throat.

Mrs. Cotton Yancey was in El Paso Wednesday evening to meet her husband who arrived from a ninety day stay in Algeria. Myron Wayne Yancey was expected to arrive Wednesday for a fourteen day leave from boot camp in Orlando, Fla. He will report to the Great Lake Naval Station.

Mrs. Robert Bradford came in from El Paso Saturday and went on the Phoenix via Globe Sunday.

The Save Corona Committee met Thursday evening and discussed the housing problem here. They are listing properties that may be for sale or rent and are asking that information on these be left with Mayor Lee Mulkey who receives most of the inquiries. If you have a house for sale or rent or a lot for sale do let the mayor know.

Mrs. Royce Washburn, reporting on plans for the summer festival on August 12th, says that there will be a horse show and playday for young cowboys and cowgirls. Mrs. Lee Mulkey has the charts for assigning booths and is also helping the 9th grade with their plans. It all sounds like fun.

Mrs. Harolyn Wilson, Thoreau, has been spending a couple of weeks with her sister, Mrs. Bill Kilgore, and Mr. Kilgore. Mary and Butch Taylor were also visiting over the weekend but had to return to classes at ENMU.

What the Corona Senior Citizens are doing:

On Monday evening, July 3rd, at 6:30 PM we had our dinner and fun night. There were thirteen senior citizens and four guests there. After dinner we played canasta and dirty-to-your-neighbor. Those coming were Pallie and Ernest Dishman, Maggie Vickrey, Flora Le Bryan, Katie Merritt, Molly Alirez, Lola Sanchez, Rumlada Alirez, Arturo Alirez, Minnie Davenport, Elvira Flores, Earl Roper and Verna Wherry. Our guests were Katie's granddaughter, Jane Minton, from Ft. Sumner and Lola's granddaughters from Albuquerque, Darlene, Denise and Kathy Trujillo. Each month on the first Monday at 6:30 PM we have our dinner and fun night. We would like to have more come. Please remember this date for our next dinner, August 7th. Everyone come and bring someone. We'll be having free bingo this night.

On July 10th, Monday at noon, we had our luncheon and arts and crafts day. Afterwards Lola Sanchez gave the program on making place-mats from plastic circles that were crocheted around. There were twelve present: Minnie Davenport, Romanita Chavez, Maggie Vickrey, Bibiana Lucero, Elvira Flores, Mollie and Rumlada Alirez, Lena Mae McKibben, Lola Sanchez, Flora Le Bryan, Ollie D. Wade, Verna Wherry, Joyce Winchester. Mrs. Winchester came over in the afternoon to see what we were doing, and making. Our next luncheon will be 12 noon, August 14th. We'll be making rayon satin roses. Everyone come and bring someone.

Loans Mean Good News For New Mexico Families

Families with annual incomes of less than $17,000 are eligible for eight per cent loans through a recent issue of state Mortgage Finance Authority bonds.

A total of $50 million is available at 20 financial institutions across New Mexico.

"This is very good news to all New Mexico families," Gov. Jerry Apodaca said, "especially those who have sought to buy homes but found interest rates and prices too high."

Apodaca said the new funds will also help the state's construction industry which employs 30,000 persons statewide.

The participating financial institutions and amounts available for loans available:

Albuquerque Federal Savings & Loan, $9,330,000; Pioneer Savings & Trust Assn., Roswell, $3,775,000; Southwest Mortgage Co., Albuquerque, $4,150,000; Sandia S & L, Albuquerque, $4,150,000; First National Bank, Albuquerque, $5,740,000; First Northern S & L, Espanola, $4,150,000; Four Corners S & L, Farmington, $3,300,000; Mountain States Financial Corp., $2,500,000; and American Bank of Commerce, Albuquerque, $1,245,000.

Security Federal S & L, Albuquerque, $1,650,000; Chavez County S & L, Roswell, $1,650,000; North Central Mortgage Corp., Albuquerque, $825,000; Suburban Mortgage Co. of NM, Albuquerque, $825,000; Rio Grande Valley Bank, $1,245,000; American S & L, Albuquerque, $1,245,000; Southwest S & L, Santa Fe, $1,245,000.

Fidelity S & L of Lea County, Hobbs, $825,000; Home Federal S & L, Fortales, $825,000; Security S & L, Carlsbad, $825,000; and San Juan S & L, Farmington, $500,000.

MFA Executive Director Tom Hundley said those mortgage lending institutions with headquarters in Albuquerque have virtually statewide lending capacity.

"I hope many citizens can take advantage of this program," Apodaca said. "And perhaps we will be able to put another bond sale this year to allow additional families to apply for loans."

Cement Shortage Will Be Partially Alleviated

Senator Harrison Schmitt announced that New Mexico's cement shortage will be "partially alleviated" beginning Monday.

Schmitt said that the Mexican government has agreed to renew export licenses for two border cement plants, one of which will supply the New Mexico market. Mexico recently cancelled all export licenses of companies shipping to the United States because of increased domestic demands for cement.

Citing a lack of capacity in the cement industry as a reason for the current shortage, Schmitt said there has been a "serious impact on the building industry, both in New Mexico and nationwide. The present boom in construction has depleted reserves and domestic plants are working seven days a week in attempting to improve the supply."

"Resumed Mexican imports will lessen the pressure of the cement shortage and give American companies a chance to expand," Schmitt said.

Pony Express To Change Route

Several changes have been made in the 1978 Pony Express Race. The last lap of the race has been changed so that it goes down the dirt road and Bonita River and will end in the field north of the pageant grounds. The horses will not go down U.S. 380.

The handling charge for the special pony express letters has been changed 50 cents handling charge for the special pony express letters has changed to $0.50 for each individual letter. The prize is a $1,000.00 added purse.

Pony Express Race August 5th to take the 7,400 foot altitude they will encounter into consideration and begin conditioning their horses now.

Even riders whose horses are used to the altitude should enter as soon as possible and begin training their horses. Mrs. Shrecengost, chairman of the Pony Express Race Committee said. There are four entries to date but there is still time because the deadline does not close until July 28th. The route is a rough one. It begins at White Oaks ghost town and crosses Capitan Pass to Lincoln.

The race usually lasts from 8 to 10:30 a.m. and has been a highlight of the annual Old Lincoln Days celebration since 1969.

Riders who want to compete should write to the PONY EXPRESS COMMITTEE, BOX 146, LINCOLN, N.M. 88338. Entry fee is 50.00 a team, which may consist of one rider or two - late entries is $100.00. The team must have a string of four horses - no mules allowed. Each horse will have to run at top speed from 8 to 13 miles of the 41 mile race through the Capitan Mountains.

Ordinary Western wear is the prescribed costume. The trail is designated an official mail route for that day. The mail sacks are strapped on at the beginning of the race and delivered to the Lincoln Postmaster at the end.

People who want the mail carried in the race should address a letter, put a regular first class or foreign air mail stamp on it, and put it in a bigger envelope with a note asking that the letter be carried in the pony Express Race from White of Lincoln. Along with the note enclose 50 cents for the official Pony Express Seal - address the big envelope to the PONY EXPRESS, BOX 217, Carrizozo, N.M. 88301.

Hoofbeats By Karen Halloran

A race will be named this weekend for Jim Smith, the exercise rider who died following a spill during a morning workout. All jockeys riding in the race, according to an idea spearheaded by Jockey Jerry Nicodemus, will donate their jock mounts to a trust fund to be set up for the late rider's son.

Trainer Margie Renfro, who's sent out only a few charges at the meeting, had plenty of success in Saturday's first race with Bin Scoutin. The maiden two-year-old filly, completely overlooked by the fans at 30-1, made a strong come-from-behind move in the stretch to win by a neck. Those stalwart enough to back the filly got a $63.80 return.

Turrent Duck, a gelding who was claimed early this spring at Sunland Park for $10,000 by Ofelia C. Castillo of El Salvador, Central America, has worked his way up to allowance competition and took home a winner's share of $1,860 on Friday. The sophomore battled at 5 1/2 furlongs and won by a half-length for a sizeable return of $51.40.

Both jockey Harley Crosby and jockey Salustio Burgos were suspended for three days from July 20 through July 22 for careless riding. Burgos was aboard Double B Express in the 10th race Saturday, July 15, when his mount was disqualified from first and placed second. Crosby was astride Primer Lee in the seventh race, Thursday, July 13, when his mount caused interference.

Other stewards' rulings: Jockey John Lewis took a $50 bite for failing to control his mount Real Stinger in the third race on Sunday, July 6. Jockey Henry Uriegas was fined $50 similarly for failing to control Shy Charge in the first race, Thursday, July 13; Jockey Pete Herrera took a $50 bite for failing to control Say Lady in the seventh race, Friday, July 14. Jockey Jackie Martin was fined $50 for not fulfilling his riding engagements on Thursday, July 13.

Around Town & Surrounding Areas

Swimming is one of the most popular, healthful sports. Swimming uses most of the body's muscles, and develops grace and strength. Swimming ranks as one of man's oldest sports. Cave drawings made in the Libyan Desert about 11,000 years ago show people swimming. An Egyptian nobleman who lived about 2160 B.C. recorded that his children took swimming lessons.

Right here in Carrizozo, 1978, children (and adults) are able to take swimming lessons. Had it not been for Mary Ellen Payne, County Extension Home Economist and her committee, Carrizozo and surrounding areas would not be enjoying the local swimming pool.

From ancient Greece to modern times, the swimming pool has played an important part in man's culture and society. Swimming pools were common throughout the Roman Empire. Many Roman cities had public "baths", or pools.

Today, hundreds of cities and towns throughout the U.S. and Canada operate public pools for the benefit of their citizens. The Jane Turner Memorial Pool of Carrizozo is the place to be on a hot summer day. You will find Cyndy Livingston busy attending to her work at the pool. Cyndy of Capitan, mother of 2 children (Jessica 5, and Jeremie 3) is the pool manager. Cyndy says that Emilio Beltran, Town of Carrizozo superintendent and town workers Faustino Gallegos and Chris Montreal deserve alot of credit for the continued operation of the pool.

Attending to life guard duties are Jackie-Dross, head-life-guard, NMSU student, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Dross; Brenda Lindsay, 1978 grad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lindsay; Mona, high school junior and Phillip high school sophomore, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Payne.

The guards along with the pool manager and town superintendent keep the pool and pool area safe for your enjoyment. Have your children show them respect and to obey pool rules. The rules are: (1) walk (2) stay away from diving area (3) no dunking or dangerous horse play (4) shower (5) stay off rope and life guard chair (6) no smoking, dipping or chewing in pool area (7) no cokes or candy in pool area (8) must swim across and back before entering deep end (9) stay out of office (10) obey lifeguards (11) clear pool as soon as whistle is blown (12) children under 5 must be with adult in water (13) no shoes in pool area (14) no inflated toys (15) no diving in shallow end (16) keep rest rooms clean (17) bring basket back.

Now how about a swim? Public swimming is Tuesday thru Sunday-12-5PM. The pool is closed Mondays. Friday is adult-family night, 18 years or older unless with parents, 6-8 PM. Saturday 10:30-11:30 AM swimming lessons; all ages, $1.50 per lesson, .50 with pass.

Tuesday 12-2 PM Capitan comes to the pool. Wednesday 10-11:30 PM Fort Stanton students. Thursday 9:30-11:30 AM 4-H lessons. Friday 9:30-11:30 AM Capitan.

A belated "happy birthday" to Orlando Beltran July 18. Birthday greetings to: Frances Zamora July 20; Esther L. Hein July 22; Vince Vega, Ken Wells, and Josefa Lopez July 23; Wink Bancroft, Jack Magee July 25; Stacy Ann Ortega, Victoria Cisneros July 26.

The Woman's Club is again sponsoring the annual People's Market Place, which involves people from Carrizozo and surrounding areas. Sue Stearns, Woman's Club president and committee members are busy planning for the event, scheduled for August 20.

The Woman's Club, a community service organization will have a membership drive kick-off in the near future.

Meanwhile the Club is planning for their 1979 community calendar. The Club apologizes for any wrong dates and misspelled names in the 1978 calendar. The whole town is encouraged to be listed on the '79 calendar. The calendar is great for gifts or handy for remembering relatives', friends' and neighbors' birthdays and anniversaries. The business places are easily located on the calendar to help you shop.

Club members available for further calendar information; Sue Stearns, Bobbi LaMay, Peggy Najjar, Rachel West, Eleanor Payton and Polly (me). Let's make the 1979 calendar a community affair.

Service men in town: Richard Vega, son of Della Vega, Ernie Beltran, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Beltran Sr. Richard and Ernie are both stationed in Fort Riley, Kansas. Jimmy Samora, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Samora traveled to Zozo in his car from his Navy location in San Deigo.

David Ceniceros of El Paso recently spent a week in the home of his aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Zamora. Others visiting in the Zamora home were Manuel Aragon and family from Morenci, Ariz.

"Welcome to the neighborhood" to Dr. and Mrs. Craig Nelson (now living in the former Gable home); David, Nina Bowersox and Bessie (Vincenta) Zamora who now resides in the former Effie Hecker home and apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Beltran Sr. attended the wedding of their granddaughter, Esabel in Fort Bayard. Esabel who married Eddie Jaquez on June 8 is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Beltran. Others from Zozo who attended the wedding were Ernie Beltran, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Zamora, Yolanda and Daniel, Quirina Jarmillo and Margaret and Victor Jr. Eddie Chavez and fiance, Cathy and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Williams (Clara) of Macon, Ga. who were here recently also visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Beltran Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Obie Simmons and Shirley recently returned from a long vacation trip, where they even traveled 50 miles into Canada. In Minnesota the Simmons' visited with daughter Carol Focken and family. Grandson Patrick was hospitalized most of the time they were there.

The Simmons' were in North & South Dakota. They went thru the Black Hills in South Dakota, passed thru Wyoming, drove along the mountainous "Million Dollar Hiway" in Colorado and came into N.M. by way of the 4 corner states. In Grants they visited their son and family Mr. and Mrs. O.B. Simmons.

The members of this household were in Albuquerque. While there we toured the Maxwell Museum of Anthropology at UNM. The museum occupied several locations on the UNM campus until 1963 when a wing was added to the present anthropology building. In 1972, a new gallery was built with matching funds from the National Science Foundation and Gilbert and Dorothy Maxwell for whom the museum was then named.

Gilbert Maxwell, a former trader in Farmington, also donated the majority of classical pattern Navajo rugs to the museum; Dorothy Maxwell, the daughter of an archeological collector, donated her extensive collection of Hopi kachina dolls.

Baby Zachary enjoyed the colorful Navajo rugs and kachina dolls but he was bored to death with the movie "Jaws 2", we saw later at a theatre. Since Zachary doesn't yet have his first tooth he didn't care to see a toothy shark and fell asleep in my arms.

The terror of a monstrous man-eating great white shark ravaging unsuspecting swimmers and attacking residents of a small East coast beach resort community enthralled movie audiences throughout the world in "Jaws 2". That same heart-stopping suspense and gripping adventure returns to the screen in that film's sequel, "Jaws 2".

Other people's bathrooms are decorated with dainty swan and cute fish plaques or pictures. About 2 years ago, "Jaws" inspired me to paint a huge replica of the shark on the wall of the bathroom of our former home. The only thing missing: the sound track of the movie.

While we were on the UNM campus, Mich Colwell, 1978 Zozo graduate crossed our path. Mitch was attending the summer session of the college enrichment program.

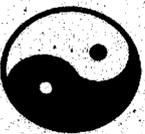

Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Shrum and daughter Carolin from Virginia Beach were here to visit Sonny's mother, Mary Shrum and other friends.

Santa Fe - They're Off and Running: While Demo gubernatorial hopeful Bruce King was touring Southern New Mexico with Lt. Gov. Bob Ferguson mending Democratic political fences an independent group of dissident Demos was organizing in the Capital City.

Spark-plugged by Ralph "Sabu" Gallegos, an insurance executive, and Rinaldo "Cuato" Chavez, the "people's judge", the disgruntled Demo group is seeking to build "Beat Bruce" organizations in fourteen counties.

Sabu told this reporter the "independents" will concentrate on twenty precincts in each county—trying to turn over anywhere from twenty to forty votes.

The bottom line is to get 4,000 Democrats to switch their votes from King to Skeen, which means a change of 8,000 votes in the projected vote totals.

The dissidents figure the 8,000 votes should be enough to make the difference in a very tight election.

Prediction: The Criminal Justice Study Committee will meet late this week at the Merry Round House and our sources say the lawmakers will zero-in on the critical determinate sentencing law.

Capitol wall-leaners have been worried for months that the determinate sentencing legislation could bankrupt the State down the line—or at least put tremendous fiscal burdens upon the penal system.

is on the job at least temporarily as head of the State's Department of Automated Data Processing.

Kleinhenz will serve until a permanent successor is found for Steve Malnar.

Just for the record, a carnival has been set up on the big field right next to the fortress that houses the DADP.

In case you are not familiar with Santa Fe, the Department of Automated Data Processing is the one without the Ferris wheel!

Demo Briefs: A top source in the Democratic ranks tells us the State organization will not continue Bill Richardson, present party executive director on the payroll past August 1st.

In fact, our source says the change probably will be made right after the State Central Committee confirms Larry Ingram of Tucumanari as State Party Chairman later this month.

Our source says the party bigwigs fire Richardson, who once worked in Washington for the U.S. Sen. Hubert Humphrey, is just too unfamiliar with New Mexico politics to handle the job.

Nose News (continued): This column frequently has commented on the septic tank problems at the Governor's Residence (mansion) north of Santa Fe.

Muddy smelly problems in the system prompted the Chief Executive to request funds from the State Board of Finance for some emergency patching.

Meanwhile, some long-range plans are underway to effect the costly hookup of the mansion sewer system to the city's facilities—a good distance away.

The latest update comes from one of our snappers who's been sniffing out the most-buried stories.

Our source says after Ben Bronstein's first meeting on the Board of Finance, the Governor called him in to ask how things went. Bronstein, an acknowledged finance whiz, joked with Apodaca over the $12,000 needed to correct the odor problems.

Apodaca told Bronstein the septic tank problems were not an Apodaca Administration born concern—but rather a problem inherited from the Administrations of Bruce King and Lonesome Dave Cargo!!! More Muddy Water: State Health and Environment Secretary George Goldstein stepped on some high placed toes recently - but he was probably telling it like it is.

In the presence of deputy national energy secretary Jack O'Leary, Goldstein questioned the reality of a New Mexico veto of the proposed nuclear waste disposal project near Carlsbad.

For about the 200th time, O'Leary said he and Energy Secretary James Schlesinger are sincere that New Mexico will have the "right of concurrence" on this first of its kind project.

But Goldstein noted some possible legal objections to one state vetoing the plans of the federal government. Goldstein said he's proceeding as if no veto power will be forthcoming.

O'Leary countered by saying if there's any problem with the veto power it's in New Mexico - not at the administration level.

But observers wonder about the congressional level - that might be a different story.

The interesting exchange was the latest confusing episode in the continuing saga of the proposed burial of nuclear waste in the Carlsbad salt beds.

The wall-leaners are also betting that an "off the track" issue will be the hangup for the waste disposal project. And just such a hangup is the transportation of nuclear waste through given states.

During hearings in Texas, citizens expressed grave concern about the transport of nuclear waste through their state. And the media jumped on O'Leary over this issue.

Perhaps the most concrete side of this whole issue is O'Leary's contention that the federal government dropped the ball on the nuclear waste issue years ago. He says if the feds had performed studies when the first nuclear plants were built, answers to the haunting Carlsbad questions would be history.

Executive Diet Menu: Two top state government officials are on an unusual sort of diet. State energy administrator Nick Franklin and gubernatorial aide, Chris Krahnig are fasting every Monday—save some fruit juice.

They stay on the fast through Tuesday noon, at which time they return to light eating.

The two have shed nearly 30 pounds between them since they started the new diet.

Sticker analysis: They say a person's bumper stickers says a lot about one's personality. If that's true, all-leaners' see a dramatic and oscar-award winning side to Natural Resources secretary Bill Huey. His car's bumper sticker reads, "God bless John Wayne."

Inside the Capitol . . .

By Carroll W. Cagle

SANTA FE - An interim committee of the State Legislature which deals with health and aging issues plans to concentrate much of its attention this year on the problems of providing adequate health care in New Mexico's rural areas.

Rural health care needs were the subject of the first full-scale meeting this summer of the Health and Aging Committee, headed by Rep. Nick Salazar, a Democrat from San Juan Pueblo.

Health experts from various institutions outlined their ideas on problems faced by rural areas and potential solutions.

There's a need said one state official in an interview, "to get and keep proper medical services in rural areas."

But few physicians have been willing to settle in more remote regions when they can make substantially more income, and perhaps engage in specialization of interest to them, in larger cities.

Much of the relief for health care-short rural areas, therefore, apparently must come from "para-professionals" like physician's assistants and family nurse practitioners. "If they're willing to go out there (to remote areas) and stay out there," said one official.

State officials also will be considering new Federal regulations being proposed by Washington under terms of the Rural Health Clinic Services Act passed by Congress and signed by President Carter in 1977.

The new rules, having application to rural health services, are being offered for state comment by the Health Care Financing Administration of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

The proposed rules would emphasize the role of rural clinics by requiring states to reimburse clinics themselves, which in turn would compensate doctors for services rendered to Medicaid patients.

The rules, said one Washington-based association, are designed "to minimize abuse of the system and to make association with a clinic more attractive to physicians."

A measure of the Health and Aging Committee's determination to concentrate on rural health issues is demonstrated by its proposed work plan for the 1978 interim. Among the top priorities were these:

—An examination of "the maldistribution of medical doctors in the state and possible recommendations for redistribution."

—The "need for increased support of rural clinics."

—"Review the difference in Medicaid reimbursement levels between urban and rural physicians."

—"An examination of the need for more 'physician extenders' (family nurse practitioners and physician assistants)."

Meanwhile, a New Mexico man has moved into a key position in the Carter Administration.

He is Richard Helm, selected by HEW Secretary Joseph Califano to the important and complex national Medicaid program. Helm, formerly director of the State Health and Social Services Department, will oversee some $18,000 billion a year in Federal expenditures for the medical services program for the poor.

It's the second time around in the nation's capital for Helm, who began his political career in Bernalillo County government and later served as an executive for the City of Albuquerque.

Helm was administrative assistant to the late U.S. Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., an deal with health care issues handled by Anderson on the Senate Finance Committee. From Anderson's staff he returned to New Mexico to head HSSD.

Dr. Ronald Knief To Explain Energy Problems

Alamogordo - Dr. Ronald Knief, professor of nuclear engineering at the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, will be in Alamogordo and Ruidoso, Aug. 4 to explain some of the energy problems facing the United States in coming years. Through the use of an energy environment simulator, Dr. Knief will detail the need for alternative sources to the traditional methods of generating electricity.

The simulator illustrates the supply & demand picture inherent in energy usage depending on known reserves of coal, oil, uranium, hydro and new technology. It also takes into account usage of energy in such fields as agriculture, manufacturing and domestic (households).

According to Dr. Knief, the simulator isn't designed to provide answers to the energy crisis. "It does, however, make you think. It shows there are no easy answers," he emphasizes.

Those present will be allowed to work out their own proposals for solving the energy crunch by cranking information into the machine. For example, if there are known reserves of oil that will last 25 years, what energy sources should be developed to make up the difference when that oil is gone? Should nuclear development be encouraged? Solar? Wind? How much energy will it take to feed a growing nation? To keep up with the demand for manufactured goods? To light the houses of 3 million Americans? The simulator can provide some insight into the requirements of the country and the world while keeping in mind the restrictions posed by limited supply and the promise of research and development.

The Aug. 4 program will be presented at the Otero County fairgrounds beginning at 2 p.m. and at Otero County Electric Co-operatives Alto Office, on Highway between Capitan and Ruidoso.

Dr. Knief will also be on hand for Otero County Electric Cooperative's annual meeting of the membership the following day in Cloudcroft. The meeting will begin at 10 a.m. at Cloudcroft High School's gym.

Otero County Co-op is one of 17 electric cooperatives in New Mexico that recently participated in the purchase of an energy-environment simulator through the New Mexico Rural Electrification Cooperative Association. The simulator demonstration is available for any and all service club meetings throughout the service areas of the state's electric cooperatives. For additional information, please contact your local co-op office or the statewide association office in Santa Fe at 982-3921.

Queen Contest

The Capitan Jr. Riding Club held its 8th annual queen contest on July 16. Outgoing queen Shelly Eldridge of Capitan crowned Miss Melody Hefker of Carrizozo as the 1978 queen. First runner-up was Sandra Lacy of Capitan and second runner-up was Marcia Hefker of Carrizozo. Other contestants were Rebecca Barber, Capitan; Jenny Cooper, Hondo; and Yvonne Montes, Capitan.

Contestants competed in the riding events for the day and high point winners in each age group were: 8 and under - Marcia Hefker and Dusty Beavers; 9-12 age group - Rebecca Barber and Dean Scheer; 13 and over - Sandra Lacy and Gid Allen.

4-H Awarded

Captain 4-H members were happy to learn that their request for a community Pride Grant from Chevron Oil Co. was accepted.

The money from this grant is to be used to complete the project titled, "Historical Awareness" that the club chose to work on this year. This project consists of clean-up work done by members and their families in the Old Lincoln Cemetery, construction and erecting redwood crosses to mark the some 250 unmarked graves found in the cemetery, and tape recording and typing interviews of citizens who can help us record some of the colorful history of Lincoln County. These will be assembled in a library so they might be read by interested persons. Anyone knowing of a person who would be interesting to interview is asked to contact Harvey Martin, Captain, N.M. or Altina Proctor, Lincoln, N.M. who are the co-chairman of this project. The club members appreciated the interest shown by Chevron Oil Co. and also the Lincoln Heritage Trust for the free tour of the interesting museums in Lincoln.

Blossom End Rot: If tomatoes are not irrigated frequently during this hot weather they can get a disorder called blossom end rot. A dark, leathery spot is characteristic of the disease. Watermelons and squash are also affected. Blossom end rot can be avoided by giving your plants an even and adequate water supply.

More information on blossom end rot and other plant disorders is available from the County Extension Office in the Courthouse in Carrizozo or phone 648-2471.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,

Some time past I was reading some comments on our present sheriff, when the thought came to me that there must be some good in all people if you look hard enough.

About that time Deputy Dan drove by, so there was the answer, the sheriff did hire Danny Watson. A better young man, you would have to look hard to find. What are some more good points???

Thank you for your service.
