Several Applications on File

Problems with getting the right teachers in Carrizozo were discussed at the regular meeting of the Carrizozo School Board Tuesday night. Several applications are on file, but the need of the Carrizozo School system is for teachers that can also coach to fill the vacancies left by the resignations of Coach Knotts and Coach Manly. Knotts accepted a position with Logan School System, and Manly accepted a position with Estancia School Systems. The Board took no action on the applications received, and charged Superintendent Steinepries with hiring the necessary teachers by opening day if possible.

The new policy Handbook has been completed. Sale of surplus items; the walk-in cooler and walk-in freezer, old station wagon, pick up, chairs, 2 sanders, were discussed as a continuing problem of selling not needed items was stressed.

Two buildings have been painted by Ever Ready Paint Company of Alamogordo, and tile is to be laid by Bob's Home Service.

The State Recommendation on the Transportation of Students to school was discussed and the Board decided to continue as is the Bus No. 1 South of Carrizozo, Bus No. 2 from Nogal, Bus No. 3 North Route, and Bus No. 5. Bus No. 4 from the Oscuro area driven by Waylon Dobbs was discontinued for lack of students.

The State Department of Education will hold an In-Depth evaluation of the Carrizozo School, February 19th to the 23, 1979. The following year Carrizozo will have a Program Review by the SDE.

Letters of resignation from Diane and Ray Manly were read and approved leading to the current teacher applications.

The price for admission to the Carrizozo football games went up for adults from $1.50 to $2.00 for each of the 4 home games. No change was made in the Student admission price.

The breakdown of a freezer resulted in some food spoilage and the purchase by the Carrizozo School Board of a $2,000 ice maker for the coming year.

In the final discussions of how to get teachers to Carrizozo, Superintendent Steinepries stated, "We would have had teacher today, if we could have had a house for him."

Steinepries pointed to the lack of housing as one of the most serious problems in recruiting teachers.

The physical is for both men and women and is free this one time only.

Football coach Jack Cisco is in his second year at the helm of the Capitan Tigers commented to the NEWS that he, "felt we are better balanced this year, but maybe a little bit lighter." Coach Cisco would make no predictions other than the teams he felt to beat in the State 1A face would be Melrose and powerhouse Hagerman.

Capitan football has eight returning varsity lettermen, Marc Stewart, Harvey Martin, Rich Sanchez, Jeff Greer, Tim Proctor, Alex Trujillo, Ricky Clifton, and Adam Aldaz.

The girls' volleyball team has nine players back including Susie Shreengost, Liz Miller, Journell West, Ann Womack, Lisa Lamb, Julia Coleman, and Donna Cooper. Letter To Capitan Water Consumers

The NEWS has received several complaints about the Capitan water, and so there is no mistake as to the situation; the following letter was sent out, explaining the problem. It should be noted, that the water is fit to drink, only that the filters are out, so the water looks and tastes bad. The water has been certified safe by Brown Edwards, the Health Inspector for Lincoln County.

Dear Water Customer: Due to a malfunction at the water filter plant, the Village of Capitan has been unable to continually filter the municipal water to the desired quality. Work is underway to make repairs as quickly as possible.

The safe water drinking act requires the Village of Capitan to notify all users if daily test results are not in compliance with the act. The turbidity (small suspended particles) is slightly above standard. Although not harmful to public health, this condition is undesirable and will soon be corrected. We appreciate your patience.

Earl Bragg Carries Colors —

"Just Don't Shout Hallelujah"

We saw an outstanding example of pride in heritage Saturday in the Pony Express Race. One that we should all stop and think about for a few moments. In this world of tremendous change there are some things which shouldn't change. We are the people who invented the automatic transmission and came up with a shiftless generation. In our nation there is a lot of soul searching going on and I did my part of it last Saturday in Lincoln.

Bud Crenshaw could put a team in the Pony Express race, or he could think it too much trouble and pass. He had a lot of reasons, and a lot of good excuses for passing. But it is not in Bud to pass. He has been born and bred to compete. There was a problem: he didn't have a rider.

He did know a man, one who has ridden a horse longer than he can remember. A man whose horn-rimmed glasses, baseball cap and quiet nature belied the skill and desire to mount a horse and carry the colors of he and his friends. And when I saw him come in at Lincoln the other morning he was more than a cowboy born and raised here, he was literally thousands of years of history. One proud page is the word chivalry: gallant or distinguished gentleman. Yes, we need to think a minute or so.

Earl Bragg carried the colors for a lot of people this past weekend. I talked with him Tuesday before the race, and he wouldn't let me take his picture. He wasn't sure he was going to ride and he is the type man who will not accept something he doesn't deserve. I told him it was a good story to me that Bud had asked him to stand by. But he felt it was unwarranted publicity and he passed.

Thursday Bud had to make his final decisions. He asked Earl to ride. Dale had to agree and Dale's father had to be worried about, the business, a lot of things. But then the colors had to be carried too.

Earl didn't know his horses. He didn't know the route. He hadn't been on a horse in something like three months. But then a true man-a-horseback doesn't take much stock in excuses. He spends more time trying to figure out a way to do what is asked of him. And Friday night in a pickup as they tried to ascertain the route and make final decisions on how to put the horses over it, it is a fine tribute in itself that he didn't back out. I bet he went home to a restless bed and got up with a solemn face.

I watched him leave the starting place in White Oaks and as he passed Bud's place he was in the lead. He left no doubt in anyone's mind what he was going to try to do. When you are going to ride four horses into the ground, cover 41 miles in just a little over two hours, that is almost enough in itself. Almost...but he didn't win. Too often we count such a person a loser and let it go at that. I stood there silently as he tried to get his legs to stand steady under him. Just like the four horses had felt at the end of their part. I listened as he told Bud about the first horse stepping on a rock and beginning to favor a leg, and immediately you are beset with the grim possibility of permanently laming a horse. His second horse couldn't put him out front and the third horse tried to pick up the slack. Then the fourth horse began to have breathing problems not far down the final leg. That fine old horse had been under the weather but they believed in him so much they decided to go with him. But Earl could hear the labored breathing and a good man worries about a good horse. He didn't push to beat the clock, he accepted the gap between he and the winner, a team that had beat him in hard, open, competition. When he came riding in he joined a proud group of men: those who have ridden in the Pony Express Race.

He and his team got beat. The race is over. We all know the quiet courage and pride that runs deep in men like Earl. Every fall I go by his Old Grandad's place way up yonder in the mountains. Old Tom Bragg. I like to sit there and think back to a man who got up as close against the mountain as he could and tried to pry a home out of the mountains locked grasp.

I thumbed through a lot of pages of history last week. Then on Saturday I saw a new page written. A page that told the story of several men who marched to the sound of a distant drum. Men who shrugged off all the handicaps and presented their colors. They carried my colors too.

Every time I see Earl I will think about the countless hours he will look way off yonder and feel the heaving horses...and hear their labored breathing...and he will contemplate how he got beat...and he will dream...I could say a lot of nice things about him, but he would rather I didn't. I will say I enjoyed getting to know the man, listen to him, just watch him. Watch him respond to the call of colors. Lincoln County was carved out by people like that and we need to remember. Our country needs examples like this, perhaps as badly as ever before. We need to tell that old, old story.

I know Earl Bragg doesn't want anyone to shout hallelujah. He will make peace inside himself. I asked Mike a favor: let me say "thank you".

White Oaks Reports Fire

About 2:45 p.m. Tuesday, August 1st, Tina Topper heard several explosions near her house northeast of White Oaks. When she went outside, she noticed fire and smoke across the old Jicarilla road that passes near her house. She decided at that time to go for help accompanied by her newborn baby. Mrs. Topper proceeded to the Crenshaw homestead and warned Mr. and Mrs. M.D. Richardson of the fire. Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Topper went back to the Topper residence to see how much the fire had spread, then headed to White Oaks for more help.

Passing by Ivy Mann's place they noticed a drilling rig there and went to see if anyone there could help.

Ms. Mann and a girlfriend got the water truck with the drilling rig and brought the water truck to the fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull and another man were passing by and stopped to assist in putting out the fire. Mrs. Turnbull had some blankets which they wet and began to beat the grass fire out with. The others grabbed shovels that they had brought and began to shovel dirt on the hot spots.

At 4:00p.m., Jack Richardson arrived at the fire, and seeing how serious the situation was, called in an emergency message to the Forest Rangers at Carrizozo and Capitan. After getting the message through, Richardson helped with the fire.

At 5:00p.m. Thomas Guck, Forest Ranger from Capitan arrived at the fire. By that time the small crew of civilian had the fire mostly under control. Tom called in for a tanker and a fire fighting crew.

At this time the investigation of the cause of the fire began.

A crew of five Rangers watched the fire sight until 7:00 a.m. Wednesday. Most of the old stumps and brush smoldered throughout the night but by morning the fire was completely out.

A Letter to the Editor

I feel that an answer to the "Letter to the Editor" by Mrs. Lindsay was uncalled for. She uses the words "childish, ridiculous, and disgusting editorials" that have appeared in the Lincoln Co. News. I have been reading the Lincoln Co. News about 25 years and have yet to read any editorials that have been other than constructive and slanted toward the good of the community. Granted that an Editor is bound to stir up areas of disagreement. People being people, I feel that the present Editor as have Editors, in the past, is doing everything he can to improve the community & make it a better place to live. There will always be personality conflicts between some adults in any town. Over all the years I've been a subscriber to the Lincoln Co. News, I can't recall a single instance where the Editor and his staff have done other than support the Carrizozo school and report favorably on all its activities. I do not care to get into personalities, where the school board is concerned. Sufficient to say if they had not been respected members of the community they would not have been elected to the school board. Prejudice has no place in the operation of the school. I do not personally know of any good teachers that have been lost to the school through harassment or students who have been "Lambasted from cover to cover."

I would like to say in closing with particular emphasis on the Carrizozo school board and faculty, if you can't stand the heat, stay out of the kitchen. Louise Rumiels Alias "Bonita Lou"

Letter To The Editor

Ladies, Ladies, Ladies.

I see where the good husbands and fathers of the system are using a woman to cloak their shortcomings. They must have burned a lot of mid-night oil to compose and dictate that masterpiece to Margo Lindsay which made the front page of the August 3 issue. I am not insinuating that Mrs. Lindsay does not have the know how, but when an axe is being held over one's loved ones head there is no alternative but to follow the Pied Piper. Ladies of Lincoln County, most of you have husbands who work either for the system or have their own business & are living in fear that if you make your voices heard they will be fired or be driven out of business. So therefore it is crucial that you familiarize yourselves with the functioning of the Lincoln County political machine. Go to their meetings, listen & learn & then when you have sufficient knowledge of what not to do, register & elect & impregnate the system with young woman and men of your choice of who you're certain will tear out by the roots the ugly weeds that have been strangling the citizens of Lincoln County. It is hard to believe that there will be no more back biting, no more name calling and all, the communities in Lincoln County will live in Peace & Harmony. Baby you've come a long, long way. Please don't stop now.

HAROLD RUNNELS

Gift to the Public?

In 1958 a huge sports stadium began life as a $7 million project which wasn't costing the taxpayers a cent. As with so many other Washington projects, the $7 million stadium turned into a $20 million stadium.

Congress authorized the District of Columbia to issue, in the federal government's name, bonds to finance the construction and the bonds would be repaid from the revenues received from the sports events conducted at the stadium.

Today, despite the fact that Robert F. Kennedy stadium has some of the highest admission prices in the nation, not one cent of the principal of the $19.8 million in stadium bonds has ever been paid. In fact, the District government every year has had to provide financial assistance to the stadium to pay the hefty $831,600 annual interest. When the bonds fall due next year, guess who will be asked to make the final payment?

Also in 1958, President Dwight Eisenhower signed the Act creating the National Cultural Center which was to be a "generous gift to the American public" at a cost of $46 million. The funds to be gained from private contributions.

In 1964, when public contributions failed to materialize, Congress voted to rename the project "The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts and provided $15.5 million which would be matched by gifts to complete the project.

However, in 1969, the project again fell short of needed funds and Congress provided an additional $7.5 million after being given assurances that the Federal Government would not be asked for any more funds.

When the short of memory Board of Trustees returned to Capitol Hill in 1971 seeking another $1.5 million for the "nonperforming art functions of the Center" they expressed amazement that they had earlier committed themselves to never ask for more money from the federal government.

The 1969 testimony also revealed that the officials told the committee that the federal government would not be obligated to pay for center maintenance or operation. Officials testified that the center once constructed could sustain itself from admission fees, rental fees and other income. Guess What?

The officials of the Kennedy Center this month asked the Congress to write off more than $15 million in interest of government bonds issued to finance the center's construction, saying that the Board of Trustees has been unable to set aside the money to make the payments which fall due next year.

In addition, the center's board of trustees has asked the National Park Service to take over maintenance costs for areas of the building that are open to the public. In 1971, Congress relieved the center from maintaining the memorial aspects of the building at a cost now approaching $1 million annually. The proposal being submitted now would only make the center responsible for such areas as concessionaires and backstage at an estimated cost of $150,000 annually.

On top of all this, Congress last year had to authorize some $1.5 million to repair a badly leaking roof which was threatening to collapse portions of the ceilings in the three auditoriums of the center.

There is now little doubt that what originally was to have been a generous gift to the American public has now developed into an expensive burden for the American taxpayer. Just in case anyone has any doubts how I voted on these raids into the federal treasury, I have continuously voted against the wasteful spending appetites of District of Columbia bureaucrats.

Rainfall for Capitan in July measured 0.86 making this the second driest July ever. According to U.S. Forest Service weather records going back to the year 1909 only July 1947 was drier with 0.17. Normal for July is 3 inches. Also during July there were 17 days above 90 degrees with a high of 95 on July 7.

7324 visitors did visit the Smokey Bear Museum July 1978. That is a nice crowd of which we are proud to announce.

The John West home has been stuccoed and painted buff with brown trim. And all of the buildings likewise. Really does look nice.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Burch purchased the big corner lot east of the school. It has been leveled. Water meter is now being installed. They are preparing to put a business there. We are happy for them.

Happy anniversaries to Wayne and Willie Hobbs who have had 32 very happy years of wedded life together. I wish them many more such years of happiness.

Mrs. Clydia Maryfield is in the intensive care in the Ruidoso Hospital very ill. She was taken in Saturday night July 29. I do wish her a good recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Hobbs became happy parents July 3 when their daughter Misty Camille was born weighing 8 lbs. 4 oz. at the Ruidoso Hospital. This was in the news that was lost. Her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hobbs would enjoy others knowing of their new grand-daughter.

Mrs. Bessie Cummins visited Gayle and Oliver Porter at their Nogal ranch home recently. They enjoyed her so much and were so grateful for the nice rain she brought them.

The 21st Senior Citizens Center in Carrizozo does have a very interesting calendar of events. If you have not checked you should. I do feel this is a good program for them.

August 7 Danile Booher age 7 August 6 and his brother age 2 August 8 enjoyed a birthday party at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Olin Booher by having their little friends with them to enjoy fun games and refreshments with them. I wish these little boys many more such happy birthdays.

Graveside services were held for Eloy Hobbs of California in Capitan cemetery Saturday July 29. She passed away in California. Many of her friends were not aware until it was over. She was laid to rest beside her husband Hunt Hobbs who preceded her in death several years before. She sold her home to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edgar and moved to California with her daughter as her vision was impaired. She had her own quarters and was happy. She enjoyed hearing from her friends. Often some from here would visit her. She was a good lady and our memories are cherished of her. Another old timer at rest.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dean, Jr. and family went to Post, Texas to bring their son Grant home with them. He had been visiting his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. James Stone for a couple of weeks. His arm is healing nicely.

Flash! A dash of equality!

Through recent study it seems that the Equal Rights Amendment is not necessary to achieve equality for women. Equality for women is already assured in existing provisions of our Constitution and through many laws, state and federal. The ERA will add nothing to the rights that women already have and enjoy. If there are any inequities, such as Social Security system, and equal Pay Act, these can be corrected by state and federal legislation. Within the last few years there has been a swarm of legislation which has been designed to assure full equality for women in nearly every aspect of our lives.

This amendment will prevent justifiable distinctions in labor laws where the sexes are treated differently for obvious reasons. The ERA would take the right of being exempt from the draft away from women. It would also make the women responsible for helping her husband support the family, thus encouraging the women to be away from her children and the home more - as an obligation not as her own choice. (taken from Donna Carlson, Arizona State Representative)

A dash of humor! A witness to a 14 year old son's midnight snack, sliced beef on one slice of white and slice of brown bread, horseradish, onions, catsup, pickle, cold boiled potatoes, a spoonful of cold gravy. Then 2 scoops of ice cream with syrup and cinnamon roll.

Miracle of the Sea Gulls told by Cynthia Witham. Cynthia tells of a family of Mormons who worked very hard planting their crops and just at harvest time the locust came and were just ready to destroy the crops when the beautiful sea gulls swooped down and ate up all the locust - saving the Mormons from famine. They built a beautiful sea gull in white on top of the Tabernacle to remind them of the miracle. Just like this story not very long ago, the Elm Beetles were swarming around the Witham property and just as Cynthia and Bob were trying to kill them the little swallows burst down from the sky and ate them up - saving the trees and other vegetation. The Miracle of Nogal.

Louise brought me some news. Bill Payton's son Jeff and fiancée Nancy Glass came to visit in Alamogordo. Congratulations to Jeff.

Lincoln County Pony Express 1978

A hot contest for 2nd and 3rd.

One of the all time great teams finishing despite hard luck.

No turning back now.

Pony Express, Lincoln County War, Centennial year.

A great win by a fine team.

The tremendous pleasure of triumph, crowd, note the horse staring back at the Postmaster Nick Serna swearing in carriers of the U.S. Mail.

The quiet home of Dave Jackson sits in front of the grand Hoyle Mansion.

The House of Hindi...No greater pride.

Under rain threatening skies, the 10th annual Pony Express Race from White Oaks to Lincoln began with five teams entered Saturday.

Two hours, three minutes, and 49 seconds later David Cunningham came loping into Lincoln quite unconcerned as he had a two minute lead on the second place finishers, Virgil Smith and Dean Thompson of Picacho.

Cunningham rode for Ted Clements, and the team of Clements and Cunningham won last year also. Coming in third by just two seconds was Emmitt Faulkner and Reyes Gallegos of the Ladder Ranch near Truth or Consequences.

Riding the grueling 41 miles all by himself, Earl Bragg road the fourth place team for Bud Crenshaw.

A little late, but still finishing the race was the team of Jamil and Brahim Hindi of Duran, New Mexico. The Hindi's had some misfortune in a fall by the last horse while they were in contention for the first place. The Hindi team was second at the first change of horses, and first going into the second change.

A LOVELY MEDLEY—Medley Glass, winged down to the wire with nearly an easily picked off Saturday's Three Bars Handicap at Ruidoso Downs. The filly, racing as an even-money favorite, collected $6,660 out of the $11,100 gross purse. Jerry Nicodemus was up. Medley Glass is owned by Lo'Pa, Inc.

Medley Glass Boosts Earnings to $33,000, Wins 'Three Bars Handicap' ($6,660) - 400 Yards (20.13)

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N.M.—Medley Glass, an even-money favorite, found little resistance in Saturday's renewal of the $11,100 Three Bars Handicap. The chestnut filly got way winging in the 400-yard dash, but allowed the 35-1 longshot, Backbar, to enjoy a little glory at the front of the pack.

At the halfway point, Medley Glass settled down to serious business and went charging into the lead. She gained with each jump and reached the finish with a two-length lead. Jerry Nicodemus was in the saddle. The filly toured the distance in 20.13 seconds and returned low tote prices of $3.80, $3 and $2.60. The winner's share of $6,660 swelled Medley Glass' 1978 income to more than $33,000. Medley Glass is trained by Gene Tefertiller for Lo'Pa, Inc., of Houston. Go Go Cookie sailed in second ($4.20, $2.80) and Madam President, a 9-2 shot, took third ($3.20).

6-Furlongs (1:14 1-5)

Pocket Coin Earns Way Into 'Rio Grande Futurity' (Aug. 13), 4 1/2 Length Winner in Friday Feature

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N.M.—Pocket Coin, the two-year-old colossus owned by Melvin and Earnest Riggs of Ft. Stockton, Tex., easily ran his opposition into the ground in Friday's feature race at Ruidoso Downs. The colt never felt the sting of Jockey Charles Muller's whip while ballooning his lead to 4 1/2 lengths at the finish of the six-furlong sprint. With a winner's purse of $1,500, Pocket Coin now holds career winnings of $80,460. He's won six out of seven career starts. Friday's victory also propelled Pocket Coin into the grand finale of the $33,480 Rio Grande Futurity on Aug. 13.

Picket Coin clocked the muddy distance in 1:14 1-5 seconds leading from the first jump. Happy Irishman, a 5-2 shot, dogged Pocket Coin in the early going, but gave up the chase at the turn for home & absorbed his 1st defeat in three career starts.

Peep A Jeep ended up a distant third.

The winner returned depressed payoffs of $3, $2.20, and $2.20. Backers of Happy Irishman earned $2.20 both to place and show. Peep A Jeep also refunded $2.20.

Friday's program included another Rio Grande trial heat, and the victory went to Dandy Binge, and the favorite, in a clocking of 1:16 3-5 seconds. The top five finishers in each of the two trials made the qualifying cut.

7-Furlongs (1:26 2-5)

Freeman M. (12-1 odds) Outduels The Drake to Win 'Jockey Club Stakes' and $6,434.00

Ruidoso Downs, N.M.--So far this season, there's been no sting among three-year-old thoroughbreds at Ruidoso Downs.

The pattern continued on Sunday as Freeman M. carried odds of better than 12-1 into the $6,434 Jockey Club Stakes at seven furlongs, and put away the heavy favorite, The Drake, with ridiculous ease.

If the Drake had gotten home first, the victory would have made him the heads & shoulders leader in the sophomore division especially since he was carrying the top load of 123 pounds and was gunning for his third stakes win of the meet.

But that dream went up in smoke as The Drake, ridden by Gilbert Villescas as an odds-on favorite, tossed in the towel in the upper stretch when Freeman M. began firing on all cylinders.

Jockey Villescas applied plenty of leather but The Drake appeared to labor, then conked out. Freeman M. roared down to the wire with those eager strides and won going away. The margin of victory was 1 1/2 lengths. Stuart Dolphus was in the saddle.

Freeman M. was weighted at 118 pounds. The gelding collected $6,434 out of the gross purse of $10,725 & the Jockey Club income swelled his '78 bankroll to $17,830. The winner is owned by Don Hinton & Ted Hinton of Ft. Thomas Ariz. George Cooper does the training.

The winning time was an extremely crisp 1:26 2-5 seconds. Fans who backed Freeman M. collected $26.80, $8.20 and $4.20. The Drake, owned by J.C. Childers of Borger, TX, got in second for tote refunds of $3.40 and $2.80 The colt had to soothe his injured pride with a paycheck of $2,359.

Double B. Express, guided by Salustio Burgos, Checked in third-nearly 3 lengths behind The Drake. The show price was $4.40 Double B. Express earned just over a grand.

The race set up perfectly for Freeman M. right from the first jump as The Drake unexpectedly went shooting to the front. One Bold Scout, the second choice at 7-2, contributed neither to his cause or that of the people's choice by battling for the early lead. And right with the first 2 was Double B. Express, an 8-1 outsider.

The trio negotiated the first 2 furlongs in a stinging 22 3/5 seconds, and covered the half in an equally quick 46 4-5 seconds. After six furlongs, they were clocked in 1:12 2-5 seconds--which was only four ticks short of the track record for that distance.

As the pack neared the turn for home, The Drake was still locked in that neck-and-neck dogfight with One Bold Scout and Double B. Express.

But Freeman M. quickly settled the has of all three with a strong move on the far outside, and went sweeping into the lead. The Drake, much to his credit, hung on long enough to voice some mild arguments early in the stretch drive. When the real running began, The Drake was apparently to worn out from his rapid early pace.

Sunday's action was viewed by 8,550 patrons who wagered a thumping $561,968. Racing at Ruidoso Downs resumes Wednesday at 1:30 p.m.

JOCKEY CLUB WINNER--Freeman M. bounds toward the Ruidoso Downs finish line with a 1 1/2-length lead in the seven-furlong Jockey Club Stakes. Overlooked at 12 1/2-1 in the betting, Freeman M. easily whipped the favorite, The Drake, and earned $6,435. Stuart Dolphus is up.

Corn Chip Takes Thursday Feature

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N.M.--Corn Chip, an 11-1 outsider, tore his competition apart in Thursday's headliner at Ruidoso Downs by delivering a wilting stretch run.

The gelding, ridden by Apprentice Don Howard, stayed well out of contention in the early portions of the six-furlong sprint.

At the turn for home, the odds-on favorite, Skipper Road, appeared to have enough in reserve to nurse his speed down to the wire. But Corn Chip loomed out of nowhere, took dead-aim on the people's choice, and swept by him easily with about a half-furlong to go.

Corn Chip hit the finish with a 2 1/4-length lead and clocked the off-track spin in 1:16 2-5 seconds. Fans who backed the winner collected $25.40, $7.20 and $4.60. Corn Chip is owned by John G. and John R. Graham of Lordsburg, N.M.

Skipper Road refunded $3 and $2.80. By Misty Code moved well in the final stages to take third and return $4.

IT'S ALL OURS--Dan (left) and Ted Hinton of Ft. Thomas, Ariz., hold the victory trophy following a longshot win by their gelding, Freeman M., in Sunday's Jockey Club Stakes at Ruidoso Downs.

Visiting with Carlotta Martinez is her daughter from Huntington Beach, California, Rosie Dingwall, accompanied by her son Jim and her 3 step-daughters, Kimmy, Chrissy and Shelly Slyke.

Staying with Mrs. Walker is Elsie and Shorty Carl of Ruidoso.

Got to talking with Elsie at the post office and she told me about a quilt she and her husband made for a grandson. Crayons were used to color the story book figures. Elsie described how to use crayons on cloth. When I got home I bribed the crayons away from the kids with some cookies.

Mrs. Vincent Reil celebrated her 88th birthday on July 30th. Having ice cream and cake with her was Mrs. Thelma Apgar, Elynn Cady, Mrs. Dorothy Queen, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Smoot, Sharon Letchworth, Tennis and Warran and Mrs. Bill Gallacher Jr., Lynn and Gary and Pat Moore.

Mrs. Cynthia Giordano, Carin, Tommy and Danielle of Bedford, Mass., arrived Tuesday for a three week visit with her mother Pat Moore, and her sister, Linda Moore of Socorro, and Grandmother, Mrs. Vincent Reil.

An adult education class in home economics is being offered this year with the first session scheduled for Tuesday, August 15 at 7 P.M. There is no charge for the classes. There will be a total of 8 sessions. Food preservation, including canning, freezing, preserving and drying is planned for the first phase. Lessons on using new kitchen equipment, particularly the microwave oven and food processor are planned for the second phase. The main emphasis here will be allowing homemakers to use the equipment to judge its effectiveness for their own situations. The third emphasis will be to become familiar with the metric system which is being phased into our American economy. Actual use of metrics in cooking and sewing will be part of the course. This should be a fun thing since all members will be starting from scratch. If members prefer studying sewing techniques over food preservation, that can be arranged. Please be at the first session or send your preferences with someone else so plans can be finalized. Call Mrs. Lawson either at home or school to let your requests be known or to talk about the offerings. All suggestions are welcome.

The CYO recently returned from 6 fun-filled days from the Four Corners Ranchmen's Camp Meeting near Cortez, Colorado. Sponsors accompanying the group were Jane Shafer, Anne Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lindsay, and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Stephenson. The 18 CYO members toured the Mesa Verde Cliff Dwelling while there.

A thousands pardons if any errors of the typographical kind appear in this column. Mistakes do happen occasionally. Gathering news, I come across many unusual names and locations. The typesetters working behind the scenes sometimes have to stop and ponder. Did you know that there is a tiny village on the Welsh Island of Anglesey called "Llan-fairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwyrndrobw-llantysiliogogoch"? Ponder that, if you were a typesetter or a sign painter, as I would like to be when the children grow up.

The Nickel's Building and Hardware sign letters are very attractive. It is good for the community when business people care about their store's appearance.

Steve and Jo Ann Hayden of Missouri are house guests of Frank and Sandy Baca and David and Nina Bowersox. Frank is the brother of Jo Ann and Nina. They all plan to take in the old Lincoln Day 'doings'.

Since the Haydens' arrival, they and the Baca's and the Bowersox have been picnicing in Bonito, boating at the Mountain of the Gods, touring Carlsbad Caverns, El Paso and Juarez.

Mrs. Leon Lock has just returned from a business and vacation trip to Michigan and Indiana. Helen attended the National Association of Educational Secretaries forty-fourth annual meeting and institute, hosted by the Michigan Association of Educational Office Personnel, July 17-23, at the Hyatt Regency Hotel, Dearborn, Michigan. She was a representative of the New Mexico Educational Office Personnel Association as President-elect. Helen will be installed as President of the New Mexico organization in November of this year during their annual state meeting which will be held in Santa Fe.

After the meeting, Helen flew into Indianapolis, Indiana, where she was met by her sister, Mrs. Robert W. Gullion. She visited with friends and relatives both there and in southern Indiana.

Mrs. Leon Lock spent last Saturday in Roswell meeting with Mrs. George Stockton of Artesia who is Nominating Chair for New Mexico Educational Office Personnel Association. They were working on a list of officers and chairpersons for the 1979 year. She also visited with her son, Shawn, who is employed in Roswell as a hair stylist.

WOODBURNERS

When was the last time your chimney was clean?

The soot and creosote that accumulates in your chimney hangs there like a time bomb waiting for that chance spark to ignite it.

The chimney fire spews burning balls of fire out the chimney onto your roof and yard.

A small crack in your chimney due to settling or thermal shock is all a chimney fire needs to enter your home.

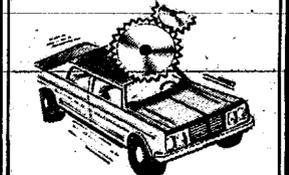

In a Fire Marshall's survey of 8 Northern states, 1 out of every 20 fires were the direct result of chimney fires.

Fort Stanton will have a field day August 30th. Among the subjects to be discussed are range management, cow calf operations and mule deer ecology. The field day will begin with registration and coffee at the Bonita Corral at 8:30 a.m. and will last until noon. The entrance to the ranch is four and one-half miles east of Captain on Highway 380. Turn south on Highway 214 and travel one mile to the Bonita Corral turnoff. During the field tour, participants can inspect range research, including the effect of drought on blue grama, rangeland fertilization, and snakeweed, pinon and juniper control.

Research reports on cow calf operations will include range supervision of yearlings on grass and mature cows on range. Other range research will include reports on comparing early and late calving dates as well as estrus synchronization and artificial insemination of two year old heifers. Other topics to be discussed during the tour will be mule deer ecology, cancer eye treatment and NMSU's range assessment team.

The 26,000 acre ranch, operated since 1963 by New Mexico State University's Agricultural Experiment Station is located east of Captain. After the morning tour, lunch will be provided by Worley Mills at the ranch's headquarters located near the Fort Stanton Hospital.

The dedication of the new laboratory will take place at 1:15 p.m. at the ranch headquarters. L. S. Pope, dean and director of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, will give the opening remarks and then chair the dedication ceremonies. The speakers include Gerald W. Thomas, president of NMSU; Arthur Zimmerman, state director of the Bureau of Land Management; and keynote speaker, W.T. (Dub) Berry, Jr., vice-president of Western Farm Management, located in Denver, Colorado.

Ranchers are invited to visit the new laboratory both before and after the dedication ceremonies and see the research displays.

Screw worms are being reported in many areas of New Mexico. Livestock owners should take precautions to keep the screw worm from infesting his animals. If possible the working of livestock should be postponed until fall. Livestock should be sprayed if the flies become to numerous and any wounds should be treated with a fly repellent. With everyone helping, the worst screw worm infestation in several years can be slowed down and excess losses prevented. If you find any worms in wounds be sure to send a sample in for identification.

Five horses started the Pony Express Race and five horses finished the race; although it took Brahmah Hindi almost till noon to finish. The team of Ted Clements-David Cunningham came in first with a time of 2 hours 3 minutes and 45 seconds. There was less than five seconds between the second and third place teams. The team of Virgil Smith came in second just ahead of the Emmett Faulkner-Reyes Gallegos team. They were less than three minutes behind the winning team. The Bud Crenshaw entry ridden by Earl Bragg came in fourth. Brahmah Hindi had hard luck on the last lap of the race. His horse stumbled and rolled over, injuring him. The horse ran off. Brahmah finally caught his horse and continued the mail carry into Lincoln. Although he was far behind the others.

Hoofbeats By Karen Halloran

Pedro Benitez guided What A Tale to a breezing two-length victory against five-grand claimers Thursday and became a journeyman rider in the process. Benitez chalked up his 40th career win (and his ninth at the meet) in the effort and thereby lost his "bug" or five-pound apprentice allowance. What A Tale, who went off at nearly 4-1, returned $9.20

Dave Morris, a leading rider at the Ruidoso oval for many years in the early sixties, died last Wednesday apparently from a self-inflicted gunshot wound. The 33-year-old ex-jockey, who continued to ride at the mountain track until this year, was a native of Billings, Mont. He worked at the Ruidoso track this summer galloping horses. Funeral services were held at Ruidoso last weekend.

An unfortunate turn of events took place for Robert Hillin when he claimed Father's Bid from Saturday's eighth race for $4,000. Father's Bid ran third most of the way in the 5/8 - furlong sprint, but faded to fifth after crossing the finish, he collapsed and died. Racing rules specify that the person claiming a horse becomes the owner as soon as the horse leaves the starting gate. The previous owner, in this case, was Janice Pool of Brownwood, Texas.

Pocket Coin, the outstanding two-year-old thoroughbred, remains undefeated at the current meeting after chalking up his fourth straight win in Friday's trials for the Rio Grande Futurity. The Michael Welch-charge turned in a powerful performance (winning by 4 1/2 lengths) to easily qualify for the $33,480 finale (Aug. 13) and looks like a prime prospect for the winner's share of $16,740. The colt already has two stakes victories to his credit at the meet. He's owned by Melvin and Ernest Riggs of Ft. Stockton, Texas.

Other qualifiers for the Rio Grande finale include Happy Irishman, (who challenged Pocket Coin in his trial stronger than any previous foe), Peep A Jeep, Trippy Dip, Bin Scoutin, Dandy Binge, Allegiance, Mysiswasadancer, Dave's Turn, and Ernest Scout.

Casey's Shadow, a real racehorse named after the fictional movie hero by one of his owners, narrowly missed his first taste of victory on Wednesday. The two-year-old gelding, the property of the G.M.C. Stable, Ltd., apparently had to prove his movie star kinship to the fans since he went off at 41-1. But the youngster came on strongly in the four-furlong test and took second for a $29.40 place return. The film, Casey's Shadow, was made on location at Ruidoso Downs in 1976 and 1977.

An off-track may be a deterrent to some flashy racehorses but a demonstration by Cash In Hand in Wednesday's eighth race proved not all horses dislike the stuff. Due to heavy
