

Students Being Assigned To Employers

If you don't know where you are going, how will you know when you get there? What is true of a journey on the highway is just as true of any job that boasts of quality. The staff at the Zia School for Developmental Services must keep in mind the goal and objectives of the program in order to work toward the fulfillment of the program. The Zia School is a sheltered workshop for the mentally handicapped of the adult population and the overall goal of the program is the development of job-skill levels in the students so that they will progress toward more independent work and living situations. The objectives that support the reaching of the goal are to develop positive work attitudes — responsibility, reliability, pride in workmanship — as well as developing general and specific work skills. Providing realistic, closely supervised work experience is the backbone of the program. The beginning of the process is for a student to be assigned to a training aid whose task is to develop the skill level of the student assigned to her/him. Most of the training takes place in the school building itself. Close supervision is critical. The greatest challenge to the training aid is to break down the task for the student into "teachable components". Our belief is that any student can learn a skill if the teacher can break it down into simple learning steps. The development of measurable criteria for these steps provides a tool for tracking the progress of the student. When a desirable level of achievement is reached, a student is ready for a work assignment in the community. The program calls for a staff member of the Zia School to assist the student into the new setting, but eventually the student is on her/his own. The local employer assumes the responsibility for monitoring the work quality of the student. If the student is able to perform to standards set by the employer and if the student is able to adjust to working outside of the "sheltered" experience of the school, the final stage of the program is placement of the student into a work situation with less restrictive living accommodations, hopefully in or near her/his home town. Behind the scenes of such a program, the director has a monumental task to do. The financial work of balancing incoming monies, paying the students while they train, running a hot lunch program, providing extra "bonuses" to the students like bowling or eating out, is just part of his job. Searching out new sources of income to bolster the already existing program, monitoring the progress of the students, keeping records for the many forms that need to be filled out, providing in-service training for the staff — these are some of the other areas that demand his time and energy. The demands would not be so great if the school was just an extension of an already existing organization. But Wayland Holbrook, director of the Zia School for Developmental Services, says, "The facility in Carrizozo is providing a less restrictive environment for residents from Fort Stanton. Students from Fort Stanton who are ready to benefit from a less restrictive environment are screened for enrollment in the Zia School. The Carrizozo facility is not an extension of the Fort Stanton Hospital. Zia School can and does receive students who do not reside at Fort Stanton Hospital. The progress of the facility is steady and improving. The facility opened with six students enrolled from Fort Stanton. As these students developed, other students were added to the program. By the end of December, 1978, the school had eighteen students enrolled. Eight others have attended for some time, making a total of twenty-six students who have been a part of this project. Some of these students have gone on to less restrictive environments."

Because Wayland Holbrook is the type of person who can handle the many demands of the job, and because he is people centered, he has proven to be a genuine asset to the Zia School. An example of the human approach he takes to his job is seen on Mondays — student payday. Each student is called into his office to receive her/his pay for the previous week. It takes more time than handing it out through the office secretary, but the students know "Mr. Holbrook" as a man personally interested in them. He says, "Developing a program for the mentally retarded has been a challenging and satisfying task."

As part of that program, he says, "Students who do well in the program will have the opportunity to experience work in a community setting when such opportunities are available." An exciting example of such an opportunity is being provided by Wayland Dobbs. He agreed to take a student from our program and actually do the training for the job he had in mind. The hope was to train someone to dismantle and rebuild carburetors, a skill with a lot of repetition. Wayland said he could keep a student busy every day on this type of assembly.

The student who works for the Means Motor Company was chosen, not because he could best help Wayland or Don, but because they could best help him. Roy has been working with his "good buddies" since mid-November. To help him feel at home, he began doing little things. He has taped the chrome on a car to prepare it for a paint job and then stripped the tape off when it was done. He sweeps the floor and helps in the clean-up after any job that is done. The men who work with Roy have come to know his moods and how best to get him out of them. They seem to know when to push and when to "carry him along." Don Means says of Roy, "He is capable of learning a lot but he needs someone to work closely with him. He must have been told often as a child that he was stupid because he seems to have a complex about that." The actual training to a skill will be a slow process that can only begin after Roy knows the men as his friends, as people who care about him. It is a tribute to Carrizozo that we have men in our business community who can be entrusted with such a delicate and humanizing task.

Capitan School Board Reviews Bonds

The Capitan School Board reviewed brochures for the Feb. 6 Bond Election at their January meeting. The brochures, prepared by Quinn and Co., contain information about the election. A schematic plan of the proposed new buildings is also on the brochure as well as details of financing, project, tax rates, cost, who is eligible to vote, polling places and the date. These were given to each student and are also available in several places around Capitan. The Board reviewed the financing of the project. The Bond Issue will generate $680,000 which is 6 percent of the district evaluation, also if Senate Bill 9 passed, the 2-mil levy will add about $100,000 over the next three years. By being bonded to capacity, the school is then eligible for New Mexico Capital Outlay Funds. This has already been applied for, but will not be considered unless the issue is passed.

The repayment schedule for the Bond Issue and the 2 mil Capital Improvement Tax Levy will require a tax increase of $7 per $1000 of assessed valuation over the 1978 tax and bonds on the 1978 valuations. A chart showing a more detailed outline of this increase is included in the brochure.

The Board also discussed the feedback that has come from the community. Some are concerned about removal of certain existing buildings. In the drawing, the architect shows several buildings to be removed, mainly due to the lack of space on the existing 10 acre school ground.

A proposed land swap with the Forest Service for the Helitac Base and Administration Site south of the school was again reviewed at the meeting. Joe Spehar, Recreational Lands Forester, discussed three ways the school can go about the swap. Land for Land with a cash equalization of up to 25 percent was listed as the most desirable. A second way is the School Exchange Act which provides for more cash equalization. If the school does not acquire land suitable, then the school may deposit 100 percent of the Forest Land value to reestablish the facility. "It would almost be an outright sale," Spehar said.

The third way is to declare the site surplus. The land would be turned over to GSA and put out to bid. There would be no priorities under this plan.

"The Forest Service does have a commitment to maintain a facility here," Spehar said. "The first way is the one we prefer." He also said it would take 9 months from the formal offer to the exchange. "The most difficult step is to find the land."

The School's 10 acres north of highway 380 was previously declared unsuitable. The priorities in a new site are water, electricity and clearance from houses.

An increase in social security tax was also discussed. Superintendent Clifton informed teachers present that effective Jan. 1 an increase of 6.13 percent of $22,900 will be made. He also stated that the Board pays an additional 6.13 percent with a total of 12.26 percent paid to Social Security.

Discussion about the possibility of an alternative to Social Security was heard. Clifton stated it is possible to do so but that it takes two years and the Social Security will send a representative to fight it. At present anyone coming into the Capitan School District who is not under Social Security plan must go on to it.

Resignation of cook Mae Padilla and hiring of Glenna Shaffer to fill the position was approved.

My Time — by Mike Swickard

Family Pharmacy in Carrizozo is celebrating their third anniversary this week and it is a time of celebration for the entire town. Medical services have been quite a worry for Carrizozo and for a time it seemed that getting medical services was going to get harder. But the town hung in there with the help of many people, and with most importantly the belief of Jack and Carrie Magee that the town would get a doctor. Having a Pharmacy is very important to the town and it was Family Pharmacy that believed enough in the town to stay in business when we didn't have a doctor. They waited patiently for a doctor to come to town and he did.

Without a doctor, without a Pharmacy, without a dentist, without proper medical care, life in a small town is very hard. Each of these people are so essential to our good life in Lincoln County. The NEWS wants to thank Family Pharmacy for all that they have done to help our town. We've come a long way! — MS

And speaking of Medical Services, Dr. Goad has opened his doors in Carrizozo as its first dentist in many years. A survey of Lincoln County showed that 43 percent of the people sampled had NEVER been to a dentist and were in need of a dentist. Things have changed, in the line of dentistry. It will never be completely comfortable, but it isn't painful for most anymore.

It is great to have Dale and his wife Cherrie working, (the dentist's office took a little time to finish) and people can now call the Carrizozo Health Center to make an appointment. MS

Carrizozo's Basketball teams have been improving lately. Speaking of the Boys, it should be noted that Carrizozo is not a Basketball town, but with tournaments of the quality of last week's, the town is sure to become one soon. Both boys and girls played very well. — MS

And finally, speaking of sports. Many people in the last week have been talking about the upcoming Super Bowl game. I have but one thought. It is hard for me to really worry about the losers, when they will make $15,000 for even a losing effort. Some guy that sat on the bench all day will go home and say to his wife, "Shucks, we lost, here is my paycheck..." MS

Fund Being Started To Help Local Family

Carol Zamora, a local young wife and mother is presently a patient at the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Memorial Hospital in Ruidoso as a cardiac patient.

Carol and her husband Rueben have seven children, Ann, Cindy, Donald, Ruben, Michael, Sammy and Amy Jo, who is 2 years old. Six of the children are enrolled in school. Sammy who is 6 years old and in 1st grade recently underwent surgery on his wrist as an out patient at the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital. Cindy, age 14 and in the 9th grade is under treatment for a kidney ailment.

Because of the many medical and traveling expenses, area people have begun fund raising projects to aid the family, especially to help defray with Carol's up-coming cardiac treatment.

Next week tickets will be sold for chances on a 30-30 rifle. This Saturday at 8 P.M. a benefit Bingo will be held for Carol at the St. Rita Parish. The community is invited to attend. Bingo prizes donated by Rueben's family and friends include glassware, linen, and homemade dolls. A 3 piece jewelry set and a decorated cake will be raffled during the bingo. Plan to attend a real old-fashioned type bingo and at the same time help the Zamora family.

Carol and Rueben both life long Carrizozo residents attended Carrizozo High School. Rueben is employed at Belco.

Salute to--- Carrizozo Teenagers!

Gary is a senior at CHS and holds the office of Sentinel with the FFA. He is also a member of National Honor Society. He has been active in Rodeo Club, Ski Club and currently is co-vice-president of the "C" Club.

Gary has participated in sports since he entered school and 1978-79 is proving to be an outstanding year for him. He is a co-captain of the Grizzly basketball team and just last week won three individual trophies from the Grizzly Tourney for the most field goals, foul shots and total points made during the tournament. He made the All-Tournament teams at the Smokey Bear Classic and the Ruidoso Classic. Just recently he was named by the AP for Honorable Mention in football for his talents as a defensive linebacker. In 1977-78 Gary made the All-District basketball team. In addition, Gary participates in track and advanced to the state track meet last year to place 5th in the state in the discus.

Gary's hobbies include golf. In 1976 he entered the Men's Carrizo Golf Classic and won it. He likes to fish, hunt and draw. He enjoys dancing and all kinds of music. His special interests include working with wood and welding. College seems to be in Gary's future, probably at NMSU majoring in civil engineering or agriculture with special interests in construction or forestry. Gary is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Leandro Vega, Jr. of Carrizozo.

Boxers Do Well In Artesia

Golden-Glove hopefuls from Carrizozo recently attended a boxing tournament in Artesia. With Coach Nat Chavez and Assistant coach Danny Narvaez. These boxers will spend day being for the Golden Gloves Championship and from there who knows!

With only five of the seven boys going into the ring, two came out winners, with the other giving an impressive showing of themselves.

Coach Nat Chavez stated that with the sizes of these boxers it is sometimes hard to find matches, which is bad for a youngster who doesn't fight for several months. Carrizozo boxers attending the meet were Gabriel Chavez and Frankie Silva, both winning their matches by TKO's, also fighting were Jake Narvaez, Pete Narvaez, and Junior Hill. Assisting Nat Chavez in the corner was Assistant Coach Danny Narvaez.

food costs due to inflation. Clifton stated there would be a need to put another cooks salary in the operational budget in order to cover rising food costs.

He reported the spending of $1500 - $2500-month for food supplies at present. Federal reimbursement is about 1400-month with intake unlunches varying from $1300 - $2100-per month.

Capitan is one of the lowest school districts in the state for lunch fees at 40 cents per student per day. Free lunches get more money in reimbursements than the meals that are charged, he said.

An example of food cost was given for hamburger. 800 lbs. of hamburger was recently purchased at $1.33 per lb. State requirements are the meat must be 85 percent lean.

More discussion about getting more public interest in the bond issue had the board agreeing on having the public in the school and actually showing the need. An open house was set for the day after report cards so the public could see the overcrowded condition of the classrooms.

Cancellation of the junior play, because of the stage fire, was proposed by Clifton. This caused considerable discussion with a consensus to leave the decision to the students.

The Capitan Athletic Club will meet tonight with a pot luck dinner at 7 p.m. in the Cafeteria.

AREA REPRESENTATIVE TO BE IN CARRIZOZO

FINANCIAL AID:

Financial aid forms which were distributed to the seniors at CHS are the students' applications for all loans, scholarships, grants, work-study or any other type of financial aid distributed through the college. Financial aid is distributed by the college to eligible students on a first come, first serve basis. That is why it is so very important to mail the forms by February 1, so that the colleges have the necessary eligibility information by March 1. Mrs. Paul is available to help complete the forms at any time during the day. A financial aid workshop is scheduled for Monday, Jan. 19. The group session will be at 9:30 in the conference room.

Grizzlies Take Second —

Grizzly Tourney Very Exciting

Basketball is an exciting sport! And, lots of fun! Twelve teams of basketball players, both boys and girls, came to town last week-end to play with the round ball and had a great time. A basketball tournament requires lots of cooperation and work from many individuals to be successful. The main purpose of such a tourney is for the people involved to have a good time, to enjoy themselves and to have fun. The goal of "C" Club who sponsored the tourney was for all concerned to have an exciting time—to get to know and to interact with people from other communities. Comments of visiting coaches were, "Thaks for asking us," and "Don't forget us next year." That sounds like they have a good impression of Carrizozo and enjoyed themselves, doesn't it. It's good to have activities and events here at CHS; it's good to bring other schools here instead of always traveling with our teams to other places. Our hope is that the people of the community feel the same way that we do.

Congratulations Grizzlies!!!

GRIZZLY INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT RESULTS

IN THE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME between Carrizozo Grizzlies and Amistad Girls teams, Debbie Gallacher goes for two points, waiting for the rebound were Lisa Crenshaw (41), Lisa Ferguson (23), and Tami Ortiz (21). Unfortunately the Grizzlies lost the game but took second place honors. Congratulations Grizzlies.

Capitan News

Winter has been with us with a vengeance. Lots of moisture ice and zero weather. This last day of high cold wind. Imagine, we did have heavy fog as well. Not as serious as near and at Roswell. Travelers report the heavy fog each day. No visibility.

On just such a morning last Tuesday there was a serious fire at a home here in Capitan. Everything was lost. The building is beyond repair. The C.J. Greer family escaped without injury. Mr. Greer did have burns on one hand but luckily they did get out but lost all of their possessions. This home was once the telephone building and will be remembered by old timers.

Ethel Pepper has been in the Ruidoso Hospital for several weeks. She is some better. I do wish her a good recovery.

Mrs. Roberta Voelker of Albuquerque visited her aunt Mr. and Mrs. Jack Young during the Holiday. She enjoys coming back to where she grew up and a chance to see the improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Tate and two children of Pine Grove, Louisiana, were Holiday guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ysabel Aldaz at Ft. Stanton for a couple of weeks.

Mary Aldaz entered the Ruidoso Hospital last Tuesday due to a fall she had recently. I do wish her a good recovery.

Bob Yankee is at home again after several weeks and 3000 miles vacation in Houston and on the Gulf coast. He said he had a good time and enjoyed every moment.

Bud Payne of Carrizozo spent last Sunday with their son Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Payne and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hobbs went to Abernathy, Texas last Thursday to visit her parents. The weather was so bad there with freezing rain. Past Elida the fog was so very heavy. They were so glad to arrive home safe and OK.

Cathleen Massey accompanied by her two granddaughters Lacie and Doria Garrett went to Amarillo, Texas and spent all of the Holidays with her daughter Cathy Endsley and son Jerod and returned home January 10.

She reported traveling on heavy ice most of the distance home. Doria became very ill while there. They traveled in ice to the Dr. and Hospital etc. Thursday, she was taken to Albuquerque to the Dr. that knows her illness. I do wish this little one a good recovery.

The Basketball Tournament was held in Capitan Thursday thru Saturday last week with great crowds attending. There were many children. All seemed happy and well behaved.

A very nice group of students from Reserve visited the Smokey Bear Museum.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Caywood returned from their Holiday vacation in Calif. with their children which they did enjoy. They were just 12 miles from those heavy winds that we heard so much about. Enroute home some of the highway was closed due to that and people were sent a different route.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Dobbins of Roswell enjoyed skiing last Sunday at Sierra Blanca Ski Area. New Years they and a party of their friends skied there and then enjoyed dinner at the home of his mother Doris Pounds.

Patricia Pierce made a business trip to Albuquerque last Monday she spent the weekend with her mother Doris Pounds. She lives in Roswell. We always enjoy her when she comes home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hobbs went to Abernathy, Texas last Thursday to visit her parents. The weather was so bad there with freezing rain.

Mr. and Mrs. William Humm of Bellevue, Nebraska announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen to Jeffrey Gillen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Gillen of Alamogordo, New Mexico.

Kathleen is employed by the State of New Mexico and her fiance is employed by the U.S. Forest Service. A late January wedding is being planned.

Doris Pounds and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shaw attended the regular meeting of The Eastern Star Thursday January 4, in Carrizozo. There was no December meeting due to the bad weather. No one could get there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harris of Ruidoso Downs took his father Jess Harris to El Paso for treatment Wednesday after Christmas and learned the following morning that her mother in Texas had passed away from a heart attack. Jess remained in the Hospital while they went to Texas and returned Jan. 9. Mrs. Harris is very ill at this time with the flu. I wish her a good recovery. And Jess too.

Lincoln Town

On Jan 1-1979 Fritz Pffingsten and Wave Ellison were married. Fritz called to tell me about it and said that they were very happy, and have a lovely home in Rocky Comfort, Mo.

Mrs. Ellison and (now deceased husband) Mr. Ellison were special friends of Helen and Fritz when they were living in Missouri. People tell me that she is a wonderful person and we all wish them much happiness.

Mrs. Lois Womack of Merkel, Tex., who has been visiting two of her sons and their families in Tucson, Arizona flew in to Albuquerque and Chester and Edith Womack brought her to Lincoln to visit the Eddie Womacks-Eddie will take her home from here.

Woman's Club

Meets Tonight

When I heard that the Womack's daughter fell and injured her knee on the basketball court, I misunderstood the name. It was not Debbie but it was Terry and here I was sympathizing with Debbie-I apologize to you-Terry!

Mrs. McGinnis had a lovely time visiting in Big Spring, Texas with her family there-Mr. and Mrs. Duffy Vassar and children.

She was on hand to see the capping of her daughter, Nancy who is now an Associate nurse.

Mrs. Jim (Ethel) Howard is still in the hospital at Alamogordo, but has improved-it is hoped that she can be brought home in two or three weeks.

The Carrizozo Woman's Club will meet at 6:30 p.m. this evening at the Club Building. A short meeting will be held followed by very interesting film entitled "Man's Material Welfare" produced by the Dow Chemical Company. This film is being shown to Woman's Club members all over the nation. The Club also lends the film to other organizations and schools because of its high quality. Also on the program, Mary Spencer will give a brief history of the March of Dimes and show a short film. All members and guests are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served by hostesses Peggy Najjar, Dorothy Simmons, Minnie Thornton, and Joelyn Pafford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McDaniel spent the holidays in Tucson, Arizona with their sons, Ronnie and Roger and their families.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McDaniel last week were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pfingsten of New Berg, Oregon. Mrs. Pfingsten is Mrs. McDaniel's sister, Thelma. The Pfingstons were former Lincoln County residents about 40 years ago. Jack was with the water service of Southern Pacific out of Nogal and Thelma was a school teacher in Nogal and Capitan.

Albuquerque Hope High School was loaned the Baptist Fellowship Hall where the Hope basketball team prepared their own meals during the recent tournaments.

Robby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miller was here to see them Dec 28-29. Robby's wife, Kendall was in Webster, Texas to see her mother before they returned to Germany, where they are both stationed.

A belated "Welcome to the Community" to Floyd and Elizabeth Curtis, parents of Bob Curtis. They are here to spend the winter with Bob, Virginia and family. They are residents of Michigan.

Roberta Vega, 1978 Zozo graduate left for Denver where she is staying with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Epperson.

The Senior Extention Club met Jan. 8. The program was on the beautiful velvet rose, presented by creative member, Dorothy Current. Hostesses were Velda Watson and Irene Hayes.

Dr. and Mrs. Craig Nelson and daughter "Ronnie" recently returned from a trip to Detroit, where Ronnie met her 2 sets of grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Yadosky and Dr. and Mrs. Elmer Nelson. While there the Nelsons visited with several other relatives.

Sgt. Thomas Saiz, his wife Shirley and their sons, Matthew and Tommy arrived in Carrizozo Dec. 5 from Germany. Grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Herrera met their 5 month old grandson Tommy, who was born in Germany. The Saiz family spent the holidays here and are currently in Fort Rucker, Alabama where Sgt. Saiz is in Helicopter mechanic school after which he will be stationed in Fort Bliss, Texas.

Rosanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Herrera went on a trip to Oklahoma with Sgt. and Mrs. Thomas Saiz where they visited Thomas' parents. Rosanne is now back at N.M.S.U. where she is a freshman.

Eight members of the Town and Country Bridge Club met in the home of Mrs. A. N. Spencer for a luncheon. Jane Shafer won 1st place, Margie Whittaker 2nd and Fran Gable was awarded the 'Boobie'.

Srs. Gail, Adele, and Jan were in training in Ruidoso Jan 13 for the Crisis Center program. Srs. Adele and Gail spent the holidays in Michigan and Sr. Jan in Ohio where they visited with relatives and friends.

Barbara and Raymond Sanchez and Gloria and Lionel Griego, both couples from Capitan were at the Inn of the Mountain Gods the evening of Jan 13 for dinner to celebrate Lionel's birthday. Jan 14. Earlier Barbara presented Lionel with a home made birthday cake that the Griego family enjoyed. (The cake was well illuminated as there were (?) candles on it.)

The husbands of the Junior Extention Club members were the delighted, grateful guests of the ladies, for a Jan 6 steak and drink dinner at the Four Winds. Other guests were Home Economist, Mary Ellen and her husband, Bill Payne. The door prize was won by Sharon and her husband Jackie Lueras.

Margret Holguin is back in Carrizozo after a stay in Albuquerque. Welcome back. Mrs. Holguin is the mother of Mable Vigil.

SHORT STUFF
It will be 20 years since the United Nations unanimously accepted the Declaration of the Rights of the Child. 1979, International Year of the Child, is both a time to celebrate children and all that they mean to the world, and a time to find new ways to meet the needs of children everywhere.

Joining with others in the Community (churches, civic clubs, government agencies and other groups) broadens our resources for exploring the needs of children and acting together to meet these needs.

Town and surrounding area residents involved in town "happenings" help children explore their gifts and talents. Some organizations in Zozo that come to my mind that care for the needs of children are: Brownie Troop, CYC, Art Gallery, 4-H, March of Dimes, FHA, Zozo Boxing Team, CYO, Woman's Club, FFA, Band and Sports Boosters Club. Exposure and encouragement, lead to enrichment. Let these be your key for uncovering the talents of children.

Happy Birthday to Jon Todd Aguilar Jan 21; Theresa Guevara Jan 24.

Eric Vega, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vega is home after a stay at the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital.

A happy tired and sleepy boxing team arrived in Town in the wee hours of the morning, after attending and participating in a boxing tournament in Artesia last Saturday evening. Frankie Silva and Gabriel Chavez received 1st place trophies. Jacob and Pete Narvaez, and Junior Hill performed very good, according to coach Nat Chavez. Leroy Silva and Michael Chavez did not have a match. Kenny Vega was unable to attend. Danny Narvaez, father of Pete and Jacob accompanied Nat and the boxers to Artesia.

OVER THE SECOND CUP
It has been very interesting reading "Looking Back, through our Files" by Jackie Local news from around town and surrounding areas of Polly's Potpourri may someday be seen many years from now by a grandchild, niece, nephew or friend and bring a smile. I remember when...

Let me hear from you. I've called on you but you haven't been in or your line was busy.

The Jr. Extention Club met Jan 10 for their regular meeting to discuss the Tamale Sale. Forty orders have already been taken. They are on sale today, Jan 18 and members of the club may be contacted for additional orders or for information on joining the creative educational extention club. Liz Sambrano is president, Georgia Ortiz vice-president.

Visited with quilting friends last week and of course we discussed the art of quilting. At one house I saw a beautiful 'Crazy' quilt and the beginnings of a 'Tumbling Blocks' quilt. At another place the start of a delightful 'Grandmothers Flower Garden' then gorgeous appliqued 'pansy and Rose of Sharon' blocks and much more.

When I heard the ZIA Senior Center had a 'Ship and Birds' quilt on raffle I headed over there. The blocks were made by many seniors and quilting by Mary Sear, Annie Withers and Montie Stevens. Stop at the Center to see their lovely quilt. Edith Lenard won the recent Nona Patch quilt.

Birthday greeting to Abie Parra Jan 18; Arnold Boyce Jan 19; Cynthia Al Witham, Orene Greshaw, Edward Vega Jan 20; Robby Richardson Jan 22; Charlie Leslie, Flo Clark Jan 23.

Gail Stackpole, at ZIA School of Developmental Services has the community involved in saving Campbell and Franco-American labels in order to earn a movie projector for their program. When you open a can of soup (to use as soup, sauce, in a casserole or cooking liquid in a stew) you have much of the work already done for you.

Santa Fe—Simple Crystal Ball Items: Back during the General Election campaign just about every veteran Capitol observer was ready to bet the controversial Right-to-Work issue would be hogging the headlines by the time the 1979 sixty-day session got underway.

But surprise, surprise...as the time approached for a curtain to rise on the session, the big bulk of the headlines were devoted to the attempts by the House of Representatives to put its act together.

Some comparisons were made to the feed bill fight of the last session, but the comparison doesn't hold up. The feed bill was a squabble between the House and Senate and really got its roots from the battle over the chairmanship of the Legislative Finance Committee.

The hassle in the Lower House this go-round was a three-way brawl among the Democrat moderate-liberals, dissident conservative Demos, and the Republicans. And from the out-set the GOP House minority was sitting pretty.

The key to watching this session will be whether the solid members of both House allow the internal squabbles to interfere with consideration of major pieces of legislation that will affect this State for many years to come.

More often than not, the old hands among the Senate and House members don't get that excited about personal publicity so they look upon the publicity granted to "Joker Bills"; internal fights and headline hunters as a good opportunity to get on with the business of the Legislature without much fanfare.

Sidelight: Not long ago, we asked Sen. C. B. Trujillo of Taos, the Upper House Majority Leader, how he felt about the proposition to grant salaries to the New Mexico lawmakers.

Trujillo's reply is worth repeating. He felt that some members of both Chambers were worth more money from a salary standpoint than the State could ever afford to pay, while others weren't worth two cents.

It boils down to the fact you can't pay the hard workers enough and money paid to the worthless ones would just be another drain on the tax-payers.

Chuckle Items: When the Hispano Chamber of Commerce decided to hold a sizeable meeting in the Capital City,

Chief Justice Dan Sosa of the State Supreme Court was asked to be master of ceremonies and he made a great hit with the crowd.

The Supreme Court member talks about the day he was sworn in as Chief Justice and let it be known to Mrs. Sosa—a grand lady—that she was looking at the head of the New Mexico Supreme Court.

Mrs. Sosa let the new Chief Justice know in no uncertain terms that the garbage had to be put out.

Just as a sidelight, a staff member of the Court Administrator's office called the Sosa residence and asked to speak to the "Chief." Mrs. Sosa answered the phone and informed the caller that just who he had contacted!

Another Chuckle: This reporter frequently uses the line "Don't Say We Didn't Tell You!" But recently, Northern District Congressman Manuel Lujan picked up the phrase in discussing the 1979 edition of Congress.

Lujan, who has won numerous penny-pinching awards, has been preaching for years that the Federal budget is too big—that the Federal deficit is too high—and that the Federal Government needs to trim the Governmental program fat.

In recent years, his admonitions have fallen on deaf ears—but all of a sudden Lujan's colleagues are latching on to the Lujan philosophy.

And the popular Congressman from up north is saying "Don't Say I Didn't Tell You!"

By FRED McCAFFREY
SANTA FE—Most ordinary citizens get a little nervous when they have to deal with dollar figures that run up into the millions. Even newspaper people, who may like you to think they're cool and cynical, tend to sweat just a little when those large numbers get thrown around.

That's probably why the members of the Press Club in Albuquerque were more than a little surprised to hear that Governor King's proposed budget for state government in the coming year may run somewhere over $800 million. That's a whopping 15 per cent more than it cost last year to run a government many people felt had already grown too big, and not what most people had expected from a man they thought of as more likely to be frugal.

It's also more money than the Legislative Finance Committee had planned to expend, and these are the people who actually have the final say. Observers here expect that the lights in the Roundhouse will burn late many a night during the present legislative session as the hammeringout and the horse-trading goes on, to bring the administrative budget and the legislative budget into line with one another.

In that same speech, the Governor made a passing reference to the fact that "some $10 million" of the state's surplus "has been used for school purposes."

That's a gentlemanly way of saying that the schools this year overspent by some $10 million. The money was there in their surplus account for them to spend, but now the Legislature has to find a way to reimburse the surplus.

Some words which are not so kind as those the Governor used may be said on the floors of both houses of the Legislature before this particular problem is finally settled.

No legislator can be against schools or education, but there are some of them who do not take lightly that kind of overspending.

The legislative session which convened in Santa Fe on Tuesday will be an interesting one to observe. There are tough issues and tough people involved in this one.

The fight to replace the Speaker of the House is one of the most serious battles which has been seen in the legislative halls in many years, and it dramatizes the fact that the makeup of the Legislature has changed drastically. The liberal group which ran the show for so long has been whittled away, and the conservatives sidelined for years, feel a renewing of their powers. That allowed for some muscle-flexing on their part, and they moved more decisively than ever before.

That same split is liable to mark this whole session, with the same kind of division as we saw this week on almost every major issue.

R. C. & D. To Meet

King to be the field representative to assist the RC&D in dealing with matters of state and federal concern. New project proposals will be accepted by the Steering Committee. If anyone has an idea for a worthwhile project for the community or area, please bring it to the meeting. Everyone is welcome to attend. The Resource Conservation and Development movement is for everyone—regardless of religion, color or creed.

The South Central Mountain RC&D (SCMRC&D) Area will meet in Alamogordo this coming Tuesday, January 23, 1979 at the Holiday Inn. The afternoon session will convene at 1:00 p.m. Anita Hisenberg, State Planning Office Director, will be speaking to the group about the new administration's plans and long range goals under Governor Bruce King. Tom McCalmont, an old friend of the SCMRC&D, has been assigned by Governor

Santa Fe-Simple Crystal Ball Items: Back during the General Election campaign just about every veteran Capitol observer was ready to bet the controversial Right-to-Work issue would be hogging the headlines by the time the 1979 sixty-day session got underway.

But surprise, surprise...as the time approached for a curtain to rise on the session, the big bulk of the headlines were devoted to the attempts by the House of Representatives to put its act together. Some comparisons were made to the feed bill fight of the last session, but the comparison doesn't hold up. The feed bill was a squabble between the House and Senate and really got its roots from the battle over the chairmanship of the Legislative Finance Committee.

The hassle in the Lower House this go-round was a three-way brawl among the Democrat moderate-liberals, dissident conservative Demos and the Republicans. And from the out-set the GOP House minority was sitting pretty. The key to watching this session will be whether the solid members of both House allow the internal squabbles to interfere with consideration of major pieces of legislation that will affect this State for many years to come. More often than not, the old hands among the Senate and House members don't get that excited about personal publicity so they look upon the publicity granted to "Joker Bills", infernal fights and headline hunters as a good opportunity to get on with the business of the Legislature without much fanfare. Sidelight: Not long ago, we asked Sen. C. B. Trujillo of Taos, the Upper House Majority Leader, how he felt about the proposition to grant salaries to the New Mexico lawmakers. Trujillo's reply is worth repeating. He felt that some members of both Chambers were worth more money from a salary standpoint than the State could ever afford to pay—while others weren't worth two cents. It boils down to the fact you can't pay the hard workers enough—and money paid to the worthless ones would just be another drain on the tax-payers. Chuckle Items: When the Hispano Chamber of Commerce decided to hold a sizeable meeting in the Capital City,

Chief Justice Dan Sosa of the State Supreme Court was asked to be master of ceremonies and he made a great hit with the crowd. The Supreme Court member talks about the day he was sworn in as Chief Justice and let it be known to Mrs. Sosa—a grand lady—that she was looking at the head of the New Mexico Supreme Court. Mrs. Sosa let the new Chief Justice know in no uncertain terms that the garbage had to be put out. Just as a sidelight, a staff member of the Court Administrator's office called the Sosa residence and asked to speak to the "Chief." Mrs. Sosa answered the phone and informed the caller that's just who he had contacted!

Another Chuckle: This reporter frequently uses the line "Don't Say We Didn't Tell You!" But recently Northern District Congressman Manuel Lujan picked up the phrase in discussing the 1979 edition of Congress. Lujan, who has won numerous penny-pinching awards, has been preaching for years that the Federal budget is too big—and that the Federal Government needs to trim the Governmental program fat. In recent years, his admonitions have fallen on deaf ears, but all of a sudden Lujan's colleagues are latching on to the Lujan philosophy. And the popular Congressman from up north is saying "Don't Say I Didn't Tell You!"

Inside the Capitol

By FRED McCAFFREY
SANTA FE: Most ordinary citizens get a little nervous when they have to deal with dollar figures that run up into the millions. Even newspaper people, who may like you to think they're cool and cynical, tend to sweat just a little when those large numbers get thrown around.

That's probably why the members of the Press Club in Albuquerque were more than a little surprised to hear that Governor King's proposed budget for state government in the coming year may run somewhere over $800 million. That's a whopping 15 per cent more than it cost last year to run a government many people felt had already grown too big, and not what most people had expected from a man they thought of as more likely to be frugal. It's also more money than the Legislative Finance Committee had planned to expend, and these are the people who actually have the final say. Observers here expect that the lights in the Roundhouse will burn late many a night during the present legislative session as the hammering out and the horse-trading goes on, to bring the administrative budget and the legislative budget into line with one another. In that same speech, the Governor made a passing reference to the fact that "some $10 million" of the state's surplus "has been used for school purposes." That's a gentlemanly way of saying that the schools this year overspent by some $10 million. The money was there in their surplus account for them to spend, but now the Legislature has to find a way to reimburse the surplus. Some words which are not so kind as those the Governor used may be said on the floors of both houses of the Legislature before this particular problem is finally settled. No legislator can be against schools or education, but there are some of them who do not take lightly that kind of overspending. The legislative session which convened in Santa Fe on Tuesday will be an interesting one to observe. There are tough issues and tough people involved in this one. The fight to replace the Speaker of the House is one of the most serious battles which has been seen in the legislative halls in many years, and it dramatizes the fact that the makeup of the Legislature has changed drastically. The liberal group which ran the show for so long has been whittled away, and the conservatives, sidelined for years, feel a renewing of their powers. That allowed for some muscle-flexing on their part, and they moved more decisively than ever before.

That same split is liable to mark this whole session, with the same kind of division as we saw this week on almost every major issue.

R. C. & D. To Meet

King to be the field representative to assist the RC&D in dealing with matters of state and federal concern. New project proposals will be accepted by the Steering Committee. If anyone has an idea for a worthwhile project for the community or area, please bring it to the meeting. Everyone is welcome to attend. The Resource Conservation and Development movement is for everyone regardless of religion, color, or creed.

The South Central Mountain RC&D (SCMR&D) Area will meet in Alamogordo this coming Tuesday, January 23, 1979 at the Holiday Inn. The afternoon session will convene at 1:00 p.m. Anita Hisenberg, State Planning Office Director, will be speaking to the group about the new administration's plans and long range goals under Governor Bruce King. Tom McCalmont, an old friend of the SCMR&D, has been assigned by Governor
