Lincoln County Historical Society to Host Autograph Party for Eve Ball

June 26 at 7:00 p.m. in the Ruidoso Library the Lincoln County Historical Society, as a special treat for history buffs, will host an autograph party for Eve Ball and her latest work on the Apache, Indeh, An Apache Odyssey. Eve will also be the featured speaker and that in itself is special for she has captivated audiences for over thirty years with her knowledge of the "roots" of Anglo, Spanish and Indian cultures of the southwest.

Co-authors, Nora Henn and Lynda Sanchez, both from Lincoln, will also attend. Mrs. Henn is a noted researcher & is working on a book relevant to the famed Lincoln County War. Mrs. Sanchez is completing her Master's in Anthropology and is working on a book about the Spanish culture of the Lincoln County region. Both women have had numerous articles published on various phases of Southwestern History.

As most Lincoln County residents know, Eve Ball has lived in Ruidoso for more than 30 years. Her hospitality and willingness to help any serious student of history are well known. In addition to Indeh, Eve has written innumerable articles on subjects as varied as famous race horses, ranching families and of course, the Apache. Her books include: Bob Crosby, Champion Cowboy, Ma'am Jones of the Pecos, In the Days of Victoria and My Girlhood Among Outlaws.

In the Days of Victoria she became, according to Dr. Harwood Hinton, editor of Arizona and the West, a one of a kind classic novel history. Eve Ball, of course, was a pioneer, too for she blazed the way for the "respectability" of oral history as it is known today. Many of her works are now used as text books in universities not only in the United States but overseas as well.

Her lengthy interviews during the last 30 years with over 67 old Apaches enlighten & made her determined to relate Apache history from their viewpoint. All too often Indian history has been told from the side of their enemies, the soldiers who hunted them and the settlers who hated them. As she told one of her Apache friends, "This material may bring about a better understanding between our peoples."

After thirty years of preparation that material now comes to us in Indeh, An Apache Odyssey. As well known author Dan Thrapp stated in his forward to Indeh, for most historians and students she has become a repository of the southwest's history and legends as well as a part of them and she has "come to share with the Apaches in their own saga."

Camp Meeting 'Work Day' Set

Work Day is set at the Nogal Mesa Ranchmen's Camp Meeting for Saturday, June 28. Anyone interested in giving a helping hand is welcome to bring a basket lunch and aid with preparations for the encampment.

July 18 through 20.

The regular final working session will be held as usual the Saturday before the opening of the Camp Meeting, July 12.

Sat., June 28th --

Free Public Concert Features Lafferty-Bennett

Recording Artist and songwriter Karen Lafferty will appear with Bob Bennett in a free public concert Saturday June 28th at 7:30 p.m. in the Ruidoso High School Gymnasium.

This will be the first of three free concerts this summer. The program is being sponsored by Maranatha Mountain Ministries of Ruidoso.

Karen recently completed a six-month tour of Holland affiliated with the Youth With A Mission School. She has cut two albums with Maranatha Music and has toured home and abroad for nearly eight years.

spreading the message of Jesus Christ. Also performing Saturday is Bob Bennett, who communicates with intricate guitar work, creative melodies and meaningful lyrics. His first solo album, also released by Maranatha Music, "First Things First," was released last year. Other concerts coming up include Gospel Seed, appearing with Karen on July 25, and California artist Kelly Willard on August 22.

The Inspiration Corporation Music Drama Camp will present "The Little Kids of the Kingdom."

Mel Hollan from Aztec --

Capitan School Board Hires Football Coach

Mel Hollan was hired as head football coach after former coach Bill Hansen's letter of resignation was accepted at the June Capitan School Board meeting.

Having coached at Aztec High School three years, Hollan holds a Masters from ENMU and will teach P.E., Driver's Ed. and possibly junior high, his beginning salary, $18,021.00.

Seven non-certified employees were rehired. The low bid of $900 from J.G. Moore Agency for workman's compensation insurance was accepted.

Business machine maintenance only bid: Neely James, $887; Zittel supplies, Neely James, $849.81; school furniture for 7 classrooms Allied School and Office Products, Albuquerque, $12,444.94.

The Board approved the resignation of Emma Gene Hall with regrets. Curtiss Payne entered a negative vote.

Payne moved to stop school sponsorship of the Senior Trip. Considerable discussion showed the majority of the Board still in favor of school sponsorship. Everyone agreed stricter discipline was needed and the Board decided to send the whole class home if only a few cause trouble.

Payne's motion died for a lack of a second.

The Senior Citizens request for the administration building received a negative when the Board discovered donation of school property is illegal. Superintendent Clifton reported the State Board of Finance told him the building could be leased or sold. It would be either public auction or sealed bid.

Clifton reported the good possibility of not getting the $2.5 million requested from Capitol Outlay to finish the high school.

An earthquake at Dulce School and rebuilding the State Pen will take most of this year's funds, though Clifton feels the school will get an $800,000 minimum.

The purchase of a 1980 Dodge pickup for the new VoAg program was reported. Contract with the VoAg teacher begins Aug. 1.

Board member Barber complained about the per diem costs for Architect Jerry Lake. Lake has made frequent trips to Capitan responding to problems with the elementary project.

Principal Crane suggested refurbishing the old gym, a costly suggestion which wasn't met with complete Board approval.

Painting the intermediate building will be handled with an addendum to the elementary contract.

Driver's Education

Begins July 7th

The Carrizozo District will be offering a Summer Driver Education program for eligible High School students. The program will begin on Monday, July 7, 1980 and will run for four weeks. To be eligible for the program, a student must be enrolled in Carrizozo High School and be at least 15 years old. The class will be limited to 20 students, and registration will be on a first come-first serve basis. Registration will be held on Wednesday, July 2, at the District Conference Room. A fee of $18 will be collected at this time. For additional information, call 848-2461.

'Work Nears Completion'

'Water Project' finalized --

C'ozozo Town Council (minus 2) Conducts Unfinished Business

State, town, engineering and construction officials met Friday, June 26 for a pre-construction meeting at the town hall. The contract agreement for the town's 'Water Project' was signed. This action will replace 2-inch lines with 4-inch lines on Cedar, Birch and Aspen Streets, located south of the railroad tracks.

At a special town meeting held the evening of June 14, town attorney Bill Payne informed the council that he had received a telephone call from Jeanne Zofal of the State EID Office. She stated that she had not received any of the paper work for the Water Project and could not approve it until she did.

Payne called Matotan and Associates and informed them of the situation. The pre-construction meeting was scheduled for Friday afternoon at the town hall. Payne told the council at the special meeting that it would be good if the mayor could attend, but if he could not, some of the council members should. Harmon agreed to be there.

Payne, Mayor Hernandez, Trustees Zamora and Harmon met at the 8:00 p.m. pre-construction meeting with Zofal, Construction Grant Administrator and Percy Blair, Rowell Regional EID.

Charles R. Schwesker, a representative of engineers Matotan and Associates of Albuquerque and Mr. Cahill, a representative of contractors CDS, Inc. of Socorro were also on hand. They will be working with town foreman Emilio Beltran, who was also present.

Zofal gave contract approval and increased grant of $10,000 to over $12,000. Cahill said it will be six weeks before start of construction in order to ready materials. They have 75 calendar days to complete the water project. Plans are to start August 1 and finish four weeks later.

Trustees on hand for the special meeting of June 16 were Zamora and Harmon, who had resigned but changed his mind. Moreland and Orsak, both who also resigned did not attend the meeting. The items of business were those tabled from the June regular meeting when the three resigned following a controversial closed session regarding a town policeman whose job was terminated.

At the special town meeting with the two trustees:

- The Council present signed an application for 18 units of public housing.

- The Council will study revisions on personnel policy and make their decision at the next regular meeting. Town Clerk Christina Chavez informed the council that several changes and additions were needed in the personnel policy manual.

- Hernandez moved to accept a resolution to go into Joint Powers Agreement with the County of Lincoln on the operation of the sanitary landfill.

- The Council approved the following occupation tax applications: Pat Vigil, Lincoln County Insurance Agency; Helen Bonney, Helen's Outlet Clothing; John's TV Service and Mary Rich Real Estate.

- The town's monthly expenditures were approved. The clerk informed the council that a list of the monthly expenditures would be mailed out with the minutes for the council's review, to time at the meeting. This was acceptable to the council.

On June 17, Hernandez and Henry Vega, Golf Course Superintendent attended an RCAD committee meeting in Ruidoso. Hernandez and Vega were accompanied by Jackson Stearns. The trio presented a proposal to RCAD for aid in obtaining funds for Carrizozo's Rec Center and Golf Course.

The facilities' Benefactor, Mrs. A.N. Spencer will send her final check in September for operating the places. After that the town is on its own. Stearns attended the Ruidoso meeting as a private citizen interested in helping the recreational complex survive.

The Recreation Committee will meet with representatives of the Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce and the Carrizozo Woman's Club on Friday, June 27 for a special Dutch Treat dinner meeting. The committee will read the latest reports and tell the representative groups of future plans.

The evening of July 1, Tuesday, the Rec Committee will meet again, this time at the City Hall. The public is invited to attend this meeting and offer their input. Morgan Maxwell, committee president said every effort is being made so that the Rec Center and Golf Course will not be abandoned. Maxwell said the loss of these would also diminish activity at the swimming pool, fishing lake, playground, and tennis court because of lack of funds to operate.

Stearns said that the town's recreation facilities represents over a million dollars and is an asset to Carrizozo and Lincoln County. He said clubs, churches and schools should join in the effort with the town to find a solution to find funding to operate the facilities. He said the Rec Center and the Golf Course offer the elderly as well as the young an opportunity for recreation. In addition both the places are ideal locations for civic affairs.

The town swimming pool opened for the first time this year on June 16, to the delight of Zozo youngsters. The new solar system for heating the water is in operation. The pool was closed next day due to vandalism at the pool. On June 17 at approximately 3:00 a.m. relief town policeman, Gene Baker on patrolling around the pool noticed the door to the east side of the building open. Baker went inside to investigate. A window was noticed broken, person or persons were heard running and Baker gave pursuit, but failed to apprehend the subjects.

A wallet with chain was found in the ladies dressing room. Personal papers, drivers license and social security card belonged to Raymond J. Pekari, Jr. By calling MayDowar Company in Indianapolis, Pekari was traced. He returned to Carrizozo to face charges of 'Criminal Trespass'. Magistrate Court action found him guilty and he was fined $100.00 plus $10.00 court costs.

During the pool incident the electrical power on all the systems was turned off. Pekari and five local individuals, including a juvenile girl were involved in the breaking and entering. Criminal Damage at the pool is still under investigation.

Expenses for re-treating water, labor and replacing of window totaled $148.75. The pool re-opened on Friday, June 20 for the summer. Lisa Cranshaw is life guarding, with Phillip Payne assisting until State Castle receives her certification.

M-Y T-I-M-E . . . . by Michael Swickard

Sometimes pointed out that I sometimes repeat myself on some issues. This is because I see the same behavior again and again that sparked the first column.

Some time back I spoke of a illustration from my high school Biology class. That involving a frog, Garden variety.

It was a demonstration of a frog's ability to perceive danger.

Now you take this garden variety frog and put him/her (neither male nor female do this any different) into a pan of cool water.

The frog will sit contently in the pan of water. Then you slowly heat the water. The frog will sit there during the heating of the water as if nothing important was on his/her mind. As steam is curling around the frog's nose, the frog still will not perceive the danger that it is in. The frog will quietly expire with a slightly contented look on its face and an untroubled mind. Yes, you can literally boil a frog to death, and it will not hop out of the pan of water to safety.

But if you take that same garden variety frog and put him into a pan of boiling water, zap, as fast as you can say "Jack Armstrong", the frog will jump out of the pan to safety. His instinct for survival will get him out of there fast.

So also would it seem that the story of the frog fits America today. We, as a nation, are great at jumping out of boiling water, if put in quickly. But when the heat is gradually turned up, we seem to quietly die, with a slightly puzzled look on our faces.

In 1840, the per person share of the tax burden was $31 a year. By 1950 it was up to $300 a year. This year it is about $2300 a year. Most is being spent on the "social" programs.

There is a break point in our society. The point where the ones working are so vastly outnumbered by the non-workers and government workers (close in the same as the non-workers), that the entire system must break down.

At a time when Japan's total productivity increased 9.5 percent in 1978 and by another 11 percent in 1979, we as a nation have decreased production. We are not as productive today, as we were a couple of years ago.

That is one thing that turns up the heat.

Of course every Fourth of July we all say the old words and try to act like we still believe them. We say that we are the strongest nation on the face of the Earth. With freedom and justice for all. The best Army, Navy and Air Force.

We say those things while we turn our backs on the reality of the situation.

We sit comfortably in our own individual pans of water quietly eating and drinking ourselves to death, while one third of the world starves. Quietly ignoring the danger signals from abroad that the great Red Army is on the move, that the Chinese have twice as many soldiers as we and they DO NOT HAVE DESERT!

While Americans are planning to protest the registration of young men for the draft, India is building their own A-Bomb. Russia is increasing the size of their Army, Navy, and Air Force. And they have a universal draft.

At a time when many Americans want to do away with the Armed Forces forever, the rest of the world is seemingly getting ready for war.

While we Americans are supporting candidates that propose more and more "free" give away programs, the social security people are gently trying to tell us that they don't have any more money. And the politicians to support their own phoney baloney jobs are saying that we can just print more money, anytime that we run out.

The water is boiling brisley and we are at a turning point in our country. We can continue for a small amount of time to hide our heads in the sand and spout pretty words about "doing away with war forever". We can continue to spout the words, "The land of the free, brave, honest, and just!" We can continue to do all of the destructive things that have gotten this country into the mess that it is in now. Yes, fellow countrymen, we can continue for a time.

But we can't continue for very long the way that we are going.

I can already see that the Russians will be suitably impressed if most of the United States citizens refuse to register for the draft. It will be interesting to see if their impression is that we are the land of the brave and strong.

These same people that wish us to do away with our Armed Forces also propose taking the guns away from the police. Someday their reward will be the horror of seeing what damage they have done to this country.

So as you listen to all of the speakers talk about the 4th of July, independence, land of the brave, strong, free, etc, as you hear all of the words again as we yearly do, think to yourself about how nice it is to be free, to still have some freedom in our lives.

The water is boiling rapidly, we and the frog are about to plicidly pass on to a greater reward unless we can somehow wake up to what is really going on. I hope you enjoy your 4th of July speeches. -MS.

Dunlaps Visit Rotary

During the Long dry season, herdsmen in Tunis Tunisia gather sheep from several owners and move with flocks onto recently harvested wheat fields. Also there are no fences in Tunisia.

Lincoln County agricultural agent and sheep expert asked a Tunisian employee, trained in agriculture,

The Dunlaps showed the Rotarians and their guests many slides they took themselves. The slides pictured fat-tailed sheep, an olive crusher, the market place, museum and tombs. Among the slides, was the wedding of Dunlap's counterpart, a Tunisian government knowledgeable in sheep production and in command of Arabic, French and English. The Dunlaps have learned enough French and Arabic to get by, especially on the social graces.

A beautiful Tunisian sunset slide concluded the Dunlap's presentation.

Ralph & Rosalie Dunlap

With the help of an interpreter, Dunlap received an answer-question "how do you know your children?" This was one of many stories that Dunlap and his wife Rosalie told Carrizozo Rotarians and their guests including several Carrizozo residents at a dinner meeting at the Four Winds last Thursday evening. Dunlap is now midway through a two year assignment as sheep advisor on a team in charge with improving and increasing food production in Tunisia.

The Dunlaps were recently in the States several days on business. Dunlap, a county agent for 28 years joined a U.S. agency for International Development team of livestock and forage specialists from various states. He was sent by NMSU to participate in the U.S. Department of State's technical assistance program in Tunisia.

The Dunlaps have one more year of service in Tunisia, located between Algeria and Libya. The Dunlap's home town is Lincoln, NM where they sheared their own sheep and spun the wool. Rosalie is known around Lincoln County as a spinning & weaving instructor. Her shop 'La Placita' in Lincoln features woolen items and supplies for weavers. The Dunlaps are members of Hand Weavers Guild of America.

Dunlap had been a very active member with Carrizozo Rotary. Ralph and Rosalie told the Rotarians and guests about their life in Tunisia with color slides and comments.

In addition the Dunlaps modeled two garments. Rosalie wore a ladies all wool 'burnoose' with handsewn trim. The burnoose is an outer garment or cloak, worn nearly by all Tunisians. Dunlap modeled a shepherd's kachabia, generally worn by the people in the cooler areas.

Much of Dunlap's time is spent in Central Tunisia which is similar in climate and vegetation to much of New Mexico. Dunlap told the Rotarians that Southern Tunisia reminds him of the Las Cruces-Deming area.

There are five almost six million sheep in Tunisia. Jackals are the sheep's predators. Small children, women or older men shepherd the sheep in unfenced land. In places acactus is used for boundaries. Tunisia promotes its growth with no fear of crop failure, Dunlap adds with a smile.

Emphasis is on meat over wool in Tunisia. All meat cuts are sold on the market at $3.50 per pound whether it is the neck, leg or chops. Wool represents only 10 percent of the income from sheep and is secondary importance. Even so Tunisia is known for its world famous rugs. Dunlap said that 800 rugs are sold than 1 1/2 hours at a rug auction.

Dunlap concentrates in introducing selective breeding and demonstrating and promoting cooperatively owned portable dipping vats for control of scabbes.

Around Town & Surrounding Areas

The Lincoln County Ranch Tour held June 14 was possible through the combined efforts of several organizations. The Canyon Cowbelle and the Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce originally came up with the idea. The Corona Crown Cowbelle were invited to join the project and the Soil Conservation participated in the planning of the event.

The five agriculturally related groups worked together to make the event a fun-filled and educational experience for young and old. The Chamber office was the central location for publicity and for pre-registration. $50.00 donations were given by the Citizen State Bank, Ruidoso State Bank, Farm Bureau, Soil Conservation Board and the Chamber of Commerce.

In addition, the Carrizozo Women's Club, March of Dimes, the Carrizozo and the Corona FFA organizations helped make the project the success it was. The family members of the Gnatkowski, Hightower and Curtiss ranches were very courteous with the ranch visitors. They and the guest speakers on the ranches encouraged the people to ask questions about ranching operations.

Registration at the Valley of Fire was conducted by the Crown Cowbelle with the Canyon Cowbelle and the Chamber of Commerce assisting. The "goodie bags" were prepared by the Canyon Cowbelle. They contained many useful items, including the famous Canyon Cowbelle recipes. The Canyon Cowbelle displayed their quilt during registration. The quilt blocks feature ranch related scenes.

The Crown Cowbelle supplied the door prizes. They were matched to the three ranches. (Wool, leather or horse shoes were used to make the creative door prizes.) The Corona FFA had drinks available at the Gnatkowski sheep ranch and the Hightower cattle ranch. The Carrizozo FFA supplied coffee and doughnuts at registration and drinks at the Curtiss horse ranch. The March of Dimes sold sack lunches at the Gnatkowski place. The Carrizozo Women's Club featured a Bar-be-que at Valley of Fire Park when the ranch touring was over.

Frankie Silva, Captain, volunteered five buses, of which four were used. Barney and Lois loaned a bus as well as Garland Tilley, Estancia, of Tilley Chevrolet who supplied 3 buses and its two drivers. The drivers of the seven buses included the Ropers, Cotton Baker, Hoot Gibson and Sammy Roper.

Tour guides for the buses and ranch stops were Cowbelle: Ann Withers, Bobbie Laklay, Kathleen Lovelace, Pat Hume, Jane Shafer, Ruth Wilson and Margaret Stearns. Local businessmen and ranchers were also guides: Johnson Stearns, Morgan Maxwell, Sterling Spencer, Billy Stephens, Wally Ferguson and Walt Wilson, with Berry Herd as stand by.

The Ranch Tour was so carefully organized that even "out-houses" were provided at each ranch place. They were modern looking metal sheds. All that was missing was a Sears Catalog, but that in its place was a more up-to-date item.

Today June 16 is the birthday of Old Simmons. Others celebrating birthdays: June Pierce, Teri Baca June 27; Joshua Peralta, Elaine Cantrell June 28; Choncho Morales, Fred English June 29; Claudia Lopez June 30; Hazel English July 2; Old hot heads never die they just lose their cool. Happy Birthday!

The Citizen State Bank will have on display the Canyon Cowbelle quilt which will be raffled at the Lincoln County Fair. I have been observing the progress on the quilt, and can say that it is truly a work of art. The quilt features the work of many talented women.

Former Carrizozo priest, Father Joe Sys wrote that he is visiting in Canada and on his way to Uganda. He added that he would love to have made a wide "excursion trip" to Tunisia to see Ralph and Rosalie Dunlap, but that this is in North Africa and the trip would be over his budget. Fr. Sys says that he studied there before WW II.

Fr. says he will always remember the people of Lincoln County/Beas wishes. In his location & we hope to hear from him again in the country he chose to do God's work.

The alides that the Dunlaps showed at the Rotary dinner at the Four Winds lastweek included one of a 1988 Church of the White Fathers. Ralph said that Fr. Sys was there at one time.

Rosalie and Ralph shared with Carrizozo and Capitan Rotarians and their guests some of the interesting things that they have experienced in Tunisia, Tunisia.

Each Community has a lifestyle all its own.

Women in each little village have their own color or type of sari. They can be all white, which you see so much in Tunisia, to the all red with black stripes in Central Tunisia to the all black in Southern Tunisia.

"Women in Tunisia do not like their picture taken", Ralph told the Rotarians.

Each village has its own weekly market or "souk" where they can buy, sell, trade and visit. All sorts of merchandise is sold from candy, pots, kettles, vegetables to camels.

Ralph said that riding a camel is sort of like riding a rocking chair.

Rafael Chavez - Pete Narvaez Win at Carrizozo Boxing Invitational

Grants boxers who journeyed to Carrizozo last Sunday returned home with 12 of the 18 trophies presented at Carrizozo's boxing invitational. In addition, a Grants boxing fan was the winner of the Grizzly belt buckle which was raffled off during intermission.

Of the five Carrizozo boxers that saw action in the ring two, Rafael Chavez and Pete Narvaez, were announced winners by referee Gilbert Arechuleta and Merryyn Nephew. Nephew who is employed with the City of Albuquerque, refereed professionally on the side.

Five-year old Chavez, 41 pound Zozo boxer defeated Grant's Antonio Sandoval. Narvaez, 60 pounds won over Bernard Polanco of Hondo.

A large crowd of Hondo Valley boxing fans were on hand for the afternoon boxing matches. Hondo boxers, Kenneth Chavez 180 pounds and David Chavez 74 pounds were presented trophies. Ruben Polanco 110 pounds was given a trophy for participating in the most outstanding bout of the afternoon, the winner being Pat Sandoval of Grants.

85 pounder, Dion Chavez of Alamogordo was a winner in the invitational which saw four TKO's and three KO's. Judges for the event were Tommy Guayra, Manny Hernandez and Tony Chavez of Alamogordo.

The Carrizozo boxers who participated in the matches in addition to Chavez and Narvaez were Gabriel Chavez and David Knouff. There were 26 opponents for Michael Chavez and Larry Blyis, who travels to California this week to box in the National Junior Golden Gloves.

Members of the Carrizozo Boxing team will travel to Grants to compete in a June 26 boxing invitational. They will join teams from Questa, Laguna-Acoma, Belen, Albuquerque and Navajo.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Davidson, Deming, spent the weekend here and attended the cowbelle party.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Mitchell, Cameron, TX were here for a few days and went on to T or C. They will return for the Owen-Bennet wedding. The bride is a niece of Mrs. Mitchell.

Tammy Owen and her fiance, Fred Bennet spent Saturday at the Owen ranch. They brought their guests Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bennet Sr. and Miss Susie Bennet of New City, NY to be introduced to Tammy's family and friends here. The Bennets will see some places of interest during their week in New Mexico.

Lou Collins Daudet a former teacher in Corona High School now residing in Albuquerque is Co-author with her sister, Ruth Collins Roberts. The book "Pinto Bean and Silver Spoon" is a recollection of their experiences growing up on a homestead near Des Moines, NM. The sisters are two of the twelve children born to Reverend and Mrs. James Samuel Collins. The Collins family lived in Capitan at one time.

Wayman Mays stopped by the Davidson ranch Thursday. He was on a business trip from Green River, Utah to Holoman AFB.

Mrs. Roe Lovelace hosted the June meeting of Crown Cowbelle at the ranch headquarters Saturday evening, June 21st. She provided a delicious beef barbecue and a band for dancing until 2 a.m. More than one hundred members and guests enjoyed visiting and dancing to music by Corona's Sagebrush Review. Mrs. Lovelace was assisted by her daughter, Roe Ann, and by Mrs. Bennie Crist.

Before time to eat, Betty Ann Bell, Crown president, presided at a brief business meeting. She gave Roe and Bennie packets of Ag thank you cards as a gesture of appreciation for their hard work. She announced the next meeting to be the evening of July 3rd at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Ranney. Ruby Davidson is co-hostess for the hamburger fry for members and their families. Dexil Rold, owner of the Corona Telephone Co. will speak.

Kay Sultemeier, awards committee chairman, introduced Jack Davidson Sr. as Crown's Father of the Year for 1980. He succeeds Clint Sultemeier named last year as Crown's first. Jerry Sharp was named Outstanding Young Rancher for 1979 in ceremonies in June of last year. Mrs. Sultemeier outlined some interesting highlights in Mr. Davidson's life and presented him with a "Johnny Good Rock" suitably inscribed.

Mr. Davidson was born in Santa Rosa in 1902 and came to Corona in 1904. At age nine he moved with his parents to the ranch location where he is still active in the ranching business now assisted by his son and a grandson. In 1923 Jack Davidson and Ruby Killingsworth were married. They reared two children, Jack Davidson Jr. of Corona Sue Mays, Green River, Utah, and two grandchildren Jacques Sue Allen, Hobbs, and Sam Davidson, Deming. Mr. Davidson is a former member of the New Mexico Cattle Growers Assoc., served seventeen years as a cattle inspector under Charles Curtis, was an inspector for the Roswell Production Credit Assoc., was a deputy sheriff under A.S. McCamant and holds an honorary membership in the Lincoln County Sheriff's assoc. Congratulations, Jack Affectionately called "Viejo" by his many young friends.

Mrs. Sultemeier then introduced Archie Perkins Crown's 1980 Senior Stockman of the Year. He received cowbelle napkins in a holder made of horse shoes. The inscription is on a disc of call bone and is laced with white doeskin. Mr. Perkins was born on his father's ranch in western Oklahoma and came to Corona in 1923. At age 18, after the death of his father, he drove a school bus. He was school custodian for one year & worked at the Corona Trading Co. for five years keeping the family together until the five children had graduated from high school. He then went to UNM where he lettered in football for three years and received a Master's degree in Economics. He taught and coached for thirteen years at Nara Visa, Corona & El Paso high schools. He served for twenty-seven years as a member of the Lincoln Co. ASC Committee. He is a member of the Corona United Presbyterian Church and has been a member of the Corona Fire Dept. since its organization.

In 1936 Mr. Perkins married Geraldine Du Bois. They have two children, Sherill Bradford, of El Paso and Rand Perkins who resides on the ranch purchased in 1943. Two grandsons keep the ranch and him going. Congratulations, Arch!

Capitan Village News

Happy Fourth of July Holiday to everyone. Capitan is so busy preparing for the Smokey Bear Stampede Celebration. Come and enjoy it with us. Many friends will be here and have a happy time.

There has not been any change in the weather. It is so very hot & so dry. We did have two tenths of an inch of rain and light hail one late evening. The wind was terrific but it was so refreshing for a very short time. We still have to conserve water.

The Round Table Club met Tuesday, June 18, 1980 at the lovely home of Frankie Tom and The Fletcher Hall. All members were present except "Winifred Cozens. Guests were Helen Bray, Angie Provost and Ruth Denton.

Delicious baked chicken was served by the hostess and her daughter Emma Jean Hall. Members brought other foods.

Shelly Edridge attended a barrel racing school and Rodeo in Gallup while spending a few days with her cousins Cooke and Son Harris and family. She won the goat tying and placed second in barrels. Her brother Grady attended the State High School Rodeo finale in Farmington and placed third in calf roping. While there he visited his cousins "The Penny McKnights". Penny spent one week with his father Leroy McKnight who is in the Ruidoso Hospital and is improving very nicely. We are happy to know that. Keep up the good work Leroy.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Eggelston and family are leaving for Omaha, Neb., Friday, June 27. They will drive thru.

Jack Forester while watering his garden stumbled and fell into a barb wire fence and cut his arm and 15 stitches had to be taken. It has been so very painful. I wish you the best recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Pumpfrey and two children of Houston, Texas spent one week here visiting his mother Joan Pumpfrey and her parents Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hobbs.

Mrs. Ackerman of Portales accompanied her son, his wife & three sons of Arizona on a tour and they visited the Smokey Bear Museum. The Ackermans were here years ago and he was a Forest Ranger here and many will remember.

Martha and Warren Thiedt the owners and operators of the "Tuhawakey Del Pasada" R.V. Camp have so much to be proud of as their accomplishments have been a huge success.

They have a recreation room, outdoor sports, etc. Each year they add more building and go forward. They want Lincoln to know they can take care of their visitors. Prices are reasonable, rates night, week or monthly and storage.

They retired from their work in El Paso and started out with a Trailer, three miles west of Capitan on Highway 380. At this time it is a nice business in a beautiful setting.

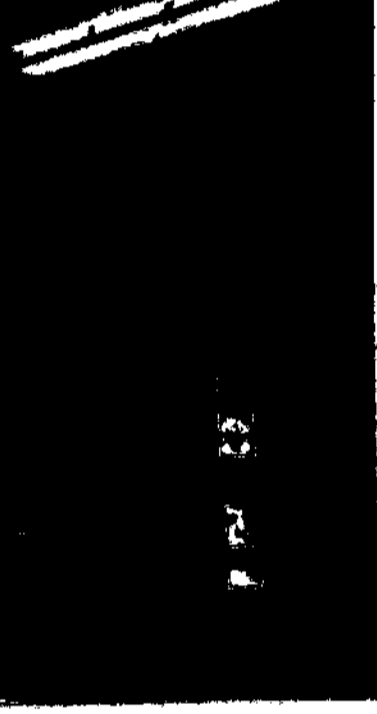

Lucy Griego's mother Eliana Gonzalez of Roswell passed away in the Medical Center June 17 after a brief illness at the age of 80 years.

Ralph and Rosalie Dunlap of Africa where here for a day last week taking care of business while enroute to visit his father who was very ill. They return to Africa June 26th. Their home by Lincoln burned & all was a total loss. We were glad to see them.

Janie Randle of Las Cruces Summer School visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dean, Sr. for Father's Day and taken her son Joe Paul home with her.

Laura Hardy and Richard Scott were united in marriage June 1 at 2 p.m. in the Bethel Baptist Church near Hobbs. They honeymooned in Carlsbad for two days then he called to his duties. They will make their home in Higginbotham, Texas. I do wish them many years of Happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Curtiss Payne enjoyed three days at the Fireman's Convention in Aztec. Then enjoyed fishing in the Navajo Lake.

Lincoln County Ranch Tour (Part 2)

by POLLY CHAVEZ

HOW MUCH DO THEY WEIGH? Win Beef Cookbook! Closest guess of weight of bull without going over actual weight will be the winner. Weight of calf will be used only in case of a tie.

This is what the sign at the Hightower place. Ranch Tour participants stood in line awaiting their turn at the guessing game. Just beyond the table where the people stood filling in their weight guess cards, stood a 1,730 pound Simmental bull. The five-year old bull glared at the hamburger eaters.

Bill Smith, who recently purchased a rancher between Corona & Cedarville was the winner of the beef cookbook. He and another person guessed the weight of the bull at 1,700 pounds, but Smith's calf weight guess broke the tie. Smith was announced the winner at the Valley of Fires park during the bar-be-cue. The 6:30 p.m. dinner followed the all-day Gnatkowski, Hightower and Curtiss Ranch Tour on June 14.

The passengers in the tour buses talked excitedly about the sheep operations that they had seen at the Gnatkowski ranch as they were driven to the Hightower Cattle Company Headquarters, the second stop on the tour in the Ancho area.

The ranch, owned and operated by Hightower and Land & Cattle Company, had its beginning around the turn of the century when James A. Cooper settled on the then open range. A well was developed at the location where John A. Hightower now lives, then later another was developed some eight miles to the north. There were no fences and a vast area was used for grazing cattle, horses, and sheep. The railroad soon came through and by being fenced divided the country. The Homestead Act was passed and people started moving in. Mr. Cooper did not take advantage of the opportunity and eventually was squeezed out. The two wells stayed in the family and were acquired by Bryan Hightower, grandson of Mr. Cooper, around 1920 and after.

A part of the present land was purchased section at a time from homesteaders as they starved out and left. Some was acquired by paying delinquent taxes and thus getting a title from the State. This process continued until about 1940. Most of the country by then was in the hands of small ranchers. The "grass looked greener on the other side of the fence", by many and they began to sell out and move on. Much of the present ranch was put together in this manner in the 40's and 50's. Gradually economic conditions made it hard to make a living on small ranches and since 1980 other small adjoining places have been added. The present ranch consist of approximately 45,000 acres of which over 80 percent is private, and the balance is State Lease, BLM (federal) Lease, & Forest Service Permit. It is now owned and operated by John A. Gary, & Bill Hightower and their families.

For the Ranch Tour, John Allen Hightower and sons Gary and Bill showed the different breeds of cattle (Simmental, Hereford and Angus Cross). They told the tour groups of Hightower ranch operations and the feeding and preparation of cattle for market.

Baby calf at the Curtiss horse ranch.

Shafer told the Hightower ranch visitors, Shafer, raised on a ranch, is president of the Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce, who had a part in the formation of the Ranch Tour.

The last ranch stop on the tour was at the Bob Curtiss horse ranch, west of Carrizozo where demonstrations were giving on the care, feeding, breeding and training of Quarter Horses for ranch work, rodeos and horse shows. His horse business is based primarily on training, showing and breeding Quarter Horses. Most of the horses seen had been training for the show ring for such events as halter, roping, western pleasure and western riding. Ranch Tourists saw demonstrations of each of these events and how the horses are prepared for them.

Curtiss showed a three-year old sorrel stallion, 'Scotch N' Skip', owned by Quarter Horse Breeder, Charlie Brown. The tour groups also viewed 'Mill Iron Jackie', a two-year old mare and 'Mill Iron Banter', a two-year old gelding, both owned by Pat Dunning. Church Letchworth, head trainer at the Dunning place assisted Curtiss during the horse showing for the Ranch Tour.

Curtiss told the group that the halter class is "very comparable to girls beauty shows." The horses are bathed, rubbed down and their noses are shined with baby oil. Hair dressing is used on the horse and the hoofs are polished.

Jan Peterson assistant trainer at the Dunning ranch helped Curtiss demonstrate in the ranch arena. Peterson gave a presentation of 'Western Pleasure'. It is primarily a walk, trot and canter class designed to show an unruffled disposition of a horse and its quick response in changing gaits.

Mike 12 and Joe, 16 sons of Bob and Virginia Curtiss assisted in the horse arena activity. Other horse demonstrations that visitors saw were calf roping and 'cutting'.

Cutting is one contest that brings out the true "Cow-sense" characteristics of Quarter Horses. The horse is on his own to out-think and out-perform the cows assigned to him.

Rancher Tony Gable telling visitors about his cattle operations. He ranches near the Hightower place.

After the Double E branding, came the ear marking.

Persons astride contesting cutting horses go along just for the ride. Curtiss said that although cattle is usually used in cutting, for the Ranch Tour he used goats because they "were handy", and he wasn't kidding. (pun intended.)

Local rancher, Sterling Spencer, who was a tour guide throughout the Ranch Tour asked Chuck if he was going to join Bob and Jan in the Curtiss arena. Chuck shook his head "no" and said, "I've been windmilling today."

An astonished, young female ranch tourist asked, "You mean you put a windmill together today?" Chuck answered, "Part nall". That's cowboy talk for 'almost'.

The ranch tourists grimaced as a heifer was branded and ear marked right before their eyes. Smoke drifted upward as two E's were imprinted on the animals which was held in the branding table. Blood flowed from the ear cut.

Ranch neighbor, Tony Gable gave a talk about his nearby ranching operations. "I'm the middle man," Gable told the tour people. He buys weaned yearlings from the rancher, puts 800 to 350 pounds on them and then sells them to the feed yard for slaughter and consumer need. While Gable gave his talk heifer (female calf) and steer (male calf) yearlings looked on in the background.

Greg Hausler of Captain with the Soil Conservation Service told the ranch tourists how rain effects weeds and grass. He explained grass management. Hausler had an area precipitation chart and said that the "overriding this is drought."

Citizens State Bank executive vice-president, Scott Shafer gave a talk on agriculture and the semi-arid climate in most of New Mexico. "I make loans and pray for rain,"
