My Time

by Michael Swickard

Dear Editor:
In response to your editorial of February 21, 1980 I must say that I disagree with you on a few points. First let me point out, however, that I too believe that all peoples of this world deserve to enjoy the same freedoms I do. My freedom is not something I take lightly or for granted.

There surely must be some other way for countries to settle their political differences outside of war. I mean, God gave us the power of rational thought for some good reason, didn't he? That we could remove ourselves from the tooth and nail, kill or be killed world of the lesser animals, that we could rise above and solve our problems in an intelligent and rational manner. Yes, it's wrong of Russia to invade Afghanistan, but it's also wrong to start grabbing guns and killing innocent people over it. No amount of wrongs will ever make it right.

It's easy for you, I would imagine, to sit back and say "go fight" - but those of us who are of draft age face a terrifying prospect. We're just trying to make peace with ourselves, our maker and our planet to hopefully live a long and happy life. Well, as I said, no amount of wrongs will ever make it right, and nothing and nobody will ever be able to make me take gun in hand and kill another human being for any reason under any circumstances.

Yours truly,
Terri Warnock
South Fork, Colorado

Editor's note: In response to the above letter I must say that I love peace as much as the next person. Part of the freedom that I feel in this country is the chance for a peaceful life at most times.

I am a student and teacher of Tae Kwon Do, a Korean form of Karate. I do this so that I can be peaceful. I practice the kwon do every day and yet I feel that I am a peaceful man. It is my life style to not push people around. To not take their freedoms away. But I maintain a strong defense to insure my freedom.

You stated that "there surely must be some other way for countries to settle their political differences outside of war."

The problem with that statement is that I believe that there are other ways, and you believe that there are other ways, but neither of us are in charge in Russia. The U.S. sometimes is not much better. Remember we have the IRS. In both countries intimidation is the order of the day. In the U.S. though, some of the government intrusion is stopped by our freedom.

As long as the U.S., China, Russia, India, Pakistan, and a myriad of other countries are worrying about making Atom bombs, I can't believe that we are rational beings.

Actually the lesser animals could do much to teach us a lesson in living. You see they usually only kill for a reason. We, on the other hand, kill sometimes for no reason.

You and the rest of the people your age will reap what they have sown. If you can convince the right people in all of the countries that war is wrong, then there will be no more war.

But if there is just one country in the world that does not believe in peace. If there is just one dictator somewhere in the world that believes in war. Then all of the rational peace thoughts in the world can't put humpty dumpty together again.

And as the mad man charges at you with murder in his eyes, you must make the choice to die or to kill. We each must make that choice.

I do not care a bit for Afghanistan. I care for the USA. The Russians are killing innocent people right now in Afghanistan. They must enjoy it because they are doing what they want to do. I see the threat to our peaceful life. Do you?—Mike Swickard-Editor

The other day, (Friday) at the coffee shop an odd thing happened. It was lunch time when District Judge George Zimmerman happened to look out the restaurant window and saw about 15 dogs in a pack trying to kill a mature cow nearby the restaurant.

Judge Zimmerman pointed this out to Lincoln County Sheriff's Deputies McSwane and Hansenbuhler. The two officers drove the dogs away with rifle fire, killing between 4 and 8 dogs. Probably wounding several more. Some youngsters probably wondered by Spot came home with a bullet wound, or not at all.

It is because Spot was caught running in a pack. It was because Spot was allowed to run loose.

This is not second hand information, I was with McSwane and Hansenbuhler at lunch. I recognized several of dogs as pets. But they were still part of the pack that was trying to kill the cow.

The owners of dogs see their pets as harmless. The cow last Friday did not see things that way.

There has been several instances of dogs being shot by officers lately. And the owners of the dogs usually blame everyone but themselves.

Last year in Carrizozo a school child was bitten by a dog in a pack while on the way to school. In Arizona a child lost her life to a pack of dogs. We must protect ourselves. MS

People tend to dump their dogs and their kids on the community to run loose. And then these same people wonder why their dogs and kids get in trouble. . .

I am not saying we should shoot kids, I would just as soon not shoot dogs. We ought to shoot the owners and parents.

It should be noted that what a dog in a pack would do, the same dog might not do by itself.

We know who is at fault when kids and dogs do wrong things don't we? MS

Municipal Election Results

The Municipal elections in Carrizozo found that the voters preferred most of the incumbents.

Joe Orsak and Mannie Hernandez were returned to the council. Orsak faced a write-in campaign that got 57 votes for Les Olson. Olson got 13 other votes in the wrong races, but even if all votes were in the right race, Orsak got 156 votes.

Hernandez received 183 votes to Sonny Banning's 114.

Ruben Zamora will take the place of Phillip Ortiz as Zamora was running unopposed for the position.

In Capitan, David Cummins received 152 votes and Margarito Trujillo received 97 votes. Those two are the new members of the council.

Also running in the race were Norman Renfro with 77 votes and Tom Sullivan with 62 votes.

In the Municipal Judge Race, Alfred Montes won the post with 123 votes to 78 for Marguerite Johnson.

BLM Proposes Land Realignment

Federal public lands in the western one-fourth of Lincoln County will be switched to the control of the U.S. Bureau of Land Management's Roswell district office, under recently proposed boundary changes. The western Lincoln lands are now administered by the BLM's Las Cruces district office.

The BLM is proposing to realign district boundaries along county lines throughout New Mexico. Officials of the federal agency said the new boundaries will be more easily recognized by the public than the present irregular patterns and will make resource management more efficient.

The new boundaries will also help the BLM work more closely with local and county governments, the officials said, and will simplify planning, because most planning information is now collected on a county basis.

Under the proposal, the BLM's Roswell district will include all of Lincoln, Guadalupe, Quay, DeBaca, Curry, Roosevelt, Chaves, Eddy and Lea counties.

The City Employees and the State Park employees transferred the big pine trees from in front of the museum to the park. The museum can be seen much better and the trees will have more room to grow. They had such a good start as they have been there since they were very small.

We do thank you for making that transfer.

The fifth grade from Capitan visited the museum Monday and they enjoyed it and we enjoyed having them.

The Corona girls basketball team came into existence in the early seventies. It began with Coach Joentea Creighton and has been an active part of Corona High School's athletic program ever since. In the 1974-75 season, coached by Betty O'Dell and Joyn Whitley, there were five seventh graders and a seventh grade manager. Those six girls are now seniors though two have moved away. Cheri Carnell moved to Fort Sumner after her seventh grade year and is playing for the Vikings; Roby McDaniel has been attending Carrizozo High for the last two years. The three remaining, Teresita Stewart, Jeanne Erramoupe, and Kendra Bartlett are still in Corona, as is that manager, Jackie Merritt. Many girls have been added and some no longer play, but this little group has stayed with it. These girls moved on the eighth grade to be coached by Mike Graham. Involved that year were Jeanne, Teri, Kendra, Roby and Rene Nalda. Their freshman year, they were coached by Brahim Hindi, who would stay with them for two more years. They lost Kendra and Roby but gained Karen Gensler, Mary Root, and Jackie became a player that year. It was also this year that Teresita won the award for Freshman Best Hustle, and Jeanne the award for Freshman Best Defense. The season of 77-78 with Coach Hindi, saw the loss of Rene but the gain of Arretta Armstrong and four eighth graders Cammy McConnell, Yvonne Alirez, Marilyn Reynolds, and Kathy Knipps. This season the girls had a record of twelve wins and ten losses, winning second in the Smokey Bear Tournament, 2nd in Region B. At the Smokey Bear, Jackie won the free-throw contest and made the All-Tournament team. The next year Arretta, Mary, Kathy, and Marilyn left the team but Kendra returned and two new girls joined the team, Zandra, a junior and Sara Wetzel, a sophomore. Also, three eighth graders, Tonya Tubbs, Becky Alirez, and Kelly Nelson and five seventh graders, Donna James, Becky Washburn, Shelley Stowe, Beverly Sanchez, and Cindy Burkes. The record was ten wins and twelve losses, again second in District but fourth in Regional.

Now the original group of girls are playing their last year of basketball. They have a new coach, Mrs. Connie Perez assisted by her husband Michael. Connie played basketball in high school, two years at Eastern and two years at New Mexico State, her last year as captain of the team. Kendra and Karen no longer play, Jeanne, Jackie, Teresita, and Zandra are the only seniors. Tonya, Kelly, Beverly and Cindy do not play anymore either. There are two Juniors, Sara, and Jerrle White who is playing her first year for Corona. There are three sophomores, Cammy, Yvonne, and a new girl from Fort Sumner, also playing her first year for Corona, Margaret Bliznak; two freshmen, Becky Alirez and Sherry Winchester; three returning eighth graders, Donna James, Becky Washburn, and Shelly Stowe. Our newest member to the basketball team is our one seventh grader, Sabra Sultemeier.

The Woman's Club sponsored Mother's March, headed by Mary Spencer collected $518.00. Other volunteers were Linda Gibson, Bobbie LaMay, Lynn Miller, Mary Ellen Payne, Slater Gall Stackpole, Sue Stearns, Barbara Langley, Rosemary Shafter, Susan Wells and club president, Donna Nelson.

Allen Lindamood spent the weekend in Alamogordo with friend Marge Bodwell. They attended the Pro-Family Conference, Saturday March 1. Registration was conducted at the New Mexico School for the Visually Handicapped.

Two Albuquerque speakers talked on abortion issues; Dr. Terry Scallen, UNM Medical School, and Stan Hatch, attorney. In charge of the presentation was the New Mexico

Right to Life Committee. Filmore Criss, retired scientist, of Los Alamos was the speaker for "Humanism and Biblical Christianity: Two Worlds in Mortal Conflict."

The conference participants lunched at the Desert Aire Motor Hotel. After lunch conference business included a program, The White House Conference on Families: "What You Should Know," by Wilma Leftwich from Broken Arrow, Okla. The day long Pro-Family Conference concluded with an evening presentation "The American Family," by Phyllis Sciffly at Alamogordo High School.

Carrizozo boxing fans who anticipated more wins from their local boxing team will be disappointed that the Golden Glove trip this past weekend did not work out as planned. It was after they weighed in that they discovered that the people in charge of the event did not have their act together. They returned to Carrizozo and boxing coach Nat Chavez wrote a letter to the Golden Glove Committee in care of Roswell Record's editor Jack Swickard. The letter in part read as follows:

"I have been taking young boxers to Roswell for several years, both for the Golden Gloves and to the one-nighters. I did not plan to take any this year because my boys did not meet the age limit. I received release forms and was advised by phone that there was no longer an age limit."

"My boys practiced all the harder, in anticipation of fighting in the Golden Gloves. Upon arriving at the Poe Corn Center, my boys were weighed in. There was no mention of the age limit. When time came to match up the boxers for the fighting, I was informed that the age limit still existed. We were offered the chance to fight exhibitions with no chances for trophy or advancement to State. My boys were so let down that I refused to put them in the ring. If we would have been advised from the beginning, we would have stayed and done our best."

"Ours was a trip for nothing as far as we are concerned. We lost the day as well as our meager funds, as we are self-supporting. (Local merchants have on occasion contributed for the trophies.) We do not have funding from anywhere except what we raise by holding matches here in Carrizozo. I sincerely hope that the Golden Gloves Committee will in the future make their decisions known by mail and then stand by their decisions. It is very disheartening for these young boys, when they train so hard, to make the trip and then find out they cannot fight."

March 8, Saturday the Santa Rita parish hall will feature a rummage sale, sponsored by the church's Clothing Room and the Ladies Quilting group. Arts and crafts made by the students at New Horizons Developmental Center will also be available. People who can help set for the event are asked to come Thursday and Friday at 10:00 a.m.

Melody Heffer participated in the drawing last week at Beulah's Shop. Beth Hightower was the winner of a blue towel rack owl. The shop will feature a raffle each month, with a winner announced at the end of the month. No purchase necessary to sign up. Beulah's Shop nears its first anniversary this month. To help her celebrate the occasion her sister, Cleo Hasten will come from Kermit, Texas to conduct a 2-day course in oil painting. Her work is presently on exhibition at the shop.

The Catholic Youth Council is presenting a movie, "Right to Believe," this Saturday, March 8 at 8:00 p.m. The story is about religious freedom in America, from the time of the pilgrims' quest, the Puritans, the Quakers, Catholics and others. It spans the time period of the American Revolution and Civil War to present day court decisions and new attitudes towards religion today. Admission of a dollar covers film costs. Everyone welcome.

The Federal Government has taken a population census every 10 years in the years ending in "0" since 1790, when George Washington was president. It is the duty of every person to participate in the census by answering all questions in the census applying to him or her and the family to which he or she belongs, and to the home being occupied. Personal census information is kept strictly confidential by law.

A temporary work force of approximately 270,000 persons must be hired in the U.S. to check the returned questionnaires for completeness, carry out door-to-door interviews when necessary and handle office tasks. Some 1.3 million people are expected to be screened and tested during the hiring process.

Nat Chavez and sons Raphael, Michael and Gabriel stopped to visit cousin Lorina Lara in Roswell last Friday. They were there with fellow boxers following the weigh-ins at Poe Corn Center.

Another local resident who was deliver by Dr. Shaver was Gift Gallery owner, Roy Dow. Footnote to last week's story on Dr. Shaver: Shaver graduated from Barnes' Medical College at St. Louis, Missouri with a class of 109 in the year 1900. He began practice of medicine that year at Warm Springs. The "medico" had many a tussle with contagious disease epidemics in his career.

Live coverage of court proceedings by electronic media and use of still cameras in the courtroom will be permitted as a one-year experiment in Iowa, according to a story in "Shop Talk," a publication of the New Mexico Press Association. The move represents a radical departure from current practice. Under a 1937 Canon of Judicial Conduct, photographers and broadcasters have been barred from all but ceremonial court functions.

In January, Robert Doughty, Twelfth Judicial District Judge allowed me to photograph the process of selecting the jurors. It was an educational experience to watch Doughty and Margo Lindsay, District Court Clerk select 38 jurors for Panel I, 38 for Panel II and 25 for magistrate jury. Magistrate judge in Lincoln County are James Wheeler, Ruidoso; Alfred Montes, Capitan and S.A. Ortiz, Carrizozo.

Photographs were taken as prospective jurors were selected, (some excused) and sworn in. The jurors were selected for January through June court duty. Jurors are selected from the roll of registered voters. Serving on the jury is an educational and informative duty. If called for a period of jury service, nobody serves all the time.

INSIDE THE CAPITAL

by Fred McCaffrey

SANTA FE-If you intend to run for Congress this year, or for any of the few statewide offices up for grabs, your declaration of candidacy must be filed with the Secretary of State by March 4.

(If you are serious in your desire to run against Manuel Lujan or Harold Runnels, the state should, in charity, provide you with an examination to determine your mental competency.)

COME BACK, LITTLE SHEBA: With the Legislature barely home, the Governor is making slightly hesitant noises about calling all members back again.

His view at present is that we may need a special session to take care of some things which didn't get done, or if done, didn't get done right. The very fact that there are such things in a commentary on what a loose and disorganized session this was.

Somewhere between Wednesday of last week, when Governor King and the Cabinet were falling all over one another with congratulations on what a sterling session it had been, and Friday, when he held his press conference, the Governor seems to have developed some doubts.

Legislators, it turns out, "forgot" to vote on expansion of the medium-security prison at Los Lunas by 192 beds and to raise prison guards' salaries and give them hazardous duty pay. That's the kind of thing which happens when you rush legislation through too fast, as many people warned the administration at the time.

What's more, the Governor also evidently feels the property tax reduction bill which was passed is not a model of anything good. He may in fact veto it, when it finally comes to his desk (which will probably not be much before March 5, last day for signing bills he approves of). If he does kill the measure, he may do so with the intention of making legislators trek back to Santa Fe sometime in the Spring.

(Cost of a special session, as a result of these failures on the part of the lawmakers, would be about $300,000 for five days.)

PROBLEMS: Some explanation for the kind of problems mentioned above may be found in the fact that John Mershon, head of Appropriations and Finance, the House's most important committee, seemed strangely abstracted and harassed most of the session. Some believe he was distracted by efforts to hold together that strange mix of Republicans and Democrats from the southern part of the state which now has control of the House. If so, that's too bad. Mershon's post is so important he should have been relieved of all other worries - and given a lot of top-level help to boot. That apparently didn't happen, and some of us felt he let his committee get away from him in the last two weeks of the session.

OTHER PROBLEMS: If Mershon had trouble, it was as nothing compared to Colin McMillan's Taxation and Revenue Committee, which was never in control of anyone from the first day.

Those lobbying for higher interest rates almost tore it again this year (as they did so disastrously in 1970). By trying to rewrite a key bill on the subject without first checking with the Governor.

Even the big industrial lobbyists who were tracking severance tax bills were riding off in all directions.

A session which can only be called mediocre to disastrous.

SANTA FE-That property tax reduction bill the Legislature passed created more stir than any single bill has done in a month of Sundays.

Conservatives, especially those in the House who plan to run for re-election, wanted the bill signed just the way it is and Gene Samberson, House Speaker, fought an unusual fight with the Governor to get it signed. At one point, the Speaker was keeping the bill in his own hands, down in Lovington, rather than sign it and send it up to Santa Fe, where he thought Roberto Mondragon, acting governor for a few days, might just veto it.

Even oldtimers up here can't remember a Speaker trying to pull that move at any time in recent years. Commentators called Samberson's actions petulant and childish-but they admit the man is certainly determined.

DUCK HUNTING: If you sometimes feel that candidates for statewide office are unwise in the way they fawn on the voters of Bernalillo county, figures from the Secretary of State's office show why that goes on. As of February 1, that county had 33.4 per cent of all the state's voters. For Republicans, the total is even higher: 39 per cent of them live there, to 29 per cent of Democrats registered to vote.

It takes the seven next largest counties-Dona Ana, Santa Fe, San Juan, Chaves, Valencia, Eddy and Lea-all in a bundle to get as many votes as the big county puts out.

ROAD REPAIRS: If you're tired of busting your car's shocks in our state's horrendous potholes, you should be glad to hear how well the Highway Department came off with this year's Legislature. Fred O'Cheskey's roadbuilders.

got about an additional $7 million a year in increased taxes on the trucking industry (a 40 per cent increase in the weight-distance tax, a 30 per cent increase in the trip tax and a jump in fees for overweight and oversize trucks).

It looks like they should get another $20 million or so each year because the Legislature ordered some changes in accounting methods. From now on, the road agency gets all the excise tax from new-car purchases, instead on only a quarter of it. They also get all the money in the road fund every year, including the part that used to go to support the Motor Transportation Division. And from now on they get to keep the interest off road fund money, which up till now has been going to the general fund.

Now we will wait to see how much better our roads get as a result of the Legislature's generosity.

Old Lincoln Town

Recently Altina Proctor entertained the varsity girl's basketball team at my home - It was such a pleasure to have them.

They enjoyed playing games - exploring the place and just plain having fun together. One of the high lights was a cake decorated by Martha Proctor who is really a pro at decorating cakes, it was a Tiger, really a work of art.

Several of the girls are seniors but maybe they can come back to see us while in college or from where ever they may be.

Rick Phillips from Ft. Bliss and John Ty Werner spent last week-end in Roswell and around here, Kirk Phillips will be assigned to Ft. Bliss when he graduates from West Point in May by his request.

March is acting according to it's tradition - winds, at least around here - now we hope for April showers.

Mr. and Mrs. R.B. Zumwalt who been living in Roswell for some time are in the process of moving back to Hondo, where they were before going to Roswell.

I know their many friends in this area will be very happy to have them back.

BOOKKEEPING: People shouldn't get worried because the lawmakers this year appropriated more money than revenues are projected to be next fiscal year.

Those revenue projections are, by and large, a snare and a delusion. Our administrators always estimate them way too low, so they can ooh and ahh all the next year about how much more money they're collecting than we thought they were going to.

Here's how it works. Last year the Department of Finance and Administration said this year's take would be up by 12.4 per cent. The fact is that it is now 44 per cent higher than projection expected it to be, with the year not even finished yet.

It's not the state's going broke that you need to worry about - it's the individual taxpayer.

The day of municipal elections in Carrizozo found this registered voter perplexed as she walked to the polls to vote. Where were the posters on the telephone poles? The handouts at car windshields and screen doors? What happened to good ol' fashion door-to-door campaigning? Who was I going to vote for?

Most of all I missed, over the second cup of coffee, the political ads from ZoZo 'politicos' in the Lincoln County News trying to convince me to vote for them. Not one trustee candidate tried to persuade me directly or indirectly that they would be great for the town as a first timer or for reelection. A politician defines issues. Police protection. Dogs at large. Municipal court. Smoking. Mayors. Politicians. Women reporters.

I was tempted to write-in Zachary for town trustee. He will support a tricycle trail, add colorful trash cans to Spencer and Spider parks and build a toddler pool to the town's present swimming facilities. Besides, the $10.00 paid a trustee will buy lollipops.

Carrizozo Grizzly School News

On Friday, February 29, the 4th grade classes of Mrs. Hightower and Mrs. Pafford presented the Campbell labels they had collected for the New Horizon school students. All the elementary students at Carrizozo participated in the collection drive that was held in conjunction with the 4th graders Valentine Post Office.

At last count there were 865 labels collected by Carrizozo public school students. During the presentation 4th grader John Saucedo gave a speech expressing how much the 4th grade classes enjoyed helping on this drive to get a projection for the NH center. Presenting the labels were Colin Ford and Claudia Lopez. Receiving the labels on behalf of NH was Roy Rideoute.

The fourth graders would like to thank all who contributed labels to their drive for NH. The encourage everyone to continue to send them labels. They have started a collection for next year.

The following is an account by student Cris Hill about a Home Ec II class presentation regarding a family institution - Marriage:

AND THEY LIVED HAPPILY EVER AFTER???
We all know the story of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs... You know, where the wicked witch gives Snow White a poisonous apple and she dies and the handsome prince kisses her and she wakes up and they ride off into the blue horizon to the castle in the sky to live happily ever after. (Whew!) The second period Home Ec II class consisting of Jaylen Vega, Kathy Pacheco, Cynthia Morales, Sandy Beltran, Kim Vallejos, Brigitte Sandoval, Debbie Gallacher, Elaine Castrell, Crista Bell Hill and taught by Mrs. Emma Lawson decided they wanted to show Carrizozo High School just how happily Snow White and her Prince did live after they got married.

The play was put on during Prime Time from 8:30 to 8:50 a.m. The cast consisted of the seven dwarfs, a doctor, a baby-sitter, several relatives, a boy aged four, his sister aged two, and their mother and father, appropriately re-named Jane and John for the roles they were to play in every day life.

Hard times as well as good were shown by the young married couple as they traveled down the sometimes rough road of marriage. Their older child came down with pneumonia. Jane complained of too much housework and not enough of her husband, and relatives frequently complicated matters by insisting that each partner do things their way. Good times often accompanied the bad ones, however, and scenes of wedded bliss were also portrayed.

The main objective of the play was to show that marriage isn't just a happily-ever-after affair. It takes hard work and lots of cooperation on the parts of both married partners.

Student Council president Arthur Vega says that plans are underway for an end of March 'Spring Fling.' Each class or organization will conduct week-long activities, ending with a Friday night dance. The Student Council will put to use ideas that members Tawnya Caster and Kathy Hemphill learned at the New Mexico Association of Student Council which met in Deming recently for its annual convention. More than 600 representatives from various schools attended the two-day event. The students attended seminars and meetings conducted by fellow student leaders. The N.M. students went to the convention not only to elect new officers but to decide on a state project-raising money for the New Mexico Boy's Ranch. This year's project to raise money for fighting multiple sclerosis brought in several thousand dollars for the cause.

Johnny Bob Stearns, FFA public relations man reports the following: The Carrizozo FFA Chapter would like to thank everyone who sponsored us during National FFA Week, Feb. 16 through 23. We are very grateful to everyone for supporting our chapter.

Members who went: Joe Curtiss, John and Robert Hemphill, Kim Payne, Mona Payne, Philip and Stephen Payne, Johnny Bob Stearns, Moises Sambrano, and Curtiss Zumwalt. Our next contest will be in T or C on the 22nd of March.

Undeclared in both volleyball & basketball...

Zozo Jr. High Perfect so Far!

"I can't say enough about them," said basketball coach Veda Stephenson of the 7th and 8th grade girl Grizzlies. The Jr. High girls, undefeated in both the volleyball and basketball season, anxiously awaited the start of track season this week in Carrizozo.

With obvious pride, Coach Stephenson recalled each of the eight winning team's basketball games.

The first game of the season in 1979 on Grizzly territory, against White Mountain School of Ruidoso gave the girls their first taste of victory. Christetta Chavez was high point individual, scoring 8 points. Pammy Beltran came in second with 6 points. The final score was 23-15.

From this home game the young Grizzly girls went on to seven consecutive wins, with Beltran playing point on offense all season. In their game against Hondo they won in the last 6 seconds of play. Stacy Stephenson scored a 30 foot shot to cinch the game 20-22. In this game against the Eagles, Beltran scored 16 points, and Stephenson seconded with 6.

"Super defensive," said the girls' coach of their third game of the season, again with Ruidoso. About this time the team started to display their defensive talents. "This is what won this game, 25-18."

"We kept getting better as the season went along," Stephenson said remembering their second victory over Hondo. Their fourth game netted them 34-13.

It is common knowledge that the rivalry between the Grizzlies and the Capitan Tigers make all grade level game competition tension-filled. The toughest game of the Jr. High season was against Capitan. The Zozo girls won 21-20.

In their game against Tularosa, the Zozo team, "Beat them badly," despite the fact that they were "out-manned" by height and size. The Tullie team who were bigger and appeared stronger lost to the Grizzlies, 23-11.

Two separate 1980 games against Corona gave the Jr. High girls their final victories, 32-18 and 28-16. The last game being where the younger girls, the 7th graders received a lot of experience on the court, and outlet player Beltran netted the most points in one game - 16.

"Super ball handler," says Stephenson of Beltran, the team's outlet player, an important position. High points were tallied for her in the games due to her fast breaks and easy lay-ups. "She has a lot of poise for a young girl," said the lady coach.

Mary Jane Ferguson and Annette Hill were among the high point individuals with Beltran leading in the last seven Jr. High games. Points for the rest of the players were equally divided for different games.

All her girls, "Hang tough," said Stephenson of her team. They play as a team, not as individuals. "This is what makes a winning ball player. This is our secret," she added.

She did not fail to mention their "top notch manager," Donna Shepperd who contributed to the success of the team. Shepperd who was a player last year, did not play this year because of a physical problem, but she was invaluable as the team's manager.

Fellow teacher and coach, Jerry Peckinpah, who was in the teacher's lounge at the time of this interview, said that the successful sport seasons (volleyball and basketball) could not have happened without Stephenson's coaching capabilities and her support of the team. Over her protests, Peckinpah stressed that credit should be given Stephenson's coaching. He commented on the work of the outstanding players.

Coach Stephenson continued to compliment the Jr. High girls on their attitude, good sportsmanship and willingness to win. "God gifted us to some pretty good talent," she said of the young ball players. She sees them as the future State team in three years.

by donna caubarreaux

Sounds impossible? Well, smart shoppers are doing it every day through refunding. By combining cents-off coupons on their purchases at the supermarket and then sending in boxtops and labels to the companies, they can save up to 50 percent on their grocery bill and can even get the full refund purchase price back from some offers!

Here is a sample offer. Listerine wants you to send in two universal product codes (that is the small section where all the little lines are grouped for electronic registers) for a free bottle of the product, if you send in a penny, they will send you two bottles free. So you buy two bottles and when you do use cents-off coupons to make you purchases. The items cost $2.64, you cut that price by $1.50 with two 75 cent coupons, so the total cost is $1.14. It will cost you 15 cents to mail in the offer and another 1 cent to take advantage of the extra free bottle, so the total cost is $1.30. You mail in the offer and receive two free bottles, if you had to buy them they would cost you the original $2.64. So you have the use of four bottles of the product for only $1.30 which is a 75 percent savings to you!

Many products have offers like this out, in fact, every major and many minor manufacturers of food items have refund offers out at one time or another. They want you to purchase their product in the hopes that you will switch from the brand you are now using to theirs. So jump on the bandwagon and try your hand at slashing your food costs.

For a sample refund bulletin that lists several hundred refund offers, send $1. to Shopper's Bonus, P.O. Box 109-SS, Marksville, LA 71353. For a free listing of over forty refund bulletins, send a long self-addressed stamped envelope to the same address.
