The Kid Escapes - 4 Times

"Depending on which book you read, Billy the Kid was a bad hombre or a good friend," Betty Shrecengost says of William H. Bonney.

The Kid's real name was Henry McCarty and he came to Lincoln County using the name, Bonney. Englishman rancher, John Henry Tunstall befriended the Kid and gave him a job. Tunstall was killed in the Lincoln County cattle war.

The effect of the death on the Kid, resulted in a series of events that led to the Kid's reputation as an outlaw and his historical incarceration at Lincoln's old court house, which included a jail. Two months after the Kid's escape, Lincoln County Sheriff Pat Garrett found Billy near Fort Stanton and killed him.

"He was just a drifting kid looking for a job, a cowboy job," said Shrecengost of the infamous young man.

Although there were many young men at this time in history with outlaw characteristics, Shrecengost said the "dime novels" picked him up and kept his story alive. "Well liked by Mexican people, the Kid was a 'bit of a Robin Hood'."

The life of the Kid during a frontier feud, the Lincoln County cattle war, is re-lived in the 40th annual Billy Kid pageant in the village of Lincoln this coming weekend, August 1-2-3. The play is performed in an outdoor arena next to the courthouse museum. The actors and actresses pantomime their parts. The voices come from off stage.

Betty Shrecengost's family has been participating in the folk play for many years. Her husband, Bill is the Kid's voice. Their son, Burt and daughter, Susie have pageant parts. Like her husband, Shrecengost is a voice in the play. Their oldest son, Bill has played the part of Billy the Kid for 12 years.

Young Bill Shrecengost who has played the Kid since he was 15 years old is a rancher and farmer. This is the second year that his wife, Diane has been the pageant's director. She is also chairman of the arts and crafts portion of the Old Lincoln Days celebration. They have 2 sons, John, 1 1/2 and Thomas 4, who this year is cast as a child in the pageant. Bill, Diane and their sons live in Rancho Torrez also known as "Busy Bee" located five miles from Lincoln.

Bill said that he "thinks" he's 25 years old and that his mother Betty has been involved for 100 years in the Old Lincoln Days activities. Bill has a great sense of humor and if the real Billy the Kid had his personality, historians who portray the Kid only in a bad light, should be "horse-whipped." (A word picked up from the play's main actor.)

The two Shrecengost families join forces with other Lincoln County families and individuals each year to present the re-enactment of the Kid's 1881 escape from the Lincoln County Courthouse. The Coleman family of Capitan is among the many families who participate in the play, which originated in 1940.

Shrecengost said the play is possible because of the cooperation of many people, all volunteers. The name of the game is; Everybody wants it to go and they do their best.

This year's 40th annual pageant is dedicated to the memory of Leroy McKnight who lived in Glencoe. He was one of the play's best supporters. McKnight was known for his portrayal of "old man Goes" in the Lincoln Town play.

Dave Parks of Ruidoso is the play's narrator. This is the 31st year for cast member Don Storm of Glencoe.

"Everyone ought to have recognition but there never is space to recognize everybody for their diligent help."

Rehearsals started two weeks ago. The Lincoln County residents and others have donated many hours, to make this year's pageant one of the best. Young Bill who plays the Kid said that here there is a lot of new talent this year.

Four performances of the re-enactment of Billy the Kid's escape are scheduled for the 3-day Old Lincoln Days event - Friday, August 1, at 8:30 p.m.; Saturday, August 2, 8:30 p.m.; and two on Sunday, 3:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

Besides the pageant, Old Lincoln Days also includes a Pony Express Race, a parade, a fiddler's contest, the arts and crafts fair and much more.

The Pony Express Race begins in White Oaks at 8:00 a.m. Saturday and ends two hours later in the west end of Lincoln. Sterling Spencer is the official time keeper. Three teams, including all-girl team are participating in the event. The White Oaks Historical Society will serve breakfast to riders & others. Lois Clements of Picacho is chairman of the Pony Express Race.

Letters which will signify the official Pony Express post mark, should be at the Carrizozo post office by 5:00 p.m., Thursday, July 31 along with 50 cents to cover costs of special mailing.

The fiddler's contest is at 1:30 p.m., Saturday and all fiddlers should register at the pageant grounds before competition begins. Lewis Purcella of Roswell is the chairman of the fiddler's contest.

The parade is set for 1:30 p.m. Sunday and begins at the east end of Lincoln. Anyone interested in entering the parade should contact Sue Graham of Lincoln.

A bar-be-qued spare rib luncheon will be served on the lawn of the Wortley Hotel. Lincoln visitors will patronize many food and soft drink booths.

Carrizozo Town Council--

Rec Center to Re-open

The Recreation Center is scheduled to open Friday, August 15 under the management of Bill Hasenbuhler. Last Monday, Morgan Maxwell who heads the Recreation Committee informed the Carrizozo town council during a special meeting that Hasenbuhler had been employed to manage the Rec Center.

The former Lincoln County Sheriff's Deputy plans to open the Center 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. daily. An off day will be determined when a slow day has been established, according to Hasenbuhler.

Already there is interest in a bowling leagues. Persons wishing to form leagues would contact former league secretaries in the event that Hasenbuhler is not available before the opening day of August 15.

Hasenbuhler's wife, Mary will assist him on the job. They plan to start snack bar operations. Hasenbuhler said after the special meeting, "We want to get the Rec Center open to all facets of recreation with the citizens of Carrizozo participating as much as possible in the facilities that was built for them."

He said that in addition to pool, ping pong and bowling, the Center will be made available for dancing, meeting or plain TV viewing. Fridays or Saturdays are tentative scheduled for teen dances. The town council and the Rec Committee hopes that the Center will bring in enough business to support itself.

The special town meeting was called by Mayor Hernandez "to find out exactly what the Rec Committee have found out," referring to the money situation the town found itself in after the withdrawal of Spencer monies in two months.

Maxwell told the council that many letters have been written to many state officials there is no money for golf course maintenance operations. Money for improvements may be available but not for operating. Morgan added that an application has been made with the Department of Natural Resources for aid in building a well. Golf course superintendent, Henry Vega said that they have been, "pumping dry everyday," the existing wells.

The last Spencer check is scheduled for September, after that golf course and greens fees and golf course shop items will remain the only income. Morgan said later that no golf-course is self-supporting, the deficits are too high.

Hernandez told the Recreation Committee that another reason he called the special meeting was to find out if the golf course can be operated with three maybe four employees. He has contacted the State Planning Office in Santa Fe for aid in paying wages at the golf course. He said CETA funds are available for salaries.

Vega said that he could run the place "with two employees, but it won't be in the condition it's in now," referring to its kept appearance. Presently he is maintaining the course with the help of five persons, including himself.

Vega said letter response from officials, including Governor Bruce King has not been favorable, but they promise "to look into it." Vega added that Citizens State banker Johnson Stearns has been writing a lot of letters in regard to the town's recreational complex and so has Scott Shafer, also from Citizens State Bank and president of the Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce.

Maxwell told the council that money "dribbling from different directions" would help. A "Lodger Tax" will be on the town's regular monthly meeting on August 11. This is an extra tax charged to tourists that stay in local motels. This money is turned to the town.

Another suggestion was charging a $2.00 per residence on water, sewer and garbage bills. Town Clerk, Christine Chavez said that she was informed that this is not legal. To "tack" $2.00 on the utility bill may require an election.

Ferguson, Payne, and Fenter

Dinner Held for Duchess

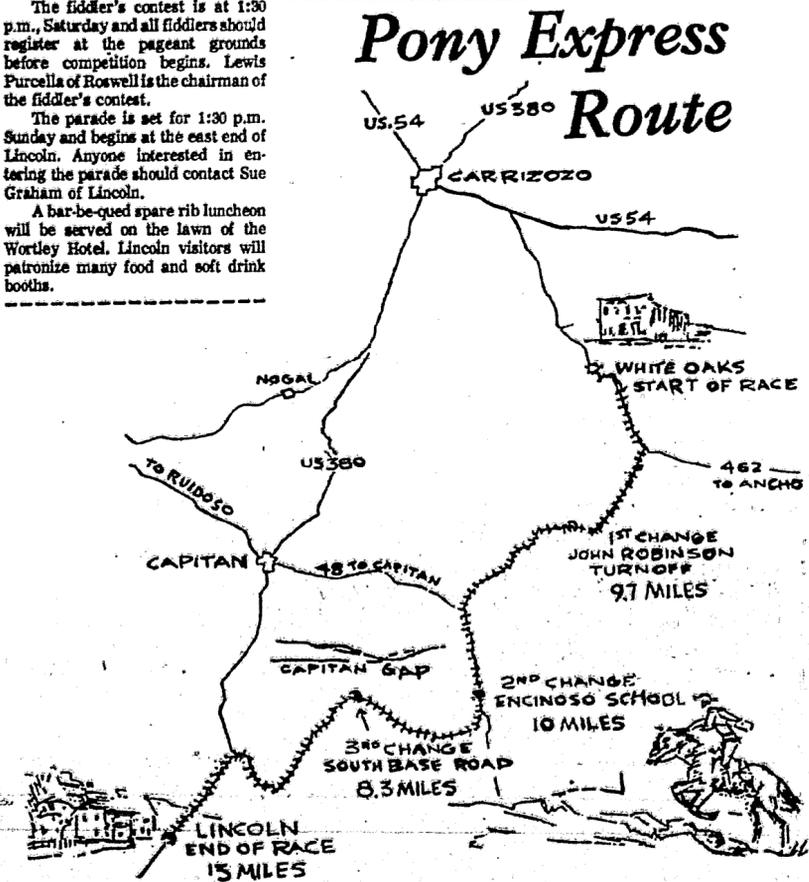

At a pot luck dinner last Sunday, heads to local civic clubs and businesses presented Miss Mona Payne, Carrizozo's 1980 Sun Duchess with contributions to help her represent the town in the Sun Carnival in El Paso. The Carrizozo Woman's Club sponsors a young lady for the annual celebration.

Woman's Club member, Barbara Langley chaired the Sun Duchess committee which organized Sunday's dinner. Mary Spencer, Laura Jones, Cheri Goad, Sue Stearns and the club's president, Mary Thorpe assisted Barbara in preparation for the dinner in honor of Mona.

Last year's Sun Duchess, Lisa Ferguson and Chris Fenter, 1974-75 Sun Duchess attended the dinner held at the Woman's Club building.

Mona will join participants from all over the southwest in parties, brunches and suppers in El Paso to meet other representatives and area dignitaries. The first event is the Western Party at Indian Cliffs Ranch on August 1. The coronation and ball is on December 30.

In addition to the Woman's Club others who gave contributions included Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club and Rotary Club. Merchants who donated were Citizens State Bank, Ruidoso State Bank, Belco Industries, Nickels Hardware, J.G. Moore Insurance Agency, Grocery Basket, Mal Pais Grocery, Johnnie's Outpost, Gift Gallery, Ellie Barber Shop and Sands Motel, Beulah's Gift Shop and Erma's Beauty Shop.

Early Immunizations Urged

New Mexico Health and Environment Department officials are urging all school age children in Lincoln County to get their required immunizations early to avoid last-minute crowds.

Hazel English, Public Health Nurse for the Health Services Division, said that the 1975 New Mexico Immunization Law requires all school-age children who are exempted, to have immunization protection against Diphtheria-Pertussis-Tetanus; Polio; Measles; and Rubella.

According to State Health Officials, children of New Mexico residents can get the required immunizations free at any local health office. The Lincoln County Health office is located at the Courthouse Annex in Carrizozo. Immunizations are available in Capitan (the first Wednesday of each month), Hondo (first Thursday of each month), Ruidoso (Second Monday of each month), Corona (Second Wednesday of each month) and Carrizozo (first Monday of each month and when the nurse is available).

Officials said children under 18 years must be accompanied by an adult to the health clinics. The parents also should bring past immunization records, if available, for their children.

For more information, parents are asked to call the health office or contact their private physician.

People's Market at Spencer Park

On August 10, 1980 the annual People's Market Place held in conjunction with the Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce and the Santa Rita Church will get under way at 10:00 a.m. and continue through the day till 6:00 p.m. at Spencer Park in Carrizozo, NM.

The People's Market Place gives the artisan the chance to exhibit his arts and crafts in an old fashioned atmosphere. All items are displayed outdoors in an open park, where the public can browse and purchase an item if they wish. There is also lots of games for everyone to participate in and plenty of good Mexican home cooked food.

This year there will be a new attraction to the People's Market Place. A traditional Square Dance Contest will take place at 1:30 p.m. The winning square will be awarded $100.00, second place will be $75.00, and third place will be $50.00.

Bring the family and enjoy a fulfilled day!

The Way it Really Works

"RED RIDING HOOD"

The following first appeared in the Christian Crusade and was later edited and re-run in L. Hunt's Life Line. A few minor edits were applied to this writing. The author is anonymous.

"Once upon a time, in a far away country, there lived a little girl called Little Red Riding Hood. One day her mother asked her to take a basket of fruit to her grandmother who had been ill and lived in a cottage in the forest.

"It happened that a wolf was lurking in the bushes and overheard the conversation. He decided to take a shortcut to the grandmother's house and get the goodies for himself. The wolf killed and ate the grandmother, then dressed in her nightgown and jumped into bed to await the little girl.

"When Little Red Riding Hood arrived, the wolf made several nasty suggestions and then tried to grab her. The frightened child ran screaming from the cottage.

"A woodcutter, working nearby, heard the girl's screams and rushed to her rescue. He killed the wolf with his axe, thereby saving Red Riding Hood's life. All the townspeople hurried to the scene and proclaimed the woodcutter a hero.

"But at the inquest, several facts emerged:

"1. The wolf had never been advised of his rights.

"2. The woodcutter had not made a warning swing before striking the fatal blow.

"3. The Civil Liberties Union stressed the point that, although the act of eating grandma may have been in bad taste, the wolf was only 'doing his thing' and couldn't be held accountable for doing what he 'felt' like doing, naturally.

"4. The Students for a Democratic Society contended that the killing of the grandmother should be considered self-defense since she was over thirty and therefore couldn't be taken seriously, because the wolf was really trying to make love and not war.

"5. The Environmental Protection Agency and the Conservation Department condemned the woodcutter for upsetting the ecological balance of the forest by eliminating the wolf without first filing an impact statement.

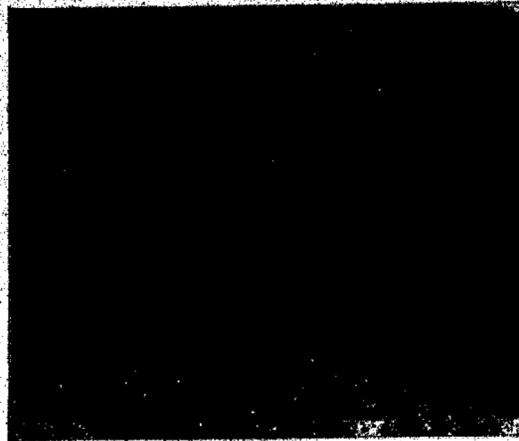

"6. A smart attorney pointed out that Red Riding Hood had not actually asked for the woodcutter's assistance and since the woodcutter did not, at the time, know of the grandmother's death and since the wolf had not yet caught and eaten Red Riding Hood, that he acted on supposition before a crime had been committed. It was agreed that if the wolf had been caught in the act of eating Little Red Riding Hood that the woodcutter would have been justified in killing him.

"On the basis of these considerations it was decided that there was no valid reason for accusing the wolf of a crime. Moreover, the woodcutter was indicted for unaggravated assault with a deadly weapon.

"Several nights later the woodcutter's cottage was burned to the ground.

"One year from the date of the incident at Grandma's, her cottage was made a shrine to the wolf who had bled and died there. All the village officials spoke at the dedication but it was Little Red Riding Hood who gave the most touching tribute. She said that while she had been selfishly grateful for the woodcutter's intervention, she realized, in retrospect, that he had overreacted. As she knelt and placed a wreath in honor of the brave wolf, there wasn't a dry eye in the whole forest.

Around Town & Surrounding Areas

Recent summer visitors in the Tony Gable ranch home included Texas relatives, Clay and Carolyn Gabel and sons George Cody and Lee of McLean and George Gabel and Holly of Dismitt.

Guests for two days and nights in the home of Golda and Dawna Ward were relatives from Oklahoma, Golda's sister Janita Swagerty and husband Jess, a nephew, Raymond Blake all of Muskogee and Golda's aunt Bertha Doris of Warner. While they were there, Golda and Dawna went sight seeing around Carrizozo's land marks and to the museum in Lincoln.

Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Salomon Sanchez, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baroz, Jr. and family and Liz Lueras went fishing at Bonito. The group enjoyed a picnic.

Donna Jo Harris of Elephant Butte spent several days in the home of friends, Bonnie Jo and Donna Sheperd. She traveled from Elephant Butte with her mother Donna and her mother's boyfriend, Charlie Sedillo of La Placita and Donna's grandmother, Donna Davis of Clovis, all who dropped off Donna at the Sheperd's and left for other parts. Bonnie Jo and Donna Sheperd are daughter of Bonnie Sheperd. For those that have kept count, a total of four "Donnas" and two "Bonnie's" were at the Sheperd home at one time last week.

College friends of Dale and Charri Goad were their visitors the weekend of July 19. They were James and Julie Cqburn from Victoria, Texas.

Dale's relatives were guests in the Goad home last weekend. The Noble, Oklahoma visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Don Cain, Mrs. Margie Byrd, Mrs. Teresa Walters and daughter, Jenny and Mrs. Fawn Goad, Dale's grandmother.

St. Louis, Missouri guests in the home of Sandy and Frank Baca, Sr. were Frank's uncle, and aunt and grandmother. They were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ardell and Bartolita Baca. They arrived last Thursday and left early Monday morning. While here they and the Baca family toured most of Lincoln County, in addition to traveling to Taos, Santa Fe and White Sands.

Josephine Sanchez of Vaughn was in the home of Fiance's, Frankie Baca, Jr. this past weekend to meet the St. Louis relatives.

Loyada Frobes is on a month's vacation to Ohio to visit relatives. This was Loyada's first commercial flight, a gift from her brothers and sisters on recent 78th birthday.

Farmer Lincoln County resident, Emil Sanchez was in Carrizozo to visit relatives. While here he showed niece Nena Ortiz and Polly Chavez an oil painting which he recently completed. The painting features the main house of the O-Bar-O Ranch, east of Carrizozo. Uncle Emil was a $90.00 a month ranch cook for the Kuddera during the "Great Depression". The O-Bar-O Ranch house built in 1929 brings back man food and not so fond memories of days gone by for Emil.

Emil recalled that he had recently returned from California when he took the O-Bar-O job. A show off in California swimming pools, he was embarrassed when he took a fancy dive into the Kuddera pool only to hit bottom.

An accomplished cook, Emil fed his special chili and beans with biscuits to 18 cowboys. An order of "Kill me another steer, we're out," was promptly filled. Round up time saw many cowboys wolf down his delicious flapjacks for breakfast.

An English husband and wife team served as the Kuddera's butler and cook. Emil chattered Mrs. Kuddera's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hicks into Carrizozo in a 1924 Packard.

Born in the Hondo Valley in 1904, a married Emil returned to Lincoln County from California to homestead in Ancho in 1927. Following the O-Bar-O position he traveled in a chuck wagon from camp to camp feeding cowboys at round up time for ranchers Jenkins.

Carolyn and Jim Cantrell spent this past weekend in Las Cruces visiting college friends.

Elnora Cantrell, Debbie Nejar, Christabell and Annet. Hill returned Sunday from a weeks stay at Pine Springs Camp, sponsored by the Church of Christ. The camp is located near Weed.

CAPITAN

Established 1977
Population 552 - Elevation 6,150
A little town, but not really small. It was founded in 1776 by Juan de Oñate. The site was relocated to its present location in 1891. It is known for its historic site of Smokey the Bear in the U.S. Forest Service's fire prevention program.

Monday July 21st. We had three tenths of an inch of rain in a very light shower and how we did enjoy and appreciate it and the coolness. But no more at all. Though around us there has been good rain showers. Ruidoso has enjoyed rain daily in many spots though it was not general there. The heat has been in sense. Water problems still are going on in our Village.

Over two thousand visitors visited The Smokey Bear Museum last week. 23 bus loads from Albuquerque visited airt Sunday. We are very proud to have all of those interested visitors. Smokey was the true Symbol of which all of us here do remember. He helps to remember to prevent Forest Fires. He almost lost his life in that fire in the Capitan Mountains but he did get well and went of Washington zoo and became The National Fire Prevention Symbol. I am happy that people everywhere realize what he stood for and desire to visit the Museum and the Park where he is laid at rest.

Evelyn Fored Avon District Manager of Roswell and her Husband Charlie who assists her held a sales meeting Friday July 25 at the Holiday Inn on the Ruidoso. As usual it was a good informative meeting. Those who attended were Margaret Rensch, Joan Means, Nola Kirby, Mary Prudencio, Shirley Romero, Susanne Hazel, Cora Sweeney, Pam Wilson, Drinda Lucero, Patti Malone and Diane Kanchi.

The Capitan 4-H Club and their family and sponsors held a picnic at South Fork on the Bonita last Saturday. A large crowd attended and enjoyed every minute there.

July 14-18 a week of enjoyment and happiness for those who attended the 4-H conference in Las Cruces will be long remembered. They attended a dance and other work shops. The breakfast for the Juniors and Seniors held on Tuesday and the banquet on Thursday night was truly enjoyed.

Those who attended that conference were: Barry Herd, Ricky Richardson, Mary Ellen Payne, Betty Joiner, Beth Bong, Tina and Tim Proctor, Troy Herd, Phillip Payne, Lisa Ferguson, Roxanne Gabel, Coretta Burchett, Debbie Gallagher, Joe Curtis, Clay Lightfoot, Renita Trujillo and Donna Joiner. Beth Long participated in Public Speaking. Renita and Debbie were in the Dress Reveal. Crops were Doretta, Troy, Tina and Todd. Horse judges were Joe Curtis, Todd Proctor & Tina Proctor.

Bessie Cummins entered the Ruidoso Hospital Tuesday July 22 very seriously ill. Please do send her cards of cheer. She needs our encouragement and visits.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Payne and three children attended the Ward and Laelle family reunion at the School House in White Oaks last Saturday and Sunday.

Eight of the eleven living children of the late Mr. and Mrs. H.A. White of Odessa, Texas held a family reunion at Bonito Orchard Park July 18-19 and 20th, with 83 members present. They were reared south of Roswell near Midway. This was their first reunion but they hope to meet again the last weekend of July 1981.

Those present were Leon and Ethel White and Versa Lee and Bill Pritchard of Roswell, Lionel and Sarah White of Ruidoso, Dale Sr. and Udell White of Roswell, Ruth and Jack Taylor of Odessa, Texas, Johnnie J. and Ruby White of Roswell, Betty Taylor Graham and Doris and Lee Fairbanks of Roswell, Kansas. Their children and grand children.

There was lots of string music and singing. All had a most wonderful time & are happy anticipating that next reunion.

The block and brick walls of the new High School Building are progressing nicely. It is very encouraging.

The La Rue property across the street have completed taking down half the Cabins and have cleaned up all of the debris.

BOXING COACH Joseph Jenkins puts two of his boxers through sparring session.

Twenty-six (26) Join Capitan Boxing Team

"You're not jabbing enough."
"Keep your guard up!"
"Throw a right in there once in a while!"

These are just some of instructions Capitan boxing coach, Joseph Jenkins tells his 26 boys.

The Capitan Chamber of Commerce donated $200.00 to the recently organized team. Donations were also given by residents of the village.

Jenkins 26, a former boxer trains his team on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays in the old school gym in Capitan.

Those evenings the old locker room comes alive with the active workout of the young Capitan boxers, ranging in ages of 8 to 15 years old.

They workout on the heavy bags & speed bag. They jump rope, they spar with one another. Jenkins and his assistant Coach Richardo Avina II, teach the team basic boxing principles, "lefts, rights, no fancy stuff," Jenkins adds.

The 26 boxing team members are kept busy by Jenkins and Avina. Legs around the Capitan football field is part of their training program. Says Jenkins, "We have a lot of raw talent, but with a couple of fights, we should have a good team." They plan to participate in a "smoker" in Carrizozo in the near future.

Boxing team members from Capitan are Clay LaRue, Ernest Trujillo, Ronnie Sanchez, David Sheer, Kirt Martin, Jarred Math, Dewey Keller, Olan Dale Booker, Chris Paralta, Anthony Sanchez, Andy Trujillo, Larry Griego, Luis Arty, Joe, Gary and Danny Lozano, Shane LaMay, Troy Keller, Michael Chavez, Scott Dye, Jim Parker, Mark Romero, Julian Romero, Fustino Gleason and Anthony Griego.

Jenkins has also been busy, rehearsing for his role as Alexander McSwain for this coming 3-day event, Old Lincoln Days. His wife Maria Morris also of Capitan will be a Capitan girl in the pageant.

Spicy Pepper-Upper for Grilled Chicken
It's generally agreed that most foods seem to taste better when eaten outdoors, and there's nothing like the aroma of herbs and spices to encourage appetites while food is grilling over the coals. This time it's coarse ground black pepper and oregano, adding a Greek accent to lemon marinated grilled chicken. And, if it rains, you can bring it indoors and stick it under the broiler.
PEPPERY GRILLED CHICKEN
3 pounds chicken parts
1/2 cup fresh lemon juice
1/4 cup salad oil
2 teaspoons coarse ground black pepper
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon oregano leaves, crushed
Place chicken on a rack over slow-burning coals, reserving marinade. Cook until cooked through, 30 to 45 minutes, turning and brushing often with reserved marinade. Or set broiler to 400° F. Arrange chicken on a rack in a broiler pan. Place under broiler, 6 inches from heat source. Broil until cooked through, about 35 minutes, turning and brushing often with reserved marinade. YIELD: 4 portions.

Brunch on a Budget
Balti Hai Chicken brightens brunch table economically.
Weekends are for relaxing with friends or family. No need to treat the bank or fass when you serve this truly Polynesian brunch entrée. It starts with Campbell's Chunky Chicken with Rice Soup. Just add imagination and serve.
BALTI HAI CHICKEN
1 can (16 ounces) unsweetened apricot halves
2 tablespoons cornstarch
2 cans (19 ounces each) Campbell's Chunky Chicken with Rice Soup
1/2 cup diagonally sliced green onions
1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg
1 package (about 7 ounces) frozen Chinese pea pods
1 medium banana, sliced (about 1/2 cup)
Chinese noodles
Drain apricots, reserving 1/2 cup juice; gradually blend in cornstarch until smooth. In saucepan, combine soup, onion, ginger, nuts and cornstarch mixture. Heat, stirring until thickened; bring to boil. Add apricots, pea pods and banana. Cover; cook over low heat 5 minutes or until pea pods are just tender. Serve over Chinese noodles. Makes about 6 cups, 4 servings.

WORCESTERED TOPPING FOR VEGETABLES
A delicious way to top up cooked vegetables is by topping them with buttery mixtures seasoned with original Worcestershire sauce. It's an oil-free seasoning that's easy to shake on tight from the bottle.
WORCESTERED PARMESAN BUTTER
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1 tablespoon grated Parmesan cheese
1 tablespoon original Worcestershire sauce
In a small saucepan melt butter. Stir in Parmesan cheese and Worcestershire sauce. Pour over cooked green vegetables such as broccoli, green beans, zucchini or spinach. YIELD: about 1/3 cup (enough for 4 to 6 portions of vegetables).
DEVILED VEGETABLE BUTTER
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup unseasoned dry bread crumbs
4 teaspoons original Worcestershire sauce
In a small saucepan melt butter. Stir in bread crumbs and Worcestershire sauce. Spoon over cooked green beans, carrots, zucchini, asparagus or broccoli. YIELD: 1/3 cup (enough for 4 to 6 portions of vegetables).
