Bill & Mary Hasenbuehler point out bowling leagues now forming.

Rec Center Opens

by Polly Chavez

"Cheeseburger, Cheeseburger!"
"Where do I join up for bowling?"
"Where's Bill?"
"Hold the onions."
"Do we tip a male waiter?"

All this talk is heard at the Rec Center's snack bar as Bill Hasenbuehler, the center's manager flips burger patties, dips French Fries into oil, serves, and asks an electrician for an estimate.

Local pharmacist Jack Magee asks Hasenbuehler if he enjoys cooking. Magee is having lunch.

"I'm having a ball!" replies Bill. Bill tells Magee that he plans to improve the quality of the hamburgers. Magee says that they are good enough already.

Choosy burger eaters (mayo, ketchup, etc.) will be pleased that Bill says, "We're going to make them anyway, as long as it is the customer's way."

Magee, of Family Pharmacy is looking forward to Rotary meetings at the Rec again and plans to do some evening bowling.

The snack bar also features sandwiches - ham, ham and cheese and grilled cheese. They have French Fries, pizza and a variety of drinks. All reasonably priced.

The Rec Center hours are 10:00 a.m. - 10:00 p.m. The snack bar closes at 9:00 p.m.

According to figures from the National Bowling Council nearly 84 million people bowl each year. Of these some 10 million bowl every week in leagues.

These figures make bowling the most popular all-year-round sport. According to the Council, bowlers break down into 20.3 million adult men, 19.7 million adult women and 23.7 million young people (under 18).

Carrizozo & surrounding area bowling enthusiasts agree that bowling is a great sport. They are eager to start the 1980-81 bowling season with an all-leagues meeting this Thursday, August 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the Center's main room.

The purpose of the meeting is to elect officers and establish rules and regulations. All men, women and children who want to start bowling in leagues the first week of September should attend the meeting.

People are already bowling individually or in groups from Carrizozo, Capitan, and Corona. New Horizons students come once a week.

The Rec Center bowling lanes were recently certified and were found to be the best kept. Bill conditions the lanes three times a week.

The center will hold a "back to school" dance this Friday evening, August 22 at 8:00 p.m. for school students.

The Rec offers activity for young and old. There is ping pong, foos ball, several pin ball machines and seven pool tables. How about a game of checkers or chess? They have that too.

Vending machines are available with all kinds of goodies. A television set is available for TV fans. Mary, Bill's wife assists him at the Rec; doing errands, dishes, desk work, and "anything Bill wants me to do."

The Hasenbuehlers have been living in Carrizozo 2 years. Bill is a former certified police officer, having last worked as a Lincoln County Sheriff's deputy. Prior to that he was a auto parts store manager. He has a back ground in bowling alley work. Bill and Mary have two children, Michelle age 3 and John, 6 who will be in first grade next week when school starts.

"... no easy solution"

Town Deals With Lack of Money

"There's no easy solution, I'm not here with a big bag of money, or; 'here is a way out of your dilemma'" Douglas E. Eury told a large group of Carrizozo residents. He was referring to the town's situation of trying to find funding for the golf course after Spencer donations cease next month-cold turkey style.

Eury, with the Heritage Conservation and Recreation Service of the U.S. Department of the Interior, spoke at an August 18 noon luncheon at the Four Winds to the Recreation Committee, representatives of business, civic groups and the town.

HCRS was created in 1978 to bring together a variety of programs designed to conserve the nation's cultural and natural resources and to assure adequate opportunities for recreation. It's recreation programs administer to the state side of the Land and Water Conservation Fund which provides matching grants-in-aid to state, local and U.S. territorial governments to support the planning, acquisition, and development of public outdoor recreation areas and facilities.

The HCRS man said that his service primarily funded construction new facilities or the acquisition of land.

Eury stressed that the town should look for more than one source of income for recreational compound operations. He said funds may be available through the Older Citizens Act or the State Parks.

"I'm here to look at your situation, see what you're doing and give concrete ideas." Eury told the interested residents that his department need a detailed picture of who they are serving and knowledge of different programs, showing that they serve people outside the community.

With this "pen and paper calculation" he can help them expand their thinking and direct them to funds available. He advised them to tap civic clubs, merchants and religious groups for help. He added that a tie-in with the local school district could be a possibility.

Morgan Maxwell, president of the Rec Committee, told the HCRS representative about the idea of leasing over the golf course to the county. Eury said the support of the people would get a tax or levy passed if the county agreed to take on the golf course. He said they should solicit the support of individuals, clubs and churches.

Johnson Stearns had available a list of towns and amount of play the golf course registered in the month of July. Carrizozo heads the list with 181 people using the greens; followed by 158 from Texas and 131 from Ruidoso.

Gault had a list of what he saw as problems. He began by saying that the town council had "vast perception" of the Carrizozo Development Committee and vice versa. He said that lack of council coordination hampered them. He said the town needs fiscal advice on financial management. A lack of political consensus and decision making plagues the town. The development coordinator said that most small towns have "political heat" problems. When it came to enforcing of ordinances, Gault said the council has "weak knees" and told the committee that they could help push and support the town on a clean-up campaign.

Gault mentioned the high rate of vandalism. He said outsiders would be discouraged with the town's "uneven enforcement laws."

He told the committee that they are overlooking development in areas that they already have - municipal airport, golf course and recreation center. Attracting industrial prospects is remote, "Unless you find another set of Cantrells with their own industry who will come to Carrizozo no matter what."

The economic evaluator let the committee know that industry is attracted by a strong town administration decent law enforcement and the atmosphere that residents project.

Coppedge then gave a brief summary of his findings beginning by repeating the need for town government, the need for expertise advise on

Stearns said; that the list doesn't include visitors to the picnic area, fishing lake, tennis and Little League park who come from all over the county and country. He suggested that the facility could be considered, "Lincoln County Park"

He told the luncheon goers that they need to go before the commissioners with their proposal on August 26 so that if it is accepted that it can be on this coming November ballot. If it passes it will be November 1981 before any money is available.

It is time that they stopped that line of thinking and work on making it on their own. The Recreational System. That is that the entire need of the three recreational facilities, the golf course, the recreation center, and the swimming pool can be taken care of for about $100,000 which was the Spencer gift.

The snack bar of the recreation center coupled with a large room next to it is ideal for dances, meetings, and dinners. The snack bar is serving delicious food. Both of the concept and directions are something that have not been done for a long time at the center. The food service program at the rec center can generate the needed revenue for the entire Recreation System if the Town Leaders will push their own independence instead of looking for another hand-out.

In the six days that the center has been open since it re-opened, it has made more money that it did in the entire month of December of last year. Obviously under the direction of Bill Hasenbuehler the system can and must work.

If the town leaders are successful in finding a hand-out for the next year, what about the next. The only solution is making the three parts paid for by themselves and the recreational system. We can make it without government assistance and I think it is better that we do. MS

The Carrizozo Recreation Center is open, and it sure is a nice place to go. They have a snack bar, pool tables, bowling, ping pong, pin ball and many other things of interest. The town officials have spent much time recently working on the problem of money. Mrs. Spencer's money is at an end and they are looking for another gift from someone.

It is time that they stopped that line of thinking and work on making it on their own. The Recreational System. That is that the entire need of the three recreational facilities, the golf course, the recreation center, and the swimming pool can be taken care of for about $100,000 which was the Spencer gift.

Town Council Discusses Carrizozo Golf Course

At the regular meeting of the town of Carrizozo, Johnson Stearns was present to suggest to the council of two trustees that the council deed over the golf course to the county of Lincoln. He said that the facility was utilized by people from outside of Carrizozo as well as locals.

Stearns also stated that a tax levy might have to be voted on which would be $1.00 per $1,000.00 assessed value of property.

The town council decided to have town attorney Bill Payne look into the legal aspects of Stearn's suggestion concerning the golf course and present the proposal to the county commissioners, who meet Aug. 26.

Stearns also suggested that the school take over the Rec Center and use the rooms available as classrooms. He was told that the school has been asked about this, but no definite answer has been received.

The Spencer donation which has been supporting Carrizozo's recreational compound for many years will end next month. The Recreation Committee, the town, private and public service representatives and civic clubs are now looking into all avenues for funding to keep the facilities operating.

The Rec Center is now under the management of Bill Hasenbuehler. With the snack bar and other activity at the Rec, the committee hope the facility becomes self-supporting. An official from Heritage Conservation and Recreation Service, out of Albuquerque was here August 18 to discuss with interested parties how their department could aid in "saving" the golf course.

In other business Trustee Zamora moved that the resignation of Orsak be accepted, Harmon seconded the motion. Richard Vega's name was presented to the council to fill three of two vacant seats. The council approved.

Harrison Schmitt Reports To NEW MEXICO

THE DECLINE AND FALL OF U.S. PERSONAL SAVINGS

The declining performance of the United States economy during the past decade illustrates the critical need for new economic incentives to increase our rate of savings and investment. Savings generate investment, investment generates productivity, less inflation and employment, and only with productivity, price stability and full job opportunity can we achieve steady economic growth in the decade ahead.

A few facts will help to illustrate my point. Personal savings as a percentage of disposable personal income has undergone a steady decline from 7.7 percent in 1975 to 3.7 percent in the first quarter of this year. In every year since 1975, the amount of personal savings has fallen lower than the previous year. Because of these falling savings rates, there has been less money for investment than the demand. As a result, our industries have not replaced worn out factories and equipment fast enough, our productivity has fallen disastrously and the economy has not created the new jobs we need. The overall effect is that our economy has stagnated.

Let's take a look at the performance of our world trade competitors. In 1976, the United States' rate of savings as a percentage of national income was only 4.8 percent. This compares to rates of 6.6 percent in England; 13.1 percent in France; 13.2 percent in Germany; and 25.4 percent in Japan. Our dismal savings rate is directly related to the declining GNP growth rate and high inflation rate of the United States as compared to these nations. Each of these countries reward savings and investment unlike the tax penalties we have in the United States.

It is time to stop consuming the foundations of our economy, to stop devouring our capital base by not reinvesting in our faltering economy. We must encourage individuals to start saving now by guaranteeing a certain future return on their investment.

I have introduced legislation which can help reverse the dangerous trend towards disinvestment now ravaging our economy. My Savings and Investment Incentive Act of 1980 will permit taxpayers to exclude from taxation 25 percent of combined interest and dividend income up to a maximum of $50,000 of such income. A taxpayer at the maximum interest and dividend income level of $50,000 could exempt 25 percent of $12,500 from taxation and then pay full tax on the remainder. The exemption will be phased in gradually over a period of five years beginning in FY 1981. Because savings and investment will increase, there will actually be more tax revenues pouring into our Treasury under this plan than would result otherwise.

The 25 percent exemption will reduce tax rates on additional savings income by one-quarter. It will affect every American with a savings account or investments. Over 44 million Americans will benefit from reduced taxes on interest and dividends. People with low and moderate incomes will benefit in two ways. First, from lower taxes; and second, from the job production, real income growth and overall increase in prosperity that will result. Older Americans on fixed incomes, facing high inflation, will benefit through an improved rate of return on their savings. I am sure these benefits will encourage individuals to shift more of their economic activity from consumption to savings and investment. Only in this way can New Mexicans and all Americans experience the prosperity and economic growth that our country needs and has traditionally known. We can know it again.

A first for Carrizozo will be the organization of a Lioness Club. September 3, charter members will elect officers at a ditch treat banquet at the Four Winds. The Lioness Club will stand for the same civic concerns as the Lions Club. The ladies will help the Lions on their projects, including obtaining eyeglasses for the needy. The women would like to initiate a welcome committee for new comers moving to Carrizozo. Women of the community are encouraged and invited to be a part of this new group. They need not be wives or relatives of a Lion Club member in order to join. For more details contact Frances Pittillo (648-2943), if possible before the banquet so that reservations can be made for the September organizational dinner meeting.

The Carrizozo Economic Development Committee met last Monday evening with economic development specialists. A survey conducted by the specialists included a dissatisfaction with town government, including uneven enforcement of ordinances and police protection. Scott Shafer, Chamber of Commerce president, was strongly urged by the Economic Development representatives to seek the remaining trustee position.

Shafer was present at the town council meeting this month to discuss the clean-up campaign this summer. He said that the Chamber will use the $70 to 75 that was left over from the last community project to put up barrels around town. The Chamber requested the 50-gallon barrels be used and that the town place them on stands. The barrels will be painted by the EPA as a chapter project.

A letter was read from the State Fire Marshall in reply to the town's request that they come and help the council condemn old buildings. The Fire Marshall's office informed the town that his was not their duty and the town should get together with their town attorney. Payne told the council that he was willing to write the letters, but he did not want to be the one to state which building should come down.

Mayor Hernandez said that he and Zamora will determine which buildings will have to come down. They will be assisted by town foremen, Emilio Beltran and Chief of Police Morales.

Harmon inquired about the Wetzel building near the rail road tracks. He said that the razing job had not been completed. Payne said that he has written several letters on this. Payne will also send a letter to Buster Smoot asking that his old buildings on Bell Road Street be removed.

During the "Reports from Trustees" Zamora, in charge of the police section, said that he had not received any complaints about the town's police department. The Chief informed the council that Dean had quit because he was not receiving enough pay. Morales hired Jack Richardson to cover until a certified police officer could be hired.

Payne informed the board that in order for the Town of Carrizozo to join the Sierra Blanca Airport Commission, the Joint Powers Agreement would have to be amended and approved by all organizations involved. The SBAC consists of representatives of the Mesquero Apache Tribal Council, the villages of Capitan, Ruidoso, Ruidoso Downs and the Lincoln County Commission, with Fred Heckman chairing the commission.

Dr. Dale Good and Ruth Armstrong were appointed by the council in their July meeting to represent Carrizozo on the SBAC. The Carrizozo Woman's Club and the Economic Development Committee, put up the required membership fee of $500.00

Payne told the council that the town needs to look at the commissioner's airport master plan which new members accept to join. Payne will obtain the master plan for the council's review at a special meeting. The master plan includes the stipulation that the proposed regional airport be constructed within a 15-mile diameter of Sudderth and Mechem streets in Ruidoso. This could be a discouraging factor for Carrizozo representation on the Sierra Blanca Airport Commission.

also featuring Kelly Willard Lafferty In Concert

This Friday, August 22, and 7:30 p.m. in the Ruidoso High School Gym, Maranatha Mountain Ministries is presenting Karen Lafferty and Kelly Willard in Concert. Both are recording artists with Maranatha Music.

Miss Lafferty, well-known in the U.S.A., Australia, New Zealand, and many countries in Europe, as well as here in New Mexico, her Home State, has blessed us twice this summer with her easy listening music and gentle manner. Karen has been responsible for bringing in two other groups this summer and nine other groups during the summers of '78 and '79. By bringing these artists to Ruidoso, the community has been more exposed to the ministry of Contemporary Christian Music. Her two albums, Bird in the Golden Sky and Sweet Communion have been an inspiration to many. Karen is now finishing up the recording of a third album to be released in the fall.

Although she has become one of the country's most sought after musicians of Contemporary Christian Music, Kelly Willard has managed to maintain her Oklahoma "Country Freshness". Her album "Blame It On The One I Love, is an example of her talents in songwriting, voice and keyboards. She is a studio musician using all three of her talents and was at one time the pianist for the Archer's.

The community is heartily welcomed to come to the last of the three free concerts, to be held on Friday, August 22, 7:30 p.m., in the Ruidoso High School Gym.

municipal finances and lack of housing. He added that he saw a split between the merchants, Chamber of Commerce and the consumer. People are not shopping locally; negative impressions from consumers and nothing complimentary from residents about their town were among Copedge's findings.

The economic specialists said things are happening in Carrizozo and that the Rec Center and golf course are a direct economic impact on the community. Gault said the tools for economic development are at their disposal and gave advice on present recreational compound troubles. He advised that the committee get into the political sector of town government. They should back the council's decisions and request that ordinances be enforced and new ordinance be created as they need them.

The economic specialists acknowledged that the committee took a step in the right direction that evening by trying that Shafer consider an appointment to the town council & together the committee and the council can discuss town problems, observations and goals.

In addition the committee along with Copedge will conduct an October workshop entitled "Carrizozo in The coming Decade." The purpose of the workshop is to pull together all segments of the community to do some goal setting on what they want as a town in the next ten years. The workshop is tentative scheduled to be held at the Rec Center for October 16, 18, and 17 - Thursday and Friday evenings and half a day Saturday. These times and days were scheduled for the convenience of the working public.

"Anybody and everybody who is interested in the future of Carrizozo is urged to attend."

NEW MEXICO STATE FAIR

A talented New Mexico singer will be one of three headline acts at the 14th annual Spanish Heritage Program at the 1980 New Mexico State Fair in Albuquerque.

David Salazar of Santa Fe, who'll be in the spotlight with the popular show on Wednesday evening, September 10, has become internationally-known for his beautiful romantic versions of both traditional and contemporary Spanish music.

The other headline acts for the Tingley Coliseum show on September 10 include the famed Gran Folkorico de Mexico and the Latin touring group of Up With People. There is no rodeo with the Spanish Show.

As an exclusive artist, for the Musart Corporation of Mexico, Salazar has the distinction of being one of the very few United States born singers ever to be signed with a major Mexican label. He was signed with them for five years as an exclusive recording artist. His first album will be released this summer and he is already at work on a second one.

His first LP, "Ciel", consists of traditional songs, rancheras and canciones romanticas. The title song was released as a single and is currently high on the charts.

His live performances have proved to be extremely popular. New Mexicans will have an excellent opportunity to hear him at this year's State Fair.

The 43rd annual New Mexico State Fair--The Biggest Show in New Mexico--will be held in Albuquerque September 10 through 21, with the 17 day racing meet and quality horse shows starting September 5.

Winners of various Competitions in the Women's Center at the 1980 New Mexico State Fair will be vying for a total of $4000 in cash premiums.

Indians may enter items in 525 competitive categories in the Indian Exhibits Show at the 1980 New Mexico State Fair.

Approximately 800 horses are entered each year in the pari-mutuel horse racing meet at the State Fair.

The popular Spanish Heritage Program at the New Mexico State Fair will be marking its 14th anniversary at the 1980 exposition.

Helping to make the annual State Fair so colorful each year are more than 2000 flags and banners which are hung around the grounds.

Hank and Mary Means 18th anniversary was Monday, August 18th.

I thought I would take a few minutes to explain the Nogal route. The bus will leave the Nogal Merc. at 7:30 headed for school it will make the same pickups as last year on the flats. It will then turn on the road that heads toward the country club, turn right and go passed the rodeo grounds turn another right by the water treatment plant and make its first stop in Carrizozo at the turn off to Mary Greer's property. The bus will then go to the end of the road and stop to pick up the Silva's, the will then turn left and then a right turn into the next block. The bus will go to the cattle guard, stop and load, then turn around. The next stop at Bireall's gate were the bus turns around and heads to school.

Boxing Family--

THE LOZANO'S—These four brothers all belong to the Capitan Boxing Club, and all participated in last Saturday's meet in Carrizozo.

In very gentle rain showers last week we received one and seven tenths of an inch of moisture. Just before this writing we received 4 tenths in a heavier shower. Truly everything is responding. So green and refreshing.

The Smokey Bear Museum and The State Park report 5582 visitors to this date this month from all fifty States & several foreign countries.

Howard Shanks has been appointed to Governor King's Task Force on the Sub-division.

The Capitan Teachers Organization sponsored a dinner party for all teachers, new teachers, administrators and board members at T.L. Brooks house Aug. 19th.

Mr. Jenkins' Boxing teams won four medals in Carrizozo last Saturday. We are proud and happy the four lucky boys who were Ronnie Sanchez, Louis Lozano, Jr., Garry Lozano and Daniel Lozano. There was a good attendance from Capitan which stated they did enjoy it all.

Beth Long gave a going away party at her home in Encinosa. She will attend Eastern College in Portales.

The Catholic Church in Capitan held Mass for Marie Lobb and Mary Alfred who will attend the Mary Mount College in Kansas.

For now week starting August 18 the Catholic Church are holding a garage sale on West First Street at the Alfred Trujillo Garage.

Gid and Jim Allen attended the 4-H Rodeo in Albuquerque last Sunday. Gid placed third in the ribbon roping. Jim was awarded "The sonny Chavez Memorial Hard Luck Cowboy Buckle."

Kimberly Huey entertained her little friends on her 9th birthday Aug. 18 by taking them with her to a picnic on the Ruidoso and for go cart rides.

At 10 p.m. last Friday night there was a three car accident at the Capitan Gap turn off in which two pickups and one car were totaled.

When a car attempted to pass on a double line. Earl Odle was taken via our Ambulance to the Ruidoso Hospital with three broken ribs.

Mrs. Larry (Loriente) Caywood recently underwent surgery in the Ruidoso Hospital and at this time she is doing very nicely at their home.

Bronson Cummins returned a few days ago from one years College in California. He now is employed with Chapel of Roses Mortuary in Ruidoso. Fredricka Powell of Portland, Oregon is visiting her brother Phil Richardson for several weeks. Last week she and Martha Hale of Ruidoso lunch at the Smokey Bear Restaurant.

The new high school building is beginning to look like building for certain in pretty dark red brick.

U.N.M. PCC Student--

William McConnell Studying in Capitan

In an effort to increase the amount of medical students going into rural areas upon completion of their training, the University of New Mexico medical school has developed the PCC or primary care curriculum. "The medical school is trying to bring back the hometown doctors, by training and encouraging students to get out of specialized fields and practice in rural areas." The director of the program which began in August of 1979, Dr. S. Scott Obenshain and Dr. Art Kaufman say that most of the medical students are going onto referral care of hospital care of complex surgery because of the role models set in schools. The UNM school is trying to set new role models with the PCC program. The students learn to solve problems on their own and learn about making connections between basic science and medicine. It promotes working on their own and thinking for themselves.

Although still early in their training, the experience gives these medical students a basis for deciding their ultimate area of work. And the UNM school hopes it will be that of the hometown physician.

Ten students opened the first class and Capitan has been privileged to have one of these young students. William "Bill" McConnell has studied with Dr. Rouleau in his office this summer. Upon visiting the office, the patient is introduced to Bill as a medical student. Dr. Rouleau gives Bill the opportunity to interview the patient, get medical history, and solve problems on his own. With Dr. Rouleau making the final diagnosis and treatment recommendations. UNM students are located in several communities including Alamogordo, Cuba, Las Vegas, Los Alamos and Santa Fe. In Ruidoso, Boyd Mangus in Dr. Stone's office under the primary care curriculum.

When school starts this fall, the students return to the home campus for more problem solving work.

In their third year, they rejoin students in a traditional track and work in hospitals.

For their fourth year, they go back to rural areas for three months. The school hopes the program will bring more doctors back to the rural areas, but "even if they do choose special fields, the will have had a better than equal education than the students enrolled in the established medical track."

1980 Aspencade Festival

Features Motorcycle Convention

When autumn gilds the aspens in the mountains of New Mexico late next month, the year-round resort towns of Red River and Ruidoso will have plenty of activities in store for Fall fun-lovers.

The former will unveil a new 10 day celebration entitled "Aspencade '80" while the latter will entice an expected 7,000 motorcyclists to its six-day aspencade festival.

Ruidoso's activities, scheduled for September 30 through October 5, will center around a motorcycle convention that features a parade and competition. However, the final three days will feature the mule races at Ruidoso Downs. A photography workshop will also be held. In addition, there will be an arts and crafts fair, band concerts and competition, and barbecues.

For more information on these Fall events, as well as where to call for room reservations, contact:

The Ruidoso Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 666 (88345). Its phone number is (505) 257-7305. However, for room reservations, a toll-free number is available during business hours, week days, from Arizona, Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Texas, Utah and Wyoming (800-345-5122). From other states, the lodging number is direct during those same hours and says (505) 257-5081.

JOE JENKINS, Capitan Boxing Club Coach, gets one of his fighters ready for the next match, during last Saturday's boxing matches held in Carrizozo.

RONNIE SANCHEZ, Capitan Boxing team member looks a little beat but still manages a big smile for

Keeping The FAITH
MY RELIGION
"I cannot imagine myself without religion. I could not easily fancy a living body without a heart. To one who is deaf and blind, the spiritual world offers no difficulty."
This statement by Helen Keller, a legend in her own time, occurs in her fascinating book My Religion. Overcoming severe handicaps which would drive most of us into despair, Miss Keller chose to live and to devote her life to the service of others, always stirring our sense of the heroic.
But how and where did this remarkable woman find such undaunted courage and perseverance? What gave her the inner resources of faith to transcend a world of silent darkness?
Her access to the spiritual world came from reading the works of Emanuel Swedenborg, 18th century scientist, theologian, and philosopher. The knowledge gained from her discovery of the unseen world, to which so many are blind, enabled her to provide leadership and encouragement to countless thousands. Of Swedenborg, she wrote: "It was as if light came where there had been no light before; the intangible world became a shining certainty."
With poetic beauty and deep understanding, Helen Keller describes in My Religion the spiritual odyssey that brought her to a faith unshaken by narrow sectarianism. It is a powerful and inspiring legacy from one of the century's greatest personalities.
Copies of My Religion, clothbound and in large print, which the Rev. Norman Vincent Pease called "a rich blessing," may be obtained by sending $5.50 (postpaid) to: Swedenborg Foundation, Dept. FMR, 139 East 23rd St., New York, N.Y. 10010.
