The Carrizozo Canyon Cowbelle Treasure Chest was raffled St. night at the Lincoln County Fair Rodeo, and the lucky winner was W.W. Gallacher of Carrizozo. The Treasure Chest was filled with beautiful hand-made house-hold articles; aprons, pillows, pictures, place mats, afghan, coasters, tissue box covers, cap, ceramic bowl, and many other beautiful items. Each item in the chest was made and donated by the members. Mrs. W.W. Gallacher and daughters have all been Cowbelle members for many years.

The Canyon Cowbelle "Food Booth" at the Lincoln County Fair was a big success, thanks to all the members that spent long, hard hours working, and to the many customers who enjoyed the good food.

In a few short days Ziegler Bros., the oldest dry goods store in Carrizozo will close their stock of goods, and discontinue business. This, in itself is a sad thought to the people of this county who have learned to depend on Ziegler Brothers through the years since 1908. The very name of the firm stands for dependable, high class merchandise.

The company was organized in 1888, as Goldman, Ziegler and Company. By referring to our files we see the firm became a leading store in White Oaks under the name of Goldman, Ziegler and Company. In 1890 the Ziegler brothers (Messrs. Albert and Jake) bought out Goldman and Company and became sole owners. The files of Lincoln County Leader and White Oaks Eagle through the years from 1885 to 1908 show that never an issue was published without an ad from the firm of Ziegler Bros., which is one of the reasons for their continued and continuous success throughout the fifty odd years.

White Oaks flourished in those days with such firms as Talliaferro & Co., The Exchange Bank, Ozanne & Co., and Ziegler Bros. In 1883 a railroad from El Paso to White Oaks seemed almost sure, but for some reason it did not materialize and the railroad came to Carrizozo, thus causing the migration of a number of White Oaks firms to this town, among whom were Ziegler Bros., Paden's Drug Store, The Exchange Bank and several others who have long since moved to other states where they sought greener pastures.

But Mr. Ziegler was content, he was willing to stay and help make Carrizozo what it is today. He has always been a business and civic leader. He built a handsome home which has been the center of many of Carrizozo's most brilliant social events.

If the town needed an improvement, Mr. Ziegler has always been the first to donate, if someone needed help, Mr. Ziegler was one of the first to extend it, if a business enterprise was to be started or a civic problem to be solved, Mr. Ziegler was always one of the first to be called upon.

At the end of the present "Quit Business Sale," Mr. Ziegler will retire, and we will see the curtain ring down on a business which has been a source of pride to every citizen; an establishment which has weathered every depression and one that has never failed its friends.

No other store can ever replace Ziegler Bros. (Lincoln County News, Friday, Aug. 23, 1940.)

ALBERT ZIEGLER FUNERAL SERVICES

Mr. Albert Ziegler, age 78 years, passed away at his home here at 2 o'clock last Monday morning, September 2nd. Mr. Ziegler had been in declining health for the past twelve months, but had been bedfast only 2 weeks.

He had been in business in Carrizozo over thirty-two years, during which time he had made friends - many hundreds of them - from every walk. He was an enterprising business man, and as a merchant was proud of the quantity and quality of his merchandise; he had been a Master Mason since 1919, and as such had emulated the teachings of the order in his every day life by loyalty and helpfulness.

He was ever mindful of his duties to everyone, but his home, his family and his friends received first attention.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Albert Ziegler, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. John Guteknecht of Chicago, and Mrs. Charles Copline of Kansas City, both of whom are here.

Rabbi Wendall Phillips of Temple Mt. Sinai, El Paso, delivered the funeral address at the Masonic Temple at ten o'clock Wednesday morning, followed by the impressive Masonic funeral rites.

Mrs. Ben Burns and Mrs. Don English were in charge of the music.

Pallbearers were Messrs. Albert Roberts, Will Gallacher, A.J. Rolland, J.M. Beck, Doyle Rentfrow and Louis Nalda.

Honorary pallbearers were Messrs. John Hall, Frank English, H.B. Hamilton, Sam H. Copy, Saturnino, Judge A.H. Hudspeth, Dr. R.E. Blaney, Judge Numa C. Fregner, Dr. Paden, and Mayor M.U. Finley.

Mr. Ziegler's good qualities are deeply etched in the hearts of his family and friends. He was fond of flowers and the Masonic Temple was filled with fragrance from the most resplendent flowers.

Remains were shipped to El Paso Wednesday on the six o'clock train for funeral services at Temple Mt. Sinai. Pallbearers for services in El Paso were Messrs. Will Gallacher, Albert Roberts, J.M. Beck, Karl Blumenthal, Louis Kaufman, Allen Johnson, Charles Kircher, Edward Krohm.

Burial was at Mt. Sinai Cemetery, El Paso. (Lincoln County News, Friday, Sept. 6, 1940.)

MRS. ALBERT ZIEGLER AND FAMILY FOR ZIEGLER BROS. DEPARTMENT STORE:

"We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the loyal buying public of Carrizozo and vicinity. They have made the success of this store possible over a period of more than fifty years and they have been great assistance in the final closeout of this business."

Ziegler Bros. have passed on and now the store too has passed into other ownership. The prestige and traditions connected with this store for more than half a century do not end with the change of ownership. Mrs. Albert Ziegler and family feel that in the capable hands of Mr. J.F. Petty and family the traditions of Ziegler Bros. will be lived up to in the fullest sense of

New Horizon Reception to Feature Rep. Hobson

New Horizons will have an informal reception Monday, August 31st at 2:00 p.m. in the dining room of the center at 804 'E' Avenue.

"The reasons for the reception are several," says Jenny Kelly, New Horizons director. "It will serve as the kick-off for our fund raising efforts for the next year and we want to thank those who have been supportive of us this year."

Many know that New Horizons has embarked on a project to construct a new group home in Carrizozo. This would be an expansion of services in their program and would provide a permanent residence for clients who do not need to be in an institution but cannot move out because they have no concerned family members. This would provide "semi-independent living" for up to eight residents.

New Horizons has found the land for the home and in the next year must raise $3000.00 to pay for the land. Towards this end they have built and furnished a "Victorian Playhouse" and have been selling raffle tickets.

At the reception on the 31st the Honorable Maurice Hobson, will be present to draw the winning ticket for the house. This is just the beginning of the fund raising.

"The people in this community who have supported us throughout the past year are so very much appreciated and we hope the reception will be just a small token of thanks," says Kelly. The clients and staff all hope to see them there.

Receives State Funds for VoAg Farm

Carrizozo Municipal Schools received $243,000 for library expansion and special ed classroom. $48,000 goes to the vocational agriculture program for a vocational agriculture farm. The farm is located 1 mile west of the high school on the airport road.

On the farm there will be a barn and pens to be used by the students in vocational agriculture and shop classes. There will also be a place provided to slaughter animals.

The money was received from a $10 million state fund to assist in classroom construction throughout New Mexico was allotted to seventeen school districts August 11, by the State Public School Capital Outlay Council. The fund

39 AGAIN
This August 27 issue of the NEWS marks the birthdate of Johnson Stearns. The following birthday list should bring banker Stearns a smile:

"The horse you sold me last week is a fine animal, but I can't get him to hold his head up," the buyer told the farmer.

"Oh, it's because of the horse's pride," said the farmer, "He'll hold it up as soon as he's paid for."

A big crowd celebrate birthdays on August 28. They are Kathy Sandoval, Michelle Payne, Joe DeTevis, Morgan Maxwell, Anna Luera, Joyce May, Dale Housley, Mary Chavez, Frances Degner, and David Bowersox.

1908 IMMIGRATION
Lyn Miller of Carrizozo was in Denver this week to attend the funeral of her grandmother, Lydia Robinson who succumbed to cancer at the age of 85. Mrs. Robinson, born in 1896 in Russia or Russian German ancestry immigrated to the U.S. with her parents in 1908. They settled in northern Colorado, where they made their living in the farming industry.

ZUCCHINI HEAVEN
Lincoln County home economist, Mary Ellen Payne did it again. She demonstrated some delicious taste-tested recipes, which will become favorites in many family cookbooks. Her program, a potpourri of zucchini dishes, was a big hit at the Zia Senior Citizens Center this month.

As she cooked before seniors and others, she talked about the nutritious values of Zucchini, which she said grow fast when it rains, "I had to tramp through mud to get mine. If nothing else grows, zucchini will," she said.

Those present for the Zucchini cooking enjoyed Linguine Italiano, Mexican Corn-Zucchini Dish, Cheese Zucchini Soup and Zucchini-Cheese Bisquit Roll-ups. A salad and fruit for dessert will complete a meal which features rich, hearty, creamy Cheese Zucchini Soup:

- CHEESE ZUCCHINI SOUP-
- 4 slices bacon
- 1/2 cup finely chopped onion
- 1/4 cup green pepper
- 2 1/2 cups zucchini, cut in 1/4 inch slices.
- 1 tablespoon chopped pimiento
- 1 cup water
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup (1/2 stick) butter
- 1/4 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 2 1/2 cups milk
- 1 cup (4-ounce) shredded Cheddar cheese

Cook bacon until crisp in skillet; set aside for garnish. Saute onion and pepper in bacon fat until tender. Add zucchini, pimiento, water and salt. Cover; bring to a boil, turn to simmer and cook about 5 minutes or until zucchini is tender. Meanwhile prepare cheese soup base. Melt butter in a 3-quart saucepan; blend in flour, salt, and pepper. Remove from heat; stir constantly adding milk. Boil and stir 1 minute. Remove from heat; stir in cheese until melted. If necessary, return to low heat to finish melting cheese. (Do not boil). Add vegetables with liquid to soup base. Heat to serving temperature. Garnish with crumbled bacon. Yield: 5 1/2 cups.

Both Dr. Huerta and his wife are natives of El Paso, where their respective parents still live. Sergio is a graduate of Austin High School there, and Margie of Bel Air.

While in high school Margie served as a hospital volunteer, and a counselor for youth on a Suicide Hot Line. After graduation Margie enrolled at Michigan State University, from which she has graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree with honors. She is was approved by the 1981 legislature.

A contractor will be hired to construct the farm but the students plan to take part in the construction. The students in vocational agriculture classes will weld the pens and gates for the farm themselves.

The money received may not be used for equipment so we are requesting donations of materials such as posts, barbed wire and metal for pen and gates.

The construction will take place in two phases. The first being the construction of the barn and the second being the construction of a greenhouse added on to the science room at the high school. This will be used by biology and horticulture students.

Carrizozo will be one of the first small schools in New Mexico to have an outdoor facility for vocational students. This facility will provide a place for students to keep their animals.

The ground breaking ceremonies are planned for early October with anticipated completion date around November 1st.

"Mill Race" Test Slated for 16th

WHITE SANDS MISSILE RANGE, N.M., Aug 19 - For more than 36 years historic Trinity Site in the northern reaches of White Sands Missile Range has been dormant. With exception of an occasional official guest and several hundred visitors during the annual trek, the site of the world's first atomic detonation is quiet.

But Trinity, where the first atomic device exploded on July 16, 1945, is again the scene of an important test and again the activity will culminate with the explosion.

The "Mill Race" high explosive test, with the goal of exposing military hardware, shelters and equipment to blast, shock and thermal phenomena is scheduled for Sept. 16. The Mill Race test bed is located just 3 1/2 miles from Trinity Site.

Six hundred tons of ammonium nitrate-fuel oil, which test officials claim will give the equivalent blast of 500 tons of TNT, will be detonated for the test.

The explosion will provide a simulated one-kiloton nuclear blast and shock environment for target response experiments required by the military service and defense agencies. The test is sponsored by the Defense Nuclear Agency, with Field Command, Defense Nuclear Agency, Albuquerque, the fielding agency.

Officials note data obtained from high-explosive tests may be compared with previously reported nuclear effects data and may serve to validate the predictions of a variety of nuclear effects computer codes, thereby expanding the knowledge of nuclear weapons effects.

Eighteen experimenters, including two from foreign countries, will place more than 105 individual experiments at varying distances from ground zero. The experiments will be above ground, underground and in the air during the blast.

Some of the typical experiments include above-surface and partially buried shelters, blast shelters and industrial buildings.

Other test objects found in the 100-acre test bed will be various radar domes, antennas, communications vans, anthropomorphic dummies, a ship deckhouse and armored vehicles.

The blast also will provide testers with data concerning cloud measurement using different techniques, blast effects on flying aircraft and remote pressure-sensing information (both air and ground).

Defense Nuclear Agency officials report more than 135 cameras of various types will document the test and more than 800 sensors will record raw data. Approximately 400 miles of cable wire of varying sizes for power and signal will be used and 100 airblast gauges will record overpressures.

The Mill Race test at WSMR is one in a series of high explosive programs to test equipment and structures at full scale. Other recent tests include Dice Throw at White Sands in 1976 and Misers Bluff at Planet Ranch, Ariz., in 1978.

Test officials said the explosion may cause some window rattling in San Antonio, N.M., depending on atmospheric conditions. Calculations from earlier tests show no structural damage will be incurred, a DNA spokesman said. WSMR's Stallion Range Center, approximately 17 miles north of ground zero, has the closest uninhabited building to the test site.

The test is now scheduled for 10 a.m. Sept. 16. Test officials added that residents of Socorro, Bingham and area ranchers will be able to hear the blast. The sound may also carry as far as Truth or Consequences and Carrizozo.

Sr. Citizens Honored

The Carrizozo Woman's Club sponsored a Mexican supper at the Woman's Club building in honor of the Senior Citizens of Carrizozo, Capitan and Corona and to introduce the new director, Barbara Ward and the Center staff. Attendance was great and the food was gratefully received and consumed post haste. Lupe Mendez and Olivia Reid were here from AAA Roswell.

Mendez made the announcement that he had received some funding to further the Capitan project. The good news was shared by everyone. Lupe also discussed the need for a three way fund raising drive for the third van. The amount is $666.87 for each of the Senior Citizen complexes; Carrizozo, Capitan, and Corona. Donations will be gratefully received.

We invite all senior citizens to become involved in each of the three areas. We need active participation.

LISTEN IN!

It's Roble's Party-Linell!

Hot off the Wire:

MABEL! HONEY!
I did a little research on the evaluation of money for children. After reading several surveys in different magazines, on young people and money, I found that out of many Universities, more than half the students had never used a budget, and the other half hadn't ever balanced their check books.

Most of the time a third of the students spent on impulse. This shows that to many parents haven't spent any time teaching their children about money.

Teaching children the value of a dollar, should be done step by step, when they are young - and as they grow up. "Most parents think their children will learn by osmosis." Children are little mimics, and they pick up what their parents do, and what they see, and hear, from them. A parent can't expect the child to do any differently than the way they react to money. Most of your habits about money will rub off on your child.

Money should not be a symbol of love, power or approval. Money should only be used for a tool to barter, that is what it is. Chores and house chores should be shared in the family, not paid for. Allowances work fine when the child is small if it is evaluated properly. They need to understand what they have to spend it for - clothes, pleasures, repairs and etc., and how it takes to do what they are assigned to spend it for, this slowly teaches them to budget, while they are young - then as they grow up they will be able to evaluate better.

These are a few good thoughts on Mabe.

NOW FOR THE FAMILY

TWO SIDES OF THE COIN:

1. Always remember to forget the things that made you sad, but never forget to remember the things that made you glad.

2. Always remember to forget the friends that proved untrue.

But don't forget to remember those who have stuck with you.

Always remember to forget the troubles that passed away. But never forget to remember the blessings that come each day.

Our recipe this week is Liquid Mabel! - (For a slimmer look)

1. A morning Milk Shake - 1 slice melon, cubed; 1/4 cup cottage cheese or plain yogurt; dash mint extract. Blend 10 seconds. (85 Calories)

2. Fruity Slush - 1/2 cup plain yogurt; 1/2 cup fresh fruit; 2 ice cubes, 1/4 cup sparkling water. (Crush ice, gradually add yogurt, fruit and water (80 calories))

FOR THE GALS AND YOU MABEL!

Make-up that actually fills in all your wrinkles - and different hair color every day.... perfumes that zero in on any one. A silicone based makeup, will give women an absolutely flawless look. In the future. Can you imagine such a thing.

DID YOU KNOW THAT?

For every white collar worker on the payroll, the typical business has 18,000 pieces of paper on file.

In 1979, the average American made 1087 telephone calls.

The average American nudist is 35 years old and married.

Who the New President of the County Club is?

That Phil Richardson is up and at it - but looks a little weak. take care Phil.

HERE IS SOME FUN AND GAMES!

You can create your own pitch and toss game. Use jar lids to toss to see who tosses them to a certain goal.

O.K. How about this! There is an old spanish proverb that says En el rincón deen casa, nomas uno sabe loque pasa.

(In the seclusion of your thoughts only you know the secrets.)

DID YOU KNOW?

They had a fare in Lincoln this weekend and it was something you should not have missed.

QUESTIONS

- Why are preservatives used on today's cheese? Cheese doesn't really need to be preserved.

Answer - Neither do most of the foods in the supermarket which have not only preservatives added to them, but also dyes. A consumer will not buy a food unless it's brightly colored with a toxic dye, that's the opinion of the food industry.

The Capitan School started Monday August 24 with lots of new children. To me, it is always happiness when school opens for I love the voices, and laughter of all of the children. May all of them have a joyous school year of learning.

Jay Ware is employed at the school as maintenance engineer. I wish him years of success therein.

The Smokey Bear Museum has had five thousand two hundred three visitors this month to date. That is great. Everyone does enjoy it and the State Park. All of the plants shrubs and trees have been set out and seem to be thriving. The rain did help them get a good start. At this time all is being watered. With the trees from the forest and the water fall, it all becomes real. We are proud of it and the Recreational Building as well and lets keep it beautiful. Cooperation from everyone of us can really keep it beautiful.

The Lincoln County Fair has come and gone with great success. All was excellent. The 4-H Animals were beautiful. The sale of them a great success. David Talley of Hondo had the grand Champion Capon which was purchased by the Big T on the Ruidoso it brought him $285.00.

Little Glenda Booher won the special cake award with her 4-FF Cake and the auction brought her $210.00. These two were happy youngsters.

The pet show was good. The special class with the Wolfe leading the lamb won first. Five year old Sonya Crain was the lucky lady. Six year old Tammia Payne won second.

Fifty attended the successful horse show at the fair at 2 p.m. Saturday August 22. They are planning a bigger and better one for next year.

Everyone did enjoy the rodeos. In all the reports is excellence for everything.

The Capitan Jr. Riding Club presented the annual Jim Goodloe sportsmanship award at the Rodeo last Saturday night. This year's recipient is Shelly Eldridge daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Eldridge of Capitan.

Tommie Alder, Mary Craft and Sherry LaMay celebrated their birthdays with a barbecue at the Baca Camp Site Sunday August 23rd. A large crowd attended. I wish all of them many more very happy and healthy birthdays.

Laurie Talbot left Friday for Las Cruces where she will prepare to enter the New Mexico State College for studies for Occupational Business.

Marie Lobb, Regina Lobb and Beth Long all left Friday for their respective colleges in different states.

Julie Graves, District Manager of Avon No. 276 held an Avon Sales meeting at K-Bobs in Ruidoso Thursday August 20th. Those who attended were Joan Means, Margaret Rench, Cora Sweeney, Robin Montoya, Sherri Hobbs, Myrtle West, Sandy Miller and Fattie Malone.

Olin's Quick is building a Barbeque Pit and game room in the back of their store and they hope to open it soon.

Leon Eggleston our City Clerk is on one weeks vacation and is spending it in Carlsbad helping his parents Mr. and Mrs. C.D. Eggleston.

Amelia Jenkins of Roswell attended both days of the Fair and visited friends. Her grandson Jerimis Goodrum was in the Rodeos.

LaNita Langford and two daughters Sherri and Ramona of Roswell visited Mr. and Mrs. Terry Strickland Saturday and spent the night.

Delores Hobbs and Clyde Riley were united in marriage Wednesday August 19 at 7:00 P.M. at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hobbs north of Capitan with a large crowd attending. I wish this couple many years of happiness.
