Everyone is invited to attend this interesting and inspiring presentation Refreshments will be served.

Representatives from the Regional Housing Authority of Region VI, New Mexico, will be in-Carrizozo, New Mexico to take applications for the H U D. Section Rent Subsidy Program This program assists low-income families in making their monthly rental payments.

The income limit is $14,900 a year for a family of four. Any citizen who thinks they will qualify for assistance is encouraged to apply at the Welfare Dept. in Carrizozo on Wednesday, January 6, 1982 at 10: 30am. Applications are taken on a first come, first serve basis. Also any landlord who is interested in possibly participating in the program and would like more information is encouraged to contact the representatives.

With many N.M. businesses planning layoffs in Jan., best news many workers is an increase in New Mexico's maximum weekly unemployment benefit. Employment Security Department Secretary Louis R. Bachicha today announced the maximum weekly benefit during 1982 will be $130, up from 117 in 1981.

Bachicha noted the new maximum benefit will apply only to claims filed in 1982, weekly benefit amounts will not be increased on claims filed during 1981. Under New Mexico law, a claimant who earned more than new maximum.

The new minimum benefit will been happily married for 39 years be $26, compared with $24 in 1981 That amount will go to claimants with higher quarter earnings between $671.32 and $676 and total earnings in covered employment during the base year between $839.15 and $845.

> Under New Mexico law, the maximum weekly benefit during any calendar year is fifty per cent of the state's average weekly wage for work covered by the state Unemployment Compensation Law during the year ending the preceding June 30. The minimum is set at ten percent of that average wage The average weekly wage during New Mexico Fiscal 1981 was $258.23, almost $25 higher than the 1980 average of $233.64.

The Carrizozo Lions Club will venture into the entertainment business Friday, January 29, 1982, when they will sponsor "Talent Show of 1982". In addition to a variety of acts, there will be surprise guest appearances of locals, including an exotic dancer, a director of famous movies who used to be a wealthy farmer, a psychic, and a would-be movie starlette. Other acts will be announced at a later date. The presentation will be held in the old gym of the Carrizozo Schools and the time is set for 7:30pm. Prizes given to the best acts.

David Lynch, representing the Chamber, will inquire about local 'Lodger's Tax' at this month's meeting. Signs no longer valid, but erected throughout the town were questioned by Chamber member. Phyllis Schlegel. She suggested that the still sturdy signs could be put to good use. She proposed replacing the misleading information with suitable messages Lynch will bring the matter up before the town council next Monday night, January 11

BACK HOME

After a long absence. Mabel Vigil and her mother, Margaret Holguin are back home. The two enjoyed a 5-month long visit in the state of Texas. The last month of their visit was spent in El Paso with Mabel's son, Johnny Vigil and his family. Johnny, his wife Irene and their three children spent the Christmas holidays visiting at Mabel's home and in Ruidoso Downs with Irene's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Richardson.

The first four months away from Carrizozo, Mabel and Margaret visited in the home of Margaret's daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reed in Austin, Texas. The Carrizozo women enjoyed their stay in the lush, green Texas country. Edward and Margaret Reed are Austin and Taylor, Texas business people, in charge of two fast food places and a laundromat. Sunday drives, with the Reeds as guides, included touring several points of interest. Among them the capitol building, LBJ museum, and a cultural museum which records the historical contributions made by people of many nationalities. Other interesting sites were the 'The Alamo' in San Antonio and LBJ's boyhood home in Johnson City. HOLIDAY WED

Capitan Village News

Last Saturday night we had light snow showers and awakened Sunday morning with four and one half inches of snow with blizzard conditions. We did welcome that moisture as we had nothing but high winds and no sign of moisture for weeks.

The Smokey Bear Museum was broken into and vandalized last Friday night. They broke the large window on the right as you enter the Museum. The stained glass window of which we were so proud they broke in 14 places deliberately from the inside, Did much more damage. A number of items were stolen. Thanks to the quick thinking and action of Mike Points and Randy Spears for their prompt and efficient assistance in finding the thieves and recovering some of the stolen property. Jane Browning says she can repair the window but it will be very difficult and expensive.

Mrs. Sharon Hefker from Carrizozo brought ten children to 3~ visit the Smokey Bear Museum and Park Monday. Her son Justin was celebrating his nineth birthday December 25th. They enjoyed the Smokey Bear Movie.

Thirty Thousand nine hundred thirty three visitors registered in the Smokey Bear Museum last year. That is great.

Whoever did all of that damage to that Museum should be made to work hard and pay for it all. That is absolutely nonsense and shame for such things to happen. Someone is failing in their teaching somewhere. Work is the best medicine and it does make one realize the value of things.

During the Holidays a man ran into a pickup at Carmen Luna's home during her absence and ruined the east wall of her home and then backed up and ran into the neighbors garage with damage.

Frankle Tonn entertained the Capitan Roundtable Club at the home of her daughter Emma Jean Hall with a delicious Christmas dinner. The house was beautifully decorated with greenery. Guests were Pat Flately, Louise Ferguson, Marjorie Eldridge, Angle Provine, Lois Aldrich and Emma Jean Hall. All members were present. The president Winifred Cozzens called the meeting to order and presented her staff with gifts. After the exchange of gifts the meeting adjourned and they spent the afternoon visiting. The next meeting will be with Christmas guests were their three children and their families. Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Jones and three children of Artesia, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Jones and two children of Ft. Stanton' and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baca and three children of Ruidoso.

The workshop which is discussed at the workshop are the sources and consequences of stress, stress in the individual and in the organization, measuring and reducing stress, and action planning for stress management.

Euroliment for this program will be limited to stimulate individual involvement and to encourage discussion of problems and techniques with instructors and other participants, said John Warner; director of the center.

"A wide range of instructional techniques and instruments will be used during the workshop to insure the greatest value in skill building and managerial application," he added.

The fee for the program is $245, which includes all program materials luncheons and refreshments, but excludes lodging. A 10percent discount is automatically available to any organization sending three or more people.

Expenses incurred for continuing management education may be tax deductible if undertaken to maintain and improve professional skills. Warner said. This includes tuition, travel, meals and lodging.

For more information on the workshop, or to enroll, contact the Management Development Center through the UNM School of Management.
