Malpais Colts win a national award

A New Mexico 4-H club has been selected to receive a 1983 Citizenship-in-Action grant, provided by Reader's Digest Foundation.

The Malpais Colts, Carrizozo, are among 43 4-H groups in 26 states awarded seed money for community projects. The group will receive $410 toward upgrading the condition of the local swimming pool, one of the few recreation facilities serving six geographically isolated towns and villages. The improvements will include fence repair, painting, construction of poolside benches and purchase of pool equipment.

The 4-H'ers will seek community involvement through a general meeting, the town council and general publicity. They hope to involve other youth and adults in actual installation of the fence, repair work and installation of equipment.

Grants will be matched by additional funds to be raised locally. Selection of 4-H groups to receive the grants was made by the Cooperative Extension Service. Awards are arranged by National 4-H Council.

Capitan Christmas program tonight

Another stormy week with two inches of snow and lots of ice last week. There have been several accidents at double crossings from ice. Haley's Hill, a big truck jackknifed and equipment had to come from Ruidoso to correct the situation. There were many wrecks there as well. The highway cleared by rain last Friday to Ruidoso and remained clear through Sunday. Sunday night heavy fog and moisture made it icy from Angus to Capitan. Fog was reported heavy at Indian Divide toward Carrizozo Monday morning, Monday, a very cold northwest wind prevailed. It is winter for certain.

There were only 64 visitors last week at Smokey Bear Museum due to, closed highways and the storms. There is no school due to the storm last Thursday.

I appreciated the large group of 4-H young people who came to my home Sunday night at 8 p.m. and sang Christmas carols, ending with their Christmas wishes. Thank you. That was sweet, and I did enjoy it.

The Capitan City Council held its meeting Monday night, Dec. 13.

Howard Shanks resigned at the Capitan Branch Bank last week. We will miss him as he was well liked by everyone. I do wish him success in whatever he does.

A group of Capitan people met at the Catholic Church Center last Saturday for the joy of music and singing. There was Curtis Payne on the fiddle. Others on guitars were Richard Askew, Randle Robbins and Dona Rannels. Singing were Jerry Lobh, Jack Watson, Maurice Frances, Kevin Wolff and Bill Allred. They sang gospel songs, Christmas and real down-home country songs. They had a real good time.

In mid-November, Dr. and Mrs. Rouleau held open house in their new office West Fifth St. Many people enjoyed the opening.

Harry Riser, formerly of Santa Fe, who just came out of the seminary, will be the new Methodist minister starting Jan. 1.

Jerry and Lou Beltran became grandparents of a little granddaughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Mike Aprker in Carrizozo. Nicole Renee was born Dec. 4, 1982.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johanson of Waxahachie, TX, visited his aunt, Jessie Faye, at Ft. Stanton. They planned lunch at Inn of Mountain Gods but the storm prevented that.

Happy birthday to Linda Wright whose day was Dec. 10. And to Guy Apyne who will be 11 years old Dec. 16. May good health and happiness always bless you both.

After the traditional Thanksgiving dinner the mothers were entertained with a program of folk dancing and singing. The Scouts made the candles used for table decorations. The girls then had short rededication and new Scouts received their Girl Scout pins. Troop leaders were LeeAnn Longbotham and Kathy Ross.

Olin's Quick closed the game room for one week due to the children destroying everything. No respect for trash cans or anything else. If they do not take care of it, it will close for good.

Disappointed hunters bag steers

Four deer hunters, disappointed at not being able to bring down a single buck, killed two steers near Corona to alleviate their grief.

They were arrested in Torrance County after they were caught loading the two freshly killed steers into the back of their vehicles. County Sheriff Richard Ness said the four didn't want to go home empty-handed so they shot two head of cattle on a ranch between Willard and Corona. Ness said the men butchered the steers in a field and were loading up the meat when a deputy sheriff drove by and caught them.

Richard Brummett, 28, Margarito Baca, 32, Cruz Padilla, 34, and Richard Padilla, 25, all of Albuquerque, were jailed in Torrance County Jail and charged with cattle rustling with firearm enhancement. Bail was posted at $10,000 each.

"Cattle rustling is a felony," Ness said. "They used to hang guys for it."

CHANGES FOR MOUNTAIN BELL'S RESIDENTIAL CUSTOMERS.

New Year's Day, 1983, will be a day of changes for Mountain Bell. And that means changes in the way you'll do business with us.

Some of these changes you'll like. Some will take getting used to. But all are the result of a Federal Communications Commission decision to increase competition in the telecommunications industry. This should result in a greater choice of products and services. Here's how the changes will affect you.

ORDERING PHONE SERVICE

Beginning January 1, you won't be able to order service or pay your bill at a Bell PhoneCenter. That's because Bell PhoneCenters will no longer be owned and operated by Mountain Bell. They'll be part of American Bell, a new AT&T subsidiary created to compete in the sale of telephone equipment. Some of the existing Bell PhoneCenters will be converted to Mountain Bell Service Centers which we'll operate to do business with you. So you'll still be able to do business with us in person. Although you'll probably find calling us is a faster, more convenient way to take care of your service needs.

Just call your Service Representative to order new service or make changes in your service. You'll find the number listed on your phone bill or in the Customer Guide section in the front of the White Pages Directory.

GETTING TELEPHONES AND REPAIR SERVICE

In 1983, you'll still be able to get phones from us at our Service Centers. But your choice of certain styles and colors will be limited to our current supply. You can also get phones from other suppliers. When you get telephones from us, you can either pick them up or have them delivered. Delivery will take a few days and there is a charge for this service.

We'll continue to repair or replace equipment purchased or leased from us after January 1. Our repair service numbers are listed in the Customer Guide. Equipment obtained from other suppliers should be returned to them for repair.

PAYING YOUR BILL

The easiest way to pay your bill is to mail it. Call your Service Representative for questions about your bill or for the nearest location to pay in person. The number is listed on your bill and in the Customer Guide.

USING THE CUSTOMER GUIDE

Most of the information in the Customer Guide section of the White Pages Directory will continue to be helpful when these changes occur. However, some changes may have been made after the Customer Guide went to press. Your Service Representative will always have the latest information and is ready to help you. As you can see, many of the coming changes will mean more choices for you. But what's best about your service won't change. You can always depend on our continuing commitment to excellence for quality, reliable service in the future.

CALL 1 800 555-5000* AND LET'S TALK

Letters to the Editor

Morales 'does his job well'

EDITOR—In response to "Name Withheld" who stated that they thought Chief C. A. Morales was not doing his job and was just riding around collecting his salary.

You also stated that if Mr. Morales didn't know who was perpetrating these crimes he was either stupid or blind. Are you insinuating that Chief Morales is covering up for somebody? If anyone is stupid I would say it's all these people who are trying to get Chief Morales out of office.

And if anyone is blind it's the officers who were on duty the nights that these crimes occurred. Most, if not all of these crimes took place on Main and Central Streets and as far as I know both of these streets are well illuminated. Where were these officers when these crimes were taking place? Maybe they were having one of their extra long coffee breaks at their fellow officers' home.

Or better still, maybe they were all parked together at the Texaco Station. This has been known to happen because on many Friday and Saturday nights I have been out riding around and have seen it with my own eyes.

How do you expect for Mr. Morales to solve these crimes when his fellow officers aren't out there patrolling when they should be?

His day ends at 8 p.m. (if not later) and the other officers take over. You say that he is not doing his job but you expect him to solve crimes that happen when he is not even on duty.

Do you think that you can do his job better or know of someone who can? If so please come forward. I'm not saying that I can do a better job than the other officers and I wouldn't even try. But I do know what I see and what I see is a man very dedicated to his job. He likes what he does and he must like it very much because he's been at it for 24 years.

As for the people who are supporting him, they may not have had their businesses broken into or vandalized but did you ever stop to think that maybe they feel he's done his job and done it well? These are not the only crimes committed in Carrizozo, there are many. And many of these people have been helped out by Chief Morales in some way or another.

So for those of you who also think that Chief Morales is not doing his job, here's my opinion: If Chief Morales isn't doing his job and needs to leave, then so do the other officers.

NAME WITHHELD

Daughter speaks up

EDITOR—In a recent letter, it was suggested that Morales resign. First of all, you don't spend half of your life (24 years) working and doing something that you are good at and enjoy doing, and expect to resign or quit just cause a "Nobody" or a "Name Withheld" suggests that you do so. Don't you know that when the going gets tuff, the tuff get going?

For one who ousts an opinion so freely and demanding, I would think He-She would have the courage to sign something other than "Name Withheld," or at least, "Able to take Over."

About the people who supported Mr. Morales at the Town Meeting, I am sure they had their own reasons for doing so. Just like you did for writing and not signing your name. You said that everyone who voiced their opinion at the meeting had no right to do so. Well, I don't recall you speaking up to say a word either. Could it have been maybe because you were "Unable to Vote," "Out of bounds" or even "Physically there but Speechless" and other wise know as "Name Withheld"? These people may not vote in town elections and live within the city limits (I really wouldn't know, but I leaving that up to you since you feel it is your priority, I wouldn't want to deprive you of it) but they have every right to voice their opinions, I don't care if it's For or Against. The people's taxes pay his salary, NOT their ability to vote or home location. Imagine paying three votes for a loaf of bread? It's a good thing our economy doesn't work that way, you'd probably be starving.

If you think the job is all driving around and collecting a salary, why not try it? It sure would be nice to have someone perfect out there busseling and doing their job from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., (sometimes longer) who could solve all these mysterious crimes in our town; especially since the crimes usually happen after 8 p.m. But since your such a qualified, able and hard worker, no doubt you'd be willing to work 26 hours a day and be at all places at one time. Since you don't feel Mr. Morales can handle it, why not take the job yourself? Why should Mr. Morales resign? I'm sure that the town would be glad to employ an "Ironside" and just imagine, no more crime.

Since this might have a big influence on you and we're already this far, I'll have you know that I do live within the city limits, pay my taxes and I've been a registered voter probably about as long as you've been perfect.

I know what I'm talking about, Chief Morales is a great man (perfect in my eyes) and very qualified and Good at his job. This is not a baised opinion. Even I slow down when I see him.

SANDRA E. MORALES

'Unique newspaper' . . .

EDITOR—Please enter as much subscription to your unique newspaper as $10 will buy. Check enclosed. Send to Harry R. Coffman, Vassar, Kansas, and you look up the ZIPs I don't have it.

Harry and I used to team up and fight for all those causes that moody were of the lost variety. And he had a buff fascination for editorial expression found only in the weekly press and there only in rare instances, the kind which dared the wrath of status quo and flaunted political conventions in order that the truth of matters might get a chance to peek through even in small degree.

He'll love your weekly output even as I do and probably will want to extend your reach of spade calling to other friends still on his list.

I predict that, given a little more time, that little newspaper of yours will make Carrizozo known in ever widening circles throughout the land. And I hope the advertisers in your wide area are quick to realize what a great little paper the Lincoln County News is in which to merchandise their wares.

Start my friend Harry with last week's issue if you still have some around. I would send him my copy except that we already sent it to other friends.

An Episcopal resolution against (some) obscenity

By REV. LESTER KINSOLVING
NEW YORK — Those who are morally scrupulous among the nation's nearly three million Episcopalians will be relieved to learn that at long last their denomination's Executive Council has passed a resolution against obscenity — at least one form of it.

Episcopal Church national headquarters is located in Manhattan, at the corner of 43rd Street and 2nd Ave. Has this council ever expressed its opposition to the live-sex-on state shows or the kiddie porn movies which enjoy big box office around the corner and just a few blocks down 42nd street?

"I can't recall," replied the Rev. William Drew Dearnaley, the denomination's assistant press officer.

Has the Executive Council enunciated any opposition to last spring's annual Gay Pride Parade there in Manhattan — which parade included NAM-BLA? (The North American Man-Boy Love Association, an organization of child molesters who want to eliminate any age of consent and who paraded in bathing suits with each adult accompanied by a similarly attired little boy.) "I don't believe they did," answered Father Dearnaley. "We have an Episcopal gay organization called 'Integrity.'"

Has the Episcopal Executive Council ever repudiated the denomination's publishing house for its publishing of "The Sex Atlas," which among other avant garde positions approved of bestiality — provided it was not painful to any beasts?

"I don't think so," answered Father Dearnaley.

Has the Episcopal Executive Council ever spoken against 42nd Street's thriving child prostitution, 11,000 of whose victims are being provided with food, shelter, medical treatment and protection by Father Bruce Ritter's Covenant House over on the West Side?

"I think the Diocese of New York may have contributed some money to that," said Father Dearnaley.

How has the Episcopal Church's top national leadership taken a stand against obscenity, or a sort?

Well, the Executive Council called upon "local church groups to press state, regional and

New Mexico in Washington

Teddy's spectacular exit

By LESTER KINSOLVING
WASHINGTON — New Mexico's Congressional delegation was busy that morning with either Lame Duck legislation or the orientation session for incoming Congressional freshmen. Hence they were not present to witness what was surely a political masterpiece.

The Edward Moore Kennedy Withdrawal Ceremony was an occasion of such solemn magnitude as to nearly eclipse the state funeral for Comrade Brezhnev.

One-half hour prior to the scheduled beginning of this historic event, the spacious Senate Labor Committee hearing room in the Dirksen Office Building was already jammed to overflow. (Senator Kennedy's enormously astute political handlers avoided the much larger Russell Office Building Caucus Room, where three Kennedy's, including Teddy, had announced Presidential candidacies. Hence, there was standing room only and very little of that.)

Two long embankments of TV cameras were emplaced in order to convey to the waiting world the confirmation from his very own lips of a story which had leaked earlier and had appeared the previous day on Page One from Bangor to Dan Diego and from Paris to Peking.

The Washington Post was among those on hand: (at least) three of its columnists and one reporter. Two of these Post people were awarded reserved seats, in order that they might witness the Senator's personal enunciation of a Calvin Coolidge-type decision that "I do not to choose to run."

In 1964, that is. As for 1980, 1982, 1986 (or even 2000 — when Teddy will be two years younger than Ronald Reagan on his inauguration day), The Great 3M (Master of Media Manipulation) titillated almost everybody by observing: "I enjoyed campaigning in Iowa! And who knows, I might do it again!"

This glowing affirmation (of the delights of campaigning in sub-zero Iowa in January) evoked a roar of appreciative mirth from the largely worshipful Fourth Estate.

The Official Ceremony actually began at 11:25 a.m. Eastern Standard Time, when a great hush came over the sardine-congested room, as the Kennedy family were escorted to their pew — uh — their seats.

Strikingly handsome children, Patrick, Kara and Ted, plus Aunts Ethel and Eunice — but no Joan.

The senator was unusually candid about Joan. He referred to their current divorce procedure as being "painful." (If Mrs. Ted Kennedy decides to name any names, or to list his hits, runs and errors, painful will be hardly the word.)

The utterly charming senator, who is always eloquent-in-a-crowd, played the media as if he were E. Power Biggs.

Almost all of the questioners (with the notable exception of CBS's very gutsy Capitol Hill correspondent, Phil Jones) asked questions with the same reverential style as if it were either St. Francis of Assisi or Mother Teresa.

Kennedy's master ploy came when he was asked by syndicated columnist Mary McGrory who it is that he thinks is now the front-running Democratic Presidential hopeful.

The straight-to-solemn Kennedy face immediately erupted into that great grin which has driven so many Democrats into political ecstasy.

"Why Mary!" crooned Kennedy. "You know perfectly well what the answer is to that. And I'll read about it tomorrow in your column!"

After an hour or so of quivering, Miss McGrory, who has proven enormously susceptible to Kennedy males, delivered.

Her readers from coast to coast (and all the ships at sea) were told in timeless prose of the Arthurian (if temporary) Passing of "The champion of the widow and the orphan, the grieving and the dispossessed. . . the stalwart liberal. . . the big fellow. . . with high style, high feeling and a huge gallery. . . (for whom) thunderous applause broke out."

Miss McGrory did not bother, for some reason, to mention the precise source of all that thunder, which is information which may have also eluded many of the nationwide TV audience, on all three networks, live.

For the applause came not from the reporters (however moved they were when this royalty entered.) That frenzied handclapping came from Kennedy staffers, a clique of Beautiful People who have been strategically placed, Right On Camera, just behind Himself.

Outside, I had seen a line of reporters — but there was no room for them in the Inn.

All the reserved seats were designated for representatives of media organizations that are, like Senator Ted himself, big, rich

For the Big Fellow who is a Stalwart Liberal does not champion any of the dispossessed among the media, who stood in line in what was, compared to the TV glistening, outer darkness.

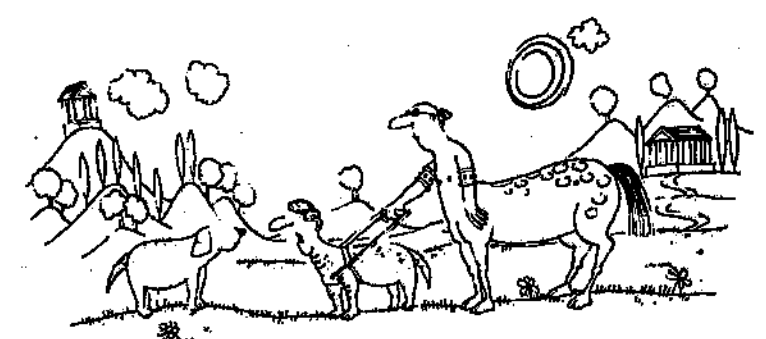

● NEW MEXICO newspapers are on a crusade to punish people who smoke tobacco. One of our neighboring newspapers came out boldly last week in support of laws to prohibit smoking in public buildings and places where the public gathers, such as in restaurants, on airplanes and at the welfare office. Many people find tobacco smoke distasteful and even hazardous to their health. A great many others enjoy smoking and don't give a hoot about its hazards, if any. Me, I can't stand people whose feet stink. I want something done about it. As long as prohibition is working for smokers, I demand legislation to set aside sections in public places for people with stinking feet that annoy me and affects my health. They make me throw up. As long as we are harrasing offensive people from decent society, I want something done about those who don't bathe except on an annual or semi-annual basis and who pass me trailing an odoriferous wake that smells like the low end of a horseshot after a heavy rain. The unwashed should not be permitted to mingle with devotees of the daily shower. This goes double for those cursed with flatulence, which offends my sensibilities, good humor and probably causes cancer of the lungs. While dogooders of this world are making things pleasant for themselves and nobody else, shall we continue to let people with halitosis run at large? Bad breath certainly gives offense to many people and causes nausea among those who brush regularly, gargle with Listerine and munch Clorets. Smelly armpits. I want those with unwashed armpits confined to corrals nearest the washrooms where they will feel more comfortable and lessen distress among deodorant users. Finally, I advocate a return to the duckingstool for thoughtless busybodies who are causing me apoplexy and are ruining my health and disposition by commanding that I "have a nice day" when I am exercising my right to have a lousy day. These Little Mary Sunshines should not be permitted to practice their inanity among millions of unoffending grouches who are the backbone of this tottering republic.

● APPLYING the principle that sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander, I propose that smokers boycott all those places where smoking is prohibited. There's no excuse to patronize a store that has a sign reading: "Thank you for not smoking." There's another store down the street that deals in the sale of goods rather than in social reform. The right of a non-smoker to be protected from tobacco smoke is no less sacrosanct than the smoker's right to inhale what he damn well pleases. Smokers are certainly more tolerant than non-smokers. I have yet to hear of a smoker approaching a non-smoker to demand that he fire up, yet I have seen non-smokers charge across an entire room to berate a person who lit a cigarette. If smokers organize themselves, acquire some picket signs, and withhold their patronage they can rule the world. Non-smokers must realize that tobacco was the only excuse Columbus had for discovering America in the first place!

● I AM reading this delightful little hate sheet put out by La Raza Unida, whatever that is. The mimeographed newsletter doesn't state who publishes it, or where, or even why. But why the editor hasn't been yanked up for libel is puzzling. In discussing the judiciary, it says of Judge Robert Doughty that he "is a religious fanatic." "Judge Zimmerman," it continues, "is mad with power. His demeanor with the public sometimes leaves much to be desired. He is also a male chauvinist and his decisions in domestic relations cases often reflect this attitude." Judge Baylor, according to the newsletter, is senile. "And Judge Bradley is the most ignorant honky that has ever claimed to be a human being. He is the rudest, cruelest, most drunken excuse for a judge that has ever sat behind the bench."

GOOD TASTE is evidently not among virtues of the editor. There are 46 names on a famous four-letter "list" in this Sept. 30 issue. Judge Bradley's name leads all the rest. A few names on the list are familiar. Ranking No. 2 is State Police Sgt. Jack E. Johnson who requested that his name be included. Aubrey Dunn and Billie Holder of the Alamogordo Daily News are 13 and 15, respectively. It must cause anguish to Robert O. Anderson that he ranks 39th on the list, below Menachem Begin, Ariel Sharon and Ronald Reagan. Jesus didn't even make it. Also missing from the list is the new Soviet leader Yuri Andropov, Muammar Qaddafi, Fidel Castro, Ayatollah Khomeini and other certified tyrants—which ought to tell us something. Magistrate S. M. Ortiz was honored in No. 4 place.

● ONE OF the most reoccurring rumors is that Southern Pacific Railroad plans to reactivate Carrizozo as a division point on its system. This time, the rumor has some truth. I talked Monday morning with SP headquarters in Tucson, AZ, and was informed that a formal announcement will be made this week or next that crews on Southern Pacific Tucumcari Line trains will change in Carrizozo. No further details are available at presstime, other than that Willie Silva of the Four Winds Restaurant has confirmed that the railroad has entered into a contract with his restaurant to stay open 24 hours a day to service the needs of train crews. Silva also announced that he and Al Romero are building a new motel across the highway from Jackie's Cafe to provide lodging for railroad crews. Construction of a 24-unit motel is expected to begin in January, Silva said. This will be quite a shot-in-the-arm for local economy, and one that will endure unless merchants begin raising their prices. From talking with oldtimers I gather that other enterprises coming to Carrizozo have been killed because prices on rents and consumer goods were hiked beyond reason, causing people to leave and seek less expensive living conditions. The "goose" has been strangled here before, and it would be nice for everybody if it doesn't happen again. Well, we hope to have more information on the railroad's plans for Carrizozo in next week's issue.

"We're both suing the drug company."

Capitan tramples Dexter

The Capitan Tigers ran over Dexter 75-60 Friday night in a fast moving game at Capitan.

It was the home opener for the Tigers as they picked up their third win against one loss.

The Tigers started slow and trailed the Demons 17-12 at the first quarter. Midway through the second period, Capitan found a way to get through the Dexter defense and pulled ahead 35-29 at halftime. Dexter stayed close until the fourth quarter and then the Tigers won going away.

Grady Eldridge scored a career high 26 points to lead Capitan. Senior Robert Parker added 21 and guard Sammy Castillo had 16.

Dexter won the junior varsity game by a wide margin. The Tigers face Magdalena at home on the 18th for the last game before the Christmas break.

The Tigerettes were idle last week after having to drop out of the Floyd tournament due to the storm. They will play at Ruidoso Friday night and are at home with Magdalena Saturday.

Magdalena falls to Carrizozo

Saturday, the varsity girls and boys teams played Magdalena here in Carrizozo, with both teams winning.

The varsity boys played a close game with the Steers up to the end, but put them down 82-75. The team scored well with Kevin Wilmore and John Roueche leading the team with 20 points each. Timmy Vega was close with 19 points. Coach Hal Roueche was pleased with the game commenting that the boys played a good hard ball game. "Our offense and defense is still developing," said Roueche who believes the boys haven't reached their potential yet.

The varsity girls boosted their season record to 5-2 after defeating Magdalena 50-37. Top scorers were Christetta Chavez, 18 points and Annette Hill, 11. Karen Baca led the Magdalena Steers with 16 points. At halftime the game was tied 20-20. After halftime the game went Carrizozo's way.

Junior teams overcome by Alamogordo

The Carrizozo Junior High girl and boy basketball teams played two games last week.

The first was on Monday, Dec. 6, against Alamogordo. Alamogordo boys defeated Carrizozo 15-95. The AAAA school clearly outsize the Carrizozo team, which was a great factor to the outcome.

The Carrizozo Junior High girls were also beaten, 51-5. Carrizozo's only scorers for that game were Marcella Sandoval, 4 points, and Sandra Ramirez, 1 point.

However, both teams got a good comeback when they played the next day against Cloudfroft. The Carrizozo Junior High boys won 41-17. Tommy Escamilla led the team with 18 points. Other high scorers were Hal Roueche, 7 points, and Randy Koller, 6 points.

The girls won their match, 23-11. Karen Baroz made points for high scorer of the evening and Judi Villescás scored 6 points.

The Junior High teams will play Cloudfroft here on Jan. 4, 4 p.m.

Special Olympics for the retarded

The first Southern New Mexico Winter Special Olympic Games were held at Eagle Creek Ski area last year, but only a few local mentally retarded persons participated because there had been no organization in Lincoln County.

That is changed this year. A special Lincoln County group is organized in Ruidoso to encourage local participation.

The program is open to every retarded individual (anyone with an IQ of 70 or below). It offers competition and training in 16 official sports, including skiing, swimming, gymnastics, track and field, soccer, basketball, volleyball and bowling.

Jeanne Culbertson, recreation director for Fort Stanton Hospital and Training School, spearheaded the drive to involve Lincoln County's retarded in some of these activities. Mary Lee Cates, White Mountain Middle School special education instructor, is the area coordinator and serves as local representative to the state board. Other members of the council are Robbie Matthews, Carla Beasley, Hilde Strobel, Barby Grant, Charles Spooner, Glen Ferguson, Nancy Radziewicz, Jimmy Goodwin, Danny Flores, Bobby Palm, Tom Hart and Rick Glenn.

Culbertson estimates there are about 100 mentally retarded in the county who have never participated in Special Olympics.

Registration for the 1983 Special Olympic Winter Games, to be held at Eagle Creek, Jan. 25-28, is open until Dec. 31. Anyone interested in signing up can contact Culbertson at 257-7225 or 354-2211.

3-day invitational this weekend

The Grizzly Invitational will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 16-18. Eight girl teams and four boys teams will compete in a round robin.

Girl teams include Mountainair, Grady, Goddard JV, Hondo, Vaughn, Tularosa, Carrizozo and Quemado. The boy teams represent Carrizozo, Vaughn, Quemado and Hondo.

On Thursday the games will begin at 2 p.m. with the girl teams of Goddard vs Hondo in the old gym and Vaughn vs Tularosa in the new gym. Following games are Mountainair vs Grady at 4 p.m. in the new gym and Carrizozo vs Quemado at 8 p.m. in the new gym.

In the boys round robin Carrizozo will play Vaughn at 6 p.m. in the new gym and Quemado will play Hondo at 4 p.m. in the old gym.

Team trophies and all-tournament team trophies will be presented on Saturday after the last game of the evening, which begins at 8 p.m. The handcrafted sports trophies which will be presented were designed by Bill MacVeigh of Capitan.

FFA pushing for an alumni

Seeing an opportunity to promote a greater knowledge of the agricultural industry and support education in agriculture, former members of the Future Farmers of America launched a major drive this week in the Carrizozo area to form an FFA Alumni Assn.

The aim is to provide a mechanism whereby former members can actively promote and support the FFA organization, FFA activities, and vocational agriculture.

The local drive is part of a state and national effort currently underway to unite former members into the FFA Alumni Assn.

"Since the FFA Alumni Assn. is a newly formed organization, those who join now will be the charter members of the Carrizozo FFA Alumni Assn.," said Billy Bob Shafer, acting president of the local organizational effort, "and we would like to have as many charter members as possible."

"We seek the help of every potential member in the area to organize and charter the local FFA Alumni Assn.," said Shafer. All former, active, collegiate, or honorary FFA and NFA members, present and former professional vocational agricultural educators, parents of FFA members, and others interested in the FFA are eligible for membership.

According to the local chapter advisor Mike Gaines, a minimum of 10 members is needed to charter a local affiliate. "It's hard to estimate the number of potential members in this area," he said. "But we hope to have at least 35 members by our first meeting."

All are invited to attend a special meeting at the Vv. Ag. classroom on Monday, Jan. 10, at 8 p.m., for the purpose of organizing the local FFA Alumni Assn. Anyone who cannot attend is urged to contact Mike Gaines or Billy Bob Shafer for more information.

Domenici's tribute to Schmitt

WASHINGTON — US Sen. Pete V. Domenici saluted his outgoing colleague, US Sen. Harrison Schmitt, on the floor of the Senate last Wednesday as "one of the most distinguished individuals which my beloved home state — the great state of New Mexico has ever produced."

"His accomplishments are legion," Domenici told the Senate. "He is a man who has risen from a modest beginning in southwestern New Mexico to the highest plateaus of human achievement. He has served this august body with distinction. He is a credit to his country." Domenici noted Schmitt is one of only 12 men in history who has ever walked on the moon and that Saturday marked the 10th anniversary of that historic event.

"Those of us who knew him well know that his flight was merely a single milestone along a sterling path of achievement," Domenici said. "Clearly his record is an admirable one."

"During his service here, he was a leader in issues dealing with science and technology, energy, space and many other areas. Few men can match his extraordinary background."
