Grizzlies place 7 on All-District 1st team

The District 1-A football coaches elected seven Grizzly players to the first team All-District squad.

Offensively, Stevie Stearns was picked at running back, Daryl Lindsay as guard, Robin Beltran as center and Kenny Crenshaw as end. Defensively, the coaches selected Gilbert Zamora as Linebacker, John Roueche at defensive back and David LaMay at defensive tackle.

The Grizzlies placed six players on the All-District 2nd team. Offensively, coaches picked John Roueche, running back, Charles Zamora, tackle and Duane Zamora, quarterback. Defensively, Juan Osorio was chosen linebacker, Gray Gallacher, end, and Charles Zamora, tackle.

"I also think some of our kids who were injured would have had a good shot at making these teams if they had not missed some games due to injury. Players like Bennie Zamora, who played very well for us at tackle but broke his arm against Reserve; Troy Hollis, who has great athletic ability but broke his hand in our Animas scrimmage; and Gabriel Chavez who was just starting to get a lot of playing time, but broke his finger in the Estancia game. I look for these guys and the rest of our younger players to make these teams in future seasons."

Computer club open to parents

Membership in the Carrizozo Schools Computer Club has now been opened to include parents from the Carrizozo community and surrounding area.

A special benefit of club membership is the opportunity to purchase personal computers for home use through the club, taking advantage of the educational discount price. Club membership is $5 per year, payable through Bob Hemphill, club sponsor.

The computer purchasing service through the club is to encourage parents to provide additional educational opportunities and reinforcement in the home. Call Hemphill at 648-2401 for additional details.

Grizzly cagers open season

The Grizzly basketball team will open the season here Saturday, Nov. 19 against Mountainair. Boys and girls varsity teams will compete, with the girls game starting at 5 p.m. according to Ron Becker, coach for both boys and girls varsity teams.

WSMR ranchers in Washington

WASHINGTON — Senator Pete Domenici (R-NM), in his opening statement Tuesday afternoon at the oversight hearing on the White Sands Missile Range Land Acquisition said the question in these cases "does not really revolve around legal issues, but rather whether or not a group of loyal American citizens were treated fairly by their government over the course of the past 40 years."

Domenici, who requested the formal hearing as a member of the Public Lands and Reserved Water Subcommittee of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources, said he hoped the results of today's hearing would "give us a pool of knowledge which Congress can use to settle this issue of fairness and compensation for our New Mexican ranchers once and for all."

"This is the first official Senate hearing on the subject in which the ranchers are allowed to fully present their side of the story," Domenici said.

Six White Sands ranchers testified at the hearing today, chaired by Senate Malcolm Wallop (R-Wyo). They included Charlie Lee and G. B. Oliver Jr. of Alamogordo, Dolly Helms and Pat Wither of Oscuro, Mrs. Priscilla Ortiz of Rio Rancho, and Dave McDonald of Socorro. Testifying also for the ranchers at the hearing were Rubin Pankey of the New Mexico Cattlegrowers Association and Bob Jones, head of the New Mexico Public Lands Council.

"It appears to me that the reason we are here today is because the federal government was indecisive in what they wanted to do with the White Sands ranchers," Domenici explained in his opening statement. "First, they forced them off their ranches in 1942."

"Then they returned to their ranches for a short period following the war, but were forced off again," Domenici continued. "Then, almost 30 years later, the government decided it needed to acquire complete ownership of the land."

"Literally, these ranchers were kept in a state of suspended animation for the past 40 years," Domenici said. "We need this hearing to settle this question of fairness and equity once and for all."

"I have submitted questions to the federal agencies involved because there was not enough time in the hearing to have them each testify," Domenici said. "When we receive this technical information, it will be included in the hearing testimony and be used when the subcommittee files its report on the best course of action to take in this matter."

Smokey Bear will have 'His Day'

Inspired by the announcement that the U.S. Postal Department will issue a commemorative postage stamp in 1984 honoring Smokey the Bear, the Captain Chamber of Commerce and the Village of Capitan are making plans for an annual Smokey Bear Day, the first to be held May 26, 1984.

At a meeting held Nov. 9 at the Tushawakey RV Camp, Mrs. Rose Garner was named to head a committee to contact all Lincoln County organizations and urge their participation. Tentative plans for the first Smokey Bear Day include a parade with the theme "Nature and Children," floats with 30 different titles to choose from, changing the date of the Arts and Crafts Show to coincide with the celebration, a dance the evening of May 26, and booths and entertainment at the Lincoln County Fairgrounds and the Capitan Tiger Football Field.

Information leaflets will be made available. Donations are being accepted to defray expenses of the event, and may be taken or sent to the Ruidoso State Bank, Capitan Branch.

Carrizozo Schools is grant finalist

The Apple Education Foundation of Cupertino, CA has named Carrizozo High School as one of 94 finalists in a national computer grant application.

Some 1400 applications were submitted to the Apple Foundation in September, detailing plans for the use of 30 microcomputers in a two-year educational program. Ninety-four finalists were selected out of the 1400 applications, from which 12 award recipients will be designated on January 20, 1984. The Carrizozo application, co-authored by Bob Hemphill and Jim Miller of the Carrizozo

Schools, was developed with New Mexico State University, the International Space Hall of Fame, and the Las Cruces and Alamogordo Public Schools.

MEMBERS of the Carrizozo FFA chapter attended the 56th National FFA Convention in Kansas City last week where they received special recognition for the chapter's achievements in the National FFA Safety Award Program. The chapter was one of the 148 Safety Award winners that received special recognition. Joseph L. Downey, general manager, Dow Agricultural Products Department, Dow (Chemical, USA, (left to right), Mervyn H. Manning, vice-president and general manager of Ford Tractor Operations, extended congratulations to chapter safety representatives Joe Candelaria, Daryl Lindsey and their adviser, Randy Rhue, on earning a National FFA Safety Award.

CARRIZOZO FFA received national recognition for achievement in community development activities. Left to right, Frank W. Naylor Jr., US Department of Agriculture; M. Laird Wilson, vice-president, Del Monte Corporation; Steve Stearns, chairman of the chapter's BOAC committee, and Randy Rhue, FFA Adviser. The BOAC program recognizes FFA chapters for their community development activities.

FFA wins its share of honors at Kansas City

Carrizozo Future Farmers of America is back from a successful trip to the nation's bread basket—Kansas City. The 11 students and four sponsors departed from Carrizozo on Sunday, Nov. 6 to attend the National FFA convention.

Members who made the trip include John Roueche, Geneva Maxwell, Daryl Lindsay, Carlos Sanchez, Gray Gallacher, Steven Stearns, Joseph Candelaria and Mike Curtiss. Also attending the conference and participating in the National Agriculture Mechanics contest were Adrien Sanchez, John Hemphill and Melody Hefker. They brought an award home from the bronze category for their efforts. Parts of the contest included the ability to pour and finish a 24- by 16-inch concrete slab complete with wire mesh, run a profile leveling course and plot it on a field book, and answer a 75 question quiz over the areas of Ag machinery, electric power and processing plumbing and carpentry.

The team also had to troubleshoot a list of abnormal adjustments on a 2750 John Deere tractor, and be able to do a series of wiring skills. There were 43 teams taking part in the contest and the chapter from Minnesota won for the fourth year in a row.

The Carrizozo chapter was awarded a silver emblem in the Chapter Safety Contest. This award goes to chapters that demonstrate good safety procedures in everyday work in the shop, and also put forth an effort to improve community safety. Some of the projects the FFA held for Carrizozo include painting crosswalks and holding a shop safety coloring contest for elementary students.

In the National "Building Our American Communities" contest, Carrizozo FFA earned a gold emblem, the highest award achievable for chapter, for the second year in a row.

Local BOAC projects included in the past year were the fencing and clearing of a new softball park, and the pouring of a concrete slab for a basketball court in the Fred Chavez Memorial Park. Plans to improve the softball park through the planting of grass and the erection of dugouts are scheduled for next year's BOAC project. Also included in the BOAC projects was the processing of 16,500 pounds of meat at the lab that the FFA has at the Vo. Ag. farm just west of town. The national BOAC contest is sponsored by the R. J. Reynolds company and only 23 out of 8,300 chapters are awarded this emblem.

Some of the speakers at the convention were Zig Ziglar, motivational speaker, and Bob Mowab.

NOTICE

Because of the Thanksgiving holiday Thursday, Nov. 24, the Lincoln County News will be published a day early, on Nov. 23. News correspondents and advertisers are advised to submit their copy at least one day earlier than usual.

Regular Thursday publications will resume following the holiday.

SUN Duchess '83 Lisa Cantrell is pictured in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stirling Spencer who hosted a reception and auction in her honor Saturday. On hand were representatives of Ruidoso State Bank, Citizen State Bank, Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club and Lions Club, who presented Miss Cantrell with checks to assist in her representation of Carrizozo at the Sun Carnival festivities in El Paso. Barbara Langley is chairman of the Sun Duchess Committee, a project of the Carrizozo Woman's Club.

CC membership in progress

The Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce is holding its annual drive for new and renewed membership.

Committee members conducting the drive are Tony Sanchez, Aggie Buscek, Woody and Phyllis Schlegel.

Business memberships are $40 per year and individual memberships $10. Membership cards and tax deductible receipts will be given out upon payment of dues.

During 1982-83 the organization sponsored the annual Christmas Lighting Contest, annual bowling tournament, People's Market and Motor Coach convention. This year it will sponsor an endurance run after the first of the year. The Chamber supports the Future Farmers of America, Lincoln County Ranch Tour, Carrizozo's Sun Duchess entrant and Crime Stoppers. It also advertises the municipal airport and golf course.

Officers for 1983-84 are Eric Lynch, president; Tony Sanchez, vice-president; Rita Narvaez, secretary; Phyllis Schlegel, treasurer; and a new position of executive director filled by Woody Schlegel.

White Oaks

By ROSE VINSON

Fred Vega and son Freddie were in White Oaks Friday scouting the area that they plan to hunt. Freddie got his first buck last deer season and is looking forward to a bigger one this year. His dad reports the youngster hunts by walking constantly instead of still hunting. Which works for Freddie but wears his dad out.

Visitors to White Oaks Museum included Mr. and Mrs. N. Strelaef from Vancouver, British Columbia, who had read about White Oaks Ghost Town several years ago in New Mexico Magazine. The couple had a difficult time locating White Oaks as it wasn't on any of the maps they could get in Canada. They visited Painted Desert and the Petrified Forest and are continuing on to New Orleans before returning home. Mrs. Strelaef was especially interested in the Brown Store ghost and expressed a wish to stay until night so she could see the ghost for herself. Her husband vetoed that idea.

A PM Magazine camera crew was in White Oaks Monday filming a segment for the TV program. The episode will air Nov. 24.

Chile as much a symbol of Thanksgiving . . .

Most school-age children know that the Pilgrims learned about turkeys, corn and pumpkins from the Indians. Many children and adults, however, don't know that tomatoes, chile, potatoes, sweet potatoes, peanuts, avocados, chocolate and vanilla were familiar foods to Indians in North, Central and South America long before European explorers set foot on American soil.

"These are foods that were unknown to the rest of the world before the discovery of America," says Mae Martha Johnson, extension food and nutrition specialist at New Mexico State University, Las Cruces.

This Thanksgiving, Mrs. Johnson suggests feasting on foods that were America's culinary contributions to the world.

"Start with tomato juice cocktail and avocado dip with corn chips. Then serve roasted turkey with cornbread dressing and cranberry sauce. Serve side dishes of mashed potatoes or sweet potatoes with pineapple, and mixed bean salad with salted peanuts. For an all-American dessert, offer pumpkin pie and chocolate cream pie," Mrs. Johnson suggests.

County postmasters in annual meeting

The Lincoln County Postmaster's Association met at the Smokey Bear Restaurant in Capitan, Nov. 6.

The meeting convened in the new private dining room. Shirlene Roberts, president, presided over the meeting. The invocation was given by Mary L. Joiner and salute to the flag was led by Mabel Wimberly. The Secretary-treasurer's report was read by Maxine Wright.

Pauline Britton and Shirlene Roberts gave brief reports on the State NAPUS Convention which was hosted by Elwood Gradine, postmaster, Ruidoso and Shirlene Roberts, postmaster, Ruidoso Downs, and held at the Inn Of The Mountain Gods in April. They had high praise for the convention and the state and national personnel who attended.

Mary Williamson, service representative and postmaster at Hatch, a special guest, complimented those responsible for the convention. She later talked about her duties as service representative.

Reports from several persons who attended the National NAPUS Convention in San Juan, Puerto Rico in October were given.

Kino Ortiz, postmaster retired, won the trophy for the 8th time in the National Golf Tournament which is held every year at the convention.

Two county postmasters have retired this year, Elwood Gradine, Ruidoso, and Marie Burns, Alto. A gift from the Lincoln County Association was presented to Mrs. Burns. Gradine was not present so will receive his gift at another time.

Ellen Fay Womack reported on the search for suitable quarters for post office memorabilia. It was decided to pursue the search again this year. Those on the committee with Mrs. Womack are Mary L.

Joiner and Louise Babers. A committee was appointed to explore the possibility of updating the Histories of Lincoln County Post Offices. The present slate of officers was selected to serve for another year.

Volunteer hostesses for the 1984 postmasters meeting are Ellen Fay Womack and Della Bonnell, the time and place to be decided at a later date. The meeting adjourned and postmasters and guests enjoyed a roast beef dinner. Postmasters present were Shirlene Roberts, Maxine Wright, Rosalee Paterson, Pauline Britton, Opal Greer, Patsy Racher, Ellen Fay Womack, Della Bonnell, Cecilia Sena and guest postmaster from Cloudercroft, Clint Atwood. Retirees attending were Mabel Wimberly, Frances Shaw, Hattie Phillips, Mary L. Joiner, Marie Burns, Gladys Nosker, Beth Daughtery, Aileen Lindamood, Kino Ortiz and Dorothy Parnell.

Two postmaster replacements were present, Dorothy Talley and Donna Keller. Others joining the group for dinner were Jack Parnell, David Bonnell, Cheryl Atwood and Clyde Williamson.

SMOKING

CITIZENS! Our odyssey begins this week in Queerville, CA where residents have voted to force employers to provide non-smoking and smoking accommodations in all private workplaces—separate but equal facilities. Should a non-smoker be dissatisfied with his employer's policy in this matter, the employer must honor his wish or face a fine of up to $500 a day. But should a smoker be dissatisfied with his employer's policy, he will throw down the elevator shaft. One would think the enlightened electorate of San Francisco would prefer to direct their concern not to non-smokers but to the incidence of AIDS, a self-acquired deadly disease that is claiming the lives of its most visible, vocal and respected sodomites. Actually, last week's display of wisdom is yet another move to split California into two states—one for smoking and the other for non-smoking. The city is already divided into smoking and non-smoking; 80,740 chose to live in the non-smoking side of town and 79,481 voted to stay in the smoking part. There is a rumor, probably premature, that terminally ill patients are requesting to be buried in the non-smoking section of the cemetery. San Francisco being what it is, one must not be surprised if he should one day be offered the opportunity to cross the Non-Smoking Golden Gate Bridge or go with the Smoking Golden Gate Bridge.

MRS. MARY Anderson returned to her Charlton, MA home one day last week to find a strange man taking a bubble bath in her tub. Set upon by police, intruder James S. Kadar claimed that he had a constitutional right to stay warm and dry. And in Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, Elmer Osborne returned to his lakeside cabin to find that someone had stolen his new outhouse, leaving only the hole in the ground. The culprit, still at large, has a far better constitutional claim than does the bubble-bather.

IN Santa Fe, Gov. Toney Anaya's Commission on Public Schools (composed of school people naturally) has recommended raising teachers salaries to $25,000 a year (entering salary) to improve the quality of education. The assumption is that practically doubling salaries will attract better qualified teachers. The facts are otherwise. The recommendation, if adopted, means that the same teachers who are now teaching children for $15,000 a year will still be teaching them, but for $25,000 a year. The increased pay will go to the same teachers now employed because the problem teachers also have tenure and can't be fired to make room for bright new ones. Union rules, you see. The National Education Association, the richest and most arrogant labor union in existence, and which dominates this commission, has just recommended further feathering of its nest—and with little chance of improving the quality of education in New Mexico.

THE State Department of Public Instruction in Iowa has declared unconstitutional a rule which prohibits note-passing among 7th and 8th grade students during class because it violates their right of free speech.

INTERIOR Secretary James Watt incurred the wrath of the Washington Post recently when he overruled a request by the Paiute Indians in Nevada to operate a brothel "with three red lights no more than 200 watts each . . . and clean sheets." The Indians claimed they need quick, income-producing businesses. Watt ruled (horrid person): "Commerce generated by prostitution is not the kind of economic development envisioned by federal policy." Guess what. The Indians have filed suit against the Department of Interior in US District Court in Nevada. Is there now a constitutional right to operate a brothel?

THE Railroad station at Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwyrndrobwllllantysiliogogogoch, Wales, is up for sale for $255,000—along with instructions on how to pronounce the 58-letter name and a lesson in how to spell it. In English, the name means "St. Mary's Church in the hollow of the white hazel near a rapid whirlpool and the church of St. Tysilio near a red cave." Why didn't they say so?

THE bigger the lie the more people will believe it. Hear the words of the Divine Sen. Edward M. Kennedy (D-MA): "If Robert Kennedy were alive today, he would be the first person to say that J. Edgar Hoover's reckless campaign against Martin Luther King was a shame and a blot on American history." Fact: it was then Attorney General Robert Kennedy, Ted's brother, convinced that King was a tool of Communists, and after having personally warned King to cease his association with known Communists, authorized the wire-tapping of King's hotel and motel rooms. There are 65,000 pages of FBI testimony already declassified and made public from the government's report ordered sealed for 50 years. Those 65,000 pages prove King to have been associated with known Communists, and that he knew they were Communists. It also proves the Hero of Chappaquiddick to be a consummate liar, and therefore believable.

IF ANY of you are headed toward Oregon, be sure and stop at Antelope to get your faith renewed. The city of Antelope has just approved nudity in its new public park . . . Residents of Bakersfield, CA voted 4-1 recently against a federal plan to build a Cuban refugee center in their town. They lost a $900,000 federal grant that would have added 800 Cuban refugees from a Washington mental hospital to the town's cultural atmosphere. Why not spend $900,000 on a boat to take these people back where they came from?

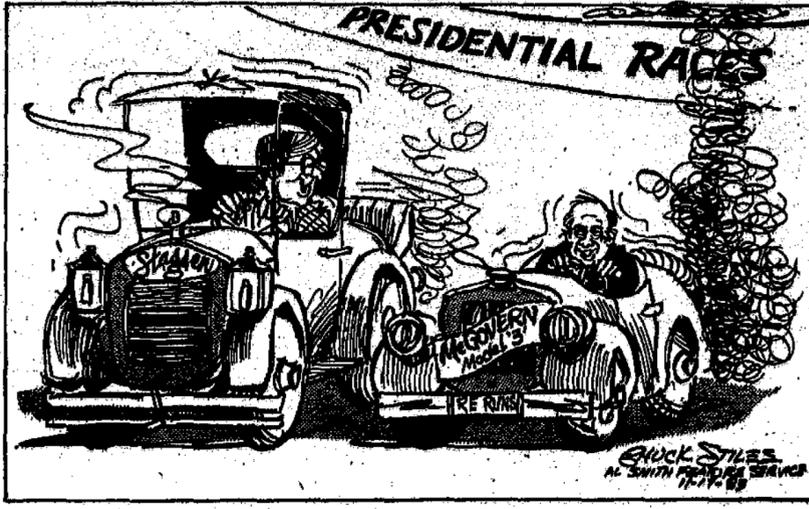

LET'S see now, Democrat Woodrow Wilson got us into World War I, Democrat Franklin D. Roosevelt got us into World War II, carried on by Democrat Harry S. Truman. Democrat John Kennedy got us into Vietnam, with Democrat Lyndon Johnson escalating the war. All liberal Democrats supported these five Democrat presidents in waging their respective wars. So how come liberal Democrats call Republican President Ronald Reagan a warmonger even though no war exists? Is waging war a prerogative of Democrat presidents, or can anybody play the game?

NOTHING beats democracy, right? Take the 156 members of the United Nations, the latest member of which is that "world superpower" St. Kitts-Nevis, a tiny island in the Caribbean with a population of 44,404—about the same population as Victoria, Texas. It has the same vote in the General Assembly as does the United States. How do you feel about St. Kitts-Nevis having an equal voice in how the United States conducts its international affairs? In the immortal words of H. L. Mencken, "Democracy is the art of running the circus from the monkey cage," the cage being situate in New York City.

Media protest the Grenada blackout; grassroots cheer

By LES KINSOLVING
WASHINGTON — President Reagan is currently being bombed by the Big Media, who are furiously protesting the decision not to allow reporters and photographers to accompany the invasion landings on Grenada.

One of these protests, from the giant Knight-Ridder newspaper chain, is posted on the wall of the White House press room. But right beside this lofty lecture-excoriation of the President, there is a letter from one of America's more than 200 million private citizens, a grass root from Thomasville, Georgia, named Robert L. Crawford.

In his letter, addressed to the President and to Presidential Spokesman Speakes, and to the White House Press Corps, Mr. Crawford writes:

"Let me state my approval of the decision to exclude the news media from the island (Grenada) during the military operation. The reporters, especially the White House Press Corps, behave with the dignity and professionalism of a pack of alley cats after a female in heat. Self-appointed arbiters of morality, they are bigoted, trendy-leftist zealots."

With the possible exception of this column, Mr. Crawford's trenchant critique of the prestige press may never see the light of TV or be inked into the Big Media. But his view of the national press corps is apparently held in other quarters besides the Thomasville, Georgia, of the nation. For in New York, columnist Joseph Sobran of the National Review magazine and the Washington Times has written:

"The American press establishment is furious with the Reagan administration for failing to include the press in the planning and execution of the Grenada invasion. 'Unprecedented exclusion' . . . violated the First Amendment' — proving only that they have never read the First Amendment."

Sobran asks an especially penetrating (as in knife) question:

"When you are mounting an invasion, you do not take along enemy troops. . . If I were Yuri Andropov or Fidel Castro, I would surely want the American press to be present whenever an American military action was launched against my own military formation. . . I would also welcome the subsequent commentary of such anti-anti-Communist sneerers as Anthony Lewis, Tom Wicker, Mary McGroary and Philip Geyellin."

At a daily White House news conference, this column asked Presidential Spokesman Speakes if Mr. Reagan disagrees with columnist Sobran's description of the Big Media press corps as "enemy troops."

THE WHITE HOUSE: I think any reaction should come from your colleagues, here. They're the ones that have been attacked, not the President.

At the State Department, Spokesman John Hughes declined to comment on the question. When I asked for "one followup question before I run," a voice from the ranks of the Big Media growled: "You'd better."

The Reagan Administration she apparently learned a lesson from the British fleet during its combat in the Falkland Islands. For the sky did not fall, neither did the Magna Carta disintegrate, when the Brits fused to let reporters partake in the landing operation.

Columnist Sooran bulwarks his "enemy troops" analogy by recalling that most of the Big Media "opposed the American war effort in Southeast Asia" and "Assured us that the Sandinista were not really Marxists."

Sobran sticks it in even further by observing: "Such self-serving equating of one's own interests with the general welfare should always be taken with a large grain of salt. . . Mortifying as it must be to the Washington-New York media axis, the United States has clearly won a victory. Now their effort will be to turn a short-term triumph into a long-term defeat. Watch closely."

From San Antonio, Navy Veteran Robert G. Wheaton directed a letter to the Chief of Naval Operations, and to ABC News's Ted Koppel, which included the following observations:

"I am 100 percent in favor of the blackout and believe it resulted in a significant reduction in loss of life for both friend and foe alike. Further, after the Vietnam experience with the media, and given its almost predictable adversarial role during such events, I urge even greater use of the blackout, whenever justified. If news is going to be biased, and it seems inevitable that it will be, then I'd rather see it done by the Department of Defense, instead of a news media whose heroes too often carry AK-47s and are called peoples' liberation armies."

"I admit that San Antonio is a militarily oriented city. However, every friend with whom I have discussed the blackout feels that it is most appropriate. When the media goes along, they are generally adversarial; when they are

Inside Religion:

The strange case of the Presbyterian secretary

By REV. LES KINSOLVING
NEW YORK — Only one month after she was hired as a secretary-administrator by the national headquarters of the United Presbyterian Church, The New York Times reported that 36-year-old Flora Teresa Santana had been found dead in her fire-swept apartment at 255 Fort Washington Ave. in Spanish Harlem.

When police arrived, they found two things had not yet been burned by the fire which killed this Presbyterian secretary: 1) Rags soaked in inflammable material, and 2) "A pile of documents that espoused support of Fidel Castro and the leftist guerrillas in El Salvador," according to The New York Daily News. So they called in the special FBI Terrorist Unit, which also conducted an investigation but eventually left the investigation in the hands of the New York Police.

Nearly one year later, the New York Police Dept. is still investigating the Case of the Presbyterian Secretary. At the 34th Precinct Detectives Office, Det. Thomas McKenna explained that since the case is still under investigation, he could provide neither comments nor records of the case.

Flora Teresa Santana's superior at national Presbyterian headquarters on Riverside Drive was the Rev. Dieter Hessel, Associate For Social Education of the Presbyterian Program Agency. Hessel was not in his office and, according to Presbyterian Spokesman Vic Jameson, is often away or in his other office in Philadelphia.

Meanwhile, Mnahattan's far left weekly, The Village Voice, headlined the case as "The Strange Death of Terry Santana" — and noted that she was "one of the city's best informed investigators of Omega 7 and other local anti-Castro terrorist groups."

The Daily News cited Santana as belonging to "a little-known political group called the FMLN — the Farabundo Marti Front for National Liberation, a group of Marxist guerrillas in El Salvador."

This Presbyterian Secretary Plot got even thicker when the Daily World, published by the Communist Party in the USA, announced to the world that their recently deceased byline reporter, "Terry Sanchez," was in reality Presbyterian Secretary Flora Teresa Santana. She was using a pseudonym, while also working for such Marxist groups as the Venecrecoms Brigade, E. S. Info and the Chile Solidarity Committee.

The United Presbyterian Church, which hired this Marxist, has recently united with some 800,000 southern Presbyterians to form the new Presbyterian USA Church. The 800,000 southern Presbyterians should be interested indeed to learn that according to their new headquarters in New York, Miss Santana's Communist moonlighting makes no difference.

For according to Helen Irvine, the headquarters personnel director, Miss Santana's background was not at all extensively investigated prior to her being installed as a secretary-administrator under the Rev. Mr. Hessel.

"We didn't investigate her background because, after all, we have privacy guidelines," explained Irvine.

If the Presbyterian national headquarters had learned that Miss Santana was also working for the Communist Party and active in several Marxist groups, would this have resulted in her being terminated by the Presbyterians?

"We didn't know about her employment at the Daily World," answered Irvine. "But if we had, that would have been no grounds for dismissal."

The 800,000 southern Presbyterians still have eight more years to withdraw from this new unity with the larger (but rapidly dwindling) northern Presbyterians and their Equal-Opportunity-for-Marxists national headquarters.

This headquarters is presided over by attorney William P. Thompson, the denomination's ranking staffer, and one of the world's most articulate ecclesiastical bureaucrats. Dr. Thompson was in the headlines recently at the World Council of Churches meeting in Vancouver, BC, where he and the Russian Orthodox delegates succeeded in watering down a resolution condemning the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan.

Letters to the Editor

Our 'helping hand'

EDITOR—After years of extensive research at the Hoover Institution, Professor Antony Sutton filled several large volumes with hard evidence showing that the Communist empire was built, from an economically crippled technologically primitive regime run by cutthroat revolutionaries into the world's most powerful menace, almost entirely with Western money and technology. He is not the only scholar to have carefully documented the fact that huge and continuing transfusions of aid and trade, mostly from the United States, account for as much as 90 percent of the Soviet's formidable military industrial complex.

Virtually every phase of the Soviet military effort — from ICBM's to trucks, to fighter planes — runs on US supplied equipment and technology. The blood trade includes advanced computers, entire truck factories, aircraft engines, electronics gear, anti-aircraft missiles and much more.

According to Senator Bill Armstrong, "In the last ten years alone the United States and other Western nations have sold to the Soviet Union and its satellites more than $50 billion worth of sophisticated technical equipment the Communists could not produce themselves."

Perhaps the most disgraceful action of our nation's government is the fact that the Soviet SU-15 fighter that shot down Flight 007 very likely was powered by American made Lockheed engines and fired American designed missiles.

The big question now is what is, the average American citizen going to do about all of this. I suggest you write immediately to your Representatives in Washington and President Reagan telling them to cut off all aid and trade with the Communist butchers immediately.

ROBERT WILLIAMS,
Stockton, CA.

Agrees, disagrees

EDITOR—I must agree with you that the media cannot keep a secret, as shown by the way CBS blew the government's case against DeLoresan. But the Defense Dept. could have told the press they were going into Grenada at the same time they started and let the press get there any way they could. Certainly not on a military plane or ship. They did not have to keep them out for three days to maintain security. That was bad judgment and worse politics.

On the other hand, I cannot agree with Les Kinsolving. If he has proof on who bombed the Marines as he infers, he should feel obligated to turn that proof over to the authorities. If he knows no more than they do, he should not heckle them. Maybe he believes the State Dept. or the Defense Dept. should take "swift and effective retribution" against everybody in the Middle East, or Asia, just to make sure. His job should be to report the news, not to try to embarrass everybody he dislikes. He dislikes too many people.

W. D. HICKMAN,
Sebastopol, CA.

Capitan

News

By MARGARET RENCH

The northwest wind came roaring in like a lion late Sunday night and was cold with it. Our first very high one for quite some time. Makes one realize it is truly November.

The FFA sponsored a turkey shoot Sunday at the rifle range with a large crowd in attendance. Many won a turkey. Everyone seemed to enjoy that.

The Capitan Senior Citizens started an exercise class last Monday with a good teacher advising them at their Home Center. Contact them. Many have wanted that, therefore you do have it. Do join them. Always remember their donut project every weekend. It is growing and they are delicious.

Four hundred twenty registered guests visited the Smokey Bear Museum Nov. 7-13. It is great to have them. At this time the hand crocheted afghan the Senior Citizens are going to raffle Nov. 19 is on display there. You need not be present to win. It is a beauty.

The movies now being shown at the Smokey Bear New Mexico State Park Recreation Building are "The Night The Animals Talked," "The Devil and Daniel Mouse," "Any Old Port" and "In Beaver Valley." Smokey Bear is shown as well. They are shown at 10 a.m., 12 noon, 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. Do go and enjoy them.

Bob Ford of Capitan is now the plumbing inspector in this area. He started this month.

The FHA sponsored the fingerprinting program that took place at the elementary school last week. It was for all elementary students whose parents were interested. The sheriff's office took care of it.

The Motor Vehicle Division of the Transportation Department would like to remind all state residents who possess a New Mexico driver's license, that the division is no longer mailing out the "renewal notices" which previously had been sent out as a courtesy to all drivers. Therefore, we urge all driver's to physically inspect their driver's license for expiration date, which is one month after your birthdate. You may apply for renewal 90 days prior to expiration date.

Remember, if you renew within 30 days after expiration you will take a written test. If renewal is after 30 days of expiration date, both written and road tests will be given. Eye examination is mandatory in all renewal situations. A friendly little hint is to check your driver's license every year on your birthday for expiration date.

Sandra Rankin of Red River, NM, spent a week in Capitan as houseguest of Robert and Dona Runnels. Sandra worked for the Runnels while they were in business in Red River, and is quite a horse wrangler and just a general good hand. She has been helping Robert with his elk hunters in northern New Mexico, and is now looking forward to moving to the Capitan area.

David Barber of Carlsbad was in town over the weekend to help his grandad, Bert Minter, butcher a beef. David and wife Teri are doing well in Carlsbad.

Welcome to another new business in Capitan. "The Buttercup Dairy" opened Nov. 10, producing and selling Grade A raw milk. It is owned by Buddy and Debby Pendergrass and it is located 2 miles northwest of Capitan. Their phone is 257-2782. I wish this lovely couple many years of success and happiness. I am certain this community appreciates this.

The Jehovah Witness Kingdom Hall has closed in Capitan and the members are attending in Ruidoso. The property is now for sale.

Here is a wish for a birthday to be remembered. Elfigo Griego will be 84 years of age Dec. 11. This should reach him by that date. May he have many years of health and happiness.

Benny Coker was taken to Ruidoso Hospital Nov. 6 suffering from a heart attack. He spent several days in intensive care. At this time he is improved. I wish you the very best and complete recovery, Benny.

Tom Crain spent last weekend with Bessie Jones and enjoyed the turkey hunt.

Great grandmother Georgia Maples reports the birth of her new great-grandson, born to Janice Morerod Nov. 4 at Ruidoso Hospital. He was named Nicholas Jaston.

Mrs. Rench accompanied Jeralynne Story to the Avon district sales meeting at the Ruidoso Inn. Julie Graves and Joan Means groups went to lunch at noon. Joan tripped in a hole and injured her ankle and was taken to the emergency care at the hospital. Therefore she was not ever able to attend though we did miss her and wish her the very best recovery.

The representatives who attended were Jeralynne Story, Joan Baumann, Cathy Ames, Sabrina Shiele, Bea Baker, Sherri Hobbs, Susie Sanchez, Jo Ann Holmes, Letty Davls, Mary Dominguez and Betsy Seiler. As always the meeting was of great interest and enjoyed by everyone.

Capitan fails at State meet

Despite leading throughout most of the first game in the opening match of the State Class A Volleyball Tournament, the Capitan volleyball girls lost their bid for a semi-final berth.

The Lady Tigers lost the opener 15-13. They never were as close in the 2nd game, dropping it 15-9. Tatum, Capitan's opponent for that opening match, eventually became runnerup to this year's champion Melrose.

The Tigers finished 15-6 for the year.

Capitan School News

Report cards go out this week. The ASVAB (military test) will be given by the military to all sophomores and seniors wishing to take it.

The National Honor Society will sponsor a masquerade ball Friday night from 8 until midnight. This will cost students $2 admission if they are recognized and $1 if they are not recognized in costume.

Saturday, Nov. 19, will find the FHA district meeting in Tularosa.

Representatives from Harvard and Radcliffe colleges were to be in Capitan on Nov. 14. A representative from New Mexico Highlands was due Nov. 21.

Look out! Nov. 23, 10 a.m., The Tiger Faculty vs. National Honor Society in a little game of volleyball.

The following students went to all-state choir tryouts in Roswell, Nov. 10: Daron Armstrong-bass; Anita Armstrong-alto; Laura Lee-alto; Ellen Long-alto; and Sara Rokey-soprano. The required selection was "Gloria" by Hassler (1564-1612). This was memorized and sung in Latin. In addition there was sight-reading and tonal memory.

Dates to remember: Christmas programs by the Capitan Music Department. Tuesday, Dec. 13—a program by elementary pupils scheduled for 1 and 7 p.m. The junior high and senior high classes will present choral programs on Dec. 15-1 and 7 p.m. Both concerts are free and the public is invited. See the art exhibit in room 5 at the high school.

SHEILA M. Zumwalt of Nogal has qualified as a certified dental assistant, according to the Dental Assisting National Board of Chicago. She won her certification Sept. 30.

FFA runs a turkey shoot

Sunday, Nov. 13, the Capitan FFA held a turkey shoot and gave away eight turkeys. Some of the winners included Eddie Davis, Sid Goodloe, and brothers Todd and Tim Proctor.

Another turkey shoot is being planned for next spring. The fruit sale was completed Nov. 15 with a total of $7,500 worth of fruit being sold. This fruit will be delivered the first week in December.

Nov. 5, 11 Greenhands attended the Dist. V leadership contests in Hobbs, NM. The parliamentary team placed 5th. Ronald Joiner placed 7th in the creed contest, and Yvonne Montes was 8th in the quiz.

Ranchers don't resent hunters who know, abide by the rules

Hunting opportunities in New Mexico are among the best in the nation. In terms of variety and the amount of public lands open to their sport, hunters are indeed fortunate.

In New Mexico there are several federal and state land managing agencies. Of the state's 77 million total acres, the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) manages almost 13 million acres of federal public lands, and the US Forest Service over 9 million acres. New Mexico state lands comprise another 13 million acres. State land managing agencies include the State Land Office and the New Mexico Game and Fish Department. Other federal landowners include the US Army Corps of Engineers, Bureau of Reclamation and the US Fish and Wildlife Service.

Federal multiple use agencies such as the BLM and Forest Service manage lands for a variety of uses, including recreation. While most of these lands are open to the public at all times of the year, these lands are primarily used for livestock grazing, oil, gas and mineral development, timber management and other uses.

Most state lands (excluding parks) are closed to the public except during hunting seasons. It is therefore important for one to know exactly where he is at all times.

It's a good idea (and common courtesy) to notify ranchers when you are hunting on public lands in their allotments.

—Abide by all signs and posted areas.

—Staying on existing roads. ORV travel is illegal, except to retrieve big game.

—Leave all gates as you find them and park your vehicle where it will not block roads.

—Keep a clean camp, leave a clean camp! Locate campfire in a safe place and don't leave it unattended. Recycle previously used campsites if they are available.

—Follow all hunting and gun safety regulations.

—Do not disturb livestock, and don't camp near than 300 yards from water sources—both livestock and wildlife depend on these sources.

—It's a good practice to notify ranchers about anything that looks wrong, such as damaged ranch equipment or livestock.

Rummage sale by Capitan seniors

Capitan Senior Citizens will have a rummage sale, Nov. 18-19, at the Senior Citizens Center. This is the old Capitan School Cafeteria Building just off the highway toward Ruidoso.

These senior citizens will have an open house and Christmas Party on Wednesday, Dec. 14. This will be a day-long event celebrating their first anniversary. A potluck dinner will served at noon.

Senior citizens sell doughnut holes every Friday for 60 cents a dozen. The only exception to this policy will be the Friday after Thanksgiving.

School dismissed, 12:45 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 23 for Thanksgiving Holidays. Classes resume Monday, Nov. 28.

RECUPERATING

Joe DeTevis, "Mr. D" as he is known around school, is recuperating at his home following by-pass surgery on Oct. 21 at Presbyterian Hospital in Albuquerque. Mr. D, Carrizozo School art teacher, was pleased with the original one-of-a-kind get well cards from his art students. Cards, gifts and prayers from friends school staff and the Carrizozo Teachers Association were also appreciated. He will return to his teaching position in mid-January.

BOOSTER BREAKFAST

Thursday morning of last week, the Grizzly volleyball team departed for competition in the state tourney following a breakfast hosted in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hoot Gibson. The Gibson's China set was used for the special occasion. The fare included sausage, eggs, hash browns, blueberry muffins and orange juice. There was fresh fruit, cream puffs and strawberry crepes.

Centerpieces on the table were replicas of volleyball nets. Each girl's jersey number was used in place cards representing their game uniform top. Hostesses for the breakfast were Linda Gibson, Mignon Sims and Margaret Stearns.

In addition to the guests of honor, others who enjoyed the early bird cuisine included principal Dennis Sidebottom; coaches Rhonda Farley and Ron Becker; teacher Joe Orsak, who drove the bus; and Dennis Vega, team manager and a 6th grader.

CHEERING SECTION

Long distance telephone calls from Albuquerque during the 3-day Eleventh Annual State Volleyball Tournament kept local folks informed of the Grizzly girls' progress. Fans also kept up with results by tuning in to Albuquerque sports news on TV. The girls placed third in the state. The girls were pleased to see familiar faces in the crowds at West Mesa and Valley High Schools. Among the fans was Annette Chavez of Albuquerque, former Grizzly all-sports athlete and sister of senior team member Christeta Chavez.

There to cheer the girls from the old home town were Mr. and Mrs. Nick Vega and Nancy; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Najjar, Diane and Denise Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baroz, Brenda and Teresa Guevara; Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson; Mignon Sims, Linda Gibson, Jonna and Lori. Others were Alex Serna, Kevin Wilmore, Robert Beltran, Fr. Dave Bergs, Annette Hill and Stacy Stephenson.

ANOTHER CHAPTER

The little house on the corner of Central and Second has come a long way. Another chapter has been added to its history. The place, Rita's Creative Hairstyles, held a grand opening last Sunday afternoon.

"If this little house could talk to us, it would tell us many interesting stories of this part of Lincoln County and days gone by." This is an excerpt from my May 10, 1979 feature story about the little building restored by Nogal sculptor Roger Hubert.

In his restoration plans Hubert tried to capture the original characteristics of a neglected house, once an eyesore on a major town road. The building's architectural design appealed to Hubert when he first spotted the house. Sometime later the place was sold and turned commercial when Dr. Mike Moreland remodeled the interior of the building and established a chiropractic business.

According to history research for my NEWS story, the main portion of the house was located in Coalora, once a busy mining town near Capitan, which was known as "Gray" and the site of railroad activity. Around 1904 the front section of the building now housing the hair-dressing business was pulled by a team of horses by way of Nogal. The decor of building today is in keeping with the building's old timey look. There is a wood-burning stove, a quilt, cloth dolls and even a 1933 Good Housekeeping magazine.

YULETIDE STITCHING

I stopped to chat recently with the Santa Rita Quilting Group, busy at the parish hall with its Christmas project. Members meet each Wednesday and put their needles down only for the potluck lunch break. I enjoy my visits with the quilters. I talk with them about my favorite subjects — quilts, and food recipes and perhaps pick up a household hint or two. All too soon it is time to leave to pick up Zachary, who attends the kindergarten morning session.

The quilting group is working on a quilt to be raffled this Christmas. The pattern used is called Clay's Choice. In other quilting news, the Zia Senior Citizens Center is making plans to put together a crazy quilt, so called because there is no particular pattern. Cloth scraps of all colors and sizes are utilized in the construction of this type of quilt.

I had several requests for the quilt pattern Periwinkle which I offered through this column. I still have the pattern available. A self-addressed, stamped envelope is all that is required. The pattern looks like a 4-pointed star and would make a nice Christmas quilted pin cushion. If you are more ambitious, several of the blocks would make a comfy sofa pillow in holiday colors.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"Peculiar thing about human anatomy is that a pat on the back so often causes the head to swell." —The Farmer Stockman of the Midwest.

".... And with the girls be handy." The girls, looking at Yankee Doodle, probably wonder why he calls his feather 'macaroni.' These 4th graders were among the elementary students who performed at last Thursday's school open house. Leroy Zamora played Y.D., the young ladies are, L to R, Cheryl Hightower, Joanna Moore, Marsha Lynch, Valarie Gallegos, Mary Nickerson and Casey Dean.

DAR meets in Capitan

The Sierra Blanca chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) met recently at the home of Mrs. Gerald Dean of Capitan.

Present were Mrs. Marti Yoder, Mrs. Walter Rawley, Mrs. Juanita Bush, all of Ruidoso; Mrs. Cleo Dodds and Mrs. Lucy English, both of Roswell; Mrs. Marion Spencer, Mrs. Charles

Clark and daughter Janis, Mrs. Eileen Lindamood and Mrs. Alice Wright, all of Carrizozo; Mrs. Fred Phingsten, Mrs. Hilda Young, Mrs. Herbert Lee Trailer, and a guest, Mrs. Harriet T. McGinnis, all of Capitan; and Mrs. Roberta Burkstaller, Nogal. Christmas gifts were sent to the Veterans Hospital in Albuquerque.

Corona News

Our weather report is on vacation again.

Here for the 6-man State Championship game were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stratton who were enjoying visiting with old friends. Stratton, chairman of the regulatory committee, presented the trophies, second place to Corona and first place to Roy.

Fern, Jan and Scott Thomas, Charlene Landrum and Ernie Endis were here from Albuquerque for the game as were Scott Williams, Roswell, and Dolly Smith, Jeanne Erramouspe and Rusty Surratt, NMSU.

Noble Snodgrass was called to Mountainair last week by the death of his sister, Nettie Simpson.

Twelve agriculture class members returned Sunday evening from a six-day trip that took them to Kansas City via Oklahoma City and the Cowboy Hall of Fame. Royce Washburn and Margaret Lightfoot accompanied the FFA group.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Keelin made a business trip to Belen Tuesday.

Tim Canella spent a week in Phoenix with his parents.

Preceptor Alpha Nu of Beta Sigma Phi met Monday afternoon in the school library with all members present. Margaret Teague reported that she is contacting people about her plans for the Simpson-Sloan Park to begin in early spring.

Patricia Perkins presented two programs from the special outline on Life Management—

Effective assertive management and Lives of Purpose. Roll call was "Are there areas in your life you would like to change?" Mrs. Perkins introduced Dr. John Clem who spoke on "Assertiveness." He said one must have a positive self image which in turn makes for a positive image of others. One must always state positive and always make a positive approach to others. People tend to live up to expectations. One must have faith in one's self and in others and never look back as advised by Satchel Page.

Dr. Clem gave his reasons for wanting to come to Corona. Very good reasons, and we welcome him to the community. The Clem's want to be a part of all positive actions for the school and the village.

Mrs. Perkins served sandwiches, chips, dips, cake, candles, hot chocolate and coffee. The next meeting will be Dec. 5 at the home of Margaret Teague.

Crown CowBelles met Tuesday morning at the home of Katie Sultemeier with Myrtle Davidson, co-hostess. They served punch and an Oriental mix. Barbecued brisket was the luncheon specialty. Guests were Hazel Bickford, Mrs. Kelly Hobbs, Vickie and Donald Hobbs. Four-year-old Vickie gave a special rendition of cheerleader's original yell.

Myra Richards came from Roswell, Suzie Maness from Dexter and Ruth Wilson from Ancho.

Mrs. Maness reported that Operation Respect is receiving favorable comment on all sides and license vendors are cooperating.

Ruth Wilson attended a planning meeting for the National Beef Cookoff to be held in Albuquerque's Hilton Hotel in September of '84. She gave an interesting report and made everyone feel that New Mexico can do the job well. She showed an apron with the pocket in the shape of NM and stated that one hundred have already been cut, 50 in red for the contestants and 50 in blue for the helpers. Crown members assigned to committees include Mrs. Maness, helper, Mrs. Wilson welcomed and vesper service, Mrs. Wilson and Betty Ann Bell, decorations and favors, and Eve Latham, country store. A nest egg of $35,000 is needed to complete this project.

Mrs. Latham encouraged all to attend the quarterly meeting to be held in Alamogordo, Dec. 7-9.

A thank-you letter from Steve Copeland was read. He and not his sister had the champion breeding heifer at the Lincoln County Fair.

The Second Hand Rose Band of Portales will play for the CowBelle Hunters Ball on Nov.

26. One of the school organizations will have the concession. Members will pay the $5 or $3.50 charge whether or not she attends since this is the one money-making project for the scholarship fund.

Officers for the new year were elected and will be installed at the December meeting: president, Eve Latham; 1st vice-president, Anne Larremore; 2nd vice-president, Carol McConnell; secretary, Eleanor Smith; treasurer, Katie Sultemeier; and parliamentarian, Linda Ponder. The next meeting will be Dec. 1 at the Latham home with co-hostesses Juanita Sultemeier, Anne Larremore, Myra Richards, Suzie Maness and Lee Sultemeier.

Mrs. Latham said she had lost some very good ranch help when Claudia Jones, daughter of Walt and Betty Jones, of Capitan, and Wayne Latham, son of Ted and Ann Latham of Loving, were married Oct. 17 and left to make a new home in Grants.

TIP CLIPS

Tips to Clip

All-around money saving ideas, hints, advice, solutions, shortcuts for mothers and others.

By POLLY CHAVEZ

Lint free windows
Crumpled up newspapers make lintless polishing cloths for house or car windows and mirrors.

Turkey trick
Dental floss makes excellent material for trussing poultry. The floss does not burn and is very strong.

For fireplace
With one or two nails fasten together several pieces of wood otherwise useful only as kindling. The log you will create will become as long-burning as a regular log.

Creative eats
To encourage picky eaters to eat, use cookie cutters to make shapes out of cold cuts and sliced cheese. Bologna hearts and cheese Shamrocks are fun to eat.

Stuffing from scratch
Don't throw away that extra cornbread. Or those biscuits. Crumble them, mix in a bowl and cover securely. Use them as a basis for turkey stuffing.

Bookmarkers that work
Snip off corners from used envelopes. Slip over the page corner to mark your place in that book you are reading or to find a page you want to refer to later.

Perley Thorn rites today

Perley A. Thorn of Carrizozo died Monday, Nov. 14 at his home here. Funeral services will be held today (Thursday), Nov. 17 at the Assembly of God Church with Pastor Ray Wells officiating. Interment will follow in Evergreen Cemetery. Mr. Thorn was born Dec. 29, 1898 in New York, and had been a resident of Carrizozo for eight years.

Arrangements are by Clarke's Chapel of Roses, Ruidoso.

Lincoln, Hondo News

Chief Ranger Jack Rigney was in Albuquerque this week to pick up a fire truck for the Lincoln Fire Department.

Ranger Joel Darby of the Lincoln State Monument is attending several workshops in Santa Fe sponsored by the "American Association for State and Local History."

Because of a fire during the summer of 1982 the Hondo boys and girls travel 84 miles a day roundtrip for basketball practice. The Ruidoso Schools have made the gym at their White Mountain School available for this purpose. Hondo citizens appreciate the use of this gym. The target date for the completion of the new Hondo Gym is March 31, 1984.

LAS CRUCES—New Mexico State University added 319 students to its Crimson Scholars Honor Program last semester, including Thomas Perkins and Jon Wolff from this area.

black out, their role is the same. Leave them at home!"
—"There is absolutely nothing my wife and I could do about the Grenadian situation — so please pardon us if we do not get bent out of shape about a blackout. I have every faith that we will know as much as we need to know, probably more, at an early and appropriate time."

"During the last 15 years or so, the news media's typical conduct has changed and cast it into a role of being the constant adversary. Such was not the case in World Wars I and II. The change seemed to start in the Korean police action and was obvious by Vietnam...It is most advantageous to leave you people behind and not have you getting in the way of fighting people at work...Sending down some yoyo to a nearby island from where he was boated into Grenada and immediately walked into a firefight, was detained and contributed to the problems of our forces, which then had to ensure the safety of yet another American. The comments of the (Washington) Post were ludicrous...The media has become pervaded by a lynch-mob mentality; liberals who are unhappy with America, who will immediately find cause to criticize anything and everything done by our President and particularly by our military...As a group, you have earned the dubious honor of being either in the way, a royal pain or outright security risks."

FFA . . .

In addition to these two, Willard Scott provided an hour tull of comedy and inspiration for everyone there. The weather for the Friday edition of the Today Show was broadcast by Scott from the Municipal Auditorium at the Convention Center.

Besides enjoying the convention FFA members were able to view many other historical monuments on their trip. In Oklahoma City they visited the Cowboy Hall of Fame and enjoyed an unexpected tour of the city when they got lost while being returned to their rooms by Officer Randy Rhue.

The FFA expressed its appreciation and thanks to parents and alumni members who helped to sponsor the trip, including Patsy Sanchez, Doris Maxwell, Randy Rhue and Mike Gaines.

before they die!"

OEA represented at Glorietta meet

Two members of the Office Education Assn. attended a leadership conference in Glorieta, Nov. 11-12.

Stephanie Saucedo and Anna
Lueras, with their sponsor Lucia Vega, took part in several workshops.

During the year the group has held fund-raising projects to pay for chapter expenses to Glorieta, regional and state competition. Regionals will be held in Artesia in February and the state at a later date.

The Capitan sophomore class will sponsor a carnival Nov. 22 in the multi-purpose building.

There will be fun and games queen's contest, and bingo all for a 25 cent admission fee. The action begins at 7 p.m.
