

O-Bar-O Ranch vs. Lincoln County

Is road over Benado Gap a private road?

By RUTH HAMMOND
The case of private road or county road continued Tuesday when Paul Lietzman of the O-Bar-O Ranch appeared against Lincoln County in District Court. The road in question is listed as forest route 441 on Lincoln National Forest maps, the county has it on their inventory as county road CO24, and it goes across the O-Bar-O Ranch, which is owned by Paul and Robert Lietzman.

According to the forest service map printed in 1973, road 441 goes from highway 380 across Nogal Ditch to the O-Bar-O and from there on to Benado Gap in the national forest. It continues from there to forest route 139. Forest route 435 takes off from 441 near Benado Gap and goes to the Micro Wave Tower.
District Judge Robert Doughty heard testimony for an hour and called a recess while he and four others flew by helicopter over the road. Paul Lietzman, his attorney Charles Hawthorne, Vern Myers of the Attorney General's office, and Joel Paford of the Game and Fish Department went with him.

Lietzman testified that it is deeded land and all roads and trails belong to the O-Bar-O. He said, "We have 10,000 deeded acres to watch. It is impossible to police a place of this size when a road goes through the middle that the county says is theirs."

Presented as evidence were pictures he took of damages to the ranch after the snow melted. One showed a broken window and another was where vehicles had gone through the pasture instead of on the road. He mentioned other instances of vandalism. Windmills and signs being shot, antiques being taken, and water tanks being shot to where they won't hold water were all acts of vandalism.
He said he had called the department of Game and Fish and also called the sheriff's department and no one came in response to his calls.

Lietzman says there are other access roads to the forest and that they are passable in cars. He did say that the road through the O-Bar-O is the easiest way to get there. Concerning his attempt to keep people from using the road, Lietzman testified, "I have personally turned people back."

The county says it has had the road on their inventory since Dec. 3, 1955, part of the road was dedicated to the county in 1917, the other roads are inaccessible or nonexistent, and that they have bladed the road.
Paul Gordon, District ranger, Smokey Bear Range District said of the other access roads that three of them were foot or horse trails, one is a hunter access road, one is a timber access road for future use, and that the road through the O-Bar-O is the only access. One bladed area is a stock driveway, not a road. He explained a stock driveway is used to move cattle from one area to another. It is bladed to keep the cattle from scattering through the trees. He said that area is unstable and cannot tolerate a road.

The question of ingress and egress across private land to public land is one of the things Judge Doughty may consider while making his decision. He will decide if county road CO24 is a private road to O-Bar-O headquarters or if it is the road over Benado Gap.

Special meeting for P&Z Thursday

Historical ordinance hearing brings suggestions

By RUTH HAMMOND
The Lincoln County Planning and Zoning Commission has called a special meeting for May 3, at 7 p.m. in the Lincoln County Courthouse to discuss the Lincoln Historic Preservation Ordinance.

A day long public hearing on the proposed ordinance. The hearing is for a revision of the original ordinance brought many suggestions the commission will consider and possibly implement into the new ordinance.

One reason the new ordinance was written is the rapid changes in population, economic functions, and land-use activities in the area of Lincoln have increasingly threatened to destroy the historic significance of buildings, land, areas, or districts having important historic architectural, archaeological, or cultural interest and values that reflect the heritage of the area, and, once uprooted or destroyed, their distinctiveness is gone forever

Guidelines for design review are not hard and fast regulations. They are flexible and their purpose is to provide assurance to property owners that permit review will be based on clear standards rather than the taste of individual commission members.
Essential for construction restoration or rehabilitation in the district is the maintenance of the scale and quality of design. Guidelines for construction restoration or rehabilitation focus on general rather than specific design elements in order to encourage architectural innovation and establish continuity. All structures should be compatible in the categories of massing, rhythm, materials and details, building elements, and site, to surrounding structures.

Appendix "B" of the new document gives the history of Lincoln, an explanation of the territorial architecture, and has eight pages of pictures showing examples of Lincoln architecture. Guidelines for design review takes three pages with 26 pages of illustrations of design examples. Solar retrofitting guidelines is another 11 pages with suggestions as to how to hide it or integrate it.
The ordinance itself is 15 pages. It gives the title, authority, and purpose of the preservation ordinance, has three pages of definitions, and clearly defines the Lincoln Historic Preservation Board.

Board members shall be appointed by the Lincoln County Commission. The commission will advertise for nominations. In making the appointments, commissioners shall give consideration to maintaining the balance of interests and skills of the board, and to the individual qualifications of the candidates, including their interest, experience and knowledge in community and cultural traditions.

Any person aggrieved by a decision or action of the board may appeal the decision to the Lincoln County Planning Commission. Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Lincoln County Planning Commission may appeal the decision to the Lincoln County Commission.
The special meeting for Thursday night may bring changes to the new ordinance as it is now written. P & Z will decide then whether to have another public hearing before sending the ordinance to commissioners for approval or rejection.

Town, C of C set clean-up for May 6-13

The Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the Town of Carrizozo will administer clean-up of Carrizozo during the week of May 6-13, 1984. This week-long event will target areas that have not been cleaned in previous Clean-Up Days before. Also being stressed this year is "Paint Your House" or "Paint Your Business." Local businesses will give a substantial discount to all cash orders of exterior paint during this week.

Young people that participate in clean-up week will receive coupons redeemable for ice cream, candy, swimming at the swimming pool or games at the Recreation Center.
On the final Saturday, May 12, there will be an 8:00 a.m. to noon town-wide clean-up, including breakfast and lunch provided at the school lunch room.
You will hear more later about this clean-up event. Plan now to get involved.

School Board meets

Bond sale, computer purchase ok'd -- sex education discussed

By RUTH HAMMOND
United New Mexico Bank of Carrizozo was low bidder for the $90,000 general obligation school building bonds. Bids were opened at the April 17 school board meeting that lasted until well after midnight. Bonds in the denomination of $5,000 that will mature in 1989, '90, and '91 were purchased at an interest rate of 9 percent.
Quinn & Co., Inc., financial consultant, will receive a fee of $7,900 leaving the school district $81,000 for the purpose of erecting, remodeling, making additions to and furnishing school buildings and purchasing and improving school grounds. Sale of the bonds was authorized at the election held Feb. 7.
An additional $31,000 is expected in August from the two mill levy which was also authorized at the Feb 7 election. Priority for spending the funds was for insulation of buildings, addition of solarium and vestibules, coverings of floors in halls, and automation of officers.
Board members decided the high school office did not need to be linked to the superintendent's office by computer. The high school will be getting three stand alone micro computers. These will be used for daily attendance and records.
The board approved the purchase of a Burroughs B93 superintendents' computer for the superintendent's office. Cost of the computer hardware and software is $38,883 with a start up cost of $3,070 and an annual maintenance fee of $4,649. Training costs will be added for training personnel to operate the computer.

After purchase of the computer, $43,219 will be left for the other projects. It was noted that Burroughs is the only company to have software to serve a school with 250 to 850 students. There will only be three programs, one that runs the programs, one for budget and payroll, and another for accounts payable.
School Superintendent Jim Miller said, "About 60 out of 89 districts have computers." Working on the payroll takes one half to three fourths day now. The computer could do it in an hour. The computer is to be delivered July 15.
Miller presented three students to the board that had received certificates from the Thomas Edison Max McGraw Foundation for a science contest. John Rouche, Geneva Maxwell, and Stephanie Saucedo were the students.
A home economics promotional plan was presented by Miss Thornton. Development of a home ec support group, public appearances, organization of FHA-home ec alumni or associates group similar to FFA alumni, and planning coordinated vocational teaching opportunities with Vo Ag and Science to start in the fall were among the activities scheduled. Miss Thornton said, "home ec does not just teach cooking and sewing. Life skills and nutrition are also taught." The home ec department and advisory committee wants help in getting students interested again in home ec.

Dennis Sidebottom said, "About one fifth of our school would like to take the computer programming class next fall." Math classes are growing. Freshmen are being indoctrinated and most of them want to take Algebra I. There will be a large chemistry class next fall. The credit system allows freshmen to take one elective, sophomores and juniors take two electives and seniors take three.
Sixteen students are enrolled in the computer class next fall. The school has four computers and needs to get four more. This will allow two students per computer. It was brought up that the home ec room needs a computer.
Sex education and the lack of it in the school system was discussed. Dennis Sidebottom said, "We need help establishing an organized goal centered program in sex education." He will meet with county health nurse Rosemary Zink to put together a proposed program. Having the county nurse help present the program to the students would give them the opportunity to get acquainted with her in case they have a confidential problem later.
Members of the audience voiced their opinions on such things as, "Would you object to having your child taught about contraception?" permission slips, which grades the program should be targeted for, what the program should cover, and moral cut-off.

The sex education program will be explained at the May 15 school board meeting. Everyone interested should attend.
The state department accreditation unit visited the school Oct 24-26, 1984. The letter of their findings said that considerable improvement was seen in the areas of management, curriculum development and implementation, and facilities since the last indepth monitoring visit. It added that "the district is commended for these improvements." There are no areas of non-compliance with educational standards cited in the report.
Board members were in closed session for an hour and five minutes for discussion of personnel. All that were discussed were re-employed. Two contracts were postponed.
Other business:
Report on the football scorebook is that Coke sales are up over a year ago, possibly due to the low prices.
Four radios have been delivered at a cost of $600 each. Miller said, "We want to get three more this summer."
Inventory tags have been ordered. This will be a several hundred dollar expenditure.
Bid accepted for $4,500 from North & Jones for the 1983-84 audit. They will be here starting July 15 off and on for a month.

Bid accepted from J. G. Moore Agency for property liability-bodily injury insurance. Several thousand dollars will be saved by going to $1,000 deductible.
Bids for medical and dental insurance will be opened next board meeting.
Miller recommended the district not to adopt the change from 22 cents a mile per diem to 27 or 29 cents.
Computer literacy test outline with test areas to be covered and method of testing was presented. Beginning with the class of 1989, students will be expected to pass a computer literacy test. Staff training requirements will be implemented also.
Dr. Miller has signed a contract for one year.
Discussion of the White Oaks property was held. A problem other than deterioration through erosion is the deep wells and cisterns in the area that are uncovered. The South Central Mountain Resource and Conservation and Development of Agriculture has accepted fencing the property as a project. Fencing should help stop the problem of erosion.
A special school board meeting will be held May 3, at 8 p.m.

Carrizozo schools awarded $9,000.00

The Public School Capital Outlay Council in Santa Fe has announced the award of $9,000 to the Carrizozo School District, enabling the school to rewire and re-ventilate its Vocational Shop facility.

Originally constructed in 1975, the shop has been plagued with unsafe wiring and dangerous ventilation conditions since that time. "The burning out of circuits on the football field scoreboard during an October 28 football game was the final blow to an already weak and damaged system," reported school superintendent, Dr. Jim Miller. The scoreboard, also wired in to a shop electrical panel, is also being replaced under the efforts of a separate program.

Miller also announced that the New Mexico Department of Energy and Minerals and the US Department of Energy have awarded the Carrizozo Schools a grant of $25,300 to install a series of energy conservation features at the Carrizozo Elementary School. "The grant," said Miller, "is part of a current effort to lower building operating costs in order to provide additional funds directly to classroom instruction."

Other operational cost reductions include addition of insulation to all building ceilings, purchase of telephone equipment, and insurance coverage revisions. "We have been recently prompted to take these fairly drastic steps," disclosed Miller. "by action of the recent legislature and by the pending announcement by the Otero County Electrical Coop of anticipated rate increases in the neighborhood of 70 percent over the next nine months." Tours of these capital projects and the elementary building may be obtained Monday through Thursday at the main office.

Ernest V. Joiner

OPINION

THE WORD on the street is that Old Joiner has lost his punch, meaning he doesn't pummel people the way he once did, which is a loss to the social order. If this be true, it should be explained that there is a limit to the number of times a person can be referred to as a lowdown, lying, thieving son-of-a-bitch before the term loses its effectiveness as a curb on skulduggery. At some point it becomes counter-productive. Obviously, not everyone is an LLTSS, so the label is applied sparingly and judiciously. Those who decry the dearth of such colorful language may truly believe I have diminished capacity in that area. If so, they have only to provoke me unduly and thereby reap the reward for their misjudgment. Try me.

BARRISTER Frank Finn comes close to providing such provocation by sending me a newspaper clipping which deals with how Willie Brown, California Assembly Speaker and former cottonpicker from Mineola, TX, brought his braggadocio about his "awesome power" in California to some 800 students herded together for the event. Brown modestly assured the students, "I can either pass or kill any piece of legislation existing in this state." Such arrogance and conceit are not unusual for one catapulted from an East Texas cotton field to a position of power and influence, with no intermediate stop to acquire a bit of civility. In spite of Speaker Brown's Jaguars and $500 suits, paid for at least in part from fees for defending prostitutes in San Francisco, he is a repulsive looking fellow. Ugly is the word. If this clown were dropped through a cloud it would rain "ugly" for six weeks. Why California has elected to elevate this pompous, bullyragging fanfaron to reign over them can only stem from gullit obsession for having been born white. The trade-off is that by creating this dictator, a blow has been dealt to the shoeshine business in both Texas and California and strongly suggests that use of the term "nigger" in special cases has lost neither its credence nor justification.

I AM not at all provoked that "Crime Victims for Court Reform" has been organized to lead a campaign to unseat Chief Justice Rose Bird and two other buffoons from the California Supreme Court in 1986, Cruz Reynoso and Joseph Grodin. A judge has been defined as a lawyer who knew a governor. In this case all three knew former Gov. Jerry Brown, who is also ugly. If voters will pay attention to this new organization, criminals may begin being punished for their crimes beginning in 1987. The Bird court has demonstrated little sympathy for victims of crime. On a more important issue, tolerates a law making it illegal to set a trap for a mouse without first having obtained a hunting license. Do you sense a distortion of priority here?

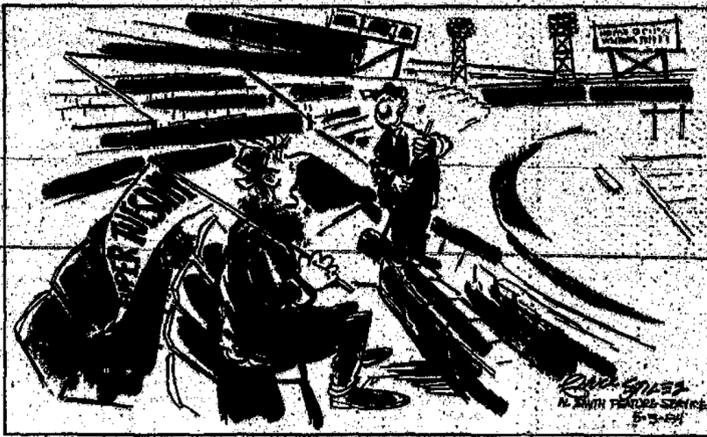

A PROVOCATIVE item comes from Minden, LA. Mark Parker caught a sizable fish on the banks of Canev Lake. He stuck his finger into the fish's mouth to remove the hook and was bitten by a water moccasin the fish had swallowed tail first. A friend removed the foot-long snake and took Parker to the hospital where he is expected to recover his health but not his reputation for veracity. And in Chickasha, OK an elderly man got out of his car to dump some trash and was run over three times by his own car. The moral of which is, there are indeed ways of keeping a good man down.

THE Glory of the Communist Revolution was marked last week. First, in Beijing, China, Sun Gulying became the first peasant ever to be permitted to buy a private car, a $4550 Toyota (naturally). And in Warsaw, Poland, toilet paper was officially added to the list of consumer goods shortages. Instead of blaming the lack of tissue on President Reagan, the government promised that the 7 rolls allotted each Pole last year will be increased to 8 next year.

I AM provoked to admiration that that lascivious hussy, Little Red Riding Hood, is finally getting her comeuppance. At a meeting of scholars in Princeton, NJ it has been revealed that the little girl with the red hood who went to grandma's house and encountered a wolf is really "a narrative of rape in which the heroine is expected to bear the responsibility for sexual violation." This advice from Pulitzer Prize candidate Jack Zipes, a self-described Marxist and professor of German at the University of Wisconsin, and who must be one ugly son-of-a-bitch. At the same time, LRRH was getting her lumps in Hanau, West Germany, where veterinarian Dirk Neumann filed a complaint against Ms. Hood for libeling the wolf. The wolf, says Neumann, has long been portrayed in fairy tales as a voracious and evil beast where as, in fact, the wolf is a shy animal burdened with a bad image, brought on because of that lying little strumpet, Little Red Riding Whatever, and successive generations of gullible kids who were never permitted to hear the other side of the story.

NOT to be outdone at Springfield (IL) High School is Nell Clay, a black teacher, who has demanded that Mark Twain's "Huckleberry Finn" be banned from English classes because it portrays blacks as servile and because the word "nigger" appears throughout the novel.

FINALLY, there is an offsetting sadness in the recent public demonstration by TIPS (Tipping Is a Professional Security). TIPS seeks repeal of an IRS law taxing the tips of "waitpersons." I never heard of a waitperson but assume it is another golden spike in the coffin of sexist language. I remember when waiters and waitresses were lumped together under the professional category of "Hashers," about as non-sexist as one can get. But they just couldn't leave it alone. It remains to be seen whether waitperson will replace waiter/waitress as designation of a noble profession or whether it will eventually come to describe a person who waits for a bus, an elevator, or the eventual overthrow of Ugly Willie Brown.

"OH HECK!... I THOUGHT IT WAS A BOWL GAME!"

"The girl stood on the burning deck--and froze"

By LES KINSOLVING
ANNAPOLIS, MD. — During the past ten years, five midshipmen of the United States Naval Academy have been expelled — simply because they did not fulfill the uniform requirement of jumping from a 34-foot tower into a 17-foot swimming pool.

This requirement, of all midshipmen, is not merely a training exercise for an officer's leading a crew in abandoning a sinking ship — although this alone would justify this drill as a requirement. For according to Naval Academy spokesman Denis Boxx:

"It goes a lot deeper than that. It shows self-confidence and inner toughness that we find important. It's important for me to know what kind of stress they can take for the safety of those they will be leading."

Midshipman Jacqueline Davis of Chicago doesn't look at it this way at all.

"You wouldn't think it would be so important for me to jump, because I'm never going on a ship anyway (emphasis added)," said this young woman, who is completing her fourth and last year of a $100,000 naval education provided her gratis by the taxpayers.

The Naval Academy brass were apparently unfazed by Midshipman Davis's Pinafore parody ("Stick to your desk, and never go to sea — and soon you will be the ruler of the Queen's Navee"). For instead of promptly booting her out — to make room for any of the thirteen applicants for every single opening at the Academy — the authorities engaged in one of the most colossal cuddlings in the history of the United States Navy. They actually ordered a team of Navy psychiatrists to poolside to spend their time pleading with Miss Davis to leap.

When the Naval Academy's academic board had quite enough of this reverse-sexist bigwater, they ordered that this reluctant landlubber be sent permanently ashore and expelled — just like all of the other five Mids who had failed to measure up. For if an Ensign Davis were aboard a sinking ship and so balked in jumping over the side at the command to abandon ship, she might well drown herself as well as members of the crew under her leadership.

Her dismissal might have ended this issue right there, for the good of the service. But Davis, who was not drafted into the Academy and who knew that this jump was a requirement for every member of the Brigade of Midshipmen, reacted to her expulsion by: (1) Retaining a lawyer and threatening to sue the Academy, and (2) presenting herself to the press as the victim of the Academy's allegedly harsh and heartless failure to make special allowances and an unprecedented exception on behalf of her phobia.

Like quicksilver, the Annapolis area chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People advanced. They demonstrated just how very desperate their anachronistic organization has become in its attempt to find an issue — any issue. For while Miss Davis claimed that this NAACP intervention was due in no way to the fact that she is black, she also declared that they were protesting the U.S. Navy's "discrimination against my phobia."

("The National Association For The Advancement Of Colored Phobias?")

Rear Admiral Charles Larson, the Academy's new Superintendent, is understandably reluctant to sail into such a sea of troubles as requires combatting any phobia which is defended by the NAACP and which belongs to a midshipman who is (A) a woman, (B) a black, (C) from a key electoral state in an election year, and (D) willing, without hesitation, to try to drag her alma mater into the civil courts if she is denied exemption from what is required of all 4,500 Mids, both male and female (including five who were sacked for failing to do exactly what she failed to do.)

So Admiral Larson overruled his academic board and gave this young lady a medical waiver. She will therefore be rescheduled to graduate and be commissioned on May 23 — by contrast to the five ordinary midshipmen mortals who were canned for the same failure.

At the Pentagon's bi-weekly news briefing, Assistant Secretary of Defense Michael Burch, when asked about this case, said:

"This involved a valid requirement, which is applied to all midshipmen regardless of sex, race, or possible future assignment. We have many officers and enlisted personnel on ships. And no Academy graduate, male or female, can discount possible future assignment aboard ship, either or temporary."

The 1974 legislation, by which Congress ordered the service academies to admit women for the first time in 1976, stipulates: "The academic and other relevant standards required for the appointment and admission of female individuals shall be the same as those required for the appointment and admission of male individuals."

At that time, Rep. Sam Stratton (D., N.Y.), who introduced this legislation, told the House:

"I do not want any concessions for women. I think they should be required to follow the same program. They should be required to meet the same standards."

Well, they aren't doing so at the New Annapolis of Admiral Larson. And the Admiral's thoroughly congenial and ingenious public relations officer, Commander Kendall Pease, is now saddled with the Herculean task of trying to convince a skeptical media that Larson is "concerned with doing what is right in the Jacqueline Davis case."

But reporters keep asking what about the other Mids who didn't make the jump and were expelled.

"Is it fair to the others?" asks Pease. "He hasn't reviewed those cases. It's up to those individuals, and I guess in a few days we'll find out."

Indeed yes. This may be only the beginning of a long blitzard of law suits. For the taxpayers who have sons and daughters in the Navy's enlisted ranks have every right to know whether Admiral Larson is bent on producing naval officers who will sue the Academy for trying to maintain uniform discipline; who will announce to the press their intention never to go to sea; and, if ordered to sea, will freeze at the edge of the deck of a sinking ship.

One wonders just what Admirals Halsey, Farragut and John Paul Jones would have to say about The New Annapolis Program to Produce Hydrophobic Naval officers.

Meanwhile, only two days after Midshipman Davis was restored to the student body, Commander Pease confirmed a report to this column that another female midshipman had resigned from the Academy, after it was determined by EDITORS—The ban on the importation of goods made with slave labor must be enforced. US Code Title 19, Section 1407 prohibits the importation into the US of products made by forced labor. Customs Commissioner William von Raab would like to have strict enforcement of this law, but the Treasury Department under which Customs operates has not been cooperative.

Technology to enhance Chinese industry will increase the number of slave labor imports coming into this country. Retail outlets increasingly carry Communist made slave labor goods in competition with free world products. Every purchase of those goods in this country provides hard currency for the dictators, not for the slave laborers. Not only are we subsidizing our enemies, we are guaranteeing their hold over their subjects. Can decent, moral, religious people knowingly support the continuance of such an outrage?

Please write letters of support to Commissioner Von Raab, Customs Service, Washington DC 20226 and Secretary Regan, Treasury Department, Washington, DC 20230 asking for an investigation of slave labor imports (including Red Chinese imports) and demand enforcement of the law.

EDITOR—The core of Americanism is found in our Declaration of Independence which states that men "are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights"...These few words recognize the existence of God and the fact that the rights of personal freedom, private property, and freedom of movement come from God...not Government.

No nation had ever begun with such a recognition. But, because of decisions of the Supreme Court Americanism can no longer be taught in public schools and we are headed down the road followed by most countries, and the road leads to total government — Fascism, Socialism, or Communism.

Isn't it time we changed direction?

Corona News

The mercury rose to a high of 72 degrees on the 24th last week and dropped to 22 on both the 26th and 27th. Two inches of snow on the 26th and again on the 29th gave us 0.23" moisture. Wind gusts to 59.8 mph put at least one antenna on the ground Wednesday.

The Extension Club met Thursday in the school recreation room with Ruby Davidson, Juanita Owen and Robin Pfeiffer coffee hostesses. They served cookies, a dip and chips with the coffee and tea. Lunch was in the school cafeteria. Denise Byrd presided over the meeting attended by 12 members and one guest, Mary Ellen Payne.

The group will sell chances on a ceramic bull or wool pelt to help the 4-H members who will attend a citizenship short course in Washington in July.

The club is working on a king size quilt, chances on this to be sold in the Corona booth at the Smokey Bear crafts show the last of May. These bear blocks are due May 4 when the council meets in Corona at a covered dish luncheon and business session.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, May 16, with Sandra Hendricks and Betty Russell coffee hostesses. It will be a day of quilting. Mrs. Floyd Proctor is putting together the blocks to make the 84" by 109" masterpiece.

Charlie Wade was here from Gallup to spend the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Ollie D. Wade. Saturday evening they attended the 50th anniversary party at the Alamogordo Elks Club hosted by Jean Bond and David Cape for their parents, Lovey and Archie Cape. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Yancey were among the party-guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Jackson were here from Artesia Saturday to spend a few hours with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Garfield.

Linda Quintana, president of Preceptor Alpha Xi, was MC and introduced the members of the hostess chapter and those from Xi Alpha Psi, Vaughn and Preceptor Alpha Nu.

Gilbert Stewart remains hospitalized in Albuquerque and has infection in one of the stab wounds, but his sister reported his condition improving Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Petersen spent a few days with the Jackie Davidsons. They left Monday for their home in Colorado Springs. They had been in Florence, AZ for the winter months.

Friends here have only now learned of the February death of Mrs. Ina Berry Shriner of Deming. She is a former resident of Corona.

All members of Preceptor Alpha Nu chapter joined all the members of Mountainair's Preceptor Alpha Mu chapter in observing the 53rd anniversary of Beta Sigma Phi at a Founders' Day dinner at the Oldie Co-op in Estancia. Inez Carter and Pauline Ness chaired the event. President Linda Cancilla and Sue Sanchez alternated in reading the Ritual of Jewels for Jane Standish, Mountainair, and Jo Ann Joy, Helen Livingston, Angela Molyneaux and Michele Rose, Corona in an impressive candlelight ceremony.

Favors from PAN were yellow silk roses in brown bud vases, and from PAN the favors were friendship charms. Eleanor Smith gave the Highlights and Eva Mae Holleyman shared our dream, the dream of improving the Simpson-Sloan Park, particularly for the benefit of the children of Corona.

Awards were presented. Margaret Teague had Best Program and Mrs. Cancilla received the Woman of the Year trophy. Mrs. Holleyman gave everyone a shoe, bag and in it were samples of cologne and moisturizer from the Avon lady, Johnnie Erramouspe. All Preceptor Alpha Nu members received a charm for perfect attendance. Mrs. Cancilla thanked her members for their cooperation and expressed pleasure in serving as president. She gave everyone a charm for the theme of her year "Keep the Dream Big." Mrs. Carter read the message from International and announced the theme for next year "Paint a Living Masterpiece". For entertainment Preceptor Nu women presented an original skit "You've Come a Long Way, Baby" representing nine decades of womanhood. ## INSIDE THE CAPITOL BY Fred McCaffrey

SANTA FE -- It's hard to get people outside of Albuquerque excited about all that economic development our Governor seems so set upon.

That's because, whenever any of that kind of growth comes along, Albuquerque seems to be the only place that gets it.

Now as New Mexicans, we can and do rejoice about the good things that come to any part of our state. We are also aware that at least a few bucks from those big city installations may get peeled off and make their way into local cash registers.

But for most of us, such industrial development as the state has seen has consisted almost entirely of the rich getting richer.

LACK OF ENTHUSIASM -- It's something of a shock for our young Governor to learn, but not every part of the state is thrilled by those pictures of Japan being sent back from him by satellite.

Even the station which is transmitting them, we recall, is in populous Bernalillo county, not out here where the rest of us dwell.

So if the Japanese decide to locate another plant to make chips for electronic memories in our state, we are pretty sure where it will go: right down the street in the Duke City from where all the rest of them already are.

Yet every taxpayer in the state, no matter where he or she lives, contributes the bucks for the Anaya tours.

Still to come, that massive trip to Europe and Israel.

Will Espanola or Fort Sumner or Clayton get any profit from that tour? Not so you'll notice it.

There are even some old soreheads around who murmur that the Governor ought to at least visit their county, right here in his own state, and listen a little to the citizens there before he goes off to be indoctrinated by those in other lands.

Of course it's no big thrill for Toney to get to Carrizozo or Santa Rosa. But London. That's a deal!

FIRST THINGS FIRST: All these trips to hunt for high-tech industry leave some of us old-timers a little sour anyway.

Every state in the union — indeed every nation in the world, including Red China — is looking for those.

Since when did it make sense to hunt the same duck every other hunter in the world is after?

We think the most likely profit to come to our state — and to every part of it, at that — will come if we can expand our tourist

After midnight on the mornings of Friday and Sunday our area received snow. There was 3/4 inches which did not last long. The winds were most terrific. The moisture was good even though light.

The Capitan Senior Citizens received their new bus last Friday. It will be used to serve senior citizens in Capitan, Lincoln and the Hondo Valley. Transportation service will include visits to the doctor, shopping and recreation. Such as a trip to the Hondo Fiesta May 5. Their driver will be Louisa Padilla.

From April 23-25, 508 registered visitors enjoyed their tour at the Stribkey Bear Museum. Staining is still going on at the museum. We have to wait until the winds lessen. The recreation building is going through the same and it does look much nicer.

Saturday morning Mark Daughtery took Ronald Joiner, John Parker and Mike Lunn to Truth or Consequences to a pig sale and then they went to another sale in Socorro.

Pat and Betty Joiner and family went to Morton, TX last Friday afternoon and purchased pigs for 4-H and FFA.

The Capitan Band went to Las Cruces last Friday. They received a rating of No. 2 which is very good.

The Capitan Jr. Rodeo Club held a cleaning day at the arena Sat., April 28. That afternoon they held their Sportsman and Safety Clinic.

The Capitan 4-H held their meeting at the fair building Monday.

The Ricky Hobbs family received their 28'x60' doublewide mobile home last week and are busy getting it set up. It is a beauty.

Congratulations to Jerry and Marlene Lobb who became grandparents for the first time on April 28. Their daughter Regina gave birth to Genevieve Marie who weighed in at 7 lbs. and 12 ozs. The baby was born in Taos where Reggie is living. Much happiness to this bundle of joy, and her parents. Her grandparents are really beside themselves and will go visit them this weekend.

Dusty Voss, Sammy Vigil and Richard Watts were on the Bonita fishing this last weekend. They visited with Dusty's and Sam's folks in Carrizozo and with the Runnels bunch on the Bonita and Capitan.

Don Stark entered the Veteran's Hospital in Amarillo, TX last Saturday. I wish him a good recovery.

Nathan Longbotham had to return to the Presbyterian Hospital in Albuquerque for more surgery scheduled for April 30. I wish him a good recovery.

Lorene Caywood of California formerly of Capitan arrived here last Friday morning. Visited relatives and friends while enroute to Duncan, OK, to attend a family reunion.

Stephen Strickland returned from a one day check up in Houston last Friday. He is doing ok. Keep up the good work, Stephen.

Mr. Bill Strickland of Hobbs and Mrs. Sue Shrum of Midland, TX were guests of the Terry and David Stricklands last weekend.

Ronnie Hammett is employed with the Parker Driller near Ft. Stockton in the southeast corner of New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Horton returned last Thursday from two weeks vacation in Mesa, AZ.

Capitan is still in the process of cleaning yards, etc. The winds have given more debris but we journey on and continue this job with vigor. It is a big job but we will win if we just keep up the good work. It is a must.

Citizens, friends and neighbors we need more news. I realize we have not been getting out. If you have any, I would most certainly appreciate your assistance. This is your column, remember that. It does take us all.

Jr Deputy Sheriff's League being formed

Lincoln County Sheriff Tom Sullivan will be organizing and developing the Junior Deputy Sheriff's League.

This is a youth program for children, ages six years to 17 years old. The program is a national program sponsored by the National Sheriff's Association with headquarters in Washington, DC; purpose of the program is to give youth a wholesome and attractive program of activities with these main objectives:

- 1) To achieve a constant decrease of the juvenile delinquency rate.
- 2) To prevent accidents in traffic, on the water, and with firearms.

- 3) To acquaint youth with the functions of local government and law enforcement.
- 4) To enlist the help of youth itself to keep others of their own age out of trouble, such as record files, courts, reformatories and jails.
- 5) To render valuable service to the community through training for general emergencies, and to assist in the protection of life and property.
- 6) To instruct in popular sports and safe driving of automobiles.
- 7) To stimulate an interest for the choice of a later career possibly in law enforcement.

Sheriff Sullivan would like to ask the Lincoln County adult citizens to join with him as a sponsor committee to assist in the formation of this worthwhile program. Anyone desiring to participate please contact the Sheriff's Office at 649-2341. It is the desire of Sheriff Sullivan to form several units of the Junior Deputy League at locations throughout Lincoln County.

It is anticipated within the next two weeks to set a date for the first organizational meeting of the Junior Deputy League. The date, time, and places will be published one week prior to the meeting in all local newspapers.

Q: My three year old boy has chicken pox. How should I take care of him? H. V.

A: Chicken pox is a viral illness caused by a herpes virus. Most victims are exposed to the virus about two to three weeks before developing the characteristic rash. Small red bumps are the first sign but these soon turn into small, domeshaped blisters. The blisters then usually rupture, become encrusted and heal rapidly. New blisters often appear in crops so that the child may have red bumps, blisters crusting and healing sores all at the same time. Most children are not very ill with chicken pox and may only have a slight fever and itching of the crusted areas. A running nose may precede the rash.

Treatment of itching is by oral antihistamines, oatmeal baths, daily bathing and trimming the fingernails. Use tylenol (acetaminophen) for fever or pain since using aspirin may increase the risk of a serious illness called Reye's Syndrome. The skin sores that swell, become reddened in the surrounding tissue, drain pus and that hurt more, need medical treatment with topical or oral antibiotics.

The virus is very contagious and children should be isolated from susceptible children and adults until no new blisters are forming and the old blisters are all crusted and healing. Shingles is an illness caused by the same virus as chicken pox. The victim has had a previous attack of chicken pox and years later develop a painful blistering rash. The virus has been shown to reside in the nerve cells of the spine. During an attack of shingles, the virus travels down the nerve fibers to the skin and causes the rash. Shingles, is not contagious. Treatment is symptomatic with pain relievers and topical lotions. Shingles can recur.

Shop class starts project

The Carrizozo High School General Shop Class is reintroducing a traditional Carrizozo School project—furniture making and sales!

Beginning this week, the Shop class has ordered a wide variety of furniture items which will be made in class throughout the remaining weeks of school. Some projects are of a size and complexity that after school and evening work will also be required. The culminating activity for the project will be an evening display and auction to be scheduled in the old gym at a later date.

At that time, the general public is invited to come and review the projects. An auction will be held at that time with proceeds to be given back to students.

The Shop program has recently been adjusted to add an additional 6 weeks of woodworking to the program for a total of 12 weeks of instruction. Over $1,000 of new woodworking tools have recently been purchased.

MAY 6THRU MAY 12 PROCLAIMED AS "SMALL BUSINESS WEEK"

Mayor Harold G. Garcia, as Mayor of the Town of Carrizozo has proclaimed May 6 thru May 12 as Small Business Week in Carrizozo. The SBA was created by Congress in 1953 to assist, counsel, and champion America's small businesses. The Agency's mission is to help people get into business and prosper and to act as a strong advocate for small business. The SBA is an independent agency in the Executive Branch. Its administrator is appointed by, and reports to, the President. The Agency has approximately 4,300 employees, working in a central office in Washington, and in 110 offices scattered across the country. Every state has at least one SBA office. SBA generally defines a small business as one which is independently owned and operated and is not dominant in its field. To be eligible for SBA loans and other assistance, a business must meet the size standards set by the Agency. Of the 11 million non-farm businesses in the US, about 10.8 million are small by SBA standards. SBA makes special efforts to help those who face unusual difficulties in raising capital and finding sales markets, including women, minorities, the handicapped and veterans.

Signed this 30th day of April, 1984, by Mayor Harold G. Garcia.

RUIDOSO, NM - Each year thousands of people are reported missing.

Most of them are found.

But few missing persons have as much mystery surrounding their disappearance as Pamela Siek Nolen.

The 25-year-old divorcee and mother of a young daughter disappeared in October, 1978, after leaving her Ruidoso home to drive to her job as a cleaning woman at the Alto Alps condominiums north of town.

Her vehicle, a 1970 Chevrolet, pickup truck, was found alongside a dirt road west of Ruidoso. It had been partially hidden by some trees.

On May 17, 1981, hikers discovered a partial human skeleton in the Cedar Creek area near where Ms Nolen's truck had been found. Investigators also found a pair of boots and some jewelry that acquaintances said matched items worn by the missing woman.

However, the Medical Investigator's Office in Albuquerque could not positively identify the remains because the skull, both hands and some arm bones were missing.

Ruidoso Police Lieutenant Dave Pfeiffer believes Pam Nolen was the victim of foul play.

The major reason for his conclusion, Lt. Pfeiffer says, is that Ms. Nolen would never abandon her four-year-old daughter Marsh. The daughter had been staying with Ms Nolen's ex-husband, Steve, in Albuquerque at the time of her disappearance.

This week the State Crime Stoppers Commission and Ruidoso Crime Stoppers are each offering rewards of up to $1,000 for information leading to the solution of Pam Nolen's mysterious disappearance.

Anyone with information on this case, or who has knowledge of any serious crime committed anywhere in New Mexico, is encouraged to call State Crime Stoppers toll-free at 1-800-432-6933, or their local Crime Stoppers program.

In all cases callers do not have to reveal their identities.

Atkins announces

A lifetime resident of Alamogordo, NM, 32 year old Bert Atkins announced he has filed for the position of District Attorney of the 12th Judicial District.

After graduation from Alamogordo High School Atkins attended the University of New Mexico and the University of New Mexico School of Law where he received his Juris Doctorate Degree in 1977. While in law school Atkins published 2 articles in the Natural Resources Journal, and received a Deans Award for his services to the Law School. In his 3rd year of law school Atkins participated in a special Clinical Law program in which the students practiced as felony prosecutors in the office of the District Attorney of the 2nd Judicial District in Albuquerque, NM. His association with that office included the administrations of both James Brandenburg and Ira Robinson.

Since law school Atkins experiences include 2½ years as an Assistant District Attorney. There he handled all forms of work around a District Attorney's office ranging from the prosecution of Death Penalty murder cases to civil assistance for County Government. During this period Atkins attended and successfully completed the National College of District Attorneys 1981 Career Prosecutor Course. Staying in the field of Criminal Law, Atkins has spent the last year as District Public Defender for the 12th Judicial District and in that year his office has represented over 300 clients.

"I want to offer the people of Otero and Lincoln Counties my abilities, energy, and integrity. The office of District Attorney is not a 9 to 5 job but rather a 24 hour a day commitment. I pledge to make the office of the District Attorney responsible to all those it represents; to coordinate the energies of Law Enforcement; to provide legal assistance to County Government agencies; and to act in the interest of those victims of crimes whose lives are personally affected. I will devote whatever time is necessary to the job."

Atkins and his wife Eve have 2 children ages 2 and 5 and expect their third child in September.

BERT ATKINS
