

County commissioners meeting:

$3.5 million preliminary budget approved

By RUTH HAMMOND
Lincoln County Commissioners approved a preliminary $3.5 million budget at the May 15 meeting. Final budget hearing will be June 8.

County manager Suzanne Cox prepared the proposed budget which included requests for increases because of cost increases or plans to improve present programs in nearly all departments. Among the requested improvements were: up-dating and up-grading radio communications, additional computer storage, completion of sheriff's computer programs, replacing the roof on New Horizons building, four-wheel drive ambulance for Alto, boiler replacement, solid waste disposal, and Gavilan and Carrizo Canyon road projects.

Budgeted fund revenue for the 1984-85 fiscal year are less than budgeted fund expenditures with revenue being $3,003,688 and expenditures being $3,559,715. The county has a beginning unaudited cash balance of $1,953,270 that will help make up the difference.

The county is required by law to keep five months of operating funds in reserve. The estimated ending fund cash balance will be $1,397,243 for the fiscal year.

Law enforcement and the road fund take the largest bite out of the budget. Running the sheriff's department for a year costs $586,108 and the expenses for the road department are $559,736.

The two county health facilities take the next highest chunks out of the budget. Ruidoso Hondo Valley Hospital will receive $337,245 and Carrizozo Health Center, $284,331.

Commissioners accepted the resignation of Bill Seelbach as a member of the Extraterritorial Zoning Commission and appointed Mack Bell to fill the vacancy.

Quinn Martin, special assistant to the District Attorney, has been helping draft the Lincoln Historical Ordinance. He wanted to clarify his position and asked that anyone with questions about the drafting of the ordinance contact him or District Attorney Steve Sanders.

Announcement was made that Lincoln County Sheriff Tom Sullivan was elected president of the New Mexico Sheriff's Association.

Sullivan explained that his request for an ordinance requiring that security be provided by establishments when alcoholic beverages are served and a live band is present had no connection to his own security company. His company patrols private properties and does not provide standing armed guards.

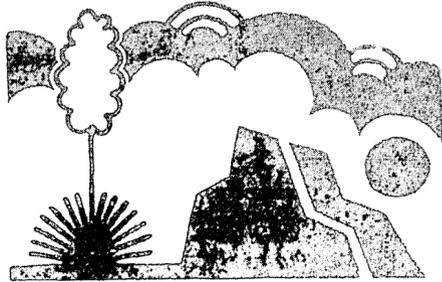

His request stemmed from the time involved and the sheriff's department not having enough men to police parking areas. The ordinance will be advertised and presented to the commission at their next meeting. The ordinance will require establishments which operate for profit, and have a live band, and serve alcoholic beverages to provide their own standing guard.

The lease agreement with magistrate court was signed. Rent received will be $68 per month. Commissioners will request an increase in rent next year. The request must be made in advance so that the magistrate court may include it in their budget for the next legislative session.

Commissioners approved changing Memorial Day holiday from May 30 to May 28. Zia Senior Citizen's Center budget a request from New Mexico Ranch & Farm Exchange for a list of all property owners in Lincoln County, a proposed road into the Rio Bonito Estates and Shadow Mountain Estates subdivisions, a request for a water system variance for the Pines of Gavilan subdivision subject to several conditions being met by the subdivider, conditional approval of the final plat of Pines of Gavilan subdivision subject to resolution of the water problem, final plat of Raven Ridge subdivision subject to their letter of credit, a bid of $3,102.70 for the purchase of an ice maker and dispenser for the Ruidoso Hondo Valley Hospital, and approved the drafting of an ordinance for the county to participate in the Ruidoso Utility Council. This ordinance will be advertised and presented at the next meeting.

Commissioners denied a request for a variance on roads in the Wolf Creek Estates subdivision and the Wolf Springs subdivision. Lincoln County Planning and Zoning Commissioners had denied their request earlier and county commissioners agreed with their decision.

Shangri La resident Howard Puckett made a complaint about a gravel pit on state land next to the Shangri La subdivision. Commissioners will send a letter to the State Land Office voicing their opinions.

Parade kicks-off Smokey Bear Day in Capitan

By BARTLEY McDONOUGH
Smokey Bear Day is just hours away! Saturday, May 26, is the big day. Preparations by the Capitan Chamber of Commerce have been underway since last September and there will be plenty to do and enjoy.

The parade is scheduled for 11 a.m. It begins in the bank area, heads west down Hwy 380 (Main Street) and disbands on school property. For information ask officials wearing the red arm band. The judging stand will be across the street from the Smokey Bear Restaurant. Official headquarters for Smokey Bear Day will be in the parking lot between the old gym and the high school.

Several area bands have indicated that they will be in the parade as well as a honor guard from Holloman AFB. Floats are being constructed and the Mescalero Indian Dancers will be here. Capitan always has a good parade.

The Arts and Crafts Fair will be located at the Lincoln County

Fairgrounds. This 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. show is shaping up very well.

There will be free demonstrations in the afternoon on Tiger Football Field. Don't miss the Mescalero Indian Dancers and a demonstration by the American Kennel Club.

Bobby Buttram and the Trainmen will round out the festivities playing for the 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. dance at the fairgrounds.

Be in Capitan Saturday and HAVE FUN.

'AN EVENING of Fine Arts,' sponsored by Carrizozo Municipal Schools, featured the art works of Bill Greer, Birgit and Henri LaMothe, Beulah Moore, Polly E. Chavez, Jack Richardson, Ruth Wilson, Brenda Zumwalt and Martha Halloran, pictured above with Joe DeTevis, art teacher who coordinated the art program at the May 22 event. The artists are from Carrizozo, Nogal, Capitan and Ancho.

In joint meet w/P&Z

Lincoln Historic Board

By RUTH HAMMOND
A joint meeting between the Lincoln County Planning and Zoning Commission and the Lincoln Historic Board was held May 17. The Historic Board reviewed and approved plans for the historic zone.

P & Z members made changes in the Lincoln Historic Preservation Ordinance and three conference review plats were considered for Los Chozas subdivision, Vista Grande subdivision, and Mountain Breeze subdivision.

The Lincoln Historic Preservation Ordinance will replace ordinance no. 17 which has been in effect since January 28, 1972. The ordinance was rewritten to help make it easier to understand. A day long public hearing held in Lincoln April 28 brought suggestions for additions, deletions, and clarification in the ordinance.

The ordinance is intended to promote the maintenance of the living environment, safeguard the town's historic and cultural heritage, foster civic pride in the beauty and noble accomplishments of the past, protect and enhance the town's attractions to residents, tourists, and visitors, strengthen the economy of the town, and promote the use of historic districts and landmarks for the education, pleasure, and welfare of the people.

The multi-page document is enacted for the purpose and intent of protecting and preserving places of historic and cultural importance and significance that reflect the heritage of the County of Lincoln. It is desirable to preserve these reminders for the enlightenment of its citizens.

The P & Z approved the ordinance. Another public hearing will be held June 8 before Lincoln County Commissioners consider it for approval.

A large crowd attended the meeting to hear the final revision recommendations. P & Z chairman Bill Seelbach said, "I appreciate everyone here. It shows concern."

One man wanted to know if there is any way to do away with the ordinance. County commissioner Kenneth Nosker was present at the meeting and he said, "We are obligated to uphold the laws of the state of New Mexico. It is up to the people of the County of Lincoln, not the county commissioners, if they want to 'do away' with the ordinance."

Ordinance no. 17 will remain in effect for White Oaks until their historic preservation ordinance is rewritten, public hearings are held, and it is approved.

Accidental shooting victim undergoes emergency surgery

By P. E. CHAVEZ
A 44-year-old Carrizozo man remained in serious condition on Tuesday at Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital Emilio Beltran underwent emergency surgery the previous night.

According to Chief of Police C. A. Morales and Deputy Sheriff Byron Baker, the man was cleaning a 22 rifle on Monday, May 21 when it accidentally discharged a bullet, striking him in the chest area.

Beltran, who had been hunting rabbits alone 2 miles east of Carrizozo, got into his pickup truck and headed towards Carrizozo to obtain help. He passed the Lovelace place, then turned back and asked for assistance. Persons there called the Sheriff's Office at 5:51 p.m. and an ambulance was dispatched.

Morales and Baker drove to the site of the accident and found a gun cleaning kit and the rifle.

May 12 Frederick W. McFadden, 42, last known address Ruidoso, was picked up by sheriff's deputies on an indictment for theft by check. McFadden awaits extradition to Texas.

Margaret I. Chavez, 27, Carrizozo was arrested May 18 and charged with DWI and driving without a license. Paul W. Collins, 34, Carrizozo, was charged with Parties to a Crime.

Carrizozo Town approves budget

By RUTH HAMMOND
A special meeting of the Town of Carrizozo Board of Trustees was held Monday for the revenue sharing and proposed budget for the 1984-85 fiscal year.

Budgeted expenditures total $502,237. This is more than the estimated revenues of $429,221. The unaudited beginning cash balance of $203,789 together with the estimated revenues will offset expenditures and leave an estimated ending cash balance of $105,599 on June 30, 1985. The General Fund brings in the most revenue, $191,241 and also has the largest budgeted expenditure of $195,609. General Fund revenues are from taxes, licenses and permits, state shared taxes, fines, charges for services, rent, and small cities assistance grants.

Budgeted expenditures from the general fund are: judicial, financial administration, police department, airport, motor vehicle department, street department, park department, state board of finance, and other government fees for audit, election operating, utilities, liability, dues, official bonds, and travel and training.

The largest expense in the general fund is for running the police department. The budgeted $78,500 includes salaries for the chief of police, a police clerk and two officers. The recent decision by trustees to release officer Richard Lemense of his duties and the resignation of Stanley F. Benson will leave the city with unspent budgeted salaries unless these positions are filled. Other police department expenses are for employees benefits, supplies, auto maintenance, fuel, animal control, phone, lease maintenance agreement on copier, and lease payment on a radar gun.

The water and sewer department has revenue of $121,041 and expenses of $124,345. Salaries, chemicals and treatment, and plant production operation are the largest expenditures.

The Town of Carrizozo has eleven full-time employees. While salaries are a major item in the budget, the average salary is less than $11,500 a year.

Trustees agreed to buy a computer for use in billing, payroll, and accounting. They designated an amount up to $7,500 to be used to purchase the computer, parts, accessories, and for training. If the cost of the computer is less than $7,500 the remainder will be returned to the capitol outlay fund for any emergency that may arise.

Trustees approved the proposed budget. It will be sent to Santa Fe for the state's approval.

Heaven's blessings came to this parched area in three inches of good rain, May 15. The next day gave us one-tenth. It is like magic as all is turning so fresh and green. It gave us a new start. All of us are going forward with a new strength and such happiness.

A report from J. D. Guye is that Lovington received 7 inches, Hobbs 5 inches and Tatum 6 inches. God has blessed New Mexico. We must not forget that.

It is great to see that Alto Lake and the duck pond is full. It is good to see the creek running past Ft. Stanton on towards Lincoln. That means perhaps the overflow is going on Bonita Dam. It was dry for so long. For all of this, we are truly grateful. All of us still must conserve water, our most important commodity.

Smokey Bear Day is May 26, 1984. I am so proud and happy to see that area merchants are sponsoring a two page spread in the Lincoln County News for "Smokey Bear Day" May 26. From 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. "Arts and Crafts Fair" at the grounds, 11:00 a.m. parade, 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. "Interesting Exhibitions on the high school football field, 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. dance to the music of Bobby Buttram and the Trainmen.

Smokey Bear Day is being sponsored by the Capitan Chamber of Commerce.

During Smokey Bear Day, Jerrie McClain of Jerrie's Hair Boutique will sell raffle tickets for a $40 Perm for $1 at the Cemetery Board Booth located next to the Bargain Store. Proceeds will go to the Cemetery Board. Stop by and see them.

had a very busy week last week as you will note. They had a bus tour of 84 from Roswell Adult Center on Tuesday, Wednesday a group of 88 from Zimmery Elementary School in Socorro. One of the teachers was Delores Gavi Griego, daughter of Isabel Gavi, who is deceased, formerly of Capitan. They were a very delightful, well behaved group of children. We enjoyed them. Delores was born and reared in Capitan, graduated from Capitan school. We are proud of her many accomplishments.

Saturday, they had a group of 17 charming young girls from Mexico. A class on their Senior trip from Brady, TX was very enjoyable. A bus tour of 45 people came through Monday. May 20 Boy Scout Troop No. 99, Roswell, 10 Scouts and 3 adults who had been camping at the Bonita Lake enjoyed it. 823 visitors passed through Smokey Bear Museum from May 14-20.

The Capitan City Hall and Fire Station has a new coat of paint and it does look great. The B & L Pizza building received its new coat of warm bright rust paint. Really does look nice.

Monday, May 21 Glenn and Doris Williams of Florida visited the Smokey Bear Museum. A retired forest fire warden, then of Plymouth, NH delivered this message.

James Ricard of Cannon, NH was the man who made the first Smokey Bear Suit to spread the Fire Prevention Program. Glenn worked with him for years and was present at Ricard's retirement. Doris made the cake 2'x2' with a big Smokey Bear on it for the happy occasion.

Twenty of the Capitan senior class left via bus Sunday, May 20 to visit Six Flags, TX and other points of interest and returned Wednesday night.

A 1984 Class of 31 Seniors graduated from the Capitan High School Thursday, May 17. Sam Romero of Stockton, CA was the speaker. A big crowd did enjoy it all. Isabel Romero accompanied her son to the exercises. They were former residents of Capitan. Sam finished school here.

You are invited to attend the Memorial Day observance at the Angus Cemetery on Sunday, May 27 with the usual program. Preaching service and singing at 11:00 a.m., followed by a basket lunch and a business meeting in the afternoon. All interested persons are urged to attend this business meeting. They are now in the process of cleaning the cemetery. A flower will be put on each grave.

Frances W. and Biddie Owens of Roswell came through Capitan and visited the S. B. Museum. Frances was born in Lincoln. His father was Omer F. Owens, jailer at the Lincoln court, his grandfather was John W. W. Owens, sheriff in Lincoln. The days of Pat Garret.

Frances now lives in Roswell. He ranched in Asparas Canyon for 39 years. The ranch is now owned by Dr. William Liokas of Roswell. Walt and Betty Jones now work and live there.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Horner of Germany, in the service, became the proud and happy parents of a daughter Chantelle Marie born April 4, 1984. She weighed 7 lbs, 7 ozs. Her happy grandfather is Bartley McDonough of Capitan.

The Capitan Roundtable Club met in the lovely home of Frances Shaw May 17. All were present except Alice Traylor, who was out of town. Diane Riska was the guest. The dining table was spread with a luscious pink table cloth and in contrast beautiful pink violets were blooming in the center of the table.

Frances served delectable baked ham, scalloped potatoes and French bread. The rest of the menu was furnished by the members.

Gladys Pew, president presided at the business meeting. The name drawn for the raffle was that of Harriet McGinnis. The June meeting will be held at the home of Maureen Sullivan.

Jana and Frank Buff set their parakeet cage containing a pair of parakeet outside for sunshine and fresh air last week. A cat knocked the cage over and the birds flew away. Late that afternoon their neighbor S. A. Montes discovered the blue male eating with his chickens and he caught him and took him to the Buffs. The female has not been located. Watch, someone may find her.

The Terry Stricklands and I do join them, to send happy birthday wishes to 13 year old Stephen David Strickland and many more.

Shelby Helm and his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Art Helms of Oscura went to Anchorage, Alaska to attend his sister Abbey's senior graduation May 23.

Dan and Anne Wright of Pecos, TX attended the senior graduation last Thursday and visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shafer for a few days.

Clarence McCarty of Texas returned to Capitan to make his home.

Joan Pumphrey recently fell in her home and injured her left ankle and leg. It was in a soft cast for two weeks and she was on crutches. She now must wear a bandage for a while. I do wish you the very best and good recovery.

John Philpott was taken to the Ruidoso hospital last week very seriously ill. His wife, I was informed has been in the hospital for some time. I do wish them both a good recovery.

John Fuchs had one of his hands cut off last Thursday. He was flown to Albuquerque to see if it could be replaced. I wish him the best and complete recovery.

We are so saddened with the news of the death of Don Stark, Wednesday, May 16 in Amarillo. He was laid to rest there. He was a good man whom we loved and will miss. My sympathy is extended to his lovely wife and family.

Soil Stewardship Week observed May 27 thru June 3

The Carrizozo and Upper Hondo Soil and Water Conservation Districts will join the nationwide celebration of Soil Stewardship Week to take place on May 27 through June 3, 1984. The theme of this year's celebration is "Conservation: A Common Commitment." The National Association of Conservation Districts (NACD) has sponsored Soil Stewardship Week since 1955, in cooperation with the nation's nearly 3,000 soil and water conservation districts.

The thirtieth annual reference booklet published by NACD cites the reluctance of the human race to fully accept its primary role as caretaker of God's earth. "We are prepared to eat the fruit but the task of dressing the garden is left to the few among us who sincerely care about the perpetuation of the forests, the preservation of the rivers that water the garden and the renewing of the topsoil from which the plants gather their nutrients."

Materials especially designed to promote the Soil

Stewardship Week theme are distributed each year through local conservation districts to clergymen, lay leaders, churches, civic and educational organizations and to individuals participating in the observance. Lincoln County churches have been actively involved in celebrating Soil Stewardship Week for many years.

Information and materials for the 1984 observance are available in both the Soil Conservation Service offices in the county - Carrizozo Courthouse Annex upstairs, and Capitan office located on First St.

Primary candidates at FRWLC

Ten candidates for county and legislative positions presented their views at a "Meet the Candidates" forum sponsored by Federated Republican Women of Lincoln County at their May 23 meeting at Gregson's Restaurant in Ruidoso.

Candidates heard from and their positions sought included Fran Siddens, County Clerk, Sam Sanchez, District Attorney; Mignon Sims and Flora Vega, County Treasurer; Dave Barnett, Fred Collins and Ben Hall, St. Rep. Dist. 66; Marian Schlarb, County Assessor; John McIntyre, Sheriff; and Ken Nosker, County Commissioner, District I.

Siddens cited her experience in the Clerk's office and emphasized it was "important to be knowledgeable about the office," because of the myriad of duties involved.

Sanchez claimed his previous administrative experience and schooling were primary qualifications.

Sims cited her experience as bookkeeper and her studies as an accounting major at NMSU, while Vega emphasized her 7 years experience in the Treasurer's office and as Chief Deputy.

Barnett, a businessman, believes "people in business need to be in government" to produce legislation favorable to a free enterprise system.

Collins emphasized that as a semi-retired individual, he has the time to devote to the job, especially visiting the wide area covered by District 66.

Hall cited his experience as necessary to the job which involves funding state programs, education and the like.

Schlarb has served in the Assessor's office for 12 years, some as either Assessor or deputy assessor and feels knowledge about the office is essential.

McIntyre, too, felt experience was important to the voter and claimed 14 years in the law enforcement field.

Nosker believes that, although elected to serve District I, his responsibility is to all the residents of Lincoln County.

In the business meeting preceding the forum, members finalized plans for their booth at the Smokey Bear Day in Capitan Saturday, May 28.

Voter registration will also be done during the day.

Pat Hume read a resolution to be sent to Governor Anaya and Michael Francke, head of the Department of Corrections in Santa Fe. The resolution concerns the housing of violent criminals at the minimum security facility at Camp Sierra Blanca. The resolution grew out of a similar action taken by the County Commissioners at a previous meeting. Members were also urged to write individual letters of protest to the Governor and Francke.

Hume, who is County GOP chairman, announced a fundraiser to be held June 15 from 6-9 p.m. It will be a barbecue served by Sonny's BBQ and Catering of Ruidoso at the Lincoln County Fair Building in Capitan. The $10 tickets are available from FRWLC members, county central committee members or at the FRWLC booth at the Smokey Bear Day.

Yvonne Lapell thanked the members who obtained items for KENW's tele-auction to be aired next week on Channel 3. "All of Lincoln County will be well represented," she said. "Over 150 items were donated with a retail value of $7256.00." FRWLC does this project annually for their service award.

Mary Helen Skeen reported that her husband, US Rep. Joe Skeen recently toured the Bureau of Engraving. He was delighted to notice that the Bureau was in the process of printing the Smokey Bear Stamp. Next meeting of the group will be Tuesday, June 26 at a place to be announced. Martha Thiedt will present the program, "Working Partners."

INSIDE THE CAPITOL

BY Fred McCaffrey

SANTA FE—This year we've proved one thing: Even in New Mexico, political campaigns can be complete bores.

Not all of them, mind you. It's just the major races that nobody seems to care much about, with less than two weeks to go till primary balloting day.

Where there's heat, it seems to be only in legislative races. Will El Comanche Gonzales in Taos be helped or hurt by the fact that Toney Anaya is fighting him? Will Lou Whitlock be able to pick off Joe Gant in that Senate race in Eddy county? Will Caleb Chandler be beaten by Anaya's favorite in Clovis? Those are the only sorts of questions people seem to be asking.

Except in those areas where there is a fight of this kind, we can probably look for turnout to be light on primary day, June 5.

GET 'EM OUT: One group that can be counted on to deliver their voters in a statewide race are the following of Judy Pratt.

That lady, running against Nick Franklin and Anselmo Chavez in the Democratic primary for US Senate, has a well-oiled, well-organized campaign. Her supporters will be at the polls, along with all those they can dragoon into the voting booths.

You could do worse that place a bet on her to win that one. The Franklin campaign so far has been a model of lethargy. If it's going to take fire, it better do it soon.

As for Anselmo Chavez, his effort is so eccentric it's impossible to handicap. Anybody who insists on addressing meetings in Albuquerque's Northeast Heights only in Spanish does not appear to be maximizing his chances.

All the numbers Chavez quotes when "proving" how he will win have a disturbing element about them. They are so blatantly based on the fact that he alone among the three candidates has a Hispanic last name that they seem insulting to his fellow Hispanics; they practically assert that anyone of that ethnic background can be taken for granted as supporters simply because of shared Latinity.

That could turn out to be a remarkable over-simplification by Mr. Chavez, and we could end up seeing Judy Pratt walk away with the marbles.

NEXT NOVEMBER: Over in the Domenici camp, they are striving hard to keep people from getting carried away with certitude.

That's a tough thing for a candidate to fight. He or she may say, "I always run scared," or "Every campaign is a horse race," or some such thought; but the supporters can still be thinking, "There's no use to break our backs on this one."

Remember how Manuel Lujan beat Tom Morris, and how Jack Schmitt beat Joe Montoya?

Maybe it would be good for Pete if he had to run against Pratt. She at least is a hustler, and those who back her are hard-working, true believers. They'd put on a campaign which would force Domenici supporters to sit up and take notice.

Lou Gallegos, Republican candidate in the northern Congressional district, will do that for Bill Richardson between now and November.

As for most of the rest of it, however, it's largely a big yawn.

WATCH OVER WASHINGTON

Abrief encounter with the kingdom and the power

By LES KINSOLVING

CHERRY HILLS, NJ — For most of the eight year that I have been an owner of The New York Times (two shares: poor-but-proud), I have been hustling to attend one of those annual shareholders meetings.

Usually The Times management schedules these meetings a long, long way away from the residences of most of The Time's readers — in far away Times properties such as a paper-mill in Northern Maine or a newspaper in Florida.

In 1984, however, this annual meeting was called to order in one of the New Jersey suburbs of Philadelphia, where there is a NYT Cable company. On April 24 at 11:00 a.m., this meeting was called to order. On this very same morning at 10:00 a.m., as if by fate, Murphy's Law went into high gear against me. "If Anything Can Possibly Go Wrong, It Will — At The Worst Possible Time."

First there was this fiendishly concealed curb, which flattened my tire.

Then, a helpful garage attendant directed me to one of Cherry Hill's Haddonfield Roads (there are two) — which, to be sure, was the wrong one and which left me somewhere in the bowels of East Camden.

By the time I arrived—surely expecting that the meeting would have barely begun the question period—I learned that its chairman had conducted it with such dispatch and absence of anything but adulation from the shareholders that it was over and done with in 42 minutes flat, at 11:42.

At 11:43 I arrived, seething. My apparent angst was immediately perceived and graciously sympathized with by an angelic lady who works for The Times. She begged me to have a cup of coffee and added that she would find Chairman and Publisher Arthur Sulzberger.

I sat, drinking the coffee and wondering just how Chairman Katherine Graham of The Washington Post Company would have reacted, had I arrived one minute after she had adjourned her annual meeting — since I recalled her suggestion, made through clenched teeth, that I sell my two shares of Post stock. (I imagine that she would have relished my too late arrival.)

Almost immediately, Sulzberger arrived, absolutely brimming with compassion at my frustration in having just missed the meeting, after traveling from Washington. When I mentioned that I had prepared some questions, he immediately rounded up his vice chairman, former Times foreign editor Sydney Gruson, and his president, Walter Mattson. He then borrowed an office so we could talk. (Who's Who meets Who's He?, I thought.)

I asked him about his managing editor, Seymour Topping, who had commended to a Department of Defense hearing (on The Media and The Military) a New York Times Magazine article of Feb. 5, 1984. This article, by Drew Middleton, had a subheadline:

"A Tradition Of Open Coverage Going Back To The Civil War Was Shattered In Grenada, With Wide Implications For Informed Opinion In America."

Writer Middleton had added his own opinion: "The media track record has in fact been good."

Does the Publisher of The New York Times agree with these statements, which he published — or not?

Sulzberger, a handsome and thoroughly congenial man, flashed an irresistible grin and inquired, "How about a no comment?"

Sydney Gruson promptly implemented: "Except for the Ed Kennedy breach of the Armistice, I would say that on the whole it's been a pretty good record. I don't think there's been any serious breach of national security."

So I began citing the information provided me by the Library of Congress in several reference books. I noted that six days before Gen. William Sherman began his March from Atlanta to the Sea, The Indianapolis Journal exposed both his troop strength as well as his destination — and this story was picked up and given wide distribution by The New York Times.

Punch pondered. Then he grinned again and replied: "I just don't remember that."

So I went on to mention reporter William Swinton, who was caught in the bushes eavesdropping on a meeting of Gen. Grant and his generals. He was ordered shot by Gen. Ambrose Burnside, but Grant modified the sentence to banishment from the war zone. Swinton was a reporter for The New York Times.

"I never heard of the man!" laughed Sulzberger.

So I mentioned two other New York reporters, Thomas Knox and De Bow Randolph of The New York Herald. The former was court-martialed for disobeying Gen. Sherman's orders prohibiting reporters from accompanying troops on his Yazoo River expedition at the Battle of Vicksburg. The latter reported a military secret, that the Union Army had finally unravelled the Confederate signal code.

Sulzberger responded that he had never heard about any of this — and he asked for a copy of my questions.

(Had Middleton done his homework, or had Times reporter Jonathon Friendly fully reported the Defense Department hearings, their publisher would have been informed, along with their readers.)

Sulzberger belongs to the American Newspaper Publishers Association, which issued the following statement regarding the exclusion of media from the Grenada landings:

"Since the Revolutionary War, American journalists have traditionally been allowed to accompany American troops on military operations, even when those operations depended upon the element of surprise."

Could the Publisher of The New York Times identify any media whose reporter accompanied Gen. Jimmy Doolittle over Tokyo, or who accompanied Gen. Washington in his boats across the Delaware?

No, but he could mention that a New York Times reporter was aboard the Enola Gay. And he added: "I wouldn't argue that every military operation should be covered."

"I think Middleton's article dealt with the modern era," added Gruson.

Wrong, wrong, wrong! And he was shown a photostat of Middleton's article.

Promises were then made that this would be "looked into." I replied that this was nice, but that last February, Managing Editor Seymour Topping said the same thing — with no apparent result whatever.

I got the impression that, by contrast, Sulzberger means what he says.

He then apologized with great earnestness that since the charter bus was waiting on him, might he possibly be excused? (Might he be excused? Good grief!)

So, on the way to the door, I asked one last question:

"Why is it that you can be so utterly courteous, hospitable and congenial — without even a trace of the smugness and elite, effete arrogance of so many of your editors and reporters?"

He thought about that for a split second. Then he turned to Gruson and exclaimed: "ASK THEM, SYDNEY! ASK THEM!" That cracked me up and left me feeling as if I had just interviewed either Prince Charles or Pope John Paul.

Gruson iced this cake by saying: "The next time you come to New York, please telephone me and come and have lunch at The Times, and we can talk about these things."

Could I imagine Mrs. Katherine Graham inviting me to lunch to talk about such things? Why sure I can.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

PLEASE WRITE

DEAR EDITOR—We must support S.979 which will stop technology export to the Communists. This bill, the Export Administration Act, has passed the Senate would increase export control to halt the flood of US technology to the Communist bloc. S.979 would give the Defense Department a greater role in the area of exports, providing greater protection of our national security. Up to the present, the Commerce Department has had primary responsibility and has promoted disastrous aid and trade policies with the Reds. The House version, H.R. 4873, incredibly, would relax even further the already deplorably inadequate export controls. The bills will now be going to the House-Senate conference to work out the differences. It is imperative that we convince Congress to pass an export Act with the strong controls and protections of S.979. After all how much sense does it make to spend billions upon billions to defend ourselves from the Reds and at the same time send them US technology which they can use against us.

Please write your Congressman and Senators on this vital bill.

APPRECIATE IT!

DEAR EDITOR—It is with a great deal of pride that I write to you, and through your newspaper, offer our sincere appreciation to the citizens of your community for supporting a very successful Bike-A-Thon for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

St. Jude, the largest childhood cancer research hospital in the country, is dedicated to one cause; to eliminate childhood cancer and other catastrophic diseases from the face of the earth. Please be assured that the funds raised in your community will be used to support those research programs which show promise of finding cures for those horrible diseases that threaten the lives of children.

There are many people to thank namely; the chairman, helpers, the riders, donors, merchants, the media and other volunteers.

We want you to know that progress is being made and that someday, hopefully soon, we will be able to close the doors to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital because the goal of eliminating cancer will have been reached.

Thank all of you for bringing life and hope to children everywhere.

CLIFFORD DAMSTROM,
Southwest Regional Director

FOR OUR OWN GOOD

EDITOR: "It's the Law" written by NM State Police officer Randy Rhue has proven to be a very helpful column to me and hopefully it has to others. Now we should understand why the police officer stops us when we are breaking the law—it's for our own protection and the protection of our fellowman.

LETTERS...

DEAR EDITOR—One of the biggest objections that the Soviets register against the 1984 Olympics is something that they call "commercialization."

For the first time, the Olympics will most likely show a profit for the taxpayers rather than a staggering loss.

For the first time, the Olympics have been planned and promoted by business men who employ the free enterprise system rather than government planners who believe in letting the taxpayers stand the losses.

It came about this way because the wise Los Angeles voters put down their electoral foot, and the voters demanded that absolutely no tax money be used to finance the 1984 Olympics.

They apparently knew that in 1976, Montreal lost a billion dollars. Montreal had government "experts" do its planning and managing. The people of Montreal are presently paying a 20 year surtax for that venture in bureaucratic bumbling.

The Russians spent some $9 billion of Russian taxpayers' money to put on the 1980 Olympic in Moscow. They just ain't telling how much they lost.

The business people directing the Los Angeles Olympics are predicting a profit of $50 million (to be used to promote youth activities in America.)

Rather than lose the taxpayers' money the Los Angeles Olympics' Committee expects to generate $231 million in tax revenue for the federal government; some $179 million for state and local governments.

Some 68,000 jobs will be created, jobs with a duration of about 4 months on the average. The Games will pump some $3.3 billion into the economy of Southern California, it is estimated.

As someone once noted, "You can trust the Communists (to be Communists.)"

And you can. All Communists are socialists, and they know full well that socialism's bitterest, deadliest enemy is free enterprise. And they ain't about to aid and abet the enemy.

IT'S THE LAW

New Mexico State Police
compiled by officer randy rhue

Since we live so close to and in mountains, and have roadways with alot of curves and hills, I thought it would be a good idea to put this section in this week because there will be alot of traffic in the mountain areas for the racing season. The other section is also very important in heavy traffic areas.

Both of these sections are causes of accidents if not obeyed.

96-7-323: TURNING ON CURVE OR CREST OR (OF) GRADE PROHIBITED.

No vehicle shall be turned so as to proceed in the opposite direction upon any curve, or upon the approach to, or near the crest of a grade, where such vehicle cannot be seen by the driver of any other vehicle approaching from either direction within one thousand feet. (1000).

66-7-324: STARTING

PARKED VEHICLE

No person shall start a vehicle which is stopped, standing or parked unless and until such movement can be made with reasonable safety.

The fines for these two sections is either $15 or an appearance before the Magistrate Judge. This is the violators decision.

Both of these sections are short and to the point so they should not be misinterpreted by anyone, REMEMBER IT'S THE LAW!

Next week laws on required signals for turning.

Chapel of Roses staff hosts 'Open House'

Chapel of Roses Mortuary recently celebrated 50 years of service in the mortuary business in Lincoln County.

Mrs. Billie Clark, co-owner along with daughter-in-law Dion have just recently finished remodeling their place of business in Ruidoso.

Most of the remodeling and design work done on the inside of the building was done by the Chapel of Roses staff, which includes: Funeral Director, Bronson Cummins and Charles H. Lane, Manager.

The newly remodeled Chapel of Roses now offers it's customers the use of a chapel with seating capacity of 300; two family visitation rooms; two slumber rooms adjoining the visitation rooms; an arrangement and counseling office; an adult and a baby casket display rooms, plus offices for staff members.

CHAPEL of Roses Mortuary Manager Charles H. Lane greeted guests at the door during "Open House" at newly remodeled building.

Corona News

Robert Williams continues to enjoy a vacation without reporting weather.

Orma Dorsett, Grand Chief Pythian Sisters of New Mexico, made her official visit to Cedar Temple Monday. She was accompanied by her husband, Glen Dorsett, and great granddaughter, seven year old Tansyne Speer. Mrs. Dorsett, of Lordsburg, visited over the weekend with relatives in Carrizozo before coming to Corona. Cedar Temple honored her with a luncheon and presented her with a cash gift. Mr. Dorsett is Grand Chancellor Knights of Pythias. The Dorsetts went on to Roswell for a dinner and the Grand Chief's official visit to Lady Damon Temple.

MEC Lee Shumate was in charge of arrangements and presided at the meeting. Others present for the salads and desserts included Elsie and Ivan Thomas; Ethel Davis, Marion Hoff and Violet Kimberly. Albuquerque, and Helen Auge and Ruth Auge, Belen.

Ernest Dishman spent almost two weeks in Belen with his sister, Mrs. Joe Atkinson. He saw his eye doctors and had his eyes tested for new glasses. He is feeling much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Rand Perkins were called to Albuquerque Tuesday by the death of Pat's uncle, Olin Thomas, Mountainair.

Ken Gibbs is at home on doctor's orders to recuperate for six weeks after suffering broken ribs and other injuries in a construction accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bryan with Marilee drove to Hobbs Sunday to spend the night with the Gilbert Bryans. Now the Bryans are thrilled to announce to the world that after signing final adoption papers, Marilee is definitely one of the family. Marilee was awake and alert during the proceedings. The Bryans returned by Clovis where they visited in the hospital with Hoyce Washburn who still has problems but is improving from his injuries and with no date set for his release from the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lackey were unable to go to Lubbock May 11, but Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Lackey, Logan, and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Meadows, Mountainair, were there to see their brother, William Lackey, receive his Ed D degree at the Texas Tech spring commencement. The Lackey and Meadows children accompanied their parents on the trip.

Hason Gibbs has a new project. He is collecting Corona Cardinal yearbooks from 1955 to the present. He will then update as many careers as possible and will appreciate information on former students. So far he lacks ten books.

Gravesides services for Wyeth S. "Midge" Kendall of Peralta were held Thursday morning. Mr. Kendall, 74, a former area resident, is survived by his wife, Opal, a daughter, Karen Cox, Topeka, KS; a son, Wade Kendall, Albuquerque; and three grandchildren, one brother and two sisters.

Mrs. Walt Pfeiffer, and Dell Roberts were in Albuquerque Saturday to see Scott Kimball graduate from Manzano High School.

Mr. and Mrs. John Durfee spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hodge while visiting with old friends here. Mr. Durfee's parents, the late Henry and Ivy Durfee, homesteaded on the Gallo.

Mrs. L. G. Pate was in Albuquerque Tuesday to have her broken arm rechecked. She was accompanied by Wanda Duke and Laverne Rodriguez while other family members attended to the branding and other chores.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rogers, Carrizozo, were business visitors in Corona Tuesday. They are Oklahoma and Pennsylvania immigrants.

Roger Shaw called friends Monday to tell of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Fern Shaw is hospitalized in Edmond, OK in a coma following a series of strokes.

Mrs. Lee R. Owen returned Monday from Roswell where she babysat for a few days while Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bennett made a business trip to El Paso.

Teacher retires after 36 years Reception will honor Helen Kilgore

Helen Kilgore will retire from the Corona Schools at the end of this school year (out of 36 years of teaching the last 15 years have been in the Corona Schools).

Helen has her BA from Henderson State University in Arkadelphia, Arkansas.

Helen was married to William Kilgore for 28 years. Mr. Kilgore passed away last September. He was retired from El Paso Natural Gas Co.

Mrs. Kilgore has a daughter, Mary Helen Heronemus. She and her husband Clifford live in Gallup, NM. Mary is an elementary teacher there.

Mrs. Kilgore plans to retire in Arkansas where she has a home and family.

A reception honoring Mrs. Kilgore was Sunday afternoon.

NM Sr. Citizen Olympics set for 23-24-25

The sixth annual New Mexico Senior Citizen Olympics state meet will be held in Roswell at the New Mexico Military Institute. Sponsored by New Mexico Senior Citizens, Inc., the three day meet is scheduled for May 23-25.

Eight senior citizens from Carrizozo and three from Capitan will attend the Senior Citizen Olympics and compete in pool, ping pong, tennis, talent and fun games. Senior citizens from Corona will visit the Olympics Friday.

Project director Barbara Ward and John Jiron will accompany the senior citizens as staff members from Zia Senior Citizens Center. The state meet usually has between 600 and 700 participants from around the state.

ASK DR. DAN

What is advanced cardiac life support and who can provide it? M. I.

A.C.L.S. is a 2-day course which teaches advanced health care providers (paramedics, nurses and physicians) to give emergency care for serious heart problems which might result in death if not treated immediately and properly. The course is sponsored by the American Heart Association and is usually taught at hospitals. Techniques taught include managing airways (to insure adequate oxygen intake to the lungs), recognizing and treating arrhythmias (irregularities of the heart beat) and treating cardiac arrest (no heart beat).

Victims who suffer cardiac arrest will die within 4-5 minutes unless basic CPR (chest compressions and mouth-to-mouth breathing) is begun. A.C.L.S. needs to be begun as soon as possible in order to increase chances of a successful restoration of heartbeats and breathing. Training in basic CPR is offered locally through the Red Cross and American Heart Association.

A.C.L.S. providers in Carrizozo include myself, Nancy Guck P.A., and Rosemary Zink F.N.P. In addition, I recently took a 2-day course in advanced trauma life support. This course trains physicians in managing severely injured accident victims.

U.S. Treasurer address Woman's Conference

Katherine Davalos Ortega, US Treasurer served as keynote speaker for the third annual Women's Conference held at Alamogordo-New Mexico State University, May 11 & 12.

Attending the conference was Viola Fenter, owner of Fenter's Drapery, and her daughter Chris, executive secretary with General Instrument, Inc., El Paso.

Ortega said she often gets asked "How do you get where you are today?" A native Alamogordoan, Ortega said she has always believed first in hard work. With the changing role of women, Ortega said, an increased level of cooperation must also occur. Women must learn to work together. "I firmly believe that you don't achieve without the help and support of others," she said.

Ortega gave conference participants a thumbnail look at what she does as treasurer. She said there occasionally was some confusion between her job and that of secretary of the treasurer. "I sign the money and he (Donald Reagan) spends it," she said.

Under her control are three bureaus—Engraving, US Mint, and Savings Bonds with an annual budget of $280 million and 5,000 employees. Ortega said she's had many pleasant experiences since taking her position.

The Women's Conference attracted speakers from outside Alamogordo and the state of New Mexico. Bob Hemphill, Carrizozo, was one of the speakers. His topic was "Close Encounters of the Modern Kind 'Computers'."

Fenter is taking steps to organize a meeting locally to involve working women from all employment levels for next year's conference.

RECEIVES DEGREE

Audrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vega of Carrizozo received a Bachelor of Science degree from Colorado State University last Saturday. Henry and wife Lucia were in Fort Collins for the occasion. They left Thursday and returned Sunday. While in Colorado they visited relatives in Denver.

VISITS SON

Mary Vidaurri Chavez accompanied Henry and Lucia to Fort Collins to visit with her son Ernest Chavez and family. Ernest is a professor of psychology at Colorado State. He and his wife Sandra are parents of Krista and Adam.

ATTEND DENTAL MEET

Dr. and Mrs. Dale Goad were in Santa Fe May 3, 4 and 5 to attend the New Mexico Dental Meeting. The event, held at the Sweeney Convention Center, included guest speakers and floor exhibits featuring the latest in dental equipment.

Briton, almost 3 years old, and Adrian, now one month old, accompanied their parents on the trip, their first outing as a family.

PAMPERS PARTY

Twylla Wetzel and Charlene Brown were hostesses for a baby shower last Saturday in honor of Adrian Goad. The event held in the Wetzel home was attended by ladies of the Church of Christ. The honored guest quietly observed the goings on.

WELCOME

Michael Lindsay, the young man who has been accompanying Fr. Dave around town is a seminary student who will spend the summer in Carrizozo. The two attended Monday's evening OEA (Office Education Association) Banquet at the school cafeteria.

Michael arrived in town Monday and as part of his studies will assist and learn from Fr. Dave. He will return to Mount Angel Seminary in August. Mt. Angel is located near Salem, OR. He has three more years to complete his theology studies and spiritual formation. His duties at Santa Rita parish hall will include working with youth in programs such as bible studies.

Michael is no stranger to crowds as he comes from a large family - six sisters and two brothers. His parents have lived in Albuquerque since 1966. Michael, born in California, graduated from New Mexico State University at Las Cruces with a degree in electrical engineering. After 2 years work in jetting programs at a nearby NASA site he entered the seminary.

OEA AWARDS

Several students were recognized at the OEA banquet last Monday. Graduate Judi Ortiz was the recipient of the OEA $100 scholarship. Stacy Stephenson and Cruzita Aguilar received 5th and 4th place clerical typing awards. Typing I and II awards were given to Liz Beltran and Pauline Palomarez. Stephanie Saucedo received a computer award and the highest grade on state test certificate. Christetta Chavez received the Olympic USA and scholarship awards.

Annette Hill received certificates in shorthand, word processing, and accounting.

Judi was also awarded cooperative office education program and leadership awards. She was recognized as the top fundraiser for the association, of which she was president.

Annette and Christetta received awards for participating in state competition last year. Linda Garcia, Brian Sanchez, Zada Maxwell will participate in Business Awareness Week sometime in June.

All-around money saving ideas, hints, advice, solutions, shortcuts for mothers and others.

LOST AND FOUND

Keep a large box in a central location, like the hall, to collect stray items. Family members will look there first when looking for misplaced belongings.

LESS CALORIES

Make pudding mix with skimmed milk instead of whole and cut down on calories. Use pudding mix that you cook instead of instant.

ON TIME

To keep everyone on schedule place a wall clock in the bathroom. Battery-operated clocks come in colors and styles to suit any bathroom.

MIX OUR OWN

Save on salad dressing by mixing your own. Blend 1/2 cup imitation mayonnaise, 1/4 cup milk and 1/4 cup catchup. Compare costs with an 8-ounce bottle of store bought creamy-style dressing.

BAGGED SALAD

Salad can be made ahead and stored in a large plastic bag in the refrigerator. The bag takes up less space than a bowl and is easy to take along on picnics. Add salad dressing at time of serving.

NO ADDED FAT

Scrambled eggs or omelets have no more calories than poached or hard-cooked eggs when eggs cooked in a skillet with no-stick finish and no added fat.

Skeen recognizes Mai Shanley

WASHINGTON, DC - Congressman Joe Skeen, R-NM, today telegraphed his congratulations to Miss USA (Mai Shanley of Alamogordo) and said he hopes to be able to speak with New Mexico's newest celebrity before the end of the day.

"Please allow me to add my heartiest congratulations to the many you have already received," Skeen said in his telegram. "I watched the pageant convinced New Mexico had entered the winner. The judges echoed my sentiments. Please know that all of New Mexico and the nation share in your pride and joy. Our very best wishes for success now in the Miss Universe contest. I know you can do it. If your plans bring you to Washington, I would consider it an honor if you could find time to visit my office."

Skeen, whose Second Congressional District includes Alamogordo, was enroute to New Mexico to take part Saturday in ceremonies during which the deed to the Roswell Desalination Plant will be turned over to the City of Roswell.

During an hour's layover in Chicago, Congressman Skeen was able to reach Miss Shanley's hotel suite in Lakeland, FL, but was told the new queen was "out shooting" (having her photograph taken) and it was not known when she would return. "I will keep trying until I reach her," Skeen said. "I want her to know how good it makes all New Mexicans feel when one of our own wins an honor such as this."

Miss Shanley, a student at New Mexico State University, will now represent the United States in the Miss Universe Contest in Miami on July 9.

"Twilight of Classic Hunting Society"

Nosker seeks re-election

KENNETH NOSKER, lifelong Hondo Valley resident and incumbent Lincoln County Commissioner (Dist. 1) has announced his candidacy for re-election on the Republican ticket. Nosker who has six years as county commissioner says, "I'm interested in the continued progress of Lincoln County, both in the tourism and agricultural business. I think both industries can be made to work for the betterment of Lincoln County."

Small family bands of Paleo-Indian hunters followed the buffalo and other game herds, for nearly 5,000 years. Homelands were vast, but people were few, and fall season hunting camps offered only rare opportunities to socialize, pick mates, and renew friendships. Then, climatic change reduced grasslands. Buffalo became scarcer, and classic hunting society was slowly transformed into an "Archaic" way of life.

In western New Mexico, the Archaic periods endured from about 6000 B.C. to the birth of Christ, but lingered on in some areas of the eastern plains until A.D. 1000. Archaic economic adaptation was unusually durable because a very wide variety of plants and animals was exploited.

Starting about 5000 B.C., an increasingly hotter, dryer climate affected both the distribution and the kinds of plant and animal species. Early Archaic economy and technology resembled that of the late Paleo-Indian period. Since families stayed only a few weeks in one locale, each campsite represented only one stopping place on a ceaseless round of movement to seasonal food-producing areas.

Later Archaic peoples hunted less often and the tendency towards family nomadism was severely restricted. A given family's world became smaller, more populated, and more precarious.

Archaic peoples lived throughout New Mexico and more than 10,000 sites of this period are known. Heavy concentrations of campsites and artifacts have been found northeast of Chaco Canyon, in the upper Pecos and Canadian river basins, and in the Rio Grande Valley. Most consist of only miscellaneous artifacts, flaked stone chips, and heat-cracked rock—produced by stone-boiling techniques used in ancient cooking pits. Archeologists find more Archaic sites in old sand dune "blow-outs" than in very mountainous settings.

The early Archaic period is roughly dated to between 6000 and 3000 B.C. Development began earlier in southwestern New Mexico than in northern and eastern areas of the state. Farther west, in Arizona and California, an Archaic lifestyle was far more ancient.

Archaic economy differed from the Paleo-Indian in one basic respect. The food quest shifted to much greater emphasis on gathering wild plants and less on taking the largest game animals. Knives, scrapers, and other tools found with the earliest Archaic dart and lance points are more radically different from those of the Paleo-Indian period than are the points themselves which were technologically similar for another thousand years.

In northwestern New Mexico the earliest Archaic lanceheads is called the Jay or "J", named after "J"erry Dawson who surveyed many of these sites in the 1960's. Some have been found as far south as Mesquero. Others found in the Taos and Chama areas, are identical but have traditionally been called the "Rio Grande point."

Though Jay points resemble Paleo-Indian ones in some respects, 75 percent are made of glassy black basalt, a material seldom used by earlier peoples. The largest are formidable lanceheads, four to five inches in length. Short ones were used on long, slender darts. Like earlier Paleo-Indian points, most have been ground smooth along the edges of the base. When attached to wooden shafts, smooth bases do not cut rawhide bindings.

Small Jay sites may be found in a variety of geographic settings. But, the large base camps were generally located high in canyon heads, 6500 to 7000 feet above sea level. Jay period artifacts are often found mixed with Paleo-Indian tools in the same period surface sites. This suggests that upland hunting strategies were similar during both periods.

Families returned regularly to the same base camps, and these often have 10 or 15 scooped out earthen hearths filled with fire-fractured cobbles. Animal bones recovered are usually those of rabbit, birds, fox, and deer or antelope.

Smaller Jay sites were typically in areas where specialized food-getting activities took place. Some were hunting stations. Others, primarily in old sand dunes, contain many chopping tools but lanceheads are rare. At these places wild ricegrass, yucca, and other vegetal foods were collected.

The "Bajada" period followed the Jay. Bajada sites are tentatively dated to the period between 4000 and 3000 B.C.—at the very height of the long hot period called the "Alithermal". In spite of this, Bajada population increased in the area northwest of Albuquerque, but there is no useful comparative information from other areas.

Unlike earlier periods, numerous cobble choppers, poorly made coarse scrapers, and cobble grinding stones are found. Evidently the peak of warm, dry conditions forced an even greater dependence upon plant foods, since well-made hide scrapers, previously common, are rare. An increased population, dry climate, and scarce food supply forced people to scrounge for every available food—grasses, roots, berries, nuts, seeds, rodents, and reptiles were undoubtedly eaten more often than large game.

These harsh conditions subdued classic hunting society for more than 4,000 years until climate softened and tall grass drew new herds of buffalo to the eastern plains. There, often in the very shadow of ancient talk love—and to skin buffalo—campsites, Apache and Ute hunters again came to trade and to skin buffalo each fall.

338 farms in county according to ag census (1982)

Preliminary reports of the 1982 Census of Agriculture show that the number of farms in the county increased from 307 to 338 since the 1978 census. All land in farms totaled 2,006,418 acres in 1982, an average of 5,936 acres per farm. The Census Bureau defines a farm as any place from which $1,000 or more of agricultural products were sold or normally would have been sold.

Land from which crops were harvested increased to 2,068 acres since 1978.

The county's farmers sold $10.4 million in agricultural products according to preliminary reports from the 1982 Census of Agriculture. The 1982 sales figure represents an average of $30,869 for each of the county's farms.

The census reports that $97,000 or 1 percent of total sales were for crops, while $10.3 million or 99 percent of the total came from the sale of livestock, poultry, and their products.

Preliminary data indicate that expenditures for feed for livestock and poultry were $2.1 million; total farm energy costs were $1.2 million; fertilizer costs were $39,000, and seed costs were $7,000.

Of the total farms in the county, 71 had gross sales of $40,000 or more, 199 reported sales of less than $10,000. Farms operated as sole proprietorships represented 77 percent of the total in 1982; the average age of farm operators was 55.1 years. The proportion of operators reporting farming as their principal occupation increased from 48 to 57 percent over the four year period.

Data in the report for 1978 and 1982 are directly comparable for acreages and inventories. Dollar value have not been adjusted for changes in price levels.

Preliminary reports can be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, US Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402.

Fly-In scheduled for C'zozo Airport June 23

The Carrizozo Municipal Airport has been closed off and on the past few months for extensive renovation. Grant money in the amount of $175,000 from the New Mexico State Aviation Division along with local funds and contributions has made the improvement possible.

The Airport Committee predicts an increase in airport activity due to the full time manager on duty. New airport manager Mel Carl, his wife Mame, and son Chuck, are now living in the airport manager's house. They have been involved in clean-up inside and outside of the house and lobby. The appearance of the grounds has been improved by landscaping.

Mel has many 'air' friends all over the country. His interest and training in aviation will give the airport professional status.

To celebrate the re-opening of the airport, a fly-in has been scheduled for June 23. A fly-in is where pilots fly-in for games, fellowship, fun, and food. A free lunch will be part of the day's activities.

Roswell has a fly-in once a month and has agreed to move their fly-in to Carrizozo for the month of June. Sky divers from Alamogordo may be included in the participants. Other clubs that Carl hopes to have in Carrizozo for the fly-in are: radio control model airplane club from Alamogordo, gliders from Alamogordo, and the Roswell amateur radio club to help with communications and possibly give a demonstration of ham radios.

Games such as flour bombing, and ribbon cutting are planned. Flour bombing is where a pilot takes a small sack filled with flour and flies over a target and tries to drop the sack on the target. Ribbon cutting is where a pilot tries to cut a paper streamer as many times as possible by flying back and forth into it.

Busy weekend expected for LNF area

ALAMOGORDO, NM — Memorial Day activities in mountain communities of the Lincoln National Forest will include a Smokey Bear Birthday celebration in the Village of Captain on Saturday, and the annual Mayfair at Cloudcroft this weekend. Visitors to the forest will find all campgrounds and picnic areas open. The recent rains were quickly absorbed and caution with fires is still essential.

Accidental

The pair posted bond the next day.

Robert Grooms, 65, Capitan was arrested May 18 and charged with disorderly conduct. He is being held in lieu of bond.

No injuries were reported when 23 cars went off the railroad tracks 16 miles north of Carrizozo on May 17. The overturned cars were part of an 80-car train. According to State Police an airline ruptured causing the emergency breaks to set when the train was on a curve.

Most of the 23 cars were empty. Scattered contents of some of the cars included insulation, wooden and plastic pallets, brandy and champagne. Deputy Sheriff Lerry Bond who arrived on the scene at 7:30 p.m. said that most of the bottled liquor was salvaged by railroad personnel. No looting was reported.

The body of James W. "Duff" Talley, 75, was found Saturday morning May 12 at his residence near Highway 80, Hondo. The wound to the right temple was from a 22 rifle. A note was found in the kitchen indicating that gun shot was self-inflicted.

Scarlet-tipped ocotillos are blooming on the hillsides near US 82 west of Cloudcroft. On the Guadalupe District, the creamy bells of the yuccas are on shimmering display. Other cactus delights for photographers and sightseers include lemon-yellow blooms like lace edging the pads of prickly pears. All of these may be seen by careful observers at lower elevations of the Lincoln National Forest.

Bonito Lake is full and fishing pressure is expected to be heavy on the Smokey Bear District near Ruidoso. Hiking trails are passable. Summit Trail (No. 58) in the Capitan Mountains Wilderness has numerous blowdowns. Firewood areas are open; call 257-4095 for more information.

Motorists are advised that road construction continues near Sunspot on the Cloudcroft District. Logging trucks may also be encountered on the Sunspot Road. Hiking trails are open. Fuelwood areas are closed. Cloudcroft's information number is 682-2551.
