Hospital 'speakers bureau' formed

Don Swalander, Chairman of the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital Foundation Public Relations Committee, today announced the formation of a Speakers Bureau which is prepared to bring an interesting and informational program on the new Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital Foundation to all clubs and organizations in the area.

subject comprehensively in a time frame to fit almost any club program. They will also bring with them Foundation literature for the club members. There will be no solicitation for financial support of the Foundation.

Assisting Mr. McGuire on the Committee are: Sally Avery, Tom Sullivan, and Nell Trout.

If you desire a program for your club, simply contact Joni Coakley at the Foundation office, telephone 257-7381 ext. 251.

Free pies and hidden talents

Hidden talents of candidates will be revealed during a FREE Lincoln County Pie Supper scheduled for 7 p.m. Saturday at the White Mountain School in Ruidoso.

The public is invited to sample free pie and coffee and to meet the Democrat and Republican candidates for local and state offices. Those who plan to attend are asked to bring one pie per couple or group.

Rather than speeches, the candidates are asked to perform a talent or to present a talent of a supporter. Each talent is limited to five minutes.

County Commissioner Bill Elliott, unopposed for re-election, reportedly will sing for the crowd. Several candidates facing opposition have joked they will present a talent since the quality of their own singing might cost them the election.

The political pie supper began in 1973 and continues through the years as a fund raising and meet-the-candidates gathering. Sponsored by the Lincoln County Democratic Women, the event this year will be held in Ruidoso for the first time and will include candidates of both parties.

The unique feature of this year's pie supper is the bipartisan fundraising. Pies not consumed will be auctioned and the money will be divided equally between the Democratic and Republican Women's organizations. Contribution boxes for both parties will also be available for those wishing to make further donations.

A crowd of 250 is expected. To make sure someone is there, candidates are asked to bring six of their staunchest supporters. If a candidate fails to meet the "quota", the candidate will be fined one dollar per person (up to six dollars) to be paid to the opposite party.

Bring a pie and find out for yourself what hidden talents will be revealed.

Halloween carnival Oct. 30th

A Halloween Carnival for October 30 will be the first topic of the second People For Kids meeting. Carnival hours will be 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. with a 25 cent admission charge. Debbie King reported that booth reservations will be accepted until October 28. Prizes will be awarded to booths judged best.

A Halloween 'Spook Parade' is set for 2:00 p.m. on October 30. Elementary and band students will participate in costume.

The next meeting of People For Kids will be November 8 at 7:00 p.m. in the school's conference room.

Mill Levy main topic at town meeting

Local Directors of the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital Foundation will sponsor a Town Meeting on October 22 at 7:00 p.m. to be held at County Commissioners Room, Lincoln County Courthouse. The meeting subject will be the Hospital Mill Levy for Carrizozo Health Center and the Ruidoso Hospital that will be voted upon by the citizens of Lincoln County at the November 6 election.

Speaking for the local Directors, Mary Spencer, Foundation President, today said, "our lives — yours, mine, family, or friends, may well depend upon the outcome of the Hospital Mill Levy vote on November 6. If our people really want to be knowledgeable about the Hospital Mill Levy, they can learn firsthand all of the facts. Everyone is invited to attend, receive all the information, and ask any questions they wish."

County observes 'Gov't. Week'

BY RUTH HAMMOND

This week is County Government Week. County Manager Suzanne Cox has recently given talks to the Women's Club of Carrizozo and the Women's Club of Ruidoso explaining county government.

Counties were first established under the Spanish-Mexican Administration and were recognized by the United States when they took over jurisdiction in 1846. Lincoln County was established on January 16, 1869. County boundaries have changed drastically since that time.

The form and organization of county government in New Mexico is established by the State Constitution and Statutory Law. The NM Constitution protects the taxpayers by not allowing taxes to be levied in excess of 20 mills which is $20 per $1,000 of taxable valuation. Property owners can only be taxed on one-third of the property value. Anything over the 20 mills has to go to the vote of the people.

Various county departments heads are elected, making them directly responsible to the voter. Elections are held every two years.

Elected positions are: the Board of County Commissioners, Assessor, Clerk, Sheriff, Probate Judge, and Treasurer.

The board of the county commissioners has to adopt a budget, levy county taxes, enact ordinances, and has significant appointive, administrative and regulatory powers.

The county assessor is responsible for the valuation of all property.

The county clerk of all board records and keeps all board meetings, records resolutions and votes, and is the keeper of all documents that requires filing and is in charge of conducting all elections.

The probate judge has jurisdiction over the proof of wills and the settlement of an estate.

The county sheriff is the only elected law enforcement officer in the United States.

County commissioners appoint a road superintendent to supervise and maintain all county roads. They also appoint a county manager to act as an administrative assistant to the commission. The County manager acts as personnel officer, fiscal director, budget officer and planning officer.

Lincoln County has 128 approved subdivisions. The county operates the Carrizozo Health Clinic and has accepted the responsibility for the operation of the ambulance system.

This year the county accepted sponsorship of the Senior Citizen Program and provided funds for a secretary for the soil and water conservation district.

Mrs. Cox said, "I count myself very fortunate to serve as County Manager. It had been a pleasure working with the many fine citizens of the county." She goes on to say about taxpayers, "The money we spend is theirs and I serve them. Care must be taken so that we do not misspend or overspend."

"The face of County Government is changing," Cox says in ending her speech. "We have come a long way but there are still many challenges awaiting us. The work is not done."

Ware winner of $500 CofC raffle

A large crowd enjoyed the FREE barbecue at Spencer Park during Carrizozo Fun Days held last weekend. Festivities included the 10 K and two mile run held Sunday, horseshoe tournaments, sunflower judging contest and a parade.

Winners in the sunflower contest were Cody and Stacy Erwin, children of Jane Erwin. Their sunflower measured 18 inches across. Cody and Stacy were the proud winners of $10.

Danny and Johnny Culley took home $5 for the smallest sunflower at two inches across. Jim Miller won in the adult division. Sunflowers were also entered by Briton Goad, son of Dr. and Mrs. Dale Goad.

Brownies of Troop 12 marched in the parade. Led by a state police car and a Carrizozo police car, the parade consisted mostly of candidates passing out campaign literature.

Brownie leader Charlene Brown and assistants Carol Northrup and Janet Holmgren work with 23 girls in Troop 12. Their meetings are held Monday at 8:15. The Troop is planning to put on a Christmas program for the seniors citizens.

Winners in the junior horseshoe tournament, all from Carrizozo were: 1st place Rodney Serna and Craig Collins; 2nd place, Richard Guevara and Danny Culley, and 3rd place, Max Beltran and Friday Watson.

Winners in the adult division horseshoe tournament were: 1st place from Deming, Bob Hayes and Jerry Gardner; 2nd place from Hatch, Sissy Franzoy and Kathy Franzoy; 3rd place was also from Hatch, Charlie Franzoy and Charles Franzoy.

Tom Trost of Capitan was winner of the 10K run on Sunday with a time of 39:15:97. Second place went to Robert Benavidez with 43:40:01 and third place runner was Norman W. Pittenger with 46:34:46.

Winner of the two mile run was James Thorpe of Alamogordo. Bob Clarke of Ruidoso took second place.

Wayne Ware of Capitan was winner of the $500 raffle held by the Chamber of Commerce.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC

The Town of Carrizozo Board of Trustees will at their next regular meeting, to be held on October 23, 1984 at 6:00 p.m., have a public hearing on Curfew, City Hall, Carrizozo, New Mexico 88301. The public is urged to attend.

MEET MISS USA

Jonathan Vallejos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neo Vallejos, posed for a picture with Mai Shanley, Miss USA. Taking the color picture was Jonathan's mother. The Vallejos family and a married daughter, Kim and her husband, Lewis April, were in Albuquerque the weekend of October 5 and 6.

They saw Miss USA at Sangre and Harris at Coronado Center, where the Alamogordo beauty queen was meeting people and signing autographs. Jonathan's younger sister, Naomi, returned to Carrizozo with an autographed photo of Miss USA. The Carrizozo folks stopped at the Balloon Fiesta while in Albuquerque.

POLITICAL CARAVAN

Saturday's Fun Day activities kicked off with a parade down Central Avenue. Politicians took this opportunity to pass out their cards as they rode or walked along the parade route.

Among them was Pat Ward, write-in candidate for commissioner. Her aids presented on-lookers big, fat pencils.

Others seeking votes were James Lee Martin running for state senator and Maurice Hobson running for re-election for state representative. His cards include his mom's homemade ice cream.

WHERE'S THE BEEF

When the beef finally arrived at Spencer Park, those who ate the free meal agreed that the Four Winds chefs did a splendid job. Other activity during Fun Day included horseshoe pitching contests and browsing at vendor's stands.

Here and there a politician stopped to chat. Among them was Frankie Silva of Capitán who seeks a county commission position. Another vote seeker was Tularosa's Reynaldo (Ray) Cordova who is running for state representative. Voters in Lincoln County (Carrizozo, Nogal, Angus and Corona) and Otero County (La Luz, Tularosa and Mesalero) and all of Sierra County will be voting for a state representative for District 52.

Cordova was accompanied to Carrizozo by wife Rosemary, a second cousin of Nema Ortiz, Rita Narvaez and Polly Chavez (me). The Cordovas are parents of four sons Danny 21, Johnny 20, twins David and Douglas 19 and a daughter Christlyn 13, an 8th grader at Tularosa Junior High.

HAIRDRESSERS INSTALLED
Lincoln-Otero Affiliate 12 of NHCA installed officers at a dinner held Saturday, October 13 in Alamogordo at the home of Pat Little, treasurer of the group. Among the 15 hairdressers present was Rita Narvaez, only NHCA member of Lincoln County.

Earlier in the month, October 3 Rita attended a Trend Release Workshop held at Alamogordo Beauty College. The three instructors are members of Hair New Mexico (the national organization is called Hair America). The instructors, employees in Alamogordo shops, demonstrated fall and winter hair fashions. This year's slogan is - 'Hair in Motion'. Candie Aguilar, parttime receptionist at Rita's Creative Styles, accompanied Rita to the workshop.

By the way, Juanita Vallejos was the winner of the door prize given away during the first year celebration at Rita's place last week. Linda King was the winner of the door prize offered by color analyst Stacy Wilson, who demonstrated her craft during the anniversary celebration.

THINK SNOW

Members of the Carrizozo Ski Club are anxious to try the slopes again this school year. The program will begin in mid-January depending on snow conditions. Due to the large number of interested students, the club has organized two teams, which makes each student eligible to go every other week or approximately three times. The last chance to join the club is Tuesday October 23.

All members will participate in three fundraising projects during the year says ski club sponsor Jane Erwin. The first fundraiser will be on Oct. 30 at the Halloween Carnival with a game of skill. Prizes will be baked goods. Last year our family came home from the event loaded with cookies, cupcakes and cakes.

There are two kinds of individuals: Those who create happiness wherever they go and those who create happiness whenever they leave.

Last week we had 1/2 an inch of good gentle rain. It remained cold and with very little sunshine. Two mornings of which there was ice. Though at this time that killer frost has not arrived. It feels so cold but perhaps the moisture helps that along.

OPINION...

● BECAUSE gambling is a sure way of getting nothing for something. I seldom indulge in the feverish pastime. I cannot afford to gamble. Worse, I am a sore loser. It aggravates an unbecoming petulance in an already flawed character. Others love to gamble, and should be free to do so without government permission or direction. How people amuse, divert or disport themselves should be of no concern to government policemen as long as participants freely engage in the game and cause harm or injury to no other person. Where is it written that a man cannot pick his own pockets? Spending one's money foolishly is, or should be, a basic freedom. What other excuse is there for our financing the various legislatures that gamble with our lives and our money?

● IT IS generally held illegal and sinful for individuals to gamble. Yet it is legal and morally just to gamble if the "game" is run by the government as the only game in town. The state in its hypocritical wisdom perceives horse racing and track betting as useful only because the franchise is state-owned. Go into competition with the track betting window and there you are in jail.

● ON NOV. 6 Californians will be asked to approve Prop. 37, which authorizes a state-owned lottery. Proponents point out that 40 percent of lottery proceeds will go to education, as if the good a person does with his winnings excuses the sin. How about the fellow who wins a thousand dollars on a football game? Will his sin be forgiven and will he escape jail if he donates some of his winnings to his church, takes the wife to dinner, and sends a buck to the Mondale-Ferraro campaign to save civilization?

● AS YOU can see from our present government horse-racing monopoly, plus this push for a state lottery, people hope to overcome the sin of gambling simply by embracing it. "Personally, I oppose horse racing but what can I do when the state decides to run the scam?" one says, slouching responsibility. People "personally" oppose abortion (if the polls are correct), and in most cases it is still illegal. Yet this erstwhile sin is legal and even respectable now that government is funding abortion clinics where the impregnated may be relieved of their burden, freed of guilt and the expense of their Saturday night romps in the hay.

● MAKING sin respectable and legal by having government conduct it as a monopoly has interesting possibilities. Sooner or later government will discover the spendable treasure latent in a government monopoly of whorehouses. When that jolly day comes, the citizenry will be expected to lend its considerable support (and patronage) on the promise that the bulk of the profits will fund a noble program, like music lessons for the total deaf.

● WHEN I consider the double standard of morality in government monopoly of what passes for sin in the private sector, I am reminded of that sign in the mental institution: "We are all here because we are not all here."

● THE Sierra Club has endorsed Walter Mondale for President. Upon that momentous occasion Michele Ferrault, Sierra Club honcho, exuded: "We need a President who'll make living in America a pleasure, not a health hazard." Those of you who were reading this column several years ago may remember when it was reported here that a lodge owned and operated by the Sierra Club in the mountains west of Reno had been dumping raw sewage into an open trench. This trench drained into a lake and eventually polluted the water supply in a nearby town. The lodge's kitchen had a hole in the floor through which garbage was dumped on the ground below. The Sierra Club just wanted to make living in America a pleasure and not a health hazard! Why did this happen? Because the club was too cheap to pay for installation of a proper sewer system.

● LAST week I introduced you to Walter Mondale's top legal adviser, David Iffahn, who has managed so far to avoid being shot for treason. Now meet one of Walter's top writers, Martin Kaplan, who wrote Mondale's acceptance speech at the San Francisco convention. Kaplan has been on Mondale's payroll since 1978. He is the author of a play, "Knights Errant," which glorifies Alger Hiss, a celebrated traitor to his country.

● WE MUST be very careful about how we use words these days. Peoples' emotions are easily savaged and tender sensibilities bruise easily. According to Inquiry magazine, the US State Department, in deference to supporters of revolutionaries doing the Kremlin's work, has stopped using the word "killing" in its reports on human rights. From now on, this unpleasantry will be made more palatable by substituting for killing, "unlawful or arbitrary deprivation of life." I can picture the final corruption of the Old West. The steely-eyed hero is holding a six-gun on the villain and reads from a Miranda-card held in the other hand: "I am going to unlawfully and arbitrarily deprive you of your life."

"THANK YOU, DEAR. I'LL PAY YOU BACK FRIDAY WHEN I GET YOUR PAYCHECK."

POLITICO-FEMINIST MISUSE OF THE MEDAL OF HONOR

WASHINGTON — In 1982, the US Postal Service issued 160 million commemorative stamps honoring "Dr. Mary Walker, Army Surgeon, Medal of Honor." Mary Walker is the only woman in US history to have been the recipient of the Medal of Honor; in 1866, by President Andrew Johnson.

What this commemorative stamp — and the Postal Service press releases about Postmaster General William Bolger's approval of it — do not mention is that in 1917, Dr. Walker's medal was revoked. For Congress ordered the War Department to review all 2,525 Medals of Honor awarded since July 12, 1862, when Congress instituted it.

A board of five generals carefully studied each of these awards and ordered 911 of them revoked, with the recipient's name stricken from the rolls. Those revoked included all the honor guards on Abraham Lincoln's funeral train; half of an entire regiment from Maine who stayed at the front after their enlistments expired; "Buffalo Bill" (Col. William F. Cody) and Dr. Mary Walker.

Sixty years later, Walker's Medal of Honor was restored — but not those of the Maine regiment, the Lincoln funeral guards or Buffalo Bill.

A relative of Dr. Walker's, a writer named Anne Walker, lobbied Congress not only for restoration of the Medal of Honor, but for erection of a memorial to Mary. (Writer Walker also revealed to press conferences that she was writing a book entitled Mary's Lost Medal of Honor, which, she suggested, could be a TV miniseries.)

Such members of congress as Lindy Boggs (D. LA), Les Aspin (D., CO), Peter Peyer (R., NY) and Robert McEwan (R., NY), began pressuring the Department of the Army to restore the medal.

Secretary of the Army, Clifford Alexander, complied — although there was one stubborn holdout on his Board for the Correction of Military Records, Jack Miller filed a minority dissent, noting that there is "insufficient evidence to show that the deceased (Walker) performed an act, or combination of acts, of such significance as to warrant the award of the Medal of Honor... There is no evidence of such gallantry to merit the nation's highest decoration... It appears the deceased was awarded the medal more in reconciliation for not having given her a commission than for any particular deed of act of heroism."

Evidence accumulated by the Medal of Honor Round Table (an organization in New York which specializes in researching the medal and its recipients) included the following which strongly support dissenter Miller, as well as the War Department in 1917:

—Mary Walker was not an "army surgeon." She functioned for a few months as an "acting assistant surgeon" of the 52nd Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Nixon E. Steward, this regiment's historian, reports: "How she (Walker) got her commission, no one seems to know... The men seemed to hate her, and she did little or nothing for the sick of the regiment. She began to practice her profession among the citizens of the surrounding country (Georgia)... Many of the boys believed her to be a spy. (Dr. Walker, while thus absent from the regiment, was captured by Confederate cavalry. She was sent to prison and promptly exchanged — and kept away from all military units for the rest of the war.)"

—Dr. Walker obtained her M.D. from an "eclectic" medical school called Syracuse Medical College. At the Medical School of New York State University at Syracuse (the Upstate Medical Center), librarian Peter Uva explained that this college became defunct one year after Walker graduated; that an "eclectic" medical school required only two semesters; and that "instead of surgery or the regular medical curriculum, they emphasized drugs and herbs."

—Walker was repeatedly rejected when she applied to the Union Army for a commission. This was not due to her sex, for both armies commissioned women as spies, who served despite extreme danger. Finally in 1863, Walker was examined at length by the Army of Cumberland's board of medical examiners in Tennessee. Their report concluded:

"This board examined her, patiently, before the several branches of the usual curriculum, but she disclosed such ignorance as to render it doubtful whether she has pursued the study of medicine... Her practical acquaintance with disease and the use of medicine is not greater than most housewives possess."

That this board's findings were accurate is evident in Dr. Walker's book, published in 1878, entitled Unmasked, or The Science of Immortality. On page 25 of this book, Mary Walker, M.D., discloses that masturbation will soften one's brain; while a child will assume the appearance of his father's mistress.

After the war, she tried practicing medicine in Washington. But her only patients were suffragettes — who stopped coming when she opposed the women's suffrage amendment. So she became a lecturer — always in men's evening clothes, wearing the medal. She also became a carnival barker and had herself photographed lying in a casket. She spent most of her time, however, lobbying Congress to increase her pension.

That the US Postal Service and President Carter's Secretary of the Army would disregard this highly questionable record and re-award the nation's highest honor to such a person is an insult to the thousands of men who have earned this Medal of Honor at the sacrifice of their lives.

CFR IN CONTROL

EDITOR—Few conspiracy watchers will be voting for President Reagan in November. Nor is Walter Mondale a suitable choice. Conspiracy watchers see both candidates controlled by the same conspiratorial forces.

Granted, the press presents President Reagan as an outspoken, anti-communist President. And, he talks a good game, but the facts just do not add up.

The tip-off came when candidate Reagan chose George Bush as his running mate. Bush was a longtime member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

Conspiracy watchers see the Rockefeller financed CFR as one of the most important operating parts of a conspiracy that is leading the world into a one-world, socialist dictatorship, most likely centered in the United Nations.

CFR influence has molded America's foreign policy for more than half a century.

Like for instance, bankrupt Poland. You may recall, Poland could not pay the interest on its national debt. The CFR supported President Reagan came to the rescue with American aid. We paid the interest on communist Poland's national debt.

The CFR supported President Reagan saved the Palestine Liberation Organization from certain annihilation at the hands of the Israelis. The PLO are cold-blooded; communist terrorists. This so-called anti-communist President supported most favored nation trade status to the Red Chinese. Again we helped the communists.

More recently, constitutional conservatives were shocked to see President Reagan endorse that constitutional monstrosity, the Genocide Convention.

These just are not the actions of a genuine, anti-communist, conservative President.

No, the record indicates too clearly that the President is a counterfeit conservative.

So, who do conservative, anti-communists vote for?

If you are thinking Republican or Democrat, it really doesn't make much difference. Regardless of which one is elected, the CFR will remain in control.

And, the communists will continue taking the world a piece at a time.

GET US OUT

EDITOR—Following some of the reasons why the American people should help GET THE US OUT OF THE UN.

There are at least 1,000 Communist spies in the US today, according to the FBI Director. And most of them are posing as UN diplomats. According to the latest figures, the average UN country votes with the Soviets an astounding 84 percent of the time. Anti-Americanism at the UN is so widespread that according to a West German delegate, "The US has to have its resolutions sponsored by another country" because most nations automatically vote against anything introduced by the US. The Soviet Union has three votes in the UN, while the US has only one. Russia, with 40 million more citizens than the US pays only about half what we do to the UN every year and is way behind in her dues. Nearly half of every UN dollar is spent on high salaries, buildings, expensive furniture and travel, all lumped together as "administrative overhead". The United Nations is deeply anti-American. Today it has become little more than a forum for the denunciation of the United States.

LANDLORD-TENANT LAW

By Sandra A. Grisham

Most of us at one time or another have either been a tenant or a landlord. In 1976 the legislature passed what is known as the Uniform Owner-Resident Relations Act which covers most situations where one person rents a dwelling place from another. If you do not have a rental agreement or lease, then the act also provides automatic provisions, which cover most of the common problems that occur between landlord and a tenant.

Unless provided otherwise, all rental terms are for month-to-month unless the tenant pays weekly, in which case the term is for week-to-week. Either the landlord or the tenant can terminate a lease on thirty days written notice for a month-to-month tenancy or seven days on a week-to-week tenancy.

If a landlord receives a damage deposit in excess of one month's rent (not including the last month's rent if collected in advance), the landlord must pay the tenant interest on the deposit equal to a savings and loan passbook rate of interest. When the tenant leaves, the landlord is under a duty to give the tenant a written statement which itemizes any deductions from the deposits and states why the deductions were taken within thirty days from the date of the termination of the tenancy. If the landlord fails to do this, the tenant can recover the deposits, attorney fees and court costs.

At the beginning of the lease the name and address of the person authorized to manage the premises and the person authorized to accept service of lawsuit papers on behalf of the landlord must be given to the tenant in writing. The tenant is entitled to live in a place that substantially complies with the requirements of the applicable minimum housing code materially affecting health and safety.

The tenant is required to keep the premises clean and safe as the condition of the premises permit, and to return the premises in as clean a condition as they were in when the tenant moved in. The tenant is required to dispose of all trash and garbage dwelling in a clean and safe manner, and is also required to use all heating, plumbing, cooling, etc. in the premises in a reasonable manner. Tenants must conduct themselves in a manner that will not disturb the neighbors' peaceful enjoyment of the premises.

The tenant is required to pay the rent when due, and if not, the landlord can give the tenant a three-day notice in writing to leave. If the tenant does not pay the rent within that three-day period, then the landlord can terminate the rental agreement and go to magistrate court to seek to have the tenant removed from the premises and ordered to pay any back rent or damages.

If the tenant breaks (breaches) the lease agreement in any other manner, the landlord may give the tenant notice of the breach, and if the tenant does not "cure" the breach within seven days, the landlord may then terminate the lease. If the tenant commits a second material breach within six months of the first breach, then the landlord can terminate the lease on seven days written notice. This provision is very specific and a landlord should consult her or his attorney before relying on it, and a tenant should do the same before complying with a notice to leave the premises.

These are just some of the rules that apply to a landlord-tenant relationship. Both the landlord and tenant should contact his or her attorney concerning specific rights and duties under a rental agreement or under the act.

INSIDE THE CAPITOL BY Fred McCaffrey

SANTA FE—Did the great debates change the minds of New Mexico voters?

Not so you'd notice it, according to the political seismographs in this capital city.

For one thing, a more than ordinarily large percentage of voters in our state had already made their presidential choice before the first debate was held. For another, these public exercises are not so much aimed at converting those on the opposing side as they are at convincing and holding those who are already supporters.

As for the Bush-Ferraro engagement, that was more to give us some feeling about those who might be in second place, and even one day in first, than to achieve a lot of missionary work for either ticket. Those who like Reagan get Bush whether they choose him or not, and the same is true of Mondale and Ms. Ferraro. This meeting, therefore, was not likely to shift a lot of voters from one choice to the other.

There is, of course, a third debate still to come. Sunday evening's television program will be dominated by the 30-minute return match between the President and his challenger. That may have some effect, especially if Reagan does a better job than he did at their first coming-together. Is he likely to do that? He is if the Republicans can get him up for it. REMAINING TIME: But the election itself is not until a little more than two weeks after the final debate.

Both sides wanted it that way. That allowed a period in which bad mistakes can still be corrected and bad impressions can be healed.

It is a further fact that events in the world during that period may also have a sharp effect on votes cast on November 6.

Given the admission that we cannot forecast those events, it still looks from here as though Ronald Reagan will be by far the wide choice of New Mexican voters. This writer will stand on his previous prediction that the margin in our state could be as much as 80,000 votes.

THE ANAYA FACTOR: Even down in the lower parts of the ballot, New Mexico Republicans may do much better than average this season. That's not just because so many registered Democrats will choose to go for the incumbent in the White House.

Campaigners are finding, in all parts of the state, that they have an instant response from most voters whenever the name of Governor Toney Anaya is mentioned.

Naturally, those mentioning him the most are Republicans. Many of them are simply asking potential voters whether they favor Anaya's programs. They do that because it is clear that most New Mexicans don't.

As for the poor Democrats, they, by and large, would like to pretend they don't belong to the same party as Toney does. That's hard for them to do. He is in office, and as such he is the titular head of the Democrats. Thus they are forced to some embarrassing fence-straddling along these lines: "Sure, he's the Governor, but I stand on my right to disagree with him."

Anaya is probably the biggest plus New Mexico Republicans have had, and some of them are smart enough to use him to their own advantage.

On November 7, read the results carefully. At least in part, they will be a referendum on the Governor's performance.

RAINY DAY FUN

My after school bunch got stranded in the house last Monday because of rain. A large plastic funnel and several plastic hoop bracelets kept them busy at a game of skill. They turned a funnel upside down and ringed it with the hoops.

CREATIVE EXPRESSIONS

Tape school artwork to a blank space of wall in the laundry room. When the 'gallery' is filled, simply remove the work and start another 'show'.

WARM BREAD

To keep freshly baked rolls or biscuits warm for a large family gathering, line the inside of a foam ice chest with large tea towels and store the freshly baked bread inside.

NO RAVELING

To put yarn through a large-eyed needle try putting clear tape on the end of the yarn. Clip the tape to a point to fit the needle opening.

MILK FROTH

Combine half a cup chilled milk with one cup cold soda (orange, black-cherry or cherry-cola) to make a creamy frothy treat. Whirl soda and milk in blender on high speed and pour over ice.

ZIPPER TAG

Senator Pete Domenici Has Been There When Lincoln County Needed Him

Senator Pete Domenici has been a friend to Lincoln County for all of his 12 years in the United States Senate. Take a look at what Pete has done, working with us here:

- fought for highway funding for Highway 70;
- worked for fair access for Lincoln County farmers and ranchers to overseas markets;
- brought about fairer grazing fees and fought successfully against new, unfair grazing regulations;
- worked to try to resolve Ruidoso Airport problems;
- supported the Payments-in-Lieu-of-Taxes program that provides $311,128 each year to Lincoln County.

Pete has done a lot for us here and for the rest of New Mexico. He's given us 12 years of solid, honest service.

And, he's brought a lot of pride to our state, not just because he's Chairman of the Senate Budget Committee, but because he's been a good Chairman.

After all, he's been selected by colleagues of both parties as the single most effective Committee Chairman in the entire Senate for the past four years!

This November 6, let's re-elect a friend of Lincoln County, a friend who listens, helps and makes us proud. Let's Re-Elect Senator Pete Domenici November 6

STEARNS RUNS WILD—

C'zozo hits 60 pt. mark again

Carrizozo's football team for the third week-in-a-row hit the 60 point mark as they improved their unblemished record to 6-0 on the season and (2-0) in district play.

A tough, courageous group from Cloudcroft gave the unbeaten Grizzlies all they could handle in the first-half and even managed a 6-0 lead in the first quarter when they scored on the second play of the game. But Carrizozo came back on their first possession to tie the game when Stevie Stearns streaked in from 31 yards out — a two-point PAT pass from Dominic Vega to Hal Roueche gave the Grizzlies the lead at 8-6.

Joseph Candelaria added another six-pointer on 2-yard pass play from Vega in the second quarter for a 14-6 Carrizozo lead before Cloudcroft scored their second TD to close to 14-12.

Carrizozo sophomore Tommy Escamilla latched on to a 45-yard Vega aerial with 1:46 left in the first-half and Vega ran in the two-point PAT for a 22-12 half-time lead.

Cloudcroft managed to play tough in the third quarter until Stearns broke loose on a 89-yard run with 7:33 left for a 30-12 Carrizozo lead.

Stearns put the game out-of-reach the next time he got his hands on the ball when he broke loose on a 65-yard scamper for a

TD and Vega passed to Escamilla for the two-point PAT — Zozo ahead 38-12 with 10:26 left in the game.

Gray Gallacher made the hit and recovered the fumble on the ensuing kick-off at the Bear 11-yard line and two plays later Kenneth Crenshaw crashed in from the 8-yard line — Carrizozo leads 44-12.

Cloudcroft received kick-off and on third play Dominic Vega intercepted errant pitchout and returned it for 40 yard TD run — Stearns ran in PAT for 52-12 lead. Bears returned favor and scored their third TD on quarterback sneak to make score 52-18.

After recovering on-side kick at midfield Stearns closed out the scoring on the Grizzlies first play when he broke loose for 60 yards — Vega passed to Escamilla for two-points — final score 60-18.

Impressive stats: Stearns finished the night with 3 TD's — (2) 2-pt. PAT's — 305 yds. rushing — had 2 other TD's called back and 78 yards wiped-out on penalties.

Tommy Escamilla had (1) TD reception and (2) 2-pt. PAT's. Dominic Vega passed for (2) TD's — and (3) 2-pt. PAT's — scored (1) TD and had another TD pass called back on penalty.

OTHER SCORES: Found Texico shutting out Hagerman by 19-0 score; Reserve zipped past

Capitan 45-0; Lubbock Christian edged Tatum 28-24; Melrose poured it on Mountainair 74-6; Fort Sumner squeaked by Springer 9-8 and another county team remained undefeated as Ruidoso edged out T or C 15-8.

Grizzlies will entertain the Hagerman Bobcats this Friday at Laabs Field — game time 7:30 p.m. Show down time in one week when Reserve comes to town.

Big winner in the NEWS football contest ($60 jackpot) was Henry Luna of Carrizozo by guessing correct score of Capitan-Dexter game (21-6) — No winner last week — jackpot this week ($30) Capitan vs. Cloudcroft.

On the season: Stearns leads state with 1,213 yards on 94 carries — Kenny Crenshaw is 17th with 471 yards on 53 carries. Carrizozo is averaging 47.7 pts. per game — Reserve is second at 32.3. On defense Melrose is 1st at 7.8 — Reserve at 9.2 and Carrizozo at 9.7.

Reserve is ranked as the number 1 team in Class 'A' football. Carrizozo 2nd, Tatum 3rd, Texico 4th and Melrose 5th. Reserve and Carrizozo both are (2-0) in district play, (Dist. 1A), Capitan and Mountainair (0-1) and Cloudcroft (0-2). Texico, Ft. Sumner and Tatum are (1-0) in (Dist. 2 A), Melrose is (1-1) and Hagerman is (0-3).

LINEBACKER TROY Hollis (left) and offensive lineman 'center' Robert Connors (right) were named 'players of the week' by the Grizzly coaching staff for their play against Cloudcroft last Friday. Hollis was recognized for his fine defensive work which included (3) quarterback sacks and Connors graded out at 83 percent on his blocking assignments which is the highest grade of the season for the Grizzly linemen.

Eagles trounce Bethel

The Hondo Eagles soundly defeated Bethel Christian in Carlsbad last Saturday 64-18 in a game that was stopped in the 4th quarter because of the 45 point rule in 6 man ball.

Bethel Christian scored first on a 10 yard pass. The PAT was blocked. The Eagles came back and scored on a 10-yard run by Salcido and a little later on a 10 yard run by Maez. Maez ran in both PAT's.

In the 2nd quarter Hondo scored on a 25 yard run by Salcido. Maez ran in the PAT. Bethel Christian came back to score on an 8 yard run only to have the PAT blocked. Maez later scored for the Eagles on a 7 yard run after West had set this up on a 60 yard kick off return. Hondo scored the extra point and the score stood 27-12 at halftime.

The 3rd quarter went like this — Maez scored on a 25 yard run — A pass from Clements to Chavez was good for the extra point. Bethel Christian ran the next kick off back 60 yards for their final tally. The extra point was no good. Maez scored twice again on runs of 6 and 12 yards. Salcido ran 1 extra point across and Maez the other. The Eagles picked up a safety when Mullis ran his opponent out of the end zone.

West scored on a 65 yard kick return in the 4th quarter and kicked his own extra point. Maez scored on a 45 yard run putting the Eagles out in front of Bethel Christian by a margin of 46 points and thus ending the game. Along the way Hondo recovered 5 fumbles and worked an on-sides kick. The Eagles also intercepted 2 passes.

Coach Montes — "We had good offensive execution and the defense played great."

The Eagles travel to Lake Arthur Oct. 20 for a 2 p.m. game with the Panthers.

State 6 man ball ratings as of last weekend: 1. Vaughn, 2. Quemado, 3. Jesus Chapel, 4. Magdalena, and 5. Hondo.

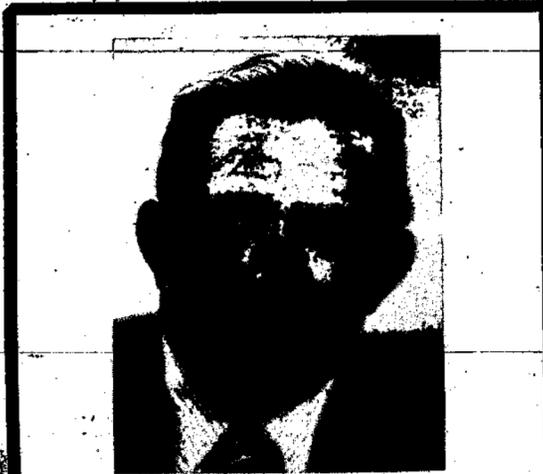

Reserve tops Tigers

The Capitan-Tigers were in Reserve, Friday, Oct. 12, and were dominated by the Mountaineers in the 1st half 38-0. The Tigers fumbled the ball 3 times, threw 3 pass interceptions, and saw the opening kick off run back 90 yards for a quick touchdown.

The 2nd half was played on a more even basis. The Tigers threatened twice in the 2nd half but couldn't put the ball across the goal line. The final score was Reserve 45, Capitan 0.

Coach Thompson stated that Reserve was the "biggest and best team we've played all year." "We'll go back to the basics this week and play Cloudcroft Friday night as though it were a new season." The Tigers are in Cloudcroft Friday night for a 7:30 encounter with the Bears who are 2-4 on the season.

A look at Tiger statistics for the 1st 5 games of the season shows that Capitan has thrown the ball 88 times with 34 completions for 531 yards and 3 touchdowns. The Tigers have run the ball 124 times for 864 yards. After yards lost are figured in Capitan's total offense amounts to 1,228 yards to the opponents 1,474.

Tigerettes take 6 of 6 from Ruidoso Warriors

The Capitan Tigerette Varsity volleyball team consists of the following players — Sentors, Tiffany Huey, Michelle Otero, Audrey Joiner, Bobbi Rogers, and Shella House. Shella is the daughter of former Capitan coach Richard House. Juniors, Tracy Herd, Becky Huey, Joan Leslie, and Stephanie Stowe. Chantille Points is a sophomore.

These girls soundly defeated the Lake Arthur varsity last Saturday 15-2, 15-3, 15-4. The Tigerette junior varsity won its first game, lost the second game, and then found out that Lake Arthur would have to forfeit the third game because it could not field a full team. This action took place in Capitan.

Ruidoso visited Capitan, Tuesday, Oct. 9, and was clobbered by the Tigerettes 15-3, 15-2, and 15-6. Coach Bill MacVeigh reports that this was a total team effort for the Tigerettes.

The Tigerette junior varsity lost its first game to Ruidoso 10-15, won the second game 15-13, and in a thriller bested the Warriors 19-17. The junior varsity is coached by Dana Adams.

The Tigerettes visit Dexter, Saturday, Oct. 13, for 3 games beginning at 4 p.m. They visit Tularosa on Oct. 16 for games beginning at 6 p.m., and are in Cloudcroft Oct. 19 for big games beginning at 1 p.m.

Homemakers attend meeting

Five Lincoln County Extension Club members attended a State Training Institute presented by the NMSU and Kellogg Foundation under the Family Community Leadership (FCL) program. The institute was held at the Glorieta Conference Center.

The FCL is a regional leadership developed project, involving six western states. The purpose of the program is to train people to be effective in public affairs activity, then they in turn train others, who in turn train others creating a "multiplier effect."

This is a new innovative project co-sponsored by the Kellogg Foundation and New Mexico Extension Office, under the leadership of Mary Ellen Payne, former Extension home agent of Lincoln County. If this project is successful in the western states, it is hoped it will attract national attention and then be used nationwide.

The trainees are involved in various aspects of leadership and communication whether it is between two persons, presenting a program to our various local service clubs, special interests group to testifying before such governmental bodies as the county commissioners or state legislative bodies. Also the participants learned how to work with the different media, using visual aids, such as posters, overheads, slides, charts, etc., to give better presentations.

The most interesting part of the institute was learning how to present a program using the video. Everyone had to present a small skit either with a partner (s) or individually for the video camera, then everyone critiqued each other on structure and presentation. Lincoln County presented a two-part program getting a news article in and a follow-up interview. Two members of the Lincoln County group were trainers Phyllis Zamwalt, "How to work with Media" and Orby Neatherlin, "Getting a Handle on Stress." Those attending were Jan LaRue, Capitan; Rosalee Dunlap, Lincoln; Phyllis Zamwalt, Hondo; and Orby Neatherlin and Dottie Quaid of Ruidoso.

Ask Dr. Dan . . .

I have been taking thyroid hormone pills for many years. I feel fine and would like to stop them. Should I do this? H.T.

It may be possible to stop the medication but only under the supervision of your doctor. Your physician will want to examine the thyroid gland (located at the base of the neck in front), take a history about your thyroid disease and draw blood to check the functioning of the gland. The doctor may reduce or increase the dosage or stop it completely. The blood tests will need to be repeated in 1 or 2 months to see if your thyroid hormones are still at normal levels.

The thyroid gland regulates the rate of metabolism of the body. An overactive gland can cause weight loss, rapid heart-rate, insomnia, large appetite, tremors (shaking) and other symptoms. An underactive thyroid can cause skin changes (dryness, thickening), weight gain, swelling of the legs, chronic fatigue, excess sleepiness, constipation and other symptoms. A simple blood test can tell if the levels of the two thyroid hormones are normal.

Using thyroid pills for weight loss is not considered acceptable medical practice anymore. It is also not effective in most cases. A recent reformation of the synthetic thyroid drug Synthroid may require an adjustment in dosage.

Send questions to Dr. Dan, Box 8, Carrizozo, NM 88301.

LEGAL NOTICE

The Capitan Municipal Schools hereby issues a statement of compliance with Federal Regulation 504.84.36.

(d) Compliance. A recipient may not exclude any qualified handicapped person from a public elementary or secondary education after the effective date of this part. A recipient that is not, on the effective date of this regulation, in full compliance with the other requirements of the preceding paragraphs of this section shall meet such requirements at the earliest practicable time and in no event later than September 1, 1978.

84.34 Educational setting.

(a) Academic setting. A recipient to which this subpart applies shall educate, or shall provide for the education of, each qualified handicapped person in its jurisdiction with persons who are not handicapped to the maximum extent appropriate to the needs of the handicapped person. A recipient shall place a handicapped person in the regular educational environment operated by the recipient unless it is demonstrated by the recipient that the education of the person in the regular environment with the use of supplementary aids and services cannot be achieved satisfactorily. Whenever a recipient places a person in a setting other than the regular educational environment pursuant to this paragraph, it shall take into account the proximity of the alternate setting to their person's home.

(b) Nonacademic settings. In providing or arranging for the provision of nonacademic and extracurricular services and activities, including meals, recess periods, and the services and activities set forth in 84.37 (a) (2), a recipient shall ensure that handicapped persons participate with nonhandicapped persons in such activities and services to the maximum extent appropriate to the needs of the handicapped person in question.

(c) Comparable facilities. If a recipient, in compliance with paragraph (a) of this section, operates a facility that is identifiable as being for handicapped persons, the recipient shall ensure that the facility and the services and activities provided therein are comparable to the other facilities, services, and activities of the recipient.

84.35 Evaluation and placement.

(a) Preplacement evaluation. A recipient that operates a public elementary or secondary education program shall conduct an evaluation in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section of any person who, because of handicap, needs or is believed to need special education or related services before taking any action with respect to the initial placement of the person in a regular or special education program and any subsequent significant change in placement.

(b) Evaluation procedures. A recipient to which this subpart applies shall establish standards and procedures for the evaluation and placement of persons who, because of handicap, need or are believed to need special education or related services which ensure that:

(1) Tests and other evaluation materials have been validated for the specific purpose for which they are used and are administered by trained personnel in conformance with the instructions provided by their producer;

(2) Tests and other evaluation materials include those tailored to assess specific areas of educational need and not merely those which are designed to provide a single general intelligence quotient; and

(3) Tests are selected and administered so as best to ensure that, when a test is administered to a student with impaired sensory, manual, or speaking skills, the test results accurately reflect the student's aptitude or achievement level or whatever other factor the test purports to measure, rather than reflecting the student's impaired sensory, manual, or speaking skills (except where those skills are the factors that the test purports to measure).

(c) Placement procedures. In interpreting evaluation data and in making placement decisions, a recipient shall (1) draw upon information from a variety of sources, including aptitude and achievement tests, teacher recommendations, physical condition, social or cultural background, and adaptive behavior,

(2) establish procedures to ensure that information obtained from all such sources is documented and carefully considered, (3) ensure that the placement decision is made by a group of persons, including persons knowledgeable about the child, the meaning of the evaluation data, and the placement options, and (4) ensure that the placement decision is made in conformity with 84.34.

(d) Reevaluation. A recipient to which this section applies shall establish procedures, in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section for periodic reevaluation of students who have been provided special education and related services. A reevaluation procedure consistent with the Education for the Handicapped Act is one means of meeting this requirement.

84.36 Procedural safeguards.

A recipient that operates a public elementary or secondary education program shall establish and implement, with respect to actions regarding the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of persons who, because of handicap, need or are believed to need special instruction or related services, a system of procedural safeguards that includes notice, an opportunity for the parents or guardian of the person to examine relevant records, an impartial hearing with opportunity for participation by the person's parents or guardian and representation by counsel, and a review procedure. Compliance with the procedural safeguards of section 615 of the Education of the Handicapped Act is one means of meeting this requirement.
