Murder stuns county

Lincoln County residents were stunned by the shooting deaths of Thomas P. "Cotton" McKnight and his wife Judy last Thursday.

The brutal slayings occurred in the McKnight home about 20 miles south of Picacho. The bodies were found Thursday morning by a friend and a neighbor.

McKnight, 32, had been Lincoln County Commission Chairman from 1978 to 1982.

The Lincoln County Sheriff's Department is investigating the murders and seeking a motive for the slayings.

Chief Deputy Charlie Cox said on Tuesday, "There was nothing disturbed in the house and nothing was stolen."

Funeral services were held Monday for McKnight, 32, and his wife, Judy, 38.

Sheriff Tom Sullivan said it was a "Cold blooded execution type murder." He went on to say, "We have numerous leads we are checking out. We are interviewing friends, relatives, and associates and attempting to trace their activities during the past few months in an effort to establish a motive."

CHRISTMAS decorations will be displayed at the courthouse on Dec. 1. Mabel Vega, left, and Frances Morales work on the decorating project with students from Mr. DeTevis art class, Scott Zamora and Sammy Chavez. Other students helping were Gladys Hobbs and Marian Wilkerson. Mario Ortiz is in charge of the outside decorations.

LET US GIVE THANKS

Let's be grateful now for small and simple blessings that brighten daily lives.

Work to do and time to rest. Things to care about and share. Loved ones to share them with.

'Happy Thanksgiving...!'

Capitan city council

—Passed a resolution allowing $200.00 of water meter tap fees to be set aside for emergency capital improvements.

—The proposed water rate increase looks like this—The residential minimum would go to 4,000 gallons. The minimum rate would go to $12.50. There would be a charge of $1.75 per thousand gallons in excess of the 4,000 minimum up to 25,000 gallons. The rate would go to $3.00 per thousand gallons over the 25,000.

Commercial rates go by meter size. This will vary from $15.00 to $50.00 depending on the meter size. There will be a standby charge of $10.00 a month for meters not in use.

This proposed water rate increase would also provide for unmetered rates for the use of fire hydrants for other than fire protection.

The Capitan City Council will vote on this issue at its Dec. 10 meeting.

—Wayne Hobbs is to be contacted to see if the citizens of Capitan might have one day a week when they might use the dump free of charge. This would be for such use as tree limbs and junk.

—The Galion Blade belonging to the village is to be overhauled by Border Machinery of El Paso at an approximate cost of $3,000.

—The village will wait a while on the cleaning of the water tanks.

—The State Fire Marshal's Office will be contacted for consultation before the village makes major improvements concerning its fire department.

CLIPS—

Officers of the Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce were re-elected during the Nov. 13 meeting.

The Chamber will again sponsor a Christmas Decorating contest in Carrizozo this year. More information will be available in the News.

TIRED 'GLADIATORS'—The Carrizozo Grizzly football team and coaching staff were presented with the runner-up trophy after last Friday's rumble with the Reserve Mountaineers in the championship game in Class 'A'. A proud coach, Dennis Sidebottom holds up trophy. Reserve captured the title in a hard fought 21-7 game.

EMT WEEK
Lincoln County Commissioners designated November 10 through 17 as Emergency Medical Technicians Week. The county's ambulance service consists of 82 volunteer EMTs. Devil Bill Adams is the county's advisor and instructor. The county's ambulances are located in Alto, Capitan, Carrizozo, Corona and Hondo.

As parents of six, my husband and I have 'experienced' an ambulance ride when one of our sons was rushed by Carrizozo Ambulance to Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital when he said a watermelon seed had entered his windpipe. After tests and an overnight hospital stay for observation it was determined that the boy was fine.

After a delicious breakfast in-bed he was released. In another not as fortunate incident, an older son 'swallowed' a pinon nut shell and his breathing was not impaired. Ambulance service was not required. Later it was discovered that shell fragments were in his lungs and surgery was needed to remove them.

We are very grateful that we have ambulance service in Carrizozo in the event that we should need speedy transportation to a hospital. In addition the EMTs are trained in first aid procedures.

HOT LINE

When Zachary was a toddler we practically had a hot-line to the New Mexico Poison, Drug Information and Medical Crisis Center in Albuquerque, but fortunately not any of the alarms required an ambulance run. One time Zac tasted nail polish. On another occasion he took a swig of perfume. Both items were out of his reach - or so I thought.

Zachary was our sixth child and the only one for whom I specifically purchased a bottle of syrup of ipecac (just in case). Syrup of ipecac is a non-prescription medication that safely induces vomiting, but it should only be given if specifically recommended by the New Mexico Poison Center or your physician. Syrup of ipecac can be purchased at Family Pharmacy. Ask Hal Sims about it. Zac is now six years old, I think, and the bottle remains unopened because it was never needed.

POISON PREVENTION

The New Mexico Poison Center is a 24-hour, 7-day-week toll free telephone service that provides information on poisons, poison prevention, and poisoning. The number in New Mexico is 1-800-432-6866.

Call the Poison Center for any possible poisoning, even if the amount seems trivial. Current and accurate poison information is available and, when necessary, the Center assists in providing first aid instructions and directions to appropriate nearby treatment facilities. This is when your local ambulance service may be needed. Keep all emergency numbers taped near your telephones.

The Poison Center is a public service program of the University of New Mexico affiliated with the UNM College of Pharmacy.

KIDS ARE CURIOUS

Zachary was not a little devil when he was a toddler but in large households such as ours safety precautions are especially important because there is so much activity going on at the same time.

We don't store medicine in the 'medicine cabinets' in the bathrooms or cleaning agents under the sinks. I recently considered removing the safety locks from all the lower cabinets in the kitchen. The plastic plugs in the electric outlets will remain on for a while longer. Just this year someone stuck a piece of wire into an outlet that was left unplugged. Following the shower of sparks a scared Zac said, "It was an accident, I promise."

DO'S AND DON'TS

Do realize that children are curious, can climb, and will eat or drink almost anything.

Do use child-resistant packages.

Do lock medications and other poisons away and out of reach of children.

Do dispose of unused products and empty containers properly.

Do realize that indoor and outdoor plants can be poisonous and know the names of the plants in and around your home.

Do have syrup of ipecac in your home.

Don't leave poisons out where children can get to them.

Don't store food and poisons in the same area.

Don't call medicines "candy".

LAST LAUGH

With their three children away visiting grandparents for the weekend a mother and father sat down to a quiet Sunday breakfast.

"I miss the children," Mom said. "Don't you, honey?"

"Now that you mention it," Dad replied, "I do miss them. Why don't you come over and steal my toast, spill coffee and rub jam in my hair?"

EMT WEEK - Nov. 10 through 17 was proclaimed by County Commissioners as Emergency Medical Technicians Week in honor of EMT volunteers. Pictured here are EMT Rosemary Zink and 'accident victim' Linda Kouu who re-enact an emergency situation. Emergency telephone numbers for county ambulances are: Hondo, Glencoe, Picacho, San Patricio, Tinnie, Lincoln 653-8111; Alto, Angus, Bonita, Ruidoso, Ruidoso Downs 258-5607; Carrizozo, Nogal, Oscura, Ancho, White Oaks 648-2341. Callers residing in Carrizozo and vicinity can simply dial '911' if they prefer.

Leota Pfingsten hosts (DAR)

The Sierra Blanca Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) had its November meeting at the Smokey Bear dining room, Capitan, NM. Hostess was Mrs. Leota Pfingsten.

Regent Mrs. Cleo Dodds, presided at the business meeting. Mrs. June Hawley, secretary and Mrs. Marti Yoder, treasurer, presented their reports. Each chairman of committees gave reports.

Mrs. Flo Carter, Roswell, reported the vandalism of the Methodist Church in Roswell which also damaged the US flag. The members of the Sierra Blanca Chapter voted to replace a new flag for the church.

Mrs. Leota Pfingsten was in charge of the program. She reviewed the book, "The Buffalo Soldier," researched and written especially for the "American Scene" by Donnie D. Good. "After their formation in 1866, the 9th & 10th Negro Cavalry, "Buffalo Soldiers" was established in the Plain States. The name "Buffalo Soldiers" was believed to have been made partly as the troops wore buffalo coats in the winter.

In 1875, the 9th & 10th cavalry were transferred to New Mexico. In 1876, two companies were stationed at Fort Bayard, two at Fort Wingate, three at Fort Stanton and one each at Forts McRae, Union, Seldon and Garland.

The Buffalo soldier "belonged" in the history of the formation of the west. This is a part of the heritage of our nation."

Members attending were: Mrs. Roberta Burkstellor, Nadine Burt, Flo Clarke, Mary Dean, Cleo Dodds, Lucy English, June Hawley, Leota Pfingsten, Alice Traylor, Marti Yoder and Hilda Young.

The DAR Chapter December meeting will be held at Mrs. Roberta Burkstellor's home at Nogal, Dec. 13, 1984, 11:30 a.m. Each member is to bring a wrapped gift for the VA Medical Center, also an exchangeable gift for one of the members.

The Sierra Blanca Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution are sponsoring essays contest in Lincoln County Schools.

The essays topics are - "The Contribution of Black Soldiers or Patriots during the American Revolution" or "The Statue of Liberty - The Lady with a Lamp."

Students in the 5th and 6th grades are to write 800 to 600 words and 7th and 8th grades 600 to 1000 words.

Awards will be given. Each school in the county has been very cooperative on the essays. Parents, let's encourage the children to take part.

The Diabetes Screening held last Friday was a success and more people turned out than there was time to screen.

Rosemary Zink has agreed to do the same screening at a later date. The Lioness Club will announce the time and date in the next issue of the News.

The Valley of Fires Lioness Club wishes to thank Rosemary for giving her time to do the screening.

The Lincoln County Council of Extension Clubs met in Capitan, NM Tuesday, November 13 at the Catholic Church Parish Hall, with Capitan Club serving as hostess, there were 14 members present and Home economist, Mrs. Charlotte Hill.

Following the business meeting they had a delicious covered dish luncheon - host club serving ham. In the afternoon session Mrs. Hill discussed the workings of clubs and the different programs planned for coming year. She requested we think "Fair" all year. Entries were down this year, begin new projects now, keeping the Fair in mind.

Capitan News

We had delightful sunshine until late Saturday morning. We received two-tenths inches rain on Saturday with two more inches that night, followed by a light snow that froze. It was cold but beautiful. Three miles toward Ruidoso there was five inches and the country was a fairyland in beauty. On the mountain above Swiss Chalet all was clear. We are now having light rain. Lots of ice at night. My Thanksgiving wish goes to all again this week.

Remember: The Senior Citizens of Capitan are holding a Bake Sale the day before Thanksgiving at the Dean building, do patronize them. They have a crocheted acrylic cape, size 10 to 14 on which they are selling chances. It is off-white. A beauty, one to be proud of. The drawing will be held December 14. They have it exhibited at various businesses - at present it is at the Smokey Bear Museum.

From Nov. 12-18 there were 284 registered visitors at the Smokey Bear Museum. That is great for this time of year.

My friend and neighbor, Mr. McDonough, recently visited with the manager of Lincoln County Cablevision. He learned that equipment has been ordered and the following improvements will be made to the Capitan Cable.

First, Channel 11 will be updated (improved). Second, Channel 12 out of Clovis will be taken off and replaced with the Cable News Network (CNN). Third, Channel 13 out of Albuquerque will be coming off and replaced by USA network. This work will be done sometime in the future when the equipment arrives.

The first annual Band Awards Banquet was held last Friday night Nov. 9 at school. The guest speaker was Mr. Danny Flores, band director of Ruidoso Band. Mr. Valenzuela awards were given out to 18 outstanding members. He has done a good job and certainly does accomplish so much with all of his students. We are proud of him and all of his accomplishments.

The Capitan Jr. Rodeo Club held their awards banquet at the school cafeteria, Saturday, Nov.

17. The members enjoyed a pot luck supper and then afterwards the year-end awards were presented. A nice crowd attended.

The Sound and Stadium Band Concert was held last Thursday night in the school multi-purpose auditorium and certainly was thoroughly enjoyed.

Our school closed Wednesday for Thanksgiving and will resume Monday morning Nov. 28.

The hunting season seems to be a success for the deer kill going thru. Robert Rujines had good luck with his deer hunters, this first hunt, getting 7 or 9. There were some big bucks in the bunch and a lot of happy hunters.

Our congratulations to the Capitan varsity volleyball team for making it to the state playoffs. They were defeated in the first round, but we are very proud of the girls for working so very hard and representing our school so well. We do love you girls, you did a fine job!

The basketball season begins in less than a month, with the ball players practicing everyday now. Both boys and girls teams will be trying their best to make it to the state playoffs again this year, so everyone be sure to support the Tigers and attend all home games and as many "away" games as possible. Remember, these are your kids, show them that you are proud of them.

The gas office will be closed Nov. 22-23 for Thanksgiving.

David Keller of UNM will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Phil Keller.

The Capitan Roundtable Club met Thursday, Nov. 15 at the home of Emma Gene and Fletcher Hall with Frankie Tom as hostess. All 12 members were present. Emma Gene and Angie Provine were guests. The hostess served a delicious chicken casserole. Happy birthday was sang to Alice Traylor. Gladys Few, president, conducted the business meeting. Christmas boxes were discussed. Decisions were made regarding next years hostesses. Their Christmas meeting will be held at the home of Amolene McIntosh December 13.

Roland Gardenhire spent a nice vacation with his sister Francis Shaw. When he returned home to Atlanta, GA Frances Shaw, Diane Riska and Vicki Shaw accompanied him. They enjoyed many tours in the Smokey Mountains and 10 days delightful vacation and returned via plane last week.

Clyde and Deloris Riley became the proud parents of a baby son, Justin, born Oct. 20, 1984 weighing 9 lbs. 10 ozs.

Congratulations to Anita Morris and Sarah Ball. Both became mothers of baby girls recently. We wish both of these families much happiness and health.

Willie Hobbs returned from Abernathy, TX. where she was taking care of her sister who was seriously ill, and placed in a nursing home.

Gary Renfro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Renfro and Miss Janell Fletcher of Bryan, TX were married in the Methodist Church in Ruidoso Nov. 17, 1984. Recently his brother Mike Renfro and family visited his parents. He is in the service.

Mr. Manuel Miller Sr. returned home after several weeks vacation in California. Glad to have you back.

Betty Lou Joiner is ill with influenza. Get well soon and fast please.

Bring Christmas to Carrizozo with Christmas lights. Contest sponsored by the Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce. Details in the News.

DINNER INVITATIONS
Cut double turkey-shapes from the folded edge of a heavy brown grocery bag. A turkey cookie cutter can be used for a pattern. Your out-stretched hand forms a turkey shape. Inside write the invitation: "Thanksgiving Day is almost here. We hope that you can make plans to join our family for dinner."

HOLIDAY GAME
To keep children (and some adults) busy while dinner is prepared suggest a game. Place a plastic pumpkin in the center of the living room floor. Give each person three large buttons. If at least one lands in the pumpkin the tosser wins a prize.

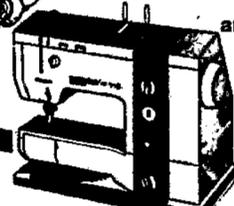

GRAVY INSURANCE
Lumpy gravy? Put it in your blender and it will be smooth in seconds. Return to pan and keep warm on low heat.

WORD FUN
Twelve players sit in a circle. A paper bag containing twelve cardboard squares is passed around. Each square bears a letter from the word "THANKSGIVING". As each player draws a letter from the bag he or she thinks of a word and says, "I am thankful for..." The bag is passed to the player on the left. The game continues until the letters spell out the word "THANKSGIVING."

Seeking assistance
The Catholic Diocese of Las Cruces is seeking immediate assistance for the 8 million starving Ethiopians in Northern Africa, according to Bishop Ricardo Ramirez.

Bishop Ramirez has called for a special collection on Thanksgiving Day at all Catholic Church services in Hidalgo, Grant, Luna, Sierra, Dona Ana, Otero, Lincoln, Chaves, Eddy, and Lea Counties. He also encourages any other private or public donations to this special fund.

"The United States and other food producers are responding generously by providing food, but funds are needed to get the food to the desperately needy and to provide adequate health care and other services for the masses of starving persons. We are indeed fortunate that Catholic Relief Services is one the spot and has been providing humanitarian assistance and relief for more than a year now. The situation is graver at this time due to the crop failures this year. More assistance is needed—and it is needed fast", says Bishop Ramirez.
Donations can be sent to the Ethiopian Relief Fund in care of the Las Cruces Diocese, P.O. Box 16318, Las Cruces, New Mexico 88004. For further information, call the Catholic Charities Office at (505) 524-0965.

SANTA FE—Call it the Anaya Method—and admit it's a strange way to govern.

On any specific topic, you first generate turmoil, preferably taking a bad situation and making it immeasurably worse. Only after you have needlessly stirred the maximum number of citizens to maximum emotional pitch do you move toward a rational solution.

Example: the handling of boards of regents at our institutions of higher education. WHERE WE STAND: That situation is presently in phase two of the Anaya Method. The Governor, in a manner which is calm and sane, is now soliciting faculty senates and other interested groups to assist in suggesting those who might be named regents when some of those posts become vacant at the start of the year.

A highly laudable procedure and a sound approach, which was not taken by all his predecessors. But we only get to this quiet point after months and months of emotional outpourings from all parts of the state brought on by the Governor's own actions.

Here's the sequence:

—The turbulence starts when Anaya makes it clear he is unhappy with regents at Eastern, Western and NMSU who selected presidents for their schools without his guidance, as they are clearly empowered to do.

—Then the wrath gets focused specifically on the regents at UNM—and greatly intensified.

Because it falls on these unfortunate people at the very time they are in process of choosing a president for their school, it is even more damaging. If they do what he wants, they are self-outs; if they don't, there will be hell to pay.

—The pot comes to a full boil of irrationality and naked power plays when the Gov. remarks that he plans to ask all future regents to give him letters of resignation before they are named to the job. That is in total contravention of everything the state constitution is written to achieve, which is the removal of such people from being bossed by anybody.

petitioning those who presumably know something about the kinds of regents who should be chosen to help him by drawing up lists of names from which he can choose.

You've got to admire his cool. Anybody who believes he can pull off the hero act after so thoroughly playing the bad guy has to be admired for his moxie.

But which one of these really is our Governor—Doctor Jekyll or Mr. Hyde? Do we believe the sweet guy he has turned out to be or the musclemán he first tried to make himself into? Is he more interested in what's best for the schools and colleges or in getting his own way?

CHANGE OF PACE: And after he has generated those gradually worsening storms, orchestrating them and stirring them like one of Macbeth's witches, what do we get? The dove of peace and offstage organ music.

Now he turns into the world's most charming citizen,

And here's one more question: Why is McCaffrey asking all these questions? Because he doesn't know the answers. Anaya could be either the good guy or the bad guy—or both.

One thing is sure. We've never had a governor like this one, ever before.

WATCH OVER WASHINGTON—

By LES KINSOLVING

Some proposed Tutu stop overs on the flight to Oslo

WASHINGTON — Front pages all over the world announced the award of the Nobel Peace Prize to Anglican Bishop Desmond Tutu of South Africa. The announcement of the award, in Oslo, cited this prelate's "role as a unifying leader figure in the campaign to resolve the problem of apartheid in South Africa. The means by which this vital campaign is conducted is of vital importance to the whole continent of Africa."

We couldn't agree more — at least with that last sentence — because it suggests a crying need for a new kind of agenda for Bishop Tutu. His initial response to this prestigious award was a threat; to wit:

"This is our last chance for change, because if this doesn't happen, we are for the birds. The bloodbath will be inevitable."

The Government of South Africa had absolutely no comment. In point of fact, it does not have to comment. It has what is by far the most powerful armed forces, and a potent supply of nuclear weapons, on the entire continent. And South Africans are quietly determined to use them, if necessary, rather than submit to the kind of racial dismemberment being inflicted on the few remaining white farmers just to the north in Zimbabwe.

So if there is any bloodbath in southern Africa, it will almost certainly be as it has been almost all over the continent during the last decades of black power — where the bath has been in oceans of black blood.

If Bishop Tutu is seriously dedicated to ending racial separation in South Africa, as well as the denial of the vote to 16 million blacks except in their "homelands," he should years ago have spoken out — not only against apartheid but against the horde of black African doctors, whose mountainous atrocities convince Afrikaners that they will surely suffer the same fate so often wreaked elsewhere: "One man — One vote — One time."

Why, for example, was there no comparable press coverage of Bishop Tutu raising his voice against the stoning and then imprisonment without trial of his fellow Christian bishop, Methodist Abel Muzorewa of Zimbabwe? Is it possible that Tutu said nothing about this atrocity? Or of the butchering of the Matabele? This has caused Bishop Muserowa and Joshua Nkomo both to affirm that the tyranny in Zimbabwe today under Marxist Robert Mugabe is worse than anything done under the white regime of Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith.

Has Bishop Tutu ever raised his voice against Uganda's Idi Amin? How is it that there was so little press coverage (if in fact any was ever justified) of any protest by Tutu when Amin sent 82,000 Indians from Uganda out of the country in what is called "Oceanic Apartheid?" And what about a Tutu protest of Amin's mass murder of at least a quarter of a million blacks in Uganda — including Tutu's fellow Anglican, Archbishop Janani Luwum?

Why can't Bishop Tutu, on his way to Oslo, stop off in Zimbabwe to protest the tyranny of Robert Mugabe? From there to Kampala to ask the Ugandan Government of Milton Obote to stop its soldiers from robbing and murdering the citizenry, even though the death rate is lower than under Amin. Tutu could also ask Uganda to seek the extradition from Saudi Arabia of Idi Amin.

From there to Kahrtoum to protest the slaughter of half a million blacks by the Arab-dominated government, a genocidal atrocity which was as comparatively unreported by the liberal Big Media as the deliberate policy of starvation by which the Federal Army of Nigeria starved so many Ibos to death in Biafra.

From Lagos, where he could conduct a memorial service for all these black victims of a black army, the bishop could fly to Liberia. Here he could investigate to see if that country, under Dictator-Sergeant Doe, has ever eliminated the racial segregation in its constitution, which denies the right to vote or hold property to any individual who is not black (with the only exception being such corporations as Firestone.)

From Monrovia, Bishop Tutu could fly to Mauritania, a west African nation where Amnesty International, the Anti-Slavery Society in London and Newweek magazine have all reported that there are over 100,000 black slaves.

If Bishop Tutu has time, he might also fly to Guinea, Equatorial Africa, the former Central African Empire (whose Emperor Bokassa spent $25 million on his own coronation) or to Burundi, where one tribe has almost entirely eradicated another tribe — without anything approaching the outcry when Zulus massacred Xhossas during street riots in Suweto.

And finally, Bishop Tutu might fly to the United States. He could plead with the Congressional Black Caucus to stop their tacit support of African dictators on the questionable assumption that it is somehow less oppressive to be ruled, tortured or executed by a black dictator than in a white republic.

Bishop Tutu's flights to all these places would cost only a fraction of the $190,000 stipend that goes with the Nobel Prize. The balance could go to the rather depleted treasury of the South African Council of Churches, of which Tutu is the General Secretary.

The New York Times (but very few other papers) was honest enough to report that Tutu's predecessor in this office was John Rees, who has recently been found guilty of 29 counts of fraud regarding misuse of a quarter of a million dollars worth of Council funds. The Times also reported that the millions of Christians in South Africa, both black and white, provide only two percent of the Council's income — all the balance coming from foreign sources.

COLIN McMILLAN—

Commentary

Gov. Toney Anaya declared in a recent interview that there were no significant lessons to be learned from the results of the 1984 general election.

There may be no lessons for the governor but for other political observers, office holders and the public there are a number of important events which should be noted.

—First, Gov. Anaya may not be a very popular leader.

More interesting than Republican condemnation was Democratic denial of the governor in the 1984 election results.

Otero County was one place where the public perceived that the incumbent was close to the governor. There, Sen. Wyatt Atkins was beaten challenger Bill Vandergriff.

—The power of the incumbency was restated.

Every incumbent at the state level from US senator to corporation commissioner was re-elected, with three from each party winning in contested races.

While the results were not so clear at the legislative and local levels, defeated incumbents were the exception.

—A conservative shift in the electorate is rather clear.

The State Senate, which has 21 Republicans and 21 Democrats, will be controlled by conservatives.

The State House of Representatives is too close to call until close races are resolved, but control by a conservative coalition is a distinct possibility.

—The political base of the Republican Party is shifting south from Albuquerque.

This is most clearly manifested by election results in the State Senate.

Republicans picked up four seats in the Second (southern) Congressional District (Sens. Marvin Watts, Bill Vandergriff, Anthony Williams and Ellen Steele.) They lost one in Santa Fe County to Roman Maes and one in northeastern New Mexico where Democratic Sen. John Morrow won as a result, at least in part, of reapportionment.

The Democrats apparently recognize this shift in political bases.

Newly re-elected State Corporation Commissioner Eric Serna implied this when he called upon Democrats to end their recent practice of selecting all statewide party officials from Albuquerque and Santa Fe.

—If there is a "gender gap" in New Mexico, it lies within the Democrat Party.

A record 13 women were elected to the Legislature with all but one being Republican.

It is difficult if not impossible, for one public figure to transfer his popularity to another.

Sen. Pete Domenici did everything humanly possible to support Lou Gallegos in his race for Congress from the Third District against incumbent Bill Richardson.

Former Gov. Bruce King made similar efforts on behalf of his son Gary in his race against veteran GOP legislator Jim Caudell in State Senate District 22.

Neither Domenici nor King could change the final outcome.

—Finally, the old adage that one vote is important is demonstrated as of this writing. Republican Melodi L. Salas apparently has won her bid for election in House District 58 against Democrat Barbara Casey by one vote in the Chaves and Eddy County district.

The race is being contested but it is clear whoever wins will do so by the narrowest of margins.

Ironically, this seat may be the deciding vote in the selection of the speaker of the House of Representatives.

One vote may decide if Gov. Anaya will continue to control the New Mexico House or if a conservative coalition will be able to bring to balance the left-leaning administration in Santa Fe.

This reiterates the truism that "your vote counts."

INSIDE THE CAPITOL

BY Fred McCaffrey

situation is presently in phase two of the Anaya Method. The Governor, in a manner which is calm and sane, is now soliciting faculty senates and other interested groups to assist in suggesting those who might be named regents when some of those posts become vacant at the start of the year.

A highly laudable procedure and a sound approach, which was not taken by all his predecessors. But we only get to this quiet point after months and months of emotional outpourings from all parts of the state brought on by the Governor's own actions.

Here's the sequence:

—The turbulence starts when Anaya makes it clear he is unhappy with regents at Eastern, Western and NMSU who selected presidents for their schools without his guidance, as they are clearly empowered to do.

—Then the wrath gets focused specifically on the regents at UNM—and greatly intensified.

Because it falls on these unfortunate people at the very time they are in process of choosing a president for their school, it is even more damaging. If they do what he wants, they are self-outs; if they don't, there will be hell to pay.

—The pot comes to a full boil of irrationality and naked power plays when the Gov. remarks that he plans to ask all future regents to give him letters of resignation before they are named to the job. That is in total contravention of everything the state constitution is written to achieve, which is the removal of such people from being bossed by anybody.

CHANGE OF PACE: And after he has generated those gradually worsening storms, orchestrating them and stirring them like one of Macbeth's witches, what do we get? The dove of peace and offstage organ music.

Now he turns into the world's most charming citizen, petitioning those who presumably know something about the kinds of regents who should be chosen to help him by drawing up lists of names from which he can choose.

You've got to admire his cool. Anybody who believes he can pull off the hero act after so thoroughly playing the bad guy has to be admired for his moxie.

But which one of these really is our Governor—Doctor Jekyll or Mr. Hyde? Do we believe the sweet guy he has turned out to be or the musclemán he first tried to make himself into? Is he more interested in what's best for the schools and colleges or in getting his own way?

And here's one more question: Why is McCaffrey asking all these questions? Because he doesn't know the answers. Anaya could be either the good guy or the bad guy—or both.

One thing is sure. We've never had a governor like this one, ever before.

Hunters found it cold and damp on Saturday and several were reported to have lost their last week at Lincoln Station way. Temperatures registered range from a low of 25 degrees on the 15th and 16th to a high of 82 degrees on the 12th and 13th. Moisture measured 0.48". Snow accumulation varied from two inches in the village to more than six in the Torrancia area.

Roe Ann Icenogle is head cameraman for the KOAT-TV early morning news. She also writes some of the commercials.

Guests of Roe Lovelace for the hunting season weekend included Dr. Annala and family from Ruidoso, and Lynn and John Hutchinson and their four children from DeQueen, AK.

Five members of Crown Cowbelles attended a meeting Tuesday of the Chuckwagon Belles at the home of Mrs. Joe Atkinson in Belen. The luncheon featured brisket and the table held a beautiful centerpiece of roses from a friends yard. After a brief business meeting and election of new officers the afternoon was spent making Christmas stars from stiff ribbon, gift boxes, and an assortment of ornaments. Myrtle and Ruby Davidson, Juanita Owen, Katie Sultemeier and Geraldine Perkins made the trip and enjoyed especially the display of crafts from dolls to tree skirts.

Cedar Temple No. 28 met Monday afternoon in the Pythian Hall with MEC Lee Shumate in charge. Grand Chief Genevieve Jones has appointed Mrs. Shumate District Deputy Grand Chief. She will make her official visit to her home temple on Jan. 21. Primrose Temple will be invited to join Cedar for that meeting. Preliminary plans for the tri-district meeting were made for late March with Cedar the hostess temple.

Officers were elected for next year as follows: MEC Gayle McCloud, Excellent Senior Leta Sharp, Excellent Junior Lee Shumate, Manager Pauline McCloud, treasurer Geraldine Perkins, Protector Gladys Keelin, Guard Jo Hiner and Past chief Edna Robinson.

With a special dispensation the December meeting will follow a Christmas luncheon and exchange of gifts at the home of Mrs. Shumate in Roswell on Dec. 10.

Mrs. Robinson was hostess and served pecan pie in front of the fireplace.

Mrs. Rosalyn Reynolds came up from Roswell Sunday morning to visit with friends and to attend church services in Corona.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lonzie Sultemeier and Karl Sultemeier, Belen, were weekend guests of Jaunita Sultemeier.

Mrs. and Mrs. Jeff Wells are the parents of five pound five ounces Lance Waylon born Friday, Nov. 16 in Albuquerque. Hostesses announce that the baby shower planned for Saturday has been temporarily postponed.

Mrs. John Leary has returned to Tor C for the winter.

Mrs. and Mrs. Stan Kimball, Albuquerque, and Sara Kimball, Waco, TX spent a recent Sunday with Robin Pfeiffer and Dell Roberts. Sara was spending the Veterans Day weekend in Albuquerque on holiday from her therapy studies at Baylor University Medical School where she is working on a Master's degree.

Veda Cordova has resigned as site director of the Senior Citizen Center and applications are being taken for her replacement. The Cordovas will move to their former home in Lamy and from that base plan two years of travel before Nipper is ready for school. Mrs. Cordova who assumed her duties at the center on Jan. 16 of this year has been a talented and popular director and Corona is sorry to lose her. A cash love gift was presented to her Friday, her last day on the job.

Tom Perkins and Lance Sharp were here over the weekend from NMSU.

Lee Shumate and Sue Duffy came from Roswell Monday for the Pythian Sister meeting and did some pottery shopping.

A Happy Thanksgiving to you! Enjoy the holiday season.

EASY WAYS WITH MICROWAVE

Oh, the glories of hamburger, which can usually be found in everybody's grocery cart. Marvellously versatile, it is often the main ingredient in everything from simple soups and sandwiches to main dishes. Whatever your specialty, this idea for Salisbury Steak from a Whipbook microwave oven cookbook will surely intrigue you. It's easy to prepare, economical, and transforms humble hamburger into elegant company fare.

SALISBURY STEAK (shown)

- Total cooking time: 10 minutes, 30 seconds
- 1 pound ground beef
 - 1/4 cup finely crushed saltine crackers
 - 1 beaten egg
 - 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
 - 1 1-ounce envelope brown gravy mix
 - 1 small onion, thinly sliced and separated into rings
 - 1 3/4-ounce can sliced mushrooms, drained
 - 1 cup water
 - English muffins or bread, toasted (optional)

TIPS & TECHNIQUES

In a mixing bowl combine ground beef, crushed saltine crackers, beaten egg, and Worcestershire sauce. Shape the meat mixture into four patties, 1/2-inch thick. Place patties in an 8x2-inch baking dish. Cover with waxed paper. Place dish in microwave oven.

Cook the patties at HIGH for 4 minutes. Turn patties over; cook, covered, at HIGH for 2 minutes. Remove cooked patties to a heated serving platter. Keep warm. Add gravy mix, sliced onions, and mushrooms to the drippings in dish. Stir in water. Return dish to microwave oven.

Cook gravy at HIGH for 4 1/2 minutes till thickened and bubbly, stirring every minute. Skim off fat. Serve patties atop toasted English muffins or bread, if desired. Serve gravy spooned over patties. Garnish with carrot curls and curly endive, if desired. Makes 4 servings.

Browning Ground Beef: It's handy to brown ground beef with chopped onion, green pepper, or other vegetables for use in sandwiches, chili and casseroles. In a mixing bowl or baking dish combine 1 pound of ground beef and 1/2 cup chopped vegetables. Cook at HIGH for 5 minutes, stirring 3 times; drain off fat. Continue with your favorite recipe.

Choosing Ground Beef: When shopping for ground beef, look on the label for the phrase "Not Less Than X% Lean." For best value, purchase ground beef with the percentage of lean best suited for your recipe. Keep in mind that microwave cooking extracts more fat than conventional cooking. Use ground beef that is 70-75% lean when your recipe calls for drippings to be spooned off or removed. When you want the meat to hold its shape and be juicy but not greasy, use 75-80% lean ground beef. For low-calorie diets, use ground beef that is 80-85% lean. Remember, however, that this ground beef won't be very juicy unless you add other ingredients to provide moistness.

Defrosting Ground Meats: To defrost ground meats frozen in refrigerator plastic packaging, unwrap and place meat in a glass baking dish. Cover loosely with waxed paper. (If frozen in freezer-weight paper or microwave-safe plastic, it's safe to defrost in the packaging.) After defrosting for the time recommended in your microwave oven defrosting chart, pierce the meat in the center with a fork. If you can push the fork into the center of the meat, using moderate pressure, the meat is ready for the suggested standing time. If it is difficult to pierce, it means a few more minutes of microwave defrosting time are needed.

DID YOU KNOW?

Propane Gas—it's been called America's most versatile fuel. Here are some facts you may not know about this important energy source for the 80s:

• Eighty percent of all propane gas is U.S. produced.

• This clean, efficient energy is used by over 66 million Americans in homes, industry, agriculture and recreation. The average home consumes over 1000 gallons per year.

• Propane gas is now used for heating, water heating, cooking and virtually hundreds of other uses from road building to automotive fuel, experts say.

• Used in today's high efficiency gas appliances, propane can deliver energy savings of 20% or more for heating, cooking and water heating.

BIG J.J. ROMERO (Reserve lineman) hauls down Stevie Stearns in championship game action in Socorro last Friday.

IN CLASS 'A' FINAL—

Carrizozo falls behind early--Reserve wins 21-7

Carrizozo spotted Reserve an early 21 points in the first half last Friday — the Class 'A' state championship game in Socorro — and it proved to be a bit more than the Grizzlies could make-up against the rugged Mountaineers.

Reserve scored three out of the first four possessions before Carrizozo managed to burn the Mountaineer secondary on a 73-yard pass play from Dominic Vega to wide-receiver Joe Candelaria late in the second quarter — the PAT kick cut the Reserve lead to 21-7. Which turned out to be the final score — both teams were unable to light-up the scoreboard from that point on (3:44 mark in the second period).

The backfield tandem of Dwayne Larsen and Gary Zuniga led the Mountaineers on a 16 play drive after receiving the opening kick-off. After killing 7:05 on the clock Larsen went in from the one-yard line for a 7-0 lead.

Meanwhile Reserve limited the Grizzly offense to six plays in the opening period — a total of 13 yards. Reserve mounted an 80-yard drive early in the second quarter which culminated with a 1-yard TD run by Zuniga — second PAT kick by Larsen made it 14-0 at 7:01 mark before halftime.

Gaining control of the ball after a Grizzly punt Reserve covered 74 yards on only five plays — Larsen going over from the fifteen and adding the PAT for their last score of the night.

The third period saw the Grizzlies making several threats to pull even with the Mountaineers — but it was just not to be.

Example... Benny Zamora recovers Reserve fumble at own 29-yard line — 2 plays and a penalty later found the Grizzlies at their own 9-yard line with a third-and-twenty — Stevie Stearns then busts loose on a beautiful 43 yard jaunt to the Reserve 48. Drive finally stalls at Mountaineer 47 and ball goes over.

Grizzly defense toughens and Reserve punt to Carrizozo 15 — 2 yard gain and face-guard penalty against Reserve puts Grizzlies at 32-yard line — on next play QB Vega found Grizzly receiver wide open behind the opponents secondary (not to be) ball goes just off receivers fingertip and falls harmlessly to turf. Two plays later Reserve intercepts pass — and third quarter is a stand-off.

Example... Grizzlies open last quarter by recovering Reserve fumble at own 43 yard line — on first down Vega launches pass to Candelaria to about Reserve 20-yard-line — receiver and defender run into each other — it could have been interference (not to be) no call was made — 2 plays later Larsen intercepts pass.

Example... Grizzly defense turns ball over to offense at Reserve 45-yard line with 7:25 left — pass from Vega to Candelaria gets Grizzlies to Reserve 29 — on second down Stearns breaks a 21 yard gain to Reserve 5-yard line (not to be) clipping penalty brings ball back to 29. Two plays later J. J. Romero intercepts pass for Mountaineers to kill the Grizzlies last threat.

FINAL Reserve 21, Carrizozo 7

In looking back on any season one always looks back...at the bad and the good. About the only bad thing in the Grizzly season, as one looks back, would have to be — not winning it all — but, the rest of the season would have to be counted the good side...which included an 8-1 regular season — plus a semi-final victory over Tatum and getting to the championship game.

And although there were some injuries — up to the last game (and plenty of them) none were serious — that's good.

One very noticeable good was the character and class shown by this squad — not perfect (but nobody is) ... on and off the field was very good! That's good coaching too!

And finally we congratulate all the seniors for their fine season as team leaders and for their individual accomplishments during the season.

Tiger band honored at banquet

The Captain Tiger Band, known today as the Tiger Guard, held a banquet and awards presentation the evening of Nov. 18.  12 YEARS OF BUSINESS TO THE AREA

ATTENTION...

Christmas tree cutters and dealers

It may seem a little early to start thinking about Christmas but, if you are in the business of cutting or marketing Christmas trees, there are some considerations you have to start thinking about NOW.

This is a reminder that there is a State Law which requires that any Christmas tree being offered for sale in the State, must have a tag attached to its main stem. The Christmas Tree Tag Law was established and is being enforced to protect forest resources on private, State, and public lands. The Law enables landowners to control the harvest of their trees and provides State support in this effort.

Trees for personal use do not require tagging from State

Forestry, but you still must get landowner permission. This also includes the removal of boughs, saplings, branches, etc.

Trees must be tagged if they are being cut for sale. Tags cost .05 cents each and can be obtained from any of the listed vendors. To purchase tags, a commercial dealer must provide the vendor with the following information: a) Name and Address of legal owner, b) Legal description of location where trees will be cut, c) The number of trees authorized for removal, d) If you are cutting trees off your own land, then you will need to provide a copy of a current tax receipt or some other proof of ownership.

To reduce confusion, State

Forestry officials would also like to stress these changes:

All prior year tags will not be accepted for the 1984 season. You must have current year tags on all trees. The Division will reimburse you for the cost of unused tags or exchange old tags for new tags. The Christmas tree tags are non-transferable from one person to another. The tags you purchase are only for your use. Tags cannot be given, sold, (Cont. on P. 12)

Area students nominated to service academies

WASHINGTON, DC — Congressman Joe Skeen, R-NM, said today that he has nominated 16 students from New Mexico's Second Congressional District for possible appointment to one of the nation's service academies. Ten of the students were nominated for appointment to the US Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, CO; two to the US Military Academy at West Point, NY; and four to the US Naval Academy at Annapolis, MD. The nominations were made following meetings of Academy Review Boards appointed by Congressman Skeen. The board met with prospective nominees at the New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell and New Mexico State University in Las Cruces.

"We in Congress are involved in many matters," Skeen said, "but few are as important or as meaningful as the opportunity we are given to help our young people attend an academy. I take great pride in the fact that New Mexico takes a back seat to no one when it comes to qualified applicants. I'm only sorry that more could not be nominated. Nominated to the Air Force

Academy were Jeff Anstey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dana Anstey of Lovington; Marcus Reagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Don Reagan of Hobbs; Keon Hee Han, son of Mr. and Mrs. Song-Man Han of Hobbs; Kent White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wakefield of Alamogordo; Marc Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Keith Johnson of Las Cruces; John Mickle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Wright of Las Cruces; David Nolen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nolen of Carlsbad; Lester Wellacher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wellacher of Alamogordo; Heath Gould, son of Malcolm Gould and Kelli Ballentine of Cloudercroft; and

Tracy Gann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gann of Ruidoso. Nominated to the Military Academy were Wiley Thompson, son of Wiley Thompson and Judy K. Marble of Las Cruces; and Melinda Kay Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Nelson of Tularosa. Nominated to the Naval Academy were Stacey Ramos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Ramos of Chaparral; Rueben Rhodes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rhodes of Clovis; Daniel Murgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morgan of Cloudercroft; and Franz Conway, son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Francis Conway of Las Cruces.

Ask Dr. Dan

My elderly father has started to forget things including where he lives at times. Is this just old age or can something be done? A.D.

Mild forgetfulness is often seen in the elderly and usually does not indicate a severe problem. Senile dementia is the medical term for progressive irreversible loss of brain functioning. There are several causes of dementia. The most common is Alzheimer's disease. This has an unknown cause and no known treatment. About 80 percent of dementias are caused by untreatable causes. The other 20 percent are due to treatable medical conditions.

If concern exists over the possibility of senile dementia in a relative, have your doctor examine the person. A number of tests are required to be sure no treatable causes exist. If an untreatable dementia is diagnosed, do not give up hope. Many of the problems of demented people can be controlled through proper diet, a structured environment, medication and an understanding family. Many books are available that can help cope with the problems which arise from dementia.

Large communities have support groups which trade information and help provide emotional support to families. Send questions to Dr. Dan, Box 8, Carrizozo, NM 88301.

Notice of Intent to Request a Release of Funds

To all interested Agencies, Groups, and Persons:

On or about November 21, 1984, Lincoln County will request the Department of Finance and Administration, Local Government Division, to release Federal funds under the New Mexico Small Cities Community Development Block Program, and the Jobs Bill Component, US Department of Housing and Urban Development - Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 for the following project:

Project Title: Nogal Water Improvements.

Purpose or Nature of Project: For new water distribution system, filter house and tank to improve the existing water system.

Location - Town, City, County of Project: The Town of Nogal, Lincoln County.

Estimated Cost of Project: $196,900.00

A finding of categorical exclusion from an environmental assessment of the project area has been made by the County. A copy of the basis of this finding is available for public view from the Nogal Water Consumers Association, and at the Lincoln County Administration Building, Carrizozo, NM.

Lincoln County will undertake the project described above with CDBG funds made available from the State of New Mexico, CDBG, Small Cities Program. Nogal will participate in the project with Water Supply Construction Act funds, made available from the State of New Mexico. Lincoln County officers certify that they consent to accept the jurisdiction of the Federal courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental review, decision making, and action; and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is that, upon its approval, Lincoln County may use the aforementioned funds. The State of New Mexico will accept an objection to its approval of the release of funds and acceptance of the certification only if it is on one of the following bases: a) that the certification was not executed by the Chief Executive Officer or other officer of applicant approved by the State of New Mexico; or that b) that applicant's environmental assessment indicates omission of a required decision, finding, or step applicable to the project in the environmental review process. Objections must be prepared and submitted in accordance with the required procedure and may be addressed to the State of New Mexico, Local Government Division, 527 Don Gaspar Avenue, Santa Fe, New

ALAMO SOLAR

Thanksgiving Message . . .

DEAR LORD:

We write this letter to you just to say "THANKS" for all that you have done for us here at ALAMO SOLAR. As we look around at all of our co-workers, we feel assured that you must possess quite a sense of humor just to have created them, and so we are not too worried about offending you in this letter.

Lord, you have blessed all of us with certain skills and have provided us with the opportunity for good and honest labor. Some of us work with our hands, some with our heads, some with the sweat of our brows, and some, as little as humanly possible. But, somehow, our efforts as a team have provided us with a certain measure of success in this solar business, and for this we are grateful.

You know lord, you have given us many tools with which to build and develop this great world of yours, and we have done our best to make it a better place. You gave us oil, gas, and coal to help us build our world fast, in order to provide jobs, homes, food, and clothes for all the people. But those natural resources are not cheap anymore, not too clean, and to tell the truth there just isn't as much of them around as there used to be.

So at ALAMO SOLAR we're trying a different way. We'd like to leave those fuels buried in the ground where you put them. What we're trying to do is to use the greatest most powerful source of energy you have ever given us--the one you literally dangled right over our heads--to continue the work already begun. We would like to use the energy of your sun from now on.

If you could see fit to help us, we would be grateful. The sun is probably not a very big star in your eyes, but to us, it is everything. It's our light and our life: and we think it may be the future energy for this little world of ours. And we'd like the chance to find out.

So Lord, Bless ALAMO SOLAR, and all the people who work to make it run. Give us the strength to do our jobs, the health in which to enjoy the fruits of our labors and the wisdom not to take ourselves too seriously . . .

Oh, and Lord---please keep an eye on all of our customers. They've placed a vote of confidence in us, and with your help, we're going to give them a good return on their investment.

THANKS AGAIN LORD-----AMEN.

Mexican Favorites

HUEVOS MOTULEÑOS
 (Eggs Yucatan Style)
 4 tablespoons oil
 8 corn tortillas (6 inches)
 1 package (8 ounces) Pablos Refried Beans
 2 tablespoons grated onion
 1 medium clove garlic, minced
 1 package (8 ounces) Pablos Salsa
 1/4 cup cooked peas
 1/4 cup diced cooked ham
 6 eggs
 1/4 cup Pablos Nacho Sauce
 1 large banana, diagonally sliced - (Optional)
 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 Dash ground cinnamon
 In medium skillet, heat 2 tablespoons oil. Quickly cook tortillas, one at a time, until limp. Arrange in 10 x 6 x 2 inch baking dish.
 Add beans, onion and garlic to skillet. Heat, stirring often. Spoon over tortillas. In saucepan, heat Salsa with peas and ham. Spoon over beans.
 In skillet, fry eggs in remaining 2 tablespoons oil to desired doneness. Arrange eggs over sauce. Top with Nacho Sauce. Broil several minutes until cheese melts.
 Meanwhile, in skillet lightly brown bananas in butter. Use to garnish eggs. Makes 6 servings.
