DPT clinics at Corona, Hondo

There will be a special DPT Clinic in Corona Wednesday, July 10 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. A DPT Clinic will be held in Hondo on Thursday, July 11 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

These Clinics are to immunize children who did not receive DPT due to the recent shortage. Regular immunizations will also be given. Parents or legal guardians must accompany children.

Closing of welfare offices complete

CARRIZOZO—The Lincoln County Income Support Division office here is among 11 county welfare offices that were closed Friday, June 28.

Clients now being served by the Carrizozo office will continue to receive services, and there will be no interruption in benefits, said Human Services Secretary Juan R. Vigil.

There will be a public meeting to discuss how services will be provided in the wake of the Carrizozo office closing July 10 at 10:30 a.m. at the San Patricio Community Center.

The Human Services Department is closing the 11 welfare offices in an effort to live within its budget for fiscal 1986, which begins Monday.

Each client should already have received, or should receive shortly, a letter from the ISD specifying which office will be handling his or her case.

Some clients who have been going to the Carrizozo office will be served by the Chaves County office in Roswell, others will be served by the Otero County office in Alamogordo, and still others will be served by the Guadalupe County office in Santa Rosa.

The Roswell office is at 110 W. McGaffey St., zip code 88201. The office telephone number is 622-6120.

The Alamogordo office is at 411 10th St., 88310, and the telephone number is 437-9260.

The Santa Rosa office is at 330 S. 5th St., P. O. Box 369, 88435, and the telephone number is 472-3450.

Clients who have not received a letter regarding the office closure should call the county office that will be serving them.

The cases of clients in San Patricio, Hondo, Tinnie, Lincoln, Sunset, Arabela and Glencoe will be handled by the Roswell office. These include people whose zip codes end in 324, 336, 338, 348 and 351.

Clients in Carrizozo, Capitan, Fort Stanton and Alto will be served by the Alamogordo office. These clients include those whose zip codes end in 301, 312, 316 and 323.

Corona area clients will be served by the Santa Rosa office.

In general, there should be no need for clients of the Carrizozo office to actually travel to Roswell, Alamogordo or Santa Rosa. Most business can be transacted by mail and telephone, and toll-free numbers for the three offices will soon be available. Applications for benefits and services will be made available in public places such as post offices, senior citizen centers and banks.

In addition, ISD workers will travel on a periodic basis to San Patricio, Ruidoso Downs, Carrizozo and Vaughn so clients who need to meet with ISD personnel can do so with little or not travel. Field workers can make special trips in emergencies.

Income Support workers will be at the San Patricio Community Center the third Wednesday of each month from 9 a.m. to noon.

They will be at the Ruidoso Downs City Hall the first and third Thursday of each month from 8 a.m. to noon.

Itinerant workers will be at the Lincoln County Courthouse in Carrizozo the first and third Thursday of each month from 1:30 to 5 p.m.

And ISD workers will be at the CAP and Senior Citizen Nutrition Center on School Road in Vaughn the second and fourth Monday of each month from 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

44 PLANES, 1 HELICOPTER—

Fly-In dubbed big success

By RUTH HAMMOND

Carrizozo's second annual Fly-In was a success with more than 100 people from out of town arriving in 44 airplanes and one helicopter for the event held Saturday. This was double the attendance last year when 23 airplanes came to Carrizozo for the Fly-In.

Planes began arriving before 7 a.m. and were served fresh cooked donuts and coffee. Dale Goad kept busy frying donuts all morning for pilots and their friends and families.

Among the activities were skywriting by Bill Owens of Roswell in his Super Cub. Owens wrote "Right On! Zozo!" far above the few clouds. Maurice Morgan of Alamogordo flew in his VP2, a single seater Volks Plane-2 plane, changed to a single seat. Charles Fink of Albuquerque arrived in a Tennie Two, which was first shown in Popular Mechanics in 1962.

Holloman Air Force Base had a demonstration on dry land survival tactics. The display showed shelters that can be built, a solar still for providing water, survival gear, traps, and snares. The information is the same that is given to pilots in the Life Support Shop. Members of the 479th Tactical Training Wing arrived in Carrizozo on Friday to get an early start on the display Saturday morning.

Cutter Flying Service Inc. of Albuquerque brought their parts van. Cutter sells aircraft parts all

MISS WAYNETTE LINDSEY of Corona will be competing in the Miss Teen of New Mexico Pageant in Grants this month.

Waynette Lindsey in Teen Pageant

By L. CALDWELL

Miss Waynette Lindsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lindsey, has been selected as a candidate in the 1985 Miss Teen of New Mexico Pageant to be held in Grants July 26-28. Winner of the event will receive a $1000 scholarship to the college of her choice and an all-expense paid trip to the National Pageant where a $15,000 scholarship will be awarded to the winner.

As a candidate, Miss Lindsey will be required to participate in a fundraising activity for the American Cancer Society, the chosen charity of the New Mexico Pageant. During actual competition in July, candidates will be judged in six categories: personality (as determined by judge's interview); personal development of talents, hobbies, and interests; service and achievement to school and community; general awareness of current events (including politics, fashion, sports, literature); scholastic achievement; and poise and appearance in formal wear.

Miss Lindsey qualified as a candidate based on her academic achievements, participation in school and community activities, and personal appearance. She is a junior at Corona High School where she is a cheerleader, incoming Student Body President, a member of National Honor Society and the annual staff. As an avid basketball player, she was chosen co-Most Valuable Player of the Corona girls team and was selected for the All-District basketball team. She was State Champion in the High School Shoot-Out Competition sponsored by Sports Outlook magazine. She was also Sophomore Class President and a homecoming attendant. Her hobbies include participating in rodeos.

Miss Lindsey sincerely appreciates the support provided by many friends and businesses in the area. Specific sponsors are First National Bank of Belen, United New Mexico Bank, Worley Mills Feed Store, Beta Sigma Phi, Corona Extension Club, Mr. and Mrs. Rogene Alford, Lindsey Cattle Company, Chuckwagon Cowbells, Mrs. Joe Atkinson, and many individual donors who filled money jars in Corona.

HELLO, REMEMBER ME?

Some people call me Old Glory, others call me the Star Spangled Banner, but whatever they call me, I am your Flag, the Flag of the United States of America. . . . Something has been bothering me, so I thought I might talk it over with you. . . because it is about you and me. . . . I remember some time ago people lined up on both sides of the street to watch the parade and naturally I was leading every parade, proudly waving in the breeze, when your daddy saw me coming, he immediately removed his hat and placed it against his left shoulder so that the hand was directly over his heart. . . remember? And you, I remember you. Standing there straight as a soldier. You didn't have a hat, but you were giving the right salute. Remember little sister? Not to be outdone, she was saluting the same as you with her right hand over her heart. . . remember? What happened? I'm still the same old flag. Oh, I have a few more Stars since you were a boy. A lot more blood has been shed since those parades of long ago. . . .

But now I don't feel as proud as I used to. When I come down your street you just stand there with your hands in your pockets and I may get a small glance and then you look away. Then I see the children running around and shouting. . . they don't seem to know who I am. . . I saw one man take his hat off then look around, he didn't see anybody else with theirs off so he quickly put his back on. . . . Is it a sin to be patriotic anymore? Have you forgotten what I stand for and where I've been? . . . Anzio, Guadalcanal, Korea and now Vietnam. Take a look at the Memorial Honor Rolls sometimes, of those who never came back to keep this Republic free. . . One Nation Under God. . . when you salute me, you are actually saluting them. Well, it won't be long until I'll be coming down your street again. So, when you see me, stand straight, place your right hand over your heart. . . and I'll salute you, by waving back. . . and I'll know that. . . . YOU REMEMBERED!

FLY-IN WINNERS. From left, Helmo Trathnigg, pilot, and Steve Anderson, bombardier, both from Farmington, won the flour bombing contest in a Condor; Lee Roy Zamora won the kids contests with wooden airplanes, the longest distance and the longest time in flight, and Bill Owens and his daughter Candice, Roswell, won the spot landing contest in a Super Cub.

WIC nutrition program is available

The New Mexico Health and Environment Department announces it can provide nutrition education and supplemental foods for an additional number of clients for Lincoln County through the WIC Nutrition Program.

The WIC Program is a nutritional program for women, infants and children designed specifically to prevent poor outcomes in pregnancy and to improve growth and development in infants and children. There are currently openings for pregnant women, breastfeeding women, infants and children to the age of 3 years.

If you think you might be eligible for the WIC Nutrition Program, please call Barbara at the Carrizozo Health Office at 648-2412.

Open house at White Sands

WHITE SANDS MISSILE RANGE, NM — The missile range is having an Open House on July 4 and all area residents are invited. The celebration is being held to commemorate the country's birthday and the 40th anniversary of the founding of White Sands. The day will feature military equipment displays, live music, antique aircraft, food and drink, the opening of the range's first launch complex, free swimming and fireworks.

Most of the day's activities will center around Volunteer Park, the missile range's picnic ground and camping area. The day opens there when the military equipment displays and food and beverage booths open at 11 a.m. The equipment on display includes: missiles such as the Lance, MLRS, Roland, HAWK, and the Navy Standard, a US M-1 tank and Russian T-62 tank; an M-109 howitzer, radar units, a mobile telescope and a TV van. The food includes hamburgers, hot dogs, soft drinks, snacks, ice cream and beer.

Fly-In . . .

Anderson was used to win the flour bombing contest with a hit 18 feet and 4 inches from the target. Trathnigg was also the winner of 50 gallons of fuel for coming the furthest distance to the Fly-In.

Skywriter Bill Owens and his daughter Candice took the plaque for the spot landing contest. Owens said this was his first win. He landed 14 feet from the spot in his yellow Super Cub.

There were 14 planes from Albuquerque, nine from El Paso, four from Alamogordo, three from Roswell, two each from Santa Fe, Socorro, and HAFB, and one from Austin, Elephant Butte, Farmington, Belen, Ruidoso, Moriarty, Artesia, Corona, and Truth or Consequences.

Mame Carl, wife of Airport Manager Mel Carl, said, "The Fly-In was a great success. I like the people being here." She also said, "A special thanks to everybody that helped with door prizes and work and food."

A barbecue lunch was served to the pilots, their friends and families and door prizes were awarded before the day ended.

LINCOLN TOWN RAMBLINGS
by ROSALIE DUNLAP

It is that time of year again. Lincolmites and area residents are thinking 'Billy the Kid' Pageant. So anyone interested in participating call me at 663-4047 or Becky Angel. Becky will be our director this year.

The Tunstall Store and Wortley Hotel renovations, etc. are about finished. The Tunstall Store will be reopened soon and hopefully the Wortley Hotel.

Next is the restoration of the courthouse, which will begin soon. Our sympathies go to the families of Hazel English and Mattie West.

Things are beginning to be normal again at the Dunlap household. Ralph is beginning to feel like his old self and I'm recuperating fine from emergency gall bladder surgery.

Jerry Thompson is busy stabilizing Jim Ramsey's old home. He is also fixing up the small building on the front of his property to be used as a small shop.

Horace Cordova has opened up a convenience store in his little shop. What a welcome addition!

The Dunlaps hope to have their shop "La Placita" open soon.

Dr. Wood's home is open again this year, thanks to volunteers from Ancho, Capitan, and locally. One of the most interesting days is Monday when you can enjoy the spinning and weaving demonstrations. Dr. Woods' home is open Thursday thru Tues, 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Wayne Dunlap of North Easton, Ma. visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dunlap a few days last week. He was enroute to San Francisco on a business trip for Stone & Webster. Also visiting was Mrs. Chris McKinley of Portales, Mrs. Dunlap's mother. Sara Stark of Capitan has also been a frequent visitor.

Lincolmites Edward Penfield, Leota Pfingsten, Betty Shrecengost and Ralph Dunlap were among the judges for the Smokey Bear Stampede parade Saturday.

Friends, neighbors and family helped Frank Titsworth celebrate his 80th birthday

Saturday evening. Everyone had a good time visiting, renewing old friendships and enjoying the good food.

Our best get well wishes goes to Charlie Jones who got ill during the parade at Capitan and Billie Wiendorf who was also in the hospital recently.

Pat Ward and Betty Shrecengost have some beautiful century plants blooming.

Inside the Capitol

by FRED McCAFFREY

SANTA FE—Most legislators think it's a self-evident truth that teachers don't work enough. Most teachers think that belief is outrageously erroneous.

Both can't be right. What we have here is, at very least, a failure to communicate.

Unless some positive steps are taken to bridge this gap, the latter half of this year is going to see that misunderstanding turn into a real conflagration.

That's because of all the attention interim legislative committees are presently giving the state's educational system.

THE BUCKS: Whenever anyone these days speaks of education, you can be sure the major thrust of the conversation will not be what is taught or how it's taught. It will be dollars.

Partly, that's because national teachers' unions have so long and persistently emphasized the fact that increased excellence in education is solely and directly a function of increased salaries.

It's a gross oversimplification, but the teachers themselves have sold it so hard any discussion of the topic of educational improvements almost always gets boiled down to money.

Too bad, because lawmakers, and many an ordinary citizen, tend to resent that attitude.

RELATIVITY: But even if the debate rages only around this one topic, educators are going to have to listen to some things lawmakers will say. One of them has to do with the tendency to compare annual salaries of those who work only 40 weeks a year with those who work 50 weeks. At least some small gesture which indicates educators know the difference might be appreciated at this time.

At the level of higher education, what galls certain members of the Legislature, usually the "conservative" ones, involves paying salary to those who are not even present. That's how they see the system of sabbatical leaves, and they dislike it strongly.

"I don't get paid to loaf," some of them say, "so why should these folks?"

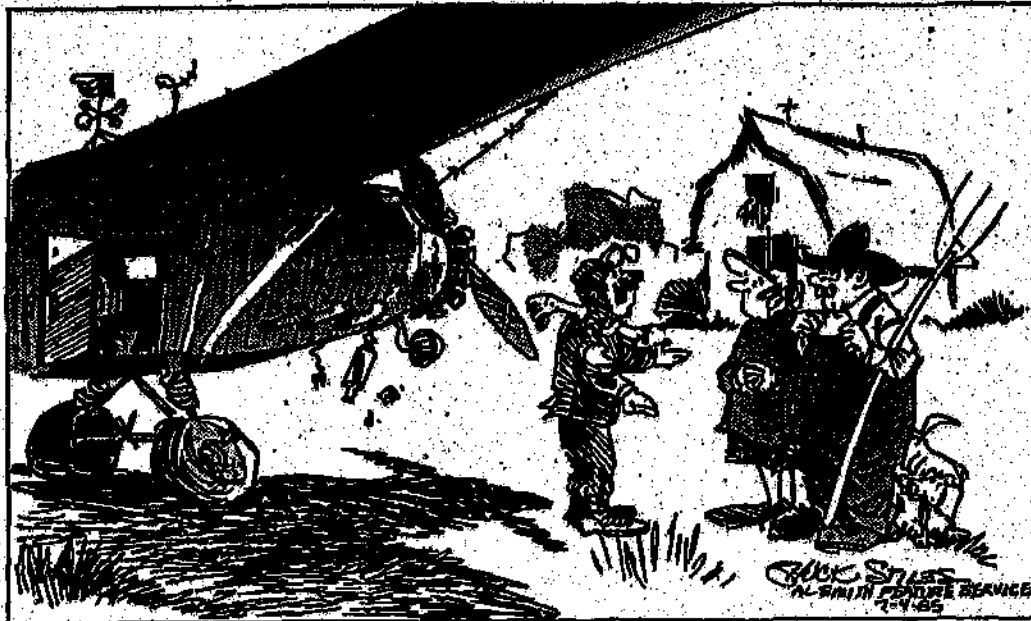

Some at the professional level, naturally enough, get huffy when such privileges are questioned. (A few of them get huffy if you question anything at all about them and what they do.) Nevertheless, the professorial class should prepare their souls to provide answers to such questions, even though they come from Philistines and barbarians who have not achieved the doctoral level.

ASSEMBLIES: There will be meeting after meeting on just such topics during the nether half of 1985. The committees of lawmakers even intend to take the show on the road in an effort to invite what is called "input" from citizens all over the state.

One thing such gatherings will almost surely prove is that the cause of educators, on these and other points, is neither understood thoroughly nor appreciated by those who might be said to be their ultimate employers.

On the basis of what has so far taken place, it doesn't look like educators will do themselves much good in that regard.

Instead, at these meetings so far, they talk and talk and talk, and say almost nothing.

Watch Over Washington

by LES KINSOLVING

What has caused America's current harvest of traitors?

WASHINGTON—"I thought the CIA was the enemy," declared Christopher Boyce to an ABC News camera inside Marion Federal Penitentiary, the "New Alcatraz" in Illinois. Boyce, a former California altar boy, is serving 40 years for espionage, having sold out this country as a spy for the KGB. But Hollywood recently made him and his accomplice virtual heroes.

"I thought the CIA was the enemy," declared Boyce, who also explained: "I was 21 years old, and I was so foolish. I thought that the CIA was the enemy, and I thought I would be able to manipulate the KGB into punishing what I thought was the enemy, the CIA."

Let us ask a rhetorical question: How did young Boyce ever get the impression that the Central Intelligence Agency of his own country is the enemy? Is it possible he went to the movies?

Why, yes indeed. Most young people go to the movies. And in recent years, how many times has Hollywood ever portrayed an American CIA agent as a hero instead of a heel? And is it purely coincidental that in the last 10 years, 38 Americans have been charged with espionage? As Admiral Bobby Inman, the former director of the National Security Agency put it: "We must be one of the world's easiest targets." (And how the media and the movies help!)

New York Post columnist Dorothy Rabinowitz notes that the current rash of spies—especially the Walkers—has stumped such media oracles as Leslie Stahl of CBS and The Washington Post. Lovely Leslie, notes Rabinowitz, said she couldn't remember anything like this considerable number of spies when she was a little girl. Anyone who can remember that far back will probably remember that CBS was once on our side (the United States, that is.) But during the last three decades, have CBS and the rest of Big Media been as concerned and as diligent in exposing the KGB as they have in exposing—and usually maligning—our CIA? "I thought the CIA was the enemy," recalls traitor Christopher Boyce, who is not lacking in intelligence. And so the KGB obtained the services of this young American.

Is The Washington Post really surprised that the KGB is recruiting record numbers of young American traitors? The Post sends its staff to hundreds of newspapers across the United States—few of whom are aware of Admiral Inman's memorable question:

"How could the KGB possibly improve on what The Washington Post is doing to the United States government?"

Columnist Rabinowitz notes that our US security agencies have been made "the targets of unremitting loathing, not merely in what we know as the precincts of the Left, but in the mainstream culture—one that has seen any 'scandals' (such as they are) involving the CIA turn into the hottest of items on the nightly news, year in and year out... (along with) such scurrilous defamations of their government as (the movie) 'Missing'... This is the nation that has seen heroes made of people who betray classified documents like Daniel Ellsberg... And this is the country that saw Jane Fonda return from her travels to Hanoi—where she lent herself to the cause of the Viet Cong, with whom her countrymen were engaged in a bloody war—then resume, undisturbed, her place as a political role model, movie actress and, not least, merchant. This is the nation where radical organizations may publish the names and locations of intelligence agents—which in two instances resulted in the murder of the agents."

There is also, she notes, the incredible idea, nurtured by Big Media, that there is "a moral superiority attached to our fifth columnists of yesterday who were so honorable as to betray their country gratis."

Beside the effect of Hollywood and the Big Media, there is what Wyoming's Republican Senator Malcolm Wallop has noted, on the basis of his eight years as a member of the Senate Intelligence Committee:

"The problem that we have with espionage in this country is that ever since Sen. Church chaired the Intelligence Committee and took apart our intelligence apparatus at the beginning of the 70s, we have had

Letters TO THE EDITOR

EDITOR—According to Otto Scott in his new book The Other End of the Lifeboat the facts are that the Calvinist Government of South Africa is more Christian than any modern government including that of the United States. They have more ministers in their parliament than any other in the world. They teach Christianity in their schools. They are converting the blacks to Christianity. They have even resorted to deficit spending to improve the condition of the blacks.

The people of South Africa also have a situation to confront which we do not have in the US. The black people here, whom the South Africans would call "Coloured" were brought over by force as slaves. And, when they were finally released from slavery, they had no alternative except to try to join the majority culture. But the blacks in South Africa have cultures of their own. They have their own languages, their own history, their own customs. Therefore, they do not immediately have to join the white western culture.

The role of the white men in black Africa has been to keep the black tribes from killing each other. When the whites are removed as a governing factor, as in Rhodesia and Uganda, in Rwanda and Burundi, the massacres resume. The massacres have been underway and are underway in all of the rest of black-dominated Africa. These have been horrendous, genocidal massacres which are barely reported by our newspapers, most of the time not at all.

Apartheid has pretty well vanished on the petty level. For example, anyone can use the parks; all of the schools have mixtures of students; all the hotels accept mixtures of people; and the families you'd find in a McDonald's in South Africa are as varied as here.

COMMENTARY

This means war . . . !

WASHINGTON, VIRGINIA — En route from Athens to Rome, TWA Flight 847 is hijacked; a US sailor is beaten beyond recognition and shot in the head, and a planeload of Americans is held hostage... A bomb explodes at the crowded airport in Frankfurt, West Germany... In San Salvador, gunmen spray an outdoor cafe with bullets, killing four Marines and two American businessmen, among others...

A bomb, apparently intended to destroy a 747 in mid-air, explodes on the ground at the Tokyo International Airport 40 minutes after the plane lands... Less than an hour later, another 747 explodes; 329 people are killed in the third-worst air disaster ever. Baggage on both flights originated in Toronto.

Sometimes the victims are individuals, or small groups, whose only offense was (for example) to be American, or to be US Marines. Sometimes the victims are chosen seemingly at random, such as the passengers on the ill-fated 747. It doesn't really matter. The distinction between civilians and soldiers, blurred ever since Sherman's march to the sea, has nearly vanished. The conflict in which we are now engaged is without limits, and the protagonists recognize no one as an innocent.

Welcome to World War III.

We're not at war, you say? Tell that to the family of Robert Stethem, the Navy steelworker and diver, killed by the hijackers, who was awarded the Purple Heart posthumously. The Purple Heart is given to servicemen killed or wounded in the midst of armed hostilities—in the middle of a war, like this one.

So you thought the next world war would be fought with the atomic weapons that ended the last one? That we were at peace, and that we would stay at peace unless and until ICBMs drop from the skies to demolish civilization? If that's what you thought, maybe it's because that's what they wanted you to think.

"They" are the people who bankroll the terrorists, and provide them with weapons, and set up the training camps where assassins learn the dark arts of their profession. They run an international terrorist network with nerve centers in Tripoli, Libya; Tehran, Iran; Damascus, Syria; Beirut, Lebanon; and other cities around the globe.

They—the Soviets—have organized a complex conspiracy to eliminate democracy from the face of the earth. The Soviets have learned how to fight a war against the United States and its allies without getting their own hands dirty. By granting a significant amount of independence to the bombers, arsonists, and "revolutionary movements" they foster, the Soviets lose complete control over terrorist activity. But their main goal, the weakening of the "main enemy" (the US) and its allies, is accomplished nonetheless.

When President Reagan responds to terrorism by saying that "you can't just start shooting without having someone in your gun sights," their strategy is proven correct. Why should they send Russian boys to fight a war they can get Shiites to fight for them, when neither they nor their allies are held accountable for their actions?

The President says we cannot strike back at the terrorists because we don't know who the terrorists are. Which is true, in the sense that we don't know the names of the fellows who smuggled guns on board Flight 847 and we don't know the address of the man or woman who built the bomb that blew up the Indian jet.

But we know who is behind it. And we know the locations of many of the terrorist training camps, including some in the Middle East. Now, while the lessons of non-retaliation are fresh in the minds of the American people, is the time to strike at those camps and at the Soviet client governments who are their hosts.

When Jimmy Carter made the lives of the hostages in Iran the central concern of his Administration for months on end, he weakened his office and he weakened this country. Once the Iranians realized what a prize they held, they were far less likely to give it up. Nothing Carter could give them was sufficient to secure the release of the hostages, until the man then feared by terrorists around the world assumed the Presidency.

Enough of compassionate, peace-loving Reagan! It's time to take the old (so-called) "war-monger" Reagan out of mothballs. You remember: the fellow the Ayatollah Khomeini was scared of.

The President should set a definite date for an end of negotiations, and when the deadline is passed he should declare the hostages to be prisoners-of-war. At that point, as cold-blooded as it seems, he should proceed with military action.

The question will be asked: "Mr. President, would you do that if your son or brother were a hostage?" What difference should it make? In times of war, presidents make their decisions on the basis of what is good for the country, not what is good for 40 people or 400. If we allow the hostage-takers to win this one, the wave of terror will continue and intensify. Many, many more innocents will die in the hell to come.

Today we are playing the price for our past weakness. Politicians and commentators who have refused to recognize the Soviet connection and who favored negotiations with the likes of the Ayatollah Khomeini are, to a great degree, responsible for the latest hostage crisis.

Uncle Sam has been a negotiator and a peacemaker and a patsy for too long. It's time to let his enemies feel his terrible swift sword.

And maybe we should send in Marines, and let them do their job of protecting America and the cause of freedom from the Hells of Montezuma to— Surprise, Colonel Kaddafi!—the shores of Tripoli.

"Is it really one of the worst cases you've seen, or are you just saying that to make me feel better?"

Eldridge vs Dyson in match roping

On July 4, 1 p.m., at the Lincoln County Fairgrounds in Capitan, the Corriente Cowbells will sponsor the following events: Match roping between Grady Le Eldridge and Neil Dyson. Team roping open to Lincoln County residents - 3 head - $30 - progressive after 2 head. There will also be a barrel racing jackpot.

July 5 & 6 the New Mexico Junior Rodeo Association in conjunction with the Lincoln County 4-H people will put on three rodeos. These rodeos will be at 5 p.m. on Friday and 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Saturday. These are youth rodeos for 19 year olds and younger. All the action takes place at the fairgrounds in Capitan.

There are dances scheduled for the evenings of July 5 and 6 with music being furnished by Night Train from Tularosa.

This is the single fund raiser for the Lincoln County 4-H Council. The money is used for Washington Focus, state dues, district contests, awards banquet, and many other activities-throughout the year.

Other pertinent news: The Lincoln County Fair is scheduled for August 15-17. — The Eastern New Mexico State Fair will be August 31 - September 6. — The New Mexico State Fair is set for September 6 -22.

THREE CARRIZOZO ALUMNI registered Saturday for the weekend events for the 25th annual get-together. Alleen Lindamood, Barbara Jeanne Brannum and Ria Lee Sidwell are shown.

no counterintelligence capability whatever."

On June 11, The New York Times previewed a Public Broadcasting Program called "The Military and the Media: The Correspondent Under Fire." Times writer John Corry noted that Morley Safer of CBS "dramatized the problem" when, despite no previous mention of Vietnam by any of the panelists, he burst out: "Vietnam, Vietnam, Vietnam! Vietnam was lost by a gang of subversive reporters."

Since Peter Braestrup's 52Big Story details how Big US Media completely distorted the Tet Offensive, turning a US-South Vietnam victory into a disaster; and since North Vietnam's General Giap has paid tribute to the effect of the media in helping him invade and conquer South Vietnam, we called CBS in New York to congratulate Safer for this public confession.

But Safer was "out of the country" and "I am not at liberty to say where" said one of his aides. She went on to denounce John Corry of The Times for what she claimed is a "slanted article." She also suggested that we should consider what Morley meant, rather than what he actually said.

The first segment of this three-part Public Broadcasting series revealed exactly why Gen. Maxwell Taylor is deeply concerned about media in combat. Never again, he wrote, should we ever allow TV cameras on the battlefield. For American TV correspondents, editors and anchors revealed just how much they want to film dead American soldiers; how much they want to film wounded Marines while they are screaming in pain. They also revealed that they would want to film a civilian woman as she is shot when she runs at a Marine position (on the day after another woman approached the position with dynamite strapped to her body.) They would also want to film civilians as they are shot because they are keeping a helicopter from taking off in an emergency evacuation.

"It makes great footage!" explained one of these TV ghouls. Thank God we kept this type of media off Grenada until we could protect American dead and wounded from being exploited for the obscene profits of the vast wasteland of American television.

Students Against Driving Drunk at Ruidoso High School have adopted that phrase as their theme to warn others to stay sober if they drive.

Christie Douglas, president of the Ruidoso chapter of SADD, and Gerald Ames, faculty adviser, brought the group's message to the Federated Republican Women of Lincoln County meeting June 25.

Douglas said that recent statistics show that the greatest decrease of deaths due to drunk driving is in the high school age group and attributes that fact to SADD activities. She said that she became involved in the group because of the death of a 17-year-old friend, killed by a drunk driver.

"We do not fight drinking," Ames said, "because we cannot win — we fight drinking and driving." He announced that the SADD group hopes to host an area convention next year in Ruidoso, so members will be calling on other groups for support.

Sales of bumper stickers and key rings are the major source of funds for the group, Ames said. He added that the SADD organization is one of the largest at the high school, having grown from a membership of 20 in the 1983-84 school year to approximately 300 this past year. He also brought a copy of the agreement that students and parents may sign to insure safe passage home for those students who may drink.

Other business conducted at the FRWLC meeting included a presentation by Judy Nakamura, voter registration chairperson for the New Mexico Republican Party. She stressed the need for Lincoln County Republicans to continue to work to register voters in order to maintain the lead in voter registration in the county. It was recently announced that Lincoln County is the first county in New Mexico to have more Republicans than Democrats registered to vote.

County Republican chairperson Pat Hume said that party officials have expressed a desire to attend a celebration of the voter registration majority. The date for the celebration was tentatively set for August 10, with further plans to be announced later.

Opal Mills, fundraising chairperson, told of projects the group has underway, and Nettie Hug presented the wreath that will be given to the winner of a drawing to be held Nov. 28.

HAZEL H. ENGLISH

Hazel H. English, 58, a resident of Carrizozo for 37 years died in Albuquerque Tuesday, June 25.

She is survived by her husband Fred English, of this home, a son Toby English, Albuquerque, and a daughter Patti L. English, Parral, Chile, and by her parents Emil and Esther Hermes, Lakewood, N.J. She was a Registered Nurse, and an employee of the New Mexico Department of Health and Social Services. She was Supervisor of the Lincoln County Health Department until her retirement.

Memorial Services were held Thursday, June 27 at 12 noon in the Chapel in the Garden of French Mortuary, 1111 University NE, with Father David Berg officiating.

Cremation has taken place at Sunset Memorial Park Crematory, 924 Menaul NE. The family requests memorial contributions be made to the American Cancer Society, 5800 Lomas Blvd. NE, Albuquerque, NM 87110.

Capitan News

by MARGARET RENCH

No moisture last week. Dry, windy and very hot. The nights are becoming quiet and sultry.

For the month of June 6,562 registered visited the Smokey Bear Museum and enjoyed the State Park. The 28th, 29th and 30th there were 912 registered thru that museum. That is great. On the 25th there was a bus tour of 20 from Crown Point Condo's in Ruidoso toured the park and museum with great enjoyment. We do love having people enjoy their visit here and they all are so interested and remark their love for our part of the country.

There were many people enjoying the 4th of July celebration and the Smokey Bear Stampede Rodeo which was held June 28-29. It is reported that the parade was the largest and best one ever. Thanks to Pappy Coons, the organizer. He did a good job with the assistance of Linda Fuchs and Linda Ponder. All of them truly worked hard and the success was worth it all. Thank you to the Chamber of Commerce and everyone who worked so diligently for that success.

The police, sherriff led the way with the Flag honor guard from the Holloman AFB following. Then, the Grand Lady Margaret Rench riding on the Muses' Chrysler New Yorker, driven by Millie Muse. The grand Marshall Jack Forrester looked good. His leggins in that parade are 50 years old and the Jariat he carried belonged to Bob Crosby just before he died. He so proudly carried out his part.

All of the floats and other entries were good. The results of the parade are:

Floats - 1st place was the Corriente Cowbells. 2nd - Smokey Bear Museum and Smokey Bear State Park. 3rd - Muse Paint. Honorable mention - B & L Pizza. Mounted Groups - 1st, Chaves County Pnsse. 2nd - Capitan Jr. Riding Club. 3rd - Lincoln County Fair Queen and Escort.

Antiques Cars - 1st, Mike Riska. 2nd - Shorty Carl and 3rd - Virgil Hall, Sr. Best Band - Capitan - trophy. Most Original - Pony and dog belonging to Juan Baca. Motorcycles - there were 50 cycles of the Christian Motor Cycle Association of America from Hatfield, AK. Consisting of 100 persons. A fine group. Best dressed cowgirl - Mindy Underwood. Best dressed cowboy - 1st - Richard Coons, Jr.; 2nd - Rusty Coons. Walking entry - 1st - M & W Rock Co. 2nd - Sam Boyd. Specials awards - Margaret Rench, Jack Forrester and the State Fair Queen. Special recognition - Flag Honor Guard from Holloman AFB and the Motor cycles (108 in the group.)

Before the parade there were 85 entries, it is reported in the 5th annual Smokey Bear Run sponsored by the "Happy Hoofers Running Club."

Cisco Bob of Mesalero ran the 10K in 30 minutes and 27 seconds and broke the old record.

The Capitan Chamber of Commerce hosted the "Arts & Crafts Fair" Saturday and Sunday, June 29-30 at the Dean Hardware Building. There were 32 booths in the fair exhibiting nice handmade items, jewelry and concession stands. Everyone enjoyed it very much.

"The Old Corrals and Sagebrush" Western Wear will open Saturday, July 6 with clothing and tack. They have remodeled the building inside and out and have done a good job. It looks nice and successful. Welcome to our circle. We do appreciate you.

C. W. and Betty Seago formerly of Deming, NM opened "The Seago Gift and Candies" at the Smokey Bear Restaurant last Thursday. We do welcome this new business and wish them worlds of success with us for many years to come.

Welcome Randy and Rose Ayhen and three children, two girls and one boy who recently purchased the Horton home and shop on First Street. They arrived two weeks ago and have their gift shop open. We wish them success and happiness with us.

Paul and Pat Slayton of the Escudilla Ranch (Blue Grass Bowl) who raise registered herefords have as guests for one month their grandchildren who are Michael and Audra of Farmington, NM, Jamie and Katherine from Odessa, TX, Heather and Sarah of Roswell Congratulations to Robyn Peralta. She is the new "Queen-in-Waiting" for Lincoln County. Robyn will travel with this years Lincoln County Queen, Kelly Zimmerman, to Albuquerque to see all that goes on at the State Fair Queen Contest in order for her to be ready to compete next year.

Don and Pat Whitaker of Tulsa, OK were visiting in Capitan over the last weekend. They came to the mountains to bring grandson, Robbie Rummels home from a two weeks vacation in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Burkett of Portales, NM and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hughes and two children of Dallas, TX were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wright last weekend.

Guests for a few days last weekend of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones were their children Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Jones and two children of Ft. Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Jones and four children of Artesia, NM and their daughter Becky, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baca and two children of Texas. This was a pleasure to me to see these children again. Becky had not been home for three years. It was my joy for a short time.

Ninety-seven year old Mattie Jones entered the Ruidoso Hospital Monday June 24, very ill though at this time she is doing very nicely. Just keep up the good work, dear little lady, and get well.

Charles Jones of the fair board became seriously ill June 29 and was taken to Roswell hospital and intensive care though at this time is out of that and doing okay. I wish him a good recovery and return home very soon, strong and well. This was disappointing to him as he is always at the rodeo and enjoys it all.

Mr. and Mrs. Corky McEuen and family enjoyed a week of camping last week. Report a grand time. They look forward to that each year.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Payne and three children enjoyed a three day camping trip in the Capitan last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Proctor and three children were guests of her sister Mrs. Olin Booher and family during the celebration.

Gertrude Ruesser is now making her home in Bloomfield, CN and is very happy there of which we are glad to learn.

Robyn Peralta, the Lincoln County Queen-in-Waiting, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isidro and Patsy Peralta.

Word has been received that C. W. Charles Haley, formerly of Capitan, at Haley Hill in the Gap passed away at his mine. He had moved from Carrizozo to the mine recently.

Hazel English passed away last week which I just learned. My desire is to tell her husband Fred and all of his family we all loved her too and will miss her. She was a great lady and loved by everyone. We do extend our sympathy to each of you.

Lorenza Trujillo and Jane Allred entertained the prayer group from St. John's Catholic Church of Roswell and the prayer group from St. Jude, San Patricio June 25 with an attendance of 25 people.

The present prayer group meet at Jane Allred home every Monday night at 7 p.m.

Margaret Rench had her 83rd birthday June 30. But there was two days of that. What a celebration. What a surprise June 29th after the parade when a big cake 4' x 4' with Happy Birthday arrived. It was baked, decorated, etc., by Millie Muse and her four daughters. They set tables up at the southeast corner of my yard. Friends and neighbors came and enjoyed cake, coffee and punch with me for that occasion. Many came but there were many who did not learn of it much to their disappointment.

I received a 12' x 4 1/2" card rolled on two little rollers with red and white ribbons with many, many names on it. How I am enjoying it. Flowers galore and a spray of pink carnations from Ruidoso for the parade and its cause. What a day. Then it continued Sunday in Ruidoso with gifts and ended with a dinner in my honor at K-Bobs'.

This is my tribute to my town of Capitan.

My home has been here since April 17, 1950. You were much smaller then but, I have grown with you and loved every one of you all thru the years and will always. My desire is to live here all of my life. My motto is "Live and Let Live", "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." I have been very happy here with you and truly still am. I love to watch you grow and love all of the new people too. We do have a fine community, have

Notes on nutrition

Question: How much fat should we consume each day? If it's so bad for us, shouldn't it be zero?

Answer: No. Too much fat IS harmful. It leads to heart and blood vessel disease, as well as certain forms of cancer. But SOME fat is necessary for survival. Each cell has to have some fat to function, and we do need to store some fat as a protection against famine. But the average American gets 43 percent of his calories from fat, and for health reasons that's too high. The American Heart Association recommends that no more than 20 to 30 percent of the day's calories come from fat. That's a healthful level. Below that doesn't seem to provide any protection from cardiovascular disease, and too little fat may be hazardous in itself. You may be very surprised at how gourmet and tasty meals are that contain 20 to 30 percent fat.

Question: We talked before about the fact that we need some fat in our diets. But you mentioned that too much fat can cause heart disease and cancer. How would too much fat lead to cancer?

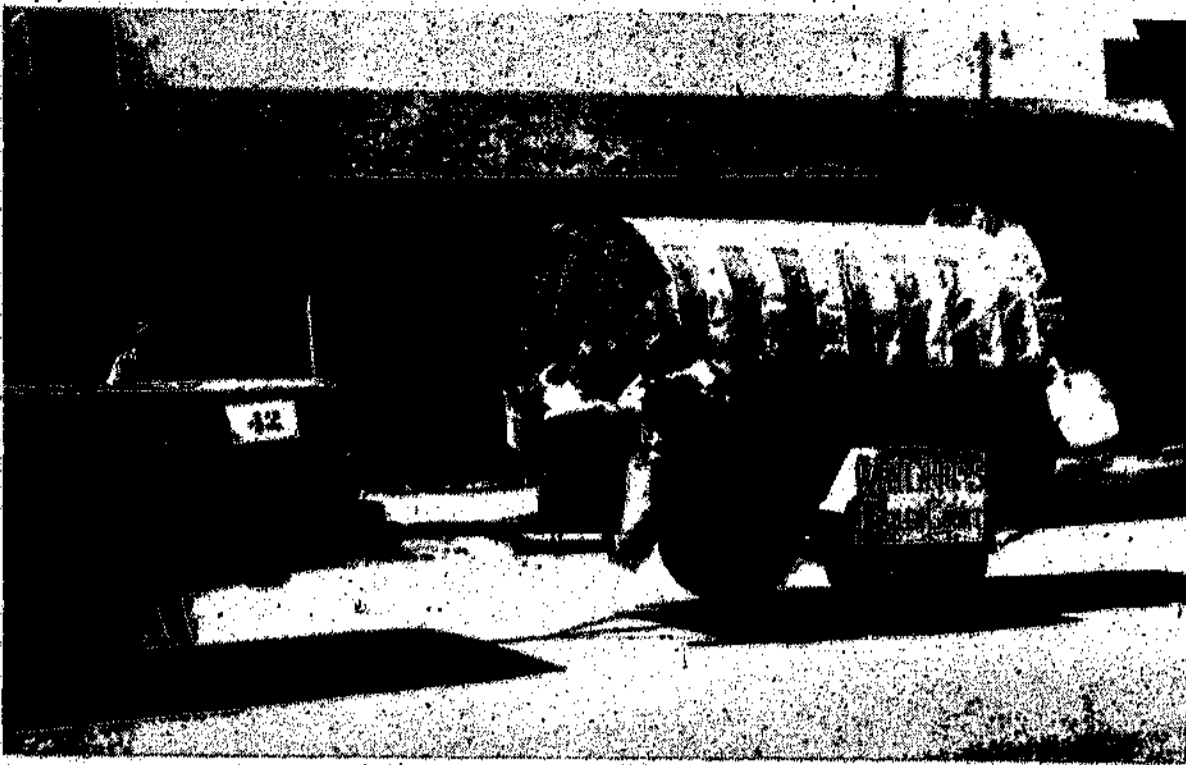

Answer: That's a good question. We're not absolutely positive of the exact mechanism, but fat appears to act in certain ways. Number one, it may be transformed in our intestine to a cancer-causing substance, known as carcinogen. And the more fat, the more carcinogens produced in the intestine—perhaps leading to cancer of the colon or rectum. Americans have a VERY HIGH incidence of gastrointestinal cancer, paralleling our high fat diet.

Another way is that high fat diets generally make fat people. Fat is very high in calories, which means that we get a lot of calories in a little volume of food. Most of us are volume eaters, so we keep going until our stomachs are full—but we've consumed too many calories. Fat people have fat, fat cells—which act as little hormone factories. Fat people, particularly fat women, are at a much higher risk of cancer of the reproductive organs—like the uterus, breast, and ovaries. The hormones made in the fat cells may cause too much stimulation of those organs—leading to cancer. Women who are overweight should seek assistance promptly to get that weight off.

EFFECTIVE JULY 1—

Drivers license now $10

SANTA FE — Judith M. Espinosa, Secretary of the New Mexico Transportation Department, announced today changes in the driver's license system which will become effective July 1, 1985.

Other changes in the driver licensing procedure will include the increase of the fee for a four-year license from $8.00 to $10.00 and the discontinuance of duplicate licenses. Starting July 1, if a driver loses his driver's license he will no longer be issued a duplicate license which would expire at the same time as the license he lost, but rather he will receive another four-year license at a cost of $10.00. The new driver's license fees will standardize fees for all classes of licenses and cut down on department costs as mandated by legislative action.

Effective July 1st, the Motor Vehicle Division will issue identification cards to children age thirteen or older as provided by amended legislation passed during the 1985 Legislative Session. The identification card will contain pertinent physical information as well as a color picture of the child. The fee for the card will be $5.00

CORONA CHEERLEADERS Waynette Lindsey, Beverly Bell, and Roe Anne Alford display their winnings after the annual cheerleading camp they attended recently.

Corona cheerleaders bring back trophy from camp

By L. CALDWELL

Corona cheerleaders recently returned home after receiving a trophy for Superior Performance throughout their week of attendance at cheerleading camp in Albuquerque. Senior Roe Anne Alford and juniors Waynette Lindsey and Beverly Bell also received the Spirit Stick recognizing their outstanding enthusiasm on Thursday and Friday.

The camp, sponsored by United Spirit Association, New Mexico Cheerleading Association and New Mexico Activities Association, offered cheerleaders from around the state the opportunity to learn new cheers, polish their cheerleading techniques, and observe and-or learn cheerastics. Outstanding cheerleaders from colleges throughout the US led the groups through an exhausting schedule which began at 8 a.m. and ended at 8 p.m. each day.

Corona cheerleader sponsor

Mrs. Melvin (Kay) Sultemeier accompanied the girls to the Albuquerque camp. She attended special sessions for sponsors which included idea exchanges and injury care and prevention.

MUSE PAINT—This was selected 3rd place float.

Dr. Jain says

Irritable or spastic colon or colitis are synonymous terms describing the inflammation of the colon. The symptoms may be as follows:

- 1.) Lack of appetite.
- 2.) Nausea or vomiting.
- 3.) Right or left lower abdominal pain.
- 4.) Constipation or diarrhea - alternating usually.

5.) Abdominal distension.
6.) Large amount of gas.
7.) Mucos and/or blood in bowel movement.

The problem tends to be long lasting. Generally it was considered to be related to emotional problems. In the past the treatment prescribed was -

- 1.) Soft diet.
- 2.) Antispasmodics for pain.
- 3.) Antidiarrhea medication as needed.

Now it appears that this problem may be related to allergies. It is a fairly common experience for the problem to get worse in the spring and fall seasons. Many people have also known their colitis to flare up at the same time as their sinuses and asthma. Allergies involved may be -

- 1.) Food.
- 2.) Inhalants (house dust, molds and pollens)
- Miscellaneous ideas.

1.) Vitamin C - taken in large amounts - e.g. 4 grams/day or more may act as a moderate antihistamine and may relieve some of the allergy symptoms.

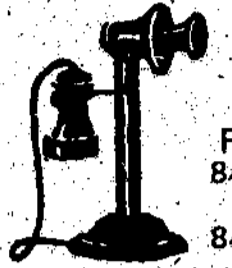

2.) Intense dislike for a certain food may be suggestive of allergy to that food.

3.) Good source of fibre besides bran are whole wheat bread, potato peelings, carrots, spinach and sweet potatoes.

4.) Eggs and bacon-sausage - the traditional breakfast is high both in cholesterol and saturated fats. Replacing it with Tofu may provide a good source of protein without most of the fats and cholesterol problem.

Lincoln Museum awarded $23,688

WASHINGTON, DC — The Institute of Museum Services has awarded a total of $144,850 to museums in the State of New Mexico, the New Mexico Congressional Delegation announced today.

The awards are for general operating support of the museums' efforts to conserve the nation's historic, scientific, and cultural heritage, to maintain and expand their educational role, and to ease the financial burden borne by museums as a result of their increasing use by the public.

The beneficiaries of the awards in New Mexico were: Harwood Foundation, Taos, $16,532.00; LINCOLN COUNTY HERITAGE TRUST, LINCOLN, $23,688.00; Millicent Rogers Museum, Inc., Taos, $35,708.00; Palace of the Governors, Santa Fe, $50,000.00; and University Art Museum, University of New Mexico, Albuquerque $18,922.00.

"Our museums are a precious part of our education and we are pleased to learn that these New Mexico museums were recipients of this highly competitive award," the Members said in a joint statement.

The Members of the New Mexico Delegation are: Sen. Pete V. Domenici (R-NM) and Jeff Bingaman (D-NM), Representatives Manuel Lujan, Jr. (R-NM), Joe Skeen (R-NM) and Bill Richardson (D-NM).

QUEEN CANDIDATES—Capitan 11th grader Robyn Peralta was chosen Lincoln County Fair Queen-in-Waiting June 28 in Capitan. Kelly Simmerman is the new Lincoln County Fair Queen. l. to r., Robyn Peralta, Merry Sue Hogan, and Nicki Ponder.

BREAKS RECORD—Cisco Bob of Mescalero broke the old record for 10K last Saturday in Capitan. Cisco's time was 30:27.

'Lincoln County Long Ago'

By RUTH HAMMOND
Lincoln County Leader, Devoted to the Best Interests of Lincoln County and the Development of Its Resources; White Oaks, Lincoln County, NM. Saturday, Jan. 11, 1890
Young Men Remember:
That clothes don't make man.
That if they once get in debt they may never get out of it.
That parting the hair in the middle bring on softening of the brain.
That to deal honorably with all men, the begin with their washerwoman.
That they need something more substantial than cigars, kid gloves and a cane to start housekeeping with.
That they can't reckon on their father's fortune to bring them thro' life. Fortunes are slippery things.

That a girl who decks herself in the latest things out and parades in the street while her mother does the washing, isn't worth wasting much love on.
An editor, who is evidently having a "hard row to hoe," muses thusly: "Lives of poor men often remind us, honest toil doesn't have a chance; more we work we leave behind us bigger patches on our pants. On our pants, once new and glossy, now are patches of different hue, all because subscribers linger, and will not pay us what is due. Then let them all be up and doing; send un your mite, be it e'er so small, or when snow or winter strikes us, we shall have no pants at all.

Some men try advertising as an Indian tries feathers. He took one feather, laid it on a board, and slept on it all night. In the morning he remarked: "Whiteman say feathers heap soft; whiteman darn fool." Some business (?) men invest a quarter or fifty cents in an advertisement, and then because they do not at once realize a great increase in business they declare advertising does not pay.
Saturday, Feb. 1, 1890
The man who went out to milk and sat down on a boulder in the middle of the pasture and waited for the cow to back up to him, was the eldest brother of the man who kept store and did not advertise, because he reasoned that his purchasing public would back up to his place when it wanted something.
Saturday, Feb. 15, 1890
S. A. McClellan and family left, bag and baggage, last Sunday, for Roswell, where they propose engaging in the bakery and confectionary trade. If they could read, the Leader would doubtless follow them to their new home. Inasmuch as they never did take it we naturally infer that they can't read. This will be unwelcome news of some of the Roswell people as it will imply that their new neighbors will not keep book accounts in their business.
Saturday, Feb. 22, 1890
Local Roundups: Potato races are again the rage in White Oaks.
Saturday, March 1, 1890
Subscribers to the Leader are cautioned against allowing their wives and daughters to use the paper for bustles as there is much due on it and they might catch cold.
Saturday, March 8, 1890
Advertising enables a business man to place his goods before the eyes of thousands who would otherwise never know of their existence or that of the owner.
Wish we could report death of the devil. He's a local.
Boring on or in the Jicarilla well was resumed this a week and the managers avow a determination to keep on until they strike water, China or hell.
