

LINCOLN COUNTY COMMISSION MEETS—

Commissioners hear airport report

By RUTH HAMMOND
Lincoln County Commissioners were given a report on the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport during their regular Oct. 1 meeting.

Fred Heckman, chairman of the Sierra Blanca Airport

Commission, said that commercial aircraft will be able to land at the new airport as early as November, 1986.

Heckman told of the progress since a study was made in the 1960's for a location for a new airport. The study was completed in 1968 with the recommendation that the Lincoln County Airport be located on Fort Stanton Mesa. The Sierra Blanca Airport Study Commission was formed in 1973 and completed the study to identify the need for a new regional airport in 1977.

An environmental impact statement sponsored by the Federal Aviation Administration was started in 1984. The EIS must be completed before a $12.5 million grant will be acted upon. Once this money is received, it will be used for engineering, design, etc. Heckman also explained the need for access roads to I-70, and highways 380 and 37.

In another matter, commissioners were given information from Ken Moore, administrator of the Ruidoso Hondo Valley Hospital. Moore said that there may be a need for a hospital bond issue to help build the new hospital on Gavilan Canyon. He did say that efforts would be made to raise the money through donations first.

In other business, bids were accepted. Artesia Fire for a slide in fire apparatus, Giffen Services Company of Albuquerque for a renewable one year contract for maintenance for heating and cooling system, and Radio Communications of Alamogordo for two-way radio communications maintenance, monthly contract. No bid was received for financing of two new fire trucks. This will be re-bid.

—A road review committee was appointed to consider the closing of part of county road A034 and a street in Angus. Appointed were Frankie Silva, George Beaudry, and Israel Miranda, with Bud Payne as alternate.

—A grant award from the Eastern New Mexico Area Agency on Aging was approved. The awards are for $4083 and $861 to be used by Zia Senior Citizen's Centers in Lincoln County.

—Variances were granted for the road width and cul-de-sac width in Eagle Creek Acres, Unit 2.

—Replat of Tract 24, Magado Creek Estates was approved.

—Plat of the SW $\frac{1}{4}$ , SW $\frac{1}{4}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$ , Section 4, Township 11 South, Range 13 East, was tabled.

—The final roads inspection report for Gavilan Canyon Subdivision was approved subject to correction on culverts and drainage and subject to snow removal on the cul-de-sacs by the subdivider in 1985-86.

—The Nogal Water Improvement Grant time extension request was approved. The grant is extended from June 21, 1985 through November 1, 1985.

—Resolution No. 74-19, the Fair Labor Standards Act was approved, with a no vote being cast by Commission Chairman Bill Elliott.

—Resolution 74-20 for emergency road repairs in Lincoln County using $88,900 from Chapter 15, Laws of 1985, for flood damages was approved.

—ASCS office space lease agreement was approved.

An executive session was held for litigation, purchasing and personnel.

SCHOOL STINKS

"School stinks." - That phrase aptly summarizes the opinions of seven students from high schools in two New Mexico towns. Between the ages of 15 and 18, all were old hands at 'ditching'. The 1974 truants said that boredom is the cause of missed school. (The names of the students have been changed.)

Their main complaint was "it's boring" because "you know everybody" and "you always do the same thing over and over."

Some of the courses are worthwhile, particularly art classes and the ones "you do things in," but for the most part complained Freddie "you do nothing but sit on your —"

So, instead of wasting time in school, these kids stay home and watch TV, go cruising, go to daytime parties or go fishing. Sometimes "you get stoned or drunk," Freddie explained. "Then you can be real calm," Alonso said laughing.

But boredom was not the only reason for ditching. The kids described school and the picture they drew was pretty grim.

"It's like a penitentiary," said Alonso. "With security guards with raised cans ready to spray you in the face with tear gas."

The security guards, he went on to explain, are mostly just out of high school. They think they're hot — but they just like to check out the girls and make trouble, he continued. They play cop with the dummy lights, and drive around like madmen, but they can't seem to keep troublemakers out.

"The teachers stink" said Henry, meaning literally - both in body attitudes toward the students and in body odor. Both factors are repulsive, making the teachers, at least some of them, unapproachable. "Besides, the teachers are hardly ever prepared for class", Maria explained.

"Teachers never do anything in class. They just shove the book at you and leave you while they sit and read the newspaper," was Freddie's contribution. The students said the teachers treat them with little respect as if it were the highest privilege to be able to sit in their classes. Besides, the teachers do not seem to really care about the students or their work, which they seem to do only for the money.

The students also said that in their frustration some teachers pick on students whom they do not like. Of course, the students realize their attitudes do not make it any better but, "students would treat teachers with respect if they treated us the same way," insisted Maria.

Other members of school staffs contribute to the general feeling of oppression the students experience. "The whole staff picks on you, from the teachers to janitors to principals to nurses," claimed Freddie. The principals and vice principal are unfair to people they don't like," he added.

Mr. — attacked a boy once. He can't keep his temper down," said Freddie of one of the principals in question. Of the nurses he said "they throw you out when you go to see them and they will not even take your temperature unless you grovel. They just sit there and mitote (gossip), and some people get to stay there even if they're not sick."

"This whole town is just politics," said Tina in disgust, and the rest of the students agreed. Even the coaches tend to pick people who "know the right people" for their teams.

There were many other problems with the school life mentioned by the seven. The food in the cafeterias was described as revolting, and the students gave examples of the horrors they were served. The cafeteria workers, they said take the better bits home and they (the students) get the leftovers. The lunch break was described as too short and the students expect daily indigestion from rushing at lunch. If there isn't a rush, there are always the fights, they added.

There are not enough activities to keep them occupied after school either, the students complained.

"All the money was spent on transporting players during the football season; now nobody can get transportation for other sports," said Tina.

The students did have some constructive suggestions to offer. Recreational facilities around town could use improvement. "Nothing to do in this town except ride around," said Alex. "They keep the movies for about a month and some of them were already on TV. Most of them are perverted, anyway."

The activities at school, sports and assemblies, for example, could be improved as well. Sometimes students want a break from the monotony of school life and perhaps trips of the educational variety could be arranged to places of local interest.

"School would be nice if they'd make some changes and all these things are the ones that need changing," Alonso declared.

LEARNING CENTERS

A school is defined as an institution devoted primarily to imparting knowledge or to developing certain skills or talents. The dissatisfied students mentioned in the preceding news item, who attended schools in northern New Mexico may have had problems at home. This may have contributed to their frustrations at school.

Their complaints include inefficient security guards, needed in large schools. The extra help is needed to patrol the campus, halls and restrooms, where illegal activity is known to happen.

ANTELOPE HUNTERS

Shirley and Bobby Whitlock, Hatch, were in this area to hunt antelope this past weekend. They stayed with Shirley's parents, Obie and Dorothy Simmons.

LINCOLN COUNTY RANGHWOMAN

Janice Gnatkowski, state achiever

By LINDA CALDWELL
Lincoln County ranch woman Janice Gnatkowski has been chosen State Achiever by Miss Teen of New Mexico Waynette Lindsey. Mrs. Gnatkowski's achievements will be featured during the Miss Teen of America Pageant to be held next week in Duluth, Minnesota.

Mrs. Gnatkowski raises sheep on her ranch east of Ancho at Jack's Peak. There she practices what she preaches: "Handmade is Better". She helps with the shearing, washes and cards the wool and sometimes dyes it with homemade dyes. She uses one of several spinning wheels in her son's Mel's collection to spin the wool into yarn for weaving or knitting.

Using wool from a sheep named Rachel, Janice fashioned a red knitted shawl and woven jacket with karakul collar for Miss Lindsey to model during her "Sheep to Shawl" presentation at the National Pageant.

According to Miss Lindsey, Mrs. Gnatkowski is a "Jack" of all trades and qualifies as an achiever in a multitude of endeavors.

One of those achievements was the origination of the Sheep to Shawl State Fair Booth. In 1971, when wool prices dropped to 15 cents a pound, Janice and husband "Gnat" felt the wool growers needed to push their product and educate the public concerning wool and its uses. With that goal in mind, the Gnatkowskis combined their efforts with other area ranchers Charles and Eleanor Jones and Beatie and Milt Jones to begin the Sheep to Shawl presentation at the State Fair. Together they agreed to send 90 sheep to the fair so that one could be sheared every hour, thus demonstrating the beginning of the Sheep to Shawl process. They enlisted the aid of the Las Aranas spinners and weavers society of Albuquerque, who agreed to show how the wool is processed and made into finished articles of clothing. Brochures and a shop offering all kinds products completed the Fair booth presentation. Although the original six organizers have retired, the Sheep to Shawl Booth continues to be an attraction at the State Fair.

Born the only child of Jim and Callie Hall, Janice spent her early life near Roswell. Her father and uncles owned the Buick and Chevrolet agencies in Roswell and Lovington, and as the Depression wore on, customers began to pay their bills with all sorts of critters. In order to accommodate the assorted livestock he had acquired, Jim Hall leased a ranch near Lovington, then one north of Roswell. "My mother worked so hard to get that place fixed up," remembers Janice, "and when she had it in tip-top shape, the owners came back and decided they wanted to move back. So we were evicted. It was then that the family bought and moved to the ranch east of Ancho.

"My mother was a good interior decorator," recalls Janice "but I really loved being with my dad. He taught me to do the men's work, and I would prefer doing those JOBS." As an only child, Janice had time to explore her natural talents and experiment with her creativity. "Anything I did, my mother praised," so Janice was constantly encouraged to try new things.

Mrs. Gnatkowski attended school in Carrizozo and Roswell and went to college at Texas Women's University in Denton. During the war, she met her husband at a Christmas dance in Roswell. "Gnat" was a flight engineer on B17's and his pilot just happened to be married to Janice's best friend. The meeting was to blossom into romance and the two married and settled into life on the ranch. As a newlywed, Janice built a horse trailer since the ranch needed one and there was no money to buy one. "Gnat made me promise NEVER to weld again," because everything ceased - "no housekeeping, no cooking, no anything got done except the horse trailer."

She also designed and supervised the building of their ranch house; it is constructed of materials from the old Hewett Bank Building at White Oaks. "My mother bought it, but she never had the money to do anything with it. We tore it down and hauled it out here piece by piece, and some of the stones weigh up to 500 pounds each." "We wished so hard for the house to be built that we finally made a balsam wood model." The model was set on the site and turned to make best use of the sun. The heavy, thick walls retain the heat in winter, and strategically placed windows and glass walls allow plenty of winter sun into the home - passive solar before its time. Construction did finally begin after what seemed an eternity, and Janice added touches to make the house uniquely hers. In the kitchen are ceramic wall tiles decorated with friend's favorite recipes; a "stained glass" window made from colored glass bottles gathered by 4-H'ers arches over a door; handcarved doors made from truck decking grace entries.

The Gnatkowski family

Janice, "Gnat", sons Mel and Pete moved into the house on August 27, 1966. But with the building project completed, Janice didn't sit down to rest. Instead, she expanded her creative talent into new areas. She makes gold and silver jewelry, refurbishes antiques, writes and is an artist. She authored "When the Sheep Walk Away" based on actual events, and hand-bound the hand-written and illustrated pages, then gave the finished book to granddaughter Callie for Christmas. She also made a wooden horse swing and airplane wind indicator for grandson John Pete. Janice Gnatkowski is indeed an achiever, but one tempered with modesty. When asked to list her accomplishments, she paused in thought, then finally answered, "Just remember me kindly."

STATE ACHIEVER Janice Gnatkowski created the wool knitted shawl and woven jacket which Miss Teen of New Mexico, Waynette Lindsey, will model as part of competition during the Miss Teen of America Pageant next week.

JANICE GNATKOWSKI at her spinning wheel. The Lincoln County ranchwoman raises the sheep, actively participates in the shearing, cleans, and cards the wool, spins it into yarn, and creates fashionable items of clothing.

OPINION

Ernest V. Joiner

THE California Legislature has adjourned. You can uncross your legs now.

I AM disappointed in such NOW stalwarts as Eleanor Smeal, Judy Goldsmith, Gloria Steinam, Bella Abzug and their women's liberation followers. When a TWA airliner was recently hijacked from Athens to Beirut, all of them remained silent when chauvinist highjackers released the women and children, keeping only the men as hostages. This is a blatant case of sex discrimination, and the NOW folks should have been the first to demand that men and women should be equally highjacked and equally held as hostages.

NOW that the US Congress and the Reagan Administration have declared holy and moral war on the government of South Africa, it is too late to remind these relentless moral guardians that the 10 tribes of South Africa's blacks have the highest standard of living of all other blacks in Africa; that more than a half million blacks from other African nations illegally enter South Africa each year to gain a better life in spite of apartheid policies; that their wages in South Africa are more than 300 percent higher than those paid in any other African nation; and that these South African "oppressed" blacks own more cars than exist in the entire Soviet Union. But our morals were not offended when a young South African woman, active in the anti-apartheid movement, was recently accused of being a police informer. So a black mob attacked her, beat, kicked and stripped her of her clothing. The mobsters placed a large rock on her body. Gasoline was poured over her and ignited. As she writhed in agony the mob chanted and danced, tribal style. Such are the people we find ready for "equality" in all matters.

THE US appears indifferent to the fact that the militant African National Congress (to which Bishop Tutu owes some allegiance) is a Soviet-sponsored organization created to pull down the South African government and bring it into the Soviet system. So great is the Soviet influence among South African radicals that the Soviet flag is openly carried in anti-government demonstrations. In a rally against the government on July 20, clergymen marched openly under the Soviet flag at a demonstration touched off by the funeral of four anti-government activists. South African TV and the press carried pictures of the clergymen and revolutionary leaders displaying the Soviet flag, and marching under that banner. But no pictures of this incident appeared in the American media—and no stories about the Soviet involvement. What we have here, it appears, is that the United States, through its sanctions, is joining with the Soviet Union (an unfriendly country) to topple the South African government (a friend of the US) to support the ANC (a Soviet tool) to end racial segregation (which we applaud) and at the same time put that country under a surrogate government backed by the Soviets (whom we do not applaud). If you figure out why the US is wearing all these different hats, please advise.

JESSE Jackson, an over-rated sitcom cop who is a friend of Fidel Castro, the PLO and Muslim leader Louis Farrakhan, is always guaranteed a platform no matter how foolish his topic. In San Francisco recently, between his shouts of "We are the world, we are the world," he made this startling allegation: "How can you have all these Asians in San Francisco and not one of them represented in downtown politics? How can you have a million and a half Hispanics in Los Angeles and not one of them on the city council?" Let's clear it up for the reverend. First, it could be because these people don't vote. Second, it could be because they don't vote often enough. Third, it could be because none of them run for office. Fourth, perhaps some run for office but don't get elected. But how do you explain all this to a demagogue struggling to keep his name before the public?

MY-Aren't-We-Getting-Touchy Dept. Gary Pearl, a former Louisville, KY city sanitation supervisor, claims to have had a nervous breakdown brought on by the stress of working with blacks. A sympathetic judge ruled that Pearl should receive $231 in weekly disability payments because of his fear of working with black people. Poor dear. But in Santa Rosa, the NAACP is gnashing its teeth and muttering "lawsuit" because a high school football coach described Marvin Williams of the San Diego Chargers in racist terms. Coach Paul Quesinberry had coached Williams at Santa Rosa High, and recalled he (Williams) as a "big kid with huge hands and feet. Kind of like a puppy dog. A nice young man." Instead of accepting the compliment, Williams' sister Loretta and the NAACP yowl that the "puppy dog" reference "characterized my brother as an animal." Aw, come on. We honkies have a standard term for characterizing people as animals, and puppy dog ain't it. Finally, in this era of super-sensitive emotions, a fraternity house in Berkeley (racists? In Berkeley?) threw a "South of the Border" party where guests entered under barbed wire and a banner that read "Immigration." Hispanic brethren are furious, and a full-scale investigation of racist dogs on campus is in progress. Bertrand Russell must have had all these folks in mind when he said that "the degree of one's emotion varies inversely with one's knowledge of the facts—the less you know the hotter you get."

IT has been discovered that two exclusive country clubs in Oakland do not have any black members. Sequoyah's membership fee is $10,000 for its 365 members; Claremont's fee is $15,000 for 750 members. Neither club has a policy of not admitting blacks for membership. No matter. Hell must be raised, heads must fall, and the republic must totter. Oakland Mayor Lionel Wilson is talking legal action. Tell you what, fellows. If you are black and want to join Sequoyah you go to the club secretary, fill out an application, and tender a check for $10,000. If you prefer Claremont, you apply and write a check for $15,000. If you are turned down because you are black, then you can burn the club houses down, for which you will be forgiven.

THERE has come the idea that if research money (for AIDS is not forthcoming at a certain level by a certain date, that all gay males should give blood... whatever action is required to get national attention is valid. If that includes blood terrorism, so be it." This item appeared in the May 20, 1983 issue of the Dallas (Tex.) Gay News. It reveals the outrageous extent militant sexual perverts will go in their crusade for sainthood, public acclaim, and a key to the public treasury.

FINALLY, a word of hope to anti-nuclear devotees. In 1139 A.D. the Vatican banned the crossbow as a weapon so deadly in war it could kill everybody on earth. Few warmongers took the Papal ban seriously; and, sure enough, everybody on earth was killed. Which is why you don't see anybody around these days.

Watch Over Washington

By LESTER KINSOLVING

Most expensive bureaucracy in world history: The U.N.

WASHINGTON — The US Senate is getting ready to consider US financing of the United Nations. The question is: Will it again seek to reduce the America's contribution? Last spring, by a vote of 73 to 23, it moved to cut US funding of the UN, which has what is very probably the most expensive bureaucracy in the history of the world.

The United States has been paying the UN more than $1 billion a year as its assessment for operating costs plus voluntary contributions for additional projects. This has constituted 25 percent of the UN's income — far more than the Soviet Union, which is millions of dollars in arrears and all the Arab OPEC nations.

Sen. Kassebaum noted that the UN costs had increased 273 percent between 1972 and 1982, due mainly to "bloated salaries." The term "bloated" is almost wallowing in understatement. For the UN's current operating budget of $1.7 billion has an incredible $1.2 billion — more than two-thirds — devoted to salaries and fringe benefits for its 12,052 employees. This averages a mind-boggling $106,000 per employee. Just how outrageously the UN had been spending its money paid (by more US taxpayers than any other nation) is illustrated by the case of UN Undersecretary Brian Urquhart.

Mr. Urquhart recently retired with a lump sum severance of $400,000, plus a tax-free pension of $50,000. Then he was re-hired as a "consultant" — at $50,000 a year, also tax-free. Poor Mr. Urquhart has to forego his $50,000 pension while he is paid his annual consultant's fee; but he has that nifty little $400,000 "one-third lump sum" pension payment.

The UN press release which attempted to explain and justify this financial atrocity is a thing of wonder. So are the verbal acrobatics in which the UN press office engaged when telephoned and asked about Brian's Bonanza.

At the US Department of State, as might be expected, there was opposition to what was so overwhelming supported by the US Senate and so many of President Reagan's fellow Republicans.

For Foggy Bottom took issue with Sen. Kassebaum's bill, which calls for a 20 percent reduction until (1) UN salaries are reduced to the level of the US Civil Service and (2) "weighted voting" — that is, if the US pays 25 percent of the operating cost of the UN, it should have 25 percent of the votes in that madhouse called the General Assembly on budget matters.

This, contends Foggy Bottom, is unfeasible and "even their desirability requires further examination." Moreover, according to the State Department bureaucrats who wrote this anti-Kassebaum statement, the Kansas Senator's bill, if passed by the House and signed by the President, would "place the US in violation of recognized treaty obligations and do severe damage to US participation in the UN system. This would have serious ramifications for relations with our allies; the US would be seen as destroying the global mechanism which much of the world believes is important for international peace and development."

Does President Reagan, who is supposed to be in charge of foreign policy and the State Department, really believe that the Gentle Lady from Kansas is a treaty-violating, UN-damaging, destroyer of global mechanisms for peace and development — as the State Department contends she and 70 other Senators are? Or was this one more example of the Department of State acting as an authority unto itself — and lobbying without either the knowledge or consent of the President?

At the US Mission to the UN, under superb Ambassadors Jeane Kirkpatrick and Vernon Walters, the US has been steadily speaking on behalf of economy in these bloated UN salaries. But when Sen. Kassebaum and 70 other Senators did something specific the State Department tried to sabotage their effort.

Sen. Kassebaum and the 70 other Senators ought to make it clear in considering the State Department appropriation bill, already approved by the House, that it resents such high-handed interference and, next time it happens, will spank Foggy Bottom.

Inside the Capitol

By FRED McCAFFREY

SANTA FE — Can anything go wrong in state government that McCaffrey doesn't blame on Toney Anaya?

Yes. Right at the moment, we have storm clouds gathering over the economy. That isn't Toney Anaya's fault. No matter who was in the governor's chair at the time, these things would happen, so would be clearly unfair to blame Anaya or anyone in his administration for the onset of these conditions.

What we may discuss, however, with some of this column's habitual blame-placing, is the matter of the response these facts have generated.

CAUSES: Here is how the Legislative Finance Committee sees the period just ahead, as summarized in an unusual statement that group recently distributed.

The LFC describes itself as "increasingly concerned about the revenue outlook for the upcoming fiscal year." It lists three causes for that worry:

—A general sluggishness in the state economy, with expectations of slight rises in unemployment and a flattening of the growth curve for personal income.

—Bleak outlook for sales of New Mexico-produced gas resulting from increased purchases of Canadian gas in the state's traditional market in California.

—And the effects of an expected OPEC price war, which will lower state revenues sharply by instituting lower oil prices.

The LFC says government should look at these things realistically and act accordingly.

That's not what's happening. REQUESTS: It should be clear that in a time of lowered expectation, state expenditures must decrease. That's fundamental economics, at a level where even Mr. Micawber could understand it.

Instead of reacting in that fashion, however, the individuals Governor Anaya has named to head state agencies have trooped before the LFC, one after another, and asked for more money.

And they aren't just pressing for a few bucks here and there; as of this writing, the average of what they want is 26.5 percent more than they are presently spending.

To meet their fancied needs, we would have to produce more than $344 million more next year than this. The exact point of the LFC warning is that we aren't likely to produce any more income, much less that amount; and we may in fact find ourselves with less.

Dan Lopez, who runs Anaya's Department of Finance and Administration, clearly understands what all this means; that's why he is running around nervous as a cat. He also appears to take the argument one step further, as the LFC has not yet done. That is the realization that we could well be in the hole by as much as $30 million if government just keep spending at its present level for another year.

So how come these agency people have not gotten that word? Traditionally, it is the governor's office that puts out the guidelines for next year's budget process. Why hasn't it done so now? Is Anaya so busy about other things that he doesn't have time to tell his people to lighten up?

Budgets which have nothing to do with reality are just as much trouble to put together as realistic ones. But they happen all the time, so no one should be required to spend time dealing with them.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

EDITOR—Forty years ago, Americans were told by their political leaders that the Red Chinese were merely "agrarian reformers." That lie led to diplomatic and material assistance for these "reformers," which enabled them to seize all of mainland China. A few years later, the Red Chinese became so reprehensible, according to opinion makers, that aiding them was rejected. Immediately the American people were told that the Soviet Union was mellowing. This lie led to the Eisenhower Administrations "bridge building" which opened the gates of a flood of American credit, technology and hardware to flow into Russia.

Once American aid had enabled the Soviets to achieve world-class military capabilities, the signals were again switched, and the USSR became the bad Communists while the Chinese were transformed to good. Defense Secretary Weinberger recently went so far as to refer to the Red Chinese as our "ally" and the Soviet Union as "our common enemy." Here we see still another lie that has been employed to usher in a program whereby the US government will do for Red China what it has already done for the Soviet Union.

The latest bad-guy image of the Soviet Union, coupled with the good-guy image of Red China, had barely taken hold when our political leaders resumed a new round of trade agreements with Moscow.

As for the so-called Sino-Soviet split, it has never been anything other than global playacting to benefit the goals of World Communism. It is time for this country to refuse to accept any version of this hoax, and to insist that our political leaders cease aiding both of these tyrannical regimes. Helping Communist regimes has always been morally wrong. What is morally wrong can never be politically, militarily or economically correct. Is asking our politicians to follow a moral course asking too much?

NOMINATIONS BEGIN FOR—

Mail ballot election

A list of the names of all known eligible persons to receive ballots in the upcoming annual ASC committee election is available in the county ASCS office, reports John W. Cooper, Chairman Lincoln County ASC Committee. Farmers will begin nominating candidates for the ASC election on October 3.

ASCs, an agency of the US Department of Agriculture, is responsible for farm program administration. On the local level, ASCS operates under a farmer-elected committee system. This year's elections will be by mail ballot between November 21 and December 2. Voters may also get ballots at the County ASCS office.

Anyone who meets the following requirements is eligible to vote in these farmer committee elections: any individual of legal voting age with an interest in a farm as owner, operator, tenant, or sharecropper who is eligible to participate in any ASCS program.

Several general provisions relate to ASCS voter eligibility. A wife who operates a farm with her husband can vote if her name is on the deed of conveyance. A spouse of an eligible voter is also eligible to vote.

A person may cast a ballot in any county in which he or she is an eligible ASC voter, but he or she cannot vote in more than one community in the county. If an eligible voter has separate farm interests in more than one community in the same county, special care will be taken to see that only one ballot is issued to that voter.

L.C. YOUTH EARN $8,000—

Job service news

ALBUQUERQUE—A total of 20 Lincoln County youth were hired in the Summer Youth Employment Program this summer, and earned a total of $8,000, the state Employment Security Department reported.

ESD Secretary Imogene Lindsay said the program hired youth between the ages of 14 and 21, placed them at job sites across the county and paid them the federal hourly minimum wage of $3.35 for 20 hours a week. She said the summer program ran for nine weeks.

"This is an important program because it introduces youth to the world of work, helps them earn money to continue their education, and also pumps money into the local economy," Ms. Lindsay said.

A total of 4,238 youth were hired in New Mexico this summer through the ESD program, and a total of $2.3 million in wages were paid to them, Lindsay said.

RED CROSS NEWSLETTER

Following are two letters, sent to Ann Landers, newspaper columnist. They and the answers by Miss Landers are both pertinent to Red Cross.

DEAR ANN LANDERS:

I would like to comment on the letter signed First Infantry, Fresno, California. The officer was giving advice to the young bride whose husband is in Vietnam. Her mother was dying of cancer and she needed to stay with her father, but she also needed her husband home.

He advised her to suggest that her husband apply for compassionate assignment, at a post near her parent's home.

I can't understand why an army officer would give that advice. How much better had he said, "Go to the American Red Cross."

When Woodrow Wilson was President of the United States he asked that the American Red Cross be set up as a liaison between servicemen in the field and their families. It has served in this capacity ever since.

The officer should have advised the young woman to contact her local American Red Cross. They would have assigned a Home Service worker to visit the mother and investigate the case thoroughly. A statement would have been requested from the mother's physician and possibly one from her clergyman. These verifications are essential.

The Red Cross would then have sent the information to Washington via teleprinter and the Army in Washington would have relayed it by wireless to Vietnam. The Red Cross can accomplish in minutes what it takes Congressman, Senators, and private citizens months to do. Hundreds of thousands of people will attest to the effectiveness of this great international organization. Dr. WLF

DEAR ANN LANDERS: This past year I have had three relatives in the hospital. I considered them all lucky to be alive, and not because they went in dangerously ill. They got really sick in the hospital. Everyone of these patients had successful surgery. The problem came with the blood transfusions. It seems the blood obtained through the hospital (at a terrible price, I might add) was tainted. I wonder what, if anything, can be done about this sort of negligence.

(Reply by Ann Landers: As for what can be done to protect a loved one against tainted blood dispensed in the hospitals, there's no simple answer. Sometimes the blood of friends or relatives can be used, but it must be the proper match. If the family can round up enough donors, this could eliminate the necessity of buying blood from the hospital.)

Paid donors are sometimes boozers or junkies who are desperate for a fast dollar. The chances of getting an infection from such a donor is of course, greater than from a relative or friend. And this is an appropriate time to urge my readers to support the American Red Cross Blood Donor Program. The more voluntary donors, the less need to buy blood from addicts who are the greatest hepatitis spreaders of all.

LETTERS AND OTHER GOOD WORDS—

DEPARTMENT OF FACTS

I was irritated by your kind words for the American Red Cross. As a veteran of World War II who served overseas for three years, I'd like you to know that the organization you praised was no favorite of the men and women in uniform. We had to pay the Red Cross for coffee, doughnuts, meals and overnight lodging while the Salvation Army supplied coffee, doughnuts and meals free.

So please, don't be so generous with your bouquets. Toss them only to the worthy, and preserve your credibility. + G. I. Joe of Long Ago.

DEAR JOE:

A blizzard of letters similar to yours hit my desk after that column appeared. I wrote to the top officials of the American Red Cross for an explanation and received an eye-popping response. It was documented by a copy of a letter dated March 20, 1942, from Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson, to Norman H. Davis, Chairman of the American Red Cross. HERE'S THE INSIDE STORY - AND PRETTY IT ISN'T.

All English and Australian men in uniform had to pay for off-base food and lodging because voluntary giving (which is characteristic of the United States) is not the pattern in other countries.

The Red Cross, which has never accepted a dime from the US government (AND TO THIS DAY RELIES TOTALLY ON VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS) was asked to establish club facilities for US servicemen overseas where troops from all allied forces would be welcome. The Salvation Army did not have this responsibility.

The British High Command then made an official request that US servicemen be required to pay for whatever they had received, just as their men had to pay. The Red Cross was adamantly opposed to this concept and protested vehemently. It lost the fight, however, when a "request" came from Secretary Stimson. His letter was tantamount to a command.

ALLEGATIONS HAVE PERSISTED SINCE WORLD WAR II THAT THE RED CROSS MADE A PROFIT OVERSEAS. NOTHING COULD BE FURTHER FROM THE TRUTH. The clubs operated at a loss and represented a heavy financial burden to the Red Cross. Moreover, the public image of the Red Cross was badly tarnished when it was forced by Stimson to go along with the British High Command.

NOTE: How unfair that this splendid organization has had to take the rap for a decision made by the United States Army. Today, 35 years later, the truth is known by only a few.

Tigers drop district game

By BARTLEY McDONOUGH
The Capitan Tigers traveled to Springer last Friday and lost to that District 2A team 26-22. Both teams now sport a 1-4 record.

The first quarter was a standoff. The roof caved in on the Tigers in the second quarter when Springer scored 4 times. Two of these tallies came as a result of steady drives downfield and two came by pass interceptions. Halftime score - Springer 26, Capitan 0.

The Tigers finally put something on the scoreboard in the 3rd quarter when quarterback Troy Padilla ran 15 yards on a straight roll out play for the TD. Padilla passed to Keller for the 2 point conversion. The score stood Springer 26, Capitan 8 at the end of the 3rd quarter.

Chris Peralta added another 6 points for the Tiger cause in the 4th quarter going over from the 2 yard line. This time Capitan added the 2 extra points on a pass play - Padilla to Shanks. The final Tiger score came late in the game on a 6 yard pass play - Padilla to Keller. The PAT was no good and the final score was now posted - Springer 26, Capitan 22.

Both teams were credited with 315 yards each total yardage. Capitan rolled up 23 first downs to Springer's 19.

The Dexter Demons, coming off a big win against Tucuman, will be in Capitan this Friday night to provide extra tough opposition for Capitan. The Tigers must be "up" for this one if they expect to win.

Corona halts Hondo

By LINDA CALDWELL

Corona halted Hondo in a lopsided 58-12 contest last Saturday. Hondo was able to return the opening kick-off for respectable field position and a TD two plays later, but that was to be their only offensive score. The other Eagle TD came on an interception. Wayne Turcotte & Robert Hernandez, both injured during the game, were examined and released. According to Hondo coach Jerry Peckinpah, both will be ready to see action in this week's game.

Corona coach G. Ray Johnson chose the offensive line as Cardinals of the Week. "Their blocking was outstanding, and several visitors and people from the community commented on how well the offensive line did their job. They played as a team and deserve to be recognized as a team."

Steve Copeland, Tommy Mulkey, and Travis Lightfoot contributed to the Corona win with touchdowns while Tony Romero, Shane Owen, and Tye Lightfoot capitalized on Hondo fumbles. Eighth graders Dan Bell and Tye Lightfoot both had a good day rushing with 40 and 15 yards respectively.

With 3:58 remaining in the third quarter, the game was declared over. Under six-man football rules, when a team is ahead by 45 or more points in the 2nd half, the game is called.

Corona meets Magdalena this Friday at 7:30 for their homecoming contest.

This area received two tenths of an inch of rain last week with a couple of nights of light frosts. Each day to date is much cooler and cloudy. It is refreshingly fresh and beautiful at this time.

The Smokey Bear Museum had 631 registered visitors last week. Seventy four motorcyclist enjoyed it Wednesday morning for the poker stop. The Smokey Bear postage stamp will be discontinued October 31. They are still available at the post office. Sunday there was a bus tour of 44 people who visited the museum and the Smokey Bear State Park.

The Capitan Band is marching in the Aspencade parade in Ruidoso Saturday, Oct. 5. We are very proud of them.

Don and Roma Eckland, Patsy Peralta and Donna Runnels loaded up in Ecklands' van and traveled to Springer to cheer on the Tiger football team in their game against the Springer Red Devils, Friday. The team and their cheering section stayed overnight in Las Vegas and went on to Springer the following morning.

Besides the forementioned people, Raymond and Addie Najjar and Bill and Gloria Wheeler also made the long trip to support the boys. The Tigers were a little lethargic the first half of the game and allowed the underated Red Devils to get ahead 26-0. But the Tigers came back fighting the second half and held the Springer team scoreless while they, the Tigers put 22 points on the scoreboard. If there would have been two more minutes on the clock, the Tigers probably could have overcome the deficit-but they just waited too long to play ball. The Tigers take on Dexter Friday night at Tiger Stadium. The 2A Dexter team will be tough, as always. So, get them Tigers.

The Tigerette Invitational Volleyball Tournament was a big success again this year. The Tigers were knocked out in the semi-final round by Socorro. Elida, the reigning champions, once more took home the crown by defeating Socorro in the championship game.

There were many, many, many motorcyclists in Ruidoso in the parade last Saturday. They were very precise and orderly and it was enjoyed by a large crowd. There were many beautiful machines. It most certainly is interesting.

Good news: Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Reynolds of Ruidoso have been waiting for six years. News came Wednesday at 12:00. They now have a one month old baby girl for them. New grandparents for this bundle of joy are Albert and Millie Muse and families. How beautiful this is. This little one be surrounded by love all of her life. A wonderful and beautiful family. May God bless them all with happiness galore.

Albert Muse and Chery and Bruce Mark and family went fishing at Navajo Lake last Thursday. The prize for the largest trout Sept. 28-29 was $1000.00. Hope Al comes home with the biggest.

Good report on the muzzle loaders hunters for deer on their kill. They ask if there is a cold storage place available for hanging their deer on these hot days.

Robert Runnels and a good antelope hunt in the Elida area. He had seven hunters with six of them getting bucks. The one who didn't take home an animal did, however, get a couple of shots at one.

Recently Robert Runnels had two successful bear hunts here and two bear were killed. He keeps promising to bring in a story of those hunts but not to date has he done so. Guess he has been to busy. But it's truly of great interest to us all and we enjoying reading about it. Remember, Robert, we want to hear from you.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Payne, Lee and Tammy went to Chama last weekend and enjoyed the ride on the old fashioned steam engine train.

I do join Kay Strickland in wishing her brother Jimmy Wright a happy birthday as his day is October 7. We want him to have many more healthy ones as well.

Suzie Morton of our western store went Thursday thru Monday to the Dallas Market shopping for her store. That is good.

Julia Reyes has been ill in the Ruidoso hospital and is now at the home of her sister, Nellie Guevara in Carrizozo. I wish you a good and complete recovery.

DEE PROCTOR

Dee Floyd Proctor, 82, a longtime resident of Corona, passed away on Friday, September 27, 1985 at his home after a long illness.

Proctor of Corona, Norris "Bo" Proctor of La Sal, Utah, Dee Proctor of Hondo and John "Sandy" Proctor of Bloomfield; one sister—Pearl Hatherly of Amarillo, TX; 25 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.

Graveside services were held on Sunday, Sept. 29, at 2 p.m. at the family cemetery on the ranch with Lewis Merritt officiating. Casket bearers were: Jimmy Bussey, Larry Sharp, Clint L. Sultemeier, Jack King, Ernest Luera, Wayne Preston, Frankie Sultemeier, and Gordon Owen.

Honorary bearers were: Melvin Sultemeier, Royce Washburn, Lee Roy Owen, Procopio Tafoya, Bill Brazel, Charlie Wade, Monty Bussey, Tommy Tyree and Ronnie Merritt.

We are very proud of the "Capitan Mart." They are very busy people and we do like that and do wish them continued success and I am certain they will have that.

Sam Cox of Nogal is very ill at this time in the Ruidoso hospital. I wish him a good and complete recovery.

If anyone who reads this knows how Belle Wilson is at this time, I would like to hear. She was in St. Mary's Hospital in Roswell but we have not had any further news. We do care and sincerely want to know. Please inform us at once.

Sweet little 97-year-old Mattie Jones, mother of Paul Jones, passed away in the Ruidoso hospital, Thursday morning Sept. 26 after two weeks illness therein. She was laid to rest in the Angus cemetery Sunday, Sept. 29. Her beautiful family surviving enjoyed her just as we did. She was a very sweet and gracious lady. She lived near Paul and family in her trailer home for many years and raised flowers and took care of herself. She truly was a sweet one and so ambitious. We loved and enjoyed her always. We are so grateful God gave her those precious years with us. We do have much to be thankful for. She left us a good pattern to follow.

Griego honored—

CAPITAN FLAG CEREMONY—Students at Capitan Elementary School honored their country early October 2 with a flag ceremony. This flag was the one used at the burial service of 1965 Capitan High Graduate Richard Griego. Griego, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rene Griego, was killed in a plane crash in 1966 while serving in the military. Principal Jerry Newsom informed the News that his school plans to have a flag ceremony once a month. The News reporter noted that the Flag Ceremony Team looked real sharp.

For smooth gravy, combine equal parts of flour and cornstarch. Put three or four tablespoons in a jar and add about a half-cup of water. Shake and in a few minutes you'll have a smooth paste to turn into gravy.

MATTIE JONES

Mattie Bell Jones, Capitan, NM, passed away Thursday, Sept. 28, 1985 in the Ruidoso Hondo Valley Hospital.

Mrs. Jones was born Nov. 6, 1888 in Gatesville, Coryell County, Texas, and was a member of the Trinity Southern Baptist Church of Capitan. She was the widow of the late Daniel O. Jones, who with his wife and four small children came from Coryell County, Texas in a covered wagon to homestead on land near Angus in 1915.

Mrs. Jones was never involved in politics, but she was especially interested in voting in all elections, and trying to persuade her family to get out and vote too, even in her advanced years. She voted in the past elections. She was an avid church goer, as long as her health would permit.

Survivors include her sons, Marvin W. Jones and Paul A. Jones both of Capitan, NM; Daughters, Eunice Farless of El Paso, TX, Inice Hust of Carrizozo, NM; Mildren Pfingsten of Tucuman, NM; Opal Peters of Capitan, NM; Lucille Latner of Ruidoso, NM; and Mary Bell Spruel of Amarillo, TX; Sister, Mamie Williamson of Gatesville, TX, 29 grandchildren, 68 great-grandchildren, and 18 great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held 3:00 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 29, 1985 in the Capitan High School Multi Purpose Building with Rev. Cleve Kerby officiating, assisted by Rev. Dale Beeman. Interment followed in the Angus Cemetery.

Palbearers were Mike Jones, Dick Jones, Sam Jones, Eddie Jones, Kenny Jones, and Clarence Hust. Honorary bearers were Clyde Jones, Roy Jones, Joe Lee Smith, Danny Smith, Robbie Spruel, Carrol Gene Jones, and Pat Jones.

(e) No person shall cast, place, sweep or deposit anywhere within the County any garbage, refuse or debris in such a manner that it may be carried or deposited by the elements upon any road, street, sidewalk, alley, sewer, parkway or other public place, or into any occupied premises within the County.

(f) Subject to any limitations otherwise provided by law, the Sheriff is authorized to inspect and enter any private property or private premises where he/she has reasonable cause to suspect that unlawful accumulations of refuse may exist.

(1) If, upon the basis of such inspections, the Sheriff finds that any of subsections (a) through (e) have not been complied with or that a hazard exists, he/she shall notify the person in charge of the premises (whether owner, tenant, lessee, manager or other person) where the unlawful refuse accumulations exist, to properly correct such conditions, within a designated period of time from ten (10) days up to thirty (30) days.

(2) Upon the failure, neglect or refusal of any owner, tenant, lessee, manager or occupant to properly correct such conditions within the time prescribed (or within five (5) days after the return of such prescribed notice as undeliverable, if the notice is served by mail) the County Manager may contract for the correction of the unlawful refuse accumulation, or order its correction by the County, at the expense of the owner, tenant, lessee, manager or occupant in charge of the property.

(3) The cost of correction shall be a lien on the property, and shall remain in full force and effect for the amount due plus interest at the legal rate from the date of the filing of the lien until paid and all other costs, including attorney fees. The lien shall be enforced and foreclosed according to applicable state law.

(g) Where the Sheriff finds that immediate measures are required to alleviate a threat to the public health and safety due to certain unlawful refuse accumulations, the County Manager may waive the ten (10) day notification period in order to take whatever steps are necessary for correction of the accumulation.

(h) Costs for correction of unlawful refuse accumulations shall be determined on the basis of man worker hours, equipment
