Light contest

The Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce will sponsor the annual Christmas Decoration Contest again this year. The rules for the contest have changed. There will be a residential division with cash prizes of $50 for first, $35 for second, and $15 for third. No entry form is required.

A "Traveling Trophy" will be presented to the winner in the commercial division. St. Rita Catholic Church won the Traveling Trophy last year.

All judging will be held on Christmas Eve. No entry forms will be required for the contest this year. Another change this year will be that homes outside the town limits will also be included for judging on Christmas Eve.

Everyone is urged to help brighten our community with lights and the spirit of Christmas.

'NO NONSENSE' JUDGE—

Warns "Mules"

By RUTH HAMMOND

District Judge Richard Parsons acquired the name of a "No Nonsense" Judge on December 6 when he handed out sentences to first offenders in controlled substance cases.

The first case to come before Parsons was a plea and disposition agreement against Ted Brazie. Brazie had entered a plea of guilty on November 7 to the charge of possession of marijuana with the intent to distribute. He had been charged after 183 plants were found on his property in Nogal. This was his first offense.

John Underwood, attorney for Brazie, said that Brazie was 63 years old, married for 37 years and had led a contemporary life with his background in scouting and community service. Underwood asked that Brazie be allowed to repay his debt to society in a way other than incarceration.

Parsons made the statement, "It is always found that sentencing is unpleasant." He went on to say, "I have to look at the facts of the case."

Parsons imposed a fine of $5,000 that he suspended, partly due to the forfeiture of a camping trailer and a three wheel vehicle by the defendant. Parsons then sentenced Brazie to 18 months in the New Mexico state prison with one third of the sentence being suspended. Brazie was ordered to serve one year.

The second case to come before Parsons was a plea and disposition agreement against David Ramirez. Ramirez had entered a plea of guilty to the charge of possession of marijuana with the intent to distribute after two bags of marijuana weighing 38 3/4 pounds were found in the vehicle that Ramirez was driving through Lincoln County.

During this session of court, Parsons said, "We have to send a message to 'Mules' that highway 70 and highway 54 and highway 380 are out of bounds in Lincoln County, New Mexico." (A "Mule" is a person who is a pack animal by transporting controlled substances.)

Parsons ordered Ramirez to the custody of the Lincoln County Sheriff to be transported to the New Mexico State Prison for a 60 day evaluation. Ramirez had served four months in the county jail this summer after being arrested.

Parsons said that by the time Ramirez has served this 60 days, he will have served the minimum sentence of six months. The maximum sentence for possession of marijuana over eight ounces is 18 months.

The third case that Parsons handed down a sentence was in a plea and disposition agreement against Geoffrey Farmer. Attorney John Underwood asked for a deferred sentence for this mistake and asked that Farmer be granted probation.

Parsons explained the three purposes of the court are to punish, deter and rehabilitate. Parsons agreed to a "House Arrest" program after discussing it with Rick Austin, probation and parole officer. Farmer will be under "House Arrest" for 90 days, during which time he is to use no alcohol, no controlled substances, and he is subject to search any time day or night.

Parsons told Farmer, "I want you to know what I can do, I can sentence you to 36 months and a $5,000 fine for each count."

Parsons also said, "I am trying to send a message that our lands in Lincoln County are not for growing purposes and our highways are not for transport purposes."

Judge Parsons sentenced Jose Rivera Rodriguez to one year in the state prison for forgery.

Parsons told the News, "I am concerned about the deterrent effects for our children if nothing is done." He added, "I must also let the law enforcement agencies know that I am concerned about the problems they face daily and that I care."

Officers re-elected

By RUTH HAMMOND

Special Christmas music was provided for the Dec 10 Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce meeting. John Menner, Carrizozo music teacher, brought Danny Culley and Harold Burch, two guitar students, to play a medley of holiday tunes for chamber members and guests.

During the business meeting, the nominating committee of Mignon Sims and Dennis Sidebottom, recommended that the present officers remain in office another year. The by-laws restrict elected officers to two years in office. A motion was made to suspend the by-laws and after being seconded, members voted to have the present officers remain in office.

In other business, it was announced that the chamber will again sponsor the Christmas Decoration Contest, with changes being made this year. Judging will be held on Christmas Eve for the residential and commercial entrants but no formal entry is required. Also, the contest will extend to homes and buildings outside the town limits. Prizes for residential winners will be $50 for first, $35 for second, and $15 for third. The winner for the commercial entry will receive the "Traveling Trophy" and keep it for a year. Santa Rita Catholic Church won last year.

Woody Schlegel will begin preliminary work on the Carrizozo brochures for next year.

The chamber will have a half page ad in the Christmas issue of the News on Dec 19. The ad will list all members with dues paid to date.

Dennis Sidebottom reported that problem with getting the rifle range put in at the location of the old dump is getting the old dump up to code.

The Christmas decorating committee said that each decoration for the town would cost $1,200 to $1,500 if bought new. The committee will discuss decorations with Mabel Candelaria and Mabel Vega. Candelaria and Vega made the decorations for the courthouse and have a catalog that shows how to build decorations at a reasonable price.

The Chamber received a check for $1,830.89 for state reimbursement for tourism advertising.

The chamber received a letter from the Albuquerque Convention and Visitors Bureau saying it was a wonderful treat to visit in Carrizozo during an unplanned stop at the Ice Cream Parlour and the tour of White Oaks was wonderful.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The letter is being printed in this issue of the News.

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

Through the meaning of Christ's coming, every person, whether 'Christian' or not, can take Christmas to his (her) heart.

Let us forget self, let us open our hearts, to offer friendship and brotherly love.

Let us do for others, not just through organized charities, or group efforts. Discover the joy of assisting some less fortunate person.

Giving is an important part of the Christmas season. Give in the spirit of the first Christmas.

A HELPING HAND

Saturday, Nov. 28, the Sammie Castillo family of Capitán had the misfortune of losing their entire household and personal belongings because of fire. They had no insurance.

Carrizozo and surrounding area residents may want to help out in some way. After all the Castillo family are residents of a neighboring town.

The NEWS editor has agreed to provide office space as a holding station for anyone wishing to drop off (during working hours) donations of furniture, household items and clothing. From the news office someone will transport the items to Capitán to the Castillo family.

Check your closets, drawers, cabinets, attics, basements and garages for potentially useful items. Suggestions: furniture, towels, sheets, pillow cases, iron, clock, curtains, radio, tools, small kitchen appliances, pots, pans, glasses, plates, bowls, cups, etc...

For those who have good condition clothing to contribute: teenage daughter wears size 14 clothing and teenage son wears size 16. An older son wears pants size 33-36 and large size shirts. Mom wears size 14 blouses and size 12 pants. Dad's pants size is 34-32 and large size shirts.

BACK FROM VISIT

and Catherine Cornett have returned from a three-week stay in California where they visited with friends and relatives.

Edith and Ida were guests at the home of their sister, Mary Collins, who lives in San Jose. Catherine visited in Stockton with daughter and granddaughter, Charlene and Christie Taylor.

SUPER FANS

Working hard behind the scenes at the site of the Sports Boosters' enchilada supper last Friday were Oralia Najara and Viola Vigil. The two super sports fans donated their time and energy for their favorite local team - the Grizzlies.

Working right along with these main chefs were Grizzlie Moms Minnie Guevara, Candie Aguilar and Beatrice Sheehan. Chairperson of the supper project, Carmen Hill, expresses thanks on behalf of the club to School Superintendent, Dennis Sidebottom and Cafeteria Supervisor, Charlotte Archuleta for their support of the project, which raised money for the school's athletes...male and female.

Other super fans seen working behind the scenes were Patsy Serna and Buddy Hill. Many other booster club members, too numerous to mention, helped the project with their donations and labor.

SECRET INGREDIENT

A side booster project at the supper, along with the cakes and pies, was my Indian Bread.

The dough, made with a recipe which includes a secret ingredient, was made at home and fried at the cafeteria. I told the ladies working at the supper that I had made the dough at home so that the one secret ingredient would not be revealed. (I even ran my four sons out of the house so that they would not be able to give the recipe to their future wives.)

I can only say that the dough does not have 11 herbs and spices, just one secret ingredient. It is not dough to make 'Sofa Pillows' (or sopapillas as my Mexican-Spanish ancestors call the triangle-shaped fried bread.)

OLD SQUAW TALE

My Indian Bread recipe has a long story, but to make it short: For many years I have searched and experimented with various Indian Bread recipes, until one day I came across an ancient Indian squaw. She agreed to give me the recipe if I would never reveal the secret ingredient. She told me to always fry the bread at a special temperature and make every effort to serve the bread warm. If used as a dessert it should be dusted in cinnamon sugar or drizzled with honey.

And she said that before I fry each circle of dough to always (and never forget) to make a dime-size hole in the center. This is so that evil spirits will be released as the bread fries, she advised.

By the way...my old Indian friends' name was 'Walks Far.'

TINY BOOSTER

On hand at the Carrizozo vs Capitán games was Renee Rael, who drew the name of Grizzlie booster, Alleen Lindamood as the winner of the cord of wood.

Three-year old Renee, dressed as a Grizzlie cheerleader for the occasion, is the daughter of Carmen Modisette. Renee was one of the youngest and cutest fan of the Grizzlies.

Some male members of the booster club will be heading for the mountains to chop and haul the cord of wood.

Amba Manning, school teacher and sports fan was observed at the game buying many dollars worth of last minute raffle tickets. Amba had no idea what she'd do with the wood if she won because she doesn't have a wood-burning stove.

I turned back and told her bright red ribbons and give it she could tie it up in bundles with away as Christmas gifts.

FIRST PLACE winner in the 3rd Division in the state beef poster contest was Rachel Monreal of Carrizozo. The contest was sponsored by the New Mexico Cowbelle with the theme being, "Any time is prime time for Beef". Rachel is shown receiving a check for $15 for her winning entry from Canyon Cowbelle President Annie Withers. Rachel's poster was one of the four first place winners in Carrizozo that was exhibited in Albuquerque during the NM Cattle Grower and Cowbelle State Convention last week. Rachel is in eighth grade and she is the daughter of Brenda and Manual Monreal.

SUZANNE SAUCEDO, is the Carrizozo 'Student of the Week'. She is in eighth grade, a junior high cheerleader and plays basketball and volleyball for the Grizzlies. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Max Saucedo. Suzanne is a member of the ski club and she likes to listen to music.

Around Christmas

There are get togethers of every description and our bank enjoys the groups who meet in our meeting room.

One room schoolhouses are a part of our history, as they are elsewhere, and teachers who taught in them are still here, only fewer in number. Elva Wilson, shown here between Vernelle Hightower & Suzanne Surratt, could relate one-room schoolhouse stories by the hour because she was there, later serving as Lincoln County School Superintendent. She was a great and gracious Lincoln County lady who is not with us anymore but whose memory sparks all of us at Christmas to remember how fortunate we are to be who we are and where we are.

Banking is different than it was during days of the one-room schoolhouses, what with computers and modern techniques. New words with new meanings have been coined to cover all of this but in our banks we still like the personal part of being in close touch with our customers. Pay us a call, we might be able to help you do in 1986 what you have planned in years past to get done.

OPINION

Ernest V. Joiner

● SAINT Basil in his "Homilies" (circa 375 AD) probably didn't know that in 1985 his plea for redistribution of wealth would be taken as seriously as it is. Only a man savaged by poverty, and unable to rise above it, could have written: "The bread that you store up belongs to the hungry; the cloak that lies in your chest belongs to the naked; and the gold that you have hidden in the ground belongs to the poor." No wonder he was made a saint! Sixteen hundred years later, the "stored bread" is being restored to its rightful owners by legislation and more recently, by litigation. Here is how the process is working. It must make St. Basil smile.

● A woman who attempted suicide by locking herself in the trunk of her car was found alive nine days later. She sued Ford Motor Co. for having failed to install a latch inside the trunk to permit her exit should she change her mind about suicide. An insensitive judge, however, ruled that Ford was not obligated to tailor car trunks to accommodate her. In Santa Barbara, CA the family of a chap who finally died of lung cancer after having smoked cigarettes for 50 years is suing the tobacco company on grounds it knew the poor fellow would die if he persisted in the habit. The Rt. Rev. William H. Folwell, Episcopal bishop in Florida, has sued the US Navy for $200,000. His Reverence claims to have injured his knee playing on tennis courts at the Naval Training Center at Orlando, and that the injury interferes with his ability to properly genuflect. But the Navy is fighting back with a countersuit charging the bishop regularly sneaked onto the courts early in the mornings to avoid detection. It asks $5,200 in unpaid user fees.

● A court in Saint-Etienne, France, ruling in a divorce case, rejected the wife's request for financial compensation for the loss of her virginity. Details of her tragic loss are not provided, but the view from the bench is that the lack of virtue is its own reward.

● A University of California, Berkeley, coed has sued six sororities and fraternities for injuries sustained at last year's Big Game when she, Angela Freitas, 18, waxed drunk and fell from a second-story window. Claims the brothers and sisters should not have served her drinks after she was already drunk. Justice triumphed in San Francisco recently when a court awarded $165,000 to tennis of Powell Hotel because of "emotional stress" suffered during a renovation of the building.

● A Mill Valley, CA woman has sued her Episcopal priest for $5 million. She alleges the priest violated the secrecy of her confession after she admitted to him she had embezzled $28,000 in church funds. She expected forgiveness but the priest turned her in. A Palo Alto exporter filed suit for $400 million against the USSR in a Los Angeles court. The man claims an Izvestia story last November called him a "double-faced trader" and that he passed Soviet secrets to the CIA. How else would we have gotten the idea for Star Wars?

● DOWN Florida way, former quarterback Johnny Unitas is being sued for $77,000 for having appeared in advertisements for a company that later went bankrupt. The two complainants say Unitas should have known that First Fidelity of Hollywood was in financial troubles before he agreed to appear in their ads, proving that if there's something you don't know, you should—or else. A California county board of supervisors is pondering a claim by Michael Joseph Sheridan. He charges that while driving a car on a county road the tires of the vehicle broke traction causing a skid, loss of control, and collision with a redwood tree. He is asking for one million dollars.

● LITIGATION is not all crass materialism. Sometimes it produces a happy ending. Miss Regina Merrick of Salem, OR has given her heart and hand in marriage to her former stepfather, Mr. James Henry. Mr. Henry's current address is the Oregon State Penitentiary. Their romance apparently began at or about the time of his conviction for having raped her.

● CONFESSION time. Years ago I was on a television show in New York. Host of the "Today Show" asked me if I thought American people were hypocrites. I said no. I was wrong. Hypocrisy is the fastest growing religion in America, and it is no tribute to my intelligence that I did not at that time recognize the fact. I need cite only one example: South Africa.

● THE American public is in a frenzy to topple the government of South Africa because it practices apartheid. There is a swell of public indignation that has forced the US to enact sanctions against a friendly nation. Everywhere, people are withdrawing investment in South African businesses, hoping to pull down the Botha government and install a black-dominated one.

● AT the same time, there is no anger toward India, and no sanctions, even though the infamous "caste system" in India leaves millions without social, economic or political rights. There is no mention of disinvestment in Saudi Arabia, where women are not even permitted to drive cars. The hypocrisy is evident closer to home. Nobody suggests sanctions and disinvestment in Mexico. For decades, corrupt one-party rule has disenfranchised millions of Mexican citizens, reduced them to voiceless poverty, and has forced millions to escape to the US.

Watch Over Washington

By LES KINSOLVING

Affirmative Action: Replacing Jim Crow with Crow Jim

WASHINGTON — "CITY TO USE RACIAL QUOTAS TO PICK AT LEAST 1,000 POLICE SERGEANTS" declared the headline on page one of the November 18 NEW YORK TIMES.

The City of New York spent half a million dollars for a test which Assessment Designs, Incorporated, of Florida, developed in consultation with experts in the New York Police and Personnel Departments.

But this test had what proved to be a fatal flaw: it was not formulated to guarantee that minority group candidates would pass.

One thousand four hundred and twenty black police officers took this test. 23 of them (1.6 percent) passed it. One thousand and three Hispanic police officers took the test — 44 (4.4 percent) passed. Nine thousand one hundred and twenty eight white police officers took the test. Nine hundred and sixty eight (10.6 percent) passed.

Not only will the City of New York ignore the results of this test and hire according to racial quotas, but the next test will be open book — apparently for the benefit of the minority candidates who, while they are at least able to read (and let us be thankful for small favors), are not able to remember.

The City says it must report to this patent racism and unconstitutional discrimination because it does not believe it can win lawsuits filed by minority groups.

Why? Because Judith Levitt, Chief of the General Litigation Division of the City's Corporation Counsel and Norma Cote, an Assistant Corporation Counsel, found that eight questions on the test required knowledge about the degrees of various crimes which some incumbent sergeants said can be looked up before filing the arrest report.

Nine hundred and sixty eight white officers, 44 Hispanic and 23 black officers manifested enough of such knowledge to pass. They know the law rather than having to take the time to look it up.

Too bad, officers! If only your skin pigments more closely resembled the desired racial quotas!

Everyone of these 1,036 officers who passed should file a lawsuit — and they should be assisted by all of the police associations, whether Patrolmen's Benefit Association, or Guardians, or Hispanic Society, or whatever.

Even if City Attorneys Levitt and Cote think the City has no chance to win, the BAKKE decision of the U.S. Supreme Court would surely seem applicable. That was the celebrated case where a US Marine veteran, who scored high grades on his entrance exams at the University of California at Davis Medical School, was turned down — in favor of applicants with lower scores, but different skin pigment.

Should physicians be licensed or educated in med school on the basis of ability — or on skin pigment? How many blacks, when their loved ones are really sick, want them treated by a doctor who is black, rather than by the ablest doctors available — regardless of his color?

Possibly some of these police officer law suits could include a notation that the protection of the public is far more important than the entertainment of the public by professional basketball. And while pro basketball players are paid far more than police officers, there are no such affirmative action or race quotas imposed on pro basketball.

The forthcoming open book test is another racist fraud. Are the minority group candidates, who can pass only if the book is open, going to have books in their squad cars or in a shoulder bag they carry because they cannot remember the basic laws they are supposed to enforce?

What about those 23 blacks and 44 Hispanic officers who DID pass? How must they feel, having worked hard and studied hard and passed — only to have all this count for nothing because not enough of their racial category had either the inclination to study hard — or the intelligence level to make it?

How do they feel? Probably the same way as do really competent black physicians and attorneys, who made the grade on their own. They made it without any racial quota system — which is now casting aspersions on ALL minority group professionals, in suggesting that they can't make it without preferential treatment.

One of the growing number of minority group leaders who is protesting against this "Crow Jim" reverse racism is Lawrence Wade, a member of the editorial staff of The WASHINGTON TIMES, a former spokesman of the US Commission on Civil Rights and a former writer for The WALL STREET JOURNAL, THE MIAMI HERALD, THE DAYTON JOURNAL HERALD, THE ORLANDO SENTINEL and WMFE-TV in Orlando.

Last month Wade wrote a column entitled "Affirmative Disenchantment" in the form of an open letter to President Reagan. Here are excerpts: "We both know quotas and preferential treatment are wrong, Mr. President. We know they're just another vicious form of bigotry. "And we know the worst

"And we know the worst

"And we know the worst

Letters TO THE EDITOR

DEAR WOODY,

It was for all of us, a wonderful treat to visit with you in Carrizozo. Our unplanned stop going down to Alamogordo, at the Ice Cream Parlour, was delightful, as was our wonderful tour of White Oaks.

I was so happy you cared to ask about Don Ward and his expertise as a tour guide. We were all quite taken with him as he did such a great job of giving us a local flavor to the history of White Oaks.

Thank you for having provided us with the Carrizozo Area Paper. We look forward to promoting your valley and to visiting again.

Opinion . . . . (Continued)

Even when an opposition party manages to win a local election, the ballots are invalidated.

● WHILE we are demanding that South Africa be turned over to Soviet-supported African black organizations, we do not insist that Soviet leaders scrap repressive communism, in their own country, or end its one-party system; close its gulags, stop genocide in Afghanistan, hold free elections and adopt the same democratic structure we demand of South Africa. Even the United Nations, as Soviet-dominated as it is, recently voted 122 to 19, for withdrawal of Soviet troops from Afghanistan. Our US Corps of Engineers built the highway over which Soviet troops launched its invasion of Afghanistan. Remember?

● WE can only afford $27 million in non-military aid to our friends fighting for freedom in Nicaragua. But US banks have loaned $1.3 billion to Soviet-bloc nations recently, including $500 million to East Germany and $200 million to the Soviet Union. We can't stand South Africa not having the "one-man one-vote" principle; but the Soviets don't have "one-man one-vote"; either. We favor the Soviets in many ways, including suspending a 55-year-old US law prohibiting the import of any goods into this country made by forced labor. The Soviets operate 1,100 forced labor camps that manufacture furniture, toys, cathode-ray components, camera lenses, glassware, auto and agricultural machinery parts, iron, coal, uranium, asbestos and limestone — all of which we allow the Soviets to export to the US. South Africa's crime has been that it has been our best friend and ally in Africa. Do you detect a bit of hypocrisy in all this?

● ONE of the nation's top opinion molders is Anthony Lewis of the New York Times. He is also a four-star hypocrite, as you will see. In 1975 he excused the forced march of three million people out of Phnom Penh because he said it was being done by the communists in pursuit of a "vision of a new society." He also said that for the US to oppose this communist atrocity indicated "cultural arrogance." More lately, he supports forced abortion and sterilization of women in China, and went so far as to advise Americans not to oppose such measures. "The propriety of the methods used to discourage children is a fair question," he wrote, "but outsiders should not make ringing statements about it without understanding the reality of the problem China faces." Well, now. How about "outsiders" making ringing statements about South Africa? How about some understanding of the reality of South African problems? Anthony Lewis, thy name is Hypocrite.

Inside the Capitol

By FRED McCAFFREY

SANTA FE — If there's one thing legislators hate, it's headaches.

After all, our lawmakers are part-timers, and they have part-timers' attitudes. That means they want to make their lives easier, not harder, as they do their jobs.

That's why they love formulas, of the kind that will "automatically" make the tough decisions that cause the pain.

MONEY FOR THE KIDDIES: That's the main reason everyone connected with the Legislature has such a high regard for the system our state has set up to guide distribution of the state money that goes to public schools. Our way of doing that is so attractive to lawmakers from other states that we have become something of a leader in this regard, if in very little else.

You see, it's an "automatic" formula, under which you add together a few different factors and multiply the result by a concrete number, and the whole job is done. All lawmakers have to do annually is determine the size of that multiplier, and, presto! task is complete. No sweat, no heat, no hassles. That's the kind of system our representatives love.

For them, it sure beats having to take a stand every year and duke it out with all the other lawmakers to see which school systems get which bucks.

AND HIGHER ED: For funding the universities, they came up with a slightly different plan.

To get all those department heads, with their irrefutable logic proving they should get bags of money, off legislators' backs, they invented something called the Board of Educational Finance. That's an operation which has no other real duty (regardless of what its charter says) than to go off and take the heat generated by the schools of higher learning, not to mention the townsfolks wherever such a school is found who live off the proceeds of its presence.

Let the BEF, the theory goes, make all the tough decisions about which projects have merit and which ones don't, and then bring in the whole package for the Legislature to turn thumbs up or down on.

It sure beats all that pummeling the people's representatives used to have to put up with.

CUT AND SLASH: Latest—and least elegant, be it said—of the efforts to formalize government is that letter the chairman of the Legislative Finance Committee sent to the heads of all government agencies recently. All it is an order to these people to devise an annual budget for next year that is exactly 5 percent lower than the one they were granted this year.

Hey, fellows. It's not that easy.

Admittedly, that would be one crude way of saving about $21 million per year in the cost of state government. That's something we need to do, but this isn't the way to do it.

Clearly, there are agencies providing services to the public that can be cut 5 percent or maybe even a lot more. But there are others which equally certainly can't logically be cut a dime.

You're the people we elected to make the hard choices in just these matters, and substituting a mindless formula for those decisions is not the way we expect you to go.

You asked us to vote for you, and we never promised you a rose garden. Let's see you get up the nerve to do the job you took on, even when it makes your head ache.

Forest summer employment

ALAMOGORDO, NM—The Lincoln National Forest is now seeking new applicants for about 46 summer and seasonal positions for the 1986 field season. Summer positions will be filled from about May 12 to about October 1; the period of employment for seasonal positions will depend on weather conditions and the availability of work.

Most of the jobs are in fire prevention and suppression; the rest involve engineering surveying, and timber management.

Employees may be required to live in isolated locations. Fire suppression duties require irregular and prolonged hours of work and exposure to physical danger. Firefighters often travel on short notice to distant parts of the United States for extended periods of time.

Salaries range from $5.03 to $6.90 per hour, depending on qualifications required for the position. Applicants must be 18 years old by the start of employment. Application forms may be obtained from any Forest Service office, including the Lincoln National Forest Supervisor's Office in Alamogordo, and Ranger Stations in Ruidoso, Clouderot, Mayhill, and Carlsbad, New applications postmarked after this date will not be considered.

Watch over (Con't from P. 4)

victims of these patronizing policies are women and minorities, not white males.

"There was 'Jerry,' a good friend of mine. We attended some of the same schools and knew some of the same people. We'd lived back-to-back in the same neighborhood. But we never should have met desk-to-desk on the same job.

"Jerry had no business being a reporter. With his boyish body and charm, he'd have made a great model. He turned the heads of women as we walked to lunch daily. But he couldn't turn a decent phrase or get the facts right.

"He was hired simply because he was black and had 'earned' a degree in journalism. Ignored was the reputation he earned in school as Jerry Lewis with a typewriter. Overlooked was heavy editing of his stories and his belligerent attitude, until he stupidly libeled a man and it cost him his job.

"Employers, in trying to meet federal dictates, made unjust hiring and promotion decisions that were unusual and cruel.

"The white male employers who bet these people up to fall could have found qualified women and minorities. Instead they hired the first person in dark skins or skirts who walked through their doors.

"If you end affirmative action, Mr. President, you'll do it in the best interests of the hard-working women and minorities. People who have earned their positions, regardless of sex or color. People insulted by liberals 'giving them a break.'

"You'll do it for the black domestic, who proudly told her employer that her youngest son had been accepted at Harvard. Only to hear, "Oh, that's wonderful, Bessie! I didn't know Harvard had an affirmative action plan."

"You'll do it for the young graduate-of journalism school who eight years ago applied for a job at The (CLEVELAND) PLAIN DEALER. Who was told, by a sneering male editor, 'We've got our quota of women and blacks.'"

TIP CLIPS

By POLLY CHAVEZ

DINNER TO GO

A basket of delicacies is a good way to say "Merry Christmas"! Put one together yourself with the makings of a festive dinner. A basket lined with a holiday napkin can include a chicken, ready to cook or just roasted, a bottle of wine, fresh vegetables, cookies or a fruitcake.

BASKET OF GOODIES

Another welcome gift basket could include cheese, pears, and oranges, a jar of homemade preserves, holiday cookies and a jug of apple cider.

ORIGINAL GREETING

How about sending your favorite recipe as a Christmas card? Choose one of your most popular dishes. Type the recipe on the inside of a blank greeting card. Use a colored ribbon in your typewriter and sign the card with a matching felt tipped pen.

DESSERTS ONLY EVENING

Why not have a 'desserts only' evening for friends. You might serve those sumptuous cakes too rich after a complete dinner. Set the table with a seasonal centerpiece and surround with cakes, pies and holiday cookies.

DESSERT TREE

To end a holiday dinner have a dessert tree. Buying a styrofoam cone, choosing the size that best fits your needs. Using toothpicks and a variety of dried and fresh fruits, candies and berries, you can create a colorful light topping to your meal.

Last week there was warm days, very low temperatures at night and lots of wind.

There will be an enrollment for the Capitan 4-H Club, Thursday, Dec. 12, 6:30 p.m. at the Capitan Fair Building. To be eligible a person must be between the ages of 9 to 19. Must be 9 by Sept. 1, 1986. All interested bring a parent or guardian in order to sign up.

Mr. and Mrs. Sammie Castillo's home was completely destroyed by fire Saturday evening, Dec. 30. An account has been set up by friends at the Ruidoso State Bank to help the Castillos in their time of need.

Are we getting our spirits up for the Christmas lighting contest in the City limits of Capitan?? It's time. Lets go with it now for time is rolling by, not waiting on us. The Capitan Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring this. For applications you must see any one of these three persons - Bonnie McEuen at the B & L Pizza Place, Kay Strickland at the Capitan-Carrizozo Natural Gas Office in Capitan or Norman Renfro at the Smokey Bear Restaurant. Do enter, we need you and you will find much happiness. The first prize - A set of three Smokey Bear Medallions, a value of $50, second prize - $25 and the third prize -

$15. Judging will be done Dec. 21.

Smokey Bear's Christmas Party will be Dec. 19 at 9 a.m. at the Smokey Bear Museum. It is for kindergarten thru 3rd grade. Bring the little ones at home to see Smokey. This party is sponsored every year by the museum, park, Chamber of Commerce and the Village.

There were 184 registered visitors at the Smokey Bear Museum from Dec. 2 thru Dec. 8. Inice Hust and Roy Harmon of Carrizozo visited there Sunday. She is the sister of Opal Peiers and Paul Jones. This is their first visit and they are long time residents of Lincoln County. Come again. We are glad to have you.

Everyone needs to get in the basketball spirit. There were very few fans at the games Saturday night when the Tigers played Magdalena. The 'C' team, and Jr. Varsity won their games, but the 2 A Steers narrowly sneaked by the Tigers with a final score of 51-53. The Tigers missed several easy baskets or the game would have ended differently. So don't worry...its the beginning of the season.

A nice crowd attended the Lincoln County 4-H banquet last Sunday night in Capitan at the school.

Robert Rannels just returned from Sheridan, Wyoming where he attended the National Outfitters Convention. Robert, who is vice president of the New Mexico Council of Outfitters Guides, traveled to Sheridan with the Council President, Roger Gabsidon of Socorro. The country was beautiful and they enjoyed their trip.

The Capitan Mart led the businesses in Capitan with their Christmas decorations. Then the Western Store, Smokey Bear Restaurant, Gas Office, Ruidoso Branch Bank of Capitan. All are so cheerful and looks so nice.

The Capitan Band Christmas program will be Monday night, Dec. 16. The school program will be Dec. 17.

Happy birthday to Guy Payne who will reach his 14th year Dec. 16 with good health and happiness galore.

The Sr. Citizens Chili Supper was a big success of which we are delighted to report. Everyone did enjoy that delicious food.

Gary and Suzie Morton and two children spent last weekend in El Paso visiting friends.

65 attended the supper at the Masonic Hall in Carrizozo when the District No. 9 School of Instruction OES, Comet Chapter No. 29 was held Dec. 6. The Grand Officers present were the Worthy Grand Matron - Mary Sue Jones, Worthy Grand Patron - Robert Hodges... Other Grand Officers were Mary Lou Otino, Karen Hodges, Mildred and Rodney Toon. It was a great meeting and enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Loy Slagle of Oklahoma became residents of Capitan a month ago at El Capitan Apts. She has asthma and was sent here for health reasons. Welcome them and let them know we care.

Kay Reynolds sponsored a pink and-blue shower honoring Cheryl Mark last Sunday afternoon at her home in Ruidoso. Relatives and friends attended and there were lovely gifts.

Frankie Tonn who was in the Ruidoso hospital for some time is now at home. He is doing okay. I wish you a good recovery, Mrs. Tonn.

Corona FFA shines in District I contests

CORONA JUNIOR High basketball team members are (clockwise from bottom) Tommy Stevenson, James Miller, Shane Owen, Dan Bell, J. J. Young, Thomas Chavez, Les Owen, and Emmet Sultemeyer. Jamie Widner (kneeling) is the coach.

The Corona Chapter of the Future Farmers of America has been on the move since the beginning of the school year. The chapter has attended fairs, leadership conferences, the National FFA Convention and, most recently, the District I Leadership Contests in Socorro.

At the District I contests Corona's members competed in every available contest and came home with an impressive array of awards. The contest, held Friday, Dec. 6, ended with Corona winning four of the seven contests. Leadership contests test the ability of chapter members in the areas of parliamentary procedure, public speaking and the FFA organization.

Marvin Pounds, a senior at Corona High and competing for the first time in a leadership contest, took home the first place award in the Chapter Farmer Prepared Public Speaking contest. Pounds' speech, entitled "Put Yourself In My Boots," outlined the plight of the American Rancher in producing and marketing beef.

Tommy Stevenson, a freshman and Greenhand, took first place honors in the Greenhand Prepared Public Speaking contest with his speech detailing the Angora goat and promoting Mohair as a natural fiber.

Stevenson also swept the FFA quiz competition, winning first place, Sandra Copeland, a sophomore, finished right behind Stevenson in second place in the quiz.

Stevenson, Copeland and the rest of the Greenhands capped a tremendous performance by taking first place in the

Corona Area News

The Corona Baptist Church is planning a Christmas dinner to which everyone in the community is invited. The date is Sunday, Dec. 15, the time 12 noon. Each family is asked to bring a dessert, and to remain for the singing of Christmas carols.

The Miller family will sing at special services at the Corona Baptist Church at 7 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 22.

The Presbyterian Church will hold the annual candlelight service at 7 p.m. Christmas Eve. Everyone is invited to all these services.

Mr. and Mrs. David McCloud took a Christmas tree and went to spend Thanksgiving with the Stanley Sanders at Kirtland. A sister, Eva Mae Blaylock, and her son, Clifton, ate turkey with the group.

Greenhand Parliamentary Procedure contest. The team included Tommy Mulkey, Traci Kelley, Michael Pounds, Tye Lightfoot and Denise Lightfoot.

The Chapter Farmer Parliamentary Procedure team made a good showing by placing second in that contest. The team consisted of Travis Lightfoot, Pounds, Danny Cordova, Roe Anne Alford, Kim Wprley, Beverly Bell and Jim Stevenson.

In the Creed Speaking competition Traci Kelley placed fifth and Tye Lightfoot finished tenth. Denise Lightfoot capped a fantastic performance by the Greenhands when she finished in fourth place in the Greenhand Prepared Public Speaking contest.

All first and second place winners will compete at the state level in June at the New Mexico State FFA Convention in Las Cruces. This means that all members who competed at the District level will continue their competition at state.

Corona has been busy with other FFA activities during the months of October and November. In October, 21 chapters members traveled to Belen for the District I Leadership Conference. Corona, one of the smallest chapters in District I, had the most members of any chapter represented at the conference.

In November, the chapter took 14 members to Kansas City, MO and the National FFA Convention. And on Nov. 30 the Chapter submitted its Program of Activities, which outlines what the chapter plans to accomplish in the coming year. It serves as a "Road Map" for the chapter to follow and will allow the chapter to receive the Superior Chapter award, given by the State association, at the state convention.

With all these activities passing the Corona chapter will end the fall semester of school with a potluck supper Tuesday, Dec. 17 at 7:30 p.m. The supper will serve as an open house for the agriculture classroom and shop and will acknowledge the members and their accomplishments this semester.

Our night lite selection is good - Senior citizens appreciate a gift of light - remember this for the holidays!

Basketball

MAGDALENA 56 -
CARRIZOZO 54.

Carrizozo opened its 1985-86 basketball season against Magdalena November 26. It was both teams first game of the season and the rough play typified the evening.

The Grizzly squad was whistled for 27 fouls as compared to 11 for the visiting Steers. This led to a 16 to 6 scoring advantage from the free throw line for the Steers. Magdalena used this to take a hard fought 56-54 victory.

The game wasn't decided until the final 30 seconds. With the score tied Carrizozo took the last shot and only 4 seconds left on the clock...the shot bounced off the rim and several Zozo and Magdalena players fought for the loose ball before a foul was called against Carrizozo with 1 second left on the clock. The Steers Joe Montes converted on a 1 & 1 free throw opportunity to seal the victory for the Steers.

Senior Kenneth Crenshaw was the only Zozo player in double figures in scoring as he earned a game high of 32 points.

CARRIZOZO 50 - CLOUDCROFT 34

November 29 Carrizozo traveled to Cloudercroft still smarting from a last second (Regional Tournament) loss at the hands of the Bears in 1985.

With this in mind Zozo jumped off to a quick 14-6 first quarter lead. The host Bears were able to close the margin to 23-19 by half-time.

There was a certain determination this time however, and Carrizozo blew the game wide open...outscoring the Bears 18-4 in the third quarter...with Junior Tommy Escamilla leading the way with 10 third quarter points.

Carrizozo's scoring was more balanced in the Cloudercroft win...Tommy Escamilla scoring 16, Kenneth Crenshaw 13, followed by Gabriel Chavez and Richard Guevara with 7 each.

CARRIZOZO 51 - CAPITAN 46

Capitan and Carrizozo met last Friday night for the first of two meetings with the host Grizzlies this year.

As usual the game between the two 20 mile apart rivals was a knock-down, drag-out affair with

Grizzlies travel to Floyd

Carrizozo high school athletes will be attending the Floyd basketball tournament December 12, 13, and 14. It will be an educational as well as an athletic experience for the students while they are in Floyd.

The Carrizozo athletes will be staying in individual homes in Floyd. This has been done for several years with positive results.

If parents need to contact their child, a compiled list of host homes and phone numbers will be available at 646-2347.

Carrizozo student-athletes will be sponsored by not only their host families but also Mike Gaines, Mignon Sims, Ron Becker, and Dennis Sidebottom (on Saturday).

Staying with host families will provide a quality education experience for the students-athletes that will be similar to how the cast of "Up With People" was housed with host families while in the area last year.

the lead changing hands several times in the last quarter.

With 2:57 left in the game Capitan had worked its way to a 2-point advantage 46-44. Grizzly coach Ron Becker called time-out and asked his players to toughen up their defensive effort and his players responded by shutting the Tigers out for the remainder of the game and securing a 5 point victory.

James Guevara and Tommy Escamilla combined for 5 free-throws in the last minute-and-a-half to keep the pressure on the visiting Tigers.

Carrizozo is now 2-1 for the season and getting ready to travel to Floyd to open the Floyd Tournament (today) Thursday at 2:00 p.m. against Dora.

Good luck GRIZZLIES!!!

Plenty of hunting left

The deer seasons have ended, but before all you hunters put up your rifles, take a look at the New Mexico hunting proclamations. There are still opportunities available for both big game and bird hunters.

Cox finished his sixth term as Sierra County Sheriff in 1982 and under New Mexico Law could not seek another term. He was appointed Chief Deputy Sheriff of Lincoln County by Sheriff Tom Sullivan in January, 1983. Many successful and worthwhile programs have been started under this administration but have not been fully developed. Cox has worked with these programs and his goal is to see them continued. Cox states that good law enforcement is an important factor in the growth and development of Lincoln County.

Cox feels that he is qualified to seek this office because of his experience and the working knowledge of the county he has gained serving as Chief Deputy Sheriff for Lincoln County.
