

Land transfer public ceremony March 7

By RUTH HAMMOND
During the Feb. 20 meeting of the Sierra Blanca Airport Commission, Engineer Earl Cook said there is a low probability that the airport would be operational by the end of the year.
One reason is that the FFA cannot obligate funds until the Environmental Impact Statement, (EIS) is completed.

Conrad Buchanan, commission member from Ruidoso Downs said, "Right now this area is in an economic depression." He also said, "It worries me about putting the schedule off."
It was also asked if there is any way we (the commission) can get some congressional help to speed the project along.
Fred Heckman, commission chairman and member representing Ruidoso, said he expected to get a verbal report about the EIS on March 6 and he set the tentative date for official notification of 'No significant impact' to be April 1.

From the time of the final FAA finding of no significant impact, the tentative allocation (TA) will come immediately. The TA must be given before SBAC can advertise for bids. Advertising for bids will take 30 days and may be awarded 15 days after opening.

Cook explained that from the time the contractor begins work it will be ten months before he is finished.
The public director of the BLM was to be in Ruidoso on Feb. 21 to present the signed transfer of land to Heckman. The official presentation will be made March 7 in a public ceremony when a congressional delegation is expected to attend. The transfer was to be made Feb. 21 because by law it had to be made within 120 days and Feb. 21 was the 120th day.

The SBAC had ordered and has received 100 bronze replicas of the BLM property corner markers of the airport. These will be presented as a 'Thank you' to those who have spent 12 years in the creation of the airport.

The commission agreed to pay the expenses to send Tim Moore, member ex officio, to the Jackson Hole, Wyoming airport. It was mentioned that the figures and rates for there are parallel to Ruidoso.
Cost for drilling a water well was projected to be between $50,000 and $100,000. Bids were to be advertised this week.

An executive session was called for the acquisition of services. Proposals had been submitted to the Lincoln County Commission from Dick Wright of Roswell and Fred Heckman of Ruidoso for administrative services. The proposals were considered by the Lincoln County Commissioners at the Feb. 11 meeting and action was tabled.
When the News questioned SBAC about the possibility of a conflict of interests for Heckman to be present in the executive session while the proposals were being considered, SBAC member Kenneth Nosker said, "Well you see, you're not running this meeting. We are." He went on to say, "When we start the meeting we will then ask Mr. Heckman to leave while we discuss the proposals and make a decision."
A quorum of members is required for an executive session to be called. Once Heckman left the meeting there was not a quorum present to make a decision and make a recommendation.
SBAC signed a joint powers agreement in 1978 with the Mescalero Apache Tribe, the county of Lincoln, the village of Ruidoso, the village of Ruidoso Downs, and the village of Capitan. Because the joint powers agreement was signed, SBAC comes under the 'Open Meetings Act' and is required to comply with the rules set forth in the 'Open Meetings Act.'

Candidate's statement

If elected Mayor, I will have two priorities. First is the repair of our streets. As a Carrizozo native, the rapid deterioration of our streets in the last few years is painfully obvious. I have been active in the process to secure a Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) for the paving of some of our dirt streets and I plan to be in Santa Fe Feb. 28, for the awarding of the grants. This will be only our first step toward this goal.
Second, the securing of light industry to provide jobs locally. In the two years I have been on the Town Council I have seen a dramatic decline in the number of jobs available. This has required many of our Citizens to drive many miles, and in some cases to move, to secure work in order to support their families.

I will personally continue to be in contact with other communities and the State Department of Economic Development, and will pledge every available resource to the Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce in their efforts to move businesses to our town.

Vote March 4th

Carrizozo voters will have the chance to make their votes count in the municipal election on March 4.
Positions to be filled are: mayor for a four year term; two trustees for four year terms each, municipal judge for a four year term, and two questions will also be on the ballot.
The first question will be if the town of Carrizozo should adopt a special gross receipts tax ordinance of an additional one-fourth of one percent of the gross receipts of all persons doing business in the town, dedicating the revenues for streets and alleys.

The second question is: Shall Sunday sales of alcoholic beverages by the drink for consumption on the licensed premises of licensees be allowed in this local option district?

Candidates for mayor alphabetically are Harold Glen Garcia, Robert E. Hemphill, and write-in Cecilia G. Kuhnel.
Candidates for the office of trustee for a four year term are: position one - Linda A. Haller and James W. Silva; position three - Albert N. Baca.
Candidates for the office of municipal judge: S. M. Ortiz, William L. Hasenbuhler, and write-in Bud Hammond.

Voters in consolidated precincts 3 and 4 within the municipal boundary shall vote at the Carrizozo City Hall in the conference room from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Absentee ballots may be cast at City Hall until 5 p.m. Feb. 27.

IDENTITY UNCERTAIN—

Human skull is found

By RUTH HAMMOND
The Lincoln County Sheriff's Department received a call at 6 p.m. on Feb. 3 about the findings of what appeared to be a human skull. The scene of the discovery was seven or eight miles from Ruidoso, up Cedar Creek. The location is one-fourth mile from the Otero County line and Mescalero Apache Indian Reservation.

According to Chief Deputy Charlie Cox, two deputies were dispatched to the scene. They took pictures and obtained permission from Medical Examiner David Pfeffer to remove the remains from the scene. After Pfeffer viewed the remains on Feb. 4 they were sent to the State Medical Examiner in Albuquerque.

Cox said that as of noon Wednesday this week that the sheriff's department had received no official report from the state medical examiner of positive identification.

Cox said the investigation will continue. County Investigator Ray Garner and Deputy Rex Skellet went on foot to the scene with Cleston Pritchett, coordinator for the White Mountain Search and Rescue Team. Small bones were found. It is not known if they are human bones but they are being sent to the state medical examiner.
The officers went up in an airplane on Wednesday to take aerial photos of the scene.
The department is waiting for verification of identity of the victim. One possibility is that they may be the remains of Pamela Sisk Nolen, 25, who disappeared from Ruidoso on Oct. 25, 1978.

Entries, which will be judged in the morning, will be available for public display in the mall from 12-5 p.m.
Public is also invited to attend the morning programs:
10:00-11:00 - Care of your camera and taking better photographs by Ted Case.
11:00-12:00 - How to choose & use a Knitting machine by Pat Zimmerman.
Registration for programs should be done by 9:45 a.m. The public is invited to the programs as our guests, at no charge.
Ongoing demonstrations are planned for the afternoon.

COURT ACTION—

Dino Baca pleads guilty

By P. ECHAVEZ
Magistrate Judge S. M. Ortiz fined a Carrizozo man $100 plus $20 court costs. Dino Baca, 19, had pled guilty to the charge of larceny of $100 or less, a petty misdemeanor.
Eric Lynch, Shop Rite manager, reported to authorities that there was a shortage in the store's cash register. Baca was arrested Feb. 21 and released on his own recognizance.
At the Feb. 24 arraignment, Ortiz ordered that in lieu of 30 days in jail Baca be under six months unsupervised probation, adding that the terms of probation include restitution to the injured party in an amount not to exceed $1,000 and that Baca not violate any laws of the state, city or county.

attend one-day DWI school in Las Cruces.
"Nolo contendere" was the original plea entered on behalf of Baca. Wilcox said that the plea was not acceptable by the state, adding that the state "will require a guilty plea." Wilcox had on hand the lab test for the purposing of sentencing. Ortiz said that he could pass judgment without the evidence.
Baca was arrested Jan. 25 after a 4-mile chase in Ruidoso. According to Lincoln County Sheriff Deputy Charles Flanagan, he had to run Tapia's vehicle off the road to stop him. Tapia was released next day after posting a $1,000 appearance bond.
A passenger, Patricia Bustamante, 28, Ruidoso, was arrested on charges of "parties to a crime." During the booking process Flanagan also charged Bustamante with obstructing a police officer on duty. Bustamante posted a $400 bond and a hearing is pending.

petty misdemeanor. Public affray consists of two or more persons voluntarily or by agreement engaging in any fight or using any blows or violence toward each other in an angry or quarrelsome manner in any public place, to the disturbance of others.
A magistrate trial for Tommy Samora, 25, scheduled for Feb. 24 at 11 a.m. is to be heard at a later date. James R. Askew Jr., attorney for the defendant, filed a motion for a continuance. Askew had a conflict with Otero County cases for which he was appointed. Incarcerated defendants in Alamogordo required that Askew be there that day.
Samora, a Carrizozo resident, was arrested Jan. 11 and charged with DWI (2nd subsequent), resisting arrest, driving under revocation, and failure to stop at a stop sign.

Final dispositions: Sonny Garrett, address unknown, worthless checks, two counts, $150 fine, $20 court costs; Melany Harwood, Ruidoso, worthless checks, $150 fine and $20, restitution to be made to sheriff's office; Richard Martinez, Holloman AFB, fishing in closed waters, $25 fine, $20 court costs; James Abernathy, Los Alamos, criminal trespass, $50 fine, $20 court costs; Juan Munoz, Ruidoso, assault and battery, $50 fine, $20 court costs.

Registration for programs should be done by 9:45 a.m. The public is invited to the programs as our guests, at no charge.
Ongoing demonstrations are planned for the afternoon.

Announcement

S. M. Ortiz . . .

Is a candidate for Municipal Judge in the Municipal Election, March 4.
I have been involved in the state, county and town judicial system for 26 years, 16 of them as municipal and magistrate judge.
I have been a resident of Lincoln County for 50 years. I graduated from the Carrizozo Public School system.
I have served all three branches of government—executive, judicial and legislative.
I possess a strong knowledge of criminal and civil law, and the procedures to be followed in these cases.
My qualifications exceed the statutory mandate required for a judge.
I am a strong supporter of law and order.
All hearings before the Magistrate Court are open to the public, and I would encourage the citizens to attend and become familiar with the court system.

Mayor to attend meeting

Mayor Harold Garcia will attend a Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) meeting in Santa Fe today.
Purpose of this meeting is to determine if Carrizozo, along with many other New Mexico municipalities and organizations, will receive close to $7 million in grant funds from the state. If Carrizozo is successful in receiving a grant the town will receive $231,000 to be used for street improvements.
Carrizozo will also use $25,000 from the general fund and $11,000 from the quarter-cent infrastructure fund, and possible $150,000 in assistance from the Highway Cooperative Agreement Fund.

Bud Hammond is write-in candidate

I am declaring as a write-in candidate for the position of Carrizozo municipal judge.
I have lived in Carrizozo for two and half years and been in the area for nearly three years.

I will, if elected, perform my duties as municipal judge in as fair and impartial a way as I can. I will make every effort to support the Carrizozo Police and help make Carrizozo a safe and law-abiding town.

"WOMAN OF THE YEAR" is Rosemary Zink, Certified Nurse Family Practitioner. She had been chosen 'Woman of the Month' in September, 1985 by the Carrizozo Woman's Club prior to the Woman of the Year Tea held last Sunday at the Carrizozo Woman's Club. ## UNCLEAR WRITING

Former Captain area ranchwoman, Nellie Gallegos Guevara, shares the following humor item with column readers. Nellie, a retired school teacher, said that the clipping was sent to her several years ago by her sister, Dorothy Silva of Alamogordo.

The sentences were taken from actual letters received by the Welfare Department in application for support:

— I am forwarding my marriage certificate and six children, I have seven, but one died which was baptized on a half sheet of paper.

— I am writing the Welfare Department to say that my baby was born 2 years old. When do I get my money?

— Mrs. Jones has not had any clothes for a year and has been visited regularly by the clergy.

— I cannot get sick pay. I have six children. Can you tell me why?

— I am glad to report that my husband who is missing is dead.

— This is my 8th child, what are you going to do about it?

— Please find for certain if my husband is dead. The man I am now living with can't eat or do anything till he knows.

— I am very much annoyed to find that you have branded my son illiterate. This is a dirty lie as I was married a week before he was born.

— In answer to your letter, I have given birth to a boy weighing ten pounds. I hope this is satisfactory.

— I am forwarding my marriage certificate and 3 children, one of which is a mistake as you can see.

— My husband got his project cut off 2 weeks ago and I haven't had any relief since.

— Unless I get my husband's money pretty soon, I will be forced to live an immoral life.

— You have changed my little boy to a girl. Will this make any difference?

— I have no children as yet as my husband is a truck driver and works day and night.

— In accordance with your instructions I have given birth to twins in the enclosed envelope.

— I want my money as quick as I can get it. I've been in bed with the doctor for two weeks and he doesn't do me any good. If things don't improve I will have to send for another doctor.

WORD GOT AROUND

Advertising their Pre-Spring Bazaar in the NEWS has resulted in a list of organizations and individuals who want to be part of the action on March 8 and 9.

Clients of New Horizons Developmental Center are busy making arts and crafts under the direction of staff member Dorothy Hein. Others who have reserved spaces include Lincoln County ARC, UPW of Ancho, Santa Rita Quilters, Zia Senior Citizens, Beulah's Shop, Rita's Creative Hairstyles, Roy's Gift Gallery. Individuals who have signed up include Susan Hightower, Polly Chavez and Gert Lynch.

There is still time to reserve a spot for you or your organization. Call the new Rec phone number 648-2871 for details. Local and surrounding area residents will be able to shop for a variety of arts and crafts, including leather goods, oil paintings, stuffed toys, quilted cushions. In addition, there will be lots of baked goods. That Saturday and Sunday local people will be able to get authentic home-baked pies and cakes in time for weekend visitors.

TOYS APPRECIATED

If you're tired of picking up toys scattered all over the house perhaps you can suggest to your child if he would like to give some away. After your child or children sort the supply of toys, the seldom played with toys can find a good home at Sunshine Day Care Center.

The center, which currently has children as young as one-year-old, could use a fresh supply of used toys and other playthings. Infants and pre-schoolers are at the center throughout the day. Older ones come after school.

Coloring books, even if they have been started, can be donated, says Virgie Samora, manager at the center. She and staff member Frances Zamora instruct the pre-school children in basic skills using numbers, crayons and scissors. The after school bunch would appreciate good-condition toy cars and trucks, dolls and balls of all sizes.

Other toy or plaything suggestions: tricycles, play clothes, purses, costume jewelry, mirrors, make-up, art supplies, play dishes. Center hours are 7:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. if you would like to drop off toy donations or call 648-2159 for someone to pick up. Margaret Baca and Diane Vega are extra staff members and available when needed.

LIVE AND LEARN

At Monday's town meeting I heard a conversation between Trustee Hemphill and Chief of Police Morales that was puzzling to me. In order to be a better informed resident I asked Hemphill what he meant when he mentioned the town police and Lincoln County Sheriff Deputies in relation to a call Hemphill received at 12:30 a.m. this past weekend.

The after midnight caller (who Hemphill would not identify) informed Hemphill that a sheriff's deputy was on duty.

This revelation appeared to be very distressful to Hemphill, Mayor Garcia and Morales. All three apparently are in agreement that deputies should be out in the country patrolling the county and leave the town area to local police. The council stated that they would like the county to tell them when they plan to have an officer on town duty so that they can send their man home for the evening.

Being a concerned citizen I inquired why there is an apparent conflict with having two different department officers on duty. Their concern: us taxpayers.

Who are the citizens worried that their tax dollars are spent on double police coverage on weekends?

Personally speaking taxes or no taxes, I don't find it irritating to have town and county (and even state) police officers on duty at the same time on weekends.

I learned this month that the Lincoln County Sheriff's Dept. radio dispatches for the town police 24 hours, 7-days unless the calls are made direct by telephone to the police clerk whose hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. When she does receive citizen calls she calls the Sheriff's Dept. to dispatch a town policeman.

By the way, the police and county discussion followed my inquiry to the council on how a child could obtain permission to ride with a town policeman as I have observed. (I think this is a very informative and educational experience for a growing boy.)

Hemphill said the council had approved the child's presence in the police unit. Morales added that the 16-year-old boy was a member of the Lincoln County Sheriff's Jr. Deputy program.

FRANK BOND PRAISES—

Grazing fee freeze

Frank Bond, Republican candidate for Governor of New Mexico, praised President Reagan's decision to freeze this year's fee schedule for grazing on public lands.

"The president's decision concerning grazing fees is undoubtedly in the best interests of New Mexico ranchers," said Bond.

"The State Land Office's proposed increase of 250 percent is not something agriculture can live with. The agricultural and ranching economy is in trouble throughout the country and in New Mexico these proposed increased fees could be the straw that breaks the camel's back," Bond continued.

"There is already a marked increase in the number of ranches for sale. We have to remember that New Mexico's farmers and ranchers must remain major participants in the state's economic future," Bond said. Bond, 42, is a rancher, businessman and lawyer from Santa Fe, whose family has been involved in ranching in New Mexico since the late 1800s.

Donkey/ball

The Donkey Basketball Show will be held March 5 in the old gym in Carrizozo. The first game will begin at 7:30 with the Carrizozo FFA versus the Capitan FFA. Municipal Election, March 4

Cecilia G. Kuhnel

Here are specific changes which I pledge to work for:

WATER

Residents in outlying areas of Carrizozo suffer from low water pressure. Their complaints have been met with unfilled promises that their water lines will be replaced and a booster pump installed. I pledge my administration will resolve this problem.

NEW BUSINESS

If we are to save Carrizozo and restore this community to a position of strength in the county, employment for our residents is a MUST. I pledge to work fast and vigorously to attract light industry to locate in our Industrial Park.

STREETS

Our streets are a disgrace and reflective of poor management of city funds allocated for such repair. I pledge to begin this rehabilitation immediately, and see that every street in need will get attention.

TRUSTEE MEETINGS

All meetings of the Town Trustees will be open to the public. The practice of conducting public business in closed "executive sessions" will end, except where state law requires them. # OPINION

Ernest V. Joiner

A FEW years ago I opined in this column that taxes are the only thing that defies the law of gravity—they'll go up and none come down. Noting the eternal quest for new taxes by our government, I suggested that the day will come when an "amusement tax" will be laid upon tax. A prophetic observation. A few weeks ago Storey County, Nevada became the first county in the nation to slap a tax on prostitution. The Virginia City Commerce & Tourism Authority voted unanimously to impose a 7 percent tax on rooms rented at brothels where prostitutes ply their trade. The tax is to be assessed against the prostitutes, who, in turn, can add the 7 percent to the customer's tab, thereby taking 7 percent of the fun out of the encounter. Meanwhile, in Santa Fe, legislatures headed homeward after passing a tax increase bill to screw New Mexicans out of $150 million dollars. That amounts to $91 per family. In Virginia City, at least the taxpayer gets kissed! Now, let's hear it for the tax collector:

His horse went dead, and his mule went lame,
And he lost six cows in a poker game;
Then a hurricane came on a summer day,
And blew the house where he lived away;
An earthquake came when that was gone,
And swallowed the land the house stood on;
And then the tax collector came around,
And charged him up with the hole in the ground.

QUESTION No. 1 to be decided at the March 4 municipal election in Carrizozo is whether to create a Special Municipal Gross Receipts Tax imposing an additional tax of one-fourth of 1 percent on the gross receipts of all persons doing business in the town, and dedicating this increased revenue toward streets and alleys. Fine. But what happened to the money that was raised the last time this gross receipts tax was raised by one-fourth of 1 percent? As anyone can see, the streets and alleys of Carrizozo are a disgrace. If streets and alleys have been maintained, some citizens would like to learn where they are. If previous funds from the gross receipts tax have been spent, it would be comforting to know how they have been spent, and if any is left.

VOTERS have reason to be skeptical about how town funds are being spent. Take the correction fee fund, for example. There is an ordinance requiring each person violating an ordinance relating to operation of a motor vehicle to pay a $5 "correction fee." This fee is required even though no fine is imposed. All correction fees are to be deposited in a special fund and used only for "constructing, operating, or maintaining the municipal jail or for paying the cost of housing municipal prisoners in the county jail." First, there is no municipal jail. Second, municipal prisoners are jailed by the county, for which the county charges the town $20 per day per prisoner—but the town owes the county $1,480 for prisoners' care in 1985, which remains unpaid. This bill should have been paid out of the correction fee fund. Why hasn't it?

THE Town of Carrizozo is the only municipality in Lincoln County which has not signed a Joint Powers Agreement with the county to take care of their respective prisoners. One town paid the sheriff's office more than $13,000 last year for prisoner care, which costs the county $42.50 per prisoner per day to provide. The other towns are happy to pay only $20 a day for jail services, but not Carrizozo. The town trustees want the service free.

A spokesman for the county said Mayor Harold Garcia also wants the county to pay the costs of animal control inside the town limits, just because the animal shelter is on city land. This is also one of the reasons the mayor refuses to pay the county for jailing town prisoners. Sheriff Tom Sullivan said, as an example, that last year more than 50 city cats were euthanized at a cost to the county of $6 per cat for a total of $250. The town refused to pay for that, too, he said.

It makes one wonder why, if the Town of Carrizozo wants its bills paid by residents of Lincoln County, we don't abolish the town government and let Lincoln County take care of all the problems, as it seems to be doing at the time. Somebody, a long time ago, said "there is no such thing as a free lunch." Evidently he hadn't heard about Carrizozo.

MEMBERS of the legislature are considering a bill that would almost double their retirement annuities. The bill, sponsored by Rep. Vernon Kerr, comes at a time when the legislature has raised taxes by $150 million, just to keep the store open another year. Kerr argues that legislators lose from $5,000 to $15,000 in lost earnings because of their "service to the state," and deserve something better. New Mexico legislators draw no salaries, only per diem and mileage expenses. Legislators know full well what their remuneration is when they bust their buns to get elected. New Mexicans have never suffered at the hands of "professional politicians," as has, for example, California. Decades ago California was sold on the idea that offering salaries comparable with full-time employment in the private sector would attract more capable lawmakers. Unfortunately, the same incompetents who worked for that state for peanuts are firmly entrenched, and at incomes approaching $85,000 a year. New Mexico should not suffer that fate. A person who wants to serve this state should do it for that reason, not to be taken care of by taxpayers in his old age. It is, and it should be, an honor to serve in the New Mexico Legislature. There are always good people willing to give two or four years for the honor and satisfaction of it. In every election there is no dearth of candidates aspiring to the legislature. If they complain they can make more money in the private sector, then by all means let them remain in that private sector. But it is hypocritical to spend money to be elected, and once elected, complain they are ill-paid for work they worked to get. It would be a blessing if all of them departed Santa Fe to secure better paying jobs. This would open the door to those who feel they owe their state some service—and there are plenty of them waiting in the wings.

The highest point in the contiguous United States—the 14,494-foot peak of Mount Whitney in California—can be seen from the lowest point in the nation, Death Valley, which is 282 feet below sea level in California. These extremes are 100 miles apart.

Candidate Joe Kennedy's S. African profit unpicketed

BOSTON — They may not rival the huge student mobs of the sixties and seventies, but on campuses across this nation, a small percentage of the undergraduates are still active in that extracurricular sport called "demonstrating."

The goal of most of these current events is to try to pressure college and university trustees and administrations to sell all stocks in firms that do business in South Africa.

Since there is no known national student campaign to divest from all firms dealing with Saudi Arabia and the Soviet Union, there is the hypocrisy of selective indignation—and bad selecting at that. For the human rights records of both the Saudis and the Soviets make South Africa utopian by comparison.

Now The Boston Herald has discovered that during the past two years, Congressional Candidate Joe Kennedy of Massachusetts and his wife, Shiela, daughter of prominent Philadelphia banker R. Stewart Rauch, accepted $88,000 in stock dividends as well as interest from certificates of deposit in banks that do business with South Africa.

Big Media for the most part is refusing to report this. We verified it with Candidate Kennedy's press spokesman, Chuck McDermott, in Cambridge. McDermott noted: "Joe and Shiela both divested all the stock over which they had direct control, after his Uncle Ted's trip to South Africa last year."

So we asked: "Have any college students ever protested the Kennedys having accepted this money?"

"No," replied McDermott. The Boston Herald quoted Kennedy as saying: "I don't think I have any right to tell my in-laws in Philadelphia how to invest. My in-laws feel very strongly about this."

Understandable, Joe. Picket colleges, not in-laws.

DO Teachers Really Enjoy Free Speech in Maryland? Karen Collins is a music teacher in Montgomery County, MD, which is a strongly liberal suburb of our nation's capital.

She has been suspended from her teaching post and ordered to attend a course in human relations sensitivity. For students overheard her say to a teaching colleague that she resented observing the holiday for Martin Luther King, because, she said, she had heard that he had accepted help from, and been associated with, communists. She never claimed he was a communist.

Immediately the local chapter of the NAACP demanded that she be fired—for this out-of-class allusion to what is in pages and pages of detail in The Congressional Record.

If the fact that it was put there by Sen. Jesse Helms (R., NC) is not credible, there is still the historical fact that wiretaps of Dr. King were ordered by Attorney General Robert Kennedy, with the consent of his brother, the president.

Why on earth would they have done this unless it was their concern for the company King was keeping?

New York's National Review magazine wonders if suspended teacher Collins' sensitivity training will include "the evils of McCarthyism and how it made people afraid to speak out on public issues."

Some Good Black History Made This Month—When Navy Petty Officer Mitchell Garroway was found guilty of murdering Lt. Joseph Serner aboard the USS Miller last summer, his defense tried to contend that this knifing an officer in the back was mitigated by Garroway's being a black and a victim of "racism." But he was found guilty by a court martial—including three blacks. And this claim of "racism" was effectively blown away by the testimony of his ship's captain—who is himself black.

In Philadelphia, black militant newspaper columnist Chuck Stone wrote: "At last an increasing number of blacks are coming around to accepting the painful reality that white racism is not the sole cause of the black crisis." And Stone noted that 98 percent of all black infants are born to unwed mothers.

On CBS, liberal commentator Bill Moyers interviewed a 26-year-old black from Newark, NJ named Timothy. This young man is PROUD of the fact that he has fathered six children on four different females—none of whom he is able to support.

"I'm not stoppin' my pleasures," he declared. "I got strong sperm."

There are undoubtedly millions of decent blacks who share in yearning for some legislation whereby any such amoral stud with "strong sperm" could be taken and legally treated to a very strong vasectomy—without regard to race, color, creed or national origin.

SANTA FE—So what kind of legislative session did this year's turn out to be?

Weeelllll, let's put it this way:

—Legislators came to Santa Fe declaring they were going to cut the cost and size of government—and then proceeded to vote for and pass the largest budget, and therefore fund the largest government, in the history of the state.

—Most of the conservatives rode into town swearing they would not stand quietly by while the taxes paid by the ordinary citizen were raised by so much as a hair's breadth—and then they proceeded to vote for and pass the largest tax increase in New Mexico's history.

That's the kind of legislative session this year's turned out to be.

To put it simply, considerable of a disappointment. MORE CONTRADICTIONS: Those were the major things lawmakers did that might cause the eyebrows to go up in dismay, but there were also others.

For instance, those who enact our legislation flinched for some time about the grave deficiencies in our educational system and the necessity to reform it. But when it came down to concrete action, what did they do? They provided an "educational reform" bill that delays implementation of what improvements they managed to dredge up for a full year. They also decided to give us more of the very same sort of thing they professed to be dissatisfied with by voting for longer school days and longer school years, which wouldn't seem like a logical way to solve the problem.

Finally, because they thought teachers are doing such a lousy job, they gave them substantial raises.

And while we're on the matter of salaries, they gave non-schoolteaching employees of the state, including university professors and others, a 5 per-

Letters TO THE EDITOR

EDITOR—On March 4 the voters will once again have the opportunity to exercise the privilege to go to the polls and elect a mayor, a municipal judge and two councilmen. They will also be able to decide whether the liquor license holders will be able to serve drinks on the premises or not.

As most of you know the last time this was on the ballot the people voted to close the liquor establishments on Sundays. It was a most controversial issue because many people did not understand the wording on the ballot and as a result some voted against it. They actually thought they were voting for it. Some people elected not to vote on the issue simply because they did not know which way they were voting. Hopefully this time around it will be worded in a manner that everyone understands what they are voting for.

Before election day I feel it is necessary that the people need to be aware of the problems and consequences that this new local option law has created throughout the state. It has a devastating effect on the municipalities and the liquor industry as a whole.

First and foremost it has once again provided the bootlegger to make hefty profits to the benefit of no one. He does not have to invest thousands of dollars on a license, he does not have to pay taxes, he does not have to pay skyrocketing insurance premiums, he does not have to abide by any rules and regulations and he profits from the people that can afford it the least.

The real sadness of this situation is that hundreds of thousands of dollars if filtered through this operation and the municipalities affected do not benefit of one penny of this money. In short this allows a person to prostitute on industry that pays enormous amounts of taxes to the state and its municipalities. You should realize that the liquor industry is a big industry that it is the most regulated and highest taxed business in the state.

As of March of last year three liquor establishments have been forced to shut the doors to the public because of the new law. A lot of people may say "Well, what is one day?" Well one day is only one day, but there are 52 of them in one year. In doing some calculating a year of Sundays multiplied by three, equals 156 days of lost revenues to the town. Lets suppose that if these three establishments could be open on Sundays. We would have provided 3,616 hours of employment. The average person works 2,000 hours a year. This amounts to the elimination of almost three full time jobs a year! Does Carrizozo need jobs? Think about it. Let us assume that each establishment sold a minimum of $300 per Sunday in food and beverage. This totals to $46,800.00. Add this to about $18,000.00 of payroll and this comes to $64,800.00 per year. Keep in mind that this is for only one day a week (12 hrs. a day) for one year.

I have talked to many people of Carrizozo about the financial situation of the town and it's conclusive that everybody wants industry in Carrizozo. This brings me to my main point of this letter. I certainly agree that we need more jobs which only come by some sort of industry, but why do we in one hand, say that we need the revenue and on the other hand we turn around and vote to close an industry that has struggled and remained faithful to this community all these years! I have trouble comprehending this kind of thinking and if someone out there can explain this type of logic I would like to hear it.

It seems obvious to me that we all need to sit back and examine our actions even though they may be well intended. I have always contended that we cannot legislate morals and principals. We should not be expected to dictate other people's habits. By closing us on Sundays you do not change people's drinking habits. All it does is change the place where these people drink and force them to go out of town. We also need to keep in mind that bootleggers don't discriminate! They sell to people over 101 and to people under 21.

I feel that this industry is well policed and regulated. We should all work together to keep it that way.

WILLIE SILVA
Carrizozo, NM

EDITOR—Few would question the urgency of doing something about the nation's spiraling federal deficit. Our government's hemorrhage of red ink threatens to drown the Reagan economic recovery, the longest period of sustained growth since World War II. Congress showed that it is of one mind on the subject by enacting the Gramm-Rudman-Hollings bill, which will require the federal government to balance its budget by 1991, placing deficit limits of decreasing magnitude for each year until then. Automatic spending cuts of up to $65 billion will occur unless Congress and the president can agree on a budget that holds deficits to $144 billion in the next fiscal year.

Where disagreement arises, however, is over the critical issue of what generated the deficit in the first place, and how best it can be pared back. Some blame increased military spending and President Reagan's tax cuts. But the truth is that defense expenditures rose at an 8 percent annual rate between 1980 and 1985, 20 percent less than the growth of the entire budget during that period. The military budget now accounts for 7 percent of GNP, compared to the 9.4 percent spent under Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy. Reagan's defense spending is actually lower than that proposed in President Carter's fiscal year 1980 budget. And as for the impact of the tax cuts, federal revenue has risen 41 percent during the Reagan presidency.

If defense spending is not the culprit and revenues are up, what is to blame? The answer is that government has simply been spending money faster than it has been taking it in. Federal spending has exploded by 60 percent since 1980. The bulk of the increase has involved social spending and other non-defense items, which account for nearly 76 percent of the budget. Social spending is at an all-time high of $641.7 billion, which swallows up a colossal 19.4 percent of GNP.

With his fiscal year 1987 budget proposal now before Congress, President Reagan has provided a solution to the deficit crisis that does not require new taxes to support Congress' addition to social spending, trim Social Security, or compromise the nation's security by wholesale defense cuts.

As part of the $60 billion in savings the president has proposed, he has offered a savings of $262 million by levying Corps of Engineers user fees on commercial shipping, nearly $2 billion by eliminating the obsolete Strategic Petroleum Reserve, $580 million by abolishing the equally obsolete Rural Electrification Administration, $1.3 billion by doing away with the Urban Mass Transit Authority, $907 million by ending the taxpayer subsidy (24 cents per passenger mile) to Amtrak, and almost $2 billion by excising the wasteful Small Business Administration.

We must not allow Congress to jeopardize our security or raise our taxes when it can so easily cut bureaucratic deadwood and waste instead.

SENATOR UNABLE TO LAND—

Edward Lujan substitutes for Domenici

US Sen. Pete Domenici was a "no show" at his own party Sunday afternoon at Cree Meadows Country Club in Ruidoso. His plane could not land at Ruidoso because of 40-mile gusts, disappointing more than 100 persons who had turned out to visit with the senator, Mrs. Domenici, Mrs. Joe Skeen and Republican Party leaders.

Jack Page, acting chairman of the Lincoln County Republican Party, introduced Mrs. Skeen, wife of the Congressman, who spoke briefly.

Edward Lujan, State Republican Chairman, filled in for the absent Domenici. He said there has been a resurgence of the Republican Party in such counties as Lea, Santa Fe and Sandoval, where the largest numbers attended the party's Lincoln Day dinners.

Praising the two-party system, he pointed out that a party too long in power tend to consider their mandate that of the party rather than of people. For the first time in 45 years, Republicans have a slight edge in Santa Fe.

"But it is the duty of a minority party to oppose," he said, "and there was no compromise last year. This year, compromise made in tough legislative sessions, resulted in statesmanlike decisions, and both houses agreed on major issues."

Lujan said this year's crop of candidates for state office is the best group ever. These state candidates spoke briefly following Lujan's speech.

Marjorie Bell Chambers,

GOP candidate for lieutenant governor, comes with these credentials: presiding officer, Los Alamos County Council; successful GOP candidate for the 3rd Congressional Dist.; delegate, President Reagan's Conference on Excellence in Education; member, New Mexico Region II Criminal Justice Board; president, Colorado Women's College; dean and professor of public policy and management, Union Graduate School; President's Advisory Committee for Women; president, Bell-Chambers Associates, national consulting firm; national president, American Association of University Women. She holds a Ph. D degree from the University of New Mexico, a BA with honors from Mount Holyoke College, and an MA degree from Cornell University.

Harris Hartz, candidate for justice of the New Mexico Supreme Court, head the New Mexico Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Commission from 1977 to 1979 and is widely credited with having freed Ruidoso Downs from the influence of organized crime. He was criminal prosecutor in the US Attorney's office for New Mexico, 1974-75. Since 1979 he has been a partner in a leading New Mexico law firm in Albuquerque, and taught at the University of Illinois law school. He has a bachelor's degree in physics from Harvard University, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa honor society; took his law degree at Harvard Law School and was an editor of the Harvard Law Review.

Also speaking were Jannie A. McDaniel, GOP candidate for secretary of state. She has been in government for the past 12 years and has a BBA degree; and Paul Donisthorpe, candidate for state treasurer, who is a certified public accountant and graduate of Purdue University and National Graduate Trust School at Northwestern University.

Following the meeting, Lujan told the NEWS that no political party, at any time, in any state, has fielded a slate of candidates with the background, education and experience equal to those running for office as Republicans in New Mexico this year.

The following reports were logged at Carrizozo Town Police Dept. The town police force consists of Chief of Police C. A. Morales and officers Adam Montes and Richard Baker.

February 24

10:00 a.m. A trailer shed located at a residence near the Catholic church was found with the door open. Nothing was missing.

3:30 p.m. A resident at B Avenue, reported to Lincoln County Sheriff's Dept. (LCSD) that teenage girls were fighting near her home. Morales was dispatched to the scene.

3:30 p.m. Coach Willie Gallegos informed Morales that when he got back from a game at Vaughn (Feb. 21) he had discovered his vehicle with two flat front tires. The vehicle was parked at school property on D Avenue.

Feb. 23

2:15 p.m. Jimmy Carpenter, 17th Street, reported a bicycle missing. Baker returned to Carpenter the unclaimed bicycle at town hall.

Feb. 22

12:30 a.m. George Delgado, 11th Street, walked into the LCSD where Montes was engaged in police business. Delgado reported that his brother was trying to beat him up. Danny Delgado was arrested and placed in the county jail for 12 hours detox.

10:03 a.m. Otto Prehm reported to LCSD that he had received threats at his place of business on 12th Street. According to the police log, a subject threatened to shoot Prehm's dog and the dog's owner, too.

Feb. 19

1 p.m. School Principal Bruce Young reported to LCSD that a student had left the school grounds following an argument with a teacher. Morales advised the girl's mother to get in touch with Young.

10:15 p.m. Jackie Martin, owner of Jackie's Lounge on Central and US 54, reported a theft attempt to LCSD. The bartender, busy at the bar, noticed a male subject climbing back out of the drive-in window. The money bag was found on the floor and no money was missing. Montes responded to the call but the subject had fled in the direction of the railroad tracks.

cent raise with one hand while talking back something like 7 percent of their salary in new taxes with the other.

But what the conservatives in both bodies should be most eternally ashamed of is that, after damning Toney Anaya with almost every name they could think of during the past three years, they now proceeded to get into bed with him on every possible occasion.

That's the kind of legislative session we had in 1966—and we must all remember to tell our grandchildren about it.

ARITHMETIC: As things turned out, these people couldn't even add.

By the morning of the day before the session ended, they had passed bills expending almost every dollar of the money we can expect to take in during next fiscal year if—very important—"if"—oil sells at an average cost of $22.40 per barrel over a 12-month period, plus every dollar the newly raised taxes will now throw off.

Wouldn't you think they would stop there? They didn't. In fact, they authorized more than $5 million worth of additional spending during the last 24 hours.

As a consequence, as the suit of their session sank slowly into the west, they had to permit the governor (again) to draw down further on the state's already diminishing reserves to keep the books balanced.

It's too bad the word "irresponsible" is so overused. It would have been nice to have it available and full of emotional content for spitting out whenever anybody asks, "What would you describe the actions of the 1986 meeting of the New Mexico state legislature as?"

You can almost be sure legislators will be back before July 1 to re-do most of what they have so far done, especially readjusting the spending downward to conform with reality.

Robert Williams was in Gallup three days last week so there was no weather report for the week. His reading of eight degrees below zero on Feb. 10 was the low for the storm period at Lincoln Station. However, ranchers and others in the area reported temperatures as low as 25 degrees below zero one night. The sun, wind and a little rain caused the snow to disappear fast, even leaving a little tank water. The low last week was 29 on the 20th and the high 65 on the 19th.

Elementary children learn about agriculture

CORONA - Children in the 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th grade at Corona Elementary School are learning about agriculture this week from Corona high school agriculture students. The teachers are members of the Corona FFA Chapter who are involved in presenting the Food For America program which is sponsored by the National FFA Foundation through a grant from the Mobay Chemical Corporation.

The program teaches elementary school age children about the world of agriculture and the Future Farmers of America. The Corona FFA presented a program to the elementary school Thursday, Feb. 20 in conjunction with National FFA Week. The program consisted of the members telling the students where all parts of a bacon cheeseburger come from and where things that go into a pizza come from. The members also told the students about the FFA organization and then answered questions about both agriculture and the FFA.

in a poster contest in which they displayed their artistic talents while learning about agriculture and FFA.

Ruidoso hosts GOP

Plagued again by bad weather, Lincoln County Republicans met Feb. 16 in spite of the absence of US Senator Pete Domenici, who was unable to land at the Ruidoso airport because of high winds and low visibility.

Jack Page, acting chairman of the county party, introduced Republican candidates for state officers and the state chair of the party, Ed Lujan.

Lujan said, "I am reminded to day of Abraham Lincoln who really began the two party system in the United States and that is one thing that makes our country strong." He added that the persons currently running for office on the Republican ticket are "the best group of candidates I've ever seen."

Mary Helen Skeen, representing her husband US Congressman Joe Skeen, said, "He appreciates all you have done for our country - without a country there's no state and certainly no party."

Candidates present at the meeting were: Harris Hartz, candidate for justice of the state supreme court; Jannie McDaniel, secretary of state candidate; Paul Donisthorpe, candidate for the state treasurer post; and Majorie Bell Chambers, candidate for lieutenant governor.

Chambers said that she is qualified for the office of lieutenant governor because she is very familiar with the problems of management and policy. If elected, she said, she would travel the state to talk to the citizens and would be "the eyes and the ears of the government."

NOTES FROM...

Meet the Capitan candidates night

Capitan voters will go to the polls, Tuesday, March 4, and elect the following: Trustee - 2 positions, a Mayor, and a Municipal Judge. The candidates for municipal judge are Jimmie Z. Stewart and Charles R. Beck.

The following are the candidates for mayor and trustee in capsule form: Mayor, Benjamin Coker, trustee for the past 8 years, president of the New Mexico Rural Water Users Association, support Eagle Creek Users Association, bring the water from the new well to town and use as a supplemental source, Vernon Kelly Beavers, a 27 year air force veteran, moved to Capitan in 1979 - make Capitan "a safe and prosperous place to live" - Eagle Creek will be our primary water source for a long time - His water priority is a filtering plant - Not against well but get safe water and then pursue well - present filtering plant is on its last leg.

Trustee, Dave Strickland grew up around Lovington and Hobbs. Would like to see the new well supply Capitan with water while the filter system is being designed and built, at one time a superintendent for an off shore construction firm, has considerable experience with water filters of all designs, feels new well water needs only a little chlorine, higher taxes will not discourage the growth of Capitan. W. F. "Pug" Eckland moved to Capitan in 1967 and now has "time on his hands", has been in charge of many men, 1st priority is a filter plant, need a storage system placed on high ground, would like to pump water out of Alto Lake or drill wells in that vicinity, would like to work with kids. George Olan Egober, a graduate of Capitan High School, has been a trucker, a trader, in construction work and operated his own business in Capitan - states he "understands water systems - would like to update present filter plant, feels storage is very important, he knows pipe, little maintenance if installed correctly, feels new airport will bring jobs to Capitan (15-17 permanent employees).

More trustee candidates, Charles D. Locke, wants safe drinking water and an ample supply, self employed, would treat Eagle Creek as a main source and not as an alternate, new well is first priority, water storage important, upgrade present filtering system, would like to see Capitan grow and prosper. Dr. David Norman Roulean, originally from Kansas, has been a physician in Capitan for 10 years, first priority is a filtering plant, develop Eagle Creek, feels there are a lot of questions concerning the new well, has no conflicts of interest, develop water rights dating back to 1918.

These notes in capsule form were taken at "Meet the Candidates Night" Feb. 20. All candidates agreed that Capitan should not annex any more land until the Village can take care of what it presently has.

Mayor Cummins appeared at the end of the meeting. He feels the new well will prove good. The $593,000 in grant money will get this water to Capitan. "The test on the new well should tell us what to do."

Capitan News

by Margaret Rench

Last week was spring. Windy and warm days and nights until the last two days which were much cooler. It was pleasant and enjoyable.

The Smokey Bear Museum had 324 registered visitors from Feb. 17-26. There were 15 states and two foreign countries represented. I think that is remarkable. Here are the states: Nevada, New York, Colorado, South Carolina, California, Idaho, Washington (state), Massachusetts, Iowa, Alabama, Ohio, Hawaii, North Carolina, New Mexico and Texas. Countries are Canada and Australia. This little village does appreciate that.

The Band Boosters Enchilada supper was a huge success last Saturday night.

The Meet the Candidate last Thursday night was attended by a large crowd with a good meeting.

Remember City Elections Tuesday, March 4. Go do your duty and cast your vote!

The Trinity Baptist Church held their first meeting in their new building Feb. 23, with a large crowd.

Congratulations to Kimberly Cox who received a $200 scholarship in business at "Talent Day" in Portales at Eastern New Mexico University. Robbie Runnels and Wendy Tate were both offered Silver Scholarships at Eastern recently.

The Tigerettes who are in the All District team are Tracy Herd, Becky Huey and Jana Harris. They will play in the All District playoffs in Cloudercroft Friday, 7 p.m. If they win Friday, they will play Saturday for championship at Cloudercroft. They must win Friday and Saturday nights in order to play in the regionals here in Capitan the following week. Get in there and win. We are proud of you and are counting on you. Go get them.

The Tiger boys will be at home on Friday in a non district game against Tatum.

The Tigers were in a 3-way tie for first in District along with Cloudercroft and Hagerman. On Sunday the three coaches flipped coins with "Odd man out" being Hagerman, on the second flip Cloudercroft won making them first and therefore host to the boys district tournament. Capitan being second, will not have to play until Friday, March 7. If the Tigers win that game, they will progress on to the Regional Tournament. We wish both our boys and girls lots of luck at district. Work hard. You can do wonders if you are sincere.

The Roundtable Club met at the home of Mary Dean, Feb. 20. Valentine decorations were seen through the house. Roast beef was served with dishes of goodies from members. Ten members were there, with Alice Traylor and Winifred Cozzens absent. Guests were Emmagene Hall and Willa Stone. The group sang Happy birthday to Gladys Pew. President Maureen Sullivan called the meeting to order. The report was made to wait until later for a party at Ruidoso Rest Home. Gladys Pew won the raffle. The March meeting will be held at Gladys Pew home.

Old Corral & Sagebrush has new spring items in. Do be watching for the news of their fashion show. Go by and see the beautiful merchandise.

Happy birthday to Jane Allred whose birthday was Feb. 22 and many more with good health.

Welcome to new residents - Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Brooks and grandson, Darrell, from Alto who at this time are in the trailer court until they find a house. Mr. Brooks is employed with REA and has been for sometime and are so happy to be in Capitan where they have wanted to be for so long. May you have many years of joy and happiness with us. We are happy to have you.

Ken and Linda Green of Carlsbad, were last weekend guests of Kay and Terry Strickland.

Lynne Story, Colleen Salazar and Cathleen Massey visited in Portales and Clovis last Saturday and Sunday. They visited an aunt of Cathleen's, Era Battles, 87 years of age. For years, she was alteration lady at Penney's in Portales. At Clovis they visited 83-year-old, G. L. Massey and family. They had a wonderful time and gave joy to their elders. Returned home with light happy hearts.

E Mayor

—An eleven year resident of Capitan—being on the Village council the past eight years. I will contribute as Mayor the communication and expertise needed in areas of the school system, Sierra Blanca Regional Airport, Eagle Creek Inter-community Water Supply Association and our present water situation.

—Water being the major concern of Capitan, it needs to be addressed with utmost authority. I have been re-elected president of the New Mexico Rural Water Users Association. In that position I can be an asset to the village. The water well east of Capitan will be my number one project. The well is a major water find and should be out into service as quickly as possible. The Village of Capitan cannot continue to borrow water. I have the ability to complete that project. Once the well is in operation the renovation of the filter plant will be implemented. The Eagle Creek Intercommunity Water Supply Association should be very carefully addressed. The present ECIWSA is working well and should be kept in that prospective. As Mayor of Capitan I will make sure that feeling is maintained.

—General obligation bonds, annexation moratoriums, sewer systems, streets and cooperative agreements are areas that I understand and will contribute to.

—Hopefully a seventy-two hour test can be conducted on the new water well. Many people are skeptical of the test that was done earlier. Maybe a new test will make them comfortable with the type of well Capitan has.

—As your mayor we will work together to provide Capitan a strong and responsible village government. A mayor that will be responsive to the needs and concerns of all Capitan citizens. Lets take action now and elect a mayor who will get the job done!

PIANO DUO-LOGUES:

Haddens to perform

The Ruidoso Summer Festival, Inc. is excited to bring a new kind of music to Ruidoso. Piano Duo-Logues with the Haddens, a fast-moving and informal approach to the music arena, will be performed Sunday afternoon, March 16, 3 p.m., at the First Christian Church on Hill Road in Ruidoso.

The Haddens are a husband-wife duo-piano team with a long established reputation for distinction and imaginative programming. While playing a "Mixed Media Show" on twin Baldwin's, they present a visual travogue of China.

The Haddens' unusual experience of long time residence on the China mainland and of friendship with many of China's leaders under both the Nationalist and Communist regimes, gives them a special authority. Their command performance for the Premier in Peking, Oct. 8, 1972, was the initial break-through culminating in today's thriving cultural exchange. The Haddens have performed for the White House and for at least 26 Heads of State from 17 countries - they are truly musical ambassadors extraordinaire.

Tickets can be purchased through the Ruidoso Summer Festival by calling 257-7929. Ticket prices are $5, general admission, and $3, students-senior citizens.

The Ruidoso Summer Festival, Inc. is currently accepting contributions in the way of money or services in the hope that a variety of musical experiences can be provided throughout the year. All contributions are tax deductible.

Keller again led the Tigers with 11 points. Sanchez followed with 10 points and Troy Padilla with 8. A 23 point 4th quarter gave Hagerman the victory.

Captain led Ft. Sumner 28-27 at the half Tuesday night but a 1 point 3rd quarter put the Tigers in a bind from which they did not recover. The Foxes won this one 62-43. Parker and Padilla led the way for the Tigers with 13 and 12 points respectively. Ft. Sumner had 8 players in double figures. The Tiger Junior Varsity bested Cloudercroft 70-62. Mike Lunn led the Tiger attack with 15 points. Chad Reynolds, Mike Shanks, and Doug Eckland all scored in double figures for Captain. Moser had a big 22 points for the Bears. This same Captain team had no trouble with Hagerman Saturday evening, winning 70-28. Mike Shanks hit 12 field goals and three free throws for 27 points. Tino Gallegos helped out with 12 points. The Tiger Junior Varsity was also victorious in Ft. Sumner Tuesday night.

The Tigerettes won both Friday and Saturday nights winding up 8-2 on the season in conference play and 18-4 overall.

Tracy Herd led Captain to a 48-41 victory over Cloudercroft with 19 points. Stowe also scored in double figures for the Tigerettes. Cloudercroft wound up with a 9-1 record, 1st place in conference play, and is hosting the district tournament this week.

The Tigerettes defeated the Lady Bobcats Saturday night 34-31. Huey had the hot hand for Captain with 16 points.
