Carrizozo to vote on issue

$150,000 water bond election Tuesday

By RUTH HAMMOND

Voters in Carrizozo will go to the polls next Tuesday and vote in the special election for a $150,000 general obligation water bond.

The special election was called by the mayor and board of trustees to ask voters to pass the general obligation bond, proceeds of which will be used to modernize existing wells; run new lines from wells to the filtration plant; and to test, inspect, clean and refurbish the storage tank as required.

Since 1984 the governing body of the town has heard numerous complaints about the water distribution system.

In October 1986 the town applied for a New Mexico Water Supply Construction grant. After the application, the town learned that this grant has been eliminated by the state legislature.

The town council then called for the special general obligation bond election to be held May 19 to provide funding for water system improvement. The polling place will be city hall from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Reasons given for the election: The condition of the wells is unknown, the amount of water being supplied is unknown due to the lack of metering at the wells, the south side of town has experienced chronic low water pressure, the storage tank constructed in 1958 with expected life of 20 years is now going on 30 and the tank condition is unknown. The Environmental Improvement Division has suggested automation of fresh water supply, and the condition of the supply lines from the wells to the storage tank is poor and recent leaks have wasted large amounts of water.

The town has proposed a 13-year retirement schedule for the bond issue. The tax increase necessary is estimated to be $6.67 per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

The average assessed valuation for a house in Carrizozo is estimated to be $5,000 by the county assessor's office.

The estimated tax increase for the average household would be $33.35 per year or $2.78 per month.

Property owners in Carrizozo have not had to pay bond debt service since 1981 when the last one was paid off. The estimated tax rate will be less than it has been since 1982.

Council members and the mayor have made appearances at civic groups and organizations and explained the need for the general obligation water bond and have asked that residents vote in the election.

Capitan Village Council

Coker wants Capitan out of Sierra Blanca Airport deal

By BART McDONOUGH

At the monthly meeting of the Capitan Village Council Monday night Mayor Benny Coker proclaimed the month of May as Senior Citizens Month in Capitan.

Beulah Moore of Carrizozo reported that there are 34 seniors in Carrizozo, Capitan and Corona who plan to participate in the senior olympics in Roswell the last four days of May. Moore stated that some may qualify for national competition in St. Louis around July 1. She asked for donations to help pay their expenses. She invited everyone to the soup supper and talent show May 16 in Carrizozo. This is set for 6 p.m. at the Carrizozo Recreation Center.

Capitan trustees approved a donation of $1,500 to the Lincoln County Fair Board for the upkeep of the fairgrounds. Attorney John Underwood explained that a donation may be made when the activity pertains to all age groups. A donation could not be made by the village to the senior citizens because this involved only one age group.

A situation involving a deep gutter was brought before the council by Sharron and Joel Darby. The Darbys felt that they had been denied access to their property. They were advised that they must furnish their own culvert and the village will install it. The bottom line occurred when Street Supt. Guy Henley stated, "I'll help you anyway I can." It appears that the village is beginning an active campaign to remove some of the "wrecks" around town.

The ordinance pertaining to this situation may also be modified.

The Open Meeting Act was approved once again as it now stands. Basically, this is a five-day posted notice for a regular meeting of the council and 72 hour notice for a special meeting.

George Beaudry appeared before the council to discuss doing something with the old depot. Beaudry, representing the Lincoln County Historical Society, felt that the Capitan Chamber of Commerce should be the lead agency in this endeavor. It was decided to contact State Rep. Knowles.

Capitan's animal control officer has resigned. Pappy Kuhns of D and J Services offered to help Capitan in this situation. The sheriff's department has cooperated with the village. It was decided to go out for proposals concerning animal control.

The fire department budget was approved. The radio system is now paid for, but the newest fire truck still has a balance due. The budget amounts to $40,106.

Speeding in the subdivision was discussed. It was noted that the speed limit in the village where not posted is 30 mph. The police department will keep a closer eye on this situation.

Mayor Coker announced that portions of the inside of the village hall will be painted over the Memorial Day weekend. The low bid submitted by Gary Renfro was approved by the council. The other two bids were almost double that of the Renfro bid.

The Joins Powers Agreement with the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport was discussed. Trustee Strickland had attended a meeting and said he feels the FAA wants everybody out except Ruidoso. Mayor Coker stated, "we've done our part and its time to get out.

The only two people that can afford it are the county and Ruidoso."

In other business Mayor Coker told those present that the water line from the new well is basically finished. Completion of the 500,000 gallon water tank east of Capitan should take another week to 10 days.

Pat Huey asked the mayor why he hadn't been considered for painting the inside of the village hall. Village Clerk Janet Keel stated that she didn't know that Huey is also a painting contractor. Huey told the council that he pays gross receipts taxes and that he is the oldest contractor in Capitan. The mayor assured Huey that he is not being "picked on."

Chamber of Commerce President Aggie Bucsek-Kingston announced there will be another Clean-up Day in the fall.

The Capitan Village Council meets the second Monday of each month at 7 p.m. in the back portion of the village hall.

Corona School District

Board tightens belt to keep within a budget of $847,000

State and local officials signed a tentative $847,000 budget for the 1987-88 school year after Corona board members agreed to contingencies requested by the state during Monday's public hearing.

The total reflected an operational budget of about $759,000, down from $765,000 for the 1986-87 school year.

The tentative budget includes salaries for three certified teachers needed to fill vacancies occurring in special education, secondary and elementary areas, although no salary increases will be given.

Corona Supt. John Clem noted that while costs for insurance and utilities have risen, the district must continue to do the same job with less money. Funding is based on enrollment, and Corona's has declined steadily to 93 students. However, the state has allowed certain districts, including Corona, to base their budget on the previous year's higher enrollment.

Jeanne Barck of the state department of education noted that all districts were experiencing difficulties in balancing their budgets and that requests for $5.5 million had been received; the legislature has allocated $1.2 million in supplementary emergency funds. Corona had originally asked for $50,000, then revised the figure to $34,851. Tentatively, the district will receive $32,000.

State officials agreed to approve the tentative budget if that change in supplemental emergency funding was reflected and of the salary scale for certified teachers was adjusted to reflect teacher experience more accurately. Board members agreed to the contingencies. The final budget should be approved by September.

Barck noted that this is the first time the Corona District has asked for supplemental emergency funding and commended the district and Clem for efficient use of funds. She added that schools like to provide a variety of non-required activities, but in times of economic hardship, many of those kinds of things have to be eliminated. Clem listed several areas where cuts had to be made. These included the elimination of volleyball, reduction of the

Woman's Club supports Senior Olympics fund

Beulah Moore and Patsy Sanchez were guest speakers at the May 5 meeting of the Carrizozo Woman's Club.

Moore showed a poster publicizing the soup supper planned as a money-making project for Senior Citizens Olympic hopefuls. The soup supper will be held at the Carrizozo Rec Center on May 16 with tickets costing $3 for "all you can eat." Moore said that money raised would help send senior citizens to the state olympic contest. Gold medal winners at state will qualify to enter the national olympics in St. Louis.

Moore then presented a pantomime skit on cats by lip-synching with a recorded tune. The woman's club voted to donate $25 to the senior olympic fund.

Sanchez, a Carrizozo trustee, spoke to members about the May 19 special election to be held in Carrizozo. The election for general obligation water bonds is being held to ask voters to approve the bonds to update the water system.

Sanchez explained that passage of the issue is important and said that the average cost to the average homeowner will be $33 per year. The town does not have any outstanding debts at this time and the estimated tax increase will bring the general obligation bond debt service to less than it had been in 1984.

She also talked to members about starting a Neighborhood Watch program, asked for help with planting flowers that will be delivered within the next two weeks for the city beautification project, and asked for help with the plans of the White Oaks Historical Society to restore the White Oaks schoolhouse and place a billboard sign on highway 54 telling about White Oaks.

Hondo Valley News

By PAM McARTHUR

Congratulations to the King and Queen of the 1987 Hondo Fiesta. Tito Montoya and Peggy Candelaria were crowned Saturday, May 2 to cheers of an admiring crowd.

Tito is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fernando Montoya of Arabela. Peggy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Candelaria of San Patricio. True to its 25-year tradition in the Valley, the Fiesta Del Acro Iris (Rainbow) was a memorable event of color, movement, music, talent, and laughter.

Sharing the duties of master of ceremonies were Supt. Eufrazio Vigil and Mrs. Ida Maldonado, assisted by several members of the Hondo School staff. Parents of the dancers served dinner in the cafeteria prior to the performances Friday and Saturday nights. Enjoying the food and festivities were many friends and families as well as visitors from Roswell, Ruidoso, Alamogordo, and cadets from New Mexico Military Institute.

Some of the 25 dances so precisely executed were the Jarabe Tapatio (Mexican Hat Dance); Las Espuelas (the Spurs); Cafe Colon (Welcome Dance); El Alcaraban (Tropical Bird); and El Calambre, a polka from Northern Mexico which sent feet flying faster than the eye could watch.

Each dancer's costume was unique, many depicting the rainbow theme in sequins and beaded handwork. Over 100 students from kindergartens through senior participated, under the direction of Porfiria Zinn, JoAnn Ortiz, Laura Herrera, Beatrice Gomez, and Frank Herrera.

The folks came to see them dance, and dance they did — sparkling, swishing skirts, fancy footwork, and flashing smiles across the gym floor, beneath a bright rainbow of flowers. Mrs. Fermin Montes, the originator of the Fiesta in 1948, was present with her husband's book, Dreams Can Become A Reality (1983). It is a true story of all who have worked to preserve a bi-cultural legacy in music and the dance. Perhaps the true gold at the end of the fiesta rainbow is its treasure of community spirit and pride.

Without clouds and other constituents of the Earth's atmosphere, the surface of our planet would reach a temperature of 176 degrees at the equator by day.

community spirit and pride.

The conclusion of this story was omitted from my last column so here it is again: "Auntie died while residing with her niece who had two small children. The niece didn't want to upset the young children so she simply told them, 'Auntie has gone to live with God.' The two shook their heads and said in unison, 'Oh, poor God!' (St. Andrew's newsletter).

The Silver Dollar Restaurant, Tinnie, is now open for lunch on weekends. The staff is ready to serve from 11:30 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday in addition to their regular evening hours.

After a long cautious wait, the walnut trees are leafing out and the hills are carpeted in wildflowers — Indian Paintbrush, Frickly Poppies, pink Phlox and purple Verbena.

Sincere sympathy is extended upon the death of Bonifacio Fresquez of Arabela and also to the family and friends of Carl Lueras, San Patricio.

The men of Tinnie Baptist Church cooked breakfast Sunday, May 10 in honor of Mothers Day, and of all the ladies who were present.

Best wishes to the 1987 graduating seniors of Hondo High School who will receive their diplomas Saturday, May 16. Following a Mass at St. Jude's Church at 5:30, the ceremony will be held in the gym at 7:30. The class valedictorian is Gail Aragon. Soon after graduation, the class leaves for sun and fun on the beach of Padre Island, TX.

Hondo high school graduation exercises are this Saturday

Senior Commencement at Hondo High School is Saturday, May 16, in the school gymnasium, beginning at 7 p.m. Senior Mass will be the same day at 5:30 p.m. This mass will be at St. Jude Catholic Church in San Patricio.

Freddie Romero will be the Commencement speaker. Romero is a 1974 graduate of Hondo High School, now an attorney in Roswell. Jeannie Moir will give the Valedictorian address and Gail Aragon will do the same as Salutatorian. Franklin Herrera will provide special music.

The graduating seniors are: Gail Aragon, Peggy Candelaria, Patricia Chavez, Rachel Chavez, Frank McTeigue, Jeannie Moir, Eli

Ida Maldonado, class sponsor, announced that 80 percent of the class managed to stay on the honor roll this year. Most of the seniors plan to further their education.

The Senior trip will be to Padre Island, Texas. The class will leave May 17.

National History Fair

Eight Carrizozo students set for Washington trip

Eight Carrizozo students are eligible to represent Lincoln County in the National History Fair to be held in Washington, DC, June 5-11. The theme this year is "Liberty: Rights and Responsibilities in History."

These students are among the nine students who placed in the state contest held May 9 in Albuquerque. Seven projects were represented. The winning students, their project and a description of their projects:

Johnny Ortiz and Paul Herrera, first place, senior group media project, "The Right to Rock." This project explores the rights and responsibilities that rock musicians have to perform their music.

Valerie Padilla and Stacy Archuleta, second place, junior group project, "Cartoon Violence: A Right or Responsibility." Does the First Amendment allow producers to make cartoons for children in any manner that they wish?

Ty Holborn, first place, junior individual performance, "Freedom of the Press: Read All About It!" Through the character of John Dunlap, Ty presents the development of freedom of the press in the early days of this country. (Ralph Dunlap, Lincoln County Commissioner, is a descendent of John Dunlap.)

Ruben Gallegos, second place, senior individual project, "Rosa Parks." Rosa Parks believed it was her right to sit anywhere on a bus. It was her responsibility to help lead black people in the civil rights movement.

Rodney Serna, second place, senior group project, "The Invisible Empire." The Ku Klux Klan has the right to assemble and speak their ideas but they also have the responsibility not to violate anyone else's rights.

Chris Holborn, first place, junior individual media, "Buffalo: Brother or Beast." Throughout history man has felt a right to use the buffalo to his own ends. He has recently learned that it is also his responsibility to conserve the buffalo and other animals.

Rachel Monrreal, third place, senior individual project, "The MIA's and the POW's." It was the American soldier's responsibility to fight in Vietnam. What now is the responsibility of the US government to the missing-in-action and prisoners-of-war? (Third place is not eligible to compete in the national history fair.)

The cost for the eight students to go to the national contest is $482 per student. Donations are being accepted to help with the costs involved.

The national theme "Liberty: Rights and Responsibilities in History" was chosen to coincide with the Bicentennial of the Constitution, Sept. 17, 1787.

The Lincoln County History Fair, the second for the area, was held April 8 in Carrizozo schools. All area students were invited to participate.

Chamber pushes passage of bond

Carrizozo Trustee Linda Haller was guest speaker at the May 12 Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce meeting to explain the election scheduled for May 19 for general obligation bond for water construction for the town.

Haller stressed the need for the proposed $150,000 general obligation bond. She said the amount of water being supplied is unknown due to the lack of meters at the wells, the condition of the supply lines from the wells to the storage tank is poor and recent leaks have wasted large amounts of water in addition to the need to improve the chronic low water pressure that parts of the town have experienced.

Brochures explaining the need for the bonds, the project and the cost, were distributed by Haller. The estimated tax increase for the average household will be $33.35 per year if the bond is approved by voters.

Chamber president Betty Howell told members, "I think we should all vote for it."

Chamber members also heard a report about the state history fair held in Albuquerque last Saturday. Eileen Serna brought students Stacy Padilla, Valerie Archuleta, Ruben Gallegos and Rodney Serna to the meeting. These students and Johnny Ortiz, Paul Herrera, Ty Holborn, Chris Holborn and Rachel Monrreal all placed in the state contest.

Eight of these students are eligible to participate in the national contest to be held June 6-11 in Washington, DC. The cost for each student will be $482. Chamber members voted to donate $200 to help with trip expenses for the students.

In other business, the chamber agreed to sponsor the Christmas decorations for the town again this year, heard a report on the Lincoln County Food Bank, Carrizozo and Corona chapter, from Phyllis Schlegel and were told there would be no People's Market this year.

Beulah Moore talked about the Senior Olympics and told about the soup supper planned for Saturday at the Carrizozo Rec Center at 6 p.m. to raise money for expenses for senior citizens to participate in the olympics.

A discussion was held concerning the huge blast that will be conducted west of Carrizozo on Thursday.

Ernest V. Joiner's

When I saw the headline of the lead story on page one of the Albuquerque Journal for May 7, and observed how it distorted the story that followed, the words of Pope Leo XIII hit me like the brick wall that fell on a rotten pumpkin: "The liberty of thinking and of publishing whatever one likes... is the fountain-head of many evils." The subject headline read, "Secord Says Reagan Knew of Dealings." Seven paragraphs down in the Associated Press story, Maj. Gen. Richard V. Secord was quoted as follows in his testimony before a House-Senate hearing on the Iran/Contra matter: "I have no direct firsthand knowledge about what the president knew or didn't know. As I think everyone knows I never spoke with the president on this." A strange journalistic dichotomy, indeed! Either Secord said the president knew (as the headline announced) or Secord didn't know whether the president knew, as per his direct quotation in the story itself. Come on, fellows; you can't have it both ways! Disinformation is for Soviet newspapers, not ours. The fellow who concocted that headline deserves a mild kick in the kumquats, after which he should be hustled off to a seminar on media accuracy and ethics.

Well, not a seminar at Ohio State University School of Journalism. Richard Anderson ruled out OSU in an article in Editor & Publisher magazine when he wrote: "This year I conducted a seminar at the Ohio State University School of Journalism in which not one student knew there was a wall around Berlin." Aw...

Has the media gone too far in sensationalizing the news? A national debate results from the media's recent sleazy method of publicizing an alleged sex encounter of presidential aspirant Gary Hart with a little-known actress. Newspapers elevated it to page one status. Television went ape. They even forgot to bash Reagan in their rush to cause Hart to drop out of the race for the Democratic nomination for president. Personally, I think Hart is a liberal to leftwing matfold, but I doubt he deserves such treatment by the media.

Hart's political demise is unquestionably good for the country, considering that he was the No. 1 candidate for the Democratic nomination for president in 1988. The power mantle thus falls to the Most Rev. and Sacred Jesse Jackson, a ministerial misanthrope who hasn't earned an honest dollar since the day he slung hash at a North Carolina resort. The incident has also enriched humor in America. Since Watergate, another media event that forced Nixon from office, every scandal, real or imagined, has had the suffix "gate" attached to it by the media. As in Irangate. In the Hart affair, it was immediately dubbed "Tailgate." TV star Johnny Carson recalled that Hart has billed himself as the "man of new ideas" and noted that he had been done in by one of the oldest ideas of all!

What's interesting is that the media this time has blown away one of their own ideological bedfellows, a rare occurrence. In another era the press protected its club members in good standing. For example, the media kept mum about the sexual appetite of President John Kennedy, even when he was frolicking in the White House swimming pool with his retinue of concubines. The media was silent even when they knew all about Franklin D. Roosevelt's mistress. Is the media now caught up in heady power that it can now destroy its own ideological comrades with such erotic impunity?

Strangely, the media is laying off the Rev. Jesse Jackson, the No. 2 candidate in the polls for the Democratic presidential nomination, and who now seems to be elevated to No. 1. If the press is killing off its own, why hasn't it focused on the boast Jackson once made when he was working at that resort—that he spat in the food he served to white people? Should we now have a Racisgate disclosure?

Why was the media silent when this dusky demagogue appeared on ABC's 20/20 television program a few weeks ago to spout his pro-Marxist propaganda while he defended the Soviet puppet rulers of Mozambique, Angola and Zimbabwe? The Washington Post recently reported that on a visit to the Congo, Jackson "linked hands and prayed with members of the ruling Marxist-Leninist Central Committee." With the Soviets on the move in South Africa, Jackson wants the US to supply more guns and weapons for the communist terrorists operating there. The media is tireless in playing up his anti-American tirades, many of which are subsidized by the US taxpayers through federal grants to Jackson's racist organization, PUSH. Perhaps the media is waiting to catch him on something really important, like finding him in bed with a choir girl. Jackson should love America. In any other country he would have already been shot or otherwise silenced.

Ever wonder why the Soviets are not victims of terrorist kidnappings? In September 1985 the Islamic Jihad kidnapped four Soviet citizens. One, Arkady Kaslov, was killed. The kidnappers promised the other three would be killed if their demands were not met. So the Soviets flew the KGB (secret police) in from Moscow. Three Islamic Jihad were captured, chopped into small pieces, stuffed into suit cases and left at the spot where the Soviets had been kidnapped. One suit case carried a note for the Jihad promising more such deliveries if the hostages were not released. Within one hour after the gruesome suit cases had been found, the Soviet prisoners were released unharmed. Any questions?

On Dec. 22, 1964 Bernard Goetz shot four youths who stopped him in a New York subway and demanded $5. Our congressmen poveritize us with demands of $50 billion for this and $100 billion for that, and nobody shoots them. Why not? Is Goetz the only American who will not let a being mugged; or is he of greater value than $50 or $100 billion? Every now and then somebody shoots the President of the United States, who robs nobody. But nobody shoots a congressman, who robs everybody.

Taxpayers will foot deficit in SB airport construction

By J. A. "AI" JUNGE

The more we read and hear about the Sierra Blanca Airport we are more inclined to believe that all's not well. How is the airport construction and finance being managed? Let's start at the beginning of the story.

In 1978, when the Joint Powers Agreement was signed by Ruidoso, Captain, Ruidoso Downs, Lincoln County and the Tribe, the legal advice given to the signers of the agreement was obviously incomplete and poorly done. The agreement, in present form, should not have been signed.

Basically, the agreement covered how the group of five would be set up, how they would meet, and their duties. However, one important point was overlooked: In the final analysis who would be responsible for the short fall (deficit) when the airport became operational?

Surely, it was not expected that a profit would develop from the new airport operation! All one has to do is examine the financial history of airports in neighboring cities to see that they rarely show an operating profit. In addition, we face extreme seasonal demands not experienced in these airports.

Under the existing agreement (1978) Ruidoso has a non-exist authority as a one-fifth member of the commission. All decisions made by the SBAC, to date, have been presented to the Ruidoso City Council. For example, Mr. Tim Morris, the Ruidoso representative of the group of five, came before the Ruidoso Council to report that SBAC had accepted a bid of $70,000 plus to drill a water well at the airport site. Mr. Morris did not ask for guidance or approval—just that the decision had been made and that the council should know. The Ruidoso Council swallowed and said "thank you!" A member of the audience, the president of a local bank, blasted the council for its casual approval of the well contract, saying that the well "possibly cost 8 to 10 times what it should cost." The response was that the well cost so much "because of state and federal regulations."

The well was drilled and remains unused due to a water rights suit being filed.

Mr. Morris came before the city council at another time and reported that the group of five had given Mr. Fred Heckman an administrative contract which was estimated could earn $60,000 to $70,000 or more per year. Here, again, the council was advised after the fact!

Later, some of the council and others expressed dismay at the SBAC action. Rumors have been heard since that our senator, who helped secure the airport site, is somewhat miffed as Mr. Heckman will draw more than the senator's salary for the coming year.

I have no fault with Mr. Heckman being paid for his services as it is well known that he has spent years on work related to the airport without so much as a "thanks." Giving him a contract for work performed was proper—the way it was done was not proper. Until the city council demands that they have some authority in the decision making the steam roller will continue to roll.

During the past year or longer, Mr. Fred Heckman has reported regularly to the city council, continually updating progress at the airport facility. On two occasions I asked the question, "What about an operating deficit—who will pay it?" The answer, "We don't expect a deficit in operations." No one on the council questioned Heckman's statement.

At a May 4, 1987 meeting at the Cree Meadows Club, styled "Big Wig's Examine Airport Agreement," Fred Heckman is reported as saying, "The construction phases (of the airport) may fall as much as $700,000 short of funds—operations shortfall projected at about $120,000."

WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO CHANGE THE EARLIER STATEMENT THAT THERE WOULD BE NO OPERATION DEFICIT?

Mr. Heckman suggested three ways to overcome these shortfalls: (1) Issue county bonds; (2) let the Group of Five bear the shortfall; (3) call on the state and others. Regarding suggestion #1 or #2 in either case the taxpayers would have to dig into their pockets.

When the voters approved a 1/2 percent sales tax a few months ago making Ruidoso's sales tax the highest in the state, it was pointed out during the debate on the tax question that the sales tax increase would enable Ruidoso to pay off the $2.7 million due the government and that action would fulfill our obligation as far as finances were concerned.

How wrong we were! Were the voters misled? It appears that they were.

At the Cree Meadows meeting Mr. Gary Ewing of the FAA voiced the same opinion as I previously stated regarding the 1978 contract—"with the joint agreement (1978) the various entities (Group of 5) are not committed financially to the airport." He further noted "each party to the agreement is 100 percent responsible for a local share when various governing bodies accept FAA grants." The 1978 agreement was at fault and unclear on this point. It was at this point that a comment was made that the Mescalero Apache Tribe, an original member of the Group of Five had attended no meetings and their position was not known regarding any financial responsibility to the airport construction.

Messrs. Underwood (city attorney), Fred Heckman and Ruidoso Mayor Lloyd Davis spoke on behalf of the Tribe, saying that the Tribe had given up certain claims they may have had on the land chosen for the airport and that this would be considered a major financial contribution on their part. There is no agreement relieving the Tribe of its financial responsibility as far as the 1978 agreement is concerned, and I resent the rationale of the mayor and others in speaking for me—the taxpayer.

In the meantime, the Tribe is using agreements signed over a century ago in their fight to obtain water now being used by Ruidosans. Why give the Tribe a free ride? They also benefit from the new airport.

In a later news report Mr. Heckman now claims that funding deficits may reach $3.5 million. What are we to believe? The news article is titled "Under Budget." It appears that while bids are coming in under budget the deficit grows larger and larger. Why? Explanation please!

In the past there has been some discussion regarding the role of Mr. Tim Morris plays in the SBAC saga. Mr. Morris, a very capable airport manager based on past performance, is currently wearing three hats. (1) He operates our local airport; (2) He is a member of the Group of Five representing Ruidoso; and (3) He is chairman of the SBAC. In the beginning, as an experienced airport operator, he was a natural to act as a consultant to represent Ruidoso. A permanent Ruidoso representative should have been created through the appointment of a person, perhaps one of the city councilmen or someone else approved by the city council.

Public meetings at this point only result in additional unanswered questions. The Ruidoso City Council has been negligent in not recognizing the weaknesses in the 1978 agreement as well as the operation of the SBAC and failure to take care of the interests of the Ruidoso taxpayers.

Case in point—waiting to this date to attempt to amend the 1978 agreement is developing problems with the other four signers of the agreement. This could have been accomplished with less effort several years ago.

Now we face opening day of the Sierra Blanca Airport just a few months away!

Inside the Capitol

SANTA FE—New Mexico Republicans are right to view Jeff Bingaman as beatable.

The junior senator, after all, is just completing his first term in Washington, and that's when Congressional people are most vulnerable. The senate system is so ordered to seniority that a person who has served there a mere six years has had little or no chance to accomplish anything worth pointing to. In addition, he or she has no argument in favor of re-election based on the seniority built up, because one term doesn't build much.

But when it comes to taking back that seat, the GOP here at home doesn't appear to be strategizing with much clarity.

The only way these folks can beat Bingaman is to come up with a candidate of a very special sort.

REGISTRATION: Republicans here should never forget for a moment that there is no way they can elect any of their candidates to statewide office without support from a large number of people who are registered members of the opposition party. They may think it would be nice to have one of those members of their own group who publicly condemns all Democrats and everything they stand for selected for the job, but that is beyond the realms of possibility. Only those Republicans who are acceptable to Democrats have a chance for such posts.

Right now, of course, the local GOP is feeling its oats, after what state Republican chairman Ed Lujan calls our "magnificent victories last year."

"Magnificent" is a little strong for what really happened. In a backlash at Toney Anaya and his party the voters did give us Garrey Carruthers. They also picked Hal Stratton for attorney general in preference to Bob McNeil, a close Anaya adherent. And they preferred Bill Humphries in the land commissioner's job instead of the successor Jim Baca, who was not widely loved, had picked for himself.

You might say, looking at that rundown, that the Democrats did more to elect those three Republicans than the Republicans did.

And come 1988, Bingaman isn't likely to suffer from the problems those Democrats who got beaten last year suffered from.

THE LITTER: But why are the GOP hierarchy looking so hard at people like Bill Valentine or Corky Morris to run against Jeff? If Valentine made that race, all the Democrats would have to do is point to his record in the state senate, along with some of the things he has said about Democrats while serving there, to turn off any Dem who might be thinking of supporting him. Morris, God help us all, is still something of a Goldwater man, and that isn't likely to attract Democrats in the closing years of the 1980's. In addition, both are from Albuquerque.

Some say that the party ought to run Ed Lujan. He has done a good job as commander-in-chief of the Republicans in the state, but that's a whole different ballgame. Is there anybody who really thinks the citizens of the state are going to give two of our five Congressional seats to members of the same family? One of the things Ed

Medicare now pays for optometrist eye care

Effective April 1, 1987, Medicare eye coverage is changing.

Under the new law, Medicare will pay for eye health care services provided by the nation's 24,500 practicing optometrists. In the past, only ophthalmologists' services were covered, unless the patient had undergone cataract surgery.

"This new law puts an end to forcing older adults to choose between changing doctors to get Medicare eye coverage or staying with their optometrist and paying for the care out of their own pockets. Until now, the Medicare law, in effect, denied older Americans their freedom of choice of eye care practitioners," said David Ferris, O.D., Warwick, RI, president of the American Optometric Association (AOA).

Ferris added that the new law also "will be a major benefit for older adults by increasing competition and access to eye care." Ferris noted that optometrists are located in approximately 6,600 cities and are the only providers of primary eye care in more than 4,100 of them.

Eye care services covered by Medicare include the eye health part of an eye examination, when the patient has a symptom or complaint which necessitated the visit and treatment for eye disease. Medicare also covers glasses or contact lenses for those who have had cataract surgery. Medicare still does not cover other prescription glasses or contact lenses and the parts of eye examinations which determine any lens prescription.

Optometrists hold the doctor of optometry (O.D. degree). They are primary health care providers who examine the eyes and vision system; diagnose eye disease and vision problems; and provide treatment in the form of prescription glasses, contact lenses, vision therapy, and low vision aids.

Except in Alaska and Maryland, optometrists may use drugs for diagnostic purposes. As of Feb. 1, 1987, 12 states authorize doctors of optometry to utilize drugs to treat eye disease. Similar legislation is pending in several other states.

might accomplish by making such a race is to take his brother Manuel down with him. (And, yes, he and Manuel are from Albuquerque also.) If New Mexico Republicans really want to win—and there's always reason to question that—they'd better find a candidate who can be stomached by the opposition. If they don't, they may be giving us Bingaman for many years to come.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Reagan's sorry stance on Poland

EDITOR—Back in 1981 the Polish people reacted sharply to a government-imposed tripling of food prices. They began to take liberties in speech and in print, and hundreds of thousands joined the Solidarity movement.

The head of the Polish government, who was appointed by Moscow, instituted martial law and presided over waves of arrests, and outlawed Solidarity. He was backed up by large numbers of Soviet troops on the Polish border.

In response, President Reagan denounced this latest example of Communist repression, and his administration suspended Export-Import Bank credits, withdrew most-favored-nation status, and terminated shipments of food and high technology.

Then, only two months later, in a sickening display of acquiescence to Communist wishes while denouncing their tyranny at the same time, the Reagan Administration paid Poland's overdue debts to American banks with tax dollars taken from the American people. Doing so not only kept the Polish regime afloat, but also eased considerable financial pressure on its patron in Moscow.

Over the past five years the Communists' iron grip has been restored. Father Jerzy Popieluszko continued to challenge the government and was brutally murdered. With the people terrorized into docility the government lifted martial law and freed most of the political prisoners.

Today Poland is quiet again. But is also tightly controlled by Moscow. On Feb. 19 President Reagan lifted the sanctions against Poland. Once again credits from the Export-Import Bank and the Commodity Credit Corporation will be available to the Kremlin-directed government. Most-favored-nation status has been restored, and increased exports from Poland will show up in America.

The US action is making it easier for the USSR to dominate Poland while we spend $300 billion annually to defend ourselves from the USSR.

The only moral and sensible way to deal with all Communists is to stop dealing with them.

Credit where credit is due

EDITOR—Let's give credit where credit is due! Researching the past history of the Lincoln County Ambulance Service would find many fine individuals devoting a great deal of time volunteering their services to secure and maintain a proper ambulance service.

The Carrizozo Fire Department as well as the Corona Fire Department had rescue wagons, and the first real ambulance was secured by the Carrizozo Fire Department.

Though the efforts of previous county commission and county managers, more ambulances were secured for Carrizozo, Corona, Capitan, Bonito and Tinnie.

Bud Payne of Carrizozo was instrumental in these efforts as a volunteer for many a year, and it wasn't until sometime in the late 70s that he was named Ambulance Coordinator and was paid a token salary for his efforts.

There were many people who devoted hours to making the ambulance service efficient and responsive to the needs of the citizenry of these communities. People like Bud Payne, Devil Bill Adams, Byron Yancy, and a wonderfully devoted gentlemen at Tinnie named Frank Titworth deserves kudos as well as many others.

She also talked about Basic 4-H, Julie Furgason listed and told about projects one could enroll in, Beverly Bell gave a talk on being state officer, Tina Aaron recounted the different things one can judge and about state demonstrations, Randy Lesly talked about recreation, Traci Kelley gave a talk on how and what to do to get to go to Washington, DC and also about what is to be seen there, Tye Lightfoot announced 4-H intentions for community pride, and last Sandra Copeland told about all kinds of trips one can go on in 4-H.

Stearns to observe 50th

Margaret and Johnson Stearns will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on May 23.

Their children have planned a party in their honor to be held up Nogal Canyon to Pennsylvania Canyon at 1 p.m. on May 23. In case of bad weather it will be held at the Carrizozo Country Club.

Instead of gifts, they are asking that people write down a special memory or story of Margaret and Johnson and to bring it to the party or send it to Bob Stearns, Box 98, Nogal 88341 before the party. These stories will be included in a scrapbook to be presented to Margaret and Johnson.

Crown CowBelles held their regular meeting May 7 at the ranch of Eva Latham with co-hostesses Myra Richards and Sue Maness. Elaine Steele introduced her cousin, Shirley Coggins, who was visiting from Shreveport, LA. President JoAnn Proctor stated that other guests were expected in the afternoon.

Two quilts were on display and both will be taken to the Lincoln County Fair and put on display with the lucky winner to choose between them. The second quilt goes to the individual receiving the most donations for the purpose.

Crown will prepay the $30 booth fee for the fair, will donate the trophy for the grand champion heifer at the Lincoln County Fair, and will donate one all-around trophy for the Lincoln County 4-H horse show held the second Saturday in August in Corona.

Juanita Owen, scholarship chairman, read the committee report and will present the scholarship at the school awards assembly May 30. There were six applicants, all girls.

Crown will offer to help with the buyers' dinner if the County Fair Board decides to continue the project. Crown feels the dinner helps sales and so helps the 4-H and FFA exhibitors.

Mrs. Maness, state legislative chairman, discussed two important bills now before Congress. One would make the butcher responsible for hiring and paying meat inspectors. The other, introduced by Senator Domenici, would put certain seasonal workers in the livestock industry under the new immigration law.

Katie Sultemeier, Father of the Year chairman, reported that after talking with her committee, the Crown president and polling members by phone, she sent Crown's endorsement of John Wiedock for state CowBelle Father of the Year to Berrendo CowBelles as requested by them. John is a friend of agriculture and tries to keep his audiences up to date on happenings in the field.

Mrs. Sultemeier then read the committee report nominating Archie Perkins for Crown's Father of the Year. He was elected by acclamation. The next day the committee took banana nut bread and ice cream bars and went to the Perkins home to tell Archie of his selection. Archie will be honored at the next meeting, a family picnic at 1 p.m. Sunday, June 14, in Red Cloud Canyon. The payment of the $30 fee to the US Forest Service was authorized. In case of rain the picnic will be held in the school auditorium.

After lunch Jamie Widener FFA advisor, brought his district 1st and 2nd place winners to practice their prepared speeches before giving them again in state competition next month in Las Cruces. Jason Gibbs spoke on computers in agriculture, Beverly Bell on cattle in the futures market, Emmet Sultemeier on crossbreeding hogs, and Tina Aaron on careers in agriculture. After the talks the students answered questions and enjoyed refreshments. They were given beef jerky to take with them.

The door prize was won by Johnnie Bond with additional prizes won by Cleo Maddon and Mrs. Coggins. The next meeting will be the June picnic.

J.T. Roper of Farmington was injured in a 23-foot fall off a pole. He was taken to the San Juan Hospital with bruises, a broken leg, and cuts on his face that required 20 stitches.

Stacy and Chet Robinson are spending this week with their grandparents on the ranch while their parents, Sheila and Rex Robinson, are attending the International Science Fair in Puerto Rico. They took two Grants and two area students who were state science winners. More than 50 students, sponsors and relatives left Albuquerque Monday morning.

LC Walter Gensler is home on leave from Camp Pendleton, CA. After he returns to the Marine Base May 20 he will leave on a six-month tour of duty.

Bill and Birdie Lytle will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary June 6.

The American Legion Auxiliary held its regular meeting May 5 at the Legion Building. Plans were made to host the FFA speech teams with a covered dish dinner June 6 at 6:30 p.m.

Election of officers was held. Those elected were: president, Johnnie E. Er-famouspe; 1st vice-president, Joy Ann Yancey; 2nd vice-president, Gladys Keelin; chaplain, Juanita Owens; historian, Helen Porter; sgt. at arms, Dorothy Bradley; treasurer, Hazel Burton; and secretary, Minnie Davenport.

The American Legion Auxiliary's annual convention will be held at Gallup, in June. Auxiliary Unit 35 is supporting the Disabled Veterans home at Tr.C. A $50 donation was sent toward the purchase of a new stove, as the veterans are in need of many items. The bake and white elephant sale was a success, netting $162.75. The next regular meeting will be Tuesday, June 2.

Poppy Day in Corona will be later this month. All will be asked to wear a red memorial poppy. As most know, once each year Americans observe Poppy Day, which is a volunteer tribute to our dead and disabled service men and women. The poppies offered have been made in hospitals and workshops where the suffering of war still exists. Volunteers who offer the poppies gain nothing for themselves. However, these workers do gain satisfaction from their contribution to a program which honors the war dead while assisting the living. Understanding the purpose of Poppy Day, would anyone wish to ignore this appeal!

Cats have no ability to taste sweet things.

say, "We had a good year. It was quite successful even though we never had all our girls at a meet until district. The girls worked hard in training and performed well in the meets. I especially like the support they gave each other as well as to me. Although we only earned 10 points at the state meet, all our times were season's best. Girls State was especially tough this year and our young girls exposure there will definitely help us to be tougher next year. I respect and congratulate all 18 girls who were in track this year."

Last ride of Bill Keeler, a handsome stage coach robber

By CHRIS HARKEY

The Lincoln Weekly News was published at Lincoln, NM by Norman and Thompson from 1894 to 1898. It was printed in both English and Spanish, with the Spanish translation on the back page. These were territorial days and W.T. Thornton was territorial governor. Thomas Smith was Chief Justice, and one of his four Associate Justices was Albert B. Fall. Fall was later to become US Senator from New Mexico and US Secretary of the Interior. He figured in the famous Teapot Dome scandal, and was convicted of bribery in 1929 and sentenced to prison (1931-32).

Fall was a familiar figure in Carrizozo and Lincoln County. He owned the Three Rivers Ranch southeast of Carrizozo.

The following story, reprinted from the Lincoln Weekly News of April 11, 1896 is interesting because it is an example of the sometimes cruelty of frontier justice. In this case, a posse lay in ambush to gun down a "handsome hold-up man" without giving him a chance to surrender, or to make his peace. They then photographed and publicly displayed his bullet-ridden body.

Here is how the Lincoln Weekly News reported the last hold-up of Bill Keeler.

Bill Keeler, the first man in Arizona who ever robbed a stage-coach alone, never had an assistant in any of his robberies, says Denver Field and Farm, and, so far as known, never made a confident of any but one man, and that man finally betrayed him to the posse of law officers by whom he was killed.

The general population in Arizona at that time was crazy with moneymaking in the Tombstone gold fields, and many a man made thousands of dollars from few hundreds in a month. That is why Bill Keeler was not hunted day and night when the first robberies took place.

But the sheriff of Tucson finally resolved to kill or get Keeler at all hazards. The robbing of stages had become too common, and a reward of $5,000 was subscribed for Bill's capture, dead or alive.

A few months later a clue to the fallow's hiding-place was given by the imprint in the dust of a peculiar shoe that his horse wore at the time of a new stage robbery. The Yuma Indian trappers, the most famous of their class in the world, were called upon. They can follow for miles a fairly good trail of a man while riding at breakneck speed through the brush and over desert wastes.

A Yuma Indian went to work to trail Keeler. In two days he tracked the bandit right into Benson, and to a Mexican shepherd's adobe house. It was known that Bill Keeler and the Mexican were formerly chummy, and later it developed that Bill Keeler had $16,000 hidden in the house.

Then the sheriff made up his mind that Bill had an accomplice, and that he made his headquarters at the Mexican's. Suspicion fell upon a Sonora Mexican named Vejar as the Mexican's associate. Vejar was inveigled to a hamlet a few miles away and handcuffed and hung to a meathook for hours until he agreed to help get Keeler. He stipulated, however, that the highwayman was to be shot dead, because, he said Keeler would not rest until he had killed any one who had betrayed him. Vejar said that while he had fed and watched for Keeler in secret he had never been allowed to go on any stage-robbing expedition.

The sheriff and his posse were piloted the next morning early nine miles into a heavy chapparal in a canyon. Vejar said that he had always gone to a certain tree there when he had food or news for Keeler, and waited until the bandit came riding up, pistol or rifle in hand, so as to be prepared for any pursuers.

The sheriff and his men concealed themselves behind brush and trees for several hours. Finally Keeler came riding up with a revolver flashing in his hand and a Winchester across the pommel of his saddle. As Keeler came through the trees that morning, said the sheriff long after, "he was the finest looking man I have ever seen a-horseback. He seemed for all the world like one of the ancient gods on a horse."

But the sheriff did not let the picture that Keeler made get the best of him. In a second he called "Fire!" and seven rifles sent lead through the highwayman's chest. Keeler never spoke, but threw up his hands and pistol and dropped back on his horse dead.

The body of Keeler was taken to Benson and was braced up against a mud house while a photograph was taken of it. The pictures were in great demand all over the territory for a year or so. They are still to be seen in many a miner's cabin or ranchman's home, and a more fierce, tiger-like expression is seldom seen than that of Bill Keeler's face in death.

GORDON BARHAM (right), president of the Future Farmers of America Carrizozo alumni, presented a token of appreciation to school superintendent Dennis Sidebottom at the FFA banquet held May 1. Sidebottom will be leaving Carrizozo schools to return to his home state of Michigan in June.

ON MY OWN

By Pat Kite

Delusions of grandeur

Ever so often someone writes, telephones or trips me and asks for single-person advice.

"Pat, Patty, Patsy," or "Hey, you," they say, "I've got this absolutely horrendous problem and you simply must come to my rescue with your practical mind. Pretty please."

Being sought out for advice is the highest form of flattery, and since dispensing same takes my thoughts, momentarily, off green chile burritos with taco sauce, I usually do my best to be of assistance. Unfortunately, my "practical mind" also thinks it's funny, so sometimes my answers appear slightly off-the-wall. But they are to-the-point and often quite effective, as:

Dear Columnist: Although I have dated my male supervisor several times, it was always made quite clear that the arrangement was to be strictly friendship. While he verbally agreed, I now realize romance was the definite objective. At this point I'd like to drop the whole shebang, but also have to work with him every day and am running out of excuses as to why I'm "busy" every weekend. Do you know of any way to wriggle out of the situation without antagonizing him, which would make life on the job miserable?

Signed: Sorry I said "yes"

Dear Should Have Known Better:

In your particular pickle, suggestion is to make yourself as dull and boring as possible, so that he no longer wants to go out with you. Keep conversation centered on your warts and, if you have the nerve, your hemorrhoids. Mention that you think celibacy is the only path toward mental purification. Dislike fresh air, movies, parties, television, talking on the phone and books. State your deep love for garlic and eat a lot of this before going to work, also at lunch. Persist with odorous tedium and with any luck he will soon turn attentions elsewhere. Best wishes, Pat.

And then there's the letter from my East Coast paralegal friend.

Dear Pat: I work with a rather sophisticated lawyer who says that when a man takes a lady out to dinner, he has every reasonable right to expect "something" in return. If I think differently, he says, I am "hopelessly old-fashioned." He puts up a very good argument. What do you think? Signed: Behind the times at 25?

Dear 25:

No lady trades her body for a plate of lasagna.

PUBLISHING WORLD

Before the school year ended Carrizozo School art students had the opportunity to tour behind the scenes at Lincoln County News. Students were shown the typesetting area and given a demonstration. The procedure for pasting up pages for printing was explained.

I showed students my work area, the darkroom, where once a week I develop negatives and make prints. Film, developers and equipment were shown and demonstrated.

Students learned in class that a student who likes to draw, paint, take photographs or do crafts has a wide variety of career opportunities which includes the world of publishing—magazines, newspapers and books.

A publications designer's job begins with an appreciation of stories and information, illustrations and typefaces, organized into attractive page layouts.

As in advertising design, the publications designer plans layouts and does rough sketches. He or she originates ideas for illustrations, selects photographs and types.

Although most large magazines and newspapers are located in the nation's major cities, smaller publications can be found in almost any good-sized town. Many design school graduates start their careers with these publications, and all the skills they learned—from pasting up pages for printing to illustrating products for ads—are used on the job.

ART SHOW

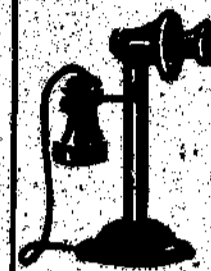

Art students at Carrizozo displayed their work May 7 at school's cafeteria. The high school exhibit featured color illustrations from ideas found in children's books and magazines shelved at Carrizozo school library. The students received many compliments on their art efforts. With the exception of rulers, the students did not use other mechanical means to produce abstract ART magazine. The original artwork and photographs are worth thousands of dollars each.
