Lovington man held captive 6 hours

Massive manhunt nets two abductors

Lincoln County was practically sealed off from the rest of the country Friday as lawmen sought two men believed to have abducted a Lovington man who escaped his captors in Carrizozo.

The massive manhunt that involved law enforcement of Lincoln, Socorro and Torrance counties ended at 6:30 p.m. Friday with the arrest of William Thompson and Jessie Lopez, both 19, who were AWOL from a Job Corps project at Roswell.

The bizarre incident began at 3 a.m. Friday in Lovington when the two men approached Juan Pena Jr., cooperated. Samuel requested a New Mexico State Police helicopter, and used it as a command post to direct operations on the ground during the search for the two men.

The Pontiac was located in the White Oaks area. It had been pushed off a mountain-side, falling some 150 feet into a clump of trees. The fugitives had fled on foot.

While the helicopter searched from the air, the area was sealed off by lawmen and all roads blocked. Samuel spotted Lopez outside a vacant house in the mountains. He notified ground crews, then advised Lopez by loud speaker to come out with his hands up.

Lincoln County Deputy Sheriff Herman Arthur arrived first and arrested Lopez. Thompson had fled the scene on foot. As the helicopter circled the mountains, Thompson hitched a ride with a rancher. When the rancher and Thompson reached a roadblock, Captain Police Officer Scott Jimenez and State Police Officer Phil Sexton made the second arrest.

The two were taken to jail in Carrizozo tentatively charged with false imprisonment, possession of stolen property, and criminal damage to property over $100.

21, put a knife to his throat, put him in the trunk of his own car, took his wallet, and drove Pena's 1975 Pontiac Bonneville to Carrizozo.

During the six hours Pena was locked in the trunk of his car he managed to force the lock. When the two drove into the Fina Station in Carrizozo, Pena leaped out of the trunk brandishing a tire tool at his captors.

The two jumped in the car and headed north on Highway 54. Pena notified Lincoln County Sheriff Don Samuel. Roadblocks were immediately set up. Socorro and Torrance County sheriff's departments Additional charges are being weighed by the Lincoln County District Attorney and by Lovington authorities.

Samuel praised the cooperation of law enforcement agencies. The State Police helicopter was piloted by Mitchell E. Pribbles of Unit 606, Aircraft Division. Also cooperating were Sheriff Robert Chavez of Torrance County and his chief deputy, Gary Watts; Canuto Pera, Estancia city policeman; Police Chief C.A. Morales of Carrizozo; Captain Chief of Police Randy Spears and Officer Hammettree; State Police Sgt. Alfred Arana of Corona; Mike Martinez of the New Mexico Fish & Game; White Mountain Search and Rescue members John Elliott and Bob Proffit, who brought food and water to the ground search crews; 15 lawmen attached to the Lincoln County Sheriff's Department; radio and TV stations who cooperated in broadcasting descriptions of the wanted men; Chief Deputy Rex Skellett, Sgt. Max Watson, Deputy Ron Harrison and two sheriff's investigators; Paul Wersich and Mike Chapel of the US Forest Service.

Wes Lindsey of Mountain Bell assisted in establishing that the fugitives were making telephone calls from an abandoned house in the Jicarilla Mountains. Lt. Wayland Hill was in charge of dispatching in Carrizozo to command posts set up in the county. Rex Wilson used his 4-wheel drive vehicle and transported lawmen over the rough mountain trails.

"We appreciate the prompt response of all these officers and citizens," Samuel said. "They acted quickly and professionally in a situation that could have been taken out of a movie. As a result a victim is recovering in Lovington and two suspects are in jail."

$362,000 shortfall

County may be taxed to finance Ruidoso airport

By RUTH HAMMOND

Residents of Lincoln County may be looking at a bond issue in the near future to help pay for the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport that is being built on the Fort Stanton mesa.

Heckman doing well, taxpayers get shaft

During a special meeting of the Lincoln County Commission and the Sierra Blanca Airport Commission on June 5 to discuss the airport budget, it was revealed that the budget for the current fiscal year will have a shortfall of approximately $362,611.

The NEWS questioned the administration expense of $99,167.77 in an 11-month period when the original agreement with Heckman and Haworth, Inc. for administration services called for not more than 1,500 hours per year at a cost of $60 per hour. This would have put a limit of $90,000 for the year.

Heckman responded that there were other costs for typing, utilities and expenses.

The original proposal submitted by Heckman and Haworth, Inc., on April 16, 1986 listed as costs: contractor for professional services $30/hour, overhead costs which includes costs of secretarial services, personnel fringe, staff support, office space and utility costs, office equipment and machine costs, copy equipment and supply long distance service, professional fees and licenses, supplies, forms and other expendable materials, local travel costs and miscellaneous costs $30/per hour for total hourly compensation of $60 per hour.

The original proposal stated: "It is estimated by the proposer that an annual budget of between $25,000 and $90,000 for this contract will be required. The contractor is therefore prepared to stipulate that the cost of this proposal to the Commission will not exceed $90,000 per year, plus ap-

A shortfall in the current budget of approximately $362,611 and plans to build a $3 million terminal building that will not qualify for FAA funding, in addition to numerous other expenses that do not qualify for FAA funding, may make the bond issue necessary.

According to figures released at a special meeting of the Lincoln County Commission and the Sierra Blanca Airport Commission on June 5 - the shortfall of $362,611 in the current budget could be even more than that if funds due to be received from the state are not spent on eligible items. It will be the responsibility of SBAC members to fund the shortfall, according to the joint powers agreement signed Jan. 16, 1978. It states: "the parties should provide any additional funds, as required for the payment of current expenses of the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport or as otherwise mutually agreed."

Capitan Mayor Benny Coker and Ruidoso Downs Mayor Jake Harris expressed concern that their villages could not help with funding. Plans are being made to restructure the SBAC with only Lincoln County and the Village of Ruidoso being members. This will involve the drafting of a new joint powers agreement with all entities giving their approval.

Present members of the SBAC are the village of Capitan, Ruidoso and Ruidoso Downs, Lincoln County and the Mescalero Apache Tribe. The new joint powers agreement would allow all three county commissioners to sit on the SBAC in addition to Village of Ruidoso members.

Fred Heckman of Heckman and Haworth, Inc., administrator for the SBAC, proposed looking for additional funding to help with the shortfall. He announced that he had a check in the amount of $100,000 in his briefcase that he had received from the state for the airport project. Heckman presented the $100,000 check to the county treasurer that same day. The NEWS learned that the $100,000 check had been cut on March 5. Heckman gave it to the county treasurer on June 5 which meant that in excess of $1,187.49 in interest money had been lost during the 90 day interval.

SBAC is allowed to earn interest on state money but may not keep any interest earned from FAA money, according to FFA regulations.

Funds spent to date for eligible items include $1,000,000 to New Mexico State, $112.77 to Albuquerque Publishing, $100 to Ruidoso News, $32,868.75 to Attorney Steve Sanders, $100 to Lincoln County News, $3,567.04 to Brack, $570,910.65 to Leeds Hill-Herkenhoff, $4,157.75 to the US Department of Interior and $442,294.35 to Tricon-Kent.

Non-eligible items: Leeds Hill-Herkenhoff $80,575.05, Lincoln County News $151.85, Sanders $32,868.75, Morris $933.66, Ruidoso News $117.06, Siddens $126.72, Dean $393.36, Rodgers $76,994.47, Schrecengost $1,000, Ruidoso Signs $219.98, Buchanan $214, Ruidoso Office $24.72, Ruidoso Printing $261.15, C & L Lumber $102, Cree Meadows $234, Apache Arts $211, State Engineer $250, Continental Telephone $365.95 and Heckman/Haworth $99,167.77.

Eligible items are expenses that the SBAC can use state money for their 10 percent match and non-eligible items include such things as water, utilities and other expenses as listed. Hightower said, "It was Thursday of last week when I became aware that the five entities had to match 10 percent of the FAA grant."

The purpose of the special meeting was to discuss the proposed budget for the 1987-88 fiscal year, but the shortfall in the current budget took up much of the session. Cuts were made in the proposed budget and the revised budget was accepted by commissioners. Total expenditures for next year will total more than $9 million and funding will also be in excess of $9 million. A breakdown of the actual figures will be available at a later date.

The possibility of a bond election was not discussed at length, but Lincoln County residents need to know that there is a definite likelihood of such an election if the airport is to be built as planned.

FRED HECKMAN, administrator for the Sierra Blanca Airport Commission, answers questions asked by Lincoln County Commissioners at a special meeting held June 5 to discuss the airport budget.

Senior Olympians honored

Town trustees hear problems resulting from new overpass

Lincoln County contestants in the Senior Olympics attended the June 9 meeting of the Carrizozo board of trustees at the request of Carrizozo Mayor Bob Hemphill. Hemphill had attended the state contest in Roswell, May 27-30, to "cheer on" local competitors and had invited them to come to the council meeting to show the medals and ribbons they had won.

Zia Senior Citizens Center project Director Barbara Ward told of the state meet and introduced the more than 15 Olympians present and had each one tell of their own events at the state meet.

Ward explained that the centers are trying to raise $2,000 to help with expenses for the Olympians to attend the National Olympics that will be held in St. Louis, MO June 26-July 3.

In other business, Lou Medrano from the state highway department spoke to trustees about problems with the intersection of Highway 380 and Aspen Street where the new construction on the overpass causes an unsafe intersection.

Medrano said the steep grade coming off the overpass on Aspen Street causes a "somewhat dangerous" situation. He said the highway department's solution would be to eliminate access to the highway from Aspen and divert traffic from Aspen to Birch.

LOU MEDRANO of the state highway department spoke to the Carrizozo board of trustees about plans to close access to Highway 380 from Aspen Street near the overpass. Plans are to divert traffic to the Birch Street intersection with the highway.

Stabbing victim's condition 'fair'

Michael Cottam, 23, Honda is in "fair condition" in St. Mary's Hospital, Roswell, following his being stabbed in the neck about 5:45 a.m. Saturday, according to the Lincoln County Sheriff's Department.

The stabbing occurred near Carrizo Lodge in Ruidoso. Cottam was able to walk to the lodge where a security guard called for an ambulance.

As of Tuesday, Cottam was not physically able to answer questions by police officers. Sheriff deputies and investigators are following other leads pending Cottam's ability to provide details of the stabbing. In other action, Vernon Lee White, 29, Ruidoso Downs, was sentenced to 10 days in jail June 5 on charges of DWI 2nd and subsequent, and for having no driver's license. He was sentenced by Municipal Judge Valenzuela.

Also in Ruidoso Downs Municipal Court, Henry D. Martinez, 26, was sentenced to 15 days in jail on June 4 for violation of probation.

Juan Estrada, 17, a Mexican alien, was arrested in Carrizo by the Southern Pacific Police June 7 and released the same day to the Border Patrol.

LAVA LOOP and ways to upgrade the street were discussed at the June 9 Carrizo town council meeting. Lava Loop will become a cul de sac with only one access to Highway 380.

SENIOR OLYMPIC contestants were among the audience at the June 9 Carrizo town council meeting. Each competitor told of their competition after being introduced by Barbara Ward (right), project director for the 21a Senior Citizens Center in Lincoln County. Ward explained fundraising projects to raise money to help send three qualifying contestants to the National Olympics in St. Louis, MO June 26 through July 3. The Nationals are held every four years.

Capitan Village Council Water system improvement bids to be opened July 13

By BART McDONOUGH

On June 8, Mayor Benny Coker presided over the monthly stated meeting of the Capitan Village Council.

The village is asking for proposals for engineering services with regard to water system improvements. These bids are to be opened at 3 p.m., July 13, just before the stated meeting at 7 p.m.

These improvements include the construction and installation of new storage tanks, transmission and distribution lines. There is also a need to modernize the existing filtration plant and acquire new water sources and appropriate water rights.

It was learned that electricity could reach the new well site by next week if the weather cooperates. The budget for the Capitan Volunteer Fire Department has been approved by the state.

Mayor Coker re-appointed Lois Aldrich and George Beaudry to the cemetery board. A new appointment to the board is N.C. Grantham. Jimmy Don Wright was re-appointed to the planning and zoning board.

There was a discussion concerning overtime pay for village police officers. The money is budgeted and it's up to the council as to how it is spent.

The council moved swiftly to approve the 1987-88 budget, which now must be approved in Santa Fe.

The village is still in the process of making necessary arrangements so that abandoned vehicles can be removed. Trustee David Rouleau is in favor of giving the owners 30 days to remove these vehicles instead of the present 72 hours.

The village will go out for bids concerning animal control. These bids will be opened at the July 13 meeting of the council. Pappy Coons will assist the village in the next few weeks when animal control situations occur.

Mayor Coker once again stated that he feels Capitan does not have the money to participate in the airport project. "We have served our time," he said. Village trustees must still approve the airport budget. Coker informed the NEWS that Capitan will be "out" of the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport in a matter of days.

Concerning school bus routes and the Magado Creek Crossing, the county has overspent this project and has asked for assistance from the Village of Capitan. The Council approved $1,500 for this project if all legal aspects are met and the money is available.

Membership drive on for Grizzly Boosters

The Carrizo Grizzly Athletic Booster Club is beginning a summer membership drive. All members who pay their dues by July 31 will have their names entered in a raffle for a "Spirit Pack" that will contain Grizzly booster material.

The club is an adult organization that was started October 1985 to help support Carrizo school athletes. The main objective of the club was to provide meals for Carrizo athletes when they are on out of town trips for sports events.

"We have accomplished this and to date have furnished meals for the girls as well as boys on 27 different occasions in two years," club treasurer Lucy Rickman said.

During the past two years feeding the boys and girls at 18 basketball games cost $1,490.20, this included junior high as well as high school students. Feeding the boys at two football games cost $312, feeding the track team cost $286.39 for five events and feeding the athletes at two volleyball events cost $217.45.

The club also provided $689 for expenses for volleyball camp in 1986 and $100 for cheerleading camp this year.

Money for the club is earned through fundraising events such as raffles and bake sales. Money making projects for the first year: beer raffle $226.84, wood raffle $256.75, enchilada supper $300.30, cake sale $60, nacho sales $46, bake sale $68.15, towel sales $145.60, Shop Rite shopping spree $302.65, LaMay gas raffle $165.01 and a donation of $11 was received.

Money making projects for this year: towel sales $50, beer raffle $161, bake sale $32.25, King's Food Mart shopping spree $120, bake sale $99, sale of burritos $63 and another bake sale for $45.

The current balance of the club is $44.15. More money will be needed this year because of the additional out of town games scheduled for the football team in the fall.

Dues are $15 for individuals and $25 for business. Dues must be paid by July 31 to enable the member to be entered in the raffle for the "Spirit Pack."

Contact Lucy Rickman at United New Mexico Bank or Ann Collins to pay dues, make donations and to help Carrizo athletes.

minimum of 15 hours per week, $2,500 for initial set up costs and $175 per month for a car. Under his proposal the county would provide all clerical support.

Heckman was hired by the SBAC members at that time: Tim Morris, Kenneth Nosker, Benny Coker and Conrad Buchanan.

Hemphill noted that the town will be losing one street access to the highway and that Birch Street was not one of the streets scheduled to be paved in the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) paving project.

Medrano said the highway department would dead-end Aspen Street before it gets to Highway 380 and would then "beef-up" Birch Street. He said they will provide dollar for dollar the amount they had planned to spend on Aspen Street.

After much discussion trustees agreed to the terms offered.

In response to a question from the NEWS about the state highway department's plans to close the access to Highway 380 from 3rd Street at the intersection of E Street and Highway 380 near A & I Auto, Medrano said that this intersection is dangerous.

The NEWS questioned if accident studies had been made of the intersection, and Medrano replied he was unaware of any studies but that the safety from this date on was the concern of the highway department. Apparently the highway department will close that access to the highway also.

Medrano did say that there will be "a lot of activity" in the Carrizo area in the next two or three years. He briefly described projects planned for Highway 380 from Carrizo to the Nogal turn-off, from Carrizo to the Valley of Fires State Park and from Carrizo to the Socorro county line.

Kevin Powers of Eppler, Guerin and Turner, Inc. presented resolutions for the sale of the bonds that had been approved by voters of Carrizo in the May 19 election. Trustees approved the resolution and the sale of the bonds will be held on July 14.

Trustee Eddie O'Brien reacted to a discussion about work planned for Lava Loop and stated, "You (referring to the town) are paving two streets there where no one lives and you won't pave this street (Lava Loop) with 10 people living there."

Plans call for grading and gravel on Lava Loop instead of the paving because of problems with portions of the street not being deeded to the town for a street.

Trustee Patsy Sanchez responded that she had worked diligently on the application for the CDBG street paving grant with no help and said, "I did the best I could."

Sanchez reported that a "Neighborhood Watch" program would be starting and said there will be a meeting at the Senior Citizens Center on June 11 at noon for the formation of the program.

Trustee Albert Baca reported that the zoning at the Carrizo Rec Center had been changed in 1975 and the Rec Center manager Val Reyes could place a mobile home on that property without requesting a variance.

Trustees agreed to purchase a reconditioned rototiller for $4,000. The rototiller will have a 90-day warranty. Hemphill said he had offered office space to the Human Services Department in the old city hall building but had since learned that the fire department had leased that space to the state for commodities distribution.

Human Services have also

4-H gives center clean, new look

Corona Senior Citizens Center now has a clean, new look after Chaparral 4-H Club members picked up rubbish and made a horseshoe playing area. The project was suggested by the Community Pride Committee. Another community service project suggested was the placing of planters around the village of Corona. Plants were donated by Ken Payton and planters were donated by Sandy Hendricks.

During the regular 4-H meeting last week, Jason Gibbs and Tina Aaron delivered their FFA speeches.

Upcoming event will be a dance on June 13 from 9 to 1 with Night Train providing the music. Everyone is welcomed, according to Traci Kelley, club reporter.

Chamber honors Senior Olympics medal winner

Dorothy Payne of Carrizozo was the guest of honor at the June 9 meeting of the Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce where she displayed the four gold medals and a bronze medal she won at the Senior Olympics state meet held in Roswell.

She won her gold medals in the 200 meter run, 400 meter run, 800 meter run and horseshoes. Her wins in the 400 meter run and horseshoes qualified her to participate in the National Olympics in St. Louis, MO June 26 through July 3.

—Payne, along with Virginia Danielson and Pat Bailey of Capitan, will represent Lincoln County and the State of New Mexico at the national event. Danielson and Bailey qualified in bowling.

Barbara Ward, Zia Senior Citizens Centers project director, announced that Lincoln County placed 4th in the number of awards won at state. She said that 45 medals and ribbons were brought home by the 32 participants.

She also announced the goal of raising $2,000 had been set to help pay expenses for the three competitors and a team captain to go to St. Louis. The senior citizens center is selling raffle tickets for a battery operated clock made and donated by Buy Payne. The clock is in the shape of the State of New Mexico. The center also plans a fried chicken dinner to be held June 16 at the Carrizozo Rec Center.

Ward said that all help with donations of uncooked chicken and money or the buying of raffle tickets will help the center meet their goal.

The chamber voted to donate $100 to help with expenses.

In other business, Chamber President Betty Howell urged everyone to vote in the special election scheduled for June 23 in Carrizozo calling for voters to decide if liquor should be sold by the drink on Sundays in Carrizozo.

Howell said that Carrizozo is a tourist related town and quite often visitors to the area would like to have a drink with their meals on Sundays and were surprised that this was not possible in Carrizozo.

She said the serving of drinks on Sundays would help the tourist industry and, "won't contribute to the drunks on Sunday."

—Scott Shafer reported that six more Christmas decorations could be bought for about $1,380. Donations for the decorations are being solicited from businesses. Individuals may contribute to the Christmas decoration fund at the United New Mexico Bank or at Roy's Gift Gallery.

The Christmas decorations bought last year cost more than $3,000. Together with the six new decorations, they will make it possible for the town to have decorations on most of the poles with street lights on the business streets.

—A thank you card from Tommy Estamilla, 1987 chamber scholarship recipient, was received.

—Howell announced that the US Army is coming to Carrizozo on July 1 and will be here until Nov. 1. The army had requested a minimum of 43 rooms, double occupancy.

—Roy Dow announced that the Carrizozo Alumni Reunion will be held June 26-28. He said there should be 100 to 150 people attending the annual event.

—Sue Stearns reported that "The Sound of Music" may come to Carrizozo on Aug. 9. The requirements are that at least 75 tickets be sold at a cost of $5 each, $4 for senior citizens and $4 for students. Chamber members were in favor of the musical production coming to Carrizozo.

Civil War battle to be reenacted

Exactly 125 years ago, a desperate Confederate force of about 1,000 Texans was repulsed by a determined band of 800 Union troops and Colorado militia at a place called Pigeon's Ranch, New Mexico.

The pivotal clash, on March 28, 1862, became known as the Battle of Glorieta Pass. The defeat dashed a campaign to capture Fort Union, NM, the largest in Arizona-New Mexico Territory, and to seize the Colorado gold fields for Jefferson Davis.

On Father's Day weekend, June 20-21, more than 125 Blue-and-Gray-uniformed reenactors from Arizona, California, Colorado, Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas, have been invited to join the Civil War Reenactors of New Mexico, to commemorate the battle that was

Last year an estimated 130,000 children under the age of 5 were victims of accidental poisoning. Keep emergency numbers posted near your telephone.

If for any reason you suspect that your child has taken a poison, call the New Mexico Poison Center toll free at: 1-800-432-6866.

Tell them the substance taken, how much was taken, when it was taken, and describe the child's condition. Keep calm and follow the center's advice. Be prepared to give the child's age and weight; whether the poison was swallowed, inhaled, absorbed through skin or splashed into the eyes; any first aid performed; whether the child has vomited; your location and how long it will take to get to the hospital or health center.

Have a bottle of syrup of ipecac in your medicine cabinet to induce vomiting if the poison center or your doctor tell you to do so.

TOP TEN

Children can be poisoned by many things that adults don't consider harmful. Parents of six children, my husband and I know that children act fast; so do poisons. Although we do our best to keep children from reaching poisons in our home, several years ago we purchased a bottle of syrup of ipecac at Family Pharmacy.

The bottle is still standing by intact. The product must be kept out of reach of children and used only under the direction of the poison center or a doctor.

According to a pamphlet by the New Mexico Health and Environment Department, in 1982, among the top 10 poisons were: plants, cosmetics, cold and cough preparations, vitamins, detergents, aspirin, topical medicines, gasoline, kerosene and perfumes. Other common poisons in the home include insecticides, paints, nail polish remover, glue, furniture polish and floor wax, birth control pills, and alcohol.

FIRE DANGER

With the 4th of July coming soon, firecrackers are available for the big celebration. Children have been observed playing with matches and fireworks. Do not allow children to light fireworks. Children can get hurt and property damaged when children are allowed to use fireworks.

In Carrizozo '911' is the number to call for attention regarding fires. The '911' number can be called in any emergency, including ambulance need.

SUPERMARKETING

Most of us spend more for food than for any other single necessity. The supermarket is the place to start coping with inflation.

Before you go to the grocery store, check this newspaper for sales. You may want to stock several of a certain sale item, like canned goods.

Plan before you shop. Make a list of what you'll need that week and avoid the in-between trips for extras. Try to plan with leftovers in mind.

By paying attention to the news in newspapers and on television you can anticipate price trends. A freeze in Florida this past winter may mean higher-priced orange juice, for example.

Try not to shop when you're hungry. If you shop after work and before dinner take along some "will power."

If you haven't considered a small vegetable garden, start planning now. If you don't have your own plot, see if you can put together a community one.

GARDENER'S DIARY

About 14 years ago (the time I started writing this column) I tried my hand at taking care of a plant. I gave it up ... the plant died on me ... it was a cactus plant.

After all these years I decided to try again. This time I will try to grow squash, zucchini type. I am in the process of preparing the soil by getting rid of weeds. The kids refuse to help me with my project.

Delicious, fresh in salads, squash is easy to grow (according to the seed packet information.) We shall see. Squash is delicious sauteed with corn and green chile. It is wonderful in cake, breads and muffins.

I told the kids, "If you like carrot cookies, you will love zucchini cookies."

The three boys replied, "Yuk!"

Stay tuned.

Ernest V. Joiner's

Columnist James J. Kilpatrick gave former Carrizozo High School Principal Dennis Sidebottom a national round of applause in his June 9 syndicated column in the Albuquerque Journal. Kilpatrick writes that he was introduced to Sidebottom (who has left Carrizozo Schools) by Secretary of Education William Bennett, who was impressed by Sidebottom's record of revitalizing the school and making study and discipline acceptable to students. Said Kilpatrick:

"In 1981 he (Sidebottom) became principal of the tiny Carrizozo High School in Carrizozo, NM, an isolated ranching community in an area of chronic high unemployment. He inherited an apathetic faculty and an uninterested student body. The school was characterized by absenteeism and vandalism. Sidebottom set out to make the school respected, and he succeeded. Today 97 percent of the students win their diplomas; 40 percent go on to college."

It was not mentioned that Sidebottom later served two terms as superintendent of the same school system, or that his achievements here may have had a bearing on his recent resignation to become Superintendent of the Brown City (Michigan) Schools. His friends here will wish him well. His detractors may resent Kilpatrick's description of Carrizozo and its school as "giving the town a bad image." According to Kilpatrick, he made some positive changes in the system. For that we thank him. It isn't easy to make such improvements in a community where many find it difficult to accept change.

When Mark Tarses of Berkeley Gulag in California cited some weird laws on the books in California, it confirmed that this is indeed a nation of laws and not of men. He noted that it is illegal to whistle for a lost canary before 7 a.m. in Berkeley. In Carmel, a woman cannot take a bath in a business office. It is illegal in Riverside for a couple to kiss on the lips unless both parties first wipe their lips with carbolized rose water. A San Francisco law requires that on Market Street, elephants are to be kept on a leash. In Los Angeles, one is forbidden to "use the US mails to complain about cockroaches in your hotel room." In all of California it is illegal to set a trap for a mouse without first having obtained a hunting license. Now comes Jerry Wilson to be quoted in Reason magazine as follows: "(But) in 200 years we've passed enough laws to make sure everyone in society is a felon many times over—they're just not caught. And when you have that situation, the real crime is not breaking the law but being caught." Closer to home, residents of Carrizozo may be astounded to learn that a local ordinance makes it a criminal offense "to start a parked car."

Comrade Jesse Jackson was a participant in the recent "Mobilization for Justice and Peace in Central America and Southern Africa." This Red rally was held April 25 in San Francisco and Washington. It was such an openly communist rally that it was blasted by the most powerful labor union in America, the AFL-CIO. A member of the program committee, Jack O'Dell, is a former member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party USA. He is currently employed by Jesse Jackson's Rainbow Coalition, and edits Freedomways, a black communist magazine. Don't forget to vote for Comrade Jesse Jackson for president.

Protectionism, I believe, is something as painful as shooting one's self in the foot. The current Democrat craze to enact economic sanctions against Japan can only hurt the American consumer. But one exception should be made. The federal government is aware that the Toshiba Co. of Japan has sold advanced US submarine technology to the Soviets. This technology will allow Soviet subs to avoid US surveillance. The sale of advanced submarine propeller blades to the Soviets by Toshiba Co. eliminates the noise that enables the US to track Soviet subs in ocean waters. Toshiba's sale enables Soviet subs to get within 10 minutes' missile flying time of the American coast.

How did this transfer happen? The CIA has learned that Toshiba Co. deliberately hid the transaction by falsifying the contents of the shipment, used false export licenses, and changed the name of the cargo to get it past export inspectors. US Rep. Duncan Hunter said Toshiba made a profit of $17 million on the deal, "but it will cost the West $30 billion to regain the superiority that we lost." American citizens can have the last word simply by boycotting all Toshiba products on sale in this country. Don't count on the government to ban Toshiba products—the Democrat controlled congress isn't inclined to defend the country.

The Rev. Bill Graham was just getting started and was in a small town to preach a sermon. Wanting to mail a letter, he asked a young boy where the post office was. The boy told him, and Dr. Graham thanked him and said, "If you'll come to the Baptist church this evening, you can hear me telling everyone how to get to Heaven." "I don't think I'll be there," the boy said. "You don't even know your way to the post office."

Of course the Sandinista government of Nicaragua is not communist, in spite of what its leader, Daniel Ortega, says. If the Sandinistas were communist, why would they recently dedicate one of the capital's streets as "Ho Chi Minh Avenue"? If they were communist, why would Tomas Borge, Nicaragua's minister of interior, send this message to our covering congress: "One day we're going to take five to ten million Mexicans and they're going to have one thing on their mind—cross the border into Dallas, El Paso, Houston, New Mexico, San Diego, and each one has imbedded in his mind the idea of killing ten Americans." If Ortega were a communist, he would not have promised the US Congress he was not allied with Moscow so they would use funds in aid to the freedom fighters; then, the next day, fly to Moscow to get $200 million in aid to crush the anti-communist cause. To date, approximately $2 billion in arms and military equipment has arrived in Nicaragua from the Soviet Union, which should dispel any doubts as to the Sandinista's true intentions.

Should sodomists be appointed to Presidential Commission on AIDS?

WASHINGTON—When Mary Mallon was finally sent to the North Brothers Island penal facility for the last 17 years of her life, the City of New York had to fight for its right to guarantee all the way to the Supreme Court.

But "Typhoid Mary" and her supporters did not demand that she be made a member of either the Public Health Service or of any Presidential Commission to study typhoid fever.

Precisely this kind of demand is being made by a number of AIDS researchers—despite the fact that AIDS is proving more of a killer than typhoid ever was.

Dr. Paul Volberding, director of AIDS activities in San Francisco General Hospital, has strongly protested the Reagan Administration's decision not to appoint any openly homosexual people to the president's new AIDS commission.

In the kind of statement which might be expected from an employee of the sodomist-terrorized city government of San Francisco, Dr. Volberding declared: "If this panel, designed to guide the country through a terrible plague, starts out by excluding the group that has borne its brunt, it would be a disgrace."

One wonders how, even in the Sodom of the West, any licensed physician could make a statement of such monumental absurdity.

"The group that had borne its brunt" is the group that continues to be AIDS' leading distributors: the militant Sodomy Lobby that insists on their "right" to bugger, at the same time they demand that all the rest of us pay the bill.

The group to which this zany physician refers was allowed to participate in a Centers for Disease Control conference in Atlanta earlier this year. And they performed as should have been expected. A collection of sodomists, called "The Lavender Hill Mob," disrupted the convention, while the rest of the sodomists on hand railroaded a resolution against AIDS testing.

But Dr. Volberding has recruited a number of others, including June Osborn, Dean of the University of Michigan School of Public Health.

Dean Osborn is similarly enlightening in her statement: "The Administration is urging mandatory testing and other measures that make no sense at all."

States have for decades been testing marriage license applicants for syphilis through blood tests. But Dean Osborn, in speaking of a disease far more lethal, says it "makes no sense" to test.

Let us leave it to the public to conclude whether Dean Osborn is a lady of good sense—or dangerous nonsense.

Several of those who signed this Volberding-Osborn protest to the White House have threatened not to participate in any panel that does not include homosexuals.

Great! And that is not a threat so much as a relief. Gary Bauer, a domestic policy adviser to the president, notes: "This Administration has opposed in the past appointing people to jobs or giving them assignments solely because of race or sex. I just don't know how one can philosophically believe that and then turn around and appoint somebody based on sexual preference."

Mr. Bauer might have used the plural, for there are a considerable number of sexual preferences. And if the Presidential Commission on AIDS ought to include the buggerers who are AIDS' leading distributors, then, by this same reasoning, a White House conference on child abuse should include NAM/BLA, the organized child molesters who were voted into New York's Gay Lesbian Community Council, as well as the Rene Guyon Society, whose members advocate parental-child incest.

Washington Times columnist Lawrence Wade notes that in New York City alone, last year the AIDS epidemic cost $400 million. The New York State Health Commission says this will increase to $1 billion by 1991, because: "We are talking about medical disaster, a catastrophe of major magnitude, no matter what we do now, no matter what vaccines are developed in the next few years."

Columnist Wade concludes that the familiar expression, "What goes on in my neighbor's bedroom isn't any of my business," could become: "I am the keeper of my brother's bedroom key."

And Wade continues: "What is alarming is politicians pussyfooting about this issue. What is a danger is the fear of offending the few that threaten millions more."

Failure to register for draft costly to activist

By WILFRED L. EBEL, Acting Director, US Selective Service System

David Gillam Kerley, 26, has been convicted as a felon by a jury of his peers in Madison, Wisconsin. On May 29 he was sentenced to three years in prison and ordered to pay a $10,000 fine.

His crime? Refusing to comply with the Military Selective Service Act—the federal law that requires men to register with Selective Service within 30 days of their 18th birthday.

While I agree with the necessity to prosecute nontroopers, I have great sympathy for Mr. Kerley. My feelings are akin to the adage that one should "hate the sin, but love the sinner." It is a

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Sunday booze would help town

EDITOR—Concerning your unauthored article of June 4, 1987 entitled "No, not again," I assume that this writing again ridicules another effort by town citizens to help their community weather tough economic times.

First of all, you seem unaware of the public's right to petition another election concerning this matter of on premise consumption of alcohol. There were 96 qualified voters who signed that petition.

After the required number of signatures are verified and authorized by the Secretary of State's office the town council had no choice but to call for the election.

Why, Mr. Joiner, as a Carrizozo business owner do you not point out the positive points of this matter, like increased gross receipts which the town sorely needs, or the increase in jobs and salaries which will help the town's economy?

I am a Carrizozo taxpayer, landowner, registered voter and non-drinker, and can plainly see that any increase in Carrizozo's business can only benefit the people and Town of Carrizozo.

In the interest of a truly free society, please print this letter in your June 11 issue.

BETTY KIRBY, Carrizozo.

USSR a 4th World nation

EDITOR—A very recent issue of the respected International Harry Schultz Letter, (Box 622, CH-1001, Lausanne, Switzerland) called attention to the Soviet empire's absolute dependence on the West for aid, trade and credits. Mr. Schultz stated:

"I've said it before, USSR is NOT a super power! It is in a strict military sense, but in every other respect, it's not even as advanced as half of the 3rd World! It's relatively primitive. It's a peasant society, unsophisticated with little infrastructure, poor communication, feeble roads, no common language, a currency nobody wants, has never been able to feed itself, outcasts its best minds, has few phones/cars, has no surplus of anything except inferiority complexes and melanchols."

So, how did the 4th World nation get a 1st World military machine?

The answer is vital to understand. It is: We gave it to them! We loaned them money to buy technology, we sold them goods, food on credit with liberal terms, so they could devote themselves and most of their capital to building missiles, tanks and airplanes.

Now listen hard! Technology is moving fast. The Soviet military machine will soon become outdated if they don't keep spending on modernization. If we stopped loaning money, giving credit, selling goods and food they could not modernize. They'd become an old-fashioned force within a few years. We would swamp them with innovative, flexible hi-tech. Let's spread the message—stop helping communism, here, there or anywhere.

Inside the Capitol

By Fred McCaffrey

SANTA FE—In politics, it's more likely to be your friends who do you in than it is your enemies.

If you think that point needs proof, just look at what "friend" Ollie North and his buddies are doing to the place in the history books Ronald Reagan once thought he would be occupying.

It's true also in state government, as any one of those who preceded Garrey Carruthers in the governor's chair could have told him. Even if they didn't he's learning it for himself.

Just take the Case of the Tactless Memo that made its way into the news last week. Here's how that one worked itself out.

REVELATION: Somebody—or maybe even somebodies—inside the Carruthers administration anonymously distributed to the news media copies of a memorandum that said some things that should never be put into writing.

The memo, addressed to those who act as aides to the governor's cabinet secretaries, reminded them that when a shift in personnel is being contemplated, the forms submitted for review by the chief executive should specifically note to which political party those involved belong.

To some citizens, that seemed to reek too much of old-time, "boss" politics, back in the days when you couldn't get such jobs without a note from your precinct chairman.

For those who really expected Garrey Carruthers to deliver what he promised, "a new beginning" for state government, words of that sort had to be disenchanted.

RESPONSE: When Maralyn Budke, the governor's good right hand, was shown that memorandum, she pronounced the fact that it had been circulated "incredibly stupid."

Since whoever was responsible for this action was another member of the Carruthers staff, reading those words in the press must have been very distasteful indeed. As soon as they were said, one would have to have been sure a firing or a resignation was in the offing. Somebody who would do anything the chief of staff found "incredibly stupid" would, of course, have to be separated from the service.

Thus, when Margaret Gray, cabinet secretary to the governor and boss of the person whose name was signed to the memorandum in question, resigned promptly, "for personal reasons," it would be logical to conclude that she had something to do with the offensive sheet of paper. It would be incurably naïve to believe she just happened to choose just this time to decide to give up her post in government, with no relationship to what had gone before, though that is exactly what the office of Governor Carruthers tried to assure us was taking place.

THE MORAL OF THE STORY: We may be expected to learn at least two things from all this sort of activity.

One is that it is a serious mistake to give high posts to people if you can't depend on them. If it is necessary, as the Carruthers folks now say it is, for the chief executive or Budke to check every memo personally before it is released, that office is in bad shape.

Secondly, what all political appointees must be expected to understand is that it is sometimes necessary for someone in such posts "to die for the people." It's also true that friends can be very embarrassing for politicians, just as for the rest of us.

peace, they must simultaneously prepare for war. Preparedness never caused a war and unpreparedness never prevented one.

This year, as we commemorate the Bicentennial of the signing of our Constitution, we should each remember that freedom isn't free. Nor is its permanency ensured. Each generation must be prepared to make whatever sacrifices are necessary to preserve and protect American values. In our culture, the security of our free society must often rank ahead of individual goals or beliefs. Concomitantly, we must adhere to the legal concept of least drastic means. That is to say the government's method of assuring the safety of the state must minimize intrusion on individual rights.

Peacetime registration without a draft is hardly intrusive. Eighteen million men have registered since President Carter called for a return to peacetime registration after the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan. No doubt many were less than eager to do so, and some have legitimate and deeply felt objections of conscience that would preclude them from serving in war. But they lived up to their obligation by registering and the moral high ground belongs to them. Not one has been adversely affected because they obeyed the law—they go to school, work, travel, marry and enjoy all the other benefits of living in our great nation. Every registrant knows that registration is not an obligation to serve the military. All should know that the system will provide equitable opportunities for exemptions, postponements and deferments should congress reinstate a draft. Conscientious objector status will be dispensed liberally to those whose religious, ethical or moral beliefs cause them to oppose military service. It is out of fairness to these millions who have registered that the government is obligated to pursue those few who have failed to comply.

I am proud of the 5,000 young men who come forward to register every day. I lament that Mr. Kerley doesn't share this pride. He has failed to understand that registration is an investment our nation must make to help maintain the peace.

Amateurs invited to dig for Billy the Kid this summer

They'll certainly find bullets, and possibly pistols and rifles. Maybe even a skeleton.

But one thing is certain. Eight weeks after they resume digging in the frontier town of Lincoln, NM on Saturday, June 20, 64 amateur archaeologists working for Human Systems Research will know a great deal more about Billy the Kid.

So will the professionals of Human Systems, a southern New Mexico contract archaeological firm.

"It would be neat if we found a Colt .44 Lightning revolver," agreed archaeologist Karl Laumbach, founder of Human Systems Research. "The Kid used a .44 Lightning. Or if we found .44 caliber bullet casings. Then we could test-fire a .44 Lightning once carried by the Kid. It would be just like the work they did at Custer Battlefield a couple of summers ago. If our casings matched those from the test-firing, we'd be able to retrace the Kid's footsteps during the bloodiest days of the Lincoln County War."

The war was a violent struggle over lucrative beef contracts with nearby Fort Stanton more than a century ago. Local cattle rancher John H. Tunstall and partner Alexander McSween rose in opposition to Lincoln merchants Lawrence Murphy and James J. Dolan.

Tunstall, unarmed, was gunned down on Feb. 18. His death meant that only McSween and Tunstall ranch hand Billy Bonney stood between Murphy and Dolan, and the Fort Stanton contracts. On July 14, 1878, the shootout at McSween's 10-room home began. On July 19, the hacienda was set ablaze. Just before nightfall, Billy the Kid and a companion escaped.

McSween and three others were shot and killed. The shootout climaxed the war: Three years later the Kid was shot and killed by Sheriff Pat Garrett.

"We know at least 2,000 rounds of ammunition were fired at the home during the siege," admitted David Kirkpatrick, the archaeologist in charge of the dig. "Last summer we located the home, along with some burned adobe bricks and melted glass. This summer we want to find the living room. That's where McSween's wife (Susan) played the piano during lulls in the shootout."

This time, Kirkpatrick and Laumbach are intrigued about finding more than just artifacts.

"According to some of the survivors (of the fight), a body may have been buried in the basement under the living room," Kirkpatrick explained. "Another (body) may have been left in the kitchen when the home burned to the ground. So there's a good chance this year that the dig might be a great deal more exciting than last year."

The firm is offering eight consecutive five-day classroom experiences for amateur archaeologists, Billy the Kid romantics and tourists alike who want to help the Human Systems Research team unearth the site. The cost is $400 per person.

The Thursday through Monday classroom schedules include instruction in survey methodology and lab techniques, lectures, and on-site field work under the guidance of professional archaeologists. On-site lunches are also provided. Each classroom is limited to eight participants.

The McSween Home site, on Lincoln's main street, will be open to the public. Lincoln, a state monument since 1938, has just one lodging and foodservice facility, the historic Wortley Hotel, built in 1872 (P.O. Box 96, Lincoln 88338; 505/653-4381). However, Lincoln is just 32 miles from the popular mountain resort town of Ruidoso (Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 698, Ruidoso 88345; 505/257-7395).

"Anybody who's seen the Western movies of the '40s and '50s, and the television Westerns of the '50s and '60s," Laumbach beamed, "won't want to pass up the chance to be on the cutting edge of gathering new evidence about the life of Billy the Kid."

For reserving a slot in the McSween Home archaeological dig, contact Kirkpatrick or Laumbach at Human Systems Research, Inc., P.O. Box 816, Mesilla Park 88047; or call 505/524-0456.

'On My Own' By Pat Kite The petting zoo

My kid enters the house carrying something that resembles a hamster. "Do you like our new dog?" she asks. Like any semi-sane parent I immediately respond, "No more animals. None. Zero. Zilch. I already told you. A million times. Absolutely not. Positively not."

"It's name is Muzzy," she says. This is her childhood nickname. It is calculated to soften my heart. When it comes to another pet in this house, I have no heart.

"Take that thing back where you got it," I stomp.

Where she got it is from her boyfriend. Where her boyfriend got it is when the neighbor's 3 1/2-varlety miniature scooted under the fence to tryst with his 2 1/2-varlety miniature. The result was this shivering hamster-like thing. Which cried.

"But it's so cute," she says, plopping the morsel into my scolding hand. I'm accustomed to thinking of dogs as German Shepherds and Dobermans. As such, I immediately questioned its dogility (pronounced like masculinity).

So I put it down on the carpet. It immediately piddled. For some reason this gave me a little more respect. As such, I used a much kinder tone when I shrieked, "Take it home."

The kid gives me a look normally reserved for banana slugs, scoops up squeaky tinker dog, stomps out of the house. I hear the car start. That should be the end of that. Yes? No? You guessed it.

Two weeks later, at 11 p.m., I am standing on my front porch clad in flannel nightie and ancient bedroom slippers. It is cold and it is raining. My kid promised to bring me a jacket, but I think she's afraid her arm will freeze if she sticks it out the door, so she forgets.

Me, I'm talking to tinker-toy dog. I am telling it to do its little poopoodle outdoors, please, pretty please with sugar on top, that's mommy's itty-bitsy baby tum-tums. I am walking around in my leaky slippers on my rainsoaked porch pointing to wonderful places where a 6-inch dog might want to go poopoodle. I am praising it effusively, offering both Nobel and Pulitzer prizes, when after 10 minutes of browsing it finally accomplishes the monumental deed.

"That's a good precious," I say, carrying it inside. I check its tum-tum for fleas for the zillionth time. I handpick the fleas so tinker dog doesn't have to endure the rigors of a flea collar at such a tender age. I handpick them because if I don't my bed gets even more fleas. It has fleas because Muzzy sleeps on my nose. My hot breath is comforting.

When I think about it, I'm not really sure how Muzzy made it from "out-out" to in. I asked my girlfriend about this. Pat replied, "It's because you love your kids."

That's interesting. I was beginning to think I had a home petting zoo because I have a screw loose. Which is probably true also.

When weather permits, these model airplanes are flown on weekends and sometimes during the week. They are flown by Virgil Hall Jr., Terry Strickland, Lee York, Dr. Rouleau, Ira Wallace, John Bermudez, Wayne Brown, Don Jones and others. About $250 will get one started with this hobby.

Capitan News

By Margaret Rench

Last week there was only a trace of rain the first part of the week. The last three days gave this area .10 of an inch each day which totals .3, that of which was great. There were a couple of days of warm sun, nights cool. But vegetation is responding beautifully. Everything looks so fresh, green and alive.

The Smokey Bear news is short this week due to the sudden illness of Cathleen Massey. She was rushed to the Ruidoso hospital Friday night and is still therein. Next week I will pick that up. I wish her the best and quick recovery. We miss her. There was a group of 13 from the Marlboro Ranch, Manana, TX visiting there last Thursday.

The Capitan Chamber of Commerce held a special meeting Monday discussing the 4th of July Smokey Bear Stampede Parade.

The Capitan Cemetery Board met June 4 at the Smokey Bear Restaurant. Members present were Francis Shaw, Lois Aldrich and Dorothy Smith. Also attending was the village clerk, Janet Keel, and the village deputy clerk, Deborah Cummins. Members discussed building an entry way into the cemetery. They are going to make contact for the labor.

The Cinderella Pageant ladies are preparing for the state competition in Albuquerque June 18-21. The girls wish to thank everyone who helped them get their entry fees. The tickets sold for the $200 cash prize was given away Monday, June 1. The lucky ticket was Mike Malls of Ruidoso.

Roy and Sharon Horton of Mesa, AZ are spending a few days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stowe and visiting friends. It's good to see them again.

Melinda Strickland accompanied Mike and Sally Haizer and family on a camping and fishing trip to Elephant Butte last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Neo Vallejos of Carrizozo became grandparents of a granddaughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis April, Friday, June 5.

Eight-year-old Justin Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Wright, underwent outpatient surgery in Alamogordo. He is doing great. Keep up the good work, Justin.

Shanks listed in 'Who's Who'

Only five percent of all students from the nation's 22,000 high schools are recognized and honored each year. Michael is the son of Howard and Mary Shanks, Capitan. He is a senior at Capitan High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hall and all of his family of Ruidoso enjoyed dinner last Sunday at El Palsano and visited relatives.

April Muse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Martin of

HISTORICAL SKETCHES

James J. Dolan involved in the Lincoln County War

By CHRIS HARKEY

James Joseph Dolan was one of the principal participants in the Lincoln County War which climaxed in July of 1878. He was the son-in-law of Emil Fritz, over whose uncollected life insurance, after his death in 1874, started the war, according to many researchers and writers.

Fortunately, Dolan managed to survive this reign of terror, although he was deeply involved from the start. He was able to survive because of his cunning ability to persuade others to perform the real dangerous, dirty work while he watched from the sidelines.

Dolan died Feb. 26, 1898, just shy of his 50th birthday. He was buried in the Fritz family cemetery on the Spring Ranch, near the Bonito River and below Lincoln Town.

The following biographical sketch of Dolan appeared in the "History of New Mexico" by Helen Haines, 1891. It is believed Dolan wrote the sketch himself.

The subject of this sketch has succeeded thus far in life simply because he merited success and at the same time is possessed of those qualifications which tend to make a man popular with the public, viz, industry, integrity, and ambition.

Mr. Dolan was born May 2, 1848, in Laughrea, County Galway, Ireland. When five years of age his parents emigrated to America, and young Dolan received a limited education in New York City. When but twelve years old he entered a large fancy goods house and remained there three years.

In 1863 he enlisted in Co. K., Seventeenth Regiment, New York Zouaves; he served two years, was discharged, and in 1866, re-enlisted in the Thirty-seventh United States Infantry, and served faithfully the full term of three years.

After the war he accepted the position of clerk with L. G. Murphy & Co., post traders at Fort Stanton, New Mexico; three years later, upon the senior partner's death, Mr. Dolan was taken into the firm. In 1877, he formed a partnership with Mr. Riley, which lasted until 1880; he then engaged in the cattle business in Lincoln.

In 1883 he was elected county treasurer and held this office until 1888, which year he was elected to the Territorial Senate, representing the counties of Grant, Dona Ana, Sierra, and Lincoln.

On June 3, 1889, he was appointed by President Harrison receiver of the land office at Las Cruces, of which office he is the present incumbent. On July 13, 1878, he was married to Miss Caroline Fritz. They are the fond parents of two bright children.

In politics Mr. Dolan is an earnest Republican; his honesty, integrity, high social standing, and unflinching adherence to the principles of the political party he espouses, have endeared him to the hearts of the people, and his future none can foretell; but prophecy indicates that higher and more honorable positions are still within his grasp.

Corona ends school year with Field Day

Corona Elementary School students enjoyed an afternoon of fun at the annual field day before school was out for summer vacation.

Kindergarten teams tied at 1:11 in the hat relay race. Winning team members were Rebecca Wells, Jeff Starnes, Amy Bonds, Monica Alirez, Roy Bradley, Clint Lopez, Angela Arellanes, Jessica Rose, Alejandra Hernandez, Tomee Lightfoot, JoJo Romang, and Bennie Garza. Angela Arellanes placed first in the sack race with a time of 6.6. Jeff Starnes took first in the long jump with a 6-foot leaper.

1st and 2nd graders who were on the winning relay race team were Kim Riley, Anna Garza, Jeff Gomer, Leonard Gonzalez, John Gnatkowski, Kathy Jimenez, and Rhiannon Chacon. Rachel Hendricks and Rhiannon Chacon tied for first place in their sack race with a 6.6 time. Jeff Gomer took first in the 2nd grade sack race with a time of 6.0. Logan Marshall and Jeff Gomer took firsts in the 50 meter dash for each of their classes.

A clothes exchange relay started the 3rd grade competition with the team of Juan Gonzalez, Jacob Caldwell, Lindsey Bonds, Jeremy Knight, Travis Joy, Joanna Romero, and Colby Wells taking first place. There was little competition as an overpowering team of Otalee Brown, Juan Gonzalez, Travis Joy, Lindsey Bonds, Shayla Marshall, Jeremy Knight and Forrest Tracey quickly took the win in the tug of war. In the distance kick, Jeremy Knight booted the ball an astounding 60'4" to take first in the boys division; Joanna Romero took first for the girls.

4th, 5th and 6th graders showed their speed with a relay race, and the team consisting of Orlando Chavez, Julia Arellanes, Katrina Archuleta, Ronda Miller, Callie Gnatkowski, Melissa Johnson and Barbara Bradley took first. Ace Swift hurled the softball 86 feet to take first place in the softball throw for 5th and 6th grade boys while Russel Lueras took first in the 4th grade division with a long 92 foot toss. Ronda Miller, Melissa Johnson and Katrina Archuleta took firsts in their divisions of the softball throw. Marcus Johnson and Ace Swift tied with a time of 6.2 to take 1st place in the 50 meter dash. Ronda Miller took first in the girls 50 meter dash. 5th and 6th grade boys 50 meter dash was won by Orlando Chavez; Reina Arellanes took first in the girls race. Ace Swift, Ronda Miller, Oscar Rich, and Julia Arellanes took firsts in the long jump in their respective divisions.

All students participated in the marathon race, and Phillip Lueras and Jeff Starnes took first and second place in their heat. Reina Arellanes had the best overall time of 3:00. Ace Swift came in with the next best time of 3:04.
