Samuels, Siddens win one

Mitchell disqualified from representing commissioners

By Ruth Hammond

District Judge Robert Doughty had upheld motions presented by Lincoln County Clerk Fran Siddens and Lincoln County Sheriff Don Samuels to have county attorney Gary Mitchell disqualified from representing Lincoln County in the writ actions against Siddens and Samuels.

The 12-page opinion by District Judge Robert M. Doughty contains the following:

"It is not often that a District Judge writes an Opinion explaining the Court's reasoning in ruling on pending Motions. However, in the case at hand, we are concerned with issues that strike the very heart of the relationship of elected public officials who, by their very election to office are given the public trust, and who, under our form of government, must become a part of a cohesive overall institution if the ends of government are to be carried out. Consequently, the law ought to be explored in the public eye. I am sure that these matters will one day be the subject of an Appellate Opinion. However, that will come after considerable delay. In addition, an Opinion is useful in combating trial of public officials or attorneys at law by 'rumor.' It is important to point out that the Courts apply the Constitutions and Law to the facts—not to personalities. The rulings herein apply the law to the facts, as the Court sees both as the Judge and Jury. Finally, the Opinion will point out that the Court is not acting in the capacity of a Disciplinary Committee even though concerned with the Canons of Ethics in any motion to disqualify any attorney. Here, the Court is asked to rule, in an area where reasonable minds can obviously disagree, before ethical considerations rise to the level of ethical violations."

Judge Doughty found that Mitchell, in his capacity as the contract county attorney, perhaps in a spirit of compromising disputes, represented the county clerk and the sheriff by counselling them and giving them advice on the very issues that are the subject matter of the applications and petitions for the writs of mandamus.

Doughty stated that "Under the substantial relationships test, Mr. Mitchell is disqualified from acting as Counsel for the Board of Commissioners of Lincoln County in the within causes."

Doughty also ruled on motions filed by Samuels and Siddens asking for a stay of proceedings until the county allocated funds to pay for attorneys for Samuels and Siddens. He quoted from several sources before denying the motions.

The last page of the Opinion contains directions for attorney Dan Bryant to prepare an order granting the Motion to Disqualify Mitchell. It also contains directions for Mitchell to prepare an order denying the Motion for Stay and for Allocation of Funds. Both orders are to be presented to the court within certain time limits.

Bryant is further told to request a setting on the motion filed by Siddens for enforcement of settlement agreement. When the matter is ripe for a hearing on the merits, counsel is to submit a request for setting of a court date.

The issues began in January when the county commissioners filed the writs of mandamus against the sheriff and clerk. The matters were scheduled to be heard on Feb. 8 and 10 but were continued until March 14.

After the hearing on March 14, the court was asked by all counsel to refrain from ruling on the motions pending settlement negotiations.

Capitan Village Council

Capitan VFD comes under scrutiny

The Capitan Volunteer Fire Department was the main topic of discussion at Monday night's meeting of the Capitan Village Council.

Village attorney Mike Runnels began by explaining ordinance 88-4. This ordinance amends and updates fire ordinance 64-4. It establishes a clear chain of command and spells out the duties of the fire chief.

Former mayor David Cummins took the floor to question why this ordinance had not been placed on the agenda. Mayor Benny Coker said he felt the fire department had a duty to attend council meetings. One member of the fire department later told the News that the fire department is usually represented at these council meetings. The proposed ordinance was later tabled. The fire department's Jimmy Wright invited the council and others to a fire department meeting the next night.

The Village of Capitan will soon go out for proposals on the Smokey Bear Museum and for solid waste disposal.

George Beaudry gave a report for the cemetery board. Lois Aldrich and Dorothy Smith were also present from this board.

Beaudry stated that a new sign had been constructed by Pat Joiner. A new storage shed had also been built. A new flag pole will be placed in the cemetery by the American Legion.

Dorothy Smith said a rough draft had been drawn up about do's and don'ts around the cemetery. McCarty has been contacted to be caretaker at the cemetery.

Beaudry later said that the committee would like to buy a small strip of land and possibly construct a circular drive.

The council renewed its $200 membership dues to the Southeastern New Mexico Economic Development District. Coker said he felt the village had benefited greatly by being a member of this organization.

Coker said he had talked with Mr. Mershon of Otero Electric Cooperative, but the high demand factor on the new well stills stands. Coker also mentioned that the village will no longer have to put up with the water from Bonita Lake when the lake "turns over" because of the new well.

In answer to a question, Coker said he hadn't received a word concerning the Leon Eggleston suit.

Animal control was questioned. What is being done with the animals? Have there been any fines? Coker will follow this up.

Resolution 88-4 was approved. This calls for a special election to answer the question "Shall Sunday sales of alcoholic beverages by the drink for consumption on the licensed premises of licensees be allowed in this local option district?" This special election will be held July 19, 1988.

During the council meeting Lois Aldrich said the open house at the senior center is May 24, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The purpose is to show the public the new lunch program at the Capitan Senior Center.

Village trustees formally accepted a grant of $17,600 for the law protection fund.

Coker called a workshop for May 12 at 5 p.m. for the purpose of discussing the water filter plant. This meeting will be at village hall.

Cowpatty?

The Carrizozo school athletic program and the Carrizozo Grizzly Athletic Booster Club are sponsoring a cowpatty contest at high noon on May 25. Tickets are available for a donation of $5 each.

CARRIZOZO'S NEW tractor was delivered May 10. Inspecting the unit are trustees Harold Garcia, Linda Haller and Albert Baca, town foreman Faustino Gallegos and Mayor Bob Hemphill.

Carrizozo Town Council

Police officer resigns; Legion Post needs a home

The Carrizozo town council accepted a letter of resignation from police officer Patrick Riley during the May 10 town council meeting. Riley's letter was dated May 9 with the effective date of resignation being May 23.

The letter was read following an executive session for personnel. Mayor Bob Hemphill asked that advertisements be placed for a full-time certified police officer. Applications will be accepted until May 24. All prior applications are kept for only one year.

In other business, Bill Payne and Jerry Tucker announced that American Legion Post 11 in Carrizozo has been re-activated and would like a building for a Post home. They asked about leasing the old ice plant on 12th Street behind the Four Winds Restaurant. The area is presently being leased by Waste Control.

The council said Waste Control would relinquish its lease if it would be allowed to use the surrounding area. A short discussion was held and the matter will be presented at a later meeting.

Hemphill proclaimed the week of May 8-14 as Municipal Clerk's Week. He also proclaimed the month of May as Older New Mexican Month.

Bill Sumpter explained the track event scheduled to be held in Carrizozo June 11 for boys and girls ages 8-13 and asked the town to proclaim the week of June 5-11 as Grizzly Junior Track and Field Invitational Week. Entries have been received from eight different areas.

Glen Ellison reported that plans for the Memorial Day celebration are progressing: two booth spaces have been rented for the day's activities to begin at 9 a.m. in the park. The parade will be held at 2 p.m. with the program to unveil the marker in the park to be held at 2:30 p.m. He said the Carrizozo Lodger's Tax Committee will pay to have the new edition of the "Old Homes" booklet printed.

The addendum to the golf course lease was approved.

The new tractor has been delivered with the bucket and canopy. Council members inspected the tractor before going into executive session.

A budget workshop will be held at 5 p.m. May 17 at city hall.

The town received a letter from the state highway department concerning the coop agreement for $74,000 for work on streets. The highway department needs a resolution from the town stating that if the agreement is approved that $44,000 will come from the state and 40 percent from Carrizozo infrastructure money. The letter is not an approval letter but merely a step in the process before approval is obtained.

Trustees discussed drafting a new ordinance for the condemnation of unsafe and unsightly buildings in town. It was noted that once an ordinance is in effect that the town will require property owners to remove the buildings at the expense of the property owners. The town will not be allowed to tear down the buildings as it would put the town in competition with private businesses.

Co-chairmen for clean-up day are Albert Baca and Linda Haller. They asked that everyone help with the day's activities. Coffee and doughnuts will be served at the Rec Center at 8 a.m. Donations of pickup trucks, workers, tools, garbage bags and money for refreshments will be accepted.

A dumpster will be placed at the Rec Center for the use of workers. Refreshments will be served after the work is completed. All people who want Carrizozo to be cleaner are asked to join in the activities.

Voting machines being prepared for election

Lincoln County Clerk Fran Siddens has announced that voting machines in the county are being programmed, inspected and sealed in preparation for the primary election June 7.

SCHOOL DAYS 1914

A pleasant surprise was in store for me when Woodrow W. Clements of McIntosh, NM took time to write and inform me that the 1914 photograph of Lincoln County teachers in the April 28 issue of Lincoln County News included his sister, Dora Clements (Kersey).

I had asked readers for help in identifying the teachers posing for a picture at New Mexico Normal University at Las Vegas.

Miss Clements had sent her parents an original copy of the photograph listing the names of her fellow teachers. She is now 91 years old and a resident of Logan, NM.

There are several people from Corona. If anyone recognizes a relative or a friend from the names taken from Miss Clements' photograph I would enjoy hearing from you. Perhaps the names will be recalled in full by other readers.

SMALL WORLD

Zillah Watson, who resides east of Carrizozo, had mentioned that Mr. Shreck, a teacher in the 1914 photo was her great-uncle but was unable to point him out. She learned from Woodrow's information who her relative was.

Carrizozo Cubs win ribbon at Scout Fair

Carrizozo Cub Scout Pack 153 won a blue ribbon for its entry of an obstacle course in the Scout Fair held in Roswell, April 30.

The obstacle course was built by the Cub Scouts, and they explained the project during the Scout Fair.

Den leader Linda Brown said each boy in the pack received the Conquistador patch for selling 10 tickets to the Scout Fair. The local group sold a total of $326 worth of tickets with a portion of the money going toward summer camp expenses.

Justin Serna won the $50 savings bond from United New Mexico Bank for having sold the most tickets and Jim Brown received $15 from Desertaire for placing 2nd in the ticket sales competition. There was a six-way tie for 3rd place and each boy received $2 from Pete King. They were Bud Maynard, Cole McMahan, Jeff Maynard, DeWayne Langley, Jesse Brown and Eldon Offutt.

During a pack meeting May 5 Cole McMahan received his bobcat badge, Eldon Offutt received his bobcat badge and two beads toward the wolf badge, Jesse Brown received his bobcat badge and one bead toward the wolf badge, Jeff Maynard, Justin Serna and Bud Maynard received one bead toward their bear badge and Jim Brown and DeWayne Langley received two beads toward the bear badge.

The quilt show will feature old and new, small and large quilts. Some tops will be hand-made while others are stitched by machine in a variety of materials such as cotton, Levi, corduroy, wool, velvet and even double knit. There will be quilting using the hand-quilt stitch consisting of a series of even running stitches where the needle pierces through top, batting and backing. Some quilts will be tied with yarn, a faster means of securing the three layers. But no matter how a quilter chose to put her textile sandwich together, all are regarded as creative statements.

INTRICATE ART FORM

Quilting, once regarded as women's work, has attracted male enthusiasts as well. Men are taking an interest in the craft and some, like artist Johnny Meigs of San Patricio, are quilt collectors and are interested in quilts from an historical point as well as from the quilt's place in art.

Meigs was in Carrizozo this week to say he plans to display three quilts at Saturday's show. The three quilts include the patterns popular in the years stitched. One of the quilts dated back to the 1900s.

PEACE THROUGH UNDERSTANDING

Up With People began with the belief that music is one of the best means for young people to communicate their enthusiasm for life, as well as their hopes and concerns for the future. The show to be performed in Carrizozo on Monday evening represents an average of 25 countries and cast members have a medium age of 21 in a range of 18-26. Up With People seeks participants from all races, religions, nationalities, cultures and backgrounds.

Baca is to be on probation for a period of 48 months and was fined $5,000 with $1,400 of that fine suspended.

Adolpho Garcia, 38, of Ruidoso charged with vehicular homicide in the deaths of Amy Sue Roeske, 29, and her brother Steve Roeske, 30, received a sentence of six years, three years on each count with one-third suspended.

The alcohol related accident occurred on Sept. 14, 1987 on Highway 70. Garcia has been cited for improper passing, failure to carry insurance and DWI. The charges were changed to two counts of vehicular homicide after Amy Sue and Steve died.

Garcia will serve the remaining four years of his sentence in the state penitentiary. Upon release from prison he will be placed on mandatory two-year parole. He is to be sentenced on a prior DWI before leaving for the state prison. Magistrate Judge Wheeler in Ruidoso had released Garcia on his own recognizance after appearing before the court on a DWI on Sept. 6, 1987.

Michael Leroy Chavez was sentenced to two years imprisonment on charges of incest. The sentence was deferred and he was placed on probation on the condition that he enter and successfully complete a sex offender treatment program at Las Vegas Medical Center. He will then be on a mandatory one-year parole.

John Richard Baudino was sentenced to nine years imprisonment for the beating death of Brent Colson last October.

If 4000 people moved next door, your phone bill might be lower.

In densely-packed cities, there are more people-per-mile to share fixed costs like telephone poles, trucks and tools. So phone bills can be a few dollars lower than living where we live.

Luckily, you don't have to endure crowds and traffic jams to save money on your phone bill. Contel's digital switches, for example, let us detect problems and sometimes even make repairs without having to make an expensive trip to your doorstep. That's a practical investment Contel is making to hold down costs... right here at home.

After all, we want to be more than just a reliable dial tone. We want to be a good value, too.

CowBelles boost cast of Up With People

The Canyon CowBelles of Carrizozo held their regular luncheon meeting May 4 at the home of Ruth Armstrong, with co-hostesses Rosemary Shafer and Cheri Goad.

Guests at the meeting were Kazuko Nagumo from Tokyo, Japan and Holger Weissenberger of Black Forest, Germany. Both are with the "Up With People" cast and are in Carrizozo finding host families to keep the cast when they arrive later in May. They will present their program on May 16, 7 p.m. in the old high school gym.

This year 15 countries and nearly all of the states are represented in the cast, and that one cast will be traveling to Russia for the first time to give a program. Several of the CowBelles signed to keep several of the cast, and a group will prepare Ditty Bags for each member of the cast with information on Lincoln County and information and recipes on beef. This information can be read as they are traveling from one stop to the next on their long bus rides.

The May Birthday Girl was Rosemary Shafer, and the door prizes were won by Pat Hume and Annie Withers.

The June meeting for the Canyon CowBelles will be honoring husbands and fathers and the rest of the family, on Saturday at 6 p.m. at the Flying J Ranch at Alto, June 18. All CowBelles please contact Cheri Goad or Joyce May by the Wednesday before so the reservations can be made. At that time, the Father of the Year will be announced, and presented with a gift, for all his help and support of the CowBelles through the years.

Republicans gather for First Monday

Nearly 40 Republicans and guests gathered last week for First Monday at the Incredible Restaurant in Alto.

"Our purpose is just to get to know one another and enjoy a good dinner," said Rhonda Johnston, county chairman. "Our emphasis is on fellowship instead of a formal meeting."

Following dinner, Johnston reported on the success of the recent leadership conference held locally. "Several candidates and others attended the all-day session. They felt the experience was invaluable for their campaigns."

In lieu of a program, Johnston introduced those candidates present who are running in the Republican Primary. Next First Monday will be June 6 at an area restaurant to be announced later.

Archers plan a 2nd meeting

The first meeting of archers and bow hunters was held May 8. A total of 31 people attended and plans were formulated for the archery range that will be built on Indian Divide.

Election of officers will be held May 15 at 3 p.m. at the home of Ken Kirkland on Indian Divide. Markers will be placed on highway 380 between markers 79 and 80 and will show the way to Kirkland's home.

All people interested in archery and bow hunting are invited to attend. The club will have bows for people to use to try and see if they would like to become more involved. There will be no charge for lessons. For information contact Kirkland at 354-2598.

Summer golf

A summer golf program will be held in Carrizozo for six weeks beginning June 8 and 9.

Organized by Ron Becker and Ted Turnbow, the program will be for students who will be in grades 8-12 in the 1988-89 school year.

Becker will be the golf pro-instructor. He said students must have their own equipment and the cost will be $2.50 per day for the nine-hole per day program.

UP WITH PEOPLE's all-new show, "Time for the Music" is the world on tour, featuring an international cast of 100.

Up With People cast to arrive Sunday

The cast of Up With People will arrive in Carrizozo Sunday to begin rehearsals for their presentation of "Time for the Music" on Monday. The show will be held in the old gym at the school at 7 p.m.

Founded in 1963, Up With People is an independent, non-profit, educational organization. A priority of Up With People has been to spend time interacting with a broad cross section of each community it visits. The cast members stay with host families and learn about the local customs, foods, jobs, values and language as the host families learn about their guests.

Samuels wins top honors at national conference

Amanda Samuels, 18-year-old senior student at Ruidoso High School, emerged as one of the top eight winners in the nation at a conference held in Salt Lake City, Utah, April 25-May 1.

She is the daughter of Lincoln County Sheriff and Mrs. Don Samuels of Ruidoso.

Amanda represented the Decca Club of Ruidoso High School in the national conference. She wrote a 30-page manual on "apparels and accessories" and entered it in the Decca Career Development Conference at Salt Lake. Decca Club is a national student organization devoted to marketing education. Representing her school, she also placed 6th in the nation in the Pepsi Learn & Earn Project by submitting a written manual on sales and marketing.

According to her teacher, Eddie Parker, Amanda is an honor student who plans to attend Texas Christian University next year to major in either pre-law or business administration.

All cast members must be high school graduates and nearly one-third have graduated from college and a third are in the process of completing a college degree. The average age of the students is 21 with the range being from 18 to 25.

Although musical talent is needed for each cast, individual selection is based upon a personal interview rather than a musical audition. Maturity, personality, motivation, interest in the world around them, ability to communicate and the desire to serve others are among the attributes for which Up With People is looking.

The show that will be presented in Carrizozo takes a natural, youthful look at the world and the concerns, hopes and promises of the future.

Tickets for the Up With People show are $7 for adults and $5 for students and senior citizens and are on sale at United New Mexico Bank in Carrizozo, Alamogordo and Roswell, Family Pharmacy in Carrizozo and in Ruidoso at Brunell's and Don's Prescription Pharmacy.

OPINION

Remember all that "humanitarian" aid the United States sent to the Nicaragua contras in 1986? Didn't you think, as most of us did, that such aid consisted of food, clothing and medical supplies? Not exactly. J. Hopper of El Paso sent us an Associated Press news item that appeared recently in the El Paso Times, based on information gained under the Freedom of Information Act. Some approved humanitarian aid items, according to the article, included 19-inch color television sets. Also approved were: $5,760.53 for deodorant, $1,071 for volleyball equipment, two living room sets worth $1,283.63, a $654.94 dining room set, a $477.75 sofa, 12 domino sets worth $132.18, and two pairs of boxing gloves. That is the type of aid the US Congress sent to Freedom Fighters whose only need was guns, ammunition, planes and tanks and missiles. Apparently, humanitarian aid to a congressman meant living in style and comfort until Ortega's Communists entered the camps and homes and butchered them—courtesy of the United States.

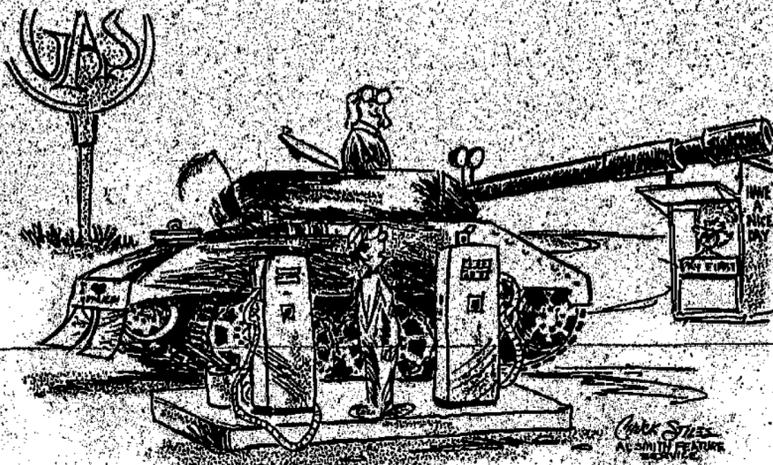

It could have been worse. Not allowed the contras as part of the humanitarian aid package were requests for 16 bottles of whiskey worth $120, 32 pounds of dog food worth $8, 25 pounds of jumbo shrimp worth $235, $226 worth of guitar strings, and $369.82 worth of Christmas decorations. Mr. Hopper, angered at this waste of tax dollars and the perversion of the meaning of "humanitarian aid," pointed out in his letter that he is 70 years old, "and last year was the first time I could afford a color TV." We pay congressman $89,500 per year in salary and an additional $5 million a year in "freebies" they have voted themselves—including multiple homes, travel, postage, stationery, plush offices, staff members and a thousand other "perks" of office. If you believe a congressman receives an annual salary of only $89,500 a year, you haven't been reading the newspapers.

The actual cost of maintaining a congressman in office is $5 million a year. That's what it costs the American taxpayer to enjoy the "services" of the average congressman per year. This sum includes the best possible medical attention, lavish cafeterias with prices we would all love to enjoy, pension buildup and hundreds of privileges we never hear about until some researcher, such as the Heritage Foundation or Cato Institute, digs into the well-covered political perks congressmen vote themselves. And while they labor mightily to saddle Americans with costly and ridiculous laws and mandates, they studiously exempt themselves from the provisions of those laws and mandates.

For example, congress exempts itself from all requirements of the Civil Rights Act, the National Labor Relations Act, the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Equal Pay Act, the Occupational Safety and Health Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Freedom of Information Act and the Privacy Act. Only the private sector is saddled with these vicious requirements as a means of protecting workers from many abuses. Also, congress was careful to exempt itself from racial and sexual discrimination penalties in congressional hiring. In short, what congress says is good for America is not good for congress. If that isn't hypocrisy, bring us up to date.

"Everybody knows women take longer than men when they go to the toilet," is the lead paragraph to a story in the May 10 issue of the Albuquerque Journal. I didn't know that, and I don't feel any better now that I do. Are you ready? It takes 34 seconds longer, on average, for a woman to relieve herself than for men. This earth-shattering study was part of a $20,000 project at Cornell University in studying rest area design. The researcher, Anh Tran, is already beating the drums for a 60-40 allocation of toilets instead of the traditional 50-50. Women take an average of 79 seconds to perform her ablutions; men take 45. Rather than tear out the nation's restrooms, why not recognize that it takes the extra 34 seconds for a woman to disengage herself from those skin-tight jeans? Looser garments would speed up the process—and would have saved $20,000.

Other zanies: Reason Magazine reports that a New York jury has ordered a country club to pay $1.45 million to a man who was paralyzed when a bee stung him on club property. Has anybody a formula for barring bees from country club premises? . . . It's illegal in Clifton, NJ, to graze a handful of mints from a dish in a restaurant. The law says unwrapped toothpicks, straws, and mints are illegal for the customer's own good, of course. . . . Andrews, TX school officials were alarmed because corporal punishment wasn't being administered equally. So, now all paddles must be of uniform size. Paddle A is for elementary schools, made of plastic and measuring 3/16 x 4 x 18 inches. Paddle B is for secondary school culprits, made of wood and measuring 1/2 x 3 1/2 x 22 inches. A possible legal problem arises when it is discovered that one student's ass is deemed to be smaller or larger than the average for which the paddles are designed. That's a goodnight from outer space.

Inside the Capitol

SANTA FE—How will control of the currently deadlocked Senate change after the 1988 election?

My prediction is that it won't change at all. It will be coalition politics as usual.

Oh, there will be a few new faces. Six senators will not be standing for reelection. But I'll venture that only one of those seats will change parties.

The most likely seat to change is currently held by US Senate candidate Joe Carraro of Albuquerque. That district can go either way.

It was created by the 1982 legislative reapportionment that took the seat from the east side of the state. Sen. Ken Schlienz used to represent the district which stretched from Tucumcari to Clovis.

Carraro won in a close race four years ago. One Democrat and two Republicans are running for the vacant seat this year. The Democrat, Marty Chavez, an Albuquerque attorney, has been organizing for a year to pull the seat over into the Democrat column.

Chavez's campaign is progressing successfully enough that he is counting on the effort of individual volunteers to win it for him. He is accepting no political action committee endorsements or money.

Of the six vacant seats, two other could change but probably won't. A tremendous effort by a Democrat would be needed to capture the seat now held by Republican John Budagher. One of the Demo candidates in that race is showing evidence of such a capability. Janice Paster, an attorney and longtime lobbyist for women's issues has been gearing up her campaign for many months.

Paster must get by two other Democrats before taking on the winner of the GOP contest between David McMann and Hugh Formhals. McMann is giving up another run for his state Board of Education seat to have a go at the senate race.

A Republican victory is possible in the district formerly held by Democrat Ike Smalley in Luna, Hidalgo and Sierra counties. The GOP is fielding two candidates—Bill Cobb of Columbus and Mac McPherson of Lordsburg. Both have been active in party politics. Cobb has prior legislative experience from back east.

On the Democrat side of the race are two residents of Deming, the largest population center in the district. Banker Claude Leyendecker, a 1969 state constitutional convention delegate, and John Smith, a former Demo state party officer are contending for that nomination. Smith is reportedly Smalley's chosen successor.

All Senate incumbents stand a reasonable chance of reelection. The GOP is counting heavily on two of their House members taking vulnerable Demo seats.

In Roswell, GOP Rep. Bob Corn is giving up an easy reelection to his House seat to take on incumbent Tim Jennings. Both men have been very successful at passing legislation in Santa Fe. Both are from long-established Chaves County families. The rumor mill says Corn has been offered a Carruthers administration post in Santa Fe if his bid to unseat Jennings prove unsuccessful.

In Alamogordo, GOP Rep. Maurice Hobson is also bypassing an easy House reelection to challenge Republican-turned-Democrat Bill Vandergriff. Hobson says his move is to decrease the distances he has to travel to represent his constituents.

Hobson's House district sprawls from the outskirts of Alamogordo all the way to Truth or Consequences. The senate district is all within Otero County.

But don't think Hobson wasn't encouraged to run for the senate seat by the GOP hierarchy.

The Republican party is also eyeing the southern Dona Ana County district of Fernando Macias, who won his last election with only 51 percent of the vote. The GOP is running William Ikard again in hopes things will be sweeter the second time around.

The Democrats are targeting six GOP senators they didn't expect to lose to four years ago. These are Tony Williams from Valencia County, Smitty Eoff of Gallup, Marvin Watts in Carlsbad, Ellen Steele and Chub Foreman of Las Cruces and Wendell Cosner in Albuquerque.

Two of the three renegade Republicans—John Budagher and Jack Morgan have left the Senate. The remaining maverick Jim Martin of Socorro, drew no primary opponents, an indication that he may have agreed to cooperate with GOP leadership next year in return for no punishment now.

Although there will be surprises going both directions, the Senate balance will remain basically the same. In such an environment, expect GOP leader Les Houston to negotiate for the necessary Democrat votes to produce a Houston-dominated coalition. So, what else is new?

Important questions

EDITOR—There are important questions about communism that must be asked.

How has its self-defeating socialist system successfully seized more than two score of nations and a third of the world's people?

How does an economic system that is a complete failure continue to grow stronger and more menacing?

How is communism able to continue suppression when hundreds of millions despise it and would flee if they could?

How can the Soviet Union afford a military force that occupies Central and Eastern Europe, threatens Western Europe, invades Afghanistan, supplies and trains armies in Cuba and Nicaragua, foments revolution in Africa, and even boasts of a missile capability equal our own?

The single answer to all these questions is that communism received help in all its treacherous endeavors from the non-communist world, chiefly from the government of the United States. Whatever else can be said about this aid, there is an important, fundamental point that cannot be made to often. It is that helping communist regimes has always been, and continues to be morally wrong. Treating them with dignity cannot be justified. Overlooking their treachery is wrong. Earning profits by supplying them with equipment, technology, and credit only compounds the problem.

And appeasing them with fawning smiles and pleas for peace only strengthens their resolve to continue ravaging the planet, to continue, as Gorbachev has stated, striving toward a "world of Communism."

Limit congressmen's terms

EDITOR—I wish to commend you on your "Opinion" which appeared in Vol. 83, Number 17, April 28th edition.

No truer or more factual statements have ever been written, not only on Japanese-American give-away, but the limit of two terms for congressmen.

Many I have talked with have thought the same thoughts, including myself, but how? All of the American voters would have to diligently work towards such an end.

As it is, for myself, I will not vote for anyone in public office after two terms. However, it takes more than a few to accomplish such an endeavor. Until such a time nothing will change in Washington, unfortunately for our beautiful country and its people.

Keep up the good work; you are the voice for many people.

Letters to the Editor

Karn hits May 5 OPINION column

EDITOR—Your May 8th editorial was about as correct as the one you wrote on the county budget where you were over $8,000,000 off. Later when the county manager showed you the budget you didn't apologize for being wrong, you stuffed it off as someone's tax dollars. (I guess you wanted Lincoln County not to build the road and give back the $6,000,000 so Albuquerque could have another bridge study.)

Or maybe your May 8th editorial was like your headline that said "county commissioners divert funds from courthouse repairs to airport." Again you knew the mill levy was passed for the airport short falls we inherited and the surplus would go to courthouse improvements. But your headline was deliberately worded to mislead the public—because if it wasn't, why was it wrong?

Now for your May 5th editorial—wrong again. (1) The commissioners have never tried to stall any court date. I have a lot to testify about.

Also, when we talk about postponing the trial until after the primary, let's not forget to mention: (A) The other side disqualified Judge Grisham; (B) They couldn't go to the first hearing and asked for a 30-day postponement; (C) They filed a motion to disqualify Gary Mitchell which held up the hearing; (D) They cancelled the previous deposition; (E) We requested that the judge issue a ruling first; (F) We showed up for their deposition without asking for a postponement; (G) We produced all documents requested without postponing the deposition.

Like I said Mr. Joiner—I have a lot I want to testify about—under oath—in a court of law.

(2) I was the commissioner who asked if Don wanted to talk about his statement on Dec. 22—yes, he did say he had a meeting in Ruidoso (in fact there were at least 4—coffee at Don Victor's Restaurant, High Country Dodge, Republican Women's meeting and a Kiwanis meeting—that I know about personally.) But to take 5 seconds to say, "I can't today but how about a special meeting sometime this week?" would be worth $35,000 to me. Also no visitor in the room has said they failed to hear me... not even a small tape recorder in the very back of the room with a self contained microphone.

(3) About the minutes of Dec. 22, some of my statements about cooperation with the sheriff's department (my letter to your paper) were totally left out and other words were used. All I asked for is a true set of minutes that represent what really happened in the meeting.

(4) The voters do have a right to the truth Mr. Joiner. I have served for over 8 years on village committees, village council, state committees and have never had anyone—departmental head or other committee member ever accuse me of trying to get anyone. I hope the voters do take the time to find out the truth for themselves and vote.

(5) Now what about the Grand Jury, Mr. Joiner—wasn't that political—especially with no charges of wrong doing—or is it going to hear the case before the primary and not render a decision until after the primary at $1,500 a day. Also, Mr. Joiner, it's funny that some of the people so involved with the Grand Jury petition are now running for office or are campaigning for a "change" (change sounds good until you look at the lemming and its need for a change in location.) Coincidence Mr. Joiner—no more so than the fact that Lincoln County liability insurance was cancelled and our new bill is up from approx. $5,000 to $70,000. Nor the fact that the commissioners are looking for a cheaper rate nor the fact that it wasn't any law suit by or against the commission that caused the cancelled insurance or the approx. $55,000 increase against the tax payers.

(6) But let's look (and hope the voter's look) at all the candidates in the commission election, especially those that say they can get along with anyone (maybe like Chamberlin did with Hitler) "or that we need a change." I hope the voters find out how long they have been a Republican or Democrat, how long they have been in Lincoln County, do they have a loan at a local bank that can be called in, their personal lifestyles, do they have a relative that controls a bank where county money will be invested (especially surplus funds for over-night deposit.) I hope the voters ask a lot of questions Mr. Joiner because I don't like being lied about and the voters, especially in the commission race, will get what they elect.

(7) It's a good thing Mr. Joiner that the troops in WW II didn't have to shoot with the accuracy in your May 5th editorial—we would have lost.

P.S. This was burned in May 10th at approx. 4:30 p.m. Since I had not signed it I was told I needed to sign it before it could be put in the paper. I signed it May 11 at 12:50 p.m.

BILL KARN.

Stop communist trade

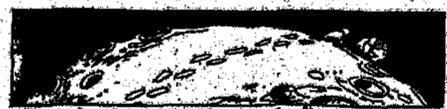

EDITOR—Without American, Western European and Japanese assistance, the communist regimes would crumble.

Clearly by guaranteeing trade agreements between the United States and communist regimes, our government is placing itself in a dangerous position. Few American businessmen would venture to continue trading with communist nations if payment for their sales was not guaranteed by the American government, with the taxpayers footing the bill.

As long as American assistance to the communist nations continues, the latter will use this aid to develop an industrial base whose primary purpose is to supply the military might of the communist dictators.

The answer in dealing with the communist world is to stop encouraging businessmen to sell their wares to the enemies of the United States. All credits and Export-Import Bank loans to the communist world must be stopped.

Sanchez announces for State Education Board

JAMES SANCHEZ

Incumbent J. James Sanchez, has announced his candidacy for State Board of Education, Dist. 8 (Chavez, DeBaca, Eddy, Lincoln and Torrance Counties). He is running unopposed in the June 7, Democratic Primary.

Sanchez is a lifetime District 8 resident and rancher, now residing in Lincoln. He is married to author/historian, Linda Sanchez. They have one daughter, Katherine, who is now attending NMSU. Mrs. Sanchez is also employed as a teacher by the Ruidoso Schools.

Sanchez brings a variety of talent and experiences as well as years of service in education to this position. His professional life has been dedicated to education for over 22 years and includes expertise at the elementary to college levels. He has taught in high school and has been a counselor at the elementary to college levels. He has also worked with Adult Education programs. He served in the Army Reserve for twenty years as both an enlisted man and commissioned officer.

Sanchez is a strong supporter of quality academic and vocational education programs. He is a journeyman electrician with experience in the construction industries. His position as vocational education coordinator and director of guidance and counseling for the Ruidoso Schools for over 16 years has kept him up-to-date with vocational as well as academic and employment trends. He is currently an academic advisor at New Mexico Military Institute.

Other positions held over the past few years have been: Member of the New Mexico State Department of Education Advisory Committees in Special Education; Chapter II; Guidance and Counseling; and Testing and Evaluation. He is presently a member of the Lincoln County Medical Center Board of Trustees, a position he has held for six years.

Sanchez holds a master's degree from Eastern New Mexico University. He is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi, an honor society recognizing outstanding academic achievement and he has completed post graduate work at New Mexico State and UNM. Other credentials include teacher certification in electronics, drafting, psychology and the sciences as well as a New Mexico Administrator's Certificate.

Sanchez believes the State Board of Education is an essential and significant part of the state's educational system. A member of this board should be knowledgeable about current trends and educational issues pertinent to New Mexico and the nation. It is the responsibility of the board to help provide quality education for our youth because they will be seeking employment not only in New Mexico but nationwide and in some instances, internationally.

"The young people of New Mexico are our future, and if they are not presented opportunity to develop their academic, physical and vocational abilities, we are not carrying out our responsibility as educators," states Sanchez.

As a member of the State Board of Education, Sanchez is currently working with members of the business community, the Commission on Higher Education and Governor Carruthers to accomplish these and other major goals for improving education in New Mexico.

BILL KARN

Karn seeks re-election

Bill Karn has announced his candidacy for re-election as Lincoln County Commissioner, Dist. 3. His opponent in the Republican primary will be Karon Petty.

Karn has served on the Ruidoso Water Board and was elected to the Ruidoso Village Council. After being elected to the village council, the Municipal League of New Mexico appointed Karn to their Resolutions committee and their Taxation and Revenue committee. Both of these Municipal League committees drafted and presented legislation that affected each village and city in New Mexico.

Karn was elected as Lincoln County Commissioner two years ago. Since then the Association of Counties has appointed Karn to their multi-line advisory board which deals with insurance for counties in the state of New Mexico.

He has personally lobbied in Washington, DC and Santa Fe, both in regular and special sessions, for more than 14 years dealing in projects from bridges in Ruidoso to the land transfer for the new airport, and new bridges in the Hondo Valley, the new Sierra Blanca Regional Airport, business relocation for Carrizozo, widening highway 37, the access road to the new airport, the re-opening of two offices in Lincoln County for Human Services (one in Carrizozo and one in Ruidoso), money for the defense of water rights of the citizens of Lincoln County and many other projects.

"In total, these few projects account for more than $18,000,000 in capital improvements in Lincoln County," Karn said. "I am glad to have helped."

Karn has been a life-long Republican and doesn't believe in changing parties to gain votes. His family comes from the Territory of New Mexico and the Texas panhandle. His family has owned land and a home in Lincoln County for more than 37 years. His income is from oil and gas leasing, cattle ranching, construction and investments.

"There are a lot more projects I would like to work for in Lincoln County dealing with economic development as well as infrastructure projects," Karn said. "I think I've worked hard for all of the people of Lincoln County and I would like to continue to serve the people."

Wheatley in race for county assessor post

Joe Wheatley has announced his candidacy for the office of Lincoln County Assessor on the Republican ticket and says, "It is indeed time for a change of leadership in the assessor's office."

He says he will encourage the staff to contribute ideas toward improvement of service and to get additional training provided for by the state. "I want to in some way reward dedicated employees and even do things that mean a lot, such as observing employees birthdays and anniversaries," he said. "High employee morale translates into much better service to taxpayers and better productivity."

Wheatley says that the opening of a branch or sub-office in the Ruidoso area is long overdue. Residents of the Hondo Valley, Ruidoso Downs, Ruidoso and Alto are now being forced to travel long distances and to make long distance phone calls to reach the assessor's office.

"Isn't it way past time that we make it more convenient for at least 75 percent of the taxpayers of Lincoln County?" he asks. He says the proposal has received enthusiastic support from the two commissioners for the above areas.

Up-to-date property appraisals throughout Lincoln County would insure more equitable taxes for all and these more progressive proposals would substantially enhance the stature and service of the assessor's office, according to Wheatley.

Since no Democrat is running in the June 7 primary, Wheatley encourages all Republican voters to provide Wheatley the opportunity to make some needed improvements.

"If elected, you can expect me to visit your farm or ranch, place of business and residence. I will not be sitting in the office all the time," he said. "I've worked for the assessor's office for almost four years and unlike one of the other candidates who works in another county office, I know what needs to be done for my own office," Wheatley continued. "And as for the other candidate, like I said at the beginning, it is time for a change of leadership in the assessor's office."

Wheatley was raised on a farm in Brownfield, TX during the depression and says he will be able to relate with ranchers and farmers of Lincoln County. He also worked at the desk of the old Chapparal Motel in Ruidoso Downs in the summer of 1970.

BERT ATKINS

Bert Atkins is running for DA office

Bert Atkins, 36, a lifelong resident of Alamogordo, is a candidate for district attorney, 12th judicial district. He is a Democrat.

He was a primary candidate for that office in 1984 and was narrowly defeated by James Weldon, present district attorney.

After receiving his law degree from the University of New Mexico, he served two years as an assistant district attorney. For the last five years, Atkins has been the public defender for the 12th judicial district, handling more than 3,000 criminal cases. He also served five years on the City of Alamogordo Planning and Zoning Commission and was chairman for three years. Currently he is a member of the board of directors of the Otero County Boys and Girls Club, a member of the advisory board of Sacramento chapter, Order of DeMolay, member of Tularosa Lodge 49 AF&M, and is active in the Democrat Party.

"The people of the 12th judicial district deserve a professional district attorney's office," he said. "That office must become a trusted and respected link in our judicial system. With Bert Atkins as your next district attorney, the people of Lincoln and Otero counties will have the opportunity to be proud of their judicial system, and even more important, to believe in it."

Atkins is also in private law practice in Alamogordo. He and his wife Eve have three children, ages 3, 6 and 9.

The first zipper, or slide fastener, was patented by Whitcomb L. Judson in 1853.

Lincoln Ramblings

Lincoln has experienced terribly high winds recently, along with the rest of the state. We have also experienced cool weather.

Several from Lincoln attended the musical talent show by the kindergarten through high school students. Students from Lincoln were Shawna Shrecengost, Mandy and Cody Morton, Sheila Caudrall, Dilany Thompson and William Beckley on the electronic equipment.

Susie Morton, Sharon and Kevin Daugherty, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Beckley, Betty Shrecengost, Diane Shrecengost and children and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thompson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crandall and family attended the show.

National Kindergarten Week was celebrated the last week in April. The young students presented a program for parents, grandparents and friends.

Mandy Morton and Mike Shanks were selected from Queen and King at the Capitán prom April 30. Their escorts were Justin Washburn and Lynette Boyd.

Lindsay Hart has her little store called Lincoln Mercantile open in Horace Cordova's shop.

Lincoln County Historical Society met at Ft. Stanton April 30. The 30 members and guests were welcomed by Irvin Aldaz, administrator, and enjoyed the story of the gold of Victorio Peak by Bill Thorpe of Nogal.

Bill is retired from ENMU-Roswell and started the Billy the Kid trail ride every summer in Lincoln County. Ft. Stanton personnel served refreshments. Faculty members were at Dr. Woods' house Saturday, May 7, as part of the celebration of National Preservation Week. Linda Hart gave three tours of the McSweeney dig, and the Lincoln Heritage Trust and New Mexico State Monument were open along with Dr. Woods' house.

The group voted to renew the lease to the Dr. Woods' house and to man it three days a week for the summer months.

Ralph Dunlap brought the society up-to-date on the planned National Center for the Western Horse and proposed Ranch Heritage in the Ft. Stanton area.

Plans for the La Reunada (The Reunion) was discussed. The program begins June 17 with supper at the Wortley Hotel, a singing session, and registration. Other activities include a picnic at Spring Ranch, supper at Flying J, a tour of Tunstall Canyon where Tunstall was killed, facilities to copy old papers, letters and photos. There will also be translators available.

On May 31, Lincoln will host a fundraising wild game meat supper for the Boy Scouts. Around 200 people are expected to attend. All the museums, visitors center and monuments will be open 4 to 7 p.m.

If anyone has any history or photos I can copy about the Peppin house, please contact me, 653-4047. I'm especially interested in photos before 1950s.

Lincoln County Extension Homemakers Council held its quarterly meeting at the Corona School last week.

Plans for the coming year were discussed—the Lincoln County Fair in August; schedule set up for the county clubs to man the Extension County booth; State Extension meeting in Las Cruces, June 12-13; College Day, June 13-16, also in Las Cruces; Achievement Day, Sept. 28, Capitán; and the Cultural Arts Show next spring.

Inez Marrs, Dorothy Talley, Phyllis Zimmwilt and Rosalie Dunlap will be delegates to the June state meeting.

Mona McEuen resigned as secretary due to pressure of business. Mary Stroemer was voted as her replacement.

Margaret Lightfoot reported on the Master Knitter program. Anyone interested in beginning advanced knitting

Correction

In an article in the May 5 issue of the Lincoln County News, it was stated that the Capitan Schools receive $17,225 from local sources in its budget. It should have been stated that this is in the operational part of the budget.

The Capitan Schools do have $245,776 in the 1988-89 budget from local sources (10 series) to retire five different bond issues. These bond issues are: 1979, $710,000, will be paid off July 15, 1989; 1982, $300,000, will be paid off July 15, 1989; 1983, $100,000 will be paid off July 15, 1992; 1985, $750,000, will be paid off July 15, 1996; 1986, $225,000, will be paid off July 15, 1996.

The Capitan Schools also have $88,832 listed in the 1988-89 budget which is generated by a two mill levy on the local level. This is used for purposes such as major maintenance needs and instructional equipment that the operational budget cannot fund due to its limitations.

The News regrets any misunderstanding that might have been created.
