Woman Killed in accident on Hwy. 54

Shashi Arora, 28, a student from Indiana and a resident of Las Cruces, was killed and a passenger, Keith L. Phillips, 51, was injured in a single car accident south of Carrizozo on Highway 54 at noon Monday.

The 1973 International Scout was southbound when it left the highway and went over a 40-foot embankment and rolled 2 1/2 times. The woman was partially pinned under the vehicle and died on the way to the hospital. Phillips received minor injuries.

Another accident occurred north of Carrizozo on Highway 54 on Sunday at mile marker 142. The driver, Javier Delatorre of Kansas City, MO and a passenger were ejected when the 1987 Jeep Wrangler they were in went off the road and rolled one-fourth turn and landed on its side. Both victims were transported to Lincoln County Medical Center in Ruidoso for treatment and were released.

There were no injuries in a two-vehicle collision on Fort Stanton Road Aug. 20. A vehicle driven by Robert George Wolf Jr. slid in the mud and hit an oncoming vehicle driven by William E. Norkunas. Both cars were driven from the scene and no citations were issued.

THIS ENTRY at the Lincoln County Fair lastweek received a 1st premium in its division. Jack Forrester of Capitan is a skilled artisan. His exhibit is entitled Western Heritage.

Ordinances not being enforced

Irate residents want an end to weeds, junk, stray dogs

By Ruth Hammond

The Carrizozo town council faced a crowd of more than 30 people at the Aug. 23 meeting and answered questions concerning the enforcement of the nuisance ordinance as it pertains to weed control, junk cars and accumulation of solid waste on property within the municipality.

The nuisance ordinance was adopted Feb. 24, 1987 as a method to enhance the beauty of the community. According to the ordinance, "Enforcement is a necessary factor to ensure compliance."

Wayland Hill spoke to the council about his collection of old cars. He said he had a fence around the property and keeps the grass and weeds cut on the property, in the alley and for a short distance on the adjoining property to reduce the fire hazard and keep the property looking good.

"Most of my cars are collectibles," Hill said. He added that the old cars are a hobby. He has a chain link fence around the property and objected to having to install a solid fence, saying that with a solid fence, "the thievery is worse."

After much discussion and several other members of the audience stating they enjoyed seeing Hill's old cars, Mayor Bob Hemphill suggested Hill approach the council and ask for a variance to the ordinance for the property.

Old refrigerators, dismantled machines and accumulation of other solid waste was also discussed. Clovis Perry noted that one particular property in town looked like a junkyard.

Trustees agreed to begin enforcement of the ordinance this week. Certified letters will be sent to residents in violation. The letters will be similar to letters sent to Alamogordo residents.

Property owners, lessees or occupants will be responsible for correcting the violations or be faced with a citation that could result in a fine of not more than $300 or by imprisonment not exceeding 90 days or both and each day on which such violation continues shall constitute a separate offense.

Hemphill announced that the ordinance also allows for a lien to be placed on the property if the violation is not corrected. Copies of the ordinance are available to be seen at city hall during regular office hours or copies are available for $2 each.

The weed control portion of the ordinance states that residents will be responsible for their own lots and for the area located between the property line and the curb, and the area located 10 feet outside the property where there is no curb. Residents are also responsible for the area located between the property line and the middle of the alley adjacent to the property.

The ordinance further states, "It shall be unlawful for a person having charge or control of any lot within the municipality of Carrizozo to allow any growth of weeds or grass to a greater height than six inches on curbs and sidewalks located on their property as well as the area adjacent to and five feet back on the curbs, sidewalks and streets."

The audience was particularly concerned with dismantled, partially dismantled or inoperative motor vehicles that are unsafe.

The ordinance concerning these nuisances of weeds, solid waste and junk vehicles is an amendment to the criminal code for general offenses titled nuisances.

In other business, Hemphill presented a certificate to Lee Roy Zamora for his 3rd place achievement in the Hershey's National Track and Field Meet on Aug. 14. Zamora was one of 480 young athletes who participated in the national event. His 3rd place came in the softball throw.

The bid for the cleaning of the 10-inch water lines came in at double the engineer's estimate and was rejected by the council. The "pigging" project had been scheduled for Aug. 30 and will be delayed.

The bid for cleaning, rehabilitation and painting the interior of the water storage tank was awarded to D and R Tank of Albuquerque with work to begin as soon as possible. The bid of $58,324.28 is less than the engineer's estimate.

The town received letters from property owners requesting a zoning change from A-1 agricultural and low density residential to A-2 agricultural and low density residential, open space. This zone requires parcels be 2 1/2 acres or larger and restricts mobile homes. The town will proceed with advertising for the proposed change of zoning.

A budget increase for money received from the job training partnership was approved.

Six properties sold at delinquent tax auction

Six properties were sold during the delinquent property tax sale held in the district courtroom in Carrizozo Wednesday.

The sale, conducted by the New Mexico Delinquent Property Tax Bureau of the Taxation and Revenue Department, brought in $13,450.

Lincoln County will receive the taxes due on the properties from 1984 to 1987 plus penalties and interest. The state receives $25 per property for administration costs for the sale.

A total of 88 properties had been advertised for sale but payments for the delinquent taxes on 81 of the properties were paid prior to the sale, leaving seven parcels to offer for sale. There was one no-sale.

An audience of 50 people watched as the 17 registered buyers bid for the properties. The next delinquent property tax sale will be held next year.

CONDUCTING THE delinquent property tax sale: Lincoln County Treasurer Shirley Goodloe (standing), deputy treasurer Joy Leslie, Stan Galrey and Larry Thorpe, both with the delinquent property tax bureau in Santa Fe, and Lincoln County Assessor Marian Schlarb. Deputy treasurer Mike Halner has back to camera.

The school had estimated 271 students for budgetary purposes. The actual count will be taken the 40th day of school.

Burnett explained the expectations, attitudes, goals and resources available. He asked substitute teachers to "do as much as you can to follow in the teacher's footsteps." He also gave information as to the direction the school is taking in teaching students.

"Instruction is our number one priority," Burnett said. "Our student's test scores are among the highest in the state."

Principal Mel Holland instructed the substitutes in policy, procedure and requirements. He explained the school calendar, bell schedule, attendance procedure, discipline, lesson plans and duties.

—Trustees granted an extension to Don Miller to pay his $50 water deposit on Oct. 1, 1988.

—The audience participated in another rharb concerning enforcement of the leash law and animal control. Several people objected to dogs running loose and asked that the animal control ordinance be enforced.

—Trustees agreed to proceed with specifications for a foam roof for the Rec Center. Hemphill will contact the architect concerning specifications for the mechanical requirements for the cooling system on the roof.

—The town has tentatively lost $10,000 with the tabling of the request from Pioneer Metals Corp., Denver, for the request for the purchase of water from the town. Pioneer had offered the town $10,000 for a 3-year option to purchase water from the town. Discussions concerning the matter were held at the last two council meetings.

Pioneer sent a letter to the town asking that the matter be tabled until attorneys for both parties could research the matter further.

Trustee Harold Garcia listed several things he wanted before the town would consider the sale of the water.

—Hemphill reported that the house numbering system is progressing. Trustees agreed to proceed with plans to rename certain streets. An ordinance will be required to legally change the names of some of the streets.

—Trustees decided not to adopt the state's 1987-88 changes in traffic laws.

—Trustees agreed to proceed with codification of ordinances for the town. This will be a process whereby the ordinances will be placed in a certain order but will not change any of them.

—Robert E. and Verna Rodman requested the town vacate a portion of a street and an alley on the other side of Highway 380. All the other platted streets and alleys in that area have been vacated by the town.

—After a 42-minute executive session for personnel and pending litigation, it was announced that the litigation matter would be forwarded to the town attorney and the personnel matter resulted in the town offering John Northrup Sr. a full shift of work to fill in as police officer while C.A. Morales is on vacation for a month.

Adjusting the antenna for your favorite sitcom is not a laughing matter

Your favorite sitcom may be funny; but adjusting a television antenna to watch it is serious business. That's because antennae often combine two dangerous factors — they're near power lines, and they conduct electricity. If the antenna strikes a power line while you're holding it, the results can be deadly.

To adjust your antenna safely, please remember to make sure it is installed far enough away from power lines that it could fall without striking one.

In the backfield juniors Dennis Vega now running out of the single-wing formation along with Michael Chavez and sophomores Kevin Sheehan, Guy Archuleta and Shawn Wootton show some promise. Freshmen such as Chris Barela, Lee Najer, Michael Vega and Val Reyes should help.

The first home game for the Grizzlies is scheduled for Friday, Sept. 2, when they host the Hatch Bears. A new team this on this year's schedule will be Loving. Away games besides Melrose and Loving include Sept. 16 at Estancia, Oct. 1 at Santa Rosa JV, and Oct. 28 at Capitan to close out the season.

A good way to start the weekend and to get in the right spirit before going to Melrose will be to attend the scrimmage Saturday morning at 10 a.m. between the varsity and junior varsity volleyball squads against the Cloudcroft girls at the Grizzly Den.

Coach Ron Becker will get a chance to see what his team will look like this year against the always tough Cloudcroft Bears. Carrizozo will field a veteran ball club which includes returning lettermen Marcia Hecker, Diane Najer, D'rese Aguilar, Jeanna Sims, Johnna Gibson and Leah Patterson, all seniors.

The Grizzlies will open their regular season on Thursday, Sept. 8, at home against the Vaughn Aguilas, with only the varsity squad seeing action. A trip to Ft. Sumner on Saturday, Sept. 10, will follow with action to begin at 2 p.m. The junior high, junior varsity and varsity squads will all see action against the Vixens.

New Tiger Field to be tested on Friday

Years of patient planning pay off Friday night when the Capitan Tigers play their first varsity football game on the new Tiger Field.

The new football field and track became a reality in June 1987 when the land swap with the US Forestry Service was completed. The new facility is one of the finest in the Southwest for the size of school it serves.

Providing the opposition for this 7:30 p.m. game will be the Eunice Cardinals. Head coach Blaine Miller told the News Eunice was impressive last weekend against Melrose and this game should be an exciting season opener for the Tigers. The Cardinals run a pro set type of offense and throw the ball well. They use a 5-2 defense.

Coach Miller said starters for the Tigers will be: center, Clay Guck; LG, Sean Seay; RG, Lance LaMay; LT, Kent Melnes; RT, Fernando Miranda; RE, Heath Huey;

LE, Chris McCarty; fullback, Johnny Castillo; halfback, Anthony Sanchez and Jerron Martin. The quarterback will be Tino Gallegos.

Luke Hall and Larry MoBuen will not play for the Tigers. MoBuen suffered a severe broken leg during practice Aug. 18. Hall broke his arm during the scrimmage Aug. 20 in Ruidoso.

Fans arriving for the ball game should park their cars in the cleared area just west of the old football field.

The first day of school for Capitan was Aug. 23. School enrollment at the end of this day stood at 496. This does not include eight students who have enrolled at the high school but haven't picked up their schedules. More students are expected to enroll after Labor Day. Supt. Scott Childress had projected an enrollment of 501. Childress told the News that 44 students had enrolled in the kindergarten. He had projected 40. Childress also said that the first school holiday will be Sept. 5, Labor Day.

OPINION

Special Persecutors of the Media Mogul Inquisition, Dan Rather, Sam Donaldson and Bill Plante, have handed down an indictment against Sen. Dan Quayle of Indiana, vice-presidential running mate of George Bush, Republican candidate for president. Persecutors, with special staff and access to the national media, expect the trial to continue through Nov. 8, 1988. The persecution bases its case upon these counts of wrong-doing, misconduct, malfeasance, and other high crimes and misdemeanors, as follows, to-wit:

COUNT 1. The persecution has established beyond reasonable doubt that Defendant Dan Quayle did on Aug. 20, 1963, at the age of 16, willfully and maliciously, and with knowledge aforethought, at the corner of Vinson and Doubletree Streets in Huntington, Indiana, then and there spat upon a public sidewalk in defiance of city ordinance Z67-7A(d), thereby endangering the public health while demonstrating callous disregard for law and public safety.

COUNT 2. Defendant Quayle has confessed that he joined the Indiana National Guard during the Vietnam War, a violating of then-existing procedures by which he was required to flee to Canada. Instead, he chose to become a member of a disgraceful para-military unit known far and wide as a sanctuary for draft dodgers and others seeking an alternate to military service and forestalling getting shot up in the service of their country. (See Inside the Capitol, page 4, for an account of the dastardly deeds of the New Mexico National Guard, written by Jay Miller.)

COUNT 3. Defendant Quayle has amassed a great fortune, estimated to be 40 times that of Millionaire Lloyd Bantson of Texas, who opposes Defendant for the vice-presidency on the Democratic ticket. It is solid Marxist/socialist dogma that money is immoral, degrading, corrupting and spiritually debilitating. Defendant Quayle, by acquiring so much money, has committed a crime against humanity for which he must be held accountable to the Media Mogul Inquisition which has long held that the accumulation of wealth conflicts with the socialist/communist mandate of equal poverty for everybody—except, of course, Persecutor's Rather's $5 million a year salary as CBS News anchorman.

COUNT 4. Defendant Quayle has confessed to a variety of sins, including his vigorous opposition to the public-funding of abortions, special rights and privileges for homosexuals, furloughs for convicted murderers, higher taxes, the Equal Rights Amendment, government restrictions on free enterprise and on individual rights. Conviction on a single one of these accounts is a verdict of guilty and is punishable by the political and public execution of Defendant by the COUNT 5. Defendant Quayle has placed the United States in danger by consistent opposing our ideological blood brothers in Nicaragua, Angola, Soviet Union, Panama and Afghanistan. By so doing he has stayed the progress of the socialist/communist program to take over the United States, peacefully and without violence. This constitutes treason.

COUNT 6. Defendant stand before this bar of justice as a confirmed racist. He admittedly entered into wedlock with a white woman, disregarding the high example set by Our Great Leader, Michael Dukakis, who married a Jewish woman. Further, not a single one of Defendant Quayle's children are black, Asian or Hispanic, a violation of Affirmative Action's quota process which must be punished by this Inquisition.

COUNT 7. Defendant admits to having achieved only a C average in grades during high school, thus disqualifying him to adequately serve the public in positions of responsibility. Further, because of his demonstrated lack of intelligence, he was refused entry to law school. The persecution will prove that he was finally accepted by, and graduated from; law school only because he agreed to buy one million copies of Speaker Jim Wright's book, "Reflections of a Public Man."

I have just plowed through a 102-page monstrosity titled "The Lincoln County New Mexico Zoning Ordinance." A hearing on adoption of such ordinance will be held at 7 p.m. tonight (Thursday), Aug. 25, at the Lincoln County Courthouse. If you live in Lincoln County, whether you own a house or a piece of land, you had better be there, examine the ordinance and express your outrage at what it attempts to do. Just for openers. Under this ordinance, if adopted, you cannot do as you please with your land. It tells you how big your front yard is to be and how big the side and back yards; where to build your house, and how high; what you can and cannot grow on your land. It tells you how many people can live in your house, and regulates the number of home-employed people in any home to one. It calls for a new bureaucracy in Lincoln County—that of Ordinance Enforcement Officer—with power to fine and imprison any resident for any one of a thousand violations, some of them petty. And, of course, they have listed a number of fees whereby the bureaucracy can fatten its pocketbook.

The "stated" purpose of this ridiculous ordinance is "to promote health, safety, morals and the general welfare, preserving our lands and the natural beauty thereof for future generations." Morals? Otherwise, the purpose reads like a passage from the Bill of Rights. In my opinion, the purpose of this ordinance is to regulate every phase of life and activity in Lincoln County—from the size of a light bulb on an illuminated sign to fining a structure owner for what the enforcement officer deems to be "bad conduct." Adolph Hitler and Joseph Stalin, working together, couldn't have put

Inside The Capitol

By Jay Miller

Santa Fe—At the corner of Don Gaspar and South Capitol streets, in the middle of Santa Fe's Capitol complex, an eternal flame burns to honor New Mexico's war dead.

Unlike many shrines, it is not dedicated to an unknown soldier. This shrine is dedicated to the 1650 men of the 200th Coast Artillery—the most decorated unit in World War II, the first unit to fire on the Japanese attackers and the last to lay down its arms.

The valiant men held the enemy at bay on the Bataan Peninsula in the Philippines for more than four months while our country mobilized for war. Their equipment was poor. The anti-aircraft guns were incapable of reaching the Japanese bombers which pounded the peninsula mercilessly.

They called themselves The Battling Bastards of Bataan. They composed a song that said, "We got no mama, no papa, and no Uncle Sam."

Following the surprise attacks on Pearl Harbor and the Philippines, our nation was unable to send reinforcements. The men were left by themselves to fight the Japanese army.

When they finally fell, they were subjected to the infamous Bataan death march. Those who survived spent the remainder of the war behind a curtain of secrecy in Japanese prison camps.

Only 850 of them returned. They were all New Mexicans and, according to many national reporters, they were all "draft dodgers."

You see, these were the men of the New Mexico National Guard. They were part of a proud tradition of citizen soldiers extending back to the first European settlers of New Mexico in 1598.

Ed Baca, adjutant general of the New Mexico National Guard, touts our Guard as being the oldest, continuous militia in the United States.

Our Guard's proud tradition includes Kit Carson and the 1st New Mexico Infantry, who stopped the Confederacy's effort to take the West in the Battle of Glorieta, just east of Santa Fe.

Members of another New Mexico National Guard unit, Battery A of the 148th Field

Artillery, were the first troops to enter World War I. A new model rifle had just been developed and these New Mexico guardsmen received the weapons upon their arrival in Europe. Among the rifles issued to these New Mexicans were ones containing serial numbers 1, 2, 3 and 4.

The rifles were well-used. Battery A fired more rounds than any other field artillery unit in World War I according to Baca.

New Mexico guardsmen were the first troops to enter Rome when the Allies invaded the city in WWII. In fact, the New Mexico National Guard has fought in every major war in which our nation has participated since we became a US territory.

As a former member of the New Mexico Air National Guard, I get fighting mad when I hear national reporters, most of whom have never served their country for a day, infer that National Guard duty is something less than honorable.

It is, of course, an effort by the national media to search GOP vice-presidential nominee Dan Quayle's background for any possible skeletons.

It is still a bit early to determine whether the man is sufficiently qualified to be our vice-president. Perhaps, by the time this column appears in your newspaper, there will be more information.

But, with what we currently know, my guess is that the effort to discredit Quayle's National Guard service will backfire.

Volunteering for the National Guard at that time did avoid the draft—as did volunteering for any other form of military service. A person trades approximately two years of active duty as a draftee for six years as a "weekend warrior."

And every guardsman understands that he can be activated at any time during those six years and find himself on a battlefield soon after.

For anyone desiring to avoid armed combat, sweating it out for six years is a long time in our unstable world. There are probably better alternatives.

And wars are not the only time the National Guard is activated. During my service, other Air Guard units were activated during the Berlin crisis and the Cuban missile crisis. My unit went to Vietnam shortly after my six-year stint ended.

Possibly Quayle's only misdeed was to use influence to get into a Guard unit. Maybe rich kids always have someone else "make calls" for them but, from what we know now, Quayle could have joined the National Guard all by himself.

Buzzard Ringers say thanks

EDITOR—The Carrizozo Buzzard Ringers wish to thank all the people who bought sign space at the horseshoe pits and those who made donations showing their support for the State Horseshoe Pitching Tournament held in Carrizozo, Aug. 20-21. A special thanks to B & B Supply in Alamogordo for its donation of paint to help us with the signs.

It was gratifying to see this small community pulling together to raise funds to make this event so successful.

'Off my back!'

EDITOR—Please publish the following in response to a letter to the editor last week.

Dear John Hightower: Quit being a crybaby! Court records reflect I beat you fair and square on all issues. Stop twisting words and trying to manipulate the taxpayers—they see through you.

Get a grip on your bitterness, get the hell off my back, and leave me alone.

FRAN SIDDENS, Lincoln County Clerk, Carrizozo.

Thanks, Lions and all

EDITOR—I think the Lions Club of Carrizozo did a wonderful thing sponsoring the local track meet. It is good to know all the people you never hear about behind the action of getting contributions from people to fund this type of event, all the business people you see every day and never ask for any thanks.

I tip my hat to all of you. I am not a member of the Lions Club or the Lionsess. But as a member of this kind city of Carrizozo and towns around that little town, I hope you hang in there and keep the good work going and give credit to all people involved.

Deck Staining Tips

Whether you're planning a new deck — or planning to spruce up your old one—you may save time and money by avoiding a few "wooden" mistakes. Here are some hints that may help.

Use a stain and preservative specifically designed for decks. They'll protect against sun, water, and heavy traffic longer than others.

Before you assemble a new deck, stain the underside and edges of the boards. It makes the job easier, with less dripping. Before staining the tops, let them weather. Four to six weeks of weathering—six months for pressure-treated lumber—lets the stain and preservative penetrate more deeply for better protection.

Stain a small section first. Pick an inconspicuous area and brush out your stain. Get a feel for how it goes on, how long it takes to dry, and how it looks on your wood.

When selecting a deck stain, choose one that protects the wood from sun and water, and won't crack, chip, peel or track. Cuprinol Deck Stain and Preservative is reported to be the toughest deck stain available, and can be used on all types of wood, including pressure-treated lumber and redwood. To protect wood against water during the weathering period, you can cover the wood with Cuprinol Clear Wood Seal.

If you have any questions before you stain the deck, call the Darworth Consumer Assistance Line at 1-800-824-PROS. Or write to Deck Stain, The Darworth Company, PO Box K, Avon, CT 06001.

Before staining your deck, clean it with detergent and water.

Opinion (Cont'd from opposite column) together a more potential plan to regulate the lives of people, take control of their land, and throw them in jail for non-compliance.

Read this ordinance. Then tell me that any new business, wholesale or retail or manufacturing, would choose to do business in Lincoln County. The ordinance even specifies how many parking spaces you may have at your home, school, grocery store, church and dance hall. If this ordinance is passed, I predict that its provisions cannot and will not be enforced. And for good reason. Anyone trying to regulate people's private life and private behavior is destined to get the hell beaten out of him. And if that doesn't work, they'll stomp same out of the county commissioners who are pushing this absurdity.

LINCOLN COUNTY FAIR 1988

The fair opened with a big parade, led by the company of cowboys and cow girls, followed by the 15-piece fair band. Then came a procession of about sixty floats and autos.

The children were especially entertained by Wiser's Trained Animal Show, and Burk's ferris wheel and talk-a-whirl, who had concessions.

The mining exhibits were especially noticeable, depicting in a striking manner the rich and varied mineral resources of Lincoln County.

The agricultural displays were such as would have done credit to a much larger area than Lincoln County. Thirteen-foot corn, 20-pound cabbage, immense pumpkins, apples, pears, grapes, and other products of farm and orchard all were attractively displayed.

The ladies were especially interested in the showing of the beautiful needlework. In the same building were to be seen a gorgeous display of flowers and a wonderful array of canned vegetables, fruits and meats.

A free barbecue was served on the rodeo grounds Saturday at noon.

The preceding account of the Lincoln County Fair was recorded in the Lincoln County News in 1935. News readers were invited to come to Carrizozo (where the county fairs were held to help make the event the "greatest in our history.")

PRIZE FIGHTS

The County Fair in 1935 in Carrizozo was held Oct. 18-19 and included prize fights at the Lyric Theatre. The fair was held under the management of a committee of five headed by Carrizozo dentist Dr. R.E. Blaney. Each town in the county was represented by a committee and all proceeds went into the treasury association for the whole county.

The agricultural and mining displays were at the Branum-old stand next door to the Lincoln County News Office (not at its present location.) In the Phipps building were displayed flowers, "fancy work" and quilts. Other booths at the Phipps building included an Oscura booth, with Mrs. J.V. Traylor in charge.

The girls from the Capitan vocational camp at Baca Canyon displayed basket weaving, rugs and "fancy work."

Fair mornings were filled with softball games, foot races, bicycle races. Afternoons were filled with rodeo events which included pony traces, goat roping, cow roping, wild cow milking. T.A. Spencer was in charge of rodeo events.

The Carrizozo band played for the parade, which consisted of 60 cars and floats. The Carrizozo school building and county courthouse had various displays. A short wave radio system was in operation to enable people to hear fair announcements. A room was furnished with easy chairs and a cot "where the ladies may rest comfortably for a while" in the Phipps building.

A ticket to the rodeo grounds entitled the bearer to a big barbecue dinner. "To lend gayety and noise to the occasion" Carrizozo's county fair committee plans included a street carnival and road show located on the Phipps and Humphrey lots. When and why was the Lincoln County Fair moved to Capitan? Perhaps someone will recall.

CLOTHING DEPARTMENT

Members of this household enjoyed viewing the exhibits in the fair building at Capitan. I was pleased to see that my 2-piece skirt and vest outfit received a blue ribbon (first premium) in addition to a Reserve Champion ribbon. I am deciding if I should place them in my scrapbook or wear them with the garment, featuring embroidered, beaded, applique and sequin flowers.

Grand Champion honors in the clothing department went to Myrl Ray. The award also included a $20 gift certificate from Ruidoso's Steppin' Out Ray's winning entry was a doll dress with lots of ruffles and lace. A little girl's dream dress for her doll.

DID YOU KNOW?

I didn't and it caused Phyllis Schlegel of Carrizozo to think: "Yes, Polly, there is a West Virginia," paraphrasing a famous Christmas statement.

Assuming the home state of Phyllis is Virginia, I pointed out to her a stamp display of that state at our post office.

My junior high history teacher warned me there would be days like this, "Learn your states, know the capitals." But no, I had to spend my time drawing caricatures of the teacher.

Thanks to Phyllis I learned recently that West Virginia was part of Virginia until the Civil War; that West Virginia became the 35th state on June 20, 1863, and the state capitol is in Charleston.

On my own I learned that the first settler in the region was Morgan Morgan (same first and last name) of Delaware, who built a cabin at Bunker Hill, probably in 1726. Germans seeking greater religious freedom came from Pennsylvania in 1727.

Other settlements were soon founded, many of them Scotch-Irish from Northern Ireland. The Indians often attacked the settlers, who were taking over their hunting grounds. Tribes included the Cherokee, Cotoy, Delaware, Shawnee and Susquehanna.

It appears New Mexican and Mexican Indians were not the only Indians warding off squatters.

WHO'S HERE?

The state of Indiana thanks Dan Quayle for putting it on the map. Indiana is called the "Hoosier State," and its people are known as Hoosiers. This famous nickname may have come from the pioneers' traditional greeting to visitors: "Who's here?"

Bell to receive the highest FFA degree

Beverly Bell, Corona, has been nominated and is expected to receive the highest degree awarded by the National FFA Organization, that of American Farmer.

The award is based on outstanding achievements in agricultural production, processing and service programs and on demonstrated leadership abilities. Bell will be one of the 713 members receiving the award at the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, MO, Nov. 10-12.

Only one in 600 of the 404,500 FFA members have advanced through Chapter and State Farmer degrees to earn this national award. Bell, the daughter of Mack and Betty Bell, is currently attending college at New Mexico State University in Las Cruces, NM majoring in elementary education.

She is a member of the Corona chapter and her high school agriculture

CARRIZOZO STUDENTS

Portales—Two students from the Carrizozo area are among the 305 Eastern New Mexico University students named to the 1988 summer session Dean's Honor Roll.

Zelda Diane Z. Zumwalt, Nogal, sophomore art education major, summa cum laude; Alan C. Porter, from Carrizozo, teaching certification, summa cum laude.

YOUNG LADIES from Capitan Vocational Camp located at Baca Canyon displayed their weavings and rugs at Carrizozo's 1935 Lincoln County Fair (see By the Way column). Among camp residents was Ramoncita Gurnale Sanchez (deceased) left, bottom row, who was the mother of Polly Chavez, Rita Narvaez and Neria Ortiz. Can NEWS readers help identify anyone in the group?

CAPITAN NEWS

By Margaret Rench

Cool all last week ending Saturday with an inch of rain. A trace Sunday. Everything is responding beautifully.

The 1988 Lincoln County Fair is past and was a great success. It grows each year. All exhibits were excellent. The crowds were large. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

The Smokey Bear Lions Club held its raffle for a quilt it was selling chances on there at the Fair, and Bob Sims was the lucky winner. The club thanks everyone for their support.

The Capitan Schools started Tuesday, Aug. 23. It's good to have the children in sight each day. They give new life to everyone. Happy school day, all of you.

The Smokey Bear Museum had 1212 registered visitors, Aug. 15-21, Raymond and Esther Bell of Las Cruces were there with 30 other Air Stream groups. Mr. Bell was our game warden when Smokey the Bear was found.

There is one teenager in Capitan who is glad school has started. I'm speaking about Pauline Montes. She has operated the fruit stand located near the city hall building all summer, seven days a week from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. Her day really started about 7 a.m. On her birthday, Aug. 14, she was off for a day or so. A trip to Albuquerque, eating out, a hike in the mountains there, a trip to the Albuquerque "beach" and shopping in the mall. Many more very happy birthdays. Pauline stated she had a ball. "Just beware for such a dedicated hard working little lady. Have a good year in school, Pauline."

The Roundtable Club meeting was held at the Wortley Hotel in Lincoln, with Marie Edgar as hostess. The eight members present enjoyed the good food of the hotel. Amelene McIntosh and Toni Otero were absent. Margaret Brooks, Mr. Edgar's sister of California, was a guest. After the dinner, members adjourned to the home of Leota Pfingsten for the business meeting and a social time. All admired the beautiful rose garden of Leota Pfingsten and all were given a rose of their own choosing as they left for home. Toni Otero resigned from the club. Cards were signed by members and sent to Hattie Phillips and Amelene McIntosh. The September meeting will be at the B&L in Capitan.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Norck and son Bradley of Lovington are visiting parents, grandparents and great-great-grandparents in Capitan and Carrizozo this week.

Eight-year-old Tawnya Reynolds and her mother Kaye returned home from Las Vegas, NV where she was in the National Beauty Pageant. She won second runnerup in beauty. In the top 10. They enjoyed every moment there and had a good time.

Courtney Cummins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Cummins, celebrated her first birthday Aug. 22 with all her family present on Sunday.

Harriet Kline, mother of Beth Miller, visited here from Virginia Beach, VA. She was so overjoyed to see her four grandchildren and Blane. She reports that Beth's sister, Jenann Bowman, is expecting her first baby in March 1989. She and her husband are actively involved at CBN University.

Larry McEuen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Corky McEuen, broke his leg above the ankle, a very serious break, during football practice Wednesday, Aug. 14. Spent three days in Lincoln County Medical Center and underwent surgery. If all goes well, after the hard cast is on he can attend school. He is in his sophomore year. I wish you the very best recovery, Larry. His parents send their thanks to everyone for their concern and support.

Luke Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hall Jr., broke his right arm while in the scrimmage with Ruidoso football last Saturday, Aug. 20. Luke, I wish you the very best recovery.

Jesse Bobby V. Peralta, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Peralta, was taken to the Lincoln County Medical Center with a high fever Aug. 15, then was transferred to the Mesalero hospital. I wish this little 7-month-old a good recovery.

Mrs. Rench appreciates the short visit of Harriet Kline and her lovely daughter Beth Miller last Wednesday. Then Sunday I had the pleasure to meet the very lovely children, one boy and three girls, of Beth and Blane Miller. Ages from 2-through 9 years. What a delightful family. That made me very happy.

Marine Pfc. Jon A. Mayer, son of Janet and Jon A. Mayer Sr. of Capitan, has completed recruit training at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego. A 1985 graduate of Capitan High School.
