THIS OLD bridge, located one mile west of Picacho, is being replaced by a new one. The old bridge will continue to stand as a state landmark. Originally built in 1909 over the Pecos River east of Roswell, it was moved to its present location in 1941. Hasse Contracting Company of Albuquerque expects to have the job done by the end of February. Asphalt will be laid when the weather permits.

Treasurer reports 69% of 1988 taxes collected

By Ruth Hammond

Lincoln County Treasurer Shirley Goodloe announced that 69 percent of the 1988 tax schedule had been collected by Dec. 31, 1988.

Goodloe said all mail received is opened, receipted and deposited within 24 hours after being received. She gives credit to her staff for getting the money in the bank quickly, which allows the county to receive more money in interest.

A total of $7,420,714.97 is the amount charged for 1988 and $5,112,024.75 of this amount has been collected. Taxpayers have the choice of paying their taxes in full before the delinquent date Dec. 11 or paying half their taxes by Dec. 10 with the other half being due April 10, 1989. Taxes must be for more than $10 to take advantage of paying half.

The 69 percent collected is normal for the treasurer's office. Past year collections on Dec. 31 were 69 percent in 1987, 70 percent in 1986, 70 percent in 1985, 64 percent in 1984 and 69 percent in 1983.

Property taxes in Lincoln County have increased through the years from $1,089,305 in 1970 and $1,819,783 in 1975 to $3,068,767 in 1980 and $6,451,566 in 1985.

Residential rates inside municipalities range from 12.79 in Corona, 20.65 in Carrizozo, 26.75 in Ruidoso Downs and 31.67 in Capitan to the high of 32.05 in Ruidoso.

Tax rates are calculated by the state department of finance and administration to collect the budgeted funds needed for each entity which is a taxing authority in the county. The tax rate is commonly called a mill rate and is equal to the dollars of tax for every $1,000 of net taxable value on property.

Taxing authorities in the county include municipalities, schools and special assessment districts such as sanitation and soil and water conservation districts. The county commissioners and state are also taxing authorities.

Money collected for the state from livestock levies goes to pay cattle indemnity, dairy indemnity and sheep sanitary.

School money collected is distributed for operational, debt service and Senate Bill 9 for capital improvements. Corona School is the only school in the county not having a debt service to pay.

Municipality distribution of collected taxes is used by each entity for operational or general fund, and debt service. Ruidoso has an additional three mill levy for capital improvements for the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport.

Alpine Village and Sun Valley have sanitation districts that are also taxed.

This money can be used for water systems and solid and liquid waste removal.

The soil and water conservation districts in Lincoln County are Carrizozo, Upper Hondo and Chaves. Only the portions of these districts that are in Lincoln County are collected by Lincoln County.

The money assessed for the hospital goes for capital improvements such as construction of the addition to the Lincoln County Medical Center. The money is also used for the Carrizozo Health Center.

Other taxes include predatory animal control money coming from livestock only; the county road levy of 10 cents per front footage in county subdivisions with this money to be used for roads in the subdivisions; the county general fund or operational budget; and the one-half mill levy for the Economic Development Corporation of Lincoln County.

Of the $7.4 million taxes due, the 1988 tax schedule provides for distribution of $2,243,494 to the village of Ruidoso, $1,473,417 to the county general fund, $323,037 for state debt service, $165,301 for Ruidoso Downs, $111,269 for Capitan, $24,340 for Carrizozo and $8,559 for Corona.

The road tax of 10 cents per front footage brings in $111,403 and $710,946 is collected for LCMC and the Carrizozo Health Center.

In addition, the treasurer's office began collecting the one percent reappraisal fee from all taxing authorities in 1988. This money is used for expenses incurred by the assessor's office in reappraising all property as required by state law.

Capitan renews contract of school superintendent

By Bartley McDonough

The Capitan Board of Education extended the contract of Supt. Scott Childress through the 1990-91 school year.

Board members James McDaniel, Preston Stone, Kenneth Cox, Tom Trost and Hollis Fuchs decided to set the superintendent's salary at a later date.

Other action at the Jan. 12 meeting included a final payment of $2,388 to Ballard & Sons concerning the new football field and track. A final payment of $886 to architect Jim French was also approved.

A contract for Steve Strain and Architecture Plus of Roswell was approved on the condition that the Feb. 7 bond issue passes. This $1,825,000 bond issue would provide a middle school for Capitan's school system. The bond counsel will be Buck Cuddy of Santa Fe.

Childress said money had been received from the state highway department to be applied to the recently completed rain drainage project on the west end of town.

Childress also said that the school is waiting for better weather to complete the sidewalk project in front of the elementary school, and said the school has a good cash balance in SB-9. This is the mill levy for plant improvement and equipment.

The Capitan Board of Education approved sections 12, 13 and 14 of the school board policy.

Elementary school teacher Mecca Aldridge was granted a leave of absence. Mr. Aldridge recently died. The board of education stipulated that Mrs. Aldridge can come back to her job at any time. Mrs. L.C. Cozzens will teach for Aldridge in the interim.

The next meeting of the Capitan Board of Education is Feb. 9 at 7 p.m. This meeting will take place in the old elementary school building.

County road priorities set for co-op agreements

The Lincoln County Commissioners met in special session Jan. 11 to designate road priorities for the state highway agreements.

The state highway department will pay up to 100 percent of the costs for approved school bus routes. The commissioners listed Magado Creek Subdivision in the Capitan School district as priority number one and County Road A-010, the Alamo Canyon Route in the Hondo School district as priority number two.

The county arterial program (CAP) priorities are (1) Schlarb Road in the Carrizozo School district and (2) County Road B-022 west of Baca Canyon northwest of Hondo. The state provides 75 percent funding for CAP projects and the county pays 25 percent.

Cooperative agreements with the state are funded 60 percent by the state and 40 percent by the county. Priorities are (1) County Road B-018 approximately two miles west of Hondo and (2) County Road C-047 in the Carrizozo area which is the extension of 17th Street southward on the east side of the Southern Pacific Railroad tracks to the cattle guard at Refugio Najar's residence.

Requests for state highway agreements had to be submitted by Jan. 18. The commissioners asked that the priorities remain as listed because they thought the number one priority roads were in the worst condition.

Upgrading of fairgrounds underway

Ralph Dunlap, president of the Lincoln County Fair Board, called a special meeting for Jan. 9 to consider a contract for purchasing bleachers.

The fair board approved a bid of $13,498 by Sturdisteel of Waco, TX.

The $7,500 recreation grant will be supplemented by local borrowed funds.

This initial purchase calls for one 24-foot section of galvanized steel which will seat 240 people. This includes an access ramp for the handicapped. Members of the fair board also approved the application for $270,000 in state funds for fairground improvements.

The next meeting of the Lincoln County Fair Board is Feb. 8. The meeting is scheduled for 7 p.m. at the fair building in Capitan. This is an open meeting and the public is invited.

'Last Friday' social Jan. 27

Ned Pieters will host the "Last Friday Cheese and Wine Social" for Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce members on Jan. 27.

The open house will be held at 412 12th Street, next to Family Pharmacy and upstairs in the Steak House Apartments.

Homicide suspect died of exposure

Lincoln County Sheriff James McSwane announced that the investigation of a possible homicide has been concluded with the autopsy report that the man died from exposure.

McSwane began his term of office facing the possible homicide investigation because of suspicious circumstances surrounding the location of the body of Tony Dudley of Houston, TX.

Dudley had been reported missing Dec. 10 and his family offered a $20,000 reward for anyone who found him. A search was called on the north side of the Capitan mountains after Dudley's pickup was found wrecked in an arroyo near Encinosa, Dec. 28.

Dudley's body was discovered by his brother, Don Dudley of El Paso, during a search from an aircraft on Dec. 30. Charles Bella of El Paso piloted the aircraft.

Small amounts of a substance suspected to be marijuana were found in Dudley's pickup, but test results are not completed at this time.

The pickup has been turned over to US Customs and the sheriff's office will continue the investigation involving it, in conjunction with customs.

30 persons jailed on outstanding warrants

The Lincoln County Jail housed 30 prisoners last week after Sheriff James McSwane acted on outstanding misdemeanor and felony warrants.

This has been reduced to 23 as seven people have bonded out.

McSwane said his department also served two writs of execution last week.

Three people from Capitan were arrested and charged with receiving stolen property in connection with stolen Blue Gramma Grass seed. Richard "Yogi" Culhane was arrested Jan. 17 and is held on $5,000 bond, no 10 percent allowed. Sharon Hobbs and Steven Woods were arrested Jan. 13 and released on their own recognizance.

Christine Breninger of Mesalero was arrested Jan. 12 and charged with fraudulent refusal to return a leased vehicle or other personal property. The Avis rental car valued at $12,000 was to have been returned Nov. 25, 1988. Breninger was released Jan. 17 on $2,500 bond.

The sheriff's department assisted the Carrizozo Police Department in an investigation of vandalism at the Carrizozo Golf Course.

Lease renewal for Wortley Hotel

Glen Dennis and Ralph Dunlap, representing the Lincoln Pageant and Festival Committee, were in Santa Fe Jan. 11-12 negotiating for renewal of the lease on the Wortley Hotel and Dining Room.

The lease will not be completed until capital improvement funds are provided by the state legislature.

STEAM ERA

A miniature version of Carrizozo, Alamogordo and Vaughn as they looked in earlier times is featured in a mini-railroad museum known as Toy Train Depot. Located in Alamogordo, the building housing the exhibit is the former Torrance depot. Torrance is north of Corona, where the New Mexico Central Railroad used to start on its journey to Lamy.

The 1/87th scale models in the Alamogordo museum recreate miniature versions of towns as they looked in the steam era. The Toy Train Depot is operated by a non-profit organization.

20 YEARS AGO

Seems like only yesterday.

The Jan. 16, 1969 issue of Lincoln County News reported that the former Lincoln County Municipal Hospital in Carrizozo had undergone some changes and all the improvements and modernization paid off well when a flu epidemic struck the community. During one month, December 1968, 110 people made use of the hospital. Alton Whittaker, hospital administrator, said that about 50 percent of cases admitted had the flu.

The hub of the county hospital was the medical department under the direction of Dr. A.N. Spencer. A courtesy staff of three medical doctors were permitted to use the hospital facilities.

Two operating rooms were at their disposal.

REMEMBER THEM?

Including Whittaker, 19 people made up the hospital staff: Clarence H. Millegan, lab and x-ray technician; Marjorie R. Whittaker, director of nursing; Carolyn R. Harman, Mary H. Flores, and Sibyl E. Hubert, all LPNs.

The nurse's aides were Rosa R. Chavez, Doris L. Davenport, June Straley, Natalia M. Vega, Irene Brazil, Ruby Jackson and Mary Ann Schlarb.

Then there were Lucinda Silva, Josie Rodgers, Josefita Lopez, cooks; Dominga Monreal, dishwasher; Nacha Verdugo and Alfred Hogg, custodians; Virginia Curtiss was the bookkeeper. Mary Ann Schlarb helped in the office in addition to being a nurse's aide. Ella Sidwell was the hospital's dietician.

DAYS GONE BY

January of 1969 was also the time that Carrizozo Mayor Johnson Stearns presented the key to the town to Maria Lucia Dessen of Belo, Horizonte, Brazil. As a participant in an educational program she spent a week in Carrizozo and was a house guest at the Paul Ortiz home.

In January, Gov. David Cargo and family visited Jackie Silvers at her "House of Old Things" in Ancho.

The Lincoln County Development Ass'n met at Tinnie and voted to sponsor plans for the county's centennial year. (Lincoln County was designated a county on Dec. 11, 1869.)

It was in early 1969 that directors of Lincoln County Memorial Hospital voted unanimously to employ the services of an architect and proceed with plans for construction of a nursing home in Carrizozo. Board members were Mrs. A.N. Spencer, Johnson Stearns, William Edgar, A. P. Sifton and Dimmit Bond.

And editor and publisher Paul Payton had this to say in his column in 1969: "One columnist we read this week said that the Kennedy-Johnson brand of 'cure all ills with a big dose of money' has not cured anything and American people are ready for a more work-and-eat type of solution."

BACK TO 1969

Carrizozo was the site in past years of a passenger train stop, a county fair, a hospital and a home for the elderly. Where are they now?

The hospital, nursing home and the fairgrounds are now in other parts of Lincoln County.

Woman's Club plans another blood drive

Bobbi LaMay and Terry Levi presented the A.L. Williams program on "How to Win the Money Game" at the Jan. 12 Carrizozo Woman's Club meeting.

The business meeting included plans for the blood drive that will be held Jan. 31 at United New Mexico Bank. United Blood Services of El Paso will send a mobile unit with technicians to conduct the blood drive from 2 to 4 p.m.

More than 100 volunteer blood donations are needed daily to provide blood and blood components to hospitals in southern New Mexico and southwest Texas. UBS serves 25 hospitals in a 55,000 square mile area. More than 750,000 people in this area depend on UBS and volunteer blood donors for blood and blood components they may need.

In other business, president Peggy Najjar announced the Hugh O'Brien Youth Foundation (HOBY) will be discussed at the February meeting. The Woman's Club will sponsor a Carrizozo High School sophomore to attend the three-day HOBY state leadership seminar this spring.

The purpose of the seminar is to create the opportunity for sophomores from all over the state to meet together to recognize and reward their leadership abilities. The seminar is designed to further develop leadership abilities and to promote greater pride and understanding of America's free enterprise system. The ultimate objective of the HOBY seminar is to watch the students' self-development, understanding, and hopefully, positive attitude toward the business world and how they can become a contributing leader in our society.

The Feb. 9 meeting will be held at United New Mexico Bank at 7 p.m. Lincoln County Home Economist Betty McCreight will present the program on scarves and ways to use them as accessories. Members are asked to bring a scarf to the program.

Valentine bake sale planned by PFK

PFK plans a Valentine bake sale for Friday, Feb. 10, at the Carrizozo School during the noon hour.

All parents and interested persons are asked to contribute by sending baked goods or donations. Food items may be taken to students' classrooms the day of the sale. All profits earned by PFK go directly back into the school in the form of field trips, school equipment and supplies, student of the month gifts, and other awards.

Other business conducted during the January meeting included the approval of a $25 donation to science teacher Mariann Patterson for savings bonds awarded during the local science fair.

Superintendent Danny Burnett reported on recent improvements in school programs, including the updating and expansion of Carrizozo's vocational technical program. New equipment is being purchased for woodworking and carpentry programs. Also, the new meats and slaughter area is near completion of its rejuvination and will soon be ready for use by students.

PFK employees of the month for January are: Mike Delesantro, mid-high science teacher; Mariann Patterson, home ec and high school science teacher; Nenna Vega, administrative aide; June Caster, 3rd grade teacher; and Margie Serna, high school secretary. These employees are presented with corsages or boutonniers by PFK in honor of their excellent performance.

OPINION

● We have received a letter from Belco Industries Inc. of Carrizozo complaining that we snubbed them on their 15th anniversary in the community, and by inference suggested the town itself may have done so. It is true that Mrs. Carolyn Cantrell of Belco called the News and asked that a photographer attend one of its events and take a photograph of about 40 assembled people. It was explained to her that the newspaper did not have photographic equipment to take a good picture of so many people. We assumed she would make other arrangements for the photo, and that we would be given the opportunity to publish it in the News. We heard no more of the matter.

● This is not to denigrate the importance of Belco to this community. It has been, and remains, an important factor in the town's economy. It is the town's biggest employer aside from government. If Belco was making some kind of observance of its 15th year in Carrizozo, and we had been informed, we would have given the occasion publicity. Maybe we should have followed the call up and pushed for details. But this is a one-reporter newspaper, and she has plenty to do.

● While Belco has been in business in this community for 15 years, the Lincoln County News is entering its 84th year as the official newspaper of Lincoln County. At no point was there any anniversary celebration. In fact, no one to this date has even congratulated us for "hanging in" here on a 15th, a 25th, a 50th or a 75th anniversary. We do not feel snubbed.

● The community has never assisted this newspaper when it was in financial difficulty. We just worked things out on our own. But Carrizozo has done some favors for Belco. Last year it played a vital role in obtaining a $200,000 loan from Community Development Block Grant Funding for Belco, which it would not have gotten otherwise. On another occasion, Belco borrowed money from the Carrizozo Industrial Development Corp., a private, non-profit group of Carrizozo business people who put up their own money to assist a worthy, needed industry for the town. There have been other benefits and favors from which Belco has profited, such as leasing town property at very low cost. All this hardly jibes with the charge that this newspaper, and its trustees and citizens, are out to snub Belco.

● Instead of the letter, we feel it would have been more appropriate had Belco gone ahead and hired a professional photographer to take the picture of its activities, then used it in an advertisement in the News to note its 15th anniversary, but primarily to thank the town trustees and its businessmen for their moral and financial support during those years. Belco is not a non-profit organization, and neither is the Lincoln County News. We still congratulate Belco on its 15th anniversary, and wish it every success.

● It has been suggested to this columnist that since the birthdays of various US presidents have been combined to produce Presidents Day, and Armistice Day has been merged with Veterans Day, there is precedence for combining Martin Luther King's Birthday with April Fool's Day.

● American ShiZuki Corp., a Japanese electronics engineering and research company, plans to open a $5 million plant in Rio Rancho at Albuquerque. It is the first Japanese company to build a manufacturing facility in New Mexico. Just wait until ShiZuki finds out about the New Mexico gross receipts tax, an insidious tax that other companies didn't know about when they located in this state. Adding to their woes, the state also has an outrageous worker's compensation insurance law, with the highest premiums of any state in the nation. We have an unstable tax base, a repressive "prevailing wage" law that forces employers who do business with the government to pay union wages, and the state still adheres to Big Labor by refusing to enact a right-to-work law. Maybe New Mexico has found a way to get even with Japan for World War II and the infamous Bataan Death March that killed so many New Mexico citizens. We don't mind a little revenge, but why should the state take it out on us?

● I could have been doing something more constructive. But there I was a couple of Sundays ago listening to the televised (live) proceedings of the United Nations Security Council. More than 20 nations that love to call themselves "non-aligned" were granted permission to speak for the sole purpose of denouncing the United States for shooting down two Libyan fighter planes over the Mediterranean a few days before. Their speeches were almost identical, apparently the product of a single scriptwriter. All representatives opened their remarks with a laudatory tribute to the presiding officer of the council. Then followed their stinging beratement and condemnation of the US for engaging in unlawful, aggressive, provocative military action against the "peaceful" country of Libya. In time, substance and verbiage the speeches were too similar to have been written independently. All read from prepared texts. They all said the Libyan planes were unarmed, something nobody has information about except those US cameras and the Libyan government. They said Libyan planes were deliberately attacked by US Navy fighters—never mind that under tracking downed US planes made five revolutions to avoid the incoming Libyan MIG fighters. (How hard of an assumed MIG fighter?) All said the US acted in violation of international law, even though the incident was well over international waters.

● I am sure the News did those featured speeches to the UN Security Council. I am sure the News did those featured speeches to the UN Security Council. I am sure the News did those featured speeches to the UN Security Council.

Inside The Capitol

By Jay Miller

SANTA FE—As the 1989 session of the New Mexico Legislature draws near, rumblings can be heard in the hallways of the Capitol.

There are rumblings that our lawmakers are becoming buckpassers. The California Legislature learned about buckpassing several years ago. Despite their big salaries and year-round sessions, California legislators have found that they can dodge the controversial issues by referring them directly to the voters.

In the 1988 general election, the Golden State had propositions on its ballot that were three-digit numbers. It was Proposition 103 that lowered automobile insurance rates. California is becoming a government by propositions.

New Mexico lawmakers appear to be smitten by the idea. There is a proposal making the rounds to give school districts some local taxing authority by allowing voters to decide on an additional property tax levy. There has been talk of referring the controversial obscenity bill to a public vote since its purpose is to determine community standards.

For years there have been suggestions that the touchy issue of right-to-work be sent to the public for a decision.

New Mexico has no provision for public referenda other than by putting a proposal in the form of a constitutional amendment. Maybe that cuts down on some of the buckpassing but it clutters our state constitution with garbage that has no business being in a constitution.

Lawmakers are elected to represent us in Santa Fe. They should carry out that responsibility.

Lawmakers dodging the tough decisions may not be our biggest problem however. In the last two general elections we have seen constitutional amendments pass by means of deceptive wording on the ballot.

If lawmakers increase the number of constitutional amendments they propose and combine that with wording that causes us to vote the way they desire, it will be the ultimate in buckpassing.

Letter to the Editor

Belco Industries are snubbed

EDITOR—Have you ever thought what would happen to this community if Belco Industries ever closed their doors?

They have been in Carrizozo since Oct. 16, 1973 and have not closed their doors. They provide this town with an exceptional amount in not only payrolls, but have tried to assist as many organizations and clubs as possible. They have also sponsored a bowling team and a softball team. They have given scholarships to some of the children in this community. It is the only INDUSTRY in this community and has been since I moved back here in 1972.

Yet the Lincoln County News cannot spare the time or the space to give us a little publicity during our 15th anniversary. I feel this is a slap in the face and maybe if we (the company) were based out of Capitán we could have gotten the time and space we asked for.

It never fails in this community for some people to snub others and this is what I think you have done.

Helpful Advice from the American Academy of Pediatrics

Immunization Provides Vital Protection for Your Children

Many parents mistakenly believe that today's healthier environment and lifestyles have reduced the need to immunize their children against common contagious diseases. They haven't heard of a family being "quarantined" because of diphtheria and assume the threat of contracting such a disease is gone forever. That assumption can be, tragically, wrong.

The practice of vaccinating children against childhood diseases has been so successful that today's parents have no personal recollection of these life-threatening illnesses.

Who remembers, for example, that in 1984, 256,289 children caught pertussis (whooping cough) and 7,518 died from the disease? Or that in 1921 there were 206,939 cases of diphtheria with 1,500 deaths and 21,289 cases of polio that caused 3,345 deaths?

Unfortunately, some of these diseases have begun to reappear because the overall percentages of vaccinated children have fallen to the point that experts now warn we once again face the danger of full-scale outbreaks.

The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP), a professional organization of physicians who specialize in the care of infants, children and adolescents, reminds parents that there still are no effective antibiotics to use in treating any of the childhood diseases. Immunization remains the best method for preventing diphtheria, pertussis, tetanus, measles, mumps, polio and rubella (German measles).

To be most effective, vaccination should be done during infancy. Putting it off until the child reaches school age leaves him or her vulnerable at a time when these diseases are most likely to occur, and with the most serious effects. Since the best time to immunize varies from one vaccine to the next, the AAP has prepared the chart below, a suggested schedule to aid parents in getting their children properly vaccinated.

Some parents are concerned because they have read about occasional disabling reactions to vaccine by young children and wonder about the risk of this happening to their youngsters. According to current statistics, approximately one in five million doses of polio vaccine results in a case of polio-like disease and one in 310,000 doses of diphtheria-tetanus-pertussis (D-T-P) vaccine produces a serious, neurological disorder. Work is being done to improve these vaccines. However, until that happens, children should be immunized with the vaccines that are available.

Parents who worry about possible risks of immunization, or are considering deferring vaccination should consult their pediatricians. For further information about immunizations, write to the American Academy of Pediatrics, Department of Communications, P.O. Box 927, Elk Grove Village, IL 60007.

The subject of the increases may become unexpectedly exciting during the next 60 days. Gov. Garrey Carruthers says he is not going to propose any new taxes. The legislature's interim committee on taxation was not charged with recommending any increases—and it won't.

That does not mean there will not be any tax proposals however. Several individual lawmakers have put tax hikes into the mill. The most interesting of them is one that may come from the Senate Democrat leadership. Reportedly President Pro Tempore Masny Aragon is working on a plan that will eliminate all property taxes completely. The sleek would be taken up by another penny of sales tax.

As taxes go, the sales tax is the least offensive. You pay it a few cents at a time. Out-of-staters pick up about 20 percent of the bill. It is more regressive than income tax since we tax all the necessities of life. Therefore the poor pay a higher percentage of their income.

Property taxes are normally thought to be almost as progressive as the income tax. But in New Mexico many of the poor, especially in Northern New Mexico just land that has passed down through the family. Coupled with the fact that the tax is assessed at one time, the property tax is the most regressive of all. Right or wrong, go to many sleepless nights this year?

Opinion . . . (Con'd from opposite column)

being non-aligned, how can that be said of Yugoslavia, a principal denouncer. Would you call Zimbabwe non-aligned? Or Yemen? Or Nicaragua? Or Honduras? Or Mozambique? Or Mali? Or Iran? Yet there they were with sharpened knives to carve up the Demon of the West for attacking peaceful Libya. Note that most of these so-called non-aligned countries are recipients of US foreign aid. That may not make us the Demon of the West but it does make us the El Stupido of the West.

NOTICE OF PROPERTY TAX REPORTING REQUIREMENTS
Property which was valued in 1988 in this county by the county assessor is not required to be reported or rendered for 1989 or subsequent years, EXCEPT FOR:
1. mobile homes
2. livestock, and
3. land used for agricultural purposes
If, for any reason, your property was not valued last year and it is subject to valuation this year, you are required by law to report it to the county assessor on forms provided either by mail or at the assessor's office.
All nongovernmental entities (property owners) which claim to be exempt from the property tax must report their property and claim their exemption for 1989 if the exemption was not claimed in 1988.
Reports for mobile homes, livestock, land used for agricultural purposes, property not valued last year and claims for exemptions by nongovernmental entities must be completed and mailed or delivered to the county assessor not later than the last day of February, 1989.
If you made improvements to your real property and:
1. the improvements cost more than $1,000 and
2. a building permit for the improvements was not issued, you must report the nature of the improvements and their cost to the assessor not later than the last day of February. These reports must be on forms provided by the assessor.
If you believe your property decreased in value during the preceding year, you must report, on forms provided by the assessor, a signed statement which:
1. describes the property affected,
2. states the cause and nature of decrease in value, and
3. states the amount you contend the value has decreased.
This statement must be filed with the county assessor no later than the last day of February.
The veterans exemption Certificate should be brought in by the last day of February for endorsement.
If the head-of-family exemption was claimed and allowed in 1988 no new claim for that exemption is required to be filed. However, if that exemption was not claimed and allowed in 1988 and it is now claimed, claim must be made by the last day of February by filing with the assessor the form provided by the assessor.
Beginning in the 1989 tax year, taxpayers are responsible for declaring their property classification to the assessor, as residential or nonresidential. When the declaration is accepted by the assessor, it shall remain in such and need not be made in subsequent years unless the classification changes. If a taxpayer has not declared their property to be residential in 1988 and desires that classification for 1989 they must complete a declaration of residential classification and return the signed declaration to the county assessor's office by the last day of February, 1989.
