

Council Spars Over Per Diem 35¢

By AL STUBBS

A newly created task force was charged Tuesday night by the Ruidoso Village Council to find solutions to what was termed long-standing parking problems in Midtown Ruidoso.

The regular bi-monthly council meeting had a rather short agenda but one which found Councilor Bill Karn and Councilor Jerry Shaw sparring over proposed action on a stalker's law and over per diem travel expenses.

Councilors also dealt with various problems with the prime contractor involving near completion of the new Ruidoso Civic Center.

A plan by Michael and Nilda Scott to establish a restaurant in Midtown Ruidoso indirectly resulted in the creation of the parking task force, with members to be named. The Scotts apparently are negotiating for purchase or have purchased the House of Kelham property at 2325 Sudderth Drive.

The Planning and Zoning Commission had requested by resolution village guidance "in addressing enforcement of parking regulations in the Midtown commercial zone district."

The request was prompted by continued pleas for parking variances in the Midtown area, according to Cleatus Richards, planning administrator for the village. Midtown is short several hundred parking spaces under the present code.

Names of persons to be members of the task force will be submitted to Mayor Victor Alonso for consideration by next meeting. Members will come from MainStreet Ruidoso, planning and zoning people and village staff.

P & Z, under village staff objections, on October 5 waived parking requirements allowing the Scotts to provide only 14 spaces where proposed use would have required 54 parking spaces.

Councilors in other action refused to authorize a "Certificate of Substantial Completion" of the civic center. Written guarantee that the bonding company will see that subcontractors are paid by the prime contractor, Bradley Construction Co., or by the bonding company. Consideration of the Certificate of Completion will be on the next village council agenda. Also involved is withholding of part of the final payment to Bradley until all work is completed satisfactorily.

Apparently a major problem has arisen involving carpet seams throughout the structure. The village wants guarantees that the carpet will be repaired or possibly replaced if repair is not feasible.

A proposal by Councilor Bill Karn that some $5,000 in travel authorization for council members be equally distributed for councilor use will be considered in a budget workshop. Karn requested that the council act on the proposal Tuesday night, but the council decided to postpone consideration until a budget workshop set for today at 3 p.m.

Councilor Shaw said she is a member of the board of directors of the New Mexico Municipal League and indicated that her $714 share of the $5,000, as proposed by Karn, would be inadequate because of relatively frequent league meetings.

"Are you saying I should select the meeting I'm going to attend?" she asked Karn.

"You are going to have to live within the budget," Karn said.

Karn said there comes a time when a councilor can't go

Village Will Help Build Ball Field

By DORIS CHERRY

Capitan Village Board of Trustees honored long time fire chief Virgil Hall Sr. at their meeting Tuesday.

Current Capitan Volunteer Fire Chief Pat Huey literally gave Hall the ax, with his presentation of a bronzed head ax mounted on a cedar slab and a plate inscribed with Hall's name and a thanks from the fire department for Hall's more than 20 years as chief and 41 years as a firefighter. The meeting room was crowded with members of the fire department and their families who had come to honor Hall.

A barbecue and community potluck dinner at the fire hall after the meeting prompted the trustees to make quick work of the rest of their business. They extended for another year the contract with Curtis Temple to operate the Smokey Bear Museum, at a rate of $75 a month, a flat electrical rate and two percent of sales in the museum. Next year, the contract to operate the museum must be placed out to bid.

A joint powers agreement between Capitan Municipal Schools and the village, spelling out how the village will provide equipment to help construct a baseball/soccer field was approved, with the language requiring the school to reimburse the village for any insurance costs deleted. The school board had objected to the language in the agreement which would require the school to pay any insurance costs for the project.

Mayor Frank Warth said he spoke with the school superintendent and researched the insurance situation and found the village policy would cover the ball field at no extra cost. School board members had approached the trustees last month seeking not money, but help to construct the field, which they hoped would become a community center.

Warth reappointed himself to the Lincoln County Solid Waste Authority for a two year term and trustees approved. Warth is now president of LCSWA. He and mayors from all other county municipalities and two county commissioners were selected to serve as initial members of the LCSWA board and some of those terms have expired.

LCSWA may soon become a player in a regional landfill with the City of Alamogordo and Otero County. Trustees passed a resolution which will free up the funds from the 1/16 of one percent special environmental gross receipt tax collected from village businesses. The tax has been in place for nearly a year and now is used to pay for LCSWA assets acquired from members Capitan, Ruidoso, Ruidoso Downs and the county.

Alamogordo is faced with closure of its Dog Canyon landfill in less than two years and is RETIRE CAPITAN VOLUNTEER Fire Dept. Chief Virgil Hall Sr. shows off the cake baked by Deon Cox in his honor. Hall was surprised and pleased with the community barbecue and pot luck dinner held in his honor Tuesday. The dinner was held at the fire hall after the village meeting, where Hall was presented a bronzed ax mounted on a plaque. Hall, 81, served as fire chief from 1971 until 1991. Deon Cox's husband David Cox is a member of the fire department. Numerous fire department members, family and guests attended the dinner.

Fire Dept. Honors Virgil Hall Sr.

By DORIS CHERRY

He was one of the many men who fought the famous Smokey Bear fire in Capitan Gap in 1951.

And he has fought many other fires since then.

Virgil Hall Sr. of Capitan was honored by his fire department peers at a special barbecue and community pot luck dinner Tuesday. After a brief presentation of a bronzed firefighter's ax from current fire chief Pat Huey at the village trustees meeting, members of the Capitan Volunteer Fire Department and their families gathered at the fire hall to eat and reminisce.

Hall became a member of the Capitan Fire Dept. in 1951. He had bought a home in the village in 1941, but soon left to become part of the South Pacific theater in World War II. Hall, in the 20th Army Air Corps, was stationed in India then transferred to Guam and Sai Pan. He was aboard a B-29 bomber a total of 36 missions over Japan.

He went back to Capitan after the war, then was called back for Korea. He missed that war because he had been wounded, the only crewman of his bomber.

At the dinner Hall pointed out the old pictures on display in the fire hall, which show a smiling group of 15 Capitan men, their two "new" fire trucks and the old original, open cab truck. "That first truck is still at Hondo," Hall said and invited this reporter to stop and look at it sometime.

Joe Wiggley was the fire chief when Hall joined the department.

After battling too numerous to recall grass, forest and house fires for 20 years as a fireman, Hall was elected chief in 1971 and served in that capacity until 1991, when at 80 he finally "retired." Pat Huey took over the job.

He was chief so long that many of the department members at the dinner joked how he still is chief.

Drug Bust Called Publicity Stunt

It was a bust of monumental and questionable proportions, involving numerous law enforcement agencies and even the National Guard. And when it was all over, 14 people were brought to the Lincoln County Detention Facility in Carrizozo, overcrowding the facility. And at least 13 warrants for arrests were still outstanding.

The bust also has been criticized as a political, racist "invasion" based on outdated warrants and old investigations.

In the pre-dawn hours of Friday, Oct. 9, Lincoln County Sheriff James McSwane and his undersheriff Bobby Miller were on hand at Ruidoso Police Station to help coordinate the "bust" initiated by a special narcotics unit of the New Mexico State Police and which involved numerous law enforcement personnel from Ruidoso Police, Ruidoso Downs Police, Alamogordo Dept. of Public Safety, Otero County Sheriff's office, White Mountain Task Force, the District Attorney's office and the New Mexico National Guard.

Ruidoso detective Lanny Maddox even operated a National Guard tank, driven up to several homes of arrested individuals.

By 8 a.m. officers had rounded up and arrested 14 people on warrants on various drug charges, primarily distribution/conspiracy to distribute cocaine. The warrants had been issued by Assistant District Attorney Scot Key.

By mid-day the 14 had been transported to the detention facility in Carrizozo and by nightfall 12 were on their way home, released on appearance bond orders by Magistrate Judge Gerald Dean Jr. Appearance bonds are based on property owned by the arrested subjects.

Dean said the county jail was already to capacity Friday morning and the influx of those arrested brought in the inmate population into the 70s. To have meant transporting them to another jail facility. And Otero County Detention Facility could have only taken five.

To house the prisoners out of county would have cost taxpayers $75 a day, plus transport costs.

Dean said as judge he has to look at all considerations when issuing release orders. While he is dedicated to protecting the community, he also must protect the taxpayers from being overburdened with undue costs.

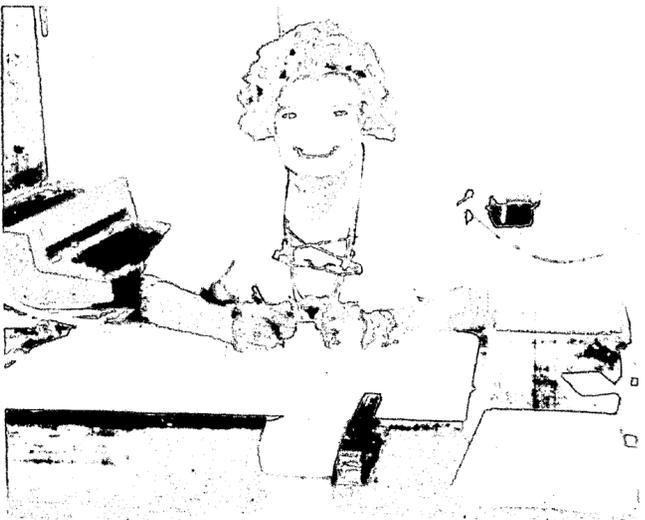

"It makes it very tough, but that is why I was elected," Dean said in a telephone interview Wednesday.

No gun fire was reported during the bust, which covered Ruidoso, Ruidoso Downs, San Patricio and other valley locations. However, one of the stipulations on Dean's release order was the arrested persons had to relinquish all types of firearms they owned. McSwane said so far, 13 weapons have been ANDY WYNHAM, Lincoln County Manager, and Martha Proctor, Lincoln County Clerk, addressed senior citizens Oct. 9 at the Carrizozo Sr. Center. Wynham said the budget or funding for the senior centers had NOT been cut. He said the county commissioners are "sincerely concerned" about the senior program.

BARBARA WARD, director of Zia Senior Centers located at Corona, Capitan, San Patricio, and Carrizozo, is retiring Oct. 20. Her parting comments were for "The senior participants to support and pay attention to their programs. They are hard programs to run, but there is a great deal of satisfaction serving the seniors."

to all meetings. He said the council needs a "little bit of a limit on travel."

On another front, Karn proposed Resolution 92-29 which "encourages State Representative Underwood and State Senator Campos to support a bill into legislation for penalties against stalkers and stalking."

"If the legislature doesn't pass it, I'll be back for an ordinance," Karn said.

Shaw said she feels that Karn has a personal reason to be interested in a stalker's law, that the village "has more important things to bring to the legislature."

Councillors adopted the resolution with Shaw voting "no."

Councillors approved paying for more brackets to hang 18 more Christmas palettes. The request was from Barbara Westbrook of the Ruidoso Arts and Film Commission.

Large paintings by area artists are hung on power poles before Christmas. Cost of more brackets will be approximately $500.

On other matters, the council:

—Approved purchase of a new fire truck for $134,459 from Becker Fire Equipment, low bidder. The purchase is subject to approval of the contract by the state attorney general. At issue is the fact that Howard Puckett, Becker representative, is a volunteer fireman and chief for the Bonita Volunteer Fire Department.

—Councillors were asked to consider a possible resolution at next meeting supporting Wendell Chino, Mescalero Apache tribal president, in his quest "to get a clean source of revenue-gambling."

—Heard that Councilor Shaw through the Municipal League will bring the New Mexico Municipal League convention to the civic center in 1996. Eleven communities vied for the 1996 convention, she said. Some 500 delegates and 500 other people will be in Ruidoso for the event, she said.

—Tentatively set Saturday, November 14, for the dedication of the civic center. It's proposed that the dedication ceremony be a part of the Christmas Jubilee set for that weekend at the center. Councilor Barbara Duff is checking out that possibility.

—Councillors heard Mayor Alonso proclaim November 14, a Saturday, "Old Time Barber-shop Harmony Day" in Ruidoso. Noon Lions will present barber-shop quartets that evening at the First Christian Church.

—Councillors approved transferring responsibility for surety involving streets and other improvements to lots in Navajo Subdivision. Jimmy Goodwin is the new guarantor.

—Mayor Alonso reappointed Councillors Ron Andrews and Frank Cummins and Bill Allen to the Lincoln County Solid Waste Authority. He asked for recommendations from the council on someone to fill a vacancy on the Lodgers Tax Commission.

—The council moved to the "big room" rather than meet in a smaller meeting room for the study session which precedes each council meeting. This was on recommendation of Tammie Maddox, village clerk, who had attended a workshop on open meetings in Alamogordo.

—The council after a closed session resolved a dispute with a local resident involving a water bill.

RAY PURCELLA (left) pins a red Poppy to Captain Mayor Frank Warth to remind everyone to remember the veterans, especially those who were wounded. Purcella, a member of the Capitan Post American Legion Auxiliary, will join her fellow members who will be accepting donations for the poppies beginning the last week of October through the week of Veterans Day, Nov. 11. The poppies are made by disabled veterans and all proceeds are returned to needy veterans. Auxiliaries have distributed the poppies since the end of World War I. Capitan Auxiliary meets the first Tuesday of every month at Capitan Senior Citizens Center.

Public Service Commission Approves Electric Agreement

SANTA FE—The Public Service Commission today approved an agreement reached last July between Otero County Electric Cooperative, the Commission Staff and a group representing customers who live in Alto, New Mexico, which allows customers to choose if they want a demand meter to calculate their electric bills.

The Commission Order approving the Stipulation will allow cooperative customers with high consumption levels to choose between being billed based on their peak consumption or to use a rate which varies during each 24-hour period.

The agreement provided for two rate classifications for residential customers. Residential customers who use more than 1000 kilowatt hours per month and who have a potential capacity to use more than 10 kilowatts will have two special metering options. They then may elect to use either a seasonal time-of-use rate or a demand rate.

The typical cooperative customer who uses 500 KWH's a month will be billed $64.01, compared with a bill of $60.31 under previous rates. Under the Cooperative's initial proposal the bill would have been $64.75.

Rates for residential customers not requiring special metering will include a monthly customer charge of $11.00, and a two tier declining block rate of $1.175 per KWH for the first 300 KWH's and $.8881 per KWH for usage over 300 KWH's.

Special metering customers who choose the demand meter option will pay the same customer charge and KWH charge as other residential customers, but demand customers will pay an additional $6.00 per KW for all KW over 10 KW's. Customers who choose the time-of-use option will pay a rate which varies depending on the season and time of day that electricity is used. That rate will be as follows: a monthly customer charge of $15.50 (reflecting the additional cost for time-of-use metering), no demand charge, and flat energy charges of $.23 per KWH for energy usage during the daily peak periods (7:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.) during the winter heating season (usage billed in the months of November, December, January, February and March), $.18 per KWH for usage during daily peak periods billed during the remaining months, $.10 per KWH for usage during the daily shoulder period (9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.), and $.065 per KWH for off-peak usage (9:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m.).

The Commission specified that customers can choose the rate they want to use by giving thirty days notice to the cooperative and that customers who do not indicate a preference will automatically be put on the time-of-use rate schedule.

turned into his office.

McSwane said investigations behind the bust began as long ago as 1988, with the White Mountain Task Force assisting with the investigation beginning in 1991.

Public defender Gary Mitchell sent waivers for first appearances before Judge Dean for several of the persons arrested. Court dates will be set later.

In a telephone interview Wednesday, Mitchell said the bust was a most outrageous, ridiculous thing. "It was not so much a bust as an invasion." He considered the bust very racist, since no tanks were used to arrest the Anglo subjects in Ruidoso.

He called the bust a big publicity stunt by the New Mexico State Police Narcotics team, brought in from out of town. He claimed most of the arrests could have been dealt with by local deputies, rather than by the "young reckless police officers."

According to an Associated Press published report, State Police Capt. William S. Relyea said the subjects were involved in a very organized and tightly knit network of smuggling and marketing drugs. "The core of this network was a family organization in the Hondo Valley," he said.

According to Lincoln County Detention facility logs, the following persons were arrested and booked into the Ruidoso Police Dept., then transported to the Lincoln County Detention Facility in Carrizozo:

Eva Marie McTeige, 24, Ruidoso Downs; trafficking cocaine, $10,000 bond, released same day on release order.

Steve Garcia, 27, Ruidoso; conspiracy to traffic and distribution of cocaine; $50,000 bond, released by Dean Oct. 9.

Filbert Herrera, 28, Hondo; conspiracy to possess heroin;

$100,000 bond, released on order by Dean Oct. 9.

Hector Estrada, aka Alfredo Estrada, 30, Ruidoso Downs; trafficking/conspiracy to distribute heroin; $100,000 bond, released on order by Dean.

Jerry Sedillo Gutierrez, 34, Hondo; trafficking, conspiracy and distribution of marijuana and cocaine; $100,000 bond. Released on order by Dean.

Joe Sedillo Gutierrez, 49, Hondo; trafficking, conspiracy and distribution of cocaine; $100,000 bond. Released on order by Dean.

Robert James Mattson, 38, Ruidoso; trafficking, conspiracy and distribution of cocaine; $100,000 bond, released by Dean.

Robert Lee Greiwahn, 26, Ruidoso; trafficking, conspiracy, distribution of cocaine; $10,000 bond, released by Dean.

Tony Chavez, 24, San Patricio; trafficking, conspiracy, distribution of cocaine; $2,500 bond, released by Dean.

Mark Dwayne Williams, 31, Ruidoso; trafficking, conspiracy, distribution of cocaine; $50,000 bond, released by Dean.

Kenneth Chavez, 28, San Patricio; trafficking, conspiracy, distribution of cocaine; $100,000 bond, released by Dean.

Darlene Williams, 29, Ruidoso; conspiracy, distribution of marijuana, $5,000 bond, released by Dean.

Lucy Haun Chavez, 36, San Patricio; trafficking, conspiracy, distribution of cocaine; $100,000 bond, released by Dean.

Tracy Gabriel Harris, 32, Ruidoso; trafficking, conspiracy, distribution of cocaine, methamphetamines; no bond as she was on probation.

Michael Leroy Chavez, 40, distribution of marijuana; no bond as he was on probation.

School Board Accepts Roofing-Heating Bids

By RUTH HAMMOND

The Carrizozo School Board accepted low bids for the roofing and heating during a three-hour special meeting Tuesday.

Money for the projects will come from the bond proceeds and SB9 funds.

Rocky Mountain Roofing of Albuquerque submitted the low bid of $146,004 for the roofing. The architect's estimate was $220,000.

The scope of work will include removing the foam on the roof completely and replacing it with new sloped insulated board to meet energy codes at classroom areas in the high school, Manire and elementary, and bur over existing insulation and protection board at the high school gym and stage areas.

The roofs were damaged during a hail storm and are leaking at this time. Dale Zinn, architect with M & E Engineering in Santa Fe, said the roofing project should be completed within three months and will have a 10-year guarantee.

The low bid of $76,219 for the high school heating project to replace current unit heating with new boiler and convection units was submitted by Hays Plumbing and Heating of Las Vegas.

The architect's estimate was $57,300 for the project. Zinn had no explanation as to why the bid was $19,000.00 higher than estimated. He did say that maybe the bidders included motel costs and material delivery costs in their bids.

Board members declined to act on the bids received for the handicap access work on the campus. The low bid for handicap access was $15,000.00 higher than the architect's estimate.

The campus-wide handicap access work for full compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is to include exterior ramps, sidewalks, parking, interior remodeling doors, handrails, plumbing fixtures, etc.

The board was in closed session for one hour early in the meeting to discuss pending litigation and personnel. No action was taken when the meeting resumed.

The next school board meeting will be at 7 p.m. Oct. 20.

Alleged Fuel Delivery Fuels Town Discussion

By RUTH HAMMOND

An outstanding bill for $3,535.50 for alleged delivery of fuel to the Carrizozo Airport in October 1988 was discussed during the Carrizozo Town Council meeting Tuesday.

Lloyd Wayne, manager of Sierra Blanca Regional Airport (SBRA), presented documentation of the alleged delivery of fuel to the trustees. Included were a fact sheet and summary, voucher of transport from United Petroleum of Tulsa, OK to Ruidoso, and a delivery voucher with what appeared to be Mike Morrison's signature. Morrison was the former Carrizozo Airport manager.

At that time, Carrizozo Airport and SBRA would split delivery of the loads of fuel. Each entity was billed separately for their own fuel. Carrizozo never received a bill for the fuel allegedly delivered on Oct. 20, 1988.

SBRA did receive a bill for the entire load of fuel and paid the bill. The situation was not discovered until Wayne was hired as SBRA manager in November 1990. He has tried to resolve the matter by billing the Town of Carrizozo.

No record of the fuel delivery has been found at Carrizozo Airport and trustees agreed to not pay the bill until records proved the delivery was made. The matter has been on the agenda each town council meeting for several months but David A. Thomsen, attorney for the Village of Ruidoso, has been unable to attend the meetings.

During the discussion Mayor Cecilia Kuhnle read a letter from town attorney Bob Beauvais which stated that Morrison would testify that it was his signature.

Trustees asked for additional time to discuss the matter with the town auditor and with Morrison. No action was taken.

In other business, the week of Oct. 25-Nov. 1 was proclaimed Pornography Awareness Week.

Charlie White, police department head, reported he is applying for a state grant for money to purchase a mobile video system for the patrol car and for additional hours for the part-time officer.

Trustees gave their approval for White to attend a training session in Roswell Oct. 21-22 and attend the New Mexico Sheriff and Police Association meeting in Carlsbad Oct. 23-25 with the provision there will be police coverage at the Oct. 23 football game.

The part-time officer will have a new jacket soon due to extraordinary action taken by trustees. The procurement code requires the town to have delivery of the jacket before making payment. White told trustees he could save the department more than $100 by sending payment of $57.00 for the jacket to a different company.

Kuhnle agreed to send her own personal money order for the jacket and then be reimbursed by the town when the jacket is received.

Trustees gave permission for dispatchers to ride in the town patrol car for training. White said it is critical for the dispatchers to know how he does things because dispatchers are his lifeline in tense situations.

—Carrizozo Airport now has a rental car furnished by Sierra Blanca Motors. Airport manager Hal Marx said there is no obligation to the town for the rental car. The airport also has a DUAT weather system.

When Marx asked for approval to purchase VASI lights for the approach lights, Wayne said SBRA will share their lights with the Carrizozo Airport.

Action on the memorandum of understanding with the Bureau of Land Management was tabled until the next meeting.

Trustees discussed the situation of livestock getting through the fence and causing damage at Carrizozo Golf Course. Trustee Doug Whittaker will pursue the matter.

The State Department of Finance Administration (DFE) has put the street paving project on hold until the town submits copies of evaluation sheets rating the engineers.

Kuhnle reported she had attended a four-hour meeting for the MRS advisory group.

No action was taken following a 53-minute closed session to discuss personnel matters.

now searching for a new one. The city has offered LCSWA a chance to become a player in a regional landfill, which will be financed with revenue bonds based on environmental gross receipts. LCSWA members agreed to ask their respective councils to repledge their special gross receipts, estimated $128,000 this fiscal year, to be used as LCSWA's collateral on a revenue bond for a regional landfill. That figure is nearly equal to what the City of Alamogordo collects in a year, giving LCSWA an equal footing at the negotiation table.

LCSWA manager Gene Green was at the meeting to answer questions. He said Ruidoso and Ruidoso Downs have passed similar resolutions and the county commissioners are expected to do so at their next meeting.

A regional landfill is expected to cost a minimum of $1.5 million.

Warth proclaimed Nov. 5-11 as Poppy Week, when American Legion Auxiliary members will accept donations for the familiar red paper poppy. The poppies are reminders to consider those veterans wounded in action. Capitan Post Auxiliary members will be out with the poppies at the end of October through November.

Trustees also approved a resolution increasing the budget of the revenue bond reserve for water and sewer by $3,000. The money was transferred from some Certificates of Deposit.

Al's Musings

BY AL STUBBS

Imagine the scene in Lincoln County over 100 years ago. "I've gotta go over to Mesilla for jury duty," a prominent Lincoln countian might say.

So, he puts a little beef jerky and hardtack in his saddle bags, fills a canteen, jumps on his horse and heads south and west over the mountains and desert to Old Mesilla. Apparently it was just as common in the 1880s to hop on a horse and head out as it is to jump in a car today and depart for the same destination.

The horse is still with us and is still prominent in Lincoln County.

Consider the past weekend.

Competition was keen on the weekend at the Tully roping arena between Ruidoso Downs and Glencoe where the Cowboy Symposium was staged. No one thinks of cowboys without associating them with horses, although three-wheelers and four-wheelers have crowded on to the ranch scene somewhat these modern days.

Ropers were sure showing their stuff at the Tully arena. There is much bonding between a rider and his mount when showing roping or bulldogging skills.

Increased emphasis on the horse is evident in Lincoln County with the advent of the Museum of the Horse. The history of the horse's impact on the west and southwest is fascinating. Equally interesting is the history of horse-drawn vehicles, from stagecoaches to surreys to carriages. Saddle making isn't a lost art. The demand is as strong as ever.

Horses figure strongly in the Billy the Kid Pageant presented each year in old Lincoln town. The Pony Express honors the horse. And what would Ruidoso and Lincoln County be without Ruidoso Downs Race Track? With the advent of the Sports Theater, emphasis on the horse and racing is strong 12 months a year.

Riding stables are offered in this Playground of the Southwest. The horse figures strong in the fun offerings in Lincoln County. The final rodeo in Roswell at the Eastern New Mexico State Fair drew thousands of spectators. Interest remains strong.

Perhaps the reason we have been thinking about horses, bonding, rodeos, etc., is that daughter-in-law, Judy Stubbs and son, Chuck were here from Albuquerque for the Cowboy Symposium and related events on the weekend.

Judy says next year for sure she will bring her horse, "Wheels," to Ruidoso for the trail rides which were a part of the Cowboy Symposium.

Why would a horse be named "Wheels?" Well the choice some-years ago for Judy was whether to purchase a car or a horse. The horse won, hands down.

You just think a dog or cat is petted and groomed and spoiled by an owner. Wheels is pampered constantly. We have come to understand the bonding that can occur between humans and their equine companions. It's strong.

If there is team penning going on in the Albuquerque area, you're likely to find Judy and Wheels there. She is an Iowa girl, originally, and each fall, she returns to Iowa for a rodeo in which she has been involved since a little girl. The west and southwest wouldn't be standing as tall without the horse and the history of the horse.

A horse even figured briefly in the Community Concert Association presentation "Red Hot and Cole" seen and heard last weekend. The program was by The Broadway Singers who depicted in song and acting the highlights of Cole Porter's life and music.

The reference to the horse was negative in that Porter was crippled when a horse fell on him. A packed and appreciative audience took in Red Hot and Cole. The show was great.

Region IX Coop Awarded Money For Head Start

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services has awarded $641,905 to the Region IX Cooperative Center, members of the New Mexico Congressional Delegation announced today. The Region IX Cooperative Center, which serves Lincoln County, will work with the Local Educational Agencies (LEAs) in the Ruidoso and Capitan public school districts to establish a Head Start Program for low-income preschool children.

The newly established program is designed to reach children at the most critical time of their development; between birth and five years of age. Approximately 80 four year old low-income children will be the recipients of comprehensive development services in an effort to ensure their successful transition from preschool to kindergarten. In addition to educational support, the program provides medical, dental, mental health, nutritional, social and parent involvement activities.

"Region IX and the participating LEA's have exhibited a deep commitment to providing high quality comprehensive developmental services to disadvantaged children in Lincoln County," the members of the delegation stated. "A great deal of careful planning and coordination of resources went into this proposal and we are very pleased that their efforts were rewarded." The members of the New Mexico Congressional Delegation Office are: Senators Pete V. Domenici (R-NM) and Jeff Bingaman (D-NM), Congressmen Joe Skeen (R-NM), Bill Richardson (D-NM), and Steve Schiff (R-NM).

Inside The Capitol

by Jay Miller

SANTA FE—The Quincentennial moment has finally arrived.

Inside the Capitol began suggesting four years ago that New Mexico should take advantage of the observance by letting the world know this is the cradle of Columbus' influence in our nation.

Progress in government agencies was slow. Finally I participated in founding a citizens' organization designed to encourage grassroots support of special observances to commemorate the Quincentennial. About a year ago the state commission finally got its act together.

The results have been piecemeal. I've received information about special observances Oct. 12 in Albuquerque, Santa Fe and Espanola. Presumably there were others.

Columbus Day observances are not necessarily the best way to promote New Mexico during the Quincentennial. Other observances have been held.

The Forbes Foundation was talked into bringing its replica of the Santa Maria to the Albuquerque Balloon Fiesta this year. The balloon normally never leaves the New York-New Jersey-Pennsylvania area because of its huge size. It's reportedly the largest hot air balloon in the world. Christopher Columbus made his third journey of the year from Spain to be the balloon's star passenger.

On previous trips to New Mexico Columbus had worked hard on healing gestures toward Native Americans. Healing may turn out to be the most important result of the Quincentennial observances.

Efforts at increasing sensitivities toward the feelings of those who are already here when Columbus and subsequent Europeans came to this land have been undertaken by many New Mexicans. Archbishop Robert Sanchez added a peaceful interpretation to the significance of La Conquistadora, the Virgin Mary statue carried by DeVargas and his troops.

The Santa Fe Fiesta portrayal of the retaking of New Mexico from the Pueblos in 1692 was made more historically accurate. Numerous scholarly talks have been presented during the past year to increase understandings of Indian-Spanish relations.

Four New Mexico wineries got together create a set of quinquennial wines. Through a cooperative venture, four New Mexico buffaloes were donated to Spain. A group of technicians came to the Southwest to study the buffalo's natural habitat. Apparently it has been about 35,000 years since such animals roamed Spain.

Those projects and many more were accomplished without the expenditure of state funds. Then there were the projects funded by a legislative appropriation. Many of the grant awards were surrounded with controversy over conflicts of interest on the part of Quincentennial Commission members. From this commentator's biased point of view, the state would have been better off not giving away any money.

And what about the success in putting New Mexico on everyone's map of the world? We passed up the World's Fair opportunity to get our name out there, but we did the Smithsonian scene in a big way.

Has it helped increase the awareness of New Mexico? There'll probably always be those who will refuse our "foreign" money or ask us how we enjoy the bull fights back home. But I've had that happen as nearby as California. Tourism figures indicate someone knows New Mexico is out there. And more and more of those "someones" are foreigners.

Mike Cerletti, New Mexico's secretary of Tourism, says inquiries are up by two-thirds this year. Is that in any way due to Quincentennial promotion activities? Who knows? But someone is sure to take credit for it.

SMALL BUSINESS ANGLE

SMALL-BUSINESS AMERICA: LAND OF THE FEE

New York State has a new "laundromat inspection fee" of $12 per washer or dryer. The fee covers the cost of the following "inspection": a Labor Department employee enters a laundromat, counts the washers and dryers, multiplies by $12 and presents the owner with a bill in that amount.

And, the New York Department of Motor Vehicles now charges auto body shops a $25 fee for each worker who estimates repair costs. To get the $25 "motor vehicle estimator's license," workers don't have to take any special training. They don't have to pass a test. The sole requirement: payment of the fee, which comes on top of the state fee already charged to become a "registered" auto body shop.

Nothing that's not going on across the nation. In statehouse after statehouse, yesterday's tax-and-spenders are becoming today's fee-and-spenders.

Surging anti-tax sentiment among voters has left many politicians leery of passing overt tax hikes. But, rather than bite the bullet and cut state budgets, big-spenders are turning to a vast array of business "fees" to keep state coffers full.

By loading up on business fees, politicians can raise big bucks without leaving fingerprints on a tax bill. They can pocket the money and, at the same time, claim they "held the line on taxes."

Of course, whether it gets called a "fee" or a "tax," the effect is the same: business profits are squeezed. Consumer prices rise. But the political beauty of the fee approach is that business owners are the ones who take the heat... for raising prices.

Another big advantage to going the fee route: You don't have to apply the same fees to all business. By selecting only certain types of firms for fee increases, you don't incur the wrath of the entire business community—just those unfortunate who get socked with higher costs.

A third advantage of fees over taxes: semantics. The very word connotes reasonableness and equity. While taxes are "levied" (i.e., imposed by a greater power), fees are simply "charged" by someone seeking compensation for services rendered.

To see how far states have strayed from this original concept of a "fee," one need only review some of the fees recently proposed or imposed by revenue-hungry legislators.

- $25 million hedgepodge of fee increases is working its way through the Connecticut Legislature. Business owners targeted for license fee hikes range from podiatrists (fees tripled to $450) to fur breeders (doubled to $8).
- Ohio raised a medley of registration fees imposed on professionals. Targets ranged from licensed nursing home administrators to asbestos hazard evaluation specialists. The annual fee for dental x-ray tubes doubled as well.
- Missouri tripled its county merchant license fee (to $15), earmarking the revenues for a retirement fund for elected county officials.

In state after state, the National Federation of Independent Business is hearing a growing number of members complain they are being "fee'd to death." Small-business owners throughout the nation are learning that you don't have to own a New York laundromat to be taken to the cleaners by fee-happy legislators.

Steve Woods is Vice President—State Governmental Relations for the National Federation of Independent Business, the nation's largest small-business advocacy organization with 550,000 members in all 50 states.

The Other Side

By Owen Russell

One of the most useful features of using a word-processing computer is that I can work on several things at a time, and can sort them out later. When I used to work on a typewriter, I had to maintain continuity of my story line or retype everything and little odd thoughts that might have had enough strength to develop into big odd thoughts usually got left behind because I didn't have anything to write them down on. Not that that was much of a loss to humanity, but once in a while, something comes up that needs exploring on the spur of the moment and expecting me to keep my typing organized and look for a scratch pad and pencil so I could catch those fleeting thoughts was a little more than I could handle. But with my computer, I am able to change horses by merely inserting an appropriate punctuation which is called "exploring a tangent without missing a stroke". Now, if I can just figure out how to get back to my original subject without crashing the machine, because one elementary principle of computer technology is that the old "bigger hammer" technique is no longer valid.

I am in the market for a new scale for the bathroom. The one I have now is defective because when I stand on it and lean over far enough forward to see the dial, it throws the machine out of balance and makes it to register too high.

The model I am looking for should have the following instructions: 1. Place left foot on footpad. 2. Place right foot on toilet seat. 3. Select desired weight from convenient eye-level chart on wall in front of you. 4. Adjust foot pressure until appropriate result is achieved. 5. Record daily results on enclosed weight record with "Happy Face" emblem printed on it.

I'm certainly glad my invitation to the Albuquerque County Club later this month did not include the phrase, "black tie and tails", because although I don't mind wearing a tie, I have spent most of my life trying to keep my tail covered.

Illiterate: n. 1. an individual who can read but doesn't feel like it, 2. a person who can't read write. Closely related "illegible", which means he can't write readin' either, or "illegal", meaning he said things about me that I will certainly deny. "Illegal" is also descriptive of our national symbol during election years. If he had known at the time what he would have to suffer through every four years, he might have declined the appointment and stuck with being a mere predator. Maybe Thomas Jefferson was right. The turkey might have been more appropriate.

Bush: "This old boat is good for a few more miles down the same ol' road."

Clinton: "This bucket of bolts needs a grease job."

Perot: "Trade that pile of junk in for a new Rosemobile and get more punch for your dollar."

(And I thought Nixon was the one not to buy a used car from. Where in the world is Pat Paulson when you need him?)

If you are wondering why so many short squibs this week, it shouldn't take a rocket scientist to figure out that it's because I cleaned out my shirt pocket. When I think of something, I write it down on a cocktail napkin or other readily available form of writing material, and stick it in my pocket with my other treasures. After a few weeks when I begin to look like Dolly Partin with a masted tomy, I have to unload and sort out all the goodies. Business cards, addresses, phone numbers and names of people I don't remember are either transferred to my permanent address

Information Wanted About Snell Family

Clara Brown of Truscott, Texas is seeking information about her grandparents, John Henry and Benola Kirk Snell who moved to New Mexico about 1912 from Cottle County, Texas.

The Snells lived on the flats below Capitan Mountain. Benola was born in the pine forests of central Alabama in the Wilcox and Monroe County area and lived among the trees of east Texas for the first several years of her marriage. She never quite accepted the treeless plains of the west and requested to be buried at Angus, among the trees. Benola and John Henry Snell are buried at Angus cemetery.

Clara Brown would like any information about her grandparents and about Angus Cemetery. Her address is Box 807, Truscott, TX 89260.

American Academy of Pediatrics
Immunizations Protect
Although nearly 95 percent of America's children are fully immunized by the time they enter school, more than 25 percent of preschoolers are not fully immunized—when protection is most crucial.

Children Our Future

Immunizations protect against major childhood diseases such as polio, measles, and whooping cough. No other public health measure, besides perhaps, safe water, has had such an effect on reducing disease as vaccines. In fact, for every dollar spent on immunizations, $10 is saved in future health care costs.

However, the nation's low immunization rate has led to outbreaks of disease. In 1989, there was a more than 400 percent increase in the number of measles cases in the U.S. Although recently, there has been some improvement in our immunization efforts, many children are still not receiving adequate doses at the recommended times.

The American Academy of Pediatrics is taking advantage of October's Child Health Month to urge you to do your part and make sure your child is immunized. But, remember, vaccinations are just one part of a child's total health care. Make sure your children receive regular checkups even if they are healthy.

For more information on immunization, send a business-sized, stamped, self-addressed envelope to: Immunization Brochure, Dept. C, American Academy of Pediatrics, PO Box 927, Elk Grove Village, IL 60009.

December 17 has been declared Wright Brothers Day to commemorate their first successful flight.

Tigers Roar Past Reserve 35-6

Their first district win in three years!

Capitan Fighting Tigers defeated Reserve 35-6 for the first district game this season.

Saturday, Oct. 10, the Tigers traveled to Reserve and played a daytime game on a relatively hot field (84 degrees). Reserve's big boys pulled on the heavy defense in the first quarter, keeping the Tigers scoreless.

Then in the second quarter Tiger quarterback Michael Fish ran 90 yards for a touchdown with help from lineman Carlos Preciado who threw a tremendous block to help Fish get to the goal. Carlos did a tremendous job as lineman throughout the game, said Tigers coach Ed Davis.

The kick for the extra point was no good and the half ended with Capitan 6, Reserve 0.

After the slow start in the first half, the Tigers came back into the game with a desire to win.

In the third quarter Ernie Trujillo intercepted a Reserve pass to make a 20-yard run for the next touchdown. The two point conversion was good. Chris Smith claimed the next touchdown and the two points were added also. Damian Roybal scored the third touchdown of the quarter and again the two-point conversion was good.

Chris Smith broke the fourth touchdown in the final quarter with the 62-yard run.

The Tigers ran a total of 437 yards offense, with 25 yards in the air, Kyle Traylor and Lando Baca were responsible for those 25 aerial yards.

Mike Fish covered 167 yards rushing, Chris Smith racked up 154 yards rushing and Damian Roybal rushed for a total of 114 yards in the game.

The boys came out flat in the first half, Coach Davis said, and not playing to their ability. But in the second half, the Tigers played like they are capable—good ball.

Any big team will be hard on Capitan, Davis added. He credited the big boys in Reserve's club for playing good ball.

The Tigers will travel to Cloudercroft Friday to play another district game at 7:30 p.m.

"We've got to play all four quarters, Cloudercroft has a good ball club," Davis said.

The Tigers are now 5-2 for the season and 1-0 in district play.

Capitan returns home for its final two games, both district, of the season, Oct. 23 against Loving at 7:30 p.m. and Oct. 30 against Carrizozo at 7:30 p.m.

Playoffs are scheduled for Nov. 6-7.

Corona Chapter

People for the West

The Corona Chapter of People for the West has been an active bunch. Many members attended the Ranchers Rally and Informal Grazing Fee hearing in Roswell August 31. Senator Pete Domenici said, "I'm of the opinion that the multiple use approach to our public domain is best for all. The idea for raising grazing fees comes from some legislators in other parts of the country who take on issues with no effect on their own constituency and from large groups who do not want grazing on public land". Speakers from U.S. Forest Service, the Bureau of Land Management, N.M. Game Commission, New Mexico State University, Western New Mexico University and the Sierra Club made comments. Chapter members were asked to write the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service asking for information on species listed under the Endangered Species Act. There are 25 different plants and animals on the list for Lincoln County alone.

There will be a hearing on the Endangered Species Act on October 27, 1992 in Carlsbad at the University Lecture Hall from 1 to 4 p.m. Private property rights are being stomped on with this act and if you can attend you sure need to be there.

The Animal Damage Control (ADC) program is under attack by all angles. The animal rights people want trapping stopped and have been active in getting their policies adopted by the Albuquerque District of the Bureau of Land Management. About a dozen members attended a meeting in Santa Fe where they were talking about that management plan. They were proposing that BLM be contacted first then they would contact ADC. Also wanted non-lethal means only. This plan is apparently being rewritten after the comments at the Santa Fe meeting.

The Habitat and Environment Council is also trying to stop ADC work. This council is an advisory council for the State Game Commission. Pat Wolf is on the council and she is also leading New Mexicans against ADC.

They are trying to stop ADC anyway they can. They will be meeting on October 20, 1992 in Santa Fe at the PERA building. The Game Commission will be meeting in Santa Fe on October 21, 1992 and they will be discussing the spotted owl and goshawk listings.

For more information on these meetings call Sandra Merritt at 849-1423. The Corona chapter meets every second Monday at the Corona school.

FORT STANTON:

FACTS and FICTION

What a weekend! As someone said at the Lincoln County Cowboy Symposium, "It has to be against the law for anyone to have that much fun!" Mike Walstad and wife, Lou and Gene Parker, Sandy and Jo Switzer, were a few of the many people enjoying all the activities. Friday Pat and I rode the trail ride up to the place where "Tunstall" was supposed to have been murdered. The date on the rock and monument had April 15, 1933. Fifteen trail riders were on this ride.

The weather was beautiful and the two guides, Sonny Barvel and his son guided the riders without any trouble. The organizer of the three trail rides, Craig Whipple, fell off of a scaffold just a day or two before the symposium began and broke both of his heels. Know he was and will be miserable for many months. Connie, his wife, did a great job taking over and making all the arrangements. She guided the riders from Glencoe to Lincoln each day. Get well Craig and "thanks Connie."

On Saturday the chuck wagons were preparing for the big cook off contest at noon. There were 16 wagons and everyone had a great tasting meal. It was sad you couldn't sample each one. The Rainey Ranch was the big winner receiving $2500 and a beautiful belt buckle. The food, atmosphere, originality, attitude, and taste, were a few things they were each judged on. You couldn't have had a better meal anywhere.

People from everywhere came and enjoyed the band of Johnny Gimble and his boys on both Friday and Saturday night. Bobby Koeser, singing his Hawaiian tune just makes everyone have a good time.

All three days there were poets and musicians performing in the super select building and the tent. Sunday Frank and Billy Joe Herrera entertained with four others doing the Mexican dances. Ray Reed will never know how much enjoyment, "his dream" has given young and old alike. Bonnell's play a big part in letting them use a lot of their property also.

Any of you who haven't attended need to make plans now to go next year. It just gets bigger and better.

After all the fun Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, we decided to ride up to Bonito and see the red maple, the aspens, oakbrush and beautiful leaves.

When we arrived at Bonito Stables, Robert and Sandra were fixing to take a hunter from Michigan out to pack in an elk, he had killed the day before. Tay and Wilson LaRue, Pat, Robert, Sandra, Ed (the hunter), Hank (the cow dog), and I arrived at the site just about 10:30. Everyone should get to see the amount of work it took for them to skin the elk, quarter and load the meat, load the six by seven horns, make sure the back packs were evenly loaded. I have heard many tales of these things, but this was the first time I was actually present.

Taking many pictures the one disappointment was my camera wouldn't work. That moment will never be again and I was upset. With no trouble we were back at the stables at about 2 p.m.

As we were leaving to go home, Fred Payton, stopped and said he had an elk close by and wondered if Sandra and Pat would go help him pack it out. Unbelievable I got to go watch, two elk's were packed out on one day. This time Fred had his camera and I got some pictures of it. Tired, when we got home, Hank, the "elk" dog, and I had had an experience we won't soon forget. Know the colors were the prettiest they have been in years.

The new western wear store in Capitan is doing a big business. Be sure and stop in and visit with Debra and Charlene. They have a big selection of everything.

Margaret Rench and Katy Massey were there when I stopped. Margaret is doing so well and we told her how we will all miss her column. Margaret has been a good friend to many Avon customers, Lincoln County News customers, and everyone around Lincoln County. Her words of encouragement will never be forgotten by her many friends. As she told us, she has closed another chapter in her book, and I'm sure another one will be opened. Thanks for all you have done and will do Margaret.

Connie Edwards of Rawlins, Wyo., stopped by last week to see her many coworkers at the infirmary. She had been in Alamogordo to visit her parents and cousin Marcy Miller. Connie is working as a nurse in a prison in Wyoming and is very happy.

Evelyn Garvey is taking a two week vacation, planning to go to El Paso, Roswell, and Texas to visit her kids.

David Keller is home with his parents for awhile. He came back from Ohio where he had worked for two or three months. He may be going to Montana next. His biology degree takes him all over the U.S.

Denise Saiz is working part-time at the Ruidoso Branch Bank in Capitan.

Eddie and Audrey Davis shipped their steers Saturday, Sunday and Wednesday. On Monday, they attended the funeral of his great Aunt Low in Texas. They stopped by and visited Joe Rhodes and family in Muleshoe, on their way.

It was good to visit with Juanita Sultemeier of Roswell, Johnny Bond of Corona and Shirley Goodloe at the symposium. Jake Tally and the Cole family enjoyed visiting with people they hadn't seen in many years.

Shirlene Fitzner and Sonya Rutledge of Hillsboro attended the post master training session in Alamogordo on Saturday and Sunday.

SHIRLEY ANN GOODLOE, former Lincoln County Treasurer and a resident of the county for 35 years, has been visiting friends and relatives. Goodloe works on the F R Ranch in Gum Cove, Louisiana. The ranch is a horse and cattle operation.

CARRIZOZO GRIZZLY TAILBACK (22) ANTHONY ARCHULETA turns the corner as Cloudfrofto defenders move in to make the stop. Other Grizzly players in photo, Lenny Beltran (68), Nathan Portillo (24), Raymond Najor (61), and Cory Collins (12). Carrizozo evened their district record at 1-1 with the 14-0 whitewash of the Bears.

GRIZZLY Sports

By JAMES SMITH

Carrizozo's alumni were treated to a 14-0 shut out against the Cloudfrofto Bears last Friday for Carrizozo's homecoming game. The Grizzlies were able to hold the Bears down to 79 yards, and their leading rusher, Shane Bell, down to 45 yards to win their first game in three weeks.

The game was scoreless up to halftime, where the crowning of the homecoming king and queen revitalized the Grizzlies. On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, Blas Herrera blasted through the Bear's defense to score on an 85 yard return, making the score 6-0.

In the fourth quarter, a tough Grizzly defense forced the Bears to punt from their own one yard line. After the ball ended up on the 19, Anthony Archuleta, making up for his three week absence due to illness, ran the ball twice to bring it to the five yard line. Michael Barela, Carrizozo's leading rusher, then took over the ball and ran it three times to finally reach the end zone, making the score 12-0. Cory Collins then ran in the two point conversion making the score 14-0.

The Grizzlies played an outstanding defensive game, keeping the Bears from scoring and forcing four turnovers. Herrera, who had the 85 yard kickoff return, also intercepted the ball twice. Barela and Nathan Portillo each brought out the Bears seven times to lead the team in tackles, followed by Jonathan Vallejos with four and a fumble recovery. Players with three tackles included Joe Vega, Lenny Beltran, Fernando Medina, Raymond Najor, and Wayne LaBelle, who played an outstanding game for a freshman. All three of LaBelle's tackles caused the Bears losses. Heath Richman and Anthony Archuleta, who played offense as well as defense, had two tackles each. Archuleta also had a fumble recovery. George Vega was able to hit a Bear receiver to cause an interception, and another turnover was brought about when Portillo made a tackle causing a fumble. "The defense played their best game of the year at a time when we really needed it," said assistant coach Ken Butts, "This win puts us right back in the playoff picture."

Before playoffs, though, the Grizzlies will face the Clayton Yellowjackets. The game will be here on Friday night, and though it won't be a district game, it promises to be good. Kickoff time will be 7 p.m. Just win, Grizzlies!

Lady Grizzlies Lose Five-Setter to Aguilas

The Carrizozo Lady Grizzlies were hoping for a win at the district match with Vaughn last Thursday, Oct. 8. But after five hard-played games, the Vaughn Lady Eagles came out on top: 7-15, 15-9, 9-15, 15-1, 5-15.

Renee Roper led the match points with 13 in the match (all five games), Lori Gibson made 12 service points. Lynette Hernandez served the ball for a total of nine points in the match, Rachel Archuleta six, Amy Fuchl four and Yvonne Estrella two in the match.

The loss puts the Lady Grizzlies at 4-1 in district play.

The Lady Grizzlies JV team played an "improvised" match with the Vaughn JV team Thursday and won in two games: 15-5, 15-2. Sarah Funk had an outstanding match at the service line, with nine straight serves ending in points in the second game. She made a total of 10 service points in the match. Amanda Vega dominated the service line in the first game of the match, with eight straight service points. Debbie Bond served four points, Jacqueline Epperson and Natalie Chavez scored two service points each and Naomi Vallejos served one.

A tired group of Lady Grizzlies traveled to New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell Saturday, Oct. 10, and made the Lady Broncos play five games to win the match: 15-8, 15-8, 6-15, 15-17. Rachel Archuleta led the girls at the service line with 12 points served. Renee Roper served 11 points, Kerstin Luecke seven, Amanda Vega six, Lynette Hernandez three and Julie Galle-gos one.

Lady Grizzlies Coach Kay Patterson said there was too much going on at Homecoming and it showed in the girls' performance at both Thursday's and Saturday's matches. The girls were inconsistent in their play against NMMI.

Regardless of the losses Coach Patterson is real excited with the girls' performances this season. "They're doing some very good things, and can go far if they get their consistency going," she said.

The varsity girls are now 6-7 for the season.

The junior varsity Carrizozo girls defeated the NMMI JV team in two games: 15-6, 15-7. Michelle Barela was the leader at the service line with eight points total in the match (five in the second game). Debbie Bond, Katie Hightower and Keri Scharf served five points each, Sarah Funk served four and Naomi Vallejos one.

The JV team is now 7-2 in their season.

The undefeated junior high team did not play this week and will wrap up the season with matches against Ft. Sumner on Oct. 15 in that town and with Mountainair on Oct. 17 at home. Those matches begin at 4:30 p.m. and 1 p.m.

The Varsity and JV teams will play their counterparts from Ft. Sumner on Oct. 15 there and Mountainair at home on Oct. 17.

Regular season volleyball ends for the Carrizozo girls with varsity and JV matches against Corona on Oct. 22 in Corona. The matches begin at 6 p.m.

Public Meetings For Draft SMES-ETM

Mobile, Ala. — Public meetings will be held Wednesday, Oct. 21, from 4 p.m. until 8 p.m. at the Holiday Inn, 201 E. University, Las Cruces, and Thursday, Oct. 22 from 4 p.m. until 8 p.m. at the Holiday Inn, 1401 S. White Sands Blvd., Alamogordo, to allow the public to comment on the Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS) for the Superconducting Magnetic Energy Storage - Engineering Test Model (SMES-ETM).

"The purpose of the public meetings is to allow the public an opportunity to comment on the findings of the DEIS," said E. Patrick Robbins, Chief, Public Affairs, Mobile District, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. "All pertinent comments received during the meetings will be utilized in preparing the Final Environmental Impact Statement (FEIS) and will accompany the statement when it is submitted to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency."

The DNA, in cooperation with the Department of Energy (DOE), is engaged in a Congressionally mandated program which may lead to a decision to build, test, and operate a SMES-ETM. Five candidate sites are addressed in the DEIS: Monahans, near Odessa, Texas; White Sands Missile Range, N.M.; Orogrande, N.M.; the DOE Hanford Site, near Richland, Wash.; and Badger Army Ammunition Plant near Baraboo, Wis.

Special Trinity Site Tour Set

A special Trinity Site tour is scheduled for Monday, Oct. 19. The only way in will be the escorted caravan co-sponsored by the Alamogordo Chamber of Commerce. The tour is part of the SunBird Retirement Promotions.

Trinity Site is where the world's first atomic bomb was exploded in 1945. Trinity is located on the northern end of the 3,200-square mile White Sands Missile Range between Carrizozo and Socorro.

Trinity Site consists of ground zero where the atomic bomb was placed on a 100-foot steel tower and exploded July 16, 1945 and the McDonald ranch house where the world's first plutonium core for a bomb was assembled. The crater, resulting from the explosion, has been filled in and a small monument now marks the spot.

The missile range provides historical photos and a Fat Man bomb casing for display at ground zero.

Cameras are allowed at Trinity Site but their use is strictly prohibited anywhere else on White Sands Missile Range. For more information on the tour call 437-6120.

Capitan School Goes To Class AA Status

By DORIS CHERRY

Students transferring into Capitan Schools may not have a chance to be numerically ranked, and they may not even be wanted.

Capitan Board of Education mulled over the good/bad news of exceeding its official enrollment projection. At the board meeting Oct. 8 Superintendent David Lock said there were 30 more students than the projected count of 508 in grades K-12. A count of enrollment taken on Oct. 9, the 40th day of school, was 536.

Lock reported there were 156 high school students, including the developmentally disabled students in special education programs. That enrollment puts the high school into a Class AA designation by six students.

This has caused not only the Capitan Board of Education problems, but has the New Mexico Activities Association concerned. Lock said NMAA is concerned because there will be only eight class A schools playing football. Melrose canceled its football program and Loving is also expected to go AA along with Cloudercroft and Texico. A NMAA workshop will be held Oct. 21 and Lock said there will be a lot of discussion about restructuring the classes and districts. Lock will attend the workshop.

Capitan will be a very small Class AA school, which bothered board member Preston Stone. He worried many of the Capitan football players will leave the school and transfer to a Class A school because they will have to compete with bigger schools. "Everyone likes a winner," he said.

Stone said students moving into Capitan schools from other nearby schools "hurts us." However, Capitan's volleyball program will not be hurt by the change of status.

Students come to Capitan for a variety of reasons. Many want to go to a small town school. Some come from smaller districts. Many who live in Capitan district but were attending Ruidoso schools transferred to Capitan.

Lock said he has denied enrollment to students from outside the district because the school is unable to serve them.

Capitan schools suffered a declined enrollment about three years ago, and did not meet projected enrollment, resulting in loss of funding from the state. With the extra enrollment, the school will receive additional funds from the state.

Board members also approved a policy which will require any student transferring into Capitan schools to attend the last four semesters consecutively at Capitan High School to be ranked numerically and be considered for Valedictorian and Salutatorian. Parents had questioned the validity of a transferring student with a high grade point average being chosen for the top positions at the last board meeting.

Celeste Wilson, a junior who transferred from Ruidoso Schools, was given permission to graduate early. However, she will not be ranked with the graduating class and will not be eligible for valedictorian or salutatorian.

DeAnn Willoughby presented the audit of the 99-92 school budget, in which she wrote a good opinion. The audit fairly presents all aspects of the school budget, with no unfavorable variances. Willoughby reviewed the document, including the Region 9 Cooperative Center budget, which is all federal flow-through money, all school departments and student funds. She credited the school for ending the year with a cash balance in the cafeteria fund, which is a good turnaround from previous years.

The board accepted the audit.

Quinn Southwest and Simon, Cuddy and Friedman were hired as financial advisor and bond counsel for a proposed bond issue election in February. Dr. Clemmons will be bond counsel. A parent/staff/community steering committee will meet at 3:30 p.m. Oct. 20 to compile options for a mid-school structure. Board president Tom Trost will serve on the committee and anyone interested is welcome to attend. Call Capitan High School for more information. The options will be presented at the November board meeting.

Rene Cupit was hired as secretary to the superintendent and Willy Raby was hired as assistant football coach.

Students will be able to charge cafeteria meals up to one week, or longer if arrangements are made. Board policy was changed to allow the charges depending on the individual situation. Member Ervin Aldaz advocated flexibility and compassion in dealing with the situation. Previously students who had cafeteria debts did not receive their report cards.

"If need is there, I'll buy those kids lunch," said Lock.

In other business, board members: —commended junior high student Joni Autrey for winning the Encyclopedia Britannica essay contest. Her essay was on display at the New Mexico State Fair and she will receive a 21-volume Annals of America.

—commended Kyle Jones for being the New Mexico School Bus Safety Poster winner. He will receive a savings bond from Gov. Bruce and Mrs. Alice King at a ceremony Oct. 18 at Albuquerque's Hilton Inn.

—commended school staff for receiving the State Dept. of Education Certificate for Excellence in School Data Reporting. Stella Valenzuela, Jerry Newcom in the elementary, Annie McKay, Agatha Long and Darrell Stierwalt in the high school and Karen Payton, Francis Traylor and Sandy Reynolds in administration were the major persons involved in the school data reporting.

—commended volleyball coach Pam Allen who has a total of 108 wins and 14 losses in the five years at Capitan School. She will be presented a plaque for reaching 100 wins at a school assembly.

—heard that Eastern New Mexico University at Roswell will pay for six students at $4.25 an hour to help their fellow students with tutoring and peer counseling. Three students work with each tutor.

—received names and addresses of congressmen who introduced and support federal legislation which will make homosexuality a constitutional civil right.

The next board of education meeting will be at 7 p.m. Nov. 12 in the school library.

This was refused as a 'Letter to the Editor' in the below form . . .

Remember when a private company wanted to trade their private property to the Bureau of Land Management for public recreation and wildlife use? Do you think such use would increase tourism, sales of gasoline, food, lodging and in general benefit all of Lincoln County? I do! Enter Lincoln County Commissioners, in their continuing effort to control everything. They objected/obstructed this deal on at best flimsy and lame excuses.

Why? Was it to establish their authority to preside over all private land transactions in the county, or more likely, force the BLM into handing/breaking lawful and proper procedure by giving ranchers who lease public land an exclusive chance to purchase the land, excluding the public from participation?

Consider this, is Commissioner Bill Elliot's lap dog chairman Stirling Spencer a rancher? Is this conflict of interest?

Can we survive and prosper UNDER this lack of leadership for FOUR more years?

Please vote November 3rd.

Sheriff's report

Aside from a dramatic pre-dawn drug raid in the Hondo Valley Friday, Oct. 9, it was fairly quiet in Lincoln County last week.

The following information was taken from dispatch records in the Lincoln County Sheriff's Office.

OCT. 5
7:57 a.m.—a growling dog was at the front door of a Capitan residence. Capitan police responded.

11:40 a.m.—Carrizozo ambulance went to a D. Ave. residence to transport a patient with a broken hip to Lincoln County Medical Center (LCMC).

Capitan Police reported a felony warrant arrest made at City Hall. The person was also wanted out of Utah.

10 p.m.—Ruidoso Police requested an ambulance for a Ruidoso area person in full cardiac arrest. Alto Ambulance and Carrizozo Ambulance were dispatched. The patient was taken to LCMC.

OCT. 7
12:32 a.m.—an 18-wheeler hit a deer two miles west of Hondo at mile marker 287 on Highway 70.

4:56 a.m.—Carrizozo ambulance was dispatched to the home of an elderly couple one mile south of town. The man's 80 year old wife was in serious condition and unable to breathe. Ruidoso Ambulance was alerted and the patient was transported to LCMC.

5:15 a.m.—a Carrizozo woman reported dogs killed a small skunk in her backyard and she wanted someone to pick it up because it was making her sick. She also asked the officer to test the animal for rabies because it didn't hold up its tail like a larger one that had frequented her yard to eat pet food placed outside. The deceased animal was buried in the woman's backyard. "Graveside services were brief."

5:38 a.m.—an audible alarm sounded in a Capitan Third Street apartment. Capitan police advised it apparently was a fire alarm, but there were no flames, nor smoke. No one was home, so police contacted the apartment manager, then the fire chief. The fire chief confirmed the alarm was set by the resident cat, who had pulled a string and set it off.

11:28 a.m.—Alto Village information desk requested an ambulance for a person with a possible broken ankle. Ruidoso Ambulance transported the patient to LCMC.

11:31 a.m.—Carrizozo ambulance made an emergency transport to Albuquerque's Presbyterian Hospital.

11:38 a.m.—Hondo ambulance transported a patient who had fallen from an Arabella residence to Eastern New Mexico Medical Center South in Roswell.

6:11 p.m.—Rancho Ruidoso Condos reported an unlawful entry of a barn and vandalism. 8:46 p.m.—a White Oaks resident reported the theft of two landing mats.

OCT. 8
9:02 a.m.—a grass/brush fire was reported a fourth mile west of Gutierrez Arena in Hondo. Hondo Fire Dept. responded and had the fire out by 10:36 a.m.

7:07 p.m.—an accident with injuries was reported at mile-marker 300 on Highway 70, Picacho Hill. The subject involved was listed as a missing person on the National Crime Information Center and was considered endangered due to medical reasons. The subject was from Roswell. Hondo Ambulance, New Mexico State Police (NMSP) and a deputy responded.

8:56 p.m.—a dead deer was reported on Highway 380 east of Capitan on Haley's Hill in the north lane. NMSP were unavailable, no one with the New Mexico State Highway Dept. would answer, finally Capitan policeman Lance Zink located the deer, which had been hit several times more, and removed it from the roadway.

OCT. 9
6:33 p.m.—a San Patricio resident requested medical help. Ruidoso ambulance was dispatched.

7:40 p.m.—a black bull was reported in the yard of a Cedar Creek home. The livestock inspector was advised.

Carrizozo police advised of a lost or stolen gun, reportedly stolen on Sept. 19. The gun's description was entered into the NCIC.

OCT. 10
12:34 a.m.—a suspicious vehicle was reported on Third Street in Capitan. Capitan police were unavailable and NMSP was unable to locate the vehicle.

1:37 a.m.—Capitan police advised of a drunken driver under arrest at mile marker 75 on Highway 380 east of the village. A deputy transported the subject to Lincoln County Detention Facility.

2:10 a.m.—a guest at a Ruidoso area lodge reported a disturbance with screaming and yelling in the rooms below. The responding deputy located the disturbance and ascertained the nine subjects in the room were roughhousing. The deputy advised them to quiet down and avoid a second response.

3:10 a.m.—the fire at the Hondo roping arena flared up again, fanned by the wind. Hondo Fire Dept. responded.

1:54 p.m.—a fire was reported on the Proctor Ranch in the Corona area. Corona Fire Dept. responded to the automobile on fire and grass fire.

3:50 p.m.—a deputy made a traffic arrest of a Roswell man at milemarker 272 on Highway 70. The vehicle was impounded and the roadway fence which was downed reported.

9:59 p.m.—Carrizozo police helped a woman who had locked her keys in the car at Carrizozo High School.

11:56 p.m.—a Cedar Creek resident reported a neighbor had been controlling burning lumber and roofing materials for several days. The fire had flared and flames were visible, but no one was there to supervise. The complainant also could not locate a water source. The fire was burning between two residences and the wind was up. A deputy and Bonite Fire Dept. responded.

OCT. 11
11:25 a.m.—a breaking and entering was reported at a residence off Highway 48 in the Alto area. A deputy took a report.

1:55 p.m.—a Carrizozo station requested an officer. Carrizozo Police responded.

8:29 p.m.—a vehicle hit a deer on Highway 70 by Hondo. NMSP responded.

OCT. 12
3:11 p.m.—a Capitan area deputy reported hearing shots fired.

3:23 p.m.—Carrizozo ambulance was requested at Carrizozo Clinic to transport a patient to LCMC.

The following information was taken from jail logs at the Lincoln County Detention Facility:

OCT. 5
Jose D. Gutierrez, Ruidoso; criminal damage to property, probation violation, served time and was released Oct. 9.
Raylene C. Trayah, Capitan; embezzlement over $500; (Cont. on P. 12)

CARRIZOZO SCHOOLS CLIPBOARD

A weekly school column from Carrizozo Municipal Schools that serves as a bridge to parents, businesses and community groups who welcome knowing more about their school. News about student, staff, and board members will be highlighted.

FIELD TRIP—Kindergarten, first and second graders visited the Omni-Max Theater in Alamogordo on Oct. 6. They viewed the film 'Ring of Fire.' The movie explained how volcanoes and earthquakes originate. Scenes included the 1990 San Francisco earthquake, Mt. St. Helens and other volcanic eruptions. The students toured the Space Hall Museum. For lunch the students ate pizza and enjoyed games. Chaperones were teachers Cheryl Fifer, Mercie Epperson, Jackie Alastuey and educational assistant Delfinia Vega.

ATTENDS CONFERENCE—Ruby Armstrong, currently serving as administrative apprenticeship with Carrizozo Schools, recently attended a conference at New Mexico State University entitled "Leadership for All Women: Diversity in Action."

Questions addressed throughout the conference included, "Why are women and minorities being excluded from administrative positions?" and, "Is there anything we, as women, can do to change the situation?" Armstrong plans to share highlights of the conference with local students and teachers interested in administrative careers.

LEADERS NEEDED for Girl Scouts and Brownie Scouts

in Carrizozo. The only requirements for being a leader are time and caring. Anyone interested in being a Girl Scout or Brownie Scout leader should meet with Diana Miracle of the Zia Girl Scout Council on Oct. 19 at 6 p.m. in the school cafeteria. For more information call 648-2912.

EIGHT GRADE ART—Several Carrizozo students are participating in a locally sponsored art contest. The arts and crafts entered will be judged Oct. 19 in the school's board room by members of the Carrizozo Woman's Club, sponsors of the contest. The contest is limited to 8th graders.

The entries will be on display in the board room on Oct. 20 and during the school board meeting that evening. The competition will continue at district and state levels.

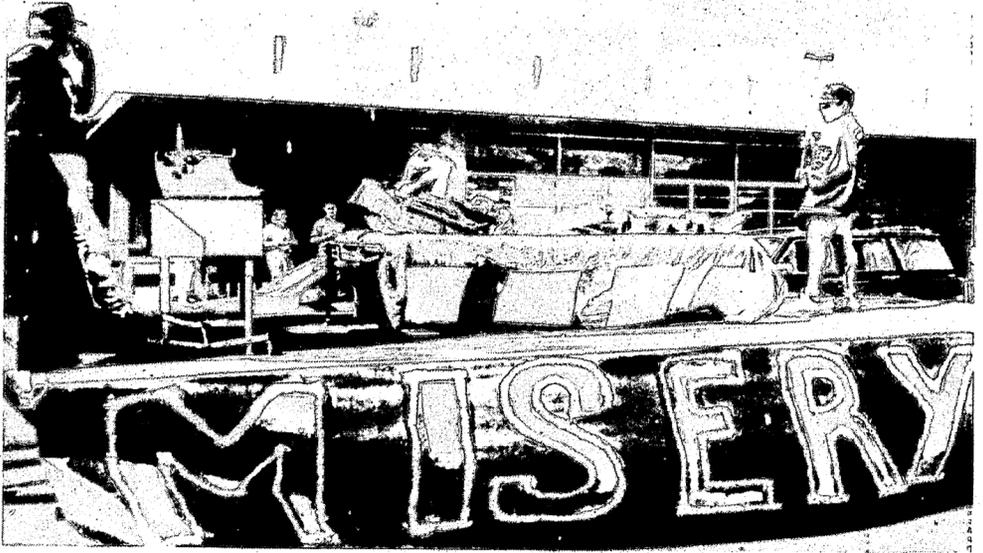

SENIORS VS. SOPHOMORES—"Zozo Goes to the Movies" was the theme of the floats at last week's homecoming parade. The seniors placed first with their 'Misery' float and the sophomores second with their float 'The Paw (Hand) that Rocks the Cradle.' The seniors placed first in hall decorations followed by the sophomores in second place. The sophomores placed first in gathering the most wood for the bonfire. The seniors placed second. The seniors had the most points for all activities, netting them the cash prize awarded by the student council.

SPECIAL TREATS will be given to all elementary students for their creative efforts in their poster competitions and the bicycle entries in the parade.

Polly Chavez is the Carrizozo Schools news coordinator.

SENIORS MICHAEL BARELA and AMY FUNK were crowned King and Queen for the Carrizozo High School Homecoming 1992. Both were crowned during halftime festivities during the Carrizozo-Cloudfcroft football game last Friday.

THE SENIOR CLASS FLOAT won first place in the float competition in the parade through town during homecoming activities Friday afternoon.
