CARRIZOZO, NEW MEXICO 88301

Carrizozo Can't Agree On C-C Gas Board Appointee

by Ruth Hammond

Carrizozo Trustees accepted the resignation of town employee Carlos Gallegos during their Aug. 24 meeting. Gallegos plans to retire after 23 1/2 years working for the town.

Trustees also decided, after a 16-minute closed session for personnel matters, to not fill the vacancy.

In other business, trustees agreed to reimburse airport manager Hal Marx for expenses for attending meetings even though the expenditures were not approved in advance.

Trustees did not agree whether it was legal to pay the reimbursement. Trustee Harold Garcia said he was told by Judy Olean, general counselor for the Municipal League, that it was not legal. Trustee Eileen Lovelace and Mayor Cecilia Kuhnel both said Olean told them it was legal.

Lovelace told Marx that from now on he will not get reimbursed unless he gets permission in advance.

Results of the vote to reimburse Marx: Lovelace and Trustee Doug Whittaker yes. Garcia nay. Trustee Patsy Vallejos was not at the meeting.

Residents Notice Directory Has Changed Street Names

by Doris Cherry

The original townsite of Carrizozo has a peculiar layout. It lies at an angle to the four directions and has numbered streets and avenues.

The townsite is dissected by the Southern Pacific Railroad tracks and sidetrails and has several roadways. There are First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Avenues which run northwest to southeast. The other roadways in the original townsite are Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth Streets and Central Avenue which run northeast to southwest. Southeast of the railroad tracks in the original townsite are the continuation of First, Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth Avenues and also Aspen, Birch, Cedar and Dogwood Streets.

As the town grew, additions were made, laid out on a grid true to the four directions. During the late 1940s the original names of the roadways in the original townsite were changed from state designations to the current numbers and names.

The current designations were accepted by the town governing body in 1948 and have been used as directions in the telephone directories each year since--until two years ago.

About a year ago, some Carrizozo residents began to notice in the U.S. West telephone directory that their numbered "streets" had been changed to "avenues". And some addresses for numbered roadways had neither avenue or street after the number. City Hall, for example, is listed at 100 5, not street, not avenue, just 5.

U.S. West serves the town and area with telephone service also.

The changing of names of streets to avenues subsequently has led to some problems with telephone hook-ups, and some confusion to newcomers who try to locate residences by using the telephone directory addresses.

Carrizozo resident Chuck Rominger was so concerned he sent a letter about the incorrect addresses to Carrizozo Mayor Cecilia Kuhnel. In it he wrote that about a year ago he furnished, at his cost, a copy of the Town's recorded plat from the courthouse to the Telephone company's engineering department. "They did nothing to correct the matter in the last telephone book," Rominger wrote.

Rominger's main concern was that the incorrect addresses will become part of the E-911 emergency system. Rominger worried that dispatchers could send response crews to the wrong addresses, if the location was based on incorrect telephone directory addresses.

Dr. Bernie Reimann, chairman of the citizens E-911 committee, is actively working to get the emergency system

Carrizozo S&W Annual Election Set For Tuesday

The Carrizozo Soil and Water Conservation District annual election will be held Sept. 7 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Soil Conservation office in the Lincoln County Courthouse annex in Carrizozo.

Bob Carter has been nominated to serve a three year term.

Hollis Cummins Retires After 42 Years In Family Business

by Doris Cherry

For 42 years Cummins food market has been a focal point of the Village of Capitan.

On Tuesday, August 31, Cummins owner Hollis Cummins turned over the keys to his son David, who had assumed ownership of the business which had come to be known as Cummins Corporation. After 42 years in the store, Hollis had decided it was time to retire.

Hollis bought the store in 1951 from the Titsworth Company Estate. The Titsworth Company started business in 1900 and had grown to own not only the grocery store in Capitan, but also vast ranch lands surrounding the village, and farms and orchards in the Hondo Valley. Old Mr. Titsworth who owned the grocery died in 1949 and his estate was bought by a group out of Carrizozo. The group ran the store until 1951.

Hollis started working for Titsworth Company during his summers. When he got out of the Air Force in 1950, Hollis worked for the group which had bought the grocery. Hollis left Capitan in the fall of 1950 to go back to UNM to continue his studies. But he was soon swayed back to the village when the purchasers wrote him and asked if he would work at the store the following summer.

Grazing Reform Proposal Comments Wanted

WASHINGTON-The Department of the Interior announced publication in the Aug. 17 Federal Register of an Advance Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (ANPR) on a sweeping grazing reform proposal outlined by Secretary Bruce Babbitt on August 9.

The publication of the ANPR opens a 30-day public comment period during which individuals and groups may submit written comments on the grazing reform proposal. Written comments on the ANPR or Secretary Babbitt's grazing reform proposal should be sent to the Bureau of Land Management, P.O. Box 65800, Washington, D.C. 20035-9998. Comments must be submitted in writing; any written comments postmarked after September 13, 1993, cannot be considered in the development of the proposed rule.

The Department of Interior will also reopen a public "scoping" period that will run concurrently with the ANPR public comment period. From today through September 13, individuals or groups may submit written comments on issues they believe should be analyzed in a forthcoming Draft Environmental Impact Statement (Draft EIS) on range management reform. The written comments - known as "scoping" comments because they deal with the scope of the Draft EIS on range reform - must be postmarked no later than installed county-wide. During a telephone interview Tuesday, Dr. Reimann said he is aware of problems in Carrizozo with the addressing. Dr. Reimann said Public Safety Answering Point (PSAP) coordinators have the authority and training to enter and/or correct any address or location on the E-911 system computer. He did not think the incorrect naming of streets as avenues will create a problem in Carrizozo with emergency response through the E-911 system. Instead, he worries more about the numbering, which is being reviewed currently. He explained that the dispatchers who will work the E-911 response calls will have certain information available on a computer screen. The information will show the caller's telephone number and the address associated with the number. Typically, the address information is taken from the telephone directory listings. Reimann, however, wants to do a totally different way of listing information. Not only will an address be shown, he plans to provide such information to dispatchers as the caller's medical condition and so on.

In the county, where addresses don't usually exist, Reimann plans to adopt a system of mileage counted from major roadways, as opposed to the legal descriptions of properties.

The directory for the E-911 addresses will not be made public, rather will be available for dispatchers and emergency personnel only, Dr. Reimann said. This is to mainly accommodate rural residents who do not wish to be listed on a public directory. "The location identification will be under scrutiny, and will not be a fixed thing," Dr. Reimann said. With the influx of population the listings will have to be updated frequently.

Currently Carrizozo is without a PSAP coordinator now after the death of sheriff's office chief dispatcher Donn Dose, Reimann said. But Dr. Reimann has nothing to do with how the addresses are listed in the U.S. West White and Yellow Pages directory sent to each telephone subscriber in the Alamogordo, Ruidoso, Carrizozo, Cloudcroft, Mayhill and Tularosa areas.

THE NEWS called many of the 1-800 U.S. West numbers listed in the directory. Most of the calls proved unproductive on getting information on how to correct the street mistake, or how the AVENUES got there in the first place. Finally, a call to customer service led to connection with Ralph Betz, area engineer for U.S. West, at his office in Las Cruces. Betz said the addresses listed in the telephone directory are usually the basis for the E-911 location listings. Betz was not aware of the street/addressing problem in Carrizozo. He advised that the incorrect listing of streets as avenues needs to be corrected before the next edition of the U.S. West directory. Betz recommended that someone at city hall contact the U.S. West engineer John Dozier in Alamogordo about the problem.

At Carrizozo City Hall, Faustino Gallegos, town foreman, said he had been made aware of the incorrect listing of streets as avenues in the telephone directory. The only part Gallegos has played in the addressing is to issue house numbers whenever someone requests them, or whenever someone moves into a house with no numbers. When he issues new numbers, Gallegos said he contacts the local U.S. West representative.

Betz said that individuals who live on those streets listed as avenues, or anyone else who may have incorrect telephone listings in the current U.S. West directory, should write to U.S. West Direct, publisher of The White and Yellow Pages, as soon as possible. In the letter include the correct address. Customers who live on a street listed as an avenue in the directory, should highlight that correction. Send the letter with the address correction to U.S. West Direct Corporate Office, P.O. Box 6572, Englewood, CO 80155-6572.

THE NEWS was unable to contact John Dozier in Alamogordo by press time. But for now, someone using the U.S. West directory to locate 5th Street in Carrizozo, for instance, could have a confusing time. The directory lists both 5th Street and 5th Avenue as avenues, yet the two roadways are about four blocks apart. Perhaps the most confusing is calling the numbered streets "avenues." For instance Rominger is listed as living on 14th Avenue. There is no 14th AVENUE in Carrizozo. If a person tried to find an address listed as 14th Avenue in the phone directory by looking at Carrizozo street signs, the person would have a hard time locating 14th Ave, since it is 14th Street on the street sign.

The older street signs located on most of the town's streets are correct, showing avenues where avenues are listed on the plat and streets where streets are listed on the plat which is recorded in the courthouse. Rominger said he found in trying to help one of his clients get a phone hook-up that the client's street did not exist in the telephone company's computer listings for Carrizozo.

MELISSA ORTEGA and Tim Minton were married August 7 at St. Vivian's Catholic Church in Grants. The wedding reception was held at Golden Horse in Milan. The couple went on a three-day honeymoon to Las Vegas, Nevada. Monica Ortega, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Michael Fenstamacher of Albuquerque was best man. Melissa's parents are Max and Susan Ortega of Grants. Tim's parents are Dick and Betty Minton of Albuquerque. Tim and Melissa live in Carrizozo where they are managers of Sturges Venture Market.

Garcia explained his nay vote was because the airport contract with Marx has not been renewed, and a contractor for the town is not to bind the town unless the contractor has strict written authority.

Trustees discussed a proposed lease of the municipal airport building because the proposed lease Marx suggested has been compared to two other leases, the Rec Center and the golf course.

At this time Marx is compensated with housing and utilities for serving as airport manager. Marx was asked to put his proposal in writing for the council to review before sending to the town attorney.

Action on appointing a member to the Capitán-Carrizozo Natural Gas Association Board was tabled. Dale LaMay's term on that board will expire in September and LaMay was not interested in being reappointed.

Garcia said he would like to be appointed to fill the position. Lovelace said certain people had asked for the opportunity and she wanted to table any action.

Garcia quoted from the minutes of the September 8, 1992 meeting when Lovelace asked to be appointed to the C-C Natural Gas Board to replace Nat Palomarez, even though Palomarez asked to be re-appointed.

Garcia noted that even though Palomarez attended the Sept. 8, 1992 meeting and asked to be re-appointed that town trustees decided to appoint trustee Lovelace to the C-C Natural Gas Board.

Garcia said he was ready to be appointed. "I would like to sit on the board and bring information back to the public," Garcia said.

Whittaker said he wanted to study the by-laws and give thought to the matter.

Whittaker and Lovelace voted yes to table making the appointment. Garcia voted nay.

Karen Kopp, executive director of the Economic Development Corporation of Lincoln County, (EDCLC) asked the town's help in compiling an inventory of town property and incentives to help bring businesses to Lincoln County. She also welcomes an inventory of buildings owned by the public.

Kopp said EDCLC plans to print a brochure about the Carrizozo Industrial Park to send to potential businesses.

The News asked if paving of the lateral streets between 12th Street and Central Ave. was paid with Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds. Mayor Cecilia Kuhnel said the gasoline tax money will be used to pay for those street improvements.

Russell Griswold was unhappy with the grade set on 12th Street. Kuhnel said she would discuss the matter with the engineer.

A permanent zoning change from R-2 apartment and small family residential to C-1 neighborhood commercial and services for the property at the corner of E Ave. and 10th St. was approved.

Carrizozo Lodger's Tax Committee secretary Ruth Hammond asked if the town had conducted a random audit on a lodger as was specified in a recent ordinance. Trustees made arrangements for the audit.

Trustees voted unanimously to have the town clerk contact the town attorney regarding any past documentation related to the lodging industry. Lodgers are required to pay their lodging tax monthly.

Trustees agreed the present business registration may need to be revised. A draft copy will be presented to the council for review.

Trustees agreed to pay Pete Thompson $1,500 to appraise the municipal buildings behind the Four Winds Restaurant. One of the buildings was most recently occupied by Log Lam and the other building had been an ice plant. The appraisal is needed to consider selling the buildings.

Woody Schlegel told the council it had been brought to his attention that "snide" remarks were made at the previous meeting. Schlegel said he asked the town clerk if he could review the tape recording of the meeting and was told the tape is for the clerk's use.

Whittaker explained that the tapes were not available until after the minutes of the meeting were prepared.

Lovelace said there should be a policy to save the tapes a designated amount of time for the public to hear. The matter will be on the agenda for the Sept. 14 meeting.

Police chief Charlie White will attend a two-day FBI training seminar in Gallup Sept. 23 and 24. Trustees agreed White could leave Sept. 22.

White presented a letter from Carrizozo Municipal Judge S. M. Ortiz. The letter will be sent to the town attorney for review.

E. H. Young asked if the town would deed the six-foot of property behind the Otero County Electric Cooperative building to Otero Electric. Trustees asked Young to present the proposal in writing.

Susan Hancock asked if the town's animal ordinance will be enforced. She said dogs run constantly and told of a horse that gets loose.

Lincoln County Manager Andy Wynham thanked the town for letting the Carrizozo Volunteer Fire Department use the swimming pool.

Henry Sanchez Sr. Celebrates 90th

Henry G. Sanchez, Sr., of Lincoln, will celebrate his 90th birthday on Sept. 8. He was born in Ruidoso, in 1903 to Mr. and Mrs. Salomon Sanchez, Sr., who homesteaded in Dona Ana and had 100 head of cattle, which at that time, was the limit for folks to have. Henry began working at the age of 15 and has fond memories of riding and breaking horses as a young man. Henry recalls that it would take the family five days to travel from Glencoe to Dona Ana by covered wagon.

In 1925, he married Caroline Gamboa from Reventon, N.M. They had seven children, four of which are still living: Henry Sanchez, Jr., of Lincoln, Alfred Sanchez of Lincoln, Jean Osuna of Tularosa, and Patsy Vigil of Albuquerque. He enjoys 17 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren. Henry was employed by the Federal government at Fort Stanton for 30 years, at Fort Bayard for two years and at Holloman Air Force Base for three years. Also at Fort Stanton, he worked an additional 10 years for state government. Henry has lived on and worked his farm in Lincoln since his retirement. Henry is especially fond and proud of receiving a birthday card from ex-President Ronald Reagan and Nancy Reagan on his 86th birthday.

Grant Awarded To Restore La Pasada Encantada Trail

The Energy, Minerals and Natural Resources Department, State of New Mexico, has given a grant in the amount of $7300 to the GFWC New Mexico Federation of Women's Clubs to fund the restoration of La Pasada Encantada. President Sharlene Glock's project for her current administration.

The trail for the physically and visually impaired is located near Clouderoft in the Lincoln National Forest. The funds will be used to extend the trail, provide regular and braille signs, provide picnic tables and benches and to make other improvements as deemed necessary and desirable.

With the assistance of Sue Stearns, Carrizozo, the President's Project also received a check for $1,962.32 from the New Mexico Tree Grower's Association upon its dissolution. The interest this Association shows in the GFWC/NMFWC Conservation and Reforestation Project will help with other projects in the State of New Mexico, said Roberta T. White, President's Project Chairman.

LOOKING THROUGH THE FENCE

What That Expression Means

By MICHAEL McKIM SWICKARD,
Lincoln County News Columnist

Observation more than books, experience rather than persons, are the prime educators. A Bronson Alcott, 1877

At the coffee shop the other day, I was called to the phone. When I got back several people at the table had slightly odd expressions on their faces. It was partly a look of anticipation, part trying to hide something. You had to look closely to see it, but that certain expression was there.

I figured out that someone must have done something to my coffee—one of the most common pranks in a coffee shop.

To test the theory, I stirred my coffee a couple of times and noticed that everyone was watching me out of the corner of their eyes. So I picked the cup up slowly. Just before it got to my lips I stopped and said, "Say, did you see that basketball game last week, we sure did show them how to play?"

A couple of the regulars agreed, "That's right." But no one added anything. I had let the coffee cup slip back down towards the table while I talked. Then I started it back up again and noticed that same eager look in their eyes.

I was now sure that something wasn't right about my coffee so I said, "You guys ought to be ashamed of yourselves, trying to pull that old stunt on me." A protest of innocence followed. "We didn't do anything." I asked sternly, "Anybody care to drink my coffee?" Everyone started laughing.

One of the guys at the table asked me, "What tipped you off that we put salt in your coffee?"

Taking a sip of coffee from the fresh cup the waitress had just set down I said, "It was a certain expression on all of your faces that alerted me to some kind of mischief."

I explained, "My brother is three years older than me. When we were young that was a significant amount of difference.

"I used to think my brother was pretty smart. He would tell me things and I would listen. More importantly, I always would believe him, no matter what he told me.

"One day he and a friend of his were jumping off of one side of a barn, which was a fall of 6 to 8 feet. After I watched them for a little while I asked him if it hurt him when he landed.

"He said that it did, unless a person knew what to do so it wouldn't hurt. I asked him what was that. He leaned closer and said confidentially, as if he was imparting a very important secret, that if I kept my eyes closed real tight, it wouldn't hurt a bit.

"I was always trying to find the secret to things and now I had found out how to fall down without it hurting. I was real happy.

"About that time I remember my brother and his friend had slightly odd expressions of their faces. They stood in disbelief as I climbed to the top of the one story barn, firmly closed my eyes and said, 'Oh, boy!'

"Then I jumped off with an air of pleasant expectation, like trying a new flavor of ice cream.

"Very quickly I learned what a credibility gap is all about.

"I didn't break anything, but for a time, I certainly wasn't completely sure. Luckily I hit in the middle of a pile of cow flop that I would have missed if my eyes had been open. The cow plop broke my fall a little, but I wouldn't recommend cow flop as a pillow, even if it is relatively soft when you fall off of a barn.

"What made matters worse was that when I went into the ranch house crying and trying to wipe the cow flop off of me with the intention of getting my brother in trouble for the dirty rotten trick he pulled, the adults laughed almost uncontrollably at me.

"About all I got from the fall into the cow flop was a close look at that expression, and I remember it well. When I see that expression on someone's face I now keep my eyes open" MS

Inside The Capitol

by Jay Miller

SANTA FE-Satan's skull has been discovered in the Sangre de Cristo Mountains north of Santa Fe.

I'd vowed to avoid the subject ever since the find was "revealed" by the Weekly World News in its Aug. 17 issue. But the story has attracted enough comment around town that I no longer can resist the temptation to have a little fun myself.

In case you missed it while standing in the supermarket checkout line, Dr. Ervin Veres, a Hungarian archaeologist, recently discovered a human skull with prominent horns. Exhaustive scientific tests showed it to be about 2000 years old.

Veres says he has a "mountain" of other evidence that the devil lived and died just north of Santa Fe. He'll do more research after presenting his findings at a "scientific conference" in Paris next October.

The obscure archaeologist was a little vague in the two-page tabloid exclusive about the specifics of this conference. I probably couldn't find the time to go anyway, but in case any of you readers were planning to attend, I'd appreciate your passing along these questions.

Why does Veres think this skull belonged to the devil? It could be from one of the horned half-man/half goat creatures that inhabited the mythology of two millennia ago.

How come Santa Fe? That's ludicrous. Shirley MacLaine and her crowd have spent this and many past lives in the area because of its good vibrations, crystal fields, and the like. This was the last place the Devil would have hung his horns—unless he was just visiting for a little rehabilitation.

Where were the rest of the devil's remains? I'd be an immediate believer if Veres had found a skeleton with evidences of a tail.

How come Saddam Hussein gets the Garden of Eden and we get the devil? Granted, some folks insist state politicians do the devil's business around here. And for some reason Santa Fe High School athletic teams are the "demons." And our neighbors to the north at Espanola Valley High School are the "sun devils." But that doesn't prove anything—unless it explains decades of losing seasons.

If I recall correctly, satan had something to do with the snake and the apple in the Garden of Eden. That should prove he lived in Iraq.

Of course, lately we've heard talk about the Garden of Eden having been in the vicinity of ancient caves discovered near Orogrande. Maybe that means everyone was in southern New Mexico. It fits right in with recent discoveries of ancient ogam writings along the Rio Grande inscribed by Israelites, Lybians and Irish beginning several thousands years ago and continuing up past the time of Christ.

Considering how hot it gets down there, hell, you can't blame the devil for wanting to escape up north and cool off. But to Santa Fe—the City of Holy Faith? And to the Sangre de Cristo Mountains? Maybe he just strayed across the Rio Grande from the Jemez Mountains where he was planning the birth of humanity's ultimate weapon.

The story just doesn't ring true. And I'm not as cynical and skeptical as most political columnists. I mean, I believe something weird crashed near Roswell 45 years ago and that the government's afraid to let us know the truth.

I think Doc Noss found something beneath Victorio Peak that kept him making the perilous journey back down there. Maybe he even found the 1st century Christian relics he claims to have seen.

But satan's skull? Get serious. I think it was more likely one of his lieutenants—like Mephistopheles, waiting to see Faust at the Santa Fe Opera or trying to make a deal with Tab Hunter. Remember him? We know he's been sited in Santa Fe.

Department Of Health Distributes EMS Funds

New Mexico Department of Health had distributed $1.88 million to providers of emergency medical services statewide. Last year these providers responded to more than 190,000 calls for emergency assistance.

Funding was made available through the Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Fund Act and covers the current state fiscal year of July 1, 1993 through June 30, 1994.

Initially passed in 1978, the EMS Fund Act carried a direct appropriation of approximately $500,000. The "Dollar for Life" amendments increased the fund through a one dollar annual assessment on every motor vehicle registration and also expanded the permitted use of the fund to include training and licensing of EMS personnel.

Ambulance and fire departments in Lincoln County received a total of $52,699, distributed as follows: Alto Ambulance $3,994; Bonito Volunteer Fire Department $3,192; Capitan Ambulance $3,374; Carrizozo Ambulance $5,200; Corona Ambulance $3,427; Fort Stanton Ambulance $3,363; Hondo Ambulance $3,321; Capitan Volunteer Fire Department $3,107; Ruidoso EMS $16,815; Ruidoso Fire Department $3,556; and Ruidoso Downs Volunteer Fire Department $3,350.

Many Persons With Low Income Qualify For SSI

Ever heard of SSI? It is "Supplemental Security Insurance", a Federal program administered by the Social Security Administration.

SSI is available to persons with low income; $454.00 a month for one person and $2,000 in savings; and $672.00 with $3,000 savings for a couple. Home and automobile ownership are disregarded.

Agencies administering this and other entitlement programs estimate that as high as 40% of eligible citizens have not made application for benefits due them.

If you or some member of your family, or an acquaintance, would like more information about SSI or some other program, you can telephone or visit the nearest Senior Citizen Center for free information and assistance. The facilities in Lincoln County are the Carrizozo Zia Center, 648-2121; the Capitan Zia Center, 354-2840; the Corona Senior Center, 849-5111, and the San Patricio Zia Center, 653-4405. A trained volunteer will be glad to give you assistance.

The Other Side

By OWEN RUSSELL

I watched the first new David Letterman program on CBS the other night, and the only thing wrong with it is that I had to watch Rush Limbaugh afterward. There was an interesting thing, though. NBC is running the first five Letterman programs this week, so we have the first five CBS Letterman shows being followed by the first five NBC Letterman shows. The old Letterman vs. the young Letterman. I don't know if this suggests collusion, but it is an interesting concept.

There has been a new report by some medical authority that smoking reduces your life expectancy by approximately three minutes per cigarette. If that is the case, after calculating present consumption rate multiplied by historical experience divided by current expectancy times a convenient fudge factor reduced by the solar constant, my life expectancy has now been reduced from 186.32 years to whatever age I may be when that jealous husband finally wises up.

A new newspaper has appeared on the Ruidoso scene. It is called the Ruidoso Times and is published bi-weekly, which means I don't know how often it comes out. Does bi-weekly mean twice a week or every other week or just that a future issue is planned. At any rate, it appears to be a reasonable effort to add to the knowledge of the citizenry. It is well written, well constructed, competently presented, and most of the words are spelled correctly, and so long as they keep their grubby paws off our advertisers, we wish it well. (I have not cleared this statement with my powers-to-be, so even if it is published, it should not be considered a statement by the management of this newspaper condoning the creation of additional competition in the intellectual market. Whatever I say is mine alone and if it makes sense, so be it.)

At any rate, Al Stubbs, an alumnus of the Lincoln County News, is writing for the Times, and one of his projects is to republish some selected items from my father's publication, the Ruidoso Reporter, which was the scourge of the town during the late 1960s. O.M. Russell had a flair for saying whatever was appropriate, and carried the concept of creative writing to unattainable heights, and had the most original punctuation style I've ever seen. He would allow neither comma nor question mark to interfere with what he was trying to say, and put them in wherever he wanted to whether he needed one or not. He feared neither man nor beast nor libel nor vituperative comment and always told it like he thought it was. My favorite is the time he reported on a Ruidoso Downs council meeting without attending. He didn't know what their agenda was nor what they said, but he reported it in detail anyhow, and with insightful accuracy. I'm sure Al will find other examples of Russell's free form style of reporting which are equally interesting.

(Author's Note: I underlined "Lincoln County News" in the above item because I ex-

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

EDITOR—I'm amazed to see the arrogance of those who would make science their god. Science, from Latin sciens "having knowledge" is defined as a possession of knowledge or knowledge attained through study or practice. The scientific method consists of principles and procedures for the systematic pursuit of knowledge, involving — 1. recognition and formulation of a problem. 2. collection of data through observation and experiment. 3. formulation and testing of hypotheses. What can be or has been observed and tested falls within the realm of science, nothing else. The statement that "God created the Malpais" has been ridiculed — but were you there? I think we will all be amazed when we meet him who is the first cause of ALL things.

JIMMIE WELLS,
Claunch.

EDITOR—The American farmer feeds the nation. For that matter, he feeds a sizeable part of the rest of the world. So important is the American farmer that our government long ago created a special cabinet post, the Department of Agriculture. The D of A was supposed to help the farmers.

By the turn of the century the D of A employed some 3000 bureaucrats to aid and assist some 6 million farmers. By 1935 the D of A had grown to 20,000 bureaucrats aiding and assisting some 6.3 million farmers.

From 1935 to present day, the number of farmers

Ruidoso Surveys Due by 10th

The Village of Ruidoso Parks and Recreation Department has received 300 surveys. The goal is to receive 500 responses to complete a report for the city council.

Survey information includes suggestions, opinions, and complaints in order to meet the needs of the citizens and visitors of Ruidoso.

Anyone needing a survey may call 257-5030 or get one at Ruidoso Village Hall, Civic Event Center, Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce, Ruidoso Public Library, Ruidoso Senior Citizens Center, or the parks and recreation office. Surveys must be returned by Sept. 10.

OTHER SIDE

pect our typesetter to either set it in italics or bold face since one of the first principles of newspaper publishing is to take advantage off all opportunities for tooting one's horn.)

As you all know, the line between fact and fiction is drawn by the predilections of the observer. Whether it is fact or not depends on whether I believe what I am seeing. If it is fiction, it is so because the screwball who thought it up obviously doesn't possess my ability to understand the true nature of the subject. If you think this concept is strange, just wait until I get into my discussion of imaginary reality. Imagination is the raw material out of which reality is constructed, so if you imagine this is it, it must be. (Maybe it's a good thing I smoke, because 130 more years of this may be more than the average bear can stand. Don't you imagine?)

dwindled to a mere 2.1 million (many of them part time farmers). But the number of bureaucrats did not diminish. Oh, no! While the number of farmers was falling from 6.3 million to 2.1 million, that army of bureaucrats went out to "help" the farmer burgeoned from 20,000 to a booming 60,000. It tripled! There are many questions we are justified in asking. For example, does the Department of Agriculture with its 60,000 employees really help the farmers, or does it just get in the farmers' way? Well, it does seem that since the turn of the century it has helped two thirds of our farmers right off the farms and into the cities. It has helped millions of farmers right out of farming and into some other means of livelihood.

FORT STANTON FACTS and FICTION

By BETTY JOINER

Every encounter you get involved in, I am finding that there is fun, hurt, criticism, joy, reprimand, etc. After the letter I received along with the Lincoln County Pony Express Committee members, I have given lots of thought to whether or not I want to be in this position. Deciding the letter was definitely written by someone other than the one who signed his name and wanting many of our neat "history" events to continue through many more years, I will keep writing my column. Thanks to each of you who give me encouragement and the others also I commend you, as you only grow through trial and error and mistakes. I have only admiration for the many news people, who I am sure take this criticism daily.

Family Visits from Kansas

Since I have missed two or three weeks this will be catch up time. Ron and Teresa, our son and daughter-in-law arrived at noon on Aug. 11. They had left Kansas on Saturday morning and had a short honeymoon trip through Colorado and then down to Farmington and visited with Beverly and Clifford Gunn and Jerry Favor and his wife. We were so happy to see them and glad they arrived in a new dark green Ford pickup. The red and beige 1971 Ford is now retired for special occasions. Pat and Ron worked night and day while they were here to build a headache rack and a bumper. The finished projects were worth the effort. Teresa loves her animals and she spent most of her time with our two colts, Chappo and Silky. I was afraid the pickup would have a trailer on behind it and the horses would be going back to Kansas. As soon as they arrived home she was asking how they were. We hated to tell her that Silky had been bit on the nose by a rattlesnake.

Thanks so much to Warren Franklin who came by and gave him treatment he was back to normal in a couple of days. Thanks so much Warren! When Audrey called the next day she reported her roping horse, J.R., had been bitten on the nose by a snake too. Both are okay.

New Arrivals

Teresa Baca has been in Albuquerque the past week enjoying her new grandbaby, Denia and Gilbert Quintana are the proud parents of a little boy, named Kevin Gilbert, born Aug. 25. We all miss the canteen "goodies" when Teresa is gone!

Pauline Zamora has been to Carrizozo to visit her new grandbaby, Chelsea Shae LaMay. Gloria and Billy LaMay are the proud parents of Chelsea. She was born on Aug. 18, and weighed 8 lbs. 12 ozs. in Alamogordo. Dale and Maxie LaMay of Carrizozo are the other grandparents.

Tobin and Shelly Tate of Clovis, N.M. are the proud parents of a baby boy, Seaver Don Tate, weighing 7 lbs. 2 1/2 oz., 20 in. long. He was born Aug. 25 at 10:45 a.m. Janice Herd, a very proud grandmother, is staying with Shelly for a while to help out. Congratulations to both of you. By the way, Audrey Davis is planning a baby shower when Shelly and Seaver are feeling strong enough to make the trip to Capitan.

Cummins retires

Many customers wished Hollis and Gloria Happy Retirement last Monday, all day. Hollis has opened his grocery store faithfully for 42 years. It was very interesting to see pictures of the three stores that have been in Capitan. He had pictures of all of them. Johnson and Margaret Stearns were there when we enjoyed cake and punch. Johnson always makes you smile with his comments. He and Hollis told many tales of their experiences, and sure wish they could write them down. Know it would make the "Best Seller's List". David know you will be just as faithful as your Dad. Thanks Hollis for all your hard work and now enjoy yourself.

Senior Citizens Pool Winners

Tularosa came to Capitan for their pool tournament. Lucky winners of the ladies and men's trophies for August were Frank Crawford of Tularosa and Bessie Jones of Capitan.

Bogle Farms Ranch Ranch Rodeo Team Wins 16 Buckles

The Lincoln County Fair Ranch Rodeo was a big success for everyone, especially Donald Bogle, Eddie Davis, Waddy Hobbs, Ronnie Billa, Dan Chavez, and Bill Jones. This team took home 16 buckles. Eddie had enough to nearly give everyone of us one. The X-Bogle Ranch team took first in the wild cow milking, team doctoring, and wild horse race, which awarded them with 16 buckles.

The results of the entire ranch rodeo which was based on points awarded for each event won are as follows:

- 1st, X-Bogle Ranch; 2nd, Black Hills Ranch; 3rd, Bar W Ranch; 4th, King Cattle Co.; 5th, Bonita Ranch, 6th, Seco Ranch; 7th, Canning "Block" Ranch and 8th, JK Outfit.

Capitan Junior Rodeo Club; Lincoln County Riding Club

has successful year

The Graham Brothers Band played for a dance held after the Lincoln County Rodeo Club banquet on Aug. 28, at the fair building. The saddle was raffled off at 10:30 and the lucky winner was Cindy Newberry of Artesia. Mary Nell Jones was the winner of the spurs raffled off. Congratulations to you both. The members gave Cindy Nowell a "heart shaped" buckle for her many hours of work to make the year such a successful one. Cindy, I for one appreciate the invitations and thank you notes I know you were responsible for getting to each and everyone who had donated. These mean a lot and I know how much effort it takes to get these participants to do this. You and your crew are to be thanked many times. Once more I would like to thank the donors for this club's success, and all parents who are responsible for the kids attending the playdays.

Winners for 1993 were: Lead Class: Kevin Parker, Kayla Roberts.

Little Britches: Brand Franklin, no girl participated. Six-Eight: Girl, Dusti Franklin, Boy, Kaland Salazar.

Nine-Twelve: Boy, Court Franklin, Girl, Shannon Salazar.

Thirteen-Eighteen: Boy,

Haven't Filed Your Taxes?

- Each year, the IRS lists the most common mistakes people make when doing their taxes... like math errors, not claiming the earned income credit, or forgetting to sign the return.
 - But the biggest mistake people can make any time, any year, is not filing at all.
 - If you missed filing for a year or so and you should have filed, the people at the IRS want to help. Whatever your reason, they'll listen. They can help stop things from getting worse, because penalties and interest keep adding up. They'll explain your payment options if you owe... even help you get any refund you've got coming.
 - Talk to the people at the IRS any time of year. They want to help, and that's no mistake!

Forty cowboys and cowgirls were in the running for the awards but know many more enjoyed the events and the playdays. Again thanks to the ones who put these on.

Payton Memorial roping held at Hondo Arena

The Payton family held the 3rd Annual Roy Payton Memorial Team Roping Aug. 28, at the Gutierrez Arena in Hondo. A saddle was given to high money winner of the day which was won by Cody Wilson of Capitan. There was a good turn out and the roping was very well ran. The books were kept by Ceilia Sanchez and Belinda Gutierrez which always keep things running smoothly and well in order.

Eddie Davis and Todd Proctor attended a team roping at Tommy Gilliland's house in Tularosa Aug. 29. The roping consisted of a True Novice and numbers 6, 8 and 10 combined. Prizes were given to high point 2 and under and high point 3 and over. James Gilliland was the winner of the breast collar for high point 2 and under. Eddie Davis was winner of the breast collar for high point 3 and over. The next roping to be held at the Gilliland arena is Sept. 12, enter at 9:00 and rope at 10:00.

County Gets Share Of Forest Money

Lincoln County will get its share of an estimated $809 million in 1993 National Forest System receipts.

According to a news release from the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture, Southwestern Region Public Affairs Office, the $309 million will be shared among 43 states and Puerto Rico. The receipts are collected from land-use fees and sale of resources on 191 million acres of national forests and grasslands. Federal law requires states to use their share of the receipts for public schools and roads.

Lincoln County will receive $45,746.67 as its share of the receipts. Otero County will receive $85,538.89. Catron County led New Mexico with its $525,496.64 share. Total receipts for the state is estimated at $1,662,330.53.

Cochino County in Arizona led that state in receipts, with $2,721,554.07 estimated. Final payments will be based on actual receipts collected and may vary from the estimates.

Receipts are applied to roads in the Lincoln County budget, said Lincoln County Manager Andy Wynham.

However, Wynham said, the more forest receipts the county receives, the less it gets in PILT, or payment in lieu of taxes. PILT is paid to counties which include federal lands, to offset funds lost to counties because they cannot tax the federal properties. In Lincoln County most federally owned properties are Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management.

Wynham said the increase of receipts does not result in a net gain in the amount of funds counties receive from the Dept. of Agriculture. When forest receipts increase, the PILT decreases, based on a formula that determines the PILT, so counties end up with no more.

Recent Veterans May Qualify For Training

Recent veterans whose military skills don't readily transfer to civilian jobs may now get help from a new federal training program that will pay certain costs to participating private employers, according to Joseph S. Cordova, Director, VA Regional Office, Albuquerque.

The Service Members Occupational Conversion and Training Act (SMOCTA) is aimed at veterans discharged after Aug. 1, 1990, who have had difficulty getting steady work. Jointly implemented by the departments of Defense, Labor and Veterans Affairs, the program will pay wage reimbursements up to $10,000 to employers who establish approved training and offer prospects of long-term employment. Reimbursement of up to $12,000 is available for training certain disabled veterans.

"This program not only provides jobs for veterans, but it also provides an excellent opportunity for employers, including small businesses, to add employees to their workforce and get help in offsetting training costs at the same time," Cordova stated.

VA, as the agency assigned to lead in implementing the jobs bill, will perform program administration activities along with the Department of Labor. Educational, vocational and readjustment counseling will also be provided by VA to qualified veterans who are interested in these services. The Department of Defense is funding $75 million earmarked for employers who provide jobs to qualified veterans.

To qualify, a veteran must have been honorably discharged from active military service after Aug. 1, 1990, and served for more than 90 days, unless discharged earlier because of a service-connected disability. Eligibility is then based on either the Defense Department's determination that the veteran's primary or secondary military occupation specialty is not readily transferable to the civilian workforce, or the veteran is unemployed at the time of application and for at least 8 to 15 weeks immediately preceding application. Eligibility also is extended to veterans discharged after Aug. 1, 1990, who have a VA service-connected disability rating of 30 percent or more.

Cordova advised that employees can apply to participate in SMOCTA by contacting the nearest New Mexico Department of Labor office or any local Labor Service Center for details, applications and assistance in establishing approved training programs. Veterans also may contact their nearest employment or job service office for assistance, or call the VA Regional Office at 766-3361 or toll-free 1-800-827-1000.

thing they owned," Hollis said about getting the money to buy the store in 1951.

Hollis later bought out a dry goods store which was added to the grocery. He ran the dry goods department until about 10 years ago.

Hollis' mother helped out in the store for many years. Hollis' father had taught and served as Capitan Elementary Principal for 35 years. The main gym where most indoor sports events are held is named in honor of Hollis' father.

Hollis served as the county's Democratic chairman and even drafted his father to run as county treasurer. His father won and served for a term.

Hollis' grandchildren are the fifth generation of Cummins to live in Capitan. His granddaughter, Courtney, David's child, is the fourth generation Cummins to attend Capitan Schools.

Hollis and David held the "changing of the guard" Monday, when Hollis officially passed the keys to the store to David, thus passing on another Cummins tradition in the village of Capitan.

Corona FFA Sets Goals

The Corona FFA held their first meeting Aug. 8. This year's FFA Chapter is excited to begin its new year. Here are some of the activities and goals the students have planned.

The first item of new business concerned the National FFA Convention, which is held annually in Kansas City, Missouri. There was much discussion about attending. It is the highlight of the year for every FFA member to attend this exciting event.

The FFA passed the motions to have a roping and a donation dinner. These motions were referred to committees for further organization. The FFA has also started a sausage sale. The sausage was made by the FFA and is sold in two pound rolls for $6. The sausage is sold in mild or hot varieties.

The FFA members discussed the idea of cleaning up the Village of Corona. The first idea was to have an aluminum drive. If anybody would like to donate any aluminum products, please contact the Ag Room, and a member of the FFA will be happy to pick up your cans.

The FFA president and vice president are planning to attend the next city council meeting to discuss picking up trash in Corona, painting picnic tables at the park, and putting up signs on each highway coming into Corona that states, "Corona FFA Welcomes You".

CAPITAN NOTES

BY PAULINE WHITTAKER

Posley's Blue Door Gallery located 106 Lincoln Street in Capitan is one place you do not want to miss. The warm hospitality touches you as soon as you walk in the Blue Door. When asked what image do you want to project Posley answered, "We have many local artist gallery quality besides jewelry, pottery, Southwest art including five California artists, four Texas artists, and three Arizona artists. I want to give people fine art at a medium price. We have a layaway plan one can live with. Do not buy art if you can't walk away from it. You can pay a deposit to hold what you have chosen. Now I have a partner who has wonderful taste, in fact, she is fantastic. So I met Posley's partner, Christine L. Lasota. Lasota started her career as a photographer eight years ago doing nature photography and people pictures. She said, "I like unique perspective taking pictures no one else would take." Lasota's photography has added a new dimension to the Blue Door Gallery. When asked Lasota (Chris) why she settled for Capitan she said, "I feel I have an exciting opportunity to have an excellent partnership with David Posley in the Blue Door Gallery. I was layed off from an administrative assistant/secretarial job which I held for almost 14 years in Wisconsin. I was getting unemployment so I decided to tour New Mexico. After visiting New Mexico I had to return. I loved the scenery, the people, the cultural diversity. I returned and found a home seven months ago at the Old Parsonage (so called) in Carrizozo. I want to have a clientele for my photography as well as taking advantage of this wonderful opportunity to display other artist's work, jewelry, pottery, wood cuts, oils and water color in the Blue Door Gallery.

Posley is so pleased to have Lasota as his partner he has already named Chris his "Wisconsin Cheese" which is a very complimentary term. If you see a pleasant smile on a man sitting in the corner at his desk you can say, "Hello David" and receive a warm welcome from David Posley. And Chris may seem a little shy at first, but she warms up pretty fast and is excited about her new job as partner to David and will show you around, offer you a cup of coffee, and discuss any piece of art you want to discuss.

Posley's Blue Door Gallery is open six days a week. Open on Sunday, closed Tuesdays, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Call 354-3030 for more information.

Searching for 66 by Tom Teague reviewed by the author at the Carrizozo Woman's Club reminds one of Mark Twain's Innocents Abroad and having met the author and getting an autographed book made the reading of Searching for 66 more meaningful. Quite a book.

The Extension Club will meet Wednesday, Sept. 8, at 9:30 a.m. Bring an empty gallon size bleach bottle and a spool of white yarn to make a Santa Claus. Bring $1 and money for lunch.

Two couples I know of celebrated their wedding anniversaries this weekend at the Lodge in Cloudcroft. Those celebrating were Joyce and Kenny Cox and Mary and Howard Shanks. Congratulations to two outstanding couples.

Don't ever underestimate an ad in the Lincoln County News. I had responses enough to rent two apartments and maybe three. Patronize your local newspaper.

Capitan American Legion Takes 1st In Two Parades

American Legion Post #57 in Capitan won first place in two parades. The first was the annual 4th of July parade in Capitan and the second was the Old Lincoln Days Parade Sweepstakes Award.

The theme of the Post's entry was 'OLD GLORY' and nearly 50 flags were displayed. The float was also draped in red, white and blue bunting and members in uniform tossed candy to the eagerly awaiting hands of little children and also to some adults who thought they were children again.

Ruidoso Softball League And Tournament Winners

The Ruidoso softball league season has ended. Men's softball standings were (1) Shack Attack, (2) Capitan Construction, and (3) Merchants.

The league tournaments winners Aug. 3 and 4 were: (1) Capitan Construction, (2) Nads, and (3) Shack Attack.

The women's softball teams finished in the same standings in the end of season tournament as they did in the season. Winners were: (1) Flamingos, (2) Lady Bombers, and (3) Leather and Lace.

Other teams in the league and tournament Aug. 16 and 17 were the Unicorns, UZ, and LCMC Heartbeats.

LCMC (Lincoln County Medical Center) was awarded the sportsmanship award by Claudia Branum, this year's softball coordinator.

Tigers Tame Bears In Season Opener

by Doris Cherry

Capitan Tigers football team roared into the season by defeating the Hatch Valley Bears 27-13.

The Capitan boys thrilled the fans who filled the stands at the season opener Friday, August 27.

Coach Ed Davis was pleased with the outcome of Friday's game, and saw some good execution. "We played as a team," Davis said.

"We're a real young team," Davis said.

Mistakes were evident when the Tigers allowed the Bears two touchdowns. Davis knows that mistakes will happen. But overall Davis sees that the team is working together and trying to have some fun.

The Tigers' tough defense gave them the edge with the Bears. But offensively, the Capitan boys needed some polishing.

The Tigers scored the first touchdown early in the game, on a clean 63-yard run by senior Damian Roybal. Quarterback Michael Fish kicked the ball for the extra point.

The Bears strong feature, its passing game, earned them the two touchdowns. Their offense was weaker than the Tigers defense, which kept the Bears back from a touchdown right at their goal line. And the first quarter ended with the Tigers having the only score.

Tiger defense kept the second quarter nearly scoreless, but the Bears completed a good pass for the touchdown at 28 seconds left. The extra point was good and half time came with the teams tied 7-7. The Hatch Valley High School marching band and flag corps performed at half time. Capitan High school band, under leadership of new director Jennie Miller, opened the ball game with the national anthem and Capitan school song.

Tiger mistakes in the second half led to the second Bears touchdown. The Bears recovered a fumbled Tiger punt on the 16 yard line, and scored the touchdown on a successful pass. The Bears got no extra point on the kick, and were to get no more points in the game.

The Tigers recovered slightly from the setback and did some good passing of their own. Fish fired a good pass to senior Trevor Cox who ran the ball 39 yards for a touchdown.

Fish's kick was good and the Tigers were again ahead.

The Capitan boys again put on the defense and held the Bears for the rest of the game. The Tigers also did not move until the Bears punted the ball. Caught by Fish, he took a 58-yard scamper for the third touchdown for the Tigers. The extra point try was no good, score was 20-13 with 7:24 minutes left in the game.

A missed Bears' kick set up the last Tigers' touchdown. At the 20 yard line, the Tigers broke through for the fourth goal, and the kick was good, score was 27-13 with 2:56 minutes left.

Green Chile Adds Variety And Nutrition In Winter

By BETTY McCREIGHT

Green chile, a New Mexico favorite is a good source of vitamins A and C. Frozen at the peak of summer goodness, it can add nutrition and variety to winter meals.

Selection: Choose chile that is mature, heavy for its size, smooth and symmetrical, bright green in color, fresh, and crisp. Avoid misshapen pods, shriveled skin, mold, soft spots, and bruises.

Blistering: The tough outer skin must be removed from the chile. Blistering the skin by one of the following methods makes removal easy. The skin may then be removed before or after freezing.

Handling pungent chile can burn hands and eyes. Protect hands with a thin layer of solid fat or by wearing rubber gloves. Keep hands from eyes while working with chile.

Wash and dry chile, with a knife, make a small slit in the side to allow steam to escape. Be sure heat source is very hot. Turn frequently to prevent scorching and insure even blistering. Remove from heat and spread out on a flat surface in a single layer to cool before peeling. For a more crisp product, dip chile into ice water as it is removed from heat. For more thoroughly cooked chile, place in a pan and cover with a damp towel for a few minutes.

The three heat-source methods for blistering chile are: Oven or broiler method - place chiles in a hot oven or broiler 400-450 degrees for six to eight minutes until skin blisters so that it can be pulled away from the flesh.

Range top method - place chiles on a hot electric or gas burner after covering burner with a layer of heavy wire mesh.

Outdoor grill method - place chiles on a charcoal grill about five to six inches above glowing coals.

Peeling after blistering - removal of the outer skin is easier after freezing. If freezer space permits, cooled, blistered chiles may be packed and frozen. As the chile is peeled, before or after freezing, slit along the sides and remove seeds and veins. Stems may be left attached for chile rellenos.

Packaging - Pack whole unpeeled chiles in plastic bags or wrap in heavy aluminum foil or freezer wrap. Press down to remove all air and seal. Peeled chiles, whole or diced, can be packaged in plastic bags or rigid containers of glass, metal or plastic. Leave one-half inch head space. Seal.

Freezing and Storage - Freeze chiles immediately after packing. Put no more food into the home freezer than will freeze within 24 hours. Usually this is about two or three pounds of food to each cubic foot of freezer capacity. For quickest freezing place packages against freezing plates or coils and leave a little space between packages so air can circulate freely. After freezing, packages may be stored close together.

The Tigers again deployed their defense for the last few minutes. The Bears missed a pass in the last few seconds and were penalized as the clock ran out and the final score was 27-13.

This Friday, September 3, Tatum Coyotes will come to Capitan to play football, kick-off at 7:30 p.m.

Coach Davis said the Coyotes are a much different team than the Bears. The Coyotes were state Class A runners-up last year. They'll come to Tiger Field with nine seniors and a strong defense and offense.

Last week, Capitan School Board president Tom Trost thanked the public for not "smoking" or using tobacco products during the game. The board made the school tobacco free last month and so far the policy is working.

FOOTBALL ROUNDUP

Grizzlies Drop Opener To Animas, 27-0

Football season for high schools around the state kicked off last Friday night - including Carrizozo, Capitan and Ruidoso.

Carrizozo's Grizzlies traveled down to Animas, where the Panthers got off to a fast start in the opening quarter and handed the Grizzly team a 27-0 defeat. Animas scored twice in the first quarter of action, and added another score in the second quarter to take a commanding lead at halftime 21-0.

The Grizzly defense settled down in the second half and allowed the Panthers only one score, but the local team was unable to mount any offense throughout the contest and were held in check by a tough Panther defense.

Carrizozo will try to get on the winning column this Friday night when they host another 'AA' school, the Dexter Demons. Kick-off at Laabs Field is set for 7:30 p.m. Dexter will be trying for their second win of the young season after beating up on Texco by the score of 38-12 last week.

Ruidoso's Warriors also had a tough time of it in its season opener against last year's defending state champions from Artesia. Final score was Artesia 34 and Ruidoso 19. The competition won't get any easier for the Warriors this week when they play always tough Lovington.

Capitan opened at home against Hatch Valley (coached by former Grizzly coach Michael Booty) and came away with a 27-13 victory. The speedy Tigers will host Tatum this Friday - kick-off at 7:30 p.m. Tatum got whopped by Jal by the count of 33-7 last week in their opener.

Other games of interest last week saw Grizzly district foe Ft. Sumner beating up on Estancia by the score of 33-6. Carrizozo will travel to Ft. Sumner next week (Sept. 10) to do battle with the Foxes.

Another Grizzly opponent and defending Class 'A' champ Lovington opened its season on a high note by dumping Hagerman big time, 40-2. Tularosa's Wildcats had a tough time with Clouderoft in winning their season opener 14-0. Reserve got off to a good start by downing Thoreau 14-12 (Carrizozo will travel to Reserve on Oct. 23 for a district game against the Mountaineers). Alamo-gordo didn't have much luck against a tough group from Odessa, TX, and lost their first game by the score of 24-8. Roswell won big over Taos, 56-6.

Lincoln County Sheriff Deputies helped control traffic at the intersection of Highways 380 and 54 in Carrizozo Monday following two accidents within two hours of each other.

The following information was taken from dispatch records at the Lincoln County Sheriff's Office.

August 24:
8:27 a.m. an ambulance was requested at an elderly man's 5th Street home in Capitan. Capitan ambulance responded.

6:42 p.m. Capitan ambulance transported a patient from a 5th Street residence to Lincoln County Medical Center (LCMC) in Ruidoso.

9:13 p.m. suspicious activity was reported at a ranch west of Capitan. The complainant's wife saw a flash of lights in the north pasture. When her husband, the complainant, got to the pasture he found a man trying to herd cows. The subject left in his pickup when he saw the complainant. The complainant was advised the man may have a scanner and may be spotlighting. At 9:49 p.m. a Capitan resident was located who said his cattle were out and he was putting them back. The subject was deemed credible.

August 25:
3:41 p.m. property damage to a vehicle was reported in the lower Eagle Creek area. The complainant believed her ex-husband damaged her vehicle.

7:18 p.m. a fire was reported at milemarker 283 on Highway 70. Hondo Fire Department responded, and advised there was no record of a control burn in that area. Later it turned out the fire was a controlled burn.

7:27 p.m. a Carrizozo parent reported an accident involving his son on a scooter at 5th Street and D Ave. The parent was going to take the boy to LCMC and did not want an ambulance. Carrizozo police chief responded.

10:06 p.m. barking dogs were reported in Palo Verde Slopes. The complainant reported a neighbor's dogs were barking for two hours straight, and the owners were at home. The responding deputy made no contact with the owners, and advised now every dog in the area was barking. Ruidoso Downs police was to assist the deputy. When the residence in question was located, no one was at home.

August 26:
3:56 p.m. an alarm in Glencoe sounded. The alarm company advised they had gotten it.

4:03 p.m. a deputy and the juvenile probation officer arrested a juvenile at a Capitan apartment on a California warrant. The juvenile was taken to the Otero County Juvenile Detention Facility.

4:23 p.m. a Cedar Creek area resident reported an alarm sounded at a neighbor's residence and the front door was open and a car in the drive. The owners set the alarm off while returning home.

7:30 p.m. a woman requested an officer check her home in Sierra Vista Estates. The responding deputy advised all appeared secure.

August 27:
1:51 a.m. an ambulance was requested at a Cedar Street residence in Carrizozo. Carrizozo ambulance transported the patient to the LCMC emergency room.

2:26 p.m. criminal damage to property was reported on Highway 70. The complainant reported someone cutting trees on his property.

4:23 p.m. a fire was reported at milemarker 71 east of Carrizozo on Highway 380. At 4:30 p.m. the responding deputy advised it may be a controlled burn. Carrizozo fire department advised it was trash in a trash can. Nogal Fire Department also was paged.

9:04 p.m. an accident without injuries was reported between the top of Alto Hill and High Country Lodge on Highway 48. No one was hurt, but the traffic was bad. Two wreckers were requested.

6:59 p.m. Alto ambulance went to an EMT's home in the Gavilan area. Ruidoso Advanced Life Support (RALS) also was requested.

10:08 p.m. a sick cat was reported in Fawn Ridge. The complainant advised that a cat on her porch was foaming at the mouth. The responding deputy advised the cat was gone on his arrival, word was left for the animal control officer.

Roswell Police advised of a stolen vehicle in the Capitan area. The turquoise colored vehicle was possibly seen in Ruidoso.

August 28:
12:45 p.m. a drunken driver was reported east of Carrizozo on Highway 380. The complainant advised the drunken driver was at Carrizozo golf course. Two deputies stopped the vehicle at milemarker 78 on Highway 380. A person was arrested and taken to the detention facility. A wrecker was called.

August 29:
4:19 a.m. an ambulance was requested at a Eagle Creek area RV park for a 70 year old man. The complainant reported a possible heart attack, the subject was bleeding from the mouth. The subject had no response for about 10 minutes, and had no memory of the episode when he revived. Alto ambulance transported the subject to LCMC.

A deputy requested a case number on an incident involving juveniles in possession of less than an ounce of marijuana in the Cedar Creek area which occurred August 28. The juveniles were to be referred to the juvenile probation officer.

6:07 p.m. tree poaching, criminal damage to property was reported in Enchanted Forest. The complainant advised someone was pushing down and cutting his trees.

6:31 p.m. Capitan ambulance went to a 5th Street residence.

10:51 p.m. a Hondo area woman requested assistance to remove an unwanted person from her home. When the responding deputy arrived he found all was well.

August 30:
1:32 a.m. an audible alarm was sounding somewhere in Alto Village. Two deputies stayed in the area for quite a while attempting to locate the source, the alarm was going off and on. Finally deputies advised no contact.

7:55 a.m. an abandoned vehicle was reported 18 miles north of Carrizozo on Highway 54. The incident was referred to New Mexico State Police.

9:25 a.m. a burglary was reported in Nogal. The complainant requested a deputy to meet him at the pay phone in Nogal about a burglary that occurred in his cabin in Nogal. The complainant was to take the deputy to the location. A deputy arranged to meet the complainant at 9:47 a.m.

An accident with injuries was reported at the intersection of Highway 380 and 54 in Carrizozo. A woman called 911 to report the accident involving two vehicles. Two ambulances were dispatched to the scene to transport two persons. Carrizozo Chief of Police requested the fire department to wash down anti-freeze from the roadway. A unit responded.

10:53 a.m. harassment by phone was reported in Alto north. The complainant requested a deputy to meet him regarding the phone harassment.

11:43 a.m. an accident without injuries was reported at the intersection of Highways 54 and 380. A deputy and a Carrizozo police officer responded.

2:40 p.m. a lightning fire was reported at milemarker 20 on Highway 246. A deputy advised a tree was on fire at the location. New Mexico State Forestry was to handle the situation.

CARRIZOZO SCHOOLS CLIPBOARD

A weekly school column from Carrizozo Municipal Schools that serves as a bridge to parents, businesses and community groups who welcome knowing more about their school. News about student, staff, and board members will be highlighted.

PRE-SCHOOL STORY HOUR will begin Sept. 23. The class will meet in the library each Thursday from 8:30 to 9:15 a.m. The children are introduced to phonetic sounds, crafts, art, and books are read. Several community patrons also read to the children. Librarian Julia Hollis encourages parents to bring three and four year old children to the story hour. For more information or to register a child, call Hollis at 648-2347 extension 20.

LUNCHROOM CHARGES-Due to some abuse of the charge system at the cafeteria, charges have been limited to five (5) per student. Once the student has five (5) charges accrued, that student may not eat in the cafeteria until the charges are paid. Students/parents will be notified a day in advance of their five (5) charges. If anyone has questions, contact Christetta Butts, 648-2347. Parents are encouraged to pay in advance for at least one week of lunches. Lunch may be paid each school morning, 8-8:30 a.m. at the cafeteria.

ATTEND CLINIC-Alamogordo High School was the site of a clinic for cheer, volleyball and football head coaches. On the agenda was sportsmanship, rule changes, and coaches conduct and knowledge of rules. The Aug. 26 clinic was attended by Kay Patterson (volleyball and cheer); Ken Butts and Tom Moffett (varsity football) and Kevin Sheehan (junior high football).

HOME GAMES-Friday, Sept. 3, Carrizozo athletes kick off the first home games with volleyball games beginning at 3 p.m. Varsity, junior varsity and junior high girls play Magdalena. Attention volleyball and basketball fans: Food and drinks will not be allowed in gym.

Carrizozo football team plays Dexter at 7:30 p.m. The FFA and Athletic programs will be co-sponsoring a green and red enchilada supper on game day. The clubs will begin serving at 4:30 p.m. until 6:30 p.m. For tickets contact a member of FFA or athletics. Dessert will be available. Tickets may also be purchased at the door.

HOMECOMING PLANS-The student council is busy planning a spirited and innovative homecoming on Sept. 17. Monday, Sept. 13 is labeled 'Doomsday'. The students are asked to dress in black clothing and a red bandana. Seniors and freshmen paint the "C". Tuesday is 50s and 60s Day, with students dressing in the styles of that era. Two students from freshmen through senior classes will be sold at a slave auction. Hat Day is Wednesday when students are encouraged to wear their funkiest and wildest head gear. A bonfire will begin at 7:30 p.m. There will not be a wood gathering competition. On Thursday students will wear their favorite NBA and NFL team colors or logo. Elementary students will make hand held items which will be judged for competition. School colors will be worn on Friday for Jeans and Jersey Day. An assembly for the presentation of the homecoming court begins at 10:30 a.m. The parade starts at 1:30 p.m. Elementary students are invited to enter the bike decorating contest.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT-The Student Council met Aug. 22 to discuss homecoming activities (Sept. 13-17) that will involve the community. Next week's column will feature a list of events with times and places. Parents are asked to encourage their child (children) to participate in the day to day activities. The Student Council seeks community support and participation during homecoming week. Council members will approach business owners to offer to paint windows in support of the Grizzlies and their homecoming. The windows will be painted the weekend before homecoming and washed the following weekend. Donations will be accepted for the project.

The homecoming game against Estancia begins at 7:30 p.m. The '93 king and queen will be crowned at halftime. A dance follows the game. Carrizozo alumni are invited to the dance. Any townspeople attending the game dressed entirely in school colors or carries a poster supporting the Grizzlies will be given popcorn; elementary students will receive bubble gum. Council members will solicit football program ads. The proceeds will be shared by the council and cheerleaders. The council hopes that this year's homecoming (with the administration, staff and community joining forces) will be the best yet.

ATTENDS MEETING-Supt. James Bayless was present for the Aug. 24 Region IX Cooperative Center board of directors' meeting at Ruidoso. He joined administrators from Corona, Capitan, Ruidoso, Hondo, Tularosa and Cloudercroft. Supt. Susane Murphy, Tularosa, was re-elected chairman of the board. Other business conducted by the school chiefs included updates on Regional Education Centers (REC) legislation; Student Assistance Team (SAT) training; Special Education issues; Head Start and Drug Free Schools and Communities projects.

PFK UPDATE-People for Kids (PFK) will meet the second Tuesday of each month. At their September meeting the group plans to discuss a school recycling program. PFK will acquire, label and place appropriate containers for the collected recyclables. A school recycling program can give valuable hands-on experience that encourages students to be environmentally conscious citizens.

In addition, a recycling program can generate funds for school needs. The Sept. 14 PFK meeting begins at 7 p.m. in the school's board room. Refreshments will be served. Parents and other interested people are invited to attend and give their suggestions on the recycling idea.

Polly Chavez is the Carrizozo Municipal Schools news coordinator.

ASVAB Testing At Carrizozo High School On September 9

Today's high school students are faced with many important decisions as they plan their future in a complex and ever-changing world. One of the most difficult decisions they face is which path to follow after graduation; college, work, technical training, or perhaps the military. Many young people make their post secondary school plans based on how well they are doing in high school. While high school grades can be a good indicator of academic ability, aptitudes and interests are also important components of the career exploration process. One of the best ways to measure aptitudes is through the use of multiple aptitude battery; a test that measures a broad array of abilities and knowledge from vocabulary and math to mechanical comprehension. Most educators agree that the results from these batteries help students assess their aptitudes in academic and occupational areas and explore various career options. The most widely used multiple aptitude test in the United States, today is the Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery (ASVAB). The ASVAB consists of ten separate subtests that provide measures of aptitude for general academic areas and for career areas that encompass most of the civilian and military worlds of work. The ASVAB will be administered at Carrizozo High School on Sept. 9, 1993 at 8:30 a.m. Students in grades 11th and 12th can sign up for the exam by contacting their counselor.

A few weeks after taking the exam, students will receive their test results along with a copy of Exploring Careers: The ASVAB Workbook. The ASVAB Workbook, which contains a Self Directed Search, will help students understand their test scores, explore their interests, skills, and values in relation to a wide range of occupational areas, and make tentative career plans for the future. Students can also use their ASVAB scores in a number of computer-based career exploration systems. Last year over a million students took the ASVAB in schools throughout the United States.
