RELIABLE CORRESPONDENCE FROM ALL PARTS OF THE COUNTY SOLICITED.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 3, 1890.

THE INDEPENDENT unhesitatingly declares in favor of wheat for the national flour. And Lincoln county raises a prime article, too—and don't you forget it!

A NEW epidemic is raging now all over Europe, and has made its appearance in this country. It is called the "Russian influenza." In some parts of the old country it is attended with great fatality, nearly a thousand deaths having occurred in Paris in a short space of time.

THE Silver City Enterprise devotes a page of its last paper to an illustrated write up of Deming. Very commendable, of course,—especially the excellent likeness of Ex-Governor Ross, of the Deming Headlight—but what's the matter with Silver City?

FARMER Hudson, of Templeton, San Luis Obispo county, Cal., pulled a beet the other day that weighed 154 pounds. It was seven feet long, and it probably had two legs.

"In a few years," said Mr. Edison, "the world will be just like one big ear. It will be unsafe to speak in a house until one has examined the walls and furniture for concealed phonographs."

THE national organization of which Edward Everett Hale and Thomas Wentworth Higginson are leaders, has a membership of 8,000, and is just one year old.

THE Silver City Sentinel says Santa Fe consists of Tom Catron, the New Mexican and Kit Carson's monument.

THE big irrigating canal's now in progress will double the population of Albuquerque, probably, next year.—Citizen.

THERE are 135 convicts in the Arizona penitentiary at Yuma.

The present justices of the peace assumed their offices for two years on January 1st, 1889, and gave bond in the sum of $500 each. It is a question now with the legal fraternity whether or not the Territorial legislature had the power to legislate these officials out of the office—in fact whether or not the election on January 13th will be valid and binding.—Optic.

EDITORIAL EXPRESSIONS.

Expressed by Our Exchanges.

AMONG the assignments to committees in the national house of representatives, Antonio Joseph, delegate of New Mexico, was given a place in the Agricultural committee. If he intends to do anything for the good of the farming people of New Mexico, now is his opportunity of his life.—Optic.

Over 2,500 families are now on the verge of starvation in Dakota, and solicitors for contributions are securing the east in their behalf. This is too bad, but the question arises why don't these people go to northeastern New Mexico where they can get wood, water, coal and land free, and where everybody who wants to work can make a living without being a subject of charity.—Folsom Idea.

The regents of the university of New Mexico and of the agricultural college of New Mexico have started to work. This means that a command will be fully utilized something tangible will be by them during the coming year. Now what is the matter with the regents of the school and the insane asylum? Mexican would like to see.

all territorial institutions, no matter where located, flourish and be of practical use and benefit to the people. Here it calls upon the regents of the school of mines and of the insane asylum to get together and get to work.—New Mexican.

"The Republican party of New Mexico cannot hope for success unless it secures the confidence of the people. When we discover corruption or incompetency in office we shall not stop to enquire to what party the delinquent belongs but shall deal as vigorously with republican offenders as we have dealt with those who used their official positions for sinister purposes under the late administration. These remarks are elicited by the recent disclosures in the case of Judge Lee."—Rio Grande Republican.

We Have Butter.

The Lincoln INDEPENDENT says: The Pecos Valley is a great place, but its big stockmen should be scorched for not providing butter and milk for the people of Roswell, Seven Rivers and Eddy.

THE INDEPENDENT is wrong so far as this place is concerned. We have butter in Eddy. We know this because we saw some from the mountains the other day. It was healthy and strong, and had a breath that would turn a water wheel. It must have hailed from a cold section for the reason that hairs like those from off a buffalo overcoat clung to it. The last we saw of it it was passing down street towards a hotel. It is an even bet that it will be able to intimidate the boarders and stand off the landlord.—Eddy Argus.

After years of faithful study and application, the legislators of California have finally framed and passed an irrigation law that is working like a charm. It has just been declared constitutional by the supreme court, some soulless corporation having attempted to knock it out of existence, and the more it is experimented with the more perfect it proves to be in protecting the rights of even the humblest citizen having a water right. Its main feature consists in co-operation of the people, whose lands are divided into districts and who are authorized to issue bonds for raising capital to put into ditches and reservoirs. Twenty-five districts throughout the state have taken at least the preliminary steps towards an organization under the new law. Some have sold their bonds and begun work on their canals; others have worked as yet only on paper. These twenty-five districts comprise 2,000,000 acres of land, easily capable of supporting 500,000 people. And as yet the system is only in its infancy. When the water shall be actually flowing in the co-operative canals, and farms in the irrigating districts are getting their supply for one-fourth the price charged by private corporations, the system will grow without any nursing.

The colored sport who had his monte game in Juarez, taxed twice and was then seized and thrown into prison, has decided to abandon gambling in Mexico, having come to the conclusion that the Mexican authorities have a dead sure thing on beating monte.

The following appointments of presidential postmasters have also been sent to the United States senate: Mary J. Cunliffe, of Las Cruces, the office having become a presidential office during the year; Walter E. Marble, to be postmaster at Kingston, vice Robert H. Hopper, removed; John H. Koogler, to be postmaster at Las Vegas, vice Tranquilino Labodi, resigned.

It is claimed by an authority that the actual increase among range cattle has fallen off 60 per cent in three years. Also that when the range product—the calves of this and the preceding two years—begin to come into market the reduced supply will be felt.

The price of beef cattle will be forced up by individuals quitting the business. There will be a sufficient surrender to the inevitable to enhance the price of cattle to those who remain in the business two years longer, up to a most flattering ure.

The World's Fair.

Whilst New York is complacently completing a subscription (in name only) of funds for the furtherance of the World's Fair project, and Chicago has already subscribed her usual, old-time, white-stocking gull and enough energy to change the gravitation of the earth; whilst St. Louis, with a feeble cry, wants what she'll never get, and Denver whimpers for the moon; and whilst upon all these phenomena of unclassified idiosyncrasy serenely gazes with its accustomed spectacled indifference; whilst Hoboken and Washawken wonder at the impertinence in their inconsiderableness; whilst Lincoln, New Mexico, as the metropolis of the western hemisphere, is not recognized; whilst the beautiful valley of the Bonjito is ignored; whilst even Albuquerque (the editor of whose leading newspaper, when lately in New York, called through a telephone "please give me the World,") is scratched; and whilst busy, bustling Socorro is unthought of, and the hum of enterprising Lamy and the antiquity of Santa Fe, fail to attract the coveted consent of Congress in recognition of the enterprise; whilst even Deacon Elliot F. Shepherd, who wears a fur overcoat to keep warm a body that contains no blood, is lying awake nights trying to inaugurate a scheme by which he may locate the big bazaar in heaven, with him as doorkeeper; whilst all the rest of humanity are wondering where the World's Fair will be located, we climb on a pinnaculum, doff our sombrero and shriek unto the world our sole interrogatory:

"What's the matter with Columbus—Ohio?"

EDDY ECHOES.

From the ARGUS, Dec. 21. W. W. Paul this year harvested 2,500 bushels of corn from 40 acres of land.

L. Wallace Holt raised nineteen tons of fodder corn from two and two-tenths acres of land on his ranch above Eddy.

Work has commenced on the wagon bridge across the Pecos on Green street, and will soon be ready for use.

Lateral ditches are now being constructed to many desert claims preparatory to being proved up in the early spring.

There are now two hundred men at work on the dam at the head of the canal, and work is being crowded at a furious rate.

Arthur Mermod contemplates residing in Eddy a couple of months this winter.

There is no gambling in Eddy, but if a man honestly and sincerely desires to drop his money, he can, after a great deal of coaxing; induce some one to engage with him in a little innocent game of draw.

C. M. Carpenter, of Lookout, and Miss Belle Rasco were on Wednesday united in marriage at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Jesse Rasco, by Justice Nymeyer. After the ceremony an enjoyable dinner was served. This was the first wedding in Eddy.

That was not an earthquake shaking the town on Tuesday. It was only Judge Peitz having a chill—the first chill, by the way, ever heard of in the Pecos Valley. Let the local historian record the fact while it is fresh.

A. B. Laird left for El Paso on Monday to secure more brick masons. The force he brought up last week was not sufficient for the many contracts he has on hand. He was accompanied by Bill Witt, who also wants more men.

The outfit for P. F. Garrett's livery stable are now arriving, and we will soon have a first-class livery for the accommodation of the sight-seer.

About two hundred flames, dam and ditch men were in town Sunday, laying in tobacco and other supplies.

The U. S. stables at Trinidad, Colo., were burned, entailing a loss of about $20,000. Forty horses perished in the fiery flames.

Three inches of snow in New York state and six in Vermont. Gould predicts that 1890 will be a big year for the railroads.

The Chinese Government will soon be able to send ironclads to New York harbor.

Copper is once more raising in price. For the last eight months the sales have amounted to 60,000 tons. The demand will increase owing to the need of large quantities for the manufacture of cartridges to use with smokeless powder.

TERRITORIAL TALK.

Last week 1,700 head of cattle were shipped from Clayton.

At his preliminary trial at Socorro, Ralph Cribbets, the slayer of Roberts, was bound over in the sum of $1,000. Bail was promptly furnished and Cribbets released.

The Citizen is pleased to inform its readers that W. B. Slaughter, the American Valley cattle raiser, and family, have moved to the metropolis, where they will live in the future.

Society Note in the Lordsburg Liberal. The new calaboose received its formal opening this week. A tin horn and tough named Staley, beat Matty Dullahan up and was incarcerated while his fine was being rustled. Matty, on top of his beating, got full and was locked up to sober off. Flo Wilson, a Clifton dove, and Stella Lamont, a Silver City angel, got into a quarrel and Flo was locked up. After she was turned loose, Stella got a gun, it is alleged, to do Flo up, when the gun was being taken away from her, it was exploded and Stella was put into the jug, and on Wednesday was fined $50. Take it all in all the house warming was a brilliant success in police circles. The only person who found any fault was Stella, who wanted the trustees to furnish her a pillow.

Rosenthal & Co. are away ahead of all competitors when it comes to a complete stock and bed rock prices.

Roswell had an 8 by 10 magic lantern show on Christmas night. The fad was a large crowd at 50 cents a head.

The new goods at Rosenthal & Co. are arriving. Many of them are ready here, and still there's more to follow.

For cleanliness, comfort and first-class service, go to Whelan & Co's Hotel.

Have you seen the new goods at Rosenthal & Co's?

You can get furniture at Rosenthal & Co's. Large assortment. Reasonable prices.

Lieut. C. H. Grierson, aid de camp to Gen. Grierson, will visit Santa Fe during the coming week.

Remember you can get the great only Texas Siftings for only $1 per year, (regular price $4.) when taken in connection with THE INDEPENDENT and paying for both papers in advance.

For choice groceries call on Rosenthal & Co.

Sheep for Sale. 300 head of the famous Breeds sheep for sale. Full-blooded Merinos. Nearly all wethers. At $3 per head. Worth $8. Apply to F. B. ADAMS, Fort Stanton, N. M.

Our dubbing offer with Texas Siftings only holds good up to Feb. 1st. Hurry.

George Curry and family went down to Pecos for a drive on New Year's day.

M. L. Gordon has moved his family out to the Salado coal mines, and will now devote his entire attention to developing our coal fields.

Col. Cronin, Wm. Rosenthal and Henry Lutz were out making New Year's calls together on New Year's day. They were all duly sober when they tackled THE INDEPENDENT office—but they said they had twenty-four more calls yet to make.

Geo. Longmore, ranch; T. Cohorn, Nogal; R. Joyce, San Pedro; P. Burleson, V V ranch; A. C. Race, Parsons; Wm. Schmidt, Coeville; W. W. Holcomb, ranch, were among the arrivals at the Lincoln hotel the past week.

The new election law says that all ballots must be printed, and prescribes the exact size of each ballot, etc. Election tickets printed at THE INDEPENDENT office are wanted to go through all right. Be sure you are right—then vote early and once.

Christmas at the Agency.

Col. J. F. Bennett, the Indian Agent at Mesacero, writes THE INDEPENDENT a nice letter. He talks about his recent hurried trip to Lincoln, and apologizes for not hunting up THE INDEPENDENT man. Then he says: "I was greatly pleased with my trip and the people I met. * * * Arrived home in time to assist Santa Claus not a little, and I assure you that not only our little ones, but old as well, had and enjoyed a Merry Christmas. Our school room was most handsomely decorated with evergreens, flags, Chinese lanterns, and a grand Christmas tree loaded with all the good and costly things procurable at the grand bazars of Rosenthal & Co., and DeLany's. Dottie furnished the music for the occasion, and Utter was the very personification of old St. Nick. But when the little Indian school children saw him descending through a hole in the ceiling and down a ladder, you should have seen them. Some of them were frightened almost out of their wits—they did not know what it meant—had never seen anything of the kind before—this being the first Christmas tree these little Indian children had ever seen. But when old Santa commenced distributing his gifts, you should have seen their black eyes sparkle with wonder and delight; which destroyed two or three buildings and came very near being much more serious. Mr. Whitman's residence, the school's store building and Hugh's tobacco shop were the buildings destroyed. A fire started in the latter building and was caused by a collision between a stove pipe and a shingle roof—damaging combination.

LAS CRUCES LOCALS.

Blacksmiths are delighted with the coal which is now coming from the Johnson & Fordley claim, on the Salado. They claim that it cannot be excelled, and that it is just what they need in their business.

On New Year's eve an enterprising Mexican from one of the annexes of the city, went around among our people with a subscription list for a "poor man who was dying." Nearly everybody who was clipped in a quarter and one merchant, opened his heart to the tune of a box of sardines, a can of lobsters, and some crackers. The Mexican then proceeded to squander the proceeds of his industry in a regular old fashioned 1889 drunk and feast.

A fine line of fancy candies for the holidays at Whelan & Co's.

Hon. C. B. Eddy, the main spring of the present Pecos valley land and water boom, is on route to Denver. He will visit Santa Fe first.

You can get furniture at Rosenthal & Co's. Large assortment. Reasonable prices.

Lieut. C. H. Grierson, aid de camp to Gen. Grierson, will visit Santa Fe during the coming week.

Remember you can get the great only Texas Siftings for only $1 per year, (regular price $4.) when taken in connection with THE INDEPENDENT and paying for both papers in advance.

That the usual number of fellows "swore off" this year.

You dated your first letter this year 1890, didn't you?

That old 1889 went out with a bluster and flurry and a terrible bluff, but 1890 came up smiling.

That we have had a mild winter so far. But don't say anything about it. We don't want to rile up the "weather clerk."

That THE INDEPENDENT is making preparations for 1890 which will please all of its old subscribers and many new ones.

Gen. B. H. Grierson, commander of this military department, came in from Los Angeles to enjoy Christmas with Col. and Mrs. Douglass. There were also present on this occasion, Prof. H. O. Ladd and wife, Mrs. H. S. Church and Lieut. Johnson. Gen. Grierson left this morning for Fort Union, expecting to return to Los Angeles on the 1st.

A visitor from Lincoln county, Judge Terrell, called on the New Mexican today and made earnest inquiry concerning the prospects for the extension of the Santa Fe Southern road to Cerillos and Pedro. When informed that the route had been permanently laid out; profiles completed and estimates made up; that Chief Engineer Coleman and B. M. Read are now engaged in securing right-of-way, and that the necessary money has been as good as secured, Judge Terrell, expressed both surprise and gratification, and explained his anxiety in the matter by saying he had just learned some reliable news about the extension of two roads into Lincoln county, and he felt that if the Santa Fe Southern ever reached San Pedro it could see its way clear to further extension that would make it one of the most important roads in the west. The gentleman went into details and added that Morris R. Locke & Co., of New York, have recently adjusted the difficulties so long surrounding the El Paso & White Oaks project, and it could now be stated with much confidence that this line would be finished to White Oaks this spring. He said further that while in Fort Worth the other day he had positive assurances that the Fort Worth & Albuquerque road would be built during the coming year. A contract for the first 200 miles having already been let and work upon which is now in progress. Judge Terrell said that the route selected for this road is west to Roswell, thence to White Oaks, from which point it is to run north-west through the Manzano valley, up through the San Pedro district and thence via Tijera cañon to Albuquerque. With this road and the El Paso line both heading for White Oaks that town is assured of two distinct routes to the Gulf of Mexico, and Judge Terrell argues that if the Santa Fe Southern were extended from San Pedro through Manzano valley to White Oaks it would there meet both these lines and thus become an important link in a new system of roads having advantages that few western lines now enjoy. This is certainly an admirable suggestion, well worthy of the attention of the promoters of the Santa Fe Southern.

Railroad companies are ordering all the freight cars they get car-builders to take contracts for.

People's Meeting.

At a mass-meeting of the resident citizens of Precinct No. 1, of Lincoln county, New Mexico, held at the court house in the town of Lincoln, on Saturday, December 21, 1889, for the nomination of precinct officers, to be voted for at the coming election. The following candidates were nominated: FOR SCHOOL DIRECTORS DISTRICT NO. 1. Jose Montano, William Rosenthal, Isaac Friedrich, FOR SCHOOL DIRECTORS DISTRICT NO. 27. Francisco Gonzales, Castulo Sedillo, Phelomeno Griego. FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE. Jose Cordova. FOR CONSTABLE. Demetrio Perea. ISAAC FRIEDRICH, Chairman. CHAR. WYEMAN, Secretary.

ESTRAY NOTICE.

Taken up under the estray law by E. R. Cline, White Oaks, N. M., one iron grey horse, about 7 years old, gentle, slow, or ride; branded thus: B on right shoulder; J18 (18) connected on left shoulder, and same brand on left thigh.

The sturdiest and ugliest man in the county is old man Jamison who runs the second hand grocery, just back of the jail. He can ride on a bicycle made of a dollar and a quarter and never graze the ground, and he's so ugly his face hurts. This fling at him is caused by the fact that we saw him chest prior widow out of two heads of cabbage last Monday.

If Ed. Haven wishes to remain a citizen of this community, he must go to work, support his family and cease abusing his wife. We've a few three-year old clubs that we have oiled up, and our militia have commenced drilling for the festive occasion of his first neglect of our caution.

Word has been received by Mr. Sling that four of his almost-eyed comrades will come to Lincoln as soon as wanted. Their names are Mauch Chunk, Jay Eye See, Chow Chow and Gin Sling.

I paid a visit to Slick Atherton's the other day and found the old horse thief sitting on a big piece of watermelon. He says he's going to try and lead an upright life. We hope so.

Honor and shame from no condition rise, Lay in a stock of goods and advertise, And in the business lottery take the prize.

Judge S. S. Terrell, of Lincoln, is in the city to-day. He has resided in Lincoln county for twelve years, and was an active worker in the recent state constitutional convention. He said today: That the people of his section were just as earnest in their advocacy of the statehood movement today as ever. The Democrats there are ably supporting it also. They feel at the same time that they were not properly represented in the recent state convention and for this reason would like to see Mr. Joseph succeed in his work of securing an enabling act and providing another convention; but even should he fail in this, so fully in favor of progress are the Democrats of Lincoln county that they will vote for the constitution now before the people. In any event Lincoln county will give a big majority for statehood. The people there find but little fault with the constitution already framed.

Judge Terrell also said that Lincoln county was prospering; getting its share of immigration; its mines turning out well and the best of railroad prospects.

Gen. Bowman seems to be making progress in Washington with his Jornada and El Paso canal and reservoir enterprise. A bill has been introduced by Senator Reagan on the subject.

Miss Louise Long, who for a long time has been a guest of E. W. Parker and family, left for Penn Yan, N. Y., her former home, on Thursday's stage.

Rev. S. W. Thomas desires to express his heartfelt thanks for the $48 kindly donated on Christmas.

Rev. N. W. Lane was the astonished recipient of $100 on Christmas.

John L. Zimmerman, Roswell druggist, left for home by buckboard this morning accompanied by Dr. A. A. Bearup, of White Oaks. The latter part of January Mr. Zimmerman will return to Las Vegas and claim Miss Minnie Shields as his bride.—Optic.

Miss Shields is a niece of Mrs. Geo. B. Barber.

Winter term at the academy will begin Jan. 6th, 1890.

S. W. Lloyd was seriously and probably fatally injured near his ranch last Monday night. Mr. Lloyd left home with a team to meet Mrs. Lloyd, who had been to White Oaks. On the way, the team, in some manner, became unmanageable and with Mr. Lloyd in the conveyance, plunged into a deep ditch or cut, some 18 feet deep, where on Tuesday, Mrs. Lloyd, in company with another lady, found them, one horse dead and Lloyd with a fractured thigh and otherwise badly injured. Dr. Paden went to Lloyd's ranch Wednesday, to treat him, but at this writing there is but little hopes for Mr. Lloyd. He laid all night in the ditch and when found was helpless, with the conveyance and horses an entangled mass.

Tom Eubank and Andy Richardson, of Fort Stanton, spent Christmas in Roswell.

Mr. Fred Joyce is clerk and assistant postmaster at Poe, Lea & Cosgrove's.

James Sutherland was down from the Diamond "A" ranch, the first of the week on business. Since the arrival of Farrell Sutherland, Jr., he stays close to home.

A car load of red wood shingles from California, consigned to the Brown & Manzaneros company, this city, for A. M. Robertson & Co., Lincoln county, will be freighted down in wagons from this point.—Optic.

Hon. W. D. Harlan, Land Office inspector, has been in Roswell since the opening of the new land office, to render what assistance necessary to the new Register and Receiver. He says the new office opens up in good shape and is very complimentary to Messrs. Mills and Lesnet; he thinks they will make excellent officials.

The committee appointed by the Hotel Company to consider plans and specifications and award the contract for the building of the Hotel, have concluded their work and let the contract to Garrett & Hill, for the building of a beautiful two-story brick, stone trimmed house. The plan is an excellent one and the design of the building is very pretty. The plans of the ground floor embrace a long dining room, office and billiard room, two good sized sample rooms, wash room, linen room, living apartments for proprietors and a wide hall with front and back stairs. The second floor plan has a large room for parlor and 14 large well lighted and airy sleeping rooms. The front of the building has a wide and ornamented gallery. The contract price of the building is something near $20,000.

Story of The Wild West, and Fire-Side Chats. By Hon. W. F. Cody, (BUFFALO BILL). Buffalo Bill is the Napoleon of American Scouts and Indian Fighters. He is one of the greatest and most versatile characters that this or any other country has ever produced. He has won brilliant success and renown in all his undertakings. He is not only the greatest American frontiersman but he is also an educated man. He is familiar with the entire history of our Country, and has made a special study of the lives and grand achievements of the great pioneers whose deeds of daring have won the admiration and applause of the whole world. He is better qualified than any other man to write the grand standard history of American Pioneer Life, for he helped to make that history, and his own adventures constitute the most brilliant and thrilling portions of it. His popular fitness for the work that he has so successfully accomplished was justly recognized by the Prince of Wales, Hon. Wm. E. Gladstone, Hon. John Bright and other distinguished Englishmen when they earnestly requested him to write the "Story of the Wild West." In his request they were joined by nearly every celebrated General in the American Army, who, knowing Buffalo Bill intimately, knew that he was the man to write the Grand History. It is a book that every American can feel proud of. He not only tells of his own marvellous achievements, but also those of his comrades and other great frontiersmen, including the thrilling story of the Custer Massacre, General Crook's campaigns and a thousand of other exciting incidents and lastly, a description of his wonderful career and success in exhibiting his "Wild West Show" among the Crown Heads of all Europe. Buffalo Bill's pen is as vigorous as his rifle was unerring, and his book will remain forever the great standard history of pioneer life in America and should receive a glad welcome in the home of every true and patriotic American. This great historical book contains over seven hundred pages and nearly three hundred splendid engravings. The well-known publishers, The History Co., 723 Market St., San Francisco, are the authorized General Agents, Agents and parties who desire to sell this book can secure an agency and liberal terms by addressing the History Company. We call attention to the advertisement in another column.
