NEW MEXICO FIELD NEEDS HUSTLING MINISTERS

Superintendent of English Mission Scores Those Who Loaf in Report to Annual Conference; Big Assemblage Opens

TODAY'S SESSION.
 8:30 a. m.—Devotions, Rev. C. E. Lindquist, North Vista.
 9 a. m.—Session of the Conference.
 10 a. m.—Address by Bishop William A. Quayle.
 2 p. m.—Business session of the Spanish mission conference.
 2:30 p. m.—Meeting of Spanish Lay Electrical conference, M. E. church, Barreles.
 3 p. m.—Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary societies' anniversary.
 8 p. m.—Lecture, "Shylock and David," Bishop William A. Quayle, D. D., LL. D. This lecture is given by and for the Epworth League of the church.

In giving his annual report to the bishop and conference of the New Mexico English Mission yesterday afternoon, Rev. S. Alonso Bright, superintendent of the mission, went on record unequivocally as being opposed to the employment in the conference of those who do not appreciate the responsibility of the work, but rather look upon New Mexico as a field where a rest may be obtained in the hope of better times. This, according to the speaker, is opposed absolutely to the fundamental principle of the Methodist Episcopal church, which from the organization of the church has insisted that the minister called upon to preach the gospel are sent to the field and must labor there for the harvest. "We suffer," said Dr. Bright, "from those who simply rest in New Mexico as a resting place until something better opens, and while I sympathize with the brethren in their hardships, the loneliness and other features of the work are attractive or altogether pleasant, yet I cannot rid myself of the early impression that we Methodist preachers are men under orders and that these orders are delivered as kindly as the nature of the work will permit, but where they are given it is ours to obey."

The report of the superintendent which was the most important feature of the session of the conference yesterday, was a rather voluminous affair, giving a resume of the work over the entire state, its present condition and future prospects.

In common with many other superintendents who have served the New Mexico English Mission in years past, Dr. Bright is emphatically of the opinion that the territory rightfully belongs to the Methodist Episcopal church, even to El Paso, Texas, and that the wealth of this monster organization should be poured in here to assist the pioneer preachers in possessing the land.

The report further showed that much new work had been started during the year, notably in southwest New Mexico. It shows that fifty of the twenty-one stations in the conference are self-supporting, Albuquerque heading the list as the biggest church in the conference, followed closely by La Oroya, Socorro, El Estero and El Paso. A large increase in the membership within the bounds of the conference was reported.

Following the report of Superintendent Bright, the characters of the preachers were passed. As the roll was called, each of the ministers present arose to his feet, gave a resume of his report and his character was passed for another year.

DEMOCRATS HOLD A CONVENTION IN SANDOVAL

Delegates Named to Santa Fe Meet and Full Ticket Will Go Into Field; Republican Convention Real Rough House.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.) Bernalillo, N. M., Sept. 28.—Significant of the extent to which discontent and disaffection has grown in Sandoval county under boss rule, is the fact that not only did the democrats of the county hold a well attended and enthusiastic convention here today, naming two delegates to the Santa Fe convention, but they decided to put a full county ticket in the field, finding plenty of available timber for such a ticket. The split between the two republican factions is so serious that the democrats count on enlisting enough votes to control the situation.

Luciano Mondragon and John W. Sullivan were named as delegates to the state convention and a county central committee was organized with Mondragon as chairman. The committee consists of one man from each precinct and six at large.

The convention was attended by a large number of deeply interested spectators. It is believed that the democratic ticket will poll between 400 and 500 votes; and the more radical democratic ticket is to be placed in the field at all is significant of changing conditions in the county of Sandoval. Attorney Isaac Barth of Albuquerque, made a speech to the convention.

A Real Rough House.

Some rather strenuous fist fights here, held a few days ago, many of the delegates it is said, carrying guns and two nephews beating up an uncle to such an extent that he will be unable to do active service for some time to come. Spectators describe it as a knock-down and drag-out affair all the way through and a spectacle of rowdyism and active service for some time to come. Spectators describe it as a knock-down and drag-out affair all the way through and a spectacle of rowdyism and active service for some time to come.

BALLINGER OPPOSED TO CENTRALIZED CONTROL

Former Interior Secretary Talks on "The Patronage of Bureaucratic Government in America."

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Denver, Sept. 28.—In an address before "The Portrayal of Bureaucratic Government in America," delivered before the Public Lands convention here tonight, former Secretary of the Interior, Richard A. Ballinger aligned himself with the opponents of further centralization of the control of public lands in a federal bureau and won the applause of the audience. Ballinger's control of the public domain, who the developments of today, the opening of the convention, clearly indicate, are in control of the situation.

Interest tonight is centered, in view of the apparent sentiment of the majority in what President Taft, who is to address the convention next Tuesday, will have to say to the delegates.

The temper of the convention was made plain by the reception given the remarks of Congressman Frank W. Mondell, of Wyoming, following his election as temporary chairman this morning.

PRESIDENT TIFT AND THE CHEESE

President Tift has accepted an invitation to attend the national dairy show in Chicago in October, and also to cut and sample the world's largest cheese, which will be on exhibition on that occasion.

This cheese which the president is to have the honor of slicing is said to weigh 12,000 pounds, to stand higher than a man, and to have cost nearly $6,000. We also understand that it cut into thin barroom lunch slices it would reach from here to Mukden and still have enough for a family of eight.

When we consider what a monumental cheese this is we readily understand the president's gracious acceptance of the dairy show's invitation. There have been many presidents who have cut quite a dash and several have even cut a great deal of ice.

It will certainly be a thrilling moment when he stands by the side of that monster cheese, with knife uplifted, and with three or four crisp soda crackers right at hand to be used in sampling the piece he removes. As an object for a painter it ought to rank almost with Washington crossing the Delaware or John Hancock signing the Declaration of Independence.

And a picture of the president in that staccato attitude before the world's greatest, grandest cheese, if distributed throughout Wisconsin, should certainly go far to counteract the effect of Senator La Follette's constant criticism of President Tift and all his works by showing that the presidential heart beats in sympathy with one of Wisconsin's chief products.

The directors of the dairy show have done wisely in inviting the nation's president to cut and sample that tremendous structure. So large a cheese should be cut by no less exalted titan than that of the president. The inappropriateness of consigning this signal honor on any lesser official is too plain for argument.

If this cheese weighed, say, only 7,000 pounds, it might be advisable to invite a more cabinet officer to cut and sample it. If it went so low as 5,000 pounds, it would perhaps be more fitting to ask a simple member of congress or a federal district judge to perform the important office alluded to.

But when a cheese weighs nearly 12,000 pounds, stands higher than a man, costs about $6,000, and is confessedly the largest cheese in all the civilized world to say nothing of other equally interesting and important statistics, there is only one person in this country who is exalted enough to approach it with a sampling knife and begin the process of demotion—and that is the president himself.

We pity the man who is not moved by the patriotic thought that this nation has achieved the largest cheese in the world, that the effete nations of Europe have not even approached this record, and that this splendid structure bearing witness to the indomitable American spirit is soon to be cut and sampled by the nation's highest official.

ANOTHER BIG AUTOMOBILE TOUR

The plot thickens with the announcement that forty members of the National Highways association are coming over the Sunset Trail this fall. This big motor tip is in addition to the Raymond Whitcomb excursion soon to start from the Atlantic, bound to the Pacific, and in addition to half a dozen other parties, not to mention various individual travelers. It means that New Mexico this fall will be traversed by a greater number of automobiles from the east than ever before known in this state.

Are we ready for them? The state good roads bureau is showing that it appreciates the importance of getting the roads in as good shape as possible. But of greater importance than this is the necessity of doing it AT ONCE. Even though the work done now cannot in some cases be done permanently, emergency measures are now the paramount consideration. It will be the worst thing that ever happened to us if the first four gives such an unfavorable report of the road conditions that the others change their schedule and take the northern route. A few thousand dollars here and there will at least assure that every one will get through safely.

The importance of seeing to it that all roads are at least passable is too great for possible exaggeration. Every county and every city along the route should get busy at once with the resources it has at hand even though they seem inadequate, for every little bit helps. It is worth while making a supreme effort to please these first tourists.

WHY THIS ANGUISH?

In view of the fact that its ring candidate for the altar has apparently been secured for the sacrifice, we are surprised to hear from the Tribune Citizen, not that gleeful eagle which comes from mental hilarity, but the solemn and depressing and plaintive wail from a heart which comes from mental hilarity at the critical moment, disappointed being able to raise the water rates again? Has the festive master failed to stand up under the pressure? Does the former penitentiary warden show signs of giving Don Francisco, his double cross as regards his agitatorial aspirations? Have the fumes of the burning books ass—physician the humorous editor?

Does the bottom of the corporation barrel stare the angels in the face? It, alas be necessary to send out another circular letter beseeching the gentlemen who want "protection" for their interests to cough again?

HARRY DRUMM TO START MONDAY ON HIS TOUR

Mrs. Drumm Arrives to Visit Old Home Bringing News That Husband's Road Boosting Trip is to Begin at Once.

That Harry Drumm, advance agent of Better Highways, is to leave Chicago Monday in his 18-valor roadster for the southwest, was the news brought yesterday by Mrs. Drumm, formerly Miss Constance Sellers, who arrived on the limited to visit her parents, Colonel and Mrs. D. K. E. Sellers.

Mrs. Drumm was a society favorite here previous to her marriage and departure for Chicago and will be cordially welcomed by many friends. The amusement program in of course, made up largely of racing events, the harness horses, the automobiles and the runners. In the harness horse events there are now over three hundred entries for the championship on the grand circuit of the east and the faster Pacific coast tracks.

Mr. Drumm expects to arrive in Albuquerque in time for the fair, his trip is of considerable importance. He is traveling over the "Sunset Trail" under the auspices of the Transcontinental Touring club of America with the object of awakening a greater enthusiasm for the improvement of the highways in the southwest; and in preparation for a big tour, which is to come later.

POLITICS TAKE BACK SEAT IN ARIZONA; BIG FAIR TO FRONT (Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 27.—Politics and politicians have for the time being, been forced from the center of the stage of interest by the approach of the Seventh Annual Arizona Fair, the dates of which for this year are November 6 to 11. Who is to man the offices of the new state is no longer the topic of discussion where men and women meet, but of interest than before are discussions concerning this or that breed of sheep or cattle, horses or mules, and pigs and poultry. There is also lots of race horse talk and those days when Phoenix is well posted have to frequently refer to the "dope sheet" for horse records. Fair week is approaching and this a full in the political whirl turned for the week in Arizona for the entire population of the territory.

At the grounds where the fair is held a great change in the appearance of things is being worked by carpenters, surveyors and painters. A new wing seating half the capacity of the old grand stand is being built and together with eighty horse manes and sixty cow stalls will be ready for fair week. Two new wings are to be built to the agriculture and exhibition hall. The increased space thus afforded is already sought after by the exhibitors and many of the new counties who are this year planning to make record-breaking exhibits. All the buildings on the grounds are to be repaired.

At the machinery hall, a new feature for this year's fair, will add the main exhibit building and here will be exhibited all that is new in the way of machinery which is used in the agricultural and mining industries. And while there is the hum of industry at the fair grounds equally as busy a place is the office of the fair commission. Correspondence is received and dispatched daily in a big mail sack. In nearly every department improvements over previous years have been proposed by the superintendents and nearly all of the suggestions have been acted upon by the commissioners. Indications already substantiate the forecast that there will be more live stock exhibited at this year's fair than ever before.

The victory won by this initial legislation, but marks the opening of the battle for health laws in New Mexico, as the plumbers, masters and journeymen are striving themselves to enter the fray in this historic-making episode of the new-made state. The inaugural election of state officers will be held November 7, and patriotic plumbers will work untidily for the exaltation of such men as will pledge themselves for sanitary legislation in the state and in congress, where the representatives of the new state will monopolize the spotlight while the novelty of newness lasts.

BISHOP QUAYLE TO DELIVER FAMOUS LECTURE

"Shylock and David" to Be His Subject Tonight at Lead Avenue Methodist Church; Conceded a Masterpiece.

The intellectual event of this week will undoubtedly be the lecture by Bishop W. A. Quayle tonight at the Lead Avenue Methodist church on "Shylock and David." Had it not been for Bishop Quayle's calling to the ministry he would probably have been one of the foremost actors upon the stage of the world today, he being possessed of almost incomparable histrionic talent. In this lecture, which will be a great public and Shakespearean scholar, discuss these two as a treat of a lifetime. Bishop Quayle is president of the Epworth League in the Methodist Episcopal church, so the lecture is being given under the auspices of the Albuquerque chapter of that body.

CONSTITUTION ALL THAT COULD BE DESIRED. Bishop Quayle Praises New Mexico's Fundamental Law and Gives Prohibitionists Some Timely Advice.

Bishop William A. Quayle in addressing a large audience in the Lead Avenue Methodist church last night, expressed himself emphatically in opposition to the initiative and referendum.

Dr. Samuel E. Betts of Oklahoma, a veteran temperance worker, was then introduced. He started his audience by saying that he came into Albuquerque twenty-nine years ago with his company of men of the Santa Fe road and the first sign that met his gaze, coming up where the White Elephant is now located, was three men hanging by the neck dead.

While the father was frankly hunting his little five-year-old daughter, little Mrs. Franklin was safe in the keeping of Officer Hinds, who was using all the means in his power to find her parents for her.

With this to go on, a telephone message was sent to the electric light plant asking for the place where the parents lived, and before the lapse of fifteen minutes more the little lost one was clasped in the arms of her weeping mother, who was almost prostrated.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal)
Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 30.—The first republican state convention concluded its labors early this morning with the nomination of a full state ticket and two members of congress.

While there are some good men on the ticket, as a whole it falls far short of what was expected of the party on the shoulders of which rest in large measure the responsibility for the future prosperity of a great state. The candidates for the supreme bench are all regarded as strong men and men in whom the voters will not hesitate to vest the authority to conduct the tribunals upon which in the last analysis depends the very existence of orderly government in New Mexico and the protection of the rights of every citizen.

On the other hand there are men on the ticket whose very names are synonymous with machine politics. Men whose records the party will find it difficult to explain and defend and men in whom the independent voters will hesitate long before supporting should the electorate party by any chance select a strong ticket.

This morning when the convention had finally adjourned many loyal republicans were heard to express the belief that the dominant party in the new state had failed to take full advantage of the opportunities afforded to organize a free, enlightened and progressive government after so many years of vassalage and tutelage by selecting from its members a list of candidates who could be depended upon to sweep the state to the end that New Mexico might strengthen the hand of the republican president and the republican party in the nation. That the party has plenty of such men there can be no doubt, but machine politics and the lack of proper interest in former elections places the members of the ruling party in the position where they must either support a ticket with many weak spots in it or go over to the democrats.

The convention did not get down to business until nearly 6 o'clock last evening, the entire day being devoted to caucuses and conferences. The supporters of Secundino Romero angered at the defeat of their candidate for governor, were determined to break the state which had been fixed up by the men who effected their downfall.

Mr. Romero took his defeat cheerfully and announced his determination to work for the success of the ticket as nominated. His followers, however, were less easily satisfied. They charged that the Santa Fe delegation had betrayed them; they also charged that some of the members of that delegation were double traitors, claiming that they had first pledged themselves to the support of Miguel A. Otero, had gone back on the man from their own county and then lined up with the Romero supporters, only to be found when the vote was taken in the ranks of the men who put through the nomination of H. O. Bursam. This bitter feeling caused the loss of the nomination for secretary of state to George W. Armijo, who was a member of the Santa Fe delegation, and it was only after much effort and log rolling that this candidate received a much less desirable place on the corporation commission.

The convention was called to order

What Keeps the State-wide Policy Going?

PRESIDENT'S TOUR OF IOWA ENDS AT OTTUMWA

Mr. Taft Devotes Speech to Tariff and Again Explains Why He Vetoes These Bills at Short Sessions.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire)
Ottumwa, Ia., Sept. 29.—President Taft ended his two-day tour of Iowa here tonight at 8 o'clock. He will speak at the tariff. To an audience that filled a large tent and gave him the closest attention he has had, the president in a conversational tone and in an informal manner, stated anew the position he had taken with reference to the tariff bills he vetoed. Mr. Taft made no bid for applause, no attempt at oratory. He took the audience into his confidence and stated his cause with scarcely a pause.

The crowd was not demonstrative. It cheered the president when he began and again when he finished. There was occasional applause in between, the most spontaneous demonstration occurring when Mr. Taft exclaimed: "I am no free trader. I am a protectionist, pledged to the policy of a protective tariff based on the difference in the cost of production abroad."

The president was again applauded when he declared that he was going to recommend reductions in the wool and cotton schedules just as soon as the tariff board reported on those schedules in December.

The farmers' free list bill, Mr. Taft said, was intended as a compensation to the farmer for whatever damage he might suffer from Canadian reciprocity. He asserted that reciprocity would not have hurt the farmer, but that if it should the defeat in Canada wiped out the last reason for so slipshod a measure.

Mr. Taft denounced the cotton bill, which included revisions of the steel and chemical schedules, as a "piece of hog-spoilage," that no one ever intended it should become a law.

ITALIAN SQUADRON ATTACKS FLEET OF TURKISH DESTROYERS

First Battle of War Between the Two Countries Results Disastrously For Abdul Hamid's Naval Force.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire)
London, Sept. 29.—Affairs between Italy and Turkey are taking on a new turn today with extraordinary rapidity. A state of war exists between Italy and Turkey and hostilities have begun. A dispatch from Salonica says: An Italian cruiser has destroyed two Turkish destroyers in the harbor of Preveza in Epirus and landed troops. The Turkish authorities are sending a battalion of troops to Preveza.

No sooner had the time limit fixed in the ultimatum expired than, ignoring Turkey's conciliatory request for delay, Italy declared war.

The Turkish representatives in Italy were handed their passports. The Turkish commander at Tripoli was asked to surrender the town, but declined and the Italian forces immediately occupied Tripoli and Benghazi. Apparently the Turks offered no resistance, but in only an assumption, as indicated by the telegrams sent from the hour of their landing no message of any kind has been received from Tripoli and dispatches sent there remain unanswered.

Turkey continues her efforts to secure intervention by the powers. In the meantime Italy is actively pupping hostilities. Italian battleships are reported to have appeared off Smyrna and Salonica.

It is expected the various governments will issue customary neutrality notices and will devote their diplomatic efforts to localizing hostilities to the combatant powers and especially to avoiding complications in the Balkans.

A dispatch to the Daily Chronicle from Constantinople says four transports loaded with ammunition will start for Tripoli tomorrow. The Italian residents here have been ordered to close their shops and shops and to leave the city.

The Banca Di Roma and the Italian post office are guarded.

A massacre of Italians in Adana, Asia Minor, is feared. Italy has considerable interests and a large colony there. News has reached here that Turkish troops have occupied Thessaly to keep the Greeks in check and to prevent them from attempting to capture Crete. The Russian fleet in the Black Sea is ready for an emergency. It is now anchored before Trebizond.

The Sultan and the heir apparent sat in council with the ministers last night when it was finally decided that they should yield to the force and not oppose the Italian landings at Tripoli, but hold influential Italians as hostages.

COMPARATIVE ARMY AND NAVAL STRENGTH OF POWERS

Italy's standing army in 1910-11 numbered approximately 235,000 men and 4,000 reserves, but a far greater number could be put in the field in case of necessity. The Italian navy consists approximately of fifteen battleships, nine armored cruisers, seven unarmored cruisers, and nine torpedo boats. Turkey has a nominal strength of nine coast defense vessels.

The Italian navy is generally ranked fifth among nations. Naval lists show that Turkey has a nominal strength of nine coast defense vessels.

Amalia Costillo Killed By Revolver in Hands of Elias Herrera; Believed to Have Been Murderer.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal)
Santa Fe, N. M., Sept. 29.—Amalia Costillo, the 12-year-old daughter of Mrs. Marcos Costillo, who lives in the town of Santa Fe, was shot and instantly killed about 8:30 o'clock last night, by a bullet fired from a .38-caliber revolver.

Elias Herrera, aged 16 to 17 years, is in the county jail charged with the shooting and will be given a hearing before Justice J. M. Garcia Monday morning. Herrera was arrested last night by Policeman Bernardo Escobedo. A coroner's jury was hastily summoned and viewed the remains at the Costillo home. The inquest was held and showed that the girl had died from a bullet wound inflicted above the heart.

There are two theories about the shooting; one that it was accidental like so many others where children toy with firearms, and the other is that it was cold-blooded and premeditated murder inspired by jealousy or a quarrel.

It is stated that Herrera has known the Costillo family for some time and called at the home last night. He was asked to see little Amalia, and he is said to have told her that he had a handful of marbles to show her.

When she came into the parlor, it is said, he showed her a handful of .38 pistol cartridges. Her reports are that she is in a state of terror, and she was whipped out of the parlor, and taking deliberate aim, shot her.

Little Amalia has two older sisters and her mother, who are prostrated with grief at her death.

Herrera was seen in jail today. He is a youth above the average height for his age, has dark, lustrous brown eyes and a rather intelligent face. He seemed much worried, but did not make a statement, as it was thought inadvisable for him to remain silent until after the preliminary hearing, Monday.

The body of the dead girl was taken this morning to an undertaking establishment and prepared for burial. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock Sunday from the Cathedral.

GENERAL VILJOEN HOPES TO PACIFY YAQUIS

He Will Hold Conference With Warring Indian Tribes in Sonora Today. Finds Job Iksodme.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire)
El Paso, Tex., Sept. 29.—General E. Viljoen, commissioner from the Mexican government to pacify the Yaqui Indians, is now in Sonora, endeavoring to get a conference with leading members of the tribe in order to carry out his instructions. Federal officers and others in that section are opposing the plan of procedure, says General Viljoen, and making his work exceedingly irksome. A number of the young Indians will be brought to Juarez and placed in the agricultural college in that city at the expense of the Mexican government, if the members of the tribe will consent.

General Viljoen expects to meet the chiefs of the Yaqui tribe in conference tomorrow on the Yaqui river.

CONVERSED WITH ENTOMBED GOLD MINERS

Tube Driven Through Collapsed Alaskan Shaft and Rescuers Talked With Men 175 Feet Below; Almost Frozen.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire)
Fairbanks, Alaska, Sept. 29.—(Delayed in transmission.)—Communication was established today with the fourteen miners entombed in the Shakespeare mine Wednesday when the shaft caved in. A steam pipe through the collapsed shaft was opening enabling those above ground to talk to the men imprisoned 175 feet below.

The entombed miners said that all were well but that they were hungry and thirsty and the cold was so intense that they did not dare to sleep for fear of freezing. They had used shovel handles and wheelbarrows to build fires, but their fuel was giving out.

It is expected that the rescuers will reach the men within the next thirty hours.

ANTIC STRIKE SHOPMEN BEGINS THIS MORNING

Carmen, Bollermakers and Machinists on Harriman Lines and Illinois Central Will Quit Work at 10 o'clock.

90 PERCENT OF 35,000 WORKMEN TO WALK OUT

Shops From Chicago to New Orleans and Omaha to San Francisco Affected; Kruttschnitt Unyielding to Last.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire)
Chicago, Sept. 29.—The long-threatened strike of shopmen on the Harriman lines, including the Illinois Central, will become a reality at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, unless the men who have twice voted a strike refuse to obey the order sent out today by the presidents of the five international unions directly involved.

The presidents say the men have not weakened in their desire to force the railroad to recognize their newly established federation of shop employees and that more than ninety percent of the men will go out.

Others, however, say the workers do not want to strike, that they have been forced into their position by the union leaders and that a great majority will refuse to leave their work.

The railroad are in good shape to stand a strike night now, according to officials. A retrenchment order recently issued reduced the number of employees nearly twenty-five percent and there is a sufficient number of idle men in all crafts to permit the roads to keep their shops running even if all the men go out.

On the other hand, President Kline of the Blacksmiths' union, said the men the railroad are trying to get to fill the strikers' places are union men who would refuse to work during a strike.

The strike order came after a consultation over the long distance telephone between Presidents Ryan of the Carmen, Franklin of the Bollermakers, at Kansas City, and O'Connell of the machinists at Danport.

As soon as the day and hour had been decided upon, the following message was sent to the officers of all the local unions affected:

"All efforts have failed. Mr. Kruttschnitt refuses. All crafts strike Saturday, September 30, at 10 o'clock. Letter of instructions follows. Let every man do his duty."

The chief shops that will be affected are in the following states:

Kansas City, Omaha, North Platte, Nob, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Ogden, Utah; Salt Lake City, Pocatello, Ida.; Portland, Ore.; Seattle; San Francisco, Sacramento, Bakerfield, Cal.; Los Angeles, Las Vegas, Nev.; Tucson Ariz.; El Paso, San Antonio, Houston, New Orleans, Beaumont, Texas; McComb City, Miss.; Water Valley, Miss.; Vicksburg, Miss.; Memphis, East St. Louis, Ill.; Mattoon, Ill.; Clinton, Ill.; Centralia, Ill.; Chicago, Denver, San Luis Obispo, Cal.

The strike will not affect train schedules, according to C. H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central, who said that there were ten applicants for every position that will be opened with the strike.

The clerks' strike which has already handicapped shipping on the Illinois Central and Yazoo and Mississippi Valley, today spread to the freight handlers in New Orleans, one hundred men walking out. Three strikers and as many sympathizers were arrested for alleged violation of the federal injunction.

The firemen of the Georgia and Florida railroad are out because of the refusal of the road to grant them a wage increase.

Con. H. Hays of Kansas & Texas union may say, over 2,000 men are out.

ONE HUNDRED MEN AFFECTED AT EL PASO
El Paso, Tex., Sept. 29.—All the shopmen employed by the Harriman system in this city will go on strike promptly at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, according to the heads of the union, who expressed themselves tonight.

The car men decided to go out at that hour upon receipt of a message from F. H. Henningsberg, president of the local union from President N. E. Ryan at Kansas City, notifying him of the action taken.

The other craftsmen were only waiting the general call, which was sent out this afternoon. The men acknowledge that there are no local cedents and they are only striking in obedience to the general order. About 100 men here will probably be affected.

The local officials of the Harriman system, take an optimistic view of the situation.

EIGHT HUNDRED MEN WILL QUIT AT DENNO
Denno, Nev., Sept. 29.—Telegraphic orders to stop work for the tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock were received from national headquarters by the five secretaries of the union locals here today and they may

The men numbering approximately 800 will obey the call. All crafts are affected. In the shops here.

STRIKE-BREAKERS READY TO WORK AT LAS VEGAS

Las Vegas, Nev., Sept. 29.—Final preparations for the expected strike were made here today by officials of the Santa Fe, Los Angeles and Salt Lake railroad. The strike order is to take effect at 10 o'clock tomorrow. Today the company brought in fifty men and they are now under guard.

MEN AT NEW ORLEANS WILL OBEY STRIKE ORDER

New Orleans, La., Sept. 29.—All 15 men of the general walkout tomorrow at the general seven members of the federation of Illinois Central railroad employees.

Changes in the strike situation included the walkout of freight handlers on the river front, workmen in the round house at Harahan, and the refusal of negro dock freight handlers and the negro employes in the uptown sheds to join the strikers.

1,200 MEN READY TO WALK OUT AT HOUSTON

Houston, Tex., Sept. 29.—The shompen-employees by the Harriman lines in Texas will obey the order to strike tomorrow almost to a man is the assertion tonight of heads of the organization involved. In Houston about 1,200 men will be affected, and in San Antonio 200.

WALTON FOR STATE SENATOR

And Vesely For Legislative House Are Democratic Candidates in Grant Convention Held Today.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal)

Silver City, Sept. 29.—The Grant county democrats will hold their county convention tomorrow and much interest centers around just who will be nominated for the various legislative and county offices. So far, only two names have been mentioned for legislative honors, Hon. W. B. Walton for the senate and Frank Vesely of Silver City for the lower house. There are several candidates out for tax assessor and county clerk respectively, and the contest for the nomination to the two offices promise to be a warm one. It looks now as if Grant county will send a delegation to the judicial convention held on squelching Luna county by sheer force of numbers, Grant having fourteen delegates to Luna's three. Colin Neblett of Silver City, 34 out for the nomination as district judge and Major Waddill of Deming has been nominated for the same office by a primary vote in Luna county. Attorney J. S. Felder of Luna county, is after the nomination as district attorney, and Alan White, a prominent and popular lawyer of Grant county seeks the nomination. Just now it looks as if Grant will capture both nominations. Hon. W. B. Walton favors Neblett for judge. Many prominent democrats in Luna county openly assert they will not support Neblett if he is nominated. They want Major Waddill.

fense ironclads, five protected cruisers, six torpedo vessels, one gunboat, twenty-seven torpedo boat destroyers, twenty-seven torpedo boats and two submarines. As compared with the greater nations, this array is a negligible quantity. There are 929 officers as against 20,000 sailors.

WASHINGTON DUMFOUNDED BY ITALY'S AGGRESSION

Washington, Sept. 29.—The declaration of war by Italy upon Turkey, coming as it did, with practically no notice, created a sensation in official Washington. The state department felt remarkably confident that the other signatories to the Berlin treaty which fixed the status of Turkey, would be able to bring pressure to bear upon Italy to divert her from her purpose to seize Tripoli. The only conclusion that could be drawn was that what has happened is only a natural sequence of the Franco-German-Moroccan negotiations, and that all along it has been understood that Italy would be given a free hand to deal with Tripoli in return for refraining from intervening in the Moroccan dispute. Indications are that America will keep clear of the present struggle if that is possible. It is distinctly asserted at the state department that the United States has absolutely no political interest in Africa. The state department received an appeal from Oscar S. Strauss, formerly American ambassador to Turkey, to intervene between Italy and Turkey. Mr. Strauss' application was based on article III of the Hague convention of which both Italy and Turkey were signatories.

TURKEY DECIDES NOT TO MAKE RESISTANCE

Constantinople, Sept. 29.—The government has decided not to oppose an armed resistance to the occupation of Tripoli, and further to take no measures against Italian residents in Turkey. The government hopes by adopting this attitude that Italy will not treat the Tripolitans as a conquered foe.

Italian forces have landed at Tripoli and Benghazi.

The Turkish cabinet has resigned. Said Pasha, president of the senate, has been appointed grand vizier and Khalil Pasha, foreign minister. Mahmud Shekief Pasha will continue as minister of war.

ITALIAN DEMAND FOR SURRENDER IS REFUSED

Tripoli, Sept. 29.—The Italian squadron which had been cruising in the offing, came close in shore this morning and the destroyer Garibaldi steamed into the harbor at noon, flying a white flag. Great crowds watched her approach.

After recognizing the destroyer, she launched a boat which came to the beach. An officer landed. He was preceded by a blue jacket, carrying a white flag.

Turkish soldiers surrounded the pair. The officer asked for the Turkish commander. When taken to him, he formally announced that the Italian fleet had been ordered to occupy the town. He then demanded the instant surrender of the whole Turkish garrison. The Turkish commander replied that he was unable to comply with the demand and emphatically refused to surrender.

The incident was witnessed by the foreign residents, who gathered around the Italian officer and cheered him enthusiastically. The boat returned to the destroyer, which rejoined the fleet.

Many residents of Tripoli spent last night camped on the beach armed, lest the Arabs should get out of hand and begin pillaging. Arabs are constantly arriving from the country. The mosques are kept open and throughout the night were filled with praying Arabs.

Taft LEARNS OF WAR THROUGH ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ottawa, Ia., Sept. 29.—President Taft got his news of the declaration of war by Italy against Turkey today through an Associated Press dispatch, handed him on his special train. He took the dispatch in his hands, and asked for more. No comment of any sort was obtainable.

History of Tripoli

All American schoolboys know that Tripoli, a century ago, its Bay charged other nations an annual fee to suppress piracy. America tried of paying blackmail, and Bainbridge and Decatur in 1815 smashed the Bay. Fortunately the United States did not annex dependencies in those days.

"Deprived of the profits of piracy, the Beys fell under Turkish dominion. Now Italy wishes the country. Turkey might reply: 'take it and welcome. It is the last thing we have left in Africa since France took Tunis' and the English Egypt, and it costs us more than we get out of it.' But Turkey will do nothing so sensible, fearing loss of prestige.

The Turkish army is as strong as the Italian and noble for fighting quality, but with few ships and strained credit, how could the Young Turks in Stamboul get men to Tripoli to defend it? The Italian navy is modern, Italian credit excellent. The proposal of a lease that shall respect Turkish sovereignty offers a way out. That is the way encroachments upon Turkish territory generally begin, but if this encroachment is stopped it will be by the other European power and not by protests from Constantinople. Italian credit grew stronger the day she abandoned her futile attempt to conquer Abyssinia, Tripoli, with one million people, mostly Mohammedan, is also quite capable of expressing its own opinion about a new master. The general was heartily cheered when he took his place on the platform. He thanked the convention for its expression of confidence in him, but was not prepared to say that his nomination helped the ticket, though he had been told to accept it by men who were his friends and by men he did not class as such. Mr. Clancy regards the success of the republican ticket as of overwhelming importance, not only to the state, but to the nation at large, inasmuch as the electoral vote of New Mexico might decide the fate of the republican candidate for president a year hence, or its senators; the political complexion of the United States senate. For this reason, and others he accepted the nomination and promised to do everything in his power to further the success of the state republican ticket in the coming campaign.

Encouraged by his success in putting through the nomination of Mr. Clancy, Judge Mann next proposed the name of Andrew B. Stroup of Bernallillo county for state superintendent of public instruction. While outside of the Bernallillo county delegation there appeared to be no particular enthusiasm for Mr. Stroup, no other candidate was proposed and the nomination went through by acclamation. A few scattering noes on a motion to suspend the rules indicated that there were some among the delegates who were not exactly in accord with the proceedings. School superintendent J. W. ## STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE IDES REORGANIZED

After disposing of the nominations for congress the convention took up the question of reorganizing the state central committee and after several proposals had been put forward and considerable debate had followed, Mr. D. J. Leahy accepted an amendment by B. Catron, proposing the following resolution:

"That the republican state central committee shall consist of one member from each county and one for each of the four counties for delegate to congress in 1908, or a major fraction thereof."

Mr. A. Cahoon of Clayas offered an amendment that the state committee be composed as it now exists, and Mr. Cahoon's method for forming the committee prevailed by practically unanimous vote, San Miguel alone voting against it.

Charles A. Spies moved that the executive committee consist of eight members from the various judicial districts of New Mexico and that these members be elected by the voters of the county in each district. This motion was adopted.

The convention, despite the fact that it was then 8 o'clock in the morning, took up the work of naming the state central committee. Owing to the fact that a number of the delegates had left the convention hall and others were preparing to leave, a list of committee members was not completed. The committee will meet this morning at 10 o'clock in the Commercial club in this city. Following are the names of those appointed by the convention before it adjourned:

Bernallillo county—Francisco A. Hubbell, Edward A. Mann, Chaves—J. A. Cahoon, L. O. Fulleh, Colfax—A. Streicher, E. C. Frenzier, Curry—Donna Ana—H. D. Bowman, Oscar Lohman, Eddy—M. S. Groves, J. F. Newkirk, Guadalupe—C. C. Henry, George Sena, Lincoln—A. J. Aragon, Clement Hightower, Luna—McKinley—Gregory Page, H. J. Coddington, Mora—J. D. Medina, Tito Malendez, Quay—R. C. Barnes, W. F. Buchanan, Rio Arriba—W. G. Sargent, Alexander Read, Roosevelt—W. E. Lindsay, J. G. Hart. Committee from Sandoval and San Juan counties was not named owing to disputes in the delegations of those counties.

San Miguel—Secundino Romero, John S. Clark, Santa Fe—T. B. Catron, Celso Lopez, Sierra—F. E. Taylor, J. B. Tyles, Socorro—Jose E. Torres, Powell Stackhouse, Jr. Taos—Committee to be named later.

Torrance—J. Chaves, H. G. Sanders. Union—Committee to be named later. Valencia—Solon Luna, Carlos Baca. The resolutions of the Colfax delegation were adopted giving the committee power to fill all vacancies on the state ticket, caused by death or resignation and to select and place on the ticket the names of persons to fill said vacancies.

On motion of T. B. Catron the state committee was given all the powers of the state convention with the exception of the power to nominate candidates and adopt a platform.

A vote of thanks was extended the citizens of Las Vegas and the officers of the convention to the management of the Castañeda hotel and to all who had contributed to entertaining and making pleasant the stay of the delegates to the first republican state convention.

The district conventions of the second and fifth judicial districts will be held here this morning at 10 o'clock. The second district includes the counties of Bernallillo, McKinley and Sandoval and the fifth district, the counties of Eddy, Chaves, Roosevelt and Curry.

The state convention at 7:30 this morning adjourned sine die.

By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire—Denver, Sept. 29.—Former Secretary of the Interior Richard A. Ballinger, who threatened legal action against Gifford Pinchot in the heat of the Alaska coal land controversy, and whose friends he says, have been urging him to sue the former national game warden, announced today that, after long and careful consideration, he has decided not to make a legal attack.

Mr. Ballinger issued the following statement: "Many of my friends urged me to institute an action against Mr. Pinchot when he arrived in Seattle on his return from Alaska. I would not in any event compel Mr. Pinchot to defend a suit in my home city across the continent nearly four thousand miles from his own home. This would appear to take an unfair advantage. But in any event I have definitely determined to enter upon no legal controversy with him, convinced, as I am, that the judgment of the American people as to the matters at issue would be involved in such a suit already coinciding with that of President Taft, so emphatically and unambiguously expressed at the time of my resignation, of the attorney general and of a majority of the congressional investigating committee."

"I am strongly led to the decision by the fact that to renew the controversy with Mr. Pinchot, must strongly tend to detract from the issues that President Taft is now so energetically presenting to the American people and a clearer comprehension of which he regards as essential to the success of the republican party at the next election. I can not shut my eyes to the fact that such a suit would at once revive and accentuate the controversies that are past, and obscure the never and broader issues resulting from the extra session of congress and with which the president's future is so strongly linked. While I have no question about the result of such a suit, a money judgment against Mr. Pinchot is the only punishment it could bring. I do not regard that as necessary to my vindication. The undiminished confidence of my former chief, whose great legal mind, third-edged every tortuous channel that had been dug to entrap me, after which, in the highest possible language, he rebuked the accusations of the dis-appointed iconoclasts who brought them, as falsehoods without a vestige of foundation should satisfy the demands of the most punctilious honor. Such rebuke of my accusers coupled with that of the attorney general and the result of the congressional investigation, have made me content with the work of naming the

During the day's intermission in the big baseball show at Chicago, the spotlight was turned yesterday on the third place race in the National league, Pittsburgh, the erstwhile aspirant for second place, is now seriously threatened by Philadelphia to be set back to fourth place. By the defeat of Pittsburgh Friday the separation between the rivals is a matter of only five points with the advantage decidedly in Philadelphia's favor, since that club has almost twice as many games left to play. The Chicago-New York series continues today and Sunday.

IS GIANT MACHINE BREAKING UNDER THE STRAIN?
McGraw's Men Seem Frayed and Worn; Matty and Ruben Have Pitched Thirty Out of Last Forty Games.

By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire, Chicago, Sept. 29.—The Giants are badly in need of a rest and it is this killing pace keeps up until the last week of the season they will be in no condition to going in a world's series. Meyers, Marquard and Merkle all look very weary and travel at the edges. Mathewson had a chance to get some rest of late and his is better than the others, but he could also stand a week or ten days of rest without stiffening up. McGraw has been trying his men at a terrific pace and he knows that it is weakening them. It is the only way to win the pennant, however, and they know it, too. Just as soon as the pennant is mathematically clinched the substitutes will be run in and the veterans will have a chance for rest. In that respect the Athletics have decided advantage over the Giants, as they will rest for an entire week before the series opens on October 13.

McGraw is very much concerned about giving Chief Meyers a rest, and the big Indian will be badly needed when the big show comes off. Wilson is still suffering from a sore thumb and cannot go in and catch for several days. It would be desirable to take a chance on a youngster like Hartley at such a critical stage of the race, so there is nothing to do but work the Chief.
Mathewson and Marquard will have to be carefully groomed from now on. The Cubs will not get a man who will win against the Reds Sunday and for the third time in busy days he cut loose a wild pitch that helped to lose the game.

An idea of the work that has been put upon Mathewson and Marquard can be had from the fact that of the forty games played by the Giants since their spurt began thirty days ago have been pitched by these two pitchers.
McGraw was informed Sunday night that the Athletics had a scout in his trail studying the style of play and he laughed.
"Will you have some one to look them over?" was asked of him.
"No. Giant Scouts to Watch Athletics." "I should say not," he replied, "if we win the pennant and have to tackle the Athletics I would prefer to rely on snap judgment, and act on the plays as they come up on the field instead of trying to dope them out in advance. I would prefer not to know anything about the style of play used by the Athletics until we meet on the field."
With the world's series a little more than two weeks away, the Giants had an excellent opportunity in their Sunday game at Cincinnati to pit their strength against a speedy left-hander, and it can't be said that the exhibition made their backers anxious to go any deeper into their bank rolls.
Rube Benton, a side-wheeler who burst a streak through the Southern league during the season just closed, was turned loose on the Giants, and he showed no more fear of the coming champs than if they had been tail-enders.
Before the fans began to realize that Griffith had found a wound, (his young southpaw had made the left-handed batters of the New York team chuck their willows in the bat way and call for help. Except for one little tap that Josh Devore managed to beat out he might as well have been batting with a fountain pen. The Chattanooga rube fanned the Terriers Haute horrors three times, made Shodgrass sit down twice, whiffed Marquard an equal number of times and spread a couple more through the string of right-handers.

TIME HAS CHANGED TEAMS SINCE LAST MEETING.

Giants and Athletics Not the Same as Contended For the Championship in 1905; Some Interesting Data.

New York, Sept. 29.—Looking back over the series of the world's series played by the Giants and the Athletics in 1905, one will readily notice that only a few of these former stars are left. Mathewson, Devlin and Amey still wear New York uniforms, while Platte, Bender, Lord, Hartwell, Murphy and Harry Davis have been playing under Grant Mack's management since the with the exception of Lord, who was released and then taken back later.
Of the all-conquering Giants of that year Roger Bresnahan, who caught all of the games in the big series, is manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, having just signed a five-year contract at $15,000 a year. It is said, Daniel McGann, the first basemen, committed suicide in Louisville, Ky., last year. Billy Gilbert, the second basemen, managed the Birmingham New York State league team this season. Bill Dahlen, the shortstop, still holds the managerial reins over the Brooklyn's. Sam Mertes, when last heard from, was in a small league in the far west. Mike Donlin is playing center field for the Boston tall enders. George Brown, after a short engagement with the Brooklyn last summer, dropped out of major league company. Iron Man McGinnity is part owner and manager of the Newark Eastern league club and still shows some of his old skill in the box.
Of the Athletics who won the American league pennant in 1905 and played against the Giants, exclusively of those named above, Dave Cross, the third basemen, played with the Charlotte, Carolina association team last year. Monte Cross, the shortstop, managed theScranton New York State league team this season. Seybold, the big right fielder, has dropped out of sight. Powers, the catcher, died two years ago, and Schreckengost, the outfielder, has since played in Louisville. Cady, one of the pitchers, is playing semi-professional ball in this city.

Some Who Didn't Play.
Members of the Athletics who did not play in the world's series were Jack Knight, star with the Highlanders; Rube Waddell, who has fallen in to minor league obscurity and who couldn't pitch against the Giants because he had a lame arm and Danny Hoffman, who was released by the St. Louis Browns several months ago.
The other Giants who saw the series from the bench were George White, who can pitch good ball yet; Dummy Hoyler, who was with the Buffalo Eastern league team this year; Frank Easterman, the big catcher who tried to manage the Boston Nationals, and then went to the minors, and Sam Strang, who played his last important engagement in Baltimore a year ago.

Soliciting Committee Receives More Money Than It Had Anticipated; Five Clubs Expected to Enter Tournament.

Subscriptions for the Albuquerque baseball team for the fair tournament keep pouring in to the committee. The solicitors have experienced a greater reception than they had expected. With the completion of the solicitation, which is expected in a few days the $1,000 purse will be filled and all will be serene. A winning team will come forth as sure as the tournament will be held.
On Sunday afternoon next the Grays will meet a team from Santa Fe. This team will be in the nature of a pickup bunch composed of the best of the Santa Fe teams that have played here this year, with the addition of the Indian Smiths, Nelson and Bangrover.
The line-up will also be composed of Albert Clancy, "Doc" McCarty, the two Andersons from Santa Fe and the Blasse of Albuquerque. Busted McMillan Bangrover will pitch, while Nelson will receive. A fast game is in prospect.
Captain Graham of the Grays will have a good line-up in the field, some of the men who are to appear for Albuquerque in the tournament being present. The following Saturday El Paso will be here to open a series with the Grays before the fair. This means good ball before the series.
It looks as if there will be five teams entered, Albuquerque, El Paso, Dawson, El Paso, Santa Fe and possibly Gallup. This begins to look interesting. Baseball is a great game and good baseball sure arouses enthusiasm.

STURDY DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES ANNOUNCED

Protest Against Corrupt Special Interests and Boss Rule; Also go on Record for Advanced Legislation.

Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal. Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 29.—At a meeting held last night at the Commercial club, a republican progressive league was organized with the following officers: Jesus Romero, of Albuquerque, president; H. G. Coors, of East Las Vegas, vice-president, and R. H. Hanna of Santa Fe, secretary.

"We are absolutely opposed to the corrupting influence of the special interest in politics, boss rule and gang methods, and we favor none but clean men for official positions. "We believe in the election of the United States senators by a direct vote of the people, through an amendment to the constitution of the United States, and we are in favor of direct primaries for the nomination of all elective officers making the nomination directly responding to the people, rather than to party bosses.

"We favor an early amendment to the constitution of the state, providing a sensible and reasonable method of removing unfaithful and dishonest public servants of the state, rather than by the slow process of impeachment and also an enlargement of the duties of the corporation commission of the state.

"We favor a corrupt practices act limiting the amount of money that can be expended on elections requiring publicity from candidates and political committees of money expended and for what purposes, thus eliminating as far as possible the corrupt use of money in politics.

DEALING IN COTTON FUTURES IS NOT GAMBLING

The purchase by a cotton manufacturer of contracts for future delivery against his sale of goods for future delivery whether he buys the contracts for future delivery or one of the cotton exchanges, or whether he buys from the spot cotton merchant that special grade of cotton and staple which he requires for the manufacture of the goods he has sold, assures him against fluctuations in the price of his raw material, and fixes, in a measure, his profit on his sale of goods.

The opening devotions of the session today morning were conducted by Rev. C. E. Lindquist of Santa Fe. He was followed by Bishop Quayle who offered some timely suggestions concerning the negligence of many preachers in their conference addresses and their indifference to the duty of church loyalty.

The following were elected to constitute the conference mission board: S. Alonzo Bright, C. T. French, J. B. Fish, C. O. Beckman, J. M. Shimer, E. C. Anderson and C. J. Dickey.

A resolution concerning the deaconess work of the Woman's Home Mission society within the bounds of the mission was presented by C. T. Lucas and adopted. The resolution recognized the deaconess work and asked that a conference board be appointed on the subject. The following were then appointed as the bishop: For the first year, C. O. Beckman, Mrs. C. O. Beckman, C. J. Dickey, For the second year, D. A. Porterfield, Mrs. S. Alonzo Bright, S. Alonzo Bright, C. T. French, Mrs. J. T. Roe.

Miss Luella Prince and Miss Stella Trip of the Harwood Methodist church were produced to the conference. Mrs. P. H. Borlin of the Woman's Home Mission society, reports from the committees on general references, superintendents, appointments, education, Bible society, foreign missions, temperance, home missions and church extension were received and ordered spread upon the minutes. The last report provoked a spirited discussion upon the policy of the general board toward the New Mexico field.

W.C. McDONALD SAYS SEAT IN CONGRESS HE IS NOT A CANDIDATE FOR JOHN L. SULLIVAN

Democratic State Chairman Declares He is Not Going to Run For Any Office; He is Too Busy.

Story Out That One-Time Heavyweight Champion Pugilist Has Plans Made to Run for National House.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal] Santa Fe, N. M., Sept. 29.—Coming as the chief of the advance guard, W. C. McDonald, chairman of the democratic state central committee, arrived here late last night from his ranches near Carrizozo. Mr. McDonald was seen today at the Palace hotel by a newspaper representative and asked if he would run for governor. "You may say for me," he replied, "that I am not and I do not expect to be a candidate for governor or any other office. I have a great deal of business to attend to already. I do not desire the office."

[Morning Journal Special Leased Wire] New York, Sept. 29.—It presents a picture, elaborate in detail, do not misinterpret, the stentorian but gentle voice of John L. Sullivan, known in the sporting world for years as "the noblest Roman of them all," will be heard singing in the lower halls of congress before many moons. The candidacy of the one time champion heavyweight prize fighter of the world has been shaped up by his neighbors recently, and Mr. Sullivan will make a formal announcement within a few days. That Mr. Sullivan intends to train politically to the highest form and make a vigorous fight for the office is evidenced in this sentiment, which he has repeatedly expressed to close friends: "Ever since I was champion of the roped arena my secret ambition has been to some day occupy a seat in congress, the most representative body in the United States, if not in the world. Yours, on the level, John L. Sullivan."

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal] Roswell, N. M., Sept. 29.—A solid train of seventeen cars of wool was shipped from Roswell today to eastern markets, the shipment weighing 500,000 pounds. The wool was the 1911 clips of G. F. Billings and C. C. Martin and the 1910 and 1911 clips of Kling brothers. It was sold at a good price that was not made public, through Jackson Salter and A. J. Hill. Over 3,000,000 pounds of wool has been shipped from the Pecos valley this summer and there is still 250,000 pounds in storage in Roswell alone.

The buyer will ship the cattle to Clarendon, where he has a big ranch and will sell the Elida ranch.

EDISON BESIEGED BY ARMY OF CRANKS

Noted Inventor Having Stronous Time in Berlin; Has Become An Adept At Dodging Bores.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal] Berlin, Sept. 29.—The huge lobby in the Hotel Adlon has become Thomas A. Edison's ante-room since the arrival of every crank in Berlin bent on besieging the inventor's door with urgent requests to show him fortune-making ideas. The continuous jangle of the telephone and knocking of the pages bearing formidable communications marked "Immediate," have made Mr. Edison's life here a kind of harassment, discounting the pleasure of fame.

In vain does Mr. Edison try to steal forth from his frontal privacy to see something of the city. For he is waylaid at every step by reporters, photographers and autograph seekers. His good nature is as extraordinary as his skill in disengaging himself from an admirer's clutch without giving offense. "Practice has made a good photographer a matter of instinct, and this city can congratulate itself on having perpetuated him in every phase of his cheery, ungenerous, unselfish life. Mr. Edison's sightseeing has been mostly among the great factories, where a mere glance at anything alleged to be novel suffice to acquaint him with its value. Mr. Edison is not seeking for others' ideas, but wishes to know about European adaptations of his own. His incidental business trip, combined as it is with attempted rest, will be important in placing a new accumulator on the foreign markets. The announcement that Emperor William and Mr. Edison were to meet here is unfounded. On being approached early in the summer by the head of the electric company here

ALBUQUERQUE SHARES IN GENERAL RAIN. The lowering clouds which had been passing over the city all yesterday, gathered last night shortly after midnight and broke. One of the heaviest rainstorms of the season was the consequence. The rain, however, was not local to Albuquerque. During the night reports from all sections of the Rocky Mountains bore the information of heavy rains. Wire communications with Denver on the north and El Paso on the south, were broken shortly after 9 o'clock and the interruption continued until shortly after midnight. With the coming of the rain the temperature took a rapid fall, as is usual in this high altitude, and extra wraps were the order of the night for those whose business kept them up all night. The exact amount of the precipitation could not be learned as the gauges on night rainfall are not ordinarily read until after daybreak, but it is a safe guess to put the precipitation at 45 of an inch.

A LAMB TO THE SLAUGHTER.

Dead and blind to all considerations of prudence and utterly ignoring the public sentiment of the new state of New Mexico, the republican state convention nominated for governor a man absolutely typical of the men who have so long and to the shame of New Mexico ruled the territory for their own selfish interests.

The republican state convention has nominated a man who is doomed to defeat from the first. It has named a candidate identified for many years with the forces of plunder in New Mexico. It has named a man whose record will not bear the light; a man whose defense—and it will be a defensive campaign from the start—must be half hearted and insincere from even his most ardent advocates.

H. O. Bursum represents everything that is undesirable in New Mexico public and political life; his election would be a long step backward; and it would commit the new state to a perpetuation of those unbearable conditions which have so handicapped her in her fight for statehood and which New Mexico must now forever put behind her.

THE INDEPENDENT NEWS-PAPER.

The steady growth of popular support in New Mexico of the only daily paper that tells the truth about New Mexico politics and whose utterances are not inspired by and under the direction of special influence, corporate greed or political bossism is not a new nor surprising phenomenon.

There is no truth in journalism better demonstrated all over the country than that the independent and collarless newspaper, which serves only one clientele—the public—gets the public support. In buying a newspaper the ordinary citizen pays for the newspaper's proper stock in trade—news.

This state of affairs has become much more clearly defined in the past twenty-five years. Nowadays the political "organ," like the corporation "organ," stands discredited, unsupported by the mass of the people, patronized half-heartedly by advertisers, the stock a drug on the market.

For concrete illustration, the New York Tribune, on the republican side, is a shining example. It has long met its clients from the large rental of the Tribune building and from the fat exchange of Whitelaw Reid, who married the daughter of the millionaire D. O. Mills. On the democratic side, the New York Tammany Times is the one stand pat democratic newspaper of New York City and its circulation is given as 3,000 in a population of more than 6,000,000.

causes the bank could no longer stand the strain of footing the weekly deficits. The bank failed and Walsh is now in the penitentiary. This was a democratic paper, and it afforded a striking lesson in the wisdom of the political bank and the political banker.

The Inter-Ocean, an excellent newspaper, but a stand pat republican organ, it is said faces a deficit of thousands of dollars each month made up in part by rentals from its building and in part by contributions from corporations and political backers.

The list may be extended to almost every city of 10,000 population in the country. The "gang" paper is always found discredited and losing money, while the independent paper, without a corporation or political muzzle, has the confidence of its readers, gets returns for its advertisers, and has the consciousness of doing its duty to its clientage.

HELL TURN OVER IN HIS GRAVE.

It would seem that at least respect for the dead would prevent the Tribune Citizen from referring to H. O. Bursum as the "Abraham Lincoln of New Mexico." It is poor business, profaning the memory of the Greatest American, to boost the cause of rotten politics in New Mexico.

The Trib-Cit manifests an uneasy trepidation as to what the people are going to do about it. All things come to him who waits. Calm yourself and restrain your apprehension and you will know all in good time what the people are going to do about it.

Lady Duff Gordon, presumably an authority, declares that "the tight skirt is to be developed to extremes yet unheard of." If it develops much further it will have to be rechristened the "tighter" skirt.

Scientists claim that the human body contains sulphur, and that the amount varies with the person. This may account for the fact that some people make "better" matches than others.

Another vast got-rich-quick scheme has been uncovered by postoffice officials in New York, working in the interests of a gullible public, which evidently can't read.

MOST MENI THE COMPETITION. The Northwest and the South are putting in motion two of the most important development movements inaugurated for many years in this country. Their extent and vigor and the necessity for New Mexico to get extremely busy in order to uphold the claims of the southwest are pointed out in the following in this week's bulletin of the New Mexico Publicity Association:

The September number of "Town Development" carries two articles which are of deep interest to those interested in the speedy development of New Mexico. These two articles describe two great development movements, each of them tending to make it more difficult to secure for New Mexico the new population, the new money, the new brains and brawn which are necessary if we are to have the populous, prosperous state to which our vast natural resources entitle us.

The first article describes the new Northwest Development League, the outcome of a movement inaugurated by Governor Norris, of Montana, and backed by the governors and the state governments of Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and Alaska. President Lewis Penwell, of the league is a millionaire and live stock owner of Montana.

Another article describes the work of the recently organized Southern Commercial Congress, an association backed by the state governments, the commercial organizations, and the people of the states of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia.

These are the two most powerful influences to overcome. The Northwest Development league on one hand pulling away the westward movement of immigrants and investors. The Southern Commercial Congress urging the people and the capital to stay at home, or to come into the south.

It is becoming more and more apparent that if New Mexico is to receive the full advantage of state government, if its resources are to be properly exploited and developed; its lands colonized and farmed; we must meet the competition furnished by these great influences in advertising, and the influence of the other active states surrounding us. The sooner we prepare to do it, the sooner will our development proceed.

FIRST SILOS IN THE Pecos VALLEY

Plants Have Capacity of Hundred Tons Each; Thrown From Horse, Girl Will Probably Die.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Roswell, N. M., Sept. 28.—A. A. Phillips today completed two silos with a capacity of 100 tons each. They are the first to be built in the Pecos valley, although very common in the stock growing sections of the central states.

The silos are circular in shape, 16 feet in diameter and 24 feet high. Mr. Phillips expects to store almost the whole of his 25 acre crop of Indian corn, after it is cut up, plant grain, clover and alfalfa. In this manner the feed is kept sweet and green all winter and it is relieved of all kinds of stock. Mr. Phillips has a dairy near this city.

MOVING PICTURES TO SHOW GOOD ROADS AND BAD ROADS

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Washington, D. C., Sept. 29.—One of the most interesting features of the big convention of the American Association for Highway Improvement and the congress of its allied organizations including the Touring Club of America, at Richmond, Va., beginning November 28, will be the moving picture show which will illustrate the advantages of road roads over bad.

The United States government has just entered into a contract with a Chicago firm for the preparation of hundreds of films showing the various activities of the government. The films will show the attractions of life in the navy, the blue-jackets having a good time of shore and at work on shipboard.

The danger of bad roads to automobilists will also be shown in moving picture form and will particularly appeal to hundreds of tourists who will attend the sessions of the Touring Club of America. The pictures that most of the films will be shown in moving picture houses throughout the United States.

MONEY SPENT ON BUZZ WAGONS IS GREATER THAN NATIONAL DEBT

THE EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION HAS 500 MEMBERS

Interesting Announcement Says That Annual Meeting in Santa Fe Has Been Postponed Two Weeks.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Santa Fe, Nov. 18, 1911. The New Mexico Educational Association, Santa Fe, November 18, 1911.

We are sending you this announcement of the meeting of the Educational Association in the hope that some during the next few weeks. It was originally planned to hold the meeting on November 24, but the executive committee decided to postpone it two weeks on account of the election to be held November 7th.

The New Mexico Educational association was established in 1885, holding its first meeting in Santa Fe. It is quite appropriate therefore that its twenty-fifth anniversary should also be held in Santa Fe.

At the meeting held last year at Las Vegas, the association enrolled 340 members and three years ago at Albuquerque 260. The association is growing rapidly, therefore, and we believe that the Santa Fe meeting will show an enrollment of 500.

The territorial board of education has called a meeting of all county superintendents for Wednesday, November 15, for conference on matters pertaining to school administration.

The secretary bring to the attention of city boards of education and boards of school directors the importance of securing as full an attendance as possible of their teachers at the meeting of the New Mexico Educational association, November 16th, 17th and 18th.

VACATION RECORDS BY RECREATION SEEKERS ON THE MOTORCYCLE

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 28.—Now that the great American vacation season is about at an end, it is interesting to note that several real "vacation records" were made by men and women who sailed forth, recreation bent, on motorcycles.

At the head of a long list of motorcycle vacation achievements stands the record of three college students who have just returned from a 3,000-mile motorcycle trip through Holland, Belgium, France, Switzerland, Germany and Austria.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Wall Street.

New York, Sept. 29.—The normal recovery in prices on the stock exchange which characterized yesterday's operations was continued through the early part of today's trading. The extensive short interest was the pivot around which the market revolved the covering movement by that element constituting the most important factor. Declaration of war by Italy against Turkey later brought about a reaction.

In the face of the early advances the market rose vigorously soon after the opening. United States Steel touched its high point of the week at 62. It was apparent that this seemingly artificial movement was due to the fact that the short interest had been over-extending itself during the heavy selling early in the week.

Italy's declaration of war heightened the unfavorable effect of the foreign influence. In the latter part of the day the market sagged and gains of one to three points were lost.

The position of this country at this time of crisis in European politics was described by international bankers as unusually favorable. For the first time in many years it was said, the beginning of a war in Europe found money rates here easy, so that New York is in a position to enlarge its credits abroad.

Trading in American Tobacco securities was continued on a large scale. The four per cent bonds weakened early in the day. On the "cure" the common stock bounded fourteen points.

Of a number of railroads whose August reports were submitted today, American Pacific was the only large system to show material increase in net earnings. Curiously enough, Canadian Pacific was the weakest stock among the railroad issues. Reading, Erie and Rock Island reported smaller clearings. Closing stocks:

Total sales for the day 797,800 shares.

There was further activity in the bond market. The total sales of bonds per value, $3,240,000.

United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—War by Italy against Turkey made a strong active market today for wheat. The close was 1-8-1/4 to 1-2 of a cent higher than last night. Latest trading left corn 1-8 off to 3-8 up, oats at 1-4 to 3-8 advance and hog products varying from the level of twenty-four hours before to 7-2 points gain late hours before to 7-2 points gain. The theory of those who bought wheat on account of war news was that the crash would be likely to disturb political affairs generally throughout Europe.

Most of the active speculators here were caught on the short side of the market when the actual break between the two nations was announced and it was the scramble of the unlucky dealers to get even that caused prices to ulge. Heavy receipts north-west despite persistent wet weather there acted as a drag on the market.

The bulls were discouraged by demand of iron in the Argentine. All else was lost sight of however when it became certain that war was on.

A decidedly nervous feeling was manifested at the close. Between the initial and final sales December ranged from 97 5-8 to 96 7-8, with the net result 3-8-1/2 advance at 98 5-8.

The notion that it was dangerous to be on the short side of the market held of the corn pit when the wheat market turned sour. December fluctuated from 63 1-2 to 63 7-8@64, and closed steady at 63 3-4@63 7-8, a net loss of 1-8 of a cent. Cash sales were firm. No. 2 yellow finished at 68 1-2@69.

Oats showed independent strength. December ranged between 47 3-4 and 47 1-2, with the close 3-8 net higher at 47 3-4.

The war news and the grain strength controlled the outcome in provisions. In the end pork had risen 5 to 7 1-2, lard was unchanged to be higher and ribs up a shade, to 7 1-2.

Boston Wool Market.

Boston, Sept. 29.—The Commercial Bulletin will say of the wool market tomorrow:

"Activity in the Boston wool market this week has been more pronounced and of clothing wool in the grease is conservatively estimated that at least two million pounds of this and fine medium have changed hands. In territory wools there has been a demand for the staple and half blood combed staple. Prices have shown no advance on these wools. In fleeces there has been a good demand for wools below quarter hood at firm prices. Odds and ends of bright wools have also been in fair demand, while a fair amount of soiled wools suitable for purposes has changed hands. Putted wools are fairly active in B. and C. grades, the former around 42c.

Dun's Weekly Review.

New York, Sept. 28.—Dun's Review of Trade tomorrow will say: "There is nothing in the industrial and mercantile situation to correspond with the common recently prevailing in the financial markets. While conservatism is the rule in all branches of trade and industry, supplies I mention every line are so plentiful that the volume of business is very extensive. Buying of iron and steel products is confined to pressing needs, yet consumption is not much below maximum. In the Pittsburgh district concessions on open heavily bids at sheet bars bring quotations down to $19 and $19.50, respectively. In the rail division an inquiry for 30,000 tons of Bessemer rails is reported.

"Among the plate mills, quieter conditions prevail, with orders from car and locomotive works diminishing. In pig iron there is little activity.

"Trade slowly improves in footwear. Orders placed by jobbers continue for small quantities, but they are numerous and in the aggregate satisfactory. Buying of spring goods is not active. Better conditions prevail in leather. Total sales of sole leather for a week are estimated at 250,000 sides. Sales of hides are not as large as in some recent weeks."
