ENGLAND. Achievements of the Ministry.

The best thing perhaps that can be said in favor of the Cobden Ministry is that it represents impotency in power at a moment of transition, when not the reality, but only the appearance of government is possible, with various old parties and not yet consolidated new ones.

1854, and then 2 1/2 per cent. up to Sept. 1, 1854. Now this is merely the creation of a new financial and unimpaired Budget for the year 1854, and is not intended to pay 4 percent interest on the 2 1/2 per cent. Exchequer bills at 4 percent.

There are some who have a high opinion of the financial management of the Ministry. They believe that the Government is doing all that it can to reduce the national debt.
