SCHOOL OF MINES NOTES.

Some Matter That the Students Have Been Interested in During Past Week.

Work was suspended Wednesday evening until Monday morning in order that all concerned might have time to recover from the effects of Thanksgiving dinner. C. N. Hilton, a former student at the school, came up from San Antonio to attend the Thanksgiving dance. Mr. Hilton was elected one of Socorro county's representatives at the last election to the lower house of the first state legislature.

The regular monthly dance given by the members of the social club took place Wednesday evening. There were about twenty-five couples present, the music was much better than usual, and everybody enjoyed himself to the fullness of his capacity.

A number of students invited their young lady friends to a rather unusual party on the campus last Saturday evening. There was a big bonfire and a jolly good time around it, and then all repaired to the dormitory assembly room and indulged in dancing until the hands of the clock pointed very near to the Sunday mark. Refreshments were served in the dining room, Mrs. Driscoll presiding.

Several students have undertaken an enterprise that they hope will be a means of attracting the attention of the passerby to the fact that the state School of Mines is located at Socorro. The enterprise is that of constructing an immense M on the very summit of Socorro mountain. The letter will be large enough to be seen plainly from the railroad, in fact for several miles before Socorro is reached from either direction. The young men having the work in charge went up to the top of the mountain yesterday and their camp fire could be seen burning last night four miles away and half a mile above the city.

THE CANVASSING BOARD

Began Its Session in the State House in Santa Fe Monday Morning.

BUT PROGRESS HAS BEEN SLOW

Forty-One Precincts Had Failed to Make Required Returns to Secretary Jaffa.

A Tuesday's dispatch concerning the work of the canvassing board said:

Governor Mills, Chief Justice Pope and Secretary Jaffa, the official board canvassing the returns from the recent election, made little progress today. The entire session, both morning and afternoon, was devoted to assembling the poll books from the various precincts to ascertain whether or not any of them are missing. As the result of this work it was found that at least forty-one of the nearly six hundred precincts have failed to make returns.

After considerable discussion between the members of the board and counsel representing the respective parties it was decided that the judges of election in the delinquent precincts will be at once called upon to make their returns as required by law.

In the meantime it is the intention of the committee to go ahead with the canvass in the expectation that all of the delinquent precincts will have reported before the count on those now at hand is finished.

The race for the supreme court is probably attracting the most attention. From the returns gathered by both the republican and democratic state central committees, it appears that R. H. Hanna, the progressive republican candidate, is leading all the others by a safe margin and his election is generally conceded. Following Mr. Hanna comes Judge C. J. Roberts, republican, of whose election there remains but little doubt. For the third member of the supreme bench it will require the official count to decide. The most complete available returns show the election of Summers Burkhart by a majority considerably less than one hundred over Judge Parker. The republicans, however, are unwilling to concede Mr. Burkhart's election, and according to figures prepared by their central committee both Judge Parker and Judge Wright lead Mr. Burkhart.

The sessions of the canvassing board are attracting considerable attention and there is always a good crowd present in the gallery of the senate chamber during the six-hour daily session of the board. Some little discussion arose this morning as to the manner of handling the missing precincts and as to whether or not it was proper for the board to proceed until all the returns were in. Neill B. Field, for the democrats, was at first inclined to oppose the canvass in the absence of the complete returns, but finally agreed that this method was advisable, especially so as the board is without information as to the exact number of election precincts in New Mexico.

It was pointed out to the board to day that in a number of counties new precincts have been established and others abolished since the last general election. This is a matter entirely under the control of the boards of county commissioners and there is no provision of law whereby it is made mandatory on the boards to notify the territorial secretary of changes made.

Another precinct in which no election was held was discovered today. This is Pearl, in Eddy county, created just prior to the election. The probate clerk of Eddy county certified to the canvassing board that no supplies were sent to this precinct for the reason that a sufficient quantity had not been provided. The clerk does not explain just why he did not himself provide the necessary paraphernalia for the election in every precinct in his county.

In the two Roosevelt county precincts in which no election was held the explanation is offered that in one instance a messenger sent with the supplies for two precincts left them both at the first one reached and forgot entirely the second part of his task. In the case of the other precinct the supplies were sent to Melrose instead of Tabian where the people looked for them, and the mistake was not discovered until too late to hold the election.

LETTER FROM WM. GARDINER

Mr. Gardiner Speaks of New Mexico Politics and of Conditions in California.

The Chieftain has recently received a letter from a former well known and highly respected citizen of Socorro county as follows: Santa Monica, Calif., Oct. 22, 1911.

The Socorro Chieftain,
Socorro, N. M.

Dear Sirs: Please find enclosed my check for $4.00 and give me credit for the same. I am somewhat tardy but trust you will overlook it.

I see you have had an election, but suppose the results were a surprise to a great many. I have thought for some years that right would adjust itself in time, but I hope you will not think that I have changed my principles. They are as ever for right.

We often meet some of our New Mexico friends here and would be only more pleased to give the glad hand to more of them. Remember me with my best wishes to any of them, including yourselves. The most of the New Mexico people here are well and enjoying themselves, which is not hard to do here on the coast with so much fine weather, but I am sorry to say the damp air does not agree with me.

I will close with best regards and would be only too glad to meet you here.

Yours truly,
WM. GARDINER.

A DISTRESSING SUICIDE

Family Troubles Drive a Kind and Affectionate Mother to Take Her Own Life.

AN OUNCE OF CARBOLIC ACID

Three Small Children Are the Chief Sufferers from the Mother's Desperate Deed.

Kelly, N. M., Nov. 30, 1911.

To the Chieftain: A little family of five, the father about twenty-eight years old, an industrious young man with a position paying four dollars per day, and a bright future before him; the mother a very pretty, well educated young woman of twenty-three; three children, a boy four years old, a girl two years old, and a baby of two months.

Such was until last Thursday, November 23rd, the family of Norman P. Gordon of Kelly, New Mexico. The husband held an important position with the Germany Mining and Development Co., and the family as a whole should have been one of the happiest in the country.

But every Eden has its serpent. In this case it took the shape of whiskey. Little by little, it crept in. At first the husband took an occasional drink. Then, as the habit grew, several glasses became necessary after a day's work at the mine. Recently it became a common sight to see him reeling homeward, drunk. And, as if this was not humiliation enough for a highspirited woman like Mrs. Gordon, it also became necessary for her to receive blows from the hands of the man she loved.

These occurrences constantly became more frequent, and many a neighbor has seen Mrs. Gordon crying to lead her husband from the saloons, a baby in her arms, with a wailing cry, and the eldest child only old enough to walk alone.

On the 23rd Mr. Gordon again lapsed too freely. His wife, it seems, could not bear her troubles longer. She loved him so she could not think of living away from him. She could not endure a life with him when it daily promised to grow worse.

At 2 p. m. she drank an ounce of carbolic acid. Her husband, who was on his way home, discovered her immediately after, and summoned the neighbors as quickly as his condition permitted. Dr. Thomas came as fast as an auto would bring him in answer to the phone call, but Mrs. Gordon was beyond earthly help, and at 5:10 passed away, only a small portion of the time suffering, as she was unconscious.

Her sister, Mrs. Wayman Callender of Cerrillos, arrived the morning of the 24th and accompanied the body the following day that far on its way to Logansport, Indiana, where Mrs. Gordon was born and raised.

Ever since Mrs. Gordon has been in New Mexico, and this has been several years, she has been very highly respected in every community in which she has lived. She never mixed in the petty gossiping affairs of which every small town has its share. She was an economical housewife and the kindest of mothers.

Saturday at noon Mrs. Gordon's farewell letter to her husband was found in the kitchen on a shelf behind some bottles, where she evidently had placed it a short time before taking the acid. The letter reads as follows:

"Well, Norman, I hope God will forgive the one who has been to blame for this terrible failure. I am now about to depart from this life in order to give you your longed-for freedom. Ever since we were married three months, I have known you regretted our marriage as a great mistake. I tried to take my life before, but corrosive sublimate failed.

"I can feel yet those terrible slaps from you. Oh, God! how my poor heart aches.

"Try to be both mother and father to my poor babies. God knows it hurts to leave them. I know how you despise me, but do teach them to love me and remember me as a kind mother. I shall wait until I see you coming, so they will not be long alone, and then take this acid and end my poor life and this terrible heartache.

"Oh, how I long to die in your arms and feel your warm kisses on my lips as long ago when we were so foolish yet happy.

"Bury me in solid black and remember me as kindly as you can. Don't start any trouble with the folks, and take the children to see them when you can.

"Oh, how I've loved you! God knows it hurts to go.

"Your poor heart broken

"Be a good boy and don't, for God's sake, ever go in another saloon or take another drink."

Such a letter speaks for itself. Could anything be more pathetic? Is there any reproach in this? A request to "Remember me as kindly as you can;" another, "Try to be both mother and father to my poor babies;" and last of all, "Don't, for God's sake, ever go in another saloon or take another drink."

The discovery of this letter after Mr. Gordon's departure was a lucky circumstance for him; for it was all that was needed to fan the already smouldering flame of public indignation against him into a raging white heat, and had he been in Kelly that afternoon and evening it is hard to say just what would have happened to him. Let us hope for the sake of law and order that he comes not again.

A Former Socorro Boy Is Reaching Prominence in the Field of Baseball.

L. A. Wattelet, president and general manager of the Victoria team of the Northwestern league, is at Hotel Sheldon. Watt is here to say "hello" to all the ball fans after an absence of ten years.

When he wore an El Paso uniform he was one of the fan favorites of the metropolis of the southwest and has many friends here who will recall him when he used to line'er over the fence.

Those were the days when he covered a lot of ground as an outfielder and wondered if he would ever sit in the council of the mighty at the annual gathering of the baseball kings. Today he returns from San Antonio, where he has been as a delegate to the annual baseball conference of the National Association of Baseball leagues.

He reports a big attendance of the club owners and managers, and predicts a great year for the national game. He is on his way for a few days' visit in his old home at Socorro, N. M. In the days when Watt played in El Paso, Captain Sullivan, now a fire fighter here, was on the team and they held a "chinfest" yesterday over old times. Wattelet will leave for Los Angeles about Thursday.—El Paso Herald.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SOCORRO COUNTY.

SATURDAY, DEC. 2, 1911.

THOSE NEW ROADS.

THERE is good reason to believe that the completion of the good road between Socorro and Magdalena marks the beginning of a new era for Socorro county.

As has already been noted several times in these columns, the Blue canyon road is not only one of the most important of its kind but also one of the most picturesque of any kind in New Mexico. It connects the two most important towns in the county and is sure to be the route of a vast amount of travel by automobile and other conveyances. As it winds upward through the canyon, over Indian hill, across the plain, and around the end of the Magdalena range up to Magdalena two thousand feet higher than Socorro, the traveler is favored with a variety and picturesque scenery that he will not easily find surpassed anywhere.

But the most important fact is that this is only the beginning of the building of good roads in this part of Socorro county. Already a force of convicts is at work on the road between Socorro and San Antonio, and the engineers are about to begin the survey of the road north as far as the Bernalillo county line. These two stretches of good road are to form a part of the camino real which will soon extend across New Mexico from the Rio Grande to the Texas line just above El Paso. Furthermore, they are to form a part of the great southern trans-continental tourist line from New York to Los Angeles and San Francisco.

It is evident, then, that a new state of affairs is just now being inaugurated, a state of affairs that means much to Socorro county. Let everybody lend his utmost encouragement.

FIRST impressions are often, if not always, lasting. When a stranger comes among us let us show him a spirit of genuine hospitality.

GOVERNOR-ELECT McDONALD comes very near being the only candidate on either of the state tickets who can read his title clear to a mansion in Santa Fe.

COL. ROOSEVELT surely possesses some magic power. At his slightest word on politics every republican candidate for the presidency sees spooks and every democratic candidate has a severe attack of heart failure.

SOCORRO really had a touch of winter weather the first of the week. The temperature went down to a little below the freezing point and there was a chill wind from those pesky snow storms that afflicted the poor unfortunates who live up in the northern counties of the state.

THERE is entirely too much loose, reckless talk about election frauds these days. It does no good at home and it does a vast deal of harm abroad. If any man has positive knowledge that fraud was committed at the late election, it is his duty as a good citizen to see to it that the offender is brought to punishment. If any man has no such knowledge, it is no less his duty as a good citizen to keep his suspicions and his vain imaginings entirely to himself. In ninety-nine cases out of every hundred the frauds are the product of his own too exuberant fancy.

It is a pleasure to say that the Santa Fe railroad company has at last favored its patrons at the Socorro station by lighting its depot and grounds with electric lights. For years past conditions there have been a source of great discomfort and also of danger to life and limb for passengers arriving or departing on the night trains. But now that several strong electric lamps have been installed in the yards all is changed. Passengers can come and go without a feeling of constant dread of unseen dangers. The Santa Fe is to be thanked for its consideration for the comfort and welfare of its patrons and the patrons themselves are to be congratulated on the great reduction of the discomforts of night travel.

Survived His Wife's Life.

"My wife would have been in her grave today," writes O. H. Brown of Muscadine, Ala., "if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery. She was down in her bed, not able to get up without help. She had a severe bronchial trouble and a dreadful cough. I got her a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, and she soon began to mend, and was well in a short time." Infallible for coughs and colds, its most reliable remedy on earth for desperate lung trouble, hemorrhages, legrippe, asthma, hay fever, croup and whooping cough. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by The Hilton Pharmacy.

Rejuvenated Old Maids.

H. J. Hayward who terms himself distributor and promoter of "Parfait Armour," which is the French for "Perfect love," a new compound in tablet form, is under arrest at Pittsburg, Pa., here on a charge of having used the mails to defraud. In the literature spread broadcast throughout the country Hayward claimed that the new chewing gum had the effect of rejuvenating old maids, reuniting disrupted wedlock and vitalizing the divorce courts. Thousands of letters were found in Hayward's office by the United States officials, many of them being from the west.

Lightning Kills Few.

In 1906 lightning killed only 169 people in this whole country. One's chances of death by lightning are less than two in a million. The chance of death from liver, kidney or stomach trouble is vastly greater, but not if Electric Bitters be used, as Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Ia., proved. Four doctors gave him up after eight months of suffering from virulent liver trouble and yellow jaundice. He was then completely cured by Electric Bitters. They're the best stomach, liver, nerve and kidney remedy and blood purifier on earth. Only 50c at The Hilton Pharmacy.

Coldest November for Years.

The coldest November day since November 17, 1880, was recorded today by the weather bureau when at 7 o'clock this morning, the temperature at Santa Fe and at Las Vegas had dropped to three degrees below zero. Only three before in the past 40 years according to official weather bureau records, has Santa Fe experienced zero weather in November.—Santa Fe New Mexican.

Ends Winter's Troubles.

To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost-bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold-sores, red and rough skins, prove this. But such troubles fly before Bucklen's Arnica Salve. A trial convinces. Greatest healer of burns, boils, piles, cuts, sores, bruises, eczema and sprains. Only 25c at The Hilton Pharmacy.

CANVASSING THE RETURNS

Most of the Candidates of the State Ticket Arrive in Santa Fe to Witness.

A dispatch of the first of the week from Santa Fe says:

The canvassing of the official returns by Chief Justice W. H. Pope, Governor William J. Mills, and Territorial Secretary Nathan Jaffa has brought to Santa Fe most of the candidates of the state ticket as well as a formidable array of eminent counsel to represent candidates and the two state central committees. One of the supreme court judgeships and the office of superintendent of public instruction, one district judgeship, and one state senatorship are in doubt because of the closeness of the official vote, which it will take ten days to canvass. Of the 107 offices outside of the county offices, the republicans will fill 71 and the democrats 35, with one in doubt. Of the 260 and more county officers, the democrats elected their entire ticket only in Ohaves, Eddy and Curry counties, and the republicans in seven counties, electing the larger part or some part of the ticket in the other sixteen counties. The legislative line-up is quite definite now, the republicans having fifteen, the progressive republicans two, and the democrats seven state senators. In the house the republicans have thirty, the progressive republicans three, and the democrats sixteen of the members. George W. Armijo and A. S. Bushevitza are already in the field for the two chief clerkships and R. L. Baca seems to have the inside run for the speakership of the house. Several of the progressive republicans have declared their intention of voting for W. H. Andrews for U. S. Senator and he has thirty-seven of the other republicans pledged to him, so that his election to the U. S. Senate on the first ballot is assured. Several of the other senatorial candidates are in Santa Fe watching the count and incidentally laying plans to capture the second senatorship. Those principally mentioned are Governor William J. Mills, H. O. Rursum, W. D. Murray, A. B. Fall, T. B. Catron, W. H. Gillenwater and Frank W. Parker, with Nathan Jaffa as a dark horse who would prove immensely popular at a direct primary such as has been suggested and advocated by W. H. Andrews.

Always Kisses the Judge.

"Do you always allow the minister who marries you to kiss you?" asks the lady with the alimony expression of the lady with the half-dozen wedding rings arranged as bangles on her bracelet.

"Dear me, no!" smiles the latter. "That is so horribly old-fashioned, my dear! But I always kiss the judge who divorces me."

Fornoff, for Penitentiary Warden.

Fred Fornoff, captain of the mounted police, was in the city several days this week on official business. Captain Fornoff has made a very capable officer and the News would not at all be surprised to see him retained where he is under the new governor. We do not know that he is a candidate for an office, but he would be a warden of the penitentiary that would fill the bill without an exception. He was for McDonald during the campaign.—Tuolumne News.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all dealers.

The Time.

"Sometimes you have to hit a man to make him keep quiet, so that you can save him from drowning." "Yes, and the time to do it is when he first begins to rock the boat."

Cold Money at Vegas.

Last night the thermometer dropped to 1 degree below zero, the coldest on record in Las Vegas this year, and this morning at 8 o'clock the official record was 3 degrees above, which is colder than at any time this fall. The highest point the temperature reached yesterday was 22 degrees above, ten below the freezing point. Up to this time only a thin coating of ice had formed in the Hot Springs canyon but this drop in the temperature and continued freezing should put a good layer of ice on the big dams of the Agua Fria company. Similar drops in the temperature are reported all over the northern and western part of the state, and according to the weather reports the cold spell will continue for some time.—Las Vegas Optic.

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me." For sale by all dealers.

Always Kisses the Judge.

"Do you always allow the minister who marries you to kiss you?" asks the lady with the alimony expression of the lady with the half-dozen wedding rings arranged as bangles on her bracelet.

"Dear me, no!" smiles the latter. "That is so horribly old-fashioned, my dear! But I always kiss the judge who divorces me."

When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

Not to Mention Motors.

"Since I'm married I realize how money is kept in circulation." "Well, let's have your chunk of money." "There's the spring hat, the summer vacation, the fall gown and the holiday shopping."

When your feet are wet and cold and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed, and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold. For sale by all dealers.

Collected More Than Needed.

The subscribers at Las Vegas toward the entertainment of the republican state convention are having $880 returned to them of the total amount of $2,200 contributed as only $1,320 was expended.

A RELIC OF THE OLDEN TIMES

An Ancient Copper Sauce Pan Found in a Canyon near Silver City.

The Silver City National Bank has on exhibition a relic of the old times in this country which is very interesting and must be quite valuable. It is a copper saucepan bearing on its well worn sides every evidence of a long and useful life when cooking utensils were more scarce and much more valuable than they are now.

The Angler's Bait.

A well-known angler at Peterborough having obtained a wasp's nest containing a large number of grubs, placed the nest in the kitchen over night to kill the grubs so that he could use them for bait.

The next morning he went to get the grubs, but on opening the oven door a swarm of wasps flew out. The oven was not hot enough to kill the grubs, but was sufficiently warm to hatch them.

A Warm Bathroom
PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER
Every mother should be careful that the children take their baths in a warm room. The chill of a cold room is dangerous after coming out of the hot water.
A Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater brings bathroom or bedroom to just the degree of warmth you want in five or ten minutes. All you have to do is to touch a match.
The Perfection Heater burns nine hours on one filling and is always ready for use. You can move it anywhere it is needed. There is no waste of fuel and heat warming unoccupied rooms. Just the heat you want, when and where you want it.
The Perfection is fitted with an automatic locking flame spreader that prevents the wick being turned high enough to smoke and is easy to remove and drop back when cleaning.
Dresses finished either in turquoise-blue enamel or platinum; light and ornamental, yet strong and durable—suitable for any room in any house.
Dressers everywhere or write to any agency of the Continental Oil Company (Incorporated)
