MINERAL RESOURCES OF NEW MEXICO.

From Capt. Mill's Report.
GOLD.

Gold is found in nearly every county in the Territory, either in the river or creek beds as placer, or in the mountain ranges as veins or lodes as quartz.

Placer mines.—There is scarcely a stream where one can not by close panning obtain a "color." The natives and Indians, with the crudest kind of contrivances, have procured large quantities of this most precious metal. The principal camps engaged in this branch of mining are: Morino and Ute Creek, Colfax County; Silver Hills, Dona Ana County; Georgetown and Pinos Altos, Grant County; Old and New Placers, Golden, Cerrillos and Tuerto, Santa Fe Co.; White Oak and Nogal, Lincoln County; Tierra Amarilla, Headstone, Eureka Gulch, and Good Hope, Rio Arriba County; Hillsborough, Sierra County; and Rio Colorado, Taos County.

Quartz mines.—It is an old established maxim that where there is smoke there must be fire, and in mining it is equally true that where there is placer gold there must be quartz not far off, the quartz lode being the mother of the placer.—The gold product of the quartz mines of New Mexico is of two characters—free milling ore, where the ore is found in almost pure or native state, and refractory ore, where the gold is alloyed with copper, lead, antimony, arsenic, zinc, etc., and has to be reduced by the smelting process. The districts engaged in the mining and reduction of free milling gold ore are: Georgetown, Pinos Altos, Stein's Pass and Carlisle, Grant County; Ute Creek and Pinal, Colfax County; White Oaks, Nogal and Bonito, Lincoln County; Tierra Amarilla, Headstone, and Good Hope, Rio Arriba County; Cerrillos, Golden, and Tuerto, Santa Fe County; Hillsborough, Lake Valley and Kingston, Sierra County; Magdalena, Water Canon, and Cooney, Socorro County; Rio Hondo and Picuris, Taos County.

LEAD SMELTING ORES.

This class of ore is found in great abundance in nearly every portion of the Territory. It comprises gold and silver ores, which, being allied to the baser metals, as lead, zinc, sulphur, etc., can not be profitably reduced except by smelting. The leading producing districts are: Kingston, Lake Valley, Hillsborough, Hermosa, Grafton, Fairview, and Tierra Blanco, Sierra County; Cerrillos, Golden, Carbonaville, Silver Butte, and San Ysidro, Santa Fe County; Georgetown, Bear Mountain, Cook's Peak, the Floridas, Tucs Hermanas, Burra Mountain, Victoria, Eureka, and Shakespeare, Grant County; Organ and Silver Hills, Dona Ana County; Nogal, Bonito, Jicarillas, and Red Cloud, Lincoln County; Magdalena, Kelly, and Cooney, Socorro County; Arroyo Hondo and San Cristobal, Taos County; Manzano, Valencia County; and Mineral Hill, San Miguel County.

SILVER MILLING ORES.

The principal camps in which this class of ore is produced in the form of native, ruby, or vitreous silver, and which have mills in operation, are: Chloride flat, Pinos Altos Fleming, Lone Mountain, Bullard's peak, and Pyramid, Grant County; Carlos and San Ysidro, Santa Fe County; Kingston, Lake Valley, Chloride, Grafton, Villines, and Hillsborough, Sierra County; and Cooney, Socorro County.

COAL AND IRON.

It has been estimated by persons well informed as to the geology of New Mexico, and the estimate is probably correct, that at least one-quarter of New Mexico's area of 122,000 square miles is underlain with coal, and that a large percentage of this ranks among the best metallurgical and calorific purposes, and is superior to any found elsewhere in either the Rocky Mountains or on the Pacific Slope, the Republic of Mexico, Texas or Kansas.

At the points where the Atchison, Topka & Santa Fe Railroad enters the Territory in the Raton Mountains, good coking coal is found, and the field extends south on the eastern slope of the mountains, a distance of about 60 miles, to the Cimarron River. The same character of coal is also found at different points to the south on the eastern slope of the mountains east of the Rio Grande, in Mora County, in San Miguel County, and in northern and central Santa Fe County. An extensive field of very superior coking coal exists at Cerrillos in Santa Fe County and true anthracite coal measures are found in that county. South of Santa Fe County and still east of the Rio Grande lie the extensive coal fields of Lincoln County, where collieries have been opened in the last few years, and which have attracted general attention by the excellence and amount of coal shown. Coal is also found in the eastern part of Taos County, where it adjoins Colfax.

West of the Rio Grande River brown coal or lignite is found in central Rio Arriba County, which is traced south to central and western Bernalillo County, western Valencia County; and into Grant County. Mines have been opened in Gallup and Defiance, in Bernalillo County, upon the line of the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad, and at Armago and Monierro, in Rio Arriba County, upon the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad.

Large beds of good iron ore found in Colfax, Lincoln, Taos, San Miguel, Socorro, Dona Ana, and Grant Counties, and all more or less near to coal and limestone.

With regard to the large number of steers, 450,000, which our information shows to be in the territory, we must say that the number far exceeds our estimate. Last week we stated that the figure would probably reach 300,000, but later reports swelled the totals. The editor of the Stock Grower believes this Week's figures are correct, although many cattle men will doubt it like blazes. It must be remembered that the question as to steers read like this: "In your opinion how many steers will be marketed in (blank) district, (blank) county during 1890, provided prices are satisfactory to sellers.—Stock Grower."

The Las Vegas Stock grower has at much trouble, ascertained the number of steers in New Mexico. We condense the following in relation to Lincoln County:

No. of 1 year olds, 12,900; 2s, 7,700; 3s, and up, 1,500. These figures are separate from Chaves and Eddy Co's.

The time of year being taken into consideration the following is the general condition of cattle, range and water supply:

Lincoln County cattle, good—range, short—water usual.

It is said by experts in the West that probably the most laborious as well as the most regular mining for gems is done by the ants in Arizona and Colorado. Either because the ants want the pebbles as an outer covering for their hills or because they object to them, inside they frequently make about their dwellings a glittering spread of stones of all sorts, among them amethysts, topazes, and other valuable jewels.

It has long been known that the temperature of deep mines and boreholes rises the further down one goes; and recent observations made in a bore-hole over a mile deep at Schladebach, near Duerrenberg in Germany, have shown that the rate of increase of temperature in descending is one degree Fahrenheit for every sixty five feet. Great precautions against error were taken in these experiments, which appear to be the most reliable of the kind yet made.—Cassell's Family Magz.

THE LITTLE SOLDIER.

"When I'm big I'll be a soldier,
That's what I will be:
Fight for father, fight for mother,
Over land and sea!"
And before him on the table
Stood in bright array
All his little wooden soldiers,
Ready for the fray.
Then he charged his little cannon,
Singing out with glee,
"When I'm big, I'll be a soldier,
That's what I will be!"

By the firelight sat the mother,
Tears were in her heart,
Thinking of the swift time coming
When they two must part.

Soon the shadow fell between them,
Soon the years flew by;
He has left his little mother,
Left her—perhaps to die.
All the laughter gone forever,
All the sunshine fled.
Only little mother praying
By his empty bed.

Then there came a dreadful battle,
And upon the plain
Crept the little mother, seeking
Some one 'mid the slain.
But she never found her darling
In the white moon gleam.
For the little cannon firing
Woke her from her dream.
All a dream! He stood beside her,
Singing out with glee,
"When I'm big I'll be a soldier,
That's what I will be!"

—Temple Bar.

A TOUGH ONE.

I shall never forget one cold night that I spent in Winnipeg in 1888. After traveling all one day I stopped at a comfortable-looking hotel. I told the landlord I was not accustomed to such cool weather, and I wanted the warmest room he could give me. He gave me one with two stoves and an open grate, a rousing fire in each.

I retired early, slept soundly for about two hours between two feather beds and a quantity of extra coverings. I woke up shivering. Although my bed was between the stoves and opposite the grate, I could feel no heat from either. Each fire looked as bright and cheerful as when I retired. I put my hands out toward the stoves, but the air could not have been colder in an icehouse.

I ventured out of bed to investigate. The stoves were cold, also the grate—the mystery was solved; I went back to bed. The fires were all frozen.

I remained between the feather beds until after the sun had made his appearance and chased Jack Frost away. The fires then being thawed out, began burning again without being rekindled.—Ex.

Lincoln County, from the report of the assessor, 1889, has 11,021 Horses, 362, Mules, 253,111 Cattle, 128,592 Sheep, 10,078 Goats, 167 Burros, 895 Swine. The total valuation of the above live stock was the enormous sum of $2,449,833, this amount exceeded largely every other county in the Territory. Lincoln leads all the others in Horses, Cattle, Goats, Mules and Swine. The comparisons with the other counties show some glaring differences in valuations, and unless the matter is equalized better on the new assessment Lincoln County will pay more than its share of the next tax levy. We give the following as some of the most obvious errors. Bernalillo county had 333,615 Sheep and is assessed $287,125, while Lincoln had 128,592 and is assessed $152,125. Sheep were worth only 75 cts. a head in Bernalillo while in Lincoln they were put in at $1.18 per head. Mora has 1,082 hogs valued at $1,637, while Lincoln with 805 is valued at $1,823. Cattle are assessed $1.00 per head more in Lincoln county than in Dona Ana. These differences should be remedied and each county pay a proper proportion. These figures show the importance of electing men to the next legislature who will enforce and demand a correction of such bare faced robbery. We of Lincoln county desire to pay our proportion, but when it comes to giving a royalty to republican bosses, it is about time to call a halt. We have gone over the reports in other classes of property which show the same distinction, the whole matter needs ventilation for the benefit of Lincoln county.

The country has had one year of Benjamin Harrison to-day. How does the country find itself on the anniversary? Not better, certainly. Wages have not advanced. Farm products bring no better prices. Living is not easier to any human being who must earn a living by toil. The army of the unemployed is not diminished. Commerce is not more active. Nobody is better off in fact or in prospect except the monopolists who paid for this incapable's election, and whose servants he and his Congressional supporters are. The surplus which a year ago seemed about to compel a reduction of taxation has been swept away in extravagance, and, instead of reducing, the dominant party in congress is planning to increase the people's burdens. The civil service has been again prostituted to the spoilsman from whose foul embraces it had partially escaped. The scandal of Wanamaker in the Cabinet by purchase and drumming for his shop among the Pan American delegates humiliated a self-respecting people. The alliance with two monarchies for the exploitation of Samoa, and the long refusal to welcome the Republic in Brazil, have deeply wounded American sentiment. The shameful protection of Dudley, the scandalous jury-packing in Florida, the infamous dicker by which Warmoth is made the official representative of the administration in Louisiana, the desecration of Liberty Island, the Bowling Green job, the farming out of patronage to Platt—all these and a score of like things have made the first year of this administration more shameful than any year of any other administration has ever been. And what do the people think of Harrison himself? No newspaper of any party and no member of Congress ever mentions him as a possible candidate for re-election at the end of his term. Nobody speaks with respect of his administration or of himself as a man of ability or influence even in his own party. In one year he has ruined his own political prospects by incapacity and gross unfaithfulness; in another he will ruin the prospects of his party as well.—N. Y. World.

It begins to look as though some of the President's nominees in New Mexico are standing on slippery places as far as confirmation is concerned. Some very strong charges have gone on to Washington against them from men in their own party. The Democrats are taking no hand in the fight, but are having a hearty laugh at the "home rule" fake. The Republicans used to guy them, too, about Cleveland's backwardness in putting Democrats into office; now the Democrats can get back at their adversaries by positing to the snail-like pace of Harrison in the matter of appointments, and to the ridiculous blunders he has made.—Sun.

New Mexico is surely on the eve of the most prosperous time in her history. The interest that capitalists are at the present time taking in our country is quite significant, and we should exert ourselves to display our many advantages and resources at a time when it promises to do a vast amount of good. Colorado capitalists are looking toward New Mexico's mines for investment, and where a Colorado man buys mining property others will surely follow, as Colorado mining men are not in the habit of investing where it does not pay, and pay is a big rule. So let us put our shoulders to the wheel and work together and we may look for such an influx of capital into New Mexico as has not been seen for years. We can accomplish much in this manner and will be well paid in the end for the little exertion it will cost.—Pinas Altos Miner.

PROTECTIONIST AND FARMERS.

The farmer is the innocent with whom the protectionists sport. He has been fooled with a mystical home market for nearly a hundred years, and now he is informed that there are other pleasant surprises in store for him. He is to be blessed with a duty on barley, eggs, dressed poultry and nearly all other farm products. His horses are to be protected. Dear old farmer! How glad he will be to know that if anyone is foolish enough to import farm products which are begging for a market at home the improvident man must pay a duty. And this welcome surprise is to make the farmer hilariously happy when he pays his taxes on his clothes, and on transportation over protected rails, on his dinner can, on his agricultural implements, on his house and barns. A few more such welcome surprises will ruin the American agriculturist beyond redemption.—N. Y. World.

Mr. Joseph speaks.

Recently the New Mexican has found it necessary to make some strictures upon Mr Joseph's course concerning the admission of New Mexico. It looked, concluding from newspaper reports, as if he was opposing the movement. We are gratified therefore to publish the following letter from him upon the subject:

To the Editor of the New Mexican.
Washington, D. C., March 5, '90
—I am not antagonizing by word or action, Mr. Springer's plan for the admission of New Mexico, Arizona, Idaho and Wyoming as states, upon one omnibus bill; but the majority of the house committee on territories, I believe, is opposed to the said omnibus bill and in favor of my enabling act for the admission of New Mexico into the union on an equal footing with the original states, and therefore, I want to be in accord with the said committee in making favorable report to the house of my own enabling act; in other words I am in favor of the measure that will admit us at the earliest possible time, whether that measure is Mr. Springer's bill or my enabling act.

Yours truly,
A. JOSEPH.

Anthony Joseph is all right, and the "strictures" of the New Mexican are wasted.

STOLEN STOCK.

A good piece of work has been accomplished by the arrest of West, Murray and Tackett, who are in jail here for stealing horses. Tackett has "peached" on his companions, and from his statement it seems that a fine nest of scoundrels has been broken into. A ranch had been established at Ascension, Mexico, and the plan was to steal horses in the States and take them into Mexico and trade with Mexican thieves for horses stolen from points in Mexico. When captured each of the thieves were dressed in a coat of mail.

In their first raid through this county they stole a bunch of horses near La Luz, from Cooper and others, and on their way south picked up the Davies, Wildy and Goldenberg horses. They are the same outfit that stole the herd of cattle from La Mesa. Charley Good, well-known in this county, is implicated with them. Sheriff Whitehill, of Grant county, has about 65 horses that they brought into that county. We annex the brands of one bunch, which are at Whitehill's ranch on the Gila:

- A bald-faced roan, branded with an arrow and L on thigh.
- A bay mare, branded with a cross on thigh and S on shoulder.
- A bay horse, grey mare and a dun mare, branded running M.
- A bay mare with A on shoulder, and G on same.
- A brown mare, branded F on left thigh.
- A bay mare, branded running N, and colt with F J brand.
- A roan stallion, branded with Mexican brand resembling A P connected.
- Two bay mares and a yearling colt, with crescent brand.
- A bay mare, with Mexican brand resembling JBT connected.
- A roan mare, with mule colt and two-year-old filly, branded R.
- Two bay mares, brands not visible.
- A sorrel mare, branded JF connected, and C on left thigh.
- A black mare, branded B.
- A bay mare, bald face, branded with running N.—Rio Grande Republican.

We notice that a number of papers throughout the country are fighting the Farmers' and Laborers Union. They seem to be animated by the idea that the farmer has no right to make a united and organized effort to better his condition. If there is any class in the world that ought to be making an effort for their own cause it is the farmer. Through the medium of class legislation he is being impoverished, and without something is done to change the policy that has been pursued for the past quarter of a century, the great mass of our farmers will soon be reduced to tenants.

The Dramatic Entertainment given by the White Oaks Dramatic Co., (last Friday evening,) composed of local talent entire, was a decided success. The several parts were rendered admirably the ladies and gentlemen, who for charity sake studied and acquitted themselves so nicely, deserve praise for the success. The proceeds amounted to about $42. It will not be amiss to give publicity to the fact, that our genial and popular townsman, Mr. Gus Schunzing, who conducts the leading saloon in this place, closed his place of business for the evening, notifying his customers that the object for which the show was given must be patronized, the boys turned out en masse and helped to swell the receipts. When citizens demonstrate such sympathy, they certainly are doing their part.

We would call the attention of our readers to the offer on 6th page, of the COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE and the INTERPRETER, one year for $2.50. This is the greatest offer made this season. The magazine is regarded equal to any and has an immense circulation. Call and see sample copy.

The Congregational Church Society, will hold services in the new Church on Sunday next. Rev. N. W. Lane officiating, the society deserve the accommodations which the new edifice will enable them to enjoy, they have worked incessantly and industriously to attain this object. The generosity of our citizens, without regard to any particular class or sect, have aided materially in meeting the expenses attending the construction of the building, and all feel a just pride in owning such a substantial and lasting monument, to be devoted to the service of God and the welfare of the community in general. In our next issue we will speak at length as to the cost, and present financial condition of the society.

The Jicarilla Well and Mining Co, are busy at work on their well.

Justice T. B. McCourt, has moved his office in the Interpreter office building, where he may be found in the future.

Geo. B. Loving, of El Paso, writing to the Fort Worth Journal says:

There is but little doing in the cattle business through this section. Kansas feeders are picking up quite a number three and four-year-old steers through southern New Mexico and Arizona, for which they are paying $15 to $17 per head. These cattle go to Kansas to assist in eating the over supply of corn, and later on to help glut the market.

As stated in a former letter, 30,000 to 40,000 cattle will be driven from that part of Texas lying between El Paso and the Pecos River. These cattle are now being gathered, and most all of them will be on the trail by the 15th of March.

Quite a number of these cattle were intruded for the Cherokee strip, but will now be ruled out of that section by the recent proclamation of the president. Suppose however, that they will be able to find grazing grounds in the Chickasaw, Choctaw and other nations of the big Indian Territory.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS:

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures croup, cough and diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price, 25 cents a bottle.

It is amusing to hear the Republicans talk about electing a delegate to Congress next fall. Better nominate Otero and flatter and coax him into putting up $20,000 or $30,000, boys. You will get something then. That is you will get the money, and Otero, or anybody else, will get left as usual.—Sun.

Jay Gould in El Paso.

Jay Gould, the great railroad magnate will arrive in El Paso over the Texas and Pacific this morning. Of course it is not known exactly what he is coming out here for, but it is intimated that he will look into the White Oaks, road with a view to building a road from El Paso to Kansas City via White Oaks. Some months ago Mr. Gould said to A. L. Houck of Houck & Dieter that El Paso, Denver and Wichita were the future great cities of the west.—Times, of Mar. 1th.

Mr. Parker is expected back to day.
PROSPEROUS TIMES

Among the Cattlemen, Farmers and Miners of Lincoln County, N. M.

J. E. Cree, owner of the August VV Ranch, near Fort Stanton, his foreman, Peter Burlison, and J. Bobinson, are in the city, with Geo. White, from the Lea Ranch. Mr. Cree and Mr. Burlinson, left to-day for San Antonio, to purchase cow ponies and mules for use on the road, as they will start driving a herd of about 4500 head of cattle to Kansas when they return home. They drove 3,000 head last year. At present they have about 15,000 head of graded stock on their ranch, which is located on Little Creek, about 150 miles north of this city and 30 miles from White Oaks. Their cattle are graded with the Scotch Pole Angus bulls, and there are about 200 head of horses on the ranch also. Little Creek empties into the Ruidoso river. There is considerable farming done on all these creeks, including the Rio Bonito. Mr. Cree has 300 acres under cultivation and raises all kinds of grain, vegetables and different varieties of fruit. A good deal of the produce finds its way down here, and more to a mining town called Nogal, and to Fort Stanton, Parsons city and White Oaks. The government buys the greater part of corn at Ft. Stanton. The grass and water are better than they have been in five years, and stock are doing remarkably well. Mining is active in that country also. Nogal has some rich gold mines, and about three years ago a prospector, named Parsons, found a gold mine about 10 miles from Mr. Cree's ranch, and it has now become a big mining camp, known as Parsons City. Parsons died some time since, and his brother sold the mine to a company who are about to put up machinery to treat the ore. A great deal of the supplies of this region come through this city. There are several other companies prospecting and mining in the vicinity, and Sam Wortley and Waverly Johnson are working a big coal mine near Ft. Stanton. The ranch is located about thirty-five miles beyond Tularosa. Geo. White who is here came down with Buck Guise, manager of the Lea ranch, who is at present in Mexico buying cow ponies for use on the ranch and on the drive, as they are rounding up to drive about 4000 head of beefstock. The Lea ranch is located on Rio Bonito, and has about 40,000 head of stock, and several hundred head of horses. They farm considerably also, and have 160 acres in alfalfa, and raise grain of all kinds. They put up 250 tons of alfalfa every year, and have a herd of 200 hogs. Red Higgins, another Stockman, is at present in Mexico with Guise, buying horses on his own accord. The Milan ranch on Spring River, in the same section of country, has about 25,000 head of cattle, and will also drive a herd of steers this spring to Kansas. The mail reaches Ft. Stanton from Carthage on the Santa Fe road, from which station it is about 100 miles by stage. —El Paso Herald, 9th inst.

Green, (or St. Louis, Mo.) his heirs and assigns as mortgagee the following described Real Estate situate in the said County of Lincoln and Territory of New Mexico, as follows, to wit: That certain Placer Mining Claim and premises designated by the Surveyor General of New Mexico as Lot No. 151 and known as the Jones Placer mining claim in the White Oaks mining district and which is more particularly described as to meets and bounds on the United States Patent recorded in the records of said Lincoln County in book C of records of patents at page 151 to which reference is hereby made to secure the payment of a certain promissory note made by the said Theodore W. Hemans and M. Lulu Hemans to the said Phil E. Green, of even date with said mortgage deed for the sum of one thousand five hundred dollars and interest thereon at the rate of twelve per centum per annum, payable one year from the date thereof and whereas it was provided in and by said mortgage deed, that if default be made in the payment of said principal and interest thereon or any part thereof, when the same should become due and payable, then in such case, the said mortgagee, his agent or legal representative, might sell at public auction said mortgaged premises to the highest bidder for cash: first giving notice of the time and place of such sale by publishing a notice in some newspaper published in the County of Lincoln, for at least thirty days before the date of such sale and in their name or names or in the name of an attorney or agent mortgagee might make and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers at such sale a good and sufficient deed of such premises.

And whereas default has been made in the payment of the principal sum and interest thereon due upon said note and which default still continues: Now, therefore, Public Notice is hereby given that on Tuesday the 15th day of April, A. D. 1890, at the hour of two (2) o'clock in the afternoon, at the said described premises adjoining the town of White Oaks, in said County of Lincoln, the said Phil E. Green, by his agents and Attorney, Watson & Lund, will sell in Public Auction to the highest bidder for cash, the premises herebefore and in the said mortgage-deed described in pursuance of the powers and provisions of the said mortgage-deed.

The amount claimed to be due and unpaid upon said note of principal and interest thereon, together with attorney's fees and costs of advertising and sale, etc, is one thousand, seven hundred and eighty and 10/100 dollars. (1780.10)

Mr. Lee: "Why, Addie, you needn't cry about it! I only said Mrs. Allen was a very well-informed woman, and I wished you would follow her example."

Mrs. Lee: "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs. Allen, and she makes all her own clothes. But she has what I have not."

Mr. Lee: "What is that?" Mrs. Lee: "Well, she gets all of her information from the Magazine they take. I admit that she knows all that is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation, but I can't do as well as she does if I had the same source of information. She lent me the last number of her Magazine lately, and I learned more in one hour's reading, about various social matters and the topics of the day, than I could pick up in a month by my occasional chats with friends. I certainly covers every topic of interest from the news of the day down to the details of household life; and everything is so beautifully illustrated, too. Every time Annie goes over to the Alens' she comes back and ceases me to see you, like Demarest's Family Magazine, as the stories are so good. By the way, boys write for every month, as a place is found for them all in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family!"

Mr. Lee: "Well, perhaps I had better send for a Specimen Copy; for, if I get anything like what you say it is, it will amuse and instruct the whole family."

Mrs. Lee: "I see that W. Demarest, the publisher, 15 East 13th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 1 cent, so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a 'Patter or' enabling the holder to any pattern she may choose, and in any size, which alone makes each copy worth 5 cents, and I just want a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $2.00 a year; and I must say I can't see how they can publish so elegant a Magazine for so little money."

The discovery of even the reputed tomb of Cleopatra invests, with a kind of romantic interest, the purely scientific researches conducted by Dr. Rudolf Virchow into the ethnography of ancient Egypt, the most salient results of which he has incorporated in a report to the Akademie der Wissenschaften, of Berlin. Dr. Virchow, in his capacity of physiologist and anthropologist, repaired to Egypt and examined all the royal mummies that were accessible, of all of which both of their skulls and bodies, he took minute measurements. He arrived at the conclusion that there is not a single drop of negro blood in any one of them.—London P. O.

The Lee White Gang.

A band of outlaws has been organized in Santa Fe county, under the generalship of Lee White, the San Pedro desperado. The gang has retired to the Gallinas mountains where it is supposed the outlaws have located their stronghold. There are eight men in the outfit, all of whom it is said are ex-convicts and professional highwaymen. Besides White three are known to be Barney Mason, Punch Collins and a man called Duchy. Mason is a cow thief from Lincoln county, in 1887 he was sentenced to serve one year in the penitentiary, but after serving a little over six months he was pardoned out by Governor Ross. Punch Collins is a pugnacious negro, from Socorro county, who in 1884, was found guilty of train wrecking on the A. T. & S. F. railroad and sentenced to serve a term of seven years in the penitentiary, but on account of his "good conduct," was released after serving nearly five years. Duchy (Augustus Deithele) is a Sierra county horse thief and has served five years in the pen.

The organization of this desperado gang was openly perfected before the eyes of the officials of the Santa Fe county who allowed the scheme to be carried out without interruption. Where political pirates rule the land, who, under cover of the official cloak strangles the rights of the people whom they are sworn to protect, is it any wonder that bandits are allowed to roam over the country to rob and plunder innocent citizens.—Black Range.

The Southwest Cattle Association has offered a reward of $225 for the arrest and conviction of each and every thief caught depleting its herds. It was thought necessary to take some such step, as cattle stealing has been carried on upon a large scale in Grant county of late.

A geographical globe for the Shah of Persia is to show the different countries in precious stones. France will be sapphire, England by rubies, Russia by diamonds, and so on, while the seas will be represented by emeralds.

The present standard car coupler is described as a huge iron hand, whose fingers can be opened from the side of the car and closed by the impact of another car. This is the safety drawhead the railroad employes are asking for, and this is what many railroads are putting on their new cars. Let us hope that the change will put a stop to the slaughter of brakemen.

"AGE CAN'T WITHER BEEL," remarked an old gentleman, as he gazed fondly upon the comely little woman by his side. "But frankly," he continued, "at one time I was afraid cosmetics would. The silly little woman, in order to appear youthful, plastered her face with different varieties of white wash, yeast 'balms,' creams, 'lotions,' etc." "Yes," interrupted the little woman, "I did, until my skin became like parchment and so pimply and coarse." "Well," said the listener, "what do you use now?" "Use," was the reply, "nothing but common sense and Dr. Ferra's Golden Medical Discovery. Common sense told me that if my blood was pure, I was active, appetit and digestion good, that the outward woman would take on the line of health. The 'Discovery' did all these things and actually rejuvenated me." "If you would possess a clear, beautiful complexion, free from blotches, pimples, eruptions, yellow spots and roughness, use the 'Golden Medical Discovery.' It is guaranteed to do all that it is claimed to, or money paid for it will be promptly refunded."

Well and Happy.

I take pleasure in submitting the following statement of facts that you may know the great benefit that has resulted from the use of your Specific in case of my little daughter, now ten years of age. The child, when two years of age, had a severe attack of scarlet fever, which left her with a shattered constitution. Among other evidences of impaired nutrition was what the doctors called softening of the bones. In her fifth year she happened to a slight accident which resulted in the dislocation of the hip joint, and from the irritation thus set up, terrible abscesses of the hip ensued. The abscesses, despite the best medical treatment that could be obtained, remained for three years, discharging continuously. At this time, through the influence of friends, I put her on your S. S. S. When this treatment was commenced the abscess was very large, having six perforations, pus discharging through them all. During this treatment several spicules of bone came out, and by the time she had finished her fifth bottle the abscess had entirely healed, her appetite and general health had been restored; in short, she was well and happy, and so continues.
