REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY,
To the Hon. A. A. Freeman:

Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the Territory of New Mexico, and presiding Judge of the Fifth Judicial District Courts thereof, holding the Special November Term, 1890, for Lincoln County.

Your Grand Jury having disposed of the business before them, so far as the limited time at their disposal would permit, now make their final report.

We have examined a large number of witnesses and have endeavored to carry into effect the instructions contained in your Honor's charge to us. In every case where the evidence has justified we have reported by indictment. In a large number of cases in which the evidence did not fully satisfy us of the guilt of the parties accused we have ignored the bills, always giving the doubt in favor of the accused. A considerable portion of our time has been occupied with the investigation of violation of the laws for the protection of cattle running at large on the range. We regret to say that there has been an alarming increase of unlawful branding. In a number of flagrant cases coming before us, we have returned indictments, and had we had more time, and opportunity to obtain witnesses been afforded us, we could have succeeded in procuring testimony sufficient to warrant the indictment of a number of other persons who make a business of branding other people's calves. As the stock interest is of equal importance to any other in Lincoln Co., and is essential to the prosperity of our people, we urge upon all public officials who are intrusted with the duty of enforcing the laws, the exercise of this class of crime.

We take pleasure in reporting that there is a marked decrease in the violation of that salutary law prohibiting the carrying and use of deadly weapons, which we attribute to the rigid enforcement of the law and the prompt arrest and punishment of all its violators. With the abandonment of the practice of carrying deadly weapons comes a decrease of other crime, especially homicide, now so rare in this country.

We call the attention of our Board of County Commissioners to the court house of this county. It is a relic of former days and different condition, and is by no means a credit to so flourishing a county as Lincoln.

Your Grand Jury appointed committees to investigate the financial condition of the county, the public buildings, etc. The reports of said committees are as follows they having been adopted by the Grand Jury and made a part of this report:

To the foreman of the Grand Jury:—Your committee appointed to examine the records and accounts of the Probate Clerk, County Treasurer, Recorder and Sheriff, respectfully report that upon examination we find the records of the county neatly and properly kept, and the books of the Sheriff kept in a systematic manner. The treasurer not being present, we could not examine and report upon the condition of his books and accounts. On the examination of the Probate Clerk's books, we find that the amount of the regular County Fund on hand is as follows:

Balance on hand after deducting outstanding warrants.....	$2,983.03
Special County Fund.....	$2,351.98
Interest Fund.....	$2,702.09
Jail Fund.....	$ 404.85
Total.....	$8,441.77

INDEBTEDNESS.

Amount of 8 per cent bonds outstanding.....	$23,000.
Amount of 6 per cent bonds outstanding.....	$28,800.
Am't of bondable warrants.....	$1,547.77
Total.....	$51,347.77

Upon examination of the Sheriff's accounts, we find the sum of $13,000 to his credit, which can be applied to the outstanding indebtedness of the County.

To the Foreman of the Grand Jury:—We, the undersigned committee, appointed to examine and report upon the condition of the county jail and the prisoners confined therein, also upon the condition of the Court house and other county property, respectfully submit the following report:

We find the prisoners well fed, clothed and cared for. We also find the jail perfect in every respect, except the pump, which we would recommend to be repaired as soon as practicable. We find confined in the Jail one Joseph Easton, who is insane, and would recommend that he be conveyed to some insane asylum. We find the walls around the jail yard in a dilapidated condition, and recommend that they be repaired and the old gates taken out and the space filled with adobe, making a solid wall.

We have examined the old jail building and believe it can be used as a ware room and at the same time answer the purpose of a wall for its entire length. We would recommend that there be a good and substantial water closet erected on the outside of the Jail yard, for the benefit of the public. We would recommend that the Court house be plastered on the outside, and properly repaired on the inside, and that there be an iron roof placed upon the entire building. We would also recommend that a railing, with gate, be placed inside of the bar in the court room, for the protection of the Clerk and the Court records, and to save the clerk of the court from annoyance.

We take pleasure in congratulating your Honor upon your accession to the bench, for this district, and tend you a cordial welcome amongst us. We thank the Honorable District Attorney, the officers of the court and the Sheriff for their courteous assistance in the discharge of our duties, and now having discharged those duties we respectfully ask to be discharged.

JAS. J. DOLAN,
Foreman.

The Railroad Situation Becoming More Interesting.

It seems that the coming year will again revise the map of the Panhandle as regards the railroads entering or centering in this part of our state. For several weeks past rumors of new surveys and permanent locations for new or extended railroads. The A. T. & S. F. surveyors have located the line from Panhandle city to a point a few miles southeast of town and have run a preliminary line to the northern part of Hale county in a direct line around the Palo Duro caon to Coleman. The survey and the line must make a curve for the reason, that crossing the canon would involve an outlay of several million dollars. After running on the Coleman line for fifty miles the surveyors returned and took up the work again from near Amarillo, and we now learn that another survey has been ordered by the Gould syndicate from White Oaks, N. M., to the head waters of the Amarillo to make connection with the Fort Worth & Denver railroad; and this necessity means connection at this city. Then the surveyors of the Chicago & Rock Island road who have been idle for many months past have been ordered to take up the line from Liberal, Kansas, and locate the road through No Man's Land and the Texas Panhandle.—Amarillo Champion.

H. B. Ferguson, junior member of the law firm of Warren & Ferguson, who has been at White Oaks, attending the special session of the Fifth judicial district court, in which he is employed in several important cases, got home last night. He speaks in praiseworthy terms of A. A. Freeman, the new judge, and states that he makes a fine dignified appearance on the bench. He is fair and impartial in his rulings, quick in his decisions, and it is Mr. Ferguson's opinion that Judge Freeman will make a popular jurist.—Citizen.

New Mexico sadly needs a complete codification of all laws, and the legislature should provide for a non-partisan commission of five of the ablest lawyers in the territory, to prepare a code and submit it to the succeeding legislative assembly for adoption. With such a code future legislation would be in the form of amendments to specified sections thereof, which would on their face direct attention to the provision of law amended or repealed, and put a stop to endless disputes as to whether certain sections have or have not been repealed, as now is frequently the case.—Aztec Indx.

The cry of protection to American labor is nowhere more ridiculous than in the wool growing industry. A traveler in New Mexico reports that he saw herds of 200,000 to 300,000 sheep which were looked after by two or three Mexican herders and several dogs. And the owners of these herds want a high wool duty to protect American labor?—Ex.

The health of Mrs. Alphonso Guittard of this city, is bad, and the lady has gone south to a lower altitude. She was at Pinos Altos, Grant county, the other day. Mr. Guittard, who will be remembered as a partner in the blacksmith firm doing business on Copper avenue several months ago, is at present engaged in work at Lake Valley.—Citizen.

Probably the deepest mine in the world (according to La Nature) is that of Saint-Andre du Poirier, in France. Of its two shafts, one 3,000 feet, and the other is 3,130 feet; the latter is being sunk to 4,000 feet. A remarkable feature of this mine is the comparatively low temperature found in it, never exceeding 75° degrees Fahrenheit. In the gold and silver mines on the Pacific Coast, with a depth scarcely half that of the French mines, there is great difficulty in keeping a temperature low enough for work. In some parts of the Constock mines the temperature reaches 128°.

ONE CENT POSTAGE.

Mr. Wanamaker has a good word to say for one cent postage in his annual report, but it is said with a good deal of reserve and qualification.

He points out the fact that it is letter postage alone upon which the Government makes a profit, and that the entire profit, with something more, is swallowed up by the losses on other kinds of mail matter. He says that to reduce letter postage to one cent would be to cut off one half of the revenue from that source, and by so much to increase the annual deficiency. Hence, by implication at least, he suggests that the rates on other mail matter should be increased as a means of rendering one cent letter postage feasible.

The rates upon newspapers and periodicals cannot be increased without diminishing the value of the postal service at the very point where the government finds its best justification for maintaining the service at all. The primary object of the service is the easy, quick and cheap dissemination of intelligence among the people. Something might perhaps be done to exact of paper-covered books the same rates that bound books pay, and the merchandise by mail, which is essentially a parcels express business, might be made to pay the cost of its transportation. There is no apparent reason why it should not.

But even without such economies one cent postage is more feasible than the Postmaster-General seems to think. In the first place Mr. Wanamaker does not sufficiently allow for the increase of letters which would follow the reduction of rates. No Postmaster-General ever did sufficiently allow for that factor. All previous reductions of rate have stimulated increased use of the mails in a degree beyond the estimate of the Department.

In the second place, the development of the country is rapidly reducing the number of unprofitable mail routes, and these, as the Postmaster-General knows, eat up an enormous part of the appropriations. With their elimination the cost and the revenues of the service must steadily come nearer together.

Third, the postal card need not be reduced when the letter rate is.

One cent is cheap enough in any case, and the postal card will have sufficient reason for being in its convenience.

Finally, it will not greatly matter if the postal deficiency is considerably swelled by the reduction in rate. The service is not maintained for profit but for the popular convenience, and so great a gain in convenience would be cheaply purchased by an increase of a few millions in the deficiency bill for two or three years to come. That the deficiency would last longer than a few years, no thorough student of postal history believes.—New York World.

The legislature will convene on the 28th of Dec. The organization will most likely be hotly contested, with the chances favorable for the democrats to organize both branches. The candidates for President of the Council and Speaker of the House are making a quiet canvass and those anxious for minor positions are soliciting assistance. The situation will be interesting in about a week, when public announcement is made of the work under way.

The New Mexican accuses the democrats of trying to steal every thing in that county except the climate.—Citizen.

If there was anything left for the democrats to steal after the New Mexican ring got their work in, we can't see how it was. It is even asserted that the ring has stolen the better part of the climate and sold it to the southern part of the territory.—Socorro advertiser.

The Santa Fe election muddle has resulted up to date in two sets of officers holding certificates of election. The matter will go to the legislature in this shape, and the county officers will have a fight in the courts. The democrats will not let the republicans steal the legislature without a struggle. Acting Governor Thomas took a hand in the muddle and during the temporary absence of two of the County Commissioners appointed two republicans in their place who did the job up according to orders. Hot times ahead.

Captain Kirby's Complaint.

Captain Brandon Kirby, one of the cattle kings of New Mexico and the largest shipper of the southwest, was a visitor in the city yesterday, says the Denver News. The captain is preparing to seek new fields, and is negotiating with the railroads to transport 40,000 head of cattle from New Mexico to British Columbia. This is the largest shipment of cattle ever undertaken from one ranch in that territory and no road has yet been found that is anxious to tackle the job. It means 2,000 car loads and 200 trains of ten cars each. To carry such a monster aggregation of kine, 2,000 miles within a limited period and land the outfit safe on British soil is a contract that would stagger the most experienced railroad men.

The reason Captain Kirby assigns for burying himself in British Columbia, is that he has sunk $300,000 in New Mexico and must get out or collapse at an early day. The captain represents an English syndicate, but has been putting up the cash for six years and at last calls a halt.

Last December the captain sent two or three of his trusted cow men to British Columbia to look over the land and report upon the kind of winter experienced in that region as well as the condition of the ranges during the winter months.

Early in September Captain Kirby visited the region himself and returned a short time ago thoroughly enthused as to its advantages as a cattle range. While absent he made a little purchase of 400,000 acres of choice grazing land, about 200 miles northwest of Victoria, sheltered on all sides by mountains, well watered and with grass knee high all the year round.

It is pronounced by all odds to be the most promising cattle country in the world, rivaling the noted pampas of South America, but having the advantage of railroad connection with the great markets of the continent. It is said that there are only 15,000 head of cattle in all that region and only two cattlemen of any prominence.

Captain Kirby in his early life visited all the countries of the world, and later he traveled with Stanley and Burton in the dark continent. He says that British Columbia is a veritable paradise—a diamond in the rough, which will some day be the garden spot of America.

"I feel as though I had served six years of penal servitude," he said, speaking of his experience in New Mexico. "I can see absolutely no hope for the cattle business in that territory, and my only solicitude is to get out of the country as quickly as possible."

The Union Pacific railroad pocketed $25,000 in freight upon cattle from Captain Kirby's ranch last year. His present herd of 40,000 is not a marker to what he has rounded up in years gone by. Coyotes, bad Mexicans and bad laws have assisted materially in doing him up—so says the captain. The duty of $30 a head which is assessed on American cattle imported into British Columbia is the direct product of the McKinley tariff and would effectually knock out the captain's plans if it were not for a provision excepting the operation of the law to a certain extent, provided the importer is a subject of the queen. The first shipment to the new territory will be made about the time will days.

[Captain Kirby is unjustly referred to New Mexico. The reason of the failure of his company to make money in the territory is the same that hundreds can give. Inexperience, high prices for original stock and lands, and overcrowded ranges. His experience would have been the same in the finest cattle country on earth, and he can not justly lay the blame of the failure of his company to be successful to the range, the people, the bad laws, or anything but his own lack of knowledge of the business in which he engaged fresh from service in the English army.]—Stock Grower.

When the 28th legislature of New Mexico failed to provide for the necessary funds wherewith to pay the expenses of the jurors and witnesses attending the courts of the territory it was generally supposed by the people that the failure to provide was merely an oversight of that honorable body. For the last two terms of court in Sierra Co. there has been no funds to pay these expenses and jurors have turned over their paper to brokers at a discount. In the face of these facts the grim question arises was the omission on the part of the last legislature, to provide an innocent and unpremeditated circumstance, or was it an omission carefully guarded and fostered for the benefit of the county and territorial brokers? The coming legislature will please make sufficient appropriation to amply provide for court expenses within the territory of New Mexico.—Black Range.

The estimates for the next fiscal year are enormous. For 1891 they footed up $341,428,977. This year they are $407,077,137. The appropriations last year were $73,000,000 in excess of the estimates. If the appropriations for the next year are increased in the same ratio they will be more than $480,000,000. There is no sign that the executive branch of the Republican party intends to do anything towards putting an end to the extravagance against which the people protested at the last election.

A deficit of $33,000,000 in the item of pensions is glibly announced as if it were a small thing, and indeed for a population of some 63,000,000 it is less than a dollar a head. But look at it in another way. At 5 per cent. it takes more than $650,000,000 to make it, and at 4 per cent. it takes $850,000,000. In other words, the use of these enormous sums must be withdrawn from the people to meet this single deficit.

A fracas occurred last Tuesday at old Mount'n station between Dick Cavanagh and a German who keeps a whisky shop at that place. W. C. Mrs. Geo. B. Barber was a welcome visitor in White Oaks this week. MINING.

The old familiar sound of the North Homestake mill, running night and day greets the ears of the White Oaks people. With an abundance of high grade ore in stock, and the mill improved by late repairs, the North Homestake continues the bonanza mine of New Mexico.

The "Lady Godiva" Mine is running full blast, with a full crew under the personal supervision of B. H. Dye, one of the owners. The ore is improving, and with the systematic and judicious management will not be long before good returns result. One thing sure, the mining people are giving employment to a good number of men and circulating considerable money.

With the North Homestake, Lady Godiva, Old Abe, all in full blast, and rumored preparation on the Little Mack, Baxter Mt. is approaching its old time activity, and it will not be long before the South Homestake's 20 stamps will be pounding away. Where are the discouraged ones nowadays? White Oaks, even without a railroad can make itself felt in the busy world, and every day these times, Railroad matters are progressing favorably.

Messrs. John Y. Hewitt, H. B. Fergusson, Wm. Watson and M. W. Hoyle, the owners of the White Oaks and Robert E. Lee, more commonly known hereabouts as the "Old Abe," have certainly struck it rich on the above named property. Both claims are patented, and more or less work has been done upon them for the last ten years. The present owners commenced about 1885 and went down some 90 feet, following a well defined vein all the way. The vein small at the surface increased to 20 inches in width at 90 feet, and the lowest assay on the ore was $26 and the highest $92 per ton. The owners were constantly on the lookout for a better opening and in November, 1890, Wm. Watson made a discovery on the same properties about 170 feet due south from the 90 foot shaft. Work was commenced and prosecuted and on last Wednesday night the new shaft had reached a depth of 21 feet, and from the surface, the only, and best defined vein in the Camp, has been followed. 30 tons of ore are now on the dump and the vein is 3 feet wide and grows richer as they go down. Mill run test has been made on the ore dump which gave $21 to the ton. The latter part of this month a 50 ton mill run will be made. On Wednesday of this week a reliable offer of $15,000 was made, for a fractional interest and refused.

The Old Abe is to the front at last without any doubt.

The report of the Committee appointed at the citizens' meeting as published in the INTERPRETER in its last issue, is criticised by some of our people, as to the conclusions reached by the Committee, especially in reference to bringing the Academy into the controversy, and the mention "as to differences existing between members of the church." We are reliably informed that there are no differences or misunderstandings between the actual members of the church; either among themselves or with the Pastor. The reported differences and misunderstanding is entirely with people who are not connected with the church as members. Harmony prevails among the church members and they are a unit in their work and endeavors to assist the Pastor, in the church work, and whatever unpleasantness has occurred, is entirely outside, among disaffected parties who have no connection with the church whatever. And, as to the Academy, at no time in its history, was it in better hands or more ably managed than at present. It is to be regretted that the Academy was mentioned; more especially from the misapprehension occasioned in the minds of those who may have read the report of the Committee. It was not the intention of the Committee, to lead any one to believe that the Academy was in the least concerned, or connected with false and malicious rumors circulated, which was the cause of the citizens meeting in the first place.

The Home Missionary Society and the New West Commission, while in perfect harmony, are separate and distinct societies of the Congregational denomination. The New West Commission employ the teachers and have sole control of the schools under their charge, and the White Oaks church, has nothing whatever to do in the control or management. This is the situation, and this correction is due the teacher; particularly to disabuse the mind of any who may think the Academy the occasion of any criticism whatever.

The Academy is par-excellence, and the people of White Oaks are a unit in its support and good name.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, has been used by millions of mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once, produces natural, quiet sleep by freeing the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste, soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

A PAYING RAILROAD.

Commenting on the Optic's editorial concerning the effort of Denver to secure the trade of New Mexico by building from Trinidad to Las Vegas, the Denver News says:

The suggestion of THE OPTIC is by no means a bad one. If the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, which has been noted in the past for building branch roads wherever the business would seem to justify, would extend its road from Trinidad to Las Vegas, and thence down the Pecos to a junction with the road now building up that stream from Pecos station in Texas, on the line of the Texas Pacific to Eddy, thus forming a straight line from Colorado to southwest Texas, a country would be opened up which could but prove a source of revenue to the road and of immense advantage to Denver. * * * Our chamber of commerce might well take this matter in charge. Almost the entire trade of New Mexico ought to be controlled by this city. It can be with the railroad facilities outlined above. While the Denver & Rio Grande management is seeking western outlets why should it not look to the south a little?

The attention of Denver is called to four facts. One is that Denver, Pueblo, Trinidad, Las Vegas, White Oaks and El Paso, are almost in a straight line. Trinidad lying a little too much to the east. A road from Trinidad through Las Vegas and White Oaks to El Paso, on the line proposed, would be 140 miles shorter than is Denver's present connection with El Paso.

The second fact is that such a road built from Trinidad to Las Vegas would draw to a connection at Las Vegas the Pecos valley road, giving Denver the best access to that garden region of New Mexico.

The third fact is that by the building of the road through Las Vegas to El Paso by the way of White Oaks, Colorado would secure the largest part of the smelting and ore business of Old Mexico, which now goes to Kansas City.

The fourth fact is that the road from Trinidad through Las Vegas and White Oaks to El Paso, would pay from the laying of the last rail. It is probable that El Paso is the best coal market in all the west. In fact, it may be said that the demand for coal there is practically without limit. The Southern Pacific road has no coal on its line from New Orleans to the Pacific coast, and much of the fuel it uses is imported from Australia. The Texas & Pacific gets a little coal from the Indian Territory, but virtually it is without coal except what it gets at El Paso. The Mexican Central, 1,700 miles long, is also a coalless road. Taking then these lines and the demand by people living along them, it is seen that the El Paso market for coal cannot be supplied and that the demand will grow with the coming years. It is stated that the other roads, at El Paso, pay the Santa Fe $15,000 a day freight on the single item of coal. The proposed road from Trinidad will connect with the El Paso market the coal fields of White Oaks and the exhaustless coal deposits of the Maxwell land grant. The supply of coal from these fields is like the El Paso market—emphatically exhaustless. The road connecting the market with the supply will be one of the best paying roads in America. All this beside giving Denver the advantage in competing for New Mexico's growing trade, would be the result of the extension of the Union Pacific or the Denver & Rio Grand from Trinidad to Las Vegas and El Paso.—Las Vegas Optic.

Mr. Lee. "Why, addie, you needn't cry about it! I only said Mrs. Allen was a very well-informed woman, and I wished you would follow her example."
Mrs. Lee. "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs. Allen,—and she makes it her own clothes. But she has what I haven't."
Mr. Lee. "What is that?"
Mrs. Lee. "Well, she gets all of her information from the Magazine they take. I admit that she knows all that is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation, but I can't do as well as she does if I had the same source of information. She lent me the last number of her Magazine lately, and I learned more in one hour's reading, about various social matters and the topics of the day, than I would pick up in a month by my occasional chats with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of housekeeping; and everything is so beautifully illustrated, too. Every time Mamma goes over to the Alens' she comes back and teases me to get you to take Demorest's Family Magazine, as the stories are so good. Even the boys watch for it every month, as a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family!"
Mr. Lee. "Well, perhaps I had better send for a Specimen Copy; for, if it is anything like what you say it is, it will amuse and instruct the whole of us."
Mrs. Lee. "I see that W. Jennings Demorest, the publisher, 15 East 14th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 10 cents, so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a 'Pattern Order' entitling the holder to any Pattern she may choose, and in any size—which alone makes each copy worth 50 cents; and I just want a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $2.00 a year; and I must say I can't see how they can publish so elegant a Magazine for so little money."

The Columbia Cycle Calendar.

By far the most valuable business calendar for 1891, and entirely new in design, is the Columbia Cycle Calendar and Stand, issued by the Pope Mfg. Co., of Boston, Mass. The Calendar is in the form of a pad containing 366 leaves, each 5 1/2 x 2 1/2 inches; one for each day of the year to be torn daily, and one for the entire year. At the lower end of each leaf is a blank for a memoranda, and as the leaves are only fastened at the upper end, any leaf can be exposed. No stub is left when the leaves are torn off. The pad rests upon a stand containing pen rack and pencil holder, and when placed upon the desk the entire surface of the date leaf is brought directly and kept constantly before the eye, making it impossible to overlook date or memoranda. The stand is made of stained wood, mounted with raised letters in brass, thus forming an ornamental paper weight. The day of the week and the day of the year, together with the number of days to come, are given, and each slip bears a short paragraph pertaining to cycling and kindred subjects.

Cattle Thieves.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—A dispatch from Arkansas City, Kansas, says: now that the cattlemen have their cattle out of the Strip, and have had time to count them, they find that the cattle thieves stole hundreds of cattle during the last few weeks. A cattle man of this city is short 200 head, all of which were stolen. Most of the cattlemen are finding their herds short. It is said that nearly 2,000 head have been stolen.

DEAFNESS CAN'T BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucus surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure.

EVERYTHING ELSE FAILED.

I am now 28 years old, and from the time I was seven years of age until 1885, I suffered with a severe case of Scrofula. During this time I took every known remedy, but to no purpose. My father took me to North Carolina, where I was put under the treatment of an eminent physician. The medicines given me had only a temporary effect, for shortly after my return the scrofula broke out in a more malignant form, and I was worse off than ever before. In 1885 I discontinued taking all other medicines and commenced taking Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) I took a number of bottles and it cured me. I have been free from Scrofula from that time until now.

For 25 years I suffered from boils, Erysipelas, and other blood affections; taking during that time great quantities of different medicines without deriving any perceptible relief. Friends induced me to try Swift's Specific. It improved me from the start, and after taking several bottles restored my health as far as I could hope for at my age, which is now 75 years.
