Senator Wolcott to Marry.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 11.—The New York Mail and Express prints the following under the heading: "Senator Wolcott to Wed—The Handsomest Man in the Upper House of Congress Captures Mrs. Lyman K. Bass."

Senator Ed. Wolcott, reputed to be the handsomest man in the United States Senate, is to be married next Wednesday. His bride will be Mrs. Lyman K. Bass of Buffalo, widow of ex-President Cleveland's old law partner. Senator Wolcott has arrived in town to remain a couple of days. The Gilsey house is his headquarters, and his many friends in this city are showering congratulations upon him. The wedding will be a quiet affair. A few relatives and close friends of the bride and groom will be the only guests. It will take place in Buffalo, the home of Mrs. Bass.

Senator Wolcott is one of the most popular men in the Senate, and has friends in every important city from the Pacific slope to the Atlantic coast. He is said to have few equals at the great American game of poker and many columns have been printed recounting his big plays at Long Branch and other places.

Notes from the South.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 11.—The Senate Committee yesterday favorably reported the bill granting an indefinite term to the President. The bill passed its first reading.

Mexicans in San Luis Potosi claim that a conspiracy exists among American railroad men to keep the Mexicans from working on railroads.

Parties from Guatemala state that, politically, affairs in that republic are in a bad shape. Strong feeling is manifested against President Barillas and his followers.

Crops throughout the country give fine promise, but the government is the principal land owner.

A Pleasant Surprise.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—When John C. Fremont was a lieutenant in the Fourth cavalry, in California, his accounts with the Government were left in such a state that he has always been regarded as the official debtor to the Government to the amount of $10,000, and it has been one of the chief sorrows of General Fremont's later years that he was unable to secure this balance against him. The other day General Fremont called at the office of the Second Comptroller of the Treasury, as his financial circumstances are such that if his salary as a retired major-general were retained to meet this alleged shortage, he would be for some time in actual want. At his request the Comptroller investigated his accounts and discovered that instead of General Fremont being a debtor, the Government had actually owed him for over forty years $1,000, and Congress will be asked to pay it.

An Ohio Storm.

AKRON, O., May 10.—The worst storm that ever visited Northern Ohio, and one of the worst on record, swept away a part of the city of Akron at five o'clock this afternoon. It came in the form of a tornado of the most violent form and mowed down everything in its path with irresistible fury. Buildings, trees and fences were whisked away and their remnants piled here and there in a shapeless mass. The path of the storm was a mile in length and a hundred yards wide, and scarcely a land mark remains of the populous part of the city visited by it.

The number of buildings destroyed cannot be estimated, but it will reach over 100, while $100,000 will not cover the money loss. The saddest aspect of the disaster is that it falls most heavily upon those least able to bear it.

The ruined district was almost entirely occupied by the houses of poor workmen. The storm was heavy all over the city and the streets were so flooded with water that it was almost impossible to reach the scene of the storm for hours. It is the most remarkable circumstance attending the tornado that many were not killed instead of uninjured as was the case.

Stanley to be Knighted.

NEW YORK, May 10.—A London cable to the Mail and Express says: It is stated that Queen Victoria is going to make Mr. Stanley a knight commander of the most distinguished order of St. Michael and St. George. This would make his title Sir Harry M. Stanley, K. C. M. G.

The treaties which Stanley has made throughout his trip from the west to the east of Africa with the native chiefs and people are now lodged in the foreign office waiting ratification by the government.

If his work in this bears its legitimate fruit, the explorer will have done a great service to England politically, and in a general way to the whole English-speaking world.

The Panama Canal.

PARIS, May 8.—The report of the special commission sent out by Brunet, liquidator of the Panama Canal Company, to investigate the condition of the canal, estimates that it would cost $85,000,000 francs to complete the canal on the lock system. To this should be added 20 per cent. for unforeseen expenses and 20 per cent. for expenses of the management and interest. The total cost is fixed at $900,000,000 francs.

Stanley Scolds the English.

LONDON, May 13.—The reception to Stanley in Guild Hall to-day was an enthusiastic affair. A dense crowd thronged the approaches and the guests numbered 2,000. The Lord Mayor presented to the explorer a gold casket containing an address from the corporation of London.

Stanley, in returning thanks, said that Congo might have belonged to England had Englishmen listened to his lectures between 1878 and 1884. Belgium was reaping 100 per cent. England might have had East Africa, but her journalists see everything through an opaque glass. Germany to-day had the lion's share and cannot fail to win in the long run. Wissmann never heard of such things as Quakerism, peace societies, anti-enterprise companies and nobby-pamby journalism, all of which are alogs to every hearty endeavor made by England. He hoped the government would remember the services of his companions and not chill their young souls with the neglect which their first warped poor Gordon after his heroic achievements in China.

A Cruel Joke.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 13.—Arthur Bohlman, a cook in Raider's restaurant, committed suicide this morning. Two weeks ago he received a letter from Germany stating that the woman he was to marry shortly had deserted him for another. Bohlman became very despondent and threatened suicide. Ten minutes after Bohlman's body was found hanging from the rafters. This morning Raider received a letter for him. It was opened, and its contents read that the former letter received was written by a friend as a joke, and that Bohlman's sweetheart had not married.

War on Mormons.

ERSON, La., May 13.—Two Mormon elders, hailing from Utah, have been tramping through Washington and Holmes counties distributing their religious tracts. They had proselyted to a considerable extent and especially among young unmarried females, and a party of eight women were secured to go West.

Abram King had two daughters in the party. King and his son and neighbors pursued the Mormons and captured them, tied them to trees, and after flogging them unmercifully loosened them and began fixing on them.

The Mormons ran into the swamps. They have not been seen since, and undoubtedly perished. The young women were returned home, and every one of them well switched, the parents making each one whip the other.

Caught His Man.

DULUTH, Minn., May 13.—K. S. Crawford, a Chicago official of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railway, has had arrested, in Port Arthur, Fred Newberrie, the paramour of his wife, who ran away from Chicago nearly three years ago, with all Crawford's household furniture, and about $4,000 of Crawford's funds, which was obtained from a bank by means of a forged check, while Crawford was away on a long business trip to the south-west.

The deserted husband has hunted everywhere for the guilty couple, and only learned of their whereabouts two weeks ago through a railroad official, who recognized his wife at Port Arthur, and notified him. He passed through here last week, and was supposed to be a detective in pursuit of an embezzling bank officer from Kentucky. The wife asked forgiveness, and Crawford has signified his intention of forgetting the past as far as she is concerned, but he has her paramour, Newberrie, on three charges, forgery, adultery and perjury. The examination of the prisoner is now in progress, and the result will be known when the next steamer arrives. Newberrie is said to be a well-to-do dealer in silver lands.

General Caprivi's Speech.

BERLIN, May 12.—Chancellor Caprivi made a long speech in the Reichstag to-day in regard to Germany's colonial policy. He said that regarding the boundaries of their respective possessions in Africa, the predominant wish of Germany was to go hand in hand with England and cultivate the common interests of both countries. Regarding slavery the chancellor said: "We must found stations, and the bullet and Bible must act in the civilization. Without killing off the slave-dealers you can never abolish slavery."

The colonial movement, he said, had its origin in the same idealism or romantic idea of a unified empire. There was a surplus of this after war, and it was directed toward colonizing. The movement was injudicious, as if one had only to raise his hand to conjure forth lumps of gold and ready-made cigars—and was begun with little practical knowledge of prudence. An atlas was taken and half of Africa painted blue. [Laughter.] Such, however was the inevitable beginning of such movements. It was difficult to convert enthusiasm into hard cash, still he cherished the hope that East Africa would become a fitting sphere for the investment of private capital.

In reference to the speech's correspondent says: By to-day's speech in the Reichstag Von Caprivi passed with one bound to the first rank of European statesmen. The opinion universally expressed in the lobbies was that in comparison with his predecessor he has nothing to fear. His speech was an intellectual treat of the first order. His whole bearing and especially the strength revealed by his colloquial manner toward opponents showed nobility of nature, high integrity and clearness of purpose. The speaker and his people are to be congratulated.

CONGRESSIONAL.

THURSDAY, MAY 8.

SENATE.—It was agreed to lay the silver bill over until Monday.

The Senate passed without amendment the bill providing for classification of the worsted goods as woolsens, and it now goes to the President for his signature. The vote was a party one—yeas 33, nays 20. [The pension appropriation bill (providing for the next fiscal year $97,000,000) was taken up. The amendments offered by Mr. Sherman and Mr. Washburn to increase the number of pension agents from eighteen and twenty to twenty-one gave the bill a close discussion, and a vote disclosed the absence of a quorum the Senate adjourned.]

HOUSE.—During the day and evening sessions the tariff bill was taken up. In the speeches a great deal of attention was paid to the condition of western farmers. Mr. Dockery, of Missouri, submitted an argument in favor of free wool and a reduction of the duty on manufactured products. In his State there were 1,000,000 acres of wool growing, and the sheep people and sheep sympathy was with the people.

FRIDAY, MAY 9.

SENATE.—The annual pension appropriation bill was taken up, the question being on the amendment increasing the number of pension agents, at a salary of $100, from twenty to twenty-five, for the years 1890, 1891, 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895, 1896, 1897, 1898, 1899, 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912, 1913, 1914, 1915, 1916, 1917, 1918, 1919, 1920, 1921, 1922, M., met at Roswell on the date above given; there being present: John W. Poe, from precinct No. 7; A. B. Allen, from precinct No. 17; and Mark Howell, from precinct No. 19.

On motion of A. B. Allen, John W. Poe was chosen chairman, and Mark Howell, secretary.

On motion it was ordered that a primary election be held in the several precincts of the County of Chaves, on Saturday, August 9th, 1890; and that the several precincts be entitled to representation in the county convention as follows: to wit: Precinct No. 7, thirteen (13) delegates; precinct No. 17, six (6) delegates; precinct No. 19, two (2) delegates.

It was ordered that a county convention be held in Roswell, N. M., on Wednesday, August 20th, 1890, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the several county offices, and to elect seven (7) delegates to the District Legislative convention. Jno. W. Poe, Chairman. A. B. Allen, Secretary.

Railroad for Roswell.

Colorado Springs, May 13.—Messrs. Irving Howarth, Charles E. Noble and J. T. Humphrey, of this city, have filed articles of incorporation of the Pecos construction and land company to build and operate the Pecos Valley railroad from a point on the Texas and Pacific railroad in Texas to the boundary line of Reeves county; also for a railroad to Roswell, N. M., south through Eddy county to a point on the southern boundary of this county and New Mexico. The capital stock is $500,000, and the principal offices will be in the city of New York.

If a citizen really wants to feet proud of New Mexico he has only to take a run eastward and mingle with the people and curse the climate and note the discontent prevailing there. All are looking towards the west, and the southwest now, especially, and each one is eager for information pertaining to this region of country. We of New Mexico have a far better country than we usually allow ourselves to believe. Our blessed sunshine is itself a God-given boon that is by no means appreciated until one gets away from home for a time. New Mexico's natural resources are wonderful as compared with those of the eastern and central western states; and above all, the broad spirit of hospitality here prevailing adds the most desirable element to the elements of life here. Stand out in bright contrast and endear this soil to every man whose good fortune has been to once call New Mexico his home.—New Mexican.

The New Mexican is informed that Hon. C. B. Eddy has placed in New York all the bonds to build the Pecos valley railroad from the Texas & Pacific to Roswell. Parties of the latter point are now making inquiry as to the available coal deposits about Carrizillo and its kind that the Pecos valley line will be after them are long.—New Mexican.

In New Mexico.

The following, written by one of our young farmers, we clip from the Brooklyn Daily Times, omitting the report of their trip from the east to the New Mexico line, as our space is limited:

"On the 7th of November, 1889, three young fellows left their homes in Brooklyn and turned their faces towards the plains of New Mexico. They are too modest to desire their names used, but one of the trio gives the following interesting chronicle of the trip. After seven days traveling we came upon what was called the bottom lands, where there is nothing but grass as far as the eye can reach, and one can see a great distance, for the land is very level. Off to the northwest is the grand mountain called El Capitan. From where we were it was about seventy-five miles over to it, but it looked as if one could ride to its base before breakfast, so deceiving is the atmosphere.

On Sunday afternoon, December 15, we reached the source of the South Spring River, which is about six miles from our destination, the town of Roswell. We reached the town about 5 o'clock and camped on the Hondo River, about half a mile from the village; here we remained till our lead was surveyed and water obtained on it. This was done by tapping a ditch about two miles away with one running from our own land crossing several other people's land in its course. We three boys who left Brooklyn on the 7th day of last November are now "bathing it" out on the plains about six miles from the town of Roswell, where we are about to begin to farm on about 800 acres. The first object is to get in a big crop of "Alfalfa grass," which is a very good feed for cattle and horses in this country. Besides this there will be one garden patch as well as melon and cucumber lots.

Before closing this article allow me to say a word regarding this town of Roswell. It is situated in the southeastern corner of the Territory of New Mexico, in the County of Lincoln, up to January 1st of this year, when, after that, it will be the county seat of Chaves County and, next November, elect its first county officers.

It has about 500 inhabitants, not counting the neighboring ranches in a radius of twenty miles, who obtain their mail at Roswell Post Office. Most of these are mechanics and cowboys who are employed in and around the town. It has three large general merchandise stores, with a fourth about to open, a branch store of an Amarillo, Texas, house.

Jaffa, Prager & Co, are the largest and do a business of upwards of $75,000 annually; then comes Poe, Lea & Co., who have the Post Office, and besides, there is Williamson & Sanders. Two smiths and wheelwrights find plenty of work, also two butchers. There is a church congregation in town which worships in the school house, awaiting the completion of their church, which is being constructed.

The social element of the town is quite lively, and during the last month there have been six or more dances besides a number of card parties. The town also has a paper, the Pecos Valley Register, and the editor, Mr. E. W. is doing good work. It now has circulating nearly seven small towns in a radius of 200 or 300 miles. The town also boasts of a very good brass band of fifteen pieces.

Roswell, therefore, considering the distance it is from any railroad, is a very lively little town. By January 1, 1891, the new Court House will be finished and a new jail erected, besides a large hotel. The last named will be very convenient for those strangers who come to this town and now find it difficult to get lodging. Roswell is 200 miles from a road, being the furthest town from a railroad in the United States.

The mail is carried from Carthage, on the Santa Fe Railroad, to Lincoln by stage and then here by buckboard. The mail is a little slow, oftentimes a letter being eight to ten days arriving here from the east. If any young man thinks of going west let him come to New Mexico, for the weather here is perfect. Not one day this winter so far has the thermometer been below 30 degrees. There are hardly twenty-four hours at a time when the sun is not shining on some part of them.

The Gould System for the Pecos Valley.

From the Fort Worth Gazette.

A Mr. Ullman, a prominent business man of El Paso, has a better opinion of Mr. Gould than the Dallas genius has, and credits him with intending to buy existing roads instead of defunct and played out projects. Mr. Ullman, in an interview with an El Paso Herald reporter, stated that "Mr. Gould was not here and down in Mexico for either health or pleasure exclusively; he believes Gould is about to obtain control of the Santa Fe system and will get an outlet for it and the Southern Kansas by building a road to El Paso from Washburn or Kiowa, and when the new road running south from Doming into Mexico is built we will have a road from Juarez, which will tap it south of the line in Mexico and eventually this city will be headquarters for a great part of the system, if not all of it. As soon as Gould gets everything ready he will have both the Santa Fe and Texas and Pacific shops located in this city.

Mr. Ullman may be right or he may be wrong, yet his ideas have that virtue of being sensible at any rate. A woman's tear is like a drop that falls, spilled from an urn an angel has upturned. It falls on hate, and lo, its wrath has gone, melted and lost in dear forgiveness. It drops, balsamic soft, on beating hearts, and pairs of white, gentle comfort comes and hovers o'er the sufferer, with wings white as the plumes of some celestial bird, soft dripping perfumes full of healing down, it touches grief that have corroded lives, and like the acid pierces iron through, so enters in its hard, unyielding ore and melts it into softness. Into the ocean of our human life, salt with the mineral of a thousand woes, bitter with sorrow, brackish with despair, where streams of deep unhappiness have poured the sorrows they have drunk from broken hearts, from awful crimes, from guilt, remorse and fear, the tear of woman drops like gentle rain, and lo, the whole is sweetened, and its tides rise swelled to life again in calm content.—Ex.

A suspicious subscriber, who found a spider in his paper, wants to know if it is considered a bad omen. Nothing of the kind. The spider was merely looking over the columns of the paper to see what merchant was not advertising, so that it could spin a web across his store door and be free from disturbance.—Ex.

D. M. OSBURNE MOWERS AND MOLINE PLOWS.

To those who use Machinery, and especially to the farmers of this country, we take this method of bringing to your notice that we are handling machinery, and the kind that you need, and guarantee any machine that we propose to sell, to give entire satisfaction, or no sale.

We have on hand the best Mower that was ever introduced in this country; and for many reasons: 1st.—It is the lightest draft machine made, no side draft, no weight on your horse necks, the draft comes direct from the main bar underneath the tongue. 2d.—It has the loose and flexible cutting bar, the outer end will drop 2 1/2 ft. into a ditch; the very thing you farmers need in this country to cut over your ditches. Other mowers can't do this, as they are stiff in the heel. 3d.—The pitman runs in a straight line from a direct powerful stroke. In fact we are willing to give the D. M. Osburne a field test, and put up ($50.00) fifty dollars that with two 800 lb. ponies we can cut as much grass as any other machine with any size horses or mules, and we can cut over ground they can't, and do good work. All we want is to sell our machine, if you want one, is to give us a trial and we will willingly go and let you see it work and satisfy you it is all we represent it to be and that is, the best mower made. The Stevens' arched' all spring tooth harrows needs no recommendation from us, for some of your best farmers has it and don't hesitate to say it is the best they ever saw, and the very thing the country needs. Will have on hand binding twine, and extras for all machines we handle. Will have in a few days the Moline Plows of ever description and Rakes, the flying Dutchman J. R. the best three wheel plow that is made, as some of your farmers can testify to. The Moline cultivators with their 1 1/2 plows (bull tongue) the very thing to go down in the ground and cultivate your corn, corn planters, and in fact everything that is needed in farming will be here in a few days. We handle the K. C. Hay press, full circle all steel, and a No. 1 press; there is one now being used by Mr. F. Garrett, and gives satisfaction. Building wire we order for any one wishing it, and if we should not have on hand what you want will take pleasure in ordering it for you, and will sell as low as goods can be sold by any one to be of first-class quality, for we handle no other goods. Come and see for yourselves and let me tell you what Osburne Mowers can do. Will take grain for machinery.

W. A. JENKINS & Co. WANTED: 12 or 15 mares to breed to my Percheron Stallion "Bibi," 815 to insure a colt, or will contract colts on reasonable terms. Pasture free, but will not be responsible for accidents should my own. Ranch 4 1/2 miles north of Roswell. Wm. H. FOGUE.

We will have for sale in Roswell and vicinity, not later than the 1st day of June, two hundred and fifty head of good broke saddle horses, from four to seven years old, and from fourteen to fifteen hands high, and free from blemishes. WILLIAMSON & SANDERS.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

—Not warm, but hot weather.
—All the mechanics are busy.
—J. T. Eubanks was a visitor in the city this week.
—W. H. Guise, of Lincoln, is in the metropolis this week.
—George Curry, our efficient county clerk, came in Monday.
—Dr. T. A. McKinney will probably locate in Roswell.—Optic, 14th inst.
—C. B. Grant received about 15,000 pounds of freight for his shop this week.
—Notice the professional card of F. Williams, attorney at law, in this paper.
—Owing to the hot weather the new play, Phoenix, has been indefinitely postponed.
—Rev. Maulo delivered an interesting sermon at the M. E. church Sunday evening last.
—Memorial day the 30th of this month. It would be well to observe the day in Roswell.
—The Optic of the 15th inst., says: "They were to have been married last evening."
—Lincoln Carr, a cigar and liquor drummer, of San Francisco, was in town last week.
—Eddy's new hotel is now nearly completed, the plumbing work only remaining to be done.
—F. G. Hodsoll left on a trip to the mountains Friday. He will be absent about ten days.
—Several fishing parties went over to the lakes near the Pecos last week. They report a good catch.
—Mrs. Cosgrove and babies returned Sunday from their trip east. Mr. Cosgrove met them at Seven Rivers.
—The trade from Roswell and the lower Pecos country is worth a great deal to Las Vegas.—New Mexican.
—The land office is crowded with business, the Register and Receiver say they can not see over the work ahead of them.
—The Argus very pertinently remarks that Mr. Hargman will ride into Eddy on his special car on or before Christmas.
—J. C. DeLany was in town a day or two this week, looking after his interest here. Tommy Eubanks came down with him.
—Young Shields came in from Las Vegas, the fist part of the week. He will learn the drug business under J. L. Zimmerman.
—James Hampton is jubilant over the arrival of a nine pound boy Sunday night. May he live long and prosper is the wish of the Register.
—Hon. C. B. Eddy, the great money spirit of Eddy and the lower Pecos country is at home again. He brings encouraging news for the valley.
—The Pecos Valley Mercantile Co. have an advertisement in this impression of the Register. This is one of our best firms and deserves your patronage.
—We learn the Mr. Lott, the brick layer has begun the second of Capt. Lee on the Honda river east of town and proposes to open up another brick yard.
—De Witt Scott is in the butcher business with Wm. Fountain, and is making a whole team at the business, he keeps a neat clean place and knows how to cut a steak.
—Roswell needs a good resident dentist. There is plenty of work here to keep a good man employed, and we would like to see a "come to stay" dentist locate here.

—Mr. Carpenter, of Lookout, brought his son up to Roswell last Monday to be treated by Dr. Skipwith, for a diseased limb. He will be here under the doctors care for some time.
—Sidney Prager returned last week from his trip to Pennsylvania. Sid. got caught by the style in the east, and as a result now sports a stand-up collar and a "hard-boiled" hat.
—J. F. Carroll, of Rothgeb's brewing establishment, will leave to-morrow on an extended business trip, taking in Roswell and all of Lincoln county before his return.—Optic, 12th inst.
—Mendenhall and Garrett have erected a new office building on their Main street property. It will be occupied by J. H. Morrison, who will conduct a real estate, loan and insurance business.
—It is generally conceded that "The Pearl of the Pecos" is a very appropriate sobriquet for Eddy.—Argus.
—Pearl is good but we will still hold on to the Pride of the Pecos for Roswell.
—Mr. and Mrs. James Sutherland and son, of the Diamond "A" ranch, were in Roswell the latter part of last week visiting friends. Mr. Sutherland was initiated in the degrees of masonry while here.
—A wagon, loaded with oranges, lemons, bananas, and coconuts, from El Paso, was in Roswell this week. The owner had no trouble in disposing of his stock, and we may also add at good prices.
—Two gentlemen, whose mission in this country is to exterminate the prairie dogs, have been in Roswell for several days. We have been unable to learn their names or manner of annihilation.
—Mr. W. G. Francis, started last Saturday for Wyoming territory, where he will locate permanently. Mr. Francis has many warm friends in Roswell who are sorry to see him go, and wish him abundant success in his new home.
—Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Allen, accompanied by Miss Cowherd, made a short visit to Roswell last week. Mr. and Mrs. Allen returned home Monday. Miss Cowherd will remain here for some time on a visit with Mrs. E. H. Skipwith.
—The brick work on the Pauley house is completed and Mr. Hill's gang is busy putting on the roof timbers. The house will look ever so much better than was anticipated and is a credit even to so thoroughly a go-a-head town as Roswell.
—James Kibbee, the editor of the Lincoln Independent, was in Roswell the latter part of last week, working in the interest of his mammoth edition advertising the Pecos valley to be issued soon. He went to Eddy the first of the week.
—Manager W. S. Prager, has written to the Eddy club that Roswell will accept their challenge for three games of base ball for $200, and will be in Eddy on the 20th of June. Money and glory are at stake, and you can bet we'll win them.
—A. B. Liles sold his wool clip to Mr. Pewett, agent for Myer Friedman Bros., of Las Vegas for 12 cents, his clip will amount to about 1500 pounds. Mr. Pewett loads it at the ranch. This is the first sale we have heard of this spring.
—Charles H. Sparks, W. S. Prager and Engineer Standford left with Ozanne, Wednesday morning, for the railroad on their way to St. Louis, to attend a meeting of the first New Mexico Reservoir Company, which is to be held there the 2nd day of June.
—Lieut. Scott, the popular and genial officer, spent a few days among friends in Roswell this week, he was just going in from a trip on business in connection with the department. Lieut. Scott is one of the genial souls of the post with a friend in every acquaintance.
—To the people of Roswell, greeting: Are you aware that the Register has got to be a smashing good local paper, and that you ought to enthusiastically support it? Go in and subscribe.—Eddy Argus.
—Thanks! And the same back to you.
—Miss Lizzie Harris, and Tobias Cazier are to be married to-day (Thursday) at the residence of the brides father, a gay time is expected out there and we doubt not but that everything will go as merry as marriage bells. Long life and much joy often encouraged by a boy.
—Mr. Slack is in a very much better form of mind lately than has been usual with him for some time. The cause is the arrival of his wife from Las Vegas, she got here with Mr. McCallum Saturday night. They have gone to housekeeping in Mr. Willie Chismus residence on north Main street.
—When hot weather comes we want the people of Roswell to come up in big bunches to see us. It's too hot down there in July and August to breathe—and we'd like to see as many of you as can come, anyhow. The latch string is on the outside. Come up and stop a while.—Independent.
—Surveyors have been at work recently establishing the boundary line between Eddy county and Texas. Heretofore certain Eddy county citizens have been compelled to pay taxes to Texas and act as jurymen in that state. A. L. Crowley was one of them. The line established by Mr. Nyemeyer is about seventy miles east of Eddy.
—The court house is on a stand still for the present, Jenkins and Davidson, together with their bondsmen, have made a proposition to Mr. Sparks to take the contract off their hands, and he will submit the matter to the Pauley Jail company in St. Louis. We understand that the company will probably do the work themselves.

—Ezra McCallum returned from Las Vegas with his brother and sister Saturday night, who recently arrived from Canada to visit him. Mr. McCallum is a gentleman of considerable importance and influence in his home, and we are glad to note that he is very much in love with our valley, and we think he will be the means of bringing some good settlers here.

—One of our young society gentlemen, who sports a thinly covered upper lip and is very proud of the same, the other evening asked a young lady what she thought of his mustache? She answered that it reminded her of a new town in the west. To what way pray, he asked "Oh the survey is large enough but the settlers are scattering," she replied.

—Gross, Blackwell & Co. shipped today nineteen wagon loads of general merchandise to Roswell, amounting in all to $7,000 pounds. The consignee of this large load of freight are the Pecos Valley mercantile company, who will handle the goods in their store accompanying the building expedition of their large ditch now in process of construction.—Optic, 14th inst.

—Geo. T. Ovard and family, accompanied by Mrs. S. Cunningham Sr, started to Las Vegas, Tuesday morning, where they will take the "steam cars" for their old home in Utah. Mr. Ovard goes partly to attend to the settling of his fathers estate which is of considerable value. On Tuesday night the band went out to Mr. Ovard's residence and gave them a serenade, they were received right royally and sent home with the inner man refreshed and the treasury replenished.

—Ozanne and Company, the enterprising mail contractors, are subscribers in Roswell bank to the amount of $1,000 stock. This institution will open ready for business as soon as the building is ready for them. We are glad to see such men as Ozanne & Co, take hold of Roswell's interest in this way, it is an indication worthy of notice, and means that Roswell is going to become the best commercial town in southeastern New Mexico, because the best business men in the country are becoming interested in the town.

—Mr. W. A. Hawkins returned from Roswell Wednesday, where he has been for about a month, combining business with pleasure. Mr. H. is a thoroughly loyal citizen, and he sticks up for Eddy and her institutions under any and all circumstances. As an instance, he recently wagered Major Prager, of Roswell, that the Eddy baseball team would be successful in the coming contest, although he had never seen the Eddy boys practice. He simply had a blind faith in the Eddy club because it was an Eddy institution and therefore invincible. He is the right sort of citizen to go away from home occasionally.—Argus.

—The date of issue for the big illustrated Pecos Valley edition of The Lincoln Independent has been changed to July 1st. This move is necessary because of a delay in securing necessary photographs and drawings for some of the engravings. We are assured that this edition will be first class in every particular. If it is, it will prove a valuable advertisement for the great Pecos Valley, and an enterprise worthy of the hearty support of every citizen who believes in the future of this section. Mr. Kibbee the editor of The Independent has been in Roswell this week, gathering up material for his work. We understand that he has already secured many valuable articles and much important data, the publication of which, alone, will certainly be of lasting benefit to the great Pecos Valley.

—Mr. U. Ozanne was in town Tuesday with a hack for Mr. Sparks, Standford and Prager, who are starting for St. Louis. Mr. Ozanne wishes us to say that he will arrange with parties who contemplate leaving Roswell for a trip, to take them through for a very reasonable price, also he is always ready to bring parties from the railroad to Roswell, without stop if they desire. We are certain that Mr. Ozanne's accommodations are much superior to any other hack line in the country. Mr. Ozanne is contemplating an arrangement to put on a regular service connecting Roswell with the railroad, which when done will be a convenience our people will be very thankful for. We hope to see him locate his headquarters here, with the control of our lines running out, we would then have accommodations that we would not begrudge paying for.

Chaves and Eddy.

From the Lincoln County Leader.
The people of White Oaks are glad to note, the prevailing signs of substantial prosperity in the new Counties. As the children of the County of Lincoln, they will always seem peculiarly near to us, and their prosperity will always be near the hearts of their brethren, who remain under the old name. The day is not far distant, when all three of our counties will have railroad facilities, and then we want to see the man who can show us a better country, than lies within the borders of Old Lincoln County.

Warning.

From the Lincoln Independent.
To Roswell and community: We desire to give warning that on Wednesday, the 14th inst., there left here a man who was bound for Roswell, for some purpose that may bear watching. In size he is about two by five, has a gingerbread-colored mustache, wears clothes, has a dark brown breath and has an insinuating method of approaching people. He has seven long hairs growing in the middle of the bottom of his left foot and asks a great many questions. He can't come nearer a bush than a snowball, and his gall starts under his arm and runs to his ankle. He's among you, my friends, and you'd better keep your eye on him.

Notice to Stockholders.

There will be a meeting of the stockholders of "The First New Mexico Reservoir & Irrigation Co.," in St. Louis, Mo., on the 2nd day of June, 1890, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and the transaction of such other business as may come before them.
W. S. PRAGER, Secretary.

Always have your prescriptions and family receipts filled from pure and fresh drugs and by experienced druggists and Zimmerman's is the place.

—FOR—

THE CHILDREN!!

To the little girls and little boys of Lincoln county: We are anxious to see what improvement you have made this year in penmanship.

We want every boy and girl in Lincoln county, from 6 to 12 years of age, to write us a letter. You are to tell us your name and age, how long you have been going to school, what books you are studying, how many scholars are in your school, your teachers name, and as much more news as you wish to give us. Also your papas name, his occupation and address, so we can send your present in his care, should you win a prize.

No letters will be entered for competition after June 15th, so write early.

Your letters will be carefully read by a committee appointed for that business, and on the 4th of July a prize will be sent to each writer of the best letter according to age—one for a boy and another for a girl. In all there will be 14 prizes, one of which will be given to the 6 year old girl who writes the best letter, and one to the 6 year old boy; one to the 7 year old girl and one to the 7 year old boy, and so on to the 12th year. The persons who examine the letters will consider the composition as well as the penmanship.

The value of prizes to be given away amounts to One Hundred Dollars.

Letters to which prizes are awarded will be published in the PECOS VALLEY REGISTER, with name of writer. All letters must be addressed to "EDITH," care Jaffa, Prager & Co., Roswell, N. M., and she will acknowledge receipt of same.

Yours truly,
JAFFA, PRAGER & CO.

Nicotine Poison Removed.

Mr. L. M. GEVELLA, of Vicksburg, Miss., says that his system was poisoned with nicotine from the excessive use of tobacco in smoking cigarettes. He could not sleep, his appetite was gone, and he was in a bad fix generally. He took S. S. S., which drove out the poison and made a new man of him.

No sort of poison can exist in the blood when the system is fully under the influence of S. S. S.

MALARIAL POISON.—For many long months I was a sufferer from malaria, and could get no relief. I eked out an existence in utter despair, having vertigo and numerous unpleasant symptoms of that insidious poison. I began taking S. S. S., and improved at once. My appetite returned and my strength came again. The vertigo left, and from 120 pounds I went up to 160 pounds, my present weight. It cured me perfectly, and through me many others have been benefited and cured by Swift's Specific.

WATER VALLEY, MISS.—Our little girl, Jessie, had scrofula for six years. We tried the best physicians of New York and Philadelphia; also Hot Springs, Ark., without avail. Swift's Specific cured her.

LUCKY PHILIP.

A Well Known German Wins $15,000.
Indianapolis (Ind.) Sentinel, April 23.

A few days ago Philip Reichwein of 99 N. Noble St., received a draft through the Merchants' National Bank of this city for $15,000 from the Louisiana State Lottery Company at New Orleans—Mr. Reichwein holding a twentieth part of the ticket winning the capital prize of $300,000. During the month of February Mr. Reichwein made a trip to New Orleans with the Indianapolis Maennerchor Society, and while there purchased a ticket for the March drawing, leaving it with a friend there. That ticket drew $5, and sending word to his friend to invest that in more tickets he gave little thought to the matter. Shortly after the last drawing he found he held a ticket drawing a twentieth part of the capital prize. He is a prominent German, well known in the city and Supreme Secretary of the Ancient Order of Druids, which gives him a large circle of acquaintances in New Orleans.

A contemporary reports that kissing matches are popular in various parts of the country. This may be true, but it smacks of improbability.

Our Hannah Jane.

Our Hannah Jane was thin and weak. And ashy white her lip and cheek. We often thought—and thought with pain.

"We soon must lose our Hannah Jane." With change of doctors, change of air, She sought for healing everywhere. "And when our hopes were almost past, "Favorite Prescription" tried at last. It gave us joy, it gave us hope. She ceased to pine, she ceased to moan, (Pierce's remedies are sure and true) Now Hannah Jane is good as new.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturer, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrappers, and faithfully carried out for many years.

WYOMING'S CAPITAL.

In the Congressional report upon the admission of Wyoming many facts were given showing her richer in resources than any of her sisters, and no territory ever admitted as thoroughly qualified. It is reported that the CAPITAL CITY, CHEYENNE, is one of the wealthiest cities in the world, and certainly the most favored and prosperous. The Union Pacific Railway is now constructing shops there to cost $500,000, and employ 2,000 men. This fact, coupled with the early admission of the state as a free territory to CHEYENNE, has her reputation still high, offering the best investment in the West. Many persons are buying residence property in the city, and our prices are even lower than that immediately adjoining. We are offering only a few blocks and to induce a quick response we will, to a limited amount, take two-thirds in cash and one-third in notes, payable in one and two years, at seven per cent semi-annual interest. Call at our Cheyenne office, 111 E. 12th St., CHEYENNE, WYO. DURHAM & COMPANY CO., Department B, Denver, Colorado.

BISMARCK AT HOME.

The Daily Life at Frederick's Rest—A Modest Home in a Forest.

In my last letter, writes a correspondent of the New York Tribune, I told you I would write a description of Friedrichsruhe and the daily life of Bismarck in that residence, if the rumors about his resignation were confirmed. So they are now, and the greatest of all Germans will now live as a private citizen at his castle of Friedrichsruhe. "Frederick's rest," was originally a hunting rendezvous, built in 1763 by Count Frederick von Lippe Sternberg and Schwabenberg. Near by was an ancient hostelry, called Frascati by its proprietor, a retired valet of the Berlin princes.

When Emperor William, who owned the place in his quality of Duke of Lauenburg, made a present to Bismarck of the domain upon which Frascati stood, the Iron Chancellor remodeled the hotel and made it his country residence, to the great annoyance of the Hamburg bourgeois, who used to come there for picnics. There are no neighboring cottages around, and Bismarck is not disturbed on his estate. At some distance from the castle stands the inn of the locality in the midst of a few houses which form the village. There are no peasants, but only some forest-seekers, letter-carriers, railroad employes, the workmen of the saw mill owned by the prince, a blacksmith, a tailor, a miller, the landlord and the waiters of the hotel.

The principal personage of that small colony is the forest-keeper of the Sachsenwald, who is also mayor of Friedrichsruhe, and the manager of Schwarzenback, a small estate near Friedrichsruhe belonging to Bismarck, and of the farms and filled lands of Silk and Schoenau, which also belong to the prince. The latter does not disdain to have frequent and friendly talks with his chief forest-keeper. Bismarck is fond of asking all sorts of practical questions, and he listens with pleasure to the progress made in wood-cutting and the profits to be expected therefrom.

Friedrichsruhe is as isolated as any solitary hermit could desire, though reached in one hour's time by express train from Hamburg. The forest called Sachsenwald (Saxons' wood) surrounded the estates entirely. The railroad passes from one end of it to the other. It is little frequented by hunters, and troops of deer are to be seen from the windows of the express train, quietly feeding on the very embankments of the railroad track. A small brook, the Au, flows across the forest under the foliage of the trees, and when it comes out from the wood it gives the motive power to the saw mill belonging to Bismarck. The fact is that the chancellor's home is the last place where affectation and posing are allowed.

It is quite a family home, without any pretense to dignity. Dolly and Bichette are the friendly nicknames given to Princess Furstenberg and Radziwill, great friends of the house, and Madame Bismarck's aged friend is familiarly called Mother Boltzmann. The prince is never so happy as when he can afford to stay in the midst of his family, with his children around him.

The house at Friedrichsruhe has only two stories, and is painted yellow. The first story is occupied by the chancellor, the second by his wife and daughter, the Countess von Rantzau, whenever she comes on a visit to her parents. It is not likely that Bismarck will change much in the daily routine of his life, with the exception that he will reside all the year round at Friedrichsruhe, and devote to his own private affairs the time he used to consecrate to those of the Empire. He begins the day by working at his desk, and afterwards takes a ride or a walk, which is never shorter than five miles. At the second breakfast all the members of the family appear, and sometimes there is a distinguished visitor. The afternoon is spent in working and in a short promenade. At 7 dinner is served, after which the prince retires to his smoking-room.

Dwellings of the Poor.

Professor Richard T. Ely's important paper on "A Programme for Labor Reform," in the "Present-Day Papers" series, in the Century magazine, we quote the following: "Stricter sanitary laws are required, and a better organization of the sanitary administration of cities. Houses unfit for habitation should be torn down, and small parks provided to give breathing-places for the crowded sections. The beginning made in New York city deserves commendation. While not prepared to recommend at present the construction of houses by the municipality, we regard English experiments in this direction as worthy of study. Private philanthropy should concern itself more than heretofore with the dwellings of the poor and strive to make them fit for human beings. It is a sad commentary on our Christian civilization that when there is more than one man in New York city claiming to be a Christian who, alone and unaided, could reconstruct the entire tenement-house district or districts of the city, the unspeakable wretchedness and squalor of its slums continue almost unabated."

Grave of an African Queen.

Hester Cora Mitchell, as she was known here after becoming the slave of ex-Governor Mitchell, is buried in the cemetery in this city. She was a queen of some African tribe, and came to this country voluntarily, bringing with her all her insignia of royalty—crown and robes and jewels, etc. She was pleased with this country and resolved to lay down her robes of royalty and become a slave, as above stated. Every Christmas until her death she would appear before the negroes in all the gorgeousness of her queenly paraphernalia. After this exhibition she would retire, lay aside her queenly attire, and go into the kitchen as humbly as any of the other servants of Governor Mitchell. When Hester Cora died Governor Mitchell had her buried in her regalia.—[Milledgeville (Ga.) Chronicle.]

When on the High Seas.

On the rail, on a steamboat, aboard a fishing smack, or yachting on the coast, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will be found a reliable means of averting or relieving ailments to which travelers, mariners and emigrants are peculiarly subject. Sea captains, ship doctors, voyagers or sojourners in the tropics, and all about to encounter unaccustomed or dangerous climates, should not neglect to avail themselves of this safeguard of well ascertained and long tried merit. Constipation, biliousness, malarial fever, indigestion, rheumatism and affections of the bladder and kidneys are among the ailments which it eradicates, and it may be resorted to not only with confidence in its remedial efficacy, but also in its perfect freedom from every objectionable ingredient since it is derived from the purest and most salutary sources. It counteracts the effects of unwholesome food or water.

or overeating, or the partaking of too rich and indigestible food, is a common cause of discomfort and suffering. To relieve the stomach and bowels from such overloading, a full dose of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets is the best remedy. They operate gently, yet thoroughly and without griping, nausea, or other unpleasant effects.

If the too free indulgence in such intemperate eating has deranged digestion, causing dyspepsia and biliousness, attended with a sense of fullness or bloating after eating, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in mouth in morning, on arising, drowsiness after meals, indescribable feeling of dread, or of impending calamity and hypochondria—then you need to follow up the use of the Pellets with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, to tone up the stomach, invigorate the liver, and set all the processes of digestion at work. While curing indigestion, it purifies the blood, cleansing the system from all humors and blood-poisons—no matter of what name or nature, or from what cause arising. Unlike other blood-purifiers, it operates equally well at any season of the year. It contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to ferment in the stomach and derange digestion. On the contrary, it retards fermentation and promotes all the digestive and assimilative processes. It is as wonderful and peculiar in curative results as in its chemical composition. There is nothing similar to it in composition or approaching it in results. Therefore, don't be duped and induced to take some substitute, said to be "just as good," that the dealer may make a larger profit.
