Ruidoso Told To Appear In Water Row

As I See It

By LLOYD P. BLOODWORTH

A recent survey in Alamogordo made by the chamber of commerce indicates that the tourist business in that city amounts to more than $2,000 per day. This would amount to approximately three-quarters of a million dollars per year which is a lot of money in any language. It would be interesting to know just how much money the tourists bring to Ruidoso each year and how much the State of New Mexico gets in the way of taxes. Joe Bursey's recent article in the Saturday Evening Post way a dandy and gives an insight as to the magnitude of the tourist industry.

We have a new grandson in West Texas, Bert Rice Bloodworth was born June 7 at San Angelo, Texas. He was named after his grandpa on his mother's side. This makes two sons for Boogie and Marilyn and I guess he will grow up to be a ranchman like his daddy. The older lad is Lloyd P. Bloodworth III and is called Buck. With both grand-fathers taken care of as far as names are concerned everything is in fine shape.

Last week's issue of Life Magazine carries a story of John Casparis of Alpine, Texas, and his unique method of hunting eagles and coyote wolves from a small plane. Several years ago I had the pleasure of taking a flight with Casparis over the Big Bend National Park country and also saw him kill several eagles from the plane. It was one of the most thrilling adventures of my life, especially the flight over the grand canyon of the Rio Grande. No one can adequately discribe the grandeur of such a trip until he has taken it. Although John Casparis is a large man he controls a plane with the ease that most people would drive a car or ride a bicycle.

The El Paso Times carried a picture of Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Ivey and their seven sons and their wives recently. Mr. Ivey is one of the outstanding farmers of the Rio Grand valley below El Paso and with his brothers were pioneer cotton farmers. Mr. and Mrs. Ivey have a summer home in Ruidoso and were here for a recent visit. I have no fear for America as long as such men as the Ivey's have reared are taking the lead in their chosen professions. The future of this country depends upon the kind of leadership we give it in our sons and daughters.

Our good friend Allan Falby has resigned as sheriff of El Paso, County and will give his time to the promotion of the Southwestern Sun Carnival. The County has lost a fine sheriff and the Sun Carnival has made an excellent choice for a manager. Allan has made an enviable record as a law enforcement officer. He is also closing out his term as president of the El Paso Lions Club and attend the recent Lions Roundup in Ruidoso.

Congratulations to Herb Greggerson on his recent square dancing school held at the Navajo Club. More than 150 men and women from all over the United States attended the school. I can remember when Herb first started dancing business. He and his wife were a part of the Blue Bonnet team that the El Paso Chamber of Commerce sent to New York as an advertising feature. While in the big city they appeared on the Fred Waring program. Herb's success just goes to show that success can be obtained if one is willing to pay the price. Today he is acknowledged to be one of the best teachers in the nation.

Plans For Cattle Growers Convention Include Talks On Taxes; Land Problems

Federal livestock taxes, aftosa in Mexico and public land problems are expected to highlight discussions at the second quarterly Executive Board meeting of the New Mexico Cattle Growers Association in Ruidoso, June 22 and 23, according to G. W. Evans, Magdalena, President. Advance reservations indicate that more than four hundred leading cattlemen, representing every county in New Mexico plan to attend, Evans said.

National legislation introduced by Senator Clinton P. Anderson regarding Forest Land matters and livestock freight rules are also slated for discussion, according to Evans.

Dr. E. L. Peck, supervisor of the U. S.-Mexico Border Patrol for the Bureau of Animal Industry, is expected to give a detailed report on current efforts to prevent all movement of livestock from Mexico into this country. Three days previous to the Ruidoso meeting, ranchers Hal R. Cox, Las Cruces, W. A. Winder and Walter Hightower of Deming will accompany Peck on an inspection tour of the New Mexico border. The Committee will report to cattlemen at the June 22 meeting.

"It appears likely that our organization may renew our request that a substantial International Border fence be erected between the two countries," Evans said.

Headquarters for the meeting will be at the Navajo Lodge, and entertainment planned includes a barbeque and dance the evening of June 22.

S. E. Kleinhein and C. M. Graham, Service Agents for the Interstate Commerce Commission, will meet with the Association Traffic Committee to lay plans for an orderly fall shipment of cattle from New Mexico. John B. Wooten of Clayton is chairman of this committee.

all of whom own lands in fee simple, located on the Ruidoso River with valuable water and ditch rights going with the land.

i. e.: Elger E. Miller owns lands that have been continuously irrigated from the Rio Ruidoso since the year 1890.

Henry Hale is the owner of lands that have been continuously irrigated from the Rio Ruidoso since the year 1890.

Juan Montes is the owner of land lying between the Rio Ruidoso and the U. S. Highway which has been continuously irrigated from the river Ruidoso since the year 1874.

All of the irrigated lands of the Plaintiffs Elger E. Miller, Henry Hale, Juan Montes, and E. W. Breese, together with the points of diversion and the location of the irrigation ditches, are more particularly set forth on the Rio Ruidoso Hydrographic Maps, prepared by the State Engineer in the year 1903, and on file in the office of the State Engineer, Santa Fe, N. M.

The plaintiffs then bring up discussion in the summons pertaining to the Ruidoso Water Co. taken over by the Village of Ruidoso about October 10, 1948, and describe the operation of the system at present under lease to the Village, stating "that said Village charges its customers and consumers of such waters a fixed price according to a schedule of water rates and operates said system for profit."

They go on further to say that the Village of Ruidoso, in its operation of this waterworks system, without a valid appropriation or permit from the State Engineer or other authority of any kind, and contrary to the laws of the State of New Mexico, is pumping water from the upper reaches of the Rio Ruidoso located in the Village of Ruidoso into the water mains of said waterworks system and that the quantity of water so unlawfully diverted from said stream varies from time to time, but on information and belief amounts to approximately four hundred gallons per minute.

The plaintiffs further state that unlawful diversion of this water from the Rio Ruidoso materially diminshes the flow of water through their irrigation ditches, which convey irrigation water to their farm lands, and as a result causing great damage to the plaintiffs by depriving them of water necessary to irrigate their crops of commercial vegetables, grain, alfalfa, and orchards, for due to the shortage of water, caused by such unlawful diversion, the plaintiffs are unable to seed their lands to alfalfa or to set out orchards, or to grow commercial vegetables, or harvest crops of normal growth, and carry out other farming operations that require a full quota of irrigation water to which they are entitled.

They continue by stating that if the Village of Ruidoso is permitted to continue to unlawfully divert such waters from the Rio Ruidoso, the plaintiffs, will suffer great and irreparable injury and the plaintiffs seek the equity of the court to protect their rights in that they have no adequate remedy at law and that they are entitled to an injunction enjoining the defendant, its officers, agents, and employees from such unlawful diversion of water.

They further state the the plaintiffs have had conferences with the officers and representatives of the Village of Ruidoso and have demanded that the defendant, Village of Ruidoso, provide an adequate water supply from a source other than the Rio Ruidoso and discontinue diverting water from the Rio Ruidoso, but that the defendant has constantly neglected and refused to discontinue such wrongful diversion and that at the present time is expending large sums of money, building extensive settling tanks and installing a larger diversion system to divert waters from the Rio Ruidoso with the intention of making such unlawful diversion a permanent part of the Ruidoso waterworks system.

The closing paragraph of the summons is, "Wherefore, the Plaintiffs pray that the Defendant Village of Ruidoso, its officers, agents and employees, be permanently enjoined from diverting, using or appropriating waters from the Rio Ruidoso, and that a judgment be entered against the Village of Ruidoso for damages resulting from such unlawful diversion of water in favor of the Plaintiffs, Elger E. Miller, Henry Hale, Juan Montes, and E. W. Breese, in the amount of $3,000.00 each, and for such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper."

MESCALERO INDIAN CALL

By Edna Shields

Mrs. Jeanette Mendez was overcome by a heart attack Wednesday afternoon and taken to the hospital.

Also on the ailing list is Edmund Simmons, who has been a patient at the hospital with summer flu.

Bruengers, LaRoses, LaCourses and Cordreys picniced at the White Sands Wednesday eve, to show off one of New Mexico's National Monuments to the Bruenger's company.

Heard Miss Agnes LaVatta, the LaRoses' cousin from Phoenix visited a couple of days.

The Ray Carrells, who looked after the Jesse Campbell home the past two weeks, also enjoyed out of state company, Ray's brother Ralph and wife of Oregon.

Have been wondering why the Indian Council doesn't do something about setting the annual big feast up a month or two. Things get pretty dry before July 4. However, we have been threatened with a few clouds lately, probably due to Chief Waterfall's year around dancing.

Mr. Craig Young celebrated his fifth birthday Sunday with a party for all the youngsters. He received a number of nice gifts.

Friday night the children of all ages enjoyed a party sponsored by the woman's club.

The Forestry Dept. has been busy rigging up a fire watchouse and work shop, and installing a new radio. They now communicate directly with Phoenix.

There was a good sized crowd to enjoy the baseball game Sunday afternoon, between the Prestridge Log Camp, and the Indians. Emmet Botello and Lorenzo Duffy pitched the first half, and Bahi Yazza the last 4 innings. Bahi struck 'em out like a leaguer, Riley Chino did some dramatic catching, also Barney Mendez. The score was 8 to 12 for the log camp. The log camp had an enthusiastic cheering section, in fact, deafening. Barney Niache umpired.

Just heard that Miss Wood is being transferred to Oklahoma. Seems our nurses come and go before we get to know them.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Campbell returned Thursday night, and report wonderful vacations. Eula said California is beautiful, but she wouldn't exchange a spot in Mescalero for the whole state.

Are we the proud ones. Quadruplets arrived at our house (in the elm tree) Tuesday, and they and parents are doing nicely. Sorry I don't know their nationality, but have no bird book.

Jones-Bonnell Wedding June 12th

Sunday, June 12th Carolyn Suzanne Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones of Ruidoso, and Gerald Donley Bonnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kiel Bonnell of Ruidoso were united in marriage in an impressive ceremony performed by Rev. H. L. Graves at the Community Methodist Church in Ruidoso.

Preceding the ceremony Mr. Doc Furry of Ruidoso and Mrs. Dan King of Tularosa sang appropriate vocal numbers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and vows were spoken at the alter beautifully decorated with an arch of spring garden flowers and banked with spring garden flowers. Pastel tapers interspersed the flowers the length of the alter.

The lovely bride wore a dusty rosey street dress accented by white carnations and blue satin streamers. For something old and blue she wore necklace, earrings and bracelet belonging to her aunt, Mrs. Suzanne Oliver of Ruidoso, fashioned of silver set with blue stones.

Mary Glenda Shook was maid of honor. She wore a dotted swiss dress and a bandeau of pink carnations in her hair.

Teddy Bonnell, brother of the groom, was best man, and Kenneth Bonnell, another brother was usher.

Immediately following the ceremony the reception was held at Ruidoso Lodge for a large group of friends and relatives of the young couple.

After the bride cut the cake and served her husband Mrs. Jack Hobson and Mrs. Joy B. Bailey both of Tularosa and both aunts of the groom, and Mrs. Suzanne Oliver served the guests from the beautifully appointed table.

The cake centered the table and on either side were punch bowls, bouquets of garden flowers, and blue tapers.

Following the reception the young couple left for a two weeks honeymoon after which they will return to live in their new home in the Palmer Gateway Addition in Ruidoso.

Out of town members of the family here for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Adams of El Paso, an uncle and aunt of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Champion, grandparents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hobson and son Maurice, Mr. and Mrs. Dan King and sons David and Danny, Mrs. Gerald Champion and Mr. and Mrs. Joy B. Bailey and daughter Beth, all of Tularosa.

Fire In The Forests

Summer and fall constitute two of the most serious fire periods in this country. Forests and fields dry out, awaiting only the touch of a spark to burst into flame. Tourists throng the highways. Thousands of campers go into the woods. Commercial camps and vacation spots of all kinds run at capacity.

Every year sees the destruction of magnificent forests, accompanied by a tragic toll of wildlife. Some forest fires do occur spontaneously, from lightning or other natural causes. But a far greater number can be attributed to human carelessness and ignorance. The motorist who throws burning cigarette butts and matches from his car, and the camper who leaves a fire without dousing it with water and burying it with earth until every spark is out and every ember is cold, are two of the worst offenders. The whole nation is the poorer because of them.

A plain duty confronts everyone who goes into the outdoors for any reason. It is to protect a heritage which, once destroyed, may take centuries to replace. The various public and private bodies which deal with fire are doing a fine job. They are making available to all simple, easy rules for fire safety. They maintain patrols and fire fighting organizations. But they can do little without public cooperation. A forest fire can spread with incredible swiftness, and be completely beyond control in a matter of minutes under certain conditions.

Make the most of the woods—and save them for the future.

Danger At The Grassroots

Robert Kazmayer, the well-known lecturer and commentator, recently made a penetrating observation on our internal weakness. He said: "The real danger in the U. S. today lies not in Washington, but at the grassroots. Governments have always tended to usurp more and more power unto themselves. In every free organization there is the seed of tyranny. That's why eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. The real danger in the U. S. lies with the millions who are apathetic. Democracy is going by default. Men and women are being promised by their government things—things which that government cannot deliver, not over any protracted period of time—for no government can go on promising more and more people more and more of everything, without telling anyone that someone has to pa ythe bills. Lulled into a false-security by these promises men are exchanging their liberties, their initiative, their dignity, their heritage as free men, for a bunch of theories, most of which are imported from countries which are already dependent on the U. S. for support."

There's no sense in kicking the government, as if it were something separate and apart from us. The government is what we make it by the public servants we elect to office. In late years, there has been a disgraceful increase in the "gimme" attitude indulged in by individuals, by local governments, and by various groups, all seeking special favors and benefits. This represents the "get-something-for-nothing" psychology in its worst form. And it is exactly the kind of thing which starves freedom and fattens tyranny.

War scares flare up almost overnight but there is no reason to expect hostilities to commence tomorrow.

The idea behind a single defense organization is economy but it might not be economical in the next war.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Thought you might like to know what it is like to see a tornado in New Mexico as I am glad to say, it is very unusual.

Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jorgenson took Harvey, Louise and I to Roswell. They had never seen the town. After shopping around some we had a nice dinner at the Cafeteria, then drove around the Military grounds, lots of activity around there, as it was their final day. We drove around Cahoon Park and the residential section but were disappointed to find the Museum closed on Wednesdays.

We drove out to the Bottomless lakes. Another New Mexico wonder. Found many picnic-parties and young folks swimming and boating. All comforts and very well worth seeing, with a good road out there.

Reached town again at 4 p.m., and noticed people looking West from the tall building windows and from the side-walks. A big black cloud was forming but we decided to come on, by the time we reached six-mile hill it was raining hard and hail coming. Off to the South was a big black funnel shaped cloud that reached the ground and was whirling, a bolt of lightning hit it and tore it up like a rag, soon another formed and we could see three before we passed from sight. We were anxious to cross eight-mile draw before the waters reached there, which we did but soon others could not cross. The hail was so large and the clouds so black it was terrifying. The children would cover their faces but so fascinating they would look again. We left it at the Diamond A Ranch. This storm missed the Air Base with out too much damage but hit Dexter cotton fields.

Plans Made For 1949 State Fair

Albuquerque, June, 1949 — Premium books for the big 1949 New Mexico State Fair, September 25 to October 2, will be off the press and ready for mailing early in July, Leon H. Harms, secretary-manager, announced today. Requests for the books will be filled as quickly as possible, he added.

All of the regular events traditional to the Fair will be included in the 1949 Fair plus several new features. Chief among the new attractions will be the addition of a Brahman beef cattle show. This will be the first time a Brahman show has been held in New Mexico. Same prizes and premiums will be awarded in the Brahman Show as in the other major beef breed shows.

Meanwhile, Harms reported that a large crew of workmen are busy repainting, repairing and constructing improvements on the state's multi-million dollar plant. He said the new Youth Building, partially completed for the 1948 fair, has been completely finished and furnished with 1,000 new beds and mattresses for the state's youth.

A new dairy barn, constructed as a wing on the sheep and swine building will be ready for dairy cattle and dairy industry exhibits for the 1949 fair. The new dairy building is one of the most beautiful additions to the fair grounds.

Another improvement that will be ready in time for the fair is a new row of Quarter Horse stables. The new structure will house an additional 60 horses. A new horse show ring also will be completed before September.

Jerry Lee Douglass of Merkel, Texas is up to spend the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Douglass. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Douglass brought him up on Friday, but returned home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Barney Douglass also visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brown while here, Mrs. Douglass and Mrs. Brown being sisters.

"APACHE VILLAGE" OPEN YEAR ROUND

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Butler and son Charles came to Ruidoso from Midland, Texas, in May of 1947. Shortly after that time they started construction of what was to become one of the most modern and attractive courts in the "Year 'Round Playground" . . . Apache Village.

In this group there are eight bedrooms with private baths and thirteen units with kitchens. This enables the Butlers to provide accommodations for any size group the year around.

The kitchens are modern in every respect and equipped with mechanical refrigeration.

All cabins have plenty of hot and cold water from deep wells on the grounds. A fully equipped playground is provided for the children.

The big picture windows look out on either the Cree Meadows golf cource or the mountains toward Baldy . . . or the well kept grounds landscaped with lawns and flower beds, surrounding the slab cabins of "Apache Village."

Directions for finding Apache Village? Turn out the Alto Road and across the bridge and up the hill to the left is located this beautiful group of cabins . . . "completely modern."

Besides building a business Mr. and Mrs. Butler have built for the future of Ruidoso by taking part in civic projects and all programs for the development of the town. He serves on the Planning Board of the Village of Ruidoso and the Co-ordinating Council, is active in Lions Club, the Chamber of Commerce . . . and she is interested in church work and the P.-T. A.

Dr. McVey Opens Ruidoso Office

Dr. and Mrs. C. L. McVey have moved to Ruidoso to make their home and Dr. McVey has opened an office next door to Mid-Way Garage. A Doctor of Osteopathy, physician and surgeon, he has announced general practice.

Dr. McVey practiced in Ruidoso in 1939 and moved from here to Las Vegas, Nevada, where he was police doctor for the city, and on the board of directors of the Las Vegas Diagnostical Laboratory in addition to his own practice.

Even though he has made his home in the Nevada City, "Doc", as he is known to his friends here, has spent part of every year in Ruidoso.

To find the number of gallons a square or oblong tank will hold, multiply the number of cubic feet it contains by 7.4805.

RUIDOSO ROUND-UP

By Mary Nell

Jim Ayres, deputy sheriff of Lincoln County, has a badge—as all law enforcement officers do, but not an ordinary one for him—no sir, his is set with a big turquoise and bet there isn't another like it anyplace (or like Jim either for that matter.

The Ruidoso Hhigh School is only two years old and the second class to graduate was this year's 49'rs. But although so young there is plenty of school spirit, the youngins, on their own cooked up an alumnae banquet a few days ago for the classes of 48 and 49—had the dinner party at the Clubhouse Cafe — with decorations in their colors of blue and gold carried out in table decorations, nut cups, place cards—and even a tinted cake. They decided "there will always be a Ruidoso High School alumnae banquet"—and meant it.

The annual "roundup" has started up at the Mescalero Indian Reservation. It takes many weeks—months even—to cover this vast area—and the cowboys still carry on in the old style—eating from a chuck wagon, sleeping in their bedrooms under the stars—loving the excitement of the work during the day and the peace and quiet of the campfire at night.

Heard Carmon Phillips says—"Buford Fisher at the Mint Bar has hit the jackpot of entertainment again—last year it was the five colored boys from Dallas—this year its Phil Sutter and his Trio—fresh from nine months at the Valley Club in El Paso. Sutter is really hot on his electric guitar and you should hear him impersonate the lead in "The Ink Spots". Sutter and his two helpers, Eddie Simpkins on the sax and Martin Kern on the piano will certainly give all the boys in Ruidoso a run for their money in entertainment this season—and you can go hear em every night if want to." Carmon (loves to dance) Phillips doesn't get that enthusiastic over nothing."

Being talked about on the Ruidoso—the success of the golf tournament at Cree Meadows Country Club and the "horse-derves" (please say you know what I mean—can't spell it without a dictionary—and it wasn't in mine) the square dancing classes and barbecue Saturday night—all the local fishermen "going fishing" afternoons—one day caught Fred Riley, Mr. and Mrs. McDaniels at the Spanish Nook, Wade Hedgecoke angling—the conventions coming up next week—possible showers every afternoon—comparison of Ruidoso temperature and that in Texas—wild roses in bloom—the horse races coming up begining the 24th—Capitan rodeo 4th of July — Mescalero Ceremonials about that time.

Cattle Thieves Are Caught, Convicted

Increased activity to prevent cattle theft in New Mexico has led to the arrest, conviction and sentence of six individuals involved in cases of this kind in the past thirty days, according to G. W. Evans, Magdalena, President of the New Mexico Cattle Growers Association.

Siverio Chavez, Antonio G. Chavez and Mariana Chavez of Albuquerque were convicted of stealing cattle from R .B. Thompson of Santa Rosa. Red Kyle, San a Rosa, has made claim for the association standing reward offer of $300 for furnishing information which led to arrests. The reward payment is expected to be authorized at the next quarterly meeting of the Association in Ruidoso on June 22, Evans said.

"In another case, Reynel Valencia, Marcelo Atencio and Ambrosio Gonzales of Cabezon were convicted and sentenced for stealing cattle from Merejildo Gurule of Cuba," Evans continued.

"The New Mexico Cattle Sanitary Board and State Police are to be commended for the excellent cooperation and support they have given our organization in preventing the theft of livestock in this state," Evans said.

Wednesday-Saturday Dances At Navajo

Bob Boyce announced this week that they have started having Wednesday and Saturday night dances at the Navajo Club for the rest of the summer.

Ray Reed and his band will play for the dances, music for "any dancer's taste." Everyone is welcome to come out for dancing on these nights.

In 1948, it supplied 57.4 per cent of the nation's textile needs, compared to rayon, 14.9 per cent; jute, 10.3 per cent; wool, 10 per cent; hard fibers such as sisal and Manila hemp, six per cent; flax 0.2 per cent; and synthetic fibers other than rayon, one per cent.

Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William Ferguson will observe their golden wedding anniversary the 28th of June. They will be at home (their new home on the Nogal Mesa) to any of their friends that would like to call between the hours of 2 and 6 on the above date. The "Billy" Fergusons are pioneer ranchers in Lincoln County. The couple married in 1898.

Tabernacle and New Dining Hall Completed

The Tabernacle and new dining hall at the Ranchmen's Camp Meeting Ground on Nogal Mesa was completed this week and Thursday, June 16th had been designated as "Clean-Up" day by members of committees in Lincoln County.

All interested were invited to be there on Thursday, bring a basket lunch, and enjoy the fellowship and work.

The two new buildings will add to the facilities of the "camp meeting" which opens July 20th.

The Tinnie women are working on the coming hobby show and chuck wagon supper to be held in the near future. Be watching for the date.

Alvie Mosteller had the misfortune of a wreck last Sunday which tore his new pickup up very badly. We were glad to learn he was not injured and he will be able to fix his truck up so he can use it again.

Mr. Robert Casey is drilling a well. We are always glad to see any improvement going on in our valley.

Bro. O. L. Oldham is very busy getting ready for Vacation Bible School, which will start some time next week. Get ready, children. They will be by after you.

Mr. Champ Ferguson is down from Capitan doing some improving on the Charles Fullers landing field. Also some work for Mr. Hugh Sloan at Picacho.

Mr. Milt Maby had quite a mystery down his way yesterday. He had his water pump going and pumping water, everything going fine, so he went on with his work. When he went back to see his pumping machine, lo and behold, it was gone! He started looking and it had sunk about fifteen feet. The farmers have their troubles too.

A Good Car With Plenty Of Service

If you want a good used car here is one you can't afford to pass up. A 1939 Chrysler Royal Six. It has a motor that has recently been overhauled and it runs smooth with lots of power and low consumption of gas and the oil gage will show the same from the time you fill up to time the oil is drained. The paint is good and the upholster is more than fair.

This car has been priced at $550 but for this week I'm going to slash $75 off and sell it for $475. There is no car in the valley at such a bargain.

Have just listed a court for 20% less than you can build it. Grossed $6,000 last year.

Construction Begins On 4-H Club Camp

Construction on the $30,000 permanent 4-H club camp in Scott Able Canyon, south of Cloudcroft in Otero County is already under way, officials of the Southern New Mexico 4-H Club Foundation said today.

Raymond Matteson, Alamogordo contractor in charge of construction, has estimated that it will take 36 to 48 days to complete the job, thus insuring the use of the camp this summer by 4-H club members in the 13 counties included in the area.

The site for the much needed camp is one of the most beautiful in the state, according to landscaping engineers of the U. S. Forest Service. When completed the camp will have a large enough capacity to meet the youth needs of the 13-county area. In the past years, many 4-H club members have not been able to have the advantage of a summer camp as all facilities have been too limited to take care of the every increasing number of boys and girls who wanted this particular type of vacation and training, officials said.

More than $19,000 of the $30,000 goal has already been raised. Workers for the foundation will continue to solicit funds until the remainder has been contributed.

Mr. Bernard Williams and wife of Lubbock, Texas were visiting in Ruidoso last weekend with his mother, Mrs. Lula Williams. Bernard had not been in Ruidoso for two years and was amazed in the vast improvement which has taken place during that time and "thinks he'll buy something here."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tinney of Evanston, Ill., are spending their vacation in Ruidoso with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Erickson.

Hollywood Track Dope

All barns at the Hollywood Park Race Track are full, including the three new ones recently completed, and over 500 head of horses have been turned down as interest in the summer race meet in Ruidoso grows all over the nation.

This Sunday there will be a number of match races run starting at 2:30 in the afternoon—one "Miss Banks" owned by D. V. Land of El Paso will run with "South St. Mary's" owned by Cecil Gussman of Hereford, Texas—these are two outstanding quarter horses and the race will be for $4,000.

There are still a few box seats for sale for the entire racing season, which begins Friday, June 24th., and all Ruidoso people are reminded to remember this has been proclaimed "Ruidoso Day" at Hollywood Park.

Saturday, June 25th has been declared "Ladies Day", and all ladies will be guests of the Hollywood Racing Association, so men, take your wives, won't cost you a cent (unless she strays away to the pari-mutuel windows).

There will be many races run this summer sponsored by business firms locally and in other towns, Howard Hightower of the "Plaza Cafe" in Alamogordo is sponsoring a quarter mile race on June 26th., and will give a cash prize and blanket to the winner, Shelton Jewelry Co., of El Paso will sponsor one for seven furlongs on July 4th, with Mrs. Gatteetno and his daughter here for the presentation of prize money and blanket to the winner.

Others to sponsor races are Pecos Sales Co., of Roswell, and the following Ruidoso firms—Davis Bar, Ruidoso Bar, Buckaroo Cocktail Lounge, Mint Bar, Navajo Club, the Central Bar and Grill, and the Pioneer Club at Green Tree.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sallington, she is the daughter of Mr. J. E. Brownfield of Ruidoso, were up from El Paso last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Henderson from Lubbock came up after their daughter Wanda, who had been attending classes at Bazes Art Colony. They all left for home Sunday.

Joyce McCoy and Lu Ann McCoy went to Lubbock by bus last week to visit grandparents there for awhile.

Harmony House at 1:30 Tuesday, June 21. Regular classes will be held each Tuesday and Friday at 1:30 in the Education Building of the Community Methodist Church.

Ernest and Renne Beagley of Los Angeles have been added to the summer staff of The Arts Colony of the Southwest.

Ernest Beagley studied at the Otis Art Institute and Art Center in Los Angeles and also attended Houston Museum classes. He is a former student of John Hubbard Rich, portrait artist, Ralph Holmes, Frederick Manhoff, architect, and Joseph Mugunini.

Mr. Beagley was the winner of the landscape prize for Los Angeles Civic Opera House.

He will offer oils and water color in still life and landscape. Rene Beagley, costume designer of Los Angeles, will offer work in costume design and construction with special emphasis on children's clothes.

Many of the same people who enjoyed classes in the Arts Colony of the Southwest last year are making plans to enroll again and there are many new students coming to Ruidoso from a wide area in which the work of the school has become known.
