As I See It

By LLOYD P. BLOODWORTH

If you missed the Old Timers picnic at Lincoln last Sunday you missed one of the most delightful affairs that has been held in these parts in a long time. They were there from all over the country and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. Bert Pfingsten and his committee did a good job in making arrangements. Former governor Dick Dillon was down from Encino skaking hands with his many friends. An old timer remarked to me that Dillon made one of the best governors New Mexico ever had and that his administration was one of achievement and sincerity.

C. M. Harvey the El Paso banker and his son Phil drove up from the big city. With them were Thornton Hardie, prominent attorney and Bill Latham, managing editor of the El Paso Times. Bill was quite busy talking with the old timers and taking pictures, several of which appeared in his paper. Mr. Harvey has ranching interests in Lincoln county.

Peter and Henrietta Hurd were on hand in spite of the fact that Pete had his right arm in a swing as a result of a rough polo game. Sally Ortiz, our congenial sheriff was among those present. Sally is making a good officer and I like the way he mingles with the people. Our law enforcement officers should consider themselves as a reception committee to welcome visitors to our county. Harry Straley, chairman of our county commissioners was on hand. Harry looks an old cow puncher from the Rio Grande. I like all of those Straleys—they are good folks. I was disappointed that more of our people from Ruidoso were not there. Sometimes they are just a little hard to stir. Wilber and Louise Coe were seeing that everything and everybody were taken care of. Louise would make a swell hostess for any community.

A friend from El Paso who owns a cabin here recently decided to move to another city and decided to sell his cabin here. He inserted an ad in the daily papers stating that anyone interested could communicate with me. Many of our friends thought that we were selling our cabin. It is true that our business will take us away from Ruidoso for considerable time but we have no thought of selling our cabin. To Ida and I it is the most restful place on earth and we can assure everyone it is not for sale.

Looks like the Lincoln County War is on again. Last week the farmers in the lower valley entered suit against the Village of Ruidoso concerning use of the waters from the stream. Personally, I think that the suit is a good thing for all and will definitely determine just what the status of the waters are. I am still of the opinion that the only solution to our water problem is the building of a dam that would give all of our folks plenty of water, and at the same time, take care of the recreational needs of this fast growing community. In addition to having plenty water at all times for our people here it would assure our farmers of water when they need it most. I am hopeful that this suit will be friendly one and that out of it we will find a way to take care of all our people.

Dad's Day is over and all of our kids were heard from. In addition to being my day it was Ida's birthday so they were all hit pretty hard at one time. I am glad that they all are doing so well and Frankly I am sorter proud of them.

'RUIDOSO DAY' OPENS SUMMER RACE MEET

"Frontier Days" Is New Type Show; Set For Aug. 5-6-7

"Frontier Days", August 5-6-7, in Ruidoso, N. M., will be one of the biggest and perhaps the very best show ever attempted by the Ruidoso Chamber of Commerce and residents of this area.

Plans include a big parade opening day with all towns, schools, organizations, business houses, etc. in the area invited to participate with floats, mounted units, tying in with the original idea of "Frontier Days". There should be the most successful ever held in the area. The three cultures of Indian, Spanish-American and Anglo, should be colorfully represented.

Shorty McCrory of Capitan, N. M., is in charge of the rodeo to be held all three afternoons at the Hollywood Park Arena and has promised the fastest moving show possible with outstanding rodeo stars here for special events such as trick riding, roping, clowns, etc.

Bob Boyce, a member of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce has taken the job of general chairman for the three day program and is being assisted by other members of the board, including Harlan Williams, Carmon Phillips, Oscar Samelson, Coy Maroney, Walt Crosby, Dr. W. D. Horton, and Orland Bonaguidi.

Programs are being planned now and ticket sales will start in about two weeks. Advertising is being put out over the entire area now to let people know about the "Frontier Day" plans so they can be in Ruidoso for the big weekend.

Advance reservations can be made now through the Chamber of Commerce office in charge of Paul Vance, secretary.

Portrait painting with Mrs. Florence McNeil Hardy of Monahans, Texas, still life and landscape with Mrs. Nell Looney of Kermit, Texas, instructors, is well carried out in the exhibit.

Everyone Enjoyed Lincoln Program; Plans For Aug. 14 Events Announced

The anticipated crowd of old-timers, their families, and other interested persons gathered at Lincoln, N. M., Sunday, June 19th, for Old Timer's Day from the eight counties which originally made up "Lincoln County . . . the largest in the United States," for the picnic at noon and program following.

Approximately 1200 men, women and children were on hand to eat baskets of fried chicken, and everything that went with it, and to visit and recall the old days as they gathered in true fellowship.

Many of the visitors had not been to Lincoln since the Lincoln County Historical Society placed markers at points of interest throughout the town. Such marking of the old "landmarks" makes it much easier to understand the tales and stories told of the old "Billy the Kid Days" and to see a mental picture of the activities of those times.

Many men and women were there who had lived in Lincoln County or New Mexico sixty years ago.

Mrs. Fred P. Pfingsten of Nogal, N. M., who with her late husband, Fred, was introduced as guest of honor of the day, for she and her husband, whose families before them had pioneered here, started the "Old Timer's Day" picnics in Lincoln years ago.

At the close of the day's program, for which Bert Pfingsten, son of Mrs. Fred Pfingsten, acted as master of ceremonies, Wilbur F. Coe, who is president of the Lincoln County Historical Society, announced plans for "A Day In Old Lincoln," the date for which has been set as August 14th.

He urged all present for Old Timer's Day to make plans to attend the August celebration which will start shortly before noon and end with an evening pageant depicting the escape of Billy the Kid from Lincoln County Jail, now the museum building, with Peter Hurd, nationally-known artist, depicting the youthful desperado.

"A Day In Old Lincoln" will start off with a parade in charge of Wallace Ferguson of Capitan and Ralph Bonnell of Glencoe. There will be an art exhibit, platform musical program, Spanish Fiesta in charge of Fermin Montes of Hondo, and other attractions.

Every time these special events are held at Lincoln more interest is shown and representation is present from a wide area. Many El Paso people were in Lincoln Sunday and the occasion was featured in the El Paso Times Monday and Tuesday.

County Fair Dates Are Set For August Through October

Dates for 18 county fairs in New Mexico have already been set for August through October, according to information furnished by county extension agents.

County fair dates are as follows:

Bernalillo County 4-H Club Fair, Albuquerque, Aug. 26-27.
Torrance County 4-H achievement days, Estancia, Sept. 2-3.
Valencia County Fair, Eelen, Sept. 3-4-5.
Grant County Fair, Silver City, Sept. 8-11.
Sierra County Fair and Rodeo, Hot Springs, Sept. 10-11.
Mora County Fair, Mora, Sept. 10-11.
Tri-State Fair, Deming, Sept. 16-18.

Northern New Mexico District Fair, Santa Fe, Sept. 16-18. (This Fair includes Taos, Rio Arriba, Sandoval and San Miguel Counties.)

San Juan County Fair, Farmington, Sept. 16-18.

Eddy County 4-H Fair, Carlsbad, Nov. 5.

The New Mexico State Fair will be held at the fair grounds in Albuquerque, Sept. 25-Oct. 2.

After the trials May 29th eight two-year-olds were scheduled to run in this race. June 20th, Hank H. Jr., leading contender for the winning place, died of pneumonia at Hollywood Park. Announcement was made this week that Bo-Jet, owned by A. L. Holcomb of Odessa, Texas, may not be able to take his place at the post as he pulled up lame in a workout. This leaves six colts to go to the post in the biggest colt race in the country, with "Virgie Lee", owned by Edward Broussard, of Rayne, La., as the favorite.

This colt, a granddaughter of "Beau Venture" had for a dam an old mare put up for sale to a soap factory from the King Ranch in Texas. A wily horse trader from Louisiana saw her . . . purchased the mare for $12.50 and took her home to Louisiana. The mare was bred to a fine stud . . . and "Virgie Lee" was the resulting colt. She was bought by Broussard eight months ago and has been "running ever since."

"Danger Boy," another Louisiana colt from the Theobert Cormier Stables, is also being discussed as a possible winner.

Other colts scheduled to run include "Battlecreek," owned by Beale Queen of Tascosa, Texas; "Gallant Man No. 1," owned by Taylor of Raton, N. M., and Dalby, of Amarillo, Texas; "Redskin," owned by J. R. Jex of Tucson, Arizona; "Miss Roxy," owned by Bateman of Knox City, Texas.

Saturday afternoon and Sunday delegates here for the Press Convention will be guests of the Hollywood Racing Assn. Saturday is also "Ladies Day" and all ladies attending the races will be admitted free of charge.

There will be from eight to ten races each day with eight horses in each race. Thoroughbreds will run from five furlongs to one and one-quarter mile races with quarter horses running 220 yards to one-half mile races. Six of the eight races daily will be thoroughbred races.

Admission is $1.00 per person, and tickets as well as all information can be obtained at the Central Bar and Grill in downtown Ruidoso.

Announcement

The Board of Trustees of the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley General Hospital take this opportunity to state they are cooperating fully with efforts being made to raise additional funds needed for the completion of equipping the hospital now under construction to make it one of the most modern and efficient in this area.

Anyone caring to contribute toward the completion of this project can turn in their gift to any member of the Board of Trustees, or the secretary of the group, Mrs. Elzy Perry, Jr.

Trick Roping-Riding To Be Featured At Capitan Rodeo

Capitan. — Rodeo fans of the Southwest will have the opportunity of seeing some of the best trick roping and riding July 3 and 4 when the 10th annual Lincoln County Ropers Club rodeo gets under way, rodeo manager "Shorty" McCrory said today.

McCrory said the Carson family act had shown in Soldier Field, Chicago; Calgary, Canada; Los Angeles Coliseum; Portland, Oregon, and Salt Lake City.

Included besides Carson are his wife and their three children. Their act has been used many times in the production of western films.

The rodeo manager said that this year's show would be the finest that had ever been held in the local arena. He promised that the events would come off in rapid order and indicated that many top cowboys of the Southwest would be on hand July 3.

For the first time in ten years the rodeo has received the approval of the Rodeo Corporation of America and points earned here can be counted toward the world's championship cowboy.

The first event will be bareback riding and in order will follow calf roping, saddle bronc riding, junior boys steer riding, no prize; steer wrestling, cowgirl barrel race, Brahma bull riding.

Trophies are to be given along with prize money for the best cowboy in each event, McCrory said.

Performances will be afternoons only with the starting time set for 2 p. m. daily. The club arena is three miles east of Capitan on Highway 380.

Rodeo stock will be furnished by McCrory from the famous string of bucking stock of Jack and Earl Sellers of Del Rio, Texas.

OLD-TIMERS DAY IN LINCOLN, N. M.—Over 1200 persons from New Mexico and part of Texas attended the annual Old-Timers Day Sunday in Lincoln Town, sponsored by the Lincoln County Historical Society. An open-air basket picnic lunch was spread on tables in back of the old courthouse at noon and hundreds enjoyed the food (top), following the lunch, benches were cleared and set up to form a platform. All old-timers who had been in New Mexico over 60 years were seated on the platform and introduced by A. T. (Bert) Pflingsten, master of ceremonies, and former Gov. R. C. Dillon of Encino. Those on the platform included Mrs. Marcalfa Zamora, Mrs. Antonio Padia, Mrs. Genovita Salazar, Mrs. Henry Fritz, Mrs. Nelle Zamora, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Pflingsten, Mrs. Fred Pflingsten, Mr and Mrs. Frank Mahill, Mrs. R. D. Champlin, J. H. Holly, W. H. Copland, O. F. Kanen, Sam Jones, Frank Jones Bill Jones Mrs. Rufino Maes, Cicero Stewart, E. S. Addition To Roswell Museum For Peter Hurd Collection

Several Sundays ago in Roswell, N. M., over 3,000 people attended open house at the Roswell Museum in honor of Peter Hurd, artist, of San Patricio, N. M. On this occasion the new wing built onto the museum building was opened to the public for the first time . . . the addition built for the express purpose of making a place for a permanent collection of the work of Peter Hurd, internationally known painter, who was born in Roswell February 22, 1904, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hurd.

Paul Horgan, author and a long time friend of Hurd's, wrote a "Foreword" for the brochure printed for the occasion and to be kept in print. No words could better tell of the reason for the new wing or the details of the story, than those written by Horgan. For this reason the Foreword is reprinted here.

FOREWORD

Under the terms of a gift by anonymous donors, the Roswell Museum, for the City of Roswell, has been made recipient of a permanent collection of the work of Peter Hurd. The first group of works under the terms of the gift consisted of as complete a collection of Mr. Hurd's lithographs as could be assembled from various sources, and two paintings in tempera on gesso, and a water-color, all of which became the property of the Museum in the last year or two. To these was added, in December, 1948, another tempera painting, "The Rainy Season." The collection is to grow, for from the outset the donors have made clear their intention to give the Museum two new paintings a year by this artist, for an indefinite period. Thus, the Museum, and Roswell, can look forward to the building up of a rich assemblage of the work of one of America's most gifted contemporary painters. The nature, terms, and scope of the collection will be unique among American museums. It is safe to say that no other painter of our period will be so generously represented in a contemporary public collection; and hardly any other can claim the distinction of being a prophet with honor in his own country to quite the same degree as Mr. Hurd, thanks to the benefactions which have founded this collection.

The motive of the gift is of much interest to the Roswell public, and undoubtedly will be to a wider audience as well. The principal donor was once a resident of Roswell, where he found happiness among friends and prosperity in business. When his affairs required him to move his home to California, he did not forget his years in Roswell. He felt deeply that he owed some measure of return to the community and the state which had befriended him and his family, and brought them good fortune. He cast about for a suitable way in which to pay what he called a debt of grace. And he decided upon the gift of the Hurd collection as his expression of thanks to this town for a happy and productive interlude. His decision was reinforced by his belief that Peter Hurd is one of the foremost of living American artists, deserving of permanent representation in a museum, and that the artist's birthplace is the proper place for such representation.

What are the qualities which arrest us in the work of Peter Hurd? Taking them from the particular and the local, to the general and absolute, surely the quality first in our interest is what he records of our life in Roswell, on our plains, and over the wider Southwest. We go through out days pretty much unaware that we are living and using the raw materials of art, for we do not reflect as we raise a windmill, or break a pony, or drill an oil-well, or irrigate a field, or cultivate an orchard, that all life, any life, everywhere and anywhere, is worthy of record in works of art. It is only when someone not only lives our life with us, but also sees it with a fresh vision every day and puts down the vision itself as if it were entirely new that we are struck by the meanings, the values and the beauties of our own commonplace dignity. This is what an artist does for us. And so when we look with interest upon the work of Peter Hurd, we do it first of all because by his native right amongst us he has said to us, "This is your life, here are your plains, your skies, your ranches, your mountains, the meaning of your weather, and the outward stuff of your work and your land.

But there are other qualities which we may go on to, and these are the qualities which make Peter Hurd's vision of our life and his power as an artist important to people everywhere else. For the degree of an artist's skill, taste and understanding is what will make his work significant and lasting beyond the nature of his subject matter. Not only what the picture is about, but how ably it is done, and how honestly it states his opinion. It is the huge accident of weather, light, the shapes of the land, and the happenstance of what people look like, that make the beauties which we see in nature. But it is not accident which captures these values in the work of such an artist as Peter Hurd. His technical skill is the result of the greatest devotional study of all the elements of his craft. His taste is the result, the expression, of a humble cultivation of spirit, which sees itself as ordained by powers beyond itself in the duty of capturing life as it goes by, holding it, fixing it, and all its truth as an image which will not change, though what inspired it must change, and can never again in real life be the same. What gives such an image its lasting power to speak to us and remind us of things that we have seen and have felt is the artist's understanding of what he has saved for us. Peter Hurd's work at first sight may seem without emotion. It is a clear, sharply defined world he draws, now hard as a rock, again blazing with pitiless light; now mild with the sweet radi-diance of a golden afternoon, and again severe with the marks of waste upon the aged earth, man's mark on nature's monument. But do not be deceived. If such things are set forth in what seems to be their literal likeness, it is only because at first we are fettered by what a good likeness it is. Behind that there is the flash of his spirit, there is delight in the mastery of an artistic medium, and there is above all a love of the land, and of the sky which lights it. All of these are emotional qualities, and they speak very directly to us the more we look at his work.

Art has its own purity, which has nothing to do with fashion, prevailing attitudes of society or convention, popularity, or market values. It is rooted in how truly the artist reveals his own vision, not once or twice, but as often as he can, no matter how intelligible or unintelligible this vision may be to anyone else at all. If in his spirit he is great enough, and if in his technical mastery he is equal to the demands of his own vision, his view of his world will prevail, now, or later, or both. The greatness of a living artist can be determined only by the future. But of his right to be called a true artist, the present can dare to speak. It is of Peter Hurd as a true artist that we speak today.

—Paul Horgan.

"Hank H. Jr.", Outstanding 2-Year-Old Quarterhorse, Dies June 20th

At 3 a. m. Monday morning, June 20th, 1949, "Hank H. Jr.," one of the most promising two-year-old horses in the racing world, died at the Hollywood Park Race Track of pneumonia. This fine chestnut sorrel stud, owned by Oscar Cox of Lawton, Oklahoma, was the leading contender for the winning place in the Central Bar and Grill 1949 Futurity to be run today, June 24th, at the track.

"Hank H" was sire and Gray Alice dam, and "Hank H. Jr." was a full brother to "Squaw H", outstanding quarter mare of the country.

"Hank H" was buried on the infield of the Hollywood Park track and announcement was made by officials that every year a "Hank H." Memorial Day Race will be run on June 20th.

This two-year-old could run 330 yards in 17½, which is within 3/10 second of the world's record for quarter horses. Trained by Oscar Cox, Jr., "Hank H" was nosed out by one inch in the Big Spring Futurity this year by "Battlecreek," but took a purse of $3,000 for second place. He won a $1,000 purse at Del Rio and other big races in Oklahoma were his with ease.

In his race during the Futurity Trials May 29th "Hank H" outran his stablemate, "Badger Boy" and was the favorite for today's Futurity.

His short history was one of glory and victory and this two-year-old horse will be talked about in years to come . . . and speculations will never cease as to how far he could have gone in the racing world.

Hugh Thomas To Teach Music Here

Hugh Thomas of Melrose Public Schools will offer voice, harmony and piano at the Arts Colony program starting July 5 at Ruidoso, N. M., according to the announcement of Mrs. Donald MacKay, coordinator.

Mr. Thomas is an accomplished tenor soloist, having been chosen as soloist for the University of California choir at Los Angeles for the summer season, 1948. His major in Catawba College, Salisbury, N. C., was piano with the famous piano teacher of the South, Winifred McBride as his instructor. This followed his early basic training in voice and piano at Eastern New Mexico College interrupted by the war. After graduation with an AB and major in music which he completed after the war. He has taught voice and piano at the Melrose Public Schools, summers he has worked at the University of California, studied privately with Ocele Westervelt; he has done allied work in New York City, from which he recently arrived in Ruidoso to start work for the Arts Colony. During the war he toured with the Westervelt quartet in Southern California.

Here he will assist in the various arts activities of the Colony for the second summer session and is planning his first concert for the enjoyment of the community and Colony on July 7. His Colony student recital has been set for Aug. 15.

Registration for piano and voice should be made by letter or in person to the Arts Colony, Ruidoso, New Mexico.

A Safe Fourth

Fourth of July is still some distance away. But it's a good idea to plan, well in advance, certain precautions that can prevent the holiday from being a time of tragedy.

The old saying about observing "a safe and sane Fourth" may seem trite from years of death and injury, and property destruction by fire.

Fireworks are the most obvious hazard. At best, they are dangerous. They should never be used in congested areas, or in woods and fields where a spark may cause a runaway fire. Children should not be permitted to handle them except under strict adult supervision.

Each Fourth of July, millions of people go into the country for picnics. The national parks and other beauty spots are filled to overflowing. The careless use of matches, smoking materials and campfires is responsible for a disgraceful and totally unnecessary toll of the woods and the wildlife in them. The simplest, most obvious precautions will save these resources for the future.

Fire safety should be practiced on the Fourth—and on every other day in the year. Of late, there has been a small but encouraging decline in monthly fire losses. The waste is still criminally high, and the experts say that around 90 per cent of it is attributable to human carelessness alone. It is up to us to decide whether fire shall continue to kill and maim and destroy. We can stop it if we will.

Letters to the News

IT IS LATE, BUT NOT TOO LATE TO TRY TO ABITRATE

Editor Ruidoso News:

When both sides to an argument THINK they are right, there is apt to be a fight. No doubt, Ruidoso Village THINKS it is right, and the farmers filing the law suit over use of Ruidoso River water without authority or permission by the Village THINK they are right enough to fight it out in court. Being a citizen and taxpayer of Ruidoso, and having many friends among the farmers, I ask space to outline the position taken by each side, ask both sides to sit down together and find out the facts and truth which will indicate who is wrong. That determined it should be easy to settle out of court.

If the Village owns good and valid water rights for municipal water system instead of for irrigation it could easily convince the farmers of the fact. They are reasonable men.

From the very first promotion of the water system for Ruidoso the Village has stumbled, bungled, fumbled and tumbled until they have grumbled themselves into this law suit over what the farmers alledge is unlawful use of irrigation water allocated to them by federal, territorial and state laws and regulations.

When the first water wells were found unfit for public use, the owner of the water system came to me and asked me to sell him a creek front lot on which to set up a pumping plant. Stating that he had bought the irrigation water rights of Ike Wingfield and he intended taking water from the creek for his system. Later, when the city leased the water system the mayor and members of the Village council came to me for the same purpose. Soon thereafter a pump was installed at the upstream end of the "second" bridge—probably on the highway right-of-way. This pump has been grinding night and day—when not out of order—ever since.

The farmers are so solidly entrenched in their irrigation water rights taken from the Ruidoso they have protested repeatedly without any satisfactory answer from the Village. And the Village goes right on increasing the facilities for increasing the capacity, and use more and more water. I am also informed that the Village is planning to increase the right of eminent domain and take the water by process of condemnation. All the best encyclopedias define "eminent domain" as power of the state to condemn and pay for LANDS AND BUILDINGS for public use. Water is a liquid commodity, can be transported, bought and sold, and thus far has never been subject to eminent domain seizure, except probably in time of war as a military necessity.

It might be worth a great deal for the Village and the farmers to investigate why the Southern Pacific Railroad had to buy every irrigated farm from Bonita dam to Hondo. The S. P. had the right and power of eminent domain and would have most certainly exercised that right had the law provided even a reasonable ground for doing so. The Bonita Valley with its barren farms and withering orchards are close enough for everybody interested to drive over and take a look. And what use did the S. P. make of the waters of Bonita creek?—Exactly the same use Ruidoso as now hopes to continue, Municipal water works in Carrizozo, and all the railroad towns from there to Vaughan.

The issue when finally joined will be of such vital importance to both sides of the controversy that whichever side loses the first round will appeal, and it is entirely likely that the case would finally find its way to the U. S. Supreme Court, since federal and territorial laws and regulations allocating the irrigation waters were in force prior to date New Mexico was made a state in 1912. It might be well for all interested to sit down and count

Better Selling

Recent talks by leaders in the field of retailing, including chain and independent merchandisers, have largely dwelt on one theme: the need for better selling for greater effort to attract and to please the consuming public.

There is nothing remarkable about this development—it is, indeed, based on the first principle of successful retailing. During the war, there were scarcities in practically every line, and government rationing, price-fixing and other controls took much of the edge off competition. Almost anything could be sold to eager buyers. Then, after the war, the great buying spree went on for a couple of years, and people stood in line to buy things they needed or thought they needed.

It's different now. There has been a drop in buying. Consumers are more wary, and they keep a constant watch on prices and qualities. They shop about in search of a better buy. They expect efficient, courteous salespeople, and good service. And so merchants are placing more and more emphasis on intelligent selling, in all its many phases.

In the long run, everyone benefits when this is the case—the retailer, his employes, the consumer, and the producer of goods. And we can thank the free enterprise system for its existence. Competition is the spur. Without competition—as in the nations with regimented economies—there's no need for any business to try to do a better job. It can sit back, take it easy, and get its share of the trade. If it does that in this country, it doesn't last long. And that is one reason for our unprecedented living standards.

A man holding public office can hardly expect to please those who want special privileges and extra favors.

is as sure of the ground they stand on, we are in for a long, long trek to court.

As a citizen of Ruidoso I want to assure both the farmers and the mayor and city councilmen that what I have said here is intended to inform both sides what I know and think of this most unfortunate situation at this critical time for both the valley farmers and the people of Ruidoso. I have written frankly and without favor. The attorney for both sides may berate me for what I have said,—but that is what they get their fees for.

In conclusion, may I suggest the the chamber of commerce appoint that committee authorized some two years ago but never appointed, providing for experienced and capable men to confer with and help the Village officials in every way possible to solve the water problem. At this time I would suggest a qualified water engineer, an experienced geologist, a top notch legal advisor, two or three good executives, and a successful diplomat. Let them review all that has been done and what has been left undone, and answer whether we fight the suit or apologize to the farmers.

I repeat: It is late, but not too late to arbitrate.

Choir Festival At Methodist Church

Glen Johnson, former director of music at Trinity Methodist Church El Paso, Texas and head of the Music School of Texas Western College, now minister of music at the First Methodist Church in Dallas, Texas, is spending a weeks vacation in Ruidoso and has generously agreed to give his time in assisting the music work of the Community Methodist Church three nights this week.

Thursday night of their "Choir Festival", under his direction, was devoted to "Anthems." Friday night will be "youth night" and Sunday night the regular preaching hour will be spent devoted to "Old Favorites" and singing of them. The general public is invited to participate in these programs.

Mrs. J. E. Brownfield was in El Paso part of this week with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baron. Mr. Baron has been seriously ill for the past ten days.

Mannie Badillo has been in El Paso most of the time for the past two weeks with his mother, Mrs. J. G. Badillo, who is very ill.

Whitey Stops An Epidemic

Whitey Fisher ran into real trouble with his baby chicks a couple of weeks ago. "Bunch of them had colds," he told me. "Started running around like crazy and going into convulsions."

Luckily Whitey's a wide-awake boy. Without wasting any time, he isolated the funny-acting chicks, and sent a couple of them to the State Veterinarian for a check-up. Turned out they had Newcastle disease. But because Whitey was on the ball—the rest of the 'eck was saved.

It pays to keep your eyes open, and act fast whenever you see something that isn't right. Reminds me of all the precautions tavern owners are taking these days, to make sure their places stay clean, bright and trouble-free.

Because from where I sit, no matter what business you're in, it's best to keep a sharp look-out—make sure things are always up to snuff. That way you know your investment will "stay healthy."

$50,000 In Premiums In Livestock Section New Mexico State Fair

Albuquerque. — Cash premiums totaling more than $50,000 will be offered in the various livestock divisions of the 1949 New Mexico State Fair, Sept. 25-Oct. 2, Leon H. Harms, secretary-manager, announces. These include awards in beef cattle, dairy cattle, horse, sheep, swine, poultry and small stock divisions.

While New Mexico's Fair is among the youngest of state fairs, premiums offered to livestock producers rank with some of the major shows of the nation, Harms said. Because New Mexico is one of the most important livestock producing regions of the southwest, the fair annually attracts some of the top breeders of registered animals, he added.

In urging livestock producers to exhibit at this year's fair, Harms pointed out that more than 10,000 livestock men attended the 1948 fair.

"There is no better method of advertising livestock and showing other producers the quality of our New Mexico breeders' are producing," he said.

Square Dance School At Navajo Big Success Under Greggeron

Although square dance festivals are being held all over the United States as people from every walk of life and every profession gain interest in the recreation known so well to their parents, and grandparents before them, few schools have ever been held to compare with the Herb Greggeron School of Square Dancing which ended June 11th with a big barbecue at the Navajo Lodge here in Ruidoso, N. M.

One hundred and fifty people were in the class, many of them square dance teachers or callers. They gathered in all day sessions and evening sessions . . . to learn new dances, many created by those present, new steps or variations of old ones. Square dances and other folk dances were talked about . . . the music listened to . . . and then danced by the entire school at one time.

Those who had been here last year brought others with them . . . or saw others who had heard about the school. Many will return next year . . . and some for the August session planned as a repeat performance here in Ruidoso.

The chairs along the walls of the hall were thronged all the time with spectators which included local square dancers . . . and many would-be square dancers . . . showing general interest among the majority of the people in this form of recreational dancing.

Basic steps and basic calls form the "background learning" for those who dance . . . and from these intricate, ever graceful dances are worked out, most of which are danced with four couples to a "square."

The lovely dresses of the women donned for the Saturday night party which ended the school were reminiscent of other generations and other days . . . for the only male attire which "goes" with all this femininity is Western pants and cowboy boots . . . gay shirts and ties . . . creating the illusion of at least fifty years ago.

Ruidoso was proud to entertain the large group of dancers from all over the United States and were pleased at the newcomers' reactions to this mountain resort town. They commented on the beauty of the country . . . and the hospitality and genuine friendliness of Ruidosans.

Mrs. Ada Gallagher and daughter, Mrs. Bill Trigg, both of Grapevine, Texas, have been visiting Mrs. Gallagher's son and his family—the Jess Gallagher's of East Hondo, N. M. They have made many friends up and down the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley who are always glad to see them when they come "a visiting."

During the war while Raymond Buckner was serving in the United States Navy and Mrs. Buckner worked for the F.B.I. in Washington, D. C., they often talked about the day when they could be in a home together and establish a little business of their own. They both loved the Sacramento Mountains and dreamed of the cool breezes and tall pines of our beloved New Mexico.

After peace was made Raymond came to Ruidoso to join Mrs. Buckner and their son Mike who had been spending the summer in Ruidoso with her parents. They loved this spot—the young Buckners did—and could see the opportunities it offered and decided to make their home here. Mr. Buckner started doing electrical contracting in January of 1946. Right away they began selling Frigidaire and Maytag Appliances and Myer's water pumps. In September of 1947 they moved into their new building in the Post Office block and added the Pittsburgh line of paints and shelf hardware. They have always determined to handle only the leading lines of merchandise and feel that they have been fortunate in being able to offer their customers the very best. Buckner's can now say "Our business has grown and we now have a modern shop with everything in the electrical line as well as other hardware items and are doing all kinds of electrical work including house wiring, repairs and neon signs."

The Buckners feel that the dream they had back in those dark days of war have come true and that they could never have picked a better spot to make their home. They intend to put all they can into making Ruidoso a still better place to live and do their share in all community projects. Mr. Buckner is active in the Chamber of Commerce and Lion's Club and Mrs. Buckner is a past president of Ruidoso Woman's Club and does her part in church work.

They are happy to have had a part in the growth of Ruidoso the past four years and hope that in the years ahead they can contribute even more toward making our canyon a more pleasant place.

Republicans of County Hold Election Meeting

Saturday, June 12th, Republicans of Lincoln County gathered for a "convention" to elect new officers for the Republican Central Committee. The meeting was held in the court house.

The following were elected for a year: Mr. S. E. Grelson of Capitan, County chairman; Mrs. O. W. Samelson of Ruidoso, elected County Chairwoman; Mrs. Mable Vigil, of Carrizozo, secretary; and Mr. John E. Wright of Carrizozo, treasurer.

Four members were chosen as delegates to the state convention, and were L. S. Drake of Ruidoso, Corbin Hester of Corona, and Nick S. Vega and Lloyd Vigil, both of Carrizozo, as members.

CAPTAN CAPTIONS

By Mary Werner

The Capitan Water System is nearing completion. Most of the pipe has been laid, the majority of meters installed, the reservoir almost completed, and the electric light line is being strung to the wells. Everyone is working hard to get their own private connections in by the time the contract is completed. This has been looked forward to for a long, long time by the people of Capitan and they feel as if it is the turning point for a bigger and better town.

The Round Table Club met at the lovely ranch home of Mrs. William Edgar Thursday. Mrs. L. D. Merchant was hostess. All but two of the members were present and the following visitors: Mrs. Osbrook (Mrs. Laramie's sister), Mrs. W. C. Hendren of Fort Stanton, Mrs. Ora Tully of Glencoe, Mrs. Lund of Fort Stanton, and Mrs. Edgar and Willa Marie. The dinner was carried out in ranch style with the table placed in the yard. After dinner the group gathered around the piano and enjoyed a good "old country sing." The business meeting was held and then a program honoring the members that were having anniversaries during the month of June. Those having anniversaries were Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Laramie, Mrs. Merchant and the President, Mrs. William Ferguson. Mrs. Ferguson's anniversary was her 50th.

Wallace Ferguson, Jr., and Johnny Werner are going to Camp We-Hin-ah-pay to represent the Capitan Scout Troop. They will attend Camp from the 18th through the 25th.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Catalina Gonzales, who passed away at the home of Abel Pino Tuesday evening. Mrs. Gonzales was 84 years old.

The Village is again getting ready to have the town sprayed with D.D.T. The people appreciated it so much the past year and have been requesting that it be carried out again this year.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ferris went to Tularosa Sunday to visit Mr. Ferris' father and to bring home their son Melvyn, who has been visiting his grandfather for the past week.

Doyle Cozzens has been attending Boys State at El Rito. He was chosen by his classmates to represent the Junior Class of Capitan.

Jerry Ann Glatfelter entertained a group of young people with a treasure hunt Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Theophile Laramie observed their 25th wedding anniversary Saturday, June 11th with open house to all their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Laramie greeted their friends in the living room, which was beautifully decorated with bowls of roses. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Henrietta Belknap. The dining room table was covered with a lace tablecloth with a center piece of silver ribbon streamers and a cut glass bowl of red roses. The punch bowl and the table were presided over by Mrs. Laramie's sister, Mrs. Osbrook, and close friends of the Laramies. The lovely gifts, of which they received many, were wrapped in paper and ribbon of silver and attractively arranged on the buffet. Guests included friends from Capitan, Lincoln, Fort Stanton and Ruidoso.

MESCALERO INDIAN CALL

By EDNA SHIELDS
Mr. and Mrs. Hal Yoder of Roswell visited the Deveaus recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morris of Nogal Canyon were in Dallas and Fort Worth lately, and report the weather almost insufferable. Mrs. Morris plans not to accompany her husband on a return trip which he has to make soon on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Belen Sr., of Elk were seen in our village Wednesday. They don't get in very often, are perhaps here for the Feast.

Mr. Reno Sarlin went to White-river, Arizona, Thursday, to meet with big shots of RCA and Indian Forest personnel to try out new radio equipment.

Mrs. Jeannette Mendez died Wednesday, and the funeral was at the Catholic Church Thursday.

A surprise birthday party was given Mrs. Dolos Botone by Mrs. Juan Baldonado, Jr., Miss Ritter, and Mrs. Ray Quast, at the Baldonado home. Kitty had reached the matronly age of 30, I understand.

Another surprise birthday party was given for the Bruenger twins, Joan and Johnnie, by Mrs. LaRose and Mrs. Bruenger. The twins were four. Many children, many gifts, and lovely refreshments (a pink cake and a blue cake), plus games and lovely weather made a happy afternoon.

Mrs. Alice Weiss has returned from New York City and is living on her farm.

Messrs. Jonah Washington and Fred Spellman are to represent this Legion Post No. 48 at the State Convention to be held the end of this month at Las Vegas.

Mr. Ray Quast and Bert Shields and the Red Hatters have spent most of the week running down fires.

Mico Ritter took a patient, Milton Treas, to Providence Hospital in El Paso where a foreign particle could be removed from his lung. Mrs. Quast accompanied to assist in the driving.

Several from here called on the J. H. McNatts of Tularosa Friday. The occasion was Mr. McNatt's birthday for which they held open house. There are no broken commandments showing on the face of James Hawkins McNatt, and at 80 this would seem to be an achievement. Everyone promised him to be back for his 90th. Mrs. McNatt, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Fife Peters of Albuquerque, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McNatt of Mescalero (their son), served lovely refreshments. Almost as many old timers were to be seen there as at White Sands play day.

Mrs. Jesse Campbell has been quite ill since Thursday. She is going to El Paso for X-Rays.

Also recently ill was Mrs. "Hop" (Martina) Smith.

Mr. Marion Cojo and that big machine of his have been smoothing and leveling the feast grounds preparatory to the debs' coming out party. Featured this year, will be Edna Comanche's daughter, Clarice, and Agnes Pesowonit's daughter, Carol Romain Chihuahua.

Mr. Juan Baldonado, Jr., reports a gratifying increase in business since the addition of the new section to the store. Even out-of-town customers find his prices comparatively low, and attractive merchandise, particularly his meats and frozen foods.

Saw Mr. and Mrs. Bill Landrie at Lincoln's Old Timers' Day Sunday; also, Mr. and Mrs. Art Blasler, and Bill and Jim Landrie. Thought I got a glimpse of Jesse Campbell once, but not sure.

Last year, 12 per cent of all accidents to U. S. farm people occurred on the farm—16 per cent in the farm home and 56 per cent elsewhere on the farm.

CORONA ROUNDUP

Mrs. A. E. Mulkey

The Corona Womans' Club met for their regular meeting Thursday, June 9 in the music room of the Grade School. Mr. Guereco accompanied by Mrs. Guereco at the piano delighted the audience with his singing of Italian songs. Mrs. Geneva Thomson gave a most interesting review of "The Black Rose" by Thomas Costain a Canadian. The dining room was decorated with red roses and white taper candles. Ice-cream, cake, and coffee were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Ada Hester and Mrs. Zelta Atkinson. The next meeting will be July 14.

Miss Mavis Rustin has enrolled in Roswell Beauty School. She left Corona last week to begin her work in Roswell. Mavis was a graduate of Corona high school this spring.

The Senior Girl Scouts celebrated the fifth anniversary of the organization of scouting in Corona, Friday, June 10, by having what they reported as the best party of the season. The muddy roads prevented several members from getting in to attend the party.

Mrs. Mamie Duran and daughter, Barbara of Albuquerque were here recently visiting her sister, Mrs. Santiago Mares.

Douglas Berryman and Tommy Tafoya were in El Rita last week attending Boys' State.

Miss Sally Mae Pfeiffer spent last week at the Presbyterian Sandia Camp near Albuquerque.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Porter lost their baby daughter born early Tuesday morning, June 14. Funeral services were Tuesday afternoon, and burial was in Corona cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bates of Mountainair were recently weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kilpatrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Shaw of Albuquerque are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Smith of Dexter, Oregon and their two sons, Keith and Dale, were recent visitors in Corona. Mrs. Smith is a sister of Mrs. Effie Mulkey.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kilpatrick recently returned from a trip to Arizona where they visited relatives and friends.

Mrs. Charley Porter and two small daughters recently returned from a six week visit in Hutchinson and other points in Kansas.

Mrs. Lillian Hurst of Joplin, Missouri spent a week visiting her cousin, Mrs. Bill King, and went from here to California.

A Vacation Bible School has started this week at the Baptist Church in Corona and will continue until July 1. Rev. Peoples, Associational Missionary, and his wife are helping with the Bible School.

"Sooner Sons" Play At Fowler's Ranch

J. M. Fowler of Fowler's Dude Ranch, announced this week that Jimmy Jones and His Sooner Sons of Altus, Oklahoma, are now playing for Wednesday, Friday and Saturday night dances at their dance hall up Carrizo Creek.

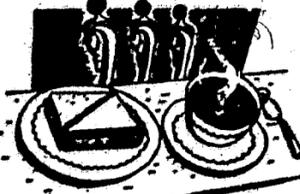

This group of musicians have been in movies, starred on radio shows and are known over the Southwest for their Western style music.

COMMUNITY PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

"Youth Revival" Progresses At Ruidoso Baptist Church

The Life Service Band is an organization composed of Baptist young people who are attending Eastern New Mexico University and studying in the Baptist Bible Chair located just off the campus of the university. Many of these young people are ministerial students, mission volunteers, and religious education workers, but there are also many others who are laymen and laywomen.

This organization, during each year, holds Sunday services, and week-end revivals in churches over a large section of the state of New Mexico and in the bordering towns of Texas. Only young people make up the teams that are sent to these churches. These students do not receive any money whatever during regular school terms for going on these extension trips except what is needed to meet expenses. The offerings from the churches are put into an organizational fund for the purpose of obtaining any materials that might be needed in making the extension trips more successful.

The tour group this summer is the first from this school that has ever participated in a tour of this nature. However, the five young people who are making the tour this summer are experienced workers and have worked in revivals separately in past summers.

The young people composing this team have had fine records in school and in Christian service in past years. These young people are the following:

Miss Eulalia Burke, age 22, is serving as pianist for this group. She has been a member of the MacDowell Honorary Piano Club for four years and will graduate this spring with a B. A. degree in music education. She served during the spring term of 1948 as pianist for Wayland Baptist College's Choral Club. Next fall she is to serve as piano teacher for that institution. Last summer she worked with the Wayland College Youth Revival Team that toured Alaska holding revivals. Miss Burke is a foreign mission volunteer.

Miss Trinidad Alvarez, age 20, is one of the outstanding violinists of the southwest and has an outstanding musical record in college. She played before the nationally known Ridgecrest Assembly during the summer of 1947 and was an outstanding success there. She has had an offer to teach music in Golden Gate Seminary in Berkeley, California, when she graduates next spring. Miss Alvarez is a mission volunteer.

Curtis Lee, age 19, is in charge of congregational singing. He also is a member of the MacDowell Club and is an excellent pianist as well as a fine singer. He has been a member of the E.N.M.U. quartet during the past two semesters.

Rev. Don Leo Wright, 21 years old, is from Fort Sumner, New Mexico. He has been preaching for a little over three years and has been ordained since March 31, 1947. He has done pastoral work for about a year and a half and has had experience in revival work in past summers.

The other preacher serving on the tour will be Roy Dean Seaney, age 20, from Morton, Texas. He has been preaching for four years. While in high school he held office in his Associational Youth Rally. He is vitally interested in young people's work and has served part of one summer with "The Invincibles" a group of Vacation Bible School workers in Texas.

Both Don and Roy Dean had good athletic records in high school with Don lettering in football and basketball and Roy Dean as 1948 Golden Gloves Champion at Lubbock, Texas.

Mrs. Jim Hale returned to her Ruidoso home Saturday of last week. She has been ill and in Santa Fe for several weeks but is feeling much better now. Her sister and brother-in-law, Opal and Jack Smith of Santa Fe, brought her home and visited with Opal's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Wingfield, while here.

RUIDOSO ROUND-UP

By Mary Nell

They are all a havin' fun in Ruidoso—the cattlemen, early comers for the press convention this weekend—horse racing enthusiasts—and the local people on hand to help keep things going and entertain the visitors.

The American Legion Post No. 48 at Mescalero is starting a campaign to build a gymnasium over there for a recreation center for the whole community. Members of the "gym committee" are DeRos Botone, Percy Via and Eldon La Course, their project is worthy and deserves the support for which they are asking.

Bert Rice is probably the fisherman of the week, Sunday he pulled out a Rainbow Trout measuring over 20 inches. He fishes with worms too.

The Reservation Recreational Area was packed last weekend with picnickers, fishermen and people just enjoying the coolness of the beautiful mountains. No one seems to object to the 10c a head charge, for the improvements are worth it—new trails, trash cans, and better kept grounds are the results of charging for the privilege of enjoying the area.

Joe Evans book—"The Hitchin' Post", gives the story of the origin and history of the "camp meetings" like the one everyone loves to attend up on Nogal Mesa in July, and which meetings his family has played such a large part in down through the years. It is entertaining—for it is full of his dry wit (or that of other cowboys and ranchers) and inspirational, as any religious services established on the basis they were would have to be. He brought a copy of it in, and every word is worth reading, and it is definitely anything but dull. If you are among those interested in the camp meetings ask Joe about a copy of his book.

The Lions Club had their monthly Ladies Night last Tuesday, if the ladies had their way this would happen about once a week—they always have a "super wonderful time."

Hope it will be an easier matter to name those who do not attend the races from Ruidoso today than to name those who do. Everyone should be on hand, and with business houses closing very few, outside of whoever is on the switchboard at the telephone office should try to go to the opening day of races at Hollywood Park.

Being talked about on the Ruidoso—the outstanding entertainment being offered by the local nite clubs—many say it has never been equaled before—horse races and the death of "Hank H. Jr. . . . conventions this week . . . (again or still) . . . this time hoping everything will go off smoothly and be successful . . . heat and humidity other places (but not here) . . . the coffee being planned for Saturday morning at Naisy Water Lodge for the visiting ladies of the press, the eight sided building under construction in Palmer Gateway (it is going to be "different") . . . and always heard "Isn't it wonderful to know you can live all the time in Ruidoso" . . . yes, it is.

Present for Old Timers' Day in Lincoln, Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Laws of El Paso, former residents of Lincoln, they lived in the Old Ellis House. Gov. and Mrs. Dick Dillon, an ex-governor of New Mexico, a resident of the original old Lincoln County, and many others who had a wonderful time seeing old friends and making new acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Parker and son, and their niece, will be the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Spain in Ruidoso this week-end for the Press Convention. Mr. Parker is Mr. Spain's business partner in the El Paso Printing Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Littel and daughter, Sharon and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Gregg and daughter, all of Roswell, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Farrar last week-end.

Mrs. Eleanor Gasken and children of Santa Fe and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nowell of Roswell, have also been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Farrar.

Mrs. Theresa Conner of Dewey, Oklahoma, is visiting her daughter and family, the Frank Barajas.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moss of Dallas, Texas, regular summer visitors to Ruidoso, are spending several weeks here and are having a wonderful time playing golf at Cree Meadows Country Club.

Raymond Connell of Roswell was in Ruidoso last week to play golf.

Dick Martin of Dallas, Texas, was also registered at Cree Meadows this week.

SAN PATRICIO SENTINEL

Nellie Ruth Lucas

The San Pat area has had some wonderful rains this week. One inch of rain fell in twenty minutes Sunday. All the farmers are very pleased about the rains and more than pleased about the fact that we have had no hail so far.

Henry and Muriel Latham are driving a new G.M.C. 3/4 ton pick-up. They received delivery of the pick-up Tuesday.

Gerald Marr returned to his home in Tularosa after spending a couple of weeks with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Babers.

Johnny Thomas had a near accident when he became entangled in his rope Sunday while practicing roping at his home. But for the quick thinking, and action, of Tom Babers, he might have been seriously injured. As it is, he has a sore throat.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rigsby, Buddy Boyce, and B. J. Bonnell were dinner guests of Mrs. Helena C. Lucas Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Latham and Billy Babers seem to be the only San Patricioites to venture out Saturday night to Ruidoso for the big baile.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Bracker and daughters were visitors on the valley Sunday morning. Mr. Bracker's family had what is now the Stetson place, selling out to the Stetson's about 1915. Mr. Bracker is an old family friend of the Coe family. He now lives in Southern Texas where he has ranching and farming interests.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McNatt, Mr. and Mrs. Hute Marr, and Donald and Gerald Marr visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Babers and Billy Sunday. They all attended the Old Timers' Day in Lincoln.

Mrs. Bernice Swinney and children have moved to Portales where Mrs. Swinney will attend summer school.

Jimmy Marrufo and Johnny Roy Chavez have joined the Army and are now stationed in Fort Ord, California.

Quite a few San Patricioites attended Old Timers' Day in Lincoln Sunday. Among those I saw were Ernest and Robert McDaniel and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Juan Montoya and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Coe, Ernesto Chavez, Billy Randolph, Robert Gonzales, Joe Montoya, Ronald and Fredda Perry, Mrs. Annie Titsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Eleso Gomez, Willy Ybarra, Joe Herrera, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hurd, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Babers, and Billy Babers. Betts, I surely did miss you this year.

Rod and Peggy Johnson, long time residents of Ruidoso, announced last week that they have taken over the Coffee Bar in downtown Ruidoso, next door to Pat's Taxi and will operate the business themselves.

They are making plans for a new type of service and complete information regarding this will be available soon.

Mescalero Indians Have Annual Celebration July 1, 2, 3, 4

One of the outstanding events to be held in this area during the summer season and one of intense interest to people from other sections of the country who are not familiar with the customs of our American Indians will be the Mescalero Indian July 4th Celebration. The events are held in Mescalero, New Mexico each year and are attended by members of various tribes throughout the whole Southwest.

The whole four days, starting July 1st and ending the morning of July 4th are planned for the entertainment and pleasure of both the participants and the many onlookers who are coming from other places. The main theme of the celebration is the debut of the young girls of the tribe into adult society and the mothers and fathers of these debutantes are the hosts and hostesses.

There will be tribal ceremonial dances every day and night with those dancing in full costume of the tribe. These are open to the public.

Field events for both adults and children, and baseball games, will be part of the program each day.

The afternoons of the 3rd and 4th will be the main events. Admission to the rodeo will be $1.00 for adults and 25 cents for children. Events will be roping of calves.

Mrs. Lina K. McCaw of Artesia is up for the weekend and has her cabin open and had Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCaw as visitors. The whole party attended the Lincoln Day program on Sunday afternoon.

Tibetans drink an average of 30 to 50 cups of tea a day.

Giraffes grow as tall as 18 feet.

FORT STANTON NEWS

Frank E. Smith
Miss Mary Ann Townsend, former news gatherer for the Ruidoso News here is now working for the Wild Life and Game Division of the U. S. Department of the Interior at Atlanta, Georgia. Mary Ann is much missed around the station.

Miss Ann Mason is at present vacationing in California and Miss Gertrude Monahan has just returned from her holiday spent in the state of unusual weather.

Ethlyn White was the "Dream Girl of the Regiment" at the Ring Ball of the New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell. The ball is one of the highlights of the Institute's Commencement Exercises. Those fortunate enough to attend are hoping that this first Ring Ball will be a regular feature.

Mr. Monroe Howard, father of Jim Howard is progressing favorably at Dr. Turner's hospital in Carrizozo. Mr. Howard had some major surgery performed on him recently in Albuquerque.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. "Red" Merrill returned on Saturday from a trip to the Marine Hospital, San Francisco where "Red" had gone for a check-up. Mrs. Merrill waxed very enthusiastic about the wonderful scenery they saw on their way back here. They made a wide detour, coming home via Portland, Oregon.

Dr. Raymond Mitchell and Ed Porter went fishing on Saturday and had good luck, it seems they have found one of "those spots."

The Clarence Boyds are sporting a new Studebaker. Mrs. Boyd, Principal of the Lincoln Grade School is going to Summer School in Roswell.

Nancy Payman is visiting with her friend, Ann Gallacher and according to report is having a wonderful time.

Jack Waldrop, Secretary of the Seamen's Social Club is on a ten day furlough and is visiting his mother who resides in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Cheerful, courteous and friendly service is dispensed "for free" at the Fort Stanton Store. The "Chief Clerk", Flossie Ness is ably assisted by Billy Dale Brown. Sometimes, even Carl is there, when he can tear himself away from working on the "new house."

Mrs. Henry Sanchez, "Carolina" to her hosts of friends and well-wishers is steadily improving and hopes to be able to go home soon.

The "Dangerous Decorum" Club held their monthly party at the Casa Bonita on Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ferris were in charge of arrangements. The party was a great success according to word received over the "grapevine."

Racing form papers will be the best seller reading for the next couple of weeks in this region, and every one is pulling for a successful meet at Hollywood Park.

visiting with Jean Sanchez, Beba hopes to stay until school reopens.

Dr. Linden E. Johnson arrived back after attending the American Medical Convention at Atlantic City, New Jersey. On his way home he stopped in New York and also visited the Marine Hospital, Neponsit, Long Island. Dr. Johnson reported fairly cool weather at Jersey's convention city.

Visitors to the Fort would do well to stop at the Craft Shop. The diminutive and smiling Miss Howse is always ready to escort people around and show the handicrafts of the patients.

Mrs. Eva Lund, mother of Mrs. Jim Howard was present at several of the New Mexico Military Institute's Commencement Exercises. She had a nice time with relatives and friends, but was glad to get back to the Fort. On her return she said, "There's no place like Fort Stanton when the weather is hot."

Lawson D. Fish in company with Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Young were away for a few days. Mr. Fish went to a meeting of laboratory technicians in Kansas City, Missouri and the Wesley Youngs visited Mr. Young's mother who lives at Topeka, Kansas.

Dr. and Mrs. Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker, Joe Gentry and the Mesdames Parker, Hendren, Ness, Shaw, Gaston, Wilson and Fish went to the Phil Laramie's party in Capitan last Saturday.

The wading pool is where the children of the Fort spend most of their time these hot days.

Smilingly cheerful is Reba Jean Luck who is still abed and will be for some weeks to come. Reba's friends and fellow workers are all pulling for her to make the grade. One thing is sure, she'll come up smiling.

Spiros Vallanatos, local weather man reported a high of 93 degrees on Thursday.

According to a report over the underground, unleased wire, Miss Wisner, assistant dietitian is going to be married soon.

Plans are afoot for a farewell party to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hendren. Mr. Hendren is being transferred to the U. S. Marine Hospital at Cleveland, Ohio. Both these civic minded folks will be missed in and around Lincoln County.

Carl E. Ness, Democratic County Chairman informed me that Lt. Governor Joe Montoya and Guy Shepard, Commissioner of Public Lands will be in Ruidoso on June 24th. I guess they want to take in the races.

Mrs. Scott Hagee has as her guests over the weekend, her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilson and daughter, from Colorado City, Texas and her brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Esslinger and two sons from Roswell. They all enjoyed Father's Day with a picnic up on Cedar Creek.

Mrs. Betty Erickson is here from Vaughn furnishing and cleaning up her cabin in Palmer Gateway Sub-division. She is staying at the present time with Mrs. Scott Hagee.

Mrs. A. C. Eckert of Hollywood is in San Antonio with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Satterwhite, who well recently and was seriously injured.

Mrs. Claude Fitzgerald and one of her sons have opened the family cabin up the canyon for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shelton of Sherman, Texas are the guests of Mrs. Shelton's parents, Dr. and Mrs. V. E. Wratten.

Gerardo Memorial Gymnasium To Be Project For Mescalero Legion Post

For some time civic minded groups and individuals have recognized the need for facilities, particularly in small communities, to offer wholesome recreation for children and adults alike.

American Legion Post No. 48, Mescalero, Indian Agency, Mescalero, N. M., whose membership is made up principally of local Indian Veterans, has decided to make the financing and building of a gymnasium for their community its major project for the future and solicits the assistance and support of civic organizations and individuals interested in such projects in the undertaking.

The Mescalero Tribal Business Committee has given its endorsement and has pledged its support. Other local organizations will be invited to join the endeavor.

Preliminary plans of the Mescalero Post include proposals to other Posts throughout the country that special fund raising activities be sponsored. The Mescalero Post will send two delegates to the State Convention in Santa Fe to outline the proposal.

Upon completion, the plan is to present the building to the Mescalero Community for use of all organizations and residents. The Mescalero Tribe will probably sponsor the maintenance and use of the completed building. All offers of assistance and donations will be greatly appreciated.

Local Women To Assist With Coffee

Mrs. Louis Spain, wife of the publisher of the Ruidoso News, who has planned a coffee in honor of visiting ladies here for the Press Convention for Saturday morning from 9:30 a.m., until a.m., announced this week the committee of Ruidoso ladies whom she has asked to help with arrangements for the affair.

The location for the affair is the dining room of Noisy Water Lodge in upper Ruidoso. So that all ladies will have transportation some of the local women will be on hand at the Navajo at 9:30 to escort the guests to the party.

Local ladies who will have part in the affair are Mrs. O. H. Bonaguidi, Mrs. Kiel Bonnell, Mrs. John J. Christman, Sr. Mrs. Lloyd P. Bloodworth, Mrs. Bernard Rooney, Mrs. Joe Dryden, Mrs. Jim Conway, Mrs. Nellie Mae Patrick, Mrs. Spencer Peterson, Mrs. Jimmy Rogers, Mrs. Ouida Platt, Mrs. Bob Boyce, Jr. Mrs. Carl Longabaugh, Mrs. Tom Rigby, Mrs. Bess Bounds Mrs. Joe C. Palmer and Mrs. Herbert Gough.

Sunday School Class Elects New Officers

The Barcus Memorial Intermediate Class of the Community Methodist church had a meeting and election of officers this past week.

Shirley Fullagar was chosen president; Mary Glascock, vice-president; Carolyn Carol, secretary; Sue Ramy, treasurer; Patsy Long, reported fifteen members of the class were present.

Mary Glascock was chosen from the Intermediate Dept. to go to Farmington, N. M., for a meeting. She will be gone several days, and returns home Friday.
