Ruidoso Water Users Association Discusses Possible Solutions To Valley-Ruidoso Water Dispute

The Ruidoso Water Users Association, organized in 1918 to protect the water users' rights on the Ruidoso River, held a meeting at the Glencoe Community Center, Wednesday night, Feb. 22.

J. V. (Jim) Tully, president, presided at the meeting of a representative group of Valley people. There were 18 men and women present. This was not a general meeting, but simply a gathering to discuss logical ways of settling the water dispute the valley has been in with the Village of Ruidoso for some time.

Daniel R. Brenton of Carrizozo, attorney for the association, was present and explained to the group various phases of the situation and possible methods of settlement all of which are based on the complete protection of the water rights of the valley farmers and ranchers.

No definite terms have been stated but all agreed that they want a settlement that will require no sacrifice of the water rights of any individual. There is a possibility, and it was discussed, of coming to an agreement with the Village of Ruidoso on the basis of selling them water from up the river, which water will be replaced by the Water Users Association above the land of the first user in the valley.

The following statement quotes Jim Tully: "Any proposition that would solve the situation and give the farmers full protection of his rights would probably be satisfactory to all individual water users."

The meeting last week of a representative group will be followed by a general meeting some time in March. At this March meeting, the date to be set soon, the association will also hold an election of officers.

Woman's Club To Meet On Wednesday Mar. 8

The monthly meeting of the Ruidoso Woman's Club will be held on Wednesday, March 8, at the Navajo Lodge, beginning at 2:30 p.m.

The program for the afternoon will include a talk on "Progress in the Medical World," by Dr. D. E. Snyder. Helen Barajas, high school student, will also give a talk on Future Homemakers of America work as part of the requirements for earning her third degree in this organization.

Hostesses for the social hour will be Mrs. M. W. Maddox, Mrs. Clayton Richner, Mrs. Dick Ratliff and Mrs. Jim Hale.

Are You A Woman Eighty-Eight Years Old As Of Now?

Mrs. Amelia De Ford, a resident of Ruidoso for the past 15 years, will celebrate her 88th birthday anniversary at the home of her daughter and son-in-law here in Ruidoso, Col. and Mrs. G. A. Graham, Sunday, March 5. Her main interest in this event is asking if there is another woman of this age living in Ruidoso . . . and if there is, she wants to know it so she can visit her.

Mrs. De Ford was born in Alsace Lorraine in 1862. Since leaving France she has returned twice. Once when she was about 17 years old and again when her daughter, Mrs. Graham, was that age, to put the young girl in school in France.

Although she has led a fascinating and interesting life she didn't want it "in print" . . . but just wants to meet another woman her age.

Ballard Provides Ambulance Service For This Area

Ruidoso and the surrounding area has an ambulance service now. There have been many times in the past when an ambulance was certainly needed . . . and with the opening of the Ruidoso Hondo Valley General Hospital in the near future getting one had become almost a necessity.

Last week Bert Ballard of the Ballard Funeral Home and Ambulance Service in Roswell was in Ruidoso. When several local men, among them R. V. West and Joe Palmer, pointed out the need for an ambulance here, and the lack of funds at the present time to purchase one, Mr. Ballard made a gracious and unselfish offer which was accepted by the Hospital Board with George Fuchs, president, making arrangements.

The Chevrolet ambulance, looking like new, is completely equipped. At the present time it is being kept in a borrowed garage but in the near future a garage will be built for on the hospital grounds. It will be available for use of any one in this area at very moderate rates.

Mr. Ballard said the people of this area had always been kind to him and this gave him a wonderful chance to show how much their kindness had been appreciated.

ANNOUNCEMENT

A general meeting of the Ruidoso Chamber of Commerce will be held at the Navajo Lodge March 10th at 7:30 p.m. This will be a dinner meeting. Everyone is urged to attend. Make reservations NOW.

Register By Monday To Vote In 1950 City Elections

All residents of Ruidoso, N. M., who are not registered to vote, but who are eligible must do so by 5 p.m. Monday, March 6, at the Ruidoso City Hall. Joe Dryden, City Clerk, has all necessary blanks and information.

In the city election, Tuesday, April 4, a Mayor and three City Councilmen will be chosen by the voters.

In addition to filling these city offices all taxpayers will be eligible to vote on a separate ballot on the $125,000 bond issue for the purpose of acquiring and improving a water system for Ruidoso for the petition was signed by over 61 per cent of the real estate value needed to call that election. $96,000 was the necessary amount to be represented on the petition and $11,000 in real estate value is represented.

This $125,000 bond issue will be for obligation bonds, and will make possible the sale of the $235,000 in revenue bonds voted in the past for the purpose of water system development.

Gates Withdraws As Candidate For Mayor

Since announcement was made in the News under date of Feb. 17 of the list of candidates for the Non-Partisan Ticket, Mr. A. J. Gates has asked that his name be withdrawn.

The organizing committee of the Non-Partisan Ticket reluctantly agreed to do so with the following statement:

"The organizing committee of the Non-Partisan Ticket wishes to state in regard to our friend, Mr. A. J. Gates' withdrawal from head of our ticket as a candidate for Mayor:

"Mr. Gates agreed to serve if placed on the ticket and voted into office by the people. After returning to Lubbock, he has made commitments in his business and profession that would not be fair to the people of either Ruidoso or Lubbock, due to limited time in each place, and has, therefore, requested his name be withdrawn; which request was granted."

In withdrawing from the ticket, for the reasons above stated, Mr. Gates assured the committee that he would be glad to serve Ruidoso whenever he was here and needed. The committee secured the agreement of Dick Ratliff to head the Non-Partisan Ticket as candidate for Mayor of Ruidoso.

(Signed) Ernest McDaniel,
Publicity Director,
Non-Partisan Ticket.

King Ranch Enters Three Thoroughbreds

The King Ranch of Texas notified the Hollywood Racing Assn., this week that they will enter three colts in the Thoroughbred Futurity scheduled for July at Hollywood Park.

This ranch has also nominated a colt for the Quarterhorse trials May 28th.

A new name at the Hollywood track this summer will be that of Fred Turner of Midland, Texas whose horses are in Roswell now and will be brought to Ruidoso in the early Spring for the racing season.

Lively Discussion Takes Place At Called Meeting Tuesday Afternoon With Orland Bonaguidi Presiding

The directors of the Ruidoso Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday afternoon of this week to map out plans for a summer program for "The Year-Round Playground of the Southwest." Also present were prominent businessmen of Ruidoso.

The main decision made by the directors was to begin work on a booklet showing pictures of both Ruidoso and nearby scenic and historical attractions and outlining the various summer activities. The purpose of this booklet is to serve as an advertising medium in answer to the thousands of letters requesting information received by the Chamber of Commerce each year. The booklet will be placed in the various Chambers of Commerce, hotels, and with civic organizations throughout the country. Mention will be made of all businesses and of firms belonging to the Chamber of Commerce and along with this public statement both present members and those who desire to be notified the Chamber of Commerce and either pay up dues or join, otherwise they can not be mentioned. It is a desire to explain in the booklet the various businesses within Ruidoso. It is hoped that the booklet will be ready for mailing within 60 days, prior to the summer season.

Second Annual Gold Madel Basketball Tournery Under Way

Three games are scheduled to be played in the second annual Ruidoso Gold Medal Basketball Tournament here tonight (Friday) as the quarter-final round gets under way at 7:30 p.m. Thirteen teams entered the tournament and drew for places in the brackets at a meeting at Ruidoso High School last Sunday afternoon. First round play was Wednesday and Thursday nights. Semi-final games will be played beginning at 2:30 tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon and two final games are scheduled for Saturday night beginning at 7 o'clock.

Teams contesting for the 76 trophies and individual medals are VFW of Tularosa and Alamogordo, Glover Packing, Fine Rest Furniture, and Smith Machinery, all of Roswell, Lincoln, Carrizozo, La Luz, Fort Stanton, Lake Arthur Farmers, Hondo, Green Tree, Mescalero, and Ruidoso.

The tournament is an annual affair sponsored by Ruidoso High School. Paul Vance is tournament director. The Ruidoso Lions Club has conducted the advance season ticket sale.

Buckaroo Remodels Corral Lounge

Orland Bonaguidi, owner of the Buckaroo Cocktail Lounge in downtown Ruidoso, is showing his Corral Lounge to all-comers and pointing out recent remodeling done.

The large room has been changed to accommodate dancers and tables placed around the dance floor. New lighting fixtures in keeping with the Western decor have been added. All in all this room is now more attractive than ever.

Match Race In June

The last Sunday in June a match race of three and a half furlongs will be run by "Redskin," the winner of the 1949 Central Bar and Grill Quarter Horse Futurity, and "Wonder Lad," a Carlsbad Quarter Horse.

"Redskin" is now owned by Jack Stearns and Jake Crosby of San Angelo, Texas. "Wonder Lad" is a Carlsbad, N. M., horse owned by Jim Derrick.

Rev. O. J. Rainey Here

Rev. O. J. Rainey of Ft. Stanton held Episcopal Church Services in Ruidoso at the American Legion Hall last Sunday at 10 a.m.

After services Mr. and Mrs. Rainey were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elay Perry, Jr. and their family in their Ruidoso home.

The two directors appointed to bring the booklet out were Mrs. George McCarty and Dr. W. D. Horton.

As all present memberships expire June 30 a membership campaign has been planned for the month of June to renew memberships and obtain new members. The directors hope to raise sufficient funds whereby a full-time paid secretary and publicity manager can be employed. Present dues are still $30.00 a year for those wishing a voting membership and $5.00 a year for associate memberships. All outside property owners will be contacted by letter requesting they join. The present financial statement was read and the 1949 budget allows only for a part-time secretary which, because of the tremendous amount of correspondence received is not adequate.

The directors voted to sponsor this year's Steer Roping in June. It will be necessary to raise a $1,000 guarantee. A committee was appointed to raise this money for a purse as follows: Emmett Reese, Lynn Butler and Orland Bonaguidi.

The directors also voted to cooperate and help in every way the Mescalero Indian Reservation in the establishment of an Indian Village across Highway 70 from Ruidoso Junction.

A committee was appointed to see about the marking of bridal paths and trails to add to the pleasure of those who ride horseback in the area, and to encourage them to stay off the highway.

Another committee was appointed to investigate the possibilities of having a golf tournament at Cree Meadows Country Club this summer.

March 10 an open dinner meeting will be held at the Navajo Lodge at which time guests representing the recently organized Southwest Boosters Club will speak. The general public is invited as the plans of this club are important in the publicizing of Ruidoso.

GI Bill Farmers Operate Own Farms

Ninety-three percent of the 347,000 GI Bill Farm trainees, as of the end of 1949, either owned their own farms or operated farms which they in some way controlled.

The remaining seven percent were training on farms owned by others.

Nearly all the veteran farm owners, Veterans Administration said, had small "family-type" farms, where all the work of keeping things running is done by the veteran himself, with members of his family performing whatever chores they can handle.

Yet the farms are not too small. V-A regulations require them to be properly equipped; productive enough to insure a satisfactory income at least by the end of the training program; large enough to keep a veteran busy full time, and of a character which permits instruction in all aspects of farm management for the type of farming in which the veteran is being trained.

Dividends due deceased veterans for the time they held National Service Life Insurance in force prior to their death will be paid to their beneficiaries or heirs. Veterans Administration has announced.

Where the insurance was in force at the time of the veteran's death, payment will be made automatically to the beneficiary of record. No application of any kind will be required in these cases.

If the insurance was not in force at the time the veteran died, the dividend will be paid to his estate through the executor or administrator of the estate. Where there is no administrator, payment will be made directly to those persons who are entitled to the veteran's estate under the inheritance laws of the state of which the veteran was a legal resident at the time of death.

In the lapsed insurance cases, claim forms will be sent by V-A directly to those persons found to be entitled to all or a share of the veteran's dividend. No general distribution will be made of these claim forms, V-A said.

Payment of dividends in behalf of deceased veterans will begin soon, V-A said, and is expected to be substantially completed by June 30 of this year.

Of every 100 bushels of wheat produced in the U. S. since the war, 6 bushels have been exported.

John N. Rogers Selected Scoutmaster To Attend National Scout Jamboree

John N. Rogers, Scoutmaster of V.F.W.'s Troop 295 in Artesia, has been selected as the Scoutmaster of a group of 32 Scouts from Roswell and Artesia who will attend the National Boy Scout Jamboree this summer.

J. T. Easley, Artesia, Chairman of the Jamboree Committee for Eastern New Mexico, stated that Rogers is well qualified to lead the boys on the journey to Valley Forge, Pa., Washington, D. C., and New York City.

Rogers was a Boy Scout in Troop 99, Bronx, N. Y. and later became a Life Scout in Troop 210, Thomaston, N. Y. He enlisted as a private in the Air Force in 1941 and on his discharge from active service in 1945 was a Captain. During the war he served as Provost Marshal and in that capacity had numerous responsibilities in connection with troop movements in special trains. While in the Air Force he continued his Scouting, becoming an Eagle Scout in Abilene in 1944.

On entering civilian life in Artesia he served as Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 8, later taking over Troop 295 as Scoutmaster. He is married and has two small children, a boy and a girl and is employed by the Postal Service.

The Eastern New Mexico Scout Council will be represented at the Jamboree by a group of 114 Boy Scouts and leaders. They will leave Clovis by special train about the 26th of June. Although the Jamboree is months away sixty-six Scouts have already sent in paid reservations.

Other troops from the Council will be formed by Scouts from Portales, Clovis, Tucuman, Hobbs and Carlsbad, but the leaders have not yet been selected.

Party For Toby Watsons

Mr. and Mrs. Toby Watson and son Jess were the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. John Emde and family in their Ruidoso home last weekend. Toby and Paula moved from Ruidoso to Albuquerque several months ago but always love to visit their friends here. Saturday night the Emdes invited Mr. and Mrs. Carmon Phillips, Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Horton, and Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Snyder in for a visit with the Watsons, Canasta and refreshments.

One out of every four World War II veterans holding National Service Life Insurance already has converted his policy from term insurance to one or more of the half-dozen permanent plans available.

Half of the 1,716,000 veterans who converted their National Service Life Insurance to permanent plans of insurance have selected 20-payment life, Veterans Administration said.

Merinos, a fine-wooled sheep, are increasing in numbers in New South Wales, Australia.

In 1850, 70 per cent of the U. S. population lived on farms. In 1950, only 18 per cent live on farms.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Knox, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shier, Mrs. M. D. Fior, and Mrs. O. A. Luallin were in Carizozo Monday night of this week for an Eastern Star meeting there.

Lloyd Perry is flying back and forth from Dell City, Texas, where he is drilling water wells now . . . and seems to think it's a lot easier than that long dusty drive through nowhere to get from here to there or vice versa. He recently purchased a plane from Kenneth Nosker.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Williams, former residents, were visiting here last week from Oklahoma and are looking for a summer cabin to buy.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bonal were in Ruidoso the first of this week. They will be back in about two weeks to open their El Taos Courts for the season.

Stricter Driving Rules

(Editor's Note: The following editorial was handed to us by Mr. O. B. Shook of Ruidoso and was clipped from the Kansas City Daily Drivers Telegram.)

A LOT of Americans aren't going to like this but from all indications the day is coming in this country when people will have to prove that they are able to drive a car safely before they are allowed to get behind a wheel. Not only is the trend toward tightening drivers' license requirements in many states, but revocation of licenses in plain cases of careless or incompetent driving are becoming more and more common.

As traffic experts put it, a car in the hands of many people is as dangerous a weapon as a loaded gun. They find that a lot of individuals have physical or psychological defects and handicaps which unfit them to drive safely and, as a result, are prone to have accidents frequently.

Modern techniques for handling this situation in some of the eastern states involve a complete physical examination, a test on knowledge of traffic laws and, finally, a practical road test in which the applicant for a driver's license must prove he can handle a car. If the driver passes and gets his license, he still isn't out of the woods. Every accident or traffic violation is entered on his record. After two or three of these he gets a warning. If that doesn't make him more careful, he'll get another examination, stiffer than the first and either be put on probation, or have his license suspended.

Too severe? Well, hardly, in view of the nation's high traffic accident rate. And the proof of the system is that where it has been adopted, the highway death rate has been cut to about half what it is in states where traffic is comparable and which are not so strict in their licensing requirements. In view of that sort of a showing, it's probably just a question of time until all states see the wisdom of keeping poor drivers off the highways entirely.

Axle Grease and Hoof Oil

SOME 80 years ago one of the nation's pioneer oil companies was incorporated. Its principal founder, according to Life Magazine, "was quick to see a vast future in kerosene, axle grease and hoof oil."

These products are still being made, though hoof oil must be a pretty modest seller nowadays. But their output is an infinitesimal part of the oil industry. Few living people could list all of the products which oil now makes and markets. The list is a very long one, and it is constantly being expanded.

Life also observed that, after 80 years, oil's pipelines carry the lifeblood of business and finance. It would be difficult to think of a single enterprise, a single important activity, into which oil does not enter in one form or another. It provides heat for homes, and the energy for vast industries. It powers our millions of motor vehicles and many of our trains. It is constantly used in agriculture. It is as necessary to our national defense as to our daily lives.

Our consumption of oil is far greater than that of any other nation. Two basic causes are responsible for that. First, we have an infinitely greater number of the machines which use oil, an accurate barometer of our superior living standards. Second, in our oil industry we have had one of the most progressive of enterprises which, spurred by competition, has met every demand made upon it.

Eighty years is no time at all as history goes. But in that brief period oil has caused a revolution of unprecedented scope and significance.

Living veterans on Veterans Administration pension and compensation rolls, as of the end of 1949, included: Civil War, 18; Indian Wars, 590; Spanish-American War, 95,801; World War I, 500,570; Regular Establishment, 52,218, and World War II, 1,693,858.

Future of America

New Mexico Cattle Growers Association Urge Members To Vote

"If we are to have state rights and believe in the preservation of local self government, the people of New Mexico must assume more responsibility and take an interest in local politics," said G. W. Evans, Magdalena, president of the New Mexico Cattle Growers Association, in announcing plans for the annual cowmen's convention. The meeting is scheduled to be held in Albuquerque, March 27 and 28, and it is expected that more than half of the five thousand members of the organization will attend.

"We are going to lose our freedom and our rights of self government if we continue to allow professional office holders to decide who shall be eligible to run for public office in this state," Evans continued. "The best place to start taking an interest in our government is in our home counties; the time to act is now during the forthcoming election; and an important office to consider is the election of representatives to our own State Legislature."

Pointing out that the New Mexico Cattle Growers Association is interested in seeing sound business people go to the State Legislature from every county in New Mexico, Evans said: "Although there are many good members in the State Legislature today, there is still much room for improvement in certain quarters. In the next three months, the people of New Mexico must get behind and support qualified individuals to run for this important office."

Officials of every prominent organization in New Mexico are being invited to attend the 36th annual convention of the association, "and we will endeavor to impress the need for cooperative action between all business, educational and industry groups in working for better state government," Evans said.

Declaring that no one organization could or should hope to carry the campaign for a better State Legislature, Evans pointed out that a combination of practical, far-sighted organizations working "for the common welfare of New Mexico can go far toward eliminating so called professional politicians and job-seekers who run for the legislature for personal favors and personal gains."

TINNIE TALK

By Margie Tittsworth

Am sorry that Tinnie news has failed to be in the last two papers as they have been sent in but seem to have gone a stray. We thank you who have been writing to find out where the Tinnie is. We will too do better.

Here is a little back news Mr. L. P. Pacheco better known as Paul Pacheco from Arabella has announced for County Commissioner of the third district on the Republican ticket. Good luck Paul.

Rev. Alvin A. Rasmussen wife and children from Valden, Miss. spent the night with Bro. Oldham family on their way from Los Angeles, California to Greenville, South Carolina to hold a revival. They just finished a big revival in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nelson took in the Wool Growers Association in Albuquerque Ed brought home several ribbons on his wool.

The Four H. Club met at the Hondo High School Thursday Feb. 16 with all members present. They are getting down to business this year. Mr. Radcliff with the help of the 4-H Club members gave several demonstrations on how to introduce people correctly another on how to judge sheep. They hope to see more parents out next meeting.

Freddie Tittsworth is home from the South Western Hospital in El Paso. He wishes to thank every one who sent him presents and the nice cards and letters he received while he was there. Sure helps when a fellow is down.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ferguson from Capitan spent the week with Marjorie Tittsworth while her parents were in El Paso. Mr. Ferguson developed pneumonia while there and was taken to the new hospital in Carrizozo under Dr. Turners care. Could it have been the new hospital grandpa?

The Lincoln Baptist Association held their regular monthly meeting at the Tinnie Baptist Church with fifty members present. Every church was represented excepting one in our association. A lunch was served by the ladies from Tinnie.

Tinnie Baptist Church will start a revival March the 5th. Bro. Pratt from Monument, New Mexico will conduct the services and Bro. Bush from Capitan will lead the singing.

Features Of Hoover Report Draw Fire From Major Veteran Groups

The collective weight of 5,000,000 ex-servicemen, all members of major veterans organizations, will be thrown against those parts of the Hoover Committee Report on Government Reorganization which affects veterans, the national commanders and legislative directors of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion, Amvets and Disabled American Veterans are in complete agreement in petitioning Congress to disregard those steps which would mean a loss of benefits to veterans through reorganization legislation. They will definitely appear before various committees of the House and Senate and vigorously oppose such steps.

Jim Hale, Commander of the American Legion in Ruidoso quoting a joint release of the four major organizations, said:

"On the basis of exhaustive study of that portion of the Hoover Report pertaining to veterans, we are convinced that the recommendations contained therein would lead to neither economy nor efficiency. If carried into effect, these recommendations would disrupt the Veterans Administration, a one-stop service agency, and replace it with new bureaus which would mean more grief for the veteran and more cost for the taxpayer.

"Under the Hoover Commission plan, all veterans' hospital and medical services would be transferred to a proposed new United Medical Administration. This would reduce the standard of medical service for the veterans without lowering the cost.

"The report would provide for the transfer from the VA to the Department of the Interior all matters pertaining to hospital construction. This would remove a specialized activity from the Veterans Administration, resulting in no conceivable reduction in overall cost and a division of jurisdiction and authority between the two agencies.

"Government insurance matters would be taken from the Veterans Administration and turned over to another new government corporation. This would involve added expense for new top bracket government executives and offer no assurance that this operation would be administered any more efficiently or economically.

"The proposed transfer to another government agency of the home loan guaranty program, under which the Veteran Administration guarantees loans to enable veterans to build their own homes, would result in no possible benefit to the taxpayer, and an impairment of service to the home-seeking veteran.

"Since the days of the Civil War, a grateful nation has provided veterans preference in government jobs. The Hoover Commission report would completely destroy this traditional recognition of the right of veterans to federal employment preference.

"The cost of government is borne by all the people, and the 19 million war veterans represent a large segment of the population of the country. On their shoulders will fall the burden of their proportionate share of this huge tax bill, and naturally they are deeply interested in economy in government. We believe that every legitimate savings in the veterans' program can and must be effected within the framework of the Veterans Administration.

"It is our intention to submit to the Congress the results of our study of the proposals of the Hoover report as they affect veterans. On the basis of the facts contained in that analysis, we urge that the Congress reject those proposals as being unjust and ill-advised." Commander Jim Hale concluded.

New Mexico's 4-H'ers Observe National Club Week Mar. 4-12

New Mexico's 8,000 4-H club boys and girls and 600 local volunteer leaders are now making plans to observe national 4-H Club Week, March 4-12. In observing the week, they will join with the nation's 1,850,000 members in 82,000 clubs under the guidance of 225,000 leaders.

"The objectives of National 4-H Club Week are to tell the 4-H story to the general public through newspapers, radio, local exhibits, and special program," explains L. S. Kurtz, state 4-H club leader. "It is also a week when all 4-H club members take stock of what may be needed for the completion of their goals.

"In other words, National 4-H Club Week is a 'check-up' week—a 'get-set' week. In addition, it's an 'open-house' week, when members get together to welcome new members, to exchange ideas, and to inform parents and neighbors about new developments in their 4-H club programs."

Club officers, leaders, and county extension agents are in charge of arrangements for local observance of the week, Kurtz says.

National Future Farmers Of America Week February 18-25

Courses in vocational agriculture under the National Vocation Act were first established in the United States in 1917. Between 1923 and 1928 a number of states actually formed organizations of vocational agriculture students. By 1927-28 the goal of a national organization of students of vocational agriculture was gleaming in the distance in the minds of various leaders. Then in November 1928 the National Future Farmers of America was actually established at the American Royal Livestock show in Kansas City, Missouri.

Today there are about 7,500 local chapters with about 300,000 students, and more are entering every year.

This is National Future Farmers Week, selected because it includes an anniversary of the birth of George Washington. Our first President was an advance farmer for his day, practicing soil conservation, crop rotation and farm accounting. To the three hundred thousand future farmers of America over the Nation who are studying better agriculture and better rural living in our high school vocational classes, Washington's life is an inspiration.

Important and challenging today is the earnest work of these farm boys, as they celebrate National Future Farmers Week. Today every state is active in F.F.A. including Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

Per capita consumption of meat in the U. S. is less than it was 50 years ago. In 1900 it was 152 pounds per person; in 1940, 147 pounds.

Veteran's Named Beneficiaries Paid

Payment of GI insurance dividends in behalf of deceased veterans will begin soon and will be substantially completed by June 30, the Veterans Administration announced today.

Dividends due veterans for the time they held National Service Life Insurance in force prior to their death will be paid directly to their beneficiaries or heirs.

Where the insurance was in force at the time of the veteran's death, payment will be made automatically to the beneficiary of record. No application of any kind will be required.

If the insurance was not in force at the time the veteran died the dividend will be paid to his estate through the executor or administrator of the estate. Where there is no administrator, payment will be made direct to those persons who are entitled to the veteran's estate under the inheritance laws of the state of which the veteran was a legal resident at the time of death. In the lapsed insurance cases, claims forms will be sent by VA directly to those persons found to be entitled to all or a share of the veteran's dividend.

According to the REA, 78.2 per cent of the nation's farms are electrified.

Why I Have Made Arrangements For Ambulance Service In Ruidoso

When in Ruidoso recently to look over the new Ruidoso-Hondo Valley General Hospital the need of an ambulance for the use of the area was pointed out to me.

Knowing the efforts which had been made to get the hospital and to raise funds to open it, I understood how difficult it would be for the community to provide one at this time . . . and immediately decided "here is a way to pay a debt of gratitude."

Ruidoso and the area have been kind to me through the years the Ballard Funeral Home and Ambulance Service has been in Roswell. To show this kindness has been greatly appreciated it has been our privilege to put at the disposal of the doctors, the hospital, and the citizens of the area a completely equipped Chevrolet Ambulance.

The following moderate rates will be charged:

Ruidoso-Green Tree-Valley to Ruidoso . . . $5.00

Ruidoso-Green Tree-Valley to Mescalero . $10.00

Ruidoso-Green Tree-Valley to Roswell . . . $20.00

New Mexico 4-H Boys And Girls Prepare For Garden Contest

Now that they have received the signal—brightly colored seed catalogs—boys and girls in the Southern states are anxious to get started in becoming expert 4-H gardeners. More than 125,000 rural youth in New Mexico and thirteen other Southern states will take part in the 1950 National 4-H Garden program.

"These boys and girls will learn how to manage a well-planned garden, carry out a program of vegetable insect and disease control, and market produce in an economical and approved manner," explains L. S. Kurtz, state 4-H club leader. "Through their garden projects, they will increase individual and family incomes by reducing the amount of food purchased. They will also contribute to better family health by producing sufficient amounts of essential and nutritious vegetables and fruits for use throughout the year."

Incentives for outstanding achievements in gardening include gold-filled medals of honor for four county winners, and an all-expense trip to the Chicago 4-H Club Congress next November for the state champion, provided by Allis-Chalmers. Eight national winners selected from the state champions will each receive a $300 college scholarship.

The 4-H garden program is conducted under the direction of the Cooperative Extension Service. County extension agents will furnish complete information.

Winners were named in the following counties in New Mexico last year: Bernalillo, Colfax, Curry, Dona Ana, Guadalupe, Roosevelt, San Juan, Socorro, Torrance, Union and Valencia.

"The convention is scheduled to be held in Albuquerque, March 26, 27 and 28 and advance hotel reservations indicate that more than three thousand cattlemen are planning to attend," Evans said.

Johnson who has been conducting the huge program to eradicate the dreaded Foot and Mouth disease south of the border is expected to make a complete report of progress to date at the cattlemen's meeting. "Under the program, the joint commission has vaccinated 45,264,451 animals in Mexico of February 1, and nothing like this has ever happened before in battling a livestock disease in history," Evans said.

Nearly all the hotels in Albuquerque have already been reserved to capacity during the dates of the convention, Evans continued "however a thorough check of auto court accommodations indicates there will be ample facilities available to adequately house all ranchers planning to attend the meeting."

Approximately five million persons used national forest lands for hunting, fishing and trapping during 1949.

CORONA NEWS

By MRS. A. E. MULKEY

Corona School bond issue was approved recently by a vote of 138 to 1, making possible a $100,000 additional school building project, the construction of which will begin this month. It is hoped that part of the building will be ready for use the latter part of August.

Volunteer workers are making rapid progress on the finishing work of the new Presbyterian Church. They hope to be able to hold services in the church beginning March 5, even though the building will not be completely finished. The church members and others in the community are justly proud of this beautiful building.

Mrs. B. H. Webber was substituting in the First Grade for Miss Merle Kyzer last week. Miss Kyzer was called home by the death of her father, W. W. Kyzer of Bogue Chitto, Miss. She took a plane from Albuquerque to her home in Mississippi.

Mrs. Manuel Lopez, age about 80, died after a long illness Sunday, Feb. 19. Funeral services were held at the Corona Catholic Church.

A new balcony has been built in the Corona Baptist Church, the floors have been sanded and varnished, an extension has been made on the platform at the front of the church, and plans are made for other improvements. The pastor, Rev. D. H. Peoples, and some of the men of the church have been doing all the work themselves.

There will be a baptizing service Sunday evening, March 5, at the Corona Baptist Church.

WORLD DAY PRAYER FOR PEACE

The report is that "Corona has never experienced a more beautiful and inspiring service than on Friday, Feb. 25, when the Presbyterian and Catholic congregations joined in observing the World Day of Prayer for Peace."

Mrs. L. L. Argenbright was in charge of the joint program in the school gymnasium, with Mrs. L. Parker as reader; Mrs. W. M. Pfeiffer as soloist, and Sally Mae Pfeiffer at the piano. Corona's Catholic Choir, under the direction of Mr. Guerrero, rendered some beautiful selections. Rev. Wilford Savord, Catholic priest, gave a most convincing and inspiring talk on "Prayer and Peace." The entire congregation joined in hymns and responsive readings.

"The World Day of Prayer and Peace" is an annual, international, and interdenominational observance whose aim is to promote worldwide Christian brotherhood and good will.

GLENCOE NEWS

By SYDNEY BONNELL

Tuesday, Mrs. Ola Jones, Mrs. Jean Casy and I went to Roswell. Had a very pleasant day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reed and children are making their home at Bonnell Ranch. Glencoe will be their post office now.

Mrs. Claude Reeder missed two days of teaching last week, due to a bad case of tonsillitis.

The Extension Club met at Mrs. Ed Nelson's home last Wednesday. A large crowd was present and the usual delightful luncheon was served. After the business meeting and other details were taken care of there was a talk and demonstration on making trays of aluminum or brass. Orders were taken from any one wishing to do this work, for the materials necessary and as soon as they come the ladies will meet at the Community House at Glencoe and with an instructor will make trays. The date will be announced. Next meeting will be at Mrs. Hobbie's home in Ruidoso.

Harvey Bonnell had a birthday party Saturday at Bonnell Ranch. (He is a George Washington boy but having school the party had to come later). Most of his little friends and some older ones were there and he received gifts to delight his heart and a pretty cake with his name and candles on it, was served with jello and punch. Such a pretty day they played outside and had a good time.

Eleanor and Linda visited us while Morris and his mother, Mrs. McClendon, went on to Clovis to visit her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Pior of Valley View Courts below Green Tree left this week for a trip to Texas. They will first visit with their son Bob, at the Baylor University Dental School at Waco, Texas, and then with friends and relatives in Dallas, Texas.

This NON-PARTISAN TICKET was organized and set up by Business and Professional Men and Women of the Village of Ruidoso made up of Citizens and Registered Voters within the Incorporated City Limits.

THIS IS YOUR TOWN...

The Creator endowed Ruidoso with everything it takes to make an all-your health, rest and recreation city that should be the admiration and envy of any and all competitors. The mountains, the deep winding canyons threaded and shaded by forests of giant trees; the healthful, invigorating and comfortable climate winter and summer; the clear, cold and sparkling streams hurrying down the mountains through the midst of the town were all here before the oldest "old-timer" came. Too much of all these has been lost through wonton neglect.

A Change of Administration Is Needed

This ticket presents for your consideration and vote four outstanding men. They are all duly qualified voters and NOW live within the city limits, and have so resided, without interruption, as provided by state law.

Here Are Brief Biographical Sketches of Each:*DICK RATLIFF, Candidate for Mayor:

Age 42 years, active resident of Ruidoso for four years. Owner and manager of the largest food store in town. A successful business man of experience, ability and unimpeachable character.

The Paul Blazer's Jr. baby finally arrived, Friday I believe, a big boy weighing over nine pounds, nearly as big as his mother, but at this writing they are still discussing names.

Mr. Jesse Campbell went to El Paso Sunday night for a couple of days under medical observation.

Mrs. Bessie Quast and Mrs. John Hall were hostesses at the Woman's Club party last week. High scores for bridge were awarded Mrs. Eulas Campbell and Mr. Dee Botone, lows to Mrs. Bill Brueninger and Bert Shields. Mr. Jesse Campbell got the traveling prize, and Mrs. Marshall Woodward and Supt. Crow cut prizes. Devil's Food cake, ice cream and java were served.

Speaking of fancy gas wagons, there's the new Ford Mabel Betts and Flats Baldonado are driving.
