CHECK FOR BOYS' RANCH: The New Mexico Federation of Women's Clubs has presented this check for $5,000 toward construction of a Chapel and Recreational Hall for the New Mexico Boys' Ranch at Bernardo. A. E. Buck, of Albuquerque, "Flying BR" president, said the clubs took the project of raising the money three years ago when Mrs. Laura I. Patton of Gallup was federation president. The check is payable to H. R. McGibbon, BR manager. Ground also has been broken at the Flying BR for a new dormitory which will raise ranch housing to care for 60 to 70 boys. Land will be cleared soon for 250 more acres of irrigable land.

Soil Demonstration Meet Attracts 200 Persons

Horses Arriving Rapidly As Time For Races Nears

Race horses were arriving in a steady flow this week as opening of the 1950 Hollywood Park racing season drew near. Twelve race dates have been scheduled during July.

Running of the finals of the Fifth Annual Central Bar and Grill Quarter Horse Futurity July 1 is the big attraction during the first week.

Also planned during the July 4 "holiday" is are trials for the first annual Hollywood Park Thoroughbred Futurity. Finals have been set tentatively for July 8.

Two King Ranch thoroughbreds, owned by E. H. Lane of Odem, Texas will head a field of eight outstanding two-year-olds in the $10,000 Central Bar event. The race is billed as the largest event of its kind in the world.

In addition to the Central Bar race, the July program will feature several special races.

Chief among these will be the "Lincoln County Handicap" for a $500 purse. Entry fees for this race will be $100, but other details, except the distance, will not be announced until race time, a track spokesman said. The "handicap" will be a 300-yard race and will be run late in July.

Another major event will be the "Last Year's Central Bar and Grill Futurity" which will bring back, as three-year-olds, participants in the 1949 race. "Red Skin" won the race.

Cards will feature at least nine races daily, including quarter horse and thoroughbred events.

The track can write races for any quality of horse, a fact which should help attract high-grade horses for all events.

Community Church Gets Coat Of Varnish

The Ruidoso Community Methodist Church has been revarnished through the efforts of several members and friends.

Helping in the work were Herbert Carter, H. W. Hoover, Ike Kennedy, R. K. Knox, Porter Day, R. W. Teter, and the pastor, Rev. Buren Stewart. Varnish was donated by Tom Coffee, board chairman, and Kiel Bonnell.

More than 200 persons from the Ruidoso, Hondo and Bonito valleys attended the picnic and Soil Conservation Service demonstration at the Buster Casey ranch at Tinnie June 17.

The picnic was held under the giant "100-year-old" pecan trees on the historic Casey place. Dinner was served chow-line style by the Tinnie Baptist Ladies, assisted by Thomas Utterback, soil conservationist for the Upper Hondo Soil Conservation district.

Bert Pfingsten, chairman of the district, expressed his appreciation for the "splendid" turnout and interest shown by the visitors in the work of the SCS.

Peter Hurd, vice chairman, conducted a "Know Your Grasses Contest," which contestants were asked to name various range grasses on exhibit. Ernest A. Steinhoff, of Alamogordo, recently arrived in this country under the displaced persons act, was contest winner with a perfect score. Second was Robert McDaniel of Glencoe, while his brother, Ernest, placed third.

Purpose of the SCS was explained in a short talk by Wilbur F. Coe, Glencoe, Secretary-treasurer of the district. He stressed the self-governing principle of the districts and said the aid of highly-trained technicians is helping to mold friendly cooperatives which are united in attempting to protect soil and water.

Wilbur McKnight, Tinnie, and Daniel R. Brenton, Nogal, also spoke briefly.

The morning was spent in touring and reviewing Soil Conservation work on the farms of Mill Mable, Mrs. Vergie Luckett and Ed Nelson. In the afternoon representatives of several implement dealers gave demonstrations of dirt-moving on the Casey ranch.

James Wayne, Conservationist in charge of district 14 attended the gathering with the staff from the Alamogordo office. District 14 includes Lincoln and Otero counties.

Here with Wayne were: Joe Jackson, work group leader; Doc Lippart, conservation aide; Martin Larsen, group engineer; Dick Malchow, soil scientist; Leo Dirnberger, engineering aide; and Bill Hale, range conservationist.

In addition to Mr. Utterback, technical men from the local district included Lloyd Absher, engineering aide; Eddie Provins, engineering aide; and Don Giles, conservation aide.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Palmer, Roswell, entertained a large group of their relatives from Fort Smith, Ark., with a dinner party Tuesday at Nob Hill.

Youth Center Open House Planned June 30

Open house at the Ruidoso Youth Center in the old Ruidoso Grade School Gymnasium has been scheduled for June 30. Youth Center President W. A. Hart announced this week.

Mrs. Gorda Anthony, formerly of Roswell, has been employed to manage the center and operate the concession stand, he said.

Mr. Hart also issued an appeal for donations of old card tables, games, ping-pong tables and sets, chairs or other amusement facilities.

Lions Club Plans Installation Soon

Installation of new officers and ladies' night is scheduled next week for the Ruidoso Lions Club.

A dinner will be held at the Navajo Lodge at 8 p.m. Ruth Lewis, piano and solovox artist, will provide dinner music. After installation ceremonies, a reception and dance for members and their wives will be held at the Central's private dining room. Music will be furnished by the Horace Puckett trio.

Second "Day In Old Lincoln" Set For Aug. 6; Cast Named

By Dan Storm
Now that summer has come again people in Lincoln County and in El Paso, Lubbock, Roswell, and other points in the Southwest are looking forward to "A Day in Old Lincoln," a celebration grown out of the color and romance surrounding the town of Lincoln and the part it played in the frontier history of the Old West. It is scheduled for August 6.

Lincoln, a quaint and quiet town of many historic landmarks and of outstanding natural surroundings, was once the capital and trade and cultural center of an area comprising one-fourth of the state and covering the land now enclosed in the seven counties of Lincoln, Otero, Eddy, Chaves, Roosevelt, Lea, and De Baca. This would be an area of land approximately the size of the state of Indiana.

Under the sponsorship of the Lincoln County Historical Society "A Day in Old Lincoln" is held in honor of the Old Timers of Southeastern New Mexico and in

Success Indicated As C of C Opens Annual Campaign

Immediate response from a number of Ruidoso firms indicated success this week for the annual Chamber of Commerce drive for new members which opened with a kickoff dinner at the Navajo Lodge last Friday night.

Attended by more than 120 persons, the dinner was termed one of the best ever held here. Guests heard half a dozen Ruidoso projects outlined and received briefings on Chamber work from its president, Orland Bonaguidi.

A follow-up meeting of Chamber directors was scheduled yesterday to discuss ways to keep the village from experiencing more electric power failures of the kind which blackened the town two hours last Saturday night.

Directors also were to study results of questionnaires filled out by persons who attended the banquet.

Highlighting the meeting were reports on civic affairs. Mayor Ike Wingfield told of village efforts to get the $125,000 water bond issue approved so work could go ahead on that project.

W. D. "Dick" Ratliff, chairman of the airport improvement committee, said engineering work on the runway-surfacing program is under way and that the $21,000 project will be completed this summer. He also revealed that the Civil Aeronautics Administration has offered to give Ruidoso an airport lighting system now being used at Cuervo. "All Ruidoso has to do is go after it," Ratliff said.

Youth Center Report

W. A. Hart reported on progress in opening the Youth Center and appealed for wide participation in the center program. He requested banquet-goers to provide card tables, games of all kinds, chairs and other amusement facilities for the center as their way of "participating in this program." Mrs. Gorda Anthony has been hired to manage the center and to operate the concession, he said. Mrs. Anthony, formerly of Roswell, is experienced in such work, he said.

Power Project Near Mid-Point, Wingfield Says

The first 30 miles of a projected 80 miles of new Rural Electrification Lines in this area have been completed.

Walker L. Wingfield, electrical Superintendent for the Otero-Lincoln County Electric Cooperative, told a meeting of Co-Op trustees at Cloudercroft June 14 of progress on the project.

Poles have been set and lines strung from Hollywood up Gavilan canyon to Eagle Creek, from Eagle Creek to Angus, and from Angus up the Bonito Valley to the Southern Pacific Dam, he said. Poles have been set for the full 80-mile project.

The project includes work in Gavilan, Eagle and Bonito valleys and the Capitan and Nogal areas.

Hanging of transformers was scheduled to begin last week, Wingfield said. Wiring is ahead of schedule.

Wingfield expressed pleasure at the rapid progress being made by contractors, Thompson, Haight, and Keister of Tulsa, Okla. He also praised the "excellent quality" of their construction.

Importance of having houses wired by licensed contractors also was stressed by Wingfield who said homes in the areas soon will get REA power. He urged future power users to look ahead and install wiring which will be adequate in later years.

The directors also accepted appointment of W. C. Cooper as Co-Op manager, subject to REA approval in Washington.

Work Begins Soon Of Expansion Of Golf Course

Work will begin within a few days on expansion of Cree Meadows Golf Course to an 18-hole layout, it was reported this week.

Making the expansion possible was completion of a new well which will provide water for the greens, it was said.

The course now has nine bentgrass greens. Completion of the next nine holes will make it a favorite, it was said. Tournament play should pick up considerably with completion of the 18 holes, a spokesman said.

Three Attend Church Mission

Three young members of the Ruidoso Community Church attended the Albuquerque district youth camp last week at the Methodist Navajo Mission School near Farmington.

Attending were Mary Glasscock, Betty Bennett and Sammie Smelser.

TRY FOR HARMONY

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce were scheduled to meet yesterday to discuss ways to prevent continued electric power failures on Saturday evenings when the tourist trade is at its peak here.

Chamber action and a move by the Ruidoso Lions club in years past resulted in preparation of the local light plant as a standby in case of outside power failure.

Power which supplies Ruidoso normally comes over lines from Elephant Butte dam. Such long transmission naturally exposes the lines to a wide variety of hazards which might cause power failures. Lightning appears to be the chief source of trouble in this area.

It was reported that the local light plant could not be put into operation in time to supply power during the two-hour "blackout" Saturday. However, in response to the pleas mentioned above, the plant was kept ready for such emergencies in previous years.

Loss of power when visitors number the greatest is a serious financial setback to local businessmen. Estimates of lost sales Saturday night ran into the thousands.

Most of the time Ruidoso's power service is flawless and residents are quick to overlook such minor interruptions as may occur.

It is a difficult and expensive chore to supply power in an area such as this. But power is vital to businessmen here on Saturday night.

The News hopes the Chamber directors and the Community Public Service Co. are able to work out a plan which will provide power when it is needed.

We hope this solution comes without rancor and without working undue hardship on the power company or on the businessmen.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS

Ruidoso soon will have a modern, hard-surfaced runway for its airport, one of the most scenic to be found. In addition, the Civil Aeronautics Administration has offered to "give" Ruidoso an $8000 night lighting system provided Ruidoso will pay for moving it here from Cuervo.

Men who look to the future are quick to appreciate what a paved runway, night-lighting and other airport facilities will mean to this community. Scheduled airline service, radio and weather stations and airmail service all are possible once the airport is improved.

A NUMBER OF THINGS are told about each other by political opponents in a campaign. But they never quite reached the level of expose attained by The Albuquerque Tribune a few days ago. This paper carried a story on its front page with a head—"Chavez Piles Up Bernalillo County Votes." Inside, where the story continued, the "jump heading" read . . . "More About Chavez Piles."

A FELLER WE KNOW is building a cabin up here. "Don't know just how I'm going to finish it," he said. "But maybe I won't have to. It's already plastered with mortgages."

ONE GOOD THING about telling the truth is that you don't have to remember what to say. Likewise, when a locomotive whistles at a crossing, it's a good time to believe all you hear.

IF YOU ARE AVERAGE, that means you are as close to the bottom as you are to the top.

DAN STORM, who lives down the valley, showed up here Tuesday morning. He was sniffing the mountain air. "You know," he said, "there's just one time of the year when the pines put out a sort of honey-like sap. Usually it comes after the rains. It is the sweet "piney" fragrance that fills the air today."

LAST WEEK WE TOLD about the scientist who gathered cactus by stomping around the dunes in his stocking feet. Herb Gough, the genial fried-chicken and biscuits purveyor, says he, too, is scientific. "I got lots of stickers in my feet as a kid," he said.

If the village cannot finance moving of the lighting system, other ways must be found. Here is an opportunity which must not slide out of reach.

Letter To Editor

Editor The Ruidoso News
Dear Sir:

In reading the Ruidoso News I notice to my sorrow there is no church bulletin. Why can't we have a church bulletin in your paper. In this lovely God given place did the mountains just happen? The lovely scenery? The delightful climate? The lovely flowers? The refreshing waters? Can't we give the one that gives all, just a small space in your column? Am sure your paper has a wide circulation. Do people that read your paper that know nothing about Ruidoso want to come to a place with no church, "would you?"

Mrs. W. M. Scott

The News has carried church announcements in the past as a public service and would have continued to do so if demands for space had not been so acute.

This week The News and Ruidoso ministers worked out a plan to list church names, addresses and hours of service. This will be a regular feature henceforth.

Hospital Continues To Operate Near Full Capacity

The Ruidoso-Hondo Valley hospital continued to operate at capacity this week, Russell M. Jennings, superintendent, reported.

He said he had borrowed a bed from City Hall to take care of an "overflow" patient and that 16 beds were being occupied Tuesday, including four infants.

Born at the hospital Monday were two sons to two Ruidoso couples. First to be born was an eight-pound, 14-oz. son to Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Bonnell at 12:36 a.m. At 9:35 p.m. a son weighing six pounds and three and one-half ounces was born to Mr. and Mrs. Blair Halladay.

The Bonnells named their son Richard Gerald and the Halladay infant was named Gerald Blair.

Also hospitalized for chest injuries and bruises Monday was Donald Reid, 28, a Dallas salesman who was injured when his car skidded on wet pavement near Glencoe and collided with a truck, Mr. Jennings said.

Arriving June 11 for about month's stay in Ruidoso were Mrs. Stanley Poer and Mrs. T. Poer and their children of Monahan, Texas. The children are enrolled at the Texas Art Colony here.

Ancient Ceramatic Arts Utilized In Studio Of Local Instructor

In China many years ago—so the story goes—a pottery maker sacrificed himself in a kiln to create the famed Chinese red color. And the benefits of his discovery are being utilized every day in Ruidoso although a less sacrificial way of producing the color is being used.

The art of this ancient discovery goes into the making of ceramic figures at the home of Mrs. Harry Fairbank, which also serves as a studio for Vaye Fulton, instructor in ceramic techniques.

But to get back to the story, as told by Mrs. Fulton—

"This pottery maker discovered what he believed to be the most beautiful shade of red in the world. The Emperor heard of the discovery and commissioned the potter to make him a number of pitchers in the new shade.

"The potter set about to fill the Emperor's order. But when the door of his kiln opened on the newly-fired pitchers he found the red had turned to green!

"Trying desperately to recapture to secret of the red color, the potter was dismayed to find that the pitchers invariably came out of the kiln a bright green.

"At last the Emperor was approaching, and knowing he would be beheaded for failing, the potter threw himself into the fire. When the Emperor's man entered the shop and opened the kiln, they found the pitchers—sparkling in the red hue which had been ordered.

"From that day, the Chinese always have thrown a split pig into the fire to be certain of obtaining the Chinese Red hue."

The art of glazing has changed little since these early discoveries, Mrs. Fulton said.

A resident of Roswell during most of the year, Mrs. Fulton is spending her third summer here. For two seasons she worked with the Art Colony of the Southwest—closed this year.

An instructor in molded and handmade ceramics and China paintings, Mrs. Fulton has had students from all parts of the U.S. in groups or individually.

She has exhibited her work at Eastern New Mexico State Fair at Roswell two times, winning three ribbons and cash prizes.

Mrs. Fairbank is a student of Mrs. Fulton and has been working only a little over a year. She also has won three prizes at the Eastern New Mexico Fair at Roswell. She works for individual detail and confines her efforts to hand-made types.

Her prize-winning groups and other examples of her work may be seen at her home.

Working deftly and easily as she molded tiny flower blossoms out of the soft clay, Mrs. Fulton told some of the steps in making ceramics—

The white modelling clay is ordered from a Denver firm and is a mixture of Kentucky Ball clay and talc. The talc adds fineness to the texture. Other colors also are available.

Clay suitable for modelling lies in a deposit near Ruidoso but treating it until it reaches the refined state necessary for ceramics requires too much time when ready-refined clay is obtainable, Mrs. Fulton said.

First and most important step in beginning to make a ceramic object is to make certain all air has been removed from the clay. "Wedging" is the process throwing a quantity of clay repeatedly against a board to press out the air. It would explode in the kiln and ruin the figure if it remained in the clay.

After wedging, the clay is modeled into any shape desired. The clay is formed into individual parts for the figure. Each wave or curl in the hair is formed separately and pressed into place.

Once a figure is complete, it is set aside to dry. Sometimes the figures, known as "green ware", remain in this as long as three weeks. During this time they are extremely fragile.

After drying, the figures are placed in the kiln and fired at temperatures (Mrs. Fairbank's kiln) up to 1850 degrees Fahrenheit.

The fired object, now in the "bisque" stage, is decorated in whatever finish is desired—glazes, lustres, paints, enamels, gold and platinum. Each leaves a different effect. Temperatures, grain of glaze and unknown factors all play a part—as indicated by the Chinese potter.

China paint is preferred by Mrs. Fairbank because it always is

Bazaar Group Plans Meeting

Heads of the committees for the Ruidoso Women's Club Bazaar, scheduled for July 28, will meet at the home of Burdett and Campbell next Wednesday at 3 p.m.

The bazaar is planned to help raise money for reconditioning of the old Skyland Club which the club recently acquired from the city.

Next week's club canasta party will be held Monday at Eve Ball's home near Nob Hill. Four tables were filled at Holiday House last week. The public is invited. All players are requested to bring their own cards.

Accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Jim Conway back to Ruidoso from Albuquerque this week was their nephew, Gordon Lofgren, who flew from his home in Kewanee, Ill., to meet them there. Mr. Lofgren will help at the Clubhouse through out the summer.

dependable. In this method, a coat of transparent glaze is applied to the bisque after the first firing. It is fired again and then the paint is applied after which a third firing is completed.

Mold methods of making ceramics are faster and more adaptable to quantity production.

There are seemingly endless patterns and techniques for producing ceramic objects—as a visit to the Fulton studio will show.

FORT STANTON NEWS ITEMS

By Frank E. Smith

Once again we'll try and give some news and views from the Fort after an all too short visit to my friends in Key West, Florida. Would like to thank Dana Kuslanovich for pinch-hitting in my absence.

H. R. Totten of the Buckhorn Bar, Capitan was wedded to Paula Anaya at 9:00 a.m. Sunday, June 18 at Carrizozo. Justice of the Peace Manuel Chavez performed the ceremony at his office. A reception followed the ceremony at Pearl's Coffee Shop in Capitan between 3:00 and 4:00 p.m. the same afternoon.

Mrs. Mabel Holderman told me her husband Bill was working for the U. S. Department of Agriculture at Stoneville, Miss., and that he would continue with his studies in agriculture engineering at Las Cruces next year.

The ground for the new Sacred Heart Church in Capitan was blessed by Father DeBaca in a well attended ceremony on June 16. The congregation are hoping to get started on the building very soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Phillips were visitors of the Bill Browns, coming up from Abilene, Texas.

The Misses Page, Mason and her friend, Miss Gee made a four day conducted tour to Chihuahua, Mexico during the weekend.

The Dangerous Decorum Club held their monthly party and dance on Saturday night at the Casa Bonita. The Cecil Harlans and the Bill Randles joined forces in putting the event over.

L. T. Womack was a visitor over the weekend with his folks. L. T. is working for the U. S. in Eclancla, N. M.

It sure was good to see that Ben Leslie, Sr. won so handily in the recent primary election and hopes are high that he'll win just as easily in the November election. Ruidoso votes sure did the trick.

Mrs. Edward Peyton is in the hospital, nursing a bad leg. Nancy Payman is up and around after her few day bout with an infected media.

Had a card from Mary Nell Taeger promising to drop in and see me on a trip to Carrizozo toward the end of the month. Was glad to learn that Mary Nell was getting along so well in Roswell.

Dr. Whitehead entertained the Capitan Woman's Club with some of his lovely koda-chrome pictures. It was the first meeting at which Mrs. L. H. Merrell, the new president wielded the gavel and a nice crowd was on hand for the show.

Mrs. Ralph Gameroz of Lincoln was put to bed when she came over to the hospital for some medicine for a cough and cold. She is feeling a little better at the time of writing, her daughter, Rafelita came up from Roswell to be with her mother and help out if needed.

Deputy Sheriff Eddie Zamora reported that a 1926 Ford Coupe driven by Floyd Sandoval of Capitan had taken a header in a small canyon about 2 1/2 miles east of Capitan. Minor injuries were taken care of by Dr. John Benson. Another auto driven at a high rate of speed also went off the road while the driver dozed from fatigue around 2:00 a.m. Sunday, the driver escaped with head injuries; name of the driver was not available.

Word came from Mexico City, Mexico that Roy and Sonny Herrera had joined their parents, Ted Gameroz took them with him

Ruidoso Seniors Plan Rummage Sale

Members of Ruidoso High School senior class of 1951 met Monday night at the home of Bill Don Knox.

Plans were made and discussion held concerning a rummage sale to be sponsored soon by the class in an effort to raise money for their next year's senior trip.

Following the business meeting, the group enjoyed an outdoor weiner roast and spent the remainder of the evening dancing at the Knox home.

on his return to his work in that city.

Eddie Penfield came over for a short visit on Sunday morning and told me that he had to report to the Veterans' Hospital for a check-up and possibly more surgery. Sure hope Eddie has the best of luck.

Mrs. Ray Davis of Albuquerque and formerly of Mescalero where she was a nurse in the Indian Service is at present taking treatment here. Mrs. Davis has had to make many trips here due to her lung condition and is known to many of the boys. Ray Davis, her husband was formerly auditor at Mescalero Reservation.

Harry Abernathy and Joseph Hogan of Washington, D. C. were wined and dined during their tour of inspection, Wednesday at the Whiteheads and Thursday at the Kuslanovich home. Dr. Whitehead joined the two in a trip to Carlsbad Caverns Saturday.

Alamogordo Baseball team was too good for the recently organized Fort team and the latter took a drubbing to the tune of about 20 to 2 on Sunday afternoon. The Fort boys are game, came up smiling and are ready to take on all comers.

Albert R. Pearl has come out with some more creations in his Jewels of the Sea series and will be only too pleased to make things to order.

Federico Alvarez has been doing some nice work repairing watches and would appreciate your patronage. I would as well, for the News might get an ad.

Norman K. Remley and Tommy Gould attended the recent jewel and mineral show held at the El Paso Coliseum. Both were glad they were able to go for both of them picked up valuable information about grinding and polishing stones.

Joe W. Andrews is going to join the Fort Stanton Cleaning Shop team as a tailor.

Mrs. Roy E. Whitehead is the latest member of the Capitan Woman's Club.

The folks in this County are asked to get behind the recently organized Lincoln County Tuberculosis Association, it can stand quite a lot of help until it gets on it's feet.

A report on the doings of the Fort Stanton "lab" will be prepared shortly and will be found in the next issue of the NEWS.

'Old Lincoln'

"Billy the Kid" although he was known to his friends along the Ruidoso River and in Lincoln simply as "Kid." He has become the leading legend of the West, despite bitter and widespread attempts to discredit him. Interest grows year by year in the young gunman, as new facts of his life are uncovered and as the legend grows among the American people.

Last year the part of Billy was played by John Davis of Hondo. The play was received with enthusiasm, and already inquiries are coming in from all surrounding communities.

Other Lincoln County folks who played in the pageant which was held the night of August 14, and their parts were:

Pat Garrett, played by Ralph Bonnell, Glencoe; Mrs. McSween, Lois Ferguson, Capitan; Charlie Bowdre and Bell (two parts) Leroy McKnight, Capitan and Glencoe; Mr. McSween, Wallace Ferguson, Capitan; Governor Wallace, Ken Nosker, Ruidoso; Bob Ollinger, Billy Babers, San Patricio; Mrs. Mills, Virginia Guest, Tinnie; Buckshot Roberts, Dan Storm, Glencoe; Spanish Rider, Barney Aldaz, Lincoln; Mrs. Ealy, Mrs. E. Caroline Davis and Ruby R. Douglas both of Hondo, were writers and directors. Assistant directors were Ralph Bonnell, Glencoe; Kenneth Nosker, Ruidoso; Mary Nell Taeger, Roswell; and Dr. Raymond Mitchell of Fort Stanton.

At a recent meeting of the Lincoln County Historical Society, John Davis was asked to play the part of Billy the Kid again this year. Mr. Davis accepted and expressed the hope that all the actors in the play would play the same parts they did last year. His wife, Caroline, is making some improvements in the script. The date is set for Sunday night, August 6.

Tea Here Honors Mrs. Robert Pior

Mrs. Robert M. Pior, Green Tree, was feted Saturday afternoon from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. at a tea in the Home Economics Cottage in Ruidoso.

Hostesses were Mrs. M. D. Pior, Green Tree; Mrs. Gerald Tully and Mrs. Jim Tully, both of Glencoe; and Mrs. D. E. Snyder, Ruidoso.

Summer flowers were used in brightening the Cottage and blue rambler roses formed an attractive center arrangement on the tea table.

Served with punch were tea sandwiches and dainty cookies, along with mints and nuts.

Attending were many guests from Ruidoso and the Valley.

The tea was a welcoming gesture to Mrs. Pior, formerly of Waco and recent bride of Robert M. Pior, Green Tree.

Project Symbolic To REA Official Born Near Here

Completion of the latest section in an 80-mile Rural Electrification Administration project in this vicinity last week held special interest for Walker Wingfield, Cloudercroft, Lincoln-Otero County Co-Operative superintendent.

As this step was finished, Mr. Wingfield saw electric power reach his native home Bonita City, a frontier town which has disappeared almost without a trace.

Mr. Wingfield was born in this "town" where today only mossy, clovered banks exist along the "Beautiful River." Still echoing in memory for him are the days when it was the center of a colorful, exciting frontier life—life which today is contrasted with the quiet of the shadows of the fir, spruce, maple and quaking aspen where the city used to be.

A "mainspring" in pushing development of the Otero-Lincoln Co-op since it was started in 1939, Mr. Wingfield has supervised its work and helped make it one of the best REA units in the nation.

July 10 to 14. All children in the community, from four through sixteen are urged to attend.

The Corona Federation of Woman's Club met June 8 for their regular meeting. Mrs. Fred Knapp of Carrizozo Woman's Club presented the program, a report on Music. Corona women appreciated the exchange of programs. The hostesses for the evening serving covered dish supper were Mrs. Carl Ryberg, Mrs. Henry Hillmeyer, Mrs. George Davis and Mrs. W. B. Winniford. Lovely roses were used for decorations.

J. H. Fulmer, Ruidoso Telephone Co. president, outlined plans for improved telephone service in this area. He said more than 400 phones now are in service in Ruidoso, Fort Stanton and Capitan. His firm has applied for a government loan with which to install a dial system, new long-distance facilities and provide "the most modern telephone system science can produce," he said.

and that he hopes Fort Bliss will make the camp a year-around facility.

Mr. Bonaguidi retraced Chamber work since the present set of officers took office. He explained plans for new folders, letterheads and listings of local business firms.

Letters Read

Letters from persons in many parts of the United States were read to provide listeners with an example of the type of inquiry received by the Chamber. Hundreds of these letters are answered by the Chamber each year, he said.

He outlined recommendations for future Chamber activity and suggested a "Heldorado Weekend" for the first four days of July to attract more tourists to the village.

He said a parade would be scheduled, carnival attractions featured and that everyone here "should wear Western dress for atmosphere."

Plans for this event are going forward, he said. Response at the meeting was not unanimous in support of the plan.

Those present indicated by loud applause their support of a suggestion by Mr. Bonaguidi that a full-time Chamber of Commerce secretary-manager be hired to handle affairs boosting the resort.

"The time has come to concentrate on bringing more people into the canyon—to the benefit of
