STALLION STAKES SLATED AS SATURDAY FEATURE AT RUIDOSO DOWNS

(By Virgil Bond)

The Sixth Annual running of the Stallion Stakes at 330 yards will highlight Saturday's racing card at Ruidoso Downs. Eight have been named to parade to the post for this second in a series of quarter horse stakes for 1953. Inaugurated in 1948, the Stallion Stakes for 1953 will carry a purse of over $1200 by post time Saturday. The Rainbow Ranch entry of Florida Ariel and Hootch seems destined to draw the favorite's role after the sparkling performance turned in by this fine stallion, Florida Ariel, last week when he established a new track record of :46.1 seconds for 870 yards.

Moon Deck and Brazos Bob both loom as strong contenders, while No Savvy's performance in his last outing left little to be desired, since he equaled the track record at 400 yards.

A well-balanced card of seven thoroughbred and five quarter horse races is offered for Saturday. Last week track records continued to fall while mutuel handle soared. Saturday's handle of almost $98,000 was eclipsed on Sunday when a total of nearly $132,000 was wagered on the twelve race card.

Thoroughbred Consolation Is Sunday

Sunday's feature card at Ruidoso Downs will offer the Thoroughbred Futurity Consolation Purse at four furlongs for colts and fillies which were nominated for the Central Bar and Grill Thoroughbred Futurity for 1953. While the co-feature is for thoroughbreds at six furlongs and will offer a top field of allowance three year olds with War Tuck favored by a wide margin. Four quarter horse and eight thoroughbred races have been carded for Sunday with the daily double on the first and second races. Post time has again been set at 1:15 p. m.

Stardeck F broke from the start Saturday and led all the way to win the Lincoln County Stakes handily at Ruidoso Downs. Stardeck F's share of the purse was $818.19. WIT & WISDOM
—By Vix—

Of this and that . . . Pastor Frank Matthews has hooked up a P. A. system at the Community Methodist Church and the lovely strains of organ music and chimes are wafted among the pines in the Palmer Gateway area each evening now . . . We are invited into the back room "laboratory" of Perle Davison's Fox Mercantile Wednesday where he pressed upon us a sample of his home-made chili—at least that's what he called it . . . He didn't name all the ingredients for us, but we recognized these things in (hic) it: Spaghetti, meat, tomatoes, beans, part of a dishrag (hic), some wine, and what he called a horse chestnut (but what looked like an old-fashioned pearl button) . . . The stuff had a kind of delayed action—72 hours afterwards it is still burning (and still—hic—tastes good!

The things these Chamber of Commerce managers do in their work these days! The following clipping came from a Truth or Consequences paper last week:

Exxploration Trip Yields Rattler But No Cavern

Mr. and Mrs. Phil West and children spent Sunday exploring the countryside in the vicinity of Cloride. West, local chamber manager, was tracking down a cave which he wanted to investigate for Indian writings, in order to inform visitors to the city of its location. He failed to locate the cave, however, he added another string of rattlers to his belt on his trek up a hillside. Coiled at the base of a yucca the rattler gave its warning buzz and was dispatched in haste with a .22 with which West had armed himself.

The Wests spent some time with Mrs. Alez Ramsey, Chloride's postmistress, viewing some of her authentic antiques which she plans on displaying in her proposed museum in the near future.

ANTIQUE COLLECTING PROGRAM FOR ROTARY

Milam C. Clarke gave an interesting talk to the Rotarians in their regular weekly meeting last Tuesday noon at the Navajo Lodge. Clark discussed antiques and antique collecting.

In the drive for funds to help build the proposed nurses' home here, the Rotary has collected $95.12 and one slug, reported to be a Texas slug.

Visitors at the meeting were: E. M. Boyd, M. D. of Hearne, Tex.; Wayne H. Shaw, Hearne; Harry Felt, Pauls Valley, Tex.; Art Gilliland, Roswell; Blake Allison, Tex.; Sam Scholars, Bay City, Tex.; Jack Abrams, Hearne; W. F. Sander, Hearne; C. A. Elland, Lamesa, Tex.; George Kesler, Odessa, Tex.; Earl Vandervort, Sweetwater, Tex., and R. L. Boon, Pecos, Tex.

Escape of Billy the Kid To Be Portrayed in Locale Of Infamous Lincoln War

(By DAN STORM)

The colorful days of pioneer Lincoln county will return again for a day or two and old-timers of this area will be honored at the annual Day in Old Lincoln to be held Sunday, August 9.

The historical pageant, "The Last Escape of Billy the Kid," starring Johnnie Thomas, of San Patricio, as the famous Kid, will be held two nights this year, Saturday, Aug. 8, and Sunday, Aug. 9, at 8:00 o'clock.

Ralph Bonnell Is Director

New touches of authenticity have been added to the play this year, largely through the work of Ralph Bonnell, director of the pageant. Ralph is the grandson of the late Frank Coe, prominent pioneer figure of early-day Lincoln county. He has grown up with the lore and history of this area and had a natural gift for drama and direction of plays. Through his suggestion and help, new scenes have been added and additional color and life has been put into the old scenes. Among the new scenes added are "The Killing of Tunstall" and "Bringing in the Kid."

Johnnie Thomas as Billy

Playing the Kid for the second time in his career is Johnnie Thomas of San Patricio. Johnnie is almost a second Billy the Kid in appearance. He has the same small but powerful and active physical equipment; the same happy-go-lucky manner; the same winning smile and twinkling blue eyes. Johnnie is an apple grower and cowboy by profession. He has won first prizes in many world champion rodeos, and is a real rider of the rough country as well as a rodeo star. Johnnie is well known and greatly admired from one end of Lincoln county to the other.

McKnight Great Entertainer

Among the many outstanding actors of the pageant is Le Roy McKnight. Le Roy, one of the most gifted actors to be seen anywhere, has the rare ability to play dramatic scenes and funny parts with equal ease and artistry. His outstanding part is that of Old Man Goss, who helps the Kid make good his escape. This is one of the highlights of the show. Le Roy also plays the part of Tunstall and several others. His brother, Wilbur, takes the part of McSween and does a splendid piece of work. The McKnight brothers are great favorites among their Lincoln county neighbors, far and wide.

McGuire As Chisum

The story in the pageant is built around the pattern of John Chisum, the famous pioneer cattleman, in his later years telling about the old days to the little girl, Anita, played by Aneece Yarborough. Playing the voice of Chisum is Ralph McGuire, teacher and coach at Ruidoso High School. Ralph, a man of many outstanding talents, adds much to the show.

The number of those who have a part in making the show and the day in Old Lincoln a success would run into the hundreds. Among these, the following could be mentioned:

Red Ramey of Lincoln, who took care of a thousand and one arrangements ranging from making the evening coffee to having concrete seats made for the pageant.

Edward Penfield, who supervised re-writing of the script and wrote several scenes himself.

Dan Kustanovich, who helped out in directing, props, and many other details.

Bill Schreengost portrays the voice of Billy the Kid and his wife, Betty, takes the voice of Mrs. McSween who is played by Mrs. LeRoy McKnight.

Frank Coe Boyce does the narrating for the story. The narration carries forward the thread of the story which is enacted by the players.

Mr. Bruce is outstanding as the voice of Old Man Goss and also as Dr. Blazer.

Angelita Gonzales of Glencoe, stars as the singer of Spanish songs.

Ollinger and Bell

The two guards who figure so prominently in the escape of Billy the Kid are both colorful characters of the show.

Bell, whom the Kid talks into a card game as part of his escape plan, is played by Edgar Phillips of Lincoln.

Ollinger, whose new-fangled double-barrelled shot-gun plays such a part in the escape of the Kid, is played by Shelton Taylor of San Patricio. Shelton also plays the part of Charlie Bowdre, one of the Kid's right-hand men.

The Horrell Brothers are played by Barny Aldaz, Si Salas, Shelton Taylor, and Dana Kusianovich. Salas plays also the part of Sheriff Brady; and takes part in the Posse which goes after Tunstall.

Tom Babers, veteran actor of the pageant, stars as Colonel Dudley and also as Frank Coe.

Kenneth Nosker is Governor Wallace who comes all the way from Santa Fe to reason with the Kid. This is an outstanding scene of the show.

Roman Nunez of Picacho is an actor of several parts in the show and is prominent in the colorful Hondo Spanish Quadrille dancers.

Chris Fresquez plays the part of Dick Brewer who leads the posse which was formed after the killing of Tunstall.

Hindman and Peppin who have precede all their own after the killing of Sheriff Brady are both descendants of actual principals of the early pioneer days, and are both natural-born actors.

Coe in Charge of Music

Wilbur F. Coe, son of the late Frank Coe, and himself actually a pioneer of Lincoln county, is in charge of musical background for the show. He is assisted by other well known musicians including Ray Reed of Ruidoso.

Wilbur's sister, Mrs. Sidney Bonnell plays the music for the McSween scene.

85 Are Here For Annual Simms Reunion

Eighty-five persons were here early this week to attend the 20th annual Simms' family reunion, held the first week-end in August each year in Ruidoso.

This year, one of the more famous of the Simms family, the radio, record and screen star Ginny Simms, was unable to be present, being committed to a singing tour of Army hospitals and camps.

In the group are seven brothers and one sister and their children and spouses and in-laws.

The reunion this year was held near the bridge on the Rio Ruidoso on Mechem Drive. Gary Simms of Panhandle, Tex., donned apron and cap as cook for the bunch, with D. D. Simms, one of the seven brothers, contributing his annual chili feast for one meal. Others of the brothers and the sister, are: Frank and George Simms of Panhandle, Tex.; Mrs. E. B. Anderson, Goldthwaite, Tex.; Ready Simms, Pickton, Tex.; Jesse Simms, Ariz., who brought his annual pot of honey for the meals; Mit Simms of Arizona; D. D. Simms of North Ridge, Calif., and M. O. Simms, treasurer of the reunion, of Laguna Beach, Calif.

The family has attended a reunion in Ruidoso every year of the 20 except three, when they met at Red River, once in Colorado and once at Glorietta.

They'll be back again next year, they declared this week.

The tour is expected to be completed in time to permit visitors to go on to Ruidoso, just a few miles away for the afternoon program of horse racing.

Water Restrictions Lifted By City

Mayor Raymond Buckner this week said that the critical water situation here had eased enough to allow rescinding the proclamation issued last month restricting the use of water in the village. Irrigating lawns, washing cars and other such non-essential uses had been prohibited in the proclamation during the dry period of late June and July—and he says these prohibitions are now lifted, but warned residents to be sparing with what water they did use for the balance of the summer.

"We must try to keep as much water as possible in our storage tanks for any emergency," he intimated.

Highway 70, was returned to the Ruidoso hospital from El Paso where she had been for nine days. The accident occurred near Wheeler's Museum and resulted when her husband applied his brakes to avoid hitting a car stopping suddenly in front of him, and a third car struck the Pior automobile.

GOOD WELL REPORTED AT CARTER PARK

A good well of water was completed last week on the E. H. Carter property, known as Carter's Park. The drillers, the Wilson brothers of Hollywood and Green Tree, hit a good stream at 65 feet it was reported.

IMPROVEMENTS PLANNED FOR WATER SYSTEM AT GREEN TREE

The Village of Green Tree has taken the first step towards an improved water system there with the purchase of 6,000 feet of new 6 and 4 inch pipe for replacing mains which carry water from the Palo Verde springs to the village, announced Mayor Alton Gray this week.

In the near future, a mass meeting of residents of Green Tree will be held to discuss the improvements, he said. Two standard fire hydrants are to be installed when the new mains are laid, Gray said.

Money for purchasing the pipe came from tax funds which had accumulated for payment on an old bond issue—the bonds having never been sold, however.

Gray said a nominal service charge for use of the water will be charged when the new mains are put in effect.

"We have a wonderful supply of water in the springs, enough to serve all the needs, we believe. The old pipe of the old Palo Verde system is too far gone to be salvaged or repaired, and must be replaced," he said.

Further expansion of the Green Tree water system will be developed after the new mains are put down, Gray said, but discussion of the future plans will be put before the mass meeting to be held shortly. He said every means would be used to get a large crowd out for the public gathering.

FLOWER SHOW IS NEXT WEEK

The Tres Valles Garden Club is presenting its second annual flower show, "La Fiesta de las Flores," Friday of next week, Aug. 14, from 2:20 through 6 p.m. in the new elementary school building in Ruidoso.

Mrs. Wilbur W. Coe, chairman of the fiesta, announces all plans are now complete for the event. Schedules have been mailed to interested clubs and flower growers. Non-club members are invited to enter one arrangement, which will be judged.

The Tres Valles Graden Club is a member of the New Mexico Federated Garden Clubs. It presented one of the most successful flower shows ever to be given in this part of New Mexico in Ruidoso in the summer of 1952 in the Navajo Lodge, and the 1953 event promises to be even greater. Music will be provided and tea served as part of the entertainment.

Traffic Count Shows 17,768 Vehicles at Airport

The automatic traffic counters clocking the toll of vehicles using roads in this area in recent weeks showed a total of 17,768 automobiles, trucks and pick-ups went as far as the Ruidoso airport out Mechem drive during the month of July. Rep. L. S. (Heavy) Drake is keeping care of the counters for the State Highway Department. Another counter, at Alto, revealed 7,486 vehicles went that far out on State Highway 37.

"This count for the airport does not include the many hundreds of other vehicles which drove out Mechem drive to the drive-in theatre and to the Cedar Creek picnic areas," Drake said.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean of Jacksonville, Fla., last week began operating the popular Club House Cafe here, succeeding Mr. and Mrs. Norman Allen who were forced to retire for awhile to allow Mr. Allen to recuperate from his recent illness. The Deans operated a large drive-in restaurant in the Florida coast town and plan to operate the local cafe year 'round, seven days a week. IT NEVER FAILS

Here's What to Do If You're Ever Lost In The Woods

Last year some 33 million people visited the national forests and an even larger number are expected this year, according to the Forest Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Many families vacation in the forests and many go into the "deep woods" for camping, hiking, horseback-riding or fishing, for example.

Because more and more city or urban people, inexperienced in finding their way in the woods, make up the annual total of visitors, the Forest Service offers some advance advice on what to do when lost in the woods. Each year forest rangers have to rescue vacationists—men, women or children—who have strayed a little too far in the woods and don't know how to get themselves out.

First and most important rule: Stop, sit down and try to figure out where you are and the direction you came from. The moment you think you are lost, start using your head instead of your legs. Panic is more serious than lack of food, water, clothing or hazards from wild animals. At night or in foggy or stormy weather, find shelter quickly under a ledge or large boulder. Then build a fire where it won't spread and keep calm. Gather a supply of dry wood in case you have to wait and keep warm until you can travel.

When trying to get out of the woods, always go down hill. If possible, follow a stream, fence or wall which will lead you to a river or lake, a house or a road. Walk. Don't exhaust yourself by running.

If you can't go on and must attract attention, make a signal smoke by throwing green branches and wet wood on a fire. A lookout man on a tower will spot the smoke and send help. But take care of that fire so that it doesn't spread. One man lost in a western forest had to flee from his own fire to save his life.

The lots owned by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Brown in Palmer Galoway addition, across the street from Bonnell Grocery, have been leveled. Construction of a new business building and residence combined may be started some time next year, it was said.

THREE MUSEUMS IN LINCOLN — Grouped here are photos of three museums in Old Lincoln, site of the annual "A Day In Old Lincoln" program for Saturday and Sunday this week. The deep photo is of the entrance to the old Lincoln Saloon, operated by Roman Maes and now known as La Paloma Bar, which has a room of ancient articles on display. The two-storied Old Lincoln Courthouse is another of the museums of interest, as well as the old Penfield Store, interior of which is pictured here.

Old Courthouse, Other Museums Open at Lincoln

In the shadow of the Old Lincoln County Courthouse, townspeople of Lincoln, N. M., and their neighbors, will play their annual pageant on August 8th and 9th. Scenes from the turbulent days of the Lincoln County War, climaxed by a re-enactment of the dramatic "Last Escape of Billy the Kid" from the Old Courthouse, will be played by many of the descendants of frontier settlers.

Focal point of the day's activities is the Old Courthouse, now a State Monument, administered by the Old Lincoln County Memorial Commission. The Museum will be open to the public from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. on the day of the pageant. John Boylan, curator of the monument, invites visitors to A Day in Old Lincoln to go through the old Tunstall store, which the Commission has opened as a Museum for the summer months. This old store of frontier days was the hangout of Billy the Kid and his gang while they were fighting with the Tunstall forces in the Lincoln County War. It has been maintained in good condition by the Penfield family of Lincoln for the past fifty years, and still contains the original fixtures and some of the old stock.

Free guided tours through the Old Torreon have also been arranged by the Commission. The old stone fort was used by early Spanish settlers to defend themselves against attacks by marauding Indians and desperadoes.

Daytime activities on the 9th of August will include square dancing, a fiddler's contest, group singing, and special entertainment for Old Timers.

Besides the ancient courthouse and the Penfield Store, another museum that attracts wide interest is the old Lincoln Saloon, now known as La Paloma Bar. It is at least 85 years old, and has the original bar and flooring. Roman Maes now operates the La Paloma bar, and has had possession of it since 1933. He and members of his family have a part in the cast of the famed pageant this weekend.

Some of the old gambling tables, pioneer newspapers, old coins, surreys, tobacco cutters, Indian artifacts, beads and other items are on display in one room of the bar. Considerable of Maes wood carving is on display, too. He picks odd shaped tree trunks or branches and shapes them into wierd human figures.

Maes is the grandson of Philipe Maes, once stationed at old Ft. Stanton, nearby and of Mrs. Lucio Montoya, whose husband was on Murphy's "side" in the Lincoln County War.

MIDNIGHT SHOW

"The 49th Man," Columbia Pictures' action-packed story of how United States security agents smash a plot to A-bomb the country, shows as the Saturday midnight feature at 11:30 p. m. this week at the Pueblo here. It stars John Ireland and Richard Denning and features lovely Suzanne Delbert.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Owens and children, Johnny and Judy, are visiting in Ruidoso.

LINCOLN WHEAT GROWERS TO VOTE ON REFERENDUM

Wheat growers of Lincoln County, along with those throughout the country, will vote August 14 on a referendum on marketing for the 1954 crop.

A national acreage allotment of 62 million acres has been announced by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson. This acreage was fixed for 1954 by an amendment to the law signed by the President on July 14. The 1954 acreage compares with 78.6 million acres for the 1953 crop, or a reduction of 21 per cent.

The total wheat supply for 1953-54 has been indicated as 1,760 million bushels—52 per cent above the normal supply of 1,155 million bushels.

Growers in Lincoln county with 15 or more acres planted to wheat, and with a normal production of 200 bushels or more, would be subject to the quotas. These growers are eligible to vote on August 14 in referendum on whether to accept [illegible] in the if two-thirds of the vote cast are in favor of the marketing quotas, they will be put into effect. Growers will be notified of their allotments before the date of election.

The 4th RCT, stationed at Elelson Air Force Base near Fairbanks, is receiving intensive field training while providing security for the northern approaches to Canada and the U. S.

Montoya, who entered the Army in January, 1953, was last stationed at Fort Bliss, Tex.

Mrs. Vic Lamb and daughter, Wendy, recently went to Fort Worth, Texas, where they accompanied Mrs. Lamb's sister, Miss Mary Hurst, back to Ruidoso.

Socorro Newspaper Reprints 1881 News Story Telling Of Billy the Kid Capture

(Editor's Note: The El Defensor of Socorro recently reprinted a news story first published Jan. 1, 1881, which tells of the capture of Billy the Kid along with some other "outlaws" of those days. Below is the story from the Socorro paper and its introduction.)

—o—

Through the kindness of Mrs. Sibyl L. Townsend, of Bainbridge Island, Washington, the Chamber of Commerce office has a copy of the "Socorro Sun," dated January 1, 1881. One of the many interesting articles appearing therein are quoted:

"Las Vegas, New Mexico, December 28—This afternoon four of the worst outlaws in the territory were brought into Las Vegas by Pat Garrett, Frank Stuart and several of their posse, having been captured near Fort Sumner, on Friday evennig last. On Saturday night the posse of sixteen men surrounded Tivon Carroyo ranch, where 'Billy the Kid,' Dave Rudabaugh, Billy Wilsno, Picket and Charles Bowder were, and lay in the snow waiting for their game till morning at daylight the desperadoes were ordered to surrender, but fire commenced. Bowder was killed, but the rest were taken unhurt, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The desperadoes were at once started for Las Vegas by a coach and four, under a guard of five men, and arrived in town this afternoon. Considerable feeling is manifested against the outlaws, who have been the terror of Lincoln county for many months past. A lynching is likely to occur at any time. Governor Lew Wallace offered a reward of $500 for 'Billy the Kid,' and it is understood that nearly $2,000 has been offered for him in Texas. The rest of the band of outlaws are still at large and will be hunted down.

PVT. BENFORD TORTILLA IS IN KOREA

With the 3d Infanty Div. in Korea—Pvt. Benford Tortilla, son of Teresita Tortilla, Mescalero, N. Mex., recently arrived in Korea for duty with the 3d Infantry Division.

Tortilla, who entered the Army in September 1952, completed basic training at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Letter To The Editor

Jayton, Texas

Ruidoso News
Ruidoso, New Mexico.
Dear Sir

After touring your wonderful state, and spending several weeks at Ruidoso, I felt moved to write the enclosed poem.

Since it concerns your beautiful state, I thought you might see fit to publish it in your paper.

Thanking you.

Very truly yours,
Mary M. Whatley
Box 764
Jayton, Texas.

—o—

The Hills of New Mexico

You see them in the distance
As you pass across the line,
State blue and all majestic

Great as heaven, old as time
Yet ever changing as the terrain
Winds down to vales below,
Standing there in all their grandeur
At the hills of New Mexico.

Once they were the habitation
Of wild beasts of every kind,
Giving way to civilization
Gone are cougar, bear and lion.

Once the Indians had possession
Of the land from which they

The stately spires of inspiration
Of every shape and form and size

Tis not mine to be disloyal
To my native Texas land
For it has beauties undiminished
From her northern border to the Rio Grande

But when searching for true splendor

To uplift the mind and soul,
Recommended are the statues
Around the hills of New Mexico.

As ever proud of Texas
From the Panhandle to the Alamo,
But for awe inspiring beauty
Give me the hills of New Mexico.

Mary M. Whatley
Jayton, Texas.

July 29, 1953
811 Arizona No. 2
El Paso, Texas

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Lamb:

I would like to express my appreciation publicly to the girls of Beta Sigma Phi for their kind thoughtfulness in sending a check to cover payment of the salary for my maid, in the month of August. I have been confined to my bed for six months, the girls in Beta Sigma Phi thought since they are too far away to run in and do little things for me, as I am in El Paso, they wanted to make it possible for someone else to do those things. Isn't that sweet?

I am able to be up and around some now and I never knew life was so wonderful before.

Sincerely,
Isabell Trayler
(Mrs. Aubrey Trayler)

P. S. Thanks to everyone for all the lovely cards and wishes.

Whirl of Sports

By Jim Lamb

It may be a little early to be talking about the coming hunting season, but already hunters are preparing their regalia for the annual fall trips.

In this month's issue of the American Rifleman a long article on hunter safety appears.

It stresses the importance of hunting safely and living longer as a result. It cites the New York method of hunting safety teachings, which we think is a very good idea. In New York no license may be granted to a hunter who has not previously hunted before, until he undergoes a hunting safety program

The programs are short, usually about four hours; but in those short periods much can be learned about proper methods of hunting safely. As a result of the law, the annual casualty rate during hunting season has dropped considerably in the last few years.

California recently passed a similar law

The hunter training courses are usually under the supervision of the National Rifle Association. After the course is completed a certificate is granted to those taking the course, and he may then procure a license.

• • •

A friend of ours was bragging the other day about his new automatic washer He talked for several minutes on all the things it would do and automatic too. But with a sheepish grin he added, "You still have to move your foot and press the button."

• • •

As Al Says . . .

You're starting to get old when you stop degrading "those horrid grey strands" and start admiring "that distinguished grey look."

You're slipping when you pay more attention to your food than you do the waitress.

• • •

Dizzy Dean and Al Simmons were recently elected to baseball's hall of fame at Cooperstown, New York. For us it was a happy moment when we read of Dean's election to the hall.

We've always been one of Dean's most avid followers, and we eagerly followed his career since he was forced out of baseball due to an injury sustained in the all star game.

After leaving the playing field he turned to announcing, for the radio, the American pastime. Dean was one of the most, if not the most colorful players to ever enter the major leagues, and when he turned to radio his colorful talk and slang gained him much popularity.

We've noticed that he's getting more refined lately. The old Dean humor is still there, but some of his grammatical errors are missing.

• • •

We imagine that it was Dean who made us such an avid St. Louis Cardinal fan. It was while playing with that midwest city team that he gained fame. He set a strikeout record for a single game that wasn't bettered for several years, until a player by the name of Bob Feller showed up. He was the last major leaguer to win thirty games in one season.

Yes, ole' Diz was quite a player, and it's fitting that he should be honored by being placed in the hall of fame.

• • •

Dean and Simmons were the 63rd and 64th players to reach the hall of fame.

• • •

With 3-D becoming so popular we wondered how long it would be until it reached the funnies. We didn't have to wait long. Now a famous comic strip has a character by the name of 3-D Mageo. There are several magazines now being published that give the three dimension effect, when viewed through special glasses.

• • •

Overheard at the Grand Canyon, "Wouldn't this be beautiful in three dimension?"

• • •

Reading a west Texas weekly the other day we noticed an item that requested certain speedsters refrain from using the cemetery as a racetrack. Maybe the fellows using it wanted to be handy in case they had a wreck. Guess they used headstones for mileage markers.

• • •

Woman with smoking gun in hand to prostrate form behind complaint department counter, "See like I said, the safety doesn't work."

• • •

New Mexico Western College at Silver City has announced the football schedule for the coming season. Conference games are indicated with a star.

And You'll Live Longer

Food For Thought

"Thankful," grumbled the sourpuss to the sunshine spreader. "What have I got to be thankful for? Why, I can't even pay my bills."

"In that case," prompted the other, "be thankful that you aren't one of your creditors."

Same Combination

A drunk wandered in at 3 a.m. after a glorious evening. A few minutes later, a series of unearthly squawks bowled out of the radio. His wife looked into the room and found him frantically twisting the dial back and forth. "For heaven's sake, what in the world are you doing?" she asked.

"G'way, G'way. Don't bother me," he yelled. "Somebody's locked in the safe and I've forgotten the combination."

Indirect Tax

During a class discussion on taxes, the teacher asked Bobby to give her an example of an indirect tax.

"The dog tax," he replied.

"Why is that an indirect tax?" queried the teacher.

"Because," answered Bobby, "the dog doesn't pay it."

Most Appropriate

When the pastor of a small church finished his sermon, he gave a few minutes to one of the brothers to say a few words on his pet subject, prohibition.

"Brethren," said the prohibitionist, "if I had all the whiskey, brandy, and champagne in the world, I would fling it all in the River Clyde."

He sat down, and in the pause that followed, the parson, himself an enemy of prohibition, arose.

"We shall conclude," he said, "by singing Hymn 157: 'Shall We Gather At The River'?"

WARNING!

Locating TV antennas too close to power lines is DANGEROUS!

Someone may be killed or seriously injured or your set may be damaged if your antenna should fall into a power line. Follow these precautions and play safe:

1. Have your antenna installed by a qualified TV serviceman and see that it is located where it will clear power lines if it should fall in any direction.
2. Make sure the antenna mast is strongly constructed and supported to withstand the heaviest storms.
3. Do not run guy wires over or close to power lines.
4. If your antenna is already up, have it checked for safe location and support. And if you are asked to move it, remember the request is made only to protect you, your set and your electric service.

A final word of caution: If you are in the vicinity when an antenna does fall on a power line, don't touch the antenna, power lines or guy wires. Leave a guard at the hazard and call our office at once.

NINE LOCAL MEN FLY TO MEXICO

Nine local men flew to Angostura, Mexico, last Monday and returned Tuesday. The group, which included George Trimble, Ralph Brown, Dutch Collins, Bill Marler, R. H. Hedgecoke, Reynolds Jones, Til Thompson, Lowell Morgan and R. T. McDaniel, went to Mexico for a scouting expedition and some fishing.

The group flew in four planes, three of which were Brown's. Piloting the ships were Brown, Hedgecoke, and Thompson. Lowell Morgan flew his own plane.

At press time the only report the News could get, was that the group went and came home. Members of the crew remained silent on the fishing or any other activities.

Hearing about the trip that nine of our local (for lack of better nomenclature we shall hereafter refer to them as fishermen) fishermen took last week to Mexico, we decided to get the story. After much silence on the part of some attending, we became aroused just what did the local "fishermen" fish for.

So far the only story that has been made available was the one that Dutch Collins parted with.

He told us that George Trimble, in all of his fishing apparatus, only included two lures. After the first two casts George was lureless. He signaled to Collins to bring him another, but since the distance was so great, Collins declined. Collins said he noticed the lake rising and made a hurried retreat for the shore. When he approached Trimble's boat he discovered that the tears rolling down Trimble's face were the cause of the increase in the lake.

He, Collins, to ease Trimble's hard luck "sold" a lure to Trimble, and Trimble was able to continue his fishing.

Progressive Business and Civic-Minded People of Roswell and Vicinity

This department has been worked up largely as a reflection of public opinion. No person has written of themselves or their business. All articles have been compiled by a representative of The Ruidoso News as he saw conditions. These people are all leaders in their various lines of endeavor and the co-operation of those citizens in Roswell who helped make this department possible is sincerely appreciated.

WALTER HARRISON AND H. L. BOBST

The progress of any community hinges to a great extent upon the activities of the more progressive men in the world of business. This is as true in this locality as in any other sector and local leaders are to be congratulated for their part in the general advancement of this section of the state. And two of the more progressive lumber men of Roswell who should thus be congratulated are Walter Harrison and H. L. Bobst of The Kemp Lumber Company, who are widely known and universally liked.

Few men have such a thorough knowledge of every phase of the lumber game. And to say that Mr. Harrison and Mr. Bobst know the business from A to Z, is in no way an overstatement. The honesty which has always characterized their every transaction has gained for them the respect and confidence of the many men and firms with which they do business.

The successful career of H. L. Bobst and Walter Harrison illustrates the merits of integrity, ability grounded in experience and coupled with added assets of pleasing and sincere personalities. We wish them both many more years of continued sucess.

W. L. TROUTT

It is no coincidence that more frequently than not the people who take a progressive part in the civic and business life of their city are the same ones who are pre-eminently successful in conducting their own private affairs. Such a man is W. L. Troutt of the W. L. Troutt & Company, and to whom we take this occasion to pay a deserving tribute.

Mr. Troutt has proved that he is a business man of more than average ability, for it is largely due to his aggressive methods, coupled with his sound and practical ideas, that The W. L. Troutt & Company, holds its position in the public's opinion in this area.

It is also true that W. L. Troutt does his share toward community improvement and has given freely of his time and energy to the promotion of those enterprises which have benefited the city at large. We are glad to voice our praise of a man who is successful in his own business and who also has time to give to community development.

MRS. C. E. BLONT AND WILLIAM COLLIGAN

Good motels and tourist courts are indispensable to the progress and development of a growing city such as Roswell. And The La Cima Court, combining the best features of both, has accomodated a great many tourists and business men in a manner that assures them of the continued patronage and good will of the motoring public.

The management of The La Cima Court has maintained an ideal of service which is thoroughly exemplified by the manner in which every need of the traveling motorist has been anticipated and prepared for. Nothing is forgotten, and hospitality and service is always their first and last consideration.

Much of the credit for the splendid reputation of this modern drive-in court is due to the executive ability of Mrs. C. E. Blont and William Colligan, whose untiring efforts, foresightedness and careful attention to detail, have maintained a standard of hospitality and service which would be difficult to surpass. It is a pleasure to say these few words of praise about The La Cima Court and his friendly operators, Mrs. Blont and Mr. Colligan.

A. S., E. K., W. A., J. B. PATTERSON & PETER T. MOCHO

Every progressive and successful business man in Roswell contributes in some manner to the growth and progress of the city. And five men who are always willing to do their bit in both civic and business activities are A. S., E. K., W. A. and J. B. Patterson and Peter T. Mocho of The Patterson Bros. Feed Mill, who are all well known and have many friends and associates throughout this entire district.

The prominent part that The Patterson Bros. Feed Mill is playing in the business and rural life of Roswell and the surrounding country, mirrors the progressiveness and ability of such men as these. Furthermore, the Patterson brothers and Mr. Mocho have at all times been steadfast in their devotion to the city and the surrounding country, and on many occasions have lent their support to the successful promotion of meritorious civic projects.

Roswell and this district are fortunate to have five such men in positions of responsibility and service and this newspaper feels that it merely reflects public opinion in giving this brief tribute to five of the city's more progressive business men.

JOHN H. PHIPPS

Our issue today proposes to call the attention of our readers to some of those progressive and civic-minded people who have contributed their share of time and energy to the building up of Roswell and the surrounding territory to the position of prominence which it now enjoys.

One of these men whom we wish to present to our readers is John H. Phipps of The State TV & Radio Service, whose success can be equally attributed to his business accumen and his knowledge of electronics, with special emphasis on radio and television. He has never spared himself in his aggressive march forward in both business and technnical fields and is a qualified expert in the service and installation of all types of television sets and antennas.

Mr. Phipps is at all times conscious of his civic responsibilities and may be depended upon to meet in every detail the many opportunities which present themselves to be of service to his city.

John Phipps' record of achievements is one of which he may well be proud. His value to his city and this district is an established fact and we are happy to give him the credit which is his just due.

INEZ C. SEALE

Inez C. Seale of The Mighty-Nice Laundry, has earned a well-earned reputation for progressiveness because she has constantly forged ahead in her business, never letting up in her efforts to make the service her laundry renders to the people more valuable. This invariable policy has made The Mighty-Nice Laundry outstanding in its field, a fact that is well known to the public in the Roswell area.

But Mrs. Seale has accomplished much more than just making a success of her business and private affairs, and we take this opportunity to pay tribute to her for devoting what time she could spare to the general welfare not only to her own city but this entire district as well.

It is such women as she, who are both successful in business and appreciative of their civic obligations that are deserving of recognition. We take pleasure in publicly giving Inez Seale the credit for her accomplishments which her friends and associates have so long accorded her.

JULIUS H. BURNSIDE

It is fitting in this review of progressive Roswell business men that we acquaint our readers with the man to be credited with having maintained The R. T. Hoover & Company Inc., in the enviable position it holds in the business and civic life of this area. That personality is Julius H. Burnside whose genius for organization and for converting new ideas into actual deeds has played a vital part in the distinctive reputation which the company now enjoys throughout this entire district.

Mr. Burnside has found time, in addition to his business interests, to give thought and energy to community projects. He is a citizen whose talents have been steadfastly devoted to the best interests of the city. He has been successful in his own business and in the promotion of the general welfare of the community.

We are glad to pay this brief tribute to him and to say that this district owes much to the many benefits which Julius Burnside and The R. T. Hoover Company have rendered to the people of the Pecos Valley.

J. ED. THOMPSON, RAY RANSON GENE CURTIS, O. A. KINNISON AND BOB STILL

In mentioning some of these men who are taking a progressive part in the evolution of the business and civic life of Roswell we would be censured if we failed to include J. Ed Thompson, Ray Ransom, Gene Curtis, O. A. Kinnison and Bob D. Still of The Prudential Insurance Co. of America, a firm that has long been recognized as a leader in the insurance business.

They are those solid types of citizens whose fairness and friendliness and sincere desire to be of service, are accountable for a large measure of their success. And, as time goes on, their personal interests have become more closely interwoven with the business and civic affairs of the city. As a result they have, quite naturally, become accepted as men who can be called upon and who will cheerfully do their part to further the development of those community activities to which they are best fitted to lend assistance.

These five insurance men have, by the conduct of their business and by their attention to civic affairs, earned the friendship and good will of their fellow citizens. They are to be complimented for their activities and we take extreme the desire of their many friends and associates in wishing them all continued success.

WALTER R. RYAN

Generally speaking, civic pride is one of those things that goes hand-in-hand with success, because a man must have been successful to fully appreciate the advantages that were afforded him by the community in which he lives.

Walter R. Ryan, well known and popular farm and ranch loan executive, whose offices are now located at 200 West 1st, is one of those progressive business men of Roswell who has shown his appreciation for his success by his attention to civic matters. His willingness to become a cog in the wheels of community progress, whenever united effort is needed to put over some movement or project advanced for the good of his city, has always been taken for granted.

Mr. Ryan's quiet assumption of responsibility, not only in connection with his own business, but in regard to other matters as well, has often lent a feeling of confidence to others interested in the same movements.

In complimenting Walter Ryan upon his high standing in the community, we do no more than express the admiration and respect of his many friends and associates.

HOWARD L. HANSON

Recognized as one of the more progressive business men of Roswell, Howard L. Hanson of The Hanson Electric Company, performs a real service for the people of his city and his contributions to civic betterment are too well known to require repetition in these columns. His personal success has been achieved, in a large measure, because he never misses an opportunity to further the service his company renders to the public. A policy which has and continues to build up good will for The Hanson Electric Company, throughout this entire district.

Mr. Hanson is deserving of praise and this small tribute is but a just recognition for the many services which he has performed in the way of both business and civic activities. Also his reputation for the successful conduct of his business affairs is no greater than his reputation for the honest precices which characterize his every transaction.

We congratulate Howard L. Hanson on his splendid record and trust he shall continue to service the people of Roswell and the Pecos Valley.

MRS. ARIAS CAFE

Progressiveness coupled with ability, always a praiseworthy feature in the passing scene of any community's daily life, is to be duly appreciated. In full realization of this and in recognition of the splendid personalities which gives impetus to the personal success in their case, many residents of Roswell and our own community regard Mrs. L. A. Tellez and her daughter Delia of Mrs. Arias Cafe as true assets to their city and this district.

They are keeping their cafe at the forefront at all times, both in business and civic activities, and have maintained a position of leadership in their field of endeavor. Capable and energetic in the management of the business they have come to be recognized as two of the city's more progressive business women.

The splendid food and courteous service supplied to the public by Mrs. Tellez and her daughter Delia, and their Mrs. Arias Cafe, which has been in the same location for twenty-seven years, in the past is the best indication of what may be expected of them in the future. They have our admiration and best wishes for continued success.

E. E. PATTERSON, TOM FLETCHER & GLENN AUSTIN

Due to the efforts of a group of wide-awake business men the city of Roswell has attained a dominent position in the commercial life of this section of the state. And three of the men who have justly earned credit for being progressive members of that group are E. E. Patterson, Tom M. Fletcher and Glenn Austin of The Fletcher & Company.

It is because of the successful operation of such a business as theirs that the city of Roswell has earned the reputation of being one of the more progressive communities in this district.

Patterson, Fletcher and Austin are men who have been conspicuously successful in spite of the fact that they have repeatedly neglected their own private affairs to devote a part of their time and efforts to the successful promotion of civic projects.

It is considered a privilege to include Earl Patterson, Tom Fletcher and Glenn Austin in this Roswell review and to publicly give them credit for their success in business and for their many contributions to the general welfare of the city.

W. A. EVANS

Because this is a period of growth and expansion for Roswell, those progressive business men who had the foresight and ability to lay their plans so as to be able to take advantage of those conditions are entitled to more than ordinary acclaim. We are, therefore, glad to pay tribute to W. A. Evans of The Pecos Sales Company, for he has become a well known figure in the business and civic life of the city.

Mr. Evans' persistent optimism and steadfast belief in the continued prosperity of the people of Roswell and the Pecos Valley are characteristics which are deserving of our highest praise.

He has also laways shown a willingness to do his part in civic advancement and has contributed his bit, in one form or another, to projects promoted for the welfare of his city. We believe that men like W. A. Evans are entitled to our sincere praise, both because he has achieved success in his private affairs and because he is willing to contribute to the public good.

RALPH and FRANK BURNWORTH

Ralph and Frank Burnworth of The Burnworth & Coll Company have won the universal respect and good will of the people of Roswell and the surrounding country for the progressive manner in which they have kept the company in the forefront of the business and civic life of this entire district. Also for the efficient and friendly willingness they have displayed in accepting their share of responsibility in aiding civic projects.

The Burnworth's are not the kind of men who make themselves conspicuous by the manner in which they conduct themselves, either in business or other matters. Yet their quiet reserve and air of confidence mark them as men of sound judgment, whose opinions and advice are sought after and listened to with respect.

We compliment Frank and Ralph Burnworth for the successful management of The Burnworth & Coll Company, also for their constructive advice and help on those civic affairs in which they have found time and interest themselves. They are two men whom many are proud to call friend.

J. G. GUTIERREZ SR., AND JR.,

Two of the more progressive business men of Roswell and men who deserve the respect and good will of a great many residents of the city, are capable, friendly J. G. Gutierrez and his son Joe, of The Imperial Plumbing & Heating, whose wide knowledge and long experience in the plumbing, heating and air conditioning business have raised them to positions of prominence in their line.

It is because of this that The Imperial Plumbing & Heating, has earned a reputation for reliability second to none.

They are also civic-minded and have always been ready and willing to contribute their time and energy to any plan which promises to benefit the city. And the people of Roswell may regard with particular satisfaction the many services which they have performed for the community.

We urge our readers to look to Mr. Gutierrez and his son Joe, as progressive business men of whom we may well be proud. Their devotion to their city has been constant and their achievements well merited. We wish them both further success.

BILL KOGLIN

Bill Koglin has proved his progressiveness by constantly adding to and increasing the service which Bill Koglin Sinclair Service Station has extended to the people. The large volume of business handled by his Sinclair station proves that "Service" to him is "not just a word," but something to be rendered to the motoring public to the fullest extent of his ability.

In addition to his close attention to his business affairs, Mr. Koglin was never a man to dodge his civic responsibilities, and help in those matters has always been cheerfully given.

He fully appreciates the value of good will, and has more than his share of that intangible commodity because of the manner in which he meets both business and civic obligations. He is a credit to the community, and is thoroughly established in the forefront of the business life of the city.

Bill Koglin has many friends in and around the city and it is a pleasure to bring him before our readers in this review of progressive Roswell business men.

D. A. HINCH AND O. H. COOKSON

Having well earned reputations for honesty, dependable judgment and a complete knowledge of the insurance and real estate business far above the average, D. A. Hinch and O. H. Cookson of The Hinch Insurance Agency, merit brief tributes in this Roswell review.

Without assumption of seeking public acclaim they have filled their individual places in the community as two of its solid citizens, performing their duties of citizenship quietly, yet efficiently. As leading and progressive business men Mr. Hinch and Mr. Cookson hold high positions in the esteem of the public generally.

It is not only as practical executives whose sound judgment and farsighted planning have brought such fine things to themselves, but it is because of their inspiring optimism and loyal friendships that O. H. Cookson and D. A. Hinch are held in such high regard by the people of this entire district.

We gladly praise the records of these two progressive Roswell business men.

MRS. BRAD L. HAYS AND MRS. WILLIAM YAUK

In compiling this review of progressive Roswell business people, we have endeavored to select those citizens who, by the manner in which they have conducted themselves and their businesses, have earned for them positions of leadership in their various fields of activities. Two such women are Mrs. Brad L. Hays and Mrs. William Yauk of The Hays Children's Shop, who are well known and have many friends and customers throughout the Pecos Valley.

Mrs. Hays and Mrs. Yauk's main interests have not been solely confined to their own business and private affairs, but have also included their contributions, in one form or another, to those projects of a civic nature which come within the scope of their activities.

Mrs. Yauk and Mrs. Hays are women of wide experience whose exploits in the business and civic life of Roswell and vicinity merit more than a passing attention and the writer is privileged to pay this brief tribute to two citizens who well deserve more credit than is accorded them here.

VERNON L. BOWERS

It is not always the kind of a business which determines its importance to the community, but, more or less, the methods used in its management. The services rendered to the public. Any the way in which it meets both business and civic obligations.

The cheerfulness of the entire personnel of The State Securities Inc., in their contacts with the public. And the ready acceptance of all business and civic obligations by Vernon L. Bowers, the manager, proves conclusively that he is a man who is well versed in the principles of successful business management.

As most people know, this company is a leader in the finance business. This is partly so because of their long experience but also because of a never ending policy of keeping abreast of the times in their particular field.

It is a pleasure to compliment V. L. Bowers for the successful management of The State Securities and also for his many contributions to those civic projects aiding in the growth and progress of Roswell and the adjacent territory.

DICK AND MAXINE SAINT

Dick and Maxine Saint are two of the more successful restaurant operators of Roswell who, by maintaining a constant standard of service and high quality foods, has made The Chuck Wagon Cafe one of the more popular eating places in the community. We are glad to give them credit for their well-earned success in a field which is so highly competitive.

It is also a pleasure to give them credit for taking part in community affairs and lending their assistance to various activities and public projects. When to take a part in such matters they always do so without ostentation, but in a quiet manner which lends dignity to their cheerful acceptance of their share of the civic load. It is a pleasure to be associated in the promotion of community activities with such people as Mr. and Mrs. Saint.

This review of progressive and civic-minded people of Roswell would not be complete were we to fail to include Maxine and Dick Saint. Theirs is the kind of success which is deserving of recognition and we wish them both many more years of the same.

F. E. AND J. E. LEVERS

When a man gains recognition for the progressive and straight forward manner in which he has managed his business affairs and also for his generous contributions to civic projects, he is to be complimented for his achievements.

A man belonging in this category is Forest E. Levers of Levers Bros., distributors of Goetz Pale Beverages, and The Levers Oil Company, a business man of Roswell who is regarded with respect and admiration by a great many residents of the city and the surrounding country.

We also think it appropriate in this review to give credit to some of the younger generation who are carrying on so ably in the footsteps of their fathers. And one who certainly deserves such credit is E. J. Levers who now shoulders his full share of responsibility in the management of the business established by his father. It is because of the efforts to such men that, year after year, Roswell continues to grow and prosper and is become an even better place in which to live.

It is men like Mr. Levers and his son Joe, who have a distinct value to their city and we take pleasure in paying them this brief but sincere tribute.

MAX LITTELL

One of the more progressive real estate men of Roswell and one whose success can partly be attributed to a deep insight as to the direction in which the city will develop is Max Littell of The Littell Real Estate Agency. He also has a sound basic knowledge of real estate values and has turned that knowledge to the advantage of the people with whom he does business. And his aggresive methods coupled with his sound and practical ideas have made the services he has rendered to the people more valuable and materially contributed to his well earned success.

Mr. Littell is also civic minded and has always shown a cheerful willingness to contribute his share of time and energy to the promotion of community projects.

It is because of the activities of such progressive business people that, year after year, Roswell continues to show such a healthy growth and expansion, both as a residential and industrial city. We are glad to pay tribute to Max Littell for the part he is playing in the onward progress of his city.

R. J. STEINBERGER AND M. G. PETERS

In every community there are a number of business and professional men who can be pointed out as having taken a three-fold part in the onward progress of their city. Two well known business men of Roswell who belong in this category are R. J. Steinberger and M. G. Peters of The Steinberger Drilling Company.

Their leadership in their line of business is recognized throughout this entire district. And their furtherance of civic activities and support of those organizations whose main objectives are directed along lines of civic betterment and community progress is well known to their immediate associates.

Mr. Steinberger and Mr. Peters are men who are equally well liked and respected by their intimate friends, their associates, and their employees.

They are loyal to the community, thankful for their success in business, and have shown their appreciation by their contributions to various civic movements of benefit to the city.

We congratulate M. G. Peters and R. J. Steinberger for being good citizens, progressive business men and boosters of their home community.

REED MULKEY

Progressive business and professional men too frequently do not receive the credit they have won and are entitled to for the time, effort and energy they have put forth to guide the destiny of Roswell in which they are active. It is therefore with real pleasure that we call our readers' attention to the fine work and aggresive leadership of Reey Mulkey of The Magnolia Petroleum Company.

No city can make progress, grow, and expand as it should without intelligent leadership on the part of its more progressive citizens, who are often inclined to give the "other fellow" most of the credit. It is not praise that they expect or desire. It is the victory of doing and accomplishing civic projects for the general betterment of the community from which they get their satisfaction.

But we cannot refrain from pointing out the unselfishness along these lines by such men as Mr. Mulkey. As far as his fellow citizens are concerned he has always done his part in the way of civic betterment and community progress.

PATRICK R. AND G. J. BALDINELL

To serve the public honestly, efficiently and cheerfully, is the basic foundation many progressive business men and women of Roswell have found to be the shortest route to success. In making this statement the personalities we have in mind are Patrick R. Baldinell and his brother, G. J. Baldinell of Baldinell Bros. The popularity and patronage enjoyed by their many services accentuates the ideals of courtesy which they have consistently applied in the management of their business.

The conduct of such businesses and the people who operate them have done much to make Roswell the business center for many miles around. And it is fitting that we give credit where credit is due to such men as the Baldinell brothers for their part in the onward progress of the city.

G. J. and Pat Baldinell have earned their success by the method in which they have served the public and accepted both business and civic responsibilities and we trust they will both continue to prosper.

DANIEL LEHMAN

Daniel Lehman of The New Mexico Mercantile Company, is one of those men who have helped Roswell grow and who has, at all times, assisted in every manner possible to promote that growth. One of his principle objects in life has been to see his city take its proper place as a leader and one of the more progressive cities in the state. And he has helped, whenever help was needed, to obtain that objective. The community has gone forward on the impetus of civic activities to which he has been able to lend assistance. He more than deserves the respect and good will which he has earned, and we and his friends are confident that he will continue to maintain his usual integrity and high standards.

Chino-Gutierrez Wedding Solemnized At Mescalero

A wedding of wide interest occurred Saturday afternoon, August 1, in the Mescalero Reformed church, when Miss Patricia Gutierrez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mercelino Gutierrez of Santa Clara Pueblo near Santa Fe, became the bride of Reverend Wendell Chino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chino of Mescalero.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Reverend Reuben Ten Haken.

The bride's wedding gown was fashioned of white satin with train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a bandeau seeded with pearls. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations.

Lonnie Hardin, superintendent of the Mescalero Indian reservation, gave the bride away.

In a gown of blue net over taffeta, Mrs. Dorothy Stewart served as maid of honor. Mrs. Frank Chino of Mescalero, Mrs. Cecil Jones of Albuquerque, and Miss Beverly Ten Haken of Mescalero, were bridesmaids. Styled identical to the costume of the maid of honor, Mrs. Chino's ensemble was in aqua, Mrs. Jones' in blue, and Miss Haken's in gold. They carried matching bouquets.

The flower girl, little Miss Beth Ten Haken, wore a gown of yellow, and carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds with coral streamers. Ring bearer was little Bobbie Ten Haken.

The groom's attendant was Frank Chino, a brother. Ushers were Cecil Jones, Jonah Washington, and Riley Chino.

Wedding music featured Mrs. Vance Block of Bent, New Mexico, who was accompanist for vocalist Mr. Black. His songs were, "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Altar decorations were baskets of white daisies, lavender and white gladioli, lavender dahlias and ferns. White tapers burned in seven branch candelabra.

Mrs. David Kazhe was in charge of the flower arrangement.

The couple was honored, following the ceremony, in the garden at the Ten Haken home, Reverend and Mrs. Ten Haken entertaining at the reception. There were 150 guests in attendance.

Assisting in the reception were Mrs. John Hall, Mrs. Elsie Chino, Mrs. Leland Carl, Mrs. Jonah Washington, Mrs. Wheeler Cayton, and Mrs. James Hassell. Superintendent of the Mescalero hospital, and a sister of the bride, Mrs. Pita Cajeto, presided at the guest book.

Present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hassel of Dulce, Reverend Roe Lewis and Roger Davis of Cook's Theological school in Phoenix, Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Mobley, Mrs. Tom Charles, and Harry Keller of Alamogordo.

The bride is a graduate of the Santa Fe Indian school and Regina School of Nursing in Albuquerque. She was formerly a nurse in the Mescalero hospital.

The bridegroom, a member of a prominent Mescalero family, also is a graduate of the Santa Fe Indian school and received his degree from Western Theological Seminary in Holland, Michigan. He is associate pastor of the Mescalero Reformed Church which has a membership of 350. He is also head of the Tribal Council, governing body of the Mescalero Indian reservation.

Mr. and Mrs. Chino will be at home in Mescalero after a two weeks wedding trip to Yellowstone.

Reverend Chino is the first Apache Indian to be ordained as a minister of the gospel.

GEORGE W. LITTLEFIELD

Roswell owes much to those progressive citizens who have taken an active part in the growth and progress of the city and who have helped to make it the business center for this section, and who also have contributed, in some manner, to the exploration and development of the petroleum resources of the state. In mentioning some of these men it is only fair to include George W. Littlefield, well-known Roswell oil man, whose offices are now located in the Ramona Building.

He deserves a great deal of credit for his success in both business and civic activities.

Mr. Littlefield is wholly deserving of our sincere praise and these few words of commendation are but a just recognition for the many activities he has conducted on behalf of the general welfare of the community. The honest and successful conduct of his business affairs is but a reflection of his character. We trust that George Littlefield will continue to serve Roswell and vicinity for many years.

ROBERT GEE AND JACK CHEW

To be a consistent and persistent booster of the home community often takes courage and plenty of optimism. It is because of their unfailing faith in the future of Roswell and the surrounding country and their unflagging efforts to promote its development, that Robert Gee and Jack Chew are selected now for this brief tribute.

Mr. Gee and Mr. Chew have proven very ably that they are restaurant operators of unusual ability, for it is largely to their ideals of service coupled with a determination to serve only the very best of Chinese and American foods that The China Cafe, and the newly acquired Atomic Drive Inn, 1401 Southeast Main, hold their high positions in the public's favor. And their personality and energy in directing the operations of the business are important factors in their outstanding business.

We are glad to pay tribute to Jack Chew and Robert Gee and to point out to our readers that their's is the guiding influence responsible for the splendid service and delicious foods to be had at The New China Cafe, and The Atomic Drive-Inn in Roswell.

RALPH A. MEADOWS

In bestowing credit upon some of those progressive business men of Roswell and vicinity, who in one way or another, have contributed their bit to improve both business and civic conditions, we wish to say a few words about Ralph A. Meadows of The Meadows Service Station, located in the twenty nine hundred block on North Main.

Mr. Meadows has set a standard for himself and the operation of his business that, under existing conditions, has been extremely difficult to maintain. However, that he has done so is proven by the large volume of business which his Numex station continues to handle, much of which is due to his unceasing attention to detail and his ability to cope with new and unexpected problems.

Ralph Meadows is also civic-minded, and has, when asked, cheerfully cooperated on those civic activities to which he has been able to lend assistance. He more than deserves the respect and good will which he has earned, and we and his friends are confident that he will continue to maintain his usual integrity and high standards.

National Farm Bureau Official Likes 'Grass Roots' Planning; Slams Methods Under Brannan

Farm Bureau officials, members and guests gathered from all over the state at Cloudcroft Tuesday and Wednesday, at a meeting of the State Farm Bureau Board.

The meeting was attended by the state board and also by the presidents, secretaries and directors of the county and Farm Bureau units.

Senator Clinton P. Anderson, expected to be present, was unable to attend.

Main speaker on the agenda for Tuesday was Roger Fleming, of Washington, D. C., national secretary and treasurer of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

In his remarks, Fleming lashed out at the administration of former Secretary of Agriculture Brannan whom he said submitted a farm program conceived by the government officials and designed, he said, to obtain an endorsement of the Brannan plan and of the government bureau heads. "It was like sending the preacher's wife among the congregation to find out the standing of the preacher," Fleming said. He called Brannan's methods "undemocratic" and alleged that the agricultural program under Brannan was planned by a few rather than by many concerned.

The remarks of Fleming were challenged by G. Verner Clayton of Tularosa, who, as PMA chairman, had held discussions of the proposed agricultural program in all sections of Otero County before Farm Bureau chapters.

Fleming praised the methods of present Secretary of Agriculture Benson in calling together representatives of the three major farm groups, the Farm Bureau, National Grange and Farmers' Union to formulate a program from the "grass roots" rather than from the "top."

In other remarks, Benson stressed the point that Farm Bureau members should not concern themselves only with the activities of the Agricutural department, but were just as concerned with the policies of all other government departments.

Fleming said that Benson, in calling for formulation of a national farm policy, has outlined to the farm organizations, five general questions, but the Farm Bureau, said Fleming, proposes to make a more exhaustive survey than Benson has asked, in determining what the basic policies should be.

Fleming explained the Farm Bureau's stand on other government programs, including the Rural Electrification program and Soil Conservation.

He said that contrary to some conception that the Farm Bureau is against the REA program, the Farm Bureau actually lauds REA accomplishments in bringing electricity to 20 per cent of the rural homes; however, he said the Bureau did not believe an increase in administrative personnel was justified to include the remaining 10 per cent of farm homes in the program. Fleming also indicated that the National Farm Bureau supports the S.C.S. program, but said that a curtailment of costs in this department had been advocated if other government departments are to be curtailed to reduce taxes.

State Senator T. E. Lusk of Carlsbad gave the group an explanation of the 11 proposed constitutional amendments to be voted upon on September 15.

The Tularosa Chamber of Commerce sent the meeting three bushels of Tularosa peaches, which were eaten with apparent relish.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Klopfer of Lavorcita Canyon presented a large bouquet of gladioli which were reserved for auction, the proceeds to go to the Otero County Fair.

Tuesday's session ended with dinner, entertainment and dancing at The Lodge. Entertainment was by the "Mexican Hat Dancers," of La Luz, including Clara Garcia, Virginia Chavez and Raymond Garcia.

On Wednesday's program, Floyd Lee, of San Isidro, president of the N. M. Wool Growers' Assn., outlined a plan for the increase in consumption and improved prices of beef, pork and wool. This will be done by advocating that restaurants include more beef or pork on their menus, and by a promotion in the use of wool, Lee said. An effort will be made to increase the per capita consumption of beef by four pounds per year, Lee reported.

Several resolutions relating to recommendations for better management of U. S. Forests were being prepared for submission to the next general annual meeting. It was also reported that several cases will be tested to determine authority of Forest officials to kill livestock grazing in unauthorized areas of forest, without proper notice to owners. It was alleged that such cases have occurred in the northern part of the state.

A discussion on the present teacher tenure law in the state was led by W. P. Thorpe of Las Cruces. Ben MacAlister, of Portales, state Bureau vice president, and Mrs. Schulmeister, of Albuquerque, who had conferred with committees of the N. M. Education Assn. and of the P. T. A. had concluded that the present law protects the incompetent teacher, and a law to eliminate the bad features of the present one will be advocated, it was reported.

State Representative Andrew Cockwood of Clovis advocated that other counties than the five now participating, take part in the Extension Service Experimental Research program, in cooperation with the State college. He explained the plan in which test plots are used in finding means to increase yields and quality of farm products.

The Bureau meeting wound up Wednesday with the consideration of several proposed amendments to the state by-laws.

THE LOVES OF CLEOPATRA are told in Columbia Pictures' spectacular new Technicolor production, "Serpent of the Nile," starring Rhonda Fleming and William Lundigan at the Pueblo Theatre next Tuesday only.

Hurd Painting To Be Presented Lincoln Museum

A painting by Peter Hurd will be presented to the Old Courthouse Museum in Lincoln on Sunday, August 9, by Thomas Fortune Ryan, II of Three Rivers, N. M. The painting, a portrait of the winner of the 1952 Kids Rodeo in Three Rivers, Gerald Marr, was commissioned by Mr. Ryan as part of the prize to the Rodeo's champion.

Under the tutelage of Babers, himself a well-known rodeo rider and polo player, young Marr distinguished himself as a good, all-round rodeo rider. As another part of his prize, he was sent by Mr. Ryan to the Kids Rodeo in El Paso in 1952.

Presentation of the painting will be made at the Old Lincoln County Courthouse at 1:00 p. m. Sunday, Aug. 9. Participating in the ceremony will be Tom Babers, Bert Fiedler, Secretary of the Old Lincoln County Memorial Commission, and John Boylan, Curator-Custodian of the Old Courthouse Museum. This demonstration showed me the way to a better deal!
I'd been planning to buy a higher-priced car until I found out all Chevrolet offered— and how much I could save!
You get more power on less gas
That's because Chevrolet's two great valve-in-head engines are high-compression engines. In Powerglide* models, you get the most powerful engine in Chevrolet's field — the new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame." Gear-shift models offer the advanced 108-h.p "Thrift-King" engine.
And it's the lowest-priced line
A demonstration will show you that Chevrolet offers just about everything you could want. Yet it's the lowest-priced line in the low-price field.
*Combination of Powerglide automatic transmission and 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine optional at extra cost on "Two-Ten" and Bel Air models.
You're "sitting pretty" behind the wheel
Take the Bel Air model. First thing you'll notice is the quality of the interior. Rich-looking appointments. Roomy seats with foam rubber cushions. Turn the key to start the engine and you're ready to go.
You can see all around
You look out and down through a wide, curved, one-piece windshield. The panoramic rear window and big side windows provide a clear view in all directions.
Biggest brakes for smoother, easier stops
An easy nudge on the pedal brings smooth, positive response—right now! Chevrolet's improved brakes are the largest in the low-price field.
It's heavier for better roadability
You're in for a pleasant surprise at the smooth, steady, big-car ride of this new Chevrolet. One reason is that, model for model, Chevrolet will weigh up to 200 pounds more than the other low-priced cars.
You get greater getaway with the new Powerglide*
A lot finer performance on a lot less gas. That's what you get with the new Powerglide automatic transmission. There's no more advanced automatic transmission at any price.
Let us demonstrate all the advantages of buying a Chevrolet now!

Otero County To Vote On Liquor Sales Issue

Otero county residents will vote for or against the sale of alcoholic beverages sometime in the next three months.

The revelation came last Friday when County Clerk Lucille Alexander, Mrs. M. M. Ward, and Wilson Bennett completed checking the names on a petition circulated by Mrs. Warrd and the Civic Loyalty League.

Checking revealed 1257 legal signatures on the petition. The number is 45 more than the required 1212 signatures, based on the necessity of one-fourth of the total registrants voting in the last gubernatorial election.

The board of county commissioners accepted the petition in a regular meeting Monday.

Exact date for the so-called "wet dry election" has not been set. A special state election has been called for September 15. The law is that any special local election must be at least 30 days prior to or following such an election, and within 60 days of that election.

Another complication is that registration must be open prior to the election, closing thirty days before the date. Therefore, it is not legally possible to conduct the county wet dry election until late October or early November.

Success of the petition came only after a second circulation. The original counting several weeks ago showed that hundreds of signatures were illegal since they did not correspond exactly to the way they were listed on registration lists.

When the issue was first brought up, lines were sharply drawn between the interested factions. District Attorney C. C. Chase of Las Cruces made a statement opposing the election because (1) it would cost an amount which the county cannot afford; (2) there would be an abrupt loss of revenue to the county reflected in the discontinuance of liquor licenses; and (3) the expense and problems of enforcing liquor prohibition would be too great for the county.

Wilson Bennett, spokesman for the "wet" faction, used similar reasons in his opposition stand.

D. R. Trolinger, executive secretary of the New Mexico Temperance league, issued a statement which said in part, "Local option elections are home rule elections, in which local citizens go to the polls and decide for themselves whether they want a clean, morally decent community, or one that is corrupted by liquor traffic."

Citizens of Alamogordo and Otero county will decide the question in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Samelson and son, Chris, are to leave next week on a vacation to the west coast where Chris is to get a view of an ocean, Oscar reported.

Miss Joyce Hawkins registered 75 guests who called between 6:30 and 8:30 o'clock.

The refreshment table was centered with double plastic hearts flanked with roses and fern and lighted with candles. Lettered on the hearts were "Dave and Lillah Jane Aug. 25."

Mrs. A. A. Reynolds and Mrs. Robert McCoy presided at the table. Others in the house party were Mrs. Alva Smith, Miss Marsha Davis and Miss Nancy Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Chubby Hicks are visiting in Lubbock.

WESTERN TO OFFER NEW SCHOLARSHIP

New Mexico Western College at Silver City will offer a $250 scholarship, which will be known as the Watts Clinic Scholarship. The Doctors of Watts Clinic will give the scholarship, subject to selections of candidates selected by the college committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Nash Duke of Mason, Tex., operators of the Liberty Bell Courts there, vacationed here last week-end.

Joe Sanchez of Green Tree is in Albuquerque where he was to have undergone an operation Thursday this week. Friends of Joe are making up a fund in behalf of him and his family at Harris Builders Supply in Green Tree.

Preston Black of Bent, N. M., is reported in good condition in Southwestern General Hospital in El Paso following surgery.

Mrs. R. K. Knox plans a trip to Oklahoma City Monday and anyone desiring transportation to that point is welcome to go with her, she says. She'd like a companion on the trip.

Mrs. Ada Adley, Lubbock, Tex., was here on a holiday over the week-end.
